REPUBLICANS GIVEN $9,339 IN THIS STATE

Total Contributions to State-Wide Campaign Announced by Duncan Today

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Contributions to the Republican state-wide campaign fund totalled $9,339.55, James S. Duncan, state chairman, reported in his preliminary statement filed here today.

Mr. Duncan's statement, received at the offices of James A. Hartness, secretary of state, this morning, listed expenditure at the same amount as receipts but a bank balance of $402 was among the expenditures.

Congress George M. Prichard of Asheville, candidate for the United States Senate, gave his party $2,000. David H. Blair contributed $250 and the Patriotic Protective League of Raleigh gave $500.

Expenditures for salaries led the list of paid out items with $3,324 and traveling expenses amounted to $1,345. General postage was listed at $973.02 and postage at $340.02 with stationary and printing costing $884.39. "Special organization" was listed as an expenditure of $600.

The Democratic campaign fund report filed this week by Odum M. Mull, state chairman, showed party contributions of $6,095.67 to the war-chest.

Both parties must file a final report on receipts and expenditures within 20 days after the election.

Contributors to the Republican fund who gave more than $50 each were listed as follows, with the amount if it were more than $50: C. J. Harris, Dillsboro, $200; P. E. Bruce, Mars Hill; J. N. Pittwell, Southern Pines; J. W. Wood, Litleton, $60; Mrs. H. F. Faison, Wilmington; Louis Goodman, Wilmington; W. O. Briggs, Raleigh; $100: James Ramsey, Salisbury; J. J. Jenkins, Siler City, $200; T. J. Harkins, Asheville, $100; and C. A. Zimmerman, Raleigh.

Royal Couple Wedded During Rain and Hail

Assisi, Italy, Oct. 25.—(AP)—With their own gay wedding attire and that of their party drenched by rain and hail, Princess Giovanna and Czar Boris III of Bulgaria, were married today in the Upper Basilica of the Church of St. Francis before a gathering of kings, priests and some of the most notable folks of Europe.

The marriage ceremony was brief but impressive. The low mass which was scheduled to follow the ceremony was omitted at the last moment and no mass at all was said for the couple, one of whom is a pious Roman Catholic and the other, Boris, a member of the Orthodox, or Greek Catholic, church.

Had the wedding been held at 10 A. M., as had been planned, it would have passed off without unpleasant incident and the storm which blew up just before 11 would have found the entire party at the villa Constanzi, safely beneath the roofs for the wedding breakfast.

As it was the three royal trains carrying the wedding party from Pisa arrived nearly an hour and a half late and as Princess Giovanna, attired in beautiful white, stepped from her coach on to the red carpet platform, a heavy drizzle commenced.

Closed cars were substituted for the open t ones as it had been planned to use for the drive along the streets lined with troops to the church. A the Basilica's portal an umbrella was held out for Giovanna who is a pretty blonde girl of 22, but a sudden burst of rain caught her and wet her dress badly.

So great was the congestion of motor cars about the church that others were not afforded even this protection and many were drenched to the skin, some of them some of the highest royal figures of Italy and Europe. By the time the bride arrived at the church the rain had turned to hail and he and his suite were badly battered.

INJUNCTION SUIT TO BE RESUMED MONDAY

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 25.—(AP)—The hearing in the injunction suit of the Interstate Commerce Commission and several railroads against the Piedmont and Northern railway, which proposes extension of its lines in the Carolinas, will be resumed here Monday afternoon.

Judge J. Lyles Glenn late yesterday ordered a recess until Monday. So far the major issue in the hearing apparently has been whether the defendant as an electric line is subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

COMPROMISE EFFECTED IN LOWE ACTION

City and Gas Company to Pay $1,500 for Injuries Received By Local Woman

Compromise action was announced in the damage suit of Miss Bessie Lowe against the City of Greenville and the Carolina Gas company at the closing session of the civil term of Pitt County Superior court in this city yesterday.

Miss Lowe was suing for $25,000 as result of injuries which she received when she stepped into a hole left open by the gas company near her home with permission of the city. She received injuries of the shoulder, arm and side.

The compromise was effected outside of court and was said to have involved a consideration of $1,250. One other case was disposed of by the court before adjournment yesterday. It was the divorce action of Ernest Gray against Sallie Gray. He obtained divorce absolute.

It was stated today that approximately thirty cases were disposed of during the term which was presided over by Judge Clayton Moore of Williamston. There were between eighty and a hundred cases on the calendar. Two of the actions disposed of during the week were long drawn out and required from a day to a day and a half in finally settling.

A one week term of criminal court will convene Monday morning with Judge Moore presiding. The calendar contains numbers of cases of more or less interest to the people of this community and the courtroom is expected to be crowded during the entire term.

Probably the most important case to receive consideration during the week is that of Jodie Whitely, Penny Hill man, charged with the slaying of Paul Forbes during the summer months. Whitely was held in jail here for sometime but was released under $2,500 bond at the last session of criminal court.

Farmer Crowned At Kinston Fair

Kinston, Oct. 25.—(AP)—R. E. Moseley, farmer, bore his 68 years so lightly he emerged triumphant over numerous striplings in the jousting tourney at the district fair here.

Heads were run on three days. At the third the dust and battle blew slowly away and there, parting but lusty, stood Moseley.

Eighty-Seven Miners Entombed, Germany

Saarbruecken, Germany, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Eighty-seven miners were entombed today by a fire damp explosion in the Maybach Colliery near here. Five injured were taken from the shaft.

The Maybach mine is situated near Quierschlette.

The explosion occurred at 3:30 P. M. in the fourth level down. Ninety miners had gone down, of whom three were able to make their exit at once.

Military Junta Holds Long Meeting But Fails in First Effort to Form Provisional Government; Other Leaders of Revolution Expected to Make Claims

Rio De Janeiro, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Political chaos, spurred by nationwide uncertainty, developed today to rend the camp of the revolution, victorious in a coup d'etat which yesterday unseated Brazil's retiring president, Dr. Washington Luis.

The armed conflict which has raged on three major fronts for the past three weeks was stilled, momentarily, but a situation still led which, charged with the terseness of rival political personalities, may plunge the nation into further sanguinary internecine conflict.

In this capital a military junta, in haste temporarily, proceeded with formation of a provisional government, the officers composing it meeting far into the night, in an effort to nominate a slate of officials to take over the administration. The junta adjourned its meeting, finally, just before dawn after having reached decision on only one office, that of minister of justice, which goes to "Gabriele Bernardes.

Meanwhile, dispatches from head quarters of the southern revolutionary army, located at Ponta Grossa, state of Parana, said that Getulio Vargas, the rebel southern army generalissimo, president of the state of Rio Grande Do Sul, and defeated nationalist presidential candidate in the recent elections, would take charge of the provisional government.

Lindolfo Collor, insurgent representative at Buenos Aires, is flying to Porto Alegre today to meet Dr. Osvaldo Aranha, acting president of Rio Grande Do Sul, and proceed with him to Rio De Janeiro to confer with the military junta. Senior Collor asserted that Vargas would not assent to a military government.

The third principal in the battle of politicians developing here was Galpita Juarez Tavora, whose army of volunteers and revolting federal troops conquered the northern states, Parahyba, Pernambuco, Alagoas, Sergipe, and part of Bahia. He arranged to come here by airplane this morning from Bahia. Although united with Vargas in the revolutionary campaign, the two men have long been bitter political enemies and the status of their present relationship was uncertain. Juarez Tavora has attained a huge personal following in the states through which his army has progressed as it moved southward.

The military junta which has assumed actual control of the government, and which brought about the unseating of President Washington Luis yesterday, is composed of General Menna Barreto, General Leite Castro, Tasso Fragoso, Admiral Irilias Noronha, Dr. Pandia Calogeras and other assisting them is Cardinal Leme, who was one of the intermediaries in the final negotiations with the deposed president.

Dr. Washington Luis today was a prisoner in Fort Copabanco. After holding out for hours against resignation with the words that would be taken from Guanabara palace only when he had been bound hand and foot he consented late yesterday to the military junta's demand, and was taken under heavy guard to the quarters of the general staff at the fort where he will remain temporarily.

His decision finally was made at the counsel of Cardinal Leme and Monsignor Rosaivo Costa Rego, vicar-general of the Rio De Janeiro Diocese. He left the palace in the company of the cardinal and vicar-general, and General Tasso Fragoso. As he passed through the reception room he bade good-bye to the assembled ministers of his cabinet, and members of the civil and military house-hold.

Dispatches from Sao Paulo said President-elect Julio Prestes, who but for the revolution would have succeeded Dr. Washington Luis on November 15, had disappeared. There were rumors that he had fled the city in an airplane.

After an orgy of destruction yesterday in which damage estimated at $1,000,000 was done to seven newspaper offices and buildings by gangs of hoodlums, the city today presented much of its old normal appearance, troops and police guard strategic centers.

Sao Paulo dispatches said that quiet prevailed there, but that there was considerable uncertainty as to what moves were to be expected of the "federal" and "rebel" armies still aligned against each other, although not fighting, along the Parana Sao Paulo frontier.

Twenty Killed As Fort Shells German Steamer At Capital Of Brazil

Berlin, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Advises received at the Brazilian legation here today said that twenty persons were killed and 35 were injured on the German ship Baden when it was shelled yesterday as it attempted to leave Rio De Janeiro. Whether any Germans were among the victims has not yet been learned.

The Baden will remain in port several days for repairs. The Brazilian minister of marine visited the German envoy at Rio De Janeiro and expressed regret over the incident, which he described as an unfortunate circumstance.

Some dispatches from Brazil state that a fire fired at the vessel to prevent its leaving port but did not intend to hit it.

The Hamburg American steamer Baden reported to its home office today that 18 persons aboard it were killed or wounded yesterday by a shell from Fort Chaopachana hit the ship as it was attempting to leave Rio De Janeiro harbor for Buenos Aires.

More of the casualties were said to have been Spanish immigrants, bound for Argentine.

It was stated that the Brazilian revolutionary authorities alleged that they had intended the shot merely as a warning and had hit the ship accidentally.

The Baden carried a large number of third class passengers.

Bury Victims of Mine Disaster

Aldorf, Germany, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Bodies of 216 victims of Tuesday's coal mine disaster were buried here today while the town observed deep mourning and all business ceased.

Fifty caskets bore no nameplates because their inmates were too mangled for identification. Thousands of persons including miners' delegations from the Saar and Ruhr districts attended.

NOMINEES FOR COUNTY BOARD FOR TAX CUT

Four Democratic Aspirants Also in Favor of Reducing Expenses

Pitt County's Democratic nominees, despite charges to the contrary, are in favor of tax reduction and are using their every influence in this direction.

The following statement was given out this afternoon by W. E. Hooks, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Executive committee:

To the voters of Pitt County: It has recently come to our attention that rumors and circulars are being circulated over Pitt County to the effect that we, the Democratic Nominees for County Commissioners of Pitt County are against tax reduction and the reduction of expenses in the County Government. We wish to state emphatically that if we are elected as your County Commissioners on November 4th, that we will do all within our power to reduce taxes and cut expenses in every way possible.

Signed
H. V. STATON
T. E. JOYNER
H. F. STOKES
F. L. GASKINS

Pitt County Democratic Nominees for County Commissioners.
The above statement, signed by four of the Democratic nominees for County Commissioners Messrs. Staton, Joyner, Stokes and Gaskins was not signed by Mr. S. I. Dudley, the other Democratic nominee. It was presented to him, Mr. Dudley giving his reason, that he had not heard he was against tax reduction. Mr. Dudley stated that while he could not sign the above statement, he would mail me a statement setting forth his views.

Pitt County Democratic Executive Chairman.

Urges Towns to Go Ahead With Construction

Burlington, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Burlington's mayor today advised cities and towns throughout the country to go ahead with development programs to relieve unemployment.

Mayor Earl B. Horner, member of Governor O. Max Garner's executive committee on co-operative marketing of tobacco, couched his statement in this form: "A tip to President Hoover's unemployment committee."

"If the committee," he said, "would recommend to the President a line of credit to cities and towns as an inducement for them to begin construction work, it could be handled by the exchange of short term notes for credit with the National Treasury, the same to be retired as soon as business conditions would permit."

Pointing out that credit might be extended at very low terms, Mayor Horner said retirement of the notes might be arranged to coincide with peak production of the utilities constructed with the funds. Obviating the necessity of issuing bonds, it would reduce taxes both locally and nationally, he said.

"I earnestly solicit the co-operation of other cities and towns of the state and country at large in this movement."

The Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce sometime ago organized a Tax Relief Commission to study the needs of the various counties in this district, and representatives of this body will be in charge of the gathering here.

McAdoo to Visit Atlanta On His Airplane Flight

Newark, N. J., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Starting the return trip of his "business man" trans-continental flight, William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, took off from Metropolitan Airport at 10:18 a. m. (EST) for Atlanta, Ga.

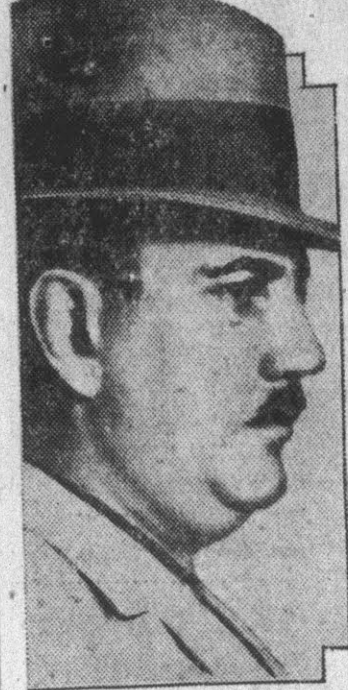

With Mr. McAdoo with his son, Robert, and his secretary, Miss Vera Ward, Harry Ashe is their pilot.

"Atlanta is my old home town and my former stamping grounds," Mr. McAdoo said. "That's why we're going there first."

The former secretary wanted to beat his west-east time of 17 hours, 23 minutes from Los Angeles, but believed it would be impossible to do so because of adverse winds. He said a stop would be made at either Richmond, Va., or Greensboro, N. C., for fuel and expected to reach Atlanta about 3 p. m.

GAIN SHOWN BY PRICES ON LOCAL MARKET

Weekly Price Average Shows Distinct Gain Over Previous Week

Season sales on the Greenville tobacco market today had reached the $2,994,134 mark against 28,517,368 for the same period last season, according to the official report of K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales, made public today.

Sales for the week just closed, the report also indicated, were officially estimated at $4,794,262 for a total sum of $775,451.62 at a general average of $16.17. For the same week last season the market sold 4,285.93 pounds.

The sales for the season brought the farmers a total sum of $4,351,278.71 at an average of $13.19 per hundred pounds.

Sales were some lighter this week than during the previous week, but with the advent of chilly weather, the marketing of bright leaf was expected to pick up considerably.

ANTICIPATE NEW KILLINGS AT CHICAGO

Assassination of Joe Aiello Believed to Be Forerunner of More Killings

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(AP)—The assassination of Joe Aiello, wealthy "alcohol king" and foe of Alphonse Capone, was viewed by police today as a possible forerunner for further slayings in Chicago's gangland.

Belief was expressed by them that George (Bugs) Moran, reputed partner of Aiello, who was shot down from ambush on the north-west side last Thursday night, may be the next target of machine gun bullets.

In this connection the Chicago Herald and Examiner said today that Aiello's death, "halted a well-organized plot to slay Al Capone." The newspaper added that the police had been informed that one of the conspirators, believing the plot would fail, "tipped off" Capone henchmen and the killing of Aiello followed.

While the police were in the midst of their investigation of the Aiello death, John Alcock, acting police commissioner, made good his threat of a month ago to give the department a "saking up" by ordering the transfer of two captains and 91 other officers. He added that another shakeup was in the offing.

Unsuccessful in their efforts to learn anything of importance from relatives of the slain gang chief, the authorities continued a hunt for Capone henchmen, including Jack McGurn who was indicted but never tried for connection with the machine-gun slaying of seven followers of Moran on St. Valentine's Day in 1929.

FIRE WRECKS AUDITORIUM AT RALEIGH

Eighteen-Year-Old Municipal Building Destroyed; Loss Estimated at $125,000

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Raleigh's notable place for gatherings, scene of many political meetings, brilliant balls and concerts and also the scene of the major church revival meetings of the city, today was a mass of ruins following a devastating fire which destroyed the 18-year old city auditorium.

Last night, just before midnight flames were discovered in the high-roofed structure during the Negro State Fair marshall's ball and the auditorium was doomed before firemen could turn a single stream of water on that part of the city administration building.

Nearby buildings and the administration offices of the hall were saved by the firemen after battling several hours.

The city auditorium was one of the best known meetings places in North Carolina.

Memorial political arguments had been staged in it at State conventions of political parties.

Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, both former presidents; Champ Clark, William Jennings Bryan and Henry Cabot Lodge, widely known politicians of another age, and scores of lesser politicians of national importance spoke from its stage.

Al Smith spoke from the stage during the 1928 campaign.

Will Rogers had "wise-cracked" from the stage for hours at a time and Charlie Chaplin stood in the auditorium during the war and sold Liberty bonds.

Billy Sunday, "Cyclone" Mc-Lendon, and Mordecai Ham held revivals in the building.

Annually the state debutante ball, one of the feature social events of the North Carolina fall season, was danced in the auditorium.

Dozens of organizations have held state or district convocations in conventions in the building during its 18 years existence.

Mayor E. E. Culbreth said today no announcement could be made of plans for rebuilding the structure until the insurance adjusters finished their work and city council considered the matter.

The buildings was insured for $55,000. The auditorium and city administration building, combined, were erected at a cost of $125,000 in 1912.

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Four blackened walls were all that remained today of Raleigh's $125,000 city auditorium. Fire that broke out shortly before midnight last night gutted the building and threatened for a time to destroy the city hall, a part of the same structure.

The fire, which was discovered by negroes holding a dance in the building as part of their fair week celebration, was probably due to defective wiring. Fire Chief W. E. Hollis was told by those who first saw the flames in top of the auditorium.

Chief Hollis was assisted in directing the fight on the blaze by Sherwood Brockwell, state fire marshal.

Seek Man With Green Coupe In Two Boys' Deaths

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 25.—(AP)—A new theory that a third person made the trip from North Carolina to Memphis with Burton Hensley and Woodrow Wilson was considered today by investigators seeking a solution of the brutal slaying of the two youths in an eastern Arkansas swamp.

The third person was the owner of a green coupe in which the boys traveled to Mississippi river lands opposite Memphis in the opinion of R. R. Nailing, prosecuting attorney, and Ulrich Hensley, brother of Burton.

Nailing said neither had a car and "they could not possibly have hitch-hiked" from Asheville to Memphis in a day and a half.

Hensley expressed the belief that the boys, after leaving their home at Bald Creek, N. C., for a short visit to Asheville, met a friend with an automobile and the three decided to make a trip to El Paso, Texas, to visit a member of the Hensley family.

The two boys, he said, were in Asheville last Sunday night. They next were reported in Memphis Tuesday afternoon traveling in a green coupe. The following day they were found unconscious, with skulls crushed, lying in the remnants of a campfire. They died in a hospital without regaining consciousness.

No trace of the car has been found. An inquest was set for today.

NO HOPE FOR RELIEF FROM REPUBLICANS.

Since there is an effort on the part of a certain element in our county to persuade our people to vote for two Republicans for the office of County Commissioner in the coming election, promising great tax reductions if the voters take such action, we feel that our people should know the facts regarding the tax situation in this county as compared with other counties in the state and just what we might expect from a Republican administration.

Because only one of the Democratic nominees would accept the impossible platform prescribed by the Pitt County Tax Relief Association that body has apparently been able to get the Republicans, who are willing to grab at the proverbial straw if it offers a chance to get into office in this county, to adopt a similar platform and as a result the association is openly urging the voters to elect Dudley (Democrat), and Smith and Johnson (Republicans), to the next Board of Commissioners in order that the association might in that way get control of the affairs of the county.

Let us warn the Democrats of our county that such action would in the end spell disaster for our party and no doubt financial ruin for our county, and urge every good Democrat to go to the polls on November 4th and vote the full Democratic ticket with the assurance that he or she is doing his or her duty.

Of course all of us want all the tax relief possible but we likewise want good government and would not like to see our county in the same dilemma that certain other counties find themselves as result of putting the Republicans in power. It cannot be said that Pitt County's government, roads and schools do not compare favorably with that of any county in the state and yet last year we operated on a smaller tax rate than the state average.

Here are the figures on the 100 counties in the state for the year 1929-1930 and they are the best argument of any we know of why Pitt County should continue to vote the Democratic ticket:

Average tax rate for 100 counties with state aid figured in tax rate equivalent.....$1.76

Average tax rate for 32 Republican counties, same basis.....$1.97

Average rate for 68 Democratic counties, same basis.....$1.66

Tax rate for Pitt County, same basis.....$1.53

From these figures it may be seen that Pitt County operate upon a tax rate of 23 cents less than the state average; 13 cents less than the average Democratic county and 44 cents less than the average of those counties controlled by the Republicans. In the face of these figures can Pitt County or any other county hope for any tax relief at the hands of the Republicans?

ABOUT TOWN

In the opinion of J. W. Bailey, Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate, who spoke here yesterday, Democrats of North Carolina are going to pile up one of the most overwhelming victories in years in the forthcoming election.

The party is militant and enthusiastic all over the State. Mr. Bailey declared, giving every indication that it will go to the polls and turn in a clear majority for all candidates.

He urged support of the ticket from top to bottom, expressing belief that only in this way could the work of the party be carried on successfully in all sections.

He declared that the Republican party had failed miserably in living up to its program of prosperity to the nation, and said they should clear out and let somebody capable of improving conditions take charge of the government.

He congratulated Pitt county upon the splendid record which she had established for the party in past years, and said he believed the people would prove just as staunch and true in the coming election as they had in all others.

The financial depression existing in all parts of the nation was charged against the Republican and not to conditions existing in China, Russia and India, as some of the G. O. P. members had claimed.

This nation is powerful enough not to be affected by what the people of these three countries do. Only what happens in our own midst, brings about such situations as are existing today, he contended.

Greenville extends a cordial welcome to members of the Daughters of the American Revolution assembled in district meeting in this city today. The city is always glad to welcome an organization of this kind because it is doing much good to bring about an improvement of the social and moral life of the people.

The organization is to be congratulated upon its erection of the marker at the site of the first court house in Pitt county, the unveiling of which took place today. This one piece of work shows what the organization is capable of doing in preserving historic places in different parts of the nation and Pitt County people are proud that the old court house site has been designated for the benefit of coming generations.

Government in the thirty-two Republican counties in North Carolina costs on an average of 25 per cent more than in the 68 Democratic counties of the State, "J. C. B. Ehringhaus, future gubernatorial candidate, declared in a campaign address at Rutherfordton this week.

"There is no need to trust to the Republican party to give us a tax relief or any other relief for they have tried and failed every time," the speaker asserted.

"The Democratic party and its leadership had the vision to perfect such remedies as the situation demands. The Democratic party does not claim to be perfect in government but it has a record of service and efficiency."

He discussed Hoover prosperity and the tariff and said that promises made by the Republican party had proven empty. He made an appeal on behalf of the Democratic party but did not abuse the opposition.

People who have not taken advantage of the "special subscription offer" put on by the Reflector several days ago should get busy and do so at once. The offer will come to a close November 3, and it will be the last time in years our readers will have the opportunity to take advantage of such a reduction of price.

While numbers of people have already subscribed, there are scores who have delayed the matter probably in hope of improving their financial standing. To such people, we would say that the time to act is here, and the sooner it is done the better.

People who read the Reflector realize that this paper gives the very latest happenings of different parts of the world. It matters not in what section of the country someone in what section of the county something may happen, the story is on the wire in a short time and readers receive it in the afternoon edition of this paper.

Don't delay your subscription to the last minute, but get busy and send it in at once while you have the matter in mind.

Pitt County is easily one of the most important agricultural counties in this part of the country, and its resources and possibilities are being broadcast to the most remote part of the nation.

This is being done through campaigns conducted by different organizations in the various towns and cities of the county where the people realize the value of advertising. In Greenville the lead is being taken by the Merchant Association, an organization which for many years has done much toward letting the outside world know about the "Principal shopping center of Eastern Carolina."

These organizations, however, are not able to do everything by themselves. They need the aid of every man woman and child interested in community growth. To such people, they would say "inform yourself of the possibilities of this great county of yours, and then tell other people about them wherever you go."

Dr. Gaines Will Be Inaugurated At W.-L. Today

Lexington, Va., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Washington and Lee University will inaugurate its thirteenth president, Dr. Francis Peadar Gains, with ceremonies in which distinguished figures will take part.

Delegates from 141 universities and colleges, bringing the greetings of the institutions they represent, began arriving in Lexington last night. They with other visitors were expected to more than fill Doremus Gymnasium, the largest building in Lexington.

Among speakers to the exercises are Dr. John H. Finley, editor of the New York Times; John W. Davis, Democratic Presidential candidate in 1924; President Frank P. Graham of the University of North Carolina; Chancellor J. H. Kirkland of Vanderbilt University; and Major-General John H. Lejeune, superintendent of Virginia Military Institute.

Loses Plea for Freedom

Chicago, Oct. 25.—(AP)—William Hudson Donald, 77, described as the oldest man ever to be sued for alimony, has lost his plea for freedom.

He was returned to the county jail yesterday to serve the remainder of a six month sentence imposed September 3, after his attorneys had made a vain attempt before Judge William V. Brothers to obtain his release on the ground he needed medical attention.

RELIGIOUS SURVEY OF GREENVILLE TOMORROW

Tomorrow is the day for the making of the religious survey of the city of Greenville. Each house where white people live will be visited, not to make a social call, but to secure the name and age and Sunday School preferences of each person. So that the Sunday school workers in each Sunday school may know just how many and who are the possibilities for each grade for the school. When the survey is completed, the cards with the information will be turned over to the superintendents of the Sunday schools indicated on them.

It is confidently hoped that at each house the information asked will be readily and cheerfully given so that those who are making the survey can finish their task as quickly as possible. They will start immediately after lunch and will hope the work may be completed early in the afternoon. Full instructions will be given to those who are to do this work by Mr. L. L. Morgan who will occupy the preaching hour tomorrow morning at the Immanuel Baptist church. The information gained from this survey should be materially helpful in increasing the attendance and efficiency of every Sunday school in our city.

Those who care to are asked to meet at the church at 7:30 tonight to pray together for the success of the campaign. Classes in Sunday school work will be held at the church each night next week.

Circle Number Three, of the Immanuel Baptist church, will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. F. L. Whitehurst on Summit street. A full attendance is expected.

Ayden Again Wins By 7 to 0 Score

The Ayden High School football team journeyed to Tarboro yesterday afternoon and again brought another victory to Pitt county. Ayden out-played the Tarborites from start to finish. The Tarborites have this year won two and lost two. A 15 yard pass from Britt to Cox and a sixty-five yard run accounted for the touchdown and then Britt carried the ball over for the extra point.

Five Injured In Battle Following Robbery At N. Y.

New York, Oct. 25.—(AP)—A policeman, a gunman and three others were suffering from gunshot wounds today as the result of the battle which ensued when three robbers held up a cigar store while police were raiding it for gambling. One of the hold-up men was killed and the third escaped.

Patrolman Timothy Hushion and Harry F. Coleman went to the Madison Cigar store on Madison avenue near 101st street, last night to investigate complaints of gambling. In a back room they found 25 men playing cards.

The officers lined the card players against the wall and sent for Abraham Gersia, the proprietor.

As Gersia entered the place three men followed him in. "Stick 'em up," said one of the newcomers.

Hushion reached for his gun and one of the robbers fired, wounding the policeman in the leg. Coleman then shot the gunman in the neck, killing him instantly. Hushion turned his pistol on another thug, wounding him twice.

Leaving the body of their companion and covering their retreat with pistol fire, the surviving robbers fled. When the smoke cleared it was found that Gersia and two of the card players had suffered bullet wounds in the arms.

The wounded robber was captured by Patrolman Timothy Crimmons after a chase. He was identified as John Dead, 27 years old. He was wounded in the abdomen and wrist.

The dead robber was identified as Michael Murry, 32, of Corona, Queens. He had a long police record.

Lindy Flies Home

Lawrenceville, N. J.—It is simple for Colonel Lindbergh to fly at night to his new home in the country. "Oh," he explained, "some one in the house will hear the motor and drive an automobile around so I can see by the headlights," and that's what he did around 6 P. M., ending a working day which began at 5 A. M. in Pittsburgh.

Invisible Ray Stalls Car

Berlin—The countryside in Saxony is excited over rumors that an invisible ray has been stalling automobiles. The war ministry denies that experiments with any such ray are being made anywhere in the country, but one report is that magnetes of 40 cars near the Czecho-Slovakian frontier were suddenly put out of action mysteriously.

Richard Barthelmess takes the lead in the First National and Vitaphone picture, "The Dawn Patrol," which comes to the New Theatre Monday and Tuesday. The story is from the pen of John Monk Saunders and directed by Howard Hawks.

Hitler Sees No Need of Alliance

Munich, Bavaria, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, Fascist general, replied today in his newspaper, Volkischer Beobachter, to proposals of Gustave Herve, French editor of La Victoire, of a Franco-German military alliance.

Answering Herve, the national Socialist leader expressed satisfaction at the conciliatory spirit shown but asked, "Why have a military alliance? Against whom is it to be directed? Hitler said Germany had attempted for twelve years to arrive at a Franco-German understanding and the efforts have merely led to Germany's becoming so poor that many of her people prefer Bolshevism to her present condition. He added, "young Germany, as represented in the movement of which I am leader, earnestly desires an understanding with France, but wants no military alliance."

"The Fascist leader expressed the opinion that to become a fit partner for France in a military sense Germany would have to increase her armaments greatly. He suggests that the better way would be for France to reduce hers, and thereby 'relieve all Europe of a nightmare.'"
