WRECKAGE OF THE EIELSON PLANE FOUND

Airmen Searching Northland Unable to Find Bodies of Missing Fliers, However

Seattle, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Half the mystery of the disappearance November 9 of Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland was solved today with discovery of their wrecked plane in an icy lair 90 miles southwest of the bodies of the two American aviators from the wreckage kept a bare hope that they may still be alive.

The hope of optimism was extremely faint, however, as experienced fliers said they believed the plane struck with such force as to kill the aviators and throw them from the ship. It was pointed out that snow might have concealed the bodies from Pilots Joe Crosson and Harold Gilliam, who found the wreck Saturday.

Crosson and Gilliam took off again yesterday from the fur trading ship Naunuk, icebound at North Cape, for the scene of the wreck. Eielson and Borland were attempting a flight from Alaska to the Nanuk when they crashed. They had removed one load of passengers and furs and were returning for a second.

With Crosson and Gilliam were a representative of the Russian trading company. Dog teams preceded the plane and will join in a search for the missing fliers.

Crossin first to sight the Eielson plane signalled to Gilliam and the two fliers brought their machines down near the wreck.

The condition of the plane, Crosson said, indicated that both its occupants were killed in the landing but he and Gilliam were unable in the short time available to find any of the bodies.

One wing of the Eielson-Borland plane was crumpled in landing, while the motor was torn out of the craft and was found 100 feet from the fuselage. The tail was broken.

Those who were enroute to the wreck were to clear away the snow and make a thorough search for the bodies of the missing men. Because of slowness of communication at this season of the year in the north it was not expected that the men engaged in the search would be able to report their progress for some time.

Only the parents of Borland, among the two aviators, appeared to retain hope that they may have escaped alive. Absence of skis from the plane and the fact that the two were reported to have been equipped with parachutes was the principal basis for their hope.

Provisions in the plane were untouched, a circumstance which apparently confirmed the belief that Borland and Eielson were killed.

The two-month search for Eielson and Borland, both experienced Arctic aviators, has been an epic of heroism and patience under the most adverse weather at the command of the northland.

When the two took off from Nome, Alaska, for the Nanuk they were accompanied in another plane by Frank Dorbrandt. Dorbrandt turned back to Teller, Alaska, when visibility became poor, but Eielson flew into the storm.

It was nine days before Dorbrandt was able to get into the air again and poor visibility then kept him from reaching the Nanuk.

Little fear was felt for the missing fliers immediately for they carried ample provisions, a gasoline stove and clothing and emergency sleds designed to withstand the Arctic temperatures. Dog team drivers and natives searched the country around the Nanuk but it was December 19 before Crosson and Gilliam flew to North Cape to join the hunt.

A dozen other plan crashed at Nome and Teller to aid in the search but were defeated in their object by the weather and accidents. During their attempts to reach Siberia Capt. Pat Reid, Canadian pilot, and mechanics William Hughes and Jim Hutchinson were forced down in a severe snowstorm near Norton Sound, Alaska. Almost a week of delay in the search for Eielson and Borland was occasioned while planes scoured the country for the Canadians. The three arrived at Unalakleet after making emergency repairs to a damaged plane.

Woman Blinded When Man Throws Acid in Her Face

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(AP)—A vial of acid was thrown into the face of Miss Bertha St. Clair last night by an elderly, well dressed man who escaped.

Miss St. Clair, a stenographer could give no better description of her assailant. She faces the prospect of disfigurement and possible loss of her eyesight.

TWO SENATORS ASK REMOVAL OF DRY HEAD

Borah and Wheeler Would Oust Prohibition Director of Montana and Idaho

Washington, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Immediate removal of John F. C. Herber as prohibition administrator of Montana and Idaho, was demanded in the Senate today by Senators Borah, Idaho, and Wheeler, Montana, on the ground of charges placed before them by Department of Justice investigators.

Wheeler accompanied his demand with a declaration that prohibition enforcement had broken down. He blamed the "politicians" and called upon the Law Enforcement Commission to summon members of the Republican national committee before it to determine "how prohibition officers are appointed."

Both Wheeler and Borah said they had been informed that the Department of Justice had investigated Herber when he was prohibition administrator for Maryland and had reported "malfeasance and corruption."

"If the facts be true as reported to me by a representative of the Department of Justice," said Borah, "this man has no business in Idaho or Montana, or anywhere else outside of the penitentiary."

Wheeler said "Unless the administration takes Herber out of Montana I will call for an investigation and I will insist that the Department of Justice makes public its evidence."

Naval Dirigible Back in Hangar After Long Trip

Lakehurst, N. J., Jan. 27.—(AP)—The naval dirigible Los Angeles was back in its hangar today after a three-day flight that took it as far south as St. Augustine, Fla. The ship returned at 10:40 o'clock last night.

During its flight the dirigible made two landings at Parris Island, S. C., and tested a new mooring mast erected there. While at St. Augustine the radio compass was calibrated.

Lieutenant Commander H. V. Wiley, who commanded the ship, said the flight was "uneventful."

Ansley Wilcox Dead at Buffalo

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Ansley Wilcox, friend of four Presidents and schoolmate of Woodrow Wilson, died yesterday. He was 74 years old.

Theodore Roosevelt was a guest in the home of Mr. Wilcox at the time President McKinley was assassinated while attending the Pan-American Exposition in September, 1901. The vice-President donned a coat belonging to Mr. Wilcox, was induced into office and held his first cabinet meeting in the Wilcox home.

President Grover Cleveland and William Howard Taft also were his friends.

Mr. Wilcox was born in Summerville, now a part of Augusta, Ga., January 27, 1856, where he knew Mr. Wilson. He was a graduate of Yale University and studied at Oxford.

He was a prominent lawyer and took an active interest in state legislation pertaining to public health and civil service reform.

Americans Are Threatened By Manila Gangs

Manila, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Anti-Fillipino riots in California which have caused wide spread discussion in Manila today have brought threats from Manila gangster chieftains against Americans. Authorities, however, gave prompt assurance that Americans were in no danger.

Police Chief C. E. Pitts announced precautions were being taken to guard cabarets and strategic points in the city where isolated attacks were possible against individuals but expressed confidence that there would be no outbreaks. Labor leaders joined in the assurance.

CHICAGO CITY SCHOOLS FACE FUEL PROBLEM

Will Ask Coal Dealers to Continue to Deliver Coal Until Pay Is In Sight

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Dwindling coal bins in the public schools kindled interest anew today in Chicago's empty bags.

As some city officials frowned upon the rescue pool of $20,000,000 pledged to Silas H. Strawn, head of the citizen's committee, H. Wallace Caldwell, president of the board of education, prepared to ask the board's coal dealers to continue deliveries of coal despite the lack of cash and a present unpaid coal bill of $480,000.

There will be a respite until Wednesday. On that day, Strawn will confer with the city council finance committee relative to setting in motion the financial pool pledged to aid the city government.

Originally set at $50,000,000, the pool has $20,000,000 in pledges from business, industrial and railroad interest to be used in loans on tax anticipation warrants. No money will be loaned any of the governments. Strawn asserted, unless cooperation is pledged to reduce operating expenses to a minimum. And the committee has reserved the right to indicate for what purpose the money shall be spent.

While Mayor William Hale Thompson was still at loggerheads with the Trawn plan of relief, Chairman John S. Clark of the council finance committee, said he believed the council would pledge the requested co-operation.

"There is no alternative," he declared. "The banks will loan no money, and the Strawn committee holds the only purse strings available."

Officials of the Cook county board and the Chicago Sanitary district with the Strawns plan.

Each day places the local governments deeper in debt. Already, $290,000,000 indebtedness has accrued in anticipation of uncollected 1928 and 1929 taxes—while interest of loans amounts to $50,000 daily.

Teachers, policemen and nurses are behind a month's pay; the mother's pension fund is exhausted and the municipal tuberculosis sanitarium is in want.

URGES EARLY TRANSFER OF "DRY" UNIT

Attorney General Asks House Committee to Expedite Action On Prohibition

Washington, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Attorney General Mitchell today urged the house expenditures committee to expedite action on legislation to transfer the prohibition enforcement unit from the treasury to the justice department.

Mitchell said he was in accord with the recommendation of Secretary Mellon before the committee favoring the transfer and endorsed the Williamson bill to effect this change.

Attorneys in the treasury department connected with the prohibition unit would be transferred to the justice department along with the agents in order to carry on prosecutions, Mitchell said.

He opposed putting prohibition unit attorneys under the civil service, and said they would be absorbed in the office of the justice department on an equal basis with those already in service.

Many things under the bill, the attorney general said, would have to be worked out as administrative problems.

Representative Schafer, Republican, Wisconsin, asked "why not put all United States attorneys in the civil service?"

Mitchell replied that the question was not pertinent to the matter under discussion but added his department felt that attorneys used for the special work should not be placed under civil service.

RALEIGH GIRL PASSES AIRPLANE PILOT'S TEST
Raleigh, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Miss Annie Laurie Underwood, Raleigh's only girl airplane pilot, yesterday afternoon successfully passed the Department of Commerce test and was granted a private pilot's license. It was learned today. Miss Underwood was said at the local Curtiss-Wright offices to be the first woman to receive a pilot's license in North Carolina.

Naval Conference Moves Toward Compromise On Two Troublesome Issues

By BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

London, Jan. 27.—As the naval powers moved toward compromise today on two of their most troublesome problems—the physical methods of limiting fleets and Italy's demand for parity with France—Great Britain made a new gesture of faith in the naval conference success by announcing that construction of her two newest cruisers has been cancelled.

The British announcement coincided with a meeting of the "big five" in Downing street at which further progress was said to have been made toward a compromise on a tonnage plan designed to settle the perennial argument on this technical phase of naval limitation.

At the same time it was disclosed that serious consideration was being given by several delegations to a proposal that the Italian parity problem be met by a treaty declaration in which all powers would join.

This would state that the sovereign right of every nation to build an adequate fleet was fully recognized but that the signatories voluntarily agree not to exceed a certain construction program between now and 1936.

The twin attack on two of the most difficult of the conference problems, coinciding with the British cruiser cancellation announcement, started the second week of the conference in an atmosphere of smiling confidence. It was emphasized on all sides, however, that neither of the compromise formulas has yet been accepted and that much remained to be done even if these two obstacles should be overcome.

The tonnage measurement plan which was discussed for more than two hours at the Downing street session, had been under study even before the conference began, but the proposal to straighten out the Franco-Italian question apparently developed overnight. This latter idea has not yet been reduced to writing and it is not known whether it will be fully acceptable to Mus-solini's government although first reactions appeared hopeful.

As it stood in tentative form, the suggestion was that the five chief naval powers join in a declaration, perhaps in the preamble of a limitation treaty, saying that the sovereign privilege of possessing a navy of any size could not be abridged except voluntarily. This, in effect, would do away with any fixed ratio understanding such as was laid down in the Washington treaty. Then, in the body of the treaty, each power would stipulate the outside limits on its building needs between now and the conference of 1936 when the whole situation is expected to come under review again in conformity with the agreement reached at Washington.

Whether application of this general formula to the Italian situation would be supplemented by a security pact covering the Mediterranean, as has been suggested by France, remains for future determination. A spokesman for the American delegation said today there had been no discussion whether the United States would be willing to join such a pact in a consultative capacity.

Today's Downing street meeting of the big five was the longest yet held. The delegation heads discussed a detailed proposal for the conference program with the tonnage measurement question uppermost. The compromise plan would lay down limitations for each specific class of warship, but would defer to French views by allowing a certain percentage of total tonnage to be diverted from one class to another.

Announcement of cancellation of work on the British cruisers Surry and Northumberland was made by the Admiralty without explanation. These are the two ships on which Prime Minister MacDonald suspended work shortly before his visit to the United States last year. The absence of official comment on today's announcement was taken as further evidence of Great Britain's faith that some agreement would be reached during the present negotiations.

Mr. McLean's statement declared in supporting Senator Simmons he "surrendered his own ambitions" to run for the Senate. The statement was prepared last night and issued to the press this morning.

The statement was given to the editor of the Robesonian last night with instructions that it was not to be released until today.

"I do not see why there should be any doubt as to my position in the senatorial contest. After giving the matter most serious consideration, I reached the conclusion that the best interest of the Democratic party and solidarity would be best subserved by the renomination of Senator Simmons, notwithstanding the fact that during the last campaign I followed my own convictions and loyally supported the national ticket of other Democrats who took a contrary view.

"No Democrat in the State differed with Senator Simmons more emphatically than I did. It seems to me to be the duty of every Democrat in this hour to weigh the present situation with the greatest deliberation and take such course in the impending contest as he conscientiously believes to be for the best interest of the Democratic party in the future without regard to differences of opinion in the past campaign.

"I applied this formula to my own case and reached the conclusion that it would be best for the party that there should be no opposition to Senator Simmons and therefore I decided that I would not enter the contest myself. I believed then and believe now that in the present unfortunate posture of party affairs it is the duty of every loyal Democrat to put the future interest of the party far above any mere question of rewarding one man or punishing another. In reaching a decision it became necessary for me to renounce my own ambition to represent North Carolina in the Senate.

"The same reason that impelled me to forego my own candidacy impel me to support Senator Simmons instead of his opponent, Mr. Bailey. I have no criticism to make of any of my friends who feel it their duty to pursue a different course."

The former governor made his statement after the editor of the Robesonian had remarked: "There is still a good deal of speculation as to whether you will support Senator Simmons or Mr. Bailey in the contest now pending."

A. W. McLEAN WILL SUPPORT SEN. SIMMONS

Former Governor Surrenders Own Ambitions for Senator in Taking This Action

Lumberton, Jan. 27.—(AP)—In a statement issued today, former governor, Angus W. McLean declared he will support Senator F. M. Simmons in his contest with Josiah W. Bailey, Raleigh lawyer, for the Democratic nomination at the June primary.

Mr. McLean's statement declared in supporting Senator Simmons he "surrendered his own ambitions" to run for the Senate. The statement was prepared last night and issued to the press this morning.

The statement was given to the editor of the Robesonian last night with instructions that it was not to be released until today.

Student Fliers Bound For S. C.
Raleigh, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Sixteen airplanes, carrying student pilots and instructors, left Raleigh between 8:30 and 9 o'clock this morning for Columbia, S. C.

Fifteen of the planes arrived here yesterday from Richmond, Va., where they had made a stop for gasoline. The party is enroute from Valley Stream, Long Island, to Cuban and Florida points as a training trip. One Raleigh plane joined the party here.

Dale "Red" Jackson, co-holder of the world's refueling endurance flight record, who did stunt flying here yesterday before a crowd estimated at 10,000 persons, joined the students' flight and led one of three groups to hop off.

In three sections the party took the air at 8:30, 8:40 and 9 o'clock.

Tobacco Market Averaged $18.89

In the report of the closing of the Greenville tobacco market carried in the columns of this paper Saturday afternoon it was stated that the average price for the season was given at $11.89. It was a mistake, which we correct with pleasure. It should have read $18.89.

LOCAL POWER PLANT SHOWS BIG GROWTH

Several Visitors Attended Annual Oyster Roast of Commission Friday Night

The annual oyster roast of the Greenville Water and Light Commission was held at the plant on Tar River last Friday night with numbers of city officials and visitors from this and surrounding towns in attendance.

Aside from enjoying a bountiful spread of oysters, the visitors were given an opportunity of inspecting the plant, one of the finest in Eastern North Carolina. Superintendent Martin Swartz accompanied the visitors on the inspection tour and furnished information concerning the growth of the plant during the past year.

There was no speech making in connection with the event. Every body was permitted to look over the plant as many questions as he wanted to, and then to eat, as many oysters as he could possibly hold. It is needless to say that the oysters disappeared with amazing rapidity, and the questions brought forth virtually every phase of development the plant made last years and the years previous.

Superintendent Swartz and members of the commission are proud of the plant. They are also proud of the record of service they have been able to give the people of this community over a period of many years. Service has been continuous over a period of several years with only a break of a few minutes duration. That occurred several weeks ago when a generator gave out. Another machine was set in motion in a few minutes, however, and service was continued day and night without further interruption.

Another thing the commission is proud of and that is the price at which they are able to furnish service for this and numbers of surrounding communities. The rate is as low as any town in Eastern Carolina, and considerably lower than many.

The development of the power plant has been a source of much interest not only to people here at home but to those of other cities and this fact was brought out Friday night when numbers of the visitors expressed amazement at the facilities afforded here. It was generally agreed that the plant is one of the finest in the section of the state and should be able to serve a great increase in business over a period of years.

Mrs. Felton Buried At Arlington Sun.
Cartersville, Ga., Jan. 27.—(AP)—The body of Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton, only woman ever to sit in the United States Senate, lay today beside that of her husband.

Mourning as a leader of the Woman's Suffrage movement, and a pioneer temperance worker, Georgia's grand old lady, who died last Friday at the age of 94, was buried here yesterday, in the village in which she spent three quarters of a century.

Neighbors of a lifetime and those high in public life who knew her during the brief period in 1922 when she sat in the Senate upon appointment by former Governor Thomas Hardwick joined in paying tribute to Mrs. Felton.

After a funeral sermon delivered in a church named for Sam Jones, celebrated evangelist, who was one of Mrs. Felton's school pupils, her body was interred in a mausoleum she had built in honor of her husband, the late Dr. W. H. Felton. Dr. Felton served several terms in Congress as a representative from Georgia.

Six Blinded By Drinking Alcohol
Gary, Ind., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Six men were found groping their way along a Calumet City street last night. They had been drinking alcohol, they told police. All may be permanently blinded, physicians declared, and the minds of three of them appeared to have been affected.

The one member of the group whom police found rational said the men had purchased the alcohol from a Hammond druggist, explaining that they wanted it to remove varnish.

WARN FARMER AGAINST OVER PRODUCTION

Department of Agriculture Sees Improvement Marketing Credit Condition This Year

Washington, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The American farmer is advised by the Department of Agriculture that he may expect more favorable marketing credit conditions this year and a somewhat greater supply of labor at slightly lower wages, but is warned against imminent over production in several lines.

The department's annual farm outlook report, issued for publication today, forecast a lessened demand for farm products through the summer and fall, as compared with the same seasons of 1929, although an improved domestic market was predicted for the closing weeks of the year.

This report is regarded by the department as "probably the most important" of its annual economic studies. It is issued for the purpose of guiding the farmer in adjusting his production to meet the needs of the nation.

The forecast for 1930 listed more favorable farm mortgage financing conditions, no immediate change in the price of fertilizers, an unchanged price level for farm machinery and less satisfactory production credit conditions than a year ago in most of the south.

Wheat prices were forecast as much the same as those prevailing throughout 1929 unless winter damage should prove severe or the spring acreage is reduced.

Cotton growers were warned against increased acreage, the report pointing out that for the last five years, with the exception of 1927, both acreage and production have been at a comparatively high level.

Dairymen were advised to cull their herds closely and send more heifers to slaughter in order to avoid a continued increase in dairy herds in 1931 and 1932. The general situation in the dairying industry was said to be "not as bad as would appear from present butter prices."

Present prospects for flue-cured tobacco, the report said, were only fair.

"While the demand is expected to maintain the average growth of recent years," the statement said, "the supply may increase more than enough to offset this."

The outlook for exports to China was said to be uncertain because of the recent drastic slump in Chinese exchange. On the other hand, the production of tobacco similar to American flue-cured in the British colonies was said to have received a severe setback and the threat of important competition from that source was reported to be temporarily abated.

Increases in acreage of Virginia and Maryland flue-cured were said to be seemingly justified while acreage about the same as for last year was recommended for Henderson stemming, Green River and Virginia sun-cured. Decreased acreage for flue-cured, burley, one sucker and Kentucky and Tennessee flue-cured of types 22 and 23 were urged. The outlook for cigar types, the report said, continued favorable but it was added that further increase in acreage did not seem advisable save in Havana seed and possible English shade grown.

"Acreage planned in 1930 will probably show an increase," the report said. "The acreage of type 11 grown in central and north central North Carolina and southern Virginia and type 12 grown in eastern North Carolina will probably be maintained or slightly increased over that of 1929."

The report said that tobacco consuming habits continued to develop along lines that have been apparent in recent years and that cigarette consumption was steadily expanding.

Flier Killed In California

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Lieutenant Norman A. Goddard, former navy flier and recently operator of a Palo Alto aviation school, is dead as the result of the collapse of a glider in which he attempted to execute a loop yesterday over the Alameda airport.

The frail craft collapsed as Goddard pulled it out of a dive preparatory to looping at an altitude of 3,000 feet. Entangled in the flapping fabric of the wings, the pilot struggled to free himself and use his parachute, but a matter of seconds cost him his life.

While horrified spectators watched the falling craft, Goddard worked loose and jumped from the cockpit at a height of 150 feet. His parachute opened a few seconds too late to check his fall and Goddard plunged into the waters of the Oakland Estuary. He still was alive when airport attaches reached him in a launch, but was pronounced dead from a broken neck on arrival at the Alameda Hospital.

WORK FOR LABORERS WILL BRING RELIEF.

Contributions to the community relief fund continue to come in and if every person in our community who is able to contribute something will do so, there is no question about our being able to take care of the situation. Another good way to help out is to provide all possible work for the unemployed laborers at this time. No doubt there are being planned considerable building operations here for the spring and summer. If those persons contemplating this will arrange to advance their plans in order that work might begin now, this will go a long way toward relieving the unemployment situation and will enable many persons, now in need, to become self supporting. Not only building work, but all other kinds of work that will furnish employment to our laborers will be a great help and we urge all those who have any kind of work to be done to have it done now.

THRIFT.

Declaring that the teaching and practice of thrift is necessary if Eastern North Carolina is to get ahead, the Roanoke-Chowan Times says:

"The year 1929 was the most unfavorable crop year for a large section of Eastern North Carolina that has been experienced since 1889, but conditions are but little, if any, worse than at the beginning of 1921, following the disastrous deflation period of 1920. We have now passed through three poor crop seasons and we may reasonably expect more favorable seasons this year, and a return of prosperity.

"People on the farms need to teach and practice thrift. This applies especially to a large number of colored tenant farmers, who have been in the habit of buying everything offered to them on credit, often agreeing to pay several times the value of the article purchased. Traveling salesmen, if strangers, can sell them anything, if they will extend credit, the salesman taking mortgages on pigs, chickens, or anything found around the premises, and when they come around in the Fall collecting are very successful.

"A notable weakness of the colored brother is his desire for medicines and the services of strange doctors. We know one last Summer who called on six doctors, and would have consulted more had the opportunity presented itself. They will get prescriptions and buy medicines, but rarely follow the doctor's advice.

"The time has been when large landowners encouraged their tenants to buy, feeling that to keep them in debt was the best method of keeping them on the farm from year to year, but that period has passed. The question now is, how to keep them from buying too much. The automobile has opened up a larger world and increased their desires until now they are hard to satisfy.

"The schools are yet under the management of those who pay the taxes to support them, and if thrift and right living are not emphasized it is not the fault of the beneficiaries of our liberality."

ABOUT TOWN

The live-at-home program sponsored by the Home Demonstration club will be discussed by the members of the various 4-H clubs beginning next week and continuing for several days.

The programs no doubt will prove highly instructive, and show the young people of the advantages to be derived from providing the things which they consume at home.

When this program becomes generally accepted throughout the county, conditions should be better than they have ever been before, and the young women of the various demonstration clubs are to be congratulated upon their desire to become more fully versed in the live-at-home movement.

Judge Thomas L. Johnson, who presided over the criminal term of Superior court in this city last week, is doing his utmost to break up the teaching of Communism in this state, and is waging a relentless warfare against those giving publicity to such a doctrine.

Speaking before various clubs while in this city, the jurist declared that the Communists not only attempted to destroy the flag of the nation but sought to preserve, but that they also were teaching small children that there is no God.

"That such a situation is serious and deserves the consideration of the thinking people cannot be questioned in the slightest sense of the word. Such a doctrine is nothing more than taking faith out of the hearts of men and women and leading them out into a starless night. It is destroying the very foundation of a civilization established through sacrifice and loss of blood, and it is the duty of men and women who realize the responsibility resting upon them to combat such teaching in every way possible.

This week has been designated as "Round-up-Week" by George K. Freeman, of Goldsboro, commander of the North Carolina Department of the American Legion, and he has asked the co-operation of all posts to line up as many new members as possible.

In connection with the drive, Colonel George Langston, of Goldsboro, will deliver an address before the Pitt County Post of the American Legion tomorrow evening. He will talk about the things near to the heart of the former veterans of the World War, and bring to them a message concerning activities of the state organization.

There are numbers of men who served during the great conflict overseas who are not active members of the Legion and it is the purpose of the state commander to round them up during this campaign and get them interested in the Legion movement.

Pitt County Post is active, but it is still lacking in members, and it is the purpose of Commander Dave Moore to assist Colonel Freeman as far as possible in this campaign to bring the boys into the organization.

Have you contributed to the fund now being raised to provide for the unemployed people of the community? If you haven't yet got in touch with C. B. Rowlett or J. H. Waldrop and give until you feel like you have done your best in behalf of the movement. There are hundreds of people in this great agricultural section who will suffer untold hardships during the winter unless they are provided for through the liberality of the public, and it is the hope of the Public Service Council that everybody will do as much as he is able to.

ed with the things to meet the demands of the poor people.

The Pitt County Department of Health was very active during the year 1929, according to the report issued the latter part of the week.

Although the department was without a full time health officer for two months, it established a record the county is proud of.

The work among the schools of the county was of an especially commendable nature and indicates that everything is being done to keep the health of the school child in the best of condition.

Many clinics were conducted in different parts of the county, and through this medium the department did a wonderful work in decreasing communicable diseases, and keeping the health of the public as near normal as possible.

Cold and Coal Causes Capture Of N. C. Convict

Raleigh, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Coal and fingerprints cost a North Carolina escaped convict his freedom.

"It wuz mighty cold up there," was the only comment John Williams made when he entered State's prison today after being caught in Baltimore.

Williams was arrested for stealing coal in the Maryland city and his fingerprints showed he was wanted here.

Williams was sent to prison from Person county for four to six years for second degree murder. He escaped in May 1927.

Fire Destroys Building at N. C. Negro College

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 27.—(AP) Fire early today destroyed the administration building at the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical college, a state institution for negroes. The loss was estimated at $150,000.

Starting on the south side of the building from causes as yet undetermined, the fire had gained uncontrollable headway when discovered about 4 A. M.

Among the contents of the structure, erected in 1892 as the first of a non large group of college buildings, was the library, containing 7,000 volumes, many of which will be difficult to replace, it is said. The interior of the building, constructed of heart pine which had been kept well oiled, was quickly enveloped in flames that defied every effort made to salvage equipment. The roof collapsed early in the two-story structure.

India Stages Big Celebration For Her Independence

Bombay, India, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Stirring scenes were enacted in various parts of India Sunday as Nationalist advocates the empire over gathered to express their aspirations for Indian independence.

One hundred thousand assembled for a mass meeting at Chowpathy Sands and passed an independence resolution. A strong Communist mill workers faction clashed with the Nationalists and in free-for-all fighting several were injured.

At Ashram, the little colony of Mahatma, venerable advocate of passive resistance to British dominion, spent the day with fasting and spinning and at an evening service in the presence of their leader they passed the resolution for independence.

"The meeting at Chowpathy Sands was in progress when a number of Communist mill workers bearing a red flag arrived and urged the audience to pull down the national flag. A free-for-all fight ensued. One Communist finally climbed the flagpole and nailed on the "hammer and sickle" banner.

When the Communists left volunteers of the All Indian National Congress organization tore the red flag to shreds.

Huge processions were held here, in New Delhi, Calcutta, Lahore and Ahmadabad but the police had a comparatively easy time in confining the demonstrations to raising the national flag and shouts of "Down with the Union Jack."

Probe The Death Of Government Witness

Oklahoma City, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Circumstances surrounding death of the government's principal witness against 102 officials and residents of Pottawatomie county, on the eve of their trial on charges of participating in a giant conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws, led today to initiation of an investigation by Roy St. Lewis, U. S. district attorney.

The witness, Marion Fuller, former chief of police of Earlsboro, Okla., died here Saturday night. He had admitted participation in the alleged "rum rebellion," St. Lewis said, and furnished information on which the government expected to base its case.

Fuller died in an Oklahoma City hospital, his death certificate describing his fatal malady as a liver infection. Members of Fuller's family, the district attorney said, had voiced suspicions regarding his death which St. Lewis declined to divulge.

The witness, who also was a defendant in the trial, was confined to the Garfield county jail at Enid, several weeks ago at his own request. He said he was afraid to remain at large. His health was rapidly worse since the jail, he became rapidly worse since the removal to the Oklahoma county jail here. He was taken recently from the jail to the hospital where he died.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

This game promises to be one of the best and fastest games of the entire season as the W. C. L. boys come over with a fine record. BAPTISTS TO STUDY WORK OF MISSIONS

Church Mission School to Be Held at Memorial Baptist Church All Week

A Church School of Missions will be held at the Memorial Baptist church this week, and two noted workers of the denomination will give instructions in the work being accomplished in the field of Missions. Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of the church, will be in charge of the school, and Miss Emma Leachman, field worker of the Home Missions Board, will present studies in the book, "Look Unto the Fields." Miss Leachman was presented to the congregation yesterday, and told in an interesting way of the work she has been doing in the southland. Miss Alva Lawrence, state young people's leader, will direct classes for children in the Sunbeams, Girls' Auxiliary, and Royal Ambassadors Group each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This is the first time Miss Lawrence has visited Greenville since she assumed her duties with the board, and her presence has been received with interest. She will also conduct a class of young people from 17 to 24 years of age in the evening, using the book "Pioneers of Good Will." The school will convene each evening at 7 o'clock and Miss Leachman will present teachings from the book "Look Unto the Fields." This book is just from the press and contains many things of interest to members of the denomination. Both men and women have been invited to join this class. Mr. Fleischmann said that the church extended a cordial invitation to every Baptist of the city to participate in the school of missions and to learn of what the denomination is accomplishing and expects to accomplish in this connection. In connection with the work carried on here, extension work will be conducted each afternoon through Pitt county, reaching the Baptist churches in the various localities. Meetings will be held at Farnville, Bethel, Ayden, Pitt county, and Washington, in Beaufort county.

Thyrite Offers More Protection From Lightning

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Discovery of a new material named thyrite, which offers better protection from lightning, was announced to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers today by Karl B. McEachern of the General Electric Company. Thyrite is a compound, in appearance a cross between black slate and porcelain. Its name of Greek derivation, means gate, and for electrical current it is almost literally a gate in more senses than one. For the ordinary currents used in the industrial and household worlds, thyrite is a good insulator, a restrainer that keeps the current from jumping out of bounds, a close gate. But when electricity becomes too ardent, thyrite "gives up the gate." If a tremendous overcharge comes along the wire, such as a stroke of lightning, thyrite changes from insulator into a good conductor, offering a ready and harmless pathway for escape of the overcharge. "Thyrite," said Mr. McEachern, "has the property of decreasing its resistance as electrical voltage increases. It possesses the remarkable property of being substantially an insulator at one potential and a good conductor at certain higher potentials." "For the first time in the history of lightning protection it becomes possible to calculate accurately the performance of lightning arrestors. The idea of using lightning arrestors along a line is not new, but suitable arrestors have not been available from the standpoint of size or cost. "Thyrite can be produced in any shape which can be molded. The great advantages of the new arrestors lie in their performance. Small size, low installation cost, small weight and the predictability of the results to be expected."

Thinks Roosevelt Would Be Favored For Presidency

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The New York Times today quoted William E. Sweet, formerly governor of Colorado, as expressing the opinion that Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, would be acceptable to dry Democrats as a presidential candidate in 1932. Mr. Sweet, who has been a leader in prohibition movements in his own state, is visiting New York. He said it was time for the dry Democrats and Democrats of the south to get together, otherwise Alfred E. Smith was likely to get the nomination again with no prospect of election. Praising the administration of Gov. Roosevelt, Mr. Sweet said: "Twice Gov. Roosevelt has placed Governor Smith in nomination. Perhaps turn about would be fair play." Mr. Sweet condemned Democratic efforts in some parts of the south to discipline officials who botched Smith.

Dr. Chester came to Greenville during the first of the month with the intention of permanently locating here, but he became sick and was forced to return to Fayetteville several days ago. Dr. Chester several years ago was director of the Pitt County Department of Health, but for the past six years has been located at Fayetteville.

The prince compromised by promising her a pair of tusks from the first elephant he shoots.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 1 point, but soon eased under a some selling of later months pro-renewal of March liquidation and noted by the relatively easy showing of Liverpool.

May soon sold off to 17.41 and October to 17.60, making net declines of 7 to 8 points but there was trade buying as well as considerable covering and prices showed rallies of 2 to 3 points from the lowest by the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported that American and Continental buying had absorbed local and Bombay liquidation in that market, but that Manchester was pessimistic with unfavorable news from India checking business.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Despite announcement of 2,355,000 bushels decrease of the United States wheat visible supply, wheat prices dropped today to the lowest level since Nov. 13. Weakness of foreign wheat markets, especially Winnipeg, put the wheat market here under heavy pressure. Moreover, the domestic visible supply shrinkage was less than numerous traders had looked for, and official forecasts indicated little likelihood of advancing prices over 1929 unless winter wheat suffers severe damage or spring wheat acreage is reduced.

Wheat closed nervous 1 to 1 1/2 to 1 3/8 lower than Saturday's finish; corn closed 3/8 to 3/4 down, oats 5/8 to 7/8 off and provisions varying from 1/2c decline to a rise of 2c.

STOCK MARKET

By STANLEY W. PRENOSIL
New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The recovery in the stock market, which started last week and lifted the general level of prices out of the narrow trading area within which they had been fluctuating since before Christmas, was resumed after an early period of irregularity today. New leaders, particularly in the steel, copper and food groups, were brought forward by operators for the advance when heavy profit taking retarded the rise in some of the recent favorites.

While there were no tangible developments in the day's news to affect the price movement, buying operations in many stocks were based on the theory that the recent upturn in steel operations presaged a general recovery in business by spring. Call money repeated the familiar performance of opening at 4 1/2 and then dropping to 4 when a plentiful supply of funds made its appearance in the market.

Montgomery-Ward fell 3 1/2 on the poor 1929 earnings report, which was blamed on the pre-payment of parcel post policy adopted in the middle of the year, but rallied to 42 1/2 in the early afternoon under the impetus of short covering.

Sears Roebuck reached 2 points to 87 and then snapped back to 83. J. I. Case, Auburn auto and U. E. Industrial Alcohol sold 3 1/2 points to 5 points lower before they met effective buying support.

Goodyear rubber, which is expected to show around $10 a share, despite heavy inventory charges, fell in its annual report to be published next month, was run up 5 points. F. C. Shattuck advanced more than 3 points on reports of a large expansion program for 1930. Beech-nut Packing advanced 4 points and National Biscuit sold at least 2 points higher.

Although most of the recent railroad earnings reports have made disappointing comparisons with the corresponding period of a year before, there was a good demand for some of the high grade railroad shares. Aeticon was marked up at least 3 points and St. Louis Southwestern and "Nickle Plate" were among the issues to advance 2 points or more.

One block of 25,000 shares of Chrysler Motors changed hands at 14 1/4.

Lowry Acquitted In Case Brought By Keith Saunders

Elizabeth City, Jan. 27.—(AP)—John B. Lowry, Jr., accused of a breach of the peace in connection with alleged public statements made by him reflecting upon W. O. Saunders, editor of the Elizabeth City Independent, and his family, was acquitted at a hearing in recorder's court here this morning.

Lowry, who is on parole from state's prison where he was sentenced several years ago for housebreaking, said that he had been provoked to make the statements he did by taunts of W. Keith Saunders, son and partner of the editor.

Robert Lowry, attorney and brother of the defendant, launched an attack against the Independent which he accused of having persecuted his family for 15 years.

In acquitting the defendant, Recorder J. G. Sawyer scored personal attacks by both individuals and through the columns of newspapers.

MAN PULLED FROM TABLE AND SEVERELY BEATEN BY FIVE MEN IN CABARET

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Texas Guinan's Green Mill cabaret had a knock-down and drag-out fight added unexpectedly to the events of early yesterday morning, and Leonard Schwartz, 23, was seriously injured.

Schwartz was dragged from the table he shared with friends, slugged with fists, beaten with guns and kicked. Brain concussion and numerous lesser injuries were inflicted.

Diners said five men participated in the attack. Leonard Leon manager and partner of the cabaret, which is in uptown Chicago, was pointed out as one of those involved and was arrested on a charge of assault and disorderly conduct.

SMITH REAL WINNER OF WINTER GOLF

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen, stocky New Yorker, may have won the most money but the real leader of the winter golfing troupe is young Horton Smith, of Joplin, Mo.

Thanks to his victory in the rich Agua Caliente open, Sarazen, former open title-holder, has enjoyed the most profitable winter of all his golfing brethren with cash prizes aggregating close of $11,500. Smith, however, has given a sensational display of consistently brilliant play ever since the troupe left for the west late last fall.

In the eight major winter tournaments in which he has played, the Joplin professional has won three, placed second once and tied for second twice, and in compiling this imposing record Smith has earned nearly $9,500.

Sarazen did not follow the same trail as the majority of the pros. He won $600 by finishing fourth in the Hawaiian open; jumped back to Florida to win the Miami open and $750, and then shared the big prize of $10,000 in the Agua Caliente open.

Smith, on the other hand, played in practically all of the California tournaments and nearly always with conspicuous success. He won the Pasadena, Berkeley and Portland, Ore., opens; placed second to Craig Wood in the Hawaiian open and tied for second at Agua Caliente and in the Los Angeles open.

These two were the big money winners but some of the other did not do badly at all. Al Espinosa, of Chicago, won about $4,400 by tying Smith for second at Agua Caliente and finishing fourth in the Los Angeles open. Denny Schute, young Columbus, Ohio, pro, won $300 by finishing sixth in the Pasadena open and then added $3,500 to his bankroll by capturing the Los Angeles open. Olin Dutra of Los Angeles tied for the first in the Long Beach open, placed second in the Catalina Island open and tied for fourth in the Agua Caliente event prizes of about $3,000.

Other earnings approximated the following: Craig Wood, Bloomfield, N. J., $2,000; Billy Burke, New York, $1,850; Morrie Datta, Tacoma, $1,500; Tommy Armour, Detroit, $1,500; Tony Manero, New York, $1,500; Joe Kirkwood, Philadelphia, $1,500; Bobby Cruickshank, New York, $1,300; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., $1,100.

Leo Diegel and Walter Hazen have had no luck at all. Diegel won the professional golfers association crown again but has won little or no money in the open tournaments.

With the California season over for another year, the pros are heading today for San Antonio for the $7,500 Texas open.

Two Big Fights Hold Limelight For This Week

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—A heavyweight battle at Chicago with Primo Carnera, mammoth Italian, as a featured performer, and a light weight duel at New York between Al Singer and Stanislaus Loayza of Chile, provide fight fans with their outstanding attractions this week.

Carnera makes his second American start against Eleazar Rioux, the Canadian heavyweight champion at the Chicago Stadium Friday night. Singer and Loayza will meet in Madison Square Garden the same night. Both bouts are scheduled for ten rounds but Carnera is expected to finish Rioux long before the last round is reached.

Other bouts on the national schedule include: Tonight—at Philadelphia, Billy Jones, Philadelphia, vs. Pete Latzo, Scranton; Tiger Jack Payne, New York, vs. Yelo Okun, New York, light heavyweights, and Gabey Bagdad vs. Pat Holey, Philadelphia, welterweights, each 10 rounds. At Kansas City, Young Jack Dillon, Louisville, vs. Chick Pines, Tulsa, and Tiger Johnny Cline, Los Angeles, vs. Billy Atkinson, Seaman, Kan., all middleweights, each 10 rounds. At Baltimore, Gaston Charles, France, vs. Sidney Lampe, Baltimore, featherweights, ten rounds; and Charles Ernst, France, vs. Joe Raymond, Baltimore, lightweights, 8 rounds. At Louisville, Jackie Dugan, Louisville, vs. Babe Peleco, New York, junior lightweights, and Bill Thomas of Louisville, vs. Mickey Berry, middleweights, each ten rounds. At New York, St. Nicholas Arena, Izzy Grove, New York, vs. Gorilla Jones, Akron, Ohio, middleweights, and Tony Vaccarello, New York, vs. Steve Gotch, welterweights, each bout 10 rounds.

The fight occurred just before the morning session got under way. E. A. Berry, of Houston, chief of defense counsel, asserted Archer had made statements derogatory to Moses and that the latter, on returning to the court room after an absence of two or three days, took the county attorney to task for it.

Archer declared Moses came up to him and began "abusing" him and he did not retaliate until Moses had repeated his charges.

World Champions Will Appear At Indoor Meet

Chapel Hill, Jan. 27.—Spectators at the first annual Southern Conference indoor games here at the University of North Carolina March 8, will see at least two world champions in action, according to announcement today by Coach R. A. Fother, director of athletics.

Ed Hamm, of Georgia Tech, and Harry Flippin, of Virginia are both scheduled to participate and will head a great list of track and field stars from all over the south.

Hamm holds the world's broad jump record at 25 feet 11 1/8 inches while Flippin is a co-holder of the 60-yard high hurdle mark.

Preliminary announcement of the program has gone out and shows 12 varsity events for Southern Conference teams, and four freshmen and seven scholastic events open to any schools in the south.

The meet will be run off in the University's mammoth Tin Can, which has a floor space of 110 by 300 feet with a track 10 laps to the mile, and which has a new heating system.

HIGH CAGERS DROP GAME TO WASHINGTON

The basketball team from Greenville High School journeyed down to the capital of Beaufort county Friday night and came back with the short end of a 24 to 22 score. The game, as usual with games between Washington and Greenville, was hard fought throughout. First one team would be in the lead and then the other would take a spurt and go ahead for a few seconds. Fans were kept in a continued uproar by the sensational shots pulled by members of both teams.

The first half ended with Washington in the lead by 13 to 12, when Greenville came back strong in the second half to gain a 22 to 16 lead but at this point Carrow, Washington's injured star, was sent into the fray and he immediately lived-end things up with two baskets from beyond the middle of the court. Credle and Gray followed him with two more long shots that put Washington in the lead and gave them the game, 24 to 22.

For Greenville Dixon scored 8 points in the first half but was well covered in the second, leaving Smith and Deal to carry the brunt of the Greenville offense. For Washington, Carrow, Gray and Satterthwaite were the outstanding luminaries.

The line-up follows: Greenville: Bullock (1) Right Forward; James (1) Left Forward; Rivers (1) Center; Gaultier (4) Guard; Dixon (8) Center; Satterthwaite (7) Guard; Smith (7) Guard.

Substitutes: Greenville, Deal (4); Washington, Carrow (4), Leckland, Hodges, Referee, Johnson (Elon).

Two Lawyers Stage Fist Fight in Court

Austin, Texas, Jan. 27.—(AP)—County Attorney Roy Archer and Dayton Moses, of Fort Worth, defense lawyer in the John W. Brady murder trial, engaged in a fist fight in the court room today. Archer said he hit Moses after the lawyer had struck at him. Neither was injured.

The fight occurred just before the morning session got under way. E. A. Berry, of Houston, chief of defense counsel, asserted Archer had made statements derogatory to Moses and that the latter, on returning to the court room after an absence of two or three days, took the county attorney to task for it.

Archer declared Moses came up to him and began "abusing" him and he did not retaliate until Moses had repeated his charges.

UNBEATEN GRID TEAMS TO RISK TOP THIS WEEK

By DILLON L. GRAHAM Associated Press Sports Writer

Atlanta, Jan. 27.—Three of the five undefeated quintets in the Southern Conference basketball race must risk their leadership claims against formidable opponents this week in contests headlining the schedule of 25 games, 18 of which are between conference squads.

Kentucky's rangy cagers, who vaulted into a tie with Washington and are for top honors by spanking the Mississippi Aggies twice last week, 38-17 and 20-14, must turn back two of the strongest machines in Dixie. The Wildcats face Tennessee's hardy Volunteers in Knoxville Friday and then move on Athens Saturday for a tilt with Georgia's unconquered Bulldogs.

Washington and Lee, boasting four victories and sharing the laurels with Kentucky, and Sewanee, with two wins, are not scheduled against conference teams, but Alabama faces a test in a couple of skirmishes with Mississippi.

Georgia stepped a notch higher last week by whipping Georgia Tech at Athens Saturday night, while Washington and Lee was tearing through Virginia 50-22.

Sewanee was idle, but Alabama entered the race again by giving the Vanderbilt Commodores a sound 36-17 licking. Vandy had previously won from Auburn 29-17.

North Carolina State, 1929 champions, stopped the Virginia Military Cadets 29-22, but fell before Duke's Devils 35-31. Virginia beat Virginia Polytechnic Institute 23-21 Friday night, and Maryland crushed the Techsters further down the ladder Saturday by a 44-27 count. Tennessee flashed good form again to beat Georgia Tech 33-18 and Auburn 33-18.

Alabama and Mississippi open this week's conference card with a two-game series at Oxford tonight and Tuesday. Two state battles of much interest are booked for Tuesday as North Carolina and North Carolina State clash at Raleigh and Virginia and Virginia Polytechnic play a return engagement at Blacksburg. Virginia goes to Lexington Thursday to battle Virginia Military and then returns home Friday for a tilt with North Carolina State.

Georgia scraps Auburn at Auburn Thursday and Clemson and Vanderbilt resume their series at Clemson Friday. Both Mississippi conference teams—the Aggies and the University—visit Louisiana Friday and Saturday to play Louisiana State and Tulane respectively.

Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt, old court enemies, meet in Atlanta on Saturday, while North Carolina State plays Maryland at College Park and Virginia Polytechnic is arrayed against Virginia Military at Blacksburg. Duke engages North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Washington and Lee tackles West Virginia at Huntington.

The conference tournament, at which the championship is decided, will be held in Atlanta February 23 and March 1, 3 and 4.

See them at our store—or phone for the new G-W bookcase catalog—today.
