LIGHT SALES REPORTED ON LEAF MARTS

Small Sales and Poor Averages Reported From Various Markets In State

The Greenville tobacco market established a general average of $7.92 per hundred pounds of tobacco during the first week of the season, according to official figures released for publication yesterday afternoon. The report showed that the market disposed of a total amount of 1,657,222 pounds for $131,319.30. The opening day last year the market set an average of $11.85 per hundred pounds. Records also reveal that for the opening week last season the market handled 2,360,866 pounds of tobacco at an average of $11.84. When the market closed for the week yesterday prices for good tobacco were described as much better than the first of the week. In fact, the market showed a decidedly better tone than any day since the opening, and this was expected to continue when sales are resumed next Monday.

Raleigh, Sept. 6. — (AP) — The lightest sales and the lowest average price the new bright leaf has known for an opening week in many years was indicated today as eastern North Carolina warehousemen checked the results of the past week's auction sales of tobacco.

Wilson, largest of the markets, which last year sold more than a million pounds of tobacco on the opening day of the market had sales of only 1,468,892 pounds for the week. It brought $125,755.39, an average of 8.57 cents a pound. Last year's average at Wilson was 20.45 cents a pound.

Kinston's sales topped those of Wilson by approximately 4,000 pounds, a total of 1,472,756 going under the auctioneer's hammer there and bringing an average of 7.46 cents a pound.

An average of 7.24 cents a pound was established at Goldsboro where $842,412 pounds were sold. Rocky Mount's sales were 377,942 pounds at an 8.16 cents average. New Bern's were 130,552 at 9.01.

Plan One-Third Reduction For Cotton Acreage

St. Matthews, S. C., Sept. 6. — (AP) — Plans for a one-third reduction of the cotton acreage in the south in 1931 were announced here today by J. Skottowe Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Association.

Efforts will be made, Wannamaker said, to divert fifteen million acres from cotton production to the production of feed crops. Farmers will be asked to pledge to hold this year's crop until next season in an effort to boost the price. "Cotton is selling today far below the cost of production," Wannamaker said. "Every reputable authority confirms our records that the cost of production of the present cotton crop is 16.50 cents per pound middling. This means a loss to the south of $50,000,000 if the cotton crop is sold at prices now prevailing."

A south-wide meeting will be called at New Orleans November 4, he said, to be attended by farmers, landowners and others interested in the movement.

If a sufficient number of pledges to secure the success of the movement have not been secured at that time, Wannamaker said, "necessary steps will be taken at this convention."

The reduction campaign planned, he said, will follow along the lines of that of 1921.

"When the south was prostrated face to face with financial ruin in 1921," he said, "the cotton acreage was reduced to 31,678,000 acres and the price advanced from 10 to 30 cents in 1922 and to 37 cents in 1923."

Leviathan Rams Two Barges But Is Not Damaged

New York, Sept. 6. — (AP) — The liner Leviathan, swinging out of her course by a strong tide, rammed two barges in the Hudson river as she departed for Europe today with 238 passengers. The liner was undamaged and continued to sea.

One of the barges, fouled by the port anchor of the liner, was damaged several hundred feet down dragged several hundred feet down the river, overturned and sunk. Three men leaped to safety from the two barges, owned by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

High Point, N. C. — (AP) — High wind struck a small area near here, blocking highway No. 1 with trees, blowing a house from its foundation, unroofing others and injuring two persons slightly.

Argentine Navy Reported To Have Joined The Army Mutiny Against President

Martial Law Invoked Today As New President, Dr. Martinez, Entrenches Himself In the Vacancy Created by Hipolito Irigoyen, Argentina's Man of Mystery

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Sept. 6. — (AP) — The Argentine Navy, with ships lying in Buenos Aires harbor, today joined the army mutiny against the regime of Hipolito Irigoyen, who last night delegated his presidential powers to Vice-President Martinez.

Admiral Storni, commanding a squadron of warships in the port, today sent a note to the government, announcing that the navy would fire no shots against their colleagues of the army led by General Jose Evaristo Uriburu. The note was signed by all officers of the squadron. The entire navy, 7,000 officers and men, is said to have gone over to the movement against Irigoyen.

At 10:30 A. M. (9:30 A. M. EST) twelve airplanes from El Palomar, including three bombers, flew over Buenos Aires. After circling over the capital they returned to El Palomar. The planes carried machine guns.

Another airplane appeared about an hour later, disappearing quickly. The cadets and staff of the military college at San Martin are said to have trained for the capital.

The garrison at Campo de Mayo, including an artillery regiment, is reported to have entrained, but the trains have not left for the capital.

Buenos Aires is nervous but outwardly tranquil. Probably four-fifths of the populace is completely in the dark about the significance of today's developments so fast have events moved.

The first death in the army was reported from the suburban garrison of El Palomar. Lieut. Col. Francisco Torres, of the air service, was shot and killed by his fellow officers for refusing to join the movement.

The first cavalry regiment at Campo de Mayo at first refused to join General Uriburu but under threats of attack gave way in half an hour.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 6. — (AP) — Martial law was invoked today as the new President, Dr. Enrique Martinez, entrenched himself in the place vacated by Hipolito Irigoyen, the Argentine's man of mystery.

Public assembly was prohibited and Buenos Aires, with its population of nearly 2,000,000, was placed in the hands of the military. A rigid censorship was established in outgoing cablegrams.

ORDERS SAME SALARIES FOR ENGINEERS

Secretary Hurley to Probe Charges of Reduction of Wages On River Projects

Aboard Army Engineers Mississippi River Boat General Allen, near St. Louis, Sept. 6. — (AP) — Maintenance of the present level of wages for laborers on army engineering projects for the remainder of the fiscal year was ordered today by Secretary of War Hurley.

Simultaneously the war secretary directed Colonel George P. Spaulding, division engineer in charge of the upper Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri river projects to investigate charges that contractor's were cutting wages on contract work before the present deflation set in.

These two decisions were made by Secretary Hurley before landing at St. Louis to complete the first lap of his inspection trip down the Mississippi.

The order relating to the maintenance of the present standard of wages on work which the government is doing itself will remain in force until June 30, 1931. It was addressed to the acting chief of engineers, Brig. Gen. George B. Pillsbury, at Washington. After a conference between the secretary and General Lytel Brown, chief of army engineers, and Col. Spaulding aboard the General Allen. The order was handed to General Brown for forwarding to Washington.

General Brown said the order would affect many thousands of laborers on government work directed by engineers in all parts of the country, and particularly along the Mississippi and its tributaries.

While the secretary declined to comment on the reports reaching him the contractors had cut wages on old contracts pending Col. Spaulding's report, it was understood Hurley's action was based on the appeal recently by President Hoover at his conference with industrialists not to cut wages of workers. The attitude of the secretary is that the maintenance of wages for workers now employed is a highly important part of the President's plan to relieve the temporary deflation.

IVEY SPEAKS AT B. Y. P. U. CONFERENCE

State Secretary Delivers Principal Address At Meeting of Leaders Here

A conference of the leaders of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union of the Roanoke Baptist Association was held at Memorial Baptist church in this city last night. About 75 members of the organization were in attendance, and enjoyed a program dealing with future activities throughout the union. Supper was served at the Woman's club.

The principal address was delivered by Rev. James A. Ivey, state B. Y. P. U. Secretary, who spoke on the subject, "Wonders of B. Y. P. U. Growth." He traced the history of the organization and showed that each year had witnessed splendid development in virtually every part of the country. From an organization of 50 units in 1914 he said growth has continued until there are 2,500 such units today with a total membership of over 55,000.

He urged his hearers to use their influence to see that this growth is continued in future years. The opportunity for development is as great today as it has ever been, he declared, and every member should be up and doing, striving to accomplish something of an outstanding nature.

Rev. Charles B. Howard, state president of B. Y. P. U., was scheduled to attend the meeting, but he failed to make his appearance, and his part on the program was given over to other work.

The opening session at 7 o'clock was confined to delegates only. At 8 o'clock a departmental conference was held in which many interesting phases of the work were outlined. The main address came at 9 o'clock. The following leaders were present to take part in the conferences:

Rev. James A. Ivey, State B. Y. P. U. secretary; Miss Winnie R. Cole, State Junior-Intermediate secretary; Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Mr. John Coley, president of the Eastern District B. Y. P. U.; Rev. R. N. Childers, president of the Roanoke Association B. Y. P. U.

Other markets reported slightly improved prices, while still others fell off a shade. Tobacco's nine cents average for 30,000 pounds and the same average for 120,000 pounds at Rocky Mount were among the best. New Bern sold 30,500 pounds at an average of 8.87, although the weekly average there is 9.01 cents a pound. Enfield reported an average of 7 cents.

FRENCH FLIERS BEGIN FLIGHT TO CINCINNATI

Coste and Bellonte Given Rousing Welcome to the City of Louisville

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6. — (AP) — The Question Mark, carrying Captain Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte on the second leg of their return trip to New York from their Paris-New York-Dallas flight, took off from Bowman air field here at 7:38 a. m. (SCT) today and headed in the direction of Cincinnati.

The engine of the scarlet craft started at the second turn of the propeller and the ship got under way without difficulty.

The fliers planned to circle the United States Military Academy at West Point and drop small American flags before going on to land at Curtiss Field, Long Island. They said they also would circle over Manhattan and drop flags.

The French fliers went to sleep last night with at least one noteworthy remembrance of their reception in Louisville. They had been kissed by four Kentucky belles. When they climbed from their Sequi plane Question Mark at Bowman field, the four young women kissed each flier on both cheeks and presented each with a bouquet of dahlias.

The greeters were Misses Mary Ann Barnes, Virginia Wathen and Josephine Bowman, and Mrs. D. W. Fairleigh. The young women then formed a guard of honor while Mayor William B. Harrison escorted the aviators through a crowd of 6,000 to a microphone. After brief radio greetings, the aviators headed an automobile parade through the streets lined with cheering throngs to their hotel.

Dinner was served to the fliers in their hotel room, and they retired early, stating their intention of sleeping late and obtaining a well-deserved rest after spending the ocean and capturing the $25,000 Easterwood purse by promptly crossing the continent to Dallas.

Paris, Sept. 6. — (AP) — The cabinet today officially honored Capt. Dieudonne Coste and his flying mate Maurice Bellonte and the weather bureau expert who spent months working out the trans-Atlantic weather problem, by approving their promotion in the Legion of Honor. The Legion council was to meet later and adopt the nominations.

Coste will be made a commander. Bellonte will be raised to officer and Meteorologist. Visat will be given the initial rank of chevalier.

Madame Coste and Madame Bellonte were made life members of the International League of Aviators at a reception last night, when President Clifford B. Harmon presented trophies awarded Coste for his various flights last year.

Begin Plans for Organization Leaf Growers of N. C.

Goldsboro, Sept. 6. — (AP) — Tobacco growers in 14 eastern North Carolina counties today were looking upon potential members of a cooperative marketing association that may be formed in an effort to boost need prices in the near future.

Preliminary steps to form an association were discussed here yesterday by W. S. Green, Federal Farm Board representative, who told growers the board could not aid them unless they were organized.

A series of educational meetings to be held in other counties was planned as the first step in building sentiment in favor of a cooperative plan. Farmers here appeared pleased with the idea.

Meetings are to be held in Wilson, Johnston, Duplin, Greene, Lenoir, Onslow, Pamlico, Jones, Pitt, Harnett, Craven, Pender and Halifax counties in order to explain the workings of cooperatives.

Meanwhile, tobacco prices continued at an average of seven to nine cents, depending upon the quality offered on the belt's eighteen markets.

The market here dropped to an average of 6.54 cents a pound and 146,644 pounds were bid in at this figure.

Other markets reported slightly improved prices, while still others fell off a shade. Tobacco's nine cents average for 30,000 pounds and the same average for 120,000 pounds at Rocky Mount were among the best. New Bern sold 30,500 pounds at an average of 8.87, although the weekly average there is 9.01 cents a pound. Enfield reported an average of 7 cents.

Scenes Of Horror Exist In Storm-Stricken City; Speed Rescue Activities

COSTE STARTING DALLAS HOP

Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte just before they took off from New York for Dallas, Texas, final leg of their record flight.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 persons now believed dead as a result of hurricane which swept Santo Domingo; List of Injured Reaches Five Thousand; Thirty Thousand Homeless; Only 400 of 10,000 Buildings Left Standing; Property Damage Will Pass the $20,000,000 Mark

(Copyright, 1930. All Rights Reserved by Associated Press) Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Sept. 6. — (AP) — The number of dead in the hurricane disaster this afternoon, were placed at not less than 4,000 by Dr. Anotom Calderon, charged by President Rafael Trujillo with the direction of the sanitary service.

Santo Domingo, Sept. 6. — (AP) — Relief agencies speeding to the assistance of this stricken city today encountered conditions of horror which have been accentuated rather than mitigated since the storm Wednesday.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 persons, it is estimated now, died in the hurricane which swept Santo Domingo, cradle of the white race in the new world. More than 5,000 were injured. Thirty thousand are homeless and 400 of 10,000 buildings are left standing. Property damage will pass $20,000,000.

A United States Marine Corps officer who flew over from Port-Au-Prince commented: "It is as if a giant hand had smeared the town down like a toy and then had stirred the pieces with a stick."

"There is no water fit to drink. The water works are demolished, the river is a sea of mud and the dead are still uncounted."

"Floods have washed out the newly buried dead in the cemeteries and coffins float around like corks. The dead are being collected in mounds and heaps and trenches and are being burned above ground."

"Ever at a distance of ten miles and at an altitude of 4,000 feet in the air it was apparent bodies were being burned. When we landed we could see wags pass by loaded with dead. The driver would shout and curse and cry, 'more dead, more dead.'"

"Nine out of every ten trees are down and the tops of the few left standing have been cut off as if by a great knife. The Ozama river is out of its banks north and east of the city and those sections are completely trampled."

"Men and women appear with little or no clothes on. There is almost no clothing to be had and children and older people make out as best they can. The people appear to be in a daze and almost hysterical."

While the landing field here has been cleared sufficiently to permit landing of relief planes from Port-Au-Prince, Havana, the United States and Porto Rico, the landing of ships is not so simple. The Ozama river is a raging torrent pouring out over a bar at its entrance which effectively blocks what was the old harbor. One authority said he did not believe even a navy tug could cross the bar.

The suggestion has been made and it appears plausible that the relief ships may disembark their cargoes and men at San Geronimo, four kilometers, south of the capital, where there is a good beach. Some supplies, food, medicines and even shelters, have already arrived here by airplanes which also brought doctors for treatment of the sick and injured, and it is understood others are enroute here aboard ships from Porto Rico, one of which is the naval tug Grebe, due today.

The president stopped food porting yesterday with an order that all food was to be sold at cost, under pain of court martial. He also called physicians serving the ill and injured together at the fortress and designated place in the city which they might have for first aid stations.

Among the few buildings left standing in the city by the wind, which attained a velocity of 180 miles an hour, were the 400-year-old cathedral and other old Spanish buildings. The reputed tomb of Columbus inside the cathedral also was not touched.

TELLS OF PLAN FOR CANNING FACTORY HERE

Kiwanians Also Hear of Campaign for the Preservation of Shade Trees

Greenville is virtually assured of the establishment of a canning factory sometime in the future. J. J. White, secretary of the Home Building & Loan Association, told the members of the Greenville Kiwanis club in regular twice-a-month session at the Rotary building last night.

The speaker gave a graphic description of a recent trip to the eastern shore of Maryland where he visited some of the largest canning factories in the country.

He said that while there he had the opportunity of conferring with officials of the United States Chamber of Commerce and heads of some of the canning factories. These men, he said, displayed active interest in the possibilities for the industry in Eastern Carolina, and one of them will visit Greenville in the near future to see what can be done in connection with establishment of a canner in Greenville.

Mr. White said he was astounded at the mass of information about Eastern Carolina which these men had at their finger tips. "Why they knew more than I knew myself," he declared, "yet exhibited great interest in what I had to say about the resources of this particular locality."

He said that a canning plant had been erected at Plymouth sometime ago, and at this time its payroll was proving of invaluable aid to the economic life of the community. In fact, prominent business men from Plymouth stated that the plant was the salvation of the community in that its payroll had had a tendency of relieving depression.

Another speaker was on the program last night. He was Dr. R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers College. His subject was "Shade Trees," and he brought out many high lights in connection with the tree life of Greenville and the college campus. He related several interesting incidents in connection with some of the trees at the college, and showed that care is absolutely essential to the development of his kind of plant life as well as all others.

Dr. Wright pointed out the value of shade trees to a community, and said he hoped the people of Greenville would exhibit more interest in this important matter in the future. He urged the planting of more trees and the conservation of those already on hand. He said attention to trees was a matter of habit. The American people for generations have paid little attention to their trees, and this habit is evident today as it has been before. He stressed the hope that people generally might give more attention to tree development in the future.

WORLD COTTON CONSUMPTION SHOWS DROP

Washington, Sept. 6. — (AP) — World mill consumption of cotton of all growths for the year ended July 31, 1930, was 25,209,000 running bales as compared with 25,882,000 for the previous corresponding year the Department of Agriculture announced today.

Total mill consumption of American cotton for the season 1929-30 was given as 13,023,000 running bales against 15,076,000 bales the previous season, a decrease of 13.6 per cent. Consumption of American cotton in the United States during the 1929-30 season was reported as 14.3 per cent below the previous season.

World mill stocks of all growths of cotton on July 31, 1930, was reported to total 4,498,000 running bales as compared with 4,883,000 running bales on the same date in 1929, a decrease of 7.5 per cent. World stocks of American cotton were given as 1,885,000 running bales on July 31, 1929, a decrease of 6.8 per cent.

Stocks of American cotton in United States mills on July 31, this year, were set at 1,048,000 running bales, as compared with 992,000 bales last year.

A preliminary estimate on wool shown in the United States this year placed the total at 328,000,000 pounds, or 5 percent more than in 1929. Present indications were said to point to a world wool clip exclusive of Russia and China, no reduction different from that of last year, although a small reduction is expected in the Australian clip.

Another speaker was on the program last night. He was Dr. R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers College. His subject was "Shade Trees," and he brought out many high lights in connection with the tree life of Greenville and the college campus. Injunction Will Keep Preacher From His Pulpit

Cleveland, Sept. 6. — (AP) — A temporary injunction will keep the Rev. Roy E. DePriest, from the pulpit of St. John's Episcopal church one of Cleveland's oldest houses of worship, for the next two Sundays.

Attorneys for the vestry obtained the injunction last night as the result of differences between the rector and the vestry over a proposed salary cut.

Rev. DePriest, vestry attorney said, walked out of a meeting July 24 when it was proposed that his salary be reduced from $3,600 to $2,400 annually along with other decreases in the church budget.

The rector submitted a verbal resignation at that time, the vestry retends.

Rev. DePriest denied that he had resigned, but said he left the meeting in "righteous indignation" when the salary decrease was proposed, "after all the hard work I have done for the church."

ABOUT TOWN

Members of the Board of Aldermen congratulated members of the street committee on the improvement to the various streets during the month. This was praise well placed. The street committee has done some mighty fine work the last several weeks in patching rough places in streets and sidewalks and curbing.

In addition the committee has also seen to it that traffic signs were placed at corners where traffic is the heaviest. Corners in the business district have also been marked off, eliminating "cut-in" turns, and showing drivers which way they are expected to go. The regulation of traffic is one of the most important things in the life of the city, and signs such as those put down by the committee should play an important part in speeding up transportation.

Tobacco may be selling low but that is no reason for a person not smiling, declared a well-known business man today.

"A smile does more to make business pick up than any other thing in the world and it is to be hoped that Greenville people will not forget the importance of smiling in the long months to come. Optimism is what every community needs at this time, and it is up to the men and women at the head of the big enterprises to begin smiling themselves and in that way induce others to follow their example."

The county has paid off its employees and everything seems to be looking up around the courthouse at this time.

The boys were rather hard hit when the payroll failed to show up last month, but now that checks have been passed around—everybody is smiling and doing his best to forget one of the most embarrassing situations in the history of the county.

The county needed the money derived from the note sale to relieve the shortage caused by uncollected taxes held up in tax suits, and now that it has it things ought to move normally until the suits have been completed and more money comes rolling into the treasury.

Farmers who have been taking the live-at-home talk lightly will begin to give the plan more serious attention now that they have been treated to another dose of low prices for tobacco and cotton.

It has been proved conclusively that the farmer cannot put all his faith in one or two money crops and that he must raise more of the things he consumes at home if he plans to live comfortably.

One of the greatest live-at-home experiments ever tried out in the state is in progress on the state demonstration farm between this city and Bethel, and the planters of this section should visit the place and see what is being accomplished. They should be able to get some mighty fine ideas about what kind of crops to plant at different seasons of the year, and this should enable them to keep something for home consumption all the year around.

Diversification is the big word in this part of the country at this time and the farmer who does not try it will find himself far behind the crowd when a few more seasons pass.

Greenville display windows contain hundreds of things of interest to the thousands of shoppers of this great trade territory and those in quest of the best values at prices in keeping with the world's greatest marketing centers should not fail to visit the city.

Greenville merchants are always striving to give their patrons the best to be had in the way of merchandise and people who come here to do their shopping may rest assured of getting the best values money can buy.

If matters just where you have been shopping in past years, come to Greenville the next time you have something to buy and let the merchants convince you that they are able to compete with the greatest shopping centers of the country. Subscribers to the Reflector always receive the latest developments in all parts of the world. The story of the recent hurricane in Santo Domingo is ample proof of this statement. Hardly had the news of the catastrophe reached civilization before the readers of this paper had it at their doors in the afternoon edition of the Reflector. The service is just as quick on developments in other parts of the world. FRENCH FLIES BEGIN FLIGHT TO CINCINNATI

Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, with Mrs. R. A. Tyson at the piano. Dr. L. C. Skinner and President Sugg expressed hope that the plan to establish a canning factory in Greenville would receive the attention of which it was so deserving, and declared that such an organization should play a great part in improving the business life of the community.

ARGENTINE NAVY REPORTED TO HAVE JOINED THE ARMY MURKIN AGAINST PRESIDENT

and telephone calls were watched. Many were wounded in clashes during the night between the police and students, dissatisfied that President Irigoyen merely had retired rather than resigned. Under Argentine law a President may retire for so long as he wishes and delegate power to the Vice-President.

For days even friends of the President and the leaders of his own party, the radicals, and the cabinet had brought the president to resign, blaming him for the country's economic depression and the approaching parliamentary election, and voicing the accusations of the active opposition that he intended a dictatorship.

The first act of the new chief executive was a proclamation of martial law or a state of siege for 30 days in the Federal capital. The act was taken "in view of the unsettled situation owing to events already of public knowledge, and with the intent to normalize the situation."

Soon afterward the President announced a number of judicial appointments headed by Jose Viarrea, who becomes President of the Supreme Court. La Nacion today said the cabinet would resign so as to give Dr. Martinez a free hand in reorganization of the government.

Irigoyen, who is 77 years old, first came to the Argentine presidency in 1916.

Fire Damages Apartment House On Fifth Street

Fire early last night did damage estimated at approximately $300 to the Laughinghouse apartment house on Fifth street. The blaze originated from an unknown cause, in a closet under the stairway in the Williams' apartment and was burning furiously when the fire department arrived. The flames, however, were extinguished before they got out of bounds of the closet. The furnishings and interior of the building were damaged by smoke and water.

Make $130,000 Jewelry Haul

Evinston, Ill., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Jason F. Whitneys and a party of four en route to their home in Evanston after attending a theatre were robbed of jewelry valued at $130,000 early today by four young robbers, two of whom wore handkerchief masks. Whitney is president of the Kraft-Phenix Cheese company.

One of the members of the party was James A. Hewett of Manchester, England, who is a house guest of the Whitneys.

The party had attended the theatre in Chicago and were dropping one of the guests, Mrs. Gladys S. Mehan, at her home when the Whitney car was crowded to the curb by the robbers' machine.

Rings, bracelets and necklaces were stripped from their wearers, quickly at the point of revolvers. The robbery was executed so quick that the bandits' car had disappeared into the darkness toward Chicago before the alarm could be spread.

Mrs. Whitney reported her personal loss was $125,000, including a ring valued at $50,000.

Mrs. Whitney was the immediate objective of the robbers, who they surprised the party. One of the bandits started tearing her ornaments from her until she exclaimed: "I'll give you everything if you won't harm us." They allowed her to hand over the valuables.

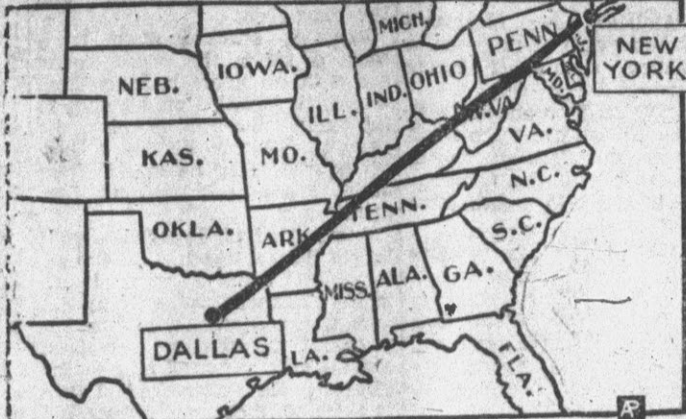

Besides the ring, 15 carats, in size, Mrs. Whitney lost five bracelets and a necklace. One of the other women was allowed to keep her necklace, comparatively modest in value.

Made-in-Carolina Banquet Planned Here Sept. 26th

The Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce will officially recognize the made-in-Carolina products by having a big made-in-Carolina banquet at Greenville September 26 at 7 o'clock in the Woman's Club rooms. The meeting will take the form of a banquet, with everything used coming from North Carolina and for the most part from eastern North Carolina. Food, speakers, music and all will be Carolina made.

Cash prizes will be offered to stimulate interest in the made-in-Carolina program. $10 in gold will be given to the lady who wears the largest number of Carolina made garments and makes the best appearance in them. A second prize of $5 will go to the second best lady thusly clad. The men will share in $5 and $2.50 respectively for first and second in a similar contest. The judges will be selected at the banquet, so that there will be no opportunity to frame up. All parties entering the contest must bring proof with them that the garments worn were made in Carolina. No girl under 16 years of age can enter this contest. But anybody above that age may participate.

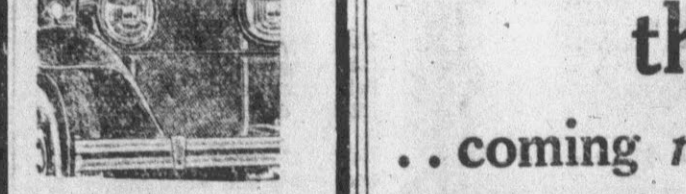

Much interest is being manifested in this new contest and it looks as if there will be plenty of judges to "judge" when the participants are called out. This will be a Dutch supper, the plates costing 75c each. Notify C. B. Rowlett, secretary Greenville Merchants Association, or Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, Kingston, of your needs.

Ford Sails for Europe; Predicts Improved Times

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Sailing aboard the liner Bremen for a six weeks' business and pleasure trip in Europe, Harry Ford predicted an early end to the present business depression.

He said the depression might outlast October, but that business now was better than two years ago. He ascribed the growing prosperity to the people substituting "thinking" for speculating.

He said he would combine business and pleasure on his trip and he, Mrs. Ford and the party of three who were accompanying them, would motor through France and Germany, stopping at the Ford factory at Cologne. The others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hodges of Detroit and E. G. Liebold, his secretary.

HEAD "WHIRLED" NERVES UPSET

Texas Lady Took Cardui for Middle Life Troubles and Says She Got Better.

Kemp, Texas.—Mrs. Mat Howard, who lives near here, tells about her use of Cardui, in middle life: "About twenty years ago, my health was very bad. I was passing through a critical time in my life, and I suffered a great deal. I was not at all strong and my nerves got all upset. I had hot flashes, and sometimes would get suddenly so faint I could not stand up. My head would whirl, and I could not see a thing. I would have to lie down for hours at a time. I felt mighty bad. One day I was reading about a lady who had suffered like I was, and how she had been helped. So I made up my mind to give Cardui a trial.

"I improved so much, after I had taken Cardui for a while. I continued the medicine for some months until I had passed the critical period. I have recommended Cardui to a great many people since I first took it. I never hesitate to tell any woman about it."

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at unchanged prices to an advance of 6 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables. There appeared to be some trade buying as well as covering but it was quite rapidly supplied by realising and southern selling with prices turning easier right after the call.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Suspension of trading in grain futures in Buenos Aires and reports of a revolution there sent all grain prices soaring here today. The market opening with depressing news of lower prices at Liverpool and slack demand for North American wheat for export and aside from a flurry of strength at the start had declined steadily. News of the South American outbreak sent wheat and corn prices violently upward. The upward bound of prices carried some deliveries of wheat as high as 4 cents a bushel over the low figure of the day. Wheat fluctuated widely at the peak of the rally with the trade in general unsettled and nervous. The close was well under the days high levels, but still above yesterday's closing prices. Corn eased down from the best levels because of selling against offers and on resting orders and the close was a little better than yesterday's finish.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Their courage regained, bulls administered vigorous punishment to shorts in today's stock market, and share prices rose substantially, as trading quickened to the speediest Saturday pace since early August.

The meagre success of the bear campaign of the middle of week, resulting in a brisk covering movement yesterday, decidedly emboldened speculators for the rise. U. S. Steel was bid up across 173 for the first time since the June crash, and nervous sorts hastened to buy back their shares, even in the long depressed copper group.

Seeks Commission for the Protection of State Farmers

TWO RIVALS ONLY THREAT TO ATHLETICS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) he principal worry of the followers of the Philadelphia Athletics is whether they can find places in Shibe Park when the A's meet the champion of the senior circuit in the world's series.

The Athletics have eliminated all but two rivals from even a mathematical chance of taking the American League flag, Washington and New York are left with only hopes of overtaking the world champions. The Senators remain 61-2 games behind the Athletics. The Yankees are 15 games away from first place.

Cleveland fell by the wayside yesterday although winning its seventh game in succession, defeating the Chicago White Sox. Philadelphia also won a game and the Indians were left 18 games behind and with only 17 to play for each team. Jablonowski held the Sox to four hits and missed a shutout only because of a Cleveland error. The Indians made 13 hits off Red Faber and Garland Braxton.

Although they lost their eighth straight game, the Boston Red Sox again gave some trouble to the league leading Athletics. In a mound duel between Jack Russell and George Earnshaw, they were only one run behind up to the eighth inning when the A's scored three runs, two on Al Simmons' 34th homer.

Washington gained nothing by slamming the Yankees around for 15 hits to defeat them for their 17th time in 21 games this season by a 14 to 5 count. Al Crowder pitched a great game for seven innings, they let up just in time to allow Babe Ruth to resume home run hitting operations after a lapse of more than two weeks with his 45th homer in the ninth.

Detroit and St. Louis had a day of idleness as did four of the National League clubs. The St. Louis Cardinals profited by this day of rest, going into second place in the National League standing, four games behind Chicago, without making an effort as the Cubs and the New York Giants both lost.

New York dropped to third as the Boston Braves hung a third straight defeat on the Giants, 6 to 4. Bruce Cunningham had only one bad inning as he limited the Giants to seven hits.

The Cubs led the Pirates almost to the final moment, then went down, 8 to 7, under a final buccaneer rush. Trailing 7-1 at the end of the sixth Pittsburgh scored three runs in each of the next two frames to drive Pat Malone from the mound and tie the score. In the ninth, Paul Waner came up after one run was out and clouted a home run over the right field stands to win the game.

Freeman Licks Thompson For Title of Ring

By CHARLES W. DUNKLES (Associated Press Sports Writer) Cleveland, Sept. 6.—They're hailing Tony Freeman, the Arkansas buzzsaw, as welterweight champion of the world today.

After nine long, tough years of fighting, Freeman won the title last night when he defeated Young Jack Thompson of Oakland, Cal., in a 15-round battle fought in League park. Patsy Haley, of New York, referee of the bout, unhesitatingly raised Freeman's hand in victory. Haley figured Freeman won eight of the 15 rounds with five going to the dethroned titleholder and two being even.

Freeman, knocked down for a count of six in the second round and with his knees buckling from a right that rattled off his chin in the tenth, came back to defeat the negro titleholder in his first defense of the title since he won it from Jackie Fields in Detroit just four months ago.

A crowd of 15,000 agreed with Referee Haley's decision. The spectators first stunned at the change in the championship, suddenly out of a deafening roar in approval of the verdict, Thompson was the most surprised man in the ball park. He thought he had won, or at least had deserved a draw, but he made no protest.

Spinners to Play Peaches For The Sally Pennant

Charlotte, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Sally Leaguers plunged into final games of the season today, with Greenville's Spinners, winners of the circuit's first half dash, and Macon's Peaches, victors in the final chase, scheduled to begin play Monday for the league championship.

The first game of the playoff for the title will be staged at Greenville.

Macon clinched the second half race in second games of the final series, by idling due to rain as Asheville's "Tourists" were hammering Greenville into submission 4 to 1.

Jim Richardson, Tourists mound ace, took the hill for the Mountain City combination and yielded but four hits as his team mates were rapping Pearce for eight.

Greenville's lone run was a homer off the bat of Chink Outen. Tarr topped the Asheville batting with a double and single to drive in a pair of runs.

Charlotte's Hornets evened the series with Augusta by collecting 16 blows off Flinn for an 11 to 4 triumph. The loss sent the Wolves reeling 4 to fourth place in the standings. Holland, Carrir and Ingram each cracked out three hits to top the Hornets firing. Tallamante aided in the victory with a circuit drive. Vaughan twirled for the Insects and gave up eight hits. He kept them scattered and was never in danger. Double headers are scheduled around the circuit today as the curtain drops on the season.
