J. W. BAILEY WILL APPEAR HERE FRIDAY

Will Address Demo- cratic Voters At the Court House At 12 O'clock Tomorrow

J. W. Bailey, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate will address the Democratic voters of Pitt county at the court house in this city tomorrow at the noon hour. The address will be the first delivered in Pitt county during the present campaign and several hundred people from this and other counties were expected to be in attendance.

Mr. Bailey will be introduced by Lindsay Warren, of Washington, Congressman of the First District. He will discuss the principal issues of his campaign and present the voters with considerable information dealing with the activities of the Democratic party during the last several years.

Mr. Bailey started his campaign tour of the state about three weeks ago. Since that time he has visited numbers of the larger cities and was greeted by enthusiastic gatherings at each place. His coming to Pitt county has attracted more than passing interest and it was believed that the courthouse would be packed to capacity.

Mr. Bailey will be followed to Pitt county by Joseph Daniels, of Raleigh, Secretary of the Navy during the Wilson administration. Mr. Daniels is scheduled to speak here next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. He is one of the best known men in the state by reason of his active part in the political life of the state over a period of many years and is expected to be a big drawing card.

The campaign will be carried to another section of the county on Monday night, October 27, when Attorney General Brummitt appears at Ayden. The address will be delivered in the high school building at 7:30 o'clock, and W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee in Pitt county, said he expected Ayden people to attend in large numbers.

Farmville people will hear something about the great cause of the Democratic party November 3, when J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Elizabeth City, prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor of North Carolina, will speak in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

This will be the first time Mr. Ehringhaus has appeared in Pitt county since the presidential campaign, and he is expected to be heard by one of the largest political gatherings ever assembled in Farmville.

The campaign in Pitt county is making notable progress in virtually every precinct, according to a statement made this morning by Mr. Hooks. He said he had visited every voting place the last several days and found people greatly interested. He expects to see conditions become even more improved with the coming of the main speakers of the campaign.

Thieves Make Big Diamond Haul In New York

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Daring thieves who invaded the downtown "diamond market" today hauled platinum and unset diamonds valued at $125,000 from the safe of the jewelry firm of Segman and Abrahams in lower Manhattan just as William Segman opened the vaults for the day.

Segman told police he was alone in his office and after removing one tray of diamonds from the safe, turned to reach for another when he felt the muzzle of a revolver against his neck.

His captor led him, without a word, to an adjoining room and there bound him to a radiator. Segman heard no disturbance in his office, but several minutes later when he freed himself he burst into the office and found the gems gone.

His office staff had not yet reported for work, and Segman said he did not even know how many robbers there were.

Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin Breaks Down Under Six - and - Half Hour Grilling By De- tectives At Denver; Details Are Not Re- vealed

Denver, Colo., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Pearl O'Loughlin admitted today she alone was to blame for the death of her 10-year-old step-daughter, Laina, whose battered body was thrown into Berkey Lake a week ago Tuesday night.

Captain of Detectives Berry Clark announced that he had obtained the admission from Mrs. O'Loughlin after a grilling of six and a half hours. The woman's nerve broke and she was carried to her cell in the matron's quarters of the city jail on the verge of a complete breakdown.

Beyond the bare announcement that Mrs. O'Loughlin had "talked" Captain Clark declined to comment.

Neither Mrs. O'Loughlin nor herself was in condition to go into details when her admission came. Captain Clark declared, "I expect to get a more detailed statement from her later on, when she has had time to collect herself."

Captain Clark, worn out himself by the strain of the protracted questioning, went to her home, where Frank O. O'Loughlin, brother of Detective O'Loughlin, was taken into custody for questioning today. Ray Humphries, investigator for the district attorney, said O'Loughlin had been shadowed by officers for four days.

ORMOND LOSES SUIT AGAINST LOCAL OFFICER

E. S. Ormond of Bath, failed to recover in his suit against J. L. Whichard, Greenville policeman, in the civil term of Pitt County Superior court yesterday.

A jury late yesterday afternoon returned a verdict denying the claim of the defendant for damages of $1100 as result of his charge of false arrest and imprisonment by the officer.

The case, which was started day before yesterday, was one of the most stubbornly contested here in the local court room in several months, and attracted much interest. Hearing was completed about 3 o'clock and the jury remained out only a short time.

Ormond was arrested by Policeman Whichard several months ago on a charge of driving an automobile while drunk. The arrest took place as Ormond was leaving town. The officer charged that the car was being driven in a careless and reckless manner and placed Ormond in jail for trial.

When the case came up for hearing in County Court Ormond was found not guilty of the charge. He immediately filed suit against the officer to include the policeman alone.

After disposing of the Ormond case, court began hearing in the case of Clifford Madrin, local man, against the Norfolk & Southern railroad. Madrin is suing the railroad company for several thousand dollars as result of injuries which he received when his automobile was practically demolished by a N. & S. train in 1927. The railroad company contends that it is not liable, that the wreck was the result of negligence on the part of the plaintiff.

The wreck occurred at the crossing at the extreme end of Dickinson avenue near the cotton mill. Madrin was so badly injured that he had to remain in the hospital a considerable length of time and it was said that his car was badly wrecked by the impact. Suit was filed in 1928.

The case was expected to consume the most of today's session, and like that completed yesterday afternoon, gives promise of being one of the most stubbornly contested of the present term.

There are between eighty and a hundred cases on the calendar for the one week civil term which convened last Monday morning with Judge Clayton Moore, of Williamson, presiding. A considerable number of unimportant issues were disposed of during the first two days, and it was believed that a majority of the cases contained on the calendar would be completed when the session comes to a close at the end of the week.

Gin Operator Says He Was Told Federal Commission Fixed Cottonseed Prices

J. B. Linker, of Con- cord, Describes Con- ditions In Seed In- dustry In His Section of the State; Jesse Speight of Green- ville Also Testifies

Raleigh, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Testimony that he was told by cotton mill officials that "cottonseed prices were fixed" by the Federal Trade Commission was given here today by J. B. Linker of Concord as the Federal Trade body continued its inquiry into the cottonseed industry.

Mr. Linker, a gin operator, testified that in conversation at different times with J. B. Womble, district manager at Charlotte of the Southern Cotton Oil Company, R. T. Evans, district manager of the Beukeke Cotton Oil Co. at Charlotte and with J. C. Butler, Buckeye seed buyer, the men had told him that the Trade Commission was "responsible" for cotton seed prices. Mr. Linker testified, told him that "the Federal Trade Commission is responsible for fixing prices of cottonseed and commission paid ginners."

As a result of his conversations with the mill owners Mr. Linker said he wrote to President Hoover to ascertain just what relation the Federal Trade Commission had to the cottonseed industry. He has learned enough since, he added, so that he did not think the commission had anything to do with the price "fixing."

Mr. Linker quoted Mr. Butler as telling him when he complained about the low prices of seed and the commission which he thought inadequate, that "the oil companies were not responsible by the Federal Trade Commission fixed standard prices."

On one occasion Mr. Linker testified he was shown a map in the offices of Buckeye Mill in Charlotte by Mr. Evans and was told that the company had just purchased 15 mills in the south which it intended to close down.

"I told Mr. Evans it was just too bad for the ginners," Mr. Linker testified.

Jesse Speight, seed and cotter-buyer of Greenville, followed Mr. Linker to the stand and testified that due to the rule eliminating commission buyers unless they bought exclusively for one his income had been materially lessened since 1928.

In 1928 the National Cottonseed Products association, which has many mills in North Carolina, passed a rule requiring commission buyers to buy for only one mill.

The same year the association adopted a rule that any brokerage to be paid must be paid by the seller, instead of as heretofore by the buyer.

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The New York American says Mrs. Grace I. Coopers, widow of William J. Coopers, Sr., Buffalo N. Y. newspaper publisher, financier and political leader, has offered to turn for million dollar Long Island mansion into one of the most complete cancer research institutes in the world.

She made the offer to Doctors Walter B. Coffey and John H. Hensley of San Francisco, who have made some notable discoveries in cancer research. She also informed them funds would be added to endow the institute and its work.

Mrs. McCormick Says Thompson Is Seeking Vote of the Negroes

Chicago, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Congresswoman Ruth Hanna McCormick today pointed to unsigned circulars she said had been sent to negro voters as indication of her claim to complete lack of political alliance with Mayor William Hale Thompson.

In a formal statement last night the Senate campaigner said that she had been advised that Mayor Thompson, leader of the Republican group known as the city hall forces, was responsible for distribution of the circulars, which urged negro voters to support her Democratic opponent, former Senator James Hamilton Lewis.

Her statement added that she had been informed the circulars contained a "malicious and unjustifiable attack upon her late husband, Medill McCormick."

While I regret that the announcement of the mayor's opposition to me was not made more on a malicious and unjustifiable attack on my late husband, I am pleased," said the McCormick statement, "that the mayor's attitude is thus definitely disclosed."

"His action will, I am sure, throw a new light on my own political associations, which have been generally misrepresented in the hostile press the last two years."

The statement continued: "I have repeatedly said publicly that I never had a political alliance with Mayor Thompson." She added that the circular appealed for votes for all Republican candidates except Mrs. McCormick and cited this as evidence of "Mayor Thompson's animosity toward her."

SAY CAMPBELL LIKE MAN WITH MARY BAKER

Two Witnesses, How- ever, Fail to Ident- ify Defendant In Murder Case

Washington, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Two witnesses in the Mary Baker murder trial testified today that Herbert M. Campbell, charged with the killing "resembled" the man they saw struggling with a girl in an automobile near 16th and B streets this city on April 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Wood, the witness, however, said they could not positively identify Campbell as the man seen in the automobile, which belonged to the girl, Wood, a bookbinder at the Congressional Library, and his wife, with their two small children, had been to see the cherry blossoms in Potomac Park and were returning toward the city. They said their attention was attracted to the car by a commotion and they looked and saw what seemed to be a tense struggle. Mrs. Wood said she saw the woman's body swing several times and that the man who swayed as he apparently struck the woman several times.

Wood started in search of a policeman, he said, but returned at his wife's call. He had scarcely reached her side when the automobile drove rapidly away. Both witnesses said the man had dark hair and was hatted. Campbell apparently unperturbed stood up when Mrs. Wood was asked to look at him. She said he was the "general type" of the man seen in the car.

The Rev. Thomas D. Baker of Oak Grove, Va., the dead girl's father was in the court room today for the first time. He said he came against his will, but thought if some member of the family did not attend the trial it might be misinterpreted by the public. He took a seat in the rear of the court room.

Vieno Larsen, police photographer and Fred Sandberg, chief of the Metropolitan Bureau of Identification, testified briefly as to photographs taken at the spot where the girl's body was found and of her car.

Forest fires, which have been completely out of control in Pitt county the last several days, continued to take additional toll of timberlands in various sections of the county today. Although it is impossible to estimate the damage it is generally conceded that it will go into thousands of dollars.

TWO N. C. BOYS BURNED ALIVE IN CAMP FIRE

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 23.—(AP)—The swamps held their secret today and authorities had found no one to tell how or why Burton Hensley and Woodrow S. Wilson, North Carolina mountain youths, met death by fire and beaten by the Arkansas bottom lands across the Mississippi river from Memphis.

Hensley and Wilson died at a Memphis hospital of crushed skulls a few hours after they were rescued by two wood choppers from a camp fire. In the undergrowth and muddy lowlands which line the western bank of the river.

Unconscious when they were found burning, neither regained his senses before death last night ended incoherent mummings that told nothing.

The seared bodies bore indications, however, that they had been struck on their heads and had been left in the flames.

Two love letters disclosed that back in Yancy county, North Carolina, "Irene" awaited the return of Hensley, her high school chum. A diary told that Wilson and his friend, both 17, had left their homes at Bald Creek, in Yancy county, to find what the world held for them.

If they had possessed money, they probably had been robbed, for their pockets were empty.

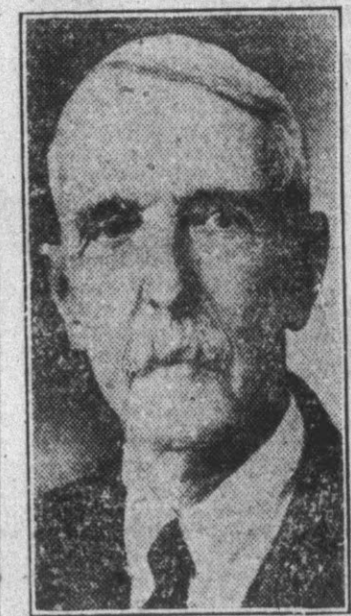

The swampy spot where the wood cutters found them is known as a gathering place for tramps.

Head of President Hoover's Relief Or- ganization, Sounds Call for Help to Al- leviate Suffering Among Poor Follow- ing Conference At White House; Will Attempt to Find Jobs for the Unem- ployed

Washington, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Chairman Lewis said today the Federal Farm Board would be glad to make its holdings of wheat available as food for the unemployed if Congress would replace the money used by the grain stabilization corporation for its purchase.

Such a step, he said, would help in reducing the wheat surplus in his country.

Lewis explained however that the Farm Board had no authority under the agricultural marketing act to give away wheat purchased in stabilization operations.

The only way the wheat could be turned over to the unemployed, he said, was through additional authority from Congress which needs in December.

Lewis's statement came in the middle of a series of conferences on the unemployment situation between President Hoover, Col. Arthur Woods, government relief director, and other members of the Hoover cabinet committee.

Colonel Woods set aside the day to organize his personnel staff, going from one department to another to seek qualified men.

Woods' first act after a White call to industry to find as many jobs as possible this winter for the 3,500,000 persons which government figures show to be out of employment.

Washington, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A call to American industry to cooperate in the alleviation of suffering among unemployed this winter was sounded today by Col. Arthur Woods, President Hoover's relief director, after a conference at the White House.

Col. Woods, who arrived here last night to take charge of setting up a relief organization, conferred for an hour with the President, Secretary Lamont, Secretary Hurley, and Under-Secretary Mills of the Treasury.

After the conference Woods indicated a formal request to industry to co-operate in giving as many jobs as possible would be made soon.

The conferees said the first definite step would be to set up an organization for Woods and then to obtain information on where jobs can be found.

They said they would draft men qualified for the work from all over the country and if possible would obtain those men who worked with Colonel Woods in his unemployment relief work in 1921 under President Harding.

Colonel Woods said this far industry was doing its part but he expected more co-operation in the general campaign.

"I not only expect industry to do its part," he said, "but I see that it is already doing so."

Headquarters for the administration of unemployment relief will be set up in the Commerce Department. Members of the President's cabinet unemployment committee of seven planned to lend every effort to get the organization functioning within the shortest time possible.

After the White House conference Colonel Woods returned to the Commerce Department, conferred with Secretary Lamont, and began to organize his headquarters personnel.

Edward E. Hunt, who was secretary to the unemployment in 1921, was designated as temporary secretary for the new campaign. He has been secretary to the President's commission on economic changes and formerly was secretary of the United States coal commission.

John M. Gries, public construction expert of the Commerce Department, also will assist Woods in his work.

As soon as possible Colony Wood plans to designate state committees as unemployment and committees to deal with the subject in the various industries.

FOREST FIRES ARE RAGING IN PITT COUNTY

Vast Areas of Tim- berland Destroyed As Fires Increase in Scope Daily

Forest fires, which have been completely out of control in Pitt county the last several days, continued to take additional toll of timberlands in various sections of the county today. Although it is impossible to estimate the damage it is generally conceded that it will go into thousands of dollars.

Fires were reported to be out of control in at least five separate districts today, and despite efforts of forest fire wardens to bring the flames under control they continued to spread out over greater territory.

A pall of smoke from the fires has shrouded Greenville during the morning hours for the past several days, but it increased in density during the last two mornings, making the air almost suffocating. Because of the drought that has existed in this section the last several weeks the woods are drier than they have been in years and when a fire starts it easily gets out of control.

Although small fires have burned in the vicinity of Stokes the last several weeks, they began to assume a more serious aspect Sunday and were completely out of control Sunday night. Many acres of land were ruined as the fires spread out over new territory.

Flames were also reported raging between Greenville and Farmville, the Ayden district and sections east of Greenville.

A considerable amount of game has perished as result of the fires, it was said.

Raleigh, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Critical forest fire conditions exist in Pitt and Beaufort counties. C. H. Flory, assistant forester of the State Department of Conservation and Development, notified the department today.

Mr. Flory is in the section where the struggle against the flames is being carried on. He said in a telegram that he and C. F. Evans, federal district fire inspector located at Asheville had found "critical conditions" in Pitt and Beaufort and "bad conditions" in Craven county.

Conditions in the third and sixth forest fire control districts, with headquarters at Fayetteville and Wilmington, respectively, are much improved, Mr. Flory reported. The two districts are "practically clear" of fires, he said.

SPORTS SLANTS

Tennessee's gridiron warriors carried a great winning streak into the 1930 season, a record of being undefeated in three successive seasons, but when such matters are discussed it is just as well to keep in mind that the University of California under the late Andy Smith, went through five straight seasons, 1920-24, without the blemish of a single setback.

Up in the start of this fall's campaign, Bob Neyland's Tennessee Vols romped through 30 games without defeat. They were tied once by Vanderbilt, twice by Kentucky.

California's "Wonder teams" went through 48 consecutive games before finally being tagged for a loss by the San Francisco Olympic Club early in five seasons.

The Bears rolled up the staggering total of 510 points in 1929, walloping ISt. Mary's 127-0, Washington State 49-0, Stanford 38-0, and Ohio State 28-0.

Contrast this with the fact that California lost to Washington State this year 0-16, barely beat St. Mary's 7-6.

In four successive seasons, 1920-23, California rolled up 107 points against Stanford to a scanty seven for the Cardinals. The ensuing S O S from Palo Alto was answered by Pop Warner.

When great teams were being discussed over the radio by Professor Knute Rockne, Iowa's mighty 1921 eleven was placed around the top of the list by the wizard of Notre Dame. Not much fault could be found with the nomination, so far as comparison goes over the past ten years.

Audrey and Glen Devine, Gordon Locke and Duke Slater were superstars of the Iowa aggregation, which won the Big Ten championship. Noteworthy was the fact that the same 11 players started ever game.

Rockne also had praise for Nebraska's 1922 array, the Army of 1925 that ran all over Notre Dame, Northwestern's 1926 team, Minnesota's 1927 aggregation and Georgia Tech's national champions of 1928.

"Rock" rated his 1920 eleven, on which George Gipp was the outstanding star superior for all-around quality to any other Notre Dame eleven. The "Four Horsemen" in 1924 were the greatest offensively, added their coach.

Speaking of winning streaks, Ike Armstrong's University of Utah outfit is a big favorite to capture the Rocky Mountain conference title for the third straight year and fourth time in six years.

The Utes were undefeated last year when they produced one of the strongest teams in conference history. The main cogs of this machine are back, except for Powerhouse Pomeroy, the plunging fullback.

Frank Pawley, from his observation post in Denver for the Associated Press, writes:

"Utah's success under Armstrong has been due to the power of his line, perfect timing in the Minnesota shift, outstanding end play and the fine work of Capt. Ray Price, who has been the blocking back for two or three years.

"Watkins, a really fine end, makes the passing attack click. Utah uses the metal count of its passes and one sees Watkins turn just as the ball has about reached his body."

Stribling to Fight Christner At NewP

Newark, N. J., Oct. 23.—(AP)—The scheduled fight in the Newark Armory tonight between Young Stribling and Kayo Christner was called off today by Harry Mendel, promoter, because of an injury to Christner's right knee.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Young Stribling starts another campaign directed towards a heavyweight title bout tonight when he tests his newly-discovered knockout punch on the durable chin of Meyer (K. O.) Christner of Akron, O., in Stribling's first bout since his return from England, where he scored a sensational knockout victory over Phil Scott.

Stribling has displayed a real wallop in his recent battles, knocking out Otto von Porat in Chicago and then Scott. Although Christner has slipped back somewhat since he leaped to the limelight a few years ago he still has considerable ability to take punishment and a dangerous right hand wallop in the bargain.

Stribling has signed for a fight in Boston October 31 but after that he is expected to wait for the prospective winter battle in Miami, Fla., which the Madison Square Garden hopes to stage.

N. C. FOOTBALL FANS WATCH FOREIGN FOES

Charlotte, Oct. 23.—(AP)—With very little happening on their own grid front, North Carolina football fans today trained one eye on the South Carolina-Clemson game at Columbia and kept the other peeled for a little information on the foreign foes state teams play Saturday.

This week, for the first time this season, all members of the "big five" either entertain invaders or do a little invading themselves.

The North Carolina-Tennessee game at Knoxville, with some of its glitter ticked off by a pair of defeats, divided equally between the two teams, probably has not lost any of its original interest but it certainly hasn't gained as much as it would have if last Saturday just hadn't been last Saturday.

In spite of the fact that the Tar Heel's southern conference hopes waned into Georgia air down at Athens, followers of the Chuck Collins outfit are beginning to find all kinds of reasons why they should not be such a hard team to lick.

As game time approaches, it begins to appear that Collins will stick to his decision to suspend Jim Magner, his highest scoring back, for a full week, cigarettes, smoked against the rule, got Magner in bad and Collins sent him to play with the freshmen and went ahead and turned out a brand new backfield.

Johnny Branch is at quarter, of course, Maus and Slusser, halfbacks, and House fullback in the Tar Heels latest lineup. Regardless of the suspension, however, it is being whispered around that Magner will be given a ticket to Knoxville on a train that will get him there in time for the game. "Just in case" is the informer's only explanation.

N. C. State's go against Mississippi A. and A. and Davidson's home-coming game with V. P. I. will be headliners within the State this week. Mercer will visit Wake Forest but the Deacon Deacons are reported to be without fear for the outcome. Duke's journey down to Spartanburg is scheduled to spoil an otherwise perfect home-coming celebration for Wofford.

The Wolfpack's game with "Red" Cagle's outfit will give State followers a line on the treatment being given the team by Dr. Ray Serron and Dr. Bob Warren. If the Pack has responded sufficiently in less than a week at the hands of its new coaches, to take in a victory, it will be glad news for

Rosenbloom Scores Technical K-O

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The first experiment with championship fights at "popular" prices in Madison Square Garden has shown that the innovation is far from popular unless the contenders can show more than Abio Bain.

Bain, a Newark, N. J., youngster who has had little experience in the light heavyweights, proved a chopping block for Maxie Rosenbloom, the light heavyweight champion, last night and Maxie defended his title by scoring a technical knockout in the eleventh round of a dull match.

Even with the prices scaled down to where the best seats cost less than six dollars, only 4,400 of the fight faithful turned out and contributed some $12,000 to the gate.

Lindbergh Opens New Air Route

Newark Airport, N. J., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh today inaugurated the new Transcontinental air service of Transcontinental-Western Air Transport, Inc. Taking off through thick haze in a tri-motored plane for Columbus, Ohio.

He was accompanied by three relief pilots. The start, scheduled for the line is Camden, N. J., Central Airport. From there the line goes to Harrisburgh, a refueling point, thence to Pittsburgh and then Columbus, where the ship is due at 1:41 P. M. (EST).

The pilots accompanying Lindbergh are H. S. Andrews, Ted R. Wewer and R. S. Leroy. Lindbergh flew to the airport from his home near Princeton and was kept in the air 15 minutes by fog before he could land. He came alone in the biplane he purchased recently for Mrs. Lindbergh.

CLEMSON BEATS GAMECOCKS

Fall Grounds Stadium, Columbia, S. C., Oct. 23.—(AP)—A slashing, fighting Clemson College team made it four straight over the University of South Carolina at their annual fair week game today by crushing the Gamecocks, 20 to 7.

Coach Billy Laval rushed in a host of substitutes in the final period in an effort to turn the tide for the Gamecocks, but the Tigers fought off every thrust though Welch was forced twice to kick from behind his goal line.

Just as Clemson star back was hurt during the final minutes of the game and was carried from the field. Score: Clemson 20; South Carolina 7.

Optimistic About Economic Future

Atlanta, Oct. 23.—(AP)—October's final football fling went on display in the south today with the time honored Clemson-South Carolina engagement precipitating interest set for the opening of hostilities by Clemson and South Carolina at the historical Columbia, S. C., fair grounds. Advance expectations like rival attacks seemed in danger of being upset in a bitter battle that had its inception in 1896. Clemson, unbeaten thus far, ruled a slight pre-game favorite.

Running newspaper accounts and broadcasting of the contest were permitted by athletic authorities, who yielded to vigorous protests and reversed a decision of yesterday limiting press facilities to one telegraph wire for the transmission of perlo scores only.

Vanderbilt was busy perfecting the timing of its general offensive, particularly the passing phase.

Leads Revolution

Walter Wade, Alabama boss, gave special attention to his kickers looking to the registering of points after touchdowns in a close contest. Wade also threw his ball carriers against his reserves with John Henry Suther, ace back, showing the way.

Tulane's forthcoming conference debut with Georgia Tech was given columns of space in Atlanta newspapers today with particular emphasis laid on injured knees which may hamper the usefulness of Captain Earl Dunlap and Doug Graydon, crack Tornado backs. Coach Will Alexander emphasized the intricate plays being employed by the invading Green Wave, holder of the 1929 circle title.

Over at Knoxville, Tenn. News of Gene McEver's apparently successful knee operation was received with enthusiasm and gave impetus to practice for Saturday's meeting with North Carolina. McEver, however, is not expected to return to the backfield until 1931.

Lady Who Had Been Run-Down Tells How Cardui Helped Her Get Well.

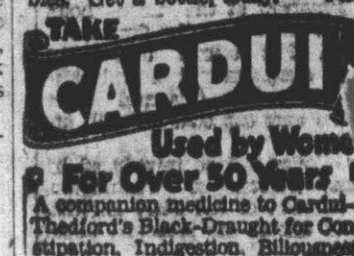

Mayo, Fla.—"I was greatly benefited after I took the Cardui Home Treatment," says Mrs. W. H. Truwick of this place. "For several months I had been in bad health. I was run-down and weak."

"I dragged around from day to day, not feeling fit for anything. My back ached and often my sides hurt all night long. I could not sleep, and my nerves gave me a good deal of trouble."

"I had used Cardui several years before for a similar spell, so I got some for my trouble. I soon recovered and felt better than I had in a long time."

"After taking Cardui for several weeks, I began to feel stronger and to rest better. It is a fine medicine, and I have recommended it to friends."

STUNT FLIERS RISK NECKS IN "DAWN PATROL"

Forty-six dare-devils of the air were engaged to perform the flying feats for "The Dawn Patrol" the First National-Vitaphone feature starring Richard Barthelmess, which comes to the New Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Some of the flyers are Lieutenants E. H. Robinson, Leo Nomic, Ira Reed and Frank Tomick—all of them noted pilots and stunt flyers. Robinson was born in Chicago and learned about the air at Kelly Field in 1924. He has had an average of 800 hours a year for the last six years. Curiously enough he was in Indiana and made his first solo flight in 1917. He served as an instructor of flying at Fort Worth, Texas, during the recent war. He has had but one accident which, however, marred his countenance permanently.

Reed is a native of Oklahoma and began his air career five years ago in St. Louis. He is twenty-five years of age. Tomick was born in Chicago and was a flying instructor at San Diego. He began flying in 1917 and has approximately five thousand hours in the air.

"The Dawn Patrol" was directed by Howard Hawks, who is himself a licensed pilot.

Sans Souci Book Club Meets.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Sans Souci Book Club had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Key Brown. The home was most attractively decorated in the spirit of Halloween. Subdued lights, golden pumpkins, witches, and black cats created that weird fantastic feeling of All Saints Eve.

In such an atmosphere, it was hard to be called to order by the president. After a short business session, the program for the afternoon was turned over to Mrs. Charles Forbes. The club is studying this year "Current Biography," based principally on Archibald Henderson's new book "Contemporary Immortals." The "immortal" presented by Mrs. Forbes was Mahatma Ghandi—Hindu seer and idealist. Mrs. Forbes gave a most comprehensive and interesting presentation of this unique man. She emphasized that in no leader of a race has the power of the spirit ever come in such utter singleness of expression as in Ghandi. His insignificant person, his rare personality—his outward poverty, his inward grace—his immaterialism, his idealism, make him the most gripping and the most dramatic person before the world today.

After a discussion of current events, the meeting was turned over to the hostess, who assisted by her sister, Miss Purvis, served a most delicious salad course.

The club enjoyed having 5 guests. Mrs. Ed. Batchelor and Mrs. M. L. Wright.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. B. Kittrell on Nov. 4th. —Reported.

Christian Scouts Hold Exhibit.

Last week the Scouts of Troop 33 held an exhibition at the annual Pitt County Fair. The exhibition was a tent, in which were exhibits showing rope tying, first aid, badge work and handicraft, all contained in scouting.

The knot-tying exhibit was probably the most interesting. It contained 30 different knots, used in scouting and general service, on a board placed at the back of the tent. Then there was the first aid exhibit with all the necessary equipment, the badge work exhibit, showing the different ranks in scouting, and the handicraft made by the scouts.

It is estimated that over a hundred out-of-town people who were interested in scouting, came to the exhibit and promised their whole-hearted support to the scouting movement, should it come to their place of residence.

Scouting has come to the place in Greenville where it must have room to expand. Of the three troops in town two are practically full and the third is rapidly increasing. And from the attitude of the many parents who visited the exhibit there will have to be more troops to take in the new boys. And to have more troops we must have more scoutmasters. We hope that we may be able to obtain more young men to aid us in the work.

The Greenville troops are now under the wings of the Wilson Area Council. However, we hope that we may be able to have a strong Pitt County Council, so that we may have our own field days, and our own camps. —Reported.

There May be Poison in YOUR Bowels!

STEP out tomorrow morning with the fresh buoyancy and briskness that comes from a clean intestinal tract. Syrup Pepsin—a doctor's prescription for the bowels—will help you do this. This compound of fresh laxative herbs, purg pepsin and other pure ingredients will clean you out thoroughly—without griping, sickening or discomfort.

Poisons absorbed into the system form souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied bowel troubles for forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell.

The occasion was described as having a far-reaching effect upon the campaign looking to the participation of women in the coming election.

Bank Official to Be Asked To Tell About 'Straw Vote'

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 23.—(AP)—An opportunity was before Walter W. Head, Omaha and Chicago bank official, today to tell Senator Gerald P. Nye his version of the "straw vote" on primary senatorial candidates in Nebraska last spring.

Testimony that Head had contributed a $4,000 fund to learn the strength of possible primary opponents of Senator George W. Norris was heard at Omaha by Senator Nye yesterday at a campaign hearing.

The testimony by Victor B. Smith was followed by a statement by Senator Nye that "the evidence so far discloses that the opposition to Senator Norris has been substantially placed on the power trust."

Admitting that he had donated the money, Head in a statement from Chicago declared it was from his own personal funds and that his action had nothing to do with the Nebraska Power company.

Head, who asked and was granted a chance to testify, said the straw vote was to ascertain political sentiment and not to find a rival for Senator Norris.

High Court Denies Appeal Of Two Condemned Men

Raleigh, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Two negroes, each convicted of murder, who had sought a new lease on life at the hands of the North Carolina Supreme court, today faced death in the electric chair November 7.

The court denied the appeals of Wiley Massey and Will Sloan yesterday and date of their execution was automatically fixed by law on the third Friday after the court's decision.

Massey was sentenced at Durham last May for the murder of Dora and Floyd Moore, his sister and brother-in-law, while Sloan was convicted in Person county in August for the murder of Phoebe Gillis, negro woman, and attacking her daughter, Mary Lee Gillis. Sloan also confessed to the slaying of Mrs. Elsa Marshall, a white woman of West Chester, N. Y., September 26, 1927.

The court handed down 14 opinions in civil cases in addition to the two criminal cases.

ABOUT TOWN

Judging from figures carried in the columns of the Daily Reflector it is apparent that other counties of North Carolina as well as Pitt have been forced to borrow money to meet current expenses.

Governments, like individuals, have found it difficult to meet their obligations during the period of depression which has existed throughout the nation last year, and it is nothing but natural that they should be forced to seek loans to carry on their work.

Pitt county has been severely criticized by a certain element for borrowing the last few months, but when compared with the amount of money required by the other counties, the amount borrowed by this county is small indeed.

After all, it begins to look like Pitt county is not in such bad condition. In fact placing the figures for borrowed money by the side of those of the other counties, we should be thankful that it was not necessary to obtain larger loans.

The site of the first courthouse in Pitt county is to be permanently designated for coming generations. A marker has been erected on the site—two and a half miles from Greenville, and it will be conducted Saturday afternoon under auspices of the Greenville Patriots chapter, D. A. R.

The affair will be attended by officials of the state and national organizations of the D. A. R., and program of interest to everybody will be provided for the occasion. Preceding the traveling a color parade will wind its way from the Greenville Woman's Club to the outskirts of the city near the bridge, and from there the participants will go to the old courthouse to witness the unveiling exercises.

Seek Two People In Antique Racket

Boston, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The alleged brains of an antique "racket" Wilbur J. Cooke and Mrs. F. E. Caroline Saunders of New York were the objects of a nation-wide police search today. Thirteen secret indictments were returned yesterday against members of the "racket."

Cooke and Mrs. Saunders are said to have escaped Monday from the home in Holvoke of Mrs. Clementine Briggs Doran. Mrs. Doran was arrested and charged with having sold china, which she represented to be of antique origin, to a Boston art connoisseur for $51,000. Police charged that the ware was of modern manufacture and had been artificially aged.

With the arrest of Mrs. Doran police disclosed the existence of the ring, through which, they believe, victims have been mulcted out of millions of dollars. Operations have been so clever and on such a large scale that even noted collectors were victimized.

Heads of museums here are now checking their collections to determine if any spurious works are among them, and purchases at recent antique sales are being examined by police, who have enlisted the aid of Edwin E. Crownsfield, an authority on chinaware. A number of local antique dealers are under surveillance.

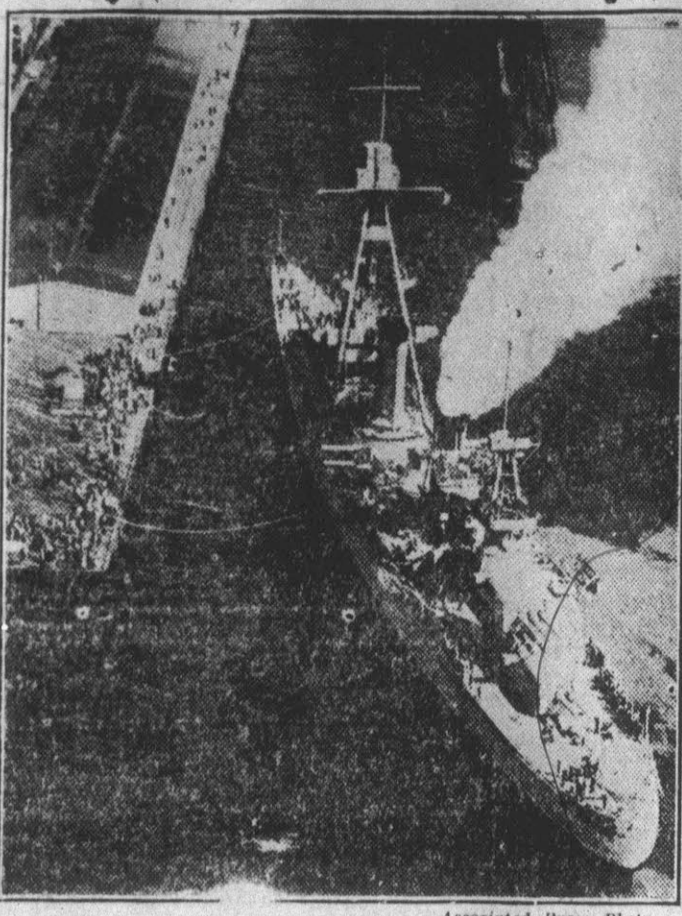

Mrs. Doran, who was held in jail because she was unable to post $20,000 bond, yesterday told police she had merely acted as Cooke's secretary and had been unaware of any fraud in the gathering and sale of paintings, china and other articles.

Mrs. Galli-Curci Badly Shaken Up In Auto Accident

Birmingham, England, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Although badly shaken up when her car overturned last night, Mrs. Galli-Curci, American prima donna and famous opera soprano, insisted upon keeping a concert engagement tonight.

Her automobile, bearing among others herself and her husband, Homer Samuels, was traveling to Kings Norton when it swerved to avoid a collision with another car and the chauffeur lost control, driving it into a ditch where it turned over.

Why did this man come to Curtis Perkins this Fall?

Outside of an occasional pair of garters, this buyer didn't know us.

In his six years in Greenville his inside breast pocket had never carried our label.

This Fall he needed a suit. From his arm chair his newspapers had talked "lower prices." He determined to find them if possible.

One store was visited without success. Then the second, third and fourth. Then something made him think of us—"well, he'd try it as a last resort."

In he came, a little skeptical. In 5 minutes of fabric and model examination he became enthusiastic. When he learned our prices he became a customer.

You too, can find lower prices at Curtis Perkins'.

Three Burned Alive As Tunnel Caves In

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Officials of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad here were advised today that three men were buried when a railroad tunnel caved in and crushed a caboose and six cars of a freight train near Adena, O., this morning.

The report said two of the men were dead but that the third man was moaning under the wreckage. The victims were trainmen and had been riding in the caboose.

The train was backing into the Harrisville tunnel on the Adena branch of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad when the tunnel collapsed. The cause of the accident was not known here. Adena is about 20 miles west of Wheeling.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 2 points to an advance of 7 points. There was some southern selling at the start and further liquidation of October resulting, presumably, from the issuance of notices estimated at about 1,100 bales.

The initial offerings were quite readily absorbed, however, on buying promoted by the steadiness of Liverpool, reports of a steadier tone in the stock market and the talk of continued trade. New December contracts sold up to 10.64 and March up to 10.98, making net advances of about 5 to 10 points on the more active positions at the end of the first half hour. New October after selling off to 10.37 under the early liquidation rallied to 10.41, or back to last night's closing quotations.

Liverpool cables reported continental buying and trade calling in that market and said there was an improved cloth inquiry from China. Two private reports were issued on shipments prior to October 18th, one of them estimating it at 9,277,000 and the other at 9,100,000 bales, compared with 9,094,704 to the same date last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Grain values scored late advances today owing more or less to talk current that changes in prospect would permit manufacture of 41-2 percent beer. Houses with eastern $4 actions led the buying of wheat, and brought about disclosure that the market had been overvalued.

Grain, however, failed to hold advances well, and reached at the finish a lower figure than yesterday's close. Wheat closed irregular 1-4c off to 1-2c up compared with yesterday's finish. Corn closed 3-8 to 1-1-4 net lower. Oats 3-8 off and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Shares prices once more took the lead to recovery in today's stock market, but made irregular progress, as several of the rail shares found block signals turned against them.

A break of 3 points in Allegheny Corp. and decline of a point or two in Chesapeake Corp. Chesapeake and Ohio, and nickel plate were conspicuous in a brief period of unsettlement during the morning. Pere Marquette, a thinly traded issue, dropped 20 points in a few sales. The list soon recovered, however, under leadership of the utilities and prominent industrials. Shares selling up 3 to 5 points included U. S. Steel, American Can, Western Electric, International Business Machine, American Telephone, North American, Stone and Webster, Atchinson, American Tobacco B. Air Reduction. Trading was in light volume. In the rails, heaviness of the Van Sweringen group was notable. Although C and O has maintained its earnings this year better than most trunk lines, such lines as Pere Marquette, Nickel plate and Erie have been adversely influenced by the slump in automobile manufacturing and slow steel mill operations. The stock of Allegheny Corp. The holding company, has been depressed by the reduced asset value of its holdings. Since some of these stocks have been put up a collateral against the Allegheny Corp. Conspicuous in the days' batch of statements was that of Dupont, which earned $1.05 a share in the third quarter, against $1.80 a share in a slightly smaller number of shares in the same period of 1929, almost half this reduction, however, was due to lessen returns from its General Motors investment. Call money continued in abundant supply, at 2 percent, with large offerings and few takers at 11-2

"The Trade commission opened an inquiry here early this month in continuation of its investigation ordered by the Senate to ascertain if there is any evidence of collusion on the part of cottonseed oil mills to 'fix' the prices of cottonseed in illegal restraint of trade.

Faces New Charges In Elopment With Girl In Virginia

Richmond, Va., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Harry Dickenson, filling station attendant who was acquitted by a Henrico County Circuit court yesterday afternoon of felony charges in connection with the elopement last July with Mary Francis McClenny, of a prominent Richmond family, will face misdemeanor charges in the same case on October 28. The misdemeanor charges against Dickenson and against his brother, N. H. Dickenson, indicted for aiding and abetting, are not expected to be pressed. Two charges against John Leadbetter of aiding and abetting were dismissed yesterday prior to the start of the trial of Dickenson. A verdict of not guilty of the charge of "taking and secreting" the girl, who at the time lacked 24 days of being 21 years of age, was returned by the jury after 35 minutes deliberation. The misdemeanor indictment charges in reporting the girl for immoral purposes to Waynesboro, Va., where the couple was found twelve days after a nation-wide search had been instituted after her disappearance from Richmond. Salisbury, —(AP)—W. A. Meant, 93-year-old timer who died yesterday, will be buried in a casket he made himself and kept on exhibition several years.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
