ATTACK ON BISHOPS TO BE PRESSED

Methodist Church Heads Charged With Unwarranted Political Activities

Dallas, Tex., May 10.—(AP)—Although under fire by fellow churchmen for his professed political and prohibition activities, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of Washington, today was believed to have succeeded in taking the prohibition enforcement issue to the floor of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in session here.

Meeting in the absence of its chairman, Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, N. C., former secretary of the navy, the committee on temperance and social service yesterday indicated it would immediately send back for consideration the report of Bishop Cannon, made in his capacity as chairman of the standing board of temperance and social service.

In making his recommendations, the bishop urged that congress be memorialized to take more stringent enforcement action, and that the United States Supreme court be praised for its attitude toward the "suppression of the entire liquor traffic."

Daniels and the aggressive bishop previously crossed verbal swords over the latter's proposal to sanction the Congressional and Supreme court expressions without formality of sending them to committee.

Considerable uncertainty was voiced among delegates in regard to their attitude toward accusations of the Rev. Heber G. Smith, of Washington, Ga., that the Washington church leaders and three other bishops had indulged in "unwarranted" political activities in 1928.

Washington, Ga., May 10.—(AP)—The Rev. Rember G. Smith, Southern Methodist minister here today prepared to go to the general conference of the church at Dallas next week to press charges against four bishops, which he described in a statement as relating to "unwarranted" political activities by all of them in 1928 and alleged attacks by three of them on the political rights of Roman Catholics.

The minister said his written communication to the conference secretary, which was referred yesterday to the Episcopacy committee, had nothing to say about the reported stock market dealings of Bishop James Cannon and mentioned funds of the board of temperance and social service only incidentally.

He said he charged Bishops Cannon, Edwin D. Mouton and John M. Moore with violation of a church rule laid down in Baltimore in 1794 providing equal political rights for Roman Catholic citizens and added Bishop H. M. Dubose to the list in making charges of political activity in their capacity as bishops but outside the scope of their rights and duties as such.

He charged that Bishop Cannon during the 1928 Presidential campaign worked on an expense account paid by "northern Republicans."

Emphasizing what he termed the responsibilities of the present conference the minister's statement said in part:

"In 1928 Bishops Cannon, Mouton, Moore and Dubose went into aggressive political activity in the interest of Mr. Hoover and the Republican party, alleging that this was required in order to defend prohibition.

"The general conference now in session, to which these four bishops are responsible, will have to approve or disapprove their political utterances and activities, unprecedented until 1928 in the history of the church since it came into being in 1836 after American Methodism had been rent asunder at the general conference in New York City in 1844 as a result of political agitation over slavery.

"If the general conference passes the official character of these four bishops with no comment or action as to their political campaign in 1928 in the interest of the Republican party this will be an endorsement by that body of the Republican party and particularly its record since 1928 as to enforcement of the 18th amendment. In this event the general conference will also approve the Republican party as to all of its policies. If it does this there will be serious results."

Registration Books Open for Primary

Registration books for the June primary were thrown open in the various precincts of the county this morning. The books will be opened every Saturday hereafter until the 31st of the month. The last Saturday will be confined purely to challenges, however, and registration will be completed on the 24th.

Persons who have moved into new communities since the last election will be required to register, but those who were registered at that time and have made no change in residence will not be subject to the new registration.

Administration Leaders Confident Roberts Will Be Accepted By Senate

Owen J. Roberts, U. S. Supreme Court Justice

Protest Comes From South On Ground That the Nominee Denounced the 18th Amendment In Delivering An Address During 1923

Washington, May 10.—(AP)—The confidence of the administration that Owen J. Roberts will prove acceptable to the Senate as an Associate Justice of the Supreme court was undiminished today by a threat of opposition based upon the prohibition issue.

The regular Republican group was enthusiastic over the President's choice and the nomination was welcomed, too, by the leaders of the successful fight against the confirmation of Judge John J. Parker, whose rejection opened the way for the Roberts appointment.

But from the South came a protest that in delivering an address in 1923, Roberts denounced the 18th amendment. Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, one of the authors of the amendment, said that was "enough" for him and that he would oppose confirmation.

Later he announced he had been readily informed that Roberts had denied making the assertions attributed to him and that he would withhold judgment pending study of the record.

As was the case with the nominations of Chief Justice Hughes and of Judge Parker, when first submitted to the Senate, confirmation seemed likely by an overwhelming vote. But recalling that the tremendous controversies over Hughes and Parker developed from just such small beginnings, observers were hesitant in predicting the outcome.

The prohibition question as applied to the Roberts nomination goes back to the time when his name was before the Senate for confirmation as special government prosecutor in the oil scandal cases. At that time, Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, introduced into the Congressional record an account of the Roberts speech as reported in the New York Times. It read:

"Mr. Roberts said he was not an advocate of prohibition but he denounced the 18th amendment as the insertion of a 'policy regulation' into the Constitution of the United States which was reduced to the status of a city ordinance."

Leaders of the Senate pointed out that Roberts' attitude on public affairs was thoroughly discussed in connection with his nomination as government counsel. At that time he was confirmed by a vote of 69 to 8. Of the eight who voted against him, six are still in the Senate. They are Sheppard, Ashurst of Arizona, and Wheeler, of Montana, Democrats; Brookhart of Iowa, andrazier of North Dakota, Republicans; and Shipstead of Minnesota, Farmer-Labor.

It was by his vigorous prosecution of the oil cases, both civil and criminal, that Roberts came into national prominence, although he had long been known as an attorney of marked ability. Through his efforts, the Government obtained the cancellation of the Elks Hills and Teapot Dome leases and the conviction of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, on a charge of forgery.

Those responding to the roll call were: W. A. Hyman, Franklin Jackson, J. A. Lang, David Smith and James Turnage. The visitors were Walter Barfield, Greene county, D. F. Robertson and J. R. Nelson, both of Martin county. About half a dozen of the camp members have died since last Memorial Day.

After the camp meeting the veterans were carried to the East Carolina Teachers college where they heard Dr. R. H. Wright, president of the college, laud them for the spirit of heroism that marked their long years of warfare for a cause they believed to be right.

The exercises were opened at the college with a song by the entire assemblage and prayer by Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church. A violin ensemble was presented by Miss Gorell's class. Mrs. J. L. Fleming presented service crosses.

Following the exercises at the college the veterans rode in a parade to the cemetery where graves of fallen heroes were decorated.

The parade was led by a Boy Scout, Charles Cobb, carrying a flag. He was followed by members of the high school band. Behind the band came high school girls bearing wreaths to be placed on the graves of the fallen heroes. The veterans and members of the local organization of Daughters of the Confederacy followed in automobiles.

This afternoon the veterans were guests of White's Theatre. After the show was over they departed for their respective homes, tired and worn from the day's activities under a burning sun, but happy and contented in the fact that they had been able to attend another reunion—an affair that is looked forward to with interest by the old soldiers in all parts of the country.

CITY HONORS FOLLOWERS OF ROBERT E. LEE

Eight Veterans Attend Annual Memorial Day Exercises In City Today

Veterans of the Confederacy gathered here today to receive the plaudits of a grateful people and to themselves go out to the cemetery to place a wreath upon the grave of other stalwart figures that once fought with Lee and Jackson. Bent and gray from the burdens of the passing years, the old soldiers heard their achievements lauded upon every side and this afternoon returned to their homes happy in the fact that they had been able to attend another reunion and to sit at the side of their buddies and recount some of the stirring scenes enacted over sixty years ago.

Only eight of the veterans were able to attend the exercises prepared for them. Five were members of the Bryan Grimes camp of this county and the others came from surrounding counties. There are ten veterans still living in Pitt county, but age and accompanying infirmities prevented five of them from making the annual pilgrimage to the county seat to join their comrades in paying tribute to those who had responded to the bugle call of the grim reaper.

At the annual meeting of Bryan Grimes camp this morning the veterans again elected W. A. Hyman as their leader and bestowed upon Dr. R. L. Carr the honor of adjutant. Although Dr. Carr is not a veteran of the war in which the Confederacy loved him for what he has done for them during these days of celebration and it was for this reason that they saw fit to bestow such distinct recognition upon him.

Those responding to the roll call were: W. A. Hyman, Franklin Jackson, J. A. Lang, David Smith and James Turnage. The visitors were Walter Barfield, Greene county, D. F. Robertson and J. R. Nelson, both of Martin county. About half a dozen of the camp members have died since last Memorial Day.

PRaises Work OF SCHOOLS OF THIS COUNTRY

Rev. Lee Sadler Delivers Commencement Address At Stokes School

Rev. Lee Sadler, delivered the commencement address at Stokes last night. Among other things, he had to say:

First, that the people were getting more human values per dollar expended upon their public schools today than in any day of the history of public schools in North Carolina. This fact is incontrovertible and after all, it is human values we are looking for. We want our schools to develop our children in the art of living as well as in the sciences of making a living and to this end the schools are functioning today as they never functioned before. And, at present, it is no longer to prepare for college, it is to prepare for life and those who criticize the schools and find fault with the present methods, should first of all acquaint themselves with this primary fact.

Second, the children must be the center in all schemes and plans for the future welfare and perpetuity of culture, morality, government and religion. For the first time in human history we are beginning to see this great truth. Before this, we have had kings, and lords, and governments and authority in the forefront of our vision but we are now coming to understand that if we are to save western democratic Christian civilization, the children must become the center of our interest and our efforts. It is said of Jesus that he took a little child and set him in their midst. Jesus did not make the greatness of childhood but he did discover it and we are now just beginning to see that which the Master saw so clearly: that our chief concern must be our children. If we are to perpetuate and develop this high type democratic citizenship.

Third, the task of saving American citizenship is almost completely thrown upon the American public schools. The homes have functioned and still are functioning in this regard. The church has done something and seems to be ready to do more. But the fact remains that the great tasks of developing democratic Christian citizenship has been thrown almost totally upon the public schools. These schools have arisen to the emergency and our teachers have worked with our children to this hour. They have spent five or six hours a day, 5 days to the week with them there, often giving their children, in one week, more time than we parents give to them in the developing of character, their ideals, and their citizenship. To public school teachers have always been right. They work more scientifically than any group in America today. Their ideals are as high as are to be found in any group. In the "Digest Poll" on prohibition, it has been shown that the school teachers of America, as a group, are more interested than any other group in America not excepting the ministers themselves, in law enforcement.

Fourth, in the light of these facts our senseless, and often cruel, criticism of our schools and our teachers ought to be ended. Wherever there is a construction criticism or suggestion needed, then let us right-minded citizen feel free to step forward and offer the criticism or suggestion but the persistent knocking and hammering at these institutions which have so largely made us what we are and upon which we so largely depend, for the security of our free institutions in the years to come, is wholly to be condemned. The speaker concluded by lending his endorsement to the idea of the Capper-Robinson bill now pending in Congress for security of a Federal Department of Education with a secretary in the President's cabinet and he insists that all children of school age should be compelled to attend at least a few hours a day these American public schools for the reason that in this way only can a sufficient homogeneity be maintained in our rapidly increasing population to sustain the ideals of government which were conceived and brought forth upon this continent by our forefathers.

The building was packed to the doors and many were standing in the aisles.

Split Ticket Will Be Barred In June Primary

Raleigh, May 10.—(AP)—Independent voters in North Carolina cannot vote part of the Republican ticket and part of the Democratic ticket in the June primaries, attorney general Dennis G. Brummitt ruled yesterday.

While provision is made for independent voters in the general election, such voters are not permitted to split their tickets in the primaries, Mr. Brummitt said.

The State's attorney also pointed out that under the state election laws, independents cannot enter the Republican or Democratic primaries.

A voter, registered as a Democrat, a Republican or an Independent, may, during the registration period or when he goes to vote in the primary, declare a change in his party affiliation and ask that the change be entered on the registration book, Mr. Brummitt said.

He also added that a voter may be challenged on the ground that he does not affiliate with such party.

Mob Burns Down the Courthouse and Wrecks Three Blocks of Negro Buildings During Reign of Terror At Sherman; National Guardsmen Called to Quell Rioting; 12 Alleged Leaders of Riot Arrested and Held for Trial

Sherman, Texas, May 10.—(AP)—A reign of terror by a raging mob which burned and wrecked three blocks of negro buildings after killing a negro who had attacked in white woman, was ended here today with the arrival of 300 additional National guardsmen who promptly arrested twelve alleged leaders of the riot.

The straggling remnants of the mob which last night blasted open a vault in the ruined courthouse it had burned earlier in the day and then paraded the town with the body of George Hughes, negro, were standing around watching the embers of numerous incendiary fires when the additional troops arrived. They soon scattered. The negro had been imprisoned in the courthouse vault by officers who sought to save his life.

A quota of 90 or 70 guardsmen from Dallas who earlier yesterday had been helpless to stem the orgy of violence was given a respite from grueling hours of battling with infuriated citizens bent upon revenge upon the negro who confessed assaulting a young farm wife near here.

Not a negro had been seen in the town since 2 p. m., yesterday, although Sherman claimed a negro population of 1,500 to 2,000.

Not satisfied with the negro's death, the mob burned the body of the 41-year-old offender, set fire to a prominent building in the negro section and threatened to destroy every negro building in the city.

The mob formed yesterday when Hughes was to go to trial, demanded him from guarding officers, and when refused, set fire to the courthouse in which the negro was in the custody of officers.

The negro was held prisoner in a vault on the second floor of the courthouse. It was a strong vault, with two layers of steel and a concrete barrier between the negro and the mob. Unable to reach the prisoner, mob leaders decided to burn him even though their vengeance cost the county a $50,000 courthouse.

The fire started early in the afternoon. Night came with no letup in rioting. The mob refused to believe the sheriff, who pleaded that the negro had been left in the vault after being given the choice of staying there or running for his life.

Rebellious whites decided to storm the jail, believing the negro had been spirited there after the courthouse was set afire. The militia on guard in the square—early in the afternoon—stood guard.

Missiles were thrown at the soldiers. One private was hit on the head with a two by four, timber and dangerously hurt. Then the soldiers, in self defense, fired.

At least a dozen persons were wounded or otherwise injured in the clash. The condition of Floyd Baker, wounded in the fray, was serious.

It was feared that there would be even more serious trouble between soldiers and the mob. Members of the mob were known by name and their names to obtain guns and ammunition. At this juncture, the guardsmen, rather than shoot anyone else, retired to the jail and did not disturb the mob further.

Balked in their attempt to get into the jail, the mob returned to the charred courthouse, determined definitely to ascertain whether the negro was in the vault. Blast after blast was set off. An acetylene torch was used. Finally, just before midnight, a hole was cut through the two outer casings, and the door of the inner wall blown off with a heavy charge of dynamite.

One observer of this incident, who afterwards examined the vault—Joe Leonard, managing editor of the Gainesville, Tex., Register—expressed belief that Hughes lived through the excruciating heat of the fire and was still alive when the final blast was shot. Little piles of water were found inside the vault, and imprints of the negro's feet. An empty bucket was in the vault. The negro's head was hidden in, he apparently having been struck by the falling door.

A great cry went up when the home formerly stood.

Scores of Persons Killed As Bandits Devastate Many Villages In South China

Unconfirmed Advices Report the Slaughter of 15,000 Persons by 4,000 Bandits in the Yungyang Territory

Shanghai, May 10.—(AP)—Details of alleged massacres by bandits in Honan province, asserting that brigands had devastated a broad area south of Kaifeng and another west of Chenchow, containing 500 villages, were published today by the vernacular press.

The reports followed closely unconfirmed advices received here yesterday from Chinese sources saying 15,000 persons had been slaughtered by 4,000 bandits at Yungyang, also in Honan, and that 500 residents were carried off after the slaughter had been completed and the town sacked and burned.

Today's vernacular reports said the inhabitants of villages in the Kaifeng and Chenchow areas had been "murdered, kidnapped and outraged" and unknown numbers while the countryside was reduced to a scene of desolation.

The dispatch continued: "Many of those kidnapped who made themselves nuisances to the bandits, or who were too old to withstand the hardships were murdered in cold blood and their bodies thrown in wayside creeks or left along the roadways, mutilated and unburied. The flames from burning buildings lasted four days and were visible for many miles."

Honan military forces were reported to be opposing the bandits. The latter, however, eluded all pursuers.

Population of City Estimated At About 8,500

Although the work of taking the census of Greenville has not been completed, an unofficial estimate today placed the population of the city at 8,500, an increase of approximately 3,000 since the government estimate ten years ago.

It was stated that work had actually been completed in the second and fifth wards and the official figures showed the First ward to have a population of 1,700 and the Fifth ward 1,270.

The census takers were busy today completing a re-check of the various districts, and it was indicated that this work would be completed sometime next week when an official report will be made to the district census supervisor at New Bern.

DEATH TOLL FROM STORM REACHES 86

Four Additional Deaths Counted As Twister Sweeps Over East Oklahoma

Oklahoma City, May 10.—(AP)—The death toll from tornadoes in Oklahoma and Texas during the past week today had mounted to 86 with the addition of four deaths reported from a series of twisters that swept through Eastern Oklahoma, leaving paths of destruction, through more than half a dozen communities.

Mrs. Gladys Downs, 21, was killed yesterday when a tornado tossed her home 150 yards over a hill and smashed it on the ground. Her husband, who also was in the house, was not injured seriously.

A tornado which first struck near Kinta, and then swept northeastward through San Bois, Rockford, Eureka, Blaine, close to Stigler, and then lifted at the Arkansas river north of Keotah, took the lives of three more persons.

Jim Chappel, 24, who had been ill for several days, was in such a dangerous condition that he could not be taken to the family store cellar when the tornado roared down on the Chappel home in Eureka community. Sending the rest of the family into the cave, Jean Chappel, 71, the youth's father, refused to desert his son, and sat by the sick bed while the home was demolished.

Mrs. "Slim" Hodges, who lived at the Chappel home, also refused to leave the house and perished with the two men. Their bodies were found 75 yards from where the home formerly stood.

One observer of this incident, who afterwards examined the vault—Joe Leonard, managing editor of the Gainesville, Tex., Register—expressed belief that Hughes lived through the excruciating heat of the fire and was still alive when the final blast was shot. Little piles of water were found inside the vault, and imprints of the negro's feet. An empty bucket was in the vault. MOTHER'S DAY.

Tomorrow is Mother's Day, a time when everyone should pause to recount just what a mother's love has meant to them and to show their love and appreciation for the sufferings they have caused this greatest of all mortals to them.

While there should never be a day when every human does not find time to pay tribute to mother, tomorrow of all days, this should be done. If you are fortunate enough to still have your mother on this earth with you, wear a red flower in her honor tomorrow, go to see her, spend as much of your time with her as possible and let her know by your acts as well as words that you do love her.

If your mother has already gone to her final rest and heavenly reward, wear a white flower in memory of her, let her former love for you dwell uppermost in your memories tomorrow and let them be an inspiration to you to make you want to be what mother wanted you to be.

OUR OLD SOLDIERS.

Greenville again today paused to pay homage to that little handful of veterans who are all that remain of the columns of grey that marched from this county to take up arms for the Confederacy during the conflict between the states.

We still love these old soldiers and during the few remaining years that we will have them with us it behooves us to make every effort to let them know of our love and affection. While apparently they fought for a lost cause the result of the conflict was the cementing forever the unity of the states that today stand out as the world's greatest nation.

ABOUT TOWN

Judson Blount, of Greenville, vice-president of the Greenville Merchants Association, is in line for election to the presidency of the state organization at the annual convention to be held at Wrightsville Beach June 17 and 18.

Mr. Blount is probably one of the best known merchants in this part of the state. He has taken an active part in the Merchants Association since its organization in this city several years ago, and has been the recipient of the highest honors which the local organization could bestow upon him.

He has also received considerable recognition from the state association, having been a member of the board of directors for several years, and serving as first vice-president since last year.

The candidacy of Mr. Blount will have a tendency of drawing a big attendance to the state convention from this city, and the outlook at this time is that this will exceed anything in the history of the organization.

DISTINGUISHED BEAUTY AND PERFORMANCE. THE NEW FORD TOWN SEDAN $670. THE Model A Ford was a good car when it was first introduced. It has constantly been made a better car. For it has never been the policy of the Ford Motor Company to stand still. Changes are not made for the mere sake of changing or to meet a fleeting fancy. Yet hardly a week passes, but that some improvement is made—some new way is found to increase the value and service of the car. As soon as those improvements are fully tested in actual practice they are passed on to the public. The new Ford bodies are a reflection of this policy of constant improvement. In flowing grace of line, in harmony of design and color, they set a new high standard of motor car value. New beauty has been placed within the means of every one. In this connection, it is interesting to note and remember that these beautiful new bodies are but one of many features that make the new Ford a value far above the price. $435 up—f. o. b. Detroit. # Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, May 10.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 5 to 10 points, which was only a partial response to relatively easy Liverpool cables.

The initial offerings were absorbed by week-end covering apparently and trading continued quiet after the call, with prices holding fairly steady around 16.40 for July and 14.64 for the new October contract, or about 1 to 3 points below yesterday's closing quotations, at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported scattering liquidation absorbed by American buying in that market and said sales of cloths and yarns were very small with stocks accumulating.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 10.—(AP)—Unfavorable crop advices from the southwest during the late trading today gave decided emphasis to bullish aspects of the government crop report, lifting prices sharply.

The majority of the southwestern advices indicated that wheat has not improved since recent rains, and some messages intimated that there has been deterioration instead.

Wheat closed firm 1 3/8 to 2 higher than yesterday's finish; corn closed 3/8 down to 1-2 to 5-8 up, oats 3/8 to 7-8 advance and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 10.—(AP)—Professional speculation for the rise was resumed in a fairly broad scale in today's short session of the stock market. Bulls were inclined to interpret the extreme dullness of the market yesterday as indicating the hangover liquidation had been practically completed.

Furthermore, the advance was helped by the closing out of short commitments in preparation for the week-end. Trading quickened moderately, sales for the two hour session aggregating 1,750,000 shares. The market was strong right up to the close.

Speculative sentiment was somewhat more optimistic, but commission house advices continued cautious, indicating that a quiet and somewhat irregular market is still regarded as in prospect.

Utilities led the advance, with electric power and light showing marked buoyancy. The stock sold up 6 points in active trading. It was rumored that an announcement of consummation of the United Gas merger will be made next week.

Allied Chemica, after selling off 4 points, mounted about 8. Eastman Kodak, J. C. Case, A. M. Byers, American Power and Light and shares mounting 3 or more included General Electric, Columbia Gas American Can and Coca Cola.

REDS DROP CLOSE GAME TO PHILLIES

So far this season, the American league has been reversing the usual order of things and producing a large number of pitching battles while the National league sluggers have held the upper hand. But the Cincinnati Reds have been doing their best to make the older circuit conform.

The season for the Reds seems to be just one close game after another whether they win or lose. They have been winning most of them for the past ten days but only after some terrific struggles. Of the six victories and three defeats on their record in that time, all but three games have been decided by one run. The Reds have been getting some great pitching, but for no apparent reason their opponents turn up with the same thing.

Cincinnati engaged in its fourth successive close game yesterday, losing the series opener to Philadelphia, 3 to 1, through one costly error. Joe Stripp's bad throw off first in the second inning paved the way for two Phillie pouters and Ray Benge held the upper hand on the mound through the rest of the game while Jackie May did about as well.

Through all the rest of the National league, only one other pitcher went the route. Hal Carlson lasted nine innings while the Chicago Cubs took first place away from the New York Giants by beating them, 6 to 5, but he gave 14 hits. The Cubs got only 11, but they bunched the longer ones for three runs off Hub Prueitt in the eighth inning.

Burling Grimes lost his chance to do something for the Boston Braves by being too polite to Umpire Mike Donohue. After protesting several decisions, Grimes found one he liked and his exaggerated thanks earned him a trip to the showers. Wee Willie Sherdel finally earned the Cardinals a 10 to 6 victory over the Braves.

Bill Clark of Brooklyn and Jess Petty of Pittsburgh engaged in a fine mound duel for seven innings but both departed suddenly as each team scored four runs in the eighth. Brooklyn won the game,

7 to 4.

Lloyd Brown of Washington and Bob Grove of Philadelphia went to the top of the American league pitchers as they each won game No. 4, with no defeats. Brown had a rather rocky time against the Chicago White Sox, giving 13 hits, but the Senators hit even harder and won by a 14 to 3 margin. Grove was effective after his usual bad first inning and the Athletics for the American league led by beating Cleveland, 9 to 4. Grove added four strikeouts to his league leading total, making it 39.

George Uhle did somewhat better in the strikeout line against the New York Yankees, who count him as something of a jinx. He fanned eight as Detroit won a 5 to 4 victory and checked off the Yankee slugger, ~~Ed~~ Coombs, who drove in all of the New York runs with a homer and a double.

Danny MacFayden took his turn in combining pitching prowess with Tom Oliver's hitting to give Boston Red Sox their third successive victory. He held the St. Louis Browns to six hits for a 5 to 2 triumph while the rookie outfielder made two more hits to make it 18 consecutive games in which he has hit safely.

EXUM DAIL HEADS PITT REPUBLICANS

Party Members Adopt Platform and Name Ticket at Combination Here Today

Exum Dail of Ayden, was elected chairman of the Republican executive committee at annual convention at the court house in this city today. He succeeds M. B. Prescott, of Ayden, who presided over the session. T. I. Moore was elected secretary.

The convention also adopted a platform recommending reduction of taxes, and the consolidation of as many county departments of government as possible to maintain efficiency and protect the interests of the people. The platform also favored the reduction of the present excessive valuation of land for taxes to its true valuation, a uniform tax poll for the county, representation by the minority party on the Board of County Commissioners, and that the state should provide funds for the schools, and thereby relieve land of its present insufferable burden of taxes.

Officers for each precinct of the county were elected.

M. B. Prescott was nominated for the Senate and S. J. Worthington and W. J. Moyer to the House of Representatives.

The following were nominated for county commissioners: R. C. McCotter, Griffin; M. E. Whitehurst, Bethel; Marcellus Smith, Fountain; R. L. Johnson Ayden; W. B. Chapman, Swift Creek.

T. T. Hodges, of Pactolus was nominated for the office of sheriff. The county executive committee was instructed to fill other vacancies on the ticket.

Lillycrop to Speak At Combination Service

Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church will deliver a sermon before the graduating class of Pitt Community hospital at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The service will also be in the nature of a memorial to Florence Nightingale, and many nurses from different sections of Eastern Carolina will attend in uniform. It will be the second service of the kind ever held in this state.

Diphtheria Clinics to Be Held in City During Next Mon.

Now is the best time in the year to give diphtheria toxin-antitoxin to all children between six months and six years of age. Three doses of diphtheria toxin-antitoxin given to a child at intervals of one week apart is known to be an effective prevention against diphtheria in between 80 and 85 per cent of susceptible children. Diphtheria toxin-antitoxin is no longer an experiment in any sense of the word. From all over the country come reports of the success in preventing diphtheria through the use of this most valuable agent.

It is certainly time to quit playing with this serious disease. See your doctor or your health officer without delay and start this treatment for the protection of your child. It is the advice of the Pitt County Health Department to all parents of the county.

In this connection clinics will be held in the City of Greenville on Monday, May 12, for the purpose of immunizing all children who expect to enter school this fall for the first time.

The following schedule will be carefully followed for three consecutive weeks, beginning Monday, May 12:

- 9 a. m., Model School Building.
- 10 a. m., Third Street School.
- 11 a. m., West Greenville School.
- 11-30 a. m., Training School.

NEGRO BURNED ALIVE IN TEXAS JAIL FOR ATTACK ON WOMAN

First men in the vault dumped the body, still limp as if recently dead, down the ladder from the second story hole in the wall. The body

rolled over and over down the ladder, striking the ground with a thump. Women, babies in their arms, shrieked and cried out with what observers termed ghoulish glee. Men seized upon the lifeless negro, tied a chain about the body, fastened it to the rear of an automobile and started "down to nigger town."

Through the streets of the negro section they dragged their bloody load and the journey ended at a large negro store which housed a drugstore, beauty parlor, undertaking parlor, tailor shop and other enterprises.

A tree was nearby. The body was strung up to the tree and boxes piled beneath. A fire was lighted. Then the drugstore was set fire and a brilliant Texas moon added its rays to the gruesome sight.

After virtually destroying the drugstore the mob surged down a three block section of the negro district, a stampede of humanity run amuck. Clubs, bricks, bottles and fists were wielded against windows and doors. Virtually every store was entered and its interior wrecked.

Soon the sidewalks were covered with broken glass which, sparkling in the glare from torches, the flaming building and the moon, cast grotesque shadows on the jaunting figure of the negro, hung to the three by the chain which had dragged the body through the streets of Sherman.

Judge Rom Nunn Is Recipient Unusual Bar Testimonials

Not Custom in Raleigh, For Lawyers To Give Eulogies to Judges—Judge Nunn, of New Bern, Exceptionally Honored.

During the last six months Judge R. A. Nunn has presided over the Superior Courts of Wake and Franklin counties. At the close of the last term of court in Wake County last Friday the members of that bar held a meeting and unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas, the Honorable R. A. Nunn has held our courts for the last half of the year 1935;

And whereas, as Judge he has conducted the courts and discharged his duties in such a manner as to command universal admiration and increase the great respect which is due the court and to maintain that confidence in the administration of justice so essential to the preservation of free institutions;

And whereas, it is the earnest desire of the Raleigh bar to express its thanks and appreciation to Judge Nunn for his uniform courtesy to the members of the bar and the ability and sound justice with which he has administered the courts of this district;

Therefore, Be it resolved by the Bar of the Superior Court of Wake County that it express to Judge Nunn its sincere thanks and appreciation for the services rendered by him while holding the Courts of this County, and our abiding respect and good will for him.

The members of the Grand Jury in their report at the end of their six months service in the same court also made highly complimentary references to the conduct of the courts by Judge Nunn—The Times, 29 December, 1929.

Judge Nunn was appointed by the Governor and then nominated and elected by the Democratic party to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge Horton. In the Democratic primary next June he will be a candidate for renomination as Judge for a full term in the office. (Political Advertisement)

SICK HEADACHE AND DIZZINESS

Relief Found Through the Use of Theford's Black-Draught.

Greenville, S. C.—"For a number of years, I took Theford's Black-Draught for biliousness, and as a laxative," writes Mrs. Sudie Webb, of 7 DeCamp Street, this city.

"I used to have severe sick headaches, when I would let myself get bilious. I would get very nauseated and dizzy. I would have to go to bed.

"After my head quit aching, I would feel weak and dizzy. Seemed like I would drop everything I would pick up. This dizziness would last two or three days.

"I found that Black-Draught would give relief and seemed to cleanse the system. After I found this out, when I felt a headache coming on, I would take Black-Draught and keep it off. I did this for several years, avoiding a lot of pain and suffering. I can highly recommend Black-Draught."

The medicine which this South Carolina lady mentions is also recommended by thousands of others because of the benefit it has been to them.

Why Ice Cream Is So Popular

ASK THE YOUNGSTER at the counter, or the young lady receiving a de luxe pint package to take home. Then ask yourself if you ever saw young persons or older folks eating ice cream without smiles on their faces.

Ice cream and frowns simply do not go together!

It may be because ice cream was originally a Southern product—it originated in Baltimore—or because the Southerners learned how to make it best, but the fact remains that this section is the Ice Cream Principality of America.

The Velvet Kind ICE CREAM

sums up all the knowledge and skill, all the purity of content and delicacy of flavor, that this prolific section has been able to bestow upon this wonderful dessert since the first freezer was made.

Authorities on nutrition long have been calling attention to ice cream as a health food. Yet the difficulty of procuring fine ice cream without making it at home has kept it in the class of "delicacies" in many cities.

The Velvet Kind Ice Cream, obtainable just around the corner, is made according to standards approved by the country's best housekeepers, doctors and diet experts. Southern Dairies ice cream plants are paragons of sanitary cleanliness. Methods of freezing are modern and scientific. Purest, richest milk and cream are used. Flavors and fruits are the best obtainable—you could have no better at home.

The innate goodness and tempting taste of The Velvet Kind Ice Cream are responsible for the growing appetite. Tonight is a good time to try it.

HOLD YOUTH FOR BURNING SCHOOLHOUSE

Swift Creek Young Man Charged With Setting Fire To Clay-root School

Hyman Gardner, young white man of the Swift Creek community, was being held in jail in this city today charged with the burning of the Clay Root schoolhouse.

The schoolhouse, a two-teacher, frame structure, accommodating approximately fifty pupils, was destroyed by fire about two weeks ago, shortly before commencement exercises were scheduled to take place.

Believing that the fire was the result of incendiaryism, officers began an intensive investigation which resulted in Gardner falling into the toils of the law.

Gardner, according to officers, is alleged to have made the statement "that no more commencement would be held in the school" following disagreement with school authorities. A short time later the building went up in flames.

Burning of the building, authorities indicated, was attributed to a desire of a rough element to control the school and to create a disturbance during special occasions.

When their activities met with opposition, it was said that retaliation was promised, but no clues in this direction were obtainable until the statement that resulted in the arrest of Gardner.

On Tuesday morning at 6:00 a. m. the congregation of St. Paul's Episcopal church will gather upon their new building lot on Fourth Street to have a service of thanksgiving to God for their new building and to ask His blessing upon its construction.

There will be the usual vesting of the choir; and a lovely service of the breaking of the ground. This building has been the dream of the Episcopalians of Greenville for several years.

And the fact that it is to begin construction is one of the greatest happenings that the congregation of St. Paul's have ever experienced.

At the breaking of the ground special honor will be reserved for Mrs. Charles Skinner. She will be given the privilege of throwing out the first shovel of dirt.

This honor comes to her because for many years she has loved and worked and dreamed for the building of a new Episcopal church.

Also at this service there will be felt by all the congregation a great feeling of gratitude to the building committee of the church: Dr. R. L. Carr, Mr. W. H. Dall, Jr., Dr. L. C. Skinner, Mrs. E. B. Picklin, and Miss Bessie Brown. These members of the church have worked for to secure the construction of the building.

At this service there will be many people of all the churches in town to wish Godspeed to the congregation of St. Paul's church in their new undertaking.

Sitting back in a lovely grove of trees across from the high school the building will be a great addition to the city.

Death Toll Of Persian Quake Nearing 3,000

Chairman Of Judiciary Committee Predicts Favorable Action On Supreme Court Nomination In Short Time

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—The first step toward Senate confirmation of Owen J. Roberts, as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, was taken today with action by the judiciary committee to refer the nomination to a subcommittee.

Little difficulty in obtaining confirmation was expected, but the subcommittee will go thoroughly into any complaints.

The judiciary chairman, Norris of Nebraska, and others outside the fold of the Republican regulars predicted early and favorable action.

Senator Sheppard of Texas, a dry who had indicated opposition to Roberts because of a 1923 speech by him said today he was satisfied with the explanation that had been made for the nominee.

Roberts had been quoted as criticizing the 18th amendment by it was explained that he was discussing a legal point involved.

Sheppard said he wanted to wait until the committee disposes of the nomination before taking a stand on it, but I will not oppose him unless it is shown that he is prejudiced against the law.

The nomination was endorsed in a telegram received today by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, from Dr. Omer W. Tope of Philadelphia, state superintendent of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League.

Reed said he had received informal assurances from other dry groups in Pennsylvania that they approve Roberts.

"It is natural for a man to get the corporation viewpoint when he is surrounded by the influences of big business," Senator Norris said. "But Roberts has demonstrated his independence in his activities in connection with the oil prosecution. It was a magnificent job he did. At no point did he ever hesitate—and there he was constantly fighting." (Continued on page 3)

Turkey To Sell Crown Jewels To Meet Money Crisis

Istanbul, Turkey, May 12.—(AP)—Sale of the crown jewels of the Ottoman empire, valued at about $300,000,000, today was forecast by the semi-official daily newspaper "Djumureit," to raise money to relieve Turkey's economic crisis.

The jewels, part of which are on exhibition in the museums of Istanbul and the remainder hidden in Angora, including the Peacock Throne, studded with 30,000 jewels. This single relic is estimated to be worth $13,000,000. There is still another treasure in the collection containing one of the world's largest emeralds and a whole box full of diamonds and pearls.

Says Naval Treaty Will End Competition Between United States and Britain

Secretary Stimson Describes Pact As "Epochal" In Testifying Before Senate Foreign Relations Committee Today

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—Hailing the London naval treaty as "epochal," Secretary Stimson told the Senate foreign relations committee today that ratification would end British-American naval competition and set a notable example in the cause of world peace.

Appearing as the committee's first witness at a public session, the secretary related that he and his colleagues of the American delegation to London were in agreement on all major subjects, and did their work without instructions or interference from President Hoover.

He had been explaining the pact section by section for more than an hour before the first indication of hostility interrupted him. Senator Johnson, Republican, California, who has said he wants several things about the treaty fully investigated, asked whether the time had come for questions. Mr. Stimson replied that he had not yet completed his statement.

He still was on the stand when the committee adjourned until tomorrow.

Before a crowded room, the secretary of state, who headed the American delegation to London, described the treaty as a long forward step toward peace. He explained in detail how the pact was designed to attain British-American parity at sea; to fix for the first time definite limitations for all categories of warships for the United States, Great Britain and Japan, and to help open the way, as well, for future limitation by France and Italy.

While Mr. Stimson read his prepared statement and invited questions from the committee, Secretary Adams of the navy, another American delegate, and several of the delegation's naval advisers waited for their turn in the stand.

Most of the spectators were women. Among them were Mrs. Stimson and the wife of Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, who also was a delegate to the London conference.

Youthful Flier Sets Record On Flight To N. Y.

New York, May 12.—(AP)—Frank Goldsborough, 19, today held the unofficial junior transcontinental flight record, having flown from Los Angeles to New York in 28 hours, 18 minutes actual flying time.

The youthful pilot, son of the late Bruce Goldsborough, aeronautical engineer, who was lost with Mrs. Frances Grayson on a transatlantic flight three years ago, landed at New York City airport in Flushing yesterday.

He was enroute three and one half days.

The record which he now holds was formerly held by Dick James, who was his classmate at the Flushing High School.

News photographers took posed pictures as the secretary faced the committee across the big mahogany table, holding a sheaf of papers and smiling broadly.

"The committee will be glad to have your views on the treaty before us," said Borah.

The secretary said he would discuss the general features of the treaty in an "informal way" and would be glad to answer questions.

The American delegation went to London, he said, "without any specific instructions, written or verbal," from President Hoover.

"Of course we knew his general views," he continued. "At no time did he intervene. The one man who had the right to instruct us, left the conduct of the negotiations in our hands."

"We had some suggestions from other citizens. We are profoundly grateful to the president for his attitude.

"The responsibility for the treaty therefore rests on the American delegation."

"There were two naval problems before the conference," Stimson continued, "one was the relation of the navies of Great Britain, America and Japan. The other was the relation of the navies of Great Britain, France, and Italy. Those two problems were united only by fact that Great Britain was a party to both."

"So far as American navy was (Continued on page three)

FOUR PERSONS KILLED IN N. C. AUTO WRECKS

Several Also Injured In Series Of Accidents In Different Parts Of State

Charlotte, May 12.—(AP)—Four persons were killed in three automobile accidents on North Carolina highways Saturday and Sunday.

Nine were injured.

Miss Lucy Sandlin, of Durham, and Sallie Haywood Scarborough, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Scarborough, of Wendell, were killed late yesterday when two automobiles collided near Wendell.

Col. Fannill Rucker, 60, prominent Martinsville, Va., business man, was killed late Saturday when his automobile ran off an embankment near Statesville.

H. M. Maliba, of Boone, died early Sunday in a hospital of injuries sustained Saturday night when a freight train demolished an automobile near Bakers, in Union county.

Maliba's companion, George Cottrell, of Lenoir, was seriously injured and is in a Monroe hospital.

Eight persons were injured in the Wendell crash. E. B. Morris, driver of one of the cars in the collision, was held by officers for investigation.

MEXICAN AIR ACE KILLED

Col. Pablo Sidar And Companion Die In Attempt To Break Distance Record

San Jose, Costa Rica, May 12.—(AP)—The bodies of two Mexican airmen, who survived bullets but died in an electrical storm, lay today in a morgue at the Atlantic Coast town Porto Limon, after a gallant but futile attempt to break the world's long distance flight record.

Colonel Pablo Sidar, ace of the Mexican Aviation Corps, and his co-pilot and mechanic, Lieutenant Carlos Roviroza, fell into the sea about three miles south of Porto Limon about 5 p. m. yesterday while flying to escape an electrical and hail storm.

With their crash, far off the planned course down the American Pacific Coasts to Chile and across the Argentine a distance of 6,000 miles, they had traveled about 1,000 miles. They left Cero Loco near San Geronimo, Oaxaca, Mexico, at 5:21 a. m. almost twelve hours before the disaster.

Military Court Conducts Inquiry Into Texas Riot

Sherman, Tex., May 12.—(AP)—A military court was called here today to inquire into action of a mob which Friday night fired the court house, killed a negro who had attacked a white woman, and then destroyed three blocks of property in the Negro section.

Colonel Lawrence E. McGee, commanding officer of National Guard units who took charge of the city Saturday night under Governor Dan Moody's martial law proclamation, said he would leave nothing undone to "get at the bottom" of the occurrences.

Sixteen men were held awaiting action of this court. Fourteen of the prisoners also were charged by Federal officers with violation of the prohibition laws. Other arrests were expected to follow.

A coroner officially declared George Hughes, the mob's victim to have been suffocated in a record vault in the court house. His body nevertheless, was dragged through the streets and then burned at a prominent corner in the Negro district.

Mussolini Enters The City Of Lucca

Lucca, Italy, May 12.—(AP)—received like a medieval conqueror, premier Mussolini today entered the city of Lucca as another step on his tour of Tuscany.

At the arch which stands just outside of Porta Elisa—one of the city's historic gates which weathered many sieges—the premier was told by the Fascist federal secretary that he had been made "Dominus" or "Lord of Lucca."

Thereupon gallantly dressed heralds smiled long silver trumpets while two pages brought Mussolini the keys of the city.

A trumpet procession through the city followed.

Mother's Day Fittingly Observed By The Various Churches Of Greenville

Splendid Sermons And Special Musical Programs Featured Services At Virtually All Churches Of The City Yesterday

Mother's Day, a day set aside for paying tribute to mother, whether living or dead, was appropriately observed in the various churches of the city yesterday morning.

The pastors delivered sermons in keeping with the occasion and the choirs rendered special selections. The sermons were peculiarly touching—paying tribute to the spirit of love and fidelity of the countless millions of mothers of this great nation.

The majority of the communicants were flowers—red denoting the living, and white, the dead, and the churches were appropriately decorated in keeping with the spirit of the day.

Attendance was probably the largest of any single Mother's Day program in the history of the city, and each of the edifices was crowded almost to overflowing.

Children were especially active in celebrating the day, and many a gift went to the guardian angels of the many households of the city as youth attempted to express its love and faith in the character that has proved the foundation of American life.

The services at the different churches follow:

Methodist Church "Mother's Day" was observed throughout the church program yesterday, and unusually large attendance featured the morning service.

Appropriate music was rendered by the choir both services.

A most excellent sermon was delivered by the pastor at the morning hour on the subject: "A Mother's Influence," using as a text 2 Timothy 1:5, "When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also." He gave high praise to motherhood saying that back of every true man there is a good woman. He also said that the Christian mothers had the destiny of the world in their hands. Many beautiful tributes were paid to the Christian mothers and their influence urged to have its sway.

At the evening hour a most inspiring message was brought on the subject: "The Heritage of a Christian Home." Here the need of Christian parents and Christian training in the home was urged as a great need of today.

There must be a more beautiful Christian atmosphere around about us after the celebration of so sacred a day as that of "Mother's Day" with all the fond memories the day holds for people.

Christian Church The services at the Eight Street Christian church were well attended yesterday both morning and evening. At the morning hour the pastor spoke on the subject: "A Garden of Old-Fashioned Roses". The sermon was in the nature of a tribute to the ideals of womanhood

THREE SLAIN IN ROBBERY

Beer Flat Proprietor And Two Bandits Killed In Attempted Holdup

Chicago, May 12.—(AP)—Three men were shot dead in a trap laid by police officers in a North Clark Street beer flat early today.

The proprietor of the place, Jack Hayes, and two of the four gunmen who attempted to rob him, were the men killed. Joseph Altmeier, special investigator for the state's attorney's office, was seriously wounded.

Altmeier said that the two robbers who escaped also had been struck by bullets.

The beer flat is at 3258 N. Clark street, just north of Belmont avenue. Altmeier, who specializes in extortion cases for the state's attorney, was hidden in the flat with four other officers.

The robbers entered the place at 2:30 o'clock this morning, flourished guns and demanded money. Hayes resisted and before the police officers could open fire, Hayes was down, a bullet through the heart.

The police guns began pouring lead at the robbers, two of whom dropped. One of the men killed was a negro. He had sought to barricade himself behind a partition.

Several women were present, including Hayes' wife and his niece, and the officers were handicapped by fear of wounding them.

French Flyer Takes Off For Natal, Brazil, With Plane Loaded With Mail

St. Louis, Senegal, May 12.—(AP)—Jules Mermoz, French flyer, took off today for Natal, Brazil, at 11 a. m.

Mermoz left Perpignan, France, May 2 on the first lap of his trip in a postal hydro airplane. It is the same machine he used recently in setting a new record for duration and distance with such craft, covering 4,375 kilometers in thirty hours twenty-five minutes.

The take-off was made today under the best of conditions despite the fact that the heavily loaded plane carries four persons besides Mermoz. The plane is the first to carry so large a number of persons into the South Atlantic.

Mermoz believes that the St. Louis-Port Natal route is the best for taking mail across the South Atlantic. The distance over water

Reduces Cost Of Collecting Taxes In N. C.

Raleigh, May 12.—(AP)—The cost of collection of $275,000,000 in Federal taxes expected to be paid by North Carolinians this fiscal year, which ends June 30, will be five cents per $100, Gilliam Grissom, internal revenue collector for North Carolina estimates.

Last fiscal year Mr. Grissom collected $254,494,000 at an actual cost of six cents per $100, compared with a nationwide average cost of collection of $1.17 per $100 for Federal taxes.

Since he took charge of the office, Mr. Grissom has reduced the cost of collection from a figure of 24 cents on the $100 the last year before he took the office to the actual six cents figure last year and an estimated five cents on estimated collections for this year.

and motherhood. At 8 P. M., the subject was "Christian Citizenship." There was special music appropriate to the occasion at all services. There were additions to the church at both morning and evening services.

When he arrives at Port Natal he intends to turn the mail over to fresh land planes which will speed it to South American points

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, May 2.—(AP)—Postal officials today announced that extensive precautions had been taken to guard against the loss of Jean Mermoz and the hydroplane in which he left St. Louis, Senegal, today for Natal.

Dispatch boats and other craft today were ordered to patrol the route which the pilot will follow across the South Atlantic so that in case of forced landing succor will be near at hand.

Burlington, May 12.—(AP)—A 13-year-old boy was drowned while nine other persons clung on to buoyant cushions and inflated inner tubes to reach shore safely when a boat capsized late Sunday on Haw River near here.

The dead youth is Stanley Jenkins, 13-year-old son of George A. Jenkins, of Burlington. He was unable to swim the boat turned over could not reach safety. The party was on a picnic on the river.

BOY DROWNS WHEN BOAT CAPSIZES

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—President Hoover's strongest play in the morning medicine ball game is to catch the weighty sphere on his chest, with arms closing in quickly—and to snap it back with a right overhand stroke.

Dawn was just reaching its full brightness today when the "medicine ball cabinet" gathered far down on the rear lawn of the White House.

Tall and short, stout and thin—Mr. Hoover's well-wetted friends tossed the ball vigorously to and fro over a high-volley ball set.

He seemed the most practiced, seldom missing and more often than not causing opponents to miss with the strength of that line arm swing, watched from the distance, the group looked like schoolboys at play.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF FAMOUS NURSE

Rev. W. A. Lillycrop Speaks To Hospital Graduates And At Memorial Service

Depicting Florence Nightingale as a woman of character and a devoted to a great cause, Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, delivered the sermon before the graduating class of the Memorial Hospital at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The service was also a memorial to Florence Nightingale and was the second of its kind ever conducted in North Carolina.

Nurses from different parts of Eastern North Carolina were in attendance as were student nurses from other hospitals. The service was very inspirational, and was opened with the reciting of the Florence Nightingale pledge.

Five young women composed the graduating class from the hospital this year. They will be awarded diplomas at final exercises tonight.

Space had been provided for the graduates in the center section of the church. Behind them sat the student nurses, and directly behind the students were the nurses from the different towns. All were costumed befitting their field of service and virtually every branch of the profession was represented.

The vested choir of the church assisted in the song service, and a solo number was sung by J. H. Rose, superintendent of city schools. Invocation was pronounced by Rev. W. H. Covert, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church. Rev. A. W. Fitchman, pastor of Memorial Baptist church, read a passage from the Scriptures. Benediction was said by Rev. E. L. Hillman, who also presided over the service.

Addressing himself directly to the young nurses, Mr. Lillycrop compared them to the Knights of St. George who took a three-fold vow: "To be Faithful to the Cause, to Keep their Arms Bright, and to Keep their Souls Clean."

He urged the young women to personally take the same vow as they entered upon their profession, declaring that the temptations that beset them upon all sides would test their strength and their endurance and that they would need to be prepared to carry on to success.

He urged them to be faithful to the ideal of service, remembering that their profession is the Ministry of Women.

He told them of the importance of moral and spiritual faith because there is a difference between the life of the person who disbelieves and the life of the person who has faith. "One sees life as sandstone and unworthy of heroic effort, while the other sees life as abiding as marble and they have the courage to carve out their lives sacrificially," he said.

He also reminded them that their faith would be their defense against temptations as they practiced their profession and that Christ would be with them in the dark and anxious hours of their ministry. He declared that faith was absolutely necessary at this time when sin is eating at the heart of civilization, despite the wave of prosperity sweeping over the country, the Golden Age America.

He urged his hearers to have character above all else in the world. He spoke of Florence Nightingale at the day she became a nurse. Nurses at that time, he pointed out, were not considered very highly because many of them were women of little character. But Florence Nightingale lifted the profession from the low plane to which it had fallen and instilled such profound character that it stands out as one of the noblest professions of the day.

He told them that the highest tribute they could pay the name of this great nurse was to have character.

Hoover Medicine Ball Cabinet At Work At Capital

Washington, May 12.—(AP)—President Hoover's strongest play in the morning medicine ball game is to catch the weighty sphere on his chest, with arms closing in quickly—and to snap it back with a right overhand stroke.

Dawn was just reaching its full brightness today when the "medicine ball cabinet" gathered far down on the rear lawn of the White House.

Tall and short, stout and thin—Mr. Hoover's well-wetted friends tossed the ball vigorously to and fro over a high-volley ball set.

He seemed the most practiced, seldom missing and more often than not causing opponents to miss with the strength of that line arm swing, watched from the distance, the group looked like schoolboys at play.

LOOK TO NOVEMBER.

We agree with the Cleveland County Star that the chief attraction of the Democrats of our state should be in the election of November 4th when our party will win over or be defeated by a Republican, rather than to fall for all the side issues that would bring discord within the party ranks.

The Star in part says: "JUNE 7TH IS THE DAY of the primary. On that day we name our candidates. November 4th is the day of the election. On that day they will be elected or defeated."

"Look to November, Democrats of North Carolina."

"We have a great chance to redeem the State in November. We can win back the lost districts and counties and more besides. Let us not throw it away in May and June. What is now going on?"

"There are those who are killing Democratic arguments against Republicans. Some weeks ago, a powerful attack was launched upon the Republican National Chairman. He was on the verge of being displaced and discredited. The Republicans set a trap, drew a red herring across the trail. They invited Mr. Raskob, the Democratic National Chairman, to come before them for examination. Certain Democrats fell for it. They jumped on Raskob. They invited the sit with Raskob. They invited the word 'Raskobism.'"

"And everybody has forgotten about Huston."

"Thus the Republicans, with the aid of certain Democrats have outwitted us. While we are quarrelling among ourselves over Raskob, they have gotten off with Huston. Where we had them 'dead,' they have us fighting among ourselves."

"Are we all donkeys?"

"(2) We had the financial depression charged not justly to Hoover and the Republican victory. We were marching on to sure victory. Then the Republicans set up those Prohibition hearings. The wets had an inning. The dries had an inning. The investigators had an inning. So the trap was set. Certain Democrats fell for it. The Hoover panic got lost with everybody talking liquor; and the Democrats began flying at one another's throats."

"Is the Democratic party so easily to be turned upon itself? Is it to be so easily divided by Republican trickery?"

"Are we all donkeys?"

"Republicans know that the Prohibition issue cuts across both parties and nothing suits them so well as to see the Prohibition issue raised in a Democratic contest. They know that they can call the 18th Amendment 'a noble experiment' and get away with it, while extremists in the Democratic party will set about to drive everybody out of the Democratic party who does not agree with them."

"They laugh while Democrats make such an issue among themselves, well knowing that such an issue will divide and destroy us and save them from the defeat they deserve."

"If the Republican party had cared to enforce Prohibition, it could have done so years ago. But why should it do so, as long as by keeping the issue alive they can divide the Democrats and thereby remain in power."

"Are we all donkeys that we fall for such tactics as we approach the day of battle?"

enforce the Prohibition law.
"Let us show up Huston and the rottenness he represents."
"Let us show up the Republican responsibility for financial depression."
"Let us show up the Republican failure to bring promised relief to the farmers."
"We have a great task, a great opportunity and a great call."

"Democrats of North Carolina, if you love your party, look to November 4th as you approach June 7th."

ABOUT TOWN

"There is no longer any excuse for a child contracting diphtheria," declared a statement issued by the Pitt County Department of Health today, referring to the clinics held among the various schools of the city today.

"The method of prevention as provided through anti-toxin, is available to every child in the State. The procedure is very simple. All that is necessary is for the parent to take the child to his family physician or to the County Health Officer, either of whom should have on hand at all times a fresh reliable quantity of this most valuable possession. Any physician in Pitt County should be, and most of them probably are, prepared to give this treatment without any further notice than a presentation of the child at the physician's office."

"In case the physician does not keep the toxin-antitoxin on hand he can easily obtain whatever amount he wishes by calling the Health Department, which has at all times a liberal supply on hand, which is kept in a refrigerator 50 degrees Fahrenheit, from the time it is received from the laboratory. This is distributed free to any physician who asks for it. For every child in families who do not have a family physician, or who are not financially able to pay the small fee charged by the physician, the County Health Officer is ready at all times to give the treatment free of charge. This is done on Saturdays usually, in the Health office at the court house."

"In 1929, 345 children died from diphtheria in the state of North Carolina and in Pitt County there were 95 cases of diphtheria reported to the Health Department, 59 of which were six years of age and under. Four of these cases died. This is one of the biggest scandals that could be published by the state. Three hundred and forty-five deaths of children needlessly sacrificed upon the altar of ignorance and carelessness."

It looks like both Democrats and Republicans in Pitt County are in complete accord on one thing—tax reduction. The Democrats have been talking about taxes being too high over a period of several months and the Republicans got together here in convention last Saturday and adopted a platform calling upon the County Commissioners to do everything practicable to reduce the cost of operation of the various departments of government.

The tax questions is one of the most important before the public at this time but if members of both the leading parties continue, naming away while the "iron is hot" it may be something of direct benefit to the people will be accomplished.

It is generally agreed that no one wants to impair the efficiency of our government or state departments, but they do want such departments operated as economically as possible so that some of the burden may be lifted from the shoulders of the landowner. It is probable that the valuation of land at present money rates might do something toward solving the problem, but it would be quite a while before this could be worked out. Still it sounds mighty good to the land owner who has had his nose in the dust for years as result of the tax burden, and he would be glad to see anything done tending to bring him some relief.

It was fitting that nurses of Eastern North Carolina should gather in this city yesterday and hold a memorial service to the bright star of their profession, the beloved Florence Nightingale.

It was the second service of the kind ever conducted in North Carolina, the first being held at Wilmington several months ago. The record of Florence Nightingale is one of the loving service to humankind, and members of her profession could do nothing more noble than attempt to follow the pathway blazed by this most illustrious woman. Greenville is indeed glad that it had the honor of entertaining the second gathering of this kind in the State of North Carolina, and the latching hangs on the outside at all times, ready for the next pilgrimage of members of a profession who are doing so much to carry joy and peace to the bedridden of suffering humanity.

Editor Reflector,
Dear Sir:

Perusing an account of a meeting held in the court house in Greenville on May 5 in the interest of tax reductions, put me in a reminiscent mood and I would like for the younger voters to know how county finances were run thirty years ago. The magistrates of the county elected the members of the board of county commissioners and the commissioners were prohibited from expending any large sum of money for any project without first getting consent of the magistrates. I believe the commissioners were limited to five hundred dollars.

This having the magistrates as a check to the expenditures of the commissioners worked well. Our county was run economically for many years—tax upon farming land was about one-tenth of what it is now. Mr. Wooten deserves all praise for his endeavor to reduce expenses of the county.

Once upon a time the commissioners had some project—I have forgotten what it was—which they wished the magistrates to give their consent. Mr. Mark Cherry was the chairman of the board. When he put the question some two or three faint ayes were all. Mr. Cherry very indignantly arose and with some vehement gestures exclaimed, "You men vote. I want every damn one of you to vote"—and when the vote was a second time taken there was sure enough a full vote and Cherry had a great majority, and he was happy.

The magistrates recommended to the board that a dam be constructed across the lowlands on the north side of the river bridge and when the board so ordered, Mr. Gifford Moore, who lived on the north side of the river, was so shocked at what he considered unnecessary expense to the county that although he had been on the board for ten years, resigned from the board.

Very respectfully,
A. J. MOYE.

INDIANS WIN EASY GAME FROM THE A'S

When a team that has been having a hard time holding a place among the league leaders although it holds the club batting lead and one which has stretched a winning streak about as far as possible get together, something is bound to happen. It did yesterday when the Cleveland Indians entertained the Philadelphia Athletics and an over flow crowd of Cleveland fans.

The Indians have shown plenty of hitting power all season while the Athletics had a bad beating coming to them after winning nine out of ten games. The beating was inflicted to the tune of 25 to 7, by far the biggest score of the major league season. Cleveland started by clubbing Ed Rommel from the mound with five hits and three runs in the first inning. Ad they kept improving—the pace, scoring in every inning up to the seventh, and collecting 25 hits. Nine of the blows were doubles and some might have been home runs.

Wesley Freund held the World's champions to four hits in his six innings on the mound. He allowed five runs but his mates beat that in two different innings, getting seven in the fourth and six in the sixth.

Cleveland's batting feat stood out on a day of rather light hitting. The only game that approached it was Brooklyn's 10 to 2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Robins made 18 hits for their third successive victory in the series, while Dazzy Vance held Pittsburgh to four. The game put Brooklyn in third place in the National League, dropping Pittsburgh into a three-way tie for fourth.

The St. Louis Cardinals made 25 hits but they had to win both ends of a double header from the Boston Braves to do it. The scores were 5 to 3 and 7 to 6, carrying the Cardinals to six successive victories and Boston to as many defeats. Jess Haines pitched his first full game of the year in beating out Harry Siebold in the opener.

The New York Giants made their hold on the league's first place safe for the current series with the second place Chicago Cubs by winning their third encounter, 9 to 7. The game, played after a shower had made the field slippery, saw six pitchers yield 29 blows, 17 of them going to the Giants.

Benny Frey, who has taken part in nine of Cincinnati's 22 games, hurled his fourth complete game and won his fourth victory by limiting Philadelphia to seven hits while the Reds pulled out a 5 to 4 win. Three successive walks in the ninth inning forced in the deciding run.

Ed Morris produced the day's best pitching feat as he held the St. Louis Browns to two hits for the second day in succession. The Boston Red Sox won the game, 2 to 1, on Regan's home run. Morris gave seven walks but he struck out nine. An ex-Bostonian, Charley Ruffing, made his debut in a New York Yankees uniform and helped the Yankees beat Detroit, 7 to 6. Giving a good start by Babe Ruth's fifth home run of the season in the first inning, Ruffing barely lasted through the game.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

The Private Laws of the General Assembly of North Carolina, session 1921, as amended by session 1925, require that an election for the selection of five members of the Board of Aldermen, one from each ward of the Town of Greenville, shall be held on the first Monday, the 5th day of May, 1930; that the books for registration of voters who are not already registered for Municipal Elections or who have transferred from one ward to another, since the last election, shall be kept open for twenty days, exclusive of Sundays, preceding the first Monday in May, and that all candidates for Aldermen shall register their candidacy with the City Clerk at least five days prior to the first Monday in May, and shall deposit the sum of $100; that there shall be only one voting place; to-wit: The County Court House, and that persons registering to vote shall be registered according to wards in which they reside, and that all tickets to be voted shall contain the names of all properly registered candidates which shall be supplied by the Clerk of the Town of Greenville; that all persons residing within the Town of Greenville will be allowed to register and vote, if eligible under the State Laws governing the qualifications of voters in General Elections, said qualifications being one year's residence within the State, four months within the Town.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen held on the 6th day of March, 1930, the foregoing notice of election was ordered published, and Mr. Chas. F. Manning was appointed Registrar to open the books for registration on the 11th day of April, and to keep open said books for a period of twenty days exclusive of Saturdays, at various places in the Town of Greenville most convenient for registration of those citizens not already registered who desire to register and vote in said election.

WEDDING OF MISS BAYLEY AND CAPTAIN WILSON SOLEMNIZED IN HAWAII

The following account of the marriage of Captain Carl B. Wilson and Miss Madeline Bayley, taken from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, will be read with interest by friends here:

The marriage of Miss Madeline Bayley, popular and attractive house guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Herbert B. Powell of Schofield Barracks, and Capt. C. B. Wilson of Fort Shafter, was solemnized at the post chapel at Schofield Saturday evening, April 26 at 6 o'clock. The bride was given in marriage by Maj. Douglas C. Cordiner of Fort Shafter. Mrs. Leo G. Clarke was matron of honor and Lieutenant Clarke was best man. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain J. Burt Webster, who used the Episcopal ritual. Only the immediate friends of the couple were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bayley of John Day, Oregon, where Bayley is a prominent banker. She was graduated from the University of Washington in 1926 and was a member of the Delta Zeta sorority. For the past year Mrs. Wilson has been instructress in art at the Lullehua school. She resumed her duties in December after an extended trip around the world during the summer and fall of 1929.

Captain Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown Wilson of Greenville, N. C. He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, class of 1918, and is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity of the University of North Carolina. He served on the staff of the United States embassy in Constantinople from 1921 until 1924.

The bride was lovely in a dress of powder blue chiffon with a lace straw hat in a matching color. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds and gardenias. The matron of honor wore a dress of printed chiffon with a hair hat in a like shade.

After the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Herbert B. Powell were hosts to the members of the wedding party at supper in their quarters in the 35th Infantry loop. A huge cake, ornamented with a miniature bridal couple adorned the center of the table with tall slender ivory tapers adding a soft glow.

Captain and Mrs. Wilson will make their home in Honolulu until June when they will spend three months on the mainland.

MRS. LONG DIES AT HOME IN ROXBORO. Friends of M. R. Long of this city will regret to learn of the death of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Long. Mrs. Long died at her home in Roxboro Saturday.

MOTHER'S DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED BY THE VARIOUS CHURCHES OF GREENVILLE

The 11 o'clock service Rev. W. A. Lillycrop preached upon the theme "Mother Day" from rather an unusual angle. He pleaded that the ideal of motherhood summed up in the observance of a "Mother's Day" presents a great challenge to the Women of America to make that ideal a reality in their personal lives.

At the first service at St. Paul's church there was a special service of appreciation of mothers. This service was conducted by some of the boys of the Parish as a loving tribute to Mother's of the Parish. The boys conducting the service were Louis Stuart Ficklen, Frank Park, Jr., Samuel Dees, and W. Hill Horne, Jr. The whole service was appreciated by a large congregation that joined with the boys of the church in appreciation of the Mothers of Greenville.

Presbyterian Church. All of the services at the Presbyterian church were in keeping with this thought, from the Sunday School to the last service of the day.

At the Sunday School hour a beautiful pageant: "Mother Pictures of the Bible", under the direction of Miss Hillhouse, was very impressively given instead of the regular lesson for the day. The church was artistically decorated in red and white roses, and the whole exercise made to center around the Godly women of the Bible, and the teaching for the mothers of today.

At the 11 a. m. service, the pastor preached on the "Importance of the Teaching of Mothers", showing that it is more important than the teaching of anyone else, since mothers have their children closely associated with them at the most impressionable period of life, from babyhood to the teen age.

This is the plastic time of life, when they are as clay in the hands of a potter, and when the foundation for the entire life is laid. The truth of this was shown by some great characters of history. Moses, Samuel, Augustine, the Wesleys, Phillip Doddridge, Abraham Lincoln and the majority of candidates for the ministry, all of whom testified to the lasting impressions made on them for life, by their pious mother.

The pastor then made a plea to the children and young people, to give heed to the counsel and teaching of their mothers, even though it may now seem old-fashioned and Puritanical. If they would heed her advice now, it would save them many regrets in after life.

Because of the tendency to revolt at the teen age period, many boys and girls have refused to heed parental teaching, and gotten into much trouble. Beside this, they are breaking the hearts of their parents by their indifference to them and their religion.

The young people gave program which included the idea of paying a tribute to motherhood also. Large audiences were present, and the day was a success in every way.

Memorial Baptist. The pastor, Mr. Fleischmann preached on the theme, "Faith of Our Mothers", using as a text Paul's words addressed to Timothy in his second letter. Tim. 2-13-5.

In this brief paragraph Paul indicates the preciousness of Christian Faith and the priceless of Christian Friendship. He feels that this faith is the same as that which animated his fathers before him, the same which dwelt in the heart of Timothy and had inspired his grandmothers and his mother. The faith of their Jewish parents, Paul regarded as not different in kind from that which was exercised by Timothy and by himself. Faith, we think of, as submission to God, dependence upon him, and love for him.

Today we want to think of three elements in Our Mother's Faith: Our Mother's Faith in Bible; Our Mother's Faith in prayer, and Our Mother's Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

SAYS NAVAL TREATY WILL END COMPETITION BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN

Concerned, we were not related in any sense to the navies of France and Italy. We were interested only insofar as Great Britain was concerned.

"Of these two problems, in the first we reached a complete agreement. In the other only a partial agreement was concluded. Every question which came up was a matter of full confidence of the entire American delegation. Speaking slowly and evenly, while the committee listened silently, Stimson went on that on every major question there was unanimous agreement by the American delegation. He praised the work of Senator Reed, in maintaining contact with the naval advisers. Only on "minor technical questions," he said, did differences appear.

Taking up the treaty section by section, the secretary outlined the purpose of each while Senators followed the individual copies before them.

Part five, the secretary said, containing the agreement to confer again in 1935 was one of the most important "because it has become evident to us that disarmament cannot be accomplished by a single act."

"As we found momentum from the treaty of 1922, so we hope to gain momentum from the treaty of 1930 and proceed farther," he said.

The battleship holiday and agreement reached on other points made it possible, he continued, to do more at the next meeting.

In reference to the inability of Great Britain, France and Italy to reach an accord, he said it was "inadvisable" to go into the details of that situation. He described the adjournment of the conference as

CONFIRMATION OF ROBERTS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE; SLIGHT TROUBLE EXPECTED

The sub-committee is expected to report to the full judiciary committee a week from today. Senator Walsh of Montana, also said he saw no reason why Roberts should not be confirmed promptly.

Senators Simmons and Overman, the two Democratic North Carolina Senators, who supported so strongly the rejected nomination of Judge John J. Parker, refrained from taking any position. Both said they wanted the sub-committee to develop the facts.

COTTON MARKET

New York, May 12.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at unchanged to a decline of 8 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables.

Old crop months were steady on some covering, while offerings were light, three seemed to be some selling of new crop months on an idea that the recent rains in western and central belt sections might delay the crop but prove beneficial in the long run.

The new October sold off to 14.56. According to the estimate of the New York Cotton Exchange Service, domestic mill consumption of cotton in this country for April was 538,000 bales, compared with 632,000 a year ago. Liverpool cables reported continental and Bombay buying supplied by realizing and said that cloth and yarn sales were below production.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 12.—(AP)—Owing largely to a big curtailment of the United States wheat visible supply total, wheat prices scored material gains in the late dealings today. The decrease, 6,548,000 bushels was greatly in excess of either that of last week or a year ago. Reports of frost last night in southwestern Nebraska were also a late bullish factor.

Wheat closed firm 5-8 to 1 3-4 higher than Saturday's finish; corn closed 1 3-4 to 1 3-4 up; oats 1-4 to 5-8 advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 12.—(AP)—The stock market appeared to lack conviction as to its position at the beginning of the new week today. Commission houses were inclined to advocate steering close to shore until current levels are tested. Trading was extremely dull and highly professional. There were sporadic efforts to push prices higher, meeting with moderate success in a few instances, but there was a distinct tendency to take quick profits on advances.

On the whole, traders appeared to feel that the sharp rebound last week represented only a technical correction of an oversold condition reached in the sharp reaction which came to a climax a week ago, and that the market again finds itself on certain ground. Speculative sentiment was none too cheerful, the more optimistic quarters holding that a quiet, irregular market may be expected, with selected issues making substantial progress, while the feeling in less cheerful circles was that a sustained rise would have to start from lower levels. Credit conditions held stationary, with call loans still commanding 3 per cent. It was felt that the new offering of 100,000,000 in Treasury bills might cause a slightly firmer tendency at the end of the week.

Pilot Knocks Out Passenger While 1,000 Feet In Air

New York, May 12.—(AP)—Eliot "Tex" Anding, an airplane pilot, and four passengers, including two women, possibly owed their lives today to the knock-out punch "Tex" packs in his right fist. With his plane lurching and diving crazily 1,000 feet over Holmes airport, yesterday, Anding fought with an intoxicated passenger for control of the stick until a blow on the jaw stretched his assailant unconscious on the floor of the cabin. Anding was taking passengers aloft for five minute flights at $1 a trip. Two women and three men boarded the plane and he took off.

He said when he was at an altitude of 1,000 feet one of the men left his seat and coming to the pilot's place demanded to be permitted to fly the plane. Anding ordered him back to his seat whereupon the passenger attempted to wrest the control stick from his grasp. The plane dipped and wobbled dangerously as Anding and the passenger fought for possession of the stick while the two women screamed hysterically. Holding between his knees, Anding battled the passenger, finally edging the affair with a blow that knocked him out.

The pilot landed at once and ejected the disturber, who threw rocks at the plane until he was taken in charge by a policeman. The pilot refused to lay charges against the man and he was released without police learning his name.

Launch Campaign Against Foreign Element In China

Amoy, China, May 12.—(AP)—Chinese Communists of southwest Fukien province today launched a propaganda campaign against foreigners in China. The Reds accuse the United States, Great Britain and Japan of interfering with China's domestic politics and of supporting various Chinese factions against others to gain privileges and extend their influence. The Communists charged that the foreigners sought to extend the spheres of their influence throughout China. The official publication of the local Communist organization contained a sharp foreign editorial accusing Great Britain and the United States of supporting Fene Yu-Hsiang and Yen Shi-Shan, northwestern China allies, against the Nationalist government and the Kuomintang "in order to increase their influence and obtain trade privileges in northern China."

League Of Nations Accepts Resignation Of Chas. E. Hughes

Geneva, May 12.—(AP)—The resignation of Charles Evans Hughes from the permanent court for international justice today was accepted by the council of the League of Nations as its first important act after assembling under the presidency of Marinkovitch, Yugoslavian foreign minister. The council voted to hold a special election at the next assembly in September to elect a successor to Mr. Hughes. Dr. Julius Curtius, German foreign minister, sat in the council for the first time. The president of the council instructed the secretary-general to convey to Mr. Hughes the council's gratitude for the services which he rendered on the world court. Charles Evans Hughes resigned from the court when he was appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme court at Washington. After Mr. Hughes' resignation was accepted the German delegate offered his report on the recent conference for concerted economic action—at first called the "tariff

Karpen reclining chair. New luxury! New comfort! Just lie back at the most restful angle. An exclusive Karpen origination.

FEATURE VALUES OF KARPEN'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY

There is cause for celebrating! It's Karpen's 50th Anniversary. You get the benefit of their Golden Jubilee in these offerings—in style, in comfort, in craftsmanship, in value. Each is a proud achievement to the very last hidden detail—Sanafied hair and cotton fillings, finest web construction, the best springs securely hand tied, all seasoned hardwood frames. See these feature values and many others now on our sales floors. See them while selections are complete.

Some hostess is going to take new pride in entertaining. Her home will express her own exquisite taste. She will choose this Karpen group for her living room.

Almost every home needs more chairs. Graceful chairs such as this one, to pull up to a bridge table, or to the radio, without disarranging the larger pieces.

There is a new freedom in interior decoration. Either suites or related groups of harmonizing designs and fabrics may be used. Whichever is your choice the result will be pleasing if the furniture is by Karpen.
