PRES. HOOVER TAKES ISSUE WITH CRITICS

Upholds American Prosperity In An Address Before Bankers At Cleveland

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—President Hoover returned to Washington today from Cleveland where he addressed the American Bankers' Association last night.

He will remain here until Sunday night when he leaves for Boston for speeches on Monday, one before the American Legion and the other before the American Federation of Labor.

Personally replying to opposition campaign declarations for the first time, Mr. Hoover asserted before the American Bankers' Association in Cleveland last night there were "several folks in the political world who get the notion that things will ever get better and who wish to enjoy our temporary misery."

Just before going to the auditorium to deliver his speech the President made a last minute addition to his text in which he took vigorous exception to remarks of a banker delegate who was quoted as saying American living standards should be on a lower plane.

"To that I emphatically disagree," the President asserted amid applause, and added: "Any retreat from our American philosophy of constantly increasing standards of living becomes a retreat into perpetual unemployment and the acceptance of a cesspool of poverty for some large part of our people."

Immediately after the speech, the President boarded his special to make the return trip to Washington. He was due there in the early afternoon.

Any recession in American business is but a temporary halt in the prosperity of a great people," the President told his audience.

Greensboro Radio Station Is Sold

Greensboro, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Radio station WBAM, formerly WNCB, has been sold by Wayne M. Nelson, owner, to J. B. Pound, Chattanooga, Tenn., hotel man and owner of several other radio stations.

Edith Bond of Santa Paula, Cal., had one of highest grades ever made by applicant for commercial license. She had average of 95.

OTTO WOOD IS OUTLAWED BY STATE COURT

Gov. Gardner Places Price On Head of the State's Notorious Prisoner

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Otto Wood, "slippery eel," of State Prison, today was declared an outlaw by Judge Garland E. Midyette.

Governor Gardner this afternoon authorized a reward of $250 for the capture of Wood. He notified T. C. Taylor, his secretary, by long distance telephone from Shelby to offer the reward.

Wood, whose left hand is severed at the wrist, was serving a 22-1-2 to 30 year sentence to prison for killing A. W. Kaplan, Greensboro pawnbroker, in 1923.

His escapes have made him the best known prisoner in the history of the state. Following his third escape he was placed in solitary confinement for 26 months by Gov. A. W. McLean.

Brooks Emphasizes Proper Handling of Public Funds

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Proper handling of "public funds" even though they are funds of a student organization, is essential to progress, Dr. E. C. Brooks, president, told the upperclassmen of N. C. State College today at the annual founder's day observance exercises.

"The state and the nation," Dr. Brooks said, "have found it necessary to exercise close supervision over the contracting and spending power and the purpose for which public money is collected. Has the time come when the college should exercise close supervision over the contracting and spending power of student organizations and prescribe penalties for failure to live up to a reasonable standard?"

Mrs. Hammer Nominated For Unexpired Term In Congress But Declines

Asheboro, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Mrs. W. C. Hammer, widow of Representative W. C. Hammer who died last Thursday, today was nominated by the Seventh District Democratic Executive Committee to serve his unexpired term in Congress, but declined the nomination.

In refusing, Mrs. Hammer said that she was grateful for the tribute paid both to her late husband and herself in the nomination proffered her.

She declined, she told the Associated Press, because she believed such action for the best interests of the Democratic party in the district. Publication of the Asheville Courier, which she has edited jointly with the late Congressman since their marriage in 1893, the principle of seniority and other "personal reasons" led her to refuse, she said.

The committee, which called upon Mrs. Hammer at her residence, was headed by Jacob Stewart of Davie county, who was today named new district chairman.

Missing Youth Reported Seen With His Father

Herdersonville, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Oval T. Powell, Jr., ten-year-old lad who has been missing from Herdersonville eight days, was seen in Mobile, Ala., with his father Henderson officers have been advised.

Highest Price Average Of The Season Set On Leaf Market Yesterday

Greenville Sold 565,640 Pounds of Bright Leaf for Average of $14.73 Per Hundred Pounds; Approximately 700,000 Pounds Here Today

Prices advanced sharply on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday and the highest average price of the season was indicated today in the official report of the supervisor of sales.

The market sold 565,640 pounds for $83,321.01 at a general average of $14.73 per hundred pounds. This was a dollar a hundred higher than the previous high average established earlier during the week.

NYE BELIEVES KELLY CHARGE IS JUSTIFIED

Statement Made After Conference Regarding Conditions In The Colorado Oil Fields

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Chairman Nye of the Senate lands committee said today he thought Ralph S. Kelly, former chief of the Federal land office at Denver, was "quite justifiable" in his charges of maladministration of Colorado oil shale lands.

The North Dakotan had conferred more than an hour today with Kelly. He expressed hope he department of justice would take all and speedy action on the charges.

The former official's explanation convinced Nye Secretary Wilbur was not responsible for the alleged improper handling of the oil lands, he said, but some one was responsible and should be questioned.

MILL OWNERS DECLINE AID OF GOVERNOR

Refuse Offer of Mediation Committee to Settle the Danville Strike

Danville, Va., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Declination on the part of the mill management of an offer by Governor John C. Latham to appoint a mediation committee today had left the strike among some 4,000 union textile workers at the Riverside and Dan River Mills here without any apparent prospects of immediate adjustment.

The offer from the governor was accepted by the strike committee, speaking for the local union of the Textile Workers of America, but was declined by H. R. Fitzgerald, president of the mills. In refusing the governor's proposal, Mr. Fitzgerald said that if Governor Latham knew the "mill situation and the history of our company," he would realize "that so far as our company and its employees are concerned there is absolutely nothing to mediate."

Public Funds to Be Handled Thru State Treasurer

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Local bank accounts of all state departments and institutions will be abolished and all public funds will be deposited in the credit of the state treasury, Gov. O. Max Gardner, ex-officio director of the state budget, has informed state officials.

Scores Of Communists Clubbed As Cleveland Cops Break Up Parade

Cleveland, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Charges of mounted policemen and swinging nightsticks broke up an impromptu parade of Communists and unemployed near the public hall where President Hoover was addressing the American Bankers' association convention last night.

When the paraders, variously estimated at between 600 and 800, attempted to turn toward the public hall, motorcycle officers laid down a smoke screen and mounted police charged, driving the marchers off the street and sending them dashing for doorways and alleys. Spectators said scores were clubbed by police.

City Aldermen Contribute $50 to the Armistice Day Celebration Here Nov. 11

If everybody would come across like the City of Greenville, the celebration of Armistice Day here November 11th would be one of the greatest since the ending of the war. The Board of Aldermen last night contributed the sum of $50 to the celebration and in return received an invitation to join the Legionnaires at the usual barbecue dinner tendered former service men as a part of the Armistice Day program.

Woman Burned to Death in Fire At Washington City

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—An aged woman was burned to death and a dozen others suffered injuries in a fire early today which damaged two apartment houses in Northwest Washington.

The body of Miss Jessie Cammack, 75, of Washington, was found after the fire was extinguished. Scores of other occupants of the apartment house, at 1419 Chapman street, N. W., jumped from windows when flames cut off their means of escape. Most of them reached safety without severe injuries.

Miss Cammack lived alone in a real apartment on the fourth floor. She was not missed until the fire had been brought under control. Firemen expressed the belief she slept until smoke and flames prevented her escape.

Paris, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Ambassador and Mrs. Edge will leave on the Ile De France October 16 for the United States on the ambassador's regular two months vacation.

CANNON STILL NOT AWARE OF LAST CHARGES

Investigation of Accusations Against Bishop Appeared Certain Today

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon Jr. said today he still was unaware of the nature of the charges which have been made against him, although he conferred last night with Bishop W. N. Ainsworth—in whose custody the charges rest.

An investigation of the complaints against the dry leader appears certain. They were brought by four fellow members of the clergy of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and are understood to deal partly with the stock market and political activities of Cannon.

The bishop said in his office today he was standing by the position he took in a cable to the Associated Press while on the seas returning to the United States from Brazil—namely that the procedure in bringing the charges was irregular. This has been denied by those who are sponsoring the charges and calling for a church trial.

Bishop Ainsworth returned last night to Birmingham, Ala. He had conferred in Richmond with the traveling elders who brought the charges. He is understood by those close to him to be planning to follow the regular procedure ordered by the church for such cases, which provides that the bishop to whom charges are made appoint a committee to investigate and decide whether a church trial is necessary.

"The conference with Bishop Ainsworth was official," Bishop Cannon said today, declining to discuss its purpose.

Threaten to Reduce Equalization Fund In Johnston County

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The State Board of Equalization today ordered the Johnston County Board of Commissioners to appear before it October 15 and show cause why school funds allotted that county should not be reduced.

The Johnston County Board, composed of Republicans, had been requested to appear this morning and place all of the facts in regard to a reduction in the number of teachers in that county from 433 to 543 due to a slash in the county budget. Subpoenas will be issued to require the commissioners to appear, Leory Martin, secretary of the State Board of Education, which had prepared a budget to include 433 teachers, appeared today as requested. The Board of Education cut the number of teachers when the commissioners sliced $51,000 off their budget.

Under the law creating the State Board of Equalization, the board has the legal right to compel any person handling school funds in any form of fashion to appear before it.

Special Subscription Offer

Instead of a subscription campaign in which a large amount of money is given away to contestants, the management of The Reflector has decided to put on a subscription drive beginning today, in which the premium money is given to the subscriber in the form of a forty per cent discount on all yearly subscriptions paid during the limited time that this offer is open.

A similar offer was made during the recent co-operative dollar day staged by members of the Greenville Merchants Association and the response was most gratifying to us, but many persons because of financial conditions here at that time were unable to take advantage of the offer and after receiving numbers of requests from our subscribers we have decided to repeat our special for a limited time in order that all our subscribers and those who would like to become subscribers may receive the benefits of this forty per cent savings.

Under this offer no subscriptions will be taken for a shorter period than one year. The regular price of The Reflector is $5.00 per year but while this special offer lasts you can subscribe or renew your present subscription for a full year for $3.00.

This offer will remain open for but a short time and after its close there will be no further reduction of this kind. If you want to save $2.00 on the price of The Reflector, bring or mail your subscription to the Circulation Department at once.

Miss Cammack lived alone in a real apartment on the fourth floor. She was not missed until the fire had been brought under control. Firemen expressed the belief she slept until smoke and flames prevented her escape.

About 200 persons lived in the two apartments. The origin of the blaze had not been established.

Public Funds to Be Handled Thru State Treasurer

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Local bank accounts of all state departments and institutions will be abolished and all public funds will be deposited in the credit of the state treasury, Gov. O. Max Gardner, ex-officio director of the state budget, has informed state officials.

In a statement mailed to the heads and finance officers of the state agencies yesterday, Governor Gardner announced the new policy effective as of October 1, 1930, "or after all settlements have been made for September."

Under the new plan, checks will be drawn by the departments and institutions on the state treasurer instead of individual banks. They will be cleared through regular banking channels.

Detailed instructions for carrying out the plan were sent to the 32 departments affected by the order.

Greenville Sold 565,640 Pounds of Bright Leaf for Average of $14.73 Per Hundred Pounds; Approximately 700,000 Pounds Here Today

Prices advanced sharply on the Greenville tobacco market yesterday and the highest average price of the season was indicated today in the official report of the supervisor of sales.

The market sold 565,640 pounds for $83,321.01 at a general average of $14.73 per hundred pounds. This was a dollar a hundred higher than the previous high average established earlier during the week.

There was approximately 700,000 pounds of tobacco on the floors of the various warehouses this morning, and it was stated that sales would be completed during the early afternoon.

The general advance in the price situation was ascribed mainly to increased marketing of the better grades of bright leaf. There was also a tendency toward improvement on the lower grades.

The market will close for the week this afternoon after one of the most strenuous weeks since the opening of the early part of September. Monday saw a new record established from the standpoint of volume with the offering of approximately two million pounds. This produced block sales but the block was cleared up the following day with sales going beyond the million pound mark.

Sales from now on are expected to be fairly heavy, especially in the face of the improved price situation, and tobaccoists will have their hands full until after the holiday season.

Greensboro Radio Station Is Sold

Greensboro, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Radio station WBAM, formerly WNCB, has been sold by Wayne M. Nelson, owner, to J. B. Pound, Chattanooga, Tenn., hotel man and owner of several other radio stations.

Details of the transaction were made public. Nelson will continue to operate the station as manager-director.

Pound owns radio stations at Savannah, Ga., Columbia, S. C., and Chattanooga.

The change in the local station's call letters was authorized by the Federal Radio commission last week when the transfer of control was made.

TWO BRITISH WOMEN SLAIN BY BANDITS

Missionaries Held for Ransom in China Reported Shot to Death By Captors

Peking, China, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Messages reaching the British consul at Foochow today said that Miss Edith Nettleton and Miss Eleanor June Harrison, British missionaries who were captured last July by Communists at Chinggan, Northern Fukien Province, had been shot.

Their execution followed failure of protracted negotiations for their release, in the course of which the bandits cut off one of Miss Nettleton's fingers and sent it to British consular authorities as a dire reminder of their death threat. If ransom money of $100,000 was not paid.

The two women, who were associated with the church missionary society, were traveling from Chunggan to Kiennghy when they were captured.

It was understood here that the British authorities here would await all the details before taking any further action.

Although the consular authorities are attempting to verify the dual killing there appears no reason to doubt the truth of the report. Only last week a letter was received insisting that the women would be killed unless the ransom money was forthcoming.

London, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The public generally and missionary circles particularly today were deeply moved by advices that Chinese Communist bandits had killed the two British missionaries, Miss Edith Nettleton and Miss Eleanor June Harrison, in lieu of ransom for their release.

Miss Nettleton worked in a carpet mill in her home town of Halifax, Yorkshire, and was a Sunday school teacher in St. Augustine's church Paris. She went out to China for the Church Missionary Society in 1896. Three years ago she returned home to live with her mother, but last year upon mother's death she volunteered to return to China and work with Miss Nettleton.

Reverend W. W. Cash, the society's secretary, said that up until today hopes were entertained for release of the two, and that today's messages of their death had come as a great shock.

Paris, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The French government today decided to issue a decree intended to prevent dumping of Soviet products, particularly wheat, in France.

MEMBERS OF MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION HAVE BEEN INVITED TO MEMBERSHIP

All the ministers of the city who are members of the local Ministerial Association have been elected to honorary membership in the Greenville Merchants Association, and invitations have been so extended.

Compelled to do the work of a Chamber of Commerce, because of the absence of such an organization in the city, the Merchants Association needs and deserves the support and cooperation of every organization and individual. And recognizing the worth of having our preachers assist in the various programs for the progress of Greenville, the directors have extended the invitation.

WOMAN'S CLUB STARTS NEW YEAR'S WORK WITH MUCH ENTHUSIASM

October ushers in a new year's work for the Woman's Club. The keynote of the first meeting held Thursday afternoon at the club home, was expectancy, the underlying chord, determination. The attendance was excellent, and those who came expecting something interesting were disappointed.

The meeting opened with the impressive club collect, and after a few apt words of greeting from our new president, Mrs. W. I. Wooten, the business report of the splendid work done by the ways and means committees during the vacation months. The following new members were received and welcomed by a unanimous vote: Mrs. H. L. Rivers, Mrs. Frank W. Brown, Mrs. M. Swartz, Mrs. J. Con Lanier, Mrs. W. S. Brown, Mrs. J. R. Barker, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Lindsey Savage, Mrs. Sudie Corey, Mrs. S. M. Woolfolk, Miss Hennie Whichard and Miss Mabel Tomlinson.

Mrs. D. M. Clark, president of the fifteenth district of the Federated Clubs, announced the district meeting to be held at Williamston Oct. 30, at 10:30 o'clock. She asked that aside from the delegates appointed to attend, there be a large representation of this club at that meeting.

Plans for the entertainment of the Council of N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs to be held here Oct. 9-10, were made and entered into by the various committees with spirit.

The programs for the winter's work of the departments are unusually interesting. Brief outlines were given. The Literary department is going to enjoy "Literary Adventures in Local Color"—traveling about, studying books and their writers in their native haunts—people who know at first hand about the places discussed have been secured for these programs.

The Garden department has adopted the slogan "Greenville's Beauty—Our Civic Duty!" which tells something of their plans. They are working on something particularly lovely for Greenville—but that's a secret!

The Music and Art department is expecting to bring some artists here for programs during the winter. The American Home department has speakers peculiarly interested in their subjects to discuss child study, keeping the family well fed, clothing, pictures and how to hang them, home making and other things pertaining to our home life. The Citizenship department, though not meeting regularly as the other departments do, has some splendid things in store for the club. All members who are interested in citizenship and wish to know more about this department, are requested to call Mrs. M. K. Fort.

After adjournment there were many expressions of pleasant anticipation as those present went away determined to make of this a club year full of things well done.

ANOTHER MEMBERS FOR LOCAL ASSOCIATION

The Greenville Merchants Association announced today that the Greenville Tobacco Company had been added to its membership.

Farmville Literary Club.

Farmville, Oct. 2.—Continuing its chosen study of "Folklore" by Ralph Steele Boggs, the Farmville Literary club held a most interesting meeting on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Beaman. A blue and yellow color scheme was carried out in the arrangement of autumn flowers.

Under the general subject of "Myth," Mrs. R. A. Fields told of the conception of the "Powers of Lightning" and of "Good and Evil" as held by primitive man, and Mrs. J. H. Harris discussed the changing fashions in gods and devils.

The resolutions of respect for a beloved charter member, Mrs. Annie Phillips Lang, as drawn up by a committee appointed at the last meeting, were approved, and the twenty new books of fiction, to be read by the club during the year, were put into the hands of the members.

A chicken salad course was served by the hostess. In addition to the members, Mrs. Beaman had as her guests, Mrs. Eugene Clayton and Mrs. M. C. Parrott.

FUNERAL FOR J. D. COX HELD

F. C. Harding Delivers Funeral Oration At Burial of Winterville Man

With the passing of John D. Cox, whose funeral services were held at the Winterville Baptist church on September 25, Pitt county lost a useful and esteemed citizen. As his life was without ostentation, so these last rites were characterized by extreme simplicity, as he had requested.

They were conducted by his pastor, Rev. E. H. Canady of Ayden, assisted by Rev. A. C. D. Noe of the Episcopal church and Rev. W. L. Bibro, a former pastor. The address was made by Hon. F. C. Harding, his legal and political adviser and life-long friend.

The music consisting of old-familiar hymns, favorites of his, was rendered by Mrs. Ophelia Mamliton, Miss Laura Cox, Mrs. E. H. Canady, Rev. T. Cox, and Rev. W. H. Cover, a former pastor. Pall bearers: Active, J. S. Cox, J. F. Stokes, G. H. Cox, G. L. Edwards, J. R. Cox, John Carroll, Herman Cox, Harvey Stokes.

Honorary:

W. J. Loyd, Larry Ellis, F. M. Wooten, Frank Harrington, Ashley St. Amand, Sammie Worthington, Roy Cox, R. H. Hunsucker, A. W. Agre, David Cox, Johnnie Edwards, Iroy W. Rouse, J. E. Green, Tom Lyson, Hardy Johnson, Heber McGibbon, Alf Forbes, E. W. Braxton, J. E. Carroll, Jesse Cannon, Frank Hart, Coy Tripp, J. R. Carroll, Jimmie Edwards, Horace Cox, Elma Cox, Heber Cox, Jimmie Galloway, Dink Stokes, Ernest Cox, Robert Smithwick, R. L. Little.

The esteem in which he was held was attested by a profusion of flowers and the presence of many cut-of-town friends, among whom one noted an aged negro, Wrigot Cox, born of slave parentage on the farm of the father of the deceased and held in high regard by him all his life.

Surviving the deceased are his widow, who was Miss Addie Smith, one brother, Dr. B. T. Cox; one sister, Mrs. Fannie Carroll, both of Winterville; one foster son, J. S. Cox of Virginia; and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Lang Entertains.

Farmville, Oct. 2.—Mrs. R. O. Lang delightfully entertained members of the Progressive Bridge club and others on Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Belcher street. Autumn flowers and foliage decorated the spacious veranda, where four tables were arranged for the game.

At the conclusion of six progressions, the high score prize, a handsome deck of cards, was presented to Mrs. Vines Cobb of Pinetops. Ice cream sodas and pecan wafers were served. Special guests included Mrs. Vines Cobb and Mrs. R. A. Bynum of Pinetops; Mrs. George Holston, Mrs. Eugene Clayton, Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mrs. G. H. Webb.

HIGH SCHOOL WILL TACKLE WILSON TODAY

Members of the Greenville high school football team left this afternoon for Wilson where they will engage in the second battle of the season. Although the Wilson team is rated as one of the best in this section, the Greenville boys held out hope of returning home with the big end of the game.

The locals lost the initial clash of the season with Elizabeth City last Friday by reason of the fact that the Pasquotank lads had too much avoiddups and experience for them. Wilson has the experience and not so much weight, and it is for this reason the youngsters were hopeful of being able to cope with the situation, although their team is composed mostly of new material.

The team has been undergoing grueling practice this week under the direction of Ken Beatty, temporary coach, and hope was expressed that they would be able to render a better account of themselves than in the initial game. Beatty said that although the boys were new at the game, they were showing real form and held out hope that they would show a distinct improvement in today's engagement.

ABOUT TOWN

A marker is being erected at the site of the first court house in Pitt county by the Greenville Patriots Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Unveiling exercises, we are informed, will be held on the 25th of the month. Officials of the state organization will attend the exercises which will be of an impressive nature.

It is fitting and proper that this site should be definitely marked for coming generations and the Daughters of the Revolution are to be congratulated upon their foresight. It is only by perpetuating things of interest of this kind that we show our appreciation of the history of the locality.

With two victories to their credit it is apparent that the World's Champion Athletics do not intend to give the St. Louis Cardinals a look-in on the championship series if they can help it. Displaying a superior brand of ball at all stages of the game, the A's captured the first and second games in steam roller fashion and no doubt will try to do the same thing during the remainder of the series.

The Cardinals looked mighty fine when they captured the championship of the National league, but they have been unable thus far to convince the public that they are any match for the formidable A's club.

The final outcome of the series will be watched with interest, and from now on it is safe to say Cardinal money will be hard to find.

Shoppers of this great trade territory should arrange their plans to come to Greenville next Monday and share in one of the biggest trade days of the year. "Cow Day" as it has been designated will be featured by the awarding of a real, sure enough cow and fifty dollars in gold to the holders of lucky tickets given away by local merchants with the purchase of every dollar's worth of merchandise.

In addition to the prizes the merchants will have thousands of bargains to offer, and the most discriminating shopper will be able to find something that will appeal to him. It matters not where you have been shopping in past years it will pay you to come to Greenville Monday and inspect the extensive stocks. You should reap a real saving—enough to defray your transportation form many miles.

the polls so that they will be able to express their preference for the various candidates in both state and county contests.

W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Democratic executive committee in Pitt county, has called upon members of his party to rally to the cause in the forthcoming election and he has expressed opinion that they will be able to pile up their usual majority.

Interest in the election will increase perceptibly the latter part of this month with the coming of Josiah William Bailey and Clyde Hoey, who will champion the cause of the Democratic party. Both are speakers of the first water, and the things they will have to say should be of interest to every man and woman who realize the importance of the election.

Plans for the Armistice Day celebration to be staged in this city November 11 are rapidly assuming form, and indications point to one of the best programs in years.

The Legionnaires have already been assured that J. C. B. Ehringhaus will deliver the principal address of the exercises, and this feature alone is expected to attract hundreds of people acquainted with the Elizabeth City man's ability as an orator and the fact that he will probably be a candidate for governor of North Carolina.

Armistice Day is one of the most important events in connection with the great World War in that it represents the day twelve years ago when hostilities between the principal nations of the world were brought to a close.

Greenville people should join the Legionnaires and do everything possible to make the day measure up to expectation. It is an occasion that quickens the pulse of the boys who were overseas and experienced the emotion attending the ending of the war, and it is but natural that they should desire to take a holiday and appropriately celebrate an act that led to their home coming.

NEWS BRIEFS

Raleigh—(AP)—Unless the police change their minds and let them waggle a thumb at them when motor cars roll by, State College students threaten to boycott Raleigh merchants.

Wake Forest—(AP)—A hero, coming back to the campus where 22 years before he was a student, got a great ovation here. Lieut. Paul Rockwell of world war fame, studied at Wake Forest in 1907. He spoke at chapel. A brother, Kiffin, was the first aviator to fall in the war.

Wilson—(AP)—Tom Johnson, negro, is as bad a sport as he is a card player. When Jesse Foster, another negro, won $69 from him, Johnson got a gun, announced "I want my money," and shot Foster in the leg. Johnson is in jail.

Shelby—(AP)—"Milky" Gold, a former Shelby High star and all-Southern football player, seems to be out after a captaincy record. Leader of three Shelby high teams, he has been named captain of the Oak Ridge gridiron machine.

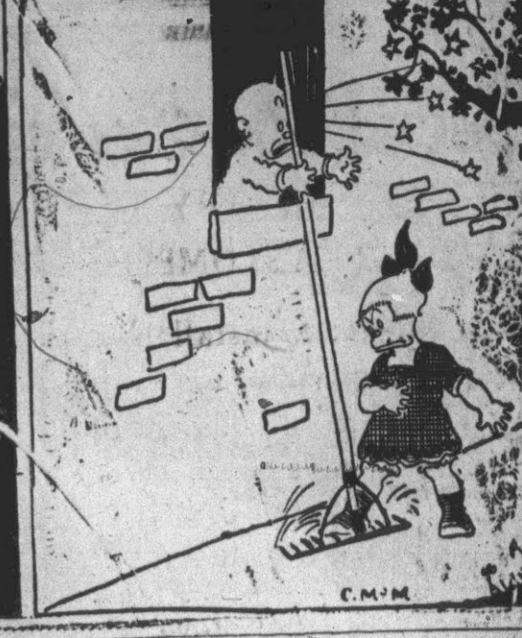

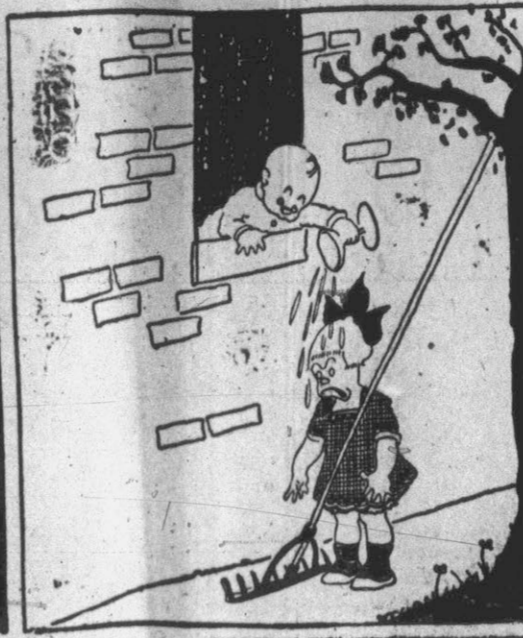

New York—(AP)—Grady C. Frank, Duke University, and J. A. Sprull, South Carolina University, were among eighteen Rhodes scholars who sailed yesterday for England and Oxford.

Hartsville S. C.—(AP)—LaCose's Johnson, his body pierced by six bullets, is dead and Charlie Ganney, white tenant on his farm, is held for murder. They argued, Johnson said, while picking cotton.

Charlotte—(AP)—An order to condemn the $27,000 bonds of Fred Erwin Beal and six others convicted of slaying Police Chief O. F. Aderhold of Gastonia, was issued late yesterday by Judge Walter E. Moore, the money is released to Gaston county.

Fore!

Seattle—Perhaps next summer Don Moe, golf star, will yell fore once when his ball is slicing and twice when it is hooking. Anyhow he is to learn what one and two blasts of a steamship's whistle mean to a craft ahead. He has become a cadet officer of the Steamship President Cleveland.

Hopes to See Thru Fog

Menlo Park, N. J.—Hope that aviators will be enabled to see through fog is entertained by Thomas A. Edison. Assen Jordanoff, airplane designer, flew from Long Island to see the wizard's laboratories for a chat about problems. Informed of difficulties with fog, Edison said: "We have converted sound into light and light into sound. There is no reason for not being able to solve the artificial eye."

Flying Boats for Coast Guard.
Washington—The coast guard is to have flying lifeboats. Five seaplanes are to be built at a cost of $316,696. Each will carry a crew of four and have space for persons rescued at sea.

Dances Into Society
New York—Fred Astaire, dancer, seems to be becoming a society favorite. He was a guest at the recent wedding of Jack Whitney. Last night he attended a birthday dinner dance for Prince Obolensky, brother-in-law of Vincent Astor.

News of the World Briefly Told

London, Oct. 3.—(AP)—King George and Queen Mary will entertain delegates to the Imperial Conference and their wives with an "empire family party" at Buckingham Palace, tonight.

Mexico City, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Frank A. Nixon, American citizen and ten year resident of Tampico, left here last night under guard for Laredo. Nixon explained that he was being deported as a consequence of differences, unspecified, with authorities of Tampico. He said he would go to San Antonio, and that he had relatives in Texas.

Paris, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Marie Robert Bourin, architect, war veteran, and leading member of the Militant Royalist party attempted to haranguer Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, as he alighted from a train from Geneva, but was arrested for his pains.

Teheran, Persia, Oct. 3.—(AP)—An earthquake was reported today to have done serious damage in the vicinity of the Mineral wells near Damzend, 40 miles north of Teheran. The first shock was followed by a second at 2:00 a. m. today. Details are still awaited.

Three Killed By Tornado

Fowler, Colo., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Tornado twisting its way across counties yesterday killing three persons, inflicting four more and causing unestimated property loss.

The dead: George W. Lackey, prominent Fowler cattleman whose leading operations centered 14 miles north of here in the middle of the stricken area; Mrs. John P. Downing, ranchwoman living 24 miles north of Fowler; Col. Noble rancher.

Lackey was killed instantly and the other two injured fatally when the tornado struck the building on the Beatty ranch in which they had taken refuge from the storm.

Herry Bushaw, a ranch hand and Mrs. Downing's daughter, Mrs. J. B. Downing and her two months old daughter were also in the structure when it collapsed but escaped serious injury.

The tornado came from the north striking the northwestern part of Pueblo county and the northwestern part of Otero county, cutting a path about a quarter of a mile and more than 25 miles in width.

CITY ALDERMEN CONTRIBUTE $50 TO THE ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION HERE NOV. 11

A. E. Hobgood was appointed a member of the Library Commission to succeed Ralph Garrett, a former member of the board who resigned some time ago.

George Gardner, chief of the fire department, was instructed to investigate the fire alarm system with a view of determining whether or not the system was operating in a satisfactory manner. His report, which is to be presented at the next meeting, is to supplement a similar report from Martin Schwartz, superintendent of the Water and Light Commission, who reported the system in good condition with exception of some of the old boxes. He recommended improvements to the fire whistle however.

The finance committee was instructed to borrow $10,000 for the purpose of refunding indebtedness for a similar amount.

J. H. Waldrep explained the movement under way to provide the city with more trees and at the same time preserve those already in existence. He said members of the tree committee had asked that the board provide an ordinance for the protection of trees, but he said such an ordinance already existed and that this would not be necessary. The old act, he explained, provided a penalty of $25.00 for damage to trees.

He said the committee asked the board for its moral support in the tree campaign and also the improvement of city property in keeping with the three movement. The board instructed George Clark, superintendent of streets, to cooperate with the committee in every way possible and try to prevent the damage of trees.

The board authorized the purchase of 1,500 automobile license tags for the coming year. A black and yellow tag, the same colors adopted by the state, was decided upon.

Alderman Boyd, chairman of the street department, called attention of the board to the amount of work that had been done on the various streets throughout the city. He reported the patching of many bad places in the pavement and gutters, and said all of this had been accomplished without having to overstep the budget to any great extent. He reported his budget in

Newton Woman Heads U. D. C.

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Glenn Long of Newton was elected president of the North Carolina division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the closing session of the 34th annual convention here today.

The Daughters voted to meet in November next year.

Mrs. Andrew J. Ellis, of Raleigh was elected honorary president of the division, filling the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. E. E. Moffit of Raleigh and Richmond, Virginia.

Miss Sue Collier of Goldsboro was named honorary vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Henry A. London, of Hillsboro.

The division endorsed Mrs. John Hunske Anderson of Raleigh for the office of historian, general of the National organization when a vacancy occurs in that office one year hence.

Other officers elected today were: Mrs. Thomas Craig of Gastonia, first vice-president; Mrs. W. O. Spencer of Winston-Salem, second vice-president; Mrs. Eugene Pail-yaw of Wilmington, third vice-president; Mrs. Joseph A. Carruth of Charlotte, recording secretary; Miss Belle Gaither of Newton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Garland Daniel of Greensboro, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Isley of Snow Hill, historian; Mrs. A. H. Crowell of Newton, registrar; Mrs. James Woodard of Wilson, custodian of records; Mrs. James White of Elizabeth City, chaplain.

Welfare Workers Talk Unemployment

Hendersonville, Oct. 3.—(AP)—With problems of unemployment and dependency as the chief topics of discussion, approximately 40 Western North Carolina leaders in industry, education and public welfare work at the annual Western North Carolina Welfare conference in Hendersonville yesterday discussed ways and means of solving these problems.

Speakers included Dr. Carl Taylor, of State College, who praised Governor Gardner's live at home campaign as a definite step toward the solution of both problems; Newton M. Anderson, chairman of the Buncombe County Board of Commissioners, and C. Vanderhoyen, of the American Bank Corporation here.

Kidnapped Doctor Rescued at Detroit

Detroit, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Dr. Frank L. McPhail, a Highland Park physician, was kidnaped last night and held captive until this morning in a vacant house from which he was released by police after he attracted attention by throwing prescription papers out of a window.

A man said to have been left to guard the physician was arrested. He gave his name as Frank Sabino. Police reported that when Dr. McPhail's father, Dr. Malcolm McPhail, went to arrange for payment of ransom at 6 a. m. today, he was abducted, but released later after being driven to the neighborhood in which the son had been held.

The kidnaping recalled the numerous abductions for ransom in Detroit and its suburbs during recent years. It was the first crime of this nature reported for nearly a year, however.

Dr. McPhail was abducted while a special grand jury as hearing the testimony of some of the leaders in the old kidnaping rings, who turned state's evidence after being convicted.

CARDINALS GO HOME TO FACE PHILADELPHIA

En route from Philadelphia to St. Louis, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Confident that a change in environment will help them, the St. Louis Cardinals speeded westward today to resume their world's series quarrel with the Philadelphia Athletics at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, tomorrow.

The Athletics, transformed by the schedule from the home club to the visitors, also went west today, by the American league, can do no better in the National league city than they did at home. If they do as well the series will be over Sunday.

The world's champions made it two in a row at Shibe Park by giving big George Earnshaw an early lead, six runs in four innings in clusters of twos, then suspending their hitting and scoring activities. As the big swarthmore hurler was in excellent form, any one of the two run innings would have been enough to win. The only Cardinal run was a long home run over the right field wall by George Watkins, who plays right field for the Cards when the opposition ends in a righthander to pitch.

Although they never were "in the ball game" in the second contest of the series, the National leaguers showed no disposition to give up the baseball ghost and their supporters did not hesitate to say that once at their own homes and firesides they would give a good account of themselves.

In the first two games Manager Connie Mack led his two aces and each took tricks. Bob Grove's victory in the opener was followed by an even more impressive pitching performance by his colleague in the second.

Running true to his schedule map ped out in advance, Manager Gabby Street sent Flint Rhem in to pitch the second game. The lad with the curve was forced into retirement in the fourth inning after he had been ricked for six runs, four earned and the other two made possible through an error.

Jim Lindsey and Sylvester Johnson, two big right-handed pitchers perfectly filled relief roles, neither permitting the A's a safe hit, but when they came in the Athletics, too, were "in".

American league players say that when Earnshaw has control he is practically unbeatable. There was nothing wrong with his control in the second game of the series. He forced eight Cardinals to miss third strikes, showed a lot of stuff the few times he was menaced and after the second inning, gave up but two hits.

As the contesting teams devoted a day to travel, speculation was rife as to the probable pitchers for the opening game at St. Louis tomorrow. Manager Street said he would summon his star southpaw, "Wild Bill" Hallahan, to the mound Hallahan is another pitcher who is almost unbeatable when his control is working. He shut out the Brooklyn Robins 1 to 0 in ten innings in the important opening game of a series practically deciding the National league pennant.

SIR TOM SAYS HE'LL TRY AGAIN

Undaunted after five failures to take back to Britain the international yachting trophy, Sir Thomas Lipton declared he would challenge again for the America's cup. He is shown (center) leaving New York city hall after a call on Mayor James Walker before sailing back to England.

Connie Mack, as usual, kept his own council. There were numerous suggestions that he would give Grove and Earnshaw each a chance to repeat. Should he consider this course impracticable, the names mentioned frequently in connection with the pitching assignment for tomorrow were Bill Shores, a youngster, and Eddie Rommel, a veteran.

The second game of the series brought a new record when Frisch in his first time at bat, drove a double to left field. This was Frisch's 43rd hit in six world's series, passing the mark of Eddie Collins, made in six series, the last in 1919.

Cautious Connie today warned his players that the series was not yet over and that the most important question before the House of Mack was winning two more games.

Gabby Street exhorted the Cards to "snap out of it" and get the games back. He reminded them that in 1917 the New York Giants lost the first two games to the Chicago White Sox and they came back to square the series with two shutouts. Sergeant Street said he would not insist on the shutouts.

SPORTS SLANTS

Another voice from bygone days, prompted by some remarkable recollections of the Athletics when Waddell and Schreckengost were an extraordinary battery pair:

Sir: You say Waddell called in the side only in exhibition games, never in league competition. In the same year he did so, I saw him, against Cleveland in Philadelphia, with the score 2-1 in his favor, when he called in the fielders in the ninth after they had taken their places.

Connie Mack came from the dugout and shooved Davis back and caused him to play midway between first and second. Rube then struck out three batters, the last, I believe, being Leftfielder Hess, who had made a two-base hit earlier.

When this last batter came up, Rube, his left hand held high, yelled to Schreck "Go back and sit down behind the plate. Schreck obliged and Waddell then pitched three straight, outshoot drops (inshoots to Hess, a right-hander) into the upheld glove of Schreck.

at each of which Hess swung too late.

Rube before that game seemed in condition to pitch but Connie got him out about an hour before the game and had Rube play short as well as chase flies. He threw one ball on a line from the flagpole to Lave Cross at third and the fans yelled "Rube now will never pitch." But he came in and Schreck warned him up and he gave the greatest exhibition I had ever seen him give of putting the ball wherever Schreck held his big mitt.

Look up the records sometime where Rube struck out 16 batters in a full game (Note—Waddell fanned 16 Athletics in 1908, after being traded to the St. Louis Browns.) He did it after the start of the third inning. Bettors in right field yelled in the first and second "Take him out!" Rube struck out the three in the third on nine pitches, rushed into the right stand, broke a bettor's nose. Schreck smeared some with his glove in the fight. Rube, first batter for his side in the third, hit a home run off the left-center fence, jogged to second, where, after the cheers subsided, he removed his cap and yelled: "Who the hell cant play ball?"

Rube, when pitching, served them all the same on shoot drop when he decided on a strikeout and the batter was right-handed, except with great batters like Lajoie. With the left handed batter, it was an "in," but it didn't have the drop of the "out."

JOHN W. KEOGH
Chaplain, Newman Hall, a school of Religion at the University of Pennsylvania.

In sketching the baseball career for the Associated Press, I obtained on the authority of Mack the information that Waddell never called in his fielders during an actual league game in order to demonstrate his strikeout powers. The eccentric Rube did not do things by rule or regulation but Mack on the field, restrained him so far as possible. Oscar Schreckengost was the most successful of all catchers in handling Waddell's bmeirg speed. They were the Altrock and Schacht of thier day, when it came to clowning. Both died in 1915.

Two Floodlight Games Scheduled for Windy City

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The floodlights will burn for two football games in Chicago tonight.

Soldier Field, which has seen everything from a solemn religious event to a world's heavyweight championship fight, will have its first experience with night football when the arcs are turned on the game between Drake University and the University of Oregon. Tonight's other game will be at Loyola Field, with Georgetown playing Loyola.

Tulane's green way and about 250 supporters were due today for an engagement with Northwestern tomorrow afternoon, while Southern Methodist's aerial circus headed into South Bend, Ind., to participate in the opening of Notre Dame's new stadium. Another southern invader, Vanderbilt, finished up the major troop movement in arriving at Minneapolis to meet Minnesota.

Greensboro Bank Plans to Purchase Reidsville Bank

Greensboro, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Greensboro Bank and Trust Company has completed negotiations for the purchase of the Citizens Bank of Reidsville, it was announced today by B. B. Vinson, president of the local institution.

A unanimous vote of the board of directors of the Greensboro Bank and Trust Company to buy the bank was followed by acceptance of the proposal by the directors of the Reidsville bank, subject to ratification by its stockholders.

The Greensboro Bank and Trust Company has branches in Sanford and Burlington.

DIXIE BEGINS DIVERSIFIED GRID WORK

Atlanta, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Dixie's diversified week-end football program went on display at noon today.

At that hour Clemson had an engagement with the Citadel at Pledge fair in Florence, S. C. Clemson figured to win, but the Citadel, conqueror of Stetson and Duke already this year, offered formidable opposition.

Tomorrow the cannonading begins in earnest with North Carolina being a real test in V. P. I. at Blacksburg, Va., and Georgia Tech, embarking upon an unusually difficult opening game with South Carolina.

North Carolina was weakened by the loss of three injured line veterans, but an extra scrimmage costed the stock of four reserves who won the right to accompany the squad of 36 by outstanding play. In contrast, South Carolina's gridmen were reported in excellent condition, well fortified by back troops. Georgia Tech was troubled both with injuries and the disqualification of Harold Oltz, track punter.

Virginia Poly's power plant includes Sam Hardwick, backfield leader, who skirted the ends in the Roanoke College game for 49 yards, and Bird Hooper, full back and Owens, ball carriers returned from last year.

Duke has all of its men back in harness for tomorrow's Virginia game and the outlook appears much brighter. "Barnacle" Bill Dolker, one of Kentucky's centers, has returned from a world tour in time to participate in his team's debut against Sewanee.

Inter-sectional arguments take Tulane to Northwestern, Maryland to Yale, Furman to West Point and Vanderbilt to Minnesota. Tulane and Maryland seemed to have the best chances of bowing over North Carolina hosts.

Plan to Form Two Leaf Marketing Bodies in Carolina

Raleigh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Formation of two cooperative tobacco marketing associations, one to serve the eastern belt planters and one for the old North Carolina belt, today was the aim of the North Carolina tobacco organization committee.

The committee, with representatives from 40 of the 50 tobacco growing counties reported present, yesterday adopted a "100 per cent delivery" contract for the organizations and moved to start a sign-up campaign as soon as contracts can be printed.

Headquarters of both cooperatives will be established in Raleigh, it was decided, in order to coordinate the work as much as possible.

The committee will seek to secure sufficient signatures to the cooperative contracts for efficient operation of the associations by May 1, 1931. In the event enough signatures are not secured, however, the contracts would be held open until 1932 in an effort to complete a sign-up that will satisfy the Federal Farm Board. In order for the contracts to be effective for the 1930 crop, the agreement stated, it will be necessary to gain a sufficient sign-up by October 15.

The executive committee, charged with detailed arrangements for the sign-up, will meet at the call of Gov. O. Max Gardner, a leader in the cooperative movement, to elect a head for the cooperatives and to perfect the organization. The governor is expected to call the committee together within a short time.

Ten Round Bout Set for New York Stadium Tonight

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A ten round bout between Justo Suarez, Argentine sensation, and Ray Miller, Chicago lightweight, tops the opening indoor card at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Suarez, perhaps because of a decided advantage in the weights, is a favorite at odds as high as 2 to 1, but this hardly seems to paint a true picture. Miller, on the basis of his record, looks like a much better bet than the odds indicate. The boys who take the odds in New York apparently have not yet forgiven Miller for his poor showing against Jimmy McLaurin here.

Suarez has been undefeated in this country, beating among others Flowers, Joe Glick and Herman Perlick, but Miller looks like a more formidable foe than many of these.

GRID TEAMS PREPARE FOR WEEK-END

By WHITNEY THARIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charlotte, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Light drills and a word or two about football fundamentals were set for North Carolina grid teams today as they prepared at home and on foreign fields for tomorrow's battles.

North Carolina's Tar Heels were in Blacksburg, Va., where they will encounter Virginia Polytechnic institute and N. C. State's Wolfpack was en route to Tampa for a tilt with the University of Florida.

Catawba, making its debut under the guidance of "Unk" Charlie Moran, former center coach, who arrived on the campus yesterday, used today for traveling to Virginia where Lynchburg is waiting to entertain them tomorrow.

For the first time in 35 years, Duke will play host to the Cavaliers from the University of Virginia in the week-end game at Durham. Davidson will also meet an out-of-state foe, Erskin College, of Due West, S. C., while the Wake Forest-Guilford game will be a strictly home state affair.

The Tar Heel will be considerably weakened in the V. P. I. game by the absence of Blackwood, star guard, and Nelson and Brown, ends, all veterans, from the team. All three are laid off with injuries.

Coach Chuck Collins took 36 men to Blacksburg, four of whom earned the trip by extra-good work in a special scrimmage for 30 reserves.

Coach John Van Liew entrained for Tampa with 31 of his husky players.

The general improvement of the physical condition of the entire Duke squad was given as the reason for confidence which has grown in the Blue Devil camp that a victory over Virginia is possible, and probable.

Davidson drilled rather methodically yesterday, the players being unable to put their hearts in the work because of the absence of Coach Monk Younger, called away by the sudden death of a brother.

Three Persons Held for Murder

Allendale, S. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Three persons were under arrest here today in connection with the finding of the mutilated body of Richard Smith on a railroad track here September 22.

Smith's brother, C. B. Smith, 24, was the latest to come into court.

body of the Jew. He was arrested and charged with murder.

Previously, Louis Cling, Allendale lumber man, and H. R. Sineath had been arrested. They are held by Sheriff H. C. McMillan as material witnesses.

A girl, Mattie Lee Wilson, 17, at whose home the Smith brothers visited the night before the body was found, was arrested, but released after questioning.

Officers say C. B. Smith had a fight with his brother, choked him to death and placed the body on the track a few minutes before the arrival of a freight train. Smith admitted being with his brother the night of the 21st but denied having an argument with him.

Russell Elected Georgia Governor In Run-Off Race

Atlanta, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A primary landslide has given the Democratic nomination for governor, tantamount to election in Georgia, to Richard B. Russell, Jr., 32-year-old bachelor son of the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court. Russell, who has twelve living brothers, will be the youngest governor in the history of Georgia.

If he remains unmarried until elected in June, 1931, in succession to Governor L. G. Hardman, he also will be the third bachelor governor of the state, the others being Gen. James E. Oglethorpe, founder of the state, and Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederacy.

Returns from yesterday's run-off primary gave Russell 330 county unit votes from 128 counties to 84 county unit votes in 33 counties for George H. Carswell, present Secretary of State. The incomplete popular vote was Russell 89,028; Carswell 40,091.

The run-off was necessary when neither Russell nor Carswell received a majority of the county unit votes in the first primary September 10.

Thomasville, (AP)—Everette Lackey, Jr., two, was instantly killed at the home of his grandparents when a shotgun was discharged.

Three-Cornered Battle for Radio Right in South

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A three cornered contest for a 50 kilowatt broadcasting station in the Southern zone developed today before the Radio Commission.

George Morris, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, told the commission his station, WMC, had applied for authority to operate a 50-kilowatt station and to use the same frequency of 650 kilocycles sought by WSM at Nashville and WREC-WOAN at Memphis.

Station WSM, the Nashville Life and Accident Insurance Company transmitter at Nashville, now operates on a 650 kilocycle wave length with 5,000 watts power on unlimited time.

Station WREC-WOAN whose high power application was heard today, has an assignment of 600 kilocycles frequency with 500-watts power at night and 1,000 watts power during daylight hours.

WMC has the same power assignments during day and night as WREC-WOAN, but operates on 780 kilocycles.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal station will oppose the increase of power sought by WREC, Inc. on the grounds that WMC is entitled to as much power as WREC and that to grant the WREC application would be to give that station an undue advantage.

Slayer of Senator Not to Face Trial This Term of Court

Orangeburg, S. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—W. L. "Sporty" Thornley, confessed slayer of State Senator E. J. Dennis of Berkeley county, will not be arraigned at the special term of Berkeley county court now being held. Solicitor A. J. Hydrick said today.

Thornley, operated on for appendicitis on Sept. 22, the day court convened, is convalescing in a hospital at Charleston. His condition is not such as to permit his appearance now, Solicitor Hydrick said, but he will be arraigned at the regular term of Berkeley court scheduled for November.

Judge M. M. Mann, notified of the solicitor's decision, said he would adjourn the special term of court.

Negro On Trial for Burglary

Henderson, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Henry Thomas Barden, negro, went on trial in Vance Superior court here today for first degree burglary, a capital offense in North Carolina.

The state charges that Barden entered the home of W. A. Matthews one night last June, attacked Matthews' son, Jesse, when the young man was aroused and stabbed him in the lungs several times with an ice pick. The youth has recovered.

Attempt to Have Strike Injunctions Ended At Danville

Danville, Va., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Textile union officials today were considering legal means of having two strike injunctions set aside.

Last night at the end of the fourth day of the strike of workers of the Riverside and Dan River cotton mills, C. S. Garrison, strike public relations director, said that Francis J. Gorman, international president of the United Textile Workers of America, had conferred with members of the executive board of the union's chapter on the matter of combating the injunctions. The counter action will be taken by Monday, Garrison stated.

Gorman, the local chapter of the union and its members and officers were restrained in injunctions secured by the mill operators from preventing free passage into and out of the several units of the mills.

Queen Helen to Leave Rumania Forever, Soon

Vienna, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Sorrowing, but determined not to grovel at the feet of the handsome King Carol, Queen Helen of Rumania was represented here today as intending to leave Rumania forever. A Rumanian politician arriving from Bucharest said that after many years she had decided to comply with Carol's wishes and leave, their bright faced son and former boy king, entirely to the care of his father.

Among the queen's immediate entourage it was expected that she soon would go to Germany and take up a permanent residence near other members of the former Greek royal family, themselves denied a home in their native Greece, now a republic.

The Rumanian politician said Carol recently had remarked in the presence of many persons that the best Helen could do would be to leave Rumania of her own accord. The remark was repeated to the Queen who finally made up her mind that she must abandon her dream of raising her much-loved son and leave the country.

The Rumanian people have come to consider Queen Helen very affectionately, and have been touched with her self-sacrificing and dignified bearing, the politician said, adding that King Carol had been visibly exasperated at the thought he must forego an early coronation.

Good Dumplings Bring Divorce

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Charles W. Brown, who admitted he was an expert dumpling maker, appeared in Superior Judge Harris' court, seeking a divorce.

My wife, Rose, made me do all the cooking," Brown testified. "And she never was so happy as when telling me what a poor cook I was."

"One day, Your Honor, I was making dumplings. I had them simmering in the pot—"

"You can make dumplings?" demanded Judge Harris, greatly interested.

The judge raised his hand. "My good man, say no more. Lifting the lid on a pot of dumplings is an act of cruelty."

Brown was awarded a divorce and the kitchen utensils.

Man Confesses The Slaying of Three Women

Williamson, W. Va., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Three women lay dead today, while state police, piecing together the story of a triple tragedy, said William C. Adams, captured in the mountains two miles from here, had confessed that he slew them and that he was "looking for two men" when he was apprehended.

Adams saw his estranged wife, Mrs. Flossie Adams, 29, and her aunt, Mrs. Cynthia McGuire, walking on the street here yesterday. He left his automobile and attempted to talk to his wife. A quarrel ensued and, police said, Adams drew a pistol from his pocket and shot both women. After the shooting, Adams went to the home of Mrs. John Campbell, his wife's mother, and killed her, police said. Then Adams fled to the hills.

Mrs. McGuire was a resident of Johnson City, Tenn., and was visiting here.
