of its permanent accident prevention program the Carolina Motor Club pays a $25 reward to any officer or citizen responsible for the conviction of a hit and run driver involved in an accident resulting in a fatality or serious personal injury.

"Car thefts for this year are getting off to a good start, $2 being reported stolen from club members in January and February. Last year there were 228 thefts and since the club's inception in 1922 there have been 1,016 reported stolen from members, of which 976 or more than 96 per cent have been recovered." — Wilson Times.

ABOUT TOWN

RESULT, NOTHING.

With more unemployment in this country than ever before in the memory of the present generation and with whiskey reported to be flowing as freely as ever, even in the shadow of the Capitol and the White House, the country at large is beginning to wonder just when President Hoover is going to begin to carry out his campaign promises to enforce prohibition and to abolish poverty from the land. It has been a year today since Hoover took over the presidency and it would be like looking for a needle in the haystack to find what he has accomplished in the way of carrying out these two campaign promises.

As we see it, take one Herbert Hoover, add one year in the White House, result is prohibition enforcement and abolishment of poverty, nothing.

HIT-AND-RUN DRIVERS GETTING HEAVY SENTENCES.

Judges throughout the state are handing out more severe jail sentences than in past years on car thieves and hit and run drivers, according to figures compiled by W. D. Henderson, general counsel of the Carolina Motor Club.

During January and February sentenced aggregating 14 years were imposed on six thieves convicted of stealing cars belonging to club members. Sentences totaling 85 years were imposed last year on car thieves, whereas during 1928 the sentences aggregated only 14 years and six months and the number of cars stolen and thieves convicted was greater than during 1929.

Hit and run drivers are drawing stiffer terms, aggregate sentences of eight years having been imposed this year on nine persons convicted. In 1929, 25 hit and run drivers were sentenced to 28 years and six months, whereas in 1928, 22 drivers convicted of this offense drew only ten years and eight months.

Tremendous increase in car thievery and the number of hit and run drivers in recent months and the subsequent reaction of enforcement and judicial officers that jail sentences are the only panacea for checking these crimes is responsible for the jail sentences," Mr. Henderson said. "Last year there were 690 persons killed in North Carolina traffic accidents—an increase over 1928—and hit and run drivers were involved in many of these accidents. As part of the membership of the Greenville Merchants Association continues to grow, and indications point to growth equally as healthy as that during the year just closed. The association has played a conspicuous part in the development of Greenville and community the past several years, and with increased membership it should be able to do more in the future. Taking the place of a chamber of commerce and other organizations of the kind, the association has let the outside world know something about the possibilities of this section through advertising over the radio, through the newspapers and other mediums of this kind, and today Greenville is known in far more sections of the country than ever before.

This method of advertising has had a far-reaching effect in the life of the community and undoubtedly has been responsible for much of the development experienced the last few years.

It is gratifying to note the continued growth in membership because it indicates greater things for the future—and the future is what the majority of us are interested in.

This cold snap coming at a time when the country was basking in the balmy weather of springtime has caused more genuine suffering than any other time of the year. The cold felt as if it penetrated clean to the bone and caused everybody to hunt up abandoned winter garments in a last minute effort to keep the sting of winter as much on the outside as possible.

However, there is one consolation and that is in the fact that springtime is not far off. It is scheduled to put in its appearance the latter part of the month, and should it run according to custom everybody will be extremely happy.

CHICKENS ARE FINE FOR FOOD, BUT NOT FOR GARDENS

To The Editor, Daily Reflector: Governor O. Max Gardner hit the nail on the head when he started the "live-at-home" movement. It is a fine thing to be able to go out into your own garden and gather vegetables which you raised yourself. But it's not so "hot" to go out in the garden and find a bunch of chickens "doing their stuff" with your beans, potatoes, onions, etc. Yes, it's fine to have a garden of your own; in fact, I have started one this year and am anticipating all kinds of good eats. Have already planted a few things, and everything is going fine.

It is likewise very fine to go out into the chicken-yard and knock over a spring chicken, which you raised yourself. But there is one thing sure, chickens and gardens do not go very well together. That is, of course, unless the person who owns the chickens makes the proper precautions for keeping his chickens in the yard; such as stopping the holes in the fence, "crapping" the wings of the chickens, and so on. There may be other ways to keep them in the yard, but these two suggestions are wonderful.

There is a law in Greenville that states: "No chickens shall run at large." We all should observe the laws of our city, county, state and the United States.

There are very few gardens fenced-in; therefore, the gardener will have lots of trouble unless folks raising chickens, keep them in the chicken-yard.

Chickens make fine food; but they can surely "mess-up" a garden in short order. WALTER SMITH, 300 Jarvis Street.

Prince of Wales Reported Better; To Go To Uganda

Nairobi, Kenya Colony, British East Africa, March 4.—(AP)—An official bulletin issued this forenoon by physicians to the Prince of Wales who is suffering from sub-tertian malaria, said:

"The Prince of Wales is now convalescing. He expects to leave for Uganda March 9 as originally arranged."

The prince has made an excellent patient, and has obeyed readily his doctors' directions.

His physicians and nurses have specialized in treatment of malaria, a mosquito spread disease which always has been particularly terrifying to white men living in the tropical area.

The prince contracted the disease, which is one of the less malignant forms of malaria, while on a Safari in Southern Kenya colony Friday evening. He is under treatment at government house.

London, March 4.—(AP)—Queen Mary, visiting the Queen Alexandra Military Hospital here asked to see specimens of the sub-tertian malarial parasites or germs which have sent her son, the Prince of Wales, to a sick bed at Nairobi. Her Majesty spent a long time looking at the microscopic slides which were brought her, and asked numerous questions as to the nature of the bacteria and their method of attack. She had visited the hospital to inspect a new wing which the prince formally opened last November.

LONG MAKES APOLOGY TO COMMANDER

Governor Louisiana Taken to Task For Receiving German in Lounging Robe.

New Orleans, March 4.—(AP)—The Times-Picayune today said Governor Huey P. Long, accompanied by his staff colonel, Seymour Weiss, boarded the German steamer Emden, in the harbor for Mardi Gras, and apologized yesterday for having received Commander Lothar Van Arnaut Del La Periere, commander of the vessel, in lounging robes and slippers when the naval officer paid an official call Sunday.

According to the paper, after the Governor's visit the incident was closed when the Emden fired a salute of 21 guns. The Governor went aboard the cruiser in formal dress while Colonel Weiss was in full staff regalia.

Commander De La Periere, accompanied by Rolf Jaeger, German Consul here, called upon the Governor at his hotel suite to pay their respects following the arrival of the Emden.

Governor Long, according to the Times-Picayune, received the Germans in a pair of green silk pajamas, a blue and red lounging robe. The German Consul sent the Governor this message:

"The Governor's refusal to receive the German commander is an insult to the German government and I demand an apology immediately. If the apology is given, then the matter ends right here."

The Governor at first was reluctant to apologize declaring:

"Apologize, for what? I treated them like home folks." The spokesman for the commander then threatened that the Emden would weigh anchor and leave port immediately and Governor Long shifted his position.

In making his apologies to Consul just after the prompt reception in the hotel suite, Governor Long expressed his regret over the incident and declared he was "much embarrassed and humiliated for having given you and the commander umbrage."

"I have been up late," the Governor said, "and I have been not at all well for the past several weeks. I hope you will excuse my failure to properly bedeck myself for the occasion of meeting the commander and yourself. I am indeed sorry."

"If you will come tomorrow to the cruiser Emden and call on the commander and make apology to him, the matter will be settled," the Consul replied.

The Governor willingly assented and the hour was fixed.

The Governor and Colonel Weiss made the formal trip to the Emden, which ended 24 hours of diplomatic misunderstanding.

Governor Long was dressed in formal morning attire hastily assembled by his friends with the exception of the high silk hat. The conventional hat failed to arrive by the hour set for the Governor to return the official visit. Mr. Weiss was in full dress uniform of the Governor's staff officers.

As the Hugh McCloskey approached the German cruiser the American colors were dipped in official salute.

The Governor and his accompanying officer went aboard the Emden as the gangplank was lowered and were greeted formally by the commander and the German Consul and escorted to the cabin of the commander.

"I was hoping," Governor Long said to the commander, "that this morning I might have the opportunity here to apologize for the indecorous raiment in which I was attired when you called to see me yesterday morning. I am really very much hurt over the incident. There is a great deal I might say. I undertook to explain to the Consul."

He was assured courteously that the incident was ended and while the Governor at the head of the

ROTES HEAR VOCATIONAL TALKS HERE

Other Features Mark Regular Weekly Program Of Greenville Club

Announcement was made at the regular weekly meeting of the Greenville Rotary club last night that the name of Maynard Fletcher of the Washington Rotary club, would be presented before the district conference in Winston-Salem for election as governor of this district of Rotary.

In addition to the regular supper and song at night, the Rotarians enjoyed a splendid program put on by S. F. Allen, chairman of the Vocational Service committee. This dealt with timely talks by P. L. Goodson and J. H. Waldrop.

The only visitor of the evening was Taylor Atwater of the Washington club, who came over to Greenville to make up his attendance thereby giving the Washington club four 100 per cent meetings for February.

Mr. Atwater advised the club of arrangements, which were completed yesterday for the transfer of Camp Leach to the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern North Carolina, and that the property would be converted into or used for the Episcopal Assembly.

Present F. C. Harding called attention to articles appearing in the Rotarian regarding the United States of Europe and expressed gratification of the progress that was being made toward the unity of the various nations and ultimate world-wide peace.

Mr. Goodson spoke on the subject of "Insurance," and brought out many interesting facts in connection with his field of work. He explained the different kinds of insurance, and the important place which it plays in the economic structure of the nation.

Mr. Waldrop discussed the subject of "Banking," and what it means to a community and what a community means to a bank. His talk was highly informative.

Marvin Sugg, recently elected member of the club, attended his first meeting last night and was welcomed into the club.

Two Weeks Personal Visitation Campaign By Churches of City

The monthly meeting of the Greenville Ministerial Association yesterday, plans were completed for two weeks of personal visitation evangelism to be conducted during the weeks of April 6-13.

At a later date a report of the findings will be published. This information will furnish a great deal of helpful material to be used in this effort.

During the week of April 6-11, preparatory services of prayer and inspiration will be conducted each evening in each of the cooperating churches; then during the second week, April 13-20, union services will be held every morning for one-half hour, 8 to 8:30 a. m., at the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

Monday morning, April 14, Rev. W. A. Fleischmann. Tuesday morning, April 15, Rev. E. L. Hillman. Wednesday morning, April 16, Rev. W. S. Harden. Thursday morning, April 17, Rev. W. A. Lillycrop. Saturday morning, April 19, Rev. Lee Sadler.

Every evening a preaching service will be conducted in the several churches by the pastors. An appealing Gospel message will be presented at these hours of worship.

In conjunction with these preaching services the membership of the churches will be making daily visits to the unchurched people of Greenville and those having stated a preference for any local church inviting them to become members of these bodies of Christians.

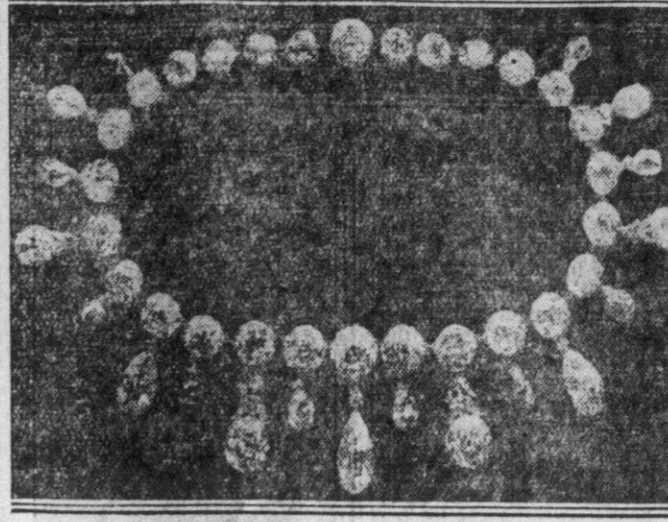

The dedication ceremonies were set for 3:30 p. m. Practically all state and federal officers were ordered closed for the day and one of the greatest gatherings for a public event in Arizona's history was looked for. Hotels were crowded to capacity.

Governor John C. Phillips and a welcoming party met Mr. Coolidge as his train entered Arizona yesterday at Yuma. Lieutenant Governor H. L. Carnahan, of California, also was aboard the train.

A picturesque touch, typical of the state, is furnished by the Apache and Pima Indians who are patrolling the highways leading to the dam. Traditional enemies for centuries, the two tribes will smoke the pipe of peace at the ceremonies and later dedicate the dam for a second time.

HAD 3 SPELLS OF INDIGESTION

Man Says He Took Black-Draught After Each Meal and Soon Got Relief.

North Charlotte, N. C.—In telling how he was benefited by Theford's Black-Draught, Mr. John M. Cress, of 902 Charles Avenue, this city, writes:

"I had three spells of indigestion, one after another. I suffered a lot of pain. My back ached and I had pains in my stomach frequently. It felt like my breath was cut off in my chest."

"I was bothered this way for about a year. A friend who I told about my condition asked me to try Black-Draught."

"I began by taking a pinch of Black-Draught after each meal, and found that I soon got relief. I have been taking Black-Draught for fourteen years, and I find that it prevents headache and constipation. We keep it in the house all the time. I have told a lot of people about it, and gladly recommend it to others."

Many people have written that they found relief from pains after eating by taking Black-Draught in the manner described by this North Carolina man.

SPORTS SLANTS

For a man who plays golf only in the winter time, Babe Ruth contributes some remarkable chapters to the royal and ancient game.

"I can't play in the summer; nine innings of ball a day are a tough enough without tramping around a golf course in my spare time," the Babe said to me as he wallowed his way around the Jungle Country Club course not far from St. Petersburg, where the Yankees do their training.

You have heard about the mighty distances the Babe gets with his wood clubs and it is all true. He pounds the ball 250 yards with a cleek and 300 or over consistently with a driver but his results with the irons are even more remarkable, for there are plenty of long drivers in the game.

Ruth is not so good with a niblick or No. 7 iron, for some unexplained reason but he uses a No. 5 iron for distances up to 190 yards and a No. 3 for 210 or 220 yards. Long hitting, however, is not Ruth's main asset. In fact, he has decided to avoid a former tendency to "kill" the ball and is getting better results. He is a deadly putter as a rule, as dangerous a player as Jones, Hagen or Farrell from any spot on the green, chiefly for the reason he is confident he can "can" the ball but also because he has a good eye and steady wrist.

One of the best young golfers who has stepped into the Florida spotlight in some seasons is Howard Tryon, the 21-year-old champion of the Elmira (N. Y.) Country Club and winner of the tournament for "golf club champion." Experts who have watched him predict a bright future for this youthful star.

CUBS OUT TO WIN ANOTHER LEAGUE FLAG

By PAUL E. MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer Santa Catalina Island, Cal., March 4.—When two such conservatives as William Wrigley, Jr. and Manager Joe McCarthy come out in flat statements that the Cubs will repeat their National league championship in 1930, it looks as if the Heydler circus will be a one-ring show this year.

Never before have these two baseball minds been so certain of winning and from past performances and the successful raids they have made over the winter on the ivory markets, they have just cause for their unbounded optimism.

"It will take a world war with plenty of conscription to beat us out of the pennant this year," said Wrigley as he watched the team finish its first week of practice on his magic island. "My players have everything that makes a super-championship club—pitching, batting, fielding and a fighting spirit seldom seen in baseball. They are all youngsters, too, averaging about 25 years. We are twenty per cent stronger than in 1929."

Chat From the Training Camp

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—If Babe Ruth's first baseball workout of the year was something of a "flop," the weather man can be held responsible. Although still unassigned, Ruth reported for practice yesterday at the New York Yankee camp. So cold was it, however, that only the first workout was more or less perfunctory.

Clearwater, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, has separated the sheep from the goats for practice purposes at the high priced Pacific Coast League recruits, Mickey Finn and Gordon Slade, find themselves in the later category.

San Antonio, Texas, March 4.—(AP)—Inclement weather has slowed down training activities of the New York Giants ever since Manager John McGraw hit camp but the "Little Napoleon" has seen enough to venture the prediction that Roy Parmelee, Toledo recruit, is quite some pitcher.

Winter Haven, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Manager Burt Shotton of the Philadelphia Nationals was in a happy mood at the Phillies training camp today.

Port Myers, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Whether Al Simmons is a holdout or merely prolonging his stay at Hot Springs continued to be a topic of discussion among the Philadelphia Athletics today. Manager Mack declined to confirm a rumor that his star outfielder had not signed a contract.

San Antonio, Texas, March 4.—(AP)—There is more than a suspicion in the camp of the Chicago White Sox training camp that Bill Kamm, leading third baseman, in point of fielding, for the last two seasons, is a holdout.

Kamm is one of the four athletes who have not yet appeared, and no word has been received from him concerning his intentions. Smead Jolley, Art Shires and Alex Metzler, are the others yet to arrive for work.

Bradenton, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Only nine faces were missing as the St. Louis Cardinals began their second day of unkninking muscles today and all of them will report in a few days, according to Manager Gabby Street. Thirty-seven are in uniform, getting a light double workout yesterday while a seven-hour session split between morning and afternoon, and was on the program for today.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Fresh uniforms were ready today for the second contingent of the St. Louis Browns as the outfielders and infielders were due to join their battery mates in spring training.
