PLAY TO VOTE ON NAVAL PACT NEXT MONDAY

Reject Motion To Postpone Action Until Hoover Turns Over Secret Papers

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations committee today agreed to vote on next Monday on the London naval treaty.

A motion to postpone action until President Hoover has turned over the confidential papers relating to the pact was rejected, 13 to 4.

This decision vote was regarded as showing a distinct majority in the committee for the pact.

Senator Johnson, Republican, California, moved that the treaty be laid aside pending receipt of the confidential notes exchanged among the powers prior to the London party.

The committee previously voted 10 to 7 on adopting a resolution asserting its right to the exchange of notes.

Chairman Borah, of the committee who voted for the resolution asserting the committee's right to the confidential documents, joined today with other supporters of that resolution in voting down the motion to defer action on the treaty until the papers have been delivered.

Senator Johnson gave notice he intended to prepare a minority report on the pact.

Borah was requested by the committee to confer with Secretary Stimson with a view of making public those papers which have been given to the committee by the department already. Opinion that the papers should be made public was unanimous but it was deemed best to have the committee's view given to the State Department first.

Kelly Pays Heavy Fine For Reckless Driving Of Auto

Charged with reckless and careless driving while intoxicated and assault with a deadly weapon in connection with an automobile accident on the Greenville-Bethel highway last Sunday afternoon, L. G. Kelly was fined $250 and cost and had his license revoked for a period of 12 months by Judge W. L. Wheeler in the regular weekly session of County court in this city this morning.

He was also given a 12 months suspended sentence to the county roads, the sentence to be come effective any time in the next two years if the defendant should be found guilty of violating any of the criminal laws.

The charge grew out of the automobile collision near Greenville last Sunday afternoon in which Mrs. W. A. Bowen, of this city, was painfully injured. The car driven by Kelly, which was riding, and caused injuries to Mrs. Bowen and two other occupants of the car. There were two other people in the Kelly car, but neither was injured seriously. Kelly was arrested on a charge of reckless and careless driving while drunk and held over for County court under bond of $400.

Two other cases were disposed of here this morning, one being that of Louis Hardy, colored, who was sentenced to the roads for six months on a charge of having liquor for sale, and the other against Ada Moore, colored, who was sentenced to thirty days in jail on a charge of larceny.

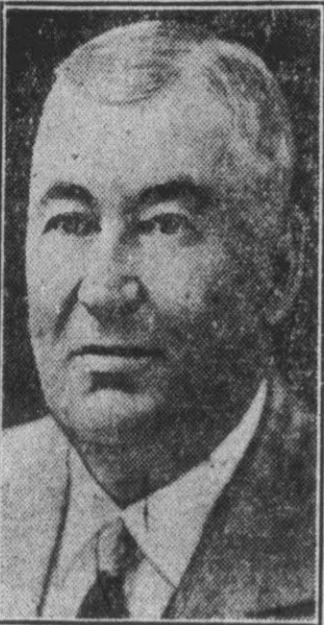

BOOTLEGGERS GYPED AROUND CAPITAL CITY

Raleigh, June 17.—(AP)—Bootleggers are having a hard time here. Police officials say many engaged in the illegal practice of vending intoxicants are receiving for their double counterfeit money.

None have complained but police haven't said exactly how they know the bootleggers are getting gyped. Anyway, federal men are after the leggers and counterfeiters.

Prohibition Officer Slain In Running Gunfight With Bootleggers At Goldsboro

Dakota Candidate

D. A. McCullough, Sioux Falls banker, democratic candidate for governorship of South Dakota.

Three Others Also Injured When Wounded Driver Loses Control of Machine And It Crashes Into Tree; Rum Runners Escape.

Goldsboro, June 17.—(AP)—P. L. Finchum, a prohibition officer, was killed and H. V. Andrews, another officer, wounded seriously early today in a gun fight with alleged rum runners who escaped.

Two other officers, B. A. Dale and F. E. Street, sustained undetermined injuries when an automobile in which the four were riding when fired upon was wrecked.

The officers, attached to district enforcement headquarters at Wilson, gave chase to an automobile they suspected to be loaded with liquor at 3:30 o'clock this morning. Two men in the automobile chased opened fire and a running gun fight developed.

Near the city park here, the officers' car drew alongside that of the rum runners and in a brief exchange of shots here Finchum was wounded in the head and Andrews shot through the arm and shoulder.

Finchum was driving the automobile and when he was shot, it left the road and crashed into a tree, injuring Dale and Street.

As the car wrecked, its occupants were thrown against the windshield and badly lacerated.

All four men were brought to a hospital here. Finchum died shortly afterwards. Hospital attendants refused to disclose the extent of the injuries to Dale and Street.

An examination of the wrecked car revealed eight bullet holes in the radiator and investigating officers expressed belief the rum runners had first attempted to halt the pursuing officers by shooting into it with the hope a dry radiator would force them to abandon the chase.

The suspected rum runners were headed towards Snow Hill when they left Goldsboro and officers there were called and asked to keep watch for them. Officers in other neighboring cities were also notified.

The two men in the suspected liquor car made their escape following the shooting.

Andrews told his story, of the occurrence while dropped up in bed in the Goldsboro hospital.

"We had a tip that a rum car was coming up Number 10 last night and we four fellows got together in Goldsboro, it must have been right around three o'clock when a car like the one we had been told to watch for came along. I stuck my head out of our car so that they could see the insignia on my cap and Finchum blew for me."

CHECK RAPID PRICE DECLINE ON STOCK MART

Market Helped By Firmer Tone In The Cotton And Grain Markets Today

New York, June 17.—(AP)—The drastic decline in stock prices was checked today by large-scale supporting orders, although an enormous volume of selling was dropped upon the market in the early transactions, evidently representing the liquidation of impaired marginal accounts.

Pivotal shares generally worked higher after the first few minutes of trading, but gains were moderate and maintained with difficulty, as many traders welcomed each advance as an opportunity to lighten holdings at diminished losses. Trading was in enormous volume, the ticker quotations alluring nearly an hour behind floor transactions.

"The market was helped by a firmer tone in the cotton and grain markets during the early hours of the day, but further price cutting in copper, announced during the early afternoon, provided another unfavorable factor."

Brock And Schlee Leave Florida For Round Trip Flight To San Diego, Cal.

Noted Fliers Expect To Fly From Coast To Coast and Back From 24 to 30 Hours To Lower Record Held by Capt. Hawks

Jacksonville, Fla., June 17.—(AP)—William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee took off at 504 (EST) today for a round trip flight to San Diego, Calif.

The start was without incident, their monoplane skimming down the beach for half a mile before taking and heading into the west.

Brock and Schlee, who carried 450 gallons of gasoline, hoped to reach San Diego, a distance of 2,112 miles and return to Jacksonville in 24 to 30 hours.

Overcast weather prevailed at the take-off and moderate headwinds and showers were predicted along the route of the flight.

Three records for coast to coast trips now are held by Captain Frank Hawks. These are 19 hours 10 minutes for the east-west hop and 17 hours 38 minutes for the west to east jump and 44 hours and 17 minutes for elapsed time, but the transcontinental route from Jacksonville Beach to San Diego is about 400 miles shorter than the distance between New York and Los Angeles which was covered by Captain Hawks.

Rules Marriage Is Serious Even In Spirit of Jest

Atlanta, June 17.—(AP)—Marriage in the State of Georgia, says the Supreme Court, cannot be dissolved without just cause even if entered into in jest.

The court so decided in reversing a decree of a Superior Court, which had favorably decided a suit in behalf of Rena Berry to annul her marriage to Richard Maddox, of Rome, Ga. Records said that Miss Berry, 15, and Hand, 19, were married at 11 P. M. last August after a dinner of "in a spirit of hilarity, baggadochio and levity," both giving incorrect ages.

Hand appealed the suit to the high court.

"While the marriage was agreed to in a spirit of levity," the Supreme Court said, "Society in general is concerned in all marriage contracts and, therefore, they cannot be set aside lightly and without cause."

WHITE WINS OUT IN MAINE SENATE RACE

Thomas D. Schall Reported Headed Towards Victory in Minnesota

Portland, Me., June 17.—(AP)—Congressman Wallace H. White, Jr., representative in the national house for 13 years, today was the Republican nominee for United States Senator to succeed Arthur R. Gould.

With all but 70 of the State's 632 precincts reported the vote was White, 42,197; former Governor R. O. Brewster, 25,877.

White took the lead early in yesterday's primary election and increased it through the night. A total of 6,064 votes was received by Dugald B. DeWar, who ran on a wet platform.

For the second time in two years former Governor Brewster stood defeated for the nomination. Two years ago, while chief executive of the state he contested with Senator Frederick Hale for the latter's seat and was defeated by 33,000 votes in a primary in which 128,000 Republicans went to the polls.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—(AP)—Thomas D. Schall, a member of the Independent Republican group in the United States Senate, today was apparently headed towards victory in his fight for the Republican nomination for re-election in Monday's primary election.

Schall, blind veteran for 15 years Congressional service, and now nearing the end of his first term in the Senate, steadily piled up a majority of votes, not even slackening in the rural areas which were considered the backbone of the strength of his chief opponent, Gov. Theodore Christianson.

Trailing behind these two leaders was John F. Selb, who entered the race late to campaign on one issue—repeal of the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act. Both Christianson and Selb have supported prohibition.

About one-fourth of the state reported Schall leading by more than 23,000 votes. He had 72,596 in 977 precincts of 3,698 in the state, while Christianson had 49,508, with Selb having 7,674.

GOVERNMENT NOT IN FAVOR ARMS EXPORT

U. S. Disapproves The Shipment Of Munitions Of War To The Soviet Union

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—Disapproval of export of arms, munitions of war and airplanes for military purposes to the Soviet Union has become a policy of the American government.

While no governmental agency is empowered by law to restrict such exportations, officials of the state department said today the administration will follow the policy of informing prospective exporters that such shipments are "regarded with disfavor."

The decision came to light after the Glenn L. Martin Co., of Baltimore, opened negotiations with the Soviet to manufacture twenty bombing planes and other aircraft, and equipment at an approximate cost of $2,000,000.

The negotiations, however, were brought to an end when the state department, after consulting other government departments including the Navy, indicated its disapproval.

The discussions looking toward the drawing of a contract for the planes began with the visit of a Soviet aviation commission. They included such considerations as the training of Russian pilots and the establishment and operation of a Russian plant by the Martin Co. until such time as the Soviet authorities could take it over.

State department officials said today they have for some time reviewed requests for exportations of arms and military equipment to the Soviet Union. In the present instance disfavor was expressed "in view of certain recent developments."

ALCOCK TAKES OVER POLICE AT CHICAGO

Acting Police Head Declines To Discuss Plans For Cleaning Up Gangland

Chicago, June 17.—(AP)—Declining to discuss plans for clearing Chicago of gangsters demanded with vehemence since the assassination of Jake Lingle, Tribune crime reporter, John H. Alcock took command of the police department as acting commissioner today much as a matter of habit and with few words. This is his third time as a fill-in chief.

He explained his first act—rescinding the transfer orders left by the resigning commissioner, William P. Russell—terse.

"It is not right for an outgoing chief to make transfers," he said. "If I have the responsibility I'll make the transfers and I'll have no captains hid away."

While Chief Alcock thus talked to newspapermen, former chief of detectives John Stege, cooled his heels in an outer office. One of Russell's orders reduced Stege from the rank of deputy commissioner and assigned him to an outlying district as captain. Stege asked for the assignment. Alcock let the reduction stand but left Stege unassigned.

"I picked the most inconsequential station I knew," said Stege, "because I didn't want people to say I was in a spot where I could hamper the investigation of the Lingle murder."

"When I accepted the job as chief deputy commissioner I accepted its responsibilities and this is one of them," Alcock said.

Until he conferred with the mayor he would make no formal statement. His philosophy of police work was summed up in a short sentence:

Thrifty Farmer Improves "Runt" Pig On a Bottle

If you have a runt in your pig family try raising him on a bottle. This is the advice of W. C. Purser, well known farmer of the Aydes community, and he knows what he is talking about because he has tried out the plan with pronounced success to the astonishment of neighbors and members of the pig family themselves.

Not so long ago, Purser had a nice litter of pigs to come to his pen. Each and every member of the family thrived for a time, but after awhile it became evident that one was going to be a runt of the family despite unusual care and devotion which the mother pig showered upon him.

Believing that the "runt" was not getting proper nourishment, the thrifty farmer put him on a bottle just like anybody would have done a piggy child, and in a few days a great improvement was noted. Today the pig is no longer a runt, he has developed in avoidpools and threatens to become one of the most robust members of the family.

Purser says one of the amazing things about the experiment is the fact that the "runt" having become accustomed to his bottle, refuses to give it up and continues to hang to it just like his life depended upon it.

President Hoover Signs The New Tariff Measure; Law Effective Tonight

Smoot-Hawley Bill Signed At 12:59 In Presence Of Secretary Mellon And Several Members Of Republican Party

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—President Hoover today signed the Tariff Bill.

The law revising the existing eight-year-old rate structure in more than a thousand instances and overhauling the administrative features, takes effect at midnight tonight.

Customs officials are prepared for the rush of ships to reach port and file their cargo papers in time to benefit by the old rates. They also are ready to administer the new rates and bureau officials here expected little confusion.

The bill was signed in the presence of Secretary Mellon, Francis X. Aebler, commissioner of customs, and four of the six Republican conferees, including Senators Smoot, Utah, and Shortridge, California, and Representatives Hawley, Oregon, and Treadway, Massachusetts. No photographs of the ceremony were permitted. As the president affixed his signature those grouped around him applauded and Representative Treadway was the first to shake the president's hand, others followed.

Corey Will Not Ask For Run-Off Primary Here To Settle Race For Senate

Withdraws Right To Call Second Contest Against M.K. Blount Because of Expense And Inconvenience Which The County Would Incur.

A. B. Corey, Greenville attorney, who several days ago announced that he would ask for a second primary to settle the race for the Senate between himself and M. K. Blount, present incumbent, announced this morning that he had changed his mind and would not ask for the run-off contest.

In a formal statement to his constituency, Corey said his decision resulted from a realization of the expense and inconvenience which the people of the county would incur in the calling of another primary. He expressed appreciation of the splendid vote which he received in the primary Saturday week and said he would always feel grateful for the support accorded him.

Corey and Blount received the highest vote in the three-cornered race for the Senate of the North Carolina Legislature in the primary Saturday week and said he would always feel grateful for the support accorded him.

KIDNAP RING IS BROKEN UP AT DETROIT

Clique That Has Extorted Thousands Of Dollars In Ransoms, Comes To Grief

Detroit, June 17.—(AP)—A kidnap clique that has extorted hundreds of thousands of dollars in ransom money during the last two years, today was broken on the wheel of the law.

Seventeen men and women were members of the gang, police said, and of them all only one, Joe O'Roidan, has evaded arrest.

Eight of the 17 were arrested within the last two days by Detroit and state police; seven others already are in prison; one is dead—killed by his associates. Only O'Roidan has escaped.

The one killed was James Walters, night club operator, called the "Fingerman" of the gang. He was slain in front of his home two months ago.

Three square blocks, between 48th and 51st streets and Fifth and Sixth avenues, are to be leveled beginning this fall with expectations that the center will be completed within three years. The development involved an investment estimated at $250,000,000.

A skyscraper, sixty stories high, is to be erected on the Sixth avenue side, and a smaller oval shaped building on Fifth avenue.

Four theatres will be located in the center, providing vaudeville, sound motion pictures, musical comedies and dramatic entertainments. They will be operated by the Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation.

Housed in the skyscraper will be 27 broadcasting studios.

Ships Race To Port In Effort To Beat Tariff

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Merchant ships were racing toward American ports today in an effort to clear their cargoes through the customs house before the new tariff goes into effect, adding thousands of dollars in increased duties.

Customs officials have been swamped during the last three days with applications for withdrawals from customs warehouses. Duties on goods withdrawn have amounted to $18,000,000 since last Saturday.

When the Red Star ships Westerland and Mirpeponka reached the harbor yesterday, their masters hurried ashore and presented their manifests at the customs house before the ships docked.

The Cunarder Samaria, Cosulich liner Vulcania, the Human, American Farmer, the White Star liner Arabic and the French liner France all arrived yesterday on schedules speeded to beat the tariff.

that right and announced the fact last Saturday morning. With the withdrawal of Corey, there is only one other candidate of the recent election demanding a runoff fight that is S. I. Dudley, candidate for the Board of County Commissioners, who is opposing J. Paul Davenport, of Paulus, present chairman of the board. Two constables in Chocod and Beaver Dam townships have also signified their intention of entering another contest to determine the fight for the offices in their particular districts.

N. J. PRIMARY HOLDING EYES OF THE NATION

Prohibition Is Main Issue Of Contest For Republican Nomination To Senate

Newark, N. J., June 17.—(AP)—The political eyes of the nation were centered on the New Jersey primary today in which prohibition is the paramount issue and an ambassador, a former Senator and a Congressman are the candidates for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

Managers for Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, former Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, and Representative Franklin W. Fort, the Republican senatorial candidates, all predicted one of the largest votes in a New Jersey Republican primary. They estimated that from 500,000 to 650,000 ballots would be cast.

With the close of the campaign, which ended with radio addresses by the candidates, supporters of all three were claiming victory.

Prohibition became the chief issue when Ambassador Morrow opened his campaign with a declaration for the repeal of the 18th amendment and the return to the state control of liquor. Frelinghuysen previously had taken a position favoring modification of the prohibition laws under federal control.

The day after Morrow opened his campaign, Fort entered the lists as a champion of prohibition. The State Anti-Saloon League and other dry groups rallied to his support.

Ambassador Morrow closed his campaign last night with a rally at Asbury Park and a radio speech in which he thanked Republicans of the state for the support they had given him.

Frelinghuysen in his last radio appeal attacked Morrow for not repudiating the support of the state Republican organization, which he charged was responsible for corrupt conditions in many parts of the state.

Charges that Morrow and Frelinghuysen had dodged the prohibition issue after he entered the race were made by Fort in his final address to the voters.

Urges Civitans To Build Good Citizens

Asheville, June 17.—(AP)—A practical program of activity by Civitan clubs as "builders of good citizens" was presented to today's session of the tenth annual convention of Civitan International by Michael Kelley, manager immigrant service and citizenship bureau, Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York, in an address on "your non-citizenship or illiterate neighbor: a civic opportunity."

Mr. Kelley gave an account of a recent demonstration in Trenton, N. J., in which as the result of the citizenship movement sponsored by the Civitan club more than 1,000 men and women were aided toward citizenship during one week. The speaker developed this theme by a graphic account of the stream of immigration that has been flowing into the United States.

ABOUT TOWN

Greenville and Pitt county people who have been clamoring for baseball all the spring and summer will have that desire gratified Wednesday afternoon when Williams, Tom comes here to play the opening game of the four-club county league recently organized in this section.

The opening contest promises to be one of the most memorable conflicts of the entire season, and lovers of this brand of sport should not fail to see it.

The league is composed entirely of county boys—young men who have seen either college or league service and a good brand of ball may be expected.

Like all baseball organizations the success of the league will depend upon attendance and people who want to see the four clubs flourish should not fail to attend. This is one of the most important things in connection with the game and it is to be hoped all games played in Greenville will see attendance equal to that of the old Eastern Carolina League.

All games here will be played at the fairgrounds where plenty of room is afforded in grandstand and bleachers.

Members of the Greenville Merchants Association—between 25 and 50 strong—have gone to Wrightsville Beach to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Merchants Association and incidentally to boost Judson Blount, for the presidency.

Mr. Blount at present is first vice-president of the organization and in line for the highest office it is in power of the merchants to confer upon a member, and it is the purpose of his fellow citizens to see that he gets the post if such is possible.

Judson has been one of the most active members of the local and state associations over a period of several years and none is more deserving of the honor than is he. He knows the plans and aspirations of the organization as well as any other merchant of the state, and if elected, should be able to render distinguished service.

In addition to the election of officers, the association has for discussion two of the principal problems of contention of the present generation. One is the sales tax, an issue which promised to claim a big part of the attention of state legislators at the next meeting of the General Assembly, and the chain store situation.

The merchants are hopeful of reaching some definite decision in both of these problems during the Wrightsville session, and when they return home each man will know what is expected of him in the future, and exactly what line of policy to pursue.

All "road hogs" are not dead yet but indications are that they will be if they should continue driving as they do at the present time.

The term "road hog" may be confined largely to trucks operating in this and other sections of the state—machines that take up over their half of the road and cause the driver of the small car to hurt a ditch or cornfield.

This is especially so at night when trucks are trying to make their distributing centers as hurriedly as possible. They not only take up more than their part of the road but usually run at a high rate of speed merrily the lives of hundreds of people who may be on the road at the time.

Right here is a danger that is more menacing than the vehicle without lights or the driver that parks in the road instead of on the side. Usually the big trucks have trailers and they are almost upon the driver coming from the opposite direction before he discovers that his half of the road is not his own and that he must leave it to make room for a "hog". It is a condition that demands the attention of the highway patrol far more than hunting the man with one light and the car without license, because human life is preserving human life is the object of highway safety measures. There is only one way by which the situation may be improved, and that is for the highway patrolmen to check up on the big trucks at night and see if they cannot induce the drivers to respect the rights of the other man.

The run-off primary will be held in Pitt county Saturday, July 5. At this time county people will go to the polls to express their preference for members of the State Senate and the Board of County Commissioners who failed to poll sufficient votes to insure their election in the recent primary. There is one seat involved for each branch of service and the fight is expected to be a strenuous one.

This is the first time a second primary has been necessary in this county in a number of years, and this was occasioned by the death of candidates vying for the same position.

The dispute, however, will be settled in the next balloting and at the end there will be no uncertainty as to who will represent the county in the State Senate and on the Board of Commissioners.

BEGIN TEST OF S. C. RADIO TAX LAW

Charleston, S. C., June 16.—(AP)—Three suits seeking to test the constitutionality of South Carolina's radio tax were on file in Charleston county here today.

Station WBT, Charlotte, as a broadcaster; Louis D. Rubin Electrical Company, Charleston, as a dealer; and Hugh A. Ray of Charleston, as an owner, are the plaintiffs in the three separate suits.

The complaints allege that the state radio tax is in violation of the federal constitution and set forth various excerpts from these documents in an effort to sustain their contentions.

Relief Found Through the Use of Theford's Black-Draught.

Greenville, S. C.—"For a number of years, I took Theford's Black-Draught for biliousness, and as a laxative," writes Mrs. Sudie Webb, of 7 DeCamp Street, this city.

"I used to have severe sick headaches, when I would let myself get bilious. I would get very nauseated and dizzy. I would have to go to bed.

"After my head quit aching, I would feel weak and dizzy. Seemed like I would drop everything I would pick up. This dizziness would last two or three days.

"I found that Black-Draught would give relief and seemed to cleanse the system. After I found this out, when I felt a headache coming on, I would take Black-Draught and keep it off. I did this for several years, avoiding a lot of pain and suffering. I can highly recommend Black-Draught."

Mr. and Mrs. Ricks Entertain.
One of the most brilliant affairs connected with the pre-nuptial festivities of the wedding of Miss Mildred Mangum and Mr. Thomas A. Ricks was a reception given at the Woman's Club on the evening of June 10, by the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ricks. A beautiful and elaborate symbolic scheme of decoration and entertainment made the parlors, halls and banquet hall of the club building a bower of beauty and added charm and interest to the occasion. The effect was that of a southern garden party, with a background of green, and pink and white flowers in the foreground.

In the front west parlor the receiving line was composed of the bride and groom and their immediate families, while the bridal party, out of town guests, and other guests received in the banquet hall. Those in the first lines were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ricks, father and mother of the groom; T. A. Ricks, the groom, and Miss Mildred Mangum, the bride; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Mangum, father and mother of the bride; Mrs. G. T. Sykes, of Youngsville, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wilkinson, of Roanoke, Va., sister of the groom; Miss Imogene Ricks; and George Ricks, of Durham. In this room all the flowers were white and the vases and candle sticks were of brass.

As the guests passed from one line to the other they were directed by the punch bowl, which was in the back parlor, in which pink roses, snapdragons and sweet peas with pink candles, with silver vases and candle sticks, were used against the background of green and on the punch table.

From here they were ushered into the large, airy banquet hall, which was a veritable garden, with trees in the background, garden paths outlined by potted plants, with trellises and archways of white lattice work covered with southern smilax, with white seats nestling among the green, inviting guests to linger, with long, grey, Spanish moss trailing from the chandeliers and softening the light, and with festoons of smilax overhead, with white and pink flowers arranged as if growing among the foliage and tapers and lights peeping out from the green—all making a lovely scene.

In the receiving line were the wedding party and guests, with the maid of honor, Miss Frances Norman, with J. A. Ricks, of Durham, best man, at the head of the line. Then followed Miss Lucie Thompson, of Durham, and Fred Forbes; Miss Mamie Ruth Fleming and Bill Taft; Miss Elizabeth Morton and Marvin Sugg; Miss Virginia Perkins and Lawrence Stencil of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hadley; Mrs. T. A. Hodges, of Danville, Va.; and W. Leslie Harvey; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. James; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kilgo; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Suggs; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Waldrop; Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Winslow; Mrs. J. A. Ricks, of Durham, and Rev. W. A. Lillycrop; Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Hillman; Mrs. Ben Mcerris, of Durham; Miss Ethel Holmes, of Franklinton; Miss Cash, of Raleigh, and Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Bonner.

The guests were led from the line through a garden path, at the end of which was the refreshment table. Here the symbols of the occasion were made the center of the decoration scheme. The center piece was a mirror representing the sea of life, upon which the bride and groom, in miniature, were embarking in a sail boat. Over the whole was suspended a double heart, made of small pink roses, pierced by a silver arrow. On the margin of the sea were flowers, and shore lights. The details were marvelously well worked out; for instance, sails of the boat were made from a scrap of the bride's wedding dress. The symbolism was carried out in the refreshments, in such ways as this: hearts, brides or cupids in silhouette were on the cakes and minis. The color scheme was the combination of pink and white, with silver baskets and vases, that was used in other places.

As the guests departed they were conducted to the register, the bride's book, in which the same attention to detail was shown, a lovely book in pink and white, decorated with the symbols. This was in the East parlor, which completed the garden scheme of masses of green, with the pink and white garden flowers.

A number of the most prominent people of Greenville assisted in receiving. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harding and Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth welcomed the guests at the door, and in the front hall; Dr. and Mrs. W. I. Wooten introduced them to the line; Mr. and Mrs. Hill Home greeted them at the entrance to the punch room, where punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Person Nicholson, Will Wedbee and Miss Eleanor Barr, Misses Rose Hadley, Mary Forbes, Sam Carson and Miss Jane Hadley. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams directed them from this parlor to the banquet hall, where they were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Summrell and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cowen, and presented to the line by Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carr and Judge and Mrs. W. A. Darden. At the end of the line they were led along the garden path by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferguson, Mrs. Edward Tilley and Miss Estelle Greene. At the refreshment tables were serving Mesdames Hortense Moye, T. E. Hooker, James L. Fleming, and R. D. Harrington. These were assisted in serving by a bevy of beautiful young women dressed in pastel shades that blended into the decoration scheme producing a lovely effect. These were: Misses Virginia King, Clara Louise Moye, Anna Long, Annie Shields Van Dyke, Louisa Hooker, Helen White, Maria Garrett, Elizabeth Ferguson, Elizabeth Carr, Lucy James, Ruth Horne, Annie Lee Hooker, Florence Taft, Kathryn Tyson, and Margaret Bostic.

In the hall Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Mumford and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Person guided the guests to the East parlor, where Misses Mary Harding, Hennie Long and Bessie Brown received them. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hooker and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. White had charge of the bride's book. The two couples that made the guests good-night were Mr. and Mrs. Knott Proctor and Dr. and Mrs. K. E. Pace.

Respected Colored Woman Dead.

Funeral services for Jennie Moye, a well known colored woman, were held this afternoon. She died Sunday afternoon following several months' illness.

PROHIBITION OFFICER SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH BOOTLEGGERS

(Continued from page one) them to stop. We wanted them to know that we were officers. Instead of stopping, they checked out and we followed.

"The two miles into Goldsboro, I guess, were made at the rate of 70 miles an hour, of course we had to slow down when we turned in toward the park.

"We were pretty close when the man in the right hand seat of the car in front turned and began shooting through the rear window of his car. There was a rain of glass and I ducked so as to make as little a target as possible.

"As far as I know, none of us agents had pulled his gun when I hadn't taken mine out of my holster."

Finchum, who was a native of Danbury, is survived by his widow and two children. He had been connected with the Wilson office of the prohibition service for a number of years.

Deputy prohibition administrator F. M. Caudle, of Wilson, was expected to come here to take charge of the investigation. He was in Richmond or Washington today.

Four County League Opens Wednesday

The four-county league, recently organized among the principal towns in this section, will actually come into being here tomorrow afternoon with the opening game at the fair grounds between Greenville and Williamston.

Each of the clubs is composed of county boys who have seen either college or league service, and they are expected to furnish a splendid brand of ball during the summer months.

The Greenville club has been doing some grueling practice twice daily the last several days, and Bob Forbes, temporary manager, stated this morning that his lads were confident of capturing the opening engagement. The lineup is a fairly formidable one and Forbes believes his club will be able to offer strenuous opposition for the pennant.

The tentative schedule provides for three games a week. Haywood Dail and J. D. Simpson of Greenville are organizers of the league and will have its operation under their direction.

The public was urged to attend the opening game in large numbers and help the boys get away to a good start. In fact, it was stated that the success of the experiment would be largely determined by the interest manifested by the people of the four towns involved.

Bob Forbes will pitch the opening game for the locals. The lineup will be as follows: Bostic, 3b; Harrington, cf.; Elwanger, 1b; Brown, 1b; Hicks, 2b; Respass, 2b; Latta, 3b; Curry or Carson, c; Forbes, p.

CAT BITES YOUTH AND PASSES OUT

Greensboro, June 17. — (AP)—There is news and news. Even if a man bites a dog, that doesn't mean much.

But Sunday a cat bit Speigh Bird, 16, a rising high school student. Young Bird wasn't hurt and he's getting along nicely, in spite of the slight nip on the end of his finger.

But today the cat died.

NULLIFIES WARRANT FOR SLAPPING SISTER

High Point, June 17.—(AP)—An unknown negro woman waited a long time to decide what to do to James Ragan, negro, for slapping her sister. She waited three years.

Then she came to see Chief of Police E. A. McGee and said she wanted to take up the "warrant against James." The chief looked and said there wasn't one.

The negro said she had sworn a warrant at the time of the slapping but she had now forgiven the act.

A note at police headquarters will nullify the warrant if it is ever found.

URNS STATE'S EVIDENCE. DRAWS JAIL SENTENCE

Greensboro, June 17.—(AP)—Elmer Moore probably had been reading that defendants turning state's evidence got off easily. But something went wrong.

He and Harvey Dillon were up in court for possessing home brew. Dillon pleaded not guilty. Moore admitted his guilt and took the stand to incriminate Dillon.

At the conclusion of the evidence Judge McElroy thought Dillon wasn't guilty, and said so. That left Moore holding the bag which was three months on the road.

To the Voters of Pitt County.

For the past several days I have been considering whether or not to call a second primary for the nomination of Senator. I have come to the conclusion, that on account of the expense to the county, and the great inconvenience the people would be put to, not to call a second primary.

I feel very thankful for the splendid vote and support received in the last primary, and will ever and always feel very grateful to all my friends for their loyal support. And assure them of my great appreciation of any support they may give me in the future.

Sincerely,

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 6 to 14 points today in response to relatively firm cables from Liverpool covering, and buying apparently influenced by a belief that the market was entitled to reactions following recent declines.

Active months sold about 20 to 30 points net higher on the early demand with July advancing to 13.55 and the new December contract to 13.15; but a favorable interpretation of the weather map promoted increased offerings at these prices and the market reacted several points by the end of the first hour.

Liverpool cables said the market there had been influenced at the opening by general liquidation but had rallied on covering, buying for a reaction and a cessation of selling pressure. The Manchester market was reported unsettled with buyers of both cotton cloths and yarns cautious.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 17.—(AP)—Signs of immense export business being done in wheat from North America hoisted wheat prices in big fashion today especially during the late dealings.

It was asserted in some quarters that in the last five days while the markets have been depressed 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 bushels of wheat have been bought for shipment to Europe from Canada and the United States, chiefly Canada. Late rallies in stocks and cotton today tended also to send wheat prices sharply higher.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 17.—(AP)—The stock market finally offered resistance to selling pressure today, and made moderate recovery in spots, as large supporting orders contributed to important financial sources appeared for pivotal shares.

There was no panic or short covering or violent rebound of prices, however, tending to confirm the opinion expressed in brokerage circles yesterday that the selling represented real liquidation of long holdings of stock rather than bearish tactics of professional operators.

Naturally, the sharp break of yesterday brought a huge volume of necessitous liquidation at the opening, but losses in most important shares were held to a range of about 1 to 4 points, and were more than regained as trading progressed. By midday, a long list of important stocks showed substantial gains over yesterday's final levels. Opinion in both brokerage and banking circles remained uncertain and rather gloomy. Some commission houses advised their customers to use rallies to liquidate their holdings. Others suggested that investment purchases might be made on scale down. Fears which have developed in some quarters that the expected autumn recovery of business may be disappointing.
