HOOVER URGES MORE SPEED ON TARIFF ISSUE

He Is Told, However, That Measure Cannot Be Passed Before March 10

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Senate Republican leaders informed President Hoover today that the tariff bill probably could not be passed before March 10.

Called to the White House by the President, the Republican chiefs were urged to speed action on this long pending question. But they replied they were "at the mercy of the coalition."

Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, told Mr. Hoover that the tariff bill was in the hands of the Republican Independent Democratic coalition which is now engaged in paring down some existing tariff rates.

Watson said there were innumerable additional amendments yet to be acted upon.

"We have not got the votes in the Senate," the Republican leader said after the meeting. "We are at the mercy of the coalition and I don't think we can get the tariff bill passed before March 10."

The breakfast conference was called this morning because of apprehension over the legislative jam beginning to form in the Senate. Mr. Hoover summoned Republican leaders of both the House and Senate.

The House leaders complained bitterly over the long period taken by the Senate in discussing the tariff and warned that the whole legislative program for this session was being endangered.

The Senate chiefs replied there was nothing to be done about it and placed full responsibility on the coalition which has mustered a majority on most of the tariff votes in the Senate.

Mr. Hoover, who called the conference with a view to expediting the legislative situation at the capital, was represented as accepting the situation. He is understood to be anxious for the passage of the tariff bill regardless of the time required although he hopes for speedy action.

Steamer Stuck Fast in Sands

Astoria, Ore., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Abandoned by her passengers and all but 24 members of her crew, the steamer Admiral Benson today was stuck fast in the treacherous sands of Peacock Spit, off the mouth of the Columbia river, and marine authorities held slight hopes of refloating her.

Survivors of the vessel were only a small chance that the Pacific Steamship Company's coastal liner, from which 39 passengers and a similar number of the crew were removed Sunday and yesterday by lifeboat and breeches buoy, would ever be pulled from the Spit. Normally drawing 19 feet of water, they said she rests in water varying in depth from four feet at low tide to nine or ten feet at flood tide.

The Admiral Benson grounded Saturday night while heading for Portland and Seattle, having sailed from California ports.

Those remaining aboard the ship included Captain Charles Graham and all deck and engine room officers. The balance of the crew and five remaining passengers were taken off the ship yesterday.

Dudley Appointed Receiver for Smiths

F. R. Dudley was yesterday appointed receiver for R. L. Smith and W. H. Smith as a result of suits brought requesting the receivership. The petitioners were represented by L. W. Gaylord and W. S. Tyson while the defendants were represented by Albion Dunn and L. G. Cooper.

Assets of R. L. Smith were given as approximately $450,000, with liabilities of approximately $238,000. W. H. Smith's assets were set forth as approximately $60,000 with liabilities of approximately $30,000.

In addition to operating a horse and mule business here on a large scale for a number of years past Messrs. Smith are large farm owners and operators and are interested in considerable real estate in this city, including the Pitt County fair grounds.

Seek Negro for Slaying Woman, Injuring Another

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 18.—(AP)—A young negro was sought today by authorities as the man who entered a grocery store here last night, killed Miss Ida Krebs, 50, with an axe and seriously injured her cousin, Miss Louise Lohrum, 35, with the same instrument.

Neighbors attracted by screams of Miss Lohrum found the mutilated body of Miss Krebs lying in a bedroom to the rear of the store which the women operated.

Continue Investigation Of Hazing At State College; Three Students Expelled

Five More Students Believed Involved in Hazing of Three Students at North Carolina Institution During Month of February; Officials Investigating

Raleigh, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Seeking the identity of five more students believed to have been involved in the hazing of three students in February, officials at North Carolina State College continued their investigation today after having expelled three students yesterday.

The three who were dismissed from school, R. I. Smith, A. T. Campbell and J. E. Lassiter, were all sophomores from Greensboro.

Smith was charged with being the leader of a party of five which injured his fellow townsman, Charles Kellenberger, Jr., a sophomore, when hazing him at night.

President E. G. Brooks, who with Dean of Students E. L. Cloyd and the student council, investigated the affair, said that some of the five who entered the room were masked and that they beat Kellenberger with their fists and not with a black jack as he had testified.

Son of Dictator of Spain Expelled From His Country

Madrid, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Miguel Primo De Rivera, second son of the former dictator, has been expelled from Spain because of inclination to challenge detractors of his father to duels. Spanish police yesterday placed him on an express train for Iran and Hendaye, and accompanied him to the French border. An official explanation of the deportation said it was to prevent his fighting duels with army officers in Madrid who he said had insulted his father.

Miguel is 26 years old and a lieutenant in the army reserve corps. Last week he boxed the ears of General Queipo De Llano in a fashionable cafe and challenged him to a duel for sending an insulting letter to the resigned dictator. Since there was a vast difference in rank Miguel was threatened with disciplinary measures instead of having his challenge accepted.

FRENCH MUST MARK TIME AT ARMS PARLEY

Government Crisis Causes Delegation to Be Unable to Proceed With Work

London, Feb. 18.—(AP)—With a sudden change of plans of the French naval conference delegation, Georges Leygues, today left for Paris in connection with the French government crisis. Previously he had been ordered to stay in London as a conference observer.

London, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Georges Leygues, French Minister of Marine, acting on behalf of the French delegation to the naval conference, called on Ramsay MacDonald, British Premier, this forenoon and informed him that pending a solution of the French political crisis the French delegation would have to mark time here.

M. Leygues had hoped to return to Paris today but last minute instructions of M. Tardieu, who will act as Premier until himself or another is designated, bade him remain in London and act as observer at the conference. Naturally, M. Tardieu, Briand and Poincare remain in Paris until a new cabinet is formed.

While this political monkey wrench had interfered with the conference machinery there were still parts of it running today though greatly retarded. Prime Minister MacDonald asked Secretary Stimson and Foreign Minister Grandi to meet him this afternoon in the House of Commons for a consultation. It has been generally understood that Grandi has been preparing to publish a statement of Italy's position, in answer to claims also considered the position of 72,000.

The American delegation met this morning and reviewed last night's conversations with the Japanese regarding naval ratios. The Americans also considered the position of the conference as affected by the fall of the French cabinet. It is understood the Americans take the view that progress of the conference will not be long interfered with.

One of the first effects of the French crisis was the cancellation of a scheduled Franco-American conference but the Americans filled in their time with other matters.

VOW OF YOUTH PLAYS PART IN MURDER CASE

High Point Attorney Figures in Solution of 38-Year-Old Murder Mystery

High Point, Feb. 18.—(AP)—A vow of a local attorney took as a youth to bring to justice, if humanly possible, the slayers of his uncle was credited today with resulting in the arrest in Starke, Fla., of John Morgan, charged with the murder of Francis Tally in Stanly county 38 years ago.

Tally, a rich old bachelor, who lived alone, was beaten and hacked to death with an axe in November, 1892, by two men who ransacked his home in a vain attempt to obtain a hoard of gold he was reputed to have kept hidden.

Details of the ghastly crime were indelibly impressed upon the mind of young J. Allen Austin, a nephew, now a practicing attorney in this city. When Austin was a law student at the University of North Carolina he vowed that some day he would find out who slew his uncle.

Many months after he had completed his law course and located in High Point Austin carried on a tireless investigation into the mystery that veiled the death of his uncle, but without result.

The attorney almost had given up hope of ever solving the mystery until a few weeks later when a strange story reached his ears.

While on a visit to his old home in Stanly county he learned from a friend that an old man living in the county had declared he "took the two men who killed Mr. Tally out of the state."

The old man told the story in a crowd that had gathered to "swap yarns" of things that happened years ago.

"I was just a boy," the old man was quoted as saying, "but I had enough sense to keep that thing quiet. This is the first time I have ever told the story."

The "yarn teller" mentioned the names of the two men who lived in Stanly county years ago.

Armed with this information, Mr. Austin resumed his investigation with new vigor. After several days of vigorous inquiry, the arrest of Morgan in Florida resulted. The attorney says he hopes to gather sufficient evidence to bring about other arrests soon.

American Naval Gunners Repulse Attack Of Chink Bandits On Yangtze River

Bandits Attack Vessels of Standard Oil Company; Number of Casualties Undetermined

Shanghai, Feb. 18.—(AP)—American naval gunners unloosed their machine guns and silenced a group of bandits yesterday when the latter fired upon two steamers belonging to the Standard Oil company of New York. The encounter took place on the Yangtze river about 150 miles above Ichang.

The recent wave of banditry in Hunan, Kiangsi, Huper, Anhwei and Kiangsu provinces has been described as serious. Attempted pillaging of foreign ships on the upper Yangtze caused American authorities to place armed guards aboard the Standard Oil company ships operating on the river.

Seizure by a pirate gang of 12 vessels chartered by the Standard Oil company was reported at Canton last Friday. The vessels were carrying $50,000 worth of oil and the pirates were said to be holding them for ransom. The American consul sent a protest to the Canton military.

Two prohibition agents were suspended pending an investigation of the shooting of Nellie Church, Knoxville, Iowa, nurse, who was wounded while riding in an automobile near Knoxville.

MEMBER OF BANDIT GANG SLAIN IN FLA.

St. Cloud, Fla., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Harry Barnes, believed to have been a member of the notorious Ashley bandit gang, was killed, and Sheriff L. R. Farmer, of Osceola county and Harry Terwilliger said to be an escaped convict from the state prison farm at Raiford, were probably fatally wounded in a gun fight near here early today.

All three men were taken to a hospital at Orlando where Barnes died. Physicians said recovery of Sheriff Farmer and Terwilliger was doubtful.

Terwilliger was shot through the pelvic bone by Barnes during an argument between the two convicts as they sat in a stolen automobile on the outskirts of St. Cloud discussing a proposed holdup plot, police declared. Barnes was said to have shot Terwilliger when the latter refused to go through with the robbery plan.

The matter of the annual ladies' night was brought before the club and it was decided that this should be held the night of Monday, March 17th. Rotarian F. E. Mayor, of Washington, was a guest of the club.

Heavy Snowfall Catches Alaskan City Unprepared

Jurauan, Alaska, Feb. 18.—This may be in the "frozen north" of fiction fame but Juneau, which hasn't experienced below zero weather for more than five years, has been poorly prepared for the continuous snowfall of the past three days.

The city found only three shovels available at hardware stores, all others having been bought by citizens. Freight is being delivered by sleds, automobile traffic is at a standstill and lack of coal has resulted in its being distributed a sackful at a time to families.

Search for New Premier Begins With Customary Consultations With Political Chiefs and Party Leaders; Believed Tardieu May Succeed Himself

Paris, Feb. 18.—(AP)—President Doumergue's search for a new French Premier began this morning with customary consultations with political chiefs and party leaders.

Former Premier Poincare was among the first summoned to the Elysee Palace, the president wishing his views on the situation created by defeat of Premier Tardieu and his government in the chamber of deputies yesterday.

Andre Tardieu, who is confined to his bed with a severe case of grippe, probably will succeed himself as French premier despite defeat of his government in the chamber yesterday on a vote of confidence, 286 to 281.

It was expected that President Doumergue, after conferring with the president of the chamber and of the senate, and possibly other political leaders, would ask the premier-resigned to form a new government. It was believed a week might pass before a new cabinet is completed.

Yesterday's defeat was inflicted with only a triviale stake, whether a store-keeper should be allowed to deduct his wife's salary from his profits for calculation of income tax. It was one item of the budgetary legislation which the left wing opposition had fought detail by detail.

Former Premier Poincare, in touch with finance minister Cheron by telephone from his bed, agreed that the time had come to make a stand against the growing opposition; the question of confidence was raised and the cabinet was beaten by five votes.

The ministers went immediately to M. Tardieu's home where resignation was decided upon. M. Tardieu wished to accompany them to the president's home to present the resignation but his doctors would not let him up and the ministers proceeded alone, meeting President Doumergue at 10 P. M. The president accepted the resignation.

The naval conference and the defeat of the Tardieu government had echoes today at a meeting of one of the chamber groups of the left wing which unanimously voted to throw its support to a government which will defend at London a naval program indispensable to the security and independence of France.

The Socialist deputies adopted a resolution that "Tardieu's reactionary government" had been struck a mortal blow in its entirety by the chamber's adverse vote thus insinuating that Tardieu himself had been discredited.

The resolution added that the Socialists were willing to form a cabinet and even were ready to support a ministry of the left which was pledged to a program of French reform and peace.

Former Premier Poincare, who recently recovered from an illness and whose name was being mentioned as possibly playing a part in the new French cabinet, arrived at Elysee palace this afternoon.

Alexander Moore Dead in California

Los Angeles, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Alexander P. Moore, newspaperman and diplomat, lies in death here today while thousands of friends and acquaintances throughout the world mourn his passing. Mr. Moore, who recently was appointed by President Hoover to serve as America's first Ambassador to Poland, died yesterday following a brief illness with bronchial pneumonia. He was 63 years old.

Stricken recently while resting at Palm Springs, Southern California desert resort, with what appeared to be a severe cold, the former Ambassador to Spain and later to Peru, was removed to a Moravia, Cal., sanitarium where an examination revealed an unsuspected lung infection which rapidly spread to the throat. He later was removed to the California hospital here, where his condition grew worse.

Mr. Moore began his career as office boy for the Pittsburgh, Pa., Telegraph, of which he later became the publisher.

Report Rupture In Engagement of Princess Ilena

Bucharest, Rumania, Feb. 18.—(AP)—There is general expectation that an announcement will be made breaking the engagement of Princess Ilena to young Count Hoebberg after Queen Marie and her daughter return from their Oriental tour.

Nothing is available in official quarters with regard to the rupture of the engagement but in aristocratic circles it was heard that the engagement had been made too hurriedly with insufficient investigation of the Hoebberg antecedents. It was regarded as an unwise step.

WEALTH

The annual analysis of income tax returns has become a sort of barometer of private wealth, of individual and class prosperity. There is no better vane for telling the directions in which wealth flows from year to year.

There is the recent tabulation of 1928 income tax figures. It shows an increase in number of incomes of a million dollars or over from 290 to 496; an increase from 11 to 24 in the number of persons whose annual incomes exceeded $5,000,000; an increase from 33,695 to 42,613 in the number of persons whose incomes exceed $50,000 a year.

A far more important "reading" on this barometer is that showing an increase of 13,000 in incomes from $10,000 to $25,000 of 20,500 in incomes from $10,000 to $40,000 and of nearly a million in the number of men and women reporting incomes from $3,000 to $5,000 a year.

Accumulation of great wealth as indicated in the income tax figures somewhat sensationally overshadows other phases no less important to the nation. Considering the larger population of millionaires apart from the much great jump made by incomes in the lower brackets, it would appear that wealth is becoming concentrated with the few. The report taken as a whole proves, on the contrary, that a wider distribution of wealth is being effected.

ABOUT TOWN

Hog shipments will start in March and more money will come rolling into the pockets of Pitt county people who have engaged in this industry the past year.

Hog-raising has grown considerably in this county the past several years and it promises to assume such proportions in the future that it will mean additional revenue in the pockets of numbers of farmers who heretofore have confined their attention to the production of one or two principal crops.

This is what it is going to take to put this section of the country back to normal, and we are watching with special pride the growth to be reflected in the hog sales for the coming season.

Live-at-home week came to an end in North Carolina last Friday, but the doctrine will continue to be preached in Pitt county if the local farm department has its way about it.

It is an established fact that the farmers of this territory have got to get away from the one and two crop idea and raise more of the things they consume at home. It is the only direct way they can offset the periods of depression and keep the wolf from sneaking up to their doors every few years as customary.

The farm department has the right idea about the movement and it is hoped they will not let up until the principles of live-at-home have been fully instilled into the minds and hearts of every progressive man and woman of the Pitt county farm communities.

The price of a chicken or a dozen of eggs doesn't represent any considerable amount of money, but take a carload of chickens or eggs and you have something to think about.

Poultry raising is just beginning to hit its stride in Pitt county at this time and from now on we may expect to hear right much about the co-operative shipments from the various parts of the county.

Last year the sale of poultry brought this country several thousands of dollars it wouldn't have gotten otherwise, and growers were well pleased that they began to expand the industry.

We haven't any idea of the total number of carloads to be shipped this season, but it is safe to say it will exceed last year and probably set a new record for the county.

Pensions paid by a corporation or persons to an individual for service he, himself, has rendered are taxable.

Pensions or retired pay by the United States government also are taxable, except as provided by the revenue act, which exempts from taxation amounts received as compensation, family allotments and allowances under the war risk insurance act, or the World War veterans act, 1924, or as pensions from the United States for service of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval service in time of war.

Annuitants paid to retire employees of the Federal Government are subject to the tax to the extent that the aggregate amount of the payments exceed the amounts withheld from compensation of the employees. If an employee leaves the government service before he is eligible for retirement, and receives the amount of salary withheld, together with interest, he should report only the amount of interest received as income for the year in which it is received.

With spring drawing near it is time for the average citizen to begin thinking about what he is going to wear. And while pondering this momentous subject, why not resolve to do all of your shopping at home.

There never was a better time for the citizens of this section to inaugurate a "trade at home movement" and carry it through during the spring and summer shopping seasons.

The merchants of this section have done everything possible to provide the best assortment of merchandise for the inspection of their thousands of patrons and it is a dead cinder that the offerings here will be as extensive as any other city of similar size in this part of the country.

Don't do your shopping until you have first inspected the stocks of the local merchants and convinced yourself that you can do better elsewhere. But you will never reach such a conclusion owing to the fact that prices and values here compare favorably with any other shopping center in the east.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, the biggest boxer of them all, crawled out of his sixth American boxing ring here last night with another two round knock out victory dangling from his belt.

Behind him, wondering what it was all about he left John O. "Man Mountain" Erickson, big Chicago Swede, a victim after one minute and 45 seconds of the second round of what was scheduled as a ten-round bout, had elapsed.

SHARKEY AND SCOTT TRAIN FOR BATTLE

Miami, Fla., Feb. 18.—(AP)—It's the same old moon, the same old palms and the same arena, with improvements and a new location, but it is a different show, with new words and music, for the second annual battle of Miami.

A good deal of the melodrama of 1929 is missing. Tex Richard is just a memory now and so are most of his time-honored methods. No individual figure is cutting the glamorous figure that Jack Dempsey did in putting over last year's winter heavyweight carnival. In short, the fantasy and novelty that preceded the Sharkey-Stribling fight is completely absent.

It is strictly a fight show and a business proposition this winter minus sentimental appeal. It is a bigger show, from the standpoint of actual footage displacement of the participants, exclusive of the royal treat that opened the 1929 festival. Whether it is a better show, from a competitive angle, remains to be determined by actual events in the ring.

Financially, the venture is already "off the nut", the experts say, translation of which is that sufficient "gate" already is in hand to assure a profit. The advance sale was around $75,000 today, not quite up to last year's mark with a fortnight to go before the ring fest February 27, but enough to warrant the prediction that the receipts will reach $350,000. Last winter the total was slightly in excess of $400,000.

To entertain a wider variety of prospective customers and not, as might be supposed to keep the combatants from tearing at each other, the training camps have been scattered from Coral Gables where the Cuban Argentine Victoria Campolo, is training, to Palm Beach, where the somewhat scholarly Philadelphia, Tommy Loughrak, does his stuff in a society setting, Miami, where the sight seeing buses can't miss seeing him or hearing his yelling manager, Jim Johnson, Jimmy Maloney, whose heavyweights aspirations like those of Loughrak, were just upset by one of Sharkey's ferocious moods, contributes to the gayety over along the beach.

Sharkey easily dominates the preliminary scenery, without any such competition as he had from the Stribling family circus last year. None of the ancient artifices of the ballyhoo are needed to reveal that the Boston sailor is in fine fighting condition, nor that he will enter the ring with a big advantage in fighting equipment, speed and punch, over the British champion, Lanky Phil Scott, even in training, retains what is apparently a nature expression of apprehension.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan's twelfth child was named Charles Lindbergh.

Huntsville, Ala.—"My mother gave Black-Draught to all the children in our home," writes Mrs. W. T. Taylor, of Sixth Avenue, this city. "It was the only medicine I knew of when I grew up. We took it in the winter (as a laxative) for colds, and whenever we ate anything that disagreed with us she gave us a course of Black-Draught."

"After I grew up, I took Black-Draught for constipation and sick headache. It surely is fine for that. I make a tea out of Black-Draught and take it at night, when needed. It is the best laxative I know anything about, and the only one I ever use. After a lifetime of experience I can heartily recommend it."

The medicine which this Alabama lady recommends is the same Theodor's Black-Draught which so many others have told of having used, all their lives, because of the good results obtained from taking it.

Cubs Prepare for Training At Catalina

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy, eight ball players and some added starters rallied for the start today for Catalina Island, where Marse Joe will attempt to develop a little bit better Chicago Cub baseball team—one not only capable of winning a second consecutive National League pennant, but equal to the task of brating the American League champion in the 1930 world series.

The taking-off was set for 1:35 this afternoon, with the island some 72 hours westward. Scheduled to reach the island Friday morning, McCarthy planned to give his gatemates a workout the same afternoon.

The athletes were pitchers, Hal Carlson, Ed Lautenbacher, Hank Gramp, William Fort McAffee, Jr., and Al Shealy; catcher Leo Hartney; and James Taylor and outfielder, Clifton Heathcote; Ray Schalk, beginning his first year as coach of the Cubs and Trainer Andy Loshaw—all under the direction of Traveling Secretary Bob Lewis, were gathered for the journey.

Catcher John Schulte and recruit pitcher, Lynn Nelson, will climb aboard the special at Kansas City before sunup tomorrow morning and the remainder of the first squad will be picked up at Los Angeles. The latter group will include Charlie Root, Pat Malone, Guy Bush and Sheriff Blak, regular pitchers, and recruit hurlers Malcolm Moss, Arthur Teachout, George Bell, Bob Osborn and L. Warneke.

Wrestler Suffers Convulsions in Ring

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Injured in his wrestling bout here last night with Ed "Strangler" Lewis, former world champion, Charlie Hansen, Seattle, was taken to a hospital. He was in a serious condition, doctors said, from convulsions. Lewis won the match.

During the early part of the sixth round Lewis landed a terrific "rabbit punch" and Hansen dropped to his knees. He came up dazed and Lewis clamped on a headlock. After having been thrown to the mat Hansen was seized with convulsions and was unable to finish the eighth round match.

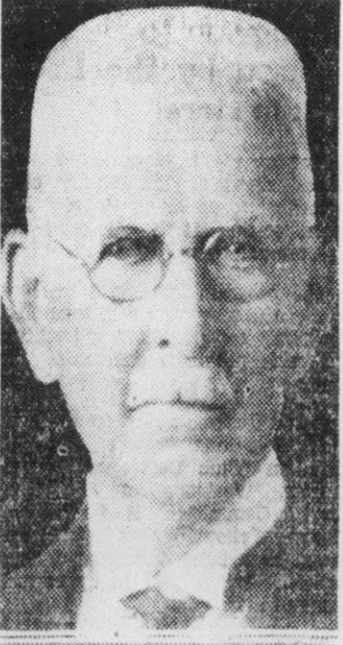

Physicians at the hospital said that although he appeared to be badly injured, he would recover.

- Elzear Rioux at Chicago, one round.
- Cowboy Owens at Newark, N. J., second round.

SPORTS SLANTS

Lawson Robertson's University of Pennsylvania track and field team is primed to win the eastern intercollegiate indoor championship March 1, and probably will do so by a substantial margin. However, the main objective of the Red and Blue forces this year is the big outdoor meet of the I. C. A. A. at Cambridge and an attempt to break the winning streak of California colleges.

California, Southern California and Stanford in succession have handled the east a series of jolts. Things reached a point in the past two years where all Dink Templeton's Stanford Cardinals had to do was go and make a few gestures to win the championship by lopsided scores. There was no contest. The done this year is that Southern California will be even stronger than Stanford, which has lost a few of its stars such as Leo Kibby and Ward Edmonds but still likely will be able to make a respectable showing with Krenz, Rother, Dyer and some others around.

Penn. has elected itself meanwhile to do something about it and Robertson has the best material with which to go about the job since the Quakers last won the outdoor honors in 1920. That was the year before California first broke through. Since then, Yale's victorious team of 1924 has been the only outfit to upset the far western team.

Last spring Pennsylvania finished third in the outdoor championships with 18 points, as compared with Stanford's 45 and Southern California's 21. This is a big gap to close but the Quaker point-scorers are back and Robertson has recruited some fine runners from his freshman class.

Barney Berlinger, the Penn iron man, is almost a track team by himself. He high jumped 6 feet 11.2 inches to tie for second place in the 1929 meet, besides tossing the shot 49 feet, 3.5-8 inches to extend Rother and Krenz, the Stanford weight-tossing twins. Barney vaults 13-foot in spite of

MRS. ROGERS HOSTESS AT TEA ON MONDAY

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. D. Rogers was a charming hostess at a lovely tea given in honor of Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Jr., a recent bride. Productions of ferns, sweet peas and prim roses in delicate shades of pink, with pink tapers in silver holders were attractively used throughout the home.

Mrs. K. B. Pace and Mrs. Frank Bendall welcomed the guests on arrival, and presented them to the receiving line. In the receiving line were the hostess, Mrs. J. D. Rogers, the honoree, Mrs. J. D. Rogers, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Rogers, Mrs. Lee Bryan Jenkins of Kinston, and Mrs. Henry C. Sugg.

Mrs. Henry Rivers and Mrs. Paul Fitzgerald invited the guests into the dining room.

This room was especially attractive. A lace cover was used for the table which was centered with an oval mirror, on which was placed a crystal bowl of pink sweet peas and prim roses. Silver holders, with burning tapers, were placed at the corners. Pink and green mints in small silver baskets were placed at intervals.

Mrs. Robert H. Wright and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald, seated at the table, poured tea.

Spiced tea, sandwiches, salted nuts and mints were passed by Mrs. W. N. Poindexter, Jr., Mrs. Harvey Ward and Miss Blanche Cherry State. Mr. L. C. Arthur said good bye to the two hundred guests who called.

Miss Lucretia Rogers furnished Victrola music throughout the afternoon.

CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS HERE FEBRUARY 25TH

The three one-act plays to be presented by the Carolina Playmakers at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of February 25 have been carefully selected to please a North Carolina audience, as there is one from each of the three sections of the state and the tragedy has been balanced on each side with comedy.

The eastern section is represented by Paul Greep's play, "The No Count Boy" which is placed in front of a negro cabin in eastern North Carolina, and it does not matter where in the east. Paul Greep knows the negro first hand, and has discovered that he has appeal thru his very shiftness, and in no countness there is a strain of the poetic. It is the same kind of interpretation that won for him the Pulitzer Prize a few years ago when he wrote "Abraham's Bosom."

The Piedmont section is the setting for the drama of mill life, "Loretta Bailey's Job's Kinfolks," in which the conditions parallel the conditions in Gastonia that caused the mill workers to rebel. While the play is in no sense propaganda and was written before the troubles reached the acute stage, it is of peculiar interest right now. This play was so rich in material that Mrs. Bailey wrote a sequel, "Black Water," and has combined the two in a three-act play under the original title. This is being considered for Broadway production.

The uproarious comedy of "Magnolia's Man," is in the mountain and is in the vernacular of that section. It is placed in a village on a branch of the Southern railroad west of Asheville, and the action takes place in the sitting room of the village seamstress. The correspondence for a husband through a matrimonial agency is the theme. It is placed in 1904, before the world war when modern ideas had not penetrated that region.

All of the above are presented by well-trained actors and actresses and are by no means amateurish in any way.

ARRESTS AT CHICAGO NEAR 6,000 MARK

Chinatown Murder and Arrest of Two Genna Brothers Features Crime War

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—A murder in Chinatown and the arrest of two of the three surviving Genna brothers, Sam and Peter, were overnight developments in the crime situation.

During the 24 hour period ended at 11 P. M. last night only seven petty burglaries, no robberies and no shootings were reported. During that period 628 arrests were made, carrying the total in the continuing drive against crooks toward the 6,000 mark.

The murder of Dong Poy, a 22-year-old Chinese, occurred early today, shortly after the police report had been issued. Poy was shot dead at Wentworth avenue and 22nd street, the crossroad of Chicago's Chinatown.

First fears that the slaying marked a new tong war were allayed by police who said Dong Poy was not affiliated with either the On Leong or the Hip Sing factions. So far as the preliminary investigation showed, Dong Poy had no police record.

Two cab company employes, in the Mandarin Temple restaurant owned by Willie Lee, president of the On Leong Tong, witnessed the shooting. They saw Poy, pursued by a man, running down Twenty Second street. The man caught Poy at the intersection with Wentworth avenue. Holding him with one hand, pressed a pistol against Poy's back and fired four times.

The assassin disappeared down a narrow alleyway between two buildings.

The arrest of the Gennas, who with another brother, Jim, are the last of the brothers once known as Garganturas of the gangs, was made in a flat building on Blue Island avenue. The flat was furnished only with a few chairs, a battery of recently installed telephones and a desk on which police found books leading them to believe the place was headquarters for an alcohol syndicate.

Sam Genna, who was seated at the desk when the raiders entered, gave his age as 43, while his brother gave his age as one year younger. The names of three other Gennas are listed among the gang war dead. Angelo Genna was the first to fall, going down under a rain of gang bullets May 28, 1925. Mike Genna followed three weeks later, a victim of a gun fight with policeman; but a shot from his own pistol took a police officer to death with him.

Tony Genna was killed a month after Mike. He was one of the first victims to name his attacker—and Tony "The Cavalier" Spaso, the man he named, died from a gang attack a year later.

ASSAIL POLICY OF SECRECY OF I. C. C. BODY

Three Members of Commission Deplore Secrecy of Power Developments

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Three members of the Senate Interstate Commerce committee today assailed what they termed the power commission's policy of "secrecy" in connection with applications for power development permits.

The committee had hardly begun its general investigation of the power commission's activities before Chairman Couzens of the committee said the commission kept "confidential and data on applications while they were under consideration." Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana; Dill, Democrat, Washington; and Wagner, Democrat, New York, immediately attacked the practice. "What I can't understand," Wagner said, "is what there could be in any application that could be of such character that public should not know about it."

SAYS LACK OF LEADERSHIP IN WHITE HOUSE

Rep. Garner Says Hoover's Uncertainty Has Brought Chaos to G. O. P.

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Representative Garner, of Texas, the House Democratic leader, today declared that "lack of leadership in the White House has resulted in a chaotic condition in Republican ranks in the House and Senate."

Referring to the breakfast at the White House this morning at which Republican leaders in the Senate and House discussed means of expediting the tariff bill and preventing a legislative jam, the Texan asserted the "spirit of uncertainty emanating from the White House has developed chaos in party leadership."

"There has been no leadership of the Republican party since President Hoover entered the White House," Gardner asserted in a statement.

"There is not a leading public question on which the president is willing to make a suggestion or much less offer a solution. All of his statements are ambiguous, they can be taken in two ways."

"You hear people talk of the president as either lacking in capacity or courage," Gardner said. "Either he lacks one or the other, or both, or he would not let such chaos develop in party leadership."

"The country has lost confidence in the president, and that is what is causing the chaotic economic conditions."

"The Republican members of both the House and Senate have lost confidence in the president. Even old timers, standpatters and conservatives don't know what to do, and they want and try to be regular."

The Texan said the President Hoover had not prepared himself on the tariff, and does not make "his position unequivocal on any matter of great importance."

"His statements teach either that the world is round or flat, and it has caused uneasiness in the business world that has resulted in a watchful waiting attitude toward the president," he added, "up to date, President Hoover has made no effort to show whether he has the capacity or courage to lead his party."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Cotton opened barely steady at a decline of 15 to 19 points today under a renewal of yesterday's selling movement which seemed to find additional encouragement in the relatively easy showing of Liverpool and the declines reported in Bombay. Business was fairly active.

Trade buying and covering was reported but it was by no means aggressive and prices worked about 20 to 24 points net lower by the end of the first half hour with May selling off to 15.57 and October to 15.93.

Liverpool reported hedging, local and foreign liquidation in the market there and said that Manchester was unsettled by buyers of both cotton cloths and yarns cautious.

The lower opening of the wheat market came in for considerable comment and probably encouraged some selling of cotton.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Late estimates that 1,500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been bought for European shipment acted as something of a tonic for wheat values today. The Canadian export business, which was the largest accomplished in North American wheat in many weeks, did not take effect, however, until today's prices here had broken the season's bottom record. Assisting upturns toward the last today in Chicago wheat values was announcement that the world's visible supply of wheat showed 2,650,000 bushels decrease for the week.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-2c to 7-8c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 5-8c to 1c up, oats ranging from 1-8c decline to 1-2c gain, and provisions showing 5c to 17c setback.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The rally in stock prices, which started around mid-day yesterday, was resumed with vigor in today's market under the leadership of the high grade industrials and public utilities. Scores of issues were marked up 1 to 6 points in the first few hours of trading, many of them to new high levels for the year while the few stocks which declined in the early trading made up all or part of their losses by early afternoon.

Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, nearly 1,800,000 shares changing hands in the first two hours with the ticker running at a rate of more than 100 minutes behind the market most of the day.

Call money renewed unchanged at 4 1/2 per cent with indications that the rate would be maintained all day. Some calling of loans took place during the morning but these were offset by offerings of new funds. The time money market was quiet.

Wall Street found plenty of encouragement in the fact that the rise in brokers' loans has not kept pace with the rise in stock prices in the last six weeks, which has continued as an indication that buying was for the account of strong interests. The weekly condition statement of the Federal Reserve showed that security loans of member banks dropped $10,000,000 in the week ended February 12 but they were still $166,000,000 above the total a year ago.

One of the most interesting developments in the day's news was the announcement that steel mill operations generally had been stepped up to 81 per cent of capacity, as against 76 1/2 two weeks ago. Another sharp increase in crude production was reported last week.

Los Angeles, Feb. 18.—(AP)—A Continuation has been granted Tom Mix, cowboy film actor, charged with defrauding the government of $100,000 in his income tax returns for 1923, 1926, and 1927. United States Attorney Samuel W. M. Nabbs announced last night.

Missionary Fined for Killing Child

Shanghai, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Unofficial advices from Tunchow today stated that A. H. Smith, an American missionary, had been tried in a Chinese court and fined $100 Mexican money for causing the death of a young Chinese in an automobile accident.

After his car had struck the Chinese, Smith surrendered himself to a Chinese court. The case was watched with interest of its possible bearing upon the Nationalist government's efforts to abolish foreign courts in China and to establish the jurisdiction of native tribunals over all foreign as well as all Chinese.

It was understood that the American State department viewed Smith's action as unfavorable, maintaining that individual Americans are not authorized to submit themselves to Chinese authorities except as specified in Sino-American treaties.

Why Folks Stay Fat

Not always because of over-eating, but because a gland is weak. That gland largely controls nutrition. When it is weak one may nearly starve, yet stay fat. Modern physicians the world over now combat this great cause of obesity. And excess fat, in late years, has been disappearing fast. Marmola prescription tablets contain the chief factors which they use. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. And countless slender figures everywhere now show the amazing effects. Go try this right method to reduce. Stop starving. Read the book in the box with the formula and reasons. Ask your druggist today for a $1 box of Marmola and watch the change.

Plans to Try It Again
New York—Will you marry again? They asked the Duke of Manchester. "Well, rather. Why not?" he replied. He came from Havana, where he intended to seek a divorce. But on getting there, he said, he found the former Helene Zimmerman of Cincinnati had saved him the trouble by starting proceedings in England.

An Investment that does not fluctuate in value— Life Insurance

OWNERS of life insurance have had occasion recently to compare the stability of this form of investment with that of even the highest grade securities.

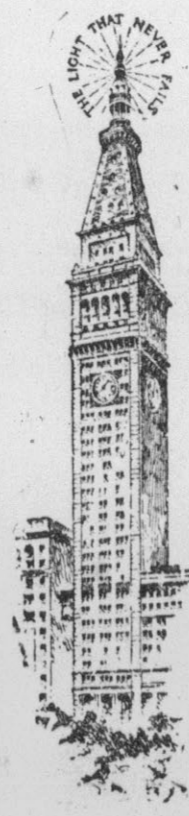

A chart of the market price averages of leading stocks for twenty years shows an irregular line that rises and dips, sometimes vertically, with "peaks and valleys".

There are no "depressions" in the investment values of life insurance policies. They do not fluctuate with business cycles. From year to year, the 44 million Metropolitan Life Insurance policies show a steady increase in values to policy-holders.

The man who regularly invests part of his earnings in life insurance can go to sleep each night with the knowledge that he is building an estate of the greatest security and with a sure investment return for every dollar paid in.

Life insurance is an investment whose value constantly increases the longer it is kept in force.
