

WAR MOTHERS TAKE PART IN MEMORIAL DAY

Dignitaries Speak At Various Exercises Held Throughout France Today

Paris, May 30.—(AP)—American Gold Star Mothers in France for visits at the graves of sons who died in the world war gave an impressive background today for the most extensive observance of Memorial Day yet held abroad.

Troops fired volleys in salute of the dead at the American cemeteries throughout France. Taps were sounded and dignitaries spoke. But the feature of the day was the trips before and after the ceremonies by the war mothers to the graves of those they lost more than eleven years ago.

At Suresnes Cemetery, outside of Paris, Ambassador Edge made the principal address, referring to them as those "who had given those who were dearest to them that others might live in the full enjoyment of their lives."

"You mothers instilled into these young men the principles for which they laid down their lives," he said. "You taught them the fundamentals of loyalty, courage, truth and vision. You with the fortitude which mothers throughout the ages have mustered, held your heads high as you bade them good-bye."

The identical service held on Memorial Day, 1918, when the enemy was hammering at the gates of Paris, was held at 10:30 at the American Pro-Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, Dean the Very Reverend Frederick W. Beeckman, officiating.

There was no sermon. The color guard of the Paris Post No. 1 of the American Legion attended the service and the colors of the American Women's Overseas League, now holding its national convention here, were displayed.

At 11 o'clock ceremonies were held in the five great cemeteries of Paris.

At Meulan Wood, Past Commander Julian M. Thomas was chairman while Gold Star Mothers and American Legion men, decorated the 276 graves with wreaths of poppies, American and French flags.

Col. William N. Taylor, president of the American Chamber of Commerce in Paris, was the principal speaker at the St. Mihiel cemetery ceremony, presided over by Mr. Stephen S. Szapka, of Paris Post No. 1. Four thousand one hundred and fifty two soldiers are buried here.

Romagne-Sous-Montfaucon, the largest American graveyard in France, where 14,184 doughboys rest, former American Council General Alphonse Gaullin delivered the oration, Commander Albert B. Cucco presiding. The largest delegation of Gold Star Mothers were present here.

General William H. Johnson spoke at Bony in eulogy of the 1,300 American buried there.

At Serres-et-Nelles, past commander Benkenham H. Connor of the Department of France, stood in the center of the 6,012 American graves and spoke words of remembrance and condolence to the Gold Star mothers whose sons are buried here.

'Wet' Candidate Fails to File His Expense Account

Raleigh, May 30.—(AP)—T. L. Step, of All-goth county, lone "wet" Democratic candidate in the approaching senatorial campaign, did not file his expense statement required by law, today, and therefore was guilty of a misdemeanor. It had not been posted by midnight Wednesday night.

Failure to file a statement does not bar a candidate from the primary. Attorney General Dennis G. Drumright, said this morning, but such a failure constitutes a misdemeanor under the state law.

Expense statements have been received from almost all candidates required to file with the secretary of state, including statements from W. Bailey and F. M. Simmons, the Democratic candidates for United States Senator, and George T. Butler, George M. Pritchard H. Brady Dorsett and Irvin F. Tucker, republican senatorial candidates.

Paul Marshall, Mechanic, Dies As Car Smashes Into Retaining Wall; His Brother Seriously Hurt; Arnold Leading By Five Miles Margin At the 350 Mile Turn

Speedway, Indianapolis, May 30.—(AP)—With a record smashing crowd of 165,000 viewing the spectacle, Billy Arnold, carefree 23-year-old Chicagoan, was leading the 500-mile automobile race by a five-mile margin at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway today when the 350-mile mark was reached.

Arnold had reeled off 200 miles in 1:57:27.81, averaging 102.143 miles an hour. William "Shorty" Canton, of Detroit, was second, two and a half miles behind the speeding Arnold, and Louie Schneider, of Indianapolis, third.

Accidents and motor trouble had knocked seventeen of the original 38 cars out of the race at the end of the 200 miles.

Two major accidents tingled the nerves of the spectators watching the drivers in their death defying dash around the two and a half mile track. In one smash-up, six cars were in collision but the drivers all escaped death.

A car owned by Pete de Paolo one of the favorites but driven by Fred Roberts, of Danville, Ill., swerved and collided with a car piloted by Marion Brexler, of Indianapolis, four other cars crashed into them.

Cy Marshall, Indianapolis driver and his brother Paul, riding as mechanic were seriously injured when the speeding car crashed into the retaining wall on the treacherous corner turn, went completely over it and dropped 25 feet to the ground below.

Arnold had won $7,000 in lap prizes receiving $100 for each lap in which he led. He was leading the race from the start with exception of two laps.

At 250 miles, the halfway mark of the race, Arnold had a lead of five miles with Canton second, Schneider third and Ernie Triplett, Los Angeles, fourth, Arnold's time was 2:20:59.18, an average of 102.050 miles and hour. Arnold was setting a blistering pace when within a fraction of a second of equalling the record for the distance.

Paul Marshall, mechanic in the car which crashed into the wall and left the track, died of injuries at 12:20 P. M., according to word received at the track.

Cy Marshall, driver of the car, was reported to be suffering from a fractured skull. His condition was critical. The dead mechanic and the driver were brothers.

Arnold made his first stop at 278 miles, spending three minutes in the pits to take on fuel and change tires.

At 300 miles Arnold had a lead of five miles, with Canton second, Schneider third, and Triplett was fourth. Arnold covered the distance in 2:59:53.57, averaging 100.058 miles an hour.

The list of drivers announced as definitely out of the race at 300 miles were: Grover Shaw, Indianapolis; Peter De Paolo, Los Angeles; Jimmy Gleason, Philadelphia; "Babe" Stap, Los Angeles; Tony Gulotta, Kansas City; "Deacon" Litz, Dubois, Pa.; Loamoor, Los Angeles; Chester Gardner, Pittsburgh; Leslie Allen, Chicago; "Speed" Gardner, Philadelphia; Bacomi Barzanchi, Philadelphia; Rick Becker, Brendenwood, N. J.; Charles Moran, Jr., DuPont, N. Y.; Frank Farmer, Philadelphia; Joe Huff, Indianapolis; J. Marshall, Indianapolis; Johnny Seymour, Escanaba, Mich.; William Devery, Philadelphia.

Charges Husband With Defamation of Her Character

Hammon, La., May 30.—(AP)—The filing of a second divorce suit by Mrs. Isaac Starnes charging defamation of character became known today while her husband prepared to defend himself against charges arising from the tarring and feathering of Dr. S. L. Newsom, prominent dentist.

Starnes said he and his four brothers, who also are under indictment, tarred and feathered Dr. Newsom because of the dentist's attention to his wife. Mrs. Starnes and Dr. Newsom viruously denied the accusation.

Mrs. Starnes last December sued for divorce, but the matter was not pressed. Her latest suit was brought yesterday in the village of Centerville.

Measwell, attorneys for Dr. Newsom arranged a conference for Monday with a United States attorney to determine if Federal charges could be brought against the Starnes brothers on the ground that they conspired to deprive the dentist of his rights. The indictments naming the five were returned in the state courts.

Shortage Of Fuel Causes Big Zeppelin To Abandon Plans To Stop At Havana

The Graf Zeppelin will reach her American home port, at Lakehurst, N. J. sometime tomorrow morning on a direct line from the island of Porto Rico over which she was last reported at 5:40 A. M. today.

Dr. Hugo Eckner, in a radio message today made known that he would not stop at Havana, Cuba. Shortage of fuel due to a lightning-rips of the Graf's load at Pernambuco, Brazil where the dirigible was waterlogged, was believed by observers to have been the cause of the changed plan.

At dawn today the Graf was approximately 1,600 miles from Lakehurst. She was making 65 miles an hour on a straight northwesterly course, radio advices from San Juan, Porto Rico, stated.

Havana, May 30.—(AP)—Thousands of persons were disappointed today when it was learned that the Graf Zeppelin, bound for Lakehurst, N. J., from Pernambuco, Brazil probably would not make its scheduled stop in this city.

A message from Dr. Hugo Eckner, master of the Graf, to Louis Classing, general manager of the steamship company, said:

Ask For Emergency Fund To Relieve Suffering In Red River Flood Section

Alexandria, La., May 30.—(AP)—An emergency call for funds to relieve 10,000 to 15,000 persons driven from their homes by the Red River flood in Natchitoches, Red River and Grant Parishes of Louisiana was issued today by Dr. C. Cottingham, chairman of the Rapides chapter of the American Red Cross. Suffering was described in the marooned sections as acute.

The Red River situation today had developed into two determined fights. One was the fight of engineers and levee laborers to hold back the rising current of the river; the other the struggle by the Red Cross and other relief workers to provide for those in camps and highland communities where thousands are homeless from the flood have taken refuge.

The work on the levees was reported well in hand for the time being at least, but aid was needed by the relief squads in the shape of food and provisions for the refugees whose homes and farms lie under the Red river's muddy overflow.

Serious conditions were in prospect, relief workers said, unless adequate rations were provided immediately. An allotment of $12,000 released yesterday by the Red Cross was converted today as rapidly as possible into food for the men, women and children, who stood in direct need.

Patrols along the long line of the levee that has so far held, still were maintained. Warned by a government forecast that the present height of the turbulent Red-river will be raised by at least a foot, these patrols kept eyes carefully open for the always threatening "sand boll" that usually precedes a crevasse, and for the sloughing and caving of embankments that likewise go before breaks in the dikes.

HEAVY RAIN RELIEVES DRY SPELL IN PITT

Four Mules Killed by Freakish Lightning In Pactolus Community Last Night

An almost steady downpour of rain last night and early today brought relief to sections of Pitt county which have suffered so severely from dry weather during the last two months. The rain was said to have been accompanied by hail in the Ayden community. Griffon, a few miles below Ayden, reported no rainfall until this morning when a slight drizzle set in.

The rain was accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning, and this is believed to have been more accentuated in Pactolus township where lightning killed four mules on the farm of J. T. Moore. The barn in which the animals were confined was not damaged, and a cow confined in the same building escaped unharmed.

Mr. Moore said that although there were several terrific reports of thunder during the night there was no indication this morning of where the lightning had struck. The mules were in separate stalls and the owner found them dead this morning when he went out to the barn to feed up. Belief was expressed that the animals died from shock of the terrific electrical disturbance.

The rain began falling in Greenville about 9:30 and continued almost incessantly all through the night and early morning. The clouds were still laden at the noon hour holding threat of disturbing some of the activities planned in connection with the observance of Memorial day.

Planters expressed opinion that the precipitation would be worth thousands of dollars to the locality by reason of the relief which it has furnished withering plant life.

Farmers have been greatly handicapped in their planning during past weeks by the long period of dry weather, and young plants in many instances have not undergone the development they should have.

Reports received from Griffon this morning said that the rain failed to reach that section last night although the skies were overcast most of the evening. A slight drizzle set in this morning. The rainfall in Ayden was interspersed with hail for a few minutes, but it was not believed that the crops were damaged to any great extent.

SCORES WORK OF LOBBYISTS AT CAPITAL

Carraway Declares Lobbyists Simple Parasites Preying Upon the Public

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—An assertion that most Washington lobbyist are "simple parasites preying upon the public" was made today by Chairman Carraway of the Senate lobby committee in a review of the accomplishments of the committee's seven-months investigation.

As the life of the committee neared an end, Carraway told newspapermen that the vast majority of the lobbyists are simply taking advantage of the "simplicity or desires of individuals and groups away from Washington."

"They serve no useful purpose," he asserted, adding that if the investigation it will refrain from supporting "these utterly disreputable and selfish interests."

Carraway explained, however, that there were groups which were "honestly seeking to bring about helpful legislation or executive action," and he did not intend to reflect upon them.

"All agree," he said, "that every citizen has the right to present his views on any public matter to any branch of the government. To do so is not only a constitutional right but is a right that should be exercised."

"The investigation has given a fairly accurate picture of the leading groups who have infested Washington and sought to influence legislation and executive action for a number of years.

"In most cases it pretty clearly appeared that the chief concern of the lobbyists was to find credulous people and induce them to contribute the funds which were alleged to be accumulated for the purpose of accomplishing ends they professed to seek."

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—Today America honored its soldier dead.

From the broad fields of Arlington and Gettysburg to the obscure graveyards which dot the countryside, the tombs of those who fell in their nation's defense were set apart for special Memorial Day ceremonies and decoration.

The spirit of the anniversary was outlived at the site of the great civil war conflict in services reaching their culmination in an address by President Hoover.

The chief executive and a small party of friends made preparations for leaving early in the day by motor for the great national cemetery dedicated by Abraham Lincoln with his famous Gettysburg address.

Ceremonies here covered upon the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington. They were made especially notable by the presence of Sergeant Edward S. Younger, who nine years ago designated the unidentified doughboy that should become the unknown, by placing a wreath of roses upon one of four caskets in a small make-shift chapel at Chalons-Sur-Marne, France. It was arranged that Younger should place a similar wreath on the handsome marble slab beneath which the unknown rests.

Brief services at the tomb were arranged also by the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Veterans, with the annual ceremonies of the grand army of the Republic, Department of the Potomac, following shortly afterward in the Amphitheatre close by.

Two tombs of the National (Episcopal) Cathedral were marked also for special honors. They were those of Woodrow Wilson and Admiral George Dewey. A wreath from the White House was prepared together with one from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

The program included a parade of veterans in the downtown section of the city and services at the half dozen other cemeteries in the vicinity of Washington.

On his way to Gettysburg, President Hoover and his party planned to stop at Catactin Furnace, the fishing preserve of his Secretary, Lawrence R. Heby, for lunch and then proceed to Gettysburg arriving just before the scheduled hour of his address, 2:30.

The deceased was a member of the Grimesland Methodist church. She is survived by two sons, J. R. of Washington, and Sammy Godley, of Greenville.

NATION PAYS FINE TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD

Memorial Day Observed In Carolinas and Other Parts of the Country

The sound of marching feet and the blare of bands echoed down streets of many cities and towns of the Carolinas today as war veterans paraded in tribute to companions who had fallen in battle.

Graves of men who died in uniform, from 1776 to 1918, were made shrines to be decorated.

North Carolina's own Memorial Day was observed May 10 but in Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Salisbury Asheville and other towns of the state, the national Memorial Day was marked with fitting exercises.

A former secretary of the Navy, Joseph Daniels, of Raleigh was to speak at Charlotte tonight at patriotic services. Wreaths were to be laid on the graves of the war dead in a twilight service at Elmwood cemetery. Shriners of North Carolina, in session at Wilmington, joined in a parade sponsored by the American Legion.

The day was not without a holiday touch. Baseball clubs of the Piedmont and South Atlantic Leagues engaged in double headers aside their usual duties.

crooks.
The Merchants Association has put out considerable data in this connection and by carefully studying this information Greenville merchants should be able to prevent being fleeced.

The Reflector news service is several hours ahead of any other publication reaching the city, and the public desiring to keep abreast of the times cannot afford to be without the paper each afternoon.

One of the fastest leased wire news services of the day keeps this paper fully informed of all happenings in different parts of the world and they are presented to our hundreds of readers in an interesting way.

The same service applies to the local field and this should prove especially attractive to the former Greenville and Pitt county person living in some other community.

Another call to register interest in tax reduction. How shall we remain at home busy with our varied duties there, or shall we meet for further instruction as to our duties as citizens—citizens we are, whether we express our interest in governmental affairs or not.

The times are critical, never before have the people faced such a problem; are we, the small land owners, to retain our homes, or are we to see them pass into the hands of men who regard the country people as just so much White Trash?

SOLICITOR CLARK.

By Kid Homan
(Editor New Bern Times, in Article of April 12th, 1929.)
Dave "Red" Clark, State Solicitor
of this Judicial District, is an easy
subject to write about—he's absolutely on the level—four square, democratic, and a public servant
who's made his office synonymous with strict honest and earnest endeavor—you don't have to gloss
over vague periods in Dave's history
just to make good copy—there ain't any such periods—you simply let the history of any honest guy flow from your pen and some episode in Dave's life is bound to fit your story.

He's the scion of an illustrious family—his daddy, E. T. Clark, was well-known lawyer—his uncle, the illustrious Walter Clark, of Halifax,
graced the State Supreme Court bench for 28 years as a member,
and for at least a quarter of a century as Chief Justice. Justice Walter Clark died in 1924, and a whole state mourned the passing of one of its greatest men and characters.

Dave Clark's mother was Margaret Lillington, daughter of a well-known North Carolina family—Dave was born Sept. 21, 1886, as red-headed as a beacon light—he's 43 years old, and looks a lot less—reckon's there's a reason for his youthful appearance—he's one of those individuals who are clean morally, mentally, physically.

He was graduated from the high school at Weldon and entered State College to take up civil engineering
—and when he graduated he followed that profession for several years.

A hereditary penchant for law
urged him back to Wake Forest,
and in 1911, after a law course
there he was licensed and began practice at Greenville in 1912—he was young, but folks recognized energy and honest convictions, and he was elected to state legislature from Pitt County in 1913-14—he again served in the same capacity in 1917-18—he was the author of several important state-wide measures
while in the Legislature.

Although legislators were immune from war service, he resigned his seat in the House and volunteered in the army for the World War—
he reported to Washington and was sent to Camp Sherman at Chillico-thee, O.—after the Armistice was signed Dave Clark came back home to Greenville, and in the hot spring campaign of 1919 he was elected Mayor of Greenville, and again in 1921. In '22 he ran for State Solicitor and was defeated in the whole district by only 400 ballots—he was re-elected Mayor of Greenville and again in 1923 each of his mayoralty battles were marked by heavy fights
but he was the candidate of the people, and each time he ran his campaigns were marked by larger and ever increasing majorities.

In the strong campaign of 1926
he was elected Solicitor of this district and resigned as Mayor of Greenville—and Greenville, when it helped to elect him Solicitor, lost a doggone determined, yet absolutely impartial city official—it was Dave Clark who put Greenville's police on the map as one of the most efficient and capable in the whole State.

Dave's whole record is one to be proud of—this story is all too brief
—we'd thoroughly enjoy writing
Dave Clark's full biography—there'd be adventure, romance—an indomitable determination to be just and right—and then, more romance—he's a romantic devil, all right—he got married only six months ago—
but he displayed a lotta sense, at that—or maybe Lady Luck was one of his godmothers—because in waiting 'till he'd chartered his own pathway, he met Myrtle Brogden of Tennessee. Dave and Miss Brogden were married July 10, 1928.
She was Pitt County's supervisor of schools at the time of her marriage to Dave—she's charming, doggone pretty, talented and gifted with a whale of a lotta common sense—it's a good old world—and may the tribe of Clark ever increase.

REAL ACCIDENT
PREVENTION NEEDED

The automobile accident
record continues its upward trend. So important has this problem become that President Hoover recently called another conference to consider means for reducing fatalities.

One thing, at least, is clear
—the methods of the past have failed. Compulsory insurance, heralded as the long-awaited panacea, has not decreased accidents.
Traffic congestion on streets
and highways grows steadily more severe.

An authority on safety
says that the most important single step is the licensing law for drivers. Thousands of automobiles are being operated by incompetent or reckless persons, all of whom are potential killers
and destroyers of property.

Defective cars, turning in the middle of the road, cutting in, passing on curves,
failure to give turning signals, etc., are leading causes of accidents. Every state should have a driver's license law and a modernized, rigidly enforced traffic code.

ABOUT
TOWN

Today is Memorial Day and millions of people throughout the nation will go to the graves of World War veterans and mark their final resting place with flowers and flags.

It is a day when people in all walks of life will recall the great conflict where rivers of blood were shed in behalf of a greater civilization. It is a day when they will go to the graves of those men who paid the supreme sacrifice to renew their allegiance to the cause for which they fought and to perpetuate their valor and noble deeds.

Memorial Day should become of greater significance with the coming of each year, for it is only through recognition of the services of the fallen heroes will the nation
be able to express to their people
the appreciation of which they are so deserving.

These men we honor today paid
the price exacted by all wars—the price of death—but they have not died in vain. The cause for which they fought is stronger today than it has ever been before and it will become even more glorious as the children of coming generations recite the deeds of valor of their forefathers and attempt to pay tribute to them for the splendid service
which they rendered to civilization.

The merchants of Greenville have been warned to beware of check flashers and confidence men by information sent out through the Merchants Association. Numbers of business men have suffered as result of the activities of such crooks
during the last few months, and there is only one way of breaking up the practice and that is for each merchant to be on his guard and not accept checks except through reliable channels.

Hundreds of people are hunting easy money these days, and some of them are unscrupulous enough to attempt to get it through illegitimate sources. It is such persons the merchants must constantly be on his guard against, and the only way to get protection is to be correctly informed regarding the nature of the operations of such

Praises Admirals For Testimony On The Naval Treaty

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—A staunch defense of the high ranking naval officers who criticized the London treaty before Senate committees was embodied in a statement issued for publication today by Senator Johnson, Republican, California.

The Californian, himself an opponent of the pact, said the officers had "dared to tell the truth," had been "true to the highest traditions of the American navy and deserved from all Americans only commendation and praise."

He took upon himself the responsibility for the most of them before the Senate foreign relations committee and said they testified as witnesses in stating our national defense and the needs of our navy.

He took to task "some newspapers for brutally" assaulting these officers "because their testimony X X X X X has militated against the London treaty."

"These assaults, he termed 'unjustified and outrageous.'"

Committee hearings on the treaty are now concluded and the next step will be a vote by the foreign relations committee, which sponsors of the pact are certain will be overwhelming approval.

Bar Of Greene County Endorses Candidacy Of J. Paul Frizzelle For Judge Superior Court

At a meeting of the Bar of Greene County in Snow Hill the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

FIRST: We are glad to commend to the voters of the Fifth Judicial District of North Carolina the candidacy of Hon. J. Paul Frizzelle of Snow Hill, for Judge of the Superior Court.

SECOND: That we know that Paul Frizzelle is regarded by members of the Bar in East Carolina as a lawyer with outstanding ability and as being most richly endowed by nature and training with those high qualities of mind and heart which are necessary to the making of a good Superior Court Judge.

THIRD: That having been intimately associated with him since he began the practice of law in Snow Hill twenty-three years ago we believe that he possesses in a very high degree that admirable quality so necessary in a Superior Court Judge, commonly known as judicial temperament.

FOURTH: Thatasmuch as Greene County has never had a Superior Court Judge and Craven County has had the Judge for forty-one years out of the last sixty-two years, we appeal to the voters of the Fifth Judicial District to give Greene County just consideration this year and vote for our candidate for Superior Court Judge.

(This space contributed by Pitt County friends of Mr. Frizzelle.)

Lenoir County Bar Pays Tribute to Character and Ability of Hon. J. Paul Frizzelle, Candidate for Judge

WE members of the Lenoir County Bar, are personally acquainted with the ability of Hon. J. Paul Frizzelle as a lawyer and his experience and ability and his integrity as a Christian gentleman fit him to perform the duties of Superior Court Judge, efficiently, and in keeping with the fine traditions of the Superior Court Bench.

Why You Should Vote for J. Paul Frizzelle for Superior Court Judge

In announcing his candidacy for the Judgeship of the Fifth Judicial District, Mr. Frizzelle, said:

"After consulting many friends, and myself giving consideration to the subject, I am announcing I shall be a candidate for Resident Judge of the Superior Court in the Fifth District, subject to the action of the Democratic voters in the primary election. My fellow citizens to whom I shall submit my candidacy have a right to know my conception of the office to which I aspire and my reasons for the hope that I may meet with some measure of success in the field of judicial endeavor."

"From my study and observation of what we call government, I am convinced that the office of Superior Court Judge is the most important and far reaching public position in our State system. The Superior Court is the one definite point of contact between the folks and the law. It speaks with authority in language the plain people can understand and on questions of vital importance in their every day life. Holding its sessions in every county, to the vast majority it is the State. It therefore not only administers the law, but, consciously or unconsciously, shows the real attitude of our citizenship toward their government. It follows that in such a tribunal justice should be administered with that degree of patience which is consistent with nothing less than the truth. Its presiding magistrate should be possessed of such familiarity with the fundamentals of law procedure, and common sense as will eliminate waste."

"As to whether I can fully meet the responsibilities of the bench, this is a question which I face with frankness and humility. My experience as a lad upon the farm,

USE KLIM

KLIM is unusually valuable for undernourished children, because of the added nourishment it gives to foods and milk drinks.

Klim is pure, creamy milk, powdered for convenience and safekeeping. A spoonful or two of this rich milk powder, added to liquid milk, makes a doubly nourishing beverage without increasing its volume. Or it may be mixed with sandwich filling—such as peanut butter or cream cheese—to increase the food value.

Children like the fresh, rich flavor of Klim. And mothers appreciate its convenience, its uniformity, the fact that it stays fresh and sweet indefinitely without ice.

Write today for the Klim recipe booklet, "This New Freedom," which contains many recipes of value to undernourished children. A copy is yours for the asking.

SET JUNE 20 FOR CLOSING OF CONGRESS

Republican Leaders Confident of Final Approval of Tariff By That Time

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—Confident of final approval of the tariff bill within two weeks, Republican congressional leaders have tentatively set June 20 for the adjournment of Congress.

The special session for consideration of the London naval limitations treaty will follow immediately and there is a belief in the Senate that this can be disposed of by July 4.

Poss of the treaty are sizing up the stack of opposition testimony filed against the pact by the naval admiralty and have determined to wage unrelenting war against the agreement. Believing their cause is best served by time, there are some indications the opponents will seek to defer consideration of the treaty until the December session.

However, President Hoover and advocates of the pact are confident of speedy ratification.

A rough road still lies ahead for the long pending tariff measure. The compromise finally agreed upon by Senate and House committees may force additional conferences, but its advocates agree that the vote for passage in the Senate are little more than a majority.

Both Senator Watson of Indiana, and McNary, of Oregon, the Senate Republican leaders, today agreed that adjournment by June 20 is in prospect.

It was Senator Watson who informed the Senate yesterday that the "imagined President Hoover will sign the tariff bill" and on the basis of that declaration, the capital is assuming that the president will affix his signature to the measure at it ever passes.

Once the tariff is out of the way, the Senate will tackle the $120,000,000 rivers and harbors legislation which already has the approval of the House. Some sharp controversies remain to be smoothed over before this bill can get Senate approval but its proponents are confident of quick passage.

However, President Hoover's attitude on this legislation is unknown. There have been intimations from administration leaders in the Senate that the president is displeased.

Veterans relief legislation also has been accorded privileged status in the Senate and it will follow disposition of the rivers and harbors work.

Small hope is entertained for final action at this session on the Muscle Shoals measure in view of the conflicting bills of the Senate and House.

SHORTAGE OF FUEL CAUSES BIG ZEPPELIN TO ABANDON PLANS TO STAY AT HAVANA

and to leave behind three or four tons of fuel. For this reason it is doubtful if it will be possible to make the detour via Havana. The decision depends upon the winds we will meet enroute, so we cannot decide until Friday noon."

At 9 P. M. (E. S. T.) a message received from the Graf said the ship was over Barbados Pass, and steering a northwest coast for Havana. Four hours previously another message had said, after reporting a more easterly position, that the ship was making 65 miles an hour, and in the preceding 24 hours had covered 1,600 miles.

The Barbados position was at the extreme easterly end of the West Indian group, about 1,700 miles southeast of Havana. The Graf in reaching there had not yet obtained a point where a decision to steer straight for Lakehurst or turn toward Havana would have to be made.

Considerable preparation has been made for the reception of the Graf. A squad of 300 infantrymen was trained for bringing the dirigible to earth, and ships were so close so that those who wished could go to General Machado Field to see the huge ship land.

Some dissatisfaction has been felt here for the past few days anyway because of advertised tours of the dirigible from Havana to Miami and return at a price of $500, just what is charged for the trip to Lakehurst.

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—The possibility that the Graf Zeppelin, en route from Pernambuco, Brazil, to Lakehurst, N. J., may encounter bad weather off Cape Hatteras, N. C., tonight was seen in the weather bureau's report sent today by radio to the ship.

The report said that a disturbance moving northeastward would likely be east of Cape Hatteras late tonight or Saturday morning, attended by strong winds and probably squalls.

Chilly Weather Follows Hail At the Capital City

Raleigh, May 30.—(AP)—Raleigh today experienced unusually chilly weather for the last day of May following a series of thunder, rain and hail storms late yesterday and last night.

Hail stones half an inch in diameter fell here last night for about ten or fifteen minutes in sufficient quantities to cover streets with a white mantle which soon melted.

The hail was local, Lee A. Denson, in charge of the weather bureau here said, and was not believed to have damaged young crops.

The rain and hail broke a long dry spell in this vicinity but the section continues unusually dry. Mr. Denson said, with a deficiency in rainfall being recorded for every month since December. Today long hanging clouds and predictions of showers seemed to indicate that the .63 of an inch of precipitation recorded since yesterday afternoon would be added to.

A low temperature of 52 was shown here last night and the high yesterday was 75.

Mr. Denson predicted continued cool weather for this vicinity until tomorrow. A probable light frost was predicted for the extreme west portion of the state tonight.

Two Street Cars Are Dynamited

New Orleans, May 30.—(AP)—Two street car bombings, which occurred almost simultaneously in different sections of the city, broke a two months period of quiet last night and brought to more than 75 the number of trolley cars dynamited since the Carmen's strike last July. Passengers and crews of the cars escaped injury.

The first bombing damaged a car near the riverfront, on Howard avenue between Tchoupitoulas and Poe streets. Explosion that had been placed between the rails tore out two floor boards and hurled them through the car roofs, shattering glass and causing other damage.

Then in an exclusive residential section a Pryntania car was similarly bombed and damaged in the same way.

Shriners Take Part In Parade At Wilmington

Wrightsville Beach, May 30.—Shriners from throughout North Carolina, representing the Sudan and Oasis temples, joined in conducting the annual spring ceremonial of the two temples here today.

A crowded day was the lot of the Nobles. It was opened by participation in a Memorial Day parade held by the American Legion at Wilmington.

Other events on the program were a morning business session; a luncheon for visitors at beach hotels and cottages; the ceremonial program at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A massed band concert at 6 o'clock at Wrightsville, an exhibition drill by the patrols of the two temples and the potatoes grand ball tonight, were concluding events. Professor Hubert McNeill Potent, of Wake Forest College, and Will Y. Warren, of Gastonia, potentates of the Sudan and Oasis temples respectively, figured prominently in the day's activities.

Man Arrested for Defacing Monument

Baltimore, Md., May 30.—(AP)—Unable to tolerate a misquotation from "The Raven" on the Poe Memorial here Edward Fontaine last night carried out his published intention to chip off what he called "a superfluous letter." He was arrested at his work, charged with defacing the monument, and held in a police station during the night in default of bail.

The inscription read:
Dreaming dreams,
No mortals
Ever dared
To dream before.

Thus accepted editions of Poe's works have the word "mortal" instead of the plural form.

Fontaine who calls himself a tree surgeon and plant pathologist also attempted to remove a daub of black paint which had been placed on the monument.

At the police station Fontaine declared there could be no real charge against him because he "did nothing but good."

CONVICT IS SHOT DOWN

Prison Guards Fire Upon Men Attempting to Escape From Cell at London, O.

London, Ohio, May 30.—(AP)—Sam Mazello Trumbull county convict was shot to death today when prison guards at the London prison farm fired on 47 convicts who attempted to batter their way from the cell block.

The convicts attempted to break from the cell block and when they refused to obey instructions of the guards to quiet down they were fired upon. Bullets struck Mazello in the heart and head.

The unruly prisoners were among the delegation brought over to the prison farm from Ohio Penitentiary following the fire of April 21 in which 320 convicts perished. They had been causing disturbances in the prison farm cell block for more than 48 hours.

The guards fired on the rioters on orders of Superintendent W. F. Amrine. No arson wall surrounds the farm and after escaping from the cell block the prisoners would have had free access to the outside.

Mazello who was 30 years of age was received at Ohio penitentiary in 1925 to serve one to 15 years for burglary and larceny. He was paroled in 1926 and returned two years later as a parole violator.
