COURT FILES ATTACHMENT FOR LAVARRE

Newspaper Publisher Attempts to Prevent Execution of Court's Order

Macon, Ga., Feb. 6.—(AP)—Judge Bascom S. Deaver, in federal district court today issued a writ of attachment for William S. LaVarre, newspaper publisher, who failed to appear in person to answer a citation to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt. LaVarre filed a written answer, setting forth his reasons why he believed he was not in contempt.

Judge Deaver issued the citation at the request of J. T. Webb, Jr., court commissioner, appointed to take charge of the Spartanburg (S. C.) Herald and the Journal and Columbia (S. C.) Record, who reported that LaVarre had resisted his attempt to execute the court's order.

LaVarre, in a special delivery letter to Judge Deaver, said he was within his rights as an official of the Piedmont Press Association, which he said had been organized to operate the three papers, in resisting Webb's efforts to take charge of them. LaVarre said his actions did not constitute contempt and furthermore the federal court at Macon was without jurisdiction in South Carolina and could not compel him to appear before it.

The writ of attachment was issued by Judge Deaver at the request of Benjamin E. Pierce, attorney for Webb. Judge Deaver said he next step in the procedure would be to forward the writ to South Carolina where a warrant for LaVarre would be issued to bring him into federal court there to determine whether he should be brought before the federal district court here.

Webb was appointed court commissioner to take charge of the three South Carolina papers and the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle after Judge Deaver had held Harold Hall an equal partner with LaVarre in the purchase of the newspapers.

Webb was directed by the court to assume control with P. T. Anderson of Macon, as joint commissioner. Recently when Webb presented himself in the office of the Record at Columbia, LaVarre declined to surrender the paper and ordered the commissioner to leave the property.

The litigation surrounding the four papers which LaVarre and Hall purchased with funds loaned by the International Paper Company was instituted in Richmond superior court, at Augusta, Ga., last spring by Hall who asked a receivership for the papers and an injunction restraining LaVarre from preventing him from assuming equal operating control.

On application of LaVarre for transfer of the litigation to the federal courts on the grounds that he was not a resident of Georgia and therefore not subject to the jurisdiction of state courts, the suit was transferred to the United States District Court.

After a lengthy hearing Judge Deaver held Hall an equal partner and appointed the commissioner to survey the papers and make recommendations to the court concerning their disposition.

LaVarre applied to the United States District Court of Appeals at New Orleans from a supercedes which was granted on condition that the applicant post bond of $100,000. The date for posting the bond passed without it being posted and the court of Appeals set the case for trial on its merits at the appeals set.

LaVarre assumed control of the two Spartanburg papers last Monday and discharged C. O. Heaton, editor, and W. W. Holland, business manager, former owners of the papers. LaVarre in assuming control said he would hold it by force if necessary.

Heaton and Holland then obtained an injunction from Judge J. T. Maudlin restraining LaVarre from entering the newspaper plant and later obtained a citation against LaVarre from contempt for violating the restraining order.

LaVarre was sentenced to sixty days in jail or pay a fine of $600 by Judge Maudlin who heard the contempt case. LaVarre appealed, posting $2,000 bond pending disposition of the case.

Sign Causes Congestion

New York—The latest thing in electric signs on the great white way shows a stout woman doing gymnastics and four thin flappers. The idea is to advertise cigarettes. The first showing caused such a traffic congestion that the police had the sign turned off.

Passes Own Sentence

Bonnes, Idaho—For drinking the white man's firewater Charles Isador, chief of the Kootenai Indians, in execution of a sentence imposed by himself, has received 35 lashes from a cat-o-nine tails on his bare back.

Suicide Requests All Attempts to Be Made on Funeral

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Before committing suicide by inhaling gas last night, Joseph A. Bonk, 58-year-old carpenter, wrote a will in which he directed that every cent of his savings be spent on his funeral.

"And if necessary," the will read, "place two tombstones on my grave."

It stated that $1,048 would be found to his credit in a local bank.

LEGION POST OVER THE TOP IN CAMPAIGN

Pitt County Post Obtains Five Members More Than Quota in Roundup

The Pitt County Post of the American Legion has "gone over the top" in the state-wide roundup sponsored by the North Carolina Department of the American Legion, according to information given out this morning by D. C. Moore, Jr., commander of the local post.

Mr. Moore said it was necessary for the Pitt County Post to obtain as many members as they had at the expiration of the last fiscal year in order to reach the quota set by the State Department. They not only did that but obtained five more new members to make sure that they went over the top in regular style.

The membership of the local post at the end of the last fiscal year was 176. Today it stands at 181 and members of the campaign committee do not intend to stop until they have reached the two hundred mark. As last year was considered their record year, the State Department placed this year's quota at that number in order that as many posts as possible might maintain normal strength during the present year.

Something like 80 posts had reached last year's record at the conclusion of the first period of the drive last Friday.

Commander Moore said they had a mighty hard time reaching the quota, especially during the first part of the campaign when the elements conspired to bring about defeat. But despite the offerings of snow and sleet, the post got within ten members of the quota, and determined to continue work until the goal had been reached.

Mr. Moore called attention to the annual officers' conference to be conducted at Durham February 10, saying that he hoped as many members of the local posts as possible would attend. Several have already signified intention of being present and others desiring to do so were advised to get in touch with J. S. Elliot, post adjutant, within the next few days.

Pola Negri Gets Into Hot Water With the Courts

Berlin, Feb. 6.—(AP)—After several years' absence from the city where she first achieved firm success, Pola Negri, American screen star, returned to Berlin today only to get into hot water with the courts.

Sam Rachmann, theatrical agent, secured a writ of attachment whereby the courts sequestered Pola's jewelry to the extent of 50,000 marks (about $12,000). Rachmann claims he negotiated the screen star's American contracts, for which she failed to pay the stipulated commission.

Immediately after she handed over a court attache her diamonds and rubies, she and her husband, Prince Mdvani, departed for St. Moritz, Switzerland.

NEWS BRIEFS FROM THE TWO CAROLINAS

Charlotte, N. C.—(AP)—Approximately $45,000 has been raised in a three-day drive for funds for the Associated Charities here. This is $10,000 in excess of the goal.

Spartanburg, S. C.—(AP)—A Spartanburg county jury has been sent 150 miles to view the scene of a death in a $5,000 suit against a railway.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—(AP)—J. Harry Martin, employed for an insurance agent here, walked into court and demanded he be tried for embezzlement of $16,000. An investigation showed his shortage to be that amount, and he was arrested.

New Bern, N. C.—(AP)—C. B. Hutchinson, United States postal inspector, died here after taking poison tablets.

AYDEN MAN IS GIVEN PAROLE BY GOVERNOR

Roy Smith, Convicted of Manslaughter in 1928, Set at Liberty Today

Roy Smith, Ayden young man, who has been serving five to seven years in the State penitentiary for manslaughter, has been paroled after serving nearly two years of the sentence. Announcement of the parole was made from the office of Governor O. Max Gardner this morning along with several other cases affecting other sections of the state.

Smith was paroled upon the basis of recommendations said to have been submitted by Judge Henry A. Grady, of Clinton, who passed sentence in the case at the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court April, 1928. Other recommendations are said to have been furnished by Solicitor D. M. Clark and prominent citizens of the Ayden community where Smith was reared and spent practically his entire life.

Smith was charged with the slaying of his father-in-law, Ed Anderson, while the two were on a drinking spree at a tobacco barn a short distance from where the two men lived. Smith was alleged to have been drinking heavily over a period of a month or so and shot his father-in-law while suffering heavily from the effects of alcoholism.

Although charged with murder, the solicitor asked for a verdict of manslaughter or second degree murder when the case came up for hearing.

The court in passing sentence expressed opinion that Smith had been suffering from the effects of acute alcoholism over a period of several weeks, and recommended that he be confined in the criminal insane department of the penitentiary under the care of the prison physician.

Smith is said to have been deeply regretful of the killing when he became rational, and expressed such sentiment on various occasions. It was upon the finding of the court and the public recommendations that pardon was granted.

Smith was represented by Col. Albion Dunn, former superior court judge of this city, in the filing of the parole. Petition was filed with the State department the first of this week.

Withdraws Suit to Annul Marriage of Her Daughter

Los Angeles, Feb. 6.—(AP)—The ship of matrimony, launched by two young film luminaries 12 days ago with an airplane elopement, sailed into smooth seas today with the announcement by Mrs. George U. Belzer that she would withdraw a suit to annul the marriage of her daughter, Loretta Young, 17, to Grant Withers, 24.

The matrimonial bark encountered its first difficulty on January 25, when the bride and bridegroom returned from Yuma, Ariz., where the ceremony was performed, to face a storm of parental protest. But Miss Young settled the question of its stability yesterday with a statement that "Grant and I are married, and we are going to stay married."

Million Dollar Restaurant New York—Barmaldis are to serve cocktails in a new million dollar restaurant on "uptown Wall Street," meaning Forty Second Street. The girls will agitate shakers filled with clam juice, sauerkraut juice, orange juice, grape juice, oyster juice, lemon juice and the like.

Trembling, stubble-bearded and wearied by five miles of walking from the countryside, where he had been thrown out of an automobile by his captors, he told of having been tied to a bed for eight days, blindfolded even while being fed, with his captors continually demanding ransom.

He said his captors offered to let him go if he would promise to pay $25,000 on returning home. He agreed, he said, and received his freedom, his watch and $1. Still blindfolded, he was placed in an automobile and driven for an hour and a half, he said, and then tossed out of the car.

He said he was in the yard next to his home here on the evening of January 28, when men seized him from behind, gagged him and then took him by automobile to the house in which he was held.

New Mexican President Shot Through The Jaw After His Inauguration

CONDITION OF MR. TAFT SAID TO BE BETTER

Mexico City, Feb. 6.—(AP)—In office but 24 hours, President Ortiz Rubio today was resting easily at his home, recovering from the effects of an assassin's bullet, while his government, temporarily without its leader, took up the task of investigating the outrage.

The investigation, the first outstanding question to come before the new government, fell to the lot of former President Portes Gil, in his new role of Secretary of the Interior.

The city was calm this morning and the populace was greatly relieved to read in extensive newspaper accounts that the President was considered out of danger and that he probably would be able to take up his duties within a week.

Daniel Flores, the gunman who lurked on Ortiz Rubio's trail for several hours yesterday during the inauguration ceremonies which went off at noon without a hitch and then struck when trouble was least expected, was held at the military prison while seven others were held under arrest on suspicion of implication in the plot which the government attributes to adherents of Jose Vasconcelos, defeated candidate in the last presidential election.

Flores shot the President in the cheek and jaw with a 38-calibre pistol. In all he fired six shots. One grazed the ear and scalp of Senora Ortiz Rubio; another grazed the ear of the President's young niece, Senorita Maria Rosa, while the chauffeur of the presidential car has a bullet wound in his shoulder.

The investigation into the shooting had assumed wide ramifications today but the authorities gave no indication as to what had been discovered. Troops which patrolled the streets in small groups during the night to prevent any disorder were withdrawn today with the situation completely in hand.

President Ortiz Rubio's house, however, remained under the surveillance of fifty presidential guards this morning and police diverted all traffic two blocks from the house in all directions. None except those with credentials were permitted to walk along the street in which the entrance to the home is located.

Meanwhile, messages from all parts of the world congratulating the President on the failure of the attempt to kill him and expressing sympathy were received by the government. Many of the messages

AGREES TO PAY C. H. WEBB TO RANSOM, MAN OPERATE LEAF GETS LIBERTY HOUSE IN CITY

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 6.—(AP)—Saying that he had been released on a promise to pay $25,000 ransom to kidnapers, Max Price, wealthy 66-year-old real estate broker, returned to his home today after eight days of enforced bondage.

Search for Price which had been carried on throughout Connecticut and in New York City, was ended at midnight last night when he walked into the Bridgeport railroad station. Taken to police headquarters, he told officers, "I've been through hell."

Mr. Webb was in the city yesterday completing arrangements for taking over the warehouse, and paying the way to participation in the industry next season.

Mr. Webb has been connected with the tobacco business since 1916. For the last five years he has operated a warehouse at Washington, D. C., and prior to that time was connected with the industry at Pinetops.

He is said to have been very active in development of the market at Washington and Pinetops, and his coming to Greenville is greeted with interest by tobaccoists here and in other sections of the belt where he is well known.

To Work Out Plan for Reduction of Cotton Acreage

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 6.—(AP)—After hearing the general problem defined by Carl Williams, Federal Farm Board member, the acreage committee of the American Cotton Co-operative Association today turned to the task of working out details of the cotton acreage reduction program.

Mr. Williams at the opening session of the committee's three-day meeting here, sounded the keynote of the reduction campaign when he asserted that the danger line in cotton planting in the United States should be set at 40,000 acres. Present statistics, he said that the 1929 acreage was 46,000.

CONDITION OF MR. TAFT SAID TO BE BETTER

Former Chief Justice Reported Improved Today After Comfortable Night

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Willie that Mr. Taft had a good night's resting comfortably today, with added reports coming from the city of Washington home that his condition was slightly improved.

Further indication that the former Chief Justice was in no immediate danger was taken from the report here that his sons, Charles P. and Robert A. Taft, were still in Cincinnati, and would not arrive in Washington until the week-end.

Despite the improved condition, physicians made no effort to conceal their concern over their patient who they still regard as a seriously ill man.

The first visitor at the Taft household this morning was J. Austin Latimer, secretary to the governor of South Carolina, who came to present the respects of the chief executive of the southern state. His card was presented. Other messengers, also bearing messages of sympathy from friends of the former president in various parts of the world, arrived at the big red brick house.

Physicians have announced that they would make an examination later in the day, and an official bulletin is expected at that time. While no official statement was issued this morning, it was said at the home that Taft had spent a very restful night, dropping off to sleep shortly after midnight. Dr. Thomas A. Clayton, his physician for many years, had paid him a visit just before and reported the condition of the former Chief Justice as unchanged.

After examining former Chief Justice Taft this morning, Dr. Francis R. Hagner said that Mr. Taft had experienced some difficulty in taking nourishment but otherwise was about the same as yesterday.

The physician said that Mr. Taft appeared to be as alert as he was yesterday and that his general condition seemed unchanged. He added that Mr. Taft had a good night's rest.

A bulletin signed by Dr. Thomas A. Clayton, and Dr. Francis R. Hagner, was made public at the White House shortly before noon.

Start Suit to Restrain Primary

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 6.—(AP)—An injunction suit brought by Horace Wilkinson, anti-Smith leader in 1923, to restrain Jefferson county from proceeding with the August Democratic primary because of an allegedly illegal ruling by the state party executive committee permitting county committees to fix qualifications for candidates for county offices was on file in court here today.

Members of the association have attempted to make each occasion of this kind of more interest to the buying public than ever before, and this ambition, it was said, will continue from year to year as the city attempts to maintain its reputation as the "principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina."

France Will Not Consider Abolition Of Submarines, Say Naval Parley Experts

London, Feb. 6.—(AP)—The five-power naval conference, sitting as a committee of the whole this afternoon, agreed provisionally on the general outlines of the French plan for limiting Naval tonnage, a conference spokesman announced.

The Italians still entered reservations on all points. A sub-committee of two experts and one advisor from each delegation will be named to adjust certain technical differences between the two groups, namely, the British and Americans on one hand, and the French and Japanese on the other. The sub-committee also will draft resolutions summarizing the progress which has been made.

What virtually amounts to a five-power agreement by which submarines will not be abolished although their activities will be restricted was said in conference circles this afternoon to have already been achieved.

No formal understanding has been recorded, but it was said the United States and Great Britain, while advocating the abolition of submarines, were prepared to accept the French viewpoint which provides for continuation of this

Loses Money On Street, Friend Puts It In Bank

Salt Lake City, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Money lost on the streets of this city is as good as in the bank.

G. E. Seal handed $100 to a friend on the street yesterday to deposit in the bank for him. Later Frank W. Parsons called him on the telephone.

"If you find you've lost $100 don't let it worry you," he told Seal. "I found it in your bank-book on the street and deposited it in your name at your bank."

DOLLAR DAY FEATURED BY GOOD SALES

Annual Trade Event Got Away to Good Start Here During Morning Hours

Despite depressed financial conditions said to exist in this section, "Dollar Day" got away to a good start here today and indications at the noon hour were that the participating merchants would enjoy fairly good business.

The stores taking part in the semi-annual sales event were well crowded throughout the morning hours, and hundreds of reasonable values induced liberal buying on the part of shoppers, many of whom came from a distance of several miles to see what the merchants had to offer.

It was expected that the business district would take on a carnival appearance during the late afternoon as hundreds of persons, occupied during the early part of the day, augmented the usual crowd of shoppers.

"Dollar Day" is sponsored by the Greenville Merchants Association, and is always looked forward to with more than usual interest by reason of the splendid values offered by the participating merchants.

A spirit of competition sprang up among the merchants several years ago, and each "Dollar Day" witnesses much activity to see which can produce the most outstanding bargains.

Many of the values today sold for the sum of $1.00 were originally priced as high as $10.00, and the fact that it was all reasonable goods aroused more than passing attention of the small army of bargain seekers who flock the various stores from season to season.

While there are not as many merchants as usual taking part in "Dollar Day" this time, it was stated that sales were expected to be satisfactory. Many lines of merchandise were represented on the counters of the various stores today, affording a wide variety of values for the thrifty man or woman to choose from.

Members of the association have attempted to make each occasion of this kind of more interest to the buying public than ever before, and this ambition, it was said, will continue from year to year as the city attempts to maintain its reputation as the "principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina."

Former Assistant Attorney General Held in Rum Ring

Oklahoma City, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Filing of state and federal charges against W. Oscar Gordon, former assistant attorney general of Oklahoma, provided a startling climax today to the Forewatsome county liquor conspiracy case in United States District court here.

The Federal complaint, in which Gordon was charged with extortion, was disclosed shortly after the government rested its case in the trial of 26 defendants, including Randall Pitman, county attorney, and Frank Fox, former sheriff of Forewatsome county.

Gordon is not a defendant in the conspiracy case, in which the government is attempting to prove existence of a vast ring, including numerous city and county officers, which it is charged controlled the "liquor racket" in the oil fields of Forewatsome county with an iron hand.

Both charges are the direct result of testimony given for the government by Homer Knappenberger, former mayor of Earlsboro and a confessed member of the "liquor line," in which he said he had paid Gordon a total of $2,000 to escape prosecution in connection with activities of the conspirators.

Senate Records Report On Probe Radio Activities

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Information that the justice department is conducting an investigation to determine whether the Radio Corporation of America is violating the Sherman anti-trust act was read into the record today at the Senate Interstate Commerce committee hearing on the Couzens bill.

SENATE "WET" ASSAILS DRY ENFORCEMENT

Senator Wagner Calls Upon President to Propose Remedies for Prohibition

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—President Hoover and his law enforcement commission were called upon in the Senate today by Senator Wagner, Democrat, New York, to "uncover the real abuses of prohibition and to propose remedies for their correction."

In the first speech in the Senate on the preliminary report of the commission, the New York Senator described it as "disappointing." Assailed severely some of its recommendations, and concluded that Mr. Hoover's original pronouncement for a study of prohibition "started out rich in hopes but ended in sad neglect."

Senator Wagner, a wet, was a member of the New York State Judiciary before entering the Senate; and he directed particular emphasis to an attack upon the commission's proposal to transfer trial of petty crimes to United States Commissioners.

In demanding that the law enforcement commission go directly into the merits of the prohibition law and the question of amending it, he withdrew his resolution proposing that the Senate ask the commission to order this course.

"So far the commission has apparently attempted to cure the difficulties of prohibition not by looking to the law itself," he told the Senate, "but by eliminating as far as possible the human agencies necessary in the enforcement of the law. With all due respect, I say the commission is on the wrong track."

Wagner said he wanted the investigative work of the commission redirected into important channels.

"Particularly," he said, "we want the commission to report upon the suitability of existing prohibition laws for the promotion of temperance and advisability of amending the prohibition laws to the end that we may have greater voluntary observance of the law and be spared the necessity of denying to those accused of violating it the due process of law guaranteed by the Constitution."

"Such an inquiry," Mr. President, presupposes the premise that the investigators realize that the prohibition law is in a class by itself. We must, if we are to treat this problem realistically, recognize the difference between laws which are universally approved, except by the criminal fringe of society, and laws which are violated and disregarded by large numbers of otherwise law-abiding citizens without any compunctions of conscience."

Senate Records Report On Probe Radio Activities

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Information that the justice department is conducting an investigation to determine whether the Radio Corporation of America is violating the Sherman anti-trust act was read into the record today at the Senate Interstate Commerce committee hearing on the Couzens bill.

A letter from John Lord O'Brian, assistant to the attorney general, which said the inquiry centered on whether the corporation was exceeding its right under patents it holds was ordered placed in the record by Chairman Couzens.

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—French naval conference circles declared flatly today that France would not in any way consider now the abolition of submarines. The pro-

SIGN YOUR NAME.

Our public forum column is always open to our readers for the discussion of matters dealing with public welfare, and issues, and we are glad to get communications for this column, but again it is necessary for us to remind our contributors that we must have their names with their articles. In certain instances, we carry contributions over fictitious names, but always we have in our files the true names of the writers of the articles.

No doubt some of our readers have been misled by this and think that no name is necessary in connection with articles for our forum, for we receive many worthwhile articles that have to go into the wastebasket because we do not know their source. We call attention to this again at this time because today some one of our readers will be looking for an item that does not appear because we do not know who wrote it.

Let us assure you that our forum is open to the public, it is our pleasure to permit a discussion of public questions, but in all instances we must know the source of the contributions. Send them in but please sign your name.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

"Does advertising pay?" This is a question that we are often asked, and while our answer is in the affirmative, there are still some who take it that our answer is prompted entirely by the fact that advertising is the one commodity from which a newspaper receives its revenue. For the benefit of those who might still regard their advertising as an expense rather than an investment in a greater volume of business, we reprint the News and Observer's comment on a recent statement of Dr. Clarence True Wilson on the subject of tobacco consumption and the part that advertising plays in the same.

The Observer says: "If the manufacturers of tobacco did not believe that advertising increased their sales they would not expend many millions yearly in stressing the superiority of their particular brands. A recent additional proof that advertising pays is the statement of Dr. Clarence True Wilson, opponent of the use of tobacco, who holds the view that 'if the advertising of tobacco were to cease it is probable that within five years the number of tobacco users would decrease by half.' "Newspapers may not agree with Dr. Wilson as to the number, but they and the growers of the weed, who wish an increase in consumption, are not averse to Dr. Wilson's boosting of the value of advertising. If he is right, newspapers and magazines are 50 per cent responsible for the increase in the consumption of tobacco."

ABOUT TOWN

Preparations in connection with the Centennial celebration of the State Baptist convention to be held in this city during the 6 and 7th of March are continuing with marked interest and indications at this time point to one of the greatest gatherings in history of the denomination.

The program for the celebration was made public yesterday. It contains some interesting features—things vitally affecting the hundred years' growth of the convention, and they will prove of more than passing interest to the thousands of Baptists not only in this state but throughout the entire South.

Of particular interest is the coming of Governor O. Max Gardner. He will discuss the influence of the denomination over the hundred year period and attempt to show the great things accomplished by the various churches of the convention.

Other speakers of prominence from this and other states will be in attendance and do their part in making the gathering one of the most notable in this part of the state.

Greenville plans to entertain the convention members in great style, and with the co-operation of the public there is no reason in the world that every one of the thousands of persons should not be amply provided for in the way of beds and food.

Tobaccoists of Greenville have already started preparing for another season judging by the announcements contained in the columns of this paper yesterday and today.

The changes affect the warehouse side of the industry and form the opening gun in preparations for another year's activities.

Greenville is easily the most prominent tobacco market in this section of the country and with the combined effort of the warehousemen and other representatives of the industry there is no reason in the world why she should not assume a more conspicuous place in the life of the business.

Last year we established a record which every man, woman and child of the locality was proud of even though we failed to sell as much tobacco as during the preceding year. With the smallest production in history, we grew thousands of pounds of bright leaf from territories heretofore untouched, and boosted averages to no little extent.

This should prove to everybody that the market is capable of greater development, and with a normal crop, there is no reason in the world why we should not set an entirely new record for other markets to shoot at.

Today is "Dollar Day" in Greenville and as usual for an occasion of this kind thousands of people will throng the business district and inspect the countless bargains which Greenville merchants have provided for them.

"Dollar Day" is always of more than usual significance to Greenville and Pitt county people by reason of the fact that local merchants make an effort to offer seasonable goods several times less than their original value. They vie with one another in an attempt to give to the public the best to be had in their particular lines, and in many instances the latest creations from great style centers are represented.

People from this great trade territory should make a habit of coming to Greenville during these events and in that way actually learn of the splendid values offered for their special benefit.

The personal exemption under the revenue act is $1,500 for a single person or $3,500 for married persons living together. Also a taxpayer may claim $400 for each person dependent upon him for support if such person is under the age of 18 or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. Such dependent need not be a relative of the taxpayer nor a member of his household. The term "mentally or physically defective" includes not only crippled and those mentally defective but persons in ill health and the aged.

Frequently the question is asked, "Why is a return demanded when the personal exemption and credit for dependents amount to more than the net income and thus reflects a nontaxable return?" The filing of a return that shows no tax liability, however, is not a useless procedure as far as the Bureau of Internal Revenue is concerned. In many cases such returns are found upon examination not to be nontaxable, as claimed by the person filling the return. If the amount of personal exemption and credit for dependents claimed is more than he was entitled to under the law, such amounts are properly reduced to the amount allowable, and there is disclosed a tax liability.

Methodist Church Considers Merger Education Board

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 6.—(AP)—The educational association of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, today considered divergent views of its leaders regarding proposals looking to the merging of the board of education of the church with the Epworth and Sunday School boards. It was considered probable that a memorial on the subject would be adopted before the annual meeting adjourns tonight. Discussion of the plan for the unification of the boards—drafted by the educational commission of the general conference of the church—occupied the meeting of the association yesterday. Dr. H. H. Sherman, general secretary of the board of education of the church; Dr. D. M. Key, president of Millsaps College; Dr. R. H. Bennett, president of Lander college; and other school heads vigorously opposed the plan. Dr. Paul B. Kern of San Antonio, Tex., presented the plan to the association and replied to opponents of the proposal. The plan will be submitted to the next general conference of the church in Dallas, Texas, in May.

Amnesty for Persons Charged With Sedition

Madrid, Feb. 6.—(AP)—A royal decree was issued today declaring a general amnesty for all accused or convicted of rebellion or sedition against the Spanish government during the dictatorship of General Primo de Rivera, who was overthrown last week. The decree wiped out charges against Jose Antonio Sanchez Guerrero, former liberal premier, who

Scouts to Hold Union Services Sunday Night

The annual union service of the Boy Scouts of America will be held in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church Sunday evening at 7:30. Reverend Lee Sadler will conduct the service and all Boy Scouts are cordially invited to attend. Mr. Sadler is interested in young people's movements, and has done much fine work in this line. All officers of Boy Scouts as well as the Scouts themselves and the public are invited to this service.

This Boy Was in a Hurry

Princeton, N. J.—John E. Baker, of Lake Forest, Ill., is in the blue chips as the result of doubts of Princeton classmates about his ability. He walked from Times Square, New York, to Nassau Hall, Princeton, 48 miles, in 11 hours 12 minutes—thereby winning a wager that he could do it in less than 12 hours.

Gets Even With Cop By Marrying Him

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 6.—(AP)—"I'll get even with you," said Miss Florence E. Steiger to Policeman George Bein when he gave her a ticket for overtime parking. "I'll get even, if it takes the rest of my life." That happened last June. There is little more to add, save to mention that Bein, who is 30, and Miss Steiger, who is 26, have announced their forthcoming marriage.

Begin Search for Missing Airplane

Eureka, Utah, Feb. 6.—(AP)—A searching party assembled here today to search the hills 17 miles southwest of here for Maurice Graham, Western Air Express pilot, missing since January 11, following a report that four miners saw an unusual fire in the mountains some distance from their camp the morning after Graham disappeared while en route to Salt Lake City from Las Vegas, Nevada. The miners arrived here yesterday after having been snowbound at their mining claim for nearly two months.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW* By refraining from over-indulgence

Men who would keep that trim, proper figure, women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—Be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. MRS. MOSELEY HOSTESS TO END OF CENTURY CLUB

The End of the Century Club held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Moseley on Fifth street. Nearly all members were present and several guests were welcomed for the afternoon. Misses Mead, Gorrell, Hooper, McArthur, Bridges, Moore, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. W. B. Murphy and Mrs. Miller from Snow Hill.

At the business hour the club voted to divide the proceeds of the play recently given between the public library and the welfare work of the county. It was also voted that the club write Mr. Sheppard a letter of appreciation for his generosity in placing a library in Greenville.

A vote of thanks was given Miss Emma L. Hooper, member of the college faculty, who coached the play "Disposing of Mary," which was sponsored by the club.

At the close of the business hour the program was turned over to Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, whose subject was "Latest in Science," and "Lives of Scientists and Explorers of Nature." Mrs. Ficklen's inspiring and instructive talk of these scientists such as Steinmetz, Edison, Buke, Gray, Dana and Josiah William Gibbs made us see these men as never before. She said to these men who have widened the boundaries of human knowledge we owe a debt which we can repay only by a friendly remembrance of the work they have done. No one knows their struggle or their achievements so well as those who have followed them over the same paths.

She reviewed the scientific record of the republic for the past fifty years, stating that these men had neither gained or lost wealth, none elected to the Senate, none led elected hosts to victory, and none took part in any form of melodrama which would make their names known on the street, instead they lived quietly, worked quietly and saw truth.

Love of work, the pulsation of personal enthusiasm, is perhaps the greatest single asset a man of science can have.

Mrs. Ficklen especially emphasized our medical scientists, mentioning that often they went down into the valley of the shadow of death, themselves seeking some cure or help for suffering humanity. In the medical field, Dr. John Hunter, one of our own boys, was mentioned as being world renowned in this line of work.

In addition to the history of the telephone, telegraph, airplane and numerous other inventions mentioned, she said there is nothing in the realm of wonder-lore more marvelous than the radio. Last, but by no means least, Mrs. Ficklen told of what the radio had meant to the modern world. In our own room simply by the turn of a switch we can hear the world's greatest men in conference discussing the big questions before each country today; if we are more music-loving we can hear the world's foremost artists, or should we be sentimentally inclined, we may dim our lights, turn another station and get the Wendell orchestra, and with a touch of patinas in every chord comes floating to your ears that old familiar melody "Darling Nellie Gray."

The club was very proud in their thanks to Mrs. Ficklen for this highly entertaining and instructive talk.

To complete the program, Miss Gorrell played on the violin a group of Indian numbers, accompanied by Miss Mead. These were based on original Indian love themes, and like much of the Indian music, had in them an element of sadness. The numbers were, "Indian Love Song," by Charles Cadman; "By the Waters of Minnetonka," by Thurlow Lieverance; "Indian Love Call" from Rose Marie, by R. Friml.

We are always glad to have these teachers from the college faculty and appreciate their willingness to add these fine numbers of our program.

After being served a delicious salad course the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. E. W. Harvey February 18th.

SANS SOUCI CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. SKINNER AND MRS. WALDROP

The Sans Souci Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the spacious home of Mrs. L. C. Skinner, with Mrs. Herbert Waldrop as joint hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Kittrell. The secretary called the roll and nearly the entire membership answered present.

The treasurer collected $50.00 in dues, $40.00 of which will be given to Mr. Futrell to be used during the present emergency for the community relief center.

The club as an organization voted to write to Mr. Harper Sheppard, of Hanover, Pa., thanking him for his most generous gift to the town for a library in memory of his father, a former citizen. The letter will bear the signature of each member of the club.

We feel that the town will be greatly benefited and much credit is due to Mrs. R. L. Carr for suggesting and using her influence in procuring this magnificent gift.

The books were passed, after which Mrs. Skinner, in her charming manner, gave some very beautiful thoughts about "Valentine," the subject for the afternoon. She read a very interesting story.

Mrs. Hall in her attractive way, recited several poems of her own composition relating to the subject "Love."

Mrs. Waldrop, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Tyson, sang most charmingly, "Love Sends a Gift of Roses," "The Song of Love," and a group of songs of long ago.

Mrs. Waldrop passed pencils and heart-shaped cards and asked each one present to write a poem. Mrs. Frank Wilson being the real Valentine of the club, was declared the winner after she and Mrs. W. I. Wooten had tied for the best composition. She was presented with a heart-shaped box of candy.

We were next invited into the dining room, where we were served in cream in fancy shapes, cake, candy and nuts, carrying out the color scheme of red and white. While some were being served, others were engaged in the game of pinning small hearts on a large one. Mrs. Kittrell was presented with a doric for placing the heart nearest the center.

The club was delighted to have as guests for the afternoon, Mrs. Wooten, Mrs. Bendall, Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Tyson and Miss Mary Hadley, of Raleigh.

Resolutions of Respect.

On the 11th of January, 1930, our heavenly Father called to Himself our beloved co-worker and friend, Dr. C. J. Ellen.

In the life of every organization or home there comes a time when one hand is removed from the wheel; one voice accustomed to command, advise, or suggest, is silenced. Such a moment has come to Memorial Baptist Church, and to the home of our much loved friend, Mrs. C. J. Ellen.

The memory of Dr. Ellen's ready response and his untiring giving of himself not only to his family but to any civic organization that meant for the betterment of his community, will be a source of inspiration to all who were privileged to work with him. His heart and sympathy were broad enough to take in all mankind, and the great pleasure of his life was to dispense sunshine and happiness to all with whom he came in contact.

The grief of his death is sincere to every member of the Memorial Baptist Church where he worked so loyally and faithfully as Teacher of the Baracca Class, Chairman of the Board of Deacons and in any other place where there was a need. At last death is only a dream, with him it must have been a sweet transition, untouched by pain. He has only left the troubles and sorrows of this life to take up the pleasures and happiness that awaits us in the home not made with hands.

The world is poorer and Heaven richer by the going of Dr. Ellen. May the characteristics which constituted this noble and exemplary life be instilled in all of our hearts and make of us better men and women, by having come in contact with such a beautiful life.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we, the members of Memorial Baptist Church tender to Mrs. Ellen and children our deepest sympathy in their loss of a loving companion and a devoted father.

Also, resolved, That we, the members of the Memorial Baptist Church, remember the bereaved family in our prayers and remind them that the Divine Hand that made the call, can wipe away their tears and soothe their sorrow and bring to their broken hearts, the sweet solace that comes from the memory of a faithful life.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our church Book, one to the Biblical Recorder for publication and one to the bereaved family.

Mrs. J. B. Spillman, Dr. Joseph Smith, N. C. Brooks.

Hostess to Club.

Farmville, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Lath Morris was hostess Tuesday afternoon to her bridge club. Bridge was played at three tables with the following guests invited to play with the members: Mrs. R. C. Thornton, Mrs. P. E. Jones, Mrs. W. D. Debnam, Mrs. J. W. Joyner and Mrs. Madeline Rountree. Misses Lina and Edwina Hooks, of Ayden were house guests of the hostess and received dainty handkerchiefs as gifts. Mrs. J. W. Joyner won the high score prize, a vial of perfume. Mrs. C. S. Vought, a new member, was given a cordial welcome. A delightful sweet course was served.

Valentine Party.

Farmville, Feb. 6.—Mrs. J. M. Wheelless entertained a number of young people at her home on Church street Monday evening, honoring her son, James, and a school friend, Ludwood Spears, of Winterville. These young men, students of Wake Forest, are at home for the spring holidays.

The parlors were attractively arranged in red and white and refreshments, served by Misses Mary Privette Wheelless, Vivian Case, and Mrs. John Dwight Holmes, carried the same color notes.

A heart contest, games and a musical hour was enjoyed.

—Reported.

Under a general topic of "The Independent Theatre Movement in England," Mrs. E. C. Beaman reviewed the work of Galsworthy and Mrs. A. C. Hodges discussed his play, "Strife." Adding variety and charm to the program were two vocal selections by Mrs. John Dwight Holmes.

A communication was read from the state president, Mrs. Land, urging co-operation in the Live-at-Home program of the Governor, and with the relief program of the county welfare officer. The legislative committee appointed to draw up new laws for this group, made a report and members were given a typewritten list of changes and proposed new measures, which will be voted on at the next meeting.

A very delightful ice course was served at the close of the program. Special guests included Meslames John Dwight Holmes, J. W. Lovelace and Bert Taylor.

Progressive Bridge Club.

Farmville, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Mrs. A. Jones delightfully entertained the Progressive Bridge Club this week. Four tables were arranged in the living room in a setting of winter berries and pussy willow branches. No prizes were given as this club is in the midst of a tournament. In addition to the club members Mrs. Jones had as her guests Mrs. C. T. Dixon, Mrs. Madeline Rountree and Mrs. J. L. Shucklerford. A chicken salad course with hot coffee was served after six progressions.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Cotton opened barely steady at a decline of 15 to 23 points today under a renewal of more or less general selling which was evidently stimulated by reports of declines of Liverpool and Egyptian cotton at Alexandria and in the Bombay market.

There was trade buying and covering but it seemed to be quite readily supplied and by the end of the first half hour, active months were selling 2 to 25 points r/r lower. This decline carried March back to 15.80 or even with the previous low level, while May and later deliveries made new low records for the season. May sold off to 16.40 and October to 16.45, with May at this price showing a decline of 38 points from the high level of yesterday.

Liverpool cables said that continental and Bombay liquidation had been absorbed by coverings and that the later had been promoted by the reduced bank rate. The decline in Egyptian cotton was attributed to a bearish estimate of the Sudan crop.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 6.—(AP)—In a rapidly fluctuating market, wheat values here scored sharp upturns during the late dealings today. Commission houses became active buyers after an early rush of selling that forced prices down to new low records for the season. Russia was reported to be trying to arrange foreign bank credits on offers of 250,000 tons of export wheat, but it was asserted in usually well informed quarters that Russia has in reality no grain of consequence to spare and that her need is cash with which to purchase machinery.

Wheat closed firm 1-1/8 to 1-7/8c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1-4 to 3-8 to 5-8 up; oats 1-8 to 1-2 advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Frequent shifting of speculative sentiment imparted considerable irregularity today in the stock market. Prices opened higher, then reacted sharply before the high priced industrial specialties. Heavy buying of Fox Film and a selected group of utilities turned the course of prices upward again in the early afternoon. Trading failed to maintain the brisk pace set in the first 4,000-share session of the year yesterday.

Call money renewed at 4-1/2 per cent but again dropped to 4 when the official opening rate was shaded in the outside market. Time money and commercial paper were unchanged. Wall Street was divided in opinion as to whether the New York Federal Reserve Bank would follow the action of the Bank of England in cutting the rediscount rate this afternoon. Insofar as acting as stimulus on business, it was agreed in many quarters that a lowering of the rate might be more effective a few weeks later, but some bankers felt that an immediate reduction was likely to prevent the export of gold from London to New York.

There was little in the day's business news to influence the price movement. Several excellent 1929 earnings reports made their appearance, Crucible Steel and McKesson The Plate being among the many issues to make favorable comparisons with 1928.

Western Union converted an early loss of 2 points into a gain of 2 points and American Woolen company and preferred, Canadian Pacific, Columbian Carbon, Calumet & Arizona, General Asphalt, General American Tank Car and National lead sold 2 to 6 points higher.

submarines are a necessity for France.

It was understood that Premier Tardieu plans next Tuesday's plenary session to meet the proposal for abolition of the undersea boat with a speech in which he will say that France considers the submarine the life-blood of the French navy. Although it is not wanted as an offensive weapon. He will contend, it is most necessary for the defense of the French coast line.

The French position is that coast defense guns are immobile and of short range and therefore mobile submarines are vitally necessary to protect ports from attack. Another French argument is that submarines are essential to guard convoys and are more valuable even than cruisers in this respect.

With this issue before it next Tuesday's plenary session promised to be one of the outstanding sessions of the conference. The nations will be aligned about as follows: America and Great Britain for total abolition of the craft, France and Japan insist upon retention, while Italy probably will adopt a rather noncommittal attitude.

Italy is willing to abolish submarines if France will do so but insists that Italians must have submarines if her northern neighbors have them. This Italian attitude will be governed by the French attitude.

It was understood the resolution which the French will propose Tuesday would provide that in time of war all international maritime laws and regulations provided under the Hague convention shall be applicable to submarines equally as to other warships.

One of these regulations provides that no merchant vessel shall be sunk by any war vessels unless the safety of the people aboard the merchantman can be assured and the attacking vessel has sufficient accommodations to provide for those taken off the torpedoed ship.

It was understood France would demand that any conventions on the subject of submarines signed at London shall be registered with the League of Nations. Then all other naval powers possessing submarines and not represented at the London conference would be invited to sign and ratify the convention.

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by J. J. Redding and wife, Henrietta Redding, on the 4th day of May, 1927, and recorded in Book P-18, page 441, we will on Saturday, the 11 day of March, 1930, 12 o'clock, noon at the court house door in Greenville, N. C. Pitt County, sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder, the following land, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake on the new Pactolus-Washington road, said stake being in the line of B. F. Parrott, and running with the said B. F. Parrott line S. 45-00 West 28 rods to a stake; thence South 11-00 W. 82 rods to another stake, a corner of B. F. Parrott and Will Reddick; thence running with the line of Will Reddick South 65-00 West 90 rods to the corner of the Andrew Brown land; thence running with the said Andrew Brown line North 1-00 E. 179 rods to a stake on the new Pactolus-Washington road; thence running with the said road South 81-00 E. 54 rods to the beginning point, containing THIRTY ONE (31) acres, more or less, and bounded as follows, to-wit: On the North by the new Pactolus-Washington road; On the East by B. F. Parrott; On the South by Will Reddick; On the West by Andrew Brown.

This sale is made by reason of the failure of J. J. Redding and wife Henrietta Redding, to pay off and discharge the indebtedness accrued by said deed of trust to the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank of Durham.

A deposit of 10 per cent will be required of the purchaser at the sale.

This the 19th day of Dec. 1929. First National Bank of Durham, Trustee. Durham, N. C. Feb. 6-11w-4w.

announcement of the American delegation head, Colonel Henry L. Timson, that at next Tuesday's plenary session he would propose abolition of underwater craft.

France as already been forecast, it was said, intends to make proposals for "humanization" of submarine warfare. It was understood the main French stipulation would forbid the sinking of merchant vessels in wartime unless they were armed heavily. In this case the nations would bind themselves to make every provision for the safety of crews.

The French announcement was made after a meeting of the delegation last night at which the submarine question was examined again on the basis of an announcement that America and Great Britain were agreed on the advisability of abolishing the craft. The outcome of the deliberation was a reaffirmation of the old stand that
