

KING DECLARES
HELEN QUEEN
OF RUMANIANSCarol Says Princess
Became Queen As
He Automatically
Became King

Bucharest, Rumania, June 12.—(AP)—King Carol today was reported to have declared the Princess Helen, his former wife, to be "already Queen of Rumania."

The King told his brother Nicholas, and his sister, Princess Elizabeth, that when his father, King Ferdinand died, he, Carol, automatically became King, Helen became Queen.

Since then the divorce was pronounced. But with the parliamentary annulment on Sunday of all intervening events since King Ferdinand's death and his own re-installation as King, Helen automatically became Queen.

King Carol begged Nicholas to give this message to Helen, which he did, when the mother of Crown Prince Michael came to bring their child this forenoon to play.

Helen was reported as having declared herself satisfied.

Paris, June 12.—(AP)—Mme. Zizi Lambrino, who was the morganatic wife of King Carol of Rumania before he married Princess Helen of Greece, told Excelsior today that she had no intention of attempting to establish any legal claim on Carol, nor starting for Bucharest.

"I have not the slightest intention of trying any rights either for myself or for my son," she said. "My marriage was, I don't cease to repeat, perfectly legal and I have a legal certificate of marriage. I had not at any time any ambition. Being Rumanian I knew perfectly well that I could be a queen but it is equitable to prevent my son from having a father."

Bucharest, June 12.—(AP)—The palace circles today there was some talk which some accepted as indicating that convention and outraged pride led Princess Helen to remain firm in her refusal to return to King Carol but that her sense of mundane duty still belonged to the father of her child.

It was told that Sunday afternoon King Carol visited the Kisseloff palace, where she is residing while he remains at the Controscio palace and inadvertently ran into the princess mother at the head of a staircase. They exchanged pleasantries and he passed on.

Turning to one of her ladies-in-waiting Princess Helen exclaimed, her hand on her heart: "Ah, but he is grown so handsome!" She heaved a sigh and her bosom swelled with emotion before she turned and continued downstairs.

There is other gossip that the Grand Viovide, Michael, their eighth year old son, may bring about their reunion. He divides his time between his mother and father.

He sleeps at the Cotroceni palace but is taken to Kisseloff palace at eleven o'clock every morning for a visit with his mother. He returns later to his father's knee for parental do's and don'ts and then is taken back to Princess Helen for a light meal before retiring at Carol's quarters.

The young Grand Viovide is said to be most delighted at having his father back again, and in his childish manner to be exerting himself to heal the rift between the two parents.

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—The latest supporter of Senator F. M. Simmons in his recent losing campaign for the Democratic nomination to the Senate to express his intention of supporting the winner, J. W. Bailey, in the general election this fall is Secretary of State James A. Hartsness.

Other Simmons leaders who have pledged their support to Bailey include Charles A. Hines, of Greensboro, and John D. Langston, of Goldsboro. "I hope for unity and harmony in the party ranks," Mr. Hartsness declared in a statement.

Injures Himself
Running From Law

Newton, June 12.—(AP)—John Brown's body didn't feel so good after he lost a hot race with Sheriff Beal and deputies.

Brown, an alleged bootlegger, saw officers in the office and tarried for a moment before preparation. Attired in overalls, he fled through a patch of woods with the home of C. O. Bolick was surrounded by special deputies.

The fleeing wasn't so bad, but he was wanted for jumping a $2,500 Federal bond. That made haste necessary.

When Brown was captured, officers found he had run so fast he had broken two toes, dislocated both arms and sprained a wrist.

ASSERT RIGHT
NAVAL TREATYSenate Foreign Relations Committee
Adopts Resolution
By 10 to 7 Vote

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today adopted a resolution asserting its right to the London naval papers denied it by President Hoover. The vote was ten to seven with three members not voting.

The resolution made no demand for the documents. Mr. Hoover contends there is nothing in the papers of consequence but that it would be bad policy to permit them to be made public.

The resolution in part reads: "Resolved that this committee regards all facts as relevant and pertinent when the Senate is considering a treaty for the purpose of ratification and that this committee hereby asserts its right as the designated agent of the Senate to have free and full access to all records, files and other information touching the negotiation of any treaty, this right being based upon the constitutional prerogative of the Senate in the treaty-making process."

A copy of the resolution was transmitted to the president and to Secretary Stimson.

The committee then adjourned its consideration of the London naval treaty until tomorrow.

Chairman Borah and four other Republicans of the committee supported the resolution, which was presented by Senator Black, Democrat, Alabama.

The roll call follows:
For—Borah, Johnson, Calif.; La Follette, Wisconsin; Moses, New Hampshire; Robinson, Indiana; all Republicans. Democrats—Swan son, Virginia; Pittman, Nevada; Slack, and Wagner, New York; Eola.

Farmer-Labor—Shipstead, Minnesota; Capper, Kansas; Reed, Pennsylvania; Gillet, Mass.; Fessenden, Ohio; and Vandenberg, Michigan. Republicans—Harrison, Miss., and George, Georgia.

Sensors Robinson, Arkansas; Walsh, Montana, Democrats, and Goff, West Virginia, did not vote.

While some committee members insisted the notes exchanged among the powers leading up to the London conference be delivered to the committee before action is taken, Borah said he was ready to act on the naval agreement tomorrow.

Fog Causes Delay
Of Bermuda Flight

Roosevelt Field, N. Y.—(AP)—The proposed round trip non-stop flight to Bermuda in the monoplane Columbia was called off for today by Roger Q. Williams, the pilot because of a heavy fog.

The flight was to have started at 4 a. m. (E. S. T.) and Williams opened to complete the round trip in 15 hours.

The plane, the same one in which Clarence D. Chamberlain flew to Germany, was poised on the runway ready for the take-off when the fog started rolling in from the southwest. The ceiling over the field was said to be only 20 feet.

Wisconsin Republican
Would Cite Methodist
Churchman for
His Refusal to Answer Questions About His Political Campaigning

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Moves to report Bishop Cannon to Senate for possible contempt proceedings and to ask for specific authority to investigate political activities were initiated today at the lobby committee session.

A vote was deferred until 3 o'clock this afternoon when a special meeting will be held.

With the 65-year-old churchman on the stand, Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, called upon the committee to cite him to the Senate because of his refusal to answer questions on his 1928 campaign against the Alfred E. Smith presidential candidacy.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, proposed as a substitute that the committee seek direct authorization to go into political work.

Senate Committee formally advised Bishop James Cannon, Jr., that he would not be compelled to answer questions about his 1928 anti-Smith activities.

Chairman Caraway, a Democrat from Arkansas, other committee members and Senators Borah, Republican, Idaho; Robinson, Republican, Indiana; and Walsh, Democrat, Montana.

The committee decision was reached yesterday, after Cannon had voluntarily continued testimony on activities of the Southern Methodist Board of Temperance but had asserted his right to decline to answer as to his political work.

He had walked out on the committee last week and returned yesterday without being directed. Senator Walsh, who said his action in leaving the committee room was in contempt of the Senate, said today:

"I concur in the ruling that the committee ought not to require Bishop Cannon to reply to those questions which he has objected to answering, not because, in my judgment, the committee has no power nor because the questions were improper.

"My view about the matter is, however, that inasmuch as there is division among the committee as to the authority of the committee under the resolution by which it is operating, it would be unwise to go further."

Walsh said he had drafted a resolution to extend the committee's power. He presented it for the Record but with no indication he would press it.

Eight Million Dollars Sent to Florida Banks

Miami, Fla., June 12.—(AP)—Eight million dollars from depositors outside of Miami had arrived today for distribution among banks of the city and indications were that the excitement caused yesterday by the closing of the Bank of Biscayne and three subsidiaries, was subsiding.

The First National Bank had a crowd of approximately 200 depositors waiting at the door this morning when it opened. Whether or not they intended to deposit or withdraw was not learned.

Other banks reported the crowds, that withdrew money yesterday, were much smaller.

An airplane brought $2,000,000 in cash from Jacksonville yesterday and bankers said an additional $6,000,000 was received from other federal reserve depositories "by mail" early today.

It was indicated this morning that no further statement as to the condition of the Bank of Biscayne and its subsidiaries would be made until later. The subsidiaries are the Biscayne Trust Company, Bank of Coral Gables and the Miami Beach Bank and Trust Company.

Clearwater, Fla., June 12.—(AP)—Two small financial institutions, the Bank of Clearwater and the Guaranty Title and Trust Company, failed to open for business here this morning.

The First National Bank and the Peoples Bank were open as usual and there was no indication of heavy withdrawals. Notices posted on the doors of the closed banks said the state had been asked to take charge to protect depositors.

Begin Rigorous Inquiry
Into Collision Of Ships;
Death Toll Given At 26Charges of Gross Negligence Face Captain Archibald Brooks of the Fairfax Following
Probe of Disaster
By Federal Steam
Boat Inspector

Boston, June 12.—(AP)—Captain Archibald Brooks of the liner Fairfax testified at the Federal investigation here today that the sea disaster which overtook his ship and the Fall River tanker Pinth Tuesday night was over so quickly that any SOS calls could not have brought help quickly enough to cut down the loss of life. The crash took the lives of 46 persons.

Captain Brooks insisted, however, that he had ordered a general SOS sent out immediately after the collision and that the operator tried to send the distress signal until he found his instrument had been made useless by the flames which swept the Fairfax from the exploding oil tanker.

In reply to questioning by Captain Charles M. Lyons, federal steamboat inspector, the veteran captain said that all which could have been done was done. He and the first officer, James Hunley, both said that as soon as the tanker was sighted just ahead as the fog the helm was swung hard to port and full speed astern ordered.

Captain Brooks said the fire aboard the Fairfax was brought under control in less than 20 minutes and the situation was then well in hand. Asked if he knew that the Coast Guard cutter Tampa was only 20 minutes sail away, Captain Brooks replied "it would have made no difference anyway."

Boston, June 12.—(AP)—An offer of assistance from the coast guard cutter Tampa, only a few knots away from the scene of the Fairfax-Pinthis disaster, was declined by the Fairfax, Commander S. V. Parker of the Tampa reported today.

In his report to coast guard headquarters, Commander Parker revealed that he had intercepted messages between the Merchants and Miners liners Fairfax and Gloucester, on Tuesday night, soon after the crash that had claimed 46 lives. The message told of the necessity of transferring passengers.

Fearing an accident, Commander Parker ordered a query flashed to the Fairfax asking if assistance was needed. The reply that came back, he reported, was "all o. k."

Officers at coast guard headquarters said that the Tampa was equipped with an excellent hospital bay and an able medical staff. The Tampa could have made much faster time than the Gloucester in getting the injured to Boston for treatment, they said.

The sea today cast up the first material proof that the tanker which was rammed by the Fairfax was the Fall River Pinthis. Hull police found on Green Hill beach near Nantasket, about 10 miles from the spot where the tanker (Continued On Page Five)

President-Elect Of Brazil
Pays Good Will Visit To
People Of United StatesJulio Prestes Received
By President
Hoover In Historic
Blue Room At White House Today; To Be Tendered Reception
Tonight

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Julio Prestes, president-elect of Brazil, today returned the good will visit which President Hoover made to Brazil while he was president-elect.

Accompanied by Frances White, assistant secretary of state, and the military and naval aides of the White House, the Brazilian president-elect was received by Mr. Hoover in the historic blue room.

After an informal chat of about 10 minutes, the two posed on the front porch of the White House for photographers.

The belated arrival last night of the Brazilian executive, caused by a heavy fog in New York harbor which delayed docking of the "Almirante Jacuay," did not detract from the ceremony of welcome which greeted him here. State officials waited to receive the third Latin American president-elect to visit Washington during the past six months.

Secretary of State Stimson, Frances White, assistant secretary of state, Dr. Leo S. Row, director general of the Pan American union, presidential military and naval aides and other officials welcomed Dr. Prestes at the Union Station, where he was given an escort of Marines, cavalry and artillery.

HUSTON MAKES
STOUT DENIAL OF LOBBYINGRepublican Committeeman Says He Did Not Use Funds of River Association

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Chairman Claudius Huston of the Republican national committee confronted his critics today with a stout denial of their charges that he had engaged in lobbying or used funds of the Tennessee River Improvement Association to cover a deficit in his brokerage account.

Striking back, he alleged a whispering campaign had been conducted against him and that accusations aimed at him were either fabrications or "distortions of the real facts," inspired by "partisan or factional motives."

Before the Senate Lobby committee, Huston testified several months ago he had received as president of the Tennessee River Improvement Association $36,000 from the Union Carbide Company and deposited the money with his brokerage firm, Blyth and Bonner of New York. This was paid and deposited in two sums, $22,000 and $14,000.

He also told the committee of his activities as head of the Improvement association, which is interested in Muscle Shoals legislation and advocated the acceptance of the bid of the American Cyanamid Company for the Alabama plant.

His denial was contained in a letter sent to members of the Republican national committee, and made public last night after a Washington newspaper had obtained a copy of it. It was his first public expression on the subject since his appearance before the committee, except for a denial that he intended resigning as head of the party.

The letter quoted a communication from Blyth and Bonner saying the $22,000 deposit had not been entered in response to a call for margin or other demand for additional funds. All the money paid to him by the Union Carbide Company was "properly disbursed and accounted for," he said, "a month and a day" before he became chairman of the national committee.

Charges of lobbying, he said, were based upon his seeking to interest Henry Ford and later the Cyanamid Company in bidding for Muscle Shoals. He added he had spent months of his time and thousands of dollars of his own money in trying to promote the industrial welfare of his section.

Throckmorton & Co.
Put Out of Exchange for One Year

New York, June 12.—(AP)—The New York Stock Exchange today announced the temporary suspension of Alexander B. Johnson, floor member of the firm of Throckmorton & Co.

Johnson's suspension is for one year. A statement issued by the New York Stock Exchange said: "The substance of the charge and specification was that between November, 1929, and April, 1930, the firm of Throckmorton & Company, which had previously organized a fixed investment trust company under which the Chatham Phenix National Bank and Trust company was trustee, had certain transactions with said trustee in which the firm of Throckmorton & Company realized secret profit."

"These profits were made by the connivance of two of the partners of Throckmorton and company with an employee of the trustee. These two partners received information in advance as to the amount of rights or of stock dividends which the trustee was to sell under the terms of the trust indenture. They thereupon sold for the account of Throckmorton and Company the equivalent amount of rights or stock and thereafter purchased, from the trustee, the amount which it had to sell at prices which were lower than the prices that the firm itself had realized."

"The two partners concerned in these transactions have since resigned. Full restitution has been made and it appeared that none of the remaining partners of Throckmorton & Co. had any personal knowledge of these practices."

Dying Telegrapher
Averts Train Wreck

Mount Carmel, Pa., June 12.—(AP)—A railroad telegrapher who averted the "stop" signals on his block before he dropped dead in his tower, today was credited with averting a collision of two trains.

Stricken with a heart attack, Frank Pretheroe, operator at the Mount Carmel Junction tower of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, managed to flash that fact that he was ill to the train dispatcher at Shamokin. The latter quickly sent back word to set signals.

Several minutes later a freight train pulled to a stop at the tower in response to the signal and the crew found Pretheroe dead in the tower. Another freight pulled up a few minutes later and railroad men said the two trains would have collided.

FIVE HUNDRED ARRESTED IN
LINGLE CASEPolice Roundup
Hoodlums and Gangsters in Effort to Locate Killer

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Police "execution squads," each captained by an officer whose courage in fighting gangsters was attested by notches on his revolver, raked Chicago today for the man who killed Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Tri-bune reporter.

By last midnight 500 hoodlums, derelicts and suspicious characters were in jail. Lawyers flocked to detective headquarters demanding the release of their clients; but no releases were made.

William Russell, police commissioner, and John Stege, his chief of detectives, were spurred to action not only by the crime itself and their own close friendship for the slain newspaperman, but by a rising flood of hostile public sentiment that gained expression in front page editorials and in statements of civic leaders.

There was talk unofficially among business and civic groups of the possibility of martial law to supercede the police and drive the gangsters once and for all from the city. One American Legion Post offered the services of its members to take up arms, under proper authority, against the gangsters.

The Herald and Examiner, which has joined the Tribune and the Evening Post in offering a total reward of $55,000 for arrest and conviction of the man who shot Lingle dead last Monday in the crowded Randolph Street subway, accredited the police department in a front page editorial.

Commissioner Russell himself was one of the pall bearers today at the funeral of Lingle. Services were to be held at our Lady of Sorrows Catholic church at 11 a. m.

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Six reputed Chicago gangsters arrested for questioning in connection with the killing of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Chicago Tribune crime reporter, were being held in $500 bail each for a hearing today.

Four were members of a party of seven taken off a train by detectives at Trenton, N. J., enroute from Chicago to New York. The other two were arrested on Broadway.

After preliminary questioning at Brooklyn police headquarters three of those taken from the train, Dennis Cooney, 46 years old, Jack Guzick, 44, and Joseph Smyth, 28, were released.

They protested that they had been friends of Lingle and knew nothing of his slaying.

The other four members of the party on the train were Edward Vogel, 33, Paul Ricca, 33, Salvatore Labardo, 36, and Edward Morrison, 31. The two taken on Broadway were Joseph Corngold and Ralph Carol. All six insisted they knew nothing of the killing of Lingle.

The arrest of the seven in a compartment aboard a Pennsylvania railroad train was the result of a tip obtained by a Brooklyn patrolman from underworld sources that certain Chicago gangsters were on their way here.

Police said three members of the party attempted to escape from the compartment when the detectives appeared but were ordered back a pistol point.

The machine was an Italian plane. It was leaving for the Pare Paraous when it took fire from a spark to the carburetor. It sank soon after the blaze broke out.

KILLER FALLS INTO TOILS OF LAW AGAIN

Wallace Bradley, Wanted For Two Murders, Captured In Mountain Home

Asheville, June 12.—(AP)—Wallace Bradley, wanted by North Carolina State's prison for the past 14 years to complete a murder sentence there, and wanted for the slaying of Jim Welch, an Indian, was captured by a group of seven officers who surrounded his home in the Smokies Thursday morning.

Bradley, who is 55 years of age, had returned to his home on Bunches creek, far back in the mountains, less than a month ago from Oklahoma, he told officers.

He attempted to escape, but finding the house surrounded surrendered without putting up a fight. He carried a Winchester rifle and a revolver. Seeing officers approach his front door, Bradley dashed out the back of the house barefooted, but ran almost directly into the arms of officers.

He was brought to Bryson City and placed to await trial. Officers said he gave them no trouble.

Until the slaying of the Indian last year, Bradley, who was reputed to be a dangerous man, was seen without at least two guns, spent practically all of his time at home. Officers, he said, had never tried to capture him and return him to state's prison he added that they had often been to his house, and had taken dinner with him.

Convicted of the slaying of a man named Blankenship, Bradley was given a long sentence in prison about 20 years ago. He made a good prisoner, and was given a parole. It was the last time state's prison saw him. The Blankenship shooting was the result of a quarrel over a dog, it was said.

Welch, the Indian, was slain in the Smokies last April 16. Bradley claims that both the Indian and his son attacked him. It was said at the time that the Indian was drinking.

Bradley said Thursday that he had no fears for the outcome of his trial for slaying the Indian, but he clearly dreads the sentence he still has to serve at Raleigh. There was no record here of the length of the term.

Bradley said he had never seen the man he dreaded, but that he had always made it a rule not to shoot at officers.

Thursday was the first time authorities had ever attempted to arrest him, Bradley said.

After the shooting of the Indian, Bradley made his escape. He told authorities he went to Oklahoma and stayed with a newspaperman.

He returned to his home on May 13, he said.

Harley Presents Commissions To West Point Cadets

West Point, N. Y., June 12.—(AP)—Patrick J. Hurley, secretary of war, in presenting commissions to the 241 members of the graduating class of the United States Military Academy told them today their service to the country in times of peace rivals their service in war.

"The purpose of the institution," he said, "is not to create militarists. It does aim to create leaders who will maintain the peace and safety of the nation. Leadership in the army of the United States today requires far more than military skill. Under our national defense policy the leaders of our army are called upon to consider and solve social and economic problems in addition to providing for the military defense of the nation and leading its army in time of national emergency."

He cited among peace-time services of West Point graduates the building of the Congressional library, the Washington monument and the Lincoln memorial. For over a century, he said, engineers from the military academy have been in control of rivers and harbors and have directed inland water transportation.

MRS. W. C. FAUCETTE OF GRIMESLAND, DEAD

Washington, N. C., June 11.—Mrs. W. C. Faucette died early today at the Washington hospital after a few days' illness. On Tuesday of last week she gave birth to a child and since then her condition has been critical. Little hopes for her recovery were entertained from the first.

Mrs. Faucette was the daughter of Mrs. Bettie Z. and M. B. Whitely, of Edgecombe county, but when small her parents came to Washington to live and she had made this her home until two years ago when she was married to W. C. Faucette, a prominent farmer of Grimesland.

Before her marriage she was Miss Nellie Whitely. She was graduated from the Washington hospital several years ago as a trained nurse and practiced her profession in this section. She was regarded as one of the outstanding nurses of the State. By nature she was lovable and refined and was possessed of a keen mentality. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Whitely, who is seriously ill at this time; three sisters, Miss Frances Whitely and Mrs. Leslie Long, of this city; Mrs. Arthur Smith, of Jacksonville, N. C.; and two brothers, Benjamin and Kenneth Whitely, of New York, and a cousin, Mrs. Preston Bissett, of Elizabeth City, who was raised in the home. BOTH GRUNDY AND REED TO AID TARIFF

Two Republicans declare They Will Vote For Bill During Tomorrow.

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Senators Grundy and Reed, Republicans of Pennsylvania, announced today they would vote for the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill.

Reed revealed his support for the bill in a Senate speech and the Grundy announcement was made in a letter to newspapers.

The decision of the Pennsylvania senators removed all doubt as to final passage of the measure.

The Pennsylvania senators' decision was announced during the week with President Hoover and Secretary Mellon.

Prior to the public word of each came doubts have been expressed of how they would line up on the final tally which is set for 7 p. m. tomorrow.

Reed had been withholding judgment pending a detailed study of the bill. He had not revealed his decision even to his closest friends and no one knew how he stood until he took the floor.

The Pennsylvania said he had never "had so much difficulty determined upon a proper course on any pending legislation."

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—The Norris proposed compromise on Muscle Shoals was rejected again today by the House conferees, who stood 5 to 3 against acceptance.

The House had five conferees and the Senate three, and the vote was five to three against acceptance of the compromise.

WOMEN ELIGIBLE TO SERVE ON VESTRIES

Fauga Lake, June 12.—(AP)—Under a ruling of Bishop Julius M. Horner, presiding at the Western North Carolina Diocese convention of the Episcopal church here, women this afternoon became eligible for the first time in the history of this Diocese to serve on the Vestries of the church.

Bishop Horner ruled that the term "laymen" includes women members of the church, and that women, therefore, are eligible to serve as vestrymen.

The ruling was a resolution introduced by the Rev. J. P. Burke, of Hendersonville, which would have permitted women to serve on the Vestries of the church. The Bishop's ruling made a vote on the resolution unnecessary.

NO POLICY OF PROSCRIPTION.

The talk of peanut politicians that every Democratic official, who did not vote for Bailey on Saturday, is to be marked for slaughter in 1932 is the sort of talk that will greatly please Republicans. Such gossip does not represent the attitude of any Democrat who is more desirous of uniting the party and winning in November than to commence on a war of proscription against men within the party.

This is 1930 and the campaign should be conducted along the lines of harmony which is essential to victory. It will be time enough when 1932 rolls around to discuss who shall be chosen for the various State officers. The people will be able then to assert their preferences and name their candidates. If in 1930 a program of proscription should be undertaken now, it will militate against the great victory in November which will be won by letting bygones be bygones.—(News and Observer).

ABOUT TOWN

While crops around Bethel have been damaged to a considerable extent by the recent heavy rainfall, belief has been expressed that this condition would greatly improve with favorable weather.

Much of the crop of the Bethel territory "flopped" to use an expression of the growers—immediately after the rainfall, but they have come out right much the last two or three days.

Providing there is no real hot weather the next few days, the plants will recover from the flood condition and produce a good crop.

Too much rain, like too much hot weather, is detrimental to the crops and whenever either occurs it is felt most keenly by the growers.

Another Greenville man has been honored.

This time it is S. O. Worthington, member of the Pitt County Bar Association, who has been elevated to the position of Grand Chancellor of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina Knights of Pythias.

This is an honor well placed. Worthington has taken an active part in work of the organization during the last few years, and his efforts have been rewarded by his elevation to the highest office the lodge can offer.

Greenville Pythians are proud of the recognition they have received in the election of one of their own men to this high office, and they will do everything possible to help him render brilliant service.

Greenville merchants are going to be well represented at Wrightsville Beach next week to help elect Judson Blount of the presidency of the State Association.

It has already been assured that twenty-five of the boys are going to attend the convention and it is believed this number will be practically doubled when the date of the convention rolls around.

Aside from the election of a president to succeed Dallas Holloman, of Raleigh, the merchants plan consideration of the Sales Tax and the Chain Store problem. Both of these questions have proven boxes of contention the last few months, but they will be definitely settled at the Wrightsville meeting.

Work in connection with the placing of emergency telephone boxes on the various highways of Pitt county is making much progress and in a few weeks the entire section will be completely linked by a total of fifty boxes distributed over the network of highways.

The boxes are being placed at the interval of every mile, and will come in quite handy to the automobile driver who meets with accident and desires to get in touch with a garage or friends in other parts of the country. This is a service that has been needed for sometime and that it will increase in popularity cannot be doubted.

That the system will be enlarged in Pitt county in future years cannot be doubted. As soon as the public realizes its importance they will want boxes placed on every road possible, bringing the person at home in closer contact with relatives on the highways of the state.

Greenville merchants are doing everything possible to live up to the reputation which the city enjoys in being the principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina.

Each business house here not only carries the latest creations from the word of fashion, but it is endeavoring to offer such goods at prices in keeping with the largest cities of the country. This has had a tendency of drawing hundreds of people from distant trade territories in addition to stimulating renewed interest on the part of the people at home.

The city is rated as one of the best business centers in the state, and will certainly hold on to the reputation it has gained as the most important shopping center in this part of the state.

People who have not visited Greenville the last several months should make it a point of doing so. Bargains are just as great this season of the year as any other time and should appeal to the thrifty man or woman seeking the best at the lowest possible price.

Hearing Continue On Pure Food Laws

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Hearings on administration of the pure food and drug law continued today before the Senate agriculture committee with Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, assailing the agriculture department for failure to thwart the sale of "ginger cake" a bootleg concoction that has caused many cases of paralysis in the South and Southwest.

Department officials previously had testified they understood the drink was sold under a pure drug label but after they learned it was being bootlegged they turned the matter over to the prohibition bureau.

After reading a letter from Johnson City, Tennessee, which told of many cases of paralysis from drinking the "jake," Wheeler told W. G. Campbell, chief of the department and drug administration, "There is no excuse for this."

Campbell said the department was being done an injustice and added the product was made entirely in moonshine fashion, and was not a regulation commercial drug.

FIT TO FIGHT or FIT TO FLOP?

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED."

Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*"Moderation in diet seems to me the first and great requisite of any treatment which may be counted upon as ultimately satisfactory," says Dr. Beverley Robinson in the New York Medical Journal. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

Three Youths Held In Farmer's Death

Sumpter, June 12.—(AP)—With three youths held for investigation in the slaying of Ezra Hodge, 50, white farmer, who was shot to death at his home nine miles from here Tuesday night.

The three young men, Lewis Jennings, 19, Caesar Crogras, 23, and Joe McLeod, 20, all of Sumter county, were arrested late yesterday afternoon when rural officers were informed they had been seen riding in an automobile similar to one which Hodge's brother said he saw roar away from the scene of the killing.

The trio denied to Sheriff Hurst any part in the affair but the officer ordered them held on the belief that information they might disclose will give a clue to the killer. Hodge was shot down after he had been called from bed shortly after ten o'clock at night. The slayer, according to Horace Hodge, the dead man's brother, escaped in an automobile which came by and stopped for him.

SCHEMLING TO TRY SHARKEY OUT TONIGHT

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Little Ol' New York was again the big fight town today with its rush and roar as the background for a world's heavyweight championship match between the youthful German from Hamburg and the hope of the homebreds, a Lithuanian-American from Boston.

Tonight, some 45 minutes from the heart of Broadway, where the old-timers bellowed defiance at each other, Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling swap punches for 15 rounds or less, each seeking the same objective—recognition as the heavyweight kind and successor to the retired ruler, Gene Tunney.

At the ringside, perhaps in evening clothes, Gentleman Gene is expected to see the new monarch of mail crowned to restore once again the life that has seldom been broken since John L. Sullivan became the first world-recognized king of glove-fighters.

With fair weather assured, close to 75,000 spectators, featuring a notable ringside assembly, figured to pay something like $750,000 in the interests of charity and for the privilege of seeing a fresh chapter unfolded in heavyweight history.

Little Ol' New York has seen, appraised, cheered and even booed the heavyweight champions from ancient to modern ring times. Fitzsimmons, Jeffries, Corbitt, Willard, Dempsey and Tunney all have fought in the big town for the most prized of all fistful titles.

Tonight's was the eighth heavyweight championship affair brought to some corner of the metropolitan acreage. It was the first, however, to involve two contenders for the title, vacated two years ago by Tunney. Its only parallel in ring history since Sullivan's era was the fight in Sydney, Australia, in 1908 when Jack Johnson whipped Tony Burns for the crown east side of Jeffries.

Sharkey ruled the favorite to beat back the challenge of his youthful German antagonist, keep the line of title succession in the United States and climaxed his own erratic fistful career with a victory. The ex-sailor fumbled his two previous chances, in 1927 and 1928, to battle his way into the championship spotlight. Temperamental and uncertain through he has been, the majority of experts picked Sharkey to win. The gamblers backed him at odds pruned from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5.

Boxing skill and experience were on Sharkey's side, with a victorious punch to support them. Courage, ambition and an equally dangerous wallop were the main assets of Schmeling. Both possessed the stamina for a hard fight, if necessary, to the limit of 15 rounds with a referee and two judges to cast the final verdict.

Fight fans, to whom a heavyweight title affair is a ritual not to be missed, have flocked to New York from all parts of the land as well as from overseas.

The eye-witnesses were numbered in thousands but the "ear-witnesses" figured to run well up into the millions, with a national network broadcasting the blow-by-blow details from the ringside. On short wave lengths, the ringside story also was to be broadcast to Europe and South America, with the chances that Australia and the orient might be able to tune in.

The fight preliminaries were held to begin around 7 p. m. (EST) and the main bout at 9 p. m.

ROBINS SHOW THEIR HEELS TO NATIONAL

Despite a nine-game winning streak by their dread rivals, the New York Giants, Wilbert Robison's amazing Brooklyn Robins confidently looked forward to their first pennant since 1920.

Nothing could better illustrate the fast pace the Robins have been setting than the fact that the Giants, despite their long string of wins, still are five games out of first place.

The Giants took Pittsburgh over the hurdles, 9 to 2, yesterday, but gained not one inch of ground as the Robins, behind Dazzy Vance's great pitching, nosed out the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1.

Vance held the Reds to four hits but it took a pinch single by Al Lopez in the ninth to bring the Robins victory. Victor's pinch home run in the eighth had tied the score but in the ninth the Robins filled the bases and Lopez, batting for Vance, broke up the ball game with a single.

The Giant slammed Meine and Jones for 16 solid hits to trounce the Pirates who found Karl Hubbell a mystery they could not solve. The Giants had the game won as early as the sixth inning, leading by 4 to 2, but decided to make it safer by scoring twice in the seventh and three times in the eighth when Mel Ott clouted his 13th homer with two on base.

Charley Root's fine pitching enabled the Chicago Cubs to break their losing streak at Philadelphia's expense, 6 to 2. Cuyler's homer with two on in the third gave Root all the runs he needed to win. The victory left the Cubs in second place, three and a half games behind the Robins and a game and a half ahead of the Gints.

In the American League, Washington's Senators advanced to win in a game and a half of first place by whipping Chicago, 2 to 1, while the Philadelphia Athletics were bowing to Cleveland, 6 to 2.

Lefty Grove, Athletics' left hand, ace, went nearly two months without losing a game but was charged with his second defeat in as many days yesterday. He was no puzzle to the Indians and retired in favor of Ernie Shores after the seventh inning with Cleveland leading 3-1. Willis Hudlin pitched a strong game for the Indians until the ninth but was removed when the A's made a few threatening gestures. Ferrell finished up in fine style.

Washington scored the winning run against Chicago in the ninth inning. Hadley, Washington pitcher, allowed only two hits for seven innings but was removed after Smead Jolley's triple with Kerr on tied the score in the eighth.

State Department Remains Aloof In Divorce Tangles

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Although constantly deluged by requests from those seeking freedom from matrimonial ties in foreign courts, the State Department holds itself aloof from legal entanglements connected with divorces abroad.

One of the department's most exclusive file concerns requests from both American and foreign citizens regarding questions of divorce. Many of the cases upon which the department is asked to pass are filled with pathos, very frequently involving the custody of children and division of property. The strictest secrecy is maintained by the department in dealing with all cases.

Most of the applications from individuals involved in foreign divorce suits, or attorneys representing them, ask for legal opinions on the legality of decisions of the courts abroad in dissolving marriages contracted in the United States.

To all of these queries, however, the department replies that such interpretations must be rendered and abided by as set forth by the laws of the individual states in which the principals are resident. Many letters from both American citizens and foreigners are received at the department requesting texts of treaty provisions on the subject. To these requests the department merely replies that such provisions do not exist.

Tourists Take On the Wolves

Charlotte, June 12.—(AP)—With the league leadership in their possession again and what is believed to be a modern league record to their credit, Asheville's Tourists were entrenched at Augusta today for the start of a four-game tussle with Odie Strain's Wolves.

The Tourists regained the league lead by thrashing Columbia 20 to 4 as Macon bowed to Charlotte. In smothering the Comers, the mountain city swatters scored 15 runs in a single inning, the third, to establish what is believed to be a new mark.

Columbia used four pitchers in an attempt to stop the vicious clouting Coltrane, Jeffcoat, Allsbrook and Hester seeing service. Coltrane was charged with the loss. Bryan went the route for Asheville.

Sullivan topped the Asheville attack, driving in four runs with two triples and a pair of singles. Breakfield and Smith each drove in a trio of markers.

The Hornets hit timely behind Earl Brown's steady pitching to defeat Macon in the final, the count being 5 and 4. It was a rip tuck affair. The score was tied twice.

Lefty Surratt was in rare form as Augusta made it two in a row over Greenville. He experienced trouble in the second frame, when the Spinners tallied five times, but after that inning he had little trouble.

Packard's heavy hitting featured for Augusta, while Walker led the way for Greenville with a four-bagger. The final score was 8 to 6.

ELEVEN HEALTHY BOYS AND GIRLS

Black-Draught Used In the Home of a Large Georgia Family.

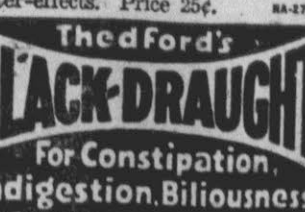

Winder, Ga.—"I have seven girls and four boys, and all of them are healthy," says Mr. William M. Marlow, of 2 Buena Vista Street, this city.

"All during our married life, Theford's Black-Draught has been our stand-by. We found in the beginning that it was good for colds and children's ailments. If the children come home from school complaining, we give them Black-Draught and very soon they are out playing."

"I have used Black-Draught for twenty years. I suffered from indigestion and tightness in my chest. Black-Draught, a pinch after meals, seemed to stop me from having indigestion."

"I also took Black-Draught for biliousness and dizziness. It always does me good. If my eyes burn and my tongue gets coated, or I have a bad taste in my mouth, I take a few doses of Black-Draught and soon feel like new."

Good for children, grown men and women, and those of advanced age. Easy to take—no disagreeable after-effects. Price 25¢.

SPORTS SLANTS

Vince, after all, seems to have its own reward. As proof of which without any prearrangement whatever, the college sprinters, who run for nothing but the glory of the old alma mater, have fallen heir to the finest bit of ballroom art sport has had this spring.

At much expense and labor, the foot-toms are being beaten for the professional pugilistic event of the year, the Sharkey-Smeling affair, but at no cost to them or their colleges whatever, extraordinary publicity has been showered upon the collegiate dash men through the action of international authorities in Berlin recognizing Eddie Tolan's mark of 9.5 seconds as the new world's record for 100 yards.

The result has been to focus the spotlight upon Tolan, his rivalry with George Simpson of Ohio State the perennials of other sprinters and a revival of the starting block controversy.

Whatever the sprinting thrills may be in the meantime, the prospects are that the National Collegiate at Chicago, June 6-7, will furnish a splendid climax for the speed talent from all parts of the country.

Here's the probable line-up:
Eddie Tolan of Michigan, world record holder at 9.5 seconds.
George Simpson of Ohio State, who ran 9.4 with starting blocks.
Frank Wykoff of Southern California, who ran 9.4 without blocks.

Cy Leland of Texas Christian, who did 9.4 with the wind.
Hec Dyer of Stanford, who beat Wykoff in a 9.6 race.

Baseball's Rip Van Winkle, if he had gone to sleep on the advance "dope" about the major league pennant races early in April and then waked up the end of May to scan the standing of the clubs, would still consider himself in a complete daze.

For instance and for fun, take the standing today or yesterday and compare it with the following order in which the clubs were rated

COTTON MARKET

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 3 to 8 points. Initial selling on the relatively easy cables, few private figures on domestic consumption for May, and a generally favorable view of the early weather news was quite readily absorbed by covering which led to bulges of a point or two right after the opening.

Offerings increased, however, with the selling more general and by the end of the first half hour the decline had extended to 14.80 for July and 13.60 for the new October contract with active months generally showing net losses of about 13 to 20 points.

The New York cotton exchange service estimated domestic consumption for May at 481,000 bales compared with 532,000 in April and 488,000 in May last year. Liverpool cables said the chief feature in the market there was Bombay selling and reported the market for Egyptian cotton easy owing to liquidation and weakness in Alexandria.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Soaking downpours at some points in the Canadian prairie provinces but with many places receiving only showers led to notable setbacks in wheat values today. The crop outlook for spring wheat was also improved by showers in domestic spring wheat territory northwest.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-1/4 to 3-1/4c a bushel lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1-1/4 to 1-1/2c down, oats 3-1/4c off, and provisions unchanged to 12c decline.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Wall Street's spirits held at a low ebb today, although heavy over-subscription of the German bond issue, and predictions of a prompt disposal of the tariff measure, at last, were regarded with satisfaction, if not with enthusiasm. Liquidation still poured into the stock market during the forenoon but better support appeared, and most of the 2 to 5 point losses in important stocks was recovered.

The severe break in stocks yesterday caused considerable more jettisoning of weakened marginal accounts today, which, together with further bear rapids and unloading by investors suffering from pessimism, sent a wide assortment of issues to new lows for the year, including such issues as American Telephone, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, International Telephone, Chrysler, Studebaker, Nash and Sears Roebuck. Short covering appeared in large volume around midday, however, and moderate recoveries appeared in pivotal shares. Trading was in heavy volume, the ticker falling several minutes behind the market.

Money was so plentiful that the 3 per cent call loan rate on the stock exchange was cut to 2 1/2 per cent for the first time since March 20. Money was available outside at 2 per cent. It appeared that Wall Street might experience another flood of credit as it did during the treasury financing of March. With market sentiment radically changed, however, its effects, normally tonic, are problematical.

The midday rally carried leading stocks to one to four points above the morning lows, with more substantial improvement in volatile specialties.

The market turned dull on the rally and the ticker, which had been 21 minutes in arrears, caught up with the trading.

Cotton Corporation Be Ready for Work In Next Few Days

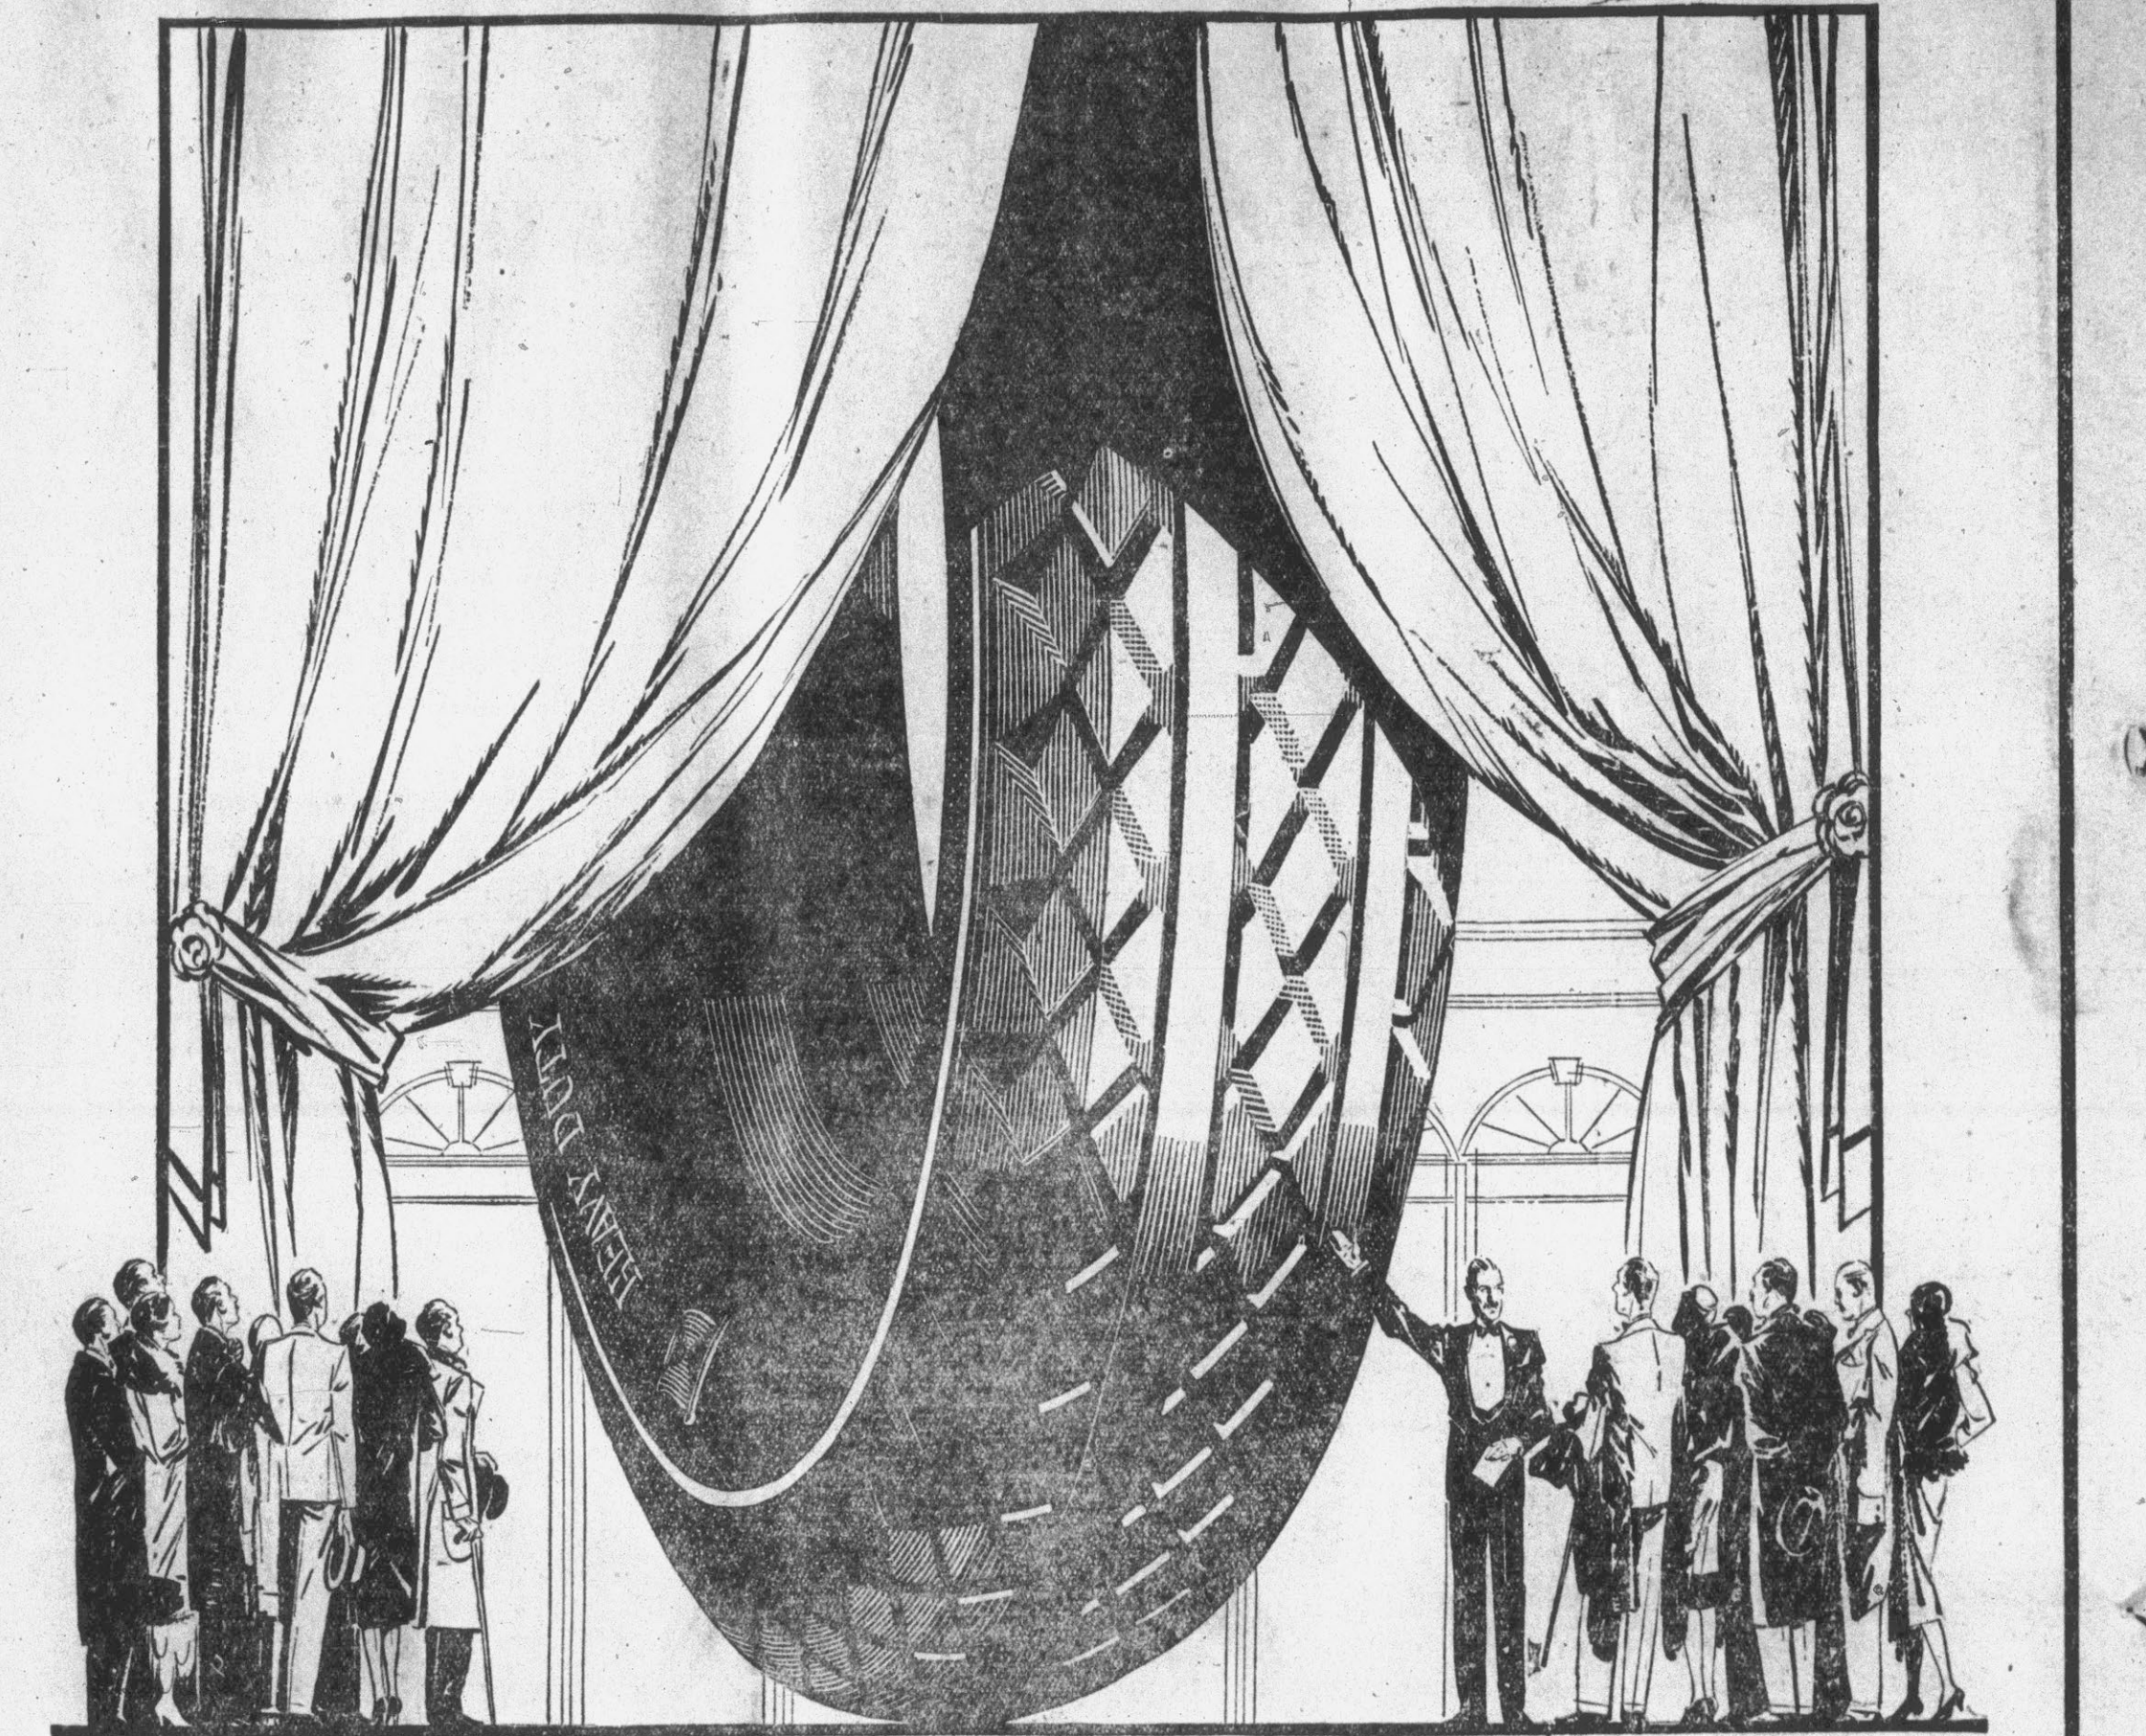

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Chairman Legg of the Federal Farm Board said today the Cotton Stabilization Corporation would be "ready to do business in a few days."

Set up as an emergency measure to handle the 1929 surplus, the new corporation, Legg said, will immediately begin taking over the 1,000,000 to 1,200,000 bales now in the hands of the co-operatives.

The corporation, he said, has not yet asked for a specific amount of money from the board. "I believe that at least $50,000,000 will be required," he added.

Asserting the board had no very definite reports on the condition of the 1930 crop, he estimated this year's carryover would range from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 bales more than the surplus a year ago. He said such a situation was not nearly as bad as it has been in some years.

The NEW Goodyear Heavy Duty Balloon

A really STUNNING TIRE you ought to see

It isn't enough to call the new Goodyear Heavy Duty Balloon an extra-mileage tire—it's an extra-style tire as well.

Once your car is shod with them, it takes on a new and smarter look; it stands proudly on a more solid and distinctive foundation.

In the first place this new Heavy Duty Balloon is bigger, handsomer, more massive; and around its sleek black side-walls runs a single identifying stripe of silver.

Then the outer rows of All-Weather blocks on both sides of the deep-cut extra-thick tread are prism down into the side-wall, a touch as arresting as anything in modern sculpture.

The essential merit of this tire of course is in its capacity for extra mileage—it is made stronger and tougher in every part to withstand hard, fast, rocky-road driving.

Before you buy your next tire be sure you see this stunning Goodyear Heavy Duty—you owe it to yourself not to overlook its remarkable advantages.
