HOEY LAUDS DEMOCRATS AT ASHEBORO

Shelby Man Praises Record of Party At Democratic Convention Today

Ashboro, Aug. 16.—(AP)—North Carolina's advancement in the last 30 years under the administration of the Democratic party furnishes the "most eloquent and convincing platform" a political body could have, Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby attorney, today told the Randolph County Democratic convention.

Mr. Hoey, key-note speaker before the convention, declared that there is "unity and concord" in the Democratic ranks and called upon the North Carolina party to elect a senator and ten congressmen and regain all of the counties lost in the last election.

"The speaker charged the Republican party in this state with being 'converted' to prohibition two years ago after the Democrats had 'passed every law on our statute books looking to its enforcement.'"

"They were suddenly converted and they are still professing faith," he said. "In the nation they have shown no special zeal for prohibition, and we see the Republicans of New Jersey nominate Dwight Morrow to the Senate upon a winging wet platform and we hear President Hoover announce that he will use all the power of the White House to elect this wet Mr. Morrow."

"That's how dry the Republicans are," he charged. "They never let prohibition interfere with politics unless they can fool some Democrat by professing prohibition. The Democrats gave North Carolina prohibition and they are going to maintain and enforce it, but there never will be a national enforcement of prohibition while the Republican party is in power. It will continue to make it a football of politics."

Referring to the Republicans as the "party of prosperity" and what he termed President Hoover's "promise to abolish poverty," the former congressman declared the chief executive had "about abolished" work. He declared that "over six million people in America... now belong to the vast and hungry army of unemployed."

"Prosperity," he continued, "now is a lost word with the Republican party. The Republicans are now seeking diligently for some new words. They have learned a few from 1928—Sift, Raskob, Tammany and prohibition. The masters are telling them to cry these aloud and spare not, hoping to create enough din and confusion to distract attention."

"But empty stomachs are not so easily filled and jobless people cannot thus be satisfied. The Republican party has grievously and criminally failed the farmer, the manufacturer and the laboring man. Instead of giving any measure of relief, the President appoints another commission—and none of them ever report—and Congress passes the most vicious tariff measure ever forced upon this country."

"The Democratic party is fortunate in its appeal to the people. It needs no platform in North Carolina. Its records for the past thirty years in his administration of the state government furnishes the most eloquent and convincing platform. It consists of performances rather than promises—or achievements rather than pretensions."

Smoke Clouds Halt Rescue Operations At Blackburn Mine

Blackburn, B. C., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Dense clouds of black smoke well up from the lower levels of the Blackburn mine today, temporarily halting efforts of rescue parties to reach the 42 men remaining entombed as the result of an explosion and cave-in Wednesday night. All hope for the trapped miners was abandoned.

There was no indication when work would be resumed.

Officials ordered the rescuers above ground last night when the smoke appeared, fearing there was a fire in the lower part of number four tunnel which might cause another explosion more disastrous than the first.

Drops From Third Story—Unhurt

Asheville, N. C.—(AP)—The two-and-a-half-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Jr., of Cane River, crawled to a third story window, tumbled 30 feet to the ground and, insofar as doctors could tell, was unhurt.

GIANT AIRSHIP FINISHES TRIP ACROSS OCEAN

British Dirigible Back At Cardington After Memorable Visit to Canada

Cardington, Eng., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Great Britain's giant dirigible, the R-100, came back home today after an 18-day trip across the Atlantic and back to Montreal and other Canadian cities.

With the landfall near Farnet, Ireland, long before daylight, the dirigible passed up the Bristol Channel to arrive over its mooring mast here at 10:40 a. m.

Departure from St. Jubert airport, Montreal was at 8:28 p. m. Wednesday night, the trans-Atlantic crossing of 3,267 miles being completed in 56 hours and 12 minutes at an average speed of 58 miles per hour.

The fastest crossing the Atlantic by lighter than air craft was made in August, 1929, by the Graf Zeppelin, which needed only 55 hours and 25 minutes to travel 4,200 miles—nearly 1,000 miles more than the R-100 traveled—between Lakehurst, N. J., and Friedrichshafen, Germany—the Graf's speed being 75 miles per hour.

Director of Republican National Committee, Says Democrats Are Trying to Block Administration Activities and Preserve Depression As Campaign Issue

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Taking office today as executive director of the Republican national committee, Robert H. Lucas, of Kentucky, issued a statement charging Democratic leaders with blocking administration business and unemployment relief to preserve depression as a campaign issue.

"The Democratic leaders," he said, "put their party in direct opposition to every effort made by the administration to restore business and provide employment for all the people. Having selected the natural misfortune of the nation—the suffering of the unemployed—as a campaign issue for 1930, the Democratic leaders could not lend their support to any corrective measures without depriving their party of a battle cry for the campaign."

"And the country has continued to suffer—business is slow to recover—workers walk the streets looking for work while the Democratic strategists confer and consult and issue statements, all the while feigning an improvement in business before the election. They hold to the fallacious idea that if things will just remain as they are until election day, the Democrats will secure control of Congress."

The Lucas statement—the opening gun of the Republican national organization's participation in the fall election campaign—compared the Democratic party to a "quack" and the Republican organization to the "old family physician" needed to deal with a serious illness. The new director, whose task as commissioner of internal revenue was surrendered to David Burnett, of West Virginia, simultaneously with taking over the Republican office, charged the Democrats with having waged "a campaign of misrepresentation and confusing propaganda."

"That campaign has had demoralizing effect upon business," he said. "That misrepresentation has made its impression. That propaganda has taken hold. It is well there is yet time to get the truth to the people."

"The country is facing a crisis. We are in the midst of a temporary but serious depression. If, by reason of this situation, the Democratic party—traditionally known as the 'free trade party' and the party of 'unrestricted immigration'—should gain control of the legislative branch of the federal government, what chance would there be for a restoration of normal business? Elect a Democratic Congress in 1930 and this country will not see normal business again for some years to come."

Three Deaths And Heavy Crop Damage Claimed By Storms In Two States

Cloudburst in Massachusetts and Central Connecticut, Accompanied By Hail and Lightning, Takes Heavy Toll of Property and Tobacco Crops; Loss Will Go Into Millions

Boston, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A great cloudburst, accompanied by hail and lightning swept down upon southern Massachusetts and central Connecticut today causing destruction to property and crops estimated in the millions.

In the city of Worcester, alone, which bore the brunt of the storm, preliminary estimates held the damage to be in excess of a million dollars.

In Westfield, Mass., the ripening tobacco crop suffered the worst damage in 50 years. In some places in the Westfield district the crop was estimated as all lost.

Thompsonville, Conn., reported a heavy loss to its tobacco crop. Three men working in a tobacco field in Windsor, Conn., were killed and a fourth badly injured by lightning when the tempest swung into that section.

Mercantile establishments in the business section of Worcester, were inundated with a big loss to stocks, while in the streets of the city have

HOOVER WILL TALK DROUGHT WITH BANKERS

Beneficial Rain Relieve Conditions In Many Parts of the Nation

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Secretary Hyde today authorized the immediate apportionment of $121,875,000 in federal road aid fund to the various states suffering from drought.

Funds were apportioned to southern states as follows: Alabama $2,615,434; Florida $1,543,232; Georgia $3,316,029; Kentucky $2,356,367; Louisiana $1,745,455; Maryland $1,051,714; Mississippi $2,209,509; Missouri $3,957,287; North Carolina $2,871,722; South Carolina $1,769,848; Tennessee $2,687,123; Texas $7,620,239 and Virginia $2,379,788.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(P)—A Hoover conference with bankers from the drought ridden states stood out today as the next national move in the drought relief campaign. Beneficial rains meanwhile alleviated conditions in several of the sun-parched areas.

As soon as the state relief committees—agreed upon at the White House conference of governors—have been set up, President Hoover expects to call in their banking members for a discussion of the financial means to be employed in the campaign to prevent human suffering and disease, and to tide farmers and their livestock over the winter season.

Meanwhile, federal agencies virtually are marking time. Except for minor measures and a polishing up of the government organization to the campaign officials feel little can be accomplished until the state, county and local committees are functioning, to apply directly the local relief available.

The program adopted received the unqualified approval yesterday of the heads of three important farm organizations, the National Grange, Farmers' Union and American Farm Bureau Federation.

At a White House conference L. J. Taber, C. C. Talbot, and Sam H. Thompson, heads of the three groups, told the President, they considered the plan the best available and pledged their wholehearted cooperation.

Rains were looked to meanwhile, to rejuvenate pasture land and to aid in raising the morale of farmers who have been driven near to destitution by the dry weather and parching sun. Prevalence of cooler weather, even without rain, was seen as a considerable aid in delaying deterioration of grazing lands and forage.

Forecasts were for rains today and Sunday in the South Atlantic states, the Ohio Valley, Tennessee, the Southern Appalachian region and the western lower lake region. A good precipitation in the past several days was reported in Michigan.

ABANDON FLIGHT UNTIL SUNDAY

Miehell Field, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Ted Lungren of Los Angeles took off at 9:15 (EST) this morning from Roosevelt field, across the road from this army airport, for Old Orchard, Me., to begin a flight around the world, but within half an hour he was forced back by fog and landed here.

It was soupy weather when Lungren took off, accompanied by Pilots Roger Q. Williams and William Marsals, and within a few minutes the sky darkened to almost night-like hue. Visibility dropped to almost nothing and the flying ceiling lowered.

A light drizzle was falling and the indications were that it would pour soon. The likelihood was that the flight would be postponed until tomorrow.

FLIERS STILL GOING STRONG AT ST. LOUIS

Jackson and O'Brine Continue to Make History Without Prospect Much Reward

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine still were adding hours to their sustained flight record today, and Bill Pickens, their manager, still was complaining about what he called the meager financial returns harvested by Messrs. Jackson, O'Brine and Pickens.

This far Pickens had been able to close but four contracts, totaling about $1,200 for the fliers, and this comprises "their sole reward" except for $7,000 they will receive from an oil company whose products they are using, Pickens complained.

"Just to think," he wailed, "there are those two boys making the greatest endurance flight in history and a great big New York company says $1,000 is too high a price to advertise one of its products. What those boys need is a high fence around their ship. The other night half the people in St. Louis came out here and we didn't collect a dime. A free show and they all came out."

Despite all his troubles, however, Pickens is "trying to keep up the old spirit and so far we have not cut our price because the one big mistake in the promotion business is to ask for $2,000 when you could have had $5,000."

St. Louis "lack of financial generosity" is no mystery to Pickens. The city is "too close to big achievements in aviation."

"Lindbergh spoiled you folks," he explained, "and unless a show can be made to rival a trans-Atlantic crossing you are not interested—at least not financially."

One of St. Louis' largest theatres will give a midnight show tonight for the benefit of the Jackson-O'Brine exchequer.

Today was the 28th in the air for Jackson and O'Brine in the monoplane Greater St. Louis. Apparently they were not nearly so worried as the manager on the ground. The only complaint that had come from them was that "the air sure is rolling."

The pilots still had given no indication of when they would land, but have promised to "give sufficient notice" of an intended landing for spectators to assemble at the field. A note from the plane last night read:

"Tell those people not to wait for us to land now. We will notify them in plenty of time for them to get to the field."

A special contact between the endurance plane and the refueler was made last night to take cigarettes and matches to the fliers.

Mechanics at the field today still said they were unable to detect any faltering in the plane's motor.

HIGH SCHOOL PAPER BECOMES INDEPENDENT

In letters to students, executives declare the publication will not "be tied down by faculty, student organization or other control." The stories will be "all peppered up and alive" and the sports writers will write for the students, not for the players or coach.

Walter Holton will be publisher, secretary and treasurer; Slade Hardie editor and Ruth Nash managing editor. Thirty issues will be published.

Judges And Police Were On Payroll Of Gangster, Zuta's Records Reveal

Child Lives After Miracle Operation At Local Hospital

With several stitches from a surgeon's needle in his tiny heart, Sherman Williams, nine-year-old youth of the Bethel community, lay in the Pitt Community hospital in this city today, fighting a grim battle against death, with fair chances of emerging victorious.

The youth owes his life thus far to the skill of surgeons of the hospital who removed a part of one of his ribs and sewed up a wound inflicted by a butcher knife. If the youth lives, as he probably will, the operation will rank among the greatest of the age in that only a few of a similar nature have been recorded in the history of medical science.

The youngster received the wound while riding on a tobacco truck on a farm near Bethel yesterday morning. The truck overturned, and a butcher knife which had been a part of the contents of the truck, pierced the child's body and entered the heart.

The lad was rushed to the hospital immediately after the accident and the operation was performed. He is reported to have passed a comfortable night, and his condition was so greatly improved this morning that strong hope was held out for his recovery.

LEAF FACTORY HAS INCREASED FLOOR SPACE

Improvement At Greenville Tobacco Company Gives 80,177 Square Feet

Completion of new additions to the Greenville Tobacco Company, gives their large factory a total floor space of 80,177 square feet. With the several machines in this factory gives them a daily capacity of 174,000 pounds. The Greenville Tobacco Co., also has a large storage plant of 3,000 hogsheads capacity. C. W. Howard, president, W. C. Jones, secretary, buy on order for the foreign and domestic trade, besides buying large stock of tobacco each year for themselves.

The factory employs approximately five hundred people when operating at full capacity, and is one of the big assets in the progress and development of the Greenville market.

MANY CASES FACE AIRING IN CITY SOON

Important Actions to Be Heard During Two Weeks' Session of Superior Court

A two-week term of Pitt County Superior court, for the trial of civil and criminal cases, will convene in this city next Monday morning with Judge Walter Small, of Elizabeth City, presiding. The calendars for the term contain numbers of cases of more or less interest to the people of this part of the state and the court room is expected to be well filled each day, especially during the trial of criminal cases.

One of the most important cases to be heard during the term, or for many past terms for that matter, is that against Francis Bowen, Greenville merchant, charged with shooting T. D. Phillips for playing his radio late at night. The case is scheduled to come up for hearing Thursday.

The case against Hyman Gardner, charged with arson in connection with the burning of the Clay Root schoolhouse, is also expected to attract more than passing interest. The Clay Root school house was destroyed by fire one night last spring, and Gardner, who was alleged to have made several previous statements, was arrested and held for the Superior court.

Two murder charges are scheduled to go before the grand jury during the early part of the second week. Jodie Whitley and James Barber, both colored, are faced by separate charges of murder. These are the only cases of this nature to come up for hearing during the term.

ABOUT TOWN

People who permit children under sixteen years of age to drive their automobiles would do well to stop the practice, according to an ultimatum issued yesterday by Chief of Police Preston Pierce.

The chief declared that the practice was becoming so widespread throughout the city that stringent action was necessary to bring it to an end. He also said that parents would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law in all violations. The penalty for the first violation is $50.00 and cost.

Members of the police department have been instructed to keep a close watch for all youngsters at the steering wheel and to arrest all violators.

The operation of an automobile by a child under sixteen years of age is a direct violation of the law. The legislation has not been fully enforced in the past by reason of the fact that people were making an effort to abide by it. But since there has been a laxity in the restraint put upon the child, the cops before some serious accident involving a child at the steering wheel actually occurs.

The commissioners in special session here yesterday settled the question as to who will succeed C. C. Coppedge, resigned, as auditor of Pitt county. The selection centered upon Mr. Clifton, of Greensboro, who had charge of the annual audit recently conducted in this county.

Members of the board stated that they were so well pleased with the audit that they at once tendered the position as county auditor to Mr. Clifton with the result that he will take charge of the office on September 1st, as soon as he can complete his work with the Greensboro firm. Mr. Clifton has seen considerable experience in town and county auditing, and should be able to render splendid services in this county. Mr. Coppedge has served the county very efficiently over a period of several years, and his retirement is greeted with regret by numbers of people.

City marketmen who have been violating the sanitary laws would do well to clean house and give more attention to sanitation, judging by the statement issued yesterday by George Clark, director of the city sanitary department.

Mr. Clark said reports had reached him concerning the handling of tainted meat by some of the establishments. He immediately declared that all markets would be investigated more thoroughly in the future with violators of the sanitary laws being prosecuted to the limit of the law.

This action on the part of the sanitary head will be received with general interest by the citizenship in that it is launched directly in their behalf. It should have a tendency of eliminating the probability of spoiled meat reaching the market centers and setting aside the danger of the ill effects that would certainly follow the eating of such products.

People who want to keep in touch with activities on the Greenville tobacco market should not fail to read the news stories and advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper from time to time.

A story dealing with warehouse and factory personnel was carried on the front page yesterday, and this no doubt was read by hundreds of men and women who want to be correctly informed about what to expect when sales actually get in progress.

should with the coming of every bright leaf season.

Thrifty shoppers of this trade territory would not go amiss by reading the advertisements of Greenville merchants appearing in the columns of this paper from day to day, as this will enable them to keep in close touch with the thousands of new arrivals for the fall and winter season.

Buyers in many instances have made their season's trips to the northern markets and goods have already begun arriving. The bulk of the shipments will be here several days prior to the opening of the tobacco belt and will give the public opportunity of looking over the bargains and making their selections before the rush actually gets under way.

Lindbergh Confers With Pres. Hoover On Aviation Issues

Orange, Va., Aug. 16.—(AP)—The Lone Eagle of the skies, bearing fresh honors for his various achievements, rested today in the peaceful atmosphere of President Hoover's mountain retreat, engaging with the chief executive and federal aeronautic officials in a study of the government's aviation problems.

Col. Lindbergh, Mrs. Lindbergh and the four members of the junior cabinet in charge of flying activities for the War, Navy, Commerce and Post Office departments, were among the week-end guests of the President and Mrs. Hoover at the Rapidan river camp. The flier who yesterday received a special congressional medal at the hands of President Hoover, came to camp by motor with Mrs. Lindbergh and other guests directly after luncheon at the White House, preceding their host who was detained in the capital by late conferences.

The aviation officials came by air however, landing at a temporary flying field ten miles from camp, where the President's mail is delivered. Avoidance of duplication in the government's air activities was understood to be a subject of the conference. The President recently referred to the bureau of efficiency for study the controversial question of aerial, coast defense, a service claimed by both the army and the navy.

THREE DEATHS AND HEAVY CROP DAMAGE CLAIMED BY STORMS IN TWO STATES

(Continued from page one) or resigned automobiles were upset and women and children were swept from their feet by the violence of the flood which roared down the streets. Some power and telephone lines were out of commission and street cars were motionless in several inches of water. The flood swept into manholes with such violence that their covers were forced off and water rushed from them four and five feet into the air.

One and a half inches of rain fell in forty minutes and it was not for more than an hour after the rain had subsided that the city had resumed an appearance of normal activity.

Lightning struck several places in the center of the city. Destroyed a barn in Auburn and caused a fire in the West Boylston substation of the New England Power Company. One of the heaviest losers in the Westfield tobacco area was the American Sumatra Tobacco Corporation whose plantation lies toward Southwick. The company's 40 acres was reported ruined.

Says 15,000 Miners In Need of Help

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Fifteen thousand coal miners and their families were described to Governor Sampson today as in need of help as a result of the prolonged labor trouble in the western Kentucky coal fields.

Difference over wage scales and working conditions caused a shutdown last April 1 and the re-opening of some of the mines within recent weeks has been followed by a series of dynamitings that culminated last Monday night in an air plane raid on Webster county in which nine bombs were dropped.

Today a delegation said to include both workers and strikers, appealed to Governor Sampson for aid. Their spokesman, W. O. Smith, county attorney of Muhlenberg county, said:

"An intolerable and unprecedented condition exists. Thousands of men, women and children are actually starving. I fear that these unfortunate people may be overlooked on account of the national calamity brought about by the worst drought in history."

Masonic Notice. Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. will have a regular communication Monday night, August 18th, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served in the form of watermelon. Brother Henry C. Smith is furnishing the melons and will very member of the fraternity in this community to come out and help eat them.

Preliminary Hearing Tuesday. Charlotte, N. C.—(AP)—Preliminary hearing for Brown Fowler, 17, who claims he killed his father Thomas C. Fowler, because of his brutality to his mother, will be held Tuesday.

IT'S WISE TO CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record 2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And

To Test Scales of the City In The Next Week

C. D. Baucum, of the state department of weights and measures, who was in Greenville today, advised all tobacco warehousemen who have not had their scales serviced to get busy and do so within the next week. Mr. Baucum said that three inspectors would visit the city in the next few days to approve or condemn, as the case may be, all scales in the tobacco warehouses and stores of the city. He said it was of advantage to the warehousemen as well as the patrons to see that the scales are well serviced before the season begins.

Mr. Baucum also declared the law provides that any person having in his possession false weighing devices, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by fine, imprisonment or both.

After inspection of the warehouses, the inspectors will visit the stores and business houses. The stores, he said, should also be prepared for the inspection and provide themselves with standard weighing devices wherever possible.

Two Dozen Held In Liquor Cases At Durham

Durham, Aug. 16.—(AP)—This city's most spectacular whiskey raid today had 24 persons ensnared in the net of the law.

Eight federal prohibition agents and two deputy marshals staged a wholesale roundup yesterday, bringing before the United States commissioner 24 poor negroes and wealthy whites alike.

The arrests, agents said, were the result of several days of undercover work under the direction of H. V. Andrews, of Wilson.

All of the defendants waived preliminary hearings. Many of them were released on bonds while others were held in jail until friends or relatives could arrange their bail.

Federal court convenes here September 1 and the 24 will probably be tried at that time.

One Injured In Bomb Explosion

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—(AP)—One man was injured scores of windows were broken and an entire neighborhood was aroused early today by the explosion of two bombs in the basement of the Labor Institute, located near the center of the city.

Patients in the maternity department of the Pennsylvania hospital, immediately in the rear of the structure, were alarmed when awakened by the first explosion, but none was reported hurt.

The injured man, Aaron Feischer, 67, watchman, was hurled from his bed and cut and bruised. He could furnish police with no clue to the bombers or a possible motive for bombing the place.

The blasts wrecked the basement. Had they occurred two hours earlier they would have found hundreds of persons in the building's various auditoriums. At least six meetings were held there last night.

CUBS AGAIN WALLOP THE RED BREASTS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) If the Chicago Cubs are going to win the National League pennant again this season, the time is at hand for them to strike the deciding blows of the battle.

The Cubs are in a fine position today to settle the matter for once and for all, having scored a thorough triumph over the closest rivals, the Brooklyn Robins, by winning three of the four games of the series which ended yesterday.

By virtue of their 4 to 3 victory in yesterday's ten inning struggle which closed the series, the Cubs are out ahead by two full games.

Today they open a series with the comparatively easy Phillies which have games ahead before they tackle the New York Giants in a series which may become as important as the one just closed.

Brooklyn, meanwhile, moves on to tackle the somewhat tougher Pittsburgh Pirates with comparatively few hopes of regaining the lead in the near future.

The final struggle which put the Cubs into their commanding position was all that could be expected of two teams that were fighting for the top. From start to finish it provided one thrill after another for the overflow crowd of 45,000 and it ended in a blaze of glory for Danny Taylor, substitute outfielder, who broke up the struggle in the tenth inning with a drive into the crowd tanding in the outfield.

The New York Giants came up into a position menacing to either one of them by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 0, for their fifth victory in six games.

With the entire American League schedule washed out by the rain it remained for the elder circuit to apply all the day's baseball news.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh divided a hard fought double header. The Phillies took the first clash 7 to 5, as Fred Brickell, a former Pirate, wallopped two singles and a triple and scored three runs.

The St. Louis Cardinals picked up their winning streak where Boston broke it Thursday, defeating the Braves 8 to 4. Home runs by Hafey and Watkins featured the game.

SPORTS SLANTS

College football coaches, as a whole, are quite ready to let the non-scouting idea die a natural, but nevertheless speedy death. On the other hand, some warm advocates of the theory and practice remain among them. Dan McGugin of Vanderbilt.

Colonel Dan has suggested to all of Vandy's 1930 opponents that their games be played under a non-scouting rule, but it is questionable as to how many will accept the invitation.

A few years ago, non-scouting gained impetus, partially as a reaction to accusations of over-emphasis on the gridiron sport. Yale then under T. A. D. Jones as head coach, campaigned for it. Princeton fell in line.

So did Harvard with a reluctance that has since grown to dissatisfaction and abandonment of the policy, entirely. West Point likewise failed to share Yale's enthusiasm and has cast its vote unequivocally for organized scouting.

"Scouting is a legitimate part of the game," Major Ralph Irvine Sasse, Army's new head coach, told me in a discussion on the subject. "Why should we waste a lot of time in coaching when it can be saved and spent to better advantage by useful reports from our scouts? Information on opposing teams is bound to drift in anyway and will be much better based on an organized basis than otherwise."

Throughout the middle west the visiting scout is a guest of honor. Special space is reserved for him in a good section of the stands, usually in proximity to the press box. He is dined and entertained, made to feel welcome and in some cases furnished with charts to facilitate his observations.

There should be a limit, however, to this sort of hospitality. An enemy scout is still an enemy scout.

A discuss-tosser or hammer, thrower gets greater momentum, consequently greater distance into his heaves in proportion to the number of spins he makes before letting the missile go. Acting on this theory, Prof. Rockne will induce a "double spinner" play to the gridirons this fall, with the ball-carrier whirling twice, to gain momentum before he hits the opening.

All I have had is a hotel room demonstration of this departure, but on the basis of this preview, it looks good. Ralph Sasse, Army's head coach, has offered to send Rockne a set of castanets to disguise the ball-carrier as a Spanish tango artist.

Marietta College, Ohio, ambitious to take its place in intercollegiate rowing competition next year, has invited Washington to race there on the way East to Poughkeepsie. Ellis McDonald, former Washington captain and stroke, has coached inter-class crews in developing the sport at Marietta. He thinks Ohio State university may take up rowing to add midwestern rivalry and interest in a college sport confined largely for years to a handful of seaboard colleges.

Macon Set For Double-Header With Greenville

Charlotte, Aug. 16.—(AP)—In order to regain the coveted Sally league leadership position which they held to start the week, Macon must topple over Greenville in both ends of today's doubleheader.

In the second of the crucial week-end series, the Schepmeners triumphed 5 to 2 to mark it two in a row over the Maconists, and stretch their lead to a game and a half.

Earl Mettingly twirled remarkable ball for Macon, but his own wild throw in the eighth, followed by Howell's triple and Hudgen's single, coast him the game.

Pearce was on the mound for Greenville and surrendered nine hits, but his mates played errorless ball behind him and jumped at every opportunity offered by the enemy.

Frank Packard came through with the stick again as Asheville trimmed Augusta 7 to 6. In the ninth inning he singled to score Higgs from second with the victorious marker.

Augusta used three hurlers, while Chambers was going the distance for the Tourists.

Charlotte's Hornets got revenge on Columbia by ramming out a double victory. The scores were 12 to 4 and 7 to 5.

Brown coasted to victory in the curtain raiser behind the terrific hitting of the Insects, and in the nightcap Vaughn had things his way except in the closing frame.

Errors were the chief factors in the downfall of the Corners in each tilt. The club made a total of 10 in the two games.

Doubleheaders are scheduled around the circuit today, with Augusta engaging Asheville in an afternoon and night game.

Lipton Arrives In America for the Yacht Races

New York, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton came to America today for his fifth attempt to win the America's cup, announcing that if he failed this time he would "try again" as soon as possible.

In high good humor, the 81-year-old merchant and yachtsman at Quarantine onto the city tug Macon and brought up the bay with all the fanfare of a hero's welcome. It was Sir Thomas' sixth visit to the United States, but the first time he had been given official welcome.

As he phrased it when he was greeted by former Police Commissioner Grover Whalen, head of the mayor's reception committee, "this is the first time I have ever been taken off a ship by the police."

He expressed the opinion that in the Shamrock V he had a yacht capable of winning the emblem of international yachting supremacy. Recalling that the cup had been in this country for seven years, he said he thought it was about time that it went back to its native land.

After receiving the welcome of a crowd of several hundred at the Battery, Sir Thomas was taken to the Mid-Town hotel where he will rest for several days before going to Newport, R. I., scene of the racing course.

Sir Thomas appeared to be in good health, although he had been ill before starting the ocean trip. Charles Evans Hughes, Chief Justice of the United States, was a passenger with Sir Thomas on the Leviathan, but he did not board the Macon.
