BERLINGER LOOKS LIKE REAL CHAMP

Philadelphia, April 26.—(AP)—Barney Berlinger, just 21 and a junior at the University of Pennsylvania, probably will be the new world's champion in all-around athletic ability, if he adds middle distance running to his already wide range of accomplishments.

The ability to travel 1500 meters, slightly less than a mile, in anything like a respective time is the 10 per cent needed to make him the greatest American decathlon performer.

For nine of the ten events comprising the gruelling decathlon on the Penn relay carnival yesterday, he hit a terrific pace in spite of cold weather at Franklin field. Over 90 per cent of the eight-hour track and field test, he was just about supreme. He won five of the first nine events. He high jumped over six feet, pole vaulted 12 feet six inches and heaved the shot 46 feet. He can do even better in these events, besides toss the javelin, discuss and skim the hurdles with considerable flourish.

Supremacy in polo, like golf, passed from Britain to America with the post-war stimulation of Yankee activity and has remained on this side ever since—to the somewhat decided annoyance of our friendly English rivals and in spite of their most courageous efforts to alter the situation.

Just now the British are concentrating on a third successive attempt to lift the classic International Polo Cup from American hands.

Advises to this department from abroad are that it is by far the most serious expedition yet organized and that the leading candidates for the British team, under the leadership of Captain Charles Tremayne, already are in training.

The British polo four this year is being built around the dashing figure of the Irish internationalist, Captain C. T. I. (Pat) Roark, a sensation in American tournaments last summer.

With him in training are Captain Tremayne, Major G. H. Phipps Hornby and H. P. Guinness.

The latter two are experienced but it is the American view that the British stand little chance of winning this year unless they call some younger stars, such as Pat Roark's brother, Aiden Roark, and the Baldings, Cecil and Gerald, to the colors. This is on the theory that it will take speed, dash and plenty of it to overcome the American side.

in general experience in spite of its youth.

Along of the eight pilots involved in motor league managerial shift since last year, Bill Carrigan of the Boston Red Sox out of his own accord. Jack Hendricks, former Cincinnati pilot, was in a receptive mood for a new job. He made a strong bid for the presidency of the International League but lost out and is at his home in Indianapolis minus any diamond connections.

Diego Bush, Dan Howley and Bill McKee still are pilots but in different surroundings. Bush and Howley changed leagues. Lena Blackburne, ex-White Sox manager, went to the Browns as a coach. Death checked the career of Miller Huggins and in Boston, Emil Fuchs decided responsibilities of presidents were sufficient, withdrawing in favor of McKee.

CREDIT INDIANS WITH PINCH-HITTING RECORD

Chicago, April 26.—(AP)—Henry Edwards, secretary of statistician of the American League, credits the Cleveland Indians with a new all-time major league record in pinch hitting.

Seven pinch hitters were used by the Indians in games against Detroit and Chicago and each delivered. The seven hits drove in seven runs in addition to one run scored by a pinch hitter. Two games were won by 1.000 per cent pinch hitting.

"It's an amazing feat," Edwards said, "as pinch hitters usually are great helpmates to the opposition."

BRILLIANT DANCE GIVEN LAST EVENING

One of the outstanding social affairs of Easter week was the dance last evening at the Woman's Club given by the Nine O'Clock Cotillion.

The club was elaborately decorated with masses of roses and other flowers carrying out a pink and green motif.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harrington welcomed the guests.

Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, Mrs. P. H. Kasey and Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb served tempting punch and sandwiches throughout the evening.

Dancing was from nine until one o'clock with music by Paul Hinman's orchestra.

The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James.

Little Miss Jean Harrington and little Miss Josephine Flanagan, dressed in dainty little pink ballet frocks, presented the guests with favors.

Dr. and Mrs. Clem Ham were presented an attractive door stop for the first couple arriving after nine o'clock, and a carton of cigarettes to Charles Skinner for the first stag.

The club, which was recently organized, is Greenville's latest social organization and is comprised of married couples.

It is the purpose of the club to give four dances each year. The one last evening was the first.

Officers of the club are, President, Mrs. J. B. James; Vice-President, Mrs. R. M. Garrett; Secretary, Mrs. James Patterson; Treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Harrington.

GREENVILLE HIGHS BEAT TARBORO

Greenville high defeated Tarboro high yesterday afternoon at Tarboro by a score of 6 to 5. It was a tight game and exceedingly well played on both sides for high school teams.

As usual Taylor pitched for Greenville. He was not as effective as he generally is but he managed to keep the hits scattered to not more than one an inning until the ninth when three hits, coupled with two errors, gave Tarboro three runs.

With the tying and winning runs on bases he struck out Britt for the final out and brought victory to his team and a sigh of relief to his coach and the Greenville fans.

An exceptional feature of the game, one that is not seen often in any kind of baseball, was the fact that Thomas, Tarboro first baseman, was credited with only one putout.

As a general rule the first baseman gets the majority of the putouts but such was not the case yesterday. The Greenville first sacker, Hubert Register, playing there for his first time, turned in a nice game.

He accepted a total of 11 chances with one error and smacked out two nice singles out of five times at bat.

The longest hit of the game went to John Hodges. In the eighth he cracked one of the racetrack in the fairgrounds for a triple to score Smith with what proved to be the winning tally.

Howell, Tarboro center fielder, put one into center for three sacks but failed to touch first and was called out. Burnett led the hitting with 3 for 4.

Local fans will be treated to two ball games on the local lot next week. On Tuesday the boys engage the conference leaders from Kinston and on Friday they take on their old rivals from Washington.

Dean Homer Spencer of the University of Chicago's school of commerce walked 130 miles during March, according to his pedometer.

erty in the State, equalized in assessment by a State Equalization Board with power, and then—how? Either by big tax on land or a sales tax on luxuries, such as soft drinks, cigarettes, theatre and moving picture show tickets and other luxuries, where a specific tax on each article can be easily collected. One of two courses must be pursued—burden land owners unequitably or let the luxury-users pay a part of the bill. There are many people enjoying the benefit of the schools who pay nothing at all to their support. Most of these people use luxuries. A small tax will reach an element not now paying tax, and who could not be reached in any other way.—News and Observer.

ABOUT TOWN

Members of the Greenville Women's club celebrated their thirtieth birthday anniversary today. The exercises were attended by women who occupy an enviable position in the life of the State, and the occasion will be long remembered.

The club has been very active during its thirteen years of service to the community, and Greenville people feel sure its achievements will be just as great in the future as in the past.

The club has made wonderful progress, and today a beautiful building at the corner of Green and Third streets stands as a memorial to the thrift of its membership. Rooms of this building were dedicated today as memorials to the women who did so much in the up-building of the organization and their memory will live to inspire the women of the future to nobler higher achievements.

The ladies are to be congratulated upon their accomplishments, and all Greenville will join them on this birthday anniversary in best wishes for a long and useful life.

The importance of more attention to the young men of today was stressed before the Lions club this week by Ralph Deal, district Kiwanis governor. Mr. Deal urged the young men to live clean lives and in that way set a worthy example for the young men of tomorrow.

He expressed belief that the various civic organizations of the community should give more time to the activities of the boys and inspire them to respond to the higher emotions of life.

He expressed belief that the Boy Scout movement is accomplishing much in behalf of the boy of today, and asked that the organization be given all the support possible.

Merchants who want to get their share of business should make their stores as attractive as possible. They should keep their buildings as neat and clean as they can, and then see that their windows contain attractive displays of merchandise.

The display window is one of the biggest assets in the life of a store, and the merchant who does not give this feature proper attention cannot expect to accomplish as much as the merchant that does. By careful arrangement of windows, the public may be kept correctly informed of what the merchant has to offer and many a man or woman who had no idea of buying will be drawn into the stores by things seen in the windows.

Well-kept stores with a proper amount of newspaper advertising should be a boon to any merchant, and the man who isn't getting the amount of business he thinks he should have ought to try the plan and watch the results.

People looking for something to buy should watch the advertising columns of the Daily Reflector. This paper carries numbers of business opportunities each day, and the man or woman in quest of something of this kind should be able to find what they want.

Aside from this splendid feature the Reflector carries numbers of news stories that should offer an appeal to that class of people desiring to keep abreast of the times. These stories deal with things of both local and national importance, and give the reader a accurate glimpse of what is doing at home and abroad.

If you are not one of the many hundreds of people who read this paper daily why not join the happy family. It is an investment you will never have cause to regret and you should always feel like you are in close touch with world developments.

Maxton, N. C.—(AP)—Fayetteville Presbytery, meeting here, went on record favoring organic union with United Presbyterian church.

PUBLIC FORUM

OUR READERS ARE INVITED TO USE THIS COLUMN FOR DISCUSSING PROBLEMS OF INTEREST TO THIS COMMUNITY. IN ALL CASES NAMES MUST ACCOMPANY ANY COMMUNICATION.

Please Make Your Discussion As Short As Possible.

Mr. Editor:

From the report of the grand jury I quote the following recommendations made to the court:

"That these expenses of county government be reduced as much as possible and that employees be compensated in keeping with the earnings of the tax payers."

This is a wise recommendation and will I hope be heeded.

Both the county and the town published statements in the Reflector but they are somewhat condensed. I should like to see these statements published more in detail. For instance, I should like the published statements give the name of each monthly of yearly employee with the salary paid the employee per month or per year.

Also the grand jury made recommendations about the county home that should be considered.

According to figures given out by the State Department of Welfare, sixty five counties reporting for 1929, interest included only four counties had a higher cost per inmate than Pitt county. Pitt's monthly cost per inmate being $51.54 while the adjoining county of Beaufort was $18.80 per inmate.

Consolidation of county homes is now being tried out with success. Augusta county in Virginia combined with four other counties and erected suitable buildings where the inmates from the five counties received far better attention than they did under the old system and at HALF THE COST TO THE FIVE COUNTIES.

But it would be far better if these county homes were converted into county hospitals where our indigent poor could be made more comfortable and where hospital service could be secured at a nominal cost to those able to pay and free to the indigent poor. Thousands of valuable lives are being sacrificed every year in North Carolina because the people cannot pay the price of hospital service.

PRISONERS LEAVE JAIL AND PROMISE SHERIFF TO RETURN
 Nacogdoches, Tex., April 25.—(AP)—Sheriff Eugene Turley, his faith in his "local boys" undiminished and partially justified, today waited patiently for his escaped convicts to return to the county jail as they have promised.
 Early Thursday night the sheriff was awakened by a voice speaking from the darkness.
 "Some of us boys saved our way out of your jail about five or six hours ago," the voice said. "We all left you a note saying what time we'd be back. I wrote you I would return about 5:30 a. m., and here I am."
 It was Will Tindall, recently sentenced to 35 years for murder.
 "Can you beat that?" said the astounded Turley. "Come along, Will, let's go. I got to look into this."
 At the jail Sheriff Turley found his desk cluttered with eight slips of paper. Each was signed by one of the prisoners, and each said in effect that the prisoner "had business to attend to, and would be back shortly."
 Four hours later the second of the stragglers reported for confinement. George Botman, sentenced to two years for forgery, greeted

Appie Blossom Festival Closes

Winchester, Va., April 26.—(AP)—Remnants of the throngs estimated a hundred and ten thousand who filled Winchester yesterday for the closing day of the seventh annual apple blossom festival departed today by train and auto for their homes, while Winchester, capital for two days of the Shenandoah Valley's apple section, discussed plans for next year's celebration.
 The new group of officials who will sponsor the festival in 1931 will consider the possibility of bringing the next queen of England in observance of the fact that Winchester, Va., was named for the old English capital.
 Yesterday with streets so tightly packed with humanity that it required nearly an hour for policemen to clear a passage for the grand feature parade, Queen Shenandoah VII, Miss Suzanne Pollard led a procession of bands and floats that went by for an hour and half. In a white and rife float on which was mounted her throne, the queen bowed to the throngs who cheered her along the route of the parade. Behind her came the princesses, forty maidens from Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, dressed in pink satin and riding in floats of white and silf.
 The closing event of the festival was the ball last night at which Queen Shenandoah reigned.
 Jake Larr, N. C.—(AP)—Robbers halted Hugh Mobley, of Rutherfordton, here while he was on his way by automobile to Hendersonville and took all his valuables from him.

Criminal Court Adjourns After Disposing of 113 Cases in Two Weeks

After disposing of 113 cases, the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court which has been in progress in this city the last two weeks, was adjourned late yesterday afternoon by Judge M. V. Barnhill, of Rocky Mount. The term was described as one of the most successful in months, only eleven cases having been continued over until the next term.

The cases heard ranged all the way from bad check to charges of murder and defendants received a total of 32 years and 11 months, according to a summary of court proceedings compiled by Solicitor D. M. Clark. The total amount paid in fines was estimated at $485.00.

Cases continued, resulted from sickness of parties and witnesses or from other causes, satisfactory to the judge. No cases were left on the docket on account of the inability of the court to reach them, it was stated.

The docket was congested as result of the illness of the presiding judge last spring, and as a consequence the county had only eight days of court of the three weeks. At that time the county had four days of court in January and five in April. This year the county has had its full three weeks and as a result the docket is clear with the exception of the eleven cases continued. These cases, however, were described as short and inconsequential and some will be submitted at the next term of court.

At the concluding session yesterday Elbert Tyson, young white man of the Black Jack section, was found guilty of a charge of larceny of tobacco, and was sentenced to not less than 12 nor more than 18 months in the state penitentiary. He was convicted of stealing tobacco from W. A. Buck. Levi Tyson, 17, involved in the same case, had the prison sentence suspended, but the court provided that he be confined in a reformatory at Rocky Mount, for from 12 to 18 months.

C. R. Smith was found not guilty of a charge of giving a worthless check. Marshall Clark, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, to wit, an automobile, was adjudged not guilty.

James Boyd was not guilty of disposing of mortgaged property. Geo. Clark, charged with giving a worthless check, was required to pay a fine of $10.00 and cost.

plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.
