HOUSE PLANS TO CONSIDER SHOALS ISSUE

Rep. Hill Says There Is Movement to Prevent Hearing On the Norris Resolution

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Breaking off testimony concerning difficulties faced by the fertilizer industry in America, the House military affairs committee today announced it would consider next Tuesday the Norris resolution for the government operation of Muscle Shoals, already passed by the Senate.

A heated discussion arose among members of the committee when Representative Hill, Democrat, Alabama, charged that there was an effort afoot to delay consideration of the Norris measure until too late to secure passage by this Congress.

Acting Chairman Ramsley of the committee replied that there "was no good in trying to railroad this bill."

Joseph J. Brand, executive secretary of the National Fertilizer Association, was on the stand when the regular adjournment time arrived. He had testified that the fertilizer industry had lost $250,000,000 since the war and had asserted there was no such thing as a fertilizer trust. Brand was told that he could come back on next Tuesday.

It was decided that Secretary Hyde would be heard in open session next Tuesday.

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—A picture of the fertilizer industry in the United States was presented to the House military affairs committee by Joseph J. Brand, executive secretary of the National Fertilizer Association.

Brand said there was much misrepresentation in the suggestion that fertilizer manufacturers were doing great quantities of useless dirt to farmers. Only a small amount of the fertilizer filler, he said, was of no value as plant food but is needed to make weight.

Representative Wurzbach, Republican, Texas, said he thought it should be easy to convince the farmer he was buying and having shipped for great distances matter he could furnish right on the farm.

Brand said as an industry the fertilizer manufacturers had lost $250,000,000 since the war. The present number of manufacturers approximated 650, he said, and in reply to a question asserted there was no such thing as a fertilizer trust.

He said he believed price fixing would be impossible.

Production of synthetic oxygen, he said, had grown from 276 tons in 1919 to 84,000 tons in 1929. This, he said, was largely going into fertilizer.

Last year, he said, the total capacity of operating plants approximated 140,000 tons, made by variations of German processes.

The arrests were made last night a short time before the passenger train reached Salisbury. The train was delayed a few minutes until members of the crew ascertained that all danger had been removed.

WOODMEN HOLD DISTRICT MEET IN GREENVILLE

Five Or Six Hundred Members Treated to Varied Program During the Day

Between five and six hundred members of the order of Modern Woodmen of America attended the district meeting of the organization held in this city today. There are nine counties in the district, and it was stated shortly after the session began that every one of them was represented. The celebration will come to a close tonight with initiation of a large class of candidates.

Hon. Harry Flood Byrd, former governor of Virginia, was asked to deliver the keynote address of the exercises this afternoon at four o'clock but it developed that he could not be present and a speaker in the person of Rev. A. Corey, state lecturer, was selected to fill the Virginia's place.

At the noon hour the visitors were guests of the Greenville lodge at dinner at the country club. The session was opened this morning at the court house with prayer by Rev. E. L. Hillman of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, and the address of welcome was delivered by Mayor H. C. Lanier. The mayor assured the visitors that the city was indeed glad to entertain them, and expressed hope that they would see fit to assemble here again even in larger numbers than this time. The address of welcome for the Woodmen was made by Julius Brown. The response was made by Hon. E. S. Peel.

At 11 o'clock a special musical program was rendered by the Greenville camp. A band from Wendell rendered music prior to the opening and during the remainder of the ceremonies.

There were two speakers during the morning session. They were Hon. J. A. Doubles, State Deputy of the Modern Woodmen, and Rev. A. Corey, State Lecturer.

Mr. Corey spoke on the subject, "The Modern Woodmen Bridge," and Mr. Doubles on "The Woodmen Junior's part and place in the M. W. A." The speakers brought out many points affecting the life and future activities of the organizations and urged the members to be up and doing in the interest of great achievements.

After dinner the Woodmen again assembled at the court house where they discussed matters of business, heard reports and they engaged in a round table discussion of the various problems. The crowning event of the day will come in the form of the initiation exercises tonight. A large list of candidates will be acquainted with the mysteries of the organization.

PROHIBITION WILL FEATURE ILLINOIS RACE

Lewis to Make Dry Law Main Issue of Campaign Against Mrs. McCormick

Chicago, April 10.—(AP)—Prohibition, the hot potato of politics, has been tossed by James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, to Congresswoman Ruth Hanna McCormick as the major issue of their campaign for election next November to the United States Senate.

Lewis, a colonel in the Spanish-American war and Senate whip in President Wilson's administration, cast off 12 years' retirement and gained the Democratic Senatorial nomination without a single campaign effort. Mrs. McCormick, Mark Hanna's daughter and widow of the late Senator Medill McCormick, thrust aside Senator Charles S. Deneen and wrecked his Chicago-Cook county organization to head the Republican ticket this fall.

Mrs. McCormick, before returning to Washington yesterday, declared it was her opposition to the world court that swamped Deneen under a 200,000 plurality. Deneen, the fourteenth world court Senator to meet defeat in the nation, accepted Mrs. McCormick's issue and lost. But Lewis, too, is opposed to the world court and in the Senate he voted against Wilson's League of Nations.

Lewis shot the question of "personal liberty" to the fore soon after Deneen congratulated Mrs. McCormick on her victory. "It is an issue from which I shall not allow any candidate—man or woman—to escape," the former Senator said. In contrast, the politically-minded recalled Mrs. McCormick's campaign statement to the Anti-Saloon League that "I am both personally and politically dry." Her late husband was known as a wet.

To Lewis, the issue is: "Is the American a free man to act his will subject to just law in governing his life, or is he a servant to be directed to obey under the penalty of imprisonment and dishonor?" "Then comes the final question," said the man whom Champ Clark once dubbed the "Dandy of the Senate." "Shall the American citizen submit to the official corruption that is continued in the enforcement of the national prohibition law, to the personal degradation of himself and home and to the defilement of sons and daughters by this system, that is put upon the citizens daily through the tyranny of the political masters at the capitol?"

P. O. LEASES FACE PROBE FROM SENATE

Charges by Senator Blaine May Result In Investigation of All Properties

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—Charges of fraud and culpable negligence leveled at the Post Office Department by Senator Blaine of Wisconsin, today forecast a Senate investigation of all property leases under which that branch of the government is now operating.

Staunchly denying the Wisconsin senator's accusations, the administration looked forward to such an inquiry as a means of disproving the charges. Postmaster General Brown said he welcomed the investigation.

Blaine, nevertheless, clung to his position and urged the adoption of his resolution to institute the inquiry. With regular Republican support indicated by Fess of Ohio, he expected a vote of approval before adjournment this evening.

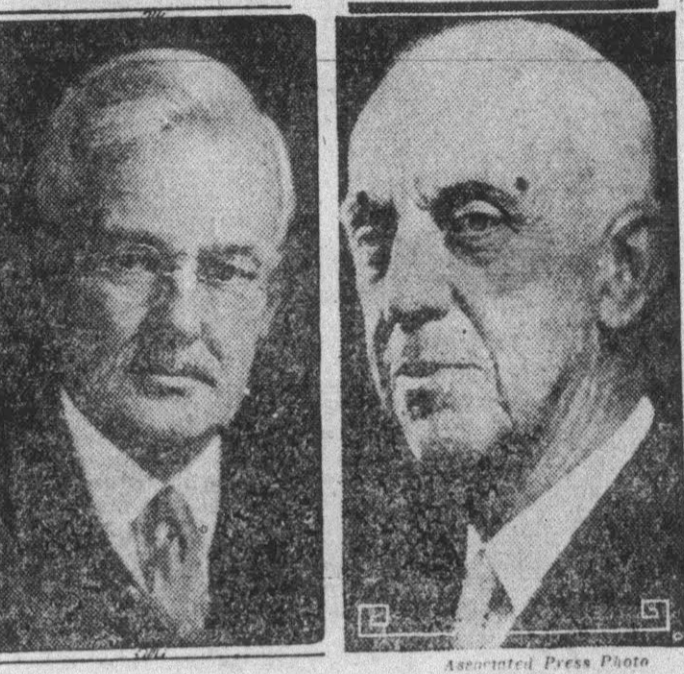

The controversy centered upon a lease executed in 1927 for a post office building in St. Paul which was abrogated in February of last year. An annual rental fee of $120,000 was stipulated. Blaine asserted that this sum was one-third of the value of the building and that bonds had been sold upon the expected government return.

"The charges of fraud were vigorously denied last yesterday by Fess, who also took Blaine to task for using his 'loak' of senatorial immunity" to make "anatomical" attacks; Postmaster General Brown and the Justice Department.

CONFERENCE EXPERTS BEGIN WORK ON DRAFT OF FIVE-POWER PACT

Brooks, who was given a leave of absence after charges of faculty unrest. Dean Williams will become permanent president when Dr. Brooks' term expires December 31.

Foreign Minister Briand of France and Grandi of Italy Tentatively Agree to Sign Naval Limitation As Result of American Intervention During Morning Hours of Conference

London, April 10.—(AP)—Naval conference experts were understood to have been put to work this afternoon drafting a five-power agreement which both foreign ministers Briand of France and Grandi of Italy have tentatively agreed to sign as an outgrowth of American intervention this morning.

This treaty, it was said, will in effect be a comprehensive three-power pact between the United States, Great Britain and Japan, but will include numerous points on which all the five powers are agreed and which France and Italy can sign.

The present plan is that controversial matters between France and Italy will be left out and the clauses which exclusively affect the other three powers will be so worded that the two Latin countries will not be involved.

The decision to adopt this procedure was reached this morning after Secretary Stimson had visited Foreign Minister Briand and Hugh S. Gibson had conferred with Foreign Minister Grandi.

Briand is said to be enthusiastic over this solution and Grandi has also indicated tentative willingness to sign. The Italians have rather been left out of negotiations recently and Grandi is not so conversant with the trend of affairs as are the other delegation chiefs. Therefore he naturally wishes to know more about what he is expected to sign before he definitely agrees to pin his name to it.

Complete agreement was reached between the United States, Great Britain and Japan at the naval conference today. The way is now clear for a three-power pact.

Prime Minister MacDonald, Secretary Stimson and Reijiro Wakatsuki met this morning and cleared the decks by settling the still outstanding but minor point concerning a definition for use in connection with training ships.

The last vestiges of hope for a five-power agreement were said not to have been abandoned, but it should be known by tonight whether such a treaty is possible or whether the American, British and Japanese delegates shall go ahead with a three-power pact.

Shortly after the meeting of the big-three delegates, Secretary Stimson rushed off to see Foreign Minister Briand of France and at the same time Hugh S. Gibson left to visit Foreign Minister Grandi of Italy.

It was understood the chiefs of the two Latin powers were to be informed that the United States had reached complete agreement and they were to be invited to make their own position known quickly.

Observers gathered that the situation amounted to this: France and Italy were being invited to come to a decision as to participation in a five-power pact.

Today's program provided for a whirlwind of meetings between the various delegations. The chiefs were concentrating on winding things up quickly and expected to know by midnight exactly where they stood.

Today's tripartite agreement on training ships was along the following lines: Each of the three powers have the right to retain for training purposes one capital ship which had been designed for scrap. These ships are to be disarmed. This was a concession to Japan and permits her to retain one battleship which otherwise she would have had to scrap. By the same token the United States will scrap only two instead of three and Great Britain four instead of five.

Japan also will be allowed to retain as training ships three light cruisers.

Wickersham's Activities Termed As "Indefensible" At Senate Lobby Hearing

Chairman Caraway Scores Law Enforcement Connection With Banking Affairs Committee and Federal Council of Churches

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—The connection of George W. Wickersham, chairman of the Hoover Law Enforcement committee, with international banking affairs while head of the foreign policy committee of the Federal Council of Churches, was termed an "indefensible position" today by Chairman Caraway, of the Senate Lobby committee.

Wickersham's name came before the committee through testimony by Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, in amplifying charges against the Federal Council of Churches. After asserting that the council was attempting to substitute a theocracy for the present form of government, Tinkham added that Wickersham had until recently served as chairman of the council's foreign policy committee. He continued that the former Attorney General had been active in international business.

A letter from Wickersham was then read which said that his law firm had represented at times "international bankers and we probably at the present time do represent a number of such interests."

Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, after Caraway's sharp comment on the law enforcement chairman, asked how Wickersham qualified as an officer of the Council of Churches.

"I supposed because he is active in international business," Tinkham answered.

He added that he understood Wickersham had quit his post with the council some months ago.

The Massachusetts representative had testified the council, "largely through propaganda," had attempted to influence both foreign and domestic policies of the government. He said it interested itself in the naval building programs, the League of Nations, compulsory military training in high schools and colleges, United States and Japanese relations, extra territoriality in China and a number of other foreign affairs.

Tinkham later began an attack on the Anti-Saloon League. He read from a book on prohibition which said the late Wayne B. Wheeler, head of the Anti-Saloon League, was "recognized as the most powerful and masterful single individual in the United States," and that he controlled presidents and Congresses.

It also said that the Volstead Act should be called the "Wheeler Act." Senator Blaine said a new Englander had said the Volstead law should be called the "Jackall law."

"I think so," Tinkham, an ardent wet, replied.

Caraway has announced that the committee would inquire into the Anti-Saloon League.

"What respect," Tinkham demanded, "should be given to a law

Says Restrictions Harmful to Teachers

Kalamazoo, Mich., April 10.—(AP)—Restrictions upon a school teacher's skirt length, cut of hair and how she spends her week-end tend to drive her insane in the opinion of Dr. C. R. Yoder, psychiatrist of the Kalamazoo State Hospital Medical staff.

"Unquestionably one of the contributing causes for insanity among members of the teaching profession is to be found in the barriers against freedom of life which many communities place around teachers," Dr. Yoder said today.

Propose Marriage As An Investment

Little Rock, Ark., April 10.—Marriage as an investment, wherein cash dividends would jingle along with wedding bells, is proposed by the Arkansas Matrimonial Mutual association for the benefit of those fearful of wedlock's financial encumbrances.

On file today with the Arkansas Railroad commission which controls corporations in this state, was an application from the association for a permit to sell matrimonial mutual certificates under an assessment plan. A member who married one year after joining the association would receive $1,000. The money would be derived from an assessment against all other members.

Members marrying within three months after joining would receive nothing but after that period each would receive $250. After six months $500 would be paid. If marriage took place nine months within a year the dividend would be $750.

Evolution Charge Against Ark. Minister

Oceola, Ark., April 10.—(AP)—Acceptance by the Arkansas Presbytery of a resolution "condemning" the Rev. Haw Watson Smith, of the Little Rock minister's views on evolution was brought to the attention of the general assembly of the church.

Only four votes were cast against the report, but the dissenters in explaining their stand intimated they would consider an appeal to the general assembly. Two of the seven members of the commission objected to its conclusion on the ground that they had been placed in "the absurd position of being asked to investigate a matter and being denied the means of investigation."

Dr. Smith's opinions were contained in a pamphlet published before an election on a constitutional amendment in Arkansas prohibiting the teaching of evolution in tax supported schools. The amendment was adopted.

"Dr. Smith is a Theistic Evolutionist. He believes that evolution was simply the method which God used in bringing the world and its life into existence," the commission's report said.

"We concerned ourselves especially with Dr. Smith's views respecting the Deity of Christ, the inspiration of the scriptures, the sinfulness of man, the atoning work of Christ and Salvation by faith. These doctrines we consider a fair and impartial test of a minister's soundness in the faith."

The commission said Dr. Smith believed in the Deity of Christ and the inspiration of the scriptures, but that while he affirmed that the Bible "is the essential word of God to man" he did not believe in the verbal infallibility or in the inerrancy of the Bible.

Divorced Wife of New York Banker Wins $25,000 Suit

New York, April 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Adelaide Lean, 55, divorced wife of Charles Kaufman, a Detroit banker, today awarded $25,000 by a jury in Supreme court in her $250,000 breach of promise suit against Kaufman, 67-year-old millionaire bachelor.

The jury after deliberating only a few hours until 5 p. m., yesterday reached its decision then and left a sealed verdict, which was opened today.

Counsel for Harmon moved to set aside the verdict on the grounds that it was against the weight of the evidence and that his motion was denied.

Mrs. Lean, who is the sister of Cecil Deen, musical comedy actor, and grandmother. She was introduced to Kaufman in Peacock Alley, the famous promenade of the old Waldorf-Astoria Hotel by Mrs. Turner, Harmon's eight years ago.

Harmon charged that Mrs. Lean and Mrs. Lena Turner, 70, conspired to marry him off to Mrs. Lean in order that both could live on his bounty.

Two Students Hurt In Rioting In Va.

Charlottesville, Va., April 10.—(AP)—University of Virginia students today were in a state of high excitement following a riot last night in protest to increased admission prices at two local theatres.

Two students were in the university hospital, dozens of others were nursing head wounds inflicted by police night sticks and at least one policeman was suffering from manhandling. Nearly a thousand students participated in the disturbances. No arrests were made.

Although the actual riot was dispersed with a plea for arbitration by President Edwin A. Alderman, of the university, hundreds of students continued to mill about the town long after midnight.

Led by a drum corps, nearly a thousand students mobilized on the university campus early last night, at the tolling of the chapel bell, and marched down main street to the theatre. Leaders of the demonstration rained a conference with the management and while they were inside, their followers showered the front of one of the theatres with some heavy electric light bulbs, and blocked traffic.

A policeman cautioned a student against his actions, and was thrown to the sidewalk and roughly handled. Almost the entire force was called out.

After President Alderman intervened in the matter to arbitration between a student committee and Fred Tryman, theatre manager. A court case will be held Friday.

Census Enumerator Stands in With Fair Sex On Age Issue

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—Thos. C. Council, census enumerator for the ninth North Carolina district, is finding out that women won't tell anybody their age but himself.

Women, Mr. Council says, seem to not even be willing to tell a census enumerator what their age is.

One woman, who lived nine miles from Raleigh in the country, refused to give her name to the enumerator who called at her home to gather census facts but then she got in her automobile and drove to town to tell Mr. Council how old she was. She told the supervisor she thought her age was her own business and nobody else's, but she did not argue the matter.

Mr. Council also said that in several instances in the city of Raleigh enumerators have been unable to get women to give their ages but within a few minutes the phone would ring and the age would be told to him direct.

Coolidge Has No Intention Returning To Public Life

New York, April 10.—(AP)—Former President Calvin Coolidge, in a copyrighted article in the May issue of Hearst's International and Cosmopolitan, writes that he has no intention of returning to public life.

The former president gives his views on prohibition, the tariff, playing the market, the suggestion that he run for senator, the talk of another term and "managing one's own business."

"When I left Washington I left public office," Mr. Coolidge says. "It is an incomprehensible relief and I have no intention of returning to it."

"If I were in the Senate," he adds, "it would not be agreeable to many of my colleagues, and with all my desires to be helpful it would probably oftentimes be an embarrassment to the administration. To have a former president in Washington exercising political power would result in all kinds of uncomfortable complications. Only the necessity of serving in some national crisis, so great as to subordinate all other considerations, would warrant it."

"Nor," he says further, "do I have any sympathy with those who are discussing again making me president. The service that I could give to the people in that office I feel is done."

Mr. Coolidge discusses prohibition at some length and in connection therewith the editor of the Cosmopolitan has signed off for prominent presentation this sentiment: "Considering that people have differed most radically on the best method of regulating the sale of liquor for generations, it is not likely to be settled for a long time to come."

Think Man Charged With Shortage Will Surrender in Future

Charlotte, April 10.—(AP)—The Charlotte News will say today it has learned from sources it considers reliable that Walter Haywood, former treasurer of the Peoples Building and Loan Association of Mount Gilead, who has been widely sought in connection with an alleged $14,000 shortage in his accounts, will surrender in the near future.

According to the newspaper Haywood is hiding at the home of a relative and when satisfactory arrangements have been made for bond, he will surrender to Montgomery county officials.

A warrant was issued for Haywood three weeks ago charging embezzlement after he had disappeared from Mount Gilead. Sighted by a youth of 14, a man believed to have been Haywood, held the boy at bay while he fled into the swamps of Montgomery county and successfully eluded a searching party.

He was believed to have been sighted again yesterday near Marrow Mountain.

Charlotte Cop Quits His Job

Charlotte, April 10.—(AP)—Resignation of W. C. Pressley, city police sergeant, who was placed in jail yesterday on a charge of drunkenness, came last night after he was released.

The sergeant was ordered placed in jail by Police Chief Herace Moore after he had been summoned to appear before the Police Chief because of alleged immoral conduct.

A witness in Superior court, Pete Fuller, a taxi driver, testified he attempted suicide when he returned home unexpectedly and discovered Pressley and Mrs. Fuller in a compromising situation.

Probe Killing of Rum Runner By Dry Officer

Wilmington, April 10.—(AP)—The fatal shooting of Roy Gurganus, Onslow county man, by Federal Prohibition Agent S. K. Hughes today was subject for investigation. Gurganus died last night in a Wilmington hospital. He was shot yesterday, federal officers said, as he was fleeing from a still in Onslow county.

Hughes admitted shooting the man but said his son was fired accidentally as he stumbled during the chase.

Coroner George Jones, of Onslow county, called a coroner's jury to meet this morning at Jacksonville for an inquest. He summoned as witnesses Hughes, two fellow officers and Roland Padgett, whom the officers said they found at the still with Gurganus.

Padgett, who was arrested and held in jail on a liquor charge, was quoted yesterday by officers as saying he was running in an opposite direction when Gurganus was shot.

Government Seeks To Close N. Y. Hotel

New York, April 10.—(AP)—Two suits were on file in Federal court today in which the Government seeks to close one high class hotel entirely and part of another.

United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle said that the decision to seek padlocks for the Cornish Arms hotel in West 23rd street and the grill and 15 guest rooms of Hotel Manger at Seventh avenue and W. 50th street, was reached at a conference in Washington.

The Manger, one of the largest and newest hotels in the city, with more than 2,000 rooms, was raided February 10 after several federal prohibition agents had been registered there as guests for several weeks. They said they purchased liquor from bell boys and drank it in the grill room with ginger ale and ice served by waiters.

The Cornish Arms was raided the next day under similar circumstances. The Government in its suit seeks to padlock all 350 rooms of the hotel.

Camden, S. C.—(AP)—Mrs. Boo Dean, prominent young sportswoman of New York and Camden, had her thigh broken when thrown by a spirited horse here yesterday. Before her marriage she was Miss Lucy Pomeroy and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy.

House to Consider Norris Resolution On Muscle Shoals

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—The House Military Affairs committee plans to start executive sessions next Tuesday on the Norris resolution for government operation of Muscle Shoals, with the intention of reporting it, much amended, to the House in a week or ten days.

In its present form House Republican leaders give it no chance of passage. Committee sentiment seemed to favor incorporating in the Senate measure authority for the proposed Muscle Shoals corporation to lease the plant to any responsible private concern willing to meet certain terms to be stipulated in the bill.

The suggested amendment would require that the corporation spend a definite time in securing a lease. Failing in that, it would undertake government operation, subject, however, to the provision that whenever subsequently a responsible bidder comes along willing to take over the plant as a going concern, government operation would end.

Representative Frank R. Rosten, Tennessee, one of the senior members of the military committee was of the opinion today that such an amendment would satisfy the House and the president. Representative McSwain of South Carolina, and Hill of Alabama, both Democrats, also said they favored a bill following these general lines.

Marketing Experts Address Chamber At Kinston Today

Kinston, April 10.—(AP)—F. M. Bomberger, assistant chief of the co-operative marketing division of the Federal Farm Board at Washington, addressed the annual meeting of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce here today.

Talks were also made by tax, agricultural and industrial authorities from Raleigh, New Bern and Kinston. Business leaders from many sections were present.

Three separate sessions are on today's schedule. A banquet at 7 o'clock tonight climaxed the meeting. J. Paul Frizelle, of Snow Hill is presiding.

Those attending the meeting are agreed that crop conditions in the Coastal Plain territory are the best in 40 years.

Farm Crops Menaced By Hot Weather In the Southwest Section

Kansas City, April 10.—(AP)—Mid-Summer temperatures, accompanied by hot dry winds, have combined with an unusually dry spring to menace seriously farm crops of the southwest.

General forecasts of possibly showers and cooler weather today, however, offered some relief to agriculturalists of Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas, unless moisture is received soon considerable crop damage is certain to result.

Yesterday the thermometer registered 95 degrees at Salina, Kans. A mark of 89 degrees, recorded at Kansas City, established a record in the 41-year history of the local weather bureau.

Tulsa and Oklahoma City reported maximum readings of 90 degrees and Dallas, Tex., 88 degrees.

St. Paul, N. C.—(AP)—The Bank of St. Paul, closed March 31 after a run on it had been started, has been reopened. The same officials are in charge.

New Tear Bomb Very Effective

Washington, April 10.—(AP)—The creation of a new tear gas bomb for police and other riot use, faster working and more powerful than the present type, was announced today by the War Department.

The chemical warfare service of the army is now testing out the product which it developed after long experimentation.

The type is described as a "universal fast burning tear gas candle, which will produce an effective gas concentration so quickly that a rioter will be made helpless immediately."

The new candles are used in the same manner as the hand grenades and burst with almost explosive violence.

Robbers Active In Wayne County

Goldboro, April 10.—(AP)—Robbers were discovered today to have visited three stores in Wayne County and gone to Faison, Duplin county towns south of here, last night. The total amount taken had not been determined this morning.

The post office, Depot and Byrd's general store were robbed at Calypso. At Faison, the safe of the Walker Motor company was blown open and 200 old coins, gold and silver, which had been collected by the proprietor over a period of several years were secured.

The robberies at Faison and Calypso followed by one night the week-end of the safe of the express office at LaGrange and officers this morning broadcast a telegraph warning to authorities in villages and towns of this section to be on the watch out.

Why Few Are Fat

Excess fat has been disappearing fast in late years. So fat that excess fat is the exception now. You see that in every circle.

This change is largely due to the discovery that excess fat is largely the result of a gland weakness. A gland whose secretion helps turn food to fuel. So modern physicians, in treating obesity, seek to combat this cause.

Their method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now almost everyone has slender friends to show them the results.

Go do what they did—try Marmola. All druggists supply it at $1 a box, and a book in each box tells you how and why it acts.

PERCY BROWN Louisiana State

These Dixie stars will perform at the Southern relays in Atlanta April 11 and 12. Hamm, world's champion broad jumper from Georgia Tech, will compete in his specialty and in the sprints against a fast field including Charlie Farmer, North Carolina's sophomore sensation, and Percy Brown, Louisiana State's speedster. Bob Young of Georgia is a half-mile star.

of shots even if it does not quite boast the backbreaking distances of the famous Pittsburgh layout. All of which will be of no particular good cheer to the professional staves or even to Bobby Jones, who found Cakmont his one real Waterloo in open competition of the last ten years.

Jimmy Johnston, the present national amateur king who led the open field at Oakmont in 1927 for two rounds, knows Interlachen as well as any golfer. Recently he told Chandler Forman of the Minneapolis Tribune he figured 293 or 294 would be good enough to win there. He added:

"If the golfer who wins the open averages par for the four rounds I will be surprised. Interlachen is as tough as any course I have ever played on. It is a stroke stiffer than Pebble Beach and I think that Scioto, Inverness, Skokie and Olympia fields are all easier."

A score of 293 is good enough to win most national open tournaments. It would have won at Oakmont, or Winged Foot in the last three championships, where ties have been played off after totals of 391, 294 and 294.

Flowers of the New York Giants, it seems, will be put to a severe test. The call has gone out to the "Loyal Giants coters" for a testimonial tribute to John McGraw's baseball men at $10 per plate.

Chat From the Training Camp

Richmond, Va., April 10.—(AP)—Having scalped the Bravein four of their scheduled five game series, the Senators faced the Boston team today for the final contest. While Manager Johnson was in Washington with his injured son, acting pilot Joe Judge named Garland Braxton to do the pitching.

Philadelphia, April 10.—(AP)—Robert Moses Grove, the Athletics, left-handed speed merchant, is due for a big season this year, in the opinion of Manager Mack. He declares that Lefty's fireball is faster than ever.

Louis Browns believes his club will finish better than fourth in the American League chase although admitting a weakness in attack. Killefer, however, opines pitching and fielding with the breaks will keep the Brownies toward the van.

St. Louis, April 10.—(AP)—Only one ailing player was among the 29 St. Louis Cardinals who wended their way to the home stamping grounds from the Florida spring battlefields today. He is Ernie Orsatti, who sprained an ankle last week, and will probably be unfit for regular sentry duty for another week.

Kansas City, April 10.—(AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy, of the Chicago Cubs, has given Lester Bell up as his third baseman when the National League champions open at St. Louis next week. Bell's throwing arm hasn't improved a bit in three weeks, and Clarence Blair is down for the assignment.

Akron, O.—K. O. Christner, of Akron, outpointed Joe Sekyra, Dayton, O., (10).

CHARLOTTE EXPECTS BIG BALL SEASON

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—(AP)—Dick Hoblitzell has collared a swanky layout of youngsters and with his mixing paddle has stirred it in with his veterans into what is being called a swell swarm of bees. Already the club is taking form. Holes are to be plugged only once in the box, in centerfield, in second base and in the second choice catcher's position. Tom Young has been conceded the centerfield position, with Van Mungo, Dick Wells, Jack Coffee, Elbert Padgett, Jinx Harris, Paul Peachuck, Sam Presley, and Tom Smith seeking the pitching berth. Ginger Watts, Luther Whitlock and Eddie Scholls are battling for the job as Roy Luebbs' aid behind the pan.

Third base, just now, is open, but Horner moguls are expecting Harry Daugherty to be returned from Memphis. In event he isn't Frank Packard, ex-Columbia Comer, will get the hot corner position.

Will Marlotte is the main choice for short and Fred Partridge, Joe Whitlock, Spencer Reynolds and Wally Hamburg are in a race for the mid-way place where the team has been woefully weak in batting. Skin Griffin formerly held down the job, but the long contemplated trade sent him to Augusta several weeks back.

Hoblitzell is working with Oscar Kress, a southpaw, who is expected to relieve the manager at first base. Ray Wise is due to be back in left and Able Hood in right.

The great pitching staff of 1929, which lost only Earle Brown, now with Mobile in the Southern Association, is made up of Larry Boerner, Therman Wical, Hank Newbury, Ted Veach and George Peity. The Bees still are in the market for a first class portsider, since Roak Wells is the only flinger on the squad who offers than from the left.

Majors to Make Plenty of Noise During Season

Chicago, April 10.—(AP)—Major league baseball, slightly groggy since the World War depleted its ranks and interrupted its annual supply of young talent, has recovered from its snock and will boom louder than ever during the next five years, President Ernest Barnard of the American league predicted today.

"I'll frankly admit that the class of major league baseball since the World War hasn't been equal to that as displayed in the years between 1905 and 1916", President Barnard said, "but we have caught up now and despite the attractions on the golf links and football fields, sports lovers will again realize that baseball is the great national game."

"So disastrous was the war and its after effects, that major or minor league clubs had difficulty obtaining high class players at any price. The war took young men's minds off the game and those with natural talent forgot about our great game and we lost at least 100 finished players. But that's all past now. We are getting faster and better players; the game has been speeded up to its former class and we are destined to have tighter pennant races from now on. Baseball will come into its own once more."

President Barnard is optimistic over the prospects of a tight flag race in the American league this year and expects the loop to draw over 5,000,000 spectators for the first time since 1925.

"While Philadelphia looks to be the strongest in the league this year, don't think Connie Mack's boys are going to have a walk-away," he prophesied.

San Francisco—Charlie Hernandez, of San Francisco, outpointed Batling Balu, Manila, (6). Montreal—"Kid" Roy outpointed Sammy Hackett, Toronto, (10).

Hertford to Play High Here Friday

The locals of the Greenville high school will play their third conference game of the season tomorrow at the Third street school field. They will be opposed by Hertford, one of the strongest teams in the conference. The game will start promptly at 3.45.

Hertford has played two games, winning one and tying one, and it is said that their pitcher has everything a good pitcher should have. Greenville has played two games, winning one and losing one. Their pitcher has allowed 17 hits in the two games and has struck out 20 men in these two encounters.

Greenville will be playing its first game under the co-captain plan. At a meeting of the team on Monday it was decided to make the two veterans of last year's team co-captains of this year's team. John Hodges and G. D. Smith, therefore, will be the captains. Both boys have been active in other branches of sport at the high school and have also starred on the baseball team.

New bleachers have been built at the Third street grounds and seating accommodations can be had for all those that want them. The game will start promptly at 3.45 and a hurling battle is expected between Roger Taylor and the Hertford Ace.

Chicago—Al Fay, Los Angeles, knocked out Fred Rees, Pittsburgh, Kas., (3).

Oakland, Cal.—Millon Millett, Omaha, outpointed Al Olsen, Oakland, (6).

Dayton, O.—Rosy Rosales, Cleveland, and Tiger Williams, Chicago, drew, (10).

SPORTS SLANTS

Picking the major league pennant winners is an annual spring habit that possesses a strange, irresistible fascination for the experts. It is like a game of tag, played blindfold, with the outcome in doubt for six months. A good many of these experts are just as well satisfied if no one remembers in October what they predicted in April but that does not curb the rush of predictions now coming to hand from waystations along the Southern exhibition routes.

Perhaps the most striking manifestation in the returns that have come to hand in the annual Associated Press poll is the wide range of opinion in placing such national league clubs as the Giants, Cards, Phillies, Cincinnati and Brooklyn. The Cardinals, for example, are rated all the way from pennant winners to occupants of seventh place. Brooklyn ranges from second to eighth place in the forecasts and so to the furious Phillies.

The explanation of this extraordinary divergence seems to be that the National league clubs this year are better balanced than in years, almost all of them with sufficient strength and prospects to bob up as at least first-division candidates, if not actual pennant contenders. Consequently the experts are "going out on a limb" so far as their guesses prove correct; otherwise, that they will be forgotten.

From Minneapolis comes word that Interlachen, scene of the 1930 National Open golf championship, will be as tough to tackle as Oakmont, calling for a greater variety

KEY WORKERS AND OFFICERS OF VARIOUS CHURCHES WILL HOLD MEETING HERE TONIGHT

(Continued from page one) and there is no legitimate excuse for indulging in it. A negative and a positive answer may be given to the question, what, then, are the consequences of a believer's sinning? First, he does not cease to be God's child. Eternal life is not forfeited; the Holy Spirit still abides with him. Backslide he may, but perish he will not. Were we to stop at this point and merely affirm our security, we should be setting a premium upon sin, we should be encouraging loose living, and be in danger of making the Grace of God ineffective. All forms of backsliding must be corrected because of the ensuing results. The believer's communion is broken. It grieves the Savior's heart, since He desires fellowship with his blood-bought people. Isa. 59:2, Rev. 3:20. The joy of salvation is gone, the power for the service one might render is destroyed, and our witness for Christ is nullified. Your position in glory is affected, and your conduct will bring positive chastisement from the Lord.

the message each evening. Presbyterian Church. Last evening at the Presbyterian church Rev. R. P. Pittman sang another gospel message and preached for the pastor from the subject: "Christians as Lights in the World." He said in part that Christ was the light of the world, but that Christians were also lights which were derived from Him, reflected light. That we are to use as light is used in the world, to drive away the darkness, to guide, to warn, to cheer and brighten the pathway of men. He urged the people to go out and see to it that their light as Christians were being used for these purposes.

Much work is being done by the members as shown by the good attendance last night. Rev. W. S. Harden, the pastor, who has been out of town for two days in attendance upon a church meeting, was back in time for the service but asked Mr. Pittman to preach for this service. The pastor will speak this evening from the subject: "Ready to be Used."

Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church Last evening brought to us another opportunity to enjoy with a goodly number the joy which comes to us by the experience of associating with the Christian life in song, prayer and sermon. The text used was taken from the words of St. Paul when he wrote to the Philippians as recorded in the fourth chapter and thirteenth verse, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Attention was called to the fact that an auto needs power when on a long stretch of road, and especially when going up grade; so it is with life, we need power on the great highway of life, and need it abundantly when facing trials and difficulties. This power that we need to help us make the grade is the power of Christian religion. If we seek this power through prayer and communion with God we can say as St. Paul did "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Are we saturated with this power? If we are not or if we feel that our store of power is insufficient let us seek to replenish our souls so that we may have the courage to speak to others about the source and satisfaction of the power of life. If we make a retrospection of our lives and find power and courage lacking we know to whom we may go for a bountiful supply. Let us make that examination and discover wherein we are lacking. The services each evening this week will help us make this examination, and will also help us to restock our lives with the power of God. Will you be with us tonight at 8:00 o'clock and enjoy this privilege? Subject for tonight's sermon will be "With Christ Seeking the Lost."
