NAVAL CONFAB RESTING FROM LABORS TODAY

Time Has Come, However, When Someone must Begin Teak in Real Figures

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
London, Feb. 1.—(AP)—After two weeks of cautious exploration through a thicket of generalities the five-power naval conference stood today in the presence of its first challenge of concrete reality.

The time has come, those intimately associated with the parley held when someone soon must begin to talk in figures. What Colonel Henry L. Stimson, American delegation head, has called "clearing away the underbrush" is about complete.

The delegations have about talked themselves out in lofty phrase and idealistic appeal, these observers commented, and now the axe is to be laid in earnest to cutting away and limiting the growth of sea armaments.

It is true the conference is not yet ready to hear proposals as to how many ships can be scrapped or as to how many must be built. Probably none but the principal delegates were concerning themselves at all with such advanced statistics as they took a week-end or respite today and left conference activities virtually at a standstill.

They may not even reach for some time the question of algebraic ratios as between greater and lesser navies. But they understand fully that they cannot much longer delay coming to cases on some of the more concrete proposals may emerge into light when the conference, sitting as a committee of the whole, assemblies again Tuesday. They were not even touched upon at yesterday's meeting at which the only real business transacted was a tacit agreement that this serious task of formulating a navy measuring rod can be handled by the conference itself but not by special committee.

At the present moment the problem of the conference is agreement on the physical methods of limiting war fleets. It is considering favorably a compromise plan offered by France providing a certain total tonnage to be allotted to each nation, with each of these national allotments to be divided into tentatively so many tons for battleships, so many for cruisers, and so on through all classes of ships.

This "limit" however, would not be a "limit" if it is proposed to permit each nation to transfer certain percentages of the total tonnage of one class to the tonnage of another.

Perusal of the text of the French compromise proposal, made public last night by the French, left the searcher for information in as much a quandary as ever. The text was an involved technical treatise with every space were figures belonged left blank.

If anyone of the conference was worried today about the trials in general round of English week-end relaxation and recreation, which brought the wheels of conference activities to almost a complete halt.

Prime Minister MacDonald invited all seven members of the American delegation and their ladies to Chequers to luncheon and volunteered to be their guide in an afternoon sightseeing trip through the countryside.

Police Have Hamburg Riot Well in Hand

Hamburg, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Police believed today they had well in hand the situation growing out of rioting and other communist disorders in the working class districts during the last two days. Quiet was not obtained, however, without considerable effort. Large groups of unemployed yesterday refused to obey orders to disperse and the police had to use their weapons to break up the meetings. Many persons were injured.

The most serious fighting occurred today at a new building where the unemployed tried to force workers to lay down their tools today in a sympathetic strike. Police opened fire when other methods failed to check the demonstrators.

Peaceful citizens of Hamburg were maltreated by the police who could not distinguish them in some cases from the rioters. About 20 arrests were made.

Fire Truck Recovered in N. J.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 1.—(AP)—It happened right in the middle of a spectacular fire, so naturally Chief James J. McMillan is incensed.

He ordered all his trucks out to patrol the streets, but they could not find a clue. So, the police were informed.

As a result, the chief has his pet fire truck back. A patrolman found it four blocks from the scene of a fire. It was stolen while the chief and his men were fighting a spectacular, but inconsequential blaze.

SON OF BANKER CONFESSES TO BANK ROBBERY

Youth Held in Jail at Bowling Green, Ky., for Taking Approximately $3,000

Bowling Green, Ky., Feb. 1.—(AP) Carl S. Spillman 19, confessed today, according to police, that he participated in the robbery early this morning of the bank of Rock Hill, Ky., which his father is cashier and sole employee.

Young Spillman was charged with bank robbery and lodged in the Bowling Green jail. Officials of the bank said approximately $3,000 was taken.

Three men participated in the holdup, which occurred shortly after the elder Spillman opened the bank at 5 A. M. forty minutes after the robbery was reported. Bowling Green police arrested young Spillman as he attempted to drive across a bridge over the Green river here. Spillman at first denied knowledge of the robbery, but later confessed, according to Chief of Police R. C. Craig. Chief Craig said the youth told him that he went to Indianapolis from Rock Hill ten days ago and there met two youths he named Robert and Charles. They said James and Hahn started talking about "making some easy money" and that he mentioned the bank at Rock Hill where his father is employed. According to the youth's story the two Indianapolis youths promised him $200 if he would show them the bank.

Young Spillman told the chief that he did not participate in the actual holdup but that he and one of the other youths sat in the car while the third robbed the bank. The elder Spillman said a masked man entered the bank shortly after he had opened it, drew a gun and ordered him to fill a bag he carried with money. Spillman said he then was forced to place his head on a desk and stretch out his arms while the man escaped. He telephoned police soon after the robbery.

O'Brien, in College View, this morning after he had fallen to the pavement. The youngster was carried into the O'Brien home where he was given medical aid. His condition was not considered serious, although he was still in a semi-conscious condition quite awhile after receiving medical attention.

Chicago Has New Creditor Demanding Pay

Chicago, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Chicago and Cook county with empty tills, had a new creditor pounding at their doors today—the State of Illinois.

When informed at a conference with taxing officials that no tax money from local governments would be forthcoming until June 1, Gov. Louis L. Emmerson cited the state's pinched finances and the need for money to retire bonds now due, and declared:

"Before I allow the state to repudiate its bonds, I'll call a special session of the legislature which will have as its sole and only purpose the protection of the state from such a catastrophe."

In the meantime, $10,000,000 was added to the pledges of the citizens' rescue committee, headed by Silas H. Strawn. The money came from the Building Managers' Association, operating most of the loop property, and was subscribed to the maintenance of police, health and fire protection and other essential public services, pending collection of 1928 taxes.

The association announced its members were ready to purchase 1928 tax anticipation warrants to the extent of $10,000,000 to be used in payment of taxes when the reassessment is completed.

The money will not be used however, Strawn said, until details are worked out with city officials.

LEGION DRIVE SUCCESSFUL IN PITT COUNTY

Fifty-Six New Members Added to Post During State-Wide Roundup This Week

The state-wide round-up of former service men conducted by the North Carolina Department of the American Legion was a great success, in the opinion of Dave Moore, commander of the Pitt County Post of the Legion.

A total of 56 additional members were added to the local post since the campaign got under way last Tuesday night, bringing the total membership up to 166. This was sufficient to place the local post on the honor roll of those who carried the campaign to a successful conclusion.

The strength of the post at the end of the last fiscal year was given at 176. It is the purpose of Commander Moore to reach that goal and he has called upon the members of the various committees to continue work until the mark has been reached.

Mr. Moore said that they would have reached the goal by last night, the time set for the end of the round-up, but they were severely handicapped by the snow and sleet which had held this district in their icy grip since last Wednesday. He believes the boys will continue the campaign, however, and hopes the roster will contain the names of two hundred members when the final work has been completed.

The campaign was launched here last Tuesday evening with an address by Col. John Langston, of Goldsboro. At that time committees were announced and assignments of prospects given to each member. Much enthusiasm was in evidence despite the small attendance, and it was resolved to put every effort possible to enable the post to go over the top.

The result of the state-wide drive will be announced from two North Carolina broadcasting stations tomorrow. The first announcement will be made from the Raleigh station at 4:35, and the second from Charlotte at 7:30 p. m. As the report is of more than passing interest to Legionnaires in all sections of the state it is believed hundreds will listen in to hear about the way the former service men responded to their appeal to join the Legion.

Fourteen Lives Believed Lost When Boat Sinks

Beaumont, Tex., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Fourteen members of the crew of the tugboat Edgar F. Coney today were believed at the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico with their boat. A radio message from the Standard Oil company tank ship Liebre said the tug went down in a storm that raged Tuesday night about 70 miles northeast of Port Arthur, Tex. The report from the Liebre said the crew of a barge the tug was towing at the time of the disaster had been rescued. The Liebre was expected to dock here today.

The Edgar F. Coney, owned by the Sabin Towing company, left Port Arthur Tuesday morning for Mobile with a barge in tow twenty-four hours later the Liebre sighted the barge with a distress signal flying. From the rescued crew of the barge the fate of the tug was learned.

It was reported there were seven officers and seven sailors aboard the tug, but the names of only four were known at the tug company headquarters.

The tug boat Asher J. Hudson, with a crew of 12 left Port Arthur last night to search the vicinity of the tragedy in the hope of finding some survivors.

U. S. LEADING THE WORLD IN AIR ACTIVITY

Nation Carves New Niche in Aviation by Flying Total of 197,546,590 Miles

New York, Feb. 1.—(AP)—American aviation carved a new niche for itself in 1929 air transport operations by flying 197,546,590 miles. The Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce announced this figure today in a copywritten report, and it established the United States as the leader in world air transport operations.

Civilian and commercial flying was up three times as great as military and governmental activities, planes in the former class covering 149,579,451 miles as compared with 47,967,139 for the latter. Major air transport lines, operating on regular schedules, flew passengers, mail, and cargo more than 90,000,000 miles. Mail volume doubled over 7,096,930 trips, while passenger business tripled with 165,263 persons riding the air lines. The average passenger rate per mile on established lines was 10.6 cents during the year, a figure since cut to .078 cents by radical reductions on most lines. Estimates based on typical operators and computed to include 800 aerial service operators in the country indicated that their planes flew 104,236,650 miles. Private flying increased from 12,000,000 miles in 1928, to 25,000,000 miles.

While the number of air transport operators in scheduled service dropped from 32 to 27 through consolidations, the number of planes in service jumped from 294 to 619. The tremendous increase in mail flying without corresponding extension of airways was attributed to added night flying, one line flying more mileage at night than the total mileage of all scheduled night operations in Europe.

"Scheduled transport lines," the report said, "were flying one-third of their 90,000 miles every 24 hours between dusk and dawn on lighted airways around the world." Twenty seven transport lines employed eight men on the ground for every pilot in the air.

The phenomenal expansion of lines was attributed in the report to increased public support, resulting in strong financial set-ups and a transition from corporation effort to group control.

FOUR BANDITS ENTERTAIN AT $500 ROBBERY

Chicago Laundry Employees Informally Entertained While Bandits Take Money

Chicago, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Four fellows with pistols entertained last night at an informal robbery. Guests included the manager of the Edgewater Laundry, the bookkeeper and four drivers. Refreshments were served, and as good a time as could be expected was had by all. The robbers found only the bookkeeper and the four drivers at the laundry offices when they first arrived. None of the employees knew the combination of the safe, and it contained all the money in the place. The bookkeeper, Miss Mildred Sturm, said the only one who knew the combination was the manager, Fred Klein, who had gone home. She said she did not know his address.

"Never mind," said the robber chief, "we'll look it up. You folks sit down and make yourself comfortable. Two of my boys get Mr. Klein."

Leaving the employees under guard, two of the men went to Klein's home and at the point of a pistol compelled him to enter their automobile. On the way back to the laundry, one of the robbers expressed the opinion that the employees doubtless were hungry, as it was past dinner time. The car stopped at a restaurant where one of the men bought two gallons of coffee and 24 sandwiches. Before doing anything about the safe, the bandits produced the coffee and sandwiches and everyone ate. Afterward, at the point of a gun, Klein opened the safe, which yielded $500.

"Not much, but it will suffice," said the robber chief. "Well, we'll be saying toddie-oo. Don't call the cops too soon. Give us a fair start. And here," he produced a $10 bill, which he handed to Klein, "this will buy cigars for the crowd."

REP. FORT AND HOOVER DIFFER ABOUT LIQUOR

Congressman Advocates Constitutionality of "Home Brew" Manufacture

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The ties of friendship and politics link President Hoover and Representative Fort of New Jersey closely, but the latter's expressed views on prohibition are not to be regarded as reflecting those of the chief executive.

Both Mr. Fort and the White House made this clear after the House member had delivered an address upholding home brewing for home consumption as a privilege that is and should be permitted by the Volstead law.

He called for the abolishment of certain of the "evils" of prohibition and asserted that the eighteenth amendment is in the constitution to say, because the people of the nation want it there.

In addition Fort asked for a calm, reasoned consideration of the prohibition problem and advised temperance workers to leave enforcement to the officers of the law and resume the educational program they followed before the dry laws became effective. Politically, the President and Representative Fort have been closely associated. They are known to be warm personal friends. The New Jersey representative was in charge of the campaign which led up to Mr. Hoover's nomination at the Kansas city convention and then became secretary of the Republican national committee, a post he held until a few days ago, resigning then because of his extensive congressional activities.

A few hours after his speech had been delivered before a crowded house chamber, which applauded him cordially, the White House made it known that Mrs. Hoover had not been consulted while the speech was in preparation. Fort himself, said the President had not seen it.

Still working on the bill to transfer the prohibition enforcement unit from the Treasury to the Justice department, the House expenditure committee was called together again today to thresh out details of the measure having to do with the administration of the industrial alcohol permit system.

Cruiser Augusta To Be Launched At Newport News

Newport News, Va., Feb. 1.—(AP)—The light cruiser, Augusta, named for the historic Georgia city, was poised in its cradle for launching today in James river before a throng of government officials and notables from the empire state of the south.

Miss Evelyn McDaniel, sponsor, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry McDaniel, of Augusta, and Superior Court Judge A. J. Franklin, of the Augusta circuit court, her uncle, head the Georgia delegation. Acting Secretary of the Navy Ernest Lee Jahneke, represented Secretary Francis Adams, now at the naval conference in London.

Maids of honor for the launching were Miss Margaret Bell, daughter of Mayor W. E. Bell, of Augusta, and Miss Virginia Fleming, daughter of former Congressman William L. Fleming, also of Augusta. The official party also includes J. H. Mulhern, president of the Augusta chamber of commerce, and W. C. Kilgore, vice-president of the Kiwanis club there.

The Augusta is the sixth of the vessels to be built under the United States Navy's 1924 building program. She is of the scout cruiser type, 1000 tons displacement, and measures 600 feet over-all length. Her maximum width outside of armor plating is 60 feet. Her complement is 50 officers and 625 men.

College Girls Advertise for "Boy" Friends

Newton, Kas., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Dormitory co-eds of Bethel college are betting that in this modern world where advertising and organization are everything, advertising is the more potent of the two.

Sorority girls have been copying all of the desirable men. Residents of the less exclusive dormitories felt the pinch and went into a huddle. The result appeared yesterday in the Bethel Collegian in the form of a display advertisement inviting college men to call at the "Don Hangout."

By way of added attraction, the ad announced, several new card games have been added to the dormitory reception room equipment "and boys are cordially invited to come and participate in these games."

Negro Beaten to Death for Attack On White Girl

Ocella, Ga., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Jimmy Irvine, a negro accused of attacking and killing a 14-year-old white girl yesterday, was beaten to death and his body burned about ten miles from here today by a crowd of several hundred persons who had taken him by force from Sheriff W. E. Taylor of Irwin county.

Irvine was captured at Mystic, Ga., after an all night manhunt by Sheriff Tyler and his deputies. Bringing the negro to jail here, the sheriff was accosted by a crowd in the center of Ocella. The crowd overpowered the sheriff, he said, in a struggle in which he was injured slightly.

The negro then was taken to the place where the body of the girl, daughter of a prominent farmer, was found late yesterday. The lynching occurred there.

Sheriff Tyler said the negro confessed the crime to him upon his capture.

GEN. BUTLER PROPOSED AS DRY LEADER

Senator Brookhart Believes Stormy Petrel of Marines is Man for the Job

Bridgier-General Smedley Butler, stormy petrel of the Marine corps, was proposed for prohibition commissioner today by Senator Smith W. Brookhart, Iowa, dry.

Senator Brookhart said "put Smedley Butler in charge and put another Smedley Butler under him for New York, because he is genuine and shoots to the mark."

The Iowan in discussing his campaign against "high society" prohibition violators revealed that he is receiving considerable additional information about dry law violations in private clubs in the large cities as a result of his statement to the Senate this week about "real gin cocktails" in the Century club of New York.

"Start in at the top," commented Brookhart in a discussion off the floor. "Clean up high society first. Clean up the prohibition personnel too. Smedley Butler would have cleaned up high society in Philadelphia when he was police chief there if they hadn't stopped him and forced him out."

FORMER CRIME INVESTIGATOR SHOT TO DEATH

Julius Rosenheim Falls Before Bullets of Members of Underworld Gang

Chicago, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Julius Rosenheim, 45, formerly an investigator for the Chicago Crime Commission, was shot to death today by two men who stepped from man automobile to the sidewalk and fired six shots into his body. They escaped in the automobile, driven by a third man.

Six weeks ago Rosenheim walked into the state's attorney's office. He was on the "inside" of vice and gambling in Chicago, he said. He offered to tell what he knew.

The state's attorneys listened, but were skeptical. They ordered him to go out and bring in some of the principals.

Rosenheim did not return. His death today was the penalty for his "double-crossing" of underworld foes and his undercover work as tipster for the Chicago Crime Commission and police raids on gambling houses, authorities said.

He had left his home only a few moments before he was shot down. At the corner of Ballou and McLean streets a dark blue touring car, side curtains concealing its occupants, drew up beside him. Two men emerged while a third sat at the wheel. There was a burst of gunfire, Rosenheim fell, and before the handful of pedestrians nearby had realized what had occurred, the executioners were speeding away.

FRIZZELLE TO RUN FOR JUDGE FIFTH DISTRICT

Snow Hill Lawyer Makes Formal Announcement of His Candidacy Today

(Eva Horton Shackelford)
Snow Hill, N. C., Feb. 1.—In a statement of his conception of the office of Superior Court Judge, and his reasons why he hopes to meet with success in the field of judicial endeavor, J. Paul Frizzelle, of Snow Hill, a native of Greene county, its most prominent lawyer, and a man whose name is of genuine weight on the roster of the bar of North Carolina, gave a formal announcement of his candidacy to this office, in an interview granted your correspondent today.

The present incumbent is Judge R. A. Nunn of New Bern, who succeeded Judge Albion Dunn of Greenville, in the 5th Judicial District, Greene, Carteret, Jones, Pitt, Craven and Pamlico.

Mr. Frizzelle's immediate ancestry, both maternal and paternal, came to Greene county from Pitt, and he has extensive family connections in both counties.

Educated in the schools of Greene county, he finished his preparations for college at Trinity Park school, Durham, N. C., and graduated from Trinity College, (now known as Duke University), in 1904. He was considered a brilliant young student in the undergraduate department, where he successfully represented the college in several intercollegiate debates, and also in the law department, where he studied for two years, under the late Dean S. F. Mordecai, being admitted to the bar in the fall of 1926. He opened an office in Snow Hill directly afterwards and has since put other ambitions aside in order to serve his own people and community.

His practice, large and varied, has carried him into the counties of Wayne, Pitt, Lenoir, and Wilson, where his straightforward integrity and unusual legal ability have won for him the unquestioned confidence of the people and the universal esteem of the lawyers of the state.

A distinctive gift of oratory has placed him much in the light as a public speaker, and his splendid argumentative faculty has caused him to be retained in practicing in his own and adjoining counties, and carried him to the Supreme court, where he has had as many successful appearances perhaps, as any lawyer in Eastern Carolina.

Though never seeking political office, he has served as chairman of the Democratic Executive committee of Greene county for the past twenty years. He was Wilson's Presidential Elector in 1917 from the Second Congressional district, and is now and for several years has been a member of the State Democratic Executive committee from the same district.

Mr. Frizzelle is exceptionally well qualified for the important office of Superior Court Judge, for he enjoys an enviable reputation as a lawyer, advocate and scholar, and possesses a fine personality and that rare quality, known as judicial temperament. Always active in civic matters, he is now serving as president of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, and is deeply interested in the religious life of his community.

One of the most hopeful signs of the times is to see men of astute leadership entering into vicissitudes of politics, assuming responsibilities made new and doubly solemn by the march of events, and this announcement of Mr. Frizzelle's candidacy will no doubt be received with much enthusiasm by voters in this district.

Mr. Frizzelle makes his announcement in the following paragraphs. After consulting many friends and myself giving consideration to the subject, I am announcing I shall be a candidate for Resident Judge of the Superior court in the Fifth District, subject to the action of the Democratic voters in the nominating primary. My fellow citizens to whom I shall submit my candidacy have a right to know my conception of the office to which I aspire and my reasons for the hope that I may meet with some measure of success in the field of judicial endeavor.

From my study and observation of what we call government I am convinced that the office of Superior Court Judge is the most important and far reaching public position in our state system. The Superior Court is the one definite point of contact between the folks and the law. It speaks with authority in language the plain people can understand and on questions of vital importance in their every day life. Holding its sessions in every county, to the vast majority it is the state. It therefore not only administers the law, but, consciously and unconsciously, shapes the real attitude of our citizenship.

LET'S KEEP IT OUT.

Announcement that smallpox is on the increase in this state should prompt our people to take every precaution against the spread of this disease. According to health authorities smallpox is preventable if people will be vaccinated and in view of the fact that any county health officer will gladly give the treatment there is little excuse for smallpox. If you have never been vaccinated or if there is any doubt in your mind as to your immunity from this disease, we urge you to consult your family physician or the county health officer about it now. Smallpox is on the increase in some of the eastern counties. Let's take the proper steps to keep it out of our county if possible.

A PAPER'S DUTY.

No doubt every newspaper in the state has been confronted with the problem of requests or demands that certain court proceedings be omitted from the columns of the paper. The Lumberton Robesonian, in the following editorial, clearly sets forth a paper's position in this matter and rightly declares that no paper can be honest and practice the discrimination that some persons request by urging that their names be omitted:

"The Robesonian has never heeded threats about publishing court proceedings, and it does not propose to do so now. In almost every court case there are some persons who would rather not see their names in print in such connection, but the way to avoid such publicity is not to get into court, not by threatening the newspaper folks if they publish it or blaming them for publishing. A newspaper is confronted with the necessity of publishing all court cases or none; it cannot choose and pick and discriminate. There is no pleasure in printing items that bring embarrassment to any one, and it would be avoided if it were possible; but a newspaper has a duty to its subscribers that it cannot shirk if it is honest with them and itself."

ABOUT TOWN

The advertising which Greenville has received over the radio recently is greeted with interest by former residents living in other parts of the country.

The Reflector received a correspondence from a former minister now residing in Asheville which he expressed his appreciation of the programs, and was greatly impressed by the progress made by the locality during the last few years.

If this progress should impress the former residents, then it is certain it should prove of interest to the home-seekers in other parts of the country easting about for the right kind of place to locate.

Greenville and Pitt county have lots of natural resources, and it is nothing but right that they should be sent out for the information of the outside world. It is the kind of information people like and it is to be hoped the Merchant's Association will be able to continue the program for months to come.

Pitt county's Live-at-Home program got under way yesterday and from now on through the month of February county farmers will be told of plans of the County Board of Agriculture to bring about relief during the next planting season.

Members of the board in recent session outlined a program which they believe should prove of interest to every planter, and this will be placed before the farmers in all parts of the county during the coming month.

The value of a live-at-home program should be realized by the progressive farmer, and he should do his best to co-operate with the department in its effort to improve conditions.

The time has come for the grower of this great section to protect himself and there is no better way in the opinion of prominent growers than through the plan adopted by the county Department of Agriculture. It is merely in an experimental stage at this time but nothing great or good was ever accomplished except through experiment.

The weather has been bad, to be sure, but members of the Pitt county Post of the American Legion are satisfied they are going to be able to make a good showing in the round-up of members as suggested by the Department of the Legion.

Meeting here last Tuesday night to launch the drive, the Legionnaires outlined a campaign, which had it not been for the weather, unquestionably would have enabled them to increase their membership to two hundred.

It was the goal suggested by Commander Dave Moore, and he set the pace next day by soliciting nine new members in the town of Bethel.

The Legion has a great future with the co-operation of the great mass of ex-service men in various sections of the country, and it is to be hoped several thousand who have shown no interest in the organization in past months, will renew their allegiance and help carry on to a greater and brighter future.

"I like to hear a man boast his home town," declared a business man today, speaking of a visitor from a surrounding town who had been lauding the achievements of his home town in past months.

"It goes to show the fellow is in sympathy with what his town is attempting to do and has put his shoulder to the wheel in an effort to increase the possibilities of the place he has chosen to make his home."

"There are lots of people who had rather go around with a sour look on their faces and ages in their mouths, but usually they are the kind who never get anywhere. The man that succeeds in this old world is the one that carries a perpetual smile, and just will not be downed by conditions over which he has no control."

"The time has come for the boosters of Pitt county to get busy and boost as loudly as it is possible for them to boost. The city and county needs words of praise and commendation for what they have done in past years, and it should pave the way to greater achievements in the future."

Spring goods are beginning to arrive in Greenville from northern markets and from now on local merchants will be offering the latest fashions from the greatest style centers of the world.

Greenville and Pitt county people would do well to visit the local stores and choose from the splendid value on display. They will compare favorably with the larger cities, and prove a revelation from the standpoint of style and price.

It matters not where you have been trading in past years, Mr. and Mrs. Shopper, make it a point to visit the city the next several weeks and witness the hundreds of values for the people of this great trade territory.

U. S. Income $95,000,000,000
New York—The income of the United States last year is estimated at $95,000,000,000 by the monthly outline of business of the Chatham Phoenix National Bank and Trust Company, compared with $29,600,000,000 in 1929 and $29,400,000,000 in 1928. "Most authorities are agreed that the upward trend will continue," says the outline.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

- but not one change in fundamentals that made this car so popular..

Oldsmobile announces improvements and refinements which add definitely to Oldsmobile's beauty, comfort, interior luxury, and increased driving satisfaction. The sum of these advancements is substantially increased value—an even finer car of low price.

In no case have changes been made for the sake of change alone. Every improvement serves a particular purpose—actually adds some desirable advantage to the car.

The bulk of the improvements are in the body. Refinements in body contours result in smarter style and longer, lower appearance. Interiors are roomier and more luxurious, with deeper seat cushions. Chassis refinements include improved, fully-enclosed four-wheel brakes; more responsive steering, and improved carburetion.

If you expect to buy a car this year, you owe it to yourself to see Oldsmobile—to drive it yourself—in order that you may make comparisons and form an accurate opinion of its value. You incur no obligation. Come in—soon.

The orator delivered one of the most interesting speeches that the local tribe has ever heard. His subject was "The World Today Seems to Be on Its Balance" and it was a most eloquent and profitable oration.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN "THE BARBER OF SEVILLE"

Next Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, is the time set for the first evening of opera at East Carolina Teachers College, when the Festival Opera Company will present "The Barber of Seville," the most humorous of all operas and one of the most tuneful and romantic.

There has been a good deal of interest shown by people in other towns and the indications are that there will be quite a number of people from a distance to see this production. The fact that the singers will sing the opera in English and speak the dialogue, instead of making it of interest to a wider public, is one of the reasons for the interest.

This opera has a rough dramatic force in its plot of romance and intrigue, and enough fun and life along with the lovely solos and duets and ensembles, to make it possible to dispense with the full orchestra and have the piano instead.

This is the first time that a number of stars with voices of the various types—coloratura soprano, tenor, baritone and basso—have appeared on the college stage in one evening. The singers representing each are Melvena Passmore, Rhys-Ross Morgan, William Phillips and Henri Scott, all singers of wide reputation and experienced in opera.

Million Dollar Club Opens Here

The Million Dollar Club of the Home Building and Loan Association opened this morning. It was reported shortly after the opening that a large number had applied for membership in the organization.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate thrift among the citizens of the city. The club is attempting to obtain 1,000 new members for the saving of not less than $2.50 each week, which will mean at maturity of the stock that $1,000,000 in cash will be paid to the members of this club.

The association at the present time has one out of every six people in Greenville saving each week, and their resources total over a million dollars with authorized capital of $5,000,000.

Dental Clinics To Be Held In County Schools

Dr. A. J. Pringle, Jr., state dentist, has begun a series of clinics in the various schools of the county. He stated at the Pitt County Department of Health today, that the campaign will continue for a period of twelve weeks, and is a continuation of the movement started several months ago. Similar clinics were held in the schools during the latter part of last year.

State Sanitary Inspector Begins Survey of County

E. B. Road, State Sanitary Inspector, has arrived in Greenville to conduct a survey of the various towns of the county. He will work in conjunction with the Pitt County Department of Health.

The campaign, it was stated at the health department this morning, will continue for a period of six or eight months, and will be confined largely to improvement of the condition of toilets, especially in the small towns.

It is the first time in several years that a campaign of this kind has been conducted under direction of the state inspector and it was said that good results are expected to be obtained.

Caley named "Yankee Clipper" New Haven—Application of the New Haven railroad corrects an announcement by the road that John Coolidge originated the name "Yankee Clipper" for a new train between New York and Boston.

F. Caley thought of it. John wrote out a list of suggestions by various employees. Then an assumption was based on the handwriting.

J. B. KITTRELL ELECTED HEAD T. P. A. POST

Other Officers Also Elected At Banquet at Rotary Club Last Night

Post EE of the Travelers Protective Association met in the Rotary Club Friday evening, January 31. About one hundred and fifty of four hundred members were in attendance. Promptly at seven o'clock W. Waldman, secretary, served, according to promise, a real turkey supper—turkey plenty and all that goes with it. About an hour's time—and nobody knows but Waldman, how much turkey—was consumed in this repeat, after which there was the usual good fellowship expressed in speeches and applause.

Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, chaplain, was called on first by President J. B. Kittrell, and he started the fun and humor. Next, in the absence of the chaplain, Hughes, of Henderson, who sent his regrets, Haywood Deal was asked to substitute, and this veteran substitute never did a finer piece of "pitch-hitting" in his life.

President Kittrell was normal, that is, as he usually is, a go-getter, and between his requests for talks from different members like Wiley Brown, Bruce Sugg, Jack Boyd, Herbert Waldrop, and others, he kept the importance of a constant membership campaign before the meeting by timely and jolly remarks.

J. B. can sight a prospective member farther than the average man can see, and he wants all his members to learn the trick. He is known in T. P. A. as a century writer. That is, he writes one hundred and over applications for membership, within a year. He repeats this performance to such an extent that under his leadership Post EE stands at the top of the list as being one of the biggest, if not the biggest, post in the world.

That means that there are more wives and children protected by this organization in Pitt county than in any other county in the United States. James T. Patterson is also a century writer.

T. P. A. has four social functions every year without cost to its members, at which times they gather at supper, barbecue, fish fry, or similar entertainment in fellowship. And those members who were absent last night missed one of the best meals ever put on by Secretary Waldman, and he always puts on good ones.

At the conclusion of the evening's entertainment the annual election of officers took place, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: J. B. Kittrell, president; J. H. Boyd, 1st vice-president; A. E. Hobgood, 2nd vice-president; James T. Patterson, secretary-treasurer; W. Waldman, chairman of board; F. A. Jones, C. B. Mayo, F. P. Bynum, A. J. Knox, directors.

FIVE EVENTS' FACE DIXIE TRAPSHOOTERS

Atlanta, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Five events crammed into a day's program today faced entrants in the Dixie handicap trapshooting tournament. The heavy card included the amateur double championship, the ladies' and professionals' double championships, the wolf and lamb hundred and the international hundred.

Charles A. Young, Springfield, O., broke 194 pigeons out of 200 to win the amateur singles championship yesterday. Young, by the narrow margin of one clay bird, won over Burt Shotton, Amherst, O., manager of the Phillies, and H. D. Freeman, Atlanta, entrants, who downed 192 pigeons each.

Stars in Business New York—The reason for the fact that we have such remarkable captains of industry, in the opinion of Professor Edwin R. A. Seligman, economist of Columbia University, is the deflection of the most brilliant minds into business. And there is a shortage of scientists; Prized dangled before those who enter the business world must be made possible for the thinkers.

Greater Beauty - Finer Performance

Never has a Chevrolet car won greater praise for its appearance than the new Chevrolet Six. Its new Fisher bodies reveal in every detail the artistry that has made the Fisher name famous throughout the motor car world. In beauty of line and color, in balance and harmony of design, they represent one of the greatest style triumphs in Fisher history. And the promise of this exterior beauty is more than fulfilled when you look inside the car. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. The instrument panel carries a new and more attractive grouping of the control instruments. Seats are wider and deeper. In fact, not a single feature has been overlooked that would add to the comfort and convenience of both driver and passengers.
