HOUSE WILL PASS TARIFF DURING DAY

Bill To Receive Perfunctory Approval Of House Before Going To Hoover

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—Nearing the last of its scores of roll calls, the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill was taken up in the House for its final vote today with Republican leaders confident of passage by at least 80 votes.

Republican chiefs brought out a rule calling for a single vote on the two conferences reports, the waiving of all points of order, and the shutting off of debate after three hours discussion following adoption of the rule.

Debate on the rule itself was expected to last nearly an hour. This would postpone a final vote until between 4 and 5 p. m.

Representative O'Connor, Democrat, New York, made a point of order against the rule extending it violated the fundamental rules of the House. Speaker Longworth promptly overruled the point.

O'Connor then argued against adoption of the rule. "This rule prohibits a separate vote on the two distinct conference reports. We are now compelled to vote on the two reports en bloc. We must take both or leave both. Up or down, we must vote both reports, through some members, Republican as well as Democrats, might agree with one report and disagree with the other."

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—The tariff bill today awaited only the perfunctory approval of the House before being sent along to President Hoover.

Adopted by the Senate 44 to 42, the measure was given undisputed right of way in the other branch of Congress. Three hours were set aside for debate today with the last of the many congressional roll calls on the bill coming shortly after three o'clock.

Unlike the Senate, where the Republicans have only a paper majority, the House is overwhelmingly Republican. Hence, approval of the final draft of the measure was regarded as an absolute certainty.

President Hoover probably will receive the bulky document on Monday. With the aid of experts he then will begin a study of its provisions, meanwhile sending copies to the Treasury and other interested departments for comment before acting.

Dramatic scenes were enacted in the Senate before the vote last Friday as leaders of all three factions in the year and a half old struggle denounced and defended the bill.

Setting aside the last hour and a half for himself, Senator Watson, the bulky Indiana majority leader, kept 85 Senators and crowded galleries in an uproar as he made an old-fashioned protective tariff speech, parried in humorous vein thrusts of the coalition, and then concluded with a prediction that the nation would be much better off in 30 days with the bill out of the way.

Senators Borah of Idaho, the independent Republican pilot, and Robinson of Arkansas, minority leader, let loose a double-barreled charge against the bill after others had forecast the legislation would be made a major issue in the coming elections.

As it came before the House for final vote, the measure carried 87 increased duties and 235 decreases. More than 250 of the increases are on agricultural products. In addition, 75 products on the dutiable list in existing law are transferred to the free list, and 48 now free are given protection.

Calculated to raise $630,000,000 in revenue based on 1928 imports, an increase of $107,000,000 over customs receipts of that year, the measure carries higher levies on sugar and scores of staple foods and delicacies as well as wearing apparel of all descriptions, minerals, textiles and miscellaneous manufactured products.

For the first time in years, soft-wood lumber, cement, brick, long-wool cotton, hides, leathers and shoes are given protection.

The bill would become the "Tariff Act of 1930" the day after presidential approval.

Claims Cold Cure

D. J. A. F. Pfeiffer of the University of Maryland medical school announced discovery of the cause of the common cold. He also announced a preventative vaccine.

RIVERS BILL IS FACED BY FILIBUSTER

Measure Expected To Meet Strenuous Opposition in Senate Monday.

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—The first rivers and harbors bill in Congress in more than three years, already approved by the House with appropriations totaling a minimum of $122,000,000 will come up for consideration in the Senate on Monday.

A small but bitter band of opponents are prepared to launch a fight against it, reviving threats of a filibuster.

One short section is the center of the controversy. It provides Federal operation of the Illinois state waterway, and it may lead to a review on the floor of the ancient and complicated issue of diversion of water from Lake Michigan through the Chicago drainage canal.

In addition, the bill will encounter opposition from Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, on the ground that it is "not a port barrel, but a hoghead." He contends it actually contains commitments for an eventual outlay of $334,000,000.

Senator Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, leading opposition to the Chicago provision, has submitted a substitute proposal, but this is not acceptable to Senator Deneen, Republican, Illinois.

Chairman Johnson of the Senate commerce committee, which reported the bill after long and heated sessions, is sanguine. He believes it will be passed after some debate.

The measure would authorize completion of a 9-foot channel in the upper Mississippi river, with an ultimate expenditure of $98,000,000 and a like depth in the upper Missouri, at a final cost of $48,000,000. It would approve ultimate expenditure of $75,000,000 on the Tennessee river, and would provide flood control works for Lake Okechobee, in Florida, for about $9,000,000. It would provide Federal operation of the Lake Erie and Oswego canals in New York state, for barges, with a yearly outlay of $7,500,000.

Countless smaller waterways and harbor improvements throughout the country would be authorized by the bill.

Blind Senator For Re-Election

St. Paul, Minn., June 14.—(AP)—Minnesota's blind United States Senator, Thomas D. Schall, Republican, faces the hurdle Monday which has dropped three fellow Senators by the wayside this spring—the primary election in his home state.

His challenge comes from two sources, the powerful Republican faction which seeks to nominate Gov. Theodore Christianson and from Job F. Selb, a late entry who has concentrated on one issue—the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The latter's opponents have supported prohibition.

The three Senators beaten in the spring primaries were Joseph R. Grundy, Republican, Pennsylvania; Charles S. Deneen, Republican, Illinois; and F. M. Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina.

Would Buy Butterflies

Washington—Some 473,000 moths and butterflies would be purchased for $50,000 under a recommendation submitted to Congress by the President. The collection of the late Dr. William Barnes, of Decatur, Ill., would be housed in the national museum.

W. J. Bundy Will Not Run In Second Primary Here Against John W. Homes

Greenville Attorney Renounces Right to Call Farmville Man Into Second Race to Settle Seat For House of Representatives.

W. J. Bundy, Greenville attorney, renounced his right this morning to demand a second primary with John W. Homes, of Farmville for a seat in the House of Representatives of the North Carolina Legislature. The announcement brought to an end the uncertainty which has existed in this field of the legislative fight since the primary last Saturday, and leaves only four candidates to be voted on by county people in the run-off primary which will be called in the near future.

In making his announcement, Mr. Bundy expressed his appreciation of the vote given him in the recent primary and urged the support of E. G. Flanagan and J. W. Holmes, who will represent the county in the next General Assembly. He declared both to be experienced men and that they would ably represent the county.

Flanagan, running for re-nomination, was the only one of the seven candidates for the House of Representatives to come out of the primary with sufficient votes to assure his nomination. Holmes was the next highest, with Bundy taking third place. It was up to Bundy to either call Holmes into the primary or renounce his claim to this right. While friends predicted that he would go into the run-off primary his statement this morning set aside any possibility of such action.

With the primary a certainty as result of action taken by A. B. Corey S. T. Dudley and two constables in Chicod and Beaver Dam townships, Pitt-county people will have the opportunity of again going to the polls in the near future and voting for their favorites.

Corey will be opposed for the Senate by M. K. Blount, the present incumbent. Blount came out with first place and Corey second in the coveted seat last Saturday. S. J. Everett was the third, but he was automatically eliminated when the other two candidates received a higher vote.

There was considerable speculation as to whether Corey would call for a run-off fight, but this was set aside yesterday morning with the statement that he would run.

The race for the fifth seat on the County Board of Commissioners will be between S. I. Dudley and J. P. Davenport, present chairman of the board. Dudley was the first of the candidates to file notice for the run-off primary.

In addition to voting for candidates for the Senate and the County Board of Commissioners, the citizens of Chicod and Beaver Dam townships, have a little to dispute of their own to settle in the way of constables who failed to poll enough votes to insure nomination. In Chicod M. G. Buck will be opposed by C. W. Evans, and in Beaver Dam, Richard Nichols will have L. B. Elks as his opponent.

As more than passing interest is centered around the fight for constable in these two precincts, it is expected that a large vote will be cast.

Fireman Killed As Two Engines Run Together

Rocky Mount, June 14.—(AP)—W. J. Grant, Atlantic Coast Line fireman, was almost instantly killed last night when two locomotives collided in the South Rocky Mount yards. J. H. Saunders, engineer on one of the locomotives, sustained a badly mashed hand.

Grant was either knocked from the engine or which he was riding or jumped and was almost instantly killed. He sustained a fractured skull.

First division headquarters was commended yesterday, Friday the 13, for going since the first of May without a serious injury on the division, which embraces 4,000 miles of the railroad, but the fatal accident occurred just before the day ended.

Railway officials are conducting an investigation.

Winston-Salem Man Takes His Own Life

Winston-Salem, June 14.—(AP)—John K. Kestler, 60, was found dead at his home here early today from a bullet wound in the head, apparently self-inflicted. Relatives said he had been in ill health for some time. Mr. Kestler was a native of Davie county, but moved here three years ago from Spencer where he was employed by the Southern railway.

CAPONE HELD FOR PERJURY AT MIAMI, FLA.

Charges Filed Following Dismissal of Padlock Proceedings Today.

Miami, June 14.—(AP)—Perjury charges were filed here today against Scarface Al Capone immediately after he had won a dismissal of padlock proceedings against his palatial Palm Island home on the ground that it was a nuisance.

The Chicago gangster was called on to answer warrants growing out of the charges of false arrest and brought Safety Director S. D. McCree. This was a move by Capone following the orders to the police to take him into custody on sight, part of a movement to keep him out of the community.

Capone had heard the court this morning on the padlock proceedings dismissed for lack of evidence on the nuisance charge. He had shaken hands with several score persons who congratulated him on the outcome of the case and had started for his Palm Island abode when news came of the new warrants.

Deputy sheriffs were dispatched forthwith to serve the warrants.

District Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne, prior to the issuance of the warrant said:

"I am going to run this man out of here if it takes all summer. The respectable people of Dade county will not stand for his staying here to flaunt his presence before them"

Miami, Fla., June 14.—(AP)—Padlock proceedings against the Miami Beach residence of Scarface Al Capone were dismissed in circuit court here today by circuit Judge Paul D. Barnes. The judge ruled that the state had not proved the allegations in its bill of complaint that the place was a nuisance.

As Capone left the court room, scores of persons crowded around him and offered congratulations on the failure of Dade County authorities' latest attempt to banish him from the community.

State attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne, who instituted the padlock proceedings against the gangster's home April 22, said he would appeal the case at once, but declined to amplify his statement. He also declined to say whether or not further measures are planned in the attempt of Dade county and the city of Miami to get rid of Capone.

Offered $5,000 Bandit Took $700

Chicago, June 14.—(AP)—He was a bandit who knew he was wanted, which was $700; and when the paying teller of the Superior State Bank, at the urge of a pistol, pushed forward a package containing $5,000 yesterday, the robber objected.

"I don't need that much," he said, whereupon he carefully counted out $700, put it in his pocket and walked out.

HOOKS CALLS DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Also Issues Call For Democratic Precinct Meetings Saturday, June 21st.

W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pitt county, announced this morning that the County Democratic convention would be held at the court house in this city Saturday, June 28, at 12 o'clock. The convention will elect delegates to the State Democratic convention which will be held in Raleigh July 3. An executive committee will also be chosen during the session.

Simultaneous with this announcement, the county chairman also issued a call for township primaries Saturday, June 21 at 2 o'clock. The purpose of the primaries will be to select delegates to represent each of the precincts at the County convention.

The calling of the primaries is the first step in connection with the organization of the Democrats for the election next November. All during the summer months a vigorous campaign will be waged in behalf of the candidates to be voted upon, and it was expected that much oratory would be heard in many sections of the state.

Considerable interest is always attached to the precinct primaries and it was expected they would be well attended by voters in each of the districts. The meetings will be held at regular voting places.

Much attention is also usually centered about the election of the County Executive committee which will be chosen at the County Convention here. The committee is composed of five members. W. E. Hooks is the present chairman. He has served the county in this capacity for a number of years and his services have been of a noteworthy nature. The members of this committee have charge of directing the campaigns from time to time and of rendering the party invaluable aid in the dissemination of campaign information.

Greensboro, June 14.—(AP)—Merger of the Greensboro News, local morning newspaper, and the Greensboro Record, afternoon paper was announced today by the management of each.

The announcement said that under terms of the merger the control of both papers would be in the hands of the Greensboro News Company and its present officers and directors.

Announced details of the merger revealed that Julian Price, of Greensboro, who sold the Record to Bryan-Thomson, Inc., in October, 1927, re-purchased its entire capital stock last week. The Bryan-Thomson, Inc., was owned by John Stewart Bryan, of Richmond, Va., and S. E. Thomason, of Chicago.

In exchange for the common stock of the Greensboro Record Company, the announcement said the Greensboro News Company gave Mr. Price 4,200 shares of preferred stock of the Greensboro News Company, the par value of the stock being $100 a share.

J. D. Elks Hurt in Fall From Rocky Mount Building

Rocky Mount, June 14.—John David Elks, 35, is in a critical condition here today as a result of his fall yesterday from the third floor of the Masonic Temple.

He was walking from beam to beam when he missed his footing. He fell about ten feet on a second floor and then to the ground floor. Hospital officials said he had a fractured vertebra and that he was paralyzed from his waist down. They hold small hope for his recovery.

At Half Way Mark Of His Term, Hoover Is Faced By Swarm Of Touchy Issues

Washington Is Full of Talk About the Next President As Both Friends and Enemies Of the President Get Ready for Battle.

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—Just at the political half-way mark of his four-year term, President Hoover finds his fortunes rifled about these, the days with a numerous and persistent swarm of touchy public issues.

As if by prearrangement, the whole brood—tariff, farm relief, prohibition, foreign relations, internal party troubles—has come buzzing about the head of the man who, by virtue of being President, is also the leader of the Republic.

Two years ago tonight, amid the gay bunting and triumphant band music at Kansas City, he was elevated to that leadership by a single, five-sided roll-call.

Two years hence—unless history breaks her well-established habit—creaky national convention will see his followers rallying to consummate his re-nomination.

Already the straws are bending to the passing breeze, and Washington is full of talk of 1932. What Mr. Hoover himself may be thinking—and what first-term president ever has failed to think of that subject—no one is undertaking to say. His friends, however, are getting ready; and so are his enemies within the party.

Those who look to another term for him rely heavily on the appeal they claim for him among the rank and file of voters. They declare this hold is stronger, rather than weaker, by virtue of such defeats as he has suffered in Congress, and such open breaks as he has arrived at with party politicians. They see in the great number of major projects he has planned in the national fabric a promise of bountiful fruition in the two years to come.

Those within the party who have attacked him—for instance Senator Borah, Senator Norris, and whole senatorial fraternity of discontent with his policies—are not talking for publication on the subject of 1932. They are talking among themselves, however, and the third party gossip which has been a part of every Republican pre-convention campaign for a generation, persists. It persists, but no one is willing to sign his name to a prediction.

Two years is a moderately long time in presidential politics. Many a political wind will blow before June, 1932, and no man knows what sails will be filled, or what high ventures will break on the rocks. Yet both friend and foe of the president's fortunes understand that a great deal of real hard work may be found later to have had its source in this very cave of the winds which envelops Mr. Hoover in the month of June, 1930.

Almost immediately he must decide, for better or for worse, whether to sign or veto a tariff bill which has divided opinion in his party and kept political weather vanes whirling.

The whole Hoover Farm Relief program, with its multitude of intra-party complications, has become suddenly exposed to another Sen-

FIVE KILLED BY TORNADES IN TWO STATES

Three Score Also Injured As Twisters Sweep Over Minn. and Wis.

(By The Associated Press) A series of tornadoes played leap frog across Southern Minnesota and Wisconsin late Friday and when they had played themselves out there were five dead, an injury list of more than three score and a property damage estimated at more than $1,000,000.

Four persons died near Menomonie, Wis., and a man was killed at Randolph, Minn. More than 30 were injured in and near Randolph; a score were hurt around Menomonie; twelve were injured at Eau Claire, Wis.; four at St. Paul, Ark., Minn., a suburb of St. Paul, with scattered casualties in other sections of the two states.

A preliminary estimate placed the damage at Eau Claire and Menomonie at more than $500,000; at Randolph more than $200,000; the region around Austin and Oslo, Minn., $75,000; with other damage at St. Paul Park; Munson Hill, Minn., and Ellsworth and the vicinity of La Crosse, Wis.

The dead: Charles Wolbert, 42, ice company operator near Menomonie. Mrs. Wolbert, 38.

Louis Haines, 25, employed by Wolbert. Mrs. Carl Kaiser, 19, killed on the Wolbert farm.

William Drappe, 45, section foreman for the Chicago Great Western Railroad, killed at Randolph. Eighteen persons were taken to a Menomonie hospital. The storm circled three-fourths of the way around Menomonie and damage was confined to rural territory.

At the Walbert farm, three miles west of Menomonie, the house was leveled and the barn unroofed. There were four persons killed. Several persons were injured at the Pine Point Cottage colony north of Menomonie, and many buildings were leveled. One man was injured and several barns destroyed at Iron Creek 8 miles east of Menomonie.

Several persons were in an Eau Claire hospital with minor injuries. Theodore Iverson, among the injured near Menomonie, said he was not aware of the storm until he saw a car blown past his window. He and his wife protected their three children as a stove fell on him. One hundred panes of glass were smashed at the Dunn county asylum.

Two national guard units, the Northfield headquarters company of the 135th Infantry and the Hastings unit, Company H of the 208th Infantry, were mobilized and at the scene of the Randolph disaster in an hour after each company was called.

Theatrical Venture To Exploit Television

New York, June 14.—(AP)—The New York Times today says a huge theatrical venture, which will exploit television, talking pictures and plays will be established on the mid town site assembled by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. for erection of an opera house.

The property, located between Fifth and Sixth Avenue, and 40th and 51st streets, had been rejected by the Metropolitan opera company. The projected plans call for erection of three skyscrapers, one of which will rise sixty stories. The real estate investment is estimated at $200,000,000 and the cost of the three skyscrapers and other buildings estimated at another $150,000,000.

The Times says that after collapse of the opera house plan Mr. Rockefeller was persuaded that opera was an aristocratic enterprise and that real democratic benevolence would be to give the site to modern popular forms of entertainment.

The newspaper says the new plan is sponsored by Radi-Keith-Orpheum. The national Broadcasting Company and the General Electric Company and calls for the housing of four theatres.

Dawes Boosts Naval Treat

whether it is a home or a loaf of bread. When the operation of a major business is interrupted by fire, the result is striking. Men are thrown out of work and families deprived of their living. Purchases of all kinds are curtailed. Business goes elsewhere to the detriment of the entire community. Savings in banks are drawn upon and amusement places are not patronized. Fires have caused exodus from towns, leaving behind only poverty and ruin.

The effect of a great fire may be nation-wide. Following the San Francisco disaster fire insurance companies were called upon to immediately raise $220,000,000 to pay their losses. In order to do this stocks and bonds had to be transformed into cash. And this, it is said, was largely responsible for the panic of 1907.

There is but one solution to the fire problem—an active, informed safety consciousness on the part of individuals and businesses.

THE FAIRFAX SEA DISASTER.

In the case of the sea disaster off the Massachusetts coast there is unfortunately especial reason why official inquiry should be prompt and critically keen. Captain Lyons, Federal Steamboat Inspector, reports from preliminary investigation that "gross neglect" followed as well as preceded the collision of the Fairfax with the tanker Pinthis. From the log Captain Lyons deduced that the Fairfax must have been running in fog about eleven miles an hour, which would explain the crash of the impact. No SOS calls were sent out; if Coast Guard vessels had been summoned the injured might have been received in hospitals sooner. Messages were "garbled" or sent in code. "Many (messages) sent to both the Fairfax and the Gloucester either went unanswered or the reply contained only most meagre information." At no time did the Coast Guard stations know that fourteen of the passengers were missing. Mrs. Dayton, the war-time nurse who described the disaster for The World, says that the ship stewards became panicky; that the heroes of the collision were some naval sailors and marines who were on board as passengers. Lives of passengers might in several instances have been saved if they could have been restrained from jumping overboard in their pain and fright. The sad loss of life, the sufferings of the injured, prompt and fullest investigation of the cause of the wreck and of the subsequent management of the ship. Particularly grave is Captain Lyons's charge that the Vice President of the line "was running things out there" instead of Captain Brooks.—N. Y. World.

PAYING FOR CARELESSNESS
Fire is responsible for a direct money loss of about $500,000,000 a year. We all pay for this whether we individually have a fire or not. Heavy losses have an adverse effect on fire insurance rates. When destroyed property is not rebuilt the taxes such property would have paid must be borne by others. These facts enter into the operation of every business and are items of importance in determining the cost of living. They affect, in one way or another, the price of every purchase.

ADVENTUROUS CREW TO SAIL 'ROUND THE WORLD

ABOUT TOWN

Now that the run-off primary has been assured, the people of Pitt county can begin plans for casting their votes for their favorites for members of the State Legislature and the Board of County Commissioners.

Only one member of the Legislature succeeded in winning out in the last primary. That was E. G. Flanagan, of Greenville, who piled up enough votes to win with some to spare. All other candidates were eliminated except W. J. Bundy and John W. Holmes who will again have the privilege of going to the polls and settling the question if Bundy so desires.

Arthur Corey who was runner-up in the battle for the Senate has already signified his intention to enter the race, and has already begun canvassing the voters in an effort to poll the best vote possible. M. K. Blount is the incumbent of the office.

Two town ships will vote for constables who failed to settle their arguments in the last primary, and this will give additional interest to the run-off in those particular sections.

It was rather difficult for the boys to win out in the primary on account of the large number of candidates entered against them, but now that the fight has narrowed down to two in each field something definite will be the result of the forthcoming battle of ballots. It is the last chance and it is going to take some strenuous campaigning on all sides.

The Smoot-Hawley tariff bill may be one of the most objectionable measures of its kind ever passed before, but it has been approved by the Senate and will soon go to the president for his signature.

The increased rates of a menace to American industry, and it has received a vigorous protest from many sections of the country. But what the State wanted and it is just what they got after a long, long time of deliberations.

Organization of the four club baseball league in this part of the state will be received with elation here by reason of the fact that it has been talked almost incessantly since the opening of the baseball season.

There is no reason in the world why the league should not draw big crowds, composed as it is of young men who have played an important part in college ball the last few years, and also some boys who saw service in the old Eastern Carolina League.

As a member of the newly organized circuit, Greenville will endeavor to put a winning club into

Cotton Consumption Drops Off Slightly

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—Cotton consumed during May was announced by the census bureau today as having totalled 473,917 bales of lint and 68,779 bales of linters compared with 532,382 and 66,951 in April this year and 1,008,050 and 79,911 in May last year. Cotton on hand May 31 was held as follows:

In public storage and at compresses, 3,337,360 bales of lint and 39,473 of linters, compared with 3,636,296 and 33,003 and 15,065 in May last year.

Cotton spindles active during May numbered 28,374,434, compared with 28,860,382 in April this year and 30,937,162 in May last year.

Miss Daniels announced her bridesmaids will be Mrs. George Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Albert Kaufman, Constance Talmadge, Lila Lee, Betty Compson, Mae Sundry, Marie Mosquini and Adela Rogers Hyland.

The honeymoon, Miss Daniels said, will be postponed until the completion of productions in which she and Mr. Lyon are now appearing.

The couple obtained a license to wed two weeks ago, at which time Miss Daniels announced they had been engaged for more than a year but had postponed the wedding "until we were sure we loved each other."

King Carol To Provide For His Former Wife

London, June 14.—(AP)—A dispatch to the London Daily Mail from Berne, Switzerland, today said that Mme. Lupescu was en route to Bucharest in the charge of two trustworthy Rumanian officers, both friends of King Carol.

Shortly before Carol started for Bucharest to reclaim the crown worn by his father and son, the dispatch said, he went to Mme. Lupescu and informed her that the interests of the Rumanian state made it imperative that he return there.

Mme. Lupescu approached him timidly, and then throwing her arms around his neck, sobbed her resignation and a wish to be remembered in his thoughts always.

"I know you must go, but when you are back in Bucharest you'll forget me as you have forgotten others."

The kind-to-be, who is smartly moustachioed and a handsome man, answered her with a vow that he would never forget her, and promised an arrangement whereby she would return to Rumania and would be always provided for.

Mme. Lupescu expressed some fear at traveling alone, so Carol promised her an escort of two officers and the private secretary who served him in his exile.

The dispatch in conclusion said that Mme. Lupescu would take the Orient express Sunday at Vienna and travel to Bucharest under an assumed name.

Predicts Method To Delay Old Age

Chicago, June 14.—(AP)—Dr. Irving S. Cutter, dean of North Western University Medical School, believes a method of delaying old age soon may be an open secret.

Describing laboratory experiments conducted in the school and in wards of the Passavant Hospital of which he is superintendent, Dr. Cutter said:

"It has been shown that retention of fluids in the body may be controlled almost at will, increased or decreased by careful management based upon a biochemistry blood analysis. This study bids fair to be of utmost importance in prolonging the lives of patients suffering oedema."

Oedema, he described, as an accumulation of excess fluid in the body tissue, caused by factors closely paralleling those influencing the rapid oncoming of old age.

"Scientists have reason to believe that, succeeding in a treatment of oedema, they may defy old age" he said.

Dean Cutter told of the experiments in connection with the celebration of the first anniversary of the Passavant Hospital on the McKinlock campus last night.

Favor Collection Of Taxes On The Installment Plan

Raleigh, June 14.—(AP)—Councils of North Carolina will collect taxes on the "installment" plan instead of in a yearly lump sum, if recommendations of the county government advisory commission to the 1931 General Assembly are accepted.

A report of the commission following a meeting here yesterday said that the Legislature should "be acquainted with the partial payment of taxes" plan. "It was agreed," the report continued, "to set up for the public advantage, to be derived from such a scheme and the difficulties in the way of working out such a program without making the expense too heavy for the benefits derived therefrom."

Under the plan it is understood, taxes would be payable in monthly or quarterly installments. The commission made no statement on the plan of operation.

Other recommendations and suggestions of the state body if carried out will effect important changes in county government organization.

They included a suggestion that bonds of county officials and depositors be increased in order that "the counties may have better protection"; that county accountants be named by county commissioners and "minimum qualifications" for the office be established; that the legislature consider "the value of county managers as already demonstrated and the need of unifying city and county managers as to the levy of taxes and the issuing of bonds"; and "advantages to be derived from abolishing the office of county treasurer."

Hoover Declares No Obligations In Naval Treaty

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—President Hoover today stood sponsor for the statement that the London naval pact contains "not a scintilla of agreement or obligation of any characted outside the treaty itself."

This assertion was regarded as having been evoked by the insistence of Senate opponents of ratification that the administration give the foreign relations committee confidential documents having to do with the negotiations of the pact. Their request has been refused.

In further reply to this group the president said the Senate "through two of its members on the delegation has had a practical participation in every step of the making of the treaty."

Analysing the cruiser provision of the pact, Mr. Hoover said the omission to these is based upon "a very small part of the fleet."

These assertions were contained in a statement issued by the president late yesterday. It was the second defense of the treaty to come from the administration in twenty-four hours. Secretary Stimson on Thursday night delivered a radio address appealing for prompt ratification.

FATHER (By Henry Gillen) O we take such things for granted, All the care and clothes and food, And we lavish our affection On the mother of the brood, And we seldom think a moment Of the soldier of the guard Who is daily fighting battles For the health and home and yard.

He is chief of commissary For he keeps the larder filled And the captain of entrenchments When the garden must be tilled, And the lonely sentry pacing When the stars are in the sky For he has to stride the carpet When a baby wants to cry.

With the twilight comes no respite, Still the battle is intense, For he must repair a loophole In the little picket fence, And on holidays of restive O he never will complain If he's asked to hang the screen-door For the summer fly campaign.

Now he never gets a medal, A citation or reward, And the only thing he boasts of Is his little growing squad; If they're happy he is happy, But if shadows ever fall You will find him there fighting With his back against the wall.

O we take such things for granted, All the care and clothes and food, And we lavish our affection On the mother of the brood, And we seldom think a moment Of the soldier of the guard Who is daily fighting battles For the health and home and yard.

Negro Acquitted Of Murder Charge

Asheville, June 14.—(AP)—Boys Jackson, Negro, today stood acquitted of charges in connection with the slaying of B. K. Bryant, Greenville, Tenn., electrician, last week on the Asheville-Marshall highway.

Meanwhile, Joe Hart, 17-year-old Negro, was on his way back to state prison at Raleigh, his charge that Jackson killed Bryant exploded. When the Negroes faced each other here yesterday Hart received a beating.

Hart was arrested in Lenoir county in Bryant's automobile the day of the slaying. Officers said last night that after dropping his accusations against Jackson, the youth insisted that "a white man" killed the electrician and paid him $2 to say a Negro did it. Hart will be charged with murder, officers indicated.

FRIZZELLE IS SPEAKER AT KIWANIS CLUB

J. Paul Frizzelle, who won for Judge of the Fifth Judicial District in the Democratic primary last Saturday, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club last night.

He spoke on the subject of "Law Enforcement" and brought out many interesting facts dealing with this important question.

B. B. Sugg presided over the session last night and the program was in charge of Sheriff Whitehurst. The song program was in charge of C. B. Rowlett in the absence of Rev. E. L. Hillman. Two solo numbers were rendered by Mrs. J. Knott Proctor, who was accompanied by Miss Eugene Thomas, member of the East Carolina Teachers college.

Both county and city law enforcement officers were guests of the club, and in addition to the main address, they heard Mayor J. C. Lister delivered a short talk stressing the need of harmony between the policeman and the citizen.

The mayor said the policemen of the city need the encouragement and support of the people. He declared that the officers were friends of the people and were doing everything in their power to bring about a spirit of peace and harmony.

Mr. Frizzelle spoke of the important part which law enforcement plays in the life of a community, and said that it should have the support of those attempting to reach a higher plane of citizenship. He said the officers needed the encouragement of the people in their effort to produce better conditions in the various communities. These men, he pointed out, render a high type of service to humanity, but the work must necessarily be limited without the undivided support of the people in general.

FRENCH GIVES TESTIMONY AT SHIP INQUIRY

Doston, June 14.—(AP)—Second Engineer John T. French of the steamer Fairfax testified today that 15 minutes after the collision Tuesday night with the Fall River tank or Pinthis and the subsequent fire, he found that the main fire pump had not yet been started.

French answered questions of Hoover of the United States Steamboat service at today's hearing in the Federal investigation into the disaster which cost 47 lives.

French explained the reason for the closed valve of the main pumps by saying that the engine room was full of smoke and conditions were bad there. His questioners then brought out that previously the third engineer had testified that the engine room was comparatively clear of smoke although the fire room was full.

The first witness today was Captain Fred Gowar, Port captain for the Lake Tankers Corporation, who owned the Pinthis. Captain Gowar read into the record the names of the 19 members of the Pinthis crew who were lost.

He was followed by A. J. Powell, Fairfax third officer. Powell was questioned about the testimony of James Boggs, second steward, who said a Marine cut a fall rope on lifeboat Number 7, while Boggs and Powell were attempting to lower it. Powell said the rope appeared to have been cut when he examined it last night.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE BY TAKING POISON

Raleigh, June 14.—(AP)—After writing a letter to his wife, F. L. Johnson, a traveling salesman, thought to be from Huntington, Pa. today swallowed 12 tablets of a poison, an attempt to commit suicide and was in serious condition at Rex Hospital this afternoon.

Hospital authorities said that the poison Johnson swallowed worked slowly and it would be several days before the extent of his condition could be definitely ascertained.

Johnson registered at a local hotel under the name J. C. Mc-

Cartier. After taking the poison he called a clerk of the hotel and asked him to come to his room. He nonchalantly advised him he had taken poison because he wanted to die and wanted to let the authorities know that he alone was to be blamed. He said family troubles were the cause of the act, police said.

It was not learned that the man's name was Johnson until he reached the hospital, when a letter addressed to his wife, Mrs. F. L. Johnston, 807 Mifflin street, Johnston, Pa., was found in his pocket.

COTTON MARKET

New York, June 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 7 to 15 points today, with the initial offerings absorbed by week-end covering, but the selling continued with the market soon becoming nervous and unsettled.

There was a renewal of July liquidation which seemed to be coming partly from abroad, while some southern selling was also reported which may have been partly against cotton available for delivery. This sent the price off to 14.15, or 25 points net lower, and the near-month weakness had an unsettling effect on new crop positions which were also sold on favorable view of the weather and reiterated reports of a poor demand for cotton goods.

The old October contract declined to 13.54 and the new to 13.28 while the new December sold off to 13.50, making net declines of about 10 to 15 points on the new crop and the market was within 2 or 3 points of these prices at the end of the first half hour. The Liverpool market is closed again today but will re-open for business on Monday. Cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance was estimated at 56,000 bales as against 82,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 14.—(AP)—Big breaks in all grain prices smashed low price records right and left today, wheat falling under $1.00 a bushel touched 95c flat. In some quarters, Senate adoption of the new tariff bill at Washington was construed as one of the chief depressing factors, on account of assertions that United States wheat may be discriminated against abroad because of advances in American import duties on commodities. As a rule, however, a general rush to sell which swept the grain markets downward was attributed mostly to the effect of further rains tending to dispel fear that drought would bring about severe curtailment of wheat yields in Canada.

Wheat closed unsettled 1-2 to 2 3-8 lower than yesterday; corn closed 2-1-2 to 3-1-4 down; oats 1-2 to 1-3-8 off and provisions varying from 30c decline to a rise of 5c.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 14.—(AP)—Although urgent liquidation appeared to have been completed, the stock market ended the week in a bearish frame of mind today, unaided by the passage of the Hawley-Smoot tariff measure in the Senate.

The stock market took little notice of the passage of the tariff measure in 1922, and was not bolstered by prophecies of business recovery resulting from the new measure. In fact, some professional traders hastened to make ready capital of the new measure.

Trading was extremely dull until the last half hour, when selling became active. There was little in the week-end news to help restore confidence. The weekly business and mercantile reviews pointed primarily to the downwar season trends for this period, and further decline in commodity prices.

There is a growing feeling in some quarters, however, that pessimism is being carried to extremes. Martin J. Inull, saying "my feeling is that our business, taking the country as a whole, is much better than our business psychology."

The oil shares were helped by reports of the transcontinental-Oilco merger, and displayed a relatively steadier tone than other parts of the list. This consolidation is believed to be only one of several now in the negotiation stage.

CLEVELAND IN AMERICAN SPORTLIGHT

By ORLO ROBERTSON (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cleveland Indians, picked to finish no higher than fourth place in the American League pennant race, today are out in front after a whirlwind dash to the top that has left the remainder of the clubs and the Athletics in particular, groggy.

With a championship brand of pitching and a murderous attack, the Indians yesterday rolled up their seventh straight victory and their third over the world champions to go into the lead by four points.

As if to make their advance into the leadership even more impressive the Indians dined the champions 15 to 2 as Wesley Ferrell turned in his tenth victory of the season. George Walbro, usually the nemesis of the Cleveland batters, was no puzzle and before the game was over he had been driven to the showers and Eddie Rommel called to his rescue.

The Senators took the White Sox into camp 6 to 2 when Ad Liska held Chicago to four hits. The victory left the Senators only a half game out of second place. At St. Louis Rip Collins and Milton Gaston staged an old-fashioned hurling duel as the Browns defeated the Red Sox 1 to 0 in eleven innings. A single by Ralph Kress broke up the contest. Collins held the Sox to four hits while Gaston let the Browns down with seven safe blows.

In contrast Detroit and the New York Yankees put on a modern game of baseball—slamming the ball to every corner of the field as the Yankees won 10 to 9. A total of 27 hits were collected by both teams.

In the National League, Adolfo Luque, a veteran of many a major league game, lost his first contest of the 1930 season when the Cincinnati Reds pounded out a 8 to 5 triumph over the Brooklyn Robins. Although hit hard, Luque stuck by his guns for the entire nine innings in an effort to stop his former teammates.

The Chicago Cubs managed to nose out the Phillies 7 to 5 in a see-saw contest. Gabby Hartnett, Cub catcher, pounded out two home runs to lead the attack.

Rained out for two days, the Cardinals and Braves finally came together with the latter winning 9 to 8 in ten innings. The Cards got away to a seven run lead in the first two innings but the Braves kept peck away at Willie Sherdel and Herman Bell until they were on even terms. Singles by Welsh and Maranville and a fielder's choice gave the Braves the winning run.

Southpaw Bill Walker turned in his eighth victory of the season when the Giants trounced the Pirates 7 to 2 in the last game of the series.

AUGUSTA WINS TWO STRAIGHT FROM TOURISTS

Charlotte, June 14.—(AP)—Odie Strain stepped in at Augusta too late to do any good in the South Atlantic League's first half race, but he is getting Wolf fans plenty pepped up over the club's chances in the second half dash.

The Augustans were full of confidence, zip and fire for today's double-header with Asheville as the result of having chalked up a second straight win over the Tourists by a 3 to 1 count. Grady McClung came through with a nifty mound performance as his teammates mixed base hits with a couple of errors by Prew to cop the battle. Knox and Packard starring with the stick.

McClung surrendered but four hits as his supporters touched Lee Ormand and Buck Greene, Tourist hurlers, for seven blows. Macon passed up an opportunity to go into the league lead by bowing to Greenville 8 and 4. Fisher, young southpaw from the University of Florida, hurled good ball for the Peaches but received poor support.

Leach led the Greenville attack with a single and triple, but Manager Joe Scheper batted in most runs, two, with a double.

Jim Mooney, Charlotte pitcher, proved that Friday the 13th meant nothing to him by striking out 13 of the Columbia batsmen. Charlotte won the game behind his fine pitching, 9 to 4.

Olin Peritt, joined the Columbia team and figured in all of the club's scoring, batting in three runs and scoring the fourth himself. He occupied the hot corner for the Comers.

Double headers are booked around the circuit today, with Asheville having the opportunity to cop the leadership from Macon, the two clubs being separated from top by only half a game.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

"I ran the risk of losing the meet and of absorbing a lot of adverse criticism back home by not going after every possible point in the intercollegiate," Dean Cromwell, Southern California's veteran track and field coach said to me after his Trojans had romped off with the I. C. A. A. A. title at Cambridge.

"Nevertheless," he went on, "I consider it was better to have shaved it close or, even to have lost, rather than ask the boys to do what I considered too much.

"For instance, we did not run Frank Wykoff in the full long sprint or Juddy Welsh in the low hurdles. Both are young and have two years more of college competition. They are high-strung and their futures would be handicapped by over-work at this time.

"I consider Wykoff one of the greatest sprinters of all time but you must remember that a year ago he was a very sick boy. In fact we weren't sure he ever would run again. He is only 20 now. He has come along nicely and I expect him to do great things.

"We have a very young team, losing only three of the boys who scored points at Harvard, and should be well prepared to defend our championship next year."

BABE CLINGS TO BAT LEAD

New York, June 14.—(AP)—Another week of the 1930 baseball season is history and still Babe Herman clings to his National League batting championship, according to the figures released today and including Wednesday's games. The slugging Brooklyn outfielder dropped four points in five games but his .415 average tops his nearest rival eight points.

Riggs Stephenson, back in the Cubs lineup after a layoff, maintained his rank as runner-up to the Robins' slugger, although losing five points in six games. His average at the end of Wednesday's game read .407, just one point more than Bill Terry, the Giants' powerful hitter. Chuck Klein, moved up into fourth place among the regulars with an average of .405.

While keeping his position at the head of the batting column, Herman was forced to relinquish a few of his other honors. Terry took the leadership in runs and hits, counting 52 of the former and cracking out 82 of the latter, two more than his Brooklyn rival, Hack Wilson, who is showing the way in home runs, with 18, was not so powerful in driving in runs during the week, Wilson going out in front.

The Phillies cloutier has driven in 59-14 during the week to lead Wilson by five runs. Walter Berger of the Braves trails Hack by one run. Frankie Frisch failed to hit a double during the week's play but held on to the leadership with 21 two-base blows. Kiki Cuyler added one triple to increase his advantage to two over his teammate, Woody English. Kiki has cracked out nine three-base hits. Cuyler also holds the honor in base stealing with 15 thefts, two more than last week.

Behind the quartet of leading batters follow:
Hogan, New York, .402; Heilmann, Cincinnati, .395; P. Waner, Pittsburgh, .386; Bissonette, Brooklyn, .380; Frisch, St. Louis, .368; and Grantham, Pittsburgh, to J. O'Doul, Philadelphia, .365.
