REPARATION ISSUE AGAIN TO FOREFRONT

Germany May Be Forced to Declare Moratorium on Payments

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The assertion by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht in New York that Germany would be forced to declare a moratorium on reparations payments unless other cognate benefits were extended to her foreign trade was examined from various viewpoints today in Washington.

The former president of the Reichsbank, whose comment was made last night before the foreign policy association, had been in touch with President Hoover, Secretary Mellon and Secretary Stimson during the day. Both White House officials said the visit with the President was a formal call only and no German-American problems were discussed. His talk with Mr. Mellon also lasted but a few minutes, and was said by the Treasury to have been purely personal. The same was said of the talk with Mr. Stimson.

Reports printed abroad that officials of this government were considering a plan for a moratorium of the war debts owed by allied nations were met with an official denial that such a proposal had been made officially. It was noted that none of the war debts to this country has any connection with German reparations payments. The United States is not a party to the Young plan, and it was said in governmental quarters that the allied war debts were based solely upon each nation's ability to pay without distress and without reference to German reparations.

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, former president of the Reichsbank, in an address before the foreign policy association last night, said unless other countries helped Germany to extend her foreign trade she will be forced to proclaim a moratorium on reparations payments.

He predicted the time would come when Germany's creditors would realize that the collection of reparations payments was less profitable than Germany's commercial competition and then would be ready to reopen the entire question. He asserted that under present circumstances Germany cannot continue to pay reparations.

Escaped Convict Held in Robbery

Raleigh, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Sam B. Hatch, escaped Durham County convict, today was bound over under $2,500 bond for trial in Superior court on a charge of holding up James Horton, local taxi driver, and stealing his taxi here Sunday. J. B. Dudley and Irene Sauls, both of Durham, companions of Hatch when arrested yesterday at Burlington, were dismissed when Hatch testified in Police court that the couple had nothing to do with the theft of the car.

Police today still were seeking a man with red hair and a red mustache who is believed to have been Hatch's aide in holding up the taxi driver and stealing his machine.

World Business Review Shows Bright Prospects In Several Countries

Compilation of Conditions By Commerce Department Reflects Hopeful Indication In Some Nations and Dark Prospects In Some of the Others

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—A review of world business conditions made up from cable and radio messages was said at the Commerce Department today to show a number of "hopeful indications" as to the future development in some countries and dark prospects in others. The study was carried on in almost every quarter of the globe and the department's summary follows:

"Far eastern conditions show several hopeful indications, though actual business activity has increased very little. In Japan, some gain has been made by cotton spinning but other industries continue to lag. China in general is favored by the improved political outlook with construction extremely active and crops exceptionally good. Slowly returning confidence is the only appreciable change in British India.

"Although prospects in Siam are seasonally improved, the rice export market is not promising. After exceptionally low levels of prices and business in the Philippines during September, several favorable factors have appeared in October, including increased railway traffic, greater construction activity and reduced unemployment.

"The good agricultural outlook is the only hopeful feature in the Australian situation. The sugar and pineapple crops in Hawaii promise to be exceptionally large, but the business outlook is dependent upon price trend in export products. In

Woods Asked To Assume Charge Of Campaign To Relieve Unemployment

President Hoover Requests Former Police Commissioner of New York to Take Charge of Government Campaign to Relieve Suffering During Winter

Washington, Oct. 21.—Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York City who was in charge of unemployment work on President Harding's commission in 1921 today was asked by President Hoover to assume charge of the organization which is being created to relieve suffering during the winter.

The government's estimates of unemployment have been fixed at approximately 3,500,000, but Mr. Hoover does not believe this figure represents the actual burden upon the country.

The United States, it was contended, has a normal unemployed total of approximately 1,000,000, consisting mostly of those who are not seeking work or else are shifting from one job to another and are not without some income. The census also shows an average of one and three quarters breadwinners per family so that the total families without any source of income is placed by the government below the actual unemployed total.

The government has extended virtually all of its appropriations for public works, amounting to approximately $35,000,000 and is planning to ask Congress to permit greatly increased expenditures so as to give increased employment.

Mr. Woods, who also organized after the war a committee for placing veterans in jobs, is expected to come to the capital immediately to undertake development of the relief program. He is to work with the committee of six cabinet members and Governor Meyer of the Federal Reserve Board.

The administration was said definitely today to be prepared to ask Congress to remove restrictions upon federal public work already provided for over a period of years and to permit this work to go forward at once.

While President Hoover believes the country will be able to take care of the situation during the winter, he expects Mr. Woods to develop an extensive organization to create employment in co-operation with the cabinet committee which the President today called into session.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will be held at the Rotary building tonight at 7 o'clock.

The meeting will be featured by a report of the committee on Armistice Day arrangements and several other matters of importance to the post.

Although notices of the meeting have been mailed out to members, it is stated today that many of them had not been received. Commander J. S. Elliott said the meeting was an important one and urged members not to wait for notices but to attend and take part in the arrangements for future activities of the organization.

British Malaya there is continued decline as the result of previous over-trading and in New Zealand prices present appreciable gains.

"In the Netherlands and Belgium gains are being recorded and the outlook is somewhat improved; in the case of the Netherlands, however, the autumn pick-up has not assumed normal proportions.

HOOKS REPLIES TO LETTER BY S. I. DUDLEY

Says Platform of Pitt Democrats is Same As That Adopted by State Convention

The platform of the Democratic party in Pitt county is the same as that adopted at the Democratic State convention at Raleigh, and Democratic chairmen have no right to adopt platforms of their own, in the opinion of W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Pitt County Executive Committee, in a letter to S. I. Dudley, Democratic nominee for the Board of County Commissioners of Pitt county.

The statement by Mr. Hooks was the outgrowth of a previous communication between himself and Mr. Dudley. Mr. Hooks several days ago called on Mr. Dudley to make his position in the present campaign clear so that he in turn might report the matter to the County Democratic Executive committee. He stated that several reports were current which might work to the discredit of both Mr. Dudley and the party and suggested that the nominee for the Board of Commissioners make a complete statement regarding his position.

Complying with the request Mr. Dudley said he was not in accord with other nominees of the party, and had a platform of his own calling for a reduction of county expenses and other proposed adjustments in the operation of county government.

He declared that "turn about is fair play" and asked the county chairman to make a public declaration setting forth his feeling in the matter. To this Mr. Hooks in a letter to Mr. Dudley, a copy of which was sent to the Reflector, had the following to say:

Ayden, N. C., Oct. 18, 1930.

Hon. Sam I. Dudley, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Mr. Dudley:

On my return to Ayden today I received your letter of Oct. 15th. In reply I wish to state that my only purpose in writing you was in the interest of the Democratic Party and Democratic nominees.

As to the Democratic platform in Pitt County, that platform is the platform adopted by the State convention, assembled in Raleigh July 3rd 1930. I have no right to adopt a platform of my own and my duty as county chairman is to try to elect you and the other Democratic nominees.

With best wishes and kind regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Chairman Pitt County Demo. Exec. Com.

FEDERAL AIR FORCE ACTIVE OVER BRAZIL

Torrential Rains Slow Up General Advance of Government Troops

Rio De Janeiro, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Although heavy rains during the past few days have caused a slowing up of military activities, Federal Air Forces on all sectors of the revolt against the government have been extremely active since Sunday.

Federal planes have been reconnoitering the insurgent positions and have been bombarding the enemy wherever opportunity afforded. The aviation force has devoted itself particularly to dispersing rebel bands and to preventing the organization of the insurgent columns.

Official reports today said that there had been no new activities in the state of Minas Geraes while the president of the state of Santa Catharina informed the government that the coast along the state was free of rebels.

The Parana-Sao Paulo front was reported quiet and federal patrols returned to their stations without having come into contact with the enemy.

Revolutionary sources reported that despite torrential rains over the entire battlefield the general rebel advance continued and that two columns of troops had crossed into Sao Paulo on October 19 at different points. The general situation of the insurgent troops was said to be excellent.

The revolutionary military staff has addressed a message to the federal army and people warning them that rebel airplanes soon will cross the Sao Paulo border, but to them they are not afraid since the planes "belong to the army of liberation and are solely for military purposes, not intended to strike at defenseless cities."

Curitiba, Parana, Brazil, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Getulio Vargas, liberal leader and head of the Brazilian revolutionary movement, was greeted by more than 20,000 persons as he arrived here today to confer with the revolutionary leaders in the state of Parana.

The reception given to Vargas was marked by great ceremony and popular enthusiasm and his train was delayed due to greetings extended him in the towns along the route.

Students Of College Are Entertained By Various Churches Of Greenville

Annual Program for Students At Each of the Churches Last Night Filled With Fun and Frolic; Carnival Spirit Predominated in Most Instances

Students of the East Carolina Teachers college were entertained last night by the various churches of the city. The entertainment program at each of the churches was described as the most outstanding in years, and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The church play hosts to the students each year and the occasion is always looked upon with more than a general interest by members of the congregation and students alike. The programs last night were of a carnival nature in many instances and expressive of the Halloween season. Delightful refreshments were served at the expiration of each program.

Presbyterian Church

The program at the Presbyterian church was a complete departure from recent years and of a strictly festive nature. The basement of the church building at the corner of Pitt and Fifth streets was divided into booths and a midway to carry out the carnival idea and the visiting students were treated to numbers of amusements.

The feature performance of the sideshows was the Malted Milk Baby. This part was played by F. J. Deizer with Ed Harvey acting in the capacity as nurse. The act was a scream from beginning to end and the two-hundred-pound baby was a cynosure of all eyes when he rode down midway in a carriage propelled by his husky nurse.

In addition there was the customary fortune teller's place, wild animal show, and exhibition hall. Jay Summerell and Bill Brown played the part of traffic cops, and although they made several arrests there was no prosecuting attorney to prefer charges against those held for violating the laws of the carnival grounds.

Plaintiffs Score Victory in P & N Railroad Action

Springburg, S. C., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Judge J. Lynn Glenn, before an injunction suit brought in an effort to prevent the proposed extension of the Piedmont and Northern Railroad, today ruled relevant testimony given before Federal Judge H. Keith C. Davis of the United States Commerce Commission, who heard the road's original application on June 30, 1927.

The suit, brought by the commission and seven intervening railroads, is being heard in the United States District Court here.

Counsel interpreted Judge Glenn's ruling to admit the evidence as an initial victory for the plaintiffs. The evidence in question was given by W. S. Lee, president of the Piedmont and Northern, and others.

Nelson Thomas, commission attorney, offered documentary evidence purporting to show the Duke Power Company's interest in the electric road in 1927.

Condemn Gin Loans At Raleigh Inquiry

Raleigh, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The practice of making "gin loans" on "cottonseed refusal basis" was condemned today before the Federal Trade Commission.

E. B. Borden, of Goldsboro, vice-president and district manager of the Southern Cotton Oil company, said the policy was "bad for the industry."

Witness after witness under questioning of W. B. Woodson, Trade Commission attorney, has condemned the practice during the last two weeks as the commission investigated the cottonseed industry in North Carolina and Virginia. The commission is investigating charges of "price fixing" by mills.

Most of the witnesses heard have been mill officials whose plants are members of the North Carolina-Virginia division of the National Cottonseed Products association.

Late yesterday, however, J. D. Chalk, a cotton planter and ginners, told the commission under question that he had found, upon trying various cotton seed mills in the State, that all had the "same" price for seed.

Special Subscription Offer

Instead of a subscription campaign in which a large amount of money is given away to contestants, the management of The Reflector has decided to put on a subscription drive beginning today, in which the premium money is given to the subscriber in the form of a forty per cent discount on all yearly subscriptions paid during the limited time that this offer is open.

A similar offer was made during the recent co-operative dollar day staged by members of the Greenville Merchants Association and the response was most gratifying to us, but many persons because of financial conditions here at that time were unable to take advantage of the offer and after receiving numbers of requests from our subscribers we have decided to repeat our special for a limited time in order that all our subscribers and those who would like to become subscribers may receive the benefits of this forty per cent savings.

Under this offer no subscriptions will be taken for a shorter period than one year. The regular price of The Reflector is $3.00 per year but while this special offer lasts you can subscribe or renew your present subscription for a full year for $3.00.

This offer will remain open for but a short time and after its close there will be no further reduction of this kind. If you want to save $2.00 on the price of The Reflector, bring or mail your subscription to the Circulation Department at once.

MAN ON TRIAL FOR SLAYING YOUNG WOMAN

Herbert M. Campbell Faces Trial At Washington for Killing Mary Baker

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The trial of Herbert M. Campbell for the murder of Mary E. Baker was recessed today until tomorrow at 10 A. M. after the panel of 125 men had been exhausted without the completion of a jury.

Two hundred additional talemens were called for tomorrow morning. Even jurors were in the box when the trial recessed. They were all men.

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Questioning of prospective jurors continued today in the trial of Herbert M. Campbell, Virginia real estate dealer, charged with the murder of Mary Baker, a government clerk.

There were indications it might be late in the day before the jury could be completed.

Twelve persons had been excused, five because they said they had formed an opinion on the case and seven because of scruples against the death penalty. Preliminary questioning of the jury was by Justice Jesse C. Adkins, who presided at the trial.

Campbell, seemingly unconcerned and in the best of spirits, nodded and smiled to friends as he entered the court room.

Twenty-nine talemens had been excused an hour and a half after trial opened. Some were removed by challenges by the defense or prosecution but the majority were excused by Justice Adkins after they said they had formed an opinion about the case. Among them were four women.

Statements by the prosecution indicated the government would attempt to prove Miss Baker was killed at 16th and B streets in Washington on the late afternoon of April 11.

In the long investigation into the murder, witnesses had testified that a man was seen beating a woman at 16th and B on the afternoon Miss Baker disappeared. However, it had never been definitely determined until today that the government would attempt to prove the woman was Miss Baker and the man was Campbell.

Miss Baker's body was found near Arlington National Cemetery on the morning of April 12. The girl who roomed with her in Lyon Park, Virginia, had become alarmed because she failed to come home on the night of April 11. The alarm was intensified by finding Miss Baker's automobile, abandoned and blood-stained. Her body was found some time after that. She had been shot five times and choked to death.

These grim facts were the basis on which a hundred conflicting theories and developments have grown, until the case is, perhaps, Washington's most puzzling murder mystery.

The case against him, so far as is known, rests largely upon the statement by two ballistics experts that his .32 calibre revolver fired the shots found in the girl's body. They are Dr. Wilmer Souder of the Bureau of Standards and Calvin Goddard of Chicago.

The defense, however, will counter with two other firearms experts, Albert H. Hamilton, of Auburn, New York, and his son, Robert A. Hamilton, who assert as emphatically that Campbell's gun did not figure in the slaying.

Campbell himself is responsible for the theory that his gun was used in the murder and is responsible also for directing suspicion to himself. He delivered the weapon to officers, telling them he suspected an itinerant painter, Herman Barrere, of stealing it about the time the girl was killed and then returning it.

Barrere was arrested in Montreal. After he told his story he was no longer a suspect but a prospective witness. Campbell's arrest followed.

The case is being tried in the District of Columbia because Miss Baker's body was found on government property.

Miss Baker formerly lived in Cheraw, S. C., where her father, a minister, at one time held a pastorate.

EAST STILL IN GRIP OF COLD WAVE

New York City Experiences the Coldest October Weather In History

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Hundreds of homeless men shivered in the brisk wind whistling through the Bowery today as the "flop houses" turned them loose after a sketchy breakfast. The first spell of winter has crowded the city's cheap lodging houses beyond capacity.

So great was the number of applicants for beds at the municipal lodging house last night that 300 men were given makeshift quarters in a municipal steam boat moored in the East river, after the 1,940 beds in the lodging house were filled.

Since the first of the year, those in charge of the institution said, nearly 300,000 have been given shelter in the municipal lodging houses, and indications are that advancing winter will carry the total far above last year's.

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Eastern states which prescribed last week and cooled off unduly over the week-end continued to shiver today.

In New York City, where the temperature was mild in comparison to that in the northern part of the state, the thermometer yesterday registered a low of 35.5 degrees, making the day the coldest October 20 on record. The high mark of the day was 50 degrees.

Caterpillar tractor plows forcing their way through snow three to four feet deep opened roads in the Buffalo area that had been snow-bound since Saturday, thus relieving threat of a food and milk shortage in nearby towns.

The snowfall was general through northern New York and northern Pennsylvania. Motorists caught in the blizzard on Saturday were forced in many cases to seek temporary shelter until yesterday when roads were finally opened. Telephone and telegraph communication in many towns was disrupted.

The cold spell was general throughout the east, with frost for the first time this season covering a wide area.

UPSET BY BAD SICK HEADACHES

Disagreeable Feeling All Went Away Following Use of Black-Draught.

Paducah, Ky.—"For a long time I suffered with severe sick headaches that would unfit me for my work for two or three days at a time," says Mrs. C. H. Hall, of 222 Tennessee Street, this city.

"I would have these headaches if I let myself get constipated. I would also feel very dull and stupid and have a very bad taste in my mouth.

"After I heard of Theford's Black-Draught and began taking it, all this bad feeling would disappear and I would not have the headache, so that now I just keep a box of Black-Draught on hand, and when I feel the least bit bad I take a dose and it relieves me at once. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, in fact I have done so many times, to friends and neighbors."

There was a light frost throughout the central part of the state and the weather bureau here issued warning today of a heavy frost if the weather clears by night.

THRILLING AIR SCENES IN BARTHELMESS FILM

Light airplanes were crashed in the air to get thrilling air scenes for the new "The Dawn Patrol," the first National Vitaphone production starring Richard Barthelmess which comes to the New Theatre next week. This story, concerning the dramatic and tragic situation confronting a group of "schoolboy" flyers in the World War, is from the pen of John Monk Saunders.

Thirty Miners Killed in Blast

Aldorf, Germany, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Thirty miners were killed, forty injured and about one hundred trapped under ground by a dynamite explosion this forenoon in the Wilhelm shaft of the Anna mine.

The victims were buried in the wreckage spread by the blast through two levels 1,200 and 1,500 feet below the surface. Among the victims were two office workers killed when buildings above ground collapsed.

The Prussian Trade Ministry this afternoon dispelled earlier reports of more serious losses with the explanation that when the workers who escaped fled from the mine they dashed straight for their homes in their bewilderment without punching the time clock.

The management said rescue progress would be slow because the main entrance to the mine had been made impassable by the explosion and that the victims must be carried to shafts of the Maria mine, several miles away, by an underground route.

It was announced that out of the 400 workers down in the mine at the time of the explosion not more than 100 remained, either dead or awaiting rescue, the other 300 having found their own way to safety.

Forced ventilation had been restored, it was said, and the chance of escape for all who remained alive in the mine was considered good.

Baptists of Two Counties to Hold S. S. Campaign

The Baptist churches of Pitt and Beaufort counties have set aside the week beginning October 26 for an intensive campaign for their Sunday school work. It will be the plan to make a complete survey of each community where there is a Baptist Sunday school. Upon the basis of the results of this survey, a definite effort will be made to get each person to attend some Sunday school. Each night during the week, a Sunday school training school will be held in which improved methods and organization will be taught. Mr. L. L. Morgan, who is employed by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will personally direct the campaign.

Jews Condemn British Policy in Palestine

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The opinion of organized American Jews was recorded today in condemnation of the latest British declaration of policy in regard to Palestine administration.

The American Jewish Congress, which originally supported the mandate from the League of Nations under which Great Britain assumed rule over Palestine, saw in yesterday's report of Sir John Hope Simpson of Palestine immigration, land settlement and development, a serious blow to the establishment of a national home for the Jewish people.

In a resolution it termed the government's statement, made public in London with the report, a "repudiation of the solemn pledge given by the British government to the Jewish people."

It was adopted at the closing session of the congress here, together with expressions on behalf of oppressed Jews in Russia, Rumania, and Poland. A meeting of the administrative committee was ordered to take whatever action it may on the Palestine situation.

Yesterday's British statement of policy said further unrestricted Jewish immigration into Palestine was to be "strongly deprecated," and asserted the Arab population there blamed the economic depression under which it is laboring upon an excessive influx of Jews.

Plan to Assess Stockholders of Defunct Trust Co.

Raleigh, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Stockholders of the defunct Raleigh Banking and Trust company "will be assessed at the proper time if the audit now in progress reveals there is not enough money to pay the depositors 100 per cent," Geo. P. Bell, State Corporation commissioner, said today.

There are about 75 stockholders of the $2,000,000 capital stock of the bank, Mr. Bell said.

The bank was closed September 16 and the Page Trust company was named liquidating agent. The bank had deposits of about $1,500,000 when it closed.

BUGS MORAN IS CAPTURED IN ILLINOIS

Former North Side Gangster and Enemy of Al Capone, Held On Bond

Waukegan, Ill., Oct. 21.—(AP)—George (Bugs) Moran, former North Side gangland ruler and rival of Al Capone, was arrested early today at Cassidy's roadhouse, 15 miles west of here. Moran, alone when a constable and five secret service operatives, surprise him, offered no resistance.

Immediately after his apprehension, Moran was hustled to Waukegan where he was held in $50,000 bonds on a vagrancy charge.

Col. A. V. Smith, state's attorney for Lake county, said that a charge of carrying concealed weapons would also be lodged against Moran, who disputed with Capone forces for control of Chicago's gangland enterprise until his mob was weakened by the St. Valentine's Day massacre and later by numerous defections to his opponent.

Colonel Smith said that the Lake county authorities had sought Moran and Leo Mongoven, his bodyguard, for months. Mongoven, according to some stories, was supposed to have been slain and his body secretly disposed of by gangster enemies, but the Lake county prosecutor said that his information indicated that Mongoven was still living and had been with Moran only recently at Bemidji, Minn.

Both Moran and Mongoven were among the 28 men listed some time ago by the Chicago Crime Commission as "public enemies."

The Cassidy resort on Bluff Lake, where Moran was captured, has frequently seen his visits, according to Colonel Smith. Previous attempts to ensnare Moran at the resort failed but a force of private detectives led by Constable George Streidt surprised Moran at 2 a. m. today and ended the hunt which has engaged not only the authorities of Lake county and Chicago but also, it is reported, big gangsters hostile to Moran.

Colonel Smith said that Moran would be questioned about the slaying of Joe Berche, Sam Pellar, and Frank Quirk at Cross Lake, also in Lake county, last May 31. The three were shot to death supposedly by gangland enemies.

Hawks Completes Flight From N. Y. to Capital City

Washington, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Frank Hawks, transcontinental air record holder, arrived in Washington at 11:50 A. M. today, completing a flight from Valley Stream, N. Y., in 7 1/2 hours and eleven minutes, an average speed of 185 miles an hour.

Hawks said he did not know if he had established a record for the distance.

He left Valley Stream at 10:30 A. M. for a lunch on here with David S. Ingalls, assistant secretary of the Navy for aviation.

END CAMPAIGN FUND INQUIRY IN TENNESSEE

Lone Member of the Nye Committee Remains in the State to Continue Probe

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 21.—(AP)—A lone investigator remained in Tennessee today to represent the Senate campaign funds committee, following the close of public hearings here and the announcement by Chairman Nye that disclosures thus far would not disqualify any Senatorial nominees.

Chairman Nye instructed Chas. Barnard to receive affidavits from precinct election officers charged by some witnesses with permitting irregularities during the Shelby County Democratic primary.

The chairman said "some loose ends" might require further hearings in Tennessee.

In departing, the committee took a sheaf of documents and a transcript of testimony which included charges and denials that Negroes were voted more than once, and sometimes used ballots marked by other persons.

Other charges made and denied with an emphasis which the chairman indicated left considerable doubt of their basis were that voters received poll tax receipts without paying the legal fee, and that some precincts produced more votes than their registered totals justified.

After saying he did not believe disqualifying disclosures had been made against either Cordell Hull, long term Senatorial nominee, or Senator W. E. Brock, nominee for the short term, Nye added that he had no compliments to pay the manner of conducting the primary here. He said testimony showed the law had been violated in letter, "to say nothing of spirit," but the character of the violations was outside the committee's jurisdiction.

The chairman went to Nebraska and Senator Wagner to New York. Senator Nye expected to resume an investigation of the Republican primary in Nebraska, with "the bare possibility" of an immediate hearing there.

Face Trial for Violating State Election Laws

Asheville, Oct. 21.—(AP)—A. M. Rehman, traveling salesman of Atlanta, Ga., was to go on trial heretoday on three charges of violating state election laws.

Rehman, who was bound over to Buncombe County Superior court yesterday or a warrant containing a felony charge, was served shortly afterward with two additional arrants, each setting forth misdemeanor charges in connection with election law violations.

Rehman was released on $600 bond on the felony charge and under $200 bond on each of the misdemeanor charges.

Bill Lunsford, of Haw Creek, who swore out the first warrant against Rehman, told Judge Guy Weaver, sitting as a committing magistrate, that he secured the warrant for Rehman's arrest because he heard "three fellows on the corner say a traveling salesman named Rehman from Atlanta, Ga., had registered and voted absentee."

Lunsford said he did not know who the three men were.

Determine to Carry On Freight Fight

Raleigh, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Determination to fight for freight rates from this section of the southeast to southwest points on a parity with rates from official territory to the southwest points was reached here today by the Board of Governors of the North Carolina Traffic League.

A hearing will be held November 6 on what is known as the "southwestern case" and the board of governors spent most of the morning discussing what representation the traffic league will end to the hearing.

"We will fight for rates from the southeast to the southwest on a parity with rates from official territory to the southwest," W. S. Creighton of Charlotte, secretary-treasurer, said. "We want rates from this section more closely related to rates from official territory to the southwest."

The hearing of the "southwestern case" will be held at St. Louis by the Interstate Commerce Commission and I. M. Bailey and W. G. Womble of the State Corporation commission will attend.

Gant Shortage Is In Excess $55,000

Greensboro, Oct. 21.—(AP)—A statement given out here, sets forth that investigations made by R. G. Carter, Raleigh certified public accountant, into the Confederate pension checks handled by Mason W. Gant, former clerk of Guilford Superior court, indicate an apparent shortage in excess of $55,000.

The statement, issued yesterday, was amplified by Solicitor J. F. Spruill, of Lexington, who said that the "great majority of the pensioners whose names appear as payees on the checks are either deceased Confederate veterans or deceased widows of Confederate veterans."

Gant is awaiting trial on 13 indictments charging forgery, embezzlement, abstraction and misapplication of Confederate pension funds and malfeasance in office.

His attorneys are seeking postponement of the trial on the grounds that Gant is physically unable to appear in court.

Two physicians, appointed by the court, will report to Judge Hyslop Sink, heretomorrow on the physical condition of the defendant, and the "likelihood of the defendant's future physical condition."

Catarh Means Inflammation of Mucus Membrane

It is spoken of when one has a violent cold in the head. The cause of catarh is a disturbance in nerve supply leading to the parts affected, causing an inflammation. This disturbance in nerve supply is caused by misplaced vertebrae pinching the nerves as they leave the spinal column.

There is one thing to remember, this physical machinery (our bodies), like any other piece of machinery, at times needs attention, needs overhauling, needs adjusting, and the Chiropractor is to this delicate but powerful body machine, what an expert mechanic is to your automobile motor. Cow Day, the next big trade

BIG UPSETS IN FOOTBALL OVER WEEKEND

BY WHITNEY THARIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
Charlotte, Oct. 20.—North Carolina sent three underdogs into the football fray Saturday. Two came out with victory and honor and the third came out with honor.

Duke University brought back to Durham not only the Navy's scap but a restraining order on the premature awarding of the state football champion.

The Blue Devils playing their last year Jimmy DeHart, demonstrated at Annapolis that they form a greatly under-rated eleven.

There was a tale going the rounds before the season that the Devils were going to "do or die for DeHart" and some was unkind enough after the South Carolina game to suggest the latter method had been adopted.

Having established themselves as a smooth-running outfit, the Devils will be given more consideration in future games, as a starter, for the first time this season, the Durham outfit will go against Wofford at Spartanburg Saturday the out-and-out choice to mar the South Carolinians' homecoming day by defeating them. True Wofford has not offered serious opposition this year but the Terriers have the makings of a good team.

Probably the less said about the trouncing Georgia gave North Carolina, the better. The Tar Heels have in Tennessee another stiff opponent this week and will need all the strength they can muster to come back from Knoxville with a victory. It ought to be a battle royal, with both teams anxious to avenge a defeat the first for Tennessee since 1928.

Out of the Georgia game, the Tar Heels learned again a lesson they already knew: the finest of backs can't get anywhere without a good line. It must have been a bit heart-rending for fine ball jugglers like Granch, Magner, Nash and House to be able to advance the ball only 54 yards while Georgia was going places and doing things almost the entire game, particularly in the last quarter.

Those hard-fighting Wildcats from Davidson, having licked the Citadel by the grace of a first-quarter touchdown, will have a strong Virginia Polytechnic Institute team on their hands this week. Coach Monk Younger's charges demonstrated a rare defensive team as they halted the efforts of the South Carolina Bulldogs and put over a win when they had been spotted to lose.

If North Carolina State has been saving any football tricks this season, next Saturday will be an excellent time to trot them out. Mississippi A. and M., under the direction of Mr. "Red" Cagle, of Army fame, will visit Raleigh on that day. The Aggies got off to a poor start and dropped three straight games to S. I. A. A. teams, only to come back last week and put a lickin on the high-scoring machine sent out by L. S. U.

Mercer's Bears, a sort of in-and-out crew this season will furnish the competition at Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons probably are not worrying about the game but then again it may prove to be one of those days when Mercer is "in" instead of "out."

Other games this week will see Elon and Catawba at Salisbury; Atlantic Christian and Guilford at Greensboro; Lenoir-Rhyne and King at Bristol, Tenn.; Appalochian at West Liberty and High Point taking on the Navy Apprentice School at New Port News, Va.

Maxie to Defend His Title Tonight

New York, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom's defense of his light heavyweight championship against Abie Bain of Newark in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night serves as an excellent proof of the scarcity of first-class 175-pounders at the present time.

Bain is a fair workman but he does not appear to have a chance against Rosenbloom, a city veteran who has slapped and roughed his way to victory over most of the good lightweights in the last two or three years.

Only a year ago the division was filled with first-class fighting men such as Tommy Loughran, Jimmy Slattery, Leo Lonski, Larry Johnston, Tuffy Griffiths, Rosenbloom and a host of others. Most of these abandoned the 175-pound class to go after bigger game, some of them with conspicuous success.

Fights Last Night

Philadelphia—Eddie Shea, Chicago, knocked out Johnny Datto, Cleveland, (4); Phil Zwick, Cleveland, stopped Eddie Cool, Philadelphia, (3).
Manchester, England—Al Foreman, Montreal, knocked out Gpo. Rose, Bristol, (6).
Salt Lake City—Manuel Quintana, Tampa Fla., outpointed Bugs Myers, Pocatello, Idaho, (10).

THEY STAR IN TIGER LINE

SPORTS SLANTS

Joe McCarthy knows how to pick his spots as well as manage a major league ball club. General Joe became affiliated with the most substantial check-book and bank account in the National league when he hooked up with the Wrigley interests at Chicago for a five-year term. When he found it necessary to make a change, McCarthy showed sound judgment in joining forces with the Ruppert resources, most potent and liberal in the American league.

This is a "break" such as few deposed pilots ever get, but there seems to be a well-founded idea that McCarthy is the man to pick up where the late Miller Huggins left off and revive Yankee fortunes. The Yankees have a lot of good material already in stock and a lot more coming up. Several of the outstanding stars of the Pacific Coast league this year, including Jess Hill, Meryl Hoag and Frank Cosselli, are tagged for delivery at the Yankee Stadium in the next year or two.

The main test for the new Yankee pilot will be in the development of pitchers. He was not conspicuous in doing so while in command of the Cubs. Bob Shawkey made a good start toward reconstructing the Yankee curving corps and he might be persuaded to devote his attention to this feature of the firm's business.

Milt Davis in the Minneapolis Tribune, writes interestingly of the "Old Fox," Glenn Scobey Warner, on the occasion of Stanford's visit to Minnesota.

"Pop," he discovered, smokes cigarettes continually while sitting on the bench during a game. "The cadence of his puffs is an accurate graph of his mental state. Does the cigarette smoke curl upward like the breath of a chimney on an untroubled night? All is well. Does it come out in snorts? Disturbed thoughts; anxiety; pulse fast and temperature high. Does it pour forth like explosions out of an exhaust? Then Pop is in a frenzy, ready for some masterstrokes to stem the tide of desperate fortune.

"Give Pop a good emotional day on the bench Saturday and it will take a conscientious gridiron dry-cleaner about an hour just to pick up his cigarette butts."

Presumably, there was a lot of mopping up to do around the Stanford bench on the afternoon of October 11. The Cardinals were held to a scoreless tie by the Gophers.

Southern Methodist has plenty of football stuff with which to worry any opponent at any stage of the season, but it seems particularly dangerous to take on the Mustangs early in October. They have been galloping around the country for the past few years just looking for trouble.

A few seasons back it may be recalled, the Texans made their first trip east and came within a point of tying one of the best West Point eleven of recent years. Last season they held the powerful Nebraska eleven, Big Six champions, to a scoreless tie at the outset of the gridiron campaign. They charged into South Bend this year with a rush that almost upset Mr. Rockne's high-powered pupils.

TULANE MEET WITH GEORGIA IN LIMELIGHT

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—(AP)—Tulane's first defense of its conference title against Georgia Tech in Atlanta and Alabama's charge against Vanderbilt in Birmingham stand out as the feature games in the Southern Conference this week. Two of Dixie's championship contenders—Tennessee and North Carolina—were dropped for the 147 count last week and Saturday's battle will send another pair reeling to the sidelines.

Tulane's victory over the Texas Aggies and its valiant stand against Northwestern in the western conference, rates the Green Wave as a real threat.

On paper Tech has one of the best lines in Dixie, with Maree and Sprer at tackles as the big guns, but the forward wall has failed to show its expected strength.

Vanderbilt has been pointing for Alabama since its return from Minnesota and the great inter-sectional triumph over the Gophers. While "Bama" was tiring itself out in beating Tennessee, Vanderbilt's victory rested as the reserves beat Spring Hill. Wallace Wade has the big task of bringing his team to the peak again for the clash with the fresh Commodores.

Georgia must keep its top stride to take a much improved Auburn team, which barely lost to Tech 14-12, while Clemson faces its most important battle of the year Thursday in the annual State Fair engagement with South Carolina at Columbia, Kentucky, coming into rapidly, faces Virginia in the only other conference game involving an unbeaten team.

Tennessee and North Carolina meet at Knoxville, Sewanee tackles Louisiana State, Mississippi A. and M. hopes for its second conference victory against North Carolina State and Maryland opposes Virginia Military.

In inter-sectional combat although Chicago lost to Florida, the Maroons figure much stronger than Mississippi, while Centre will be satisfied with a good stand against Northwestern.

Saturday brings together Birmingham-Southern and Spring Hill, Georgetown and Transylvania, Western Kentucky and Louisville, Eastern Kentucky and Kentucky Wesleyan, Louisiana Tech and Southwestern Louisiana, Mississippi College and Chattanooga and Southwestern.

Duke beats the Navy, it happened last Saturday but few prospects have gotten over it yet. Something may be happening at Wake Forest, if it is Pat Miller is keeping quiet about it.

Jim Magner, the goal-crossingest back the Tar Heels have this year, and Al Cole a promising youngster pass catcher, will not be on the bench or in the game when Coach Chuck Collins takes his hopefuls to Knoxville to play Tennessee Saturday. That is, they will not be there unless Collins relents. Ex-suspended both players for a week yesterday for breaking training rules.

More than that, Mr. Collins told his entire team when he thought about the performance against Georgia last week. To put it mildly, Mr. Collins thought that a little better defensive work would have saved his outfit from a 26 to 0 drubbing.

"From now on," he said sternly, "every man is going to play ball. I don't care who he is."

Van Liew's resignation from N. C. State will probably be received with mingled feeling among Wolfpack followers. There are some who believe the gentleman from Peru did the honorable thing by the team in stepping completely out of the picture after he had been relegated to the background by State athletic authorities.

There are others who will argue that four games will not give a coach an opportunity to present his case. If Van Liew's team had not lost to Davidson and Wake Forest, the chances are he would still be head coach in the Wolfpack town. Details at the hands of Florida and Clemson are nothing new to N. C. State teams.

That's water over the dam now and Doctor Sermon is charged with diagnosing the Wolfpack ills. He has been instructed to secure a new backfield coach and is angling for the services of William M. (Bill) Fetzer, former North Carolina monitor, Mississippi A. and M. will call at Raleigh Saturday for a game with the pack.

Davidson is in for light workouts this week. Younger having decided that the Wildcats' win over the Citadel was largely due to their freshness brought about by several days of light drilling before the contest. V. P. I.'s powerful aggregation will be Saturday's Wildcat menu.

The old fight and pep that Duke publicity men wrote about last season are about to materialize in Durham, judging by reports coming from the Blue Devil camp. Emphasis on the reserve strength, Jimmy DeHart's schedule is week, many of the second-stringers will probably see action in the Wofford game this week.

Wake Forest, ranking with Duke as the "surprise" outfits of the year, will get another test against Mercer this week but the Georgia team has not been particularly impressive this season.

New Bern.—(AP)—Having the 14th, Offie Bert, Craven county, got out of jail. Jailer C. Lupton requested his release of Federal Judge I. M. Meekins so the ailment might not spread.

HEAD COACH RESIGNS AT N. C. STATE

Raleigh, Oct. 20.—(AP)—John M. Van Liew, head football coach at North Carolina State College, today tendered his resignation, which was accepted by Dr. E. C. Brooks, president.

Conditions have arisen in the coaching staff of State College which make it impossible for me to do efficient work," Van Liew's letter to Dr. Brooks read, "and as there seems to be no prospect of my improving such conditions, I respectfully tender my resignation."

The resignation took effect immediately. Van Liew was removed from active charge of the team last week, college officials said, and Dr. R. R. Sermon, was given control.

After a conference with Arthur Wilson, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, Brooks announced Dr. Sermon, who is director of athletics, as acting head football coach for the remainder of this season. The new coach was instructed to obtain soon as possible a backfield coach for the season.

Dr. Brooks said the faculty athletic committee had recommended last week a backfield instructor be obtained. An announcement of the new assistant is expected tonight or tomorrow.

Bill Fetzer, formerly University of North Carolina coach, probably will be selected for the position, if negotiations now underway are completed, college officials said.

Van Liew's letter did not reveal the alleged conditions which made it impossible in his opinion, for him to do efficient work. It was said, however, at the college that there had been friction in the coaching staff. Criticism which followed the Wolfpack's poor offensive power in its first three major games this year, and the placing of Dr. Sermon in complete charge also contributed to the situation which resulted in Van Liew's resignation.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 6 to 8 points in response to the relatively steady Liverpool cables. There was some Southern selling and scattered realizing or liquidation, but the offerings were comparatively light and were quite readily absorbed by covering combined with trade and commission house buying.

This was accompanied by reports of an improved demand from abroad, particularly the continent, and while the demand was supplied around the 10-12c level for new December, prices held steady at the end of the first half hour. At that time December was ruling around 10.49 and March 10.85 or about 6 to 8 points higher. A few additional notices were issued against October contracts, which, however, appeared to be without any particular effect on the market.

Liverpool cables reported covering with London and Continental buying in that market and said there was a fair cloth inquiry from India and China with a moderate business in cotton yarns.
