KITCHIN MADE PRESIDENT OF WAKE FOREST

Dean of Medical College to Succeed Dr.
Francis J. Gaines,
Resigned

Raleigh, July 2.—(AP)—Thurman D. Kitchen, dean of the medical school of Wake Forest college for 13 years, was today elected president of the college to succeed Dr.
Francis J. Gaines, resigned.

The election of Mr. Kitchen was by unanimous vote after the first ballot.

The matter of a president at Wake Forest to succeed Dr. Gaines, who will become president of Washington and Lee University, Va., has been attended by a bitter controversy with Dr. Kitchen and Dr. J. Clyde Turner of Greensboro as the candidates of rival factions for the position. Dr. Turner had previously to today announced he would not consider being a candidate for the position.

In a brief address to the board of trustees, which met in special session to elect a president, Dr.
Kitchen pledged himself fully to the service of Wake Forest college and as it is a Christian institution to the principles that make for Christian living. He referred to the controversy over the selection of a new president and declared that the matter was forever out of his memory.

Thurman B. Kitchen, 45, has been dean of the school of medicine of Wake Forest college for thirteen years.

His father was the late William B. Kitchen, of Halifax county, who represented North Carolina in Congress for a number of years. His mother was related to Nathaniel Macon, who served in Congress 40 years.

One brother of President Kitchen, W. W. Kitchen, served as representative of the fifth district in Congress for a number of years and was Governor of North Carolina.

Another brother, Claude Kitchen, was at one time ranking member and Democratic leader of the House of Representatives of Congress.

The newly-elected president is an A. B. graduate of the school he will head. He was a graduate student of the University of North Carolina one year and took his M. D. degree at Jefferson Medical College.

When Dr. Kitchen took the state examination he made the highest average before the board of medical examiners. He is a past president of the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina and is one of the 22 fellows in this state of the American College of Physicians.

He is chairman of the board of directors of the State hospital and was a member of the special commission of Gov. A. W. McLean to study and make recommendations concerning the status of mental defectives in the state.

Dr. Kitchen is author of a textbook on pharmacology and was at one time alumni speaker at Jefferson Medical college. His series of addresses "The Doctor and Citizenship" has created a demand for his publication in book form. He is one of the members of the faculty of Wake Forest college who appears in the latest volume of Who's Who in America.

Ultra-Violet Rays
From Light Bulbs
Are Curing Disease

Ithaca, N. Y., July 2.—(AP)— Ultra-violet light from ordinary-size house electric bulbs is curing disease at Cornell university.

This experiment, made public today, is the latest step in artificial sunlight, a practical forecast of return of the time when modern man may regard the constant ultra-violet environment under which the human race developed. The experiment had his ultra-violet out in the open. The Cornell work indicates his descendants may get it from ordinary size electric lights.

The Cornell experiment clarifies a prediction hazarded recently by a few advanced illuminating engineers, that even in the extremely small amounts of ultra-violet known to be produced by ordinary tungsten filaments, there is sufficient for health, without risk of over ex-posure.

At Cornell Dr. George H. Maughan has been raising chickens under electric light bulbs the glass of which does not transmit ultra-violet.
Without exception these chickens failed to grow more than half size, were unable to stand long, became greatly deformed and finally died of rickets unless given special care.

In adjoining pens were other chickens raised the same in every detail except one. The single difference was one small electric light, of glass that transmits ultra-violet.
It was placed near their feed boxes so that the chickens spent considerable time near the seemingly feeble ray.

ELEVEN HELD IN HUGE RUM RUNNING RING

Indictments Reveal
Alleged Syndicate
Operating Florida to Middle West

Cleveland, July 2.—(AP)—An alleged rum running syndicate that operated an overland route from Florida and a fleet of boats across Lake Erie to distribute liquor in midwestern cities stood revealed today with the release of secret federal indictments naming 11 men on conspiracy charges.

Principals of the ring, federal investigators said, were Daniel F.
Coughlin of Pittsburgh and Cleveland; James Courtney, now in Canada; and John O'Boyle of Cleveland. The organization, formerly allied to have been headed by "Handsome" Larry Davidson, whose extensive rum running activities placed him in Atlanta penitentiary.

The syndicate, according to the indictments, operated a fleet of trucks from Ferdinand, Pa., to Mc-Keesport, Pa., where liquor was reshipped to Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Chicago and Woodlawn, Pa. Its other arm reached across Lake Erie between Canadian ports and points along the Erie (Ohio) county shore. Headquarters were in Cleveland, with Courtney directing the Canadian operations via long distance telephone, it was charged.

Coughlin surrendered late yesterday, pleaded not guilty and was released under $7,500 bond. Specifically he was charged with transporting 8,022 cases of whiskey to McKeesport May 14 addressed to "E. Hubbard, care of the McKeesport Banana Distributing company."

Coughlin is free under $10,000 bond pending appeal from his recent conviction on a conspiracy charge at Toledo with Davidson and is under $10,000 bond on another charge at Pittsburgh.

Courtney skipped bond and fled to Canada last November after being arrested at a reputed "bootlegger's conference" here. Most of the 55 other acts charged consist of telephone conversations between Courtney from Windsor, Kingsville and Port Leamington, Ont., and Cleveland members of the ring.
O'Boyle is alleged to have assisted in carrying out Courtney's instructions.

The others indicted were Harry and Glenn Fisher, charged with operating a Cleveland garage for the rum trucks; Patrick J. Burns, yardmaster of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at the Demer yards in Allegheny county, Pa.; John Dolan, A. Aris and M. Doty, alleged to have transported liquor over the Ferdinand-McKeesport route; Pete Bucholz, alleged to have piloted the motor boat carrying the 33 cases of champagne; and Harry Goodman, alias Harry Gordon, said to have been a liquor distributor.

Democrats to Meet in Raleigh Thurs.; Warren to Preside

Raleigh, July 2.—(AP)—Lindsay Warren, congressman from the first North Carolina district and the only Democrat seeking a major office who will not have Republican opposition next fall, will wield the gavel as permanent chairman at the Democratic convention to be held here tomorrow.

R. H. McLawhorn Tenders Resignation With Declaration That He Feels He Can No Longer Be of Service to Board Under Existing Con- ditions

Charging that the Board of County Commissioners is controlled by the chairman and one or two outsiders, R. H. McLawhorn, tendered his resignation as a member of the board today.

After offering a detailed explanation of his action, the former commissioner declared that, "Rather than continue on a board that is controlled by the board chairman and one or two outsiders without regard to the people as a whole, that has done nothing to relieve the situation until driven to do so, and feeling that my services are not desired by the board, that I can be of no service whatever under present conditions, I tender my resignation."

In addition to refusal of the board to give consideration of any of his proposals, Mr. McLawhorn charged that many inconsistencies existed in the operation of the various departments, and presents each of the questions in complete form.

His statement accompanying the resignation follows:

Having tendered my resignation as a member of the board of commissioners of Pitt County I wish to offer the following explanation.

The attitude of the general public has in no way been the cause of my action. While on the board I have served to the best of my ability, with the public welfare always foremost in my mind. Last December I advocated a strict plan of economy and suggested to the board a moderate cut in all county salaries as a means of economy. I was absolutely alone and the idea was rejected. I proposed a measure of relief for the townships that had the special tax so as to place all on an equal basis, and again I was the laughing stock of the board. It now becomes necessary to raise the rate about twenty cents, which according to the chairman of the board is on account of the discontinuance of special township taxes. At that time the chairman and his aid were unable to find any statute in the special tax matter but now he can find statutes to suit his plans. Instead of reducing salaries last December when the employees were hired for a year he has waited until the middle of the year of health he comes back to permanently raise the fiscal year to be changed, just another way of suiting his own convenience.

In cutting salaries the clerk in the health office was reduced 20 per cent, the one in the sheriff's office only 10 per cent, the auditor's office 8 per cent, and in other words the higher paid employees received less cut than the lower salaried ones. The clerk to the clerk of the board retains the same salary and that office is given 4 months extra help (to be deducted from the sheriff's office allowance).

It happens that the chairman of the board of commissions is chairman of the board of health department. Because of his inability to control the other votes of the board of health he comes back to the commissioners' meeting and begins a drive to reduce the salaries in the health department while on an extent as to practically destroy the office. The health department is one of the most vital parts of our county government and deserves much credit.

To get back at the people who rightfully combated the illegal special township tax it is now proposed to cut the road maintenance fund 20 per cent while the county chain gang has practically the same allowance, though they have spent the last three years in the home township of the chairman of the board, the maintenance fund serving for the rest of the whole county.
An immediate cut of 20 per cent in the maintenance fund while none of the other road crew, or officers are cut is unfair and should not be tolerated.

Information was given the board that the present farm demonstrator has consistently refused to work with and assist the people in certain sections of the county. I suggested that a man be employed that would serve the whole county or that the office be abolished.
Nothing was done.

The last audit of county books cert the county a thousand dollars though there were five lower bids, three of them $150 less. The auditor's office is costing the county sixty-six hundred dollars a year plus $1000 for auditing.

Rather than continue on a board that is controlled by the board chairman and one or two outsiders without regard to the people as a whole, that has done nothing to relieve the situation until driven to do so, and feeling that my services are not desired by the board, that I can be of no service whatever under present conditions, I tendered my resignation.

Five Aldermen Inducted Into Office At The First Meeting Of The New Year

Only One Change Marks the Annual Election of Departmental Heads With George Clark Succeeding D. M. Sel-lars As Superintendent of City Streets

Meeting for the first time during the new fiscal year which began yesterday, members of the Board of Aldermen last night formally inducted into office five members elected during the recent aldermanic election, re-elected two members to the board of trustees of city schools, and then went into executive session to select the heads of the various departments for the present year.

All departmental heads were re-elected with exception of D. M. Sel-lars, superintendent of the city streets, who was succeeded by George Clark. In addition to his duties as head of the street department, Mr. Clark will also have charge of sanitary and building inspections. This eliminates the regular sanitary inspector employed by the city sometime ago to carry on an improved program of sanitation throughout the city.

The five aldermen who took oath were J. L. Hassell, W. H. Norris, J. A. Collins, A. E. Hobgood and John Wiley Smith. Hobgood and Smith were re-elected and the other three members were elected without opposition.

One Killed As Gangsters Attempt To Assassinate Man Held In Lingle Case

Street Car Conductor Shot to Death And Another Wounded
As Gang Members Attack Jack Zuta in Police Car Under the Bright Lights of South State Street

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—Gang gunners stood in the glare of the bright lights of South State street last night and made an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Jack Zuta, gangster.

A man was killed, another was wounded. In the excitement Zuta and three companions disappeared.
The gunman escaped behind the exhaust of their car. A police officer emptied his revolver at the gunmen who, however, apparently escaped unhurt.

The man killed was Elbert Lusader, 38 years old, motorman on a street car. A bullet from the pistol of one of the attackers, penetrated his neck.

Zuta had been arrested for questioning in connection with the slay-ing of Jake Lingle, Tribune reporter. His release was ordered last night, but Zuta hesitated to leave the detective headquarters. He pleaded with Police Lieut. George Barker to provide police protection to his home.

"Lieutenant, I'd never get home alive," he said to Barker. "Get me across the loop, won't you?"
"All right. Get in my car," Barker replied. "I'll drive you as far as State and Lake streets," (the northern edge of the Loop).

The police officer got in the driver's seat. Zuta sat in the tonneau with Albert Bratz and Leona Bernstein. Solly Vision sat in front with Barbar. Bratz, Vision and the Bernstein woman had been arrested with Zuta in police raids Monday. All are regarded as connected with the George (Bugs) Moran gang.

Lieutenant Barker started south from detective headquarters, driving on South State street slowly.
The machine had just crossed Quincy street, traveling at a snail's pace behind a street car, when a sedan that had been behind swung from the rear and drew alongside, between the policeman's car and the curb.

A tall fellow in a tan suit and a Pama hat opened the door of the sedan, and stepped to the running board. From a shoulder holster he drew a pistol. He aimed deliberately and sent a stream of bullets at the police machine.

Lieutenant Barker jammed on the brakes and leaped to the street pistol in hand. The other car stopped also. By this time a second gunman was firing, leaning from a window of the automobile.

When the shooting began, Solly Vision scrambled over the seat into the tonneau, and huddled with Zuta, Bratz and the woman on the floor behind the scan; protection afforded by the sides of the car.

Barker now was standing in the brightly lighted street, exchanging shots with the gunman. Behind his automobile was a street car, unable to proceed because of the police machine. At the controls was the motorman, Lusader, who stared, horried, as the guins blazed.

Chicago Fliers Complete Three Weeks Of Gruelling Test In The Clouds Today

Endurance Fliers Reach the Three-Week Mark This Afternoon at 3:40 O'clock; Pass the Five Hundred Hour
Mark With Additional 10,000 in View

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—John and Kenneth Hunter in the monoplane, "City of Chicago," flew through their 500th continuous hour over Sky Harbor today at 11:40 a. m.
(CST). They were approximately 80 hours ahead of the previous record for endurance flying.

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—The old farm would look mighty sweet to Kenneth Hunter right now.
Kenneth is tired. He wants to come down and end the maddening monotony of three weeks' ceaseless flying, flying to the changeless refrain of vibrant motor and whirling "prop."

Minutes ticked on into dollars.
The 500 hour post came in view, and in 20 more hours $10,000 from an oil company.

Kenneth scribbled a note, dropped it to Walter and Albert, the Hunter brothers down at the Sky Harbor hangar, it was marked personal and the refueling crew would not reveal its text, but they said Kenneth thought the flight would end today.

"But John will stay up there for ever," said Walter.
And at 8:40 a. m. (CST) the "City of Chicago" and its crew were staying up, now 77 hours past the old endurance record of the "St. Louis Robin."

The flight almost ended for lack of fuel when the motor of the "Big Ben," warming up for the first morning contact, failed before the takeoff shortly after 7 a. m. With the fliers in the air waiting for gasoline, oil and breakfast, a quartet of mechanics hastily installed new spark plugs and returned the ship.
The morning crowd at the airport displayed more nervousness than the ground crew.

There was manifest relief as the "Big Ben" finally nosed into the air and dropped its line aboard the endurance ship. Another wave of apprehension rippled over the crowd when someone thought he heard the motor of the "City of Chicago" missing. But the 190th contact was achieved without mishap.

John today dropped a note to be telegraphed to his sister, Miss Mabelle Hunter, who is ill in a hospital. It was an answer to her message delivered by radio through her mother yesterday, in which she expressed worry over their speech and health.

The note read:
"What do you say 'boy' (Maybelle's nickname). Who don't know how to break a record. Well, we have close to 500 hours and the motor is running fairly good yet. I don't know how much longer it will last. Beans (Kenneth), is fretting and wants to come down at 520 hours but I want to stay up 'till Monday!"

"It has been tough but nothing like the other flight. We are feeling fine although Beans is getting pretty sleepy."

"We go out and work on that old motor as if it were on the ground. (Boloney). But I did go out on the catwalk this morning at 2 o'clock and put a new breaker in the magneto."

"Now don't go worrying about us because we are all right. We can still talk and to prove it, we will all come down and make a big speech for you."

Veterans Measure Sent Back to House

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—As changed by the Senate, the world war veterans pension bill was returned to the House today with a request for a conference to compose differences between the two branches.

Action was deferred. The Republican steering committee, an unofficial group, had agreed to a conference, however, and plans for adjourning of the legislation were maturing.

DR. SAMUEL WHYHER DIES AT KINSTON

Kinston, July 2.—(AP)—Dr. Victory Samuel Whyher, 84, died here today. The aged physician had been a medical practitioner in Kinston since 1871.

The deceased graduated from two universities in Austria, and his brother, now dead, served as a major-general in the Austrian army.
He was the father-in-law of John G. Dawson, former state Democratic chairman.

Seeks Legacy

A $1,900,000 legacy held in trust for 14 years is sought by Vincent Kerens of Dallas, Texas, who produced witnesses to prove he had self for five years as stipulated in his father's will.

HAILS TARIFF AS GAIN FOR AGRICULTURE

Secretary Hyde Declares New Measure Provides Increased Protection for Farm

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—The new tariff law was hailed by Secretary Hyde today as a "distinct gain" for agriculture, providing increased protection, actually and potentially, for American farmers.

In an address over a network of radio stations, the secretary said it would serve to hold the home market for the American producer and would stimulate agriculture to balance its production against the market demand.

Many of its rates such as those on wool, eggs, long staple cotton and dairy products, he said, will be generally beneficial and others will help in border markets.

"The new act reduces, even though it may not entirely eliminate, the disparity in tariff protection which has existed between agricultural and industrial products," he said. "On an equivalent ad valorem basis, the percentage of increase on agricultural products (schedule D) is more than twice as large as the increase upon other schedules in the bill."

"This increase was 54.43 per cent since the increase on all items covered in the bill is only 6.17 per cent, the increase of 54.43 per cent on agricultural products is significant. The next largest increase is 22.17 per cent over the act of 1922.
This is on spirits and fruit syrups.
These products are almost wholly of agricultural origin."

Hyde cited as important agricultural products upon which the rate has been raised. Cattle, meats and meat products, hides, wool, long staple cotton, flaxseed, soybeans, butter and cheese, milk and cream, casein, eggs, a large variety of fresh fruits, fresh vegetables and sugar.

"The duty on wheat was not increased above the rate established by the President under the flexible provision of the act of 1922," he said. "Establishing this rate of 42 cents in the 1930 act, however, makes possible such changes in the rates as later investigation may show to be required."

"Despite the surplus in production, the duty on wheat is partially effective. It is most effective in protecting the hard spring wheat growers in seasons of short crops, but it benefits other classes of wheat by creating a stronger market."

"The tariff bill provides a duty of 7 cents per pound upon cotton having a staple of one and one-eighth inch or longer. Since it is long staple cotton which the United States imports for special purposes, this duty will be largely effected upon this class of cotton."

CALLS FOR REPORT OF NATIONAL BANKS

comptroller of the currency issued a call today for the condition of all national banks at the close of business Monday, June 30.

ITALY RAISES HER TARIFF ON AUTOMOBILES

Import Duty Increased From 110 to 120
Per Cent Without Previous Notice

Rome, July 2.—(AP)—The Italian government today, without previous notice, increased the import duty of automobiles between 110 and 120 per cent. Notice of the increase was published in the official Gazzette.

The foreign motor car manufacturers here, particularly the Americans, were thrown into great excitement by the new schedules.

The rates were published on June 30, but passed unnoticed by the public so that the new schedule had been in effect 36 hours before the bombshell exploded in motor circles.

The unprecedented heavy customs duties were considered by agents of American manufacturers here as a form of retaliation against the new American tariff schedules.

The new rates were applied particularly to small cars, the average duty on Ford cars was increased from 7,000 lire (the Italian lire is worth about five cents American) to 16,000 lire. The percentage on higher priced cars was somewhat less. The highest priced model of one line for example, was covered with a tariff increase of from 25,000 to 33,000 lire.

increase of tariffs on automobiles by Italy attracted government attention today but official quarters retained from any comment.

No notification had been received from the Italian government at the State department.

The last communication from Italy on tariff matters was received last April, protesting the tariff proposed in Congress at that time, on some Italian products.

Agents of the American Commerce Department in Italy were asked to furnish additional information on the Italian export duty.
Formerly the Italian import duty was based on value of imports while under the new system, duty will be based on weight of material imported. The change made an exact comparison between the two sets of rates difficult of attainment and occasioned the demand for further information.

Local Man Presides At Clerk's Meeting

Wilmington, July 2.—(AP)—The address of the president, J. F. Harrington, of Pitt county, head the second day's program here today of the annual convention of the Association of North Carolina Superior Court Clerks.

Reports of officers and other business were before the county officials today. At the opening session the delegates were welcomed to Wilmington and Eastern North Carolina by W. B. Campbell, Wilmington attorney.

Langston to Go On Trial During Month of August

Goldboro, July 2.—(AP)—J. M.
Langston, of LaGrange, will go on trial here August 18, charged with the first degree murder of Probation Agent P. L. Flinchum.

Probable cause was found by Judge D. H. Bland of the Wayne county recorder's court at the conclusion of a preliminary hearing here last night. He ordered the defendant held without bail.

The court also ordered Jim Aldridge, of LaGrange, held as an accessory after the fact. Aldridge may give bond of $3,000.

Flinchum met his death near the Goldboro city limits early the morning of June 17 when he and three other officers pursued an attombler they suspected of carrying whiskey. In a running exchange of shots, officers said, Flinchum was mortally wounded. Another officer was shot.

The preliminary hearing required 11 hours. Deputy-Sheriff Carl Smith of Wayne county testified that Langston once tried to bribe him not to arrest him. He said the defendant said "I'd kill the best friend I had in the world before I'd be taken." Other witnesses said they saw Langston and Aldridge in the vicinity of Goldboro prior to the shooting.

TYPHOID ON DECREASE IN THIS COUNTY

Fever Reduced to 7 Deaths Per 100,000 Population During Last Five Years

The activities of a county health department are classed into two groups. First, education, second, prevention. The case incidents of typhoid fever in this county clearly demonstrate the advantages of a county health department. The death rate from this disease has been reduced for the past five years from 25 deaths per 100,000 to seven deaths per 100,000, as shown by the department of epidemiology of the State Board of Health. During the year 1924 100 cases of typhoid fever were reported to the Pitt County health department by physicians in the county, and through education of the public, inoculation and improved sanitation the number of cases have gradually been reduced as follows:

1924, 100; 1925, 59; 1926, 49; 1927, 47; 1928, 47; 1929, 32.

Immediately after receipt of a report of a case of typhoid fever by the family physician, a member of the health department visits the family and obtains a complete epidemiological record of the case, isolating it from other members of the family and instituting a quarantine of the household. Every means of determining the source of infection is exhausted, that is, examination of the water supply, sewage disposal, etc., and whether or not the patient has had meals or drinks away from home within a few weeks prior to the onset of symptoms. All contacts are immunized against the disease and the family instructed in regard to the care of the patient.

Clinics are established in the surrounding community and all persons urged to be immunized against the disease. As will be shown from the following figures thousands of persons have received their immunizing doses of typhoid vaccine. During the last five years 25,712 persons have been immunized. This covers approximately half the population of the county. With improved milk and water supplies, sewage disposal systems, screening against flies and immunization of the people typhoid fever will soon be a thing of the past. The average minimum cost of each case of typhoid fever may be placed at $50, including doctors' fees, drugs, etc., and on this basis five years ago typhoid fever cost the tax payers of Pitt county $5,000 while in 1929 figuring on the same basis the cost was slightly above $1,000.

FIVE ALDERMEN INDUCTED INTO OFFICE AT THE FIRST MEETING OF NEW YEAR

spite the depression existing throughout the nation, the city would be able to emerge from the economic situation with colors flying. J. L. Little and E. G. Flanagan were re-elected as members of the board of trustees of city schools. Mr. Little is the present chairman of the board and has served over a period of thirty years or more. Mr. Flanagan also has served for considerable time.

Prior to the executive session the board disposed of business demanding immediate attention. Principal among this was the levying of a 25c maintenance rate for the city schools for the present year.

Committee appointments were considered, but the mayor said that he had not had sufficient time for this work and postponed the selection until some time today.

The matter of granting vacations for members of the police department was considered and it was agreed to allow each member of the force one week off, the dates to be determined by the mayor.

The finance committee was instructed to prepare schedules for privilege license tax and to report same at the regular meeting of the board next Thursday night.

Dr. R. H. Wright and Rev. E. L. Hillman appeared before the board on behalf of the Methodist church and requested that the church be relieved of the payment for current of two white way lights in front of the church. The board agreed to have the lights connected with the city system.

The following departmental heads and assistants were re-elected for another year:

Reid Gaskins, city clerk, with Mrs. Topsy Joyner, assistant. Preston Pierce, chief of police, with J. L. Whitchard, assistant. George Gardner, chief of the fire department. Dr. Alex. Viola, director of meat and milk inspections.

A bullet from the weapon of the tall man on the running board of the gunmen's car struck Lusader in the neck. He died a few hours later. An aged night watchman, Olaf Svensen, was struck in the arm by a bullet.

Lieutenant Barker stood firing until his ammunition was exhausted. He leaped back into the machine just as the other automobile pulled away.

The police car was only a few feet behind the other machine at State and Madison streets. It was there that a smoke bomb was dropped by the machine in front, sending up a screen of smoke behind which the gunmen hoped to hide the progress of the car.

Lieutenant Barker, however, kept the machine in sight, and had nearly overtaken it at Wabash avenue and Madison street when his own motor sputtered and died—its gasoline exhausted. The gunmen's car disappeared in traffic, going north.

THE VALUE of SOUND DESIGN

New Ford engine gives outstanding acceleration, speed and power without sacrificing reliability or economy

THE GOOD PERFORMANCE of the Ford car, so apparent on every highway, is due largely to the sound mechanical design of the engine.

It has outstanding acceleration, speed and power, yet that is only part of its value to you. Greater still is the fact that it brings you all these features without sacrificing either reliability or economy.

That is the reason the Ford car has given such satisfactory service to millions of motorists all over the world and has been chosen by so many large companies that keep accurate cost figures. In every detail of construction it has been carefully planned and made for the work it has to do.

The design of the compression chamber is an important factor in the efficiency of the Ford engine. It is built to allow free passage of gases through the valves and to thoroughly mix the fuel by producing turbulence within the cylinders during compression. The spark thus flashes quickly through the whole fuel charge, resulting in quieter and more effective engine performance.

Other factors are the direct gravity gasoline feed, the specially designed carburetor, the new hot-spot manifold, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves of larger diameter, statically and dynamically balanced crankshaft and flywheel, simplicity of the electrical, cooling, lubrication, and fuel systems and accuracy in manufacturing.

Why Uncle Sam Likes Ice Cream

If you want to see a hungry American, you should see one on a hot day served with a dish of ice cream, in the dining-room of a European hotel. That's when he grows really patriotic—wishes he had never left home. He gets enough ice cream to about fill a dessert spoon once. Uncle Sam really likes ice cream—has a growing and healthful appetite for what his doctors have discovered to be the finest dessert and health-food combined ever invented. One very special reason for his growing appetite is because he is served at the Nation's capital, and throughout Southern Dairies territory, with that "Cream of the South" known as

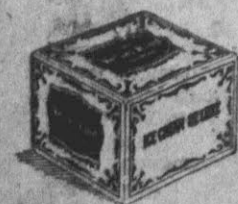

The Velvet Kind ICE CREAM

Its even and constant high quality is recognized by those most competent to judge. Made in immaculate plants and by an efficient personnel, of pure, rich cream and milk—every ingredient of the highest grade. The Velvet Kind Ice Cream is recommended not only by diet specialists and health authorities, but by its unequalled excellence and deliciously smooth texture.

It goes way beyond health requirements and fully meets those of the epicure.

When does Uncle Sam like it most? Before the Fourth, after the Fourth, and right bang on the Fourth of July! Show your patriotism with at least one pint package of The Velvet Kind Ice Cream.

King's Daughters Meet. On Tuesday evening at eight o'clock the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters held its July meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bowen, in College View. The devotional, taken from the tenth chapter of Romans, on confession of Christ as one of the essentials of Christian living was impressively given by the president, Mrs. Delia McGee, followed by a prayer by Miss Lill Wilson. An arousing article from the Silver Cross, "The Power to Keep Going," was given by Mrs. Moye. A letter from the state president, Mrs. Moye, was read, urging greater earnestness and effort in his name on the part of orders throughout the state and rejoicing that four new circles had been organized in the state.

Because of the scarcity of funds in the treasury, no aid or relief work could be planned except one small pouncing and a thorough investigation of one case. To remedy this situation somewhat, it was decided to adopt a suggestion by the president to sell tickets for the indoor golf course and if possible arrange for a tournament. This should be a success if each King's Daughter co-operates enthusiastically.

There were discussions as to what the circle would like to do for the Master, such as building a King's Daughter's hospital in this state—the long time desire of the order's most devoted member, Mrs. Lizzie Griffin—but besides arousing thought and a need for prayer, nothing else was done.

The meeting was made pleasant by the return of the treasurer, Mrs. Emma Bryan, who had been absent for months because of illness. Another faithful member, Mrs. W. R. Jones, being ill, the circle agreed to express its regrets to her by flowers.

The meeting adjourned after a social hour.

MID-WEEK PRAYER SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

At eight o'clock this evening the regular prayer and praise service will be held in the Presbyterian church. The book study will be "Ruth, a Light in the Darkness." Read this beautiful story, and come to receive more help in its study.

The service this evening will be held in the basement of the church. It is much cooler in the summer. It will be cool and helpful to you if you come.

Methodist Prayer Services.

Have you read Luke 15:11-24, the story of "The Lost Son," and planned to attend prayer services to-night at 8 o'clock? If you have not, spend the last few minutes of the day in so doing and be with us for the service. Our services are short these hot evenings and you can keep as comfortable in the church as in the average place. The Junior choir is still giving us good music. We shall expect to see you here this evening.

Mr. Dresbach Improves. Friends of W. O. Dresbach will be glad to learn that he is getting along all right following an operation at Pitt Community hospital.

Attend Convention. J. Frank Harrington, Clerk of Superior Court, and J. C. Gaskins, Register of Deeds, are in Wilmington attending the annual convention of the State Association of Superior Court Clerks. Mr. Harrington is president of the organization.

Mrs. Galloway Injured.

Friends of Mrs. Scott Galloway will regret to learn that she is confined to her home on Eighth street suffering from an injured foot.

LEON M. PEARSON AT COLLEGE LAST EVENING

Leon M. Pearson, in his poetry recital at East Carolina Teachers College last night, proved his right to the tribute that Dr. Meadows paid him in his introduction when he called him "poet, reader, actor, teacher, and philosopher, as well as many other things."

In three minutes of explanation, Mr. Pearson threw the searchlight upon his program, a series of poems giving a cross section of American types in simple, narrative poems, modeled on the old folk ballads, those that sprang up among the people. These modern ballads have their author's names attached to them, but they are no less of the folk, or about the folk.

"Jim Bludso," or "The Prairie Belle," one of the "Pike County Ballads," by John Hay, opened the program; the audience realized that a hero could come from the people, but there was no comment or explanation, the ballad spoke for itself. And so it was with all of the poems; Mr. Pearson's reading interpretation was all that was needed.

A group of T. A. Daly's Italian-American character stories was greatly enjoyed, among them "Two Loves," "The Best of Friends" (the dog), "The Lonely, Honey-moon," and "The Blossoming Barrier." Mr. Daly himself, who by the way, is an Irishman who lives in Philadelphia, says the last of these is the "best of the lot;" it shows the Italian's innate love of beauty.

The group of poems by Paul Lawrence Dunbar was especially enjoyed by the audience, and it is a tribute to Mr. Pearson that his negro dialect was acceptable to the audience. He proved that it is not the dialect, but the interpretation, the meaning, that counts. He quoted W. D. Howells, who said that Dunbar seemed to have "a divination of what passes in the hearts and minds of a lonely people and an ironical perception of the negro's limitations." Among the Dunbar poems were "The Coquette" and "Angeline." One of the best selections of the evening was a poem by Joel Chandler Harris, a kind of Uncle Remus in verse, which came nearer to be a true folk ballad than anything else he gave.

The southern group was brought to a fine finish by selections from Stephen Vincent Benet's "John Brown's Body," one about the old negro mammy and one about the white mistress. His reading of the poem that Benet called a "Georgia Romance," "The Mountain Whippoorwill," in which the sound pictures were wonderfully well given, was one of his best numbers.

A Robert Frost poem of New England life, with its cadences of commonplace speech bringing out the fitness and poetry of farm life, was effectively read.

The title poem on the volume that one the Pulitzer prize for Edna St. Vincent Millay in 1922 "The Ballad of the Harp-Weaver," was read so that the magic of this great poet was felt by the listeners.

The last of the poems by other poets was a French-Canadian ballad by William Henry Drummond, "The Wreck of Julie Plant."

He read one of his own poems as a closing number, showing how he philosophized about "The Freight Train." The girls liked this one so much they refused to let him stop, so he responded with "The Five and Ten," and later with a poem that could not be put into print—his meditations on a sleeper, the rhythm of the train in a motion lulling to sleep and the intrusion of human sounds when the train stops—imitation of a snore ending the sketch.

This entertainment proved that an audience does like good things when they are well done. It was a delightful entertainment.

On next Monday evening, July 7, at eight o'clock, a magician, Paul Fleming, will be the attraction.

BOOTLEGGER DRAWS TERM ON ROADS

Union Taft Given Six Months for Violation of the Prohibition Law

Union Taft, said to be one of the most notorious bootleggers of Greenville, was sentenced to six months on the county roads by Judge W. L. Whedbee, presiding over the regular weekly session of County court in this city yesterday.

Several other cases involving the charges of larceny and assault with deadly weapons were disposed of during the session.

Taft, driving an automobile containing several gallons of whiskey, furnished Chief of Police Preston Pierce one of the most exciting chases in months, but he finally escaped and later was taken into custody. The automobile driven by Taft was wrecked on the outskirts of the city when it came into contact with a telephone post. Taft and another negro riding with him escaped. Several gallons of whiskey were found in the automobile. The car was badly damaged.

Thomas O'Neill, white man of the Bell Arthur community, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was sentenced to six months on the county roads. The case grew out of an altercation with Harry Grimmer, who it was alleged, O'Neill assaulted with a hoe. Grimmer, also given hearing on a similar charge was given the choice between a fine of $10 and the cost of sixty days on the roads.

John Wilcox, colored, drew four months on the roads on a charge of larceny. Sam Cox and Herbert Brown, involved in the same case, were found not guilty.

Charged with escaping from the county road force, the following convicts were given additional sentences of sixty days each: Will Moore, Walter Pratt, Fred Pugh, Herman Pittman, McKinley Johnson, Ralph Farrow, Miles Swinson, and John Barnhill.

and it is to be hoped the high standard of service required by the inspectors under the state sanitary laws will be closely observed in the future.

Preparations are under way for building the connecting link between the Cox Mill road and the Craven county line and in a few months this important thoroughfare will be thrown open to the farmers of one of the most prolific farming regions in this section.

The State Highway Commission recently let contract for the new road and it was understood today that work would begin as soon as road builders could get their machinery and equipment here.

This will form a complete stretch of highway between Greenville and the Craven county line and make it much easier for the people of this section to reach New Bern and the people of that territory to come to Greenville and points to the north and west.

Greenville, the principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina, draws hundreds of people from the Cox Mill section every year, and as soon completed the patronage no doubt will be greatly increased. It will also open up new possibilities to the farmers in the marketing of their tobacco crop. They will be able to reach Greenville much quicker than customary and will not be forced to endure the hardship of traveling over the sand clay road in wet weather.

This connecting link will be worth thousands of dollars to the people of this section and the sooner it is opened the better everybody will like it.

Don't forget the second primary to be held in this county next Saturday. Although there is only one contest involved—that for a seat on the County Board of Commissioners—it is important that the people go to the polls in large numbers and vote according to their conviction.

The Board of Commissioners is one of the most important offices in the county. Its members have upon their shoulders the responsibility of handling the business of the government from year to year, and it is absolutely imperative that only the most sagacious business men be elected to the important post. The whole future of the county is largely in the hands of these men and the job of facing the organization in the future is not one for incompetent or unskilled hands to tamper with.

The contested seat is at the present time occupied by J. Paul Davenport, chairman of the board, and his opponent is S. I. Dudley, who polled sufficient votes to give him the privilege of demanding a second primary to determine who will occupy the seat.

There were two other fields involved but the candidates withdrew their right of calling another election because of the expense which the county would incur in such a contest. There has been no disposition on the part of Mr. Dudley to withdraw and the run-off primary will go off according to schedule.

The citizenship will be called upon to determine the qualifications of the two men and then cast their vote for the one they believe to be the best fitted for the important post. It is a decision that should be carefully considered and it is to be hoped the people will give their best thought before casting their vote.

HISTORY

With these hot days the mosquito has made his appearance in our city and in some sections is making himself quite a nuisance.
While the city, as usual is making its annual crusade against these pests, each individual citizen can help to a great extent in getting rid of mosquitoes by a general clean-up of his or her premises. Low, boggy places, standing water in tin cans or other containers and weeds that hold moisture are great breeding places for the mosquito and not until these places are cleaned up can we be rid of Mr.
Mosquito. Look about your premises now, get rid of old cans and other things that can hold water and breed mosquitoes, cut down your weeds and fill up holes where water stands. It will not be much of a job to do this and it will mean much to the comfort and safety of our community from a health standpoint.

ABOUT TOWN

That the members of the Board of County Commissioners are anxious to do the right thing in the operation of the county government, is evident in the fact that they have invited the public to attend the board's session next Monday morning to discuss the budget.

In other words, the commissioners have an open mind and are ready to accept any constructive suggestion looking to improvement of conditions in the county which they have been elected to serve. If there is any citizen feeling like he knows something that should aid in the reduction of county expenses he has been extended an invitation to tell the commissioners about it and they will abide by the suggestion as far as possible.

This business of preparing a budget is a monumental task and calls for the best brains of the county. The commissioners have been working on the budget for several days and have cut down expenses considerably. Yet they feel that maybe somebody has a suggestion that will prove of aid to them and they are marking time until the first Monday when the citizenship will be given an opportunity of airing their views.

State sanitary inspectors have rendered a distinct service to the community in their effort to bring about the observance of sanitary laws by the various cafes of the city.

While it has been necessary to take drastic action in this connection, the defendants, eleven of them in all, have been permitted to go back to their places of business and resume operation upon the grounds that sanitary conditions will be improved.

The state inspectors do not get around very often but when they do come they usually cause an upheaval in the ranks of those who fail to appreciate the importance of cleanliness as it pertains to the health of a community.

The minimum rating for cafes and public eating places is 70 per cent, and when an establishment falls beneath that figure it may expect to be jacked up and vigorously prosecuted in the court especially if he is a second offender.
This is an important movement for better health among the citizenship

SPORTS SLANTS

In full cry now and in the midst of the greatest winning streak in golf's royal and ancient history, Bobby Jones has captured four of the last five national championships in which he has taken part, with the American Open at Interlachen in July as his next engagement.

The Atlanta wizard won the 1928 American Amateur, the 1929 American Open, fell by the wayside in the 1929 American Amateur but has swept the links of Britain to again pick up the threads of victory. Jones led his Walker Cup team to one-sided triumph abroad in addition to capturing the British Amateur for the first time, the British Open for the third time in five years.

Bobby's only major setback since he lost his playoff to Johnny Farrell at Olympia for the American Open crown of 1928 was at the hands of Johnny Goodman, the boy from Omaha, in the amateur championship at Pebble Beach last September.

The interesting angle is that the last has not been heard of young Mr. Goodman, who nonchalantly stood off his opponent on the shores of Camel Bay last summer with a fine exhibition of golf.

The Nebraska led the country's qualifiers in the National Open preliminaries last year, worked his way East and finished the rugged Winged Foot layout, even though his final tally of 318 was 34 strokes back of Jones. This at least was better than such stars as Johnny Farrell could do.

This June, Goodman was within a stroke of the top among some 1200 aspirants for qualifying places and will be in the finals at Minneapolis. Even though he is not in a class with Jones as a scoring machine, it will be interesting to see what Goodman does at Interlachen in his second attempt; even more interesting to see what happens when he goes to Merion in September for the National Amateur. Golfing fate might make some arrangements there to cast Bobby and Johnny together again in match play and scramble around to enjoy the reworkings.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—(AP)—Jim Verney, 63, grew tired of living and fired a .38 calibre pistol twice in what he said was an attempt to kill himself at a rooming house here. Both bullets went wild, but the powder burned his face and caused new desires to live. He walked to a hospital for treatment.

SENATORS HONOR JOE JUDGE

Gamecocks Hold To Top By Very Slight Margin

Raleigh, July 2.—(AP)—With the fast stepping Greensboro Patriots (4-0) on their heels, Henderson's Gamecocks were back home today for a two-day mixup with George Whitted's Durham Bulls, who have been setting the league on fire in recent battles.

The Gamecocks top the circuit by a fraction of a game as they enter the two game tussle by virtue of a thrashing handed Dan Boone's High Pointers in the final of the week's opening series.

Battling hard behind the splendid pitching of young Clay Mahaffey, the Birds, trounced the furniture city outfit 10 to 1. Johnny Jones led the attack, smashing out a pair of homers and a single to drive in five runs.

High Point's lone run was contributed by Nolen, who relieved Mahaffey's delivery to crack one for four bases.

Greensboro kept pace by winning from Raleigh for a clean sweep of the series. The score was 4 to 3. Paul Prim got the best of Lefty Briggs, former Elon college star, in a mound duel.

Hepper got a circuit drive for Greensboro, Greenberg blasting one for the Caps. It was Greensboro's second in as many days.

Durham and Winston-Salem were forced to call off their game, rain halting activities.

Spartanburg, S. C.—(AP)—James Fortune, 19, of Lyman, was found by the highway near here in an unconscious condition. He apparently had fallen or been knocked from a motorcycle.

Fred Fitzsimmons, Giants—Held Cubs to eight hits and beat them, 7-5.

Bill Williams, Athletics—Hit homer with two on to beat Tigers, 4-1.

Milt Gaston, Red Sox—Held Indians to three hits, slapped out three himself, to win, 3-1.
Rajston Hensley, Pirates—Drove in two runs with double and triple, scored two others himself as the Pirates beat Braves.

Durham, N. C.—(AP)—Edgar Barbee, 18, was shot in the leg while allegedly attempting to help his cousin, Henry Barbee, escape from the county chain gang. Henry jumped into an automobile Edgar drove, but guards halted the pair.

Durham, N. C.—(AP)—Charlie Sibley, 10, and John Wilson, 9, both riding one tricycle, were struck by Mrs. J. S. Hall's automobile. Sibley was injured seriously.

Double Header Set for Fourth of July; Admission Reduced

The Greenville baseball club journeyed over to Elm City yesterday and capped another ball game—the sixth straight victory of the season. The score was six to four.

Secretary Simpson of the local club announced today that two big games were scheduled for July 4th with Belhaven. These games are expected to prove the most outstanding of the season and big crowds are expected to be in attendance.

The local club crossed bats with the strong New Bern aggregation today.

Mr. Simpson said admission to the games would be 50c in half hereafter and instead of being 50c per game, fans will be able to enter the grounds for 25c. The ladies will be admitted free of charge, as stated several days ago.

Mr. Simpson said that members of the club had not had one cent of pay since they started playing, as all funds so far collected had gone to the payment of expenses. He urged big attendance in future so that the boys might at least get enough to keep the "beacon coming home."

Spartanburg, S. C.—(AP)—J. D. Stealy, 24, is held here on a charge of assault as the result of striking R. P. McMillan, of Boiling Springs, with his automobile. McMillan was badly injured.

Durham, N. C.—(AP)—Charlie Sibley, 10, and John Wilson, 9, both riding one tricycle, were struck by Mrs. J. S. Hall's automobile. Sibley was injured seriously.

In a secretary it's Capability in a cigarette it's Taste

THROUGH COMPETENCE, the individual rises to positions of responsibility and respect. Through dependability of taste, a cigarette attains ever greater popularity.

INCREASING MILLIONS of Chesterfields are lighted each day because smokers find that in this cigarette good taste is unailing.

CHESTERFIELDS ARE RICH IN AROMA, flavor and fragrance, which come from the right selection of choice tobaccos, blended and cross-blended to a rare cigarette goodness. They offer the utmost in smoking enjoyment... "TASTE above everything".

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price.

COTTON MARKET

New York, July 2.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 6 to 16 points under selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables and reports of showers and cooler weather in the western belt.

July sold off to 13.37 under a little liquidation incident to the circulation of notices representing about 5,200 bales, but these offerings were quickly absorbed and the price rallied to 13.46 or within 5 points of yesterday's closing quotations. New crop months meanwhile sold about 2 to 11 points net lower, but offerings were light and the general market was steady at the end of the first half hour with prices showing rallies of 4 to 5 points from the lowest.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—Reports that the 1930 French wheat crop will be short 64,000,000 bushels compared with last year brought about late rallies here in wheat prices today. The rallies more than overcame early setbacks, and went hand in hand with active buying. Considerable notice was also taken of the fact that primary receipts of United States wheat today totaled 1,049,000 bushels against 1,096,000 a year ago, and that farmers in various sections were showing unusual reluctance to sell.

Wheat closed nervous 1-2 to 1 higher than yesterday; corn closed 5-8 to 3-8 up; oats a shade to 1-4 advance, and provisions varying from 15 decline to a rise of 5.

STOCK MARKET

New York, July 2.—(AP)—Intent only on killing time until the holiday, the stock market was a listless affair indeed today, although mildly optimistic steel trade reviews provided some support for the list, after a moderate easing off during the morning. By early afternoon, advances of 2 points or so were numerous among important issues.

The turnover during the first two hours was only 515,600 shares, the smallest since July, 1928. Brokers said most large operators were planning to let the market drift until after the three-day closing over the Independence Day weekend, and that commission business generally was close to a standstill. Floor traders appeared to be left with the task of keeping the market in action.

Iron age estimated that steel production for the country at large had fallen to 60 per cent of capacity, and might dip to 50 before the holiday period has passed. This publication, however, pointed out that resistance to pressure against steel prices is becoming more determined and there is a growing belief that the iron and steel market is scraping bottom. The sharp curtailment of production is expected to give demand a chance to catch up. It was stated that often in the past such a shut down had proven the bottom of a recession.

War's Hundred Hornets' Nests. Charlotte, July 2.—(AP)—The British laid the beginnings for all manner of trouble for Clarence Kuester, effervescent secretary of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, when they dubbed this city the "Hornet's Nest" some 150 years ago.

In keeping with the hornet motif, Kuester wants 100 nests of the stingers for decorative purposes when the Sons of the American Revolution meet here next May.
