TWO NEGROES EXECUTED AT CAPITAL CITY

Aaron Sharpe and Berry Richardson Pay for Brutal Murder Wilson Farmer

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Two Wilson county negroes paid with their lives in the electric chair at state's prison today for the brutal murder and robbery of Callie Williford, aged Wilson county farmer.

Aaron Sharpe was the first of the couple to go to the chair, followed by Berry Richardson.

Two other negroes convicted of the same crime and sentenced to be electrocuted today were granted reprieves by Gov. Gardner yesterday. Sharpe and Richardson confessed that they alone were guilty of the killing and robbing of Williford, declaring they implicated Wright Bynum and William Randall in an attempt to escape the electric chair by getting more men involved than the state would electrocute.

The double electrocution was the first since 1925. In that year two double electrocutions were held, Thomas Robertson of New Hanover county, and John McMillan of Moore county, died October 6 of that year for separate crimes in their respective counties and April 17, 1925, the Stewarts, father and son, from Brunswick county, were electrocuted.

Sharpe and Richardson reiterated in statements this morning before their deaths that Bynum and Randall are innocent of the crime for which they were convicted. The two men told five negro ministers who were with them before and when they died that their last hope was that the two would be set free by Governor Gardner.

This morning Bynum and Randall were happy men for the first time in weeks. Late yesterday they were notified they would not die today. Randall had already lost his appetite when lunch hour came yesterday and last night he told prison authorities he was "too happy to eat." He ate breakfast this morning, however.

Richardson was the confessed actual slayer of Williford. He after robbing the man of about $250 the negroes set fire to his body.

Yesterday Sharpe told prison officials he would not eat breakfast this morning and both he and Richardson were served cheese and eggs last night but this morning both ate a small breakfast before going to the chair.

The two men, the 104th and 105th victims of the chair since it was installed in 1916, entered the death chamber flanked by five ministers and did not seem worried at all as the spectre of death hovered over them as they walked firmly to the chair.

Sharpe, who needed three distinct shocks to take his life as co-executioner, Garland Jones, Wake county, handled the switch. It took only one shock to kill Richardson. 20. Co-executioner Joe Cline, prison guard, handled the switch.

The two negroes had little to say after being placed in the chair. Sharpe's only words were "praise the Lord and Richardson was shouting "Lord, I'm saved. Lord," as the current raced through his body.

In statements given the Rev. D. J. Flynn, Negro minister, the two men blamed their downfalls on "the company and bad whiskey" and advised others to "go straight."

Sharpe and Richardson were the second and third persons from Wilson county to be executed in the electric chair. May 5, 1911 Lewis West, negro, was executed for killing a deputy sheriff. At the time O. A. Glover, now sheriff of Wilson county, was wounded by West. Glover witnessed West's execution and also the two today.

Twenty Injured In Bus Crash in Va.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 26.—(AP)—Twenty persons were injured, at least one seriously, in the crash near Hybla Valley, Va., of a Washington/Vermont bus late last night. Some seats of the machine were crushed together as it struck a tree after leaving the road on a curve.

The injured were rushed to Alexandria by ambulances and passing motorists. Norman Dove, driver of the bus, was believed to have sustained a fractured skull, internal injuries and several broken bones.

Most of the passengers were believed to be tourists bound for Southern points. Eyewitnesses said the bus was traveling too fast for the driver to make a sharp curve in the road and bounded head-on into a large tree.

The injured were: Alex. Deloitte Thompson, Haw River, N. C., bruises and cuts about body; Alonzo Patrick, Columbia, S. C., cuts on face and leg.

BAILEY MAKES FIERY SPEECH TO GASTONIANS

Charges Republican Party With Falling In Hands of Predatory Interests

Gastonia, Sept. 26.—(AP)—J. W. Bailey, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, continuing his campaign swing through the Piedmont and Western sections of the State, declared here today that the "Republican party has utterly failed" because it has "passed into the hands of selfish and predatory interests."

The Republican party, the Democratic nominee said, has since the election of Harding proceeded upon the "simple plan of selling the favors and privileges of the government for campaign contributions. It has been bought and it is owned by those who bought it."

"They know that they cannot enact a tariff bill for protection; they know that they must under the guise of protection work out their tariff measures in the interest of privilege."

"The Republican party is a party of which the people have lost control. There are always enough irresponsible delegates in the South to be had for money to swing any Republican National convention. The Republican machine always gets them and it always nominates its candidate. That is about all that the Republican party in the southern states exist for."

"The simple truth," Mr. Bailey continued, "is that the Republican party is so controlled that measures of popular relief are no longer possible by means of it. This is why the present administration has failed. It knew where the trouble was; it knew that, unless there should be relief, there would be grave depression; it knew and named the remedy; but when it was given the power to apply it, it failed because, constituted as it was, it could not apply it."

"The political party that depends upon predatory interests for financial support can never serve the people."

Special Election Called To Elect Stedman Successor

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Governor O. Max Gardner today ordered a special election to be held on November 4, general election day, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Charles Merly Stedman of Greensboro.

It is expected that the Congressional district executive committees of the Democratic and Republican parties will nominate the candidates to be voted on November 4 to fill the term of Major Stedman which will expire next March.

Major Stedman died in Washington Tuesday after representing the Fifth Congressional District for nearly 20 years.

Charles H. Robertson of Hillsboro is chairman of the Democratic FIFTH District executive committee.

Two Accusers Say They Believe Methodist Bishop Will Be Unsuccessful in Having Their Charges Set Aside Following His Return From Brazil

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Rev. Costen J. Harrell, of Richmond, Va., one of the four ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, who have brought charges against Bishop James Cannon, Jr., told the Baltimore conference of that church here today he supposed controversy in the church "must be, because we are human."

The clergyman did not mention the complaints against Bishop Cannon. With the Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, of Baltimore, he last night expressed belief Cannon would not be able to have the investigation they sought set aside.

"But one thing that we can do is this," he said to the meeting today. "We can prevent these controversies from turning our minds from our chief business—that of feeding men's inner life."

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—In the face of a protest from Bishop James Cannon, Jr., over the manner in which new charges have been filed against him by four ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, two of his accusers were today on record as maintaining they had followed "the spirit and letter" of their church law in bringing the complaints.

Dr. Forrest J. Prettyman of Baltimore and Rev. Costen J. Harrell of Richmond, Va., expressed belief the bishop would be unsuccessful in having their investigation set aside. Bishop Cannon, now on his way to the United States from Brazil, told the Associated Press by cable he would file a protest on the ground he had not been conferred with before the charges were filed.

The four ministers advised him of their action by cable and, they said, his reply constituted acknowledgment of the charges. These are now in the hands of Bishop Ainsworth of the College of Bishops, who may appoint a committee to pass on the advisability of holding a church trial.

Dr. Pettyman expressed opinion that on the basis of their investigation "we have neither the moral nor the legal right to hold up the process until all the facts pertaining to this case are brought into full view."

The two churchmen here for a session of the Baltimore conference of the church, refused to divulge their charges. Bishop Cannon successfully faced an earlier group of charges brought against him on the basis of his political activities and stock market transactions. The new allegations are understood to cover these activities and also to take in other aspects of his conduct.

The present case, Dr. Pettyman said, is the first in the Southern Methodist church in which a bishop has been cited for trial in this manner.

Woman Succumbs to Injuries Received in Automobile Wreck

Mrs. Gertrude Staton Bowen, who died of injuries sustained in an automobile wreck at Fleming's Cross Roads September 8th, was buried Wednesday afternoon at the home place near House Station. The funeral services were conducted from Kenneth Staton's home Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Roberts, of the Primitive Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Lee Sadler, pastor of the Christian church of Greenville.

Besides her husband, H. L. Bowen she is survived by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Staton, and one brother, Lonnie Staton.

Mrs. Bowen received a fractured skull and vertebrae when the car of which she was an occupant, turned over when they were forced from the road by another automobile. Several other persons who were in the car suffered minor injuries. Mrs. Bowen was brought to the hospital in this city, but little hope was held out for her recovery.

TO HOLD HEARING IN LAWRENCE CASE

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—A. H. Graham, executive counsel, announced today that he would hold a hearing here Thursday on the Harvey Lawrence case.

Lawrence, young Hertford county negro, lost an appeal to the State Supreme Court this week and is scheduled to be electrocuted October 10 for first degree burglary.

Fights Plague

Dr. Percy Watson of Northfield, Minn., medical missionary of the American Board of Foreign Missions, has been summoned by Chinese authorities to fight bubonic plague epidemic in Shansi province.

HUGH GIBSON TALKS OVER ARMAMENT

Visit of Ambassador to Belgium Revives Discussion in This Country

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Disarmament again is claiming attention of the government in studies directed at American participation in the forthcoming Geneva meeting of the preparatory disarmament commission.

Relegated to the background after the ratification of the London naval treaty, the subject of armament reduction has been brought to the fore by the visit of Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium.

He discussed the question with President Hoover and State Department officials on his arrival in Washington. He will hold further conferences concerning the commission session before leaving for Europe.

The League of Nations' commission is to meet November 3 to complete the second part of its sixth session in preparation for a general disarmament conference. Its task is the preparation of a formula for world-wide sea, land and air disarmament. Ambassador Gibson advised Hugh S. Wilson, minister to Switzerland, have represented the United States at past sessions and in the absence of indications to the contrary, their continued participation was anticipated here.

The American interest in the session is directed largely at the naval phases as the land forces of this country are proportionately so small as to be outside of comparison with those of the other powers.

No agenda for the November meeting has been received but officials at the State Department assumed some conditions dealt with in the London treaty would come under discussion. Rules for scrapping ships and the exemption of certain classes of vessels from limitation are among those.

Fruit Trees Are Blooming Again In Pitt County

Ambitious fruit trees in Pitt county are trying to put forth two crops this year instead of the customary one, according to information furnished the reflector today by S. I. Dindley, well known dairyman and farmer residing on the opposite side of Tar River.

Mr. Dudley said he had two pear trees and a plum tree in full bloom, giving forth strong indication of fruitage under favorable weather conditions. The same trees bore their usual crop during the spring and summer. He also has a roset apple in bloom which almost died during the drought several weeks ago.

The pear and plum trees are not by themselves in this increased production program, according to J. T. Manning, who reported two June apple trees in full bloom after having produced a bountiful crop in the spring.

INDIANA MAN RENAMED TO TARIFF BODY

Personnel of Commission Completed With the Reappointment of Dixon

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Lincoln Dixon of North Vernon, Indiana, today was reappointed a member of the Tariff Commission by President Hoover, completing the personnel of that agency.

The sixth member of the commission, a Democrat, has served as a tariff commissioner since 1927. The appointment was made after the chief executive had conferred today with Chairman Fletcher.

It was said at the White House that the President had encountered more difficulty in selecting the six members of the commission than with any other appointments he has made. The commission is bipartisan under the law. The President was said to have sought to have it represent the various geographical sections of the country.

Commissioner Dixon is the first named from the middle west. With his appointment, reorganization of the Tariff Commission is expected to go forward at once.

Chairman Fletcher, after he and the other four members were appointed Sept. 16, said reorganization would await appointment of the other Democratic member.

In addition to Chairman Fletcher, a Republican, and Mr. Dixon, the commission is composed of two other former members, Edgar B. Bronsard, Republican, Utah, and Alfred P. Dennis, Democrat, Maryland, and Thomas Walker, Sage Democrat, of Virginia and Dr. John Lee Coulter, Republican, North Dakota.

GOV. GARDNER MAKES PLEA FOR ORPHANS

Chief Executive Principal Speaker at the Meeting of the Orphanage Association

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The greatest service that the orphanage can render to the children of their keeping is to bring the contact of personality to bear on the boys and girls. Gov. O. Max Gardner told the members of the North Carolina Orphanage Association here today.

The governor spoke to a gathering of the body held at the Methodist Caphanage.

In this time of stress, the governor said, the orphanages of North Carolina have had thrown on them the opportunity and responsibility to instill into the boys and girls in their ideal of service to the state that will make them go out and serve North Carolina.

The governor pointed out the distress of the times and declared unless there is a change in the economic structure of things this winter Mrs. Bost's public welfare department is going to have the biggest job in North Carolina, the saddest and most difficult feature of which will be the little child in the home.

The governor urged that orphanages train their children in an atmosphere of democracy, letting them stand on the same terms of equality and sending them out imbued not with the institutional spirit but with a spirit of personality and service.

"There is nothing that can take place of the true American home," Governor Gardner said, "but the American home is not ideal and is under the severest scrutiny and criticism."

Pointing out the recent sentencing of two young men and a young woman for bank robbery in Rowan county, the governor said something has broken down in the home. He said in all the cases which have come to his attention in the state he did not remember finding one criminal who had been reared in an orphanage.

Mrs. W. T. Bost, state commissioner of public welfare, and Dr. A. W. Anderson of the State Hospital also addressed the meeting. A second session, and business meeting were to be held this afternoon.

N. Y. Republicans Adopt Platform Providing For Repeal Of The Dry Law

Highest Price Average Of Season Established On Local Leaf Market

Tobacco prices, one of the most widely discussed subjects of this part of the state the last several weeks, hit the upgrade here yesterday and enabled the Greenville Tobacco Market to establish the highest price average of the season, according to the official report of the supervisor of sales, made public this morning. The average was given as $12.29 per hundred pounds, which is nearly a $1 higher than any previous figure of the season.

The report of the supervisor indicated that the market yesterday disposed of a total of 942,514 pounds of tobacco for a total sum of $115,924.95. The offerings were composed largely of black tips and other common grades which prevented the price average from soaring to higher levels.

There was about a million and a quarter pounds of leaf on the floors of the nine warehouses when sales began this morning, and opinion was expressed that the houses would be cleared during the late afternoon. Prices continued to reflect strength, and this was noticeable especially on the better grades of tobacco.

Continued improvement of the price situation fulfills predictions of tobaccoists made during the first part of the season that prices would advance when the farmers began marketing their better grades. Although only small quantities of the good grades have been offered the last few days, they have been the center of spirited bidding and boosted the market average to no little extent.

NEGRO THIEF LANDED BACK OF JAIL BARS

William McKinley Arrested After Stealing Check From Farmer Here

William McKinley started out this morning with the intention of gaining some easy money, so he tried the check-snatching game. The trick didn't work so well and William is confined in the city jail this afternoon awaiting trial on a charge of theft.

The negro visited tobacco town this morning and saw numbers of farmers receiving checks for crops of crops which they had worked long and hard faithfully to produce. He had seen thousands of men paid off in a like manner before, but somehow he became obsessed with a desire to own one of the checks and to enjoy the proceeds derived from same.

As the desire assumed definite form his eyes fell upon a check sticking out of the hip pocket of F. F. Tripp, who had just sold a load of tobacco and had received a check for something over $100. McKinley didn't know how much the check was for, probably, but he knew he could have a good time if he stole it and got it cashed.

Tripp, busy talking, didn't feel the check as it was slipped from his pocket. But a few minutes later he reached around to find the check. It was missing. He immediately got busy and notified city banks to be on the lookout for the check.

A telephone rang at the Greenville Banking & Trust Company as William McKinley presented the check for payment. The teller answered the phone, and received information concerning the missing check. The negro fled out the front door with the teller closely behind him. After a short chase, the darkey found himself in the custody of a bluecoat and was marched down to the city jail. He will be held to await trial.

League Votes to Call Disarmament Conference Soon

Geneva, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The disarmament committee of the League of Nations Assembly today declined to direct that a general disarmament conference be called in 1931.

While defeating the German proposal to authorize the council to call a general disarmament conference in the year 1931, the committee decided to say in its report that the assembly "expressed the desire" that the conference be held before the end of next year.

The resolution finally adopted by the committee asked the council to summon a general disarmament conference "as soon as possible."

Plank Incorporated in Convention Platform By Vote of 733 to 258; Accompanying Pledge Would Keep Out Saloon Forever; Charge Democrats With Inefficiency and Waste; United States Attorney Tuttle Conceded Nomination for Governor On First Ballot

Albany, Sept. 26.—(AP)—By a vote of 733 to 258 the New York Republican state convention incorporated in its party platform a plank calling for the repeal of the 18th amendment.

There was no debate on the proposition, members of the dry minority contented themselves with having their opposition placed on record.

The roll call on the repeal plank was taken under a special rule, which permitted the convention to adopt unanimously the rest of the platform before taking up the prohibition plank.

United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle of New York, was conceded the nomination for governor on the first ballot.

The platform offered to the convention has as its cornerstone a request for repeal of the 18th amendment, with an accompanying pledge to keep the saloon out forever, an attack on the Democratic state administration for "inefficiency and waste" and condemnation of corruption in the Democratic controlled cities of New York and Albany.

Friends of James A. Read urged him to return to public life when he visited Washington after a European trip. They asked him to become a candidate for Democratic presidential nomination.

MANY INJURED BY STORM IN MIDDLE WEST

Chicago, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Snow in the Black Hills, destructive winds and lightning in the corn belt and a storm of tornado proportions ripping across the Mississippi Valley—this was the weather picture the middle west looked back upon today.

Snow, Hail, Rain and Wind Afford Varied Menu for Number of States

Many persons were injured in the Iowa storms which swept with varying intensity from as far west as Council Bluffs east to Keokuk on the Mississippi. Miles of wires blown down. Farm homes were destroyed. Crops suffered.

There were hail storms and rain in Galesburg, Ill. streets were flooded and there was a fall of hail so heavy as to break many windows.

A barn was torn apart by the wind at Summitville, Ia., and C. A. Phillips, seeking shelter there, was severely injured by flying timbers. Miss Margaret Hise a university student, was caught beneath a wind-tumbled tree at Iowa City. Injuries that may prove fatal, fell O. L. Lawrence who was in a barn struck by lightning at Council Bluffs, Ia.

There was property and crop damage near Alba, Ia. The neighbors of Stuart, Atlantic, were hit.

The most severe of the storms was at Summitville, which is about seven miles north of Keokuk. There houses were unroofed, windows shattered and trees torn out by their roots. Several orchards, heavy with apples, were destroyed.

There is also a pledge to continue labor legislation along the lines of the laws enacted last winter.

On waterpower there is a promise for speedy solution on sound economic principles; on utilities an indirect promise to add the bills vetoed last winter by Governor Roosevelt to the list of those enacted into law at that time; solution of unemployment would be sought by encouraging employers and employees to lay aside portions of their earnings for time of need; and there is support of the proposed bond issue to increase hospital facilities.

There is also a pledge to continue labor legislation along the lines of the laws enacted last winter.

Urged 'As Candidate

Friends of James A. Read urged him to return to public life when he visited Washington after a European trip. They asked him to become a candidate for Democratic presidential nomination.

After attacking the Roosevelt administration the platform promises correction of what it terms administration weakness.

The party promises adoption of laws "to terminate the tenure of party office or public office of any official who, called upon to testify regarding public acts, invokes his constitutional privilege and refuses to answer."

The bitterly contested plank on prohibition also pledges abolition of private traffic in intoxicants for private profit, guarantees effort for Federal aid to states which seek to bar intoxicants and asks enforcement of the dry law so long as it is on the statute books.

On waterpower there is a promise for speedy solution on sound economic principles; on utilities an indirect promise to add the bills vetoed last winter by Governor Roosevelt to the list of those enacted into law at that time; solution of unemployment would be sought by encouraging employers and employees to lay aside portions of their earnings for time of need; and there is support of the proposed bond issue to increase hospital facilities.

Gant Case Before the Grand Jury

Greensboro, Sept. 26.—Consideration of several bills of indictment, not yet acted upon before the Guilford County grand jury today as that body resumed work on charges against Mason W. Gant, resigned clerk of the Guilford Superior court, against whom 11 indictments charging irregularities in handling pension funds have been returned.

The indictments against Gant charge forgery, embezzlement, abstraction and misapplication of Confederate pension checks.

R. C. Carter, member of the auditing firm of Dixon, Russ and Carter, of Raleigh, who is here assisting in an examination of Gant's book, said yesterday he had found that approximately $16,000 has been issued from the office since the death of pensioners. This money, he said, should have been turned over to the State Pension Board at Raleigh and represents the apparent shortage he found in Gant's books.

Chicago Too Tough For Jackie Oalie

Chicago, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Jackie Oalie, one of the moving picture people, has completed a personal appearance here and left for much to his manager's relief.

Chicago. In the opinion of the manager, Marty Myrlyn, is just as tough as he thought it was. It seems that during his week here he was harassed by pugilists and low fellows, who spoke in casual tones of murder and mayhem unless Mr. Myrlyn or Mr. Oalie contributed $1,000 to them.

"The first two men who came to see Mr. Oalie were very polite. They wanted $1,000 for a benefit of some kind," Myrlyn said. "The next day, however, two rough persons appeared and talked very hostile. This returned Mr. Oalie was very much upset."

"Why didn't you call the police?" he was asked.

"You can't fool me," said the movie star's manager, "I know all about Chicago policemen. I read the New York papers."

The family gathered at Piney Grove church where services were enjoyed. They then gathered back to the old home place at Frog Level where dinner was spread on the ground. After the crowd gathered around the table Mrs. Moye, Mrs. J. D. McLawhorn, her only sister, and Mrs. Meekin Moye, sister-in-law, came marching down beside the table, her fourteen children following on behind them, after which Rev. Davidson gave thanks.

After they enjoyed the nice dinner they gathered back to the house where the afternoon was spent in interesting conversations.

Mrs. Moye is the mother of fourteen children, which were all present, forty-five grandchildren, thirty-six present; sixteen great-grandchildren and six present. Also a number of relatives and friends.

After Mrs. Moye had spent the day with her children and friends, she went into her room where she found many nice and useful gifts.

The crowd left in the late afternoon declaring they had spent a most enjoyable day, wishing her many more happy days.

Duke Some Shot
St. Andrews—It looks as if the Duke of York would be an unperturbed competitor in a golf tournament attended by big galleries. He had taken his stance on the first tee when a nurse and baby carriage passed along a road dead ahead. He waived and tried again. Then came the town dustman and his cart. The Duke waited once more than cracked out a 200-yard shot toward Swilcan Burn.

Special music will also be a feature at both services.

Curtis to Take Stump in Campaign

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Vice-President Curtis, veteran Republican warrior, is going to take the stump in the Congressional campaigns.

He is responding to the party call which brought him into action in one of the most vigorous campaigns of history two years ago when he was nominated as vice-president after he had fought it out against Herbert Hoover for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Mr. Curtis will open his speaking tour at Wilmington, Delaware, on October 6. He will go from there to Clarksburg, West Virginia Oct. 8, stopping at Springfield, O., the following day to dedicate a monument to John Rogers Clark, explorer of the northwest territory.

Republican party leaders reported many requests for Curtis but the Vice-President urged that his speaking dates be confined to territory between here and his home state of Kansas where he will go to vote. His other engagements have not been announced.

Faison Thompson Named Director Caswell School

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—J. Faison Thompson, of Goldsboro, today was appointed a member of the board of directors of Caswell Training School by Gov. O. Max Gardner. Mr. Thompson's term will expire May 1, 1933. He succeeds V. O. Parker of Raleigh, resigned.

To Spare Goldenrod
West Orange N. J.—The rod—Goldenrod—shall be spared at the behest of Thomas A. Edison. In behalf of hay fever sufferers it had been decided to exterminate it and penalize gardeners who reared it. But the wizard, who is working on schemes to make rubber out of goldenrod, intervened. He wrote the Chamber of Commerce warning against folly. He pointed out that the Gaspie Peninsula in Canada is profused in goldenrod and shy on hay fever and ragweed. The campaign therefore, will be against ragweed.

CARL GOERCH PRAISES WORK OF CIVIC CLUBS

Washington Newspaperman Principal Speaker At the Lions Club Last Night

Carl Goerch, Washington newspaperman, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Lions club at the Friendly Dining room last night. He stressed the important part which service clubs are playing in promoting a greater spirit of friendship among the various towns of the country.

He also referred to the existing tendency to try to pick out the bad things about a person instead of the good. In these times, he declared, it is imperative that people pull together, but this cannot be done if one man is eternally trying to find a flaw in his neighbor's character. He urged greater co-operation in order that a spirit of friendship might be built up among people in all walks of life.

S. T. Carson presided over the meeting last night and the usual supper was enjoyed.

The club was told of the campaign now underway to plant trees in the city of Greenville and to encourage the preservation of those already on hand. It was stated that the city had been divided into wards, with each of the various civic organizations being assigned to some specific district.

The public will be urged to plant trees in their yards and on walks as a means of beautifying residential districts and affording more shade during the hot summer months. The club voted to work in conjunction with the other organizations and to use its every influence for the success of the tree movement.

John Hassell was received as a new member to the rapidly growing organization. The club has experienced healthy growth since its formation here about a year ago and members plan to greatly increase the membership during the next several months.

Three Killed When Aerial Falls Over High Tension Wires

Pine Bluff, Ark., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Disconnecting a radio aerial, a 200 minute chore preparatory to moving to another residence, last night led to the death of three young men. The aerial fell across a 2,300 volt power line and electrocuted the trio.

After taking the aerial from a pole, Ulysses Long, 25, walked on end of the wire and was instantly killed. His brother in law, Louis D. Holcomb, 22, came to his assistance and met his death after taking hold of the aerial. His brother, Walter Holcomb, 16, rushed in and he too was killed.

Mrs. Blanche Long, 23, wife of the first victim and sister of the Holcomb brothers, standing nearby took a stick and knocked the wire loose from the victims hands but they were dead when she reached them.

ABOUT TOWN

The many robberies and hold-ups reported from various sections of the country should discourage people from carrying large sums of money around in their pockets.

Right recently a farmer was killed for a pitifully small sum, the proceeds derived from the sale of a load of tobacco. Similar instances of robberies for money have occurred in other sections of the state and they will continue to occur as long as people make a habit of pocketing their cash until they get ready to use it.

It matters not if you intend spending your money the next hour after you receive it, you should carry it to a bank and deposit it. This will not only prevent you from losing it but it will afford a permanent record of the fund which may stand you in good stead in the years to come in case some question regarding payment should turn up.

Hold-up men are forever on the alert for the man with a comfortable bank roll tucked away in his pocket, and when they have spotted him they lose little time about rounding him up. He may get off with his life, but in many cases resistance results in either serious injury or death.

Think the matter over, Mr. Citizen, and the next time you have money on your person, take it to the bank and deposit it. It is by far the safest plan, and safety in finances is what everybody should be looking for these days when dollars are so hard to obtain.

Haywood Dall, secretary and man-of-all-work of the Pitt County Fair, is of the opinion that farm exhibits will be better this year than ever before. He has already seen a tendency on the part of leading growers to offer stiff competition for the hundreds of prizes in this department and expressed hope that others would get in the race.

Mr. Dall is making an effort to increase interest in agricultural exhibits this season and if the men and women of the farms of this section will do their part the ambition will be fully realized.

Nothing in the world tends to reveal the possibilities of a county more than exhibits of county fairs, and it should be the purpose of people in all walks of life to contribute everything they can to the success of the attraction.

If you have something unusual in the way of an exhibit, let the fair secretary know about it and give yourself a chance of becoming one of the blue ribbon winners this year. Bargain seekers—and there are as many in Pitt county as any other section of the country—should watch the advertisements of local merchants appearing in the columns of this paper from day to day. The merchants have splendid inducements to offer their patrons from time to time, but the person who fails to read the paper cannot hope to know about them like the person that does.

Make a habit of scanning the advertisements after reading the news. You should not only be able to reap a substantial saving in the course of the year, but will be more fully informed regarding the happenings in the business realm. Try the suggestion from day to day and at the end of the year figure up how much money you have saved and then thank us for opening your eyes to the possibilities of the advertising columns.

It will be good news to the people of Greenville to learn that the merchants are manifesting interest in the "envelope" advertising campaign recently started by the Merchants Association. This form of advertising will do more to put the city before the public than any other thing to be imagined at this time. It will mean that thousands of letters going to other parts of the country will convey their message of Greenville, "The Hub of Eastern Carolina."

The map to be printed on the back of the envelopes shows the city situated in the heart of the agricultural eastern district, with hard surfaced roads radiating in all directions. It will also furnish certain facts regarding the resources and possibilities of the city.

There is no better way of attracting the attention of people in other parts of the world than through an envelope advertising campaign such as that started by the association, and it is reasonable to believe good results will be obtained in much less time than expected.

Members of the Greenville high school football team engaged in the first battle of the season with Elizabeth City this afternoon, and if indications count for anything they are going to give the Pasquotank youngsters the battle of their lives for honors of the day.

Despite the handicap occasioned by the injury to Coach "Soup" Porter several days ago, the youngsters have developed real form under the direction of Ken Beatty, and promise to capture a majority of the contests of the Northeastern Athletic conference of which they are members.

Greenville people have been giving very little attention to the development of this brand of sport in the high school during the last few years, but it is hoped they will show more interest this season and inspire the boys to establish a record the city will be proud of. There is nothing like encouragement of home folks in a case of this kind, and if large attendance features all of the games on the local gridiron it may be said with confidence that the youngsters will take care of the games played away from home.

MR. DUDLEY'S SUIT IN SUPREME COURT

The Pitt County Tax Relief Association has given support to Mr. S. I. Dudley, nominee for membership of the Board of County Commissioners, because of his stand for economy and lower taxes in Pitt county, and to his efforts to prevent enlarging the indebtedness of the county. Mr. Dudley now has a suit pending in Pitt County Superior Court against the county charging that farm lands and homes in Pitt county are on the tax books in excess of their true value in money, and that the 1930-31 budget for county expenses is not made in accordance with the law.

As secretary of the above named association I have sought information to know the effect of Mr. Dudley's suit against the county on the collection of the 1930-31 taxes, and according to the information gained this suit must be tried before a jury. If a jury finds that the farm land is on the tax books in excess of its true value in money the tax assessments and levy are illegal and invalid. I was sighted to the following statement of law which is copied from the case of Norfolk Southern Railroad Company against the Board of Commissioners of Carteret County, in volume 188 N. C. Report, page 266; "Stacy, J. In this jurisdiction, a taxpayer may contest the validity of an assessment or collection of tax upon his property in one or two ways:

"1. He may pay the alleged illegal or invalid tax under protest and then bring action to recover it back, observing, of course, the requirements of a statute with respect to time, notice, etc. C. S. 7979.

"2. He may, if the tax or assessment, or some part thereof, be illegal or invalid, or be levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, apply for enjoinment relief without paying the alleged illegal or invalid tax in advance.

This law as explained to me is of great interest to Pitt County and to the taxpayers at this time. If we understand the law above quoted the 1930 tax assessment and levy by Pitt County cannot be collected under the law if the property on which the tax is assessed and levied is on the tax books in excess of its true value in money.

The immediate question which should be determined by those who have the best interest of Pitt County at heart is: Is the 1930 assessment and levy of taxes for the county illegal or invalid? If a jury says yes, these taxes cannot be collected.

The purpose of this communication is to suggest that Pitt County Tax Relief Association call a meeting before October 1st and determine what should be done under the present conditions to best serve Pitt County. In this connection it should be remembered that about 965 suits were brought by Pitt County to secure judgment for unpaid taxes for 1927 and previous years; that within a few weeks sales under these judgments will be made. How many we do not know. Some of these suits have been settled. The sales now being made in Wake County on the same kind of judgment are worse than a farce. They are real tragedies. The property has not sold in Wake county after deducting costs for much more than ten per cent of the tax assessed. What will be the condition in Pitt County under these judgment sales? Now is the time to think and plan. Which is most important to the citizenship of Pitt County, that homes and farms be retained by their owners, or that live in the memory of their fellow countrymen for years to come. They left their footprints on the sands of time, footprints that perhaps another forlorn shipwreck brother, sailing over life's stormy main, may see and take fresh courage again. W. L. BILBRO.

IN APPRECIATION OF TWO PROMINENT PITT COUNTY CITIZENS

In the passing of John D. Cox, the First Baptist church of Winterville has lost another one of its valuable members. But a short time ago, Brother A. G. Cox one of its most active and aggressive members passed into the great beyond. The passing of these two men was a great loss to the church, community and county. A. G. Cox was the Elijah of the Winterville section, and was very jealous for his God and Christianity. If scoffers came to his domain, he would combat them. He did not want the Winterville, environment tainted by any corrupt teaching. Brother John D. Cox was a different type of man. He was like the beloved John, patiently waiting for the manifestations of Christ and the purposes of God to ripen in a divine order. His presence in the hour of worship always gave to the service a spiritual inspiration, and an unctious that is rare in men. Neither of these men could fill the other's place. They were different in their temperament, but each one adopted to his life's work. Bro. A. G. Cox was prepared by nature to meet the world and bring things to pass, and when he laid his plans things must come to pass. Bro. J. D. Cox took a more complacent view of life, and believed that all would be right in the end, therefore, he moved along the even tenor of his way with less concern about the tragedy of life.

Two good men have passed to their reward—but their history will

Prices Continue To Improve

If you have been following the sales on the Greenville Market, you have no doubt been impressed with the way we handle our sales, and the big increase in number of pounds we are selling each day. Why is it so many farmers are selling tobacco at our house?—Because they have been firmly convinced that we are working for their interest at all times. Because they know that they are absolutely sure of the top market prices when they bring their tobacco to us. Because we have satisfied them in the past, and will do it again in the future.

CARDS ONE GAME FROM THE PENNANT

Only one game new stands between the St. Louis Cardinals and their third National League pennant in five seasons. They got back into action at home yesterday and beat Pittsburgh 9 to 0.

Chicago, managed by Rogers Hornsby, defeated Cincinnati 4 to 3. One more St. Louis victory or one defeat for the Cubs will settle the struggle. If Chicago wins its remaining games against the Reds and the Cards lose three to Pittsburgh, the season will end in a tie with a three-game play-off to decide the pennant winner.

As the veteran spitballer Burleigh Grimes held the Pirates to seven hits, the St. Louis bats collected a dozen effective blows.

Taylor Douthett, one of the few remaining survivors of the champion Cardinals of 1926, opened the action with a double and scored the first run on Frisch's single. Then with Adams and Frisch still on base, Jim Bottomley hammered a home run over the right field pavilion to give the Cards a 4 to 0 lead.

The Cubs got a start against Cincinnati, but the Reds proved troublesome. Hornsby, who became aggressive manager just before the game, sent Young Bud Tompkins to the mound and the youthful southpaw did well for eight frames. Home runs by English and Herzett in the first two innings started the Cubs off ahead and a few more timely blows gave Chicago a 4-1 lead going into the ninth. But then Tony Cucinello drove his second home run of the day over the left field wall. Harry Heilmann duplicated the wallop and Ford singled before Pat Malone was hurried in to save the game.

The American League champions, the Philadelphia Athletics, played six innings against the New York Yankees before rain halted the game. They piled up 17 hits off Huffing and Johnson and a 13 to 3 score. Lou Gehrig's 41st home run, made in the first inning, accounted for all the Yankee runs.

The second place Washington Senators, directed by first baseman Joe Judge, found the going somewhat tougher against the Boston Red Sox. They finally came out ahead, 3 to 2, as a few timely blows put over two runs in the seventh inning while Ad Liska gave six of Boston's eight hits to Scarritt and Rothrock. The Chicago-Detroit game was rained out, bringing a doubleheader for tomorrow.

OFFSPRING OF ROCKE WILL PLAY TONIGHT

Atlanta, Sept. 26 (AP)—The latest offspring of the Rocke system is to have its debut at Montgomery, Ala., tonight. The new creation is the Auburn football machine remodeled and refurbished by Coach Wynne, Jack Kiley and Jack Cannon of Notre Dame.

Without the benefit of spring drill, the Auburn squad has at its disposal master Rocke strategy with fundamental for side dishes in three weeks of strenuous practice. Intricate shifts, nimble forward passing maneuvers and tricky formations have replaced the old power plays that made Auburn ruler of the South's northern coast in the days gone by.

Birmingham-Southern will furnish the material for Auburn's test. Auburn has a young team, far more inexperienced in year than the gridders from Birmingham-Southern, but expects to get by this hurdle without great difficulty.

Down at Oxford, Mississippi University came to grips today with Union for a demonstration of "Pop" Warner tactics as handed down by Coaches Edward Walker and Chuck Smalling. The two teams have whipped 14 lettermen and 20 reserves from the 1929 campaign and several promising rookies into a formidable power plant.

Pipkins, fleet Furman back, pierced Newberry's defense last night at Greenville, S. C., for three touchdowns as the Purple triumphed, 49 to 0. Furman gave the fans a thrill and visiting army scouts a troublesome thought when they executed a smooth quadruple forward and lateral pass for 23 yards. Furman journeys to West Point for an October 4 intersectional argument.

Vanderbilt continues to concentrate on polishing its offense for a warm up encounter tomorrow with Chattanooga, while Tulane seeks a solution of its backfield problem before its meeting with Southwestern Louisiana. Duke's wall may be weakened for its Conference contest with South Carolina because of the illness of Captain Lee Davis, who has not recovered from a physical breakdown. Pop Warner, a sophomore, is being drilled as a replacement.

BRANCH QUARTERBACK - HEAD COACH COLLINS

MAGNER, LIPSCOMB, CAPTAIN NASH

Football fans will get their first line on the strength of the Carolina and Wake Forest teams when the two rivals meet here in Kenan Stadium at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Pictured above are Head Coach Chuck Collins and some of the veterans.

Injuries At Hill and Duke Causing Much Work Today

Charlotte, Sept. 25 (AP)—On the eve of important battles, opening rounds of the season, injuries at Chapel Hill and illness at Duke today gave two North Carolina Big Five football coaches something to worry about other than the correct execution of intricate plays.

Herb Nelson, senior and leading contender for the left end post on the Tar Heel team, is under the weather with a mild case of stonach poisoning. Although he will probably be able to start against Wake Forest at Chapel Hill tomorrow, he will not be up to his top form.

Davidson's scrappy Wildcats and North Carolina State's Wolfpack are due to furnish some real excitement in Greensboro tomorrow night. On paper, the teams stack up unusually even for a game so early in the season.

The Duke-South Carolina tilt at Durham is a contest doped to give the customers their money's worth. Apparently there is little to choose between the Blue Devils and the Gamecocks.

SMITH & SUGG — MARKET REPORT

SMITH & SUGG HAVE SOLD NEARLY 900,000 POUNDS OF TOBACCO THIS WEEK.

Prices were more satisfactory Thursday and Friday of this week than any time this season. Better grades selling up to 45c. Dozens of thoughtful farmers in the last few days have told us that they have been looking over other markets and say positively we are higher than any market they have seen. We had one lot of tobacco "taken in" on another market and we sold the same tobacco for double price. It will pay you to remove all doubt about the uncertainty of the market price for each grade of your tobacco, by selling with the Oldest Established Warehouse Firm in Greenville, Best Market in the State.

JONES LEADS SWEESTER IN GOLF PLAY

Merion Cricket Club, Ardmore, Pa., Sept. 26.—(AP)—Bobby Jones crushed Jess Sweester, 9 and 8, today in the semi-finals of the National Amateur Golf Championship. Jones won the last four holes in a row, two of them, with birdies to put his New York rival to rout and advance to the final round of the tournament in which he is favored to finish a clean sweep of national championships for the year.

Merion Cricket Club, Ardmore, Pa., Sept. 26.—(AP)—After withstanding a great comeback by his rival, Bobby Jones was 4 up over Jess Sweester of New York today after 18 holes of the 36 hole semi-final match in the national amateur championship.

Jones finished strongly to regain a commanding lead after Charlie Seaver, the 19-year-old Los Angeles youth, in the other semi-final match, swept into a lead of five up over Eugene V. Homans of Englewood, N. J.

Jones putted badly to lose the ninth after landing just off the green with his tee shot. He three-putted the tenth and three-putted the 12th after being lucky to win on the 11th, which both played badly.

A birdied 3 on the 15th, where he sank a six-footer, started Jones off on another rampage. He narrowly missed birdies on both the 7th and 18th but pars were good enough to beat sweester.

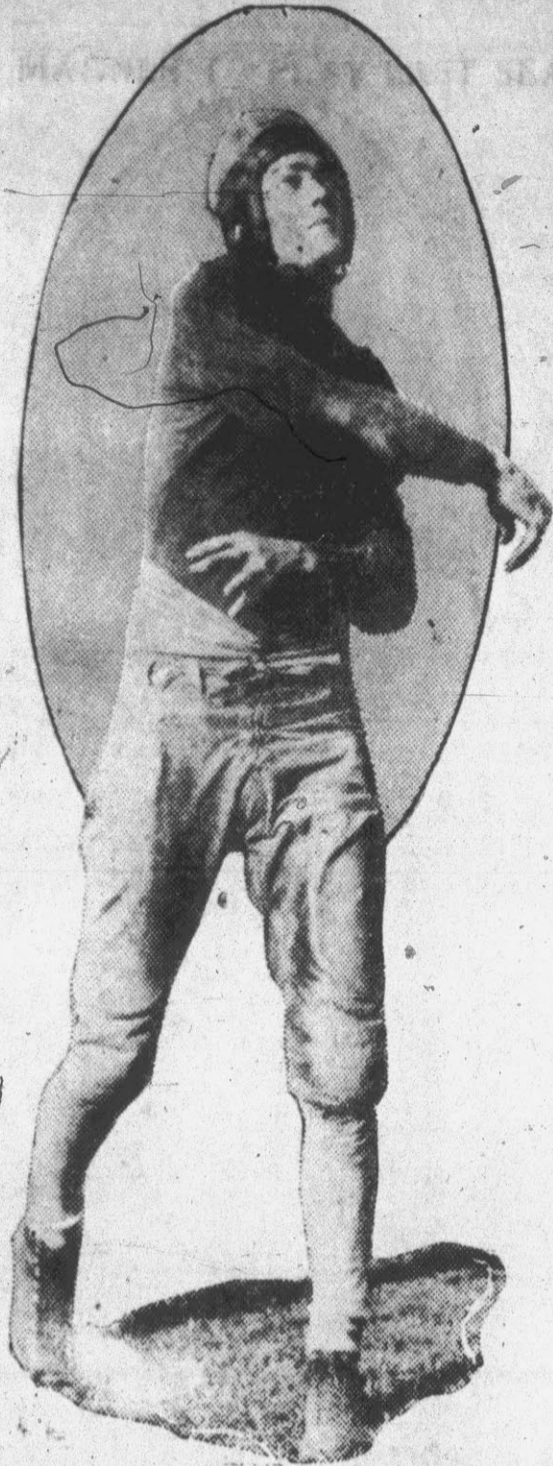

Homans had putting cost him four holes, but Seaver too failed several times with his putter in a pinch, notably when he missed a two footer at the 15th for what seemed to be sure birdie three. The Californian was consistently longer from the tee.

The Jersey boy's putting lapses started early in the day, when he took three putts on the second green.

Seaver scored the only other birdie of the round when he sent a niblick pitch six feet from the pin at the eighth and holed the putt for a three.

A partial stymie enabled the Los Angeles youth to win the 16th after both had reached the green with second shots over the deep quarry guarding the hole. Two bad tee shots at the short 17th and a home hole perfectly played by each, resulted in halves at the finishing holes.

JIM MAGNER TO PLAY LAST SEASON

One of the big guns of the Carolina attack in the Wake Forest game in Chapel Hill Saturday will be Jim Magner, (above) veteran halfback, who is beginning his last season with the Tar Heels. Last year Magner averaged 8 yards a try in carrying the ball and was mentioned for All-Southern by a number of sports authorities.

but subsequently he sued for damages because, he said, he had not obtained the lucrative work promised him for participation in this benefit in this benefit contest. This must have been very distressing for an amateur football star, so much so that Peters came east and I note that he opened the professional season as a member of the Providence Steam Rollers, an aggregation of very rugged and experienced football talent. Among his team-mates in Tony Holm, the 1929 All-American fullback at the University of Alabama, where he was labelled the "Big Blond Blibbard" in all dispatches to the press from the university publicity offices.

In many respects the most remarkable managerial stunts of the year have been turned in by the old battery of Walter, Johnson and Gabby Street.

Tactical wisdom is taken as a matter of course from such seasoned leaders as Connie Mack, Wilbert Robinson and Joe McCarthy, but Johnson's direction of the Senators and Street's sensational work with the St. Louis Cardinals have furnished the twin sensations of the 1930 major league campaign. Last spring the consensus was that the Senators and Cards each would be lucky if able to finish in the first division. If I recall correctly the Cardinals were picked to finish fourth and Senators fifth.

CIVIL COURT ADJOURNS FOR COX FUNERAL

Court Officials and Attendants Attend Final Rites for Former Clerk

The civil term of Pitt County Superior Court which convened here Monday morning, adjourned yesterday from 12:30 to 2:30 out of respect for John David Cox, former clerk of superior court, who died in a Rocky Mount hospital Tuesday night after a long illness. Numbers of court officials and attendants attended funeral services conducted from the Winterville Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was made in the Winterville cemetery.

Mr. Cox was clerk of court from 1914 until 1918. He was succeeded by the present incumbent, J. F. Harrington, having declined to run for a second term on account of ill health. He spent the remainder of his life between Winterville and the mountains of Virginia where he attempted to regain his health. He was born and reared in the Winterville community and for many years took a prominent part in the business and political life of his township and county.

Court made little progress with the calendar yesterday owing to the fact that Judge N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, considered several matters in chambers.

However, the wheels of justice got away to a good start this morning and it was indicated that several cases would be disposed of before court comes to a close either late this afternoon or tomorrow.

Several Speeches Feature Campaign in North Carolina

Charlotte, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Political-minded North Carolinians had plenty to talk about today, with speeches, charges, counter charges and statements emanating from the Democratic and Republican camps in the last 24 hours furnishing the conversation topics.

Speaking at Shelby, former Governor Cameron Morrison aroused the Democrats who heard him to wild bursts of applause as he assailed the Republican party and boosted his own.

Representative George M. Pritchard, on the hustings at Carthage, upheld the Hawley-Sweet tariff bill and challenged his Democratic opponent for a senatorial seat.

W. Bailey, to produce a "remedy" for the controversial legislation. Bailey, speaking at Hickory, denigrated from his denunciation of the Republican party for its "failure" to keep its solemn promise to industry and agriculture to endorse Representative Charles M. Stedman who was buried yesterday.

Representative Charlie A. Jones, who is campaigning for re-election on the Republican ticket, announced he would address voters at Mount Holly tonight.

Odus M. Mull, chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee, went to Goldsboro to assist party leaders in organizing the campaign in the Third Congressional District.

While there he took time to describe President Hoover as "a good engineer" who has "drained and ditched the United States of a good part of its cash."

James S. Duncan, Republican state chairman, issued a statement at Raleigh saying he believed "all parties would welcome" the proposed investigation by the Nye-Senatorial campaign funds committee, an investigation of the "Recent primary in North Carolina." If it is deemed advisable to "investigate the Republican campaign" Mr. Duncan offered his cooperation.

At the same time Charles A. Hires, of Greensboro, manager of Senator Simmons campaign in the Democratic primary when the se-

Get Rich Quick Scheme Sweeping the Middle West

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Leaving behind it a trail of mortgaged homes, broken-family trees and poverty, the lure of quick riches from "unclaimed estates" in England again is sweeping the middle west.

Despite repeated warnings of the State Department that the so-called "Drake Estate" and other similar ruses to obtain money from American citizens are mythical, the department has again been confronted with a flood of appeals from citizens seeking assistance in collecting "claims."

For many years, the practice of soliciting money from Americans to pay charges allegedly needed to obtain for them estate funds in England has been a favorite of confidence men.

The matter has already been the subject of diplomatic corres-pendence between the State Department and the British Foreign office, the latter emphasizing that such "unclaimed estates" are mythical.

Under the old system, the subject selected would receive a letter from England stating he had a just claim to a part of an estate reaching into many figures and asking that a sum of money be sent to cover the costs of pursuing the claim.

The latest system, however, is for the subject to be called upon directly and asked to "invest" in the estate, the promised return ranging from $1500 to $5,000 for every $1 "invested."

Two Gangsters Landed Behind Bars in Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Two brothers of the notorious Jack Gusik—known as the Capone's gang's "collector"—were tossed into jail by Federal agents today.

When the detectives seized the two Gusiks—Harry and Sam—in a South Wabash avenue restaurant, Harry Gusik said:

"What do you want us for?" "Income tax," one of the agents replied. "Oh," said Harry, showing signs of relief. "I thought you was gaging us." "Gaging," police explained, is the newest word in the argot of the underworld. It was born of the recently inaugurated police campaign which seeks to drive well known crooks from town under threat of arrest as "vagrants." Several jail sentences may be imposed under the revived vagrancy law under which gangster prosecutions are to be made.

The Gusik arrests were the second stroke against gangsters within 24 hours, both being by Federal men. Yesterday the government agents led a raid on the Carlton hotel on South Wabash avenue making one significant discovery—that was the finding, in the room occupied by Tony Tagenti, a Capone bondsman, of a secret police department memorandum.

The paper, listing 31 police characters and the names of police officers who had arrested each of them on previous occasions, was under Tagenti's pillow. Tagenti said he did not know how it got there.

Aged Turk Hurt When Run Down By Automobile

New York, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Zard Aga Turk, who claims to be 159 years old, was in a critical condition in his hotel today as the result of injuries suffered when he was hit by an automobile on broad way.

Aga's great-great grandson, Yusef M. M. M. M., and his manager, Yusef M. M. M., were standing on a public island at Broadway and 61st street last night waiting to cross to their hotel opposite.

A large car swung around the corner platform with its running board over the walk. The running board hit the aged Turk's legs and he fell. As he fell his head struck the edge of the running board. Although a postman and a policeman yelled to the chauffeur that he had hit a man, the car did not stop. Aga was taken into the hotel. Doctors found he was suffering from internal injuries and possible fracture of the skull and legs. His condition was held too serious to permit his removal to a hospital. He came to this country last

July and has submitted to examination by scientists interested in longevity. He claims to have had eleven wives and to have fought in numerous wars including a campaign against Napoleon. Police located the automobile which witnesses said hit Aga by tracing the license number. It is owned by John Morrison. The chauffeur said he drove by the corner where Aga was hit and remembered seeing him but denied that his car struck the aged man. He was not held.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points today, under a continuation of the selling movement which was in evidence at the close yesterday.

There was further near month liquidation and rather freer selling by the south according to local brokers while the selling otherwise seemed to become a little more general as prices worked lower. New October sold off to 10.32 and March to 10.55, making new low ground for the movement and net declines of about 8 to 12 points on the more active positions. October notices aggregating 2,400 bales were reported including 2,200 issued against old style and 200 against new style contracts.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Wheat sold down today to below bottom points heretofore reached this season or indeed in practically a whole generation. Most Chicago traders appeared to be disposed to await new market developments before operating freely on the buying side. Late estimates that Canada had sold as much as 2,500,000 bushels to other countries failed to stimulate advances here, with reports of further pressure of Russian wheat offerings abroad counting as a bearish factor.

Wheat closed unsteady 2 to 3-4 lower than yesterday's finish; corn closed 1-8 to 2-5-8 down; oats 1-1-4 to 1-1-2 off, and provisions unchanged to 1-00 drop.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The stock market made some progress toward recovery today, but the rallies met with little enthusiasm and were generally utilized to take quick and moderate profits.

Selling of a few favorites, particularly radio and Chrysler, tended to keep the trend rather uneven. A sharp dip after the opening was followed by an advance above the previous close in which trading became less active, encouraging the shorts to try other lines. They found the support considerably firmer than it had been, however, and efforts at the down side became less strenuous, suggesting that the bears feared over-selling.

Chrysler and Radio were weak and both made new lows, together with numerous oils and coppers, notably American Smelting, Kennecott, Standard of New York and Shell Union. Maximum gains of one to two points in U. S. Steel, Consolidated Gas, American Can, Western Union, International Harvester, American Telephone and Westernhouse Electric encountered resistance which pared down the advances somewhat. New York transactions were again strong.

When BABIES are Upset

BABY ills and ailments seem twice as serious at night. A sudden cry may mean colic. Or a sudden attack of diarrhea. How would you meet this emergency--tonight? Have you a bottle of Castoria ready?

For the protection of your wee one--for your own peace of mind--keep this old, reliable preparation always on hand. But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an everyday aid. Its gentle influence will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. Its mild regulation will help an older child whose tongue is coated because of sluggish bowels. All druggists have Castoria.

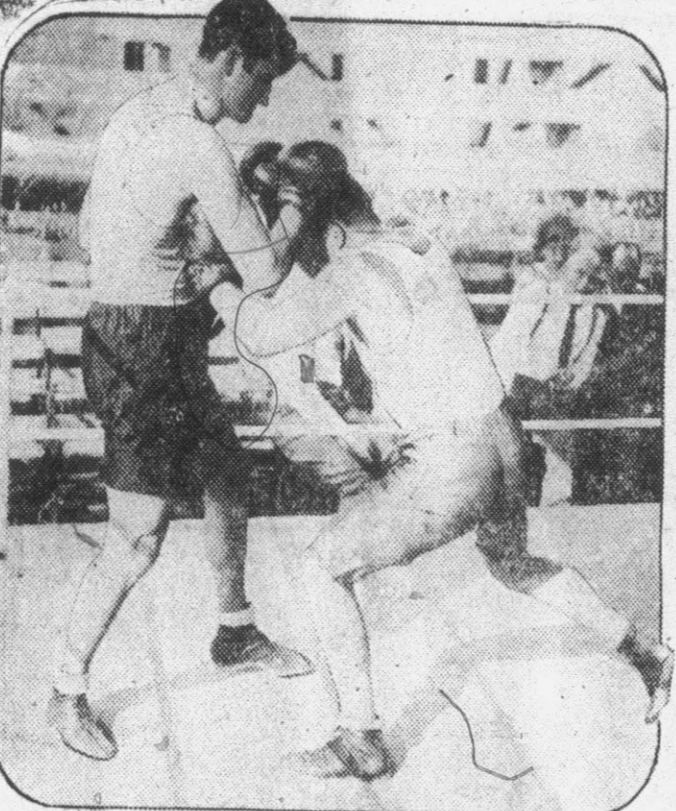

MILLS EXHORTS HIS GRID HOPES

From the expression on Coach Tom Mills' face there is every reason to believe that he means business. He's putting his Georgetown university football hopefuls through their paces at Point Lookout, Md.

CAMPOLO TRAINS FOR SHARKEY

Victorio Campolo (left), long, lean heavyweight from the Argentine, giving a sparring partner, Carl Carter, some rough treatment during a training session in preparation for his brawl with Jack Sharkey of Boston. They meet in Yankee stadium, New York, September 25.
