TROOPS GUARD CONCORD JAIL AGAINST MOB

Band of Men Rove Countryside, Convicted Assailant of Girl Remains Free

Concord, N. C., June 28.—(AP)—Seven negroes held in jail here following an attack yesterday on a 15-year-old white girl, were spirited away from Concord today for safekeeping. Sheriff H. W. Caldwell declined to reveal where he had taken the men.

County officers first planned to take the negroes before the attack on Ruth Criswell, but changed their plans when hospital physicians said the girl was in no condition to face them.

Concord, N. C., June 28.—(AP)—While national guardsmen today patrolled grounds of the Cabarrus county jail here where seven negroes were held in connection with an assault upon a 15-year-old girl raving bands of men continued to roam the countryside convinced her assailant had not been apprehended.

Governor O. Max Gardner ordered the guardsmen, members of company E of the 120th infantry, to the jail early today when a mob formed before it.

Before the troops arrived, the mob, which threw stones through the jail windows and shouted, had dispersed. Sheriff H. W. Caldwell succeeded in getting the mob to leave by permitting two men who said they could identify the girl's attacker to enter the jail.

After viewing the prisoners, the mob informed the mob that the "right man" was not in the jail and its members left.

Officers said the mob apparently had divided into small groups which were searching wooded sections of the county for the negro. Reports received today said numerous groups were engaged in searches.

Paul R. Yount, of Charlotte, came here today and assumed command of the troops.

Sheriff Caldwell said the prisoners would be taken before the girl as soon as her physician adjudged her condition would permit. She was highly nervous and at times hysterical this morning.

The troops were first put on duty in the state since strike disturbances last summer. North Carolina has not had a lynching in several years.

The negro attacked Ruth Criswell, of Rabuter Mill section early Friday morning. She was badly injured and required surgical attention.

Eleven negroes were arrested by posse that scoured the country with bloodhounds yesterday and last night. Three were released and one was taken to jail at Charlotte. Deputies said early today they did not believe they had "the right negro."

The crowd last night confined itself to shouting and to breaking windows in the jail with stones. Sheriff Caldwell allowed two members of the crowd who said they could identify the attacker to visit the negroes in the cells. When they reported to their companions that none was the one wanted, the crowd still refused to leave.

Reports that the negro had been apprehended several miles out in the country drew to that spot a number of those in the courthouse throng.

When ordering out the troops Governor Gardner told sheriff Caldwell in a telephone conversation "to hold the jail at all costs until the troops arrived." He advised him to ask leading citizens to attempt to disperse the crowd.

The sheriff was also told to announce that "every man who participated in any outbreak would be prosecuted to the limit of the power of the State of North Carolina."

DR. O. C. WINGER ADDRESSES THE KIWANIS CLUB

Director of Vetereal Campaign In This County, Tells of the Work Underway

Dr. O. C. Winger, of the United States health service, was the principal speaker of the regular twice-a-month meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis club last night. He told of the vetereal clinics being conducted in this county under supervision of the United States Health Service and the North Carolina State Board of Health and produced much information in this connection.

The meeting was presided over by President B. B. Sugg and the program was in charge of Dr. J. M. Barrett. The song program was in charge of Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. The usual supper was enjoyed.

President Sugg, referring to his recent visit to New York, told the club that the period of depression which has existed in this section the last few months, was not confined alone to North Carolina, but was general throughout the country. He said this fact apparently was not generally known but that it should be because of the psychological effect which it would have upon the general run of people.

He said the fact that conditions here were no worse than they were anywhere else should be a matter of considerable encouragement and cause the people to buck the line harder than ever in their effort to recover from the financial reverses which they have experienced during the abnormal times.

The president also called attention of his hearers to the movement now underway to make Ralph Deal, lieutenant governor of this Kiwanis district, governor. He declared that two towns at the convention recently held at Writessville Beach, declared themselves unconditionally in favor of the election of the local man to the highest office of the district, and called upon the local club to throw its support behind the undertaking.

Charlie Harvey was called upon to tell something of his recent trip to New York in company with the club's president, but he declined to talk much, merely stating that he had the most difficult time of his life trying to keep pace with President Sugg.

Speaking of the clinics being conducted among the negroes of the county, Dr. Winger said the movement was fostered through the Julius Rosenwald fund of $300,000,000 by the United States Health Department and State Board of Health. He said that one county in each state was receiving advantage from the clinics, and that Pitt county was chosen as the center of the work in this state. The purpose of the movement, he said, was to interest each state in the advisability of adopting a program of this kind.

He said the state paid $15,000 and the Rosenwald fund $10,000 to carry on the one year's campaign and declared that great good should be derived from the campaign through increased efficiency on the part of negro workmen.

He said the examination of patients had been under way in this county for several weeks, and that clinics were being held in five places outside of Greenville. The clinics here, he said would be ready by July 10th, and he urged the Kiwanians to use their influence in interesting negro servants in the work.

WORLD FLIER PLANS FLIGHT TO AUSTRALIA

Charles Kingsford-Smith Tells Sweetheart of Plans Over Telephone

Belbourn, Australia, June 28.—(AP)—Squadron Leader Charles Kingsford-Smith, talking over the wireless telephone from New York to his fiancée Miss Mary Powell, said he intended to leave England at the end of July on a solo flight to Australia in an attempt to beat Bert Hinkler's record. He said he would make the flight in a light plane.

Schneetady, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—The world listened in today on a telephone conversation between Squadron Leader Charles Kingsford-Smith, globe circling aviator, speaking from the United States, and his mother, sister-in-law and his partner in Australia, 10,000 miles distant. The conversations, conducted between short wave radio experimental station of the General Electric company, located in the Glenville hills, a few miles north of here, and the Sydney station of the Amalgamated Wireless Australia, Ltd., at Sydney, were broadcast by WGY.

Kingsford-Smith talked first with Charles Plim, his business partner in the operation of an Australian airways system.

One of the first questions asked by the trans-oceanic flier, was whether his fiancée, Mary Powell, was present, and he seemed disappointed when told that she was in Melbourne, some 500 miles from Sydney.

"Is everybody down in Australia pleased with our flight?" the squad leader asked.

"Yes, tickled to death," Ulm replied.

"Then Ulm said: "Hold the line, your mother wants to talk with you."

After greeting his mother, Kingsford-Smith asked for news of his father and was informed that he was ill.

"How is he now?" Kingsford-Smith asked.

"Not too good," answered the mother.

In reply to a question of the mother, the flier said that he expected to be back in Australia by the middle of August.

Boston Pays High Tribute to Byrd

Boston, June 28.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd today bore the honors conferred upon him by the city and state of his adoption and held a high place in the hearts of 300,000 citizens who saw his triumphal return.

The greatest celebration for a returning hero in the city's history was held during his visit yesterday. Today he was on his way to Philadelphia and St. Louis.

City and state joined in honors for him and his antarctic band. From the time of arrival early in the afternoon, with 40 airplanes droning overhead and an admiral's salute booming at the Navy Yard. Till a crowd saw him on the train again at midnight, he was the target of thousands of cheering voices.

Governor Allen conferred a gold medalion of the commonwealth on him at the State House. Mayor Curley rode with him in a parade through downtown streets. With clouds of confetti and torn paper descending from buildings above and the street jammed with people.

On historic Boston Common the city paid formal tribute. At a banquet last night dignitaries of public life joined in addresses and doing honor. His wife shared in the acclaim throughout the day.

They were married in the presence of 150 guests at the Gibson Hacienda near Saugus last night. Corals and horses, seen through the windows, furnished atmosphere for the ceremony.

Judge Barnhill Dismisses Complaint Against County Board Of Commissioners

Final Judgment Signed in Attempt to Forestall Sale of Notes and Involving Two Phases of Tax and Property Situation; Plaintiffs Appeal

The temporary injunction obtained by S. T. Hooker and J. C. Williams against the Board of County Commissioners, attempting to forestall the sale of $100,000 worth of notes, and involving two phases in the collection of taxes and valuation of property, was dismissed by Judge M. V. Barnhill, presiding over a term of Greene County Superior court at Snow Hill yesterday afternoon. The plaintiffs filed notice of appeal to Supreme court under bond of $50,000.

The restraining order was issued too late to prevent the sale of the bonds, but members of the Board of Commissioners appeared before Judge Barnhill yesterday afternoon to explain other phases of the action as brought out in the petition for the injunction.

In addition to attempting to prevent the sale of the notes the injunction asked that the board show reason why personal property should not be exhausted before resorting to the sale of real estate in collection of taxes, and why property of the county should not be valued at its true money value.

And it appearing that on June 17, 1930, this court, without notice to the plaintiff, signed an order to the effect that the restraining order herein issued was not served upon the defendants until 5:15 o'clock, June 16th, 1930, and that the notes (Continued on Page Three)

Winston-Salem, June 28.—People who fight should choose either weapons or opponents.

Last night Alexander Feimister and John Lyles, negroes, mixed it up.

Officer C. C. Goforth said Feimister started in when he entered Lyles house and threw a chair at the owner. The chair missed and hit Odell Revels' car and considerable damage was done to the car.

Feimister then drew a knife, slashed Lyles over the head and broke the knife.

Lyles drew a hammer, smashed Feimister over the head and broke the hammer.

They're both in the hospital.

Calls Out Fire Department to Help Him Mail a Letter

Greensboro, June 28.—(AP)—Either the shapes of mail and fire boxes should be made differently or people who write letters should be able to read—because it's happened again.

J. A. Bell probably asked somebody where he could mail a letter. A place was pointed out and, while he was trying to post his missive, three fire trucks from Central station and one from Southside came up.

But not to help post the letter, Bell had mistaken a fire box for letter box and had sent in an alarm.

In Air Over 400 Hours Chicago Endurance Fliers Draw Near World Record

In Spite of Battle Against Sleep and Motor Trouble, Turner Brothers Hope to Establish New Refueling Mark With "City of Chicago" Tomorrow

Chicago, June 28.—(AP)—The "City of Chicago," piloted by the Hunter brothers, John and Kenneth, still droned over Sky Harbor Airport at 10:40 a. m. (CDT) today. Passing its 402nd hour in the air. The Hunters need to remain aloft 19 hours to break the world's non-stop refueling record of 420:21:30 now held by the "St. Louis Robin."

Chicago, June 28.—(AP)—A new world's record for sustained flight by refueling will be written, if all goes well, against the background of tomorrow's sunrise.

Fighting their two coaxing enemies—sleep and motor trouble—John and Kenneth Hunter, the brother-pilots of the "City of Chicago," had been aloft 395 hours at 4:30 a. m. (CDT) today—only 25 hours, 21 minutes and 30 seconds away from the record of 420:21:30 set by Forest O'Brien and Dale Jenkins, last year in the "St. Louis Robin."

If all continues well aboard the Stinson-Detroit cabin monoplane, the record will be equalled at 5:01:21 (CDT) tomorrow morning—just as the pilots watch their friends, the morning stars—Mars, Uranus and Mercury—fade into the dawn. Another hour must be droned out, however, before an official record is made.

Walter Hunter, who with his brother Albert, make up the contact crew, said last night that the Wright Whirlwind Motor "sounds good for another 700 hours." At that time, the 149th refueling contact had just been successfully made with Will Rogers, the humorist, going aloft in the contact plane, "Big Ben," to cheer the fliers.

Coffee goes aloft in gallon buckets on each refueling contact; meals, cooked by the pilots' sister, Miss Irene Hunter, go up regularly three times a day. Yesterday for dinner, the fliers had roast duck.

Last night the brothers flew low and dropped a note of congratulations to Major Charles Kingsford-Smith and his trans-Atlantic Southern Cross crew.

Lindy Birthplace Again for Sale

Detroit, June 28.—(AP)—The birthplace of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh once more is for sale.

A real estate company has placed the "for sale" sign in front of the home at 1120 Forest Avenue, on which is a bronze tablet commemorating the birthplace of the famous flier.

The Lindbergh birthplace has been the center of several controversies. The house was purchased in April, 1929, by the Swedish Engineering society as a clubhouse and a Lindbergh museum, but the society notified the real estate company that they were forced to return the property at a $6,000 loss because it "proved to be unfitted for club purposes."

At one time a Chicago promoter attempted to establish a Lindbergh museum there, with a gate fee, but the owner at that time, Mrs. Stella Jewett, halted the action by an injunction. Another flurry arose when a tenant, William Hicks, covered the bronze tablet with a sign advertising rooms for rent. No action was taken on a resolution offered by former mayor John Smith that the city purchase the site.

Shortly after Colonel Lindbergh flew to Paris, a motion to rename Forest Avenue, "Lindbergh Avenue," was turned down by the council after several lengthy debates.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—Frank Ross, 37, fatally shot the Rev. Edgar R. Wood and wounded two members of his congregation last night and was arrested today by Patrolman Florio Costanzo. The man was picked up in Porter road on the outskirts of the city.

Police said that Ross made a statement to men in which he admitted that he went to the mission intending to kill Wood.

The other victims were Ross' wife, Mildred, wounded in the left side near the heart, and Leonard Towe, shot in both legs.

The tragedy occurred at the close of services in a small Tenth street mission which the Rev. Mr. Wood has conducted for several years.

As the evangelist uttered his closing prayer and stepped down from the platform, Ross, according to witnesses, rushed forward and fired a single shot into the minister's body. He fell to the floor dead.

Wheeling about, Ross fired point blank at Mrs. Ross, who was sitting in a front pew.

Towe, sitting in a rear seat in the hall, attempted to stop Ross and was shot in both legs. Ross ran out of the door and disappeared.

Mrs. Ross and a sister, Leona Kuen, had been attending the mission services for several months. Ross objected. And it is said, he came particularly bitter on several occasions when Towe called at his home to drive Mrs. Ross and Miss Kuen to the mission in his automobile.

On April 4 Towe had Ross arrested for striking him when he stopped at the Ross home for Miss Kuen. A few days later Ross was arrested on complaint of the Rev. Mr. Wood for having broken up his services.

Ross was brought into court, but the charges against him were dismissed after he had been warned by the judge to stay away from the mission. Ross disappeared from his home after this trouble and Mrs. Ross said today that until last night, she had not seen him in several weeks.

DELEGATES TO STATE MEET ELECTED HERE

County Democrats Also Elect Officers At County Convention Here Today

W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, was unanimously re-elected as chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive committee at the County Democratic convention at the courthouse in this city today at the noon hour. In addition to the election of the executive chairman, the convention also appointed delegates to the state convention to be held in the city of Raleigh, July 3, and elected John T. The session today was well attended by delegates representing virtually every one of the fourteen precincts of the county who were elected at primaries held last Saturday. Considerable interest was manifested in the work of naming the delegates to the state convention.

The re-election of Mr. Hooks as executive chairman was received with general favor throughout the county. Mr. Hooks is one of the most prominent business men of Ayden. He has seen considerable service with different departments of the state, at the present time being connected with the inspection department. Farm relief has turned out to be a mirage, an iridescent dream, a promise given to the ear and broken to the hope. But—let this be impressed—the Mellons on aluminum, the steel trust, the sugar trust and other combinations have been given increased profits by means of the Grundy tariff.

Millions for rich campaign contributors but not one cent for agriculture is the result of the Republican national administration. (News & Observer).

ABOUT TOWN

MILLIONS FOR MONOPOLY BUT NOT ONE CENT FOR FARM RELIEF.

Mr. Hoover, Mr. Mellon, Mr. Lamont and all the administration Pollyannas are prophesying that "within a short while" business conditions will greatly improve and unemployment will be decreased. If, and when, that prediction is fulfilled we shall be told it is due to the Grundy tariff. If it is deferred, we shall be told that the delay in enacting it so disturbed business that a longer time was required for the tariff to bring prosperity.

As a matter of fact, the predictions of improvement depend upon the harvesting of the crops. They know that, though the prices are low, the farmers must sell to meet their obligations, and the turning loose of millions for crops will put money in circulation. The crops are the main dependence. The money from them will make some stimulation of trade.

The outlook for any farm relief, the promise of which helped Mr. Hoover to carry the West, has not yet materialized. Instead of improvement, and putting agriculture on the basis of equality with industry, the reverse has happened as the following figures recently compiled show:

"Wheat is selling for 24 cents a bushel less than it sold at this time last year, a paper loss to wheat growers alone of more than $190,000,000. Farmers today are selling their wheat for 60 cents a bushel, the lowest price in 16 years.

"Corn is selling 17 cents a bushel under the price in June last year, representing a loss to the farmers of five hundred million dollars.

"The 1930 oat crop is being marketed at nine cents a bushel less than was paid at this time last year, a loss of $117,000,000.

"Rye is at the lowest price in 40 years and is selling at 40 cents a bushel less than at this time in 1929, showing a loss of $20,000,000 to the growers."

These figures do not include the prices at this date predicated on tobacco and cotton, the chief money crops of the South, some of whose people had faith that Hoover was a miracle worker. It is too soon yet to estimate what cotton and tobacco growers will receive but the outlook for profits is far from encouraging. The above table does not include the price for livestock. Hogs are now off two dollars on the hundred; cattle four dollars

Another Greenville man has been directly honored by a state organization. This time it is J. J. White, secretary of the Home Building & Loan Association, who has received notice of his appointment as president of Group One of the North Carolina Building & Loan Association.

Mr. White is one of the youngest business men of the city, but as head of the Building & Loan Association, he has the honor of directing the business of one of the oldest and strongest institutions of the kind in the state.

He has not only exhibited a wide knowledge of building and loan activities, but is well versed in other branches of business by reason of his service as president of the Greenville Merchants Association, another progressive organization that has won state-wide recognition.

Greenville is always proud of the success of its young men, but no honor could bring more pronounced joy than that which has been conferred upon Julian White. He has proven himself worthy of the confidence of the members of his chosen profession.

Cotton growers of Pitt county have declared war on the boll weevil, and from now on one of the greatest battles in history is going to be waged against the pest.

It is a generally conceded fact that the weevil would damage the cotton crops to the extent of several thousands of dollars this year if permitted to go his own way, but the farmers do not mean to give him complete reign as was demonstrated at the meeting several days ago.

A majority of the larger farmers are dusting their plants, believing that this is one of the most direct ways of reducing the toll of the weevil. Others have been advised to swab with molasses and arsenate. By adhering strictly to the improved method of battling the pest it is hoped to save the cotton crop.

With federal officers swooping down upon this section from day to day, the bootlegger is finding the liquor traffic more dangerous than ever before.

These representatives of Uncle Sam's law enforcement department appear when they are least expected, and as a result bootleggers become hopelessly entangled in the dragnet of the law before they actually know what it is all about.

That these unexpected raids will have a tendency of reducing the flow of liquor at least temporarily, we have not the slightest doubt, but as soon as the officers go to some of the other sections of the state, the traffic probably will become extensive as ever. It seems impossible to cope with the situation in a satisfactory way, because as long as there is a demand for anything it is a ten to one bet it will be furnished. If public sentiment was entirely against the whiskey element there would be no need to manufacture whiskey, but as long as men who stand high in the business, social and professional life of a community demand whiskey, they will get it.

The condition exists in every part of the country, and it is encouraged to a large extent by men who talk dry and act wet.

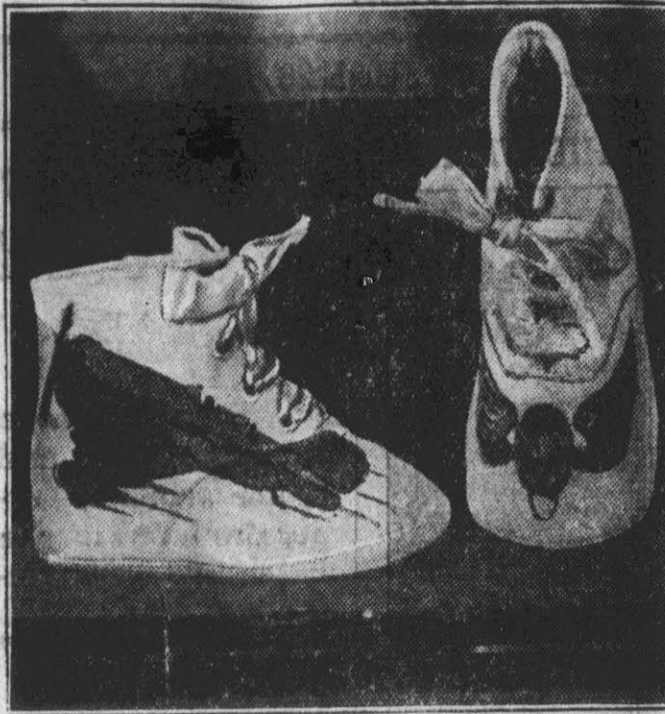

It looks like a matter of impossibility to convince surrounding towns of the advisability of joining the four-county league, but the majority are in favor of baseball and have shown a disposition to play ball at suggested intervals.

It would be much more satisfactory if the league could be kept intact, as in this way each of the clubs would feel like a responsibility rested upon them in the matter of schedules, and would make an effort to be present to fill all engagements.

The Greenville club has played five games so far this season. Twice they had to postpone games because the clubs failed to show up, but they arranged play with other towns in order not to disappoint the fans.

Every town of any size in this section has a ball club of which its people should be proud, and by a little attention they could get together and arrange a schedule of games for the remainder of the summer. This plan should be far more appealing than that now being followed, and that it would be received more favorably by the public cannot be questioned. It would

Two Arrested As Second Bank Fails to Open in Ohio

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 21—(AP)—A second Cincinnati bank was closed and two of its former officers were under arrest today as a result of the alleged million dollar check kiting operations of A. W. Shafer, discharged district manager for the Henry L. Doherty Company.

The failure of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks National Bank to open yesterday was followed by the arrests of Lyman E. Norris, former vice-president, and Harry Rosenblum, former cashier, on charges of conspiracy to violate the national banking act. They were held today in default of $25,000 bond each, set after they entered pleas of not guilty.

Norris, Rosenblum and Joseph J. Castellini, president, were removed by the directors Monday.

United States District Attorney Haveth E. Mau said Shafer's alleged manipulations were the direct cause of the bank's closing. Shafer, Mau said, had deposited Cities Service collateral bearing forged indorsements. It was said this stock, reported to amount to between $225,000 and $375,000, that involved Norris and Rosenblum.

Modern Comedy This Evening. "Her Husband's Wife," one of the greatest of all modern comedies, according to both theatre-goers and critics by that master hand, Augustus Thomas, is the play that the Coffer-Miller Players will present this evening at 8 o'clock at East Carolina Teachers College.

The comedy is simple and straight-forward, with exuberantly funny situations. The whole farce grows out of the plans of an invalid wife, who thinks her days are numbered, makes for the future of her husband. She selects for his second wife a woman who she thinks is unattractive, but who proves to be very attractive to the husband. Out of this situation the farce grows. It calls for fine acting on the part of Irene, the wife, and the old uncle, who is her chief assistant, the parts taken by Miss Martha Miller and Jess Coffey. These two stars are especially fine in a play that calls forth their powers as comedians.

This is the second of the series of attractions offered for the summer term. The third will be a recital of American ballads on Tuesday evening of next week by Leon Pearson. The one the week following will be the magician, Paul Fleming. After that will be the recital by Salvi, two S hakespearean plays by the Elizabethan Players, a famous humorist, Strickland Gilliland, and a recital by Edwin Swain, the heritone.

Mrs. Jerome Honored. Farmville, June 26.—One of the most beautiful social functions of the summer season was a reception given by Mrs. J. M. Wheless on Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to her house guest, Miss Mary K. Jerome, of Atlanta, Ga., head of the Georgia State department of Conservation of Bird and Game Life.

The spacious home was transformed into a veritable flower garden for the occasion. The punch room and reception room carried out the yellow and white color scheme, while the dining room was lovely with large baskets of gladioli and bowls of sweet peas, carrying the colors of pink and green. Tapers in pink and white and shaded lights were effective decorations also.

Upon arrival the guests were welcomed by Mrs. I. E. Satterfield and Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner, and invited into the punch room where they were received by Mrs. Arch J. Flanagan and Mrs. Sterling Gates. Punch was served by Miss Mary Privette Wheless and Miss Margaret Smith, the punch bowl being banked with clematis and Shasta daisies.

Miss Vivian Case and Mrs. V. D. DeFarley introduced the receiving line, composed of Mrs. J. M. Wheless, Miss Mary K. Jerome, Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, Mrs. J. W. Joyner, Mrs. J. B. Joyner, Mrs. G. R. Wheless, and Mrs. Haywood Smith.

From the living room the guests passed to the dining room where they were received by Mrs. J. T. Thorne and Mrs. W. G. Sheppard. An ice course with salted nuts and mints was served by Misses Nannie Smith, Dorothy Smith, Lurline Bass and Claribel Modlin.

The guests were bidden good-bye by Mrs. E. L. Gaynor and Mrs. C. L. Beaman. Misses Evelyn Horton and Elizabeth Fliss were in charge of the music and Master Bob and Miss Becky Wheless received the cards.

More than a hundred and fifty guests called during the hours of four to six. In the evening from 8:30 to 11:00 Mrs. Wheless was hostess to forty members of the young social circle, when an entertaining program of music, contests and games were enjoyed. Punch, ices and cake were served during the evening.

To Speak at Bayboro. Rev. Lee Sadler has gone to Bayboro, where he will address a county-wide gathering of Free Masons at 11 o'clock at the court house tomorrow morning. The lodges from New Bern and surrounding territory will be present. Dinner will be served on the ground. Mr. Sadler will return to Greenville in time to preach Sunday night. Dr. Re-Barber of the Teachers College, will speak at the Eighth Street church Sunday morning.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Evelyn Langley of Greenville, and Miss Bert Brown of Bethel, delightfully entertained quite a number of their little friends at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jones, in Bethel. Games and refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed by the little folks.

Mesdames Langley, Brown, Teel, Tillman, Wm. Andrews Taylor and Mrs. J. B. Taylor chaperoned.

MISS HOOKER HOSTESS AT OUT-OF-DOORS PARTY

As a variation of the many formal affairs given for the guests of Misses Cotten and Elizabeth Skinner, Miss Louisa Hooker entertained at a most informal out-of-doors party Thursday evening. The hostess welcomed the guests on the porch, which was lighted and beautifully decorated with ferns and bright flowers. At one end was placed a large wooden tub, twined with vines from which lemonade was served with tin-dippers, thus carrying out the out-of-doors idea.

All about the lawn and sunken garden which was softly lighted, were comfortable seats which added much to the enjoyment of those present.

From the terrace back of the house ice-cold watermelon was served during the evening, after which dancing was enjoyed by about forty-five guests.

The guests of honor included Misses Harriet Carr, Norfolk, Va.; Elizabeth Nunn, New Bern; Margaret West, Lynchburg, Va.; Julia Brent Hicks, Oxford; Eleanor Hudgins, Norfolk, Va.; and Doris Chamblie, Zebulon.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate family and close friends.

The wedding took place in the living room of the home which was decorated throughout with summer flowers, carrying out a color scheme of green and white. Lighted tapers added to the effectiveness of the setting.

Just prior to the ceremony Miss Selma Grey Hooks, sister of the bride, played "Traumerei" by Schumann. To the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin, the couple entered and took their places before an improvised altar of fern and Shasta daisies, where the vows were spoken.

The bride was attired in an ensemble of Independence blue georgette with accessories to match. She wore a shoulder corsage of bride's roses and valley lilies.

MISS JEROME HONORED AT GARDEN PARTY

Farmville, June 26.—The Farmville Literary Club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. L. Shackelford as hostess and Mrs. J. W. Parker presiding over a business session. A study of "Folklore," compiled by Hobbs for 1930-31, as recommended by the program committee headed by Mrs. G. A. Jones, was decided upon at this time, and a book committee composed of Mrs. Madeline Rountree, Mrs. J. W. Joyner, and Mrs. Shackelford, was appointed by the president.

The program for the afternoon was made up of a selection "The Passion Play," read by Mrs. W. M. Willis, and a review of "Green Pastures," the Pulitzer prize play, by Marc Connelly, given by Mrs. C. Askew. Miss Mary K. Jerome, of Atlanta, Ga., delighted the group with two vocal solos.

After adjournment the members and additional guests numbering 26 were entertained at a garden party by the hostess in compliment to Miss Jerome, a guest of Mrs. J. M. Wheless. Small tables were placed and a salad course was served. Miniature flower pots contained mints and a contest on flowers growing in the garden, the prize, a potted plant being won by Mrs. M. V. Horton. Shoulder bouquets were presented to the honoree, and to Miss Agnes Moore, a teacher in the Henderson schools, a charter member of the club and its first secretary. Favors were tiny flower baskets.

ANNOUNCE WINNERS IN BABY CONTEST

Farmville, June 26.—The Popular Baby contest conducted by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church closed this afternoon with a large and colorful parade, being considered one of the most successful projects ever undertaken by this group.

Bettie Love Spencer, 18 months old daughter of J. G. Spencer and the late Mrs. Spencer, and Morris Lee Eason, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Eason, were winners of the loving cups in the popular vote contest, and Ann Oglesby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, was winner of the cup in the parade.

These lovely, winsome babies were placed on thrones of snowy white, suggestive of their innocence and purity, and were crowned by Mrs. J. Watson Shockley, of Wilson, one of the judges, in a coronation ceremony held after the parade, on the school grounds.

There were 29 participants in the parade, which took in one block of Main street, all exquisite little beings, dressed in charming costumes and riding in vehicles of every sort and description, making it a difficult task indeed for the judges to pick the winner. The judges were Mrs. Shockley, Mrs. Adams, and Mrs. Howard Hill of Wilson.

Points used in judging had to do with beauty, unusual and original costumes and floats. The street down which the parade passed, was lined with the families and admiring friends of the paraders.

These taking-part were: Ann Oglesby in a sun suit, riding in a yellow and white salloot propelled by her brother, Billy; Norris Lee Eason as Lindy, flying "The Spirit of St. Louis"; David Jones, impersonating Uncle Sam; Marvin Horton, Jr., a progressive farmer, advocating "Live at Home"; Bob Darden, a fisherman in a skiff; Mary Leah Thorne, a fairy in pink, riding a white swan; Jack Willis, an aviator; Maynard Thorne, Jr., a bold bad pirate; Charles Baucum, Jr., a professional boxer; Daisy Barnhart, Dixon and Carl Ann Johnson, girls of the '60s; Etta Frances Harper, flower girl; Jane Turnage, a bathing beauty; Margaret Tyson, who ranked next to the winner of the first prize, was a Chinese miss, being drawn in a rickshaw; Ruby Evans Moyer sat in a miniature flower garden; others who were in gaily decorated carriages, strollers, tricycles, or who toddled along as modern flappers and cake eaters were: Bettie Love Spencer, Betsy Morris, Bob Taylor, Frances Law, Durward Barbour, Shelby Roebuck, Ralph Elrany, Bettie Lou Turnage, Freddie Debnam, Wilma Stancil, Dan Morgan, Jean Beckman, Yvonne and Bobby Smith, and Margaret Tyson.

Music was furnished by a toy orchestra of 14 pieces directed by Raymond Wheeler, and organized by Miss Vivian Case. Favors were presented to the children taking part in the affair.

The contest was in charge of Mrs. R. S. Tandy, Mrs. E. O. Taylor being head of the parade committee. Others serving on committees in connection were Mrs. J. O. Pollard, Mrs. Louise Harris, Mrs. J. Y. Monk and Mrs. C. R. Townsend.

Souls Being Saved At Revival Here

Thomas wasn't there. Neither were the daughters of God's Divine healing power at Gorman's warehouse. Each night at 8 o'clock and each Sunday 11 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 8 p. m., souls are being saved and hundreds are being instantly healed of all manner of distresses through the prayers of the Rev. K. H. Turner, an able evangelist, who preaches the pure undiluted Word of God. If the general public fully understood what is being done Gorman's warehouse would not hold the people at each service. Direct healing of the being, tuberculosis of the lungs, rheumatism in all stages, psyllagra, rheumatism, goitres, etc. If you have the faith you will be instantly healed. He has shown that God's power is the same today as ever. On Thursday night a young man went to Gorman's warehouse, limping badly with two crutches; after being prayed for, by Rev. Mr. Turner he walked and ran across the stage and is reported to be walking without the aid of his crutches.

Oh, ye of little faith, read Hebrews 11: Oh ye of little faith come to these services and see for yourself. Testimonials or affidavits will be furnished on request. God's Divine Healing Power can be seen and felt in these meetings and any true believer in God cannot doubt after familiarizing themselves with the real facts. No, you don't understand it, but if you will come and see for yourself, you will understand it. Christians you that are seeking food for your hungering souls, come to Gorman's warehouse to these services.

(Continued from page one) of the county of Pitt advertised to be sold at 12 o'clock noon upon said date were so sold the said hour being prior to service of said restraining order, and that the contract of purchase and sale as made by the county and the purchaser of said notes was consummated prior to the service of said restraining order; and it further appearing in said order that it was adjudged that the restraining order be and it was declared ineffectual and inoperative in so far as it related to the sale by the county of Pitt of one hundred thousand dollars of its notes as set out in the complaint.

And it further appearing and this court finds the facts therein stated to be true and that the plaintiff does not ask any equitable relief, it is now therefore, ordered, considered and adjudged that the order signed on the 16th of June, 1930, be and the same is hereby declared ineffectual and inoperative in so far as it relates to the sale by the county of Pitt of one hundred thousand dollars of its notes as set out in the complaint and said action as to the same is hereby dismissed.

It further appearing to the court that the plaintiff's cause of action is based upon the alleged failure of the Sheriff of Pitt County to levy upon and exhaust personal property before resorting to the sale of real estate is one directed against the Sheriff of Pitt County and that the Sheriff of Pitt County has not been made a party to this action; and the court further finds as fact that no equitable relief is asked for by the plaintiffs as against the defendant upon said cause of action, the court finding that the collection of taxes by law is under the control of the Sheriff of Pitt County.

It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the cause of action as alleged to the failure of the Sheriff to levy upon personal property is dismissed.

The court further finding as a fact that upon the cause of action alleging that the property of Pitt County has not been valued at its true money value the plaintiffs do not allege facts constituting grounds for any equitable relief on their said cause of action, and the court further finding that the plaintiff has a remedy at law if their property is assessed for taxation in excess of its true value:

It is now, therefore, ordered and adjudged that the cause of action as alleged in the complaint is so far as it related to the valuation of property is hereby dismissed. The court finds as a fact that the property in Pitt county was revalued in 1929 as authorized by law. It is further ordered and adjudged that the cost of this action be taxed against the plaintiffs.

The above order the plaintiffs except and appeal to the Supreme court, notice, waived, appeal bond fixed at fifty dollars. The petition, answer, affidavit, in replevity order and exceptions and this judgment will constitute the cause on appeal.

COTTON MARKET

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 6 points to a decline of 4. The relatively steady showings of Liverpool led to some buying in the near months, but later deliveries were easier under local selling and prices generally eased off slightly right after the call.

The buying was limited with prices responding to comparatively small offerings. July eased off from 13.58 to 13.52, or back to yesterday's closing quotations while the new October sold off to 12.92 or 3 points net lower. The general market was quiet with active months ruling about net unchanged to 5 points lower at the end of the first hour. Liverpool cables said there had been continental buying, covering and good month-end calling in that market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 28.—(AP)—Quenching the hope of friends of higher prices, widespread rains in Canada, together with increasing movement of newly harvested domestic wheat south, put sellers in command of the wheat market today. Prices went downward almost from the start and finished at the day's low point, showing at no time much power to rally. Apparently the bulk of traders accepted opinions that this season the spring wheat crop in domestic parts of the belt would mature fast enough to beat black rust.

Wheat closed heavy, 7-8 to 13-8 lower than yesterday; corn closed 5-8 to 1-2 off; oats 1-4 to 3-8 down and provisions varying from 2 decline to a rise of 47.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Wall street decided that stock trading was scarcely worth the effort today, and traders flocked to the country, letting transactions dribble off to the smallest Saturday volume seen in four years.

Bears made further listless efforts to depress the list, but were unable to accomplish declines of more than a point or two in important stocks and several shares turned upward as soon as bear pressure was lifted. Bearish efforts have grown increasingly unsuccessful during the last few days and bulls are still convalescing from their recent drubbing.

Sales for the two hour session were but moderately above 400,000 shares. The smallest since April 17, 1926, when the turnover was only 351,800. It is only a little more than a month ago that the record Saturday turnover of over 4,000,000 shares was recorded.

There was nothing in the week-end business reports to influence the market either way. Rail earnings reports continued unimpressive. The mercantile reviews characterized both retail and wholesale trade as quiet, save in seasonable wearing apparel. Reports from the Youngstown Steel area indicated considerable curtailment of activity next week. Republican Steel will maintain operations at 65 per cent of capacity, but Youngstown Sheet will cut its output from 65 to 60 per cent. Some of the smaller plants, including those of the Empire Steel Corp., will be idle.

The New York Yankees also have produced a star newcomer in Short, sto pBill Werber, formerly of Duke University although he failed to prevent a defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Indians. Werber, who was about to be sent to Albany when Lyn Larry was hurt a few days ago, stepped into the Yankee lineup and has been hitting steadily and fielding brilliantly, leaving George Wuestling almost out of the picture. Yesterdays action hit, two runs, and the start of one double play, as the Indians came to life after losing five straight games, pounded George Pipgras from the mound and won 11 to 7. Babe Ruth's 27th homer of the year overshadowed the rest of the Yankee-hitting.

The Yankees defeated providad The Yankee defeat proved a great aid to Washington, for the Senators moved a game away by beating Detroit, 6 to 4, in a duel between Al Crowder and Charley Sullivan. The Philadelphia Athletics spent the afternoon dividing a double header with the St. Louis Browns, tossing away the first game, 8 to 2, by committing five errors, and winning the second, 8 to 3, by the means of hard and effective doubling against Char Kinsey. The result of the four American League contests was that the Athletics lead was cut to a single game, while the Yankees dropped 21-2 games behind the league leaders. The Chicago-Boston game was rained out.

Brooklyn's lead in the National league likewise suffered severe damage and the Chicago Cubs cut it from two games to one by winning the second contest of their "first place" series, 7 to 5 in ten innings. Kiki Cuyler's home run with Bush on base in the tenth broke up the deadlocked struggle. Pittsburgh, which won its first double header of the season Thursday, threatened to take a place in the first division by defeating the Phillies for the third time, 6 to 4. The Pirates were left only a half game behind the fourth place St. Louis Cardinals, who left their second straight to the New York Giants, 9 to 4. Four St. Louis errors aided the Giants while Fred Fitzsimmons kept the Cards from scoring.

NEWCOMERS HITTING HARD IN NATIONAL

Cincinnati's fans are getting a chance to appraise the work of a few of the year's most promising newcomers to National league circles.

While the Boston Braves are playing at Cincinnati, there is a chance to compare the play of Wally Berger and Buster Chatham with that of "Jersey Joe" Stripp of Cincinnati. The Boston youngsters are going at a great rate, Berger tying Hack Wilson for the league's home run leadership, while Stripp, who failed in previous attempts to remain in the major leagues, still is one of Cincinnati's most effective batters although he no longer is threatening the leaders. Yesterday the Red fans had a thrilling game tossed in for good measure with Cincinnati winning, 7 to 6, in the ninth inning.

Chatham, who only came up about a month ago, led the assault on another star recruit, Benny Frey, by hitting three times in four attempts, and took a good part in Boston's five run rally that tied the score in the eighth inning. He brought his average for the 23 games in which he has participated up to .367. Berger and Stripp each made two hits in four times up gaining current averages of .327 and .306 respectively. And all three continued to field steadily.

WINNERS IN WIGHTMAN CUP PLAY

Spinners Lead Sally League

Charlotte, June 28.—(AP)—Joe Schepner and his slugging band of Greenville Spinners had possession of the Sally League leadership today as the six club prepared to end the first half race, but it will take this afternoon's double headers to decide the issue as the Macon Peaches are separated from the South Carolinians by only a fraction of a game.

The Spinners captured top place by downing Columbia as Augusta's Wolves pounded the Maconists into submission.
Asheville, in third place, can the Greenville for honors, but in order to do so must win both games today while the Spinners and the Peaches are losing an equal number.

Hughy Harmon took the mound for the Spinners a 4 to 0 shutout against the Comers. His mates gave him flashy support both at bat and afield, Walker, Rhinehardt and Howell furnishing the offensive, Walker and Leach the defensive fireworks.

Rhinehardt batted in two runs with a double and single, Walker and Howell joining him with two hits each.
Augusta rapped Pattison and Mitchell all over the lot to blast Macon from top on, collecting 15 hits. Schuman was on the mound for the Wolves and yielded but six blows. The score was 10 to 6.

Strain, Harvel and Knox led the Wolf attack each getting three blows, including two doubles.
Ty Cobb witnessed the game and got a big kick out of it. He saw Manager Moore get chased from the park for protesting decisions, and witnessed several near fights between players.
Asheville came through with another heavy assault to make it two in a row over Charlotte by an 8 to 6 count. Chambers, Tourist hurley, was hit hard, but three double plays kept off rallies.

Jimmy Misses Pie, But—
New York—What Michigan's cherry queen thinks of Mayor Walker is not recorded, but it must be nice. Miss Signe Holmeff brought him a cherry pie by plane. But it (the pie) was wrecked in landing. Miss Holmeff made her excuses. "It would have been nice to see the pie," smiled the mayor, "but you are not hard to look at yourself."

New Shoe Firm To Open Here

The Miller-Jones Shoe Company has leased the J. L. Wooten store on Evans street, formerly occupied by Warren Drug Company, for five years and remodeling is now in progress preparatory to the opening of a shoe store about the middle of July.

The Miller-Jones' Company of Columbus, O., are manufacturers of men's, women's, and children's shoes and throughout the country where they do not have special representatives handling their line they are making an outlet for their product through the operation of retail stores, selling direct to the trade at factory prices. The line of shoes handled are popular prices.
The North Carolina stores are under the supervision of the Charlotte headquarters, Mr. A. L. Carter, district representative, in the city looking after the remodeling of the store and arrangements for the formal opening, the date of which will be announced later.

FARM BOARD HEAD FAVORS THE BRINGING OF ALL FARM BODIES UNDER SAME ROOF

really no reason why farmers should not go further in collective marketing than organizations of any privately operated industry.
"That privilege is in the farmers' own hands. Laws have been written in recent years to free farmers from the restrictions of anti-trust regulations. In fact, under existing laws the organization of farmers is permitted to an extent that probably never could be accorded to private agencies. There is no limit to the quantity of farm products that may be handled by groups of farmers who grow the crops and hold the full right to sell them."
The great advantage that comes to farmers who mass large units of products, he said, is the better bargaining power thus attained than when they come to market by the thousands, each selling his own crop and competing with their individuals. Even an untrained group of farmers, he said, can market collectively to better advantage than the private agency which has no control over the flow of the commodity but takes the product as it comes.

"It has been clearly demonstrated in this country," he continued, "that producers of farm-crops can regulate the marketing of their products collectively that they never have a glut. If there is any surplus, they can keep it at home and save freight."
Mr. Leage initiated the idea of consolidating the national farm organizations more as a "which" on his part than as a probability.
"As you know, there are several of the so-called general farm organizations in the country which might some day be brought under the same roof. Imagine what power these organizations could generate if their forces were all mobilized into one unit and put to work organizing farmers to improve conditions for agriculture."

While he admitted that the hope of bringing them all into one general organization may be a long time in materializing, he said the farm board is trying to help work out the marketing problem by aiding in the establishment of large commodity selling organizations in which the member of any and all of the present national farm groups can participate.

YANKS WIN SEVEN OUT TEN GAMES

The New York Yankees have won seven out of their last ten games, without improving their position, for Washington and Philadelphia have done the same. Yesterday New York defeated the Indians. The count was 13 to 11, and nine of Cleveland's runs came in the last five innings after the Yankees had piled up an 11 to 2 lead.

Philadelphia and Washington were victors by big scores in a day which produced 106 hits by the eight American League clubs and 67 runs. The Athletics made 13 blows, eight of them for extra bases, off Sammy Gray and defeated St. Louis, 8 to 3. Washington, scoring seven runs in the first inning, trounced Detroit, 12 to 4.

Ever the humble Boston Red Sox did some heavy hitting, attacking Al Thomas of the White Sox for 5 runs in the fifth inning and defeating the pale hose, 9 to 7, for the sixth time in succession.
The New York Giants could only thing the American League outdug after piling up 20 hits to beat St. Louis, 12 to 4.

A slip by Phil Collins, until yesterday the league's leading pitcher, gave Pittsburgh the first game from Philadelphia, 1 to 0. He wound up while Brickell was on third and let the ball slip from his grasp. Before he could recover the one run was in and he lost the game although he gave but four hits. Every Pirate clouted the ball at least once in the second game although he gave m9Jpo-SHRDL to bring an 11 to 5 decision.

HURT TO STAND, WEAK, NERVOUS

"Cardui Seemed to Build Me Up and I Was Rid of Pain," Says Virginia Lady.

Roanoke, Va.—"Some years ago, I was in a very run-down condition," writes Mrs. T. B. Akers, of 533 Nelson Street, S.E., this city. "I suffered a great deal with pains in my sides and back. Standing on my feet hurt me so much, that I would get very weak and nervous."
"I knew that if I didn't get something to help me, I would have to go to bed and stay there, which is hard to do for a woman who has small children. So I kept dragging about, until one day, when feeling unusually bad and discouraged, I happened to pick up a little book with a Cardui advertisement. I decided I would try it."
"Cardui seemed to build me up at once, as I was able to do my work with ease, and was rid of the pain by the time I had taken six bottles."
"I have taken Cardui since then, whenever I felt that I needed a tonic, and it always helped me. I recommend it to my friends." Get a bottle today.
