HYDE RETURNS AFTER SURVEY OF DRY AREAS

Secretary Confers With President Regarding Serious Situation From Drought

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Returning to Washington today for a conference on the widespread drought situation with President Hoover, Secretary Hyde said, "we want to do everything we can to help the farmers."

The secretary has been in mid-western states where the situation has been described as alarming. He said there was no doubt it was serious but added that "conditions were somewhat spotted."

He said it rained late corn would be saved and that some early corn would be grown on bottom lands in the affected states.

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A story of drought in the Ohio valley resulting in the sale of drinking water came to the weather bureau today in a letter from Dr. L. W. Humphreys, to his brother, William J. Humphreys, meteorological physicist.

Mr. Humphreys said drinking water was selling at 3 cents a gallon in Logan, West Va. He added that across the river in Ohio, farmers were attempting to save fruit trees by pumping water on them with old fire engines. Rural residents in West Virginia, he said are seeking to have three months cut off the school period in order that funds saved may be used "to buy food for poor families."

"I am feeding my bees to keep them alive," the doctor said. "There is no corn fit to eat, and it is scarce with beans a close second. There is no green grass to be seen, and in every way things look as you would expect them to look in September after a dry summer."

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Rains and cooling winds brought seasonal temperatures today to most of the heat-seared areas.

Southern Illinois still sweltered, however, in a withering way that raged upwards from 103 degrees. Wells, streams and reservoirs have been burned dry. Farmers are carrying water from oases for their families and beasts.

Showers spotted the midwest and northwest, bringing a cool respite. Up in Aberdeen, S. D., two inches of rain late yesterday clogged sewers and stood in streets. The rain was general over northeastern South Dakota and southern North Dakota. St. Paul was cooled off with a 10 degree drop.

The precipitation pushed south into central and southern Nebraska. Omaha was swept by a rainstorm and the thermometer dropped 26 degrees in two hours from 95 to 70. In Lincoln, a half inch of rain brought a heat drop of 22 degrees. Over the state, the temperatures ranged below 90.

Southern Iowa was drenched with a good down pour last night, leaving the southeastern counties the only part of the state still in need of a good rain.

Throughout the southwest, the hottest part of the nation two days ago, reasonable temperatures generally prevailed.

Light local showers cooled off Ohio, with temperatures generally in the 80's. One heat death was reported.

In New York City, the heat wave lingers on with no relief in sight. Thousands have been sleeping at the beaches at night and the heat caused three deaths yesterday.

Three Injured As Bus Leaves Road

Winston-Salem, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Three persons were in a hospital here today as the result of injuries sustained when a bus in which they were passengers skidded on the wet pavement and plunged down an embankment near here.

The injured are: R. C. Mitchell, Roanoke, Va., internal injuries; R. Banks, New York City, bruises about the body.

Mitchell was the only one whose injuries were regarded as serious by hospital attaches.

Earthquake Causes Panic.

Paris, Aug. 7.—(AP)—A Havas agency dispatch today said that an earthquake was felt last night at Albox, near Almeria, Spain. The shock was of prolonged but medium intensity. It caused a great panic among the villagers who fled into the open. Several houses were damaged but there were no casualties.

MAKES QUICKEST FLIGHT ACROSS U. S.

Captain Frank Hawks, flying at an average speed of 179 miles per hour, flew from Curtiss Field, N. Y., to Los Angeles, Calif., in 14 hours, 50 minutes, and 43 seconds, establishing a new trans-continental air record. He plans to leave within a few days for a return trip to New York.

Frank Hawks Establishes New Record For Quickest Flight Across The U. S.

Los Angeles Aviator Flies From Curtiss Field, N. Y., to Municipal Airport at Los Angeles in 14 Hours, 50 Minutes, and 43 Seconds, Bettering Old Record By Over Three Hours

Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Frank Hawks, Los Angeles aviator, today held the record for the quickest east-west crossing of the United States.

Flying at an average speed of 179 miles per hour, Hawks yesterday drove his low-winged monoplane from Curtiss Field, N. Y., to Municipal Airport, Los Angeles, in 14 hours, 50 minutes and 43 seconds. It was the first time a trans-continental flight had been made in full day light. The Travelair plane touched the ground here at 4:50:43 p. m. (PST) after leaving New York at 5 a. m. (EST).

Hawks was the first east-west record set by Roscoe Turner. He made refueling stops at Columbus, Ohio, St. Louis, Wichita, Kas., Albuquerque, N. M., and Kingman, Ariz. Turner made but one stop on his flight.

Hawks encountered stormy weather during most of the 2,600 miles. He flew through rains between Pittsburgh, Pa., and Terre Haute, Ind., and severe storms from Albuquerque, to the Arizona-California border. Over Arizona, Hawks said he was forced to fly high and off his course to avoid thunderstorms.

Subtracting the time taken for the five stops Hawks actually flew across the country in 13 hours, 35 minutes and 43 seconds.

About 200 aviation enthusiasts hailed the flyer as he flashed across the finish line at better than 200 miles per hour. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hawks, the flyer's parents and Turner were on hand.

Hawks said he was "tired and glad to get here," as he climbed from his plane his father suggested a game of golf as they shook hands but the aviator took his mother's advice to get some rest first.

The aviator said his plane made a top speed of 240 miles an hour, but that he rarely kept it over 200. A 20 mile headwind cut his speed most of the way. He said the trip was "a pleasant one except for the bad weather." A collapsible cockpit cover protected him during the rainstorms.

Hawks turned his plane over to a force of mechanics immediately, instructing them to put the ship in shape for a return trip as soon as possible. He said he expected to start back to New York in "a few days" in an effort to better the present west-east crossing record of 14 hours, 45 minutes set last Easter Sunday by Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh. Hawks said he would stop at Albuquerque, Wichita and Indianapolis on the return flight.

With favorable tail-winds, Hawks predicted his return flight could be made in 12 hours. He declared he hoped to prove it feasible to establish a fast aerial pony express through his trans-continental experimental flights.

Locks Fail to Stop Tire Thief

Greensboro, Aug. 7.—(AP)—When the first spare tire was stolen from Mrs. Stella Cottrell's automobile, Miss Cottrell was philosophical. When the second was stolen, she was vexed. When the third was stolen, she was irate. When the fourth was stolen, she was resigned. "I put locks on 'em," said Miss Cottrell, "but they don't mind little things like that."

SEN. HEFLIN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Three Other Members of Party Hurt When Car Crashes Into Phone Pole

Decatur, Ala., Aug. 7.—(AP)—U. S. Senator J. Thomas Hefflin of Alabama, suffered bruises and cuts and a sprained wrist near here today, and three members of his party, were cut and bruised as their automobile crashed into a telephone pole to avoid striking a heavily-laden log truck that drove onto a highway from a side road.

Senator Hefflin and his party were brought to Decatur in a passing bus and three of them were transferred to ambulances and taken to a hospital. The Senator, however, went to a hotel, where a physician attended him.

Others injured were: J. Thomas Hefflin, Jr., the Senator's son, who has a deep cut on the forehead and minor cuts and bruises; Walter Brown, of Washington, a member of the staff of the Fellowship Forum, cuts on the temple and cheek; Perry Schussler, LaFayette, Ala., driver of the car and nephew of Senator Hefflin, cut and bruised.

None of the party was believed seriously hurt.

The Senator was thrown from the machine and badly shaken up. He was enroute from Decatur to Anniston where he had a speaking engagement this afternoon.

Brown has been accompanying Senator Hefflin on his tour of the state in his campaign as an independent for re-election to the seat he holds in the Senate. Senator Hefflin was excluded from the Democratic primary next Tuesday under a resolution of the State Democratic executive committee which barred as candidates all persons who failed to support the Democratic presidential ticket in 1928.

HULL ENTERS CONTEST FOR U. S. SENATE

Representative From Fourth Tennessee District Opposed By Andrew L. Hodd

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 7.—(AP)—After 22 years service as Representative from the fourth district, Cordell Hull entered today's Democratic primary in quest of the nomination as United States Senator for a six-year term.

Opposing him was Andrew L. Todd, Mufreesboro capitalist and 20 different times speaker of both houses of the State Legislature.

Other Democratic state-wide contests were for governor and a short term senatorial nomination. Republicans, holding their primary simultaneously, had only a state-wide contest for the governorship.

The Republican congressmen had the support of a letter from President Hoover approving his stand on Muscle Shoals leasing legislation in preference to a Senate plan for government operation. He was opposed by Sam R. Price, Johnson City, Judd Acuff, Knoxville, sought the Republican nomination for the second district seat held by Representative P. Will Taylor.

Six Democratic congressmen were without opposition. Representative Hubert Fisher, Democrat of the tenth district (Memphis) is retiring, but Edward H. Crump, of Shelby County, was unopposed for the nomination for his seat. The only Democratic congressional contest was in the fourth, where three sought the seat to be vacated by Hull.

A third long term Democratic senatorial candidate, David W. Dodson, Nashville educator, said he entered the race with no expectation of winning.

Senator William E. Brock, Chattanooga, appointed upon the death of Senator Lawrence D. Tyson, sought to return to the Senate for the period from the November election to March when the New term begins. Opposing him for the Democratic nomination was Dr. J. R. Neal, of Knoxville.

On the Republican side, Paul E. Divine, Johnson City, attorney and F. Todd Meacham, Chattanooga, were unopposed for long and short term senatorial nominations, respectively.

Henry Horton, Democrat incumbent, sought renomination for another two year term as governor in a race with L. E. Gwinn, Memphis attorney. The Republican nomination lay between C. Arthur Bruce, Memphis lumberman, and Harry T. Burn, Sweetwater attorney.

SEVERAL DEAD AFTER FLOOD AT NOGALES

Scores Missing in the Twin Cities of Arizona and Mexico Following Storm

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 7.—(AP)—A torrent of water that swept through the Mexican and American border cities of Nogales early today left four known dead, forty missing and a scene of confusion which led the police to believe at least 25 persons had lost their lives.

The bodies of three women were found on the Mexican side of the line, the body of a man was discovered near the banks bridge on the American side. None was identified.

"Many houses have been swept away," the Mexican police reported. "And forty persons are missing."

One hotel and 16 Mexican homes on the Sonora side were reported swept away. Police did not know how many persons were in the hotel. A C. Villaseor, chief of police, said his officers reported having seen several bodies floating down the street.

Originating from a heavy rain in the Santa Rita mountains, the flood water rushed down the valley and inundated the lower portions of the international city, particularly the Mexican side, five to eight feet.

The screams of women arose above the roar of the flood as the water quickly surrounded the homes of sleeping residents. Eye witnesses said adobe structures crumbled as the flood undermined them.

The twin cities, standing in the neck of a bottle-shaped valley, shared the flood's fury but the Mexican section was believed the hardest hit.

Flood water stood six feet deep in International street, the thoroughfare of picturesque shops which divides the two cities.

The flood waters followed a stream bed, usually dry, which runs between the towns. Through International street the dry bed is covered with concrete, forming a tunnel incapable of carrying flood waters.

Forcing its way through the tunnel the water spouted high, drenching many large buildings. The flood ripped through adobe structures, stripping them clean of everything movable.

The water wall broke down upon the sleeping cities ahead of a rain-storm. When the storm struck, the rain fell in sheets. At 7 a. m. it was still pouring down.

GUILFORD IN LEAD OF N. C. AUTO DEATHS

Most Populous County Reported 28 Fatalities During Six Month Period

Raleigh, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Guilford county led North Carolina in the number of deaths from automobiles during the first six months of 1930. W. C. Spruill, in charge of automobile accident prevention for the State Department of Revenue, announced today after tabulating the fatalities in the state for six months by individual counties.

Guilford reported 28 deaths in automobile accidents during the period. Guilford is the state's most populous county.

Wake county, often referred to as the "Crossroads of North Carolina," came second to Guilford, having 23 persons killed.

Buncombe county had 19 killed, Mecklenburg 12, Robeson 12, New Hanover 12, Durham 10, Surry 9, Forsyth 9, Iredell 8, Johnston, 8, Cumberland 7, Catawba 7, Harnett 7, and Lenoir 4.

There were 338 deaths resulting from automobile accidents in North Carolina during the first six months of the year, Mr. Spruill said.

Eighteen counties in the state reported no fatalities in automobile accidents. They were: Ashe, Avery, Bladen, Brunswick, Camden, Cherokee, Clay, Greene, Hyde, Lincoln, Madison, Montgomery, Cnslow, Scotland, Tyrrell, Washington, Watauga and Yadkin.

In a Formal Statement Before Members of the Executive Committee Assembled At Washington, Huston Declared No Man Had Been Subjected to More Unwarranted Attacks

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Claudius H. Huston of Tennessee, submitted his promised resignation as Republican national chairman to the party's executive committee today and direction of the fall campaign was turned over to Senator Fess of Ohio and Robert H. Lucas of Kentucky.

Fess was appointed chairman of the national committee. It had been announced that he would be made provisional chairman, pending a fall meeting of the committee to select a permanent chairman. James Francis Burke, general counsel, said, however, it had been found the executive committee had full powers and Fess' selection would not have to be ratified later.

Lucas, present commissioner of internal revenue, was named executive chairman. He will resign his treasury post soon to devote his entire time to the new job.

Both Fess and Lucas were present at the meeting and made brief addresses.

The new alignment of the Republican organization leadership went through as forecast many weeks ago when agitation was at its height for Huston to step aside.

The committee also elected George DeBkin of Edgewater Park, N. J., secretary of the national committee to succeed Rep. Franklin Fort of New Jersey resigned.

After the meeting Senator Fess told newspapermen he had accepted the chairmanship in "the belief there is a great work to be done."

He said the economic depression would cause some dissatisfaction and this necessitated a campaign of education.

"I anticipate continued control of the Republican party in both House and Senate by a safe majority," he said.

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Claudius H. Huston, of Tennessee, resigned today as chairman of the Republican National Committee, and in a formal statement asserted "no man in political life has ever been subjected to more unjust and unwarranted attacks."

Huston presented his resignation to a meeting of the party's executive committee and made public his statement before the meeting was over and his successor chosen.

"As heretofore announced," Huston said, "I have determined to retire as chairman of the Republican National Committee."

"For a lifetime I have been a member and an active worker in the Republican party. I have never sought office or reward in any form. It was with a desire to promote its success and that of the administration that, upon the urging of party leaders, I agreed to accept the chairmanship. I realized that this course involved many sacrifices and in order to service more effectively, I withdrew from active business."

"When I became chairman, I expected to bear philosophically the usual burden of criticism and abuse that has come to be recognized as the penalty attaching to high places in American politics. Almost immediately a persistent campaign of persecution was instituted for the purpose of injuring my effectiveness."

"The attack was directed generally against the Republican party and the administration, but as the chairman I became the main target of abuse and of a whispering campaign with its usual accompaniment of falsehoods. The subsequent evidence established the fact that there was no truth in these charges."

"In the past it has been the policy of the party leaders to maintain a solid front when under the enemy's fire, but as this has not been the policy on the present case, I have reached the conclusion, putting the interest of the Republican party ahead of personal considerations, that I should tender my resignation for the purpose of being accused of imposing any burden personally to me upon the party. In fact, one of the police deserts personal to me upon the party. They were not impressed. Herick was a poor third, receiving only 168 votes."

Conway Farmer Held for Brother's Death

Conway, S. C., Aug. 7.—(AP)—A. J. Strickland, 31-year-old farmer, is held here in connection with the death of his older brother, Mose G. Strickland.

The older man died after he had been shot in the knee during a quarrel that started over the disposal of tobacco. His injury at first was not considered serious, but loss of blood caused his death, physicians said.

Former Congressman Of Oklahoma Arrested For Operating Whiskey Still

Manuel Herrick Jailed By Authorities at Baltimore Following His Capture at a Whiskey Still On His Farm in St. Mary's County, Md.

Baltimore, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Arrested today before United States Commissioner Harry M. Abernethy on charges of operating a still, Manuel Herrick, former Oklahoma congressman, was questioned by Department of Justice agents who said they had information he had represented himself as a secret service agent.

Herrick denied that he had so represented himself.

The prohibition agents who arrested Herrick in St. Mary's county, Maryland, on the liquor manufacturing charge, asked that his bail be put at $2,500 and that or two men taken with him at $1,500.

Herrick was arrested early yesterday by prohibition agents. Officers, who made the raid in the early morning said Herrick was operating the still at the time of his arrest.

Herrick, a farmer and cattle raiser from the "Cherokee Strip" in Oklahoma, was elected to Congress from the eighth Oklahoma district during the "Harding landslide" in 1920. He was defeated for re-nomination in 1922 but in his two years here his eccentricities kept him prominently before the public.

After his defeat he came back to Washington and recently has been living near California, Maryland county, about two miles from the capital.

Two men were arrested with Herrick and a third escaped, the agents reported.

After coming to Washington in 1921 Herrick attracted attention by unorthodox actions and statements, but he attained something of a notoriety after he was threatened with suits by entrants in a beauty contest.

He was sued by his stenographer, Miss Ethelyn Chirne, of Oklahoma. She charged he made statements which reflected on her character. In turn, Herrick sued her for alleged breach of promise.

The litigation went against him. He chartered an airplane and hurried back to Oklahoma to campaign for re-nomination. He announced as the subject of his opening address: "Two Years in Congress, or Through Hell and Back Again." The speech was made but the voters were not impressed. Herrick was a poor third, receiving only 168 votes.

However, three others, discovering that food and a place to sleep were easier to obtain at the jail, returned within a short time after they left the jail. In fact, one of the police deserts personal to me upon the party. They were not impressed. Herick was a poor third, receiving only 168 votes.

Makes Son Tend Still to Keep Him Out of Mischief

Kelso, Wash., Aug. 7.—(AP)—B. Martin, arrested for his alleged liquor law violations, told Sheriff C. B. Dill in jail here today he had his 14 year old son tend a still to keep him out of mischief.

"There are so many things a young fellow is liable to get mixed up in nowadays," Martin said.

ESCAPED MEN RETURNING TO COUNTY JAIL

Four of Six Prisoners Who Broke Jail Yesterday, Come Back On Own Accord

Living conditions at the Pitt county jail are so good that prisoners who escape come back on their own volition, according to Sheriff Sam Whitehurst, who reported this morning that four of the six negroes who broke jail yesterday morning had returned without officers having to hunt them up. This leaves only two of the prisoners at large, and the sheriff expressed the opinion that they would be back among his flock within the next twenty-four hours.

The fourth of the jail breakers, James Thigpen, came back this morning. He was discovered hanging around a warehouse in tobacco town. "Where do you live?" a passerby was said to have asked Thigpen.

"I have been staying at the county jail and am on my way back now," Thigpen told his inquisitor.

The passerby, thinking he might be able to render Sheriff Whitehurst a distinct service, went to a nearby telephone and told the sheriff he believed one of his escaped prisoners was in tobacco town.

A few minutes later a deputy sheriff appeared and escorted the negro back to his place behind the bars.

Sheriff's officers expressed opinion yesterday that Thigpen would be one of the first to return to jail because of an opinion which he underwent a few days ago. They said it was his proper physical condition to stand the strain of travel, and looked for him to come back any time.

However, three others, discovering that food and a place to sleep were easier to obtain at the jail, returned within a short time after they left the jail. In fact, one of the police deserts personal to me upon the party. They were not impressed. Herick was a poor third, receiving only 168 votes.

DRYS PREPARE FOR MILITANT FIGHT IN 1932

Executives of Anti-Saloon League Begin Preparations for Presidential Election

Little Pointe, Mich., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Executives of the Anti-Saloon League of America, gathered here in conference, already are preparing for another wet and dry fight in the 1932 Presidential election.

The Democratic party, they concede, will be stronger than it was in 1928 and in the words of Dr. P. Scott McBride, national superintendent of the league, the chances of having a Democratic nominee friendly to prohibition "are not very hopeful."

Gathered yesterday for the opening session of their conference in a little church almost hidden by sand dunes, on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, the league executives from all over the United States heard reports predicting few reversals for the cause of prohibition in the fall elections.

Although those elections are the immediate concern of the league, principal alarm was expressed over the activities within the Democratic ranks thus far in advance of the next Presidential election.

To counteract those activities, Dr. McBride urged accumulation of a bigger war chest strengthening of state organizations and planning of a definite offensive against the wet. "I am of the opinion Dr. McBride said "that the time is over ripe to go to the public with a challenging call and program. A more adequate fund for a more adequate program is demanded if we are to meet the needs of the day."

Dr. McBride sounded a cheerful note in his report of the political situation to date.

"So far," he said, "twenty primary elections have been held. In most districts and in most states the primary is the real election. We have not forgotten, however, in caring for the primaries, the non-partisan method of the league. Particularly in those districts where the vote is likely to be close in the election, we have made it a point to win in both major parties.

"There 30 primaries have embraced most of the doubtful districts. They have proved to be a cross section of the country, extending from Oregon to Maine and embracing the very critical states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Illinois. It is within those states that the wets have had their chance to win. While the wets put on a big campaign and spent more money and effort than ever before they have not made any worthwhile inroads on the prohibition majority in Congress. There has been no loss of dries in either house. They were badly routed and disappointed in Pennsylvania. They have, however, become greatly encouraged over the nomination of Dwight W. Morrow in New Jersey."

Texas Attorney Admits Killing Wife With Bomb

Sinnott, Tex., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Chief of Police W. N. McDowell said today A. D. Payne, Amarillo attorney, had admitted placing the bomb in his automobile which wrecked it, killing his wife and maiming his nine-year-old son. Payne, McDowell said, promised last night to make a written confession upon the arrival of his brother, Sidney, whose whereabouts is unknown to officers.

In his statement, the police chief said, Payne described himself as the "meanest man in the world" and upheld the reputation of Miss Verona Thompson, his former secretary, whose statement that Payne had made love to her led to his arrest in Amarillo.

Mrs. Payne was killed by an explosion June 27 which wrecked her automobile and threw her body several hundred feet. The car had been placed at her disposal for shipping by her husband who walked to his office.

Payne recently complained to Gene Howe, Amarillo editor, that authorities were making no progress in investigation of the strange occurrence.

Plan to Complete Paving Highway 1

Raleigh, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Unpaved sections of U. S. highway No. 1 today were on the near future hard-surfacing program of the State Highway Commission.

The commission, in session here yesterday, agreed with persons residing on the route that it was an important artery of north-south traffic and should be paved all the way. The unpaved sections are in Lee, Moore and Richland counties.

The work will probably not be done this year, it was said, as sufficient money is not now available. Governor Gardner appeared before the commission to insist that prisoners not otherwise engaged must be used on the roads of the state.

The commission professed full cooperation and appointed a committee to work out a practical plan for putting the suggestion into operation.

NEW VETERANS BUREAU BEGINS ACTION TODAY

Officials of New Organization Study Summary of Powers At Capital City

Washington, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The new veterans administration, big government consolidation job this generation has witnessed, has swung into operation—though a number of administrative problems still are pending settlement.

Officials of the bureau, which will spend about $800,000,000 yearly on behalf of hundreds of thousands of former soldiers, today had before them a summary of their powers and responsibilities under legislation enacted by the last Congress. At the same time they considered reports of the business flowing in under this year's legislation. They estimated at least 1,000 applications for benefits under the new world war disability allowance have been filed in each of the 54 regional offices of the veterans bureau. Sixteen thousand applications have been reported to headquarters here.

In the soldiers' home and pensions bureau—the two other branches united under Brigadier General Frank T. Hines—new activities likewise have been tackled.

A. B. Miller, special assistant to the administrator, said headquarters of the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers would be moved from Dayton, Ohio, to Washington about September 1. Under an authorization by the past Congress two new homes will be added to the ten existing.

General Hines has moved his offices into quarters near the penitentiary task of checking up the bureau to work on the available facilities to make all effective without duplication of efforts.

With the enactment of the law liberalizing Spanish War veterans' pensions about 130,000 new claims loomed on the horizon of this bureau.

In addition, it must deal with about 49,000 claims by civil war soldiers, eligible under liberalization enacted in June, and with 27,000 civil war widows' claims in dealing with the estimated 27,000 eligible.

A notice posted on the door of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company said the bank was being closed by the directors because of threatened withdrawals.

At the time the notice was posted more than 100 depositors were in line in front of the bank waiting for the doors to open.

Two hours later the Eastern Bank and Trust Company was closed in the fact of a small run of depositors. No statement was forthcoming from officials of this bank which had been regarded one of the strongest in this part of the state, except that the step was taken as a precautionary measure.

The last statement of the Citizens Bank & Trust Company showed it had a capital stock of $50,000 and total resources of $1,151,475. The First National Bank closed last October.

Bailey Declares Farmers Should Demand Tax Cut

Oxford, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The farmers of North Carolina should go before the State Legislature and demand that valuations of farm lands and taxes on farm lands be reduced. J. W. Bailey, Democratic senatorial nominee, told between 3,000 and 4,000 persons gathered here today for the ninth annual state tobacco experiment station field day.

Mr. Bailey, discussing farm relief, declared that the Federal Farm Board had failed to give farm relief and had done nothing to relieve. What is needed, he said, is relief which makes the price of agricultural products go up, not down.

Muscle Shoals, he said, should be operated for the farmer. "The address of Muscle Shoals since it has been built," he asserted, "has cost the farmers of this country almost as much as the $130,000,000 it originally cost to build it."

Mr. Bailey also advocated the reduction of the federal tax on tobacco, saying he believed if this were done the farmer would benefit in the price he would receive for his crop.

Mr. Bailey advocated Governor Gardner's "live-at-home" program.

W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, introduced Mr. Bailey.

Large Attendance Marks Convention Colored Baptists

The Colored Baptist State Sunday School convention in session at the Sycamore Baptist church is having its last days session. All of the meetings are marked by overflowing audiences and increasing enthusiasm.

Among the features of Wednesday afternoon's session were the election of officers and a chart lecture by Dr. S. N. Vass. His subject was "Religious Education," and was delivered in the forceful and profoundly informing style of Dr. Vass. He particularly stressed the emotional side of religion.

On Wednesday evening a voluntary program was rendered. Participants were from all parts of the state. Particularly notable were the contributions in music from the 18 piece orchestra of the First Baptist Sunday school of Raleigh, and the singing of the Junior choir of Mt. Zion Baptist church, Rocky Mount.

Prof. Wm. C. Craver, field secretary of the Shaw University, delivered a forcible address on the possibilities and problems of the school, bringing to close the richest program in the history of the convention's "concert nights."

Thursday morning's session began with discussions of the Sunday school training program that is being fostered by this convention.

Supt. M. D. Hurwood of Raleigh, and Prof. J. H. Floyd of Lumberton discussed the superintendent's relation to the program.

ABOUT TOWN

Organization of a Pitt county chapter of the American Air Cadets has been completed here, and in a few weeks the hundred or more members will be busy delving into the mysteries in connection with the science of aviation. The purpose of this organization is to coordinate the aircraft model clubs of America in a practical manner for the benefit of all—and the advancement of aviation.

The principle and aims, it has been said, far overshadow any personal ambitions of the sponsors—based on a sincere desire to provide the youth of America the wherewith to learn about and take part in the most important epoch making event in history—aviation. The best manner in which the youth of the nation and the new era of aviation is in the building of aircraft models in order to develop constructive minds and ideas.

The names of one hundred Pitt county boys have been sent to national headquarters for confirmation as charter members, and as soon as this has been completed the actual work of electing officers of the chapter will get under way.

The nation's youth is interested in the airplane industry, and the new organization will afford them an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the various phases of aviation, and most particularly in the art of airplane building. It is a worthy undertaking and no doubt will command the attention of grown-up and children alike.

PUBLIC FORUM

OUR READERS ARE INVITED TO USE THIS COLUMN FOR DISCUSSING PROBLEMS OF INTEREST TO THIS COMMUNITY. IN ALL CASES NAMES MUST ACCOMPANY ANY COMMUNICATION.

LET THE PEOPLE RULE
Editor Daily Reflector:
It is a pity that friends disagree and are compelled to oppose one another, with probably the same end in view—that of the public good. In this effort the citizens are making to get the Board of County Commissioners to have a referendum for the tax payers, who pay the bills made by the board, with every debt incurred by the county a lien on their property, it seems very small for those who take opposite sides to call names, cajole, intimidate, abuse. This argument we are in amounts to one of principle: that of common democratic justice. Being an official gives no one license to be arbitrary and autocratic in his views. Ours is a Democratic government, or is supposed to be so. And is there any excuse for one or a group of representative citizens to be roundly cursed because he or they oppose arbitrary action by five men, who are soon to go out of office because a big majority of the voters over Pitt county have expressed themselves at the polls as being dissatisfied with their administration? I think not, except there be selfish interests.

In a hearing of one of these restraining cases, which are bringing this matter to head, and which are being so roundly cussed right now, I sat in the court room at Snow Hill as an interested citizen and heard both sides present the matter to the judge. I heard Pitt county attorney argue to the court that a taxpayer who was suffering from excessive unequal or unfair valuations arbitrarily placed on his property, has "the right of appeal the Second Monday in July to the Board of County Commissioners, which is required to sit on that date to hear and right such appeals." That's law all right and is designed to protect the taxpayer against abuse, but I knew at the time from personal experience that this letter of the law is a joke in Pitt county, or so taken to be by the Board of County Commissioners it seems; that no taxpayer without pull can get an equitable and just valuation of his property by such appeal; that good citizens all over the county had appealed at previous annual sittings of the Board, on forms prepared for the purpose, had not only received no consideration of their appeals, but had not had the courtesy of a reply. Do you suppose that the voters of Pitt County did not have this autocratic, arbitrary attitude on the part of the Board of Commissioners in mind when they voted for a change in personnel in the June primary? I think the voter-taxpayer wants common justice and fair play for everyone in a Democratic government. Let the people rule.

I know most of the members of the present Board of County Commissioners, and have not one word to say against any one of them personally. I have always counted one or two of them as real warm personal friends, but I disagree with their administration and don't mind telling them when in. Taxes on farm lands and homes must come down if independent ownership is to survive, and the cuts should begin now letting the chips lie as they fall. Other counties are cutting, why not Pitt?

The county government law is splendid, but if the law is not complied with of what good is it to the people. The suits complained about in your editorial Monday cannot hurt Pitt county. On the contrary, they are salutary and will accomplish good. They may disconcert a few officials and others, but those who are within the laws of the state need fear no opinion that may be handed down by the Supreme court.

The resolutions adopted unanimously by a group of 100 or more taxpayers, calling themselves "Pitt County Tax Relief Association, at a meeting in the courthouse in Greenville on July 9, and handed to the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, may not be a perfect program, but do you think for a moment that the Board could expect these gentlemen who agreed on these resolutions in a unanimous mood to be both ignored and agreeable? These citizens went over every item of the proposed budget for 1930, giving earnest and sincere attention, and they cannot be ignored with impunity, no matter what efforts are made to belittle them.

Very respectfully yours,
C. W. HEARNE,
Secretary of the "So-called" Pitt County Tax Relief Assn.

CORRECT FACTS IN RECORD EDITORIAL
To the Editor of Daily Reflector:
Concerning the editorial criticism appearing in this week's edition of the Pitt County Record regarding the purported existence of tainted meats and food products sold by local stores, I would like to say that such inspections do not come under my supervision.

The editorial is entirely misleading in that it refers to me personally, calling upon me to "do my stuff" about a situation with which I have no connection whatever.

My duties with the city are confined solely to inspection of dairies and freshly slaughtered animals.

I make this statement in that the public may be fully acquainted with the true facts in the case.

DON'T GET EXCITED AND LOSE YOUR HEAD.

Whenever there is a bank failure there is almost always a tendency on the part of some to spread rumors as to the safety or stability of other institutions which if listened to, usually result in disaster for someone. In the face of the closing of the two banking institutions today in New Bern, no doubt there will be a tendency on the part of some in this and the surrounding territory to want to draw out their money from the local banks. Our advice to these people is to sit steady lest their actions invite disaster for themselves and others.

Recent statements of the condition of our banks showed the institutions to be in good shape and sound with nothing to be feared on the part of the depositors but the strongest of institutions can be embarrassed and business in general placed at a standstill when the people of a community get panicky and undertake a run on a banking institution.

Of course it is your money and you may think it's none of our business to tell you what to do with it, but if you are wise you will follow our advice and let it stay in the bank. Money in a strong banking institution is the best place for it from the depositor's standpoint, and surely from a community standpoint, for it is on the money in the banks that the community does business, and without this money business here would be at a standstill and depression would be far greater than any we have previously experienced.

We have explicit faith in our banking institutions and no doubt they could survive the heaviest of runs made upon them, but our purpose at this time is to warn our people against such an action on their part that might reflect on the financial structure of the entire community at this time. We are just on the eve of another fall season that promises a certain degree of better times and prosperity for all. Don't take chances on spoiling all this by getting shaky because of these bank failures in a nearby community.

The published reports of our banks speak for themselves and are such as to justify your confidence. Don't get excited and lose your head.

This is "Dollar Day" for Greenville and fifteen merchants will offer the public one of the most complete showings of seasonal merchandise in history of the city. In fact, many of the firms sent buyers to the northern markets principally for the purpose to provide bargains for this occasion.

"Dollar Day" has meant much to the shoppers of this territory during the last few years, and it was expected attendance today would be larger than any single year in history. People who never visited the city before were on the streets during the morning hours, and it was said that they bought liberally of the splendid wares.

This is not only a great trade event, but a day set aside for the purpose of giving the shoppers an opportunity of buying seasonal goods away below the original cost. The merchants do not try to make profit for themselves, but strive to see that the patrons are given advantage of the occasion. Greenville enjoys the distinction of being the principal shopping center of this part of the state, and Dollar Days are doing much to enable them to live up to the reputation.

Personality counts as much in business as in anything else. Howard J. Wischaupt, of Cleveland, business analyst, told members of the Merchants Association and the public here this week.

He expressed belief that the merchants should do everything possible to prove interesting to the hordes of shoppers who visit the city from year to year, and said by doing this they should be able to increase their volume of business.

He urged merchants and their clerks to carry a smile all the time, and to be kind and courteous to the people who visit their stores. "Let them know you are interested in them," he said, "and rest assured they will visit you again."

In addition to the personality side of business, he told the merchants of the necessity of keeping their stores clean and bright, and in this way attract the discriminating buyer. He expressed opinion that people would buy from the attractive store every time in preference to the unattractive one and declared this was the reason every merchant should do his best to keep his place as up-to-date as possible.

Calamity howlers do a community more harm than they do good. The man who walks around looking wise and predicting hard times is not wise at all. The truth is, he displays his ignorance by making such utterances, even though money may be slightly tight and conditions not what they should be.

Fright and worry only serve to intensify one's imagination, and when a community becomes frightened and its citizens begin worrying every molehill seems like a mountain. This has been the case right here in this community many times in past years. We have lived through all of them, and in the final analysis, discovered that things were not nearly as bad as we had pictured them to ourselves and others.

Just because money is tight and business dull is no reason why one should sit down and begin howling about what the future holds forth. Today belongs to every man, but tomorrow belongs to nobody. In the face of this fact, it seems the only thing practical is to make the best of today and if there are any failures attempt to make them stepping stones to the future.

ROBINS HOLD THEIR LEAD IN NATIONAL

Rolling into the west where the National League pennant is waiting to be won, the Brooklyn Robins today have a most suspicious beginning of a crucial road trip to spare them on.

Straining to establish a lead that can stand the strain of slumps and battle with chief contenders, it seems, the Robins scored a 4 to 4 conquest over Pittsburgh in the opening of the Pirate series yesterday, while the St. Louis Cardinals rose to swat the Chicago Cubs and add to the lead of the Robins, now 31-2 games in front of the league champions of 1929.

An extra-base hit, George Watkins' pinch hit home run in the seventh with one on, gave the Cubs a 4 to 2 decision over the Robins but a home run by Comorosky couldn't save the Pirates from defeat.

The Washington Senators took the lead of the Athletics to 61-2 games in the American League by downing Connie Mack's champions, 5 to 1.

The third place Yankees made hay in the sunshine, opening a lengthy home stay with a close 4 to 2 win over the Boston Red Sox in a game featured by Roy Sherid's pitching struggle with Milt Gaston. George Uhle toyed with the Cleveland Indians as Detroit belted Willis Hudlin, Jablonowski and Esau into a 9 to 1 defeat, making it six in a row for the Tigers.

The mightiest hurling of the day was turned in by Coffman of the St. Louis Browns in the opening of a double header with the Chicago White Sox.

Coffman shut out the Sox 5 to 0 and allowed three hits but ancient Red Faber got just as far with less effort in the second game, pitching Chicago to a 5 to 2 triumph and an even break on the day.

The Boston Braves wound up a seven game series with the Phillies with a three run spurt in the ninth for a 5 to 4 victory. The Braves won five of the seven games. Randy Moore crossed the Phillies by slicing a pitchout into left field to drive home the winning counter.

Peaches Still Stepping Out In the Sally

Charlotte, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Macon's Peaches continued to hold the National League leadership position with a firm grip today as the six clubs went into week-end slumps.

Augusta and Greenville remained in a virtual tie for second place, three and a half games behind the leaders.

The Wolves and Spinners gained ground on the Maconists in the finale of the week's opening series by triumphing as the Peaches were losing to Asheville.

Chink Outen smacked three doubles to lead Greenville to a 10 and 2 victory over Charlotte.

Anderson hurled for the Schepmen and came through with a splendid game as his mates were rapping Mooney and Vaughn hard.

It took Augusta 10 innings to defeat Columbia 8 to 5. Strain made a great unassisted double play in the ninth to save the game, and then his charges proceeded to win in the extra stanza.

Macon used four pitchers in an attempt to make it three in a row over Asheville, but the Tourists went wild in the eighth to score six runs and emerge on the long end of an 11 to 6 count.

Monroe Mitchell was in great form for Asheville and went the full distance.

Smith and Higgs were Tourist stick stars. Smith collected four hits in five trips. Higgs three in six.

Week-end mix-ups send Charlotte to Asheville to engage the Tourists, Macon to Augusta and Columbia to Greenville.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

It is a strictly partisan family affair—the head line of the Brooklyn Robins for the National League pennant.

The flock of Mathews looks good one day, terrible the next, but it has two of the main essentials for continuing as a championship factor—pitching and hitting.

Pitching is done alternately by Mathews and being its team has been aroused to a high pitch of excitement, which represents just about the ultimate in major league war.

The Robins' strategy is on constant duty in and around Ebbets Field where the Robins are on the home grounds. Ricts are imminent and pop bottles used freely for other than drinking purposes.

Not far from the Robins dugout when Your Uncle Wilbert holds forth, sits "Ma" Robinson herself a fan for many years, and as keen a student of the game as her genial husband.

Uncle Robbie may expect to be called sharply to account for any shortcomings—errors of judgment on his part before he sits down to dinner in the evening. "Ma" can tell him just where they occurred and what should have been done.

Moreover, Robbie probably has more volunteer strategists to deal with than any other major league pilot. In number, they are limited only by the seating capacity of the park. To judge from the mail, he receives offering suggestion and advice, approval and condemnation.

No more remarkable collection of talent has been assembled under big league banners than the present Brooklyn team. If it beats the favored Chicago Cubs for the pennant, the world's series will be worth watching from every available spot, including the new Chrysler tower.

In such an event, the inadequacy of Ebbets Field, seating less than 27,000, would make it almost compulsory to play Brooklyn's home games at the Polo Grounds.

Little Bill Johnston, one-time mighty atom of the tennis courts, has started a come-back in one of the most serious battles he has ever had.

Word comes from California that the former national champion has emerged the winner in a battle to regain his health, shattered by a break-down several months ago.

When the trouble developed unexpectedly Johnston went to a hospital weighing only 119 pounds, but he still possessed and exhibited the indomitable will-power that made him famous in the days of his epic battles with Big Bill Tilden.

Two and a half months later, in July, Little Bill weighed 155 lbs. His doctors assure him he now has nothing to worry about and that his recovery will be sufficient by September to allow him to return to work.

While at the top of his brilliant game, Johnston exhibited more striking power per pound than any other figure in the game.

He risked his health frequently in exhausting battles. On one torrid afternoon seven years ago at Seabright, I saw Johnston emerge from a hard fought victory over Dick Williams weighing seven lbs. less than when he stepped on the courts.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Cotton opened firm today at an advance of 22 to 29 points on buying influenced by the failure of the weather map to show more rain in droughty sections, the relatively firm Liverpool cables and the continued strength of the grain market.

The initial advance met a good deal of realizing and some Liverpool selling but offerings were absorbed on slight setbacks and the market showed increasing firmness after the posting of the weather map with indications of broadening interest.

The new October contract sold up to 13.09 and March to 13.53, with the general market showing net advances of about 30 to 33 points at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables said there had been covering and Bombay buying in that market on a belief that southern rains had been insufficient. Another private crop report published here this morning made the condition 67 per cent of normal and the indicated yield 14,600,000 bales.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Sudden severe tumbles in grain values took place during late dealings today. Corn fell about 4 1/2c a bushel from the day's top level and wheat about 4c. Urgent efforts to realize profits after corn and all other grain had reached new high price records for the season proved to be of too overwhelming a character toward the last, with new buyers backing away, although no general break up of drought appeared to be in sight.

May delivery of wheat showed an extreme temporary break of 5 cents a bushel from the day's top price, and September corn a maximum drop of 4 1/2c. Wheat and corn both closed nervous. Wheat 1-4-11-4 lower than yesterday's finish and corn showing 1-4-21-8 net decline with oats 7-8 1/2-8 off and provisions at 10-17 advance.

STOCK MARKET

There was some liquidation of stocks by investors who feared the crop crisis may have postponed business recovery, but the major portion of selling orders originated with floor traders. Professionals were more aggressive on the short side than of late, however, and a long list of important stocks sold off from 1 to 7 points or more, as the volume of trading increased substantially.

The day's quota of corporate and industrial news was not of a character to hamper the bears. Passing of the Goodrich dividend, of cash, and expectations of a reduction of the Warner Bros. cash payment late in the day, were not helpful to the cause of higher prices.

A bright spot in the gloom was an expression of opinion by President Shumaker of the R. C. A. Victor Co., that the working people of the county have substantial savings and only need reassurance as to employment to start spending normally again. "We are going to run our plant to capacity until it is proven that we are wrong," he said.

Call money renewed again at 2 1/2 per cent, but the undertone was easier, giving rise to the expectation that the turn of the month firmness was passing.

Cotton joined the upswing in commodities, while the advance in grains was slowed up by reports of local showers in the mid-west. Estimates from Washington that crop damage may amount to a billion dollars could not be interpreted by Wall street as hastening business recovery. It was recalled however, that the severe stock market panic of 1901 was followed by crop failure, but that stocks recovered swiftly within a few months. The present situation, however, is in many respects dissimilar. If the depression in commodity prices has been definitely ended, nevertheless, bankers believe the longer term implications are decidedly favorable.
