BYRD REACHES CANAL ZONE ON RETURN TO U.S.

Explorer Given a Rousing Welcome as Ship Steams Into Harbor Today

Balboa, Canal Zone, May 14.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, homeward bound from his South Polar expedition, arrived at Balboa at 9:31 o'clock this morning. The rear admiral and his small group of companions who had remained at Dunedin, New Zealand, longest, came into port aboard the liner Rangitiki to an enthusiastic welcome by the people of the Canal Zone.

The famous explorer who is now enroute to the United States from his historic airplane flight over the South Pole probably will remain in the Canal Zone about two weeks or a little longer assembling his comrades so that all may return to New York to receive the American Nation's accolade together.

Those aboard the Rangitiki with the rear admiral were Russell Owen, New York Times correspondent; Lloyd Berkner, Charles E. Loggren, William C. Haines and Richard Kontner.

The Rangitiki arrived in Balboa harbor an hour and a half after she had been expected. While proceeding up the harbor the rear admiral posed for pictures aboard ship as he conversed with friends who went out in small boats to greet him.

It was not the explorer still in his rough clothes who landed at Dunedin that greeted Balboa today. He was attired instead in his white admiral's uniform.

As the ship came into port airplanes attached to the United States navy and the Isthmian Airways circled his ship in hearty greeting.

After posing for the camera men and greetings friends, the admiral had breakfast with his friend Captain Hilton H. Riley.

The rear admiral's arrival here today was the first time that he had set foot on American territory since his departure on his great adventure a year and a half ago.

Talking to newspaper men in the smoking room of the Rangitiki, Rear Admiral Byrd said he had no immediate plans for the future except to compile scientific data of the expedition which "will take a tremendous long time."

"The expedition was most successful in scientific explorations," he said. "I am mighty glad to come here and will go on the morning of the nineteenth for a stay in the interior." He planned to fly to the island of Boquete near the seashore in a commercial plane for a short visit.

Balboa, Canal Zone, May 14.—(AP)—As may officials and citizens as could crowd into welcoming boats early today put out to sea to escort into port Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd and his associates of the historic South Pole expedition.

It was the Canal Zone's greatest day since the opening of the inter-oceanic waterway. When Admiral Byrd, Russell Owen, of the New York Times, and the other heroes of Antarctica set foot on the soil of the western world this forenoon for the first time since October 10, 1928, they were to be greeted with all the enthusiasm ever accorded a conqueror of the world's dark spaces.

The Byrd arrival was timed for 6 A. M. today. The end of the 20-day voyage of the liner Rangitiki from New Zealand ended tardily. But this in no sense dimmed the brilliancy of the reception.

Following today's ceremonies the Byrd party will be confronted by many other during the two weeks they will remain in the Canal Zone assembling the entire personnel of the South Pole expedition and gathering together all of their materials, records and paraphernalia. When all of this has been done they will steam for New York to be received into the arms and hearts of a waiting nation of admirers.

BEGIN SUITS AGAINST FORD MOTOR WORKS

Curtis Assets Sued Company For Infringements on Aircraft Patents

New York, May 14.—(AP)Officials of the Curtis Assets corporation announced today that patent infringement suits have been filed against the Ford Motor company and the Waco Aircraft company.

They said the action against the Ford company has been brought in the District Court of Delaware and that against the Waco company in the Court of the Southern district of Ohio.

The defendant companies are accused of pirating a number of patents owned by the Curtis Assets corporation and licensed for use by other aircraft manufacturers under the amended crosslicense agreement of the Manufacturers' Aircraft association. Neither the Ford nor the Waco company are members of the association.

In both cases the petition asks a writ of subpoena compelling the defendants to come into court to answer the allegations. It also asks a temporary injunction restraining manufacture, use, or sale of aircraft embodying devices covered by the patents enumerated and an accounting and damages and any other relief the court may deem advisable.

The Curtis officials explained that no great sums are involved as the license fee charged for use of the patents does not exceed 2 per cent of the cost of manufacture of the planes. In the case of the Ford tri-motored transport planes this was estimated at $200 per plane and in the case of the Waco company which manufactures small two and three place planes at $40 per plane.

The outstanding infringements by the Ford company, Curtis officials said, were a pontoon used on seaplanes, a tail skid and landing gear patent and a patent on a throttle control for multi-motored planes.

Columbus Deputy Dies From Wounds Received Last Dec.

Lumberton, May 14.—(AP)—Pistol wounds inflicted more than four months ago by four men who attacked him after a raid on a whiskey still, today had proved fatal to Deputy Sheriff Hoke B. Smith, of Whiteville, Columbus county.

Deputy Smith died last yesterday in a Lumberton hospital, where he had been a patient since the attack. On the night of December 31, the officer was called from his home by four men. Smith said three of them held him while a fourth fired a pistol at him. Smith apparently was on the way to recovery until toxemia developed, causing death.

Three men, Woodell Millican, Buford Floyd and Sam Thompson, are being held in the Columbus county jail at Whiteville in connection with the attack. Pope Floyd, who also was arrested, is under $500 bond. A fifth suspect, Sealy Hill, is serving a term on the roads for attempting to break jail.

Smith had raided a still the morning of December 31. His assailants are believed to have been connected with it.

Stimson and Adams Give Senate Committee Glimpse of Proceedings Between United States and Various World Powers

Washington, May 14.—(AP)—In twin committee hearings two of President Hoover's cabinet members defended today against Senatorial attack the British-American-Japanese naval treaty they signed at London.

Secretary Stimson, under a driving succession of questions by John son of California, told the foreign relations committee that the nebulous American proposal for a "trading point" at London; that the cruiser settlement was the best obtainable; and that its official records of most of the negotiations were kept because none were necessary.

Simultaneously Secretary Adams, of the navy, also a London delegate, upheld the treaty section by section against an assertion by Chairman Hale of the naval committee that the American delegation modified "radically" American naval policy. Walsh of Massachusetts, seconded Hale in questioning various treaty provisions.

Both secretaries emphasized the difficulties facing the London conference, and insisted the United States got all that was humanly possible out of the negotiations.

"You can't blame the delegation for not handing you party right hot off the griddle," said Stimson. "When we started with only two cruisers. All we could do was lay the framework for future equality."

The treaty represents a fair settlement," said Adams. "The old road of competitive building has nothing better to offer."

Committee members wanted to know more not only about various controverted sections of the pending treaty, but how those sections were negotiated.

Senator Johnson, Republican, started the questioning. He asked if minutes of the American delegation meetings were kept.

"None," said Stimson. "Are there any records at all of the attitude of the individual members?"

"No records were kept because there was no division of Opinion among the delegates."

Johnson asked about the general conference session. Stimson showed the printed record of the public meetings.

Records were kept, Stimson said, of the meetings of heads of delegations relating to procedure, but these were not made public.

"The negotiations were all informal among selected representatives of the delegations, and no records were kept of these," he continued. "Whenever one of our delegates met with one of another country on negotiations, he would keep a sort of diary record."

"Are these records in the state department?" asked Johnson. "No, mine is in the form of a diary which I worked up on the ship coming back. I know of nothing in them that would not be available to this committee, but they certainly are not for publication."

Johnson asked if Stimson thought this country should build up its full strength under the treaty.

"That is a question for the budget bureau," said the secretary. Johnson remarked he had heard that the British battleships Rodney and Nelson alone "could wipe out the whole American fleet."

M'BRIDE TO BE HEARD AGAIN NEXT TUESDAY

Agrees With Fort That Liquor Can Be Made In the Home Within the Law

Washington, May 14.—(AP)—Further questioning of F. Scott McBride, of the Anti-Saloon League, on his testimony that Representative Fort of New Jersey was "probably right" in saying that liquor could be made legally in homes is in prospect when McBride takes the stand again before the Senate lobby committee next Tuesday.

Fort, a dry, said in a House speech that he though beer and wines could be made in the home, under certain conditions, without violating the law.

McBride testified to the lobby committee yesterday that he was of the opinion "it was a 'pretty good speech'" and added the dry law was not "100 percent perfect yet."

The Anti-Saloon League superintendent, however, said he was surprised to hear of Fort's reported intention of entering the New Jersey Republican Senatorial primary.

Other candidates include Dwight Morrow, Mexican ambassador, and former Senator Frelinghuysen, who is running on a wet platform.

Morrow has not announced his stand on prohibition but in the event that he proposes modification of the Volstead laws, Fort is contemplating entering the contest as a dry.

McBride added that if the announced intention of the New Jersey Anti-Saloon League to have a dry in the race "got in Dwight Morrow's way it wasn't our fault."

Urges Commissioners To Dissolve Tax Injunctions In The Various Counties

Charles M. Johnson, Advisory Secretary of County Government Commission, Says Injunctions Discriminates Against Taxpayers Who Have Paid

Raleigh, May 14.—(AP)—County Board of Commissioners should take steps immediately where injunctions have been obtained to postpone sale of land for taxes to have the injunctions dissolved as such actions discriminate against taxpayers who have already paid.

Charles M. Johnson, executive secretary of the county government advisory commission, said today.

Mr. Johnson gave a letter to the press which he had written to A. E. Rabberry, sheriff of Green County, in reply to a query as to the penalty on unpaid taxes. Mr. Johnson pointed out that no penalty applies after the first Monday in June.

SEEKS TO END MONOPOLY BY RADIO MAKERS

Department of Justice Begins Action Against Ten Leading Manufacturers

Washington, May 14.—(AP)—Publication by the department of justice of its petition against radio interests filed in the Delaware courts revealed today it had asked that the ten leading radio manufacturers be enjoined from continuing "monopolization" of interstate commerce.

The suit, filed yesterday in Wilmington, charged conspiracy in restraint of trade. The 20 page document reviewed the growth of the associated radio companies involved from 1919, naming the Radio Corporation of America, the General Electric company, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., the Western Electric and Westinghouse companies as "primary defendants" and five other affiliated concerns as aids in carrying out the alleged conspiracy.

The petition asked that the contracts and agreements between the companies be voided and that the defendants "be perpetually enjoined from entering into similar contracts."

The government charged that the companies had perfected a combination of all radio patents and forced competitors to accept licenses at their terms. The suit asked that the defendants be restrained from purchasing capital stock in the Radio Corporation or any of its subsidiaries and that the General Electric company and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company be directed to dispose of all stock in the Radio Corporation.

The corporation in turn would be directed under the suit to divest itself of any property, facilities or assets acquired from the General Electric or Westinghouse companies.

Woman Murderer To Be Released From Jail May 31

Raleigh, May 14.—(AP)—State's prison board has fixed May 31 as the date of freedom of Ida Bell Warren, the State's best known prisoner.

Mrs. Warren was found guilty of murdering her husband in 1915. She was convicted of the crime along with Sam P. Christy. Both were ordered electrocuted but that sentence was changed to life imprisonment. Then the sentences were reduced to 30 years.

Governor Gardner, this year reduced the woman's term to 20 years with time off for good behavior. Christy will serve his 30-year sentence.

Youth Set Free After Shooting Father to Death

Lewistown, Mont., May 14.—(AP)—Firman P. Housel, appeared sullen at breakfast.

After the meal he began abusing his wife and nine children, culminating his tirade by striking a daughter in the face and hitting Mrs. Housel with a stool.

A rifle stood against a wall. Herschel Housel, 17, son, raced his father to the weapon. The youth, reached it first, leveled the gun, and shot and killed the parent.

A coroner's jury yesterday exonerated the youth after three minutes deliberation.

There was no penalty for the period after the first Monday in June until the sale was held, since the certificates draw interest from the date they are issued and the penalty as provided does not extend beyond the month of May.

"For this reason if for no other, I think that the commissioners should take steps to have the injunction dissolved; because certainly, if the taxes are not collected, they will have to borrow money and pay interest on it, while the people who have not paid taxes will not pay any penalty during the period the injunction is in effect. This, of course, is unfair to the people who have paid their taxes and they will be taxed again next year to pay the interest charges on borrowed money."

New Library Building To Be One Of Most Handsome Structures In Carolinas

Sheppard Memorial Library Expected to Be Completed Within Next Two Months; Work Making Rapid Progress At This Time

Work in connection with erection of the Sheppard Memorial Library on Evans street has been making splendid progress the last several days, and the building is beginning to assume definite form at this time, affording hundreds of passersby a slight idea of what it will look like when finally completed.

Barring unexpected delays, the structure more than likely will be completed within a period of two months. The outside walls have already been raised, and workmen were busy today putting on the roof and laying brick on the portico and a section of the iron of the building.

The structure when completed will be one of the most handsome in this part of the state. It is the gift of Mr. Harver D. Sheppard, of Hanover, Pennsylvania, and a memorial to his father, a native of Pitt county. The building will cost $50,000 and Mr. Sheppard sometime ago informed members of the building committee that he would give an additional $10,000 for furnishings. This will make the building and furnishings cost a total sum of $60,000.

It was stated today that Mr. Sheppard would visit the city sometime in the near future to inspect the building. He intended coming several days ago, but decided to wait until construction work has made more progress. He has been keeping in intimate touch with plans of the building committee, headed by Dr. R. L. Carr, who is giving his personal attention to all details in connection with erection of the beautiful structure, and has been greatly impressed with what has been done.

The building will not only be a library but will also have certain community features that will make it of greater value to the city. It will be spacious enough to serve the city for many years to come, and this is especially so of the section set aside strictly for the library where the stack room along will have a capacity of 48,000 volumes.

The library will be operated by the city, the site having been donated by the municipality to the library commission after the city had received the lot as a gift from the City School Board. Machinery for operation of the library will be set in motion in the near future and all features in connection with its operation will be settled by the time the building is completed.

Although definite arrangements have not yet been made, it was stated that a reception would be staged when the library moves into its new home. This will afford the public an opportunity of looking over the building and actually seeing the high type of service it is capable of rendering the community.

To the youth of the city it is possible the basement of the new building will hold more interest than any other section, in that a room by J. W. Hudson, Raleigh contractor, and L. N. Boney of Wilmington, boys' activities. Youth of the city is the architect.

Starts Race to New York on Bull

Hartlingen, Tex., May 14.—(AP)—Riding a large black bull, Ralph Sanders expected today to leave for New York City thus inaugurating a race with Benson Stack, who proposes to depart in 30 days driving a goat and a jackass.

Stack is wagering he will reach New York first, despite the 30 day start allowed his rival.

may hold various kinds of meetings here, and make it a regular community meeting place if they so desire. In the basement are also the boiler room, receiving and refuse rooms. The boiler, an oil-burner, has already been installed. It is one of the most modern type and provides for the regulation of heat to any section of the building.

The library proper will be located in the center of the first floor. Entrance will be made from a portico through a vestibule and into the main library room. In the vestibule will be a stairway leading to the second floor. There will be also an alcove for hat and coat racks. Around each side of the main library room will be book cases where many of the outstanding volumes of the library will be on display. The librarian will sit at the rear of the room and from this vantage point she will be afforded a view of the entire front of the building. A well overhead also will afford a view of the second floor.

On the left is a room that will be devoted to the children of the city. It will be used as a story-telling room. On the right will be an adult reading room. Spacious fireplaces are built in at each end of these rooms, and this feature will give each of the rooms an exceptionally cozy setting.

To the rear of the library proper will be found the stack room, affording space for approximately 48,000 volumes. This room will contain metal book cases, in this section will be the librarian's office and work room, where books will be received and prepared for use.

To the right of the stack room will be five small rooms or alcoves, set aside for those desiring to look up some reference work in privacy. Tables and chairs will be in each of these rooms, and persons desiring to work undisturbed will find that they can do it here.

On the second floor will be a children's auditorium with stage where small plays may be given, or where the children may gather for various kinds of entertainment. On the right will be the historical room where relics and historical records of the county will be preserved. There will also be a lecture room in this part of the building where small groups may meet for the discussion of business or social matters. The community room will afford seating capacity for 150 people. The building is of Colonial design and is being constructed of steel, brick and marble. Four fluted stone columns will be used on the portico. They will be 26 feet high. Seven marble steps will afford an approach to the portico, an iron railing will be used as an enclosure.

The building is being constructed by J. W. Hudson, Raleigh contractor, and L. N. Boney of Wilmington, boys' activities. Youth of the city is the architect.

URGES STAND AGAINST MAN MADE BELIEFS

Memphis Minister Delivers Annual Sermon Before Southern Baptist Meeting

New Orleans, La., May 14.—(AP)—Baptist must sacrifice their "pleasing doctrines and easy living and take a stand against those who through scholarly attainment place a man-made interpretation upon the Bible," if the denomination is to become a greater force for world evangelism, Dr. Robert G. Lee, of Memphis, Tenn., declared here today in preaching the annual sermon before the Southern Baptist Convention.

"Present day Christianity," Dr. Lee said, "is suffering from self-indulgence, love of pleasure and popularity, pride in numbers and organization and has lost much of its potency because Baptists are unwilling to pay the price of sacrifice."

Baptist, he said, "must go back to preaching the fundamental doctrines of sin, eternal punishment in hell, and faith in the sacrificial death of a miraculously conceived Christ as the only remedy for sin."

"We must do more than maintain great organizations and project world wide plans. Nothing is won without sacrifice, nothing held without blood. Having big conventions, brooding on blunders musing big numbers, having only abstract recognition of the claims of Jesus will not suffice, but laying down our lives will. Any cheaper progress is doomed to failure."

"So long as Southern Baptists have a position for the salvation of sinners everywhere," declared Dr. Lee, "there is little danger of our drifting into materialism, of frittering away our energies in the ethical development of the world."

"But if we give up our positions as an evangelistic storm center and court riches, fashion, the friendship of self-elected scholars with bloodless spectacles, the approval of religious bodies with spiritual latitudes, wide as the Sahara desert and correspondingly dry, we are great-ly."

"Our Baptist fathers, fearing not the wrath of man I nite conscious ness of God's presence, believing that all people have a right to approach God without any ecclesiastical or state interference, wrote history in blood before they wrote it in ink. Shall we write history in ink only?"

"The world speaks in desperate need to us," he said. "Shall we claim fellowship with and give obedient ear to men who, bearing the authority of a self-elected scholar ship, substitute a 'thus saith the Lord'—men who are no virgin birth in Bethlehem, who read no deeper meaning in the cross than a 'heroic martyrdom, who cannot find in Josenh's garden an empty tomb?"

"What hope have we?" he asked. "If, absorbed in the delights of scholarship, we let the fires go out on evangelistic altars?"

ATTEND MEETING OF FEDERATED CLUBS

Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. W. I. Wooten, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, Mrs. J. L. Fleming, Mrs. Dall Laughinghouse, Mrs. W. L. Harrington, Mrs. Person Nicholson, Mrs. C. T. Reid, Mrs. George F. Hadley, Miss Jessie Moyer and Miss Clara Moyer left today for Pinehurst to attend a meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Round Table Club Meets

A study of the short story has been completed at the two recent meetings of the Round Table club. On May 6 the club met at the home of Mrs. Wiley Brown. A gracious welcome from the hostess and baskets of flowers all through the house gave the meeting a very pleasant tone, which lasted throughout the whole afternoon.

The program called for a paper by Mrs. J. R. Moyer on the development of the short story. Mrs. Moyer had invited Miss Burrus of the English department of East Carolina Teachers College, to give this study for her. Miss Burrus gave a very pleasing history of the short story from the simple narrative of the cave man on through to our finished literary productions of Washington Irving.

On May 13, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. C. T. Munford continued this line of study. Referring to the splendid background set by Miss Burrus, she read three short stories, each a different type; first, the O'Henry Memorial Award prize story for 1929; "The Big Blonde" by Dorothy Parker, and then the "Closed Blind," by Quiller-Couch, which critics call a perfect short story. Our study of this form of literature is complete without a consideration of O'Henry. Mrs. Munford read next his story, "The Whirligig of Life." Mrs. Munford's careful selection of illustrative material showed the use of much time and thought. The members thoroughly enjoyed this study.

Mrs. W. L. Hall sang a group of songs, closing with "Mighty Lak a Rose." The piano accompaniment by Mrs. Travis Hooker added much to this part of the program. The club has enjoyed several special features during the year but none more than this one.

The social hour was spent in Mrs. Smith's garden. The hostess, assisted by Miss Martha Tyson and Mrs. Earl Helen, served a salad course with iced tea. After much urging by friends Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Smith each gave a few of her own poems. To Round Table members there were very much better than anything in the books. In this lovely garden with its shrubbery, rustic seats, rock steps and lily ponds, the club closed its work for the spring.

The Scouts were organized into patrols and learned by doing. They were instructed in patrol leadership, camping and cooking.

HONOR MRS. WILSON ON HER 86TH BIRTHDAY

Grimesland, May 14.—On Monday afternoon, May 12, the many friends and relatives gathered to give to Mrs. Julia H. Wilson of Grimesland, a surprise birthday party on her 86th birthday.

Relative and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wilson and from there went in a body to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson. The group was led by little Miss Dorothy Wilson, with a large basket of flowers. Little Miss Minnie Tucker Wilson followed, carrying a huge birthday cake with the numerals 86 marked with rose candles. She presented the cake to her grandmother in a very graceful manner.

After them came over forty friends from Washington and Grimesland, who bestowed on her their many gifts and congratulations.

The gifts were opened and cards read by her sister, Mrs. O. B. Carmait, assisted by Miss Annie Thomas Archbell of Washington.

After this the guests were invited to the dining room which was artistically decorated with cut flowers, carrying out the color scheme of rose and white. Placed by each napkin was a favor which was a flower tied with a bow of rose ribbon. Cake and cream was served to the guests by her granddaughters. Her friends then departed, each wishing her many more happy birthdays.

MENACE RATHER THAN A BOAST.

The fact that most of the American cities of the 100,000 class have registered large gains in population in the last ten years, has naturally caused self-gratulation as well as of exultation, but through this there runs a minor note of pertinent warning.

The answer is that these large cities have received an unduly large share of the people from the surrounding country, people who would be better off, in many cases, if they had foregone the temptation of "moving to town."

One of the sharpest contrasts at present between North Carolina and most other Southern States is to be found in its large number of substantial small communities. And again, there is a much higher percentage of well-kept and cared for farms here in North Carolina than in neighboring States, with possibly one exception.

For scores of miles on one of the main highways approaching the city of Birmingham, Ala., there is hardly a prosperous farm home to be seen; many farms seem deserted. The same situation exists in the region round about Atlanta. These big Southern communities have practically drained the life out of the surrounding country.

ABOUT TOWN

The reported theft of tobacco plants from farmers of this section is a serious matter and the officers should do everything in their power to bring the robbers to justice.

Plants are scarce in Pitt county, and the farmer who is fortunate enough to have any doesn't want them stolen. He seems perfectly justified in guarding his beds with shotguns. It is a means of protection to which most any person would resort when they find some one trying to take their only source of livelihood.

Merchants of Greenville, it has been announced by the Merchants Association, plan to give away prizes during the one hundred hour endurance automobile drive to be made in this city next week by Hap Roberts and his brother.

Prizes will be awarded to persons guessing nearest to the number of miles driven by Roberts during different intervals of the test, and a grand prize will be awarded for the best guess of the total number of miles covered during the entire trip.

This will be the principal feature of one of the greatest trade events ever conducted in Greenville, and hundreds of people are expected to visit the city during the week to see the sensational drive and to inspect the countless bargains which the merchants have to offer.

Hap Roberts holds the world's record for the longest endurance drive ever made in this country, and his coming to Greenville is being greeted with no little interest upon all sides. The public would do well to fix the date firmly in mind and be one of the thousands to witness the exhibition.

People who have children to enter school next fall should not fail to have them examined for any physical imperfection during the hot summer months. Clinics were conducted at the various schools of the city this week to examine children and advise the parents what to do to get them in good physical trim for school life.

The County Health department has advised the giving of diphtheria toxin-antitoxin to safeguard the child against an attack of this dread disease. These treatments may be obtained at the Public Health Department or from the family physician, and the parents would do well to see that their children are properly protected in this way before they begin their strenuous duties in school.

With the number of candidates in the field for the various offices of the county, it really looks like the coming primary is going to be an interesting one for Pitt county people.

The race for the Legislature is probably one of the most pronounced in years, especially for the House of Representatives, and there is some real field work going on at this time as the half dozen or more candidates for this office attempt to lineup their constituents for battle.

But the real interest should not center particularly in the primary but in the November election when the Democratic party will vie with the Republican to see which will be the successful contestant at the polls.

The fight actually centers in November, the real testing time, and those who are working so hard at this time should keep this fact in mind and save some of their reserve power for the final struggle.

Talk of tax reduction is probably not as accentuated in Greenville at this time as it once was, but this does not mean that the citizenship is not just as anxious for relief as it ever was.

Everybody realizes that the time has come to relieve the landowners of some of their burden, and they have carried their battle to the county commissioners in the form of resolutions asking for economy in operation of government.

The real fight, however, will come at the next session of the Legislature when the solons will be asked to provide legislation to further relieve the condition. There will be many suggestions for relief presented, and out of them all will come something by which the burden of the landowner will be materially decreased.

This is a fight in which the best interests of the entire state is centered and there will be no let up in the battle until desired relief has been obtained.

Unintentional Suicide

Many people are slowly poisoning themselves just as surely as if they drank iodine every morning for breakfast. They are daily absorbing the toxins, or poisons, created by accumulated waste matter in their congested digestive systems.

If you have dizzy spells, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, insomnia, no appetite, bilious attacks or pains in the back and limbs, you are probably suffering from self poisoning caused by constipation. The surest and pleasantest relief for this condition is Herbine, the vegetable cathartic which acts in the natural way. Get a bottle today from B. S. Warren, Druggist.

BILLY BROWN HERO OF BALL GAME ON HILL

Billy Brown, Greenville young man, who is a student at the University of North Carolina, forged into the limelight in the realm of sports in yesterday's baseball game between the University and Davidson.

Brown, who plays first base, was the real hero of the game, according to reports received here. He drove a long homer into center with the bases loaded in the fifth inning to put the game on ice and enable his teammates to walk away with a 8 to 3 victory over the Wildcats.

Brown's home run, which went through center field gate, won for him a 17-jewel wrist watch offered by a Greensboro firm for the longest hit of the day.

Young Brown is a son of the late Dr. Zeno Brown and is a senior at Chapel Hill. He will enter the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Va., next fall to study for the ministry.

Billy is one of the most popular members of the younger set of Greenville. He started his baseball career on the Greenville high school team establishing a record in this field that caused mentors to predict for him a bright future in college athletics.

U. N. C. Defeats Davidson Wildcats

Charlotte, May 14.—(AP)—The waning reign of Collegiate sports in North Carolina was evident yesterday when only one college athletic event of any importance was registered on the books.

The University of North Carolina baseball club laid the paddle to the Davidson Wildcats, still meowing over their shut-out win over Duke, by the count of 8 to 3, at Chapel Hill.

The Wildcats garnered eight hits but Longest, the Carolina flinger kept them scattered while his club was pounding out eleven safeties for eight tallies.

A youth named Coombs, nephew of the Duke baseball coach, Jack Coombs—held the Carolina Freshmen to three hits yesterday at Durham while his Duke Frosh brethren were circling the sacks for 15 runs off 12 hits.

In another collegiate diamond scrap yesterday, the Guilford Quakers, famed for rearing diamond stars, fell before the attack of the Bridgewater, Va., college club by a 9 to 5 count.

On the courts, the University of North Carolina tennis team lost to Tulane 4 to 2 at Tulane.

Today's collegiate athletic program looks like the side of Stone Mountain.

CLOSE RACE IS FORECAST IN NATIONAL

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.
The National League apparently is headed for one of the closest races in its long history, if the results of the first month of play can be taken as an indication of what will happen during the next four. The eight clubs have been playing almost a month now, and they are hardly further apart in the standing than they were after the first day or two.

The New York Giants still hold the lead with an average of .638 although they were defeated yesterday by the St. Louis Cardinals, but the Chicago Cubs are close behind and five other clubs are within striking distance of them. Pittsburgh, the seventh team in today's standing, has an average of .569, the same mark as held by the New York Yankees who are fourth in the American league.

While the Giants were losing a tough struggle to St. Louis yesterday by a 6 to 4 score, the Cubs' last-day through a big rally to beat out the Boston Braves, 9 to 8. Similar results today would leave Chicago only two points behind. The Brooklyn Robins and Cincinnati Reds, kept idle by rain, remained tied for third place with 12 victories and eleven defeats apiece and led the Phillies and St. Louis only by a few percentage points.

St. Louis ran its string of victories to seven by defeating the Giants yesterday but only after some difficulties. "Wee Willie" Stargel weakened in the sixth inning and put enough runs on base for a Giant victory. But a recruit, Jim Lindsey, appeared to hold the New Yorkers while the Cards came through with three successive dou-bles in the sixth to score the deciding runs. The Cubs rolled up an 8-0 lead on the Braves then lost it as Boston scored six runs in the sixth and two more in the eighth. Chicago finally came through with a single counter in the home half of the eighth to give Boston its seventh successive defeat.

Philadelphia pushed Pittsburgh's Pirates down into the second division with a steady hitting attack that brought a 14 to 8 victory. The Pirates did not get started until the ninth, when they scored four runs.

Cleveland and Washington finished the fireworks in the American league as the Indians opened a drive to take second place.

The first three innings saw all the scoring as Cleveland won, by an 11 to 6 score. The Indians made five runs in the first and six in the third before the chief pitchers, Harder and Moore stopped the slugging.

The Philadelphia Athletics strengthened their grip on first place by outslugging the Chicago White Sox for a 14 to 7 victory. This game also produced two big innings. The A's scored six runs in the sixth only to have Chicago come back with four in the seventh.

The New York Yankees reached the 500 mark for the first time this year and fashioned their longest winning streak by defeating the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 1, behind the pitching of Waite Hoyt. It was New York's fourth straight victory. Art Herring of Detroit and Jack Russell of Boston hurried another close game as Herring kept the Red Sox hits spread over nine innings while the Tigers bunched theirs for a 4 to 1 victory.

Yesterday's Stars

Mel Harder, Indians—Relieved Miller in third inning and held Senators to one hit in 6 2-6, innings, enabling Indians to whip Washington, 11-6.

Hack Wilson, Cubs—Hit ninth homer of season to help Cubs nose out Braves, 9-8.

Waite Hoyt, Yankees—Beat the Browns, 4-1, permitting only five hits.

Chuck Klein, Phillies—drove in four runs with single, double and eighth homer of season as Phils beat Pirates, 14-8.

Art Herring, Tigers—Kept Red Sox' hits scattered and beat them, 4-1.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, May 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 7 to 26 points in response to relative ease Liverpool cables and reports of rains in the asters belt.

A belief that droughty conditions east of the river had been relieved seemed to bring in considerable liquidation in new crop months, while July was also offered quite freely, selling off 16.25 during the early trading or about 19 points and lower. The new October contract declined to 14.27, making a net loss of 23 points, and the market was within a point or two of these figures at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said there had been local and continental liquidation together with Egyptian and selling on that market. Moderate sales of cotton cloths for the home trade and South America were reported in Manchester, but yard stocks were said to be becoming burdensome. Additional May notices representing about 9,100 bales were issued here this morning.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 14.—(AP)—The stock market continued to struggle forward rather feebly today, with professional operators turning their attention to the rails and leading industrials. Oils and some utilities which were urged upward yesterday, were permitted to lag until after midday, when renewed strength appeared. Trading was slightly more active than during the previous session, but the public remained apathetic.

The movement in the rails was aided by a more favorable weekly report of freight car loadings than has been received of late, although it held to the low levels of 1924. Reports of April railway net operating income will begin to appear shortly, and are expected to show little or no improvement over March, but Wall Street is hopeful that the downward movement has been arrested. Loadings as reported for the week ended May 3 totaled 942,899 cars, 35,725 more than the previous week, but 109,836 less than the like week of 1929.

The weekly steel trade reviews reported a further falling off in steel mill operations, and substantial price reductions, but it was reported in trade circles that large producers are determined to support prices at current levels. Iron Age stated that U. S. Steel is holding operations at 80 percent of capacity while the industry as a whole has slumped to 75 percent, against 77 last week. Iron Trade Review pointed out that prices for plates and shapes are now the lowest since 1915, having declined $4 a ton this year.

Capone Spends Night In Jail At Miami, Fla.

Miami, Fla., May 14.—(AP)—"Scarface Al" Capone slept on a jail cot last night, a prisoner for the second time since Miami authorities determined to cut short his stay here by arresting him on sight.

Seized while attending a boxing bout the harrassed gang leader was placed in jail at an hour when his attorneys found to be too late to locate a judge for a habeas corpus hearing.

When Capone first was arrested last Thursday on a technical charge of "investigation" Miami police described their tactics as an adoption of the "Chicago Plan" of picking up gangsters whenever they are seen on the city's streets. In detaining Capone overnight, however, the authorities here surpassed the success of the authors of the scheme for although Chicago police frequently questioned Capone his only jail experience was his ten months sentence in Pennsylvania for carrying concealed weapons.

Three companions were held with Capone. Nick Cirrella 31, and Albert Prignanon, 38, were arrested and released with him last week. The fourth man was Sylvester Aggolia, 35, who said he was a Chicago undertaker. Capone had $700 in cash when arrested and his companions carried smaller sums. Proceedings to padlock Capone's palatial Palm Island estate as a nuisance are pending in the state courts.

Sight of Missing Sister Enables Paralytic to Walk

Hamilton, Ont., May 14.—(AP)—Inspired by the sudden joy of meeting a sister he had not seen for 20 years, Charles Elgue, invalid from paralysis for more than a year, arose from his chair and walked across the room to meet her. The sister, Mrs. Alice Burton of Toronto, had believed her brother dead, although they were separated by less than forty miles. About 20 years ago, Mr. Elgue went west and lost trace of his kin. He returned here 11 years ago. Confined to his home a year ago with a spinal ailment, he communicated with Scotland Yard to inquire about his sister, whom he believed to be in England.

Chicago Students Protest Against Snooping, Routed

Chicago, May 14.—(AP)—University of Chicago students, holding a "protest meeting" against what they termed "drying snooping" at the University, were dispersed late last night by police riot squads and firemen.

Not until the officers fired their revolvers into the air did the students, numbering 500, abandon the fight which was waged in the glare of a huge bonfire on the university campus.

A police lieutenant was struck on the arm by a brick, and several students were slightly injured when policemen tore into the crowd with their night clubs. Coeds called encouragement to the students from vantage points in dormitory windows and parked automobiles. Cheer leaders ran to and fro, bolstering the student morale.

Several days ago some fraternity members were reported to have charged that watchmen hired by the University had been stopping students on the campus and patting their pockets in search of flasks.

Turner Fails to Beat Lindberghs' Time to N. York

Valley Stream, N. Y., May 14.—(AP)—The transcontinental speed record set by Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh still stood today despite the effort of Roscoe Turner and a lion cub to lower it. After contending with strong head winds and bad flying weather over much of his route from Los Angeles Turner was forced down at Curtiss Field here at 7:40 P. M. yesterday, out of fuel and one hour, 13 minutes and 33 seconds behind the record time of the Lindberghs who crossed the continent Easter Sunday in 14 hours, 23 minutes and 27 seconds.

Riding among the fuel tanks which almost filled the cabin of the monoplane was a lion cub with a specially constructed parachute strapped to its back. The plane was equipped with a motor of 525 horsepower, 100 more horsepower than the Lindbergh plane and its fuel consumption was about 20 percent greater.

Seek Reciprocity Agreement to End License Tag Fight

Greensboro, May 14.—(AP)—In hopes that a reciprocity agreement may be reached in the "license tag battle" between the two states, Coleman W. Roberts, general manager of the Carolina and South Carolina Motor Clubs, has asked officials of North and South Carolina to meet in Columbia, S. C., Friday.

At present operators of commercial motor vehicles who have business in both states are required to purchase a license tag from each state. The North Carolina Highway Commission contends its stand that operators of South Carolina vehicles in this state must have a North Carolina license was taken after South Carolina pursued such a policy with respect to North Carolina vehicles entering South Carolina.

FREE BOWLING FOR LADIES

Each day from 9:30 to 3:00 o'clock we reserve one alley for the exclusive use of ladies without charge. This free offer will continue for one week. Bowling is one of the most enjoyable of indoor sports. Visit our alleys and take a part in the game. Match games each evening in either duck or ten pins by the different teams already organized. Public is invited. Tonight Independents vs. Swift & Co., in ten pins. Game starts 8 o'clock.

THE 4-way cold KELVINATOR gives these Extra Services!

- Automatic Super-Fast Freezing—Iso-Thermic Tubes, an exclusive Kelvinator discovery, provide for the first time amazingly fast automatic freezing of ice cubes and desserts.
- Cold Storage Compartment—In de luxe models, a temperature always below freezing for storing fresh or frozen meats, fish, game and those new frozen delicacies you now find at many markets.
- Greatest Ice Capacity—De luxe models provide more ice, size for size, than any other refrigerator. A single freezing gives from 20 pounds in the smallest size to 34 pounds in the largest size.
- New Rubber Ice Tray—Made of flexible rubber that bends easily in the hands, releasing one or a dozen ice cubes instantly. Greatly increases usable ice yield.
- Kelvin Cooler—An accessory, useful in two ways: First, to freshen vegetables and keep them fresh; and second, as a water cooler. All-porcelain, inside and out, and fitted with faucet.
- Inside Electric Light—On de luxe Kelvinator models, an electric light illuminates the farthest corners of the refrigerator. Switch and light indicator on front of refrigerator.

In the same sense that the self-starter, electric lights and four-wheel brakes multiplied the service afforded by the motor car—so Kelvinator's extra features multiply the service given by electric refrigeration in the home. These extra services are highly desirable. No one would want to try to get along without them. Once you fully realize the merit of these extra services, you will prefer Kelvinator's 4-Way Cold and multiple services in home refrigeration.
