SEN. NORRIS IS VICTOR IN PRIMARY RACE

Senator Robinson Wins Nomination in Arkansas By Three to One Vote

By Associated Press
Nebraska Republicans gave Senator George W. Norris, veteran insurgent and outstanding foe of Herbert Hoover, the senatorial nomination in Tuesday's primary.

Norris, who left his party to campaign two years ago for Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, was gaining steadily over William M. Stebbins, "regular" candidate, in the stiffest contest he has had in his 18 years of Senate service.

Returns from 1,387 of the state's 2,030 precincts gave Norris a lead of more than 20,000. The vote was Norris, 73,370; Stebbins, 53,393.

Results of the four other state primaries yesterday showed a mixture of reactions on such national issues as prohibition and the Hoover administration.

In Ohio the Democrats chose a wet for the Senate contest and a dry for governor. The Republican incumbents in these offices in Ohio are both drys and were without primary opposition.

Senator Robinson, Democratic leader in the Senate, who drew opposition after running as vice-presidential candidate with Smith two years ago, won by almost a three to one margin for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Arkansas.

Alabama Democrats apparently selected John H. Bankhead, Jasper attorney and son of a former senator, to run for the Senate against Senator Heflin, the incumbent who has been forced to race as an independent because of his failure to support Smith in 1928. Bankhead was maintaining almost a two to one advantage over Frederick I. Thompson, Mobile publisher.

In Ohio Robert J. Buckley of Cleveland, who advocated repeal of the 18th amendment, had a lead of more than 40,000 votes over his closest competitor, W. W. Durbin, in five cornered contest for the Democratic senatorial nomination with almost all of the returns tabulated.

But the Ohio Democrats chose George W. White, a dry, for the gubernatorial nomination over S. M. Young, an advocate of prohibition. In 8,735 of the 8,950 precincts White had 128,021 and Young 75,433.

Wet sentiment in the Ohio cities was indicated at Toledo where Representative W. W. Chalmers, a dry, who is serving his fourth term, was defeated for the Republican nomination by Wilbur M. White, editor of the Toledo Times, who advocated repeal of the 18th amendment.

In the Oklahoma Democratic runoff primary two well known political leaders emerged victorious. William H. "Alfalfa" Bill Murray easily captured the gubernatorial nomination while Thomas P. Gore, blind former senator, had an apparently safe margin for the senatorial nomination entitling him to run against Senator Pitt. Republican, who was unopposed in his party.

Nebraska Democrats selected G. H. Hitchcock, former senator, to run against the Republican nominee, thus assuring another contest for Senator Norris in the fall election. Charles W. Bryan, former governor and Democratic vice-presidential candidate in 1924, was chosen gubernatorial nominee in Nebraska. Governor Arthur J. Foote was renominated by a comfortable margin by the Republicans over Harry O. Palmer of Omaha.

Allen Addresses Annual Convention of Commissioners

Wrightsville Beach, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A. T. Allen, state superintendent of public instruction, was the principal speaker on today's program of the joint convention of North Carolina county commissioners and North Carolina accountants.

Following Mr. Allen's address, a round table discussion of problems of county government, led by Chas. M. Johnson, executive secretary of the county government advisory committee, was to be held.

Josephus Daniels, Raleigh editor, advocated state control and support of schools and roads, and complete re-vamping of state government in an address before the joint assembly last night.

BARBERS TO MEET NEXT AT RALEIGH

Winston-Salem, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The North Carolina Master Barbers Association will hold its next annual convention in Raleigh.

This was decided by the convention which adjourned here yesterday after re-electing J. H. Brown, of Raleigh, president.

Fifty Percent Slash In Freight Rates Features Drought Relief Plans

Low Rate to Parched Areas of the United States to Go Into Effect Immediately on Railroads Operating North of the Ohio and East of Mississippi Rivers

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A complaint of an "unrede" increase in prices of fresh vegetables in New York City as a result of the drought was laid before President Hoover today by Representative Laguardia of New York.

Laguardia, a Republican, said the President requested him to take up the matter with the Department of Agriculture. The representative made an appointment with Secretary Hyde for later in the day.

He said unless some immediate action were taken to prevent unnecessary price increases, "very drastic steps will be taken by consumers."

Secretary Hyde said before Laguardia's protest that no specific instances of profiteering in food stuffs had been called to his attention but the agriculture department was on the alert. He asserted there was no cause for alarm among the housewives.

The only crop shortage, Hyde said, was corn, hay and pastures for cattle. Out of a normal production of 2,800,000,000 bushels of corn only 75,000,000 are used for human consumption.

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—An immediate fifty per cent slash in railroad freight rates on hay, feed, water and livestock in the drought areas, stood out today as the first scale action for relief of parched agricultural lands.

Government relief plans mean, while marked time until tomorrow's conference of governors. President Hoover wants their suggestions and plans before proceeding with any broad relief measures. An idea of what the governors' recommendations may take came in dispatches from capitals of some of the affected states.

Governor Hammill of Iowa, leaving Des Moines for Washington, said he favored immediate aid to the farmers in need, together with arrangements through the Farm Board for seed for next year's planting, and financing by the board of a transfer of grains from surplus sections to the drought areas.

In Kentucky, the agricultural branch of the State Bankers' Association formulated with Governor Sampson a plan based on underwriting the tax bills of drought-suffering farmers through federal assistance.

Expectations of relief continued concentrated on government agencies, as weather forecasts, although indicating showers for parts of the dry area, promised no soaking rain.

The railroad rate cuts have been worked out between the roads and the department of agriculture with a safe-guarding arrangement by which farmers' applications for special rates will be certified to railroad officials by county agricultural agents. This was done in the hope of preventing speculative use of the emergency schedules.

The low rate is to go into effect immediately on roads operating to and from drought areas north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi rivers. Within a day or two they are expected to be extended to the remainder of the dry regions.

Centenarian Has No Theories As to His Old Age

Asheville, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Uncle Tom Hilman, of Yancey county, is that rare and admirable creature, a centenarian who has no theories as to the "why" of his 103 years.

"My father was 120 years old when he died, and he was active right up to the end," Uncle Tom told a newspaperman. He had just returned from a flying visit by automobile, to a son in South Carolina.

"Why," he was asked, "do you think you lived to such a ripe age?"

"The Lord knows," said Uncle Tom, and chuckled.

"Did you ever drink any whiskey?"

"Plenty of it. I always took a drink whenever I wanted it. 'Do you use tobacco?'"

"I chew."

MANY SLAIN IN ATTACK ON CHANGSHA

Report Shows That 1,500 Were Killed During Sacking of Chinese City

By MORRIS J. HARRIS
Associated Press Correspondent
Shanghai, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Estimates indicating 1,500 persons were slaughtered during the sacking of Changsha and reports charging the Red attack was part of a well-ordinated revolutionary movement to oust foreigners, overthrow the government and establish a Soviet regime throughout China, reached here today.

Investigators reported they were convinced after reading Communist newspapers found in Changsha that the Red movement in south-central China was a well-planned campaign, with apparently isolated communist groups really working under a central command.

The communist goal as the investigators saw it was the overthrow of all foreign influence, destruction of the Nationalist government, downfall of the Chinese militarists such as the northern commanders now making war on the Nanking regime, and establishment of Soviet rule throughout the country.

Improvement of the lot of the laboring classes and other tenets characteristic of the Soviet program, including establishment of proletarian governments throughout the world were embraced in the alleged aims of the invaders.

It was widely reported 1,000 women and girls of Changsha joined the Red ranks which prior to their arrival in the Hunan capital included many women.

Authentic information indicated the famous Yale-in-China college was slated to be completely burned. One report had it when a gang approached to fire the building, provincial soldiery began attempts to regain the city (frustrating the Reds. Another said a Yale university graduate among the communists (Continued on page 4)

WOMAN OUT FOR REPEAL OF DRY LAW

Member of New York Advisory Council Condemns Prohibition at Institute

University, Va., Aug. 13.—(AP)—National prohibition was condemned and its repeal advocated before the Institute of Public Affairs today by a woman, Mrs. Marion Booth Kelly, a member of the New York State advisory council of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

She discussed prohibition either if enforced or unenforced, and declared her disapproval in each instance—if unenforced, she said, because it fed disrespect for law; and if enforced, because it violated the guarantees of the federal constitution.

Submission to law because it is law is not a moral obligation, Mrs. Kelly asserted, citing Washington, Patrick Henry, Jefferson and Franklin as "men of the past through whose acts of disobedience we have some of our traditional liberties."

Up until the time the eighteenth amendment was adopted the cause of temperance in America had made a steady advance, Mrs. Kelly said, adding that her opponents admitted this to be true. Local option was increasing and many states had adopted prohibition either by legislation or statutory enactment.

"Even then there was no open rebellion such as has followed in the wake of national prohibition," Mrs. Kelly said. "There remains unconsciously within us the American spirit of consent to local self-government, a government in which we as citizens have a direct vote."

Quoting the United States Attorney General, Mrs. Kelly said the population of federal prisons in 1910 was 2,075; in 1920, 3,889; and in 1929, 10,168, while arrests for drunkenness started to decline with 1917 and reached their lowest point in 1920 but mounted steadily between 1920 and 1927 until in 1927 they approached the record years before prohibition.

"Statistics of arrests do not give a complete picture of the increase in drinking," she added. "I am not exaggerating when I speak of the terrific increase in drinking in the homes by both young people and their elders."

"So long as grapes grow on vines, apples in orchards and potatoes in the ground, the sources of supply for intoxicants can never cease," she said.

Man and Woman Believed Abducted Return Home Again

St. Louis, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Charles Kern, retired bakery executive and his wife who left St. Louis Monday night supposedly for Toledo, Ohio, carrying a $70,000 bank treasurer's check and who it had been feared had been kidnapped or swindled, return to their home unexpectedly at 1:45 a. m. (CST) today. Other than to deny they had been kidnapped, the couple refused to talk to reporters or give details of where they were.

The couple did explain, however, that they had been at a "point in Ohio" to visit relatives.

"Asked whether he completed the deal which took him into Ohio or whether he brought back the bank treasurer's check, Kern said "that's nobody's business. We're back and were not kidnapped and that's all I've got to say."

FEAR NANKING WILL FALL TO COMMUNISTS

Hankow Takes On Appearance of Beleaguered City As Defenses Tightened

Nanking, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Fears that Nanking, seat of the Nationalist government, would fall into the hands of Communist bands arose today with reports from the countryside saying alleged Reds in peasant garb and armed with rifles had appeared in large numbers 20 miles away. Nanking was virtually defenseless because few soldiers remained there.

Hankow, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Hankow took on the appearance of a beleaguered city today as authorities tightened up their defenses against the threatened Communist attack.

Unverified but persistent rumors said the Reds had re-entered the city of Changsha which recently was sacked and burned by Communist bands.

Sandbag defenses were erected at all strategic points in the native section of Hankow and machine guns were mounted for action, giving rise to the belief authorities were anticipating a heavy Communist thrust.

Thousands of refugees from the surrounding countryside poured into Hankow. The evacuation from Wuchang and Hanyang, nearby cities, was especially heavy. Hankow was considered the safest of three cities because of the presence here of many foreign gunboats.

The roundup and execution of alleged Reds continued unabated. Many were put to death.

Foreigners here were not considered in great danger because in case of disorders they could be easily evacuated by the foreign gunboats. Scores of commercial vessels also were available.

Threats to execute everyone between the ages of 15 and 35 were said to have preceded the Reds into Changsha. It was feared provincial forces would not be able to hold the city against the threatened invasion.

Latest dispatches said the Communists were only five miles from the city. The few foreigners remaining at Changsha sought refuge aboard foreign gunboats.

An American Catholic bishop, four priests and eight nuns, evacuating Kanchow, Kiangsi province, because of Communist depredations arrived at Shiehchow, northern Kwangtung province, today enroute to Canton.

Bishop O'Shea, an American, and several other Catholic ecclesiastics remained in Kanchow, although the city was not considered safe.

Wholesale slaughter of Communists by provincial authorities was said to have motivated the latest advance against Changsha. Ho Chien, Hunan governor, was asserted to have directed the torture and execution of 250 Red suspects daily as retribution for the recent invasion of his capital.

Hawks Off On Return Flight to New York

Wichita, Kansas, Aug.—(AP)—Captain Frank Hawks, attempting to recapture the west-east transcontinental flight record wrested from him Easter by Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, started off on the last half of his journey today with success in sight.

The flight arrived here from Glendale, Calif., at 10:20:38 a. m., clipping 52 minutes from the time required by the Lindberghs to reach Wichita, the only stop made on their dash to New York.

Hawks remained here 15 minutes while his plane was refueled and departed at 10:35:52 a. m., with Indianapolis as his next stop. His time to Wichita was six hours, 4 minutes and 11 seconds.

Tail winds favored the flier and he expressed confidence that he would lower the transcontinental mark of 14 hours and 45 minutes established by the Lindberghs.

Hawks made one landing en route to Wichita, pausing 15 minutes at Albuquerque, N. M., for fuel.

History Of Greenville Tobacco Market Filled With Great Achievement

Marion Talley Finds the West Not So Golden

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The girl of the golden west, Marion Talley, has found the west not as golden as the east, after all.

Stopping off in Chicago yesterday on her way to New York, the young lady said the drought had ruined the corn crop on her 800-acre Kansas farm and hinted she may meet the loss by returning to New York's metropolitan grand opera house, which she abandoned to go to the farm a year ago after a meteoric success.

"It is my privilege to change my mind," Miss Talley said.

NEGRO CAFE EMPLOYEE IS KILLED HERE

Marcellus Riddick Is Shot to Death in An Argument Back of Greenville Cafe

Marcellus Riddick, colored, was shot and killed by Ed Haten, also colored, following an argument last night in the alley back of the Greenville Cafe, where both men were employed. Haten immediately escaped and still remained at large this afternoon, although members of the police department had hopes of nabbing their man by nightfall.

The bullet, fired at close range, entered Riddick's throat. He was said to have staggered into the cafe and dropped to the floor, dead.

Officers said today the shooting was the outgrowth of an argument over a broken stepladder. The argument started yesterday afternoon and was resumed again last night. At the height of the controversy, the two men were seen to go out the back door into the alley. A few minutes later the report of a pistol was heard, and Riddick's form hurtled through the doorway and dropped to the floor. He died before medical attention could be secured.

Although members of the police department immediately began a search for Haten they were unable to obtain any information as to his whereabouts. He was believed to have left town immediately, and working upon that theory police and county officers in all of the surrounding communities were notified to keep on the lookout for the man.

Coroner E. S. Williams started an inquest into the shooting this morning, but was continued until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

Veteran Endurance Team, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine Regained World's Sustained Flight Record This Morning At 9:52 After They Had Been in Clouds 554 Hours and 41 Minutes, Slightly More Than 23 Days; Hope to Reach Goal of One Thousand hours

Lambert-St. Louis Field, St. Louis Mo., Aug. 13.—(AP)—The veteran endurance team, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine, flew through rain and the threat of a storm today to a new world's record for sustained flight. They officially regained the record at 9:52 a. m., when they had been up 554 hours and 41 minutes, slightly more than 23 days.

The mark exceeded by one full hour the record established last July 4 at Chicago by Kenneth and John Hunter, Illinois farm boys, who after several attempts had wrested the flight championship from Jackson and O'Brine. The latter pair set a 420-hour record on July 21, 1929.

With the record regained, Jackson and O'Brine had no thought of landing but drove on toward a goal which they now have set at 1,000 hours, or about six weeks.

A downpour of rain deluged the field and soaked the scant crowd of 2,000 persons who had assembled when the record was broken.

As a burst of sirens, aerial bombs, automobile horns and cheers went up, Jackson and O'Brine dropped low over the field and discharged a green flare. Then they came down to within a few hundred feet of the crowd and waved.

A crowd of about fifty airplane factory workers paraded across the field carrying a banner which read: "Again Red and Obie."

Factory whistles in industrial St. Louis heralded the return of the flight record to St. Louis with a chorus of shrieks.

The flier's monoplane, the Greater St. Louis, a sister-ship of the St. Louis Robin in which they set their record last year, appeared to the observers and the ground crew to be functioning perfectly.

The wives of the fliers were among those who stood in the rain to watch the record broken. They were showered with congratulations.

The din of the noise continued about twenty minutes.

It appeared that Jackson and O'Brine were attempting to speak to the crowd over their short wave length transmitter, but apparently the rainstorm interfered as they were not heard.

Jackson had said yesterday, however, they would stay up 1,000 hours, if the motor did not quit. The fliers this time were their own managers and masters of their own destiny, and masters of their end.

Last year's flight ended at 420 hours, short of their 500-hour goal, when they were called down by the flight sponsors, an airplane manufacturing company.

Negro Convicted of Killing Aged Kerr Postmaster

Clinton, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Chevis Herring, negro, faced death in the electric chair today for the first degree murder of F. F. Newton, aged Kerr, N. C. postmaster.

Herring was convicted in Sampson county Superior court yesterday, but Judge Clayton Moore, of Williamston, deferred passing of sentence until today. Conviction of first degree murder automatically carries the death penalty in this state.

Newton, his body badly battered, was found on a lonely road near his home June 28. He was removed to a Wilmington hospital where he died without regaining consciousness.

The defense offered no witnesses in the trial, basing its plea for acquittal upon the grounds that the state had not produced evidence sufficient to warrant conviction.

Ernest Herring, brother of the convicted man, was scheduled to go on trial today. He also faces a charge of murder growing out of the postmaster's death.

ABOUT TOWN

Governor O. Max Gardner has gone to Shelby to spend his vacation. While there, according to his statement to the press, he intends to see that his "turnip patch" is planted for the winter harvest season.

Governor Gardner has been preaching "live at home" for the last several months, and that statement about the turnip patch indicates he is trying to practice what he has been preaching.

The rapid rise of Greenville from a straggling village to the second largest bright leaf tobacco market in the world reads like a fairy-tale. It is just another example of what a thrifty, enterprising people can do when they put their shoulders to the wheel and attempt to realize some great ambition.

The mayor has told the story of the past, but the story of the future remains untold. Yet, the days to come will continue to unfold untold opportunities to the brains and brains behind the great industry, and the record of these achievements will be as interesting to the generation to come as is the story which the mayor has presented in such splendid form.

Weeds, the greatest bone of controversy to members of the police department during the present summer, are gradually disappearing in the various residential districts, indicating that the citizens at last have decided to respond to the appeal of the mayor to clean up all forms of rank vegetation.

This will not only make the homes appear to better advantage but will have a tendency to do away with mosquitoes. The mosquito, health experts say, finds weeds the best place in which to breed, and it may be noticed that where there are weeds there is usually plenty of mosquitoes.

Stop signs should be placed at streets leading into main thoroughfares of the city in order to safeguard the lives of hundreds of motorists who visit the city from time to time and fail to realize the danger of entering the streets where traffic is heavy both day and night.

One of these corners is where Fifth street enters Pitt. The view of drivers entering both streets is completely obstructed by buildings. There have been many accidents there in past year, none of which were serious, but there are near accidents every day, and eventually there will be loss of life.

By placing stop signs at Fifth street the motorist would be properly warned of the danger of crossing the intersection without proper caution. Several months ago when Pitt street was on the Behel highway stop signs were used, but since the highway has been changed to Greene street the signs have been moved to that point.

Signs should be placed at all dangerous intersections as a means of protecting human life and property. The annual loss by tobacco barn fires in this section of the state is considerable each year, and this brings about the advisability of the farmers adopting more safety measures while curing season is in progress.

By complete inspection of barns the demon will be greatly decreased.

SPURT PUTS TIGERS NEAR LEAGUE TOP

Almost obscured in the struggles of the mighty around the top positions in the major league standings, the Detroit Tigers have been putting on a spurt that has carried them almost into the first division of the American league.

The Tigers are only one and one-half game behind the fourth place Cleveland Indians today, despite their inability to cope with the heroic gestures of Babe Ruth in their opening clash with the New York Yankees yesterday.

While the Tigers were losing one game, due to Ruth's demonstration of the reasons for his great reputation, Cleveland was dropping two to the Philadelphia Athletics to make the fourth-place struggle more interesting.

The Yankees stopped the Detroit club for a while yesterday but only after Ruth had put on a great performance to win a 6 to 5 decision in a close battle. The Babe clouted his 43rd homer in the third inning with his mascot, Jimmy Reese, on a base to climax a big Yankee rally, then drove in the winning run in the ninth at the highly crucial moment when there were two out and two strikes on him.

The victory was not of much use to the Yanks except to hold them in their position behind Philadelphia and Washington without a serious loss. With Moose Grove and Bill Shores pitching a pair of good games, the Athletics twice trounced the Cleveland Indians by scores of 9 to 1 and 7 to 0.

Washington held second place a game ahead of the Yanks by scoring four runs off Ted Lyons in the third inning to take a speedy game from the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 4.

The opening of the "crucial" National league series between the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Robins fulfilled all advance notices in thrills. A pitching duel between Fred Blake and Dazzy Vance, highly productive of hits but not of runs, lasted eleven innings before Chicago gained a 3 to 2 victory and increased its lead to a full game.

With New York and Cincinnati idle, the Pittsburgh Pirates registered the big gain in the lower part of the National league standing and the St. Louis Cardinals made a lesser one. The Pirates downed the Phillies in both halves of a doubleheader. They had to go 14 innings to win the first game, 8 to 7, scoring two runs in their half of the inning on three solid hits after the Phillies had forged ahead, but the second contest produced an easy 8 to 3 victory as Glenn Spencer allowed Philadelphia only five hits.

Prior to curing, it looks like the majority of the fires could be avoided. Flues should be gone over very carefully, and if there are any defects they should be carefully looked after before the curing process is begun. Then, also, furnaces should be given proper attention, and especially the chimneys. Many of the fires undoubtedly are caused by sparks from chimneys, and overheated flues, and when these things are given proper attention it is to be believed that the fire demon will be greatly decreased.

State Police Chiefs Meet At Salisbury

Salisbury, Aug. 13—(AP)—Badges and brass buttons flashed here today as delegates to the sixth annual convention of the North Carolina Association of Police Chiefs began arriving for the opening session.

Visiting officers were busy this morning with registration details. Early this afternoon the chiefs will be formally welcomed to Salisbury by Mayor J. L. Fisher.

A 15-minute address by P. P. Picher, city manager, will precede the calling of the convention to order. Chief J. Ross Jones, of the Fayetteville police force, president of the association, will preside at all sessions.

Tomorrow's sessions will be made up principally of addresses by various officials representing the state and county governments. Friday morning will be devoted to speeches by 12 visiting police chiefs, reports of committees and election of officers.

Crack shots representing many police departments in the state will take part in the pistol shooting contest Friday afternoon. All full-time police officers of North Carolina are eligible for the event.

Old Bills Trouble Jack Pickford On Third Honeymoon

Del Monte, Cal., Aug. 13—(AP)—Two court summonses growing out of his alleged failure to pay state bills shadowed Jack Pickford, motion picture actor and brother of Mary Pickford, as he began his third honeymoon today.

Pickford was married to Miss Mary Mulhern, New York actress, in a little Presbyterian church by the ocean near here yesterday. The summonses, issued at the instance of a Los Angeles grocer and dry goods merchant, were served shortly before the ceremony.

A third summons awaited Pickford in Los Angeles. The three were filed to collect about $1,000 which the merchants claim the actor owes them on year old bills. All actions were filed in the Los Angeles municipal court.

Olive Thomas, who died in Paris several years ago, was Pickford's first wife. He later married Marilyn Miller, musical comedy star. They were divorced.

Raleigh, Aug. 13—(AP)—North Carolina's indicated cotton yield this year is 74 per cent normal, according to a report from the State Department of Agriculture. The tobacco acreage of the state was reckoned at a three per cent increase over last year while the drought conditions have changed the corn crop to such an extent that the August 4 report showed an indicated yield of 19.5 bushels per acre as compared with 22.5 bushels last year.

Wheat and small grain crops were reported in good condition. Legumes were said to be "fair" and hay crop prospects "definitely poorer."

Four Prisoners Who Escaped From County Jail Receive Road Sentences

Four negroes who escaped from the Pitt county jail last week were sentenced to 90 days on the roads by Judge W. L. Wheeler, presiding over the regular weekly session of county court in this city yesterday. The defendants were Claude Howard, James McNeal, Leroy Carr and Walter Latham. They are being held for Superior court action on charges of larceny. They removed a piece of iron from the jail door and gained their freedom by prying away the cell bars.

Several other cases were disposed of during the session, the majority consisting of charges of violation of the prohibition laws. Several bootleggers who have been giving city and county officers trouble the last several months were required either to pay heavy fines or to go to the roads for several months.

Hattie Keys, colored, charged with receiving, possessing and transporting whiskey, was found guilty of possession, and was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and cost. She was also given a two years' suspended sentence to the county jail.

Alfred Anderson, colored, whose key for sale, was ordered to pay a fine of $75 and cost or go to the roads for six months.

Willie O'Neal and Ella O'Neal were found guilty of possessing and purchasing whiskey. Willie was required to pay a fine of $25 and one-half cost and had a six-month suspended sentence to the roads tacked to the judgment. The woman paid a fine of $10 and one-half cost and received a six-month suspended sentence to the roads.

Julius Langley, charged with operating an automobile while drunk, paid $50 and costs and had his license revoked for a period of 90 days.

Amos Byrd was found not guilty of a charge of skipping his board bill. Bennie Gray, charged with possession of whiskey, paid one-half cost and received a two years' suspended sentence to the roads. Byrd was found not guilty in the same case.

Continue Probe of Mine Bombing

Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 13.—(AP)—Investigators from two federal government departments and two states today continued to build up a case of circumstantial evidence against Paul Montgomery, Murphysboro aviator, under arrest here in connection with Monday's air raid on the mining district in the vicinity of Providence, Ky.

The investigators announced today they had signed statements from three persons which they regarded as important to their case. The statements were from Clara Paul, Evelyn Fleming and Raymond Pifer, and told of seeing Montgomery leave the airport at approximately 2:30 a. m. Monday in his low-wing monoplane, accompanied by a strange man.

The girls, both of Murphysboro, had "double dated" with Pifer and Montgomery Monday night and all accompanied him to the airport, they said. All three said two "rough looking" men were at the airport when they arrived; and one of them got in Montgomery's plane and flew away with him. The man who accompanied Montgomery, they said, carried a sack.

Judge Meekins Returns From Trip to Bermuda

Raleigh, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Federal Judge Isaac M. Meekins, who has been spending a vacation in Bermuda, was back at his home in Elizabeth City today, it was learned here.

Judge Meekins has awaiting his action the remanded case of B. W. Buford of Lawrenceville, Va., P. W. Oldwell of Reidsville and the late Col. Willie M. Person of Raleigh for $75,000 additional attorney's fees for their part in having the Tri-State Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association placed in receivership in 1926.

Some months ago Judge Meekins denied the petition of the attorneys but when they appealed to the District Court of Appeals the case was remanded.

James H. Poul, Raleigh, one of the receivers of the defunct association, said today that final disposition of the attorneys' petition was the only barrier to a distribution of about $500,000 among the 96,000 growers members of the association. All major debts of the association, totaling about $10,000,000, have been paid, he said.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 3 points to a decline of 2 points. Some overnight selling orders which were supposed to include a little southern hedging were in the market, but they were absorbed by trade buying and covering on the relatively steady showing of Liverpool, while there may have been some local buying on expectations of bullish features in the weekly report of the weather bureau.

Trading was moderately active and prices were firmer after the early offerings had been absorbed, with new October advancing to 12.20 and March to 12.64 by the end of the first half hour or about 10 points net higher. Reports of showers in east Texas and Mississippi probably accounted for some of the early selling. Liverpool cables reported hedging and Bombay liquidation taken by local covering and continental buying in that market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Heavy selling ascribed to houses with eastern connections led to sharp setbacks both in wheat and corn during the late dealings today. A statement credited to Secretary Hyde of the United States Department of Agriculture that there was no shortage of foodstuffs and that the main shortage was in corn, hay and pasturage was treated in some quarters as a bearish influence. Late downturns of prices were in the face of estimates that North American export buying of wheat today totaled 2,000,000 bushels most of it hard winter wheat from the United States.

Wheat closed nervous 2 1/4 to 2 3/4 lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 2 1/8 to 3/4 down; oats 1 5/8 to 2 3/8 off and provisions showing 15 to 37 drop.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The bear camp, usually populated by a select group of professional operators, began to resemble a public picnic ground in today's stock market, and several of the original bears started to withdraw in annoyance, influencing a midday rally in share prices, after a further decline during the morning.

In the meantime, the confirmed bulls hurled little more tangible in the direction of the bears than in the past. There was little inclination to fight back with action and cash. The bears were chiefly concerned over the unwieldy character of their following, recalling the numerous explosive upturns caused by stampedes of overworked shorts in the past.

The morning decline carried the prices off 1 to 5 points, reducing the general level to close to the bottom of June. The losses were fairly well regained by early afternoon, and several shares showed advances of 1 to more than 3. American Tobacco, B. Warner Bros., Johns Manville, North American and Houston sold up 2 to 3 points, and shares gaining a point or more included such as U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Radio, General Electric and General Motors. During the morning, Bethlehem Steel, American Power and Light and J. I. Case sagged about 2 points to new 1930 lows, and Kennecott, Childs, and Columbia Gas also recorded new bottom prices.

A tendency of trading volume to increase with a declining market, and to turn dull on advances, was a reversal of recent form, and was discouraging to the cause of higher prices, as the day's business news again failed to indicate much but the unusual continuance of the July slack into early August.

The weekly steel trade reviews again sounded a flat note. "Iron Age" placed operations for the entire industry at 52 per cent of capacity, a drop of 2 per cent, and another new low for the year. Its composite prices showed further declines. The steel price was the lowest since February, 1922.

FIFTY PERCENT SLASH IN FREIGHT RATES FEATURE DROUGHT RELIEF PLANS

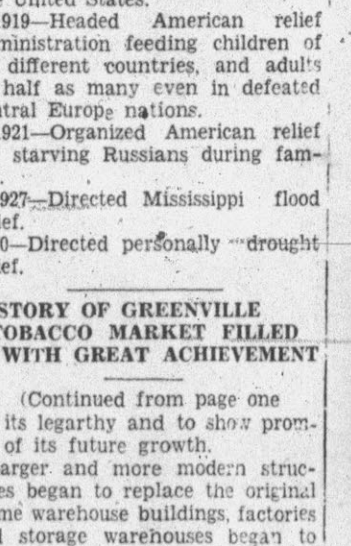

(Continued from page one) close attention and active leadership in the relief movement was assured meanwhile by his announcement yesterday that his hoped-for western vacation had been sacrificed to the exigencies of the situation.

Washington, Aug. 13.—(AP)—In undertaking personally to direct the government's program for relief of the stricken drought areas, President Hoover finds himself occupying a role he has filled at intervals for thirty years.

Since his early twenties he aided in the defense of Tientsin in the Boxer rebellion, he has organized eight separate emergency relief jobs in many sections of the world, exclusive of private rehabilitation efforts as a mining engineer. His record in public relief is as follows:

- 1900—Organized food relief efforts and directed fortifying of the white and Chinese refugees at Tientsin.
- 1914—Directed from London attempts to bring thousands of American tourists from warring Europe.
- 1914—Headed commission for relief of Belgium.
- 1916-1919—Food administrator of the United States.
- 1919—Headed American relief administration feeding children of 23 different countries, and adults of half as many even in defeated central Europe nations.
- 1921—Organized American relief for starving Russians during famine.
- 1927—Directed Mississippi flood relief.
- 1930—Directed personally drought relief.

Larger and more modern structures began to replace the original frame warehouse buildings, factories and storage warehouses began to appear, and every factor pointed a continued growth and a rapid development of the Greenville tobacco market.

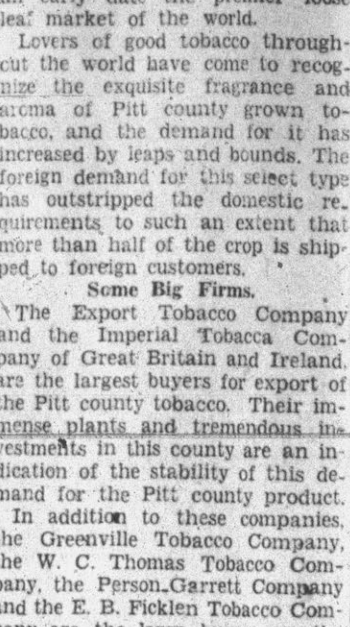

The growth of the market, however, was seriously retarded during the decade from 1900 to 1910, by the decline in the price of tobacco. A disastrous drop in prices which, in turn, made it unprofitable to raise tobacco in these years caused lean ones to the tobacco growers all over the belt.

A Remarkable Record. It was just about this time the Greenville market entered into a period of expansion and growth that was to continue until it had come to be recognized as one of the largest auction sales markets in the entire world. In 1928 its sales reached a high mark of over seventy-one million pounds, placing it second among all the markets in number of pounds sold. Its con-

Judge C. Frank McLaughlin will preside at the trial of Mrs. Olive Allen, charged with the slaying of Anthony B. King, Columbus, Ga., clubman.

Excellent Location

Situated in the center of the tobacco growing district of eastern North Carolina, and easily accessible to the large manufacturing centers of Piedmont North Carolina and Virginia, Pitt county, of which Greenville is the capital, is the largest tobacco producing county in the world.

It is within one hundred and fifty miles of the great shipping docks at Hampton Roads, and shipments from Greenville will reach shipside in twenty-four hours. There are seven hard-surfaced roads radiating from Greenville in all directions, and the patronage of this market, by over twenty thousand growers within a radius of one hundred miles, is an indication its advantages are fully recognized by the growers, as well as by the tobacco buying interests.

Some Facts and Figures. Pitt county lies in the center of eastern North Carolina, about 85 miles east of Raleigh, and about 120 miles south of Norfolk, Virginia, and contains 401,280 acres, or 627 square miles with a population in excess of 50,000. The general surface features are broad, level, table lands, together with gentle rolling areas. The average elevation is sixty feet, rising from near sea-level on the east, to 125 feet to the western side. The county is drained through the Tar river, a sluggish stream that flows into Pamlico Sound about forty miles to the east of Pitt county. Its climate is mild, with long summers and short winters. It rarely snows here, and there are but few days in a year when it is uncomfortable to be out of doors. It is recognized as among the "first twenty counties" in the United States in agricultural development, and is noted for its splendid system of schools, its remarkable health record and its efficient county government.

Striving To Sell Eighty Millions. Its phenomenal growth and development has kept pace with the growth of the Greenville tobacco market, which reached its highest peak during the 1928 season, when the total auction sales reached 71,082,294 pounds, at a price of $14.963,107.94, an average price of $21.05 per hundred.

During the 1929 season, the sales fell off considerably due to the disastrous rains which cut the crop approximately fifty per cent in Pitt county, but it is confidently expected the sales for the 1930 season will reach eighty million pounds.

Four Sales in Warehouses. The Greenville market now has

Truly a Tobacco Town

The Greenville tobacco market, on account of its size and growth, has attracted a high personnel, not only among the tobacco warehousemen, but among the buyers and factory employees, and many of these have, in turn, been attracted by the genial climate, friendly spirit, and high class of citizenship in Greenville, and have made this city their permanent homes.

The tobacco industry is numerously represented on the Board of School Trustees, the Water & Light Commission, the Board of Aldermen, and all other public and semi-public organizations. These men have taken literally the slogan, "Our Greenville, Yours If You Come," and have made themselves part and parcel of the social and business life of the community.

Another Big Year. Greenville and the Greenville tobacco market, standing on the threshold of another year of expansion and growth, of progress and advancement, welcome inquiries and visits from all friends throughout the world, and extend to them a cordial invitation to come and make themselves at home in the community, and to partake bountifully of the joys and advantages of living in a community so blessed by nature, and so willing to extend the hand of good fellowship.

Quadruple sales, running from the opening in September until Christmas. There are nine mammoth warehouses open for business, all of which are brick in construction and modern in every respect. These houses cover approximately fourteen acres in floor space, and are able to handle two million pounds daily.

Many Thousand Workers. In addition, there are nine immense factories, employing several thousand workers during the busy season, capable of re-drying and placing in hogsheads all the tobacco sold from day to day on the market.

Some Large Buyers. Practically every company dealing in bright leaf tobacco is represented on the Greenville market. The American Tobacco Company, the Imperial Tobacco Company, the Export Tobacco Company, the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company all maintain their own corps of buyers and their own factories.

All the independent tobacco companies have large, modern re-drying plants, and are fully prepared to handle any and all orders for tobacco, regardless of the size of the order. And in addition to this buying service, which they are prepared to render, they maintain extensive storage plants where desirable stocks of tobacco are always on hand to meet the demands of the trade during the off season.

Careful Handling and Grading. The tobacco sold on the Greenville market is noted for its careful handling and close grading. These points are stressed by the warehousemen in their advertising campaigns, and every farmer is urged to market his crop in the best possible shape. This makes for better prices and satisfaction, both to the grower and to the buyer.

Twenty Year Record. The growth of the Greenville tobacco market for the past twenty years has been phenomenal. The sales for each year have been as follows:

1910	8,028,295	1911	8,908,751	1912	15,314,054
1913	14,959,913	1914	21,008,396	1915	17,028,465

A MEXICAN REVOLUTION LEFT HIM BROKE. JUST A FEW YEARS LATER HE WAS A HIGH-SALARIED MOVIE STAR.

FAST SUCCESS STORY NO. 9

RAMON NOVARRO

His Spanish forebears conquered Mexico . . . won the country in ten brief years. But Ramon alone conquered America, conquered Europe, and all points east . . . in scarcely more than a camera's flicker. For Ramon gave the world a thrill!

And that's the tale of another young conqueror, OLD GOLD cigarettes. New England surrendered in just two months. "You win, OLD GOLD!" said the Middle West. From coast-to-coast the victory spread. And OLD GOLD in just one year became the country's fastest growing cigarette. OLD GOLD, like Novarro, offered the world a brand new thrill. Finer tobaccos gave a mellower taste. Better tobaccos ended throat-scratch.
