PRES. HOOVER SENDS SENATE NAVAL TREATY

Chief Executive Asks Ratification in Letter of Less Than 100 Words

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—The naval treaty negotiated at London was submitted to the Senate today by President Hoover.

In a letter of less than 100 words the chief executive asked for ratification.

The foreign relations committee will begin consideration of the pact within a few days.

Lawrence C. Latta, a White House aide, took the document to the Capitol.

Presented by a doorkeeper just as the Senate was meeting at noon, Latta made the announcement heard almost every day in one house or the other that he had brought a communication from the president.

Without further identification, treaty and presidential letter were laid before the vice-president's desk where they lay unread for awhile as the Senate went on with its debate over the Parker nomination.

Only yesterday Mr. Hoover received the pact from Secretary Stimson, who headed the American delegation to London.

On Capitol hill, few of the senators have expressed themselves on the treaty. Chairman Borah, of the foreign relations committee, however, has given the pact his conditional approval.

Ambassador Morrow, a member of the naval delegation, who arrived in the city last night, conferred at the White House with President Hoover, shortly after 9 o'clock. They discussed the conference, together with details of the treaty.

President Hoover's letter transmitting the London naval treaty to the Senate for ratification was one of the shortest of such public documents in history.

The lone sentence of less than ninety words follows:

"I transmit herewith a treaty for the limitation and reduction of naval armament, signed at London on April 22, 1930, by the plenipotentiaries of the president of the United States of America, the president of the French Republic, His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British dominions beyond the seas, Emperor of India, His Majesty the King of Italy and His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, to the ratification of which I ask the advice and consent of the Senate."

Signed "Herbert Hoover."

'Mystery Will' Under Fire At Spartanburg

Spartanburg, S. C., May 1.—(AP)—A "mystery will" that disposes of an estate valued at $100,000 is under fire in the probate court here with a long legal fight in prospect.

The will, alleged to be that of the late F. A. Johnson, wealthy farmer of Cashville, was mailed to an attorney here six weeks after Johnson's death. It was attacked by relatives as a forgery at the opening of court proceedings yesterday.

Mrs. Maggie Godfrey, a niece of the dead man, is the sole beneficiary, under the terms of the document, for her kindness to the testator during his life.

Girl Testifies At Whiskey Hearing In Wilmington

Wilmington, N. C., May 1.—(AP)—Lena Pozell, blonde Swedish girl testified today in the trial of Captain Paul Nielson and Richard Peacock, charged with violation of the prohibition laws, that Nielson had not gone aboard the yacht, Eolis, for a week before the vessel left Miami last summer.

Her testimony was given in corroboration of Captain Nielson's testimony that he had nothing to do with loading the boat with whiskey and outfitting it with secret compartments to hold the liquor. The yacht, with the whiskey aboard, was captured off the Carolina coast while on its way from Miami to New York.

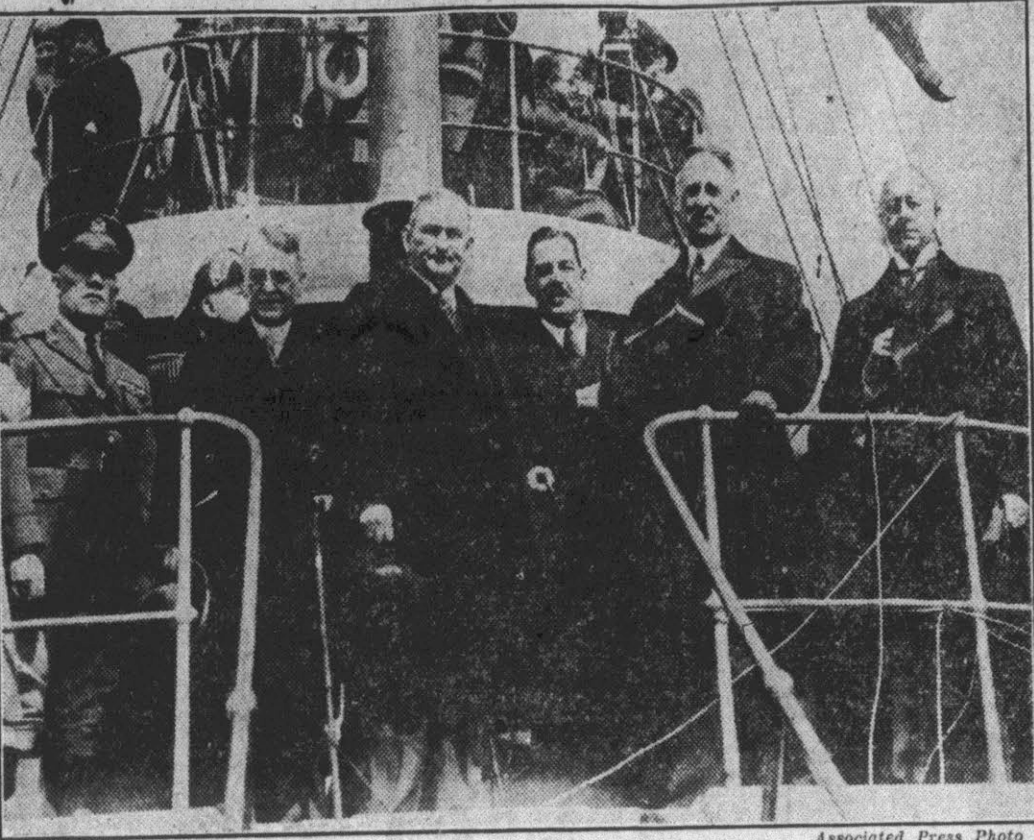

"As Scandinavians stock together," Mrs. Pozell said "we three parties got a solid week before the Eolis left Miami."

She testified that when the yacht left she took Captain Nielson to the dock.

Nielson's contention is that he merely had been hired to take the boat to New York, knew nothing of the cargo aboard and did not get on it until time came to leave.

Miss Pozell gave her address as 2109 South West Drive, Miami.

NAVAL DELEGATES WELCOMED HOME FROM PARLEY

New York welcomed members of the naval delegation when they returned to the United States aboard the Leviathan. Here they are aboard the city tug Macom, which brought them up the bay. Left to right: Ambassador Morrow, Senator Robinson, Commissioner Whalen, who headed New York reception committee; Secretary Stimson and Secretary Adams.

Senate Committee Begins Probe Campaign Expense; Mrs. McCormick Testifies

Successful Candidate In the Recent Illinois Senatorial Race, Declares She Spent $252,572 From Her Own Pocketbook in That Race

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, successful candidate in the recent Illinois Republican senatorial race, told the Senate campaign funds committee today she spent $252,572 from her own pocket book in that race.

The Republican nominee, who was the first witness before the committee, said she received no contributions except some from members of her own family.

She added that she was supported by only two organizations in Cook county—the Voters Progress club and the Ruth Hanna McCormick volunteers.

Mrs. McCormick read a statement in which she urged that legislation be enacted to provide a closer scrutiny of all campaign activities by senatorial candidates.

"I could not undertake to make a statement of expenditures in my recent campaign," she told the committee, "for I do not know what period such a statement should cover. When does a candidate for the Senate become a candidate?"

"One of my opponents in the recent primary never formally announced his candidacy, but had been organized and campaigning for two years in advance of the primaries."

"Another of my opponents announced his candidacy in midwinter and two others entered the race merely by filing their names with the secretary of state."

"New legislation should also take into account the necessity of check-

Students Of University Of Pennsylvania Clash With Philadelphia Cops

Head of Police Department Held In Jail Following the Clash; Two Hundred Students Also Detained; Riot Follows Hanging of Effigies of Unpopular Professors

Philadelphia, May 1.—(AP)—Hundreds of students of the University of Pennsylvania, after hanging the effigies of two unpopular professors, clashed with the police early today with the result that the head of the police department himself was arrested and held in jail for a hearing. Two hundred students also were temporarily detained.

So serious did the disturbance become on the campus and in the neighborhood of the university in West Philadelphia that extra police were rushed into the area and Lemuel D. Schofield, director of the department of public safety took personal command.

In the roundup, more than 200 alleged disorderly students were placed under arrest and taken to police stations. As fast as they were brought in, most of them were released, but a score of them were held as leaders or for some infraction of the law.

"When Schofield refused to permit the release of these students he was arrested by a magistrate's constable charged with obstructing justice and held in $1,500 bail. The director refused to recognize the 'hearing,' in which he was held in jail on the ground that he was not present and finally he was released by Magistrate John J. O'Malley in his own recognizance for a hearing today.

W. H. STAYTON TESTIFIES AT LOBBY PROBE

Chairman of Association Against Prohibition Tells of Talk With Hoover Men

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—William H. Stayton, chairman of the board of the association against the prohibition amendment, testified today before the Senate Lobby committee that four members of the Hoover Law Enforcement commission had told him they were "trying to work out some other plan for distribution of liquor than under the present law."

He said the members of the commission were Judge Kenyon, Dean Pound, Colonel Anderson, and another one who he said he could not recall by name.

The witness gave this testimony after Chairman Caraway questioned him about a letter he wrote last February to Charles S. Wood of Philadelphia, which expressed the opinion that President Hoover "is beginning to doubt whether prohibition can be enforced."

Stayton said he drew this "inference" after appearing before the law enforcement commission at its request and after talking with senators and representatives.

He said the members of the commission asked him "many questions" concerning what might be substituted and that he offered a suggestion.

Pressed by Caraway to tell what members of the commission told him, Stayton replied:

"They said they were trying to work out some other plan for distribution of liquor other than under the present law."

COMMUNISTS ON RAMPAGE THRU CHINA

Reign of Terror Prevails In Kwangsi Province; Foreigners Evacuate

Shanghai, May 1.—(AP)—A reign of terror in Lungchow, southwestern Kwangsi province, was reported in dispatches from that area today.

Communists were said to have gone on a rampage of burning, looting and massacring there. All foreigners were reported to have evacuated, but much missionary property, was said to have been destroyed.

Lungchow, near the French Indo China border, has been in the grip of Communists since January 1. On March 25 the Reds were reported as having raided and burned the French consulate there, driving away the French officials and occupying the Lungchow customs offices at that place.

A letter from Lungchow April 12 said French authorities sent military aid to Kwangsi authorities and that 500 Communists were killed.

Meanwhile, Jesuits at Anking, capital of Anhwei province, telegraphed today that Taihu and Hwoshan, Anhwei had been taken by bandits April 27, and that the Rev. Julio Herrera, Spanish priest who had been captured by the outlaws had been rescued by provincial troops on the same day. The Rev. Father Herrera was taken to Anking.

The fate of Fathers Hidalgo and Avito was unknown.

Canton, May 1.—(AP)—Provincial authorities today advised foreigners to evacuate the territory between Kweihsein and Nanning. The officials indicated that Kwangtung authorities were planning to launch a sharp campaign against rebels in the Kwangsi area mentioned.

In other countries, notably Great Britain and Italy the authorities considered the occasion as not much out of the ordinary. This was particularly the case in Italy where the Fascist party has stifled political opposition. Spanish America celebrated the day as a holiday, and an occasion for merry making.

New York, May 1.—(AP)—The full strength of the metropolitan police force of 18,300 men was on reserve duty today as a precaution against May Day disorders.

Following the same tactics employed in the preparations for the unemployment demonstration on March 6, Commissioner Grover A. Whalen ordered all members of the department on reserve duty from El Paso, Tex., May 1.—(AP)—Frank Goldsborough, 19-year-old flier seeking a new junior transcontinental flight record from New York to Los Angeles, today was missing following a late take-off yesterday at 6:15 p. m. from Midland, Tex.

His route from Midland to El Paso was over one of the most treacherous lap of his transcontinental flight. The Guadalupe mountains lay directly in his path at nightfall.

Friends Of Judge Parker Claim Distinct Gain For His Confirmation Today

Although Republicans Show Inclination to Favor North Carolina Man for Supreme Court Seat, Doubt Exists Over Final Outcome of the Battle

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—Friends of Judge John J. Parker, of North Carolina, claimed gains for the Senate Republican ranks today for his confirmation to the Supreme Court but doubt continued over the final result and the time when a final vote would be taken.

In some circles at the Capitol, President Hoover was believed to be taking a hand toward uniting the Republican ranks in support of Parker. The opposition to him there has been based on objections by organized labor and the national association for the advancement of colored people.

Several Republicans classed in the doubtful list have been on the White House calling list in the last two days.

Friends of Parker were confident today that a stronger Republican lineup for the nominee was in prospect.

However, the unknown division on the Democratic side was still causing confusion over the final result as Senator Hebert, Republican Rhode Island, picked up the Parker banner at the outset of today's debate.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, who returned to the Senate yesterday from the London naval conference was regarded as holding the key to the Democratic situation. He kept his silence as he sat down today to listen to the debate.

Senator Hebert launched another fusillade of legal argument on the Red jacket decision by Judge Parker which has been the target of both opponents and supporters of the nominee.

The Rhode Islander maintained Parker had no alternative but to uphold the injunction.

Hebert asserted the so-called Yellow Dog contract involved "his level" and that "no question was raised by attorneys for the defendants (union workers) as to the legality of the contracts between the company and the employees on grounds that they were illegal, or void as against public policy, or for any other reason."

No Violence Reported As The Red Organizations Begin Observing May Day

yesterday afternoon until tomorrow morning.

A detail of 1,000 police was ordered to Union Square, the scene of the unemployment day riot, where two meetings were arranged for today.

Atlanta, May 1.—(AP)—Police today reported the circulation of handbills calling for a May Day celebration at the city hall but Mayor I. N. Ragsdale said such a meeting would not be permitted on the streets or on city owned property.

Police said the handbills were signed "by the Communist party, U. S. A., district 17."

Moscow, May 1.—(AP)—Red Moscow and the entire Soviet Union celebrated May Day with great processions of workmen, housewives, Red army soldiers, young pioneers and the civilian population.

Following a military parade led by Clement Voroshiloff, commissar of war, nearly a million proletarians marched in triple columns for seven hours through Moscow's historic Red square, singing revolutionary songs and carrying thousands of banners and placards containing revolutionary slogans and inscriptions condemning capitalism.

LOCAL SCOUTS RUNNING CITY FOR ONE DAY

Boy Scout Day to Be Climaxed This Afternoon By Parade of All Patrols

A youth sat on the right-hand side of Mayor J. C. Lanier today, acting in the capacity of Mayor of Greenville. He was Harold Sugg, son of B. B. Sugg, well-known to baconists, who was chosen to represent the Boy Scouts in the Lions club observance of Boys' Week, an event being generally celebrated throughout the country this week.

Other offices of the administration were also being occupied by members of the Scout organization today. The fire department was in charge of Ernest Wells, and the police department was under the direction of Hugh Winslow. Howard Sumrell was elected to fill the office of mayor pro-tem.

The celebration of Boy Scout day will be climaxed this afternoon at four o'clock by a parade of all the Scout patrols of the city. The combined membership of the organization, which promises to be one of the most spectacular of its kind ever staged in Greenville before.

The boys who represented the Scouts as members of the administration today were chosen by a committee Tuesday. It was the purpose of the Scout executives to have them chosen by the student body of the Greenville High School but this plan went awry, and a committee was elected to make the choice.

The day will be one of the most thrilling in the lives of the youths, wherever Mayor J. C. Lanier may go today, or whatever he may do, he will be followed and closely observed by the youth chosen to serve as his day.

"It is all right, I am having a good time, and really got an opportunity of reading the newspaper this morning after the mayor opened his office."

The newspaper reading, however, was done while the mayor was in conference with the countless numbers of people who visit his office daily for the purpose of discussing some matter which only the mayor of a thriving young municipality can settle.

The intense activity of the mayor was greeted with a bit of surprise by the high school student-mayor. Like most people, he probably thought big offices required little work and that those in charge sat around most of the day puffing big cigars and exchanging yarns with their visitors. But if such thoughts actually existed in the youth's mind he was quickly disillusioned as soon as the day's grind got under way, and he trekked many a block at the side of the mayor, as that official attended to the affairs of government.

Down at the police and fire departments the boys were also acquiring first-hand knowledge of how things are done by the police and firemen.

Young Winslow plodded many a weary block at the side of Chief of Police Preston Pierce, and reached the conclusion that heads of police departments have something more to do than sit at a desk and issue instructions to their officers.

Wells probably fared some better at the fire department because the fire chief is detained in the fire station, unless he is called to a fire and, has to complete an investigation in this connection. But after the day is over this Scout will be able to tell his companions something about the way a fire department is run and that they will get many a thrill from the yarns cannot be doubted.

The Lions club is proud of the local Boy Scout organization and it is for this reason that they set aside this single day to demonstrate what the Scouts are capable of doing. It is a great day for both the Lions and Scouts and their activities are expected to bear sober, solid fruit in the future life of the nation.

Five Employees of Fraternity Bldg. Held in Rum Case

New York, May 1.—(AP)—Five employees of the Fraternity Club building, headquarters for 18 Greek societies, were under charges of violating the prohibition law today as the result of a raid by federal dry agents posing as college men.

Moving with the suave decorum befitting their surroundings, the raiders arrested a captain of waiters, a valet, a head waiter, a waiter and a man who they said was in charge of the bar. Lockers and the basement of the club were searched and 101 bottles seized.

The raid was made, agents said, after several of their number representing themselves as fraternity men, had visited the club and purchased liquor.

RELAY RACE WILL BE RUN HERE FRIDAY

Runners Will Leave Washington for Greenville at 1:30 in Annual Event

Tomorrow will witness the biggest athletic event of the year on the calendar of Greenville High School the annual Inter-City Relay Race with the Washington High School. This race has been run five times each school having two victories and two defeats in the record, with one race thrown out because of a dispute.

The present tussle, however, may possibly give undisputed possession of the large loving cup to Greenville, as the rules call for three successive wins to retain it permanently, and the local boys have checked in one or two minutes ahead of their Beaufort County competitors in their last two encounters. This has probably lessened the seriousness of the local boys training this year, while it might well have increased Washington's.

While Greenville High cannot boast of a large group of speedy runners this year, matching up to those of recent history, still she has had a number of very faithful workers, whose efforts may be rewarded with fast personal records and a winning team tomorrow. The four classes have each had a captain who has been of much help in lining up the boys of his class. These captains are: Junior Rivers seniors; Belmont Kittrell, juniors; Carl Cahoon, Sophomores; Roger Taylor, freshman.

The boys have been assigned their places in the 22 mile grind—there are 89 runners for each school—and are nervously waiting a chance to show their speed tomorrow. Junior Rivers, senior captain, and J. D. Swain, president of the senior class, have been allotted the honor of starting and finishing, respectively.

The race will start in Washington at 1:30 and will end at the court house at approximately 3:12 or 3:15, if begun promptly. It will be followed by a ball game between the two schools at the Third Street School grounds.

Regarding their efforts to avoid the racers being crowded by people along the route, E. S. Johnson and R. L. Totten, coaches of the Washington and Greenville relay teams, respectively, today sent a letter to the Reflector requesting aid in improving this condition. The correspondence follows:

"In the management of the annual Inter-City Relay Race between the Washington and Greenville High Schools there may be need for a word of explanation and another of warning. Principal E. S. Johnson, coach of the Washington team and I have together decided to put it in the form of a letter and request the daily press of the two cities to publish it, as the best way to send it to those who should know it.

"First: the purpose of having 'official cars' is solely to have the judges, who are responsible for the conduct of the race according to rule and the coaches, who are responsible for the physical care of the contestants, as near as possible to the runners at all times. Personally, we may not care about being there any more than many, but officially, it is a point of necessity that these cars be close to the runners. They will be clearly distinguished by an American flag across the radiator and a sign on the back, 'Official Car'. Please give your own car the right of way, for the good of your team and the opponents also, as a matter of good sportsmanship.

Second: do not follow the contestants so closely that you could not stop, should one fall. Some of these boys have been trained to run themselves out so fully that at the end of their lap, they will expect to fall. Please do not endanger them by driving directly behind them.

"We unite in asking this for the good of the schools and the individuals involved. If anything should force us to do away with the race once a year, it would probably be the danger to the boys arising from overenthusiastic drivers following the runners.

If you will publish this letter, you will earn not only our thanks, but those of many concerned in this race. We thoroughly appreciate your assistance."

Miss Sherwin Again Heads Women Voters

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—(AP)—Under a leave of absence plan, with the proviso that all vice presidents "take turns" at Washington, D. C., headquarters, Miss Belle Sherwin, of Cleveland, Ohio, today accepted the nomination to succeed herself, for the seventh and eighth years as national president of the League of Women Voters.

Since nomination through the regular league channel is tantamount to election, Miss Sherwin thus will be left free, as president, to rest in her famous garden, as Carrie Chapman Catt suggested in her "anniversary book" tribute to Miss Sherwin. Thana hand-tooled volume, filled with appreciations of Miss Sherwin's six years' service, was presented to her at a brilliant fete held last night in her honor.

MOTHER JONES CELEBRATING 100 BIRTHDAY

Life - Long Fighter in Cause of Labor Is Active and Spry At Maryland Home

Silver Spring, Maryland, May 1—Mother Jones, lifelong fighter in the cause of labor, is today celebrating her one-hundredth birthday.

She has reached the century mark in surroundings sharply contrasted with the turbulent life she has lived. At the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgess, where even a telephone call cannot reach her, the daughterless white-haired old lady now stays. Weeks ago she planned to hold her last levee and reception there.

Letters and telegrams have been pouring in on her for days from all parts of the country. Word of Mother Jones' illness has gone out among the various industries from San Francisco to New York; hard-fisted men who listened to her fierce exhortations in bygone days have sent cheering words and congratulations to the frail, but tense and still fighting little woman.

Though the years have robbed Mother Jones of her strength, she can still make fiery speeches in a voice surprisingly strong. She can "cuss", too, with the same fluency which used to sway men where tears and pleadings would have been to no avail.

When her good friends Mrs. Burgess tried to prevail on Mother Jones to remain in Washington last winter believing she would be more comfortable than in an isolated farm house the little old lady said firmly: "Dammit, if you go off and leave me I'll take a taxi and follow you."

So, in the seclusion of the country Mother Jones has lived all winter, hanging on tenaciously to the thread of life which has been wearing very thin.

"I want to live until my one-hundredth birthday", she told Mrs. Burgess one night when it seemed her chair would be empty when May 1 came.

The same determination which carried her into the conference room of John D. Rockefeller following the Ludlow Mine horror in Colorado has kept her alert mentally though she has been confined to her bed most of the time.

Many noted men have tipped into that sunny upstairs room, only to be jolted out of this solicitude by a well-aimed shaft of wit or ridicule from the "invalid". William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor and Senator Borah are among her frequent visitors. Many a Knight of the road, finds his way unerringly to the simple farm house and stops for a brief chat with Mother Jones.

When Goodyear puts the words "Heavy Duty" on the side-wall of a tire, everybody knows those words mean extra strength, extra service, extra wear.

This great new tire is ruggedly handsome, massively proportioned, and around either side-wall below its extra-thick and extra-safe All-Weather Tread runs a single identifying stripe of silver.

A striking feature is the way in which the outer rows of All-Weather blocks are prised down into the side-walls, as fresh and unhackneyed a modeling as distinguishes modern sculpture.

Goodyear builds this new Heavy Duty balloon tire for those who want to drive fast and far without worry, and are willing to pay a little extra for that privilege.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE.

Tomorrow afternoon is the time for the annual high school relay race between Washington and this city,
and it is to be hoped that the motoring public will cooperate in this affair to the extent of not so cluttering
the road as to hamper
the runners and endanger their lives, as has been the case in former years.

So great has this menace
been on the occasion of the former races that the officials of the two schools today issued an appeal to the public to co-operate with them in tomorrow's race by thinking first of the safety of these boys taking part in the affair. It is to be hoped that the public will heed
this appeal, thereby giving the boys a chance to perform without doing so in the face of danger of being crushed beneath the wheels
of an automobile.

BOY SCOUTS IN CHARGE.

Greenville is today in the hands of the Boy Scouts and according to reports from the various departments,
"All's Well." The chief
work of the Boy Scout movement is that of building
citizenship and while today's assumption of control of the city by the Scouts might be considered as a play game,
it is a good reminder to our citizens that in but a few years the control of our city must pass on into the hands of these citizens now in the making. Such a thought should spur our people to a greater support of the Boy Scout movement in our community.

TOO MUCH TRUTH IN IT.

The fact that the flourishing and fine city of Monroe is now without a bank, the State and National banks both closing when there was no run on them, causes the Monroe Journal to say, "So far as we have been able to see the only thing that State and National banking laws
do is to come and hold an inquest after the victim is dead, and then send a heavy bill for funeral expenses."
It thinks there "ought to be some way for them to step in and prevent the happening of a thing the like of which has taken place in Monroe, or at least give banking officials the power
to prevent it."

There is much of truth in this. "Frozen credits" is given as the reason for most bank failures, which is another way of saying that loans were made years ago
which lack present day values. Deflation is partly the cause of such failures, but

"frozen credits" and "deflation" are sometimes given as the cause when the lending of big sums to officers and directors or to corporations controlled by directors and officers is the real reason.
Banking laws and banking examination ought to prevent such dissipation of the funds of depositors.—News
and Observer.

ABOUT TOWN

Greenville Boy Scouts are being given a chance of running the city government today, a member of the organization occupying each of the important offices of the administration including that of mayor.
It is a part of the Lions Club observance of Boys' Week, an observance which is general in many of the larger cities of the country
during the present week.

The Scouts will be given an opportunity of coming in actual contact with some of the big problems which the city has to confront
it from time to time, but fortunately they will not be called upon to solve them. It is an attempt on the part of the Lions Club to interest the public in boys' work and to also interest the boys in the conduct of their government.

Greenville has a Boy Scout organization which every citizen should be proud. The boys have demonstrated their ability to service the public on many different occasions since the formation of the organization several months and this will increase as the membership becomes larger and more representative.

Business and professional men of Greenville who have thrown their support to the organization should be congratulated upon their accomplishment. The boys reflect credit upon the effort of their leaders and that they will continue to do so cannot be doubted.

Thieves who are tearing up plumb-ing fixtures of the city and selling the lead and copper should be rounded up and duly prosecuted.
This is a practice that is proving very expensive to operators of tobacco warehouses and other buildings which the thieves have found little difficulty in entering, and something should be done about it.
It has not been determined who is buying the stolen property, but whoever it is should take warning and refrain from such purchases in the future. They subject themselves to prosecution by aiding and abetting in the sale of stolen property.

Many different forms of robbery
have been reported in this community in recent months, especially since the period of depression began, but this is the first time that the thieves have stooped to such a low ploy to satisfy their desire to increase their financial standing.
It is a situation the police department should investigate immediately and attempt to bring the culprits to justice.

Politicians seeking state and county offices are scouring the countryside at this time, attempting to interest the public in their campaigns. This intensive canvassing will continue until the 7th of June when the election will be held and everybody will have an opportunity of going to the polls to express their preference.
It matters not how much the boys may comb the woods for votes, if they haven't the reputation behind them they will stand no more chance of reaching the coveted positions than a poor man has in breaking in on the stock exchange.
People these days are more analytical than they have ever been before, and the records of each of the candidates will be carefully
scrutinized before the vote is cast.
It is this fact that is going to send
many a man home election night, sadder and wiser, and it is this thing that is going to play an important part in improving the political situation in this country in the days to come.

The average run of people may not look like they are wearing magnifying glasses, but they are when it comes to voting, and each candidate's record is going to receive searching examination before a decision is made. People no longer vote blindly. They no longer let sentiment stand in the way of common sense, and when the dust of battle clears away many a be-dragged candidate is going to cast about to see what it is all about and actually find that the people have begun to think for themselves.

BLOUNT GIVES HIS VIEWS ON TAX QUESTION

The Editor, Daily Reflector:
Sometime ago, through the columns of your paper, you requested candidates to express their views with reference to taxation and methods by which land may be relieved of its undue share of the tax burden. Some of my ideas in this respect are as follows:

First: There should be a re-valuation of all lands throughout the state and that same should not be valued at more than its actual cash value in money according to the Constitutional provision relating thereto. There should be uniformity throughout the state in valuation of all property. At the present time the state is contributing funds through the Equalizing Board for the support of the public school system and the amount that each county receives is determined by the valuations placed upon the property by said Board, and these values are arbitrarily fixed by said members of the Equalizing Board and are by no means uniform in all counties. Farm lands and real-estate should be classified as far as possible and a limit fixed with respect to the valuation thereof.
These valuations should be determined jointly by the county and the state and a plan for standardization of values worked out by experienced men competent and familiar with property values. At no time should property be valued for more than its actual worth in cash.

Second: Our present tax rate for the six-months school term is 58c.
We received for 1929, for the six-month term, from the Equalizing Fund $59,556.94. This is equivalent to a 13c tax rate. I am in favor of materially increasing the State aid for the support of the six-month term which would then enable the County Commissioners to make a substantial reduction in the 58c tax rate now levied for this purpose.

For the year 1929-30 Pitt County
received for various local school tax districts from state aid funds $15-122.73. If this fund were doubled each school district would be able to cut its local tax rate in half.

Third: Pitt County, along with Lenoir, Beaufort and others, in the early stages of highway building program, issued bonds for the construction of highways which are now included in the state highway system of hard-surfaced roads.
The total amount spent by Pitt County for the construction of such highways amount to approximately $1,250,000.00. Since the Highway Commission is getting the gas tax and motor vehicle license tax it is nothing more than fair and just that these counties be reimbursed for money actually expended in the construction of these highways.

Counties such as Wilson, Edgecombe and others have had their roads built by funds from the state and it is unfair for the state to get the revenue from the roads in Pitt and the property owners have to pay for them. In 1929 Pitt County levied a rate of 22c for the purpose of taking care of principal and interest on road and bridge bonds.
At least 15c of this rate went to pay for bonds that were used in the construction of State Highways. If these bonds were taken over by the state, as they should be, the County Commissioners could reduce the tax rate by the above amount. During the past session of the Legislature a worked for a refund of the money expended by Pitt County and others in the building of these highways and it is my intention to continue my efforts in that direction.

Fourth: During the past two years there has been created in the State Highway fund approximately seven million dollars surplus after payment of all interest, principal of bonds and maintenance of highways. In my opinion, it is now time to discontinue further expansion of our highway system in order that this surplus, or a large portion of it, may be returned to the counties for the maintenance of county roads. This is nothing more than right since the man who uses the side road or county road helps to create this surplus in the payment of the gas and motor vehicle tax.
At the present time, the counties
are levying a road tax for the purpose of maintaining county roads.
If this surplus could be diverted to the counties upon the basis of area
and population considerable tax reduction could be obtained thereby.

Fifth: For the past several years, due to the excessive rate in the various counties, personal property is fast disappearing from the tax books. There must be some legislation requiring all personal property and bonds to be listed just as real property according to the Constitutional Provision relating thereto.
Further economy may be had in the organization and administration of our public school system throughout the state. As a member of the Educational Commission created by the last General Assembly, it is my intention to use every effort to bring about sounder and more economical organization and administration of the public school system of the state.

I have other views on the problem of taxation which I shall give to you from time to time.

Respectfully,
M. K. BLOUNT.

SOX SPRING SURPRISE ON BIG CIRCUIT

that have dropped up in the early weeks of the major league campaign must be listed the showing of the Chicago White Sox. Chicago, like Washington, was held as a probable second division club and has been right up among the American league leaders.

The White Sox were shoved down into third place yesterday as the Detroit Tigers gathered in four runs in the first inning for a 6 to 4 victory, but they still are among the first ranking teams. With four regulars batting in the .300 class and a flock of pitchers working in good form, the White Sox have earned the present rating of .600, gained from six victories and four defeats.

Bill Cissell, current co-leader of the American League batters, has been the spark plug of the team this season after a few years of rather disappointing performance. He connected with Elton Hoggset, Detroit's big Indian hurler of sinker balls, for three of Chicago's 12 hits yesterday, but the rest of the Sox were not able to keep pace with him and produce the required runs.

Washington, still the leader of the American league, was another high ranking club to meet defeat yesterday. The Senators, after eight successive victories bowed to the pitching of George Pipgras of the New York Yankees and were shut out, 9 to 0.

Milton Gaston of the Boston Red Sox, turned in the fourth fine pitching performance in the American league yesterday to beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 7 to 3. Gaston gave the world's champions only six hits and allowed no walks. Simmons and Fox divided five of the Athletics' blows.

The National League likewise went in for good pitching yesterday with Dazzy Vance of Brooklyn as its leading exponent. Dazzy held all of the New York Giants except Pat Crawford under control while the Robins hammered out a 9 to 4 victory. Crawford had a perfect day at bat with three hits, including a double and a home run.

Red Lucas of Cincinnati and Sylvester Johnson of St. Louis put on a fine duel with the Reds gaining a 4 to 3 triumph on the strength of Joe Stripp's triple in the ninth inning. Neither pitcher gave a free trip to first base.

The Chicago Cubs kept Pittsburg from going into first place by nicking their former teammate, Percy Jones, for five runs, one at a time, while Pat Malone held the Pirates to two counters.

Boston's Braves jumped past the Phillies and St. Louis into the first division by hitting hard behind Ed Brand to gain a 9 to 3 victory over Philadelphia.

GREENVILLE GOLFERS WIN FROM RY. MT

The Greenville golfers won their first victory in the Eastern Carolina Golfers League yesterday when they defeated the strong Rocky Mount aggregation on the local course by the score of 25 to 20. The visitors from the railroad city brought a strong team, composed of seventeen players, and put up a most spirited contest, but their best efforts fell just short of victory, the locals finally holding under the wire by a five point margin.

Arrington of Rocky Mount pitched in the best score of the day, a sparkling 78, while Massey's 80 was the best for the Greenvilleans.

Yesterday's contest was the second of the season for the home club, and their next match is set for next week in Fayetteville. The league is composed of eight towns in Eastern Carolina, and the schedule calls for one match a week for fourteen weeks. Much interest is being manifested throughout the circuit, and the local players are rounding into very good shape.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
The art of center field play nowhere has been more strikingly exhibited this season than in the opening game between the Yankees and Athletics at New York.

Earl Combs, fleet Yankee star, roamed far and wide to pull down eight drives. He made all three putouts in one inning. George (Mule) Haas, rising young ace of the A's, made four fine catches and converted two of them into double plays, the last on a towering drive from Babe Ruth's bat that he took as he tumbled into the bleacher wall.

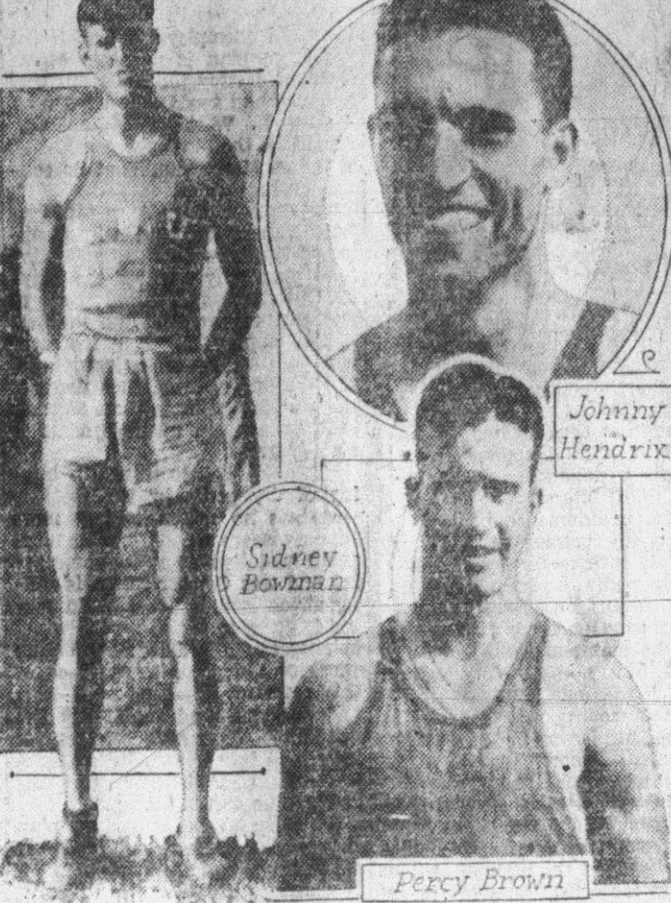

Combs fast and a good hitter, is more experienced than Haas. He is a great leadoff man. Haas, however, has a much better throwing arm. It is a trifle faster and probably will outfit Combs or any other centerfielder in the league this year. Haas is tagged to become one of the outstanding all-around outfielders in the game.

Lloyd (Sprout) Waner, considering all qualifications, probably is the ablest centerfielder in the National League. The younger Waner is a born ballhawk, great leadoff man and possibly the fastest runner in baseball at getting down to first base. His arm is none too strong but that is his only weakness.

Earl Clark, the Braves' centerfielder, set a major league record of 12 putouts in a game last season and ranks around the top. Hack Wilson is no galloping ghost in the center garden but the Hack is a hard worker and harder hitter. Taylor Douthett of the Cardinals is a fine defensive outfielder. So is Reynolds of the White Sox.

And if Wild Bill Hallahan, the sensational left-hander of the Cardinals, didn't set a record when he fanned 20 Cubs and walked 16 in two games, he deserves one. These Cubs got the whiffing habit when 50 of them fanned in five

One of the curious angles of the Carnera merry-go-round is sudden rush of boxing authorities to protect the fistie virtue after the big Italian freak had about finished his cross-country from hitting. The New York ring scribes sanctioned Carnera's first affair, a palatable set-up with Big Boy Peterson in Madison Square Garden, yet calmly sat back and waited for evidence from California upon which to base disbarment proceedings against Primo, after the big act had been put over 16 times in succession.

There could not have been any misunderstanding about the Italian's debut in New York. Beforehand the boys enjoyed themselves discussing what brand of bathing suit Peterson would exploit. The customers, plenty of them, parked the Garden; not to see a fight but to inspect the latest ring freak—Carnera swished his big fists and showed mightily. Big Boy bounced up and down with a great deal of alacrity and everybody enjoyed a big laugh, including the boxing commissioners.

COTTON MARKET

New York, May 1.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 1 to 11 points on renewed covering by near month shorts and scattered buying of new crop positions. Some buyers of near months appeared to be selling the later deliveries, which were also influenced by the favorable view of recent weather conditions over most of the belt.

There was also a widening of differences between the old crop and later deliveries.

Business was quiet at the start but became somewhat more active later. May sold up to 16.55 or 13 points net higher. New October at 14.90 showed a net advance of only 7 points and later eased back to yesterday's closing.

Liverpool cables said there had been covering and trade calling and some buying on the reduction in the bank rate, supplied by Continental liquidation. The advices added that the cotton goods trade in Manchester had been perturbed by threats from India that existing contracts for cotton goods might be cancelled.

Chicago, May 1.—(AP)—Despite an early show of strength, the wheat market ran into heavy selling today, and dropped to below any price record May delivery had touched heretofore this season. The cause of the break was talk current that as much as 9,000,000 bushels of wheat held in private warehouses here might be loaded out into train cars and tendered in settlement of May contracts. About 10,000,000 bushels of wheat were delivered on May contracts in the leading markets today, 6,362,000 bushels in Chicago alone.

May wheat was within 3-4c of the dollar-a-bushel level, but the market was rallying at the close, with trading nervous, and the finish exactly the same as yesterday to 5-8c off. Corn closed unchanged to 1 down; oats varying from 1-2 decline to 5-8 advance, and provisions showing 2 to 10 gain.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 1.—The stock market turned reactionary again today with a sharp bear drive against the rails, many of which broke 4 to 14 points to new minimum levels for the year or longer. A few breaking through the low levels of last November.

The market opened with a moderate show of strength, under the influence of reductions in the Bank of England and Bank of France rates. Wall street, however, was not generally inclined to look for an immediate cut in the New York Reserve Bank rate, and cheap money no longer inspires the bullishness that it did a few weeks ago. A group of farm equipment, oil, food and amusement shares were strong during the first hour of trading, but later sold off.

Rails were brought in considerable volume early in the year, when publication of the Interstate Commerce Commission consolidation plan focused attention upon the carrier stocks. Publication of the March operating income statements, however, has left this group of stocks friendless, and although there has been little apprehension over dividend rates, bearish operations were successful in causing considerable liquidation. Selling was not particularly heavy, but with little prospect of an early upturn in these shares, their sponsors failed to support them.

Utilities also ran into considerable selling pressure. Official denial of merger rumors regarding United Corporation and United Gas Improvement was a disappointment in some quarters.

Credit conditions remained stationary, with call money renewing at 4 per cent. time money was easier, however, and lower call loan rates are expected within a few days.

HOLLAND PAYS $200 FINE IN WHISKEY CASE

Clayton Taylor Given Suspended Sentence to Road On Liquor Charge

Job Holland, alleged rum runner, was found guilty of a charge of receiving, transporting and possessing whiskey in County court this week, and was ordered to pay a fine of $200 and cost. He was also given a 12 months' suspended sentence to the county roads, the sentence to become effective in case he should be found guilty of violating any of the criminal laws.

Clayton Taylor, involved in the same case, received a 12 months' suspended sentence to the roads. The two men were arrested by county officers several weeks ago while the officers were running a blockade of a road for bootleggers and rum runners. Taylor was alleged to have resisted arrest and was shot by one of the officers when he attempted to get away.

The officer's conduct was upheld by the six months' grand jury at the criminal term of Superior court last week when that body ruled that he acted within his line of duty.

Convening last Monday morning for the first time in three weeks, court was able to complete its work yesterday shortly before the noon hour. Between twenty and thirty cases were disposed of during the session, the majority of them consisting of charges of larceny, assault with deadly weapons, and violation of the prohibition laws.

At the final session yesterday, Neoma Daniels, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

Amos Miller, charged with larceny, drew 90 days on the roads.

He drove from Lima, Ohio, in a buggy, taking 30 days for the trip. He has heard a lot about Michigan, he said, so came here to buy a farm in Blue Lake township and settle down.

Churchmen Visit Points of Interest

Charleston, S. C., May 1.—(AP)—Representatives of the Protestant Episcopal church from throughout the United States, here to attend the National Church Congress, today mingled pleasure with business, the afternoon being set aside to permit the visiting churchmen to see interesting points about the city.

Two of the strongest papers of the entire congress were read last night by the Rev. Dr. S. Tagart Steele, Jr., of Richmond, on, "What authority ought we accept in religion and morals".

The executive committee of the committee of the congress announced election of the following new officers:

President Dr. H. C. Robbins, professor of homiletics at the General Theological Seminary, New York, and a former dean of the Cathedral of St. James the Divine; Vice-president, Dr. L. W. Batten, professor of Old Testament literature at the General Theological Seminary, New York.

Dr. H. A. Pritchard, Canon of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine and rector of Saint Marks at Mt. Cisco, N. Y., was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Florida G. O. P. Still Fight for Party Control

Orlando, Fla., May 1.—(AP)—The long struggle for control of Florida Republican party will be carried into the June primaries.

A coalition wing, led by William J. Howie was defeated yesterday in an attempt to force the resignation of Glenn B. Skipper as national committeeman but hopes to elect a majority of the members of the state committee in the primary.

Likewise, the adherents of Skipper triumphant in yesterday's state executive committee meeting, were understood to be preparing a slate of candidates.

Because Howie, as the Republican candidate for governor in the last general election polled more than 30 per cent of the total vote, Florida law requires the Republican party to enter the primary for the first time since reconstruction days.

An Appreciation

The following editorial comment by the Franklin Times, January 3, 1930, will be read with interest by friends in this city of Judge R. A. Nunn and Judge Frank A. Daniels:

"One of the peculiarities of our judicial system in North Carolina is the rotation of Judges of the Superior Court. There are good arguments both for and against the system, but when a district has had for six months a judge to preside over its courts of the fine judicial qualities of Judge R. A. Nunn and is to have for the next six months one of the ability and splendid character of Judge Frank A. Daniel, the people are not likely to sympathize with agitation for a change of the system.

"We took occasion while Judge Nunn was holding the courts of this county to express our admiration for the able and impartial manner in which he discharged the duties of his office. Now that with the passing of the old year, he leaves our district, we are moved again to words of appreciation for splendid service he is rendering the State in his administration of the law. He has no hobbies and he does not seek notoriety, but seems wholly engrossed in an effort to wisely, beneficially and impartially conduct the courts over which he presides. He is patient and courteous but maintains at all times the dignity of the bench, and quickly inspires public confidence in both his legal learning and in his desire and ability to make the courts a place where men may look for justice. We await with pleasure the time when under the rotative system he shall again come among us."—The New Bernian.

Judge Nunn was appointed by the Governor and then nominated and elected by the Democratic party to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge Horton. In the Democratic primary next June he will be a candidate for re-nomination as Judge for a full term in the office.

Says Unemployment Has Been Increased By the Farm Board

Boston, May 1.—(AP)—The Federal Farm Board's activities have increased unemployment and if the debenture plan is put into effect, it might destroy the American cotton yarn and goods export business, Sydney Y. West, of Little Rock, Ark., told the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at its convention here today.

The director of the American Cotton Shippers' Association in speaking of the farm board said: "They have practically cornered the May-July positions and forced them to an unnatural premium over the new cotton crop. This has increased unemployment in the industrial sections of the country, thus decreasing the purchasing in those districts at a time when unemployment is already great.

"They have discouraged the buying of dry goods by the retailer who sees no reason to buy more than a meagre supply when he looks at the quotations in any cotton market and sees October cotton is selling much less than July. No jobber is going to lay in a supply; no spinner can afford to manufacture yarns or dry goods in the face of this discount. The price of May and July have advanced, but the price that the farmer can get for his actual bale is very little different from what it was when the market was at the bottom."

Referring to the debenture plan the speaker said "You will be in worse shape than you are now" if it goes into effect.
