ALLIED VETS WELCOMED TO CAPITAL CITY

President Hoover and Gen. Pershing Extend Greetings to World War Soldiers

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—After postponing selection of officers and a meeting place for 1931 until a session at Culva, Indiana, September 23, Fiday today was assured by Assistant Secretary Jahnke of the navy that the peace time object of maritime forces "is to insure the continuance of peace."

Jahnke praised the efforts of the Federated Veterans of the World War in behalf of the peace and said "The American Navy is in sympathy with your great fed. era-tion heart and soul."

Similar sentiments were expressed before the women's auxiliary of the Fiday in a message from Assistant Secretary of State Castle, calling the organization of "bulwark of peace."

Welcomed by President Hoover and General John J. Pershing, veterans of the allied armies in the World War attending the annual congress of Fiday, devoted themselves today to choosing new officers and a meeting place for next year.

The war time commander of the American forces was cheered to the echo last night by the veterans of nine nations in a delayed birthday greeting. He was 70 last Saturday.

The general as host to the inter-allied federation of World War veterans at a banquet, praised their ideals for peace in a brief address and urged a strengthening of friendly understanding among the nations.

Today the delegates were to hear addresses by Assistant Secretary Jahnke of the navy and Major General Amos A. Fries, war time chief of the army's chemical warfare service.

Tonight they will be guests of Secretary of War Harbord at a dinner at the Congressional Country Club.

The Fiday auxiliary, bringing together women delegates from the several countries had its initial session today with an address of welcome by Assistant Secretary Castle. Between business sessions the delegates planned to visit Mount Vernon and historic points about the capital.

General Pershing told the veterans they were in battle array now fighting to maintain "the friendly understanding that gave the allies victory."

"If the spirit of that understanding is kept alive," he said, "then we have made the greatest step toward permanent international peace."

Earlier yesterday the entire delegation had been received at a White House garden party by the President and Mrs. Hoover.

Governor Gardner, in his announcement, said the State was not presuming to forecast action by the grand jury but that the Commonwealth is interested in a full investigation.

ARREST YOUTH FOR SLAYING MARTIN MAN

John Daniels Carried to Penitentiary After Being Held Here Overnight

Rushed to this county last night to avoid mob violence, John Daniels, young white man of Martin county, was carried to the penitentiary at Raleigh this morning where he will remain for safe-keeping pending his trial at Williamston on a charge of the murder of Jim Ange, aged man whose body was dragged from the Roanoke river last Sunday morning.

Daniels was captured by Martin county officers at Jamesville yesterday afternoon. He was immediately brought to Greenville because it was feared that he might be exposed to the danger of mob violence if confined in the jail at Williamston. He was transferred to the penitentiary this morning by Sheriff Sam Whitehurst.

The body of the aged white man was dragged from the river last Sunday afternoon. It was discovered that he had been shot through the head with a shotgun and an amount of money estimated at approximately $75, which he was said to have had on his person when last seen, was missing.

Suspicion pointed strongly to Daniels, who was said to have been seen with Ange from time to time during the last several weeks, and especially a short time prior to the finding of the body in the river.

Officers said the young man confessed shooting his aged companion but claimed that it was accidental. He said the shooting occurred while they were sitting on the banks of the river. Ange, he was alleged to have told officers, had carried the gun most of the afternoon, and he asked the old man to let him carry it awhile.

While tampering with the gun, he said, it fired, the entire load taking effect in his companion's head. He said he became frightened, tossed the lifeless body into the river, and fled in a boat which they had moored at the river side.

The arresting officers declared that the youth had in his possession a pocketbook which they believed to be the one Ange had in his possession when last seen. The old man, a veteran of the Civil war, had his pension check cashed Saturday afternoon. It was stated, and opinion was expressed that the youth killed him to get possession of the money. Effort was under way today to identify the pocketbook and see if it was not the same one Ange had when he cashed his check at the Williamston bank. Officers said they believed they had built up a strong case against the youth, and will continue their investigation in preparation for the trial in the Martin county court sometime in the near future.

Over 600 Students Are Graduated At San Quentin Jail

San Quentin, Cal., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Graduation exercises for 637 students of everything from the three R's to civil engineering and foreign languages were observed here with due solemnity.

The students were praised by instructors, but for once, nothing was said about the graduates going forth to take their places "out in the world."

Diplomas were not presented immediately. This part of the ceremony was postponed until the recipients, all convicts at San Quentin Penitentiary, returned to their cells.

Senate Consideration Of World Court May Be Held Up By Cuba's Opposition

Unexpected Opposition of Cuban Delegate to Protocol of Court May Embarrass Hoover Administration to Bring About American Entrance

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The unexpected opposition of Cuba to the protocol for revision of the World Court statute, if it persists, may be followed here by a postponement of Senate consideration of the court issue for another year.

President Hoover deferred sending the revised protocol providing for American adherence to the court to the last session of the Senate on the ground that he would wait until all the other had first given their approval of it.

Although a determined band of Republicans in the Senate are bitterly opposed to American adherence to the court, it was believed at the capitol that Mr. Hoover intended to submit the issue to the Senate at its short session beginning next December. Should Cuba refuse meanwhile to agree to the changed statute affecting the team of court sessions, another delay in Senate consideration is believed likely to occur.

The question of American adherence to the World Court is an old one. The Senate once approved it during the administration of President Coolidge but the reservations voted by the Senate were never accepted by all the other nations.

Geneva, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Noel Baker, British spokesman, in a speech told the League of Nations Assembly committee today that efforts of the Hoover administration to bring the United States into the World Court might be embarrassed seriously by Cuba's opposition to the protocol for a revision of the court statute affecting the term of court sessions.

Professor Baker called attention to a letter of Secretary of State Stimson to President Hoover which asserted that American interests before the World Court as regards advisory opinions would be safeguarded by a special provision in the revised statute as well as by the Root formula which is embodied in the protocol.

Under pressure of Professor Baker's declaration it was understood today that the Cuban delegation would collaborate in bringing the protocol immediately into effect. But it was by no means certain that the Cuban government would (Continued on page eight)

TWO MEN HELD FOR ATTACK ON SLEEPING MAN

Waynesville Man In Hospital As Result of Brutal Attack At Brother's Home

Waynesville, Sept. 19.—(AP)—From his bed in a hospital here, Will Haney, young man of the Clyde section, yesterday told authorities that he was struck on the head as he slept at his brother's home Wednesday night, thrown out of a window, dragged into a field, and beaten into unconsciousness. On a basis of his story, Sheriff's officers late yesterday placed two men in jail here.

The men arrested are Jeter Hawkins, Clyde rural mail carrier, and Sam Snyder, of Clyde. They are being held without bond on charges of burglary and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. The men deny their guilt and claim they were sleeping in the room, and that they were awakened by a blow on the head and observed two men in the room.

Haney, who is unmarried, said he was spending Wednesday night at the home of his brother, Roy Haney, two and one half miles from Clyde. At sometime between the hour he went to bed, early in the evening, and 11 o'clock, he said, he was awakened by a blow on the head and observed two men in the room.

After striking him, he said, they threw him out of the window of the first story room in which he was sleeping, leaped out of the window after him, dragged him some distance into a field, and there beat him until he became unconscious. When he regained consciousness, he said, they were standing beside him and aided him to get to his feet. They then left.

Haney said he was unable to recognize the men's features, but that he identified them by their voices. On this basis, he gave officers the information that led to their arrests. Indirectly, he said, he had received threats from the two. He professed ignorance of their motive.

Page Undecided About Accepting Head of Co-Ops

Raleigh, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Frank Page, who was elected at an executive meeting of representatives of tobacco growers here Wednesday to head the organization of a State Cooperative Tobacco Marketing Association, will announce Monday whether or not he will accept the job.

Mr. Page, vice-president of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and former head of the State Highway Commission, is "seriously considering" the job, Gov. O. Max Gardner said today, and will give his answer to the organization committee when it meets with the governor here Monday.

Governor Gardner conferred at length again today with Farm Board and N. C. State College experts in regard to the proposed contract for the co-operative and on ways and means of settling the organization machinery into action.

BAILEY FLAYS REPUBLICANS AT SMITHFIELD

Democratic Nominee for Senate Says Republicans Have Failed to Enforce Laws

Smithfield, Sept. 19.—(AP)—J. W. Bailey, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, flayed the Republican party for its failure to enforce the 18th amendment in a campaign speech here today and asserted the Democratic party was pledged to "honest enforcement" of the law.

"Mr. Hoover gave us great assurance as a candidate that he would enforce our laws," Mr. Bailey said. "What has he done? In his own words, lawlessness has reached a point in our land that suggests the subsidence of our foundation. Gangs are ruling Chicago. The bootleg business is one of the most lucrative ones of the largest activities in our land. As a candidate he declared that he 'wished prohibition to succeed.' He has done nothing to make it a success. All that he has done is to appoint a commission to study the subject of law enforcement; and transfer the prohibition unit from 'Andy' to Amos. Neither from the President nor from his commission have the people had a word so far about prohibition."

"Shall the people of America so through another election without a mandate to the President that the law shall be enforced?" Mr. Bailey asked his audience, and then continued, "I will further trust to my party with a cause which it seeks to use for political purposes only? Prohibition has not come up to expectations, the responsibility is upon the Republican administration."

Both parties in 1928 promised law enforcement, Mr. Bailey said. The Republicans have failed, he said, and then quoted the Democratic platform pledging the party and its nominees "to an honest effort to enforce the 18th amendment and all other provisions of the federal constitution."

"Let no one despair of law enforcement in our land so long as this pledge is outstanding," Mr. Bailey said. "The failure so far is only a Republican enforcement, and there will be an end of the question—there enforcement. That does not mean repeal. It does not mean modification. It means honest enforcement."

Dowell Stresses Need Of Co-operation In Address Before Local Merchants

Secretary of State Association Sums Up Fundamentals Playing Important Part In Life of Organization; Three Other Speakers On the Program

Willard L. Dowell, of Raleigh, secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association, was the principal speaker at the regular quarterly meeting of the Greenville Merchants Association at the Rotary building last night. He discussed the fundamental principles of the association, and lauded the splendid achievement of the Greenville organization, during the past year.

He predicted that the present year would close with the local association showing the largest membership in history.

Three other speakers were on the program last night. They were J. L. Little, president of the National Bank of Greenville; E. G. Flanagan, president of the Greenville Banking & Trust Company, and B. B. Sugg, one of the best known members of the tobacco industry in this part of the state.

W. S. Brown, who was recently elected president by the board of directors to fill the unexpired term of Claude Tupper, resigned, presided, and the usual supper was served. Invocation was offered by C. W. Willard.

The new president, who was introduced by Secretary Rowlett, stressed the possibilities of the city, and urged the united effort of members of the association to convert them into actualities. He said the time had come for every member to get together, and shoulder to shoulder, work for the continued advancement of the city and community. He stressed the need of optimism and expressed belief that success should crown earnest effort as much in the future as in the past.

Mr. Dowell was introduced by J. H. Blount, president of the North Carolina Merchants Association.

PRES. HOOVER SEEKS TO CUT FIRE LOSSES

Calls Upon People to Observe Week of October 5 As Fire Prevention Week

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Calling attention to a national fire loss in 1929 of $470,000,000, President Hoover today signed a proclamation designating the week of October 5 as national fire prevention week.

The President asked the country to co-operate actively in the prevention of fires, asserting that the North American continent leads the world in the amount of its annual fire waste, with the total growing steadily.

His proclamation follows: "Whereas the North American Continent leads the world in the amount of its annual fire waste, one year of devastating losses following another, each, with but few exceptions, establishing a new high mark in the amount of valuable property burned in the magnitude of economic losses, property losses along in 1929 exceeding $470,000,000; Whereas thousands of persons annually die as a result of burns and many additional thousands are injured, 66 percent of all fatalities from fire taking place in the home; Whereas the present condition can be corrected only through the earnest effort of each one of us; and

"Whereas it has been customary to observe national fire prevention week in the effort to instill into every citizen a full understanding of his individual responsibility in the curbing of the mounting losses of property and life through preventable fires; Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do proclaim the week of October 5, 1930, to be observed as National Fire Prevention Week, and do invite the active co-operation of all in the prevention of fire waste and the consequent procuring of individual benefits and increased national prosperity."

At the same time William Butterworth, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, announced commercial organizations throughout the country have perfected plans for a wider observation of the week.

Seek Re-election

Gov. John C. Phillips of Arizona, republican, is seeking re-election in November election.

Carolina Merchants Association who described the secretary as one of the best in the country and largely responsible for its elevation to the presidency at the State convention at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. Dowell denied that he was wholly responsible for Mr. Blount's election, but informed his hearers that Mr. Blount was the first man in history to win the unanimous vote of the convention.

He outlined six things as fundamentals in the successful operation of a Merchants Association, and declared that anybody living up to them was doing everything it was possible to do, and deserved the best of success. The first fundamental he said, was closer co-operation among the merchants, the faculty of being able to pull together for community development.

He presented extension of trade territory through group action such as represented through special sales days.

The third, he said, was group action. (Continued on page 2)

BISHOP DARST TO OPEN NEW CHURCH HERE

Will Deliver Opening Sermon At St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Sunday Morning

Bishop Darst, Bishop of the Episcopal church in East Carolina, will be in Greenville on Sunday to formally open the new Episcopal church here.

The new Episcopal church of St. Paul's congregation is one of the finest new church buildings in East Carolina. It was recently completed under the leadership of Dr. R. L. Carr as chairman of the church building committee.

The building of this church with the complete Sunday school building erected in connection with it marks the fulfillment of a fifteen-year-old dream on the part of this Greenville congregation.

St. Paul's church was organized in Greenville in 1835. For nearly one hundred years this congregation has worshipped on Pitt and Second streets. There they outgrew their first building and built here in 1885 the present structure which stands now as an old landmark of the town. With the steady growth of the congregation it was foreseen by St. Paul's that their second building was being outgrown.

And during the past fifteen years the congregation has been planning and working to achieve the building of their present edifice.

In moving the site of their building the congregation of St. Paul's becomes the first church in Greenville to move into the new and growing residential section that is developing here.

And under the leadership of their rector, Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, St. Paul's will continue their fine growth there.

It is a source of happiness to the members of the other Greenville churches that St. Paul's congregation has achieved their lovely new building. And in the splendid spirit of Christian fellowship that exists in Greenville many Greenville citizens of all the churches will join with St. Paul's congregation on Sunday for the formal opening of their new church.

Bishop Darst is one of the outstanding preachers in the United States and it will be a privilege for all to have him to visit Greenville at this time.

Man Charged With Driving Horse Drunk

Charlotte, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The charge against F. O. Bostic—and there are court records to prove it—was operating a horse while drunk.

Deputy Sheriff L. L. Crenshaw picked Bostic up out in the country. "He was weaving from side to side," says Crenshaw, "the deputy testified, just as much as he could have done in an automobile."

The judge, accused to announce $75 and costs to drunken drivers, deliberated briefly and fined Bostic $10 and the costs.

DECLARES BIG FIGHT CENTERS ABOUT LIQUOR

F. Scott McBride Says Prohibition Question More Clearly Defined Than Ever

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The intense wet drive for Congressional gains this year was acknowledged today by F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League to have caused the prohibition issue to be "more clearly drawn, than at any time since the coming of prohibition."

At the same time the scope of the wet campaign was revealed to some extent in reports of political expenditures filed with the clerk of the House which showed that so far in 1930 wet organizations have spent $425,370 while dry forces reported spending only $9,322.

"The wets have forced the issue in this campaign," McBride said. "It is a year year for a wobbler."

In the face of the anti-prohibition drive, however, the anti-Saloon League expressed confidence dry forces would be strengthened in the Senate and would continue to hold 70 percent of the House of Representatives.

Against the wet outlays collections were listed totaling $361,188. The association against the prohibition amendment handled the bulk of the wet funds, collecting $33,839 and spending $38,532. Among the disbursements was listed $100,000 spent in Pennsylvania for the Phyllis and Francis S. Bohler in the Republican primary.

The drys reported their funds collected than spent. They took in $112,211. The principal activities reported took place in New Jersey and Missouri. In the East, they state the anti-Saloon League and its state campaign committee put up to September 3, $5,511, collecting $5,739. In Missouri the prohibition National committee reported spending and collecting $1,665. The anti-Saloon League's national campaign committee reported no expenditures up to the 10th of September.

McBride's view of the primary results discounted heavily the wet claims to gains. He contended they had defeated "some seven or eight drys" for the House, while of the 29 new supporters claimed for prohibition repeal he said "Twenty have been for modification or some substitute for prohibition all the time" and of the others "A majority had never been counted in the dry estimate."

Will Sell Church, But Keeps the Bell

Hickory, Sept. 19.—(AP)—J. J. Cilley, the fellow who bought a church and lacked a preacher, now has plenty of potential preachers. A church bell but no church.

Cilley put in a bid when a West Hickory folk put their church on the block. For the church.

Newspapers printed the story of his quandary and applications to be allowed to offer from Cilley's pulpit started rolling in.

New Cilley says he has decided to keep the church bell but sell the church. And why keep the bell?

"It was reared on a farm," the banker explains, "where we had a drinker bell in the back yard. I think I'll feel more at home here in Hickory if I mount the bell in the yard."

TWO MEN KILLED BY TRAIN IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The train crew of a Seaboard freight discovered the bodies of two men, tentatively identified as Bill Goodman of a local city, and James Roe of Saluda county near a grade crossing on the east of here. The bodies mangled badly were removed to local undertakers' establishment.

It is believed the men were struck by a passenger train last night.

The sixth was described as community effort, attempting to make the community a better place in which to live by bringing in more trade from surrounding sections.

He said the people should not be misled by the plan of the government to relieve the situation through the offer of financial assistance. He said no power on earth could improve the situation in the face of over-production. The government attempted to improve the situation in the grain trade but failed because of over-production.

He declared that the increased acreage in Georgia and the growing of tobacco in Indian and Great Britain to a large extent was the cause of the condition of the

WOMAN'S CLUB TO RESUME THEIR WORK IN OCTOBER

After a three months' vacation, members of the Greenville Woman's Club are anxious to resume their departmental work. Plans and programs of the various departments are all completed and will be announced at the first general club meeting which will be held on Thursday, October 2. The club is exceedingly fortunate in again having such well prepared and capable women as department leaders this year.

Mrs. E. T. Arnold, whose ability in club work is well known will again have charge of the Literary Department and she and her committee have prepared a most interesting and helpful program for the year.

Mrs. J. B. James as head of the Garden Club has already begun active work in the tree planting campaign and this is only a beginning of the many big things her department expects to accomplish.

We expect Greenville to be a more beautiful town as a result of the efforts of the Garden Club.

Realizing that many of us women need to know how to run our homes more economically, and how to raise our children more scientifically, the club decided to have a separate department this year to discuss the problems of the American home. With Mrs. Ed. Batchelor as leader, this department will prove an asset to the club and to the community.

If you are of an artistic temperament or if you just love things beautiful and want to know more about them, join the Music and Art department. Mrs. Ray Tyson's ability as a leader and as a musician are recognized in Greenville and her group will have many pleasurable and profitable afternoons awaiting them.

Members of the club have the privilege of joining any one or all of these departments. If you are one of the Greenville women who does not belong to the Woman's Club but would like to call Mrs. J. Key Brown, chairman of the membership committee so that she can put in your application for membership at the first club meeting.

This club year is going to be filled with good things and you cannot afford to miss a single meeting. If you are a woman who lives in Greenville and are interested in making it a more healthful and beautiful place in which to live, if you are worried over every day affairs and need help or if you feel inclined to be artistic and want talent developed, then join the Woman's Club.

NO U TURNS.

Now that the street intersections have been marked clearly stating that no U turns can be made in the business section, there is no excuse for any motorist violating this city ordinance and it is to be hoped that the practice will stop. Making U turns in the business section not only is dangerous but does much toward congesting traffic and it is to be hoped that the ordinance against it will be enforced.

IT DESERVES YOUR SUPPORT.

Announcement that an attractive booklet setting forth Greenville's advantages as a place to live and do business as well as a shopping center will be off the presses in a few days was made at last night's quarterly meeting of the Merchants' Association and the booklet should prove a good advertisement for our city. While the association is operating under a name that would signify that it is strictly an organization for retail merchants, as a matter of fact for many years it has been one of Greenville's greatest assets in that it has been carrying on the work usually done by a Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade and kindred organizations. In view of the record of the organization along this line, certainly it deserves the support of every business and professional man as well as individuals interested in the future progress of our city, and if you are not a part of this organization we urge you to affiliate yourself with it. If we are to go forward certainly this is no time for retrenchment in our efforts at telling the world about Greenville, and the past has proven that through our Merchants' Association is the best way to put this thing across.

ABOUT TOWN

If you want Greenville to continue to grow, keep boosting. Nothing in the world helps a town go forward more than continued boosting on the part of business men and other citizens interested in the development of the town.

The secret of the growth of many of the largest cities of the country can be found in the ability of the citizens to boost even under unusual conditions. The same situation may be applied to any community that has thrived over a period of many years. Greenville without question is one of the most thriving young cities in the world, and it will continue to be recognized as such if the people will let its unlimited resources sources and possibilities be known to the outside world. We have plenty of advantages other people would be interested in and the thing for us to do is to let them know about them every day of the year.

If you are not a booster, arm yourself with some of the important facts about Greenville and Pitt County and get busy. The field is broad but the laborers few, hence the necessity of action at once.

Despite the fact that the lettering "No U turns" has been painted at intersecting streets of the city where traffic is heavy at all times of the day, it is reported that numbers of people continue to make complete turns, violating the law and endangering the lives of other motorists who happen to be making the crossing at the same time. This is a deplorable situation and should be brought to an end if some member of the police department has to be stationed there several hours of the day.

The traffic committee of the Board of Aldermen attempted to improve the situation in the principal business sections by having intersecting streets marked off so there would be no more "U" turns. This action failed to get results so that they actually went to the trouble to have the lettering placed at each of the intersecting streets, making it plain enough for even a child to detect the meaning.

Complete turns "at such places" not only have a tendency to hold up traffic, but endanger the lives of other motorists and increase the seriousness of the situation. If violations continue, the traffic department no doubt will be forced to take more drastic action and violators will find themselves summoned before the court to explain why they did not obey traffic regulations for public safety.

Members of the Greenville Merchants' Association last night heard about some of the objectives of the State Merchants' Association in an address by William L. Dowell, of Raleigh, secretary of the organization.

Mr. Dowell probably is one of the best informed men in the state on the things affecting the mercantile life and the things he told the merchants last night will go a long way toward helping them solve some of the problems with which they will be confronted in the future.

The Greenville Merchants' Association has had the privilege of hearing Mr. Dowell several times during the last few years and his addresses are always informative, moving constructive suggestions for the development of the mercantile line. He is working for the improvement of the State merchants, and has accomplished much through association such as that in this city.

Since the president of the North Carolina Merchants' Association is a citizen of this city, the activities of the organization hold more than ordinary interest to the people of this community, and the coming of other state officials always attracts attention.

Many things of importance will happen during the next few months and the people should prepare to receive complete accounts of each event. There is no better way to do this than through a subscription to the Daily Reflector. This paper has a complete leased wire news service that keeps it informed of virtually every development throughout the world, and this is presented to our readers in each afternoon's edition.

In fact, this fast printer service enables us to furnish the news several hours ahead of any other paper reaching the community thereby enabling the reader to keep abreast of the time every day of the week. If you are not one of the hundreds who receive the Reflector each afternoon, why not join your subscription immediately and join the happy family. It will enable you to pass many a long winter evening in a pleasant and profitable way.

Don't delay the matter, but get busy and subscribe at once before it slips your memory.

ATHLETICS TO PLAY BALL IN WORLD SERIES

Once more Connie Mack, the tall tactician of Philadelphia, has led the Athletics to the point where they have nothing to do but look forward to a new world series in which to conquer—or to be conquered—and from current indications in the race for the National league flag, it appears that the St. Louis Cardinals will be their rivals in the struggle for the world's championship.

The Athletics made a formal settlement of the American league pennant race yesterday, clinching the title beyond the last shadow of a doubt by downing the Chicago White Sox 14 to 10, for their 90th victory of the season while Cleveland ended Washington's chances with a 3 to 2 triumph over the Senators. At the same time, the Cards were drawing farther ahead of their rivals in the senior circuit, defeating Brooklyn for the third straight time, 4 to 3, to gain a two game margin over the Robins.

A third stirring triumph in as many games, placed the Cardinals in a fairly safe position as they look to start a five game series in Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Chicago, their only remaining rivals of importance, have three more games in the lost column and little hope that the Phillies and Pittsburgh will upset the Cards.

The Giants are out of the race for all practical purposes, being 5 1/2 games behind despite yesterday's 6 to 2 triumph over Chicago.

Where Andy High shone before, Burleigh Grimes and Jim Bottomley shared the Cardinal hero roles yesterday. Grimes' spitball rendered most of Brooklyn's hitting ineffectual while Bottomley's fourth inning homer helped the Cards to make the most of their five hits off Phelps and Thurston. Fred Fitzsimmons of the Giants did the major part of the work in holding the Cubs in third place by allowing them only six scattered hits while the Giants walloped Bush and Nelson for eleven blows.

The clinching of the American league pennant by the Athletics was attended by comparatively little excitement. Since their great spurt early in August when they took a ten game lead, it had been almost a certainty that the Athletics finally would win despite the strenuous efforts of the Senators. The end came in an unimpressive fashion in an up-and-down scoring match with two five run rallies and a hit attack to produce a Philadelphia victory. Wesley Ferrell with some timely hitting to give him his 25th victory of the season in a close duel with Sad Sam Jones.

The principal figure again was Connie Mack, Philadelphia's 68-year-old leader, who reached his eleventh championship and his seventh world series since he took charge of the Athletics. Before this season, Mack had led teams to league championships in 1902, 1905, 1910, 1911, 1913, 1914, and 1929. Four times the Athletics have won the world's title, in 1910, 1911, 1913 and 1929.

The lesser teams of the two leagues, battling for nothing in particular provided some startling innovations and three close games to complete the day's schedule. Mark Koenig, Detroit shortstop, made an appearance on the pitcher's mound against Boston, and although the Tigers lost 4 to 3, the blame could not be laid at his door. The Red Sox had completed their scoring against Bridges in the earlier innings.

Charley Ruffing, New York Yankee hurler, proved more successful as a batter than on the mound. He did not get credit for the Yankees' 7 to 6 ten inning victory over the St. Louis Browns although he contributed two home runs toward it. Chuck Klein, youthful slugger of the Phillies also hit two homers, but they were not enough to beat Pittsburgh's Pirates, who slammed out five runs in the fourth inning for a 6 to 5 victory. The Boston Braves and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

SPORTS SLANTS

On the basis of their two smashing victories over the British, the high-goal talent available and the super-speed character of the American game, there seems no reason why the United States should not rule the polo roost indefinitely.

Harder hitting and harder riding polo, is played in this country than any other nation, with the possible exception of Argentina, which has developed an aggressive school that now seems second only to the United States.

Brilliant and courageous as was this year's British challenge, in the final analysis, the invaders were outclassed by the sheer power of the American riders. Britain has been outclassed with monotonous regularity since the war. Seven of the last eight battles for the International Cup (which is built more like a mug than the America's Cup) have been won by the Americans.

Six of the seven Yankees triumphs featured the dynamic work of the old Centaur, Devereux Milburn. Tommy Hitchcock, who broke thru in 1921, now wears the mantle of leadership successfully. Dashing Tommy should be the key man of victorious teams for at least ten more years, for he is only 30 now and in his prime as a polo genius.

Winston Guest and Earle Hopping, in their early twenties, have yet to reach their peak but they are good enough, as it is, Eric Pedley is 34, but this brilliant Californian, sensation of the 1930 series at No. 1, can be counted on to do the goal-shooting for some time to come.

Eric Leader Pedley, who handed the British the final knockout wallop, signalizes his entry into the international polo arena by taking rank as perhaps the greatest No. 1 man—and sharpshooter that the Americans have ever mounted.

The famous Larry Waterbury starred at No. 1 with the original "Big Four" organized by Harry Payne Whitney to bring the sport back to America a score of years ago.

The left-handed James Weston Webb possessed an artistry with the mallet that made him a vital cog in the post-war combinations. Louis E. Stoddard, present chairman of the United States Polo Association, was a fine No. 1, but none of these old stars ever produced goals the way Pedley did in the last three chukkers of the final match this year at Meadow Brook.

Pedley's total of 13 goals, five in the first match and eight in the second, set a record for cup competition. The nearest approach to it was in 1927 when Hitchcock, riding at No. 2, tallied 11 goals in two matches against England.

The polo climax was largely a Hitchcock family affair. Tommy, the team on the field, his father had charge of the ponies and his mother participated in the ceremony of presenting the cup to the winners.

The answer to what E. A. S. Hopping's initials stand for is that the young American star's full name is Earle Albert Stokes Hopping.

THREE STATE GRID OUTFITS PLAY TODAY

Today is coronation day for North Carolina football and the trappings that are left of the program when Lenoir-Rhyne meets Atlantic Christian in Hickory tonight will be added tomorrow when the teams get into action.

While the Lenoir-Rhyne-Christian game is regarded as the official opener of the season, Mars Hill College will have already settled its little argument with Maryville in Maryville, Tenn. This affair will be played in orthodox fashion—in the afternoon—this afternoon to be exact.

With three State teams in action today, gridiron fans will have a full-sized appetizer for the three games that will throw five other North Carolina squads into action tomorrow.

Davidson's Wildcats have invited Elon over for a little tussle tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night Raleigh will see its first college football game when North Carolina State's Wolfpack goes out to meet High Point. In another night game, Guilford will play Emory and Herry in Virginia.

The State-High Point game will probably command the greatest interest this week-end for several reasons. The bright lights are expected to attract an unusually large crowd for the opening game and State supporters are anxious to see their favorites in action under John Van Liew.

Van Liew, who came to the pack from Peru where he has been athletic director for the United States, has the fans guessing about the ability of his team. The new is regarded as a fairly good front wall but the backfield represents an unknown quantity. Just to let his boys get used to the lights, Van Liew worked them out under the klieg lights last night.

The High Point mentor, Julian Bial, will not only be making his first appearance as Hi team's coach but also his first as a college mentor.

Other State teams wait until a week from tomorrow before prying off the lid on the 1930 season.

Quash Indictment Against Three Men In S. C. Murder Case

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Decision of Judge W. H. Townsend quashing the indictment in the case against Carlos Rector, Blair Rook, Negro, and Harmon Moore in connection with the murder of Sheriff Sam Willis of Greenville was affirmed in an opinion to be filed in the Supreme court here today.

The opinion, which was unanimous, was written by Justice Eugene S. Blease. Justice Blease made public the court's decision last night at his home in Newberry. At the trial in Greenville, motion was made before Judge Townsend that the grand jury returning the indictment was illegal because several members of that body were not registered electors and that the indictment contained the words that Sheriff Willis "did then die," whereas it should have read, "did then and there die."

Sheriff Willis was shot to death late on the night of June 11, 1927, as he was putting his automobile in the garage in the back yard of his Greenville home. His widow and Deputy Sheriff Henry S. Townsend were subsequently tried and acquitted.

Later following an investigation, Rook was arrested, and officers said confessed that Rector, who followed Willis as sheriff, had hired him to kill Sheriff Willis.

The case came up in the May term of the General Sessions court at Greenville, when Judge Townsend granted the motion of defense counsel. Rook is held in jail at Greenville and Rector and Moore are out on bond.

Nye Committee Will Visit State During October

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Announcement from Chicago that Senator Gerald P. Nye, Republican, South Dakota, planned to move his campaign expenditures investigating committee into North Carolina next month today had state politicians wondering what is going to be investigated.

Supporters of Senatorial candidates and their friends pointed out that expenditures in Senatorial campaigns in this state are limited by law to one year's salary, $10,000.

Candidates are required to file expense accounts with the secretary of state and all such statements this year were within the legal limit.

The first indication North Carolina had of a possible investigation in this State was a recent visit of J. L. Ward, of Mississippi, who said he was an investigator for the committee.

Ward, after questioning party men in Charlotte, Hickory, Greensboro and other places told newspapermen he "had found nothing of importance."

Magistrate Under Investigation in N. Y.

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The New York World says today that thirteen additional magistrates and two former magistrates are under investigation by state authorities who are conducting an extraordinary grand jury inquiry into the appointment of former magistrates.

Also the activities of every Tammany district leader believed to be responsible for the appointment of magistrates and the nomination of judges in the higher courts are being scrutinized.

The grand jury has been instructed to other judicial posts if it finds that the Ewald case, in which former Magistrate George F. Ewald is alleged to have bought his office for $10,000 from Martin J. Healy, Tammany leader, is a typical example.

The magistrates said by the World to be under investigation are Earl A. Smith, George W. Simpson, Adolph Stern, Edmond Weil, Louis B. Brodsky, Jerry S. Rerau, don Richard F. McKinley, Helen Capshaw, William C. Dodge, August Dreyer, William A. Farrell, Mitchell A. Ford and Maurice H. Gottlieb.

The former magistrates are Charles Toller and Thomas F. McAndrews, now secretary to Mayor James J. Walker.

There are fifty magistrates in the city.

Hiram C. Todd, special prosecutor for the state, said he planned to ask indictments in the Ewald case within a few days with this case disposed of, evidence against any other magistrates or judges could be brought before the grand jury.

Mayor Walker, in a luncheon address, pledged his administration to cust any official who is shown to be corrupt. He expressed opposition to "fishing expeditions," however, and urged that inquiries be brief as well as thorough "to clear the city's name."

Ruth Alexander Was A Secret Bride

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Farwell letters indicated that forebodings of disaster rode with Ruth Alexander, a secret bride, when she met death on a fog-shrouded hillside yesterday at the outset of a projected one-stop transcontinental flight.

One was addressed to her parents requesting a quiet funeral in case of death. The other revealed she was the wife of Robert A. Elliott, reserve navy pilot and her former flying instructor, whom she married at Yuma, Ariz., June 21.

She wrote:

"To my husband, Bob:
"Life is strange, honey. If I have preceded you do not grieve for me, but be content. Finish your work down here and make me proud of you, as I ever will be at your side.
"And when you come, I will welcome you. Always I will love and wait for you. Sweetheart."

keep my pretty wedding ring always with you, Ruth."

A wedding ring, a tiny silver circle set with small diamonds, was in the girl's jewel box in her hotel room here. Nearby were the notes to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blaney, of Irving, Kas.

The fatal flight began at the Agua Caliente, Mexico, airport at 1 A. M., yesterday. Soon after Miss Alexander landed at the Lindbergh Field here for checking. Reporters gathered around the 24-year-old aviatrix, and to them she remarked:

"If I should crack up, please send me purple pansies, as I like them best."

START WORK BEAUTIFYING CAPITAL CITY

Several Millions of Dollars to Be Spent in Elaborate Beautification Scheme

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Wreckers on the Senate side, steam shovels flanking the House now vie with each other in breaking the stillness of Capitol Hill, as Washington's elaborate beautification scheme gets underway.

Visitors who a few weeks ago could have heard sonorous voices of Senators and Representatives in debate, now must be content with the rattle of bricks tobogganing into trucks, the creak of readier timbers, and the guttural sound of the shovel as it gobbles up the ground.

Fifteen city blocks are being cleared for landscaping between the Union Station and the Senate side of the Capitol. The old brick capitol, last remaining structure of the new Supreme Court site, is fast being razed to make way for that $9,740,000 edifice. Excavation is on in full swing for the new House office building annex, estimated to cost $7,500,000.

Around the ragged edges of these debris-piled areas, restlessness is rampant. To the northwest, beyond the Library of Congress, tenants are vacating to make way for a new library annex. To the south west, condemnation is complete on the site for the new $6,750,000 botanical gardens, to be completed by 1932.

"City of magnificent distances—of vistas. But you must not look at details by the way," the late Joseph Pennell, said of Washington. But the beautification program, sweeping from the landscape ramshackle World War structures and antiquated edifices has for one of its purposes an invitation to detailed inspection.

One hour after the armistice was signed, Pennell, within a Union Station archway, was sketching the first of his Washington series of etchings. The shouts that said "peace" meant to him the lifting of the war restrictions against sketching in the capitol city.

For days he revelled in the beauty of the building which introduces visitors to the capital.

"Stately it stands in its great plaza," Pennell made note, even in these days when block on block of war workers' hotels ranged all about the station. Now the last of these war relics is being razed, and by next year the station will stand far staller in a $10,000,000 setting.

Edward H. Bennett, Chicago beautification expert, called as consultant by the Treasury Department, has prepared plans which include a tunnel for street cars, so as not to mar one of these vistas commended by Pennell.

Growth of collections has compelled the Library of Congress annex which will be next on the hill building program. With one million musical compositions, one million maps, a half million engravings and lithographs, 240,000 law books, and ten million other volumes, the library threatens to burst its bindings. And new books are arriving, 537 a day.

Register Not Candidate For Health Officer

Goldboro, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Dr. F. M. Register, Wayne county health officer and for 12 years prior to July in charge of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, State Board of Health, said today he was not a candidate for State Health Officer.

Dr. Register made his statement when informed the Lee County Medical Society had endorsed him for the office.

"I would not have it thought I am seeking the office," he said.

Dr. Register retired from the State Board of Health in July when the Bureau of Vital Statistics was combined with another bureau of the State Health Department.

Attempt to Find Woman In Case of Missing N. Y. Judge

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Investigation into the disappearance of Supreme Court Justice Joseph P. Crater today centered in efforts to find the tall, blonde woman who threatened to start a $100,000 breach of promise action against him the day before he dropped from sight.

Called before the county grand jury, Samuel Buchler, attorney, is understood to have repeated the story he previously told the New York World that a woman, who said she was Lorraine Fay called at his office on August 5 and asked him to start suit against the jurist.

The fact that she did not return to the lawyer's office the next day as she promised and the withdrawal by Crater of $5,500 from the bank was regarded by the police as significant.

Buchler told the police he understood the woman to say she was staying at a hotel in the midtown west side and as a result all hotels in that section were being combed for her. The name she gave the attorney is believed fictitious.

The grand jury, meanwhile, has adjourned until Monday to give investigators an opportunity to follow the new clues.

Major Fitzmaurice Held by Immigration Authorities at N. Y.

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Major James Fitzmaurice, who flew from Ireland to Greenley Island in the Bremen with Koehl and Von Huegel two years ago was detained by immigration authorities today as he arrived from a visit in Europe.

Major Fitzmaurice returned to this country last year under a six-month visitor's permit after resigning his post in the Irish Air Service. Last March he secured a six-month extension, which expires October 22.

When he left recently for Europe he was under the impression that his visitor's passport still was good and did not secure a new one.

After a conference immigration officers decided to admit and parole Major Maurice in his own custody.

The Major was detained only a few hours aboard the liner as the guest of Captain Conrad Luck.

Sixteen True Bills Against Raleigh Brokerage Firm

Raleigh, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Sixteen true bills on indictments charging Carey E. Duffey and S. Wade Marr, partners in the defunct brokerage firm of Duffey and Marr, with embezzlement of $11,726.30 and sixty shares of stock from seven out-of-town customers, today were on file in Wake County Superior court. The firm failed September 10. Solicitor Leon S. Brassfield sent the bills of indictment to the grand jury on information furnished by Stanley Winborne, state securities commissioner. Each transaction is treated in a separate indictment.

An audit of the firms books, now in progress, is expected by the solicitor to reveal other transactions similar to those on which the indictments were secured. The indictments do not include one in connection with an admitted defalcation of $225,000 from the estate of Mrs. Florence B. Tucker of which Duffey was executor.

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, unchanged, 12 to 4 points lower under some other night selling orders which appeared to be partly from the South. Hedging was a little more active according to some observers, but it appeared to be quite readily absorbed around the initial prices by covering and trade buying.

The latter was believed to be partly for foreign account including houses with Liverpool and Japanese connections, but the volume of business tapered off after the first few minutes and the market was comparatively quiet at the end of the first half hour. Prices held fairly steady around 10.90 for raw October and 11.35 for March, or about 2 to 4 points net lower. Liverpool was just about as due on the New York close of yesterday. Private cables said there had been continental and Bombay buying there and reported fair sales of cotton cloths to Indian and China.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Sept. 19.—(AP)—General selling with absence of adequate buying support forced grain values today into new tumblers that in the late dealings went from bad to worse. Scan; export demand for North American wheat was in evidence, total European purchases today being but 200,000 to 300,000 bushels with Russia said to be offering wheat heavily. A prominent Chicago trader who returned today from a five months' trip to Europe said he found conditions abroad generally poor except in France.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The stock market broke below recent resistance levels today in active selling, that was stimulated by a rumor of political troubles in Germany. Seizing this report, which quickly proved to be unfounded, as ammunition for their own guns, professional bears offered leading issues in large blocks and succeeded in bringing out considerable liquidation from other sources. Volume increased sharply. Denial of the rumor concerning German arrest of the break shortly after noon when losses of 3 to 5 points or more had developed, but the market, after making an irregular recovery turned dull for a time and then went into an other decline in which the earlier recessions were extended. U. S. Steel, dropping to 163, was off 4 points, while American Can, Johns-Manville, Sears Roebuck, Bethlehem Steel, DuPont, United Aircraft and Eastman lost 3. Westinghouse Electric broke more than 6, J. I. Case dropped 7 and Worthington Pump and Allied Chemical about 8. American Telephone and General Electric yielded a couple of points.

The weakness of the market found many holders ready to part with their stocks. Some disappointment has been expressed this week over the failure of the anticipated business revival to materialize in a broad way and many who had made purchases during the advances of late August and early September had placed stop loss orders which were uncovered by the declines.

The day's reports from industry and trade were rather nondescript although it appeared that large copper producers had definitely cut the domestic price to 10 1-2 cents a pound. The custom smelters were also holding at that figure.

Steadiness of the Department of Labor's commodity index in August, which was unchanged from July, was attributed chiefly to the rally in farm produce prices last month because of severe drought, for many of the other important groups of staples declined.

There were a few unfavorable dividend actions, notably by the directors of Park & Tilford and Dunhill International. On the other hand, Allegheny Steel voted an extra dividend and Diamond Shoe increased its rate. Wall street heard

Lipton Gives Up Attempt to Win American Race

Newport, R. I., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Defeated in his fifth attempt to regain for Britain the America's cup, Sir Thomas Lipton has abandoned his fruitless quest.

As sirs shrieked signaling another American victory, the 80-year-old Irish sportsman said: "It's the end of the race. It's the finish, yes, the finish. I will not challenge again. Its no use. We cannot win."

The victorious American yacht Enterprise clinched the series by covering the 30-mile course in the fourth race yesterday in three hours, 10 minutes, 13 seconds, the fastest time ever made in the sixty years since Britain first challenged for the cup in American waters. She beat Sir Thomas' Shamrock by five minutes and 17 seconds.

be willing to abandon its opposition.

The intricate puzzle of what to do in the situation created by Cuba's opposition was not, however, completely cleared. Cuba maintained that entering into effect of the protocol affecting the number and status of judges was against her interests.

Senor Ferrara, member of the Cuban delegation, said that 22 or 23 states had not ratified the protocol. He said Cuba might ratify after other states had.

The French and Belgian representatives suggested that eleven judges and four deputy judges be selected as under the present statute, with the provision that the deputies automatically should become regular judges upon enactment of the new statute. Other delegates opposed this on technical grounds.

Both Professor Baker and Rene Cassin, of France, emphasized today that the World Court situation is in a "terrible muddle" and that Cuba's insistence under her rights to prevent the protocol of revision coming into effect is "the last of the protocol itself" and, according to the French expert, also the "last of the adhesion of the United States to the statutes of the court."

Gorman's Market Report

Prices on the bodied tobaccos are improving each day and we look for still better prices on the good and fine tobaccos the coming week. The sales are getting larger each day and with a second sale we sold until four o'clock today. Keep your tobacco dry and free from strings and foreign matter and bring it to GORMAN'S. We are working harder than ever for our customers and we are told many—many times each day that we are running the best sale on the market. We realize that you need every dollar you can get for this crop and we are not turning a single pile loose until we have squeezed every possible cent out of it for you. We know tobacco, know how to sell it, have the experience and the confidence of the buyers and no one will work harder for you. Bring your next load to GORMAN'S and let us convince you.

IN REVERSE!
A triumph for the
NEW
"CRACK-PROOF" TEXACO

DRIVE a few yards in reverse gear. Notice how the engine races. Notice what a pull it places on your motor! Then imagine driving across the entire continent, from New York to Los Angeles and back—all the way in reverse!

That's exactly what the "back-up" boys, world's champion reverse drivers, did with a Ford at a speed of 10 to 12 miles an hour. This is equal, according to Ford authorities, to 50 to 60 miles in high gear.

Success depended upon perfect lubrication

Practically all radiator ventilation and fan cooling were eliminated by driving backward. Their engine speed, equivalent to 50 to 60 miles in high gear, was maintained for 42 consecutive days. The abnormal engine heat was intensified to almost scorching proportions on the Great Salt Lake Desert, where the thermometer registered 121° F. Anything less than perfect lubrication would have spelled disaster.

Crack-proof Texaco meets every test

After they had conducted many comparative tests they selected the new crack-proof Texaco as the one motor oil most likely to withstand the terrific heat and engine strain. And once again the new Texaco has lived up to every expectation—has proved its longer-lasting qualities that will not break down under any driving conditions.

Modern engines demand an extra margin of protection. They demand better lubrication. Car owners demand lower oil consumption, smoother, quieter engines and freedom from carbon.

The new crack-proof Texaco Motor Oil and Texaco-Ethyl, the "dry" Ethyl Gasoline, provide all these advantages. Wherever you may be, stop at the first Texaco Service Station—where you see the Texaco Red Star with the Green T.
