PARTY HEADS WANT CONTROL OF THE HOUSE

Leaders to Assemble
At Capital This Week to Plan for Capturing Seats

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Washington, Aug. 18.—(AP)— Control of the House is the goal of national party leaders who are assembling here this week to launch the campaign for the November election.

In the election of House members the party pilots see the real test of enthusiasm in the country and the pulse of the Presidential campaign two years hence.

An overturn of administrations in the last quarter century always has been preceded by an upset of the party in power in the House in the off-year election. In 1910 the Democrats won the House and in 1912 elected a President. In 1918 the Republicans overthrew the Democrats in the House and in 1920 gained the Presidency and Congress.

Thus it is that around the campaigns for the House seats in the 48 states the Republican and Democratic leaders are focusing their attention as they line up forces this week for opening the election drive early next month.

In the contests for the 35 Senate seats at stake this year more national interest centers because of the better known figures involved in the races but control of the Senate in the next Congress is something about which neither party seems anxious.

As matters stand the Republicans are charged with responsibility for the Senate although the coalition of Democrats and Republican independents has been in a majority on such controversies as tariff and farm relief.

It is an open secret that both Republicans and Democrats would just as soon have the opposition responsible for the Senate.

The few remaining primaries to select the party nominees for the November race will be completed within the next few weeks and then the Republican and Democratic battles will be on in earnest.

Representatives Wood, Republican, Indiana, and Byrns, Democrat, Tennessee, the chairmen of the Congressional campaign committees get here this week. Senator trydings, of Maryland, chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, already has opened headquarters here and Senator Moses of New Hampshire, the chairman of the Republican senatorial committee, reaches the city in a few days for conferences with the new leaders of the party—Senator Fess, national chairman, and Robert Lucas, executive secretary.

Tuesday primaries will be held in Wyoming and Mississippi. Senator Pat Harrison is without opposition in Mississippi but in Wyoming the Republicans are in a free for all fight for the senatorial nomination. The death of Senator Warren left the opening in Wyoming and Senator Pat Sullivan, Republican, who was named to succeed him declined to run again.

ENDURANCE FLIERS DOWN AT ST. LOUIS

After completing the longest sustained flight in history, Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine were back to earth at St. Louis today. The flight covered 647 hours, 28 minutes and 30 seconds, 93 hours longer than the record set by the Hunter brothers at Chicago a few weeks ago.

FLIERS BACK TO EARTH AT SAINT LOUIS

Jackson and O'Brine Come Down After Remaining in Clouds
Over 600 Hours

St. Louis, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine were back to earth today after completing the longest sustained flight in history.

Conflicting versions of what brought the sturdy monoplane, the Greater St. Louis, back to ground were given by the fliers and their manager.

The pilots said they landed because of a break in the crankcase of the motor.

William Pickens, manager of Jackson and O'Brine, said they landed because of lack of financial returns.

The Greater St. Louis touched ground at Lambert-St. Louis Field at 6:39:30 a. m. (C. S. T.) yesterday after having spent 647 hours, 28 minutes and 30 seconds cruising over the field. They lacked but 31 1/2 minutes of having been aloft 27 days. Their new record exceeds that of John and Kenneth Hunter by 93 hours and 47 minutes, but lacks 352 hours, 31 minutes and 30 seconds of the fliers' goal of 1,000.

The end of the flight, the only come-back endurance flight on record, was abrupt and unexpected.
Between 2 and 3 a. m., mechanics heard the first break in the smooth song of the motor.

"She's missing," they said.
From then on until dawn the missing plane kept up and at 6:15 a. m. the fliers radioed that the crankcase was broken, two cylinders were missing and oil was spraying over the ship. Before a special police detail could arrive the plane began sweeping in wide circles and at 6:30:30 the record-breaking craft touched ground in a perfect three-point landing.

At the hotel where the airmen were taken, Pickens told reporters the fliers landed because "They have been saps not to. Jackson and O'Brine did not owe St. Louis anything. There was nothing to gain by continued flying. Why spend money keeping aloft?"

"Finances had nothing to do with it," both fliers said. "We would have paid for supplies to continue the flight ourselves had the motor

Cost of the flight, exclusive of investment in planes and equipment, was about $10,000 a week. The fliers earned $8,500 and have contracts to appear at state fairs which will net them $30,500, making a total of $39,000 to be divided between them and a percentage for Pickens.

CRIPPLED SHIP SINKS IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN

Passengers and Crew of British Ship Ventura Picked Up By American Vessel

Wellington, New Zealand, Aug.
18.—(AP)—Passengers and crew of the British steamer Tahiti, totalling 317 persons, abandoned ship before dawn today, and were taken safely aboard the American steamer Ventura which rushed from many miles away to answer the Tahiti's distress signals.

The Tahiti, filling rapidly with water from a leak where one of the propellers was torn away, did not remain afloat long. Passengers on board the vessel upon its departure from Wellington, numbered 175, the crew and officers 142.

Passengers were disembarked from the vessel first, five boats being launched safely with them despite a heavy swell and an approaching storm and the crew and officers were taken off later. The Penryn a Norwegian freighter bound for Auckland from Cuba, stood by to be of any possible aid in the dis-embarking. The Tahiti was bound from Sydney and Wellington for San Francisco.

A radio dispatch from the Ventura said that vessel arrived at the position of the Tahiti, one of the largest boats in this South Pacific service, just as a bulkhead began to give away and the passengers were taking to boats.

Five boats got away safely and the passengers were taken aboard the Ventura. Launching of the boats was not without danger, for although the weather was fair, a heavy swell was running. Officers believed the ship doomed. A storm was believed to be approaching.

The Penryn, Norwegian freighter, Cuba to Auckland, New Zealand, was the first to reach the Tahiti, which radioed it was in distress at a position about 460 miles off Rarotonga, Cook Islands metropolis.

Arriving Saturday evening, local time, it remained alongside until the Ventura arrived this forenoon.
Passengers were not taken aboard the Ventura immediately since officers of the two ships did not subject them to the limited accommodations of the freighter until it became necessary. The United States Shipping Board vessel Antinous also headed toward the Tahiti.

MEMORIAL IS DEDICATED TO VIRGINIA DARE

Gate Way Erected by Government Marks
Site Of Ill-Fated
Colony at Manteo

Manteo, N. C., Aug. 18.—(AP)— A memorial was dedicated here today to Virginia Dare, the first white child of English parentage born in the new world.

Virginia Dare was born seven days after Sir Walter Raleigh's little band of settlers set foot on Roanoke Island after a long voyage from England. Today marks the 343rd anniversary of her birth, on August 18, 1587.

The memorial, a gateway erected by the United States government, stands on the site of Sir Walter's ill-fated colony. It was not long after blue-eyed Virginia Dare was born that the little group of settlers mysteriously disappeared.
The only clue left was the word, "Croatan," carved in the bark of a tree. No trace was ever found of them. Croatan was the name of a friendly tribe of Indians.

Sharing Virginia Dare's honor today is Manteo, faithful Indian friend of the colonists. One of the pillars in the gateway is dedicated to him. Manteo, it is claimed, was the first person baptized in the new world, although the Episcopal church accepts the baptism of Virginia as the first ritual in the new world.

Dr. Archibald Henderson, author and professor at the University of North Carolina, was on the program to deliver the dedicatory address. His subject was "Virginia Dare." The memorial was to be presented by Capt. W. H. Kinder-vater, of the United States army reserve corps, who was in charge of its construction. Dorothy Pru-den, of Edenton, was to accept it on behalf of the Roanoke Colony Memorial Association.

Virginia Dare was the child of Eleanor Dare, wife of Annanias Dare, and daughter of John White, governor of the colony. Her birth was a great event in the life of the colonists. Virginia Dare and the story of the colony, known as the "Lost Colony" are subjects of much legend.

Dr. Henderson, in his address, declared that "the chronicle of the new world has its introduction with Raleigh's patent." In 1584 to search out and discover lands not inhabited by Christian people. Half of the present day population of this country, he said, exclusively or predominantly are British in blood.

"During Elizabeth's reign Spain laid claim to the new world but England challenged Spain's supremacy. The 'creative colonizing mind of the Elizabethan age was Sir Walter Raleigh.' Dr. Henderson said, as he described him as:
'Courteous and gallant, writer and thinker, soldier and sailor too.'"

"We celebrate here today the most momentous event in American history," Dr. Henderson said.
"The establishment of English civilization in America. That is a constricted view which would detect in the mysterious tragedy of the lost colony the failure of Raleigh's idealistic efforts to establish a permanent settlement here, the creative idea of planting England afresh in the western world—an idea given vital expression through Raleigh's efforts, at the cost of his fortune—lived to glorious fruition in the work of Sandys and the Virginia Company, in Jamestown, in Plymouth Rock, in the American colonies."

"Indeed we may, without doing violence to the essential truth of history, give credence to the view that the American nation derives in origin from the gallant, gracious and far-seeing Raleigh."

Dr. Henderson outlined in dramatic style the three efforts of Raleigh to colonize "Virginia," and mentioned Manteo and Virginia Dare.

"Of one thing we may be sure," he said in conclusion, "America owes a debt of lasting gratitude to great Raleigh, chief author and promulgator of the English colonizing movement."

FORD SAYS BUSINESS IS GETTING WELL.

In a copyrighted interview in yesterday's New York World, Henry Ford gives his viewpoint on the present business conditions and outlook by declaring that the county has been "saved from a great calamity of false prosperity," that it "has ceased being sick, is now well and will soon be strong and active again."

Mr. Ford points out the wild stock speculations of a year ago as a fever flush interpreted by many to mean prosperity but as a matter of fact the final flush that comes before nature places the patient flat upon his back in order that the process of recovery might begin. "Recovery from any kind of sickness is always a good thing, even if it is accomplished with considerable pain and inconvenience. But everybody is mistaking the recovery for the sickness," said Mr. Ford.

In such a statement we believe that Mr. Ford has pictured things as they really are and that our present seemingly hard times, especially in our own section of the country, will result in bigger and better things for us in the years to come.
While Pitt county and Eastern North Carolina might night have been stock-speculation sick we have been gambling just the same via the one-crop route depending entirely upon the proceeds from our money crop to purchase everything we needed even though we could have produced the great majority of those things right here at home.
Under the one-crop system, if everything went well and prices were high we got out all right, just the same as did the stock speculator if the market broke in his favor, but too often the cards fell the other way with the result that the people of our section have dug a hole financially that must be filled up by following a more common sense system of farming and living. No doubt the depression of this year in this section will prove a blessing in disguise because it has impressed upon some of our people the necessity of living at home, and as soon as this live-at-home movement spreads to every farm in our section and becomes a part of a fixed yearly program there is no doubt that our section will be on the road not only to better living but to financial independence, as well.

Mr. Ford is right. We have indeed been sick and it might truthfully be said that it is an illness that we have invited by our willingness to gamble in the hope of that day when we would make our killing, rather than follow the safe and sensible route to prosperity. More food and feed for home consumption and less cotton and tobacco on the farms of Eastern North Carolina is the only road to financial independence for the people of this agricultural section.

If the depression of the past several months has been sufficient for our people to learn this lesson, we are now, as Mr. Ford says, getting well and on the road to recovery.
If we have not yet learned our lesson we cannot hope to be much better off in the years to come.

ABOUT TOWN

Tobacco warehousemen and merchants should get their scales serviced during the next few days in order that they may pass inspection when the state inspectors appear in the city in the next few days.

Correct weight is very necessary in the business filed in order that the merchant may know that he is not cheating himself or his patrons.
There is a law providing a fine and imprisonment for violation of the regulations and business men should always be on the alert to see that their scales show the right weight.
Stores that use family scales are subjecting themselves to prosecution for in many instances these kind of scales do not give correct weight. Only standard weight such as those in use by the majority of merchants—should be in use as this insures the merchants and their patrons of getting every ounce coming to them all the time.

Improvements on the Greenville tobacco market will enable the handling of 1,700,000 pounds of tobacco every day this season, and the farmer that sells here may rest assured of being able to market his tobacco and get back home the same day.

"Block sales," which have made life miserable for the grower in past years, is almost a thing of the past on this market, and the grower who markets his tobacco with Greenville warehousemen is not only assured of best prices, quick service, but the best accommodations to be found on any market in this section of the country.

Greenville warehousemen are men of vision. They long ago saw the necessity for greater accommodations, and today the farmers are able to realize the best of service from the realization of that fact.
It takes vision and fair-mindedness to put across any great undertaking and in the growth of this market the public is able to see what this will accomplish.

Don't make the mistake of letting that child under sixteen years of age go whizzing down the street in that automobile of yours, Mr.
Citizen. The police are literally "setting" for such violations of the law and plan to prosecute all of those who are found guilty.

It is to be hoped the public will co-operate with the department in this respect and see what can be done to reduce the number of youthful drivers here. You may say that your child can drive an automobile just as good as anybody.
That may be so, but the law says that he "must not drive," and it is your duty to see that the law is obeyed. Only through observance of the laws of the land can the foundation of this great nation remain sound and durable, and it is to be hoped the thinking people will consider the fact and live up to the responsibility resting upon them as public-spirited citizens.

The action of the government in releasing several millions of dollars for road work in the sections affected by the drought no doubt will go a long way towards relieving the situation. In fact, the road building programs should provide employment for several thousand men who have been walking the streets without employment the last several months, putting money into their pockets, and enabling them to settle up accounts with merchants who have been extending them credit to keep the wolf away from the door.
It is probable that out of all the plans decided upon at the recent conference this one pertaining to the road building program will have a more far reaching effect. Given employment the average man will soon be able to provide for his family, and in doing this puts money in circulation among the merchants which makes conditions much easier for everybody.

With the approach of another harvest season, Pitt county people should bear in mind the importance

IN VERMONT MYSTERY CASE

George J. Packard of St. Albans, Vt., married Margaret L. Mac-Farland of Rutland (right) recently, almost a year after he identified the body of a suicide as that of his first wife. Now Mrs. Catherine Packard, the first wife, has reappeared and authorities are trying to solve the suicide mystery.

of settling old accounts and squaring themselves with merchants who have carried them through the long days of financial depression.

It matters not how hard hit a man may have been hit during the last several months he should not forget the obligation to the merchants when he gets a little money.
The merchant has his bills to pay just like anybody else, and if paid this year should be able to continue to render service to the people in the years to come.

A credit rating of all customers is being prepared by the Greenville Merchants Association and when this is completed the merchants will be able to determine how virtually every man in Pitt county pays his debts. If you pay promptly you should have no trouble in obtaining credit in the future, but if you are the kind that forgets your obligations, it will be difficult indeed for you to buy anything except on the cash basis.

Think this matter over and when you dispose of your crops go to the man who has credited you and pay him like the man that you are. Not only pay him but tell him you appreciate the courtesy he has extended you in letting you have his goods on credit.

Mr. Bamber is well known in Pitt county since he held the pastorate of the Eighth Street Christian church in Greenville for several years, and he is especially known and loved in Red Oak community, since he was with us last year in our meeting.

The song service will commence about 7:30 o'clock each night and all the Greenville people and friends of our church are given a cordial invitation to be present at these meetings. God has greatly blessed us and we should be glad of the opportunity to attend these meetings in his home.

Mrs. Ferdinand Stewart and two sons and Miss Elmer Pate, of New Bern, are visiting Mrs. F. L. Allen.

Dr. Ham Resigns As Director of Pitt Health Department

Dr. Clem Ham, director of the Pitt County Department of Health, has tendered his resignation to J. Paul Davenport, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and also the Board of Health, it became known today. The resignation was submitted last Tuesday and is to become effective thirty days from date, or at the pleasure of the board.

This is the second time within the last three months that Dr. Ham has resigned. His resignation was tendered several weeks ago when the personnel of the health department was reduced, but he was later re-elected to the same position.

Dr. Ham has been in charge of the department thirteen months. He came here from the South Carolina Department of Health, having seen considerable service in public health work in that state.

Although no definite plans had been arranged for future activities, Dr. Ham said he was contemplating doing general practice. No announcement as to the action of the Board of Health has been announced.

Superior Court Opens Here Today; Small Presiding

A two-week term of Pitt County Superior court, for the trial of civil and criminal cases, convened in Greenville this morning with Judge Walter Small, of Elizabeth City, presiding.

The first week's session will be devoted to the hearing of civil cases and the second to criminal.

The first case taken up this morning was that of The Farmville Oil & Fertilizer Co., against Mrs. Ella Smith, and others. The case involves suit resulting from a deed of trust executed by D. E. Smith, deceased, husband of the defendant. The case was expected to be one of the hardest fought of the term, owing to the many technicalities involved.

Military Unit Doing Splendidly At Fort Bragg

Mayor J. C. Lanier, captain of the local unit of North Carolina National Guard, who are in annual encampment at Fort Bragg, was on a short visit to Greenville yesterday and stated that his men were getting along splendidly.

He said the company went to camp with full strength of sixty-five men and that this enabled them to get by with less work than in past years. He said they had participated in two ball games and won both of them.

The company will move out to the rifle range Thursday and will remain there until Saturday. The boys will get some actual experience in field practice on the range, and gain a greater knowledge of the artillery service.

Captain Lanier said he believed the company would be able to establish a better record this year than ever before, and hoped they would return home with more laurels to their credit.

He said William S. Tyson, who was appointed to the vacancy created by the resignation of Sam Caron, second lieutenant, had passed the examination in camp and had received his commission. Several enlisted men of the company have passed on their work, and have been made non-commissioned officers.

Call Off Booster Meet at Bayview

Selma Centenarian Blind But Still Spry

Selma, Aug. 18.—(AP)—If he could see his bride, Dr. James C. Briggs, 107, would seriously consider treading the primrose path his feet have followed four times before.

Johnston county's oldest citizen was stricken suddenly blind a year ago on a visit to Tulsa, Okla. He now lives with his son, G. A. Briggs, disabled world war veteran, near Selma.

Born in New York in 1823, educated in northern colleges, Dr. Briggs served in the federal army during the civil war as a surgeon. After 63 years of active practice, he retired and was made head surgeon in the National Home, Johnston City, Tenn., a position he gave up in 1921.

Dr. Briggs was married four times. Twice he was divorced, and two wives died. His fourth wife, who died in 1909, was also his first, they having re-married after many years' separation.

The centenarian, weighing 210 pounds, six feet one inch tall and erect in bearing, has traveled widely in America and abroad. Numerous articles from his pen have appeared in medical journals. He maintains a keen appetite, drinks strong black coffee three times a day and smokes a ten-cent bag of tobacco every day.

Wife Murderer Given Life Term

Sebring, Fla., Aug. 18.—(AP)—William Raymond Carver, former Philadelphia real estate operator, convicted last May on a charge of first degree murder for the death of his wife, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by Circuit Judge W. J. Barker.

Carver, also under indictment for the hatchet slaying of his two-year-old son, Lee Townsend Carver, and the fatal shooting of Ben Whitehead, negro servant, has been held in jail here since his conviction last May on a charge of killing his wife. The triple slaying occurred at the Carver home on April 2 last.

Asked by Judge Barker if he had anything to say before sentence was imposed, Carver replied:

"Yes, sir. This sentence should not be pronounced. I swear before God and man that I am not guilty of this hideous crime."

"Well," replied the judge, "the jury was the one to consider that, and inasmuch as both the jury and the court have judged you guilty, the case now is out of the hands of this court."

New York Still Growing. New York's "ought to be a great city if it ever is finished. Thus far this year 1,598 buildings have been razed to make room for new ones, bridges, subways and the like."

ENGLISH GIRL FAVORED FOR U. S. TENNIS TITLE

After Mrs. Helen Willis Moody declined to defend her American tennis championship in the Forest Hills tournament beginning August 18, Betty Nuthall of England became the general favorite. American hopes are pinned on Mrs. Anna Harper of San Francisco, seeded No. 1, Marjorie Morrill of Dedham, Mass., and Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Mass.

Wild Oil Gusher Drives People From Home In Oklahoma

Oklahoma City, Aug. 18.—(AP)—A wild gusher in a residential section spouted a stream of oil and hissing gas today defying frantic efforts of workmen to abate the menace.

A score or more of families had quit their homes nearby as fumes settled about them. Fires of nearby drilling wells were extinguished as were other flames for blocks around.

A corps of firemen stood guard ready to fight a blaze should a spark ignite the gas and oil spray which hovered for hundreds of feet above the well. Streets leading to the gusher, were closed.

An approaching electrical storm forecast by weather observers added to the anxiety of experts attempting to cope with the wild well, the C. C. Julian No. 2 gusher.

Cement poured into the well last night was blown skyward by the tremendous gas pressure and oil company officials sought other methods of control today.

The well went wild yesterday when a break developed below the cellar as the gusher was shut in after flowing twenty-four hours. Experts expressed the belief that the gas was coming from far below the surface. The master gates were opened in an effort to relieve the pressure.

Unlike the Wild Mary Sudik, which sprayed oil for miles around, the fumes were sending fuel from the cellar and the fumes hovered close to the ground, increasing fire hazard, and menacing nearby wells.

Says Bad Scales Proving Costly to People of State

Raleigh, Aug. 18.—(AP)—C. D. Baucum, state inspector of weights and measurements, said here today that incorrect quantities being taken by unscrupulous buyers are costing North Carolinians thousands of dollars daily.

"Bad scales, faulty measures, failure to watch the scales to see if they are getting what they are paying for, the failure to count change after making a purchase," constitute the common faults leading to this drain on the public, Mr. Baucum said.

Inspector Baucum has just returned from a trip through the tobacco belt where he inspected warehouse scales to insure their accuracy.

Two More Arrests In Mine Bombing

Providence, Ky., Aug. 18.—(AP)—Two more arrests in connection with the airplane raid on western Kentucky coal fields were announced here today, bringing the total to eight.

Carol Vaughn, 23, and Angus Merritt, 25, the latest to be arrested, were placed in jail here in default of $500 bail each. They were charged with banding and confederating for the purpose of intimidating and shooting from ambush.

The arrest of Vaughn and Merritt was said to have resulted from a woman telling authorities that she saw Montgomery and several coal miners at the municipal airport at Evansville, Ind., in conference about three weeks ago.

Date Not Fixed for Smith Murder Case

Whiteville, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The date for the trial of four men charged with murder of Deputy Sheriff Hoke Smith, in Columbus County Superior court had not been fixed early this afternoon.

Solicitor Woodus Kellum, of Wilmington, said today he was ready for the trial of the quartet—Woodell Millican, Beaufort Blvd., Sam Thompson and Sam Lineberry—and would proceed as soon as defense attorneys were ready.

Court convened this morning with Judge F. A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, presiding.

Smith was fatally wounded last December, allegedly in retaliation for a raid he led upon a still. He was called from his home by four men, three of whom then seized and held him while a fourth emptied a revolver into his body.

Say King Carol Plans to Marry Madam Lupescu

Vienna, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Rumors in Vienna said today they understood that King Carol, in the event he fails at reconciliation with his wife, Queen Helen, is planning a morganatic marriage with Mme. Magda Lupescu, red haired woman for whom he once renounced his throne.

Their information was based upon the word of a foreign diplomat who recently passed through Vienna from Bucharest, who said he shared the convictions of the king's entourage that the breach between Carol and Helen was widening.

Queen Helen, he asserted, would be too proud, not to say religious, to be contented to lead a merely shadowy existence as queen while a rival held the affections of the king and really wielded the regal powers in the land.

According to the diplomat, Carol is temporizing on the matter of coronation and brought its postponement from October 15 to next spring, because of misgivings as to how the nation and especially the army will take the news that he is planning a morganatic marriage with Mme. Lupescu.

Rain Brings Relief to Drought Sections

Chicago, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Millions of dollars fell over central America yesterday in the form of widespread rains.

Fairly general precipitation, added to the scattered showers of the last few days, brought much needed relief to many drought-stricken areas, freshening up pastures and giving corn a few leaves on life.

Southern Illinois and Indiana, numbered among the acutely stricken areas in the government drought survey, received soaking rains in most sections. Those crops that had not been completely burned out were considered to have a good chance for recovery.

The week-end was kind to the corn belt farther west, also. More than an inch of rainfall in the last few days at Valerine, Neb., Kearney, Ia., and Fort Dodge, Ia. Substantial showers were reported in most of the two states.

The withering tobacco crop of southern Wisconsin, the corn, late wheat and potato fields of Minnesota and the Dakotas, all benefited to an extent not easily estimated.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Cotton opened easy today at a decline of 17 to 23 points under a renewal of the recent selling movement which found further encouragement in the weakness of Liverpool and report of showers and rains in some sections of the central and western belts.

Trading was active with the decline extending to 11.10 for the new October and 11.57 for March contracts right after the call, making net losses of 24 to 26 points on the active positions. The decline brought in some buying for the trade and covering but prices on the active months were within 3 or 4 points of the lowest at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cable advised said the decline there was due to hedging and general liquidation with the execution of stop orders and reported that Egyptian cotton was depressed owing to weakness in Alexandria.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Big arrivals of newly harvested spring wheat at Minneapolis did a good deal today to promote selling of future deliveries here, and to send prices down. Arrivals at Minneapolis totaled 1,250 cars and the market effect was augmented by announcement of 8,519,000 bushels. Increase of the United States wheat visible supply for last week. Attention was also given to reports that no arrangements have yet been completed for bank financing of the Canadian growers' holdings of the 1930 wheat crop.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Prices broke rather sharply under moderate selling pressure in the stock market today, many prominent issues tumbling 2 to more than 4 points, but the bear faction again found the market pretty thoroughly sold out, and were unable to shake loose any landslide of general liquidation. In fact, some bull points bought on the way down. A moderate rally appeared during the morning, and again in the early afternoon.

Shares losing 3 to 4 points included Radio, American Telephone, DuPont, Air Reduction, Eastman, Northern Pacific, Westinghouse, Radio preferred B, and Byers. Baltimore and Ohio broke below 100 with a 3-point loss, and Columbia Gasphonone declined as much to a new low close to 12. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, American Can, North American, Consolidated Gas, Sears Roebuck and Fox Film were among issues selling off 2 or more. Rallies of 1 to 3 points from the bottom level were numerous, canceling several losses. There were a few firm spots. Ingersoll Rand, a wide mover, shot up 10 in a few sales, and Missouri Pacific, Woolworth, United Aircraft and First National were firm. American Can also turned firm.

Trading was still of a highly professional character, largely to the account of floor traders, and during the morning the turnover was only about two-thirds of that of Saturday's half day session.

Brokerage house gossip heard last Friday and Saturday that a prominent statistician would issue bullish recommendations over the week-end proved to have been somewhat misguided, as such gossip often has been in the past. This statistician, in common with statistical services generally, thought that selected stocks should be bought at these levels for long term holding, but warned of the prospect of intermediate reactions. There was little tendency in the Monday advices of any of the statistical services to urge any rapid or immediate accumulation of stocks.

While floor traders who normally act for the market sponsors of Radio Corp. common took large blocks of the stock as descending levels, this issue proved the choice of the bears as a focal point for their activity.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

Not in years has any sporting venture gone forth from Britain's shores with the sentimental interest attached thereto or the wholehearted wishes expressed for its success that have marked the voyage of the good ship Shamrock V to challenge for the America's Cup.

"No one can foresee what will be the result, but hopes run high and it is thought that there never was a better chance of winning the America's Cup. The Shamrock V is the fifth of the family and it is just over thirty years since Sir Thomas Lipton built his first challenger. Fortune has never been too kind to him in his attempts to win the America's Cup. It may be his turn this year. All wish him well in this adventure which he is about to make in his eighty-first year and hope that he may bring home the Cup at long last."

Discussing the technical aspects of the big yacht race, the first since 1920 for the America's Cup, one of Britain's expert observers writes: "If it should turn out that the American defender and the challenger are nearly equal in speed, the result of the race will depend largely upon seamanship and what the Americans describe as the judgment of the 'after guard.' That is to say, the tactical maneuvering."

"We may be quite sure that the Americans will produce a highly efficient skipper to steer their boat and that he will have the support of a most skillful tactician at his elbow. Those in charge of Shamrock V should not be content until they can handle her at the start of a race as well as old Captain Sycamore did the famous 23-metre Shamrock II."

Speaking, or rather writing of open championships, golf courses and puts (in the ROTARIAN) Bobby Jones remarks: "Then mental attitude in which we approach short puts has a lot to do with our success. When we walk up to a putt of ten or fifteen feet, we are usually intent upon holing it. We know we shan't feel badly if we miss, so our entire attitude is devoted to the problem of getting the ball into the hole."

"But it is quite different when the putt is only a yard long. Then we know that we ought to hole it easily and yet we cannot fail to recognize the possibility of a miss. Instead of being determined to put the ball into the hole, we become consumed with the fear of failure. Our determination, if we may call it such, is negative. We are trying not to miss the putt, rather than trying to hole it."

"Pine Valley and Oakmont I regard as two of the finest examples of the American course," Jones writes. "To illustrate what I mean—a man could go around Pine Valley playing every long shot perfectly and putting carefully in, say 70 strokes. He might play just as well at St. Andrews (Scotland) and take 72 or 73. Yet, he might hit a few shots off line at Pine Valley and increase his score ten strokes or more, whereas at St. Andrews these few mistakes might cost him nothing. American courses are easier to play in low figures but the good ones are likewise easier to play in high scores."

GIANTS CLIMB INTO PENNANT FIGHT AGAIN

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer Noted for their strong finishes, the New York Giants have climbed into the National league pennant race.

The Giants were a half game behind the second place Brooklyn Robins and only three games behind the league-leading Chicago Cubs after Saturday's games. The Giants won 22 out of 32 games in the last month.

They extended their straight winning streak to five games in the first half of yesterday's twin bill by pounding Wild Bill Hallahan of the Cards and three successors for 17 hits and a 12 to 4 victory. A seven run rally in the sixth settled the matter. Burleigh Grimes turned the tables in the second game and the Cards won 14 to 4.

Chicago and Brooklyn turned in single victories to gain a half game on the Giants and continue their race 21-2 games apart. The Cubs had difficulty with the humble Phillies but took advantage of their one opportunity when Earl Collier developed a streak of wildness in the eighth. The Cubs then scored two runs to win, 5 to 4. The loss of Charley Grimm, injured Saturday, did not prove serious as Lester Bell filled in with three hits in three times at bat and drove in two tallies.

The Robins played a home game against Pittsburgh and sent out Dazzy Vance to entertain the Flatbush fans. He faced nine and won an eight-hit shutout.

Aetoes supplied Cincinnati's fans with enough thrills for a world series in a double-header between two clubs buried deep in the second division. The Braves barely edged out a 4 to 3 victory in the first game, then went 13 innings in the nightcap to win, 9 to 8, as 37 players, eleven of them pitchers, strove for a victory.

Washington's attempt to overhaul the Philadelphia Athletics in the American league pennant chase was halted yesterday after the Senators had taken six straight games. Detroit's Tigers staged an uprising in the first two innings and scored eleven runs to win by a 15 to 1 count.

Gabe Ruth and Charley Ruffing gave the New York Yankees a teninning victory over the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 7, in the first half of a double bill, but the Sox came back behind Red Faber's pitching to win, 6 to 1, in a second game which was stopped by rain after five innings. Ruth clouted his 44th home run in the seventh inning to tie the score, then made the winning run in the tenth on Ruffing's pinch single.
