Ten Year Old Deadlock Over Muscle Shoals Is Definitely Shattered

Senate and House Conferees Sign Compromise Agreement for Operation of the Government's $150,000,000 Power and Nitrate Plant; Report Will Be Submitted to the House Tomorrow; Government to Operate Power Project and Lease Nitrate Plants

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The ten year old deadlock between House and Senate over Muscle Shoals legislation was definitely broken today.

The Senate conferees and a majority of the House managers signed a compromise agreement for operation of the government's $150,000,000 power and nitrate plant for production of fertilizer and by-products if possible, and government construction of power transmission lines for distribution of electricity from Wilson Dam.

The compromise reached today provides that the lessee of the nitrate plant can obtain 15 percent of the amount of power used in production of fertilizer for manufacture of electrical-chemical products of the government reservation and as much secondary power as the President decides is fair an equitable.

The conferees retained the provision of the Senate bill for construction by the government of the Cove Creek dam on the Clinch river.

The agreement was signed by Senators McNary, Oregon, and Norris Nebraska Republicans and Smith Democrat, South Carolina, and Representatives Wurzbach, Republican, Texas; Fisher of Tennessee, and Quin of Mississippi, Democrats.

Representative Reece, Republican Tennessee, said he would decide before the report is submitted tomorrow whether he will sign.

The fifth member of the House committee, Ransley, Republican, Pennsylvania, refused to sign.

Under the compromise the President will have one year after enactment of the bill in which to negotiate a lease for the nitrate plants. If he fails to obtain a lease within that time the government will operate the plant for experimental production of fertilizer.

Coursey Will Aid Grand Jury Probe of Bank Failures

Asheville, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The county commissioners today signed a contract with W. S. Coursey, of Southern Pines, to assist the grand jury in its investigation of bank failures in the county and the administration of public affairs.

Mr. Coursey, well-known for his work in investigating other bank failures in the state, and two assistants, went to work on the new job today.

Under the terms of the contract, Mr. Coursey will receive $680 a month and each of the assistants $430 each month. It is estimated the task of completing the investigation may require three months.

The selection of the accountant, asked for by the grand jury during the January criminal term of Superior court, was made by the board working in conjunction with Solicitor Zeb V. Nettles. The announcement of the selection was made late yesterday, by John McCraw, foreman.

Tri-State Medical Society Will Meet Next in This State

Richmond, Va., Feb. 18.—(AP)—The Tri-State Medical Association of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina will hold its 1932 convention at Raleigh, N. C.

The convention city was selected and Dr. Beverly H. Tucker, Richmond, was elected president of the association here yesterday at the closing session of the 1931 convention. Dr. Tucker succeeded Dr. W. B. Lyles, of Spartanburg, S. C.

FAITH HEALER HELD ON B A D CHARGE HERE

Rev. K. H. Turner Charged With Attempted Criminal Assault On Woman

Probable cause was found against Rev. K. H. Turner, still-styled faith healer and evangelist, charged with attempted criminal assault on Mrs. Howard Smith, when the case came up for hearing before Magistrate John Ivey Smith today.

Turner was bound over to the next term of criminal court under bond of $400. Announcement that the case was scheduled for hearing this morning attracted such a crowd to the offices of Magistrate Smith that he was forced to deny admittance to anybody but principals in the case, attorneys and witnesses.

Several witnesses were examined during the morning. Turner, however, declined to make any statement.

The warrant against Turner was sworn out by Howard Smith, local carpenter and husband of the woman the preacher is alleged to have attempted to assault. It charged Turner with assault upon a female with intent to commit rape.

Smith said the assault occurred shortly after he had asked the preacher to take Mrs. Smith to work during a rainstorm last Saturday morning. Mrs. Smith said that in spite of her protestations Turner drove out the Falkland road, then into a side road, kissed and hugged her and then attempted criminal assault.

She said she begged him all the way down the road to take her back to town, that she had to go to work, but that he failed to listen and attempted to carry out his purpose.

While Turner was carrying on his love-making, a man by the name of Dunn, who resides near the section where the alleged assault occurred, appeared on the scene and broke up the affair. Dunn said he saw the car when it drove up to the place and thinking it was a couple of lovers out for a "frolic," approached the car to scare them off the premises.

Turner has been in Greenville over a year. During the time he has worked as a barber in the day and preached at night. He conducted a tent meeting in the eastern section of the city some time ago and was said to have brought about miraculous healing of the sick through his powers of faith.

Despite the seriousness of the charge brought against him, he declined to make any statement this morning prior to and during the trial.

KING ALFONSO FINALLY GETS NEW CABINET

Situation Tranquil in Spain After Four Days of Political Turmoil

Madrid, Feb. 18.—(AP)—After four days of political turmoil and uncertainty, Spain today had a new Monarchist cabinet, avoiding revolution on the one hand and dictatorship on the other.

Now it is believed that the situation is once more tranquil, at least for the time being. The fundamental causes of all the trouble of the past year still exist, however, and opposition to the Monarchy will be renewed when the time is ripe.

Admiral Jual Bautista Aznar, the oldest ranking officer in the Spanish navy and generally regarded as a neutral in politics, succeeded where Jose Sanchez Guerra and Melouates Alvarez had failed.

At one o'clock he brought a new cabinet to the royal palace and its members were sworn in before the king, the admiral's predecessor and King. It includes General Beron, Count of Romanones, whose refusal to participate in Berenguer's election program resulted in the general's downfall.

The cabinet is composed entirely of extreme right Monarchists, with representatives of the conservatives, the Liberals and the Catalan Independents.

The members of the new cabinet are: Premier—Admiral Aznar; Secretary of War, General Berenguer; Public Works, Jual de la Clerva; treasury, Jual Ventosa; Economy, Count de Buralill; Labor, Duke of Maura; Interior, Marquis de Hoyos; Justice, Marquis Albucares; Foreign affairs, Count de Romanones.

This list leaves vacant only the ministry of Education, but this post was expected to be filled in a few hours.

The admiral, it was said in official circles, is in delicate health and was induced to accept the (Continued on page six)

CANN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Vice-president of the Pilot Life Insurance Company Commits Suicide Today

Greensboro, Feb. 18.—(AP)—F. E. Cann, (Correst) 46, executive vice-president of the Pilot Life Insurance Company of Greensboro, died in a hospital at 11:15 A. M. two hours after a pistol bullet had torn through his right temple.

Coroner W. W. Harvey, of Guilford county, termed the case "apparent suicide" and indicated no inquest would be held unless members of the Cann family request it.

Mr. Cann was found by his wife in the basement of their home. Mrs. Cann began a search for him when she became alarmed at his absence after she had taken their children to school. She found him unconscious and he remained in a coma until his death.

Members of the Cann family said the insurance official had been ill for the last week and described his condition as one of "physical depression."

He had not been regularly at his office for the last 10 days, but spent a few minutes there yesterday looking over his mail.

Cann was elected vice-president of the Pilot company when the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company acquired its controlling stock several months ago. Previously, he had been connected at different times with each company.

Mrs. Cann and four children, two boys and two girls, survive. Funeral arrangements had not been made.

Durham to Get New Postoffice

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Durham, N. C., was allowed $550,000 for post office construction in the second deficiency bill received today in the House from its appropriations committee.

A notation advised "court accommodations may be made later."

Charlotte, N. C., was allowed $525,000 for extension and remodeling of the postoffice and Federal Court building.

Membership Drive Climaxed by Oyster Roast at the City Hall Last Night

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion enjoyed their annual oyster roast in the building back of the fire station last night. It proved to be one of the most delightful occasions of the kind in years and came as a climax to the drive for increased membership.

Legionnaires from virtually all parts of the county were in attendance and the way they attacked the liberal supply of oysters showed they were in a responsive mood for the affair.

In the words of a member of the post: "If the boys had fought the Germans as hard as they are fighting those oysters, the entire German army could have been annihilated."

The usual business session was dispensed with and everybody gave his entire attention to the important matter of opening oyster shells and then disposing of the delicious morsel on the inside. This business continued for about an hour and when the last of the recalcitrant oysters had been prized from his shell there was not a man who would admit he was not well filled for the time being.

In addition to the roast, members of the Legion had an opportunity to look over the much-talked-about bull-throated fire whistle which the city installed sometime ago and which has been a matter of considerable comment by members of the board of aldermen and the citizenry generally because the whistle refused to make enough noise when first erected. George Gardner, chief of the fire department, explained the operation of the whistle and some of the Legionnaires who came from a considerable distance said there was nothing wrong with its tonal qualities, as they could hear it many miles from the city.

Although there was no public announcement made regarding the success of the membership drive, Commander J. S. Elliott stated that the post had added over twenty new members since the campaign first opened. He was highly pleased with the splendid showing which the committees had made and expressed belief they would be able to increase the roster still more before the summer.

Although disposition of the oysters occupied most of their time, many of the Legionnaires found time to discuss the bill now before Congress providing for the cash payment of veterans' certificates.

The post sometime ago went on record as favoring immediate payment and indications last night were that none of the boys had changed their minds. If anything, they were stronger than ever for payment, and like thousands of veterans in other sections of the country, will look anxiously toward Washington the next several days, hoping that Congress will see fit to let the boys get their hands on some real cash.

The skirts of the new frocks have a semi-bouffant line and give an airy effect as the dancer moves across the ballroom floor.

DEFICIENCY BILL SENT TO THE HOUSE

Second Bill Provides for Several Public Buildings in North Carolina

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The second deficiency bill carrying $59,108,000 to care for exigencies in various government departments this year and allocating $69,940,000 for public buildings throughout the country was received today by the House from its appropriations committee.

This is the last money bill of this session. It is $933,000 less than the budget estimates, and provides allocations from the $415,000,000 building program for more than thirty buildings outside the District of Columbia.

Of the total, $23,668,000 was set aside for the veterans administration of which $18,150,000 is for naval and military compensation, $4,000,000 for medical and hospital services, $818,000 for national soldiers' homes and $74,000 for payments to state and territorial homes for maintenance of veterans.

The measure carries $2,200,000 beginning of work on the new $5,600,000 naval dirigible base at Sunnydale, Calif.

Among some of the unusual and large appropriations, all of which will be made available immediately upon final passage, were $2,500,000 for roads and trails in national parks; $1,270,000 for fighting fires in national forests; $1,904,000 for maintenance and improvement of federal penal institutions; $3,000,000 for the air mail and $1,500,000 for the new aircraft farm at Lexington, Ky.

The sum of $118,615 was allowed for the paving of Missionary Ridge Crest road in Georgia; $5,000 for the Petersburg National Military park in Virginia; $8,725 for the Vicksburg National Military park in Mississippi and $300 for the battlefield at Chalmette, La., south of New Orleans; $2,500 for a tablet at Fort Sumter, S. C.

Under miscellaneous building projects, $25,000 was allowed for the monument to the first flight of the Wright brothers in an airplane at Kill Devil Hill, Kitty Hawk, N. C.

Other allotments included: Knoxville, Tenn., postoffice and courthouse, authorization of July 3, 1930, for additional land demarcation of building and construction of a new building under total cost of $1,575,000, amended to authorize treasury secretary to acquire new site and construct new buildings within this limit.

Mount Airy, N. C., postoffice and site and building, $150,000, instead of $500,000 for site authorized March 4, 1913.

Mount Olive, N. C., postoffice, $75,000.

Rockingham, N. C. postoffice site and building, $125,000, in lieu of $5,000 for acquisition of site, building to be so constructed that court accommodations may be provided later.

Legislative provisions were included to permit the public buildings at Rockingham, and Durham, N. C., to be constructed in such a manner that federal court accommodations may be subsequently provided if they are deemed necessary by Congress.

The appropriations committee did not include the suggested provision for repeal of authority for the sale of the old building at New Bern, N. C., holding that the secretary of the treasury had sufficient authority to deal with the matter.

Other allotments included: Rutherfordton, N. C., postoffice, $70,000.

Wadesboro, N. C., postoffice, site and building, $95,000, in lieu $5,000 for acquisition of site.

Farmers' Income Shows Decrease

Raleigh, Feb. 18.—(AP)—North Carolina Farm Business, published by the N. C. State College Extension service, list last year's net cash income of farmers of the state at $61,719,697—$42,750,303 less than in 1922.

Explaining that the shrinkage was due to low prices for farm products the publication urges curtailed production of cotton, tobacco and peanuts "in order to even have hope of a price that will cover the cost of production this year."

Last year's far meash receipts are given as $192,812,833 with cash expenses totaling $121,132,126, leaving the $61,719,697 balance. The net cash income for 1932 was $104,470,000 and the average for the nine-year period beginning with 1922 was $83,472,396.

The average price of cotton, the publication says, dropped last year to 9.5 cents a pound from 16.4 in 1929 while the Tobacco average declined to less than 14 cents from 18 cents the year before.

Senate Committee Puts Stamp Of Approval On Veterans Loan Measure

Divorce Bill Receives Approval Of The Lower House Of The Legislature

Senate Passes Umstead-Whedbee Personnel Commission Bill Amended To Allow Applicants For Jobs To Apply To Department Heads Instead Of To Proposed Commission.

Raleigh, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Divorce gained its first point in the 1931 North Carolina General Assembly today when the lower house approved the bill of Representative Johnson of Pender to allow either party to a separation of five years to seek divorce.

The Senate, after further debate and consideration of amendments, passed the Umstead-Whedbee personnel commission bill amended to allow applicants for jobs to apply to department heads instead of to the proposed commission.

Both houses adopted a joint resolution to invite Harry Flood Byrd, former governor of Virginia, to address the assembly next Tuesday.

Out of order the Senate received the administration bill to provide for the establishment of a central purchasing agency for all state departments and institutions.

The House got several new public bills including one to set up a state board of examiners for plumbers and heaters, one to safeguard public funds and one to provide in invalid persons must be cared for by their children.

Lively debate was occasioned in the Senate over the House amendment to the Johnson bill to clarify sections of the law relating to practice of general contractors and for the first time of the session one house refused to agree with an amendment of the other.

The Lawrence anti-lynching bill as re-written in committee was explained by its author and passed (Continued on page six)

PERKINS CASE BEFORE JURY

Jury Expected To Return Decision In Will Controversy Late This Afternoon.

A jury in the civil term of Pitt County Superior court continued deliberations this afternoon in the Perkins will case and it was indicated that it might be late in the afternoon before a decision was forthcoming. The jury received the case about 10 o'clock.

The case was started yesterday morning by Church Perkins and Mrs. J. R. James son and daughter of the late D. R. Perkins, who are attempting to break the will of their parent who left his entire estate in fee simple to his wife when he died.

The caveators contend that Mr. Perkins was unduly influenced in the preparation of his will by their mother, and that he was not mentally capable of such a task at the time the instrument was prepared.

Mrs. Perkins contended steadfastly that it was the desire of her husband that she receive the property, and that she did not bring undue persuasion to bear upon him when the will was made.

The case was vigorously contested on both sides and given promise to be one of the most lengthy of the session.

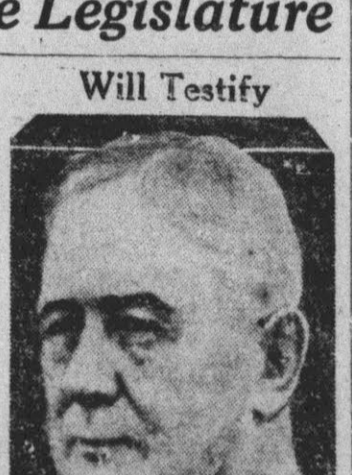

Gandhi Confers With Lord Irwin

New Delhi, India, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi and Lord Irwin, the viceroy of India, talked together for three hours this afternoon, seeking a way out of India's political difficulties.

Gandhi appeared cheerful as he left the viceregal palace remarking "The issues are still in the clouds. I am not coming back tomorrow."

The Mahatma within the next few days will resume his conversations with the Viceroy.

Will Testify

Harry S. New, postmaster general under President Coolidge, will testify before the senate postoffice committee regarding the lease of the St. Paul, Minn., commercial station postoffice.

Those voting against the bill were Chairman Smoot and Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Bingham of Connecticut, both Republicans.

Those for the measure were: Republicans, Watson, Shortridge, Couzens, Keyes, Lafollette, and Thomas of Idaho; Democrats, Simmons, Harrison, George, Wash, Barkley, Thomas and Connally.

Senator King, Democrat, Utah, withheld his vote.

The motion to report the House bill without change was made by Senator Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi, after the series of amendments were rejected.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Mass., offered a substitute bill providing for cash payments of $150 without interest to veterans actually in distress. The payments would be charged against the bonus insurance certificates. This was rejected nine to eight.

Reed offered an amendment in committee to restrict the loans to those veterans who already have borrowed. It lost 12 to 5.

King proposed to limit the relief to those veterans actually in distress as proposed by the administration. It was rejected 10 to 7.

A motion by Senator Thomas of Oklahoma to charge no interest on the loans mustered only three votes, with Shortridge and King supporting him.

The Senate agreed today to take up the loan bill tomorrow.

The President's views were in a letter to Chairman Smoot, forwarding of the letter became known as hearings by the committee were just starting on the House measure.

In his letter, the President sounded a series of protests against the measure.

"The country should not be called upon directly or indirectly to make loans to those who can help themselves," he said.

He expressed fear the legislation would "prolong the period" of distress.

He took the estimate made by Veterans Administrator Hines that 75 per cent of the veterans would take advantage of the loans thus involving a billion dollars to be raised by the treasury.

Senator Harrison of Mississippi, asked Chairman Smoot after the letter was read if he thought President Hoover would veto the bill. "I think he will," said Smoot.

Naval Surgeon Dies In Hospital At Goldsboro

Goldsboro, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Lieut. Commander Lewis Hicks Williams, 40, surgeon at the Chelsea naval hospital in Boston, died suddenly at a Goldsboro hospital early today from inflammation of the brain, brought on by a severe attack of influenza.

Commander Williams had been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Williams, at Paison, fifteen miles from here. He had been ill for several days but his condition was not considered serious until he lost consciousness late last night.

Physicians from the naval base at Norfolk, Va., came by plane to assist in treating the commander but arrived only a few minutes before he died.

Bill Providing for Loans to Former Service Men Favorably Reported By Finance Committee About Noon Hour; President Hoover Vigorously Protests Passage of Measure In Letter to Senator Smoot; Smoot Anticipates Presidential Veto

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Over-riding the expressed opposition of President Hoover, the Senate finance committee approved the veterans' loan bill today without change.

Quick Senate action was looked for. The President's views were given in a letter to Chairman Smoot and read to the committee. He went on record as fearing the legislation "will not only nullify the benefits to the veteran but inflict injury to the country as a whole."

Within an hour, the committee voted 13 to 3 for the House measure after rejecting a substitute.

Democrats voted solidly for the bill as passed by the House.

Six Republicans, led by Senator Watson the party leader, joined in support of the House bill after the futile attempt to substitute it.

Those voting against the bill were Chairman Smoot and Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Bingham of Connecticut, both Republicans.

Those for the measure were: Republicans, Watson, Shortridge, Couzens, Keyes, Lafollette, and Thomas of Idaho; Democrats, Simmons, Harrison, George, Wash, Barkley, Thomas and Connally.

SWISS CROSS PRESENTED TO FRIENDLY INDIANS

The regular weekly Pow Wow of the Friendly Indian girls was held Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m. After the opening ceremony and prayer, Mr. Osborne spoke of the Swiss Cross of the Friendly Indians which will be presented at a special service at dawn on Easter Morning. Emma Lee Seales and Fannie Cooper, served homemade cookies and chocolate sherbet. A fine meeting was enjoyed.

The Swiss Cross will be presented to every Friendly Indian boy or girl at a special service on Easter Morning who makes the following record, between now and Easter. Attends Sunday School every Sunday, attends church three times, attends every Friendly Indian meeting, and a good school report. The cross is the symbol of the four-fold developments as suggested by Jesus—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, (Spiritual) and with all thy strength, (physical) and with all thy mind, (intellectual) and thy neighbor as thyself." Each arm of the cross is beautifully designed to represent one phase of development. The very soul of the Friendly Indian program is service, consequently the center of the insigne is service. The cross will be given to every member making the above record during that time.

Hornsby Begins Work as Manager

Availn. Cal. Feb. 13.—(AP)—Roger Hornsby's management of the Chicago Cubs started formally and informally today as he cracked the whip in the first spring practice of the 1932 campaign. One workout daily, starting at 11 A. M., and lasting "until" was the Rajah's training plan. He has arranged for soccer games during each training session to strengthen the legs and aid the wind.

The advance guard of the Cubs—the battermen and the few rookies who couldn't wait for the second squad of infielders and outfielders—landed on William Wrigley's Magic Island yesterday. Manager Hornsby gave them the afternoon to get located and to play golf—then ordered all hands on deck for today's initial workout. A weight chart may be used to determine the condition of the players. If the plan goes into effect, each player will be asked to weigh in before and after workouts daily.

WASHINGTON ALMOST UPSETS O.G.'s APPLECART

By ROBERT RIPLEY, Himself
Creator of "Believe It or Not"

They keep you guessing down in Washington! And for awhile, I thought OLD GOLD might actually lose its first taste-test in 2 years.

874 smokers tested the four leading cigarettes with names concealed. Brand Y almost spilled O.G.'s apples!

But OLD GOLD'S nature-born goodness to taste and throat is as hard to beat as it is easy to take. Final score: OLD GOLD, 259; Brand X, 202; Brand Y, 224; Brand Z, 189.

ALBERMARLE PRESBYTERY MEETS FOR PRAYER

Yesterday in the Presbyterian church men from parts of Eastern Carolina met in a special called session, discussed some of the problems of the 34 churches of this district, and spent over an hour in confession and prayer for the guidance of God, and for the outpouring of God's Spirit upon our churches and land.

Some time in the near future a call is to be issued for a day of fasting and prayer in some central place, to which all who are interested and believe in prayer will be invited. The times are calling upon God's people for such days, is the belief of these men.

Presbyterian Prayer Services.

This evening at 7:30 the usual prayer meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, with the prophecy of Obadiah, as the book study. Read the short book and come to be helped in its further study. Come and be with us, and let us pray for each other.

GABLE SPEAKS ON IDOLATRY

Delivers Third Lecture on the Commandments at Local Catholic Church

In the third lecture on the Commandments last night at the Catholic church, Father Gable spoke on the enigma of history—the worship of idols—and developed for his audience the steps that lead to it. The lecture in part:

Contrasted with the other glorious heights to which man has risen in the long years of human history, his relationship toward his Creator is both shameful and sordid. And though we can give an account of human conduct in its ordinary ways, we are confronted with a mystery when we study the worship of idols. And we would almost be tempted to hesitate to offer an explanation were it not that the progressive steps are in our midst today.

Idolatry was defined by the speaker, as regarding any creature—sun, moon or stars; images of metal, stone or wood as God, and consecrating to them temples with worship and sacrifice. In its very nature it is the greatest sin man can commit because it strikes at the very existence of God and its reaction on man is in that it debases a creature made to the image and likeness of God. But idolatry invariably carries with it rites of the most shocking and immoral character as acts of worship. In its final analysis it is the worship of God's enemy—Satan.

God to oppose this, gave the law—"Thou shalt not have strange Gods before Me." In Exodus, chapter 20, we read the prohibition of making any graven thing or likeness. This cannot mean that we do wrong to make pictures or statues, else we would all be guilty of breaking this commandment. What God does say very clearly is, "Thou shalt not adore nor serve them"—which vindicates the Catholic practice of having statues in their churches since they are not adored.

But there are, despite our Christian civilization, still vestiges of species of idolatry that carried out to their logical conclusion have the same end, which is, though almost inconceivable idolatry.

The first step is that of the many "household gods" in the way of popular superstitions. We can count their number—from the good luck that a horseshoe will bring to the misfortune occasioned by the breaking of a mirror; the dread of a rabbit crossing ahead; to the terror of Friday, the thirteenth. And their name is legion. Absurd as they may sound, intelligent and even Christian men and women are so credulous as to let such petty superstitions rule their lives. And every one is a sin against the Commandment of God. A life that is more or less filled with that will not stop at the next step—divination—trying to know the future by inadequate means. This includes telling fortunes, horoscope reading, believing in dreams and seeking the lost through mediums. God alone is the possessor of the knowledge of the future actions that depend upon the free will of man, and to attempt to wrest that knowledge from Him is assumption. The fact that God does not reveal it, but that it can be and very often is known, is evidence of the preternatural powers that the ordinary man need fear.

How easy is it not for a mind to be swept along into a further penetration of the spirit world—spiritism—or talking with the dead. And though there have been many remarkable exposures in recent years, the fact remains, that spiritism is a reality. But, what a disillusionment to those who come within its control; in the end, identical with that which we find so hard to understand—idolatry.

The history of humanity and the experiences of ordinary life must convince us that our only security lies in following the laws of God, and it is certain that as soon as we depart, we lay ourselves open to falling into the grossest of errors.

ABOUT TOWN

It matters not where we go, we hear people talking about such and such a place being the "garden spot" of the world. It is impossible to say how many different localities claim this distinction, but regardless of the number it may be said with certainty that Pitt county may be classed among them and its importance as a garden spot will become more noticeable the next several months. Even at this time workers of the Department of Agriculture are doing everything in their power to interest the farmers in the creation of garden spots as a means of beautifying their premises. In fact, it is being advanced as a part of the live at home plan which is being preached from mountain to seashore at this time. That many men and women of the farm communities are going to abide by the suggestion cannot be doubted. The people of this section realize that flowers do more to improve the appearance of a home than any other one thing, and by the end of the summer it is easy to believe that numbers of farm homes will be converted into wildernesses of flowers. While the blossoms may not furnish food for the hungry they will provide inspiration for the toiling men and women of the farm and enable them to gain a fuller appreciation of this great work of feeding the world. The Farm Department should continue the movement until results have been made visible in every nook and crook of the county and road-side communities have been converted into things of life and beauty. The planting season is coming and Pitt county farmers are turning their attention to the kind of crops they are going to produce this season. As usual money crops will be the big thing, but there will be food and feed crops to enable the farmers to live if prices for the money crops fail to measure up to expectation. This situation is being viewed with pleasure by people interested in the farming industry, believing as they do that this is the only solution to the problem which has reduced many growers to a state of penury the last two years. It is the loophole that presents the only means of escape from a farming method that has proved both impractical and unsound and which eventually would have brought unprecedented conditions. By planting more of the things which he consumes at home, the grower will be able to look the market square in the face and not feel troubled to any great extent if he fails to realize a certain margin of profits on his money crops. Live at home is being preached from every nook and corner of the state at this time and there will be no diminution of the movement until everybody has been impressed with the grave need of providing the things he uses at home.

Fire hazards in this and other communities have resulted in staggering losses from time to time in past years and the present time witnesses a concerted movement to interest the citizenry in giving more attention to the problem.

Although Greenville fire loss has been cut considerably the last few years, it is impossible to say what the future is going to hold forth unless there is more co-operation shown by the public generally. Recently there have been numbers of fires which could have been avoided by the elimination of the hazards, and there will be little improvement in the situation if the public does not awaken to the necessity for care in handling fires.

Refuse around the house, in the opinion of fire experts, constitutes one of the gravest dangers imaginable, and it should be the duty of every home-owner to see that such matter is eliminated as fast as it accumulates. Don't wait until you have suffered unexpected loss from the fire demon. Act now and save your property and at the same time help the fire department cut down on the annual loss.

It is impossible to estimate the value of the publicity which various towns of the nation receive through the columns of the daily newspapers. Each news story that goes out from a town has a certain value from an advertising standpoint and it should be the purpose of the far-sighted men and women of every community to try and get as many stories as possible in local and state papers every day.

Although most of the important developments find their way in print, there are numbers of more unimportant items which never are published because the people do not realize the news value which they hold. Right here in Pitt county there are numbers of community occurrences that do not find their way to the papers for the simple reason that the people do not realize their news value, and the part which their publication would play in advertising their locality.

The Reflector makes an effort to faithfully portray the life of Pitt county from day to day, but it is impossible to do so as completely as desired because people who fail to let the paper know about it. Sometimes it is weeks before certain happenings receive publicity, and this is due mainly to the inability of the average run of people, or men and women who constitute news sources for that matter, to realize the value of the information and what it would mean to the community if it appeared in print in other sections of the country. If you know of anything which you think would be of interest, get in touch with some member of the Reflector staff and let him know about it. Do your part in keeping the activities of the various sections of the county before the public.

TELLS ABOUT CHRIST'S HELP

Miss Taylor Delivers Stirring Lecture At St. Paul's Episcopal Church

To the large group that came yesterday to hear the Bible lecture that she is giving each afternoon at 3:30 P. M. in St. Paul's Episcopal church Miss Anny Manning Taylor talked of the available help of Christ.

Taking her lecture to be a Study of the first four chapters of St. John's Gospel she told how this portion of the Gospel is the Announcement of Christ's Messiahship and the fact He is the Savior. She pointed out how Andrew declared to Peter "We have found the Messiah," how Nathaniel declared "Thou art the King of Israel, thou art the Son of God," and how John the Baptist had declared "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world."

All these declarations are a reminder to us, she stated, that we too should be announcers of Christ-telling about him to others by our changed lives and by our testimony of the change he has made in the lives of others. She stated farther that when Jesus has really changed our lives we want to share Him with others.

If anyone wants to do this personal work of witnessing for Christ, Miss Taylor stated that all they needed to know to speak to others of Eternal life was to know the first four chapters of St. John and to know themselves experimentally the indwelling Christ. Here she gave an outline of the first four chapters of St. John pointing out how in this part of the Bible Jesus was declared to be God. He is also declared Man. And that inasmuch as he was God become man He is the Redeemer.

At this point the crowd present to hear her sat quiet enough to hear a pin drop as Miss Taylor talked of Christ the redeemer and how he helps those who will allow Him to do so.

She described vividly the scene when the Disciples were on a storm-tossed boat; and how Jesus was watching them. Then at the moment of their greatest need he came walking on the water to them and took them to the Haven where they would be. Miss Taylor declared that he is watching each one of us today. And that in the time of our greatest struggles. He is watching, and that in the moment of our peril he will come to each one of us and will see us to the haven where we would be.

Words cannot describe this scene in the church yesterday when Miss Taylor out of her own deep experience and conviction held up before her hearers the ability for Christ to help. It seemed that Christ Himself was present. In conclusion, Miss Taylor told how we might have this help of Christ in our lives. She described the Woman at the well; and how she left her water pot. Left every thing typical of her old life. And that if we too want the strength of Christ in our lives we may have it if we surrender to Him, leaving behind all the things that were in our old life when we were far away from God.

Miss Taylor continues her lectures each afternoon at 3:30 P. M. in St. Paul's Episcopal church and all the people of Greenville are cordially invited to hear her.

BAD MAN OF SCREEN DIES

Louis Wolheim Dies At Hollywood Following An Operation Last Monday

Los Angeles, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Louis Wolheim, bad man of the screen but beloved film character of Hollywood, died at 6 A. M. today.

Death followed an operation on Monday. His condition had been reported satisfactory until a few hours before death. He was about 40 years of age.

He was suffering from an abdominal ailment brought about by a strict diet which he had followed to reduce his weight for a part in a picture.

When he entered the hospital he had lost about 30 pounds. Wolheim achieved his first success in "The Jest," which was followed by portrayals in "The Harry Apple" and "What Price Glory," all legitimate stage productions that brought him fame.

In 1926, two years before New York flooded to Hollywood with stage personalities as the talkies came into their own, Wolheim decided to try his fortunes before the camera.

The public will remember him best for his parts in "Two Arabian Knights," "The Tempest," "The Awakening," as Nick "Scars in Justice," Duke in "Frozen Justice" and other popular pictures. Wolheim was born in New York City on March 28, 1886, educated in the city schools and graduated in Engineering from Cornell University.

Bleese Denies He Will Resign

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Senator Cole L. Bleese denied today reports he planned to resign from the United States Senate and said he could return to Washington to complete his term. "I certainly have not resigned," he said with emphasis. Senator Bleese tacked a notice on his office door in Washington this week asking that his mail be forwarded to Columbia which led to the assumption he had decided to return to South Carolina before the last two weeks of his term expired.

BOTH HIGH CAGE TEAMS VICTORIOUS

Last night Greenville high school had a big time. The invincible girls easily defeated Wilson to the tune of 43-25. It was not even close, but the spectators got a great deal of enjoyment from watching the skill with which the local shot and guarded. Then, as a nightcap, the boys defeated the Bethel high school by a 28-18 score. Both games were good and exciting, and all of the spectators left glad they came. The biggest crowd of the year was present.

The first half of the boys' game was nip and tuck. Greenville scored first, then Bethel scored. The locals went to five—Bethel tied it, and from then on the score was either tied or Greenville had a two or three point margin. The half came with the locals leading by a 10-7 score, which is close indeed. Then the Greenville boys came back like tigers, and ran away with Bethel in the second half. Broadhurst awoke from a scoring trance and bagged 12 points. That boys is mighty good. Captain Bullock played a good game, but his shooting was off-color. King, Nobles and Madrin also showed up well. King has begun to score again, too. Around eighteen boys received a chance to play for Greenville, and they all held their own and showed up well. For Bethel, Carney led the scoring with eight points. Dunn, Taylor, and Bullock looked well on the floor for Bethel.

Greenville does not have another game here this week, but when she does have one it will be announced through this paper, and when one is announced the public is urged to come out and back the High school, both morally and financially. You who are friends of the high school, come out.

Greenville	Bethel
Broadhurst 12	Bullock 3
King 8	Staton
Woolard 2	Carney 8
Nobles, Dennis, Lee	Dunn 5
Bullock 4	Staton
Madrin 2	Taylor 2
Brown	Spencer
Winslow	Whitehurst

The following also played: Forwards, Cahoon, Deal, Blount; Guards, Turnage, Brewer, Wilson, Kittrell. Referee: Hicks; Scorekeeper, Nesbit; Timekeeper, Rose.

The Greenville Girls' team proved their versatility by again beating the Wilson team with a score of 43-25, playing the center tip style of ball. The Greenville girls have not played this way since last year, using instead the conference method of throwing the ball in from out-of-bounds.

Askev was the high scorer for Greenville, making 23 points. While Stewart of Wilson made ten points. Respass was credited with twelve points and Jones made four. Robson, one of the star guards, surprised all by making four points, when run in as a forward. Briley Hearne and Overton did their usual excellent work at the guarding position. During the last few minutes of the game, Rosers, Kast, Phelps, Horne and Whitehurst were given a change to prove that the Greenville reserve strength is exceptionally strong. Friday night the girls play their next conference game with New Bern, and expect a hard fought battle. New Bern has only been defeated once at that time by Washington.

Efforts Underway to Organize New Baseball Circuit

Charlotte, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Out of rumors that the South Atlantic Baseball League may not operate this season today came the report that efforts are being made to launch a new circuit with one of the Sally clubs as a member.

B. J. Spiller, one of the owners of the Atlanta baseball club, yesterday wired Judge W. G. Braham, of Durham, president of the Sally and Piedmont leagues, if he would consider the presidency of a proposed new six-club Alabama Georgia and Florida loop.

Spiller said Representatives from Macon, Columbus, and Albany, Ga. Selma and Montgomery, Ala. and Jacksonville, Fla. had been invited to confer over the possibilities of organizing the new league.

Macon is a Sally member and Selma has indicated to desire to take over the berth of Columbia, S. C. has forfeited as the Sally. Judge Braham announced he expected to reply to Spiller some time today.

BLUE DEVILS CHAMPIONS CAGE KINGDOM

By PAUL SIMMONS
Charlotte, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The Duke Blue Devils, who licked every team in the loop except N. C. State, are the 1931 Big Five basketball champions.

Winding up their Big Five schedule in whirlwind fashion, the Blue Devils smothered Davidson, 31 to 17, here last night to put the title on ice with six victories and two defeats. It is their second cage championship in as many years.

By an irony of fate the new champions were beaten twice by N. C. State, the runner-up, the first time 24 to 19 and again 26 to 23. The Terrors, however, dropped games to Davidson, North Carolina and Wake Forest teams beaten twice each by Duke, and wound-up the season last week with five wins and three reverses to clinch second place.

The Dukemen had things pretty much their own way last night against the Wildcats. Davidson was unable successfully to penetrate the Duke five-man defense, while the Devils, with Big Joe Croson in the van, kept dropping the ball into the basket.

Croson registered 12 points, while the best Martin, Davidson's high scorer, could do was five.

With first and second places in the championship chase sewed up the battle for third-place honor will be renewed tomorrow night when the Wake Forest Diablos meet North Carolina. The Tar Heels can hope for nothing better than fourth place, but if the Diablos win tomorrow and down Davidson Monday they will gain a tie with the Wildcats for third place. The Diablos, tutored by Roy Hays, have been picking up strength recently.

The North Carolina Wake-Forest matches will write final to the 1931 Big Five season.

Although the Tar Heels fared poorly in the basketball battle, they have covered themselves with glory in another field—boxing—a sport that is gaining favor by leaps and bounds in Dixie collegiate circles.

Unbaten this season, the Chapel Hill pugilists smashed out a 4 to 3 victory over Duke last night at Durham. The score was tied until John Warrin, Tar Heel heavy, battered a decision from Cecil Rankin.

Having licked several strong teams this season, the Tar Heels are now listed in the top ranks of the outfits that will compete in the southern conference tourney at Virginia late this month.

Traveling right along with their boxing brothers, Tar Heel wrestlers last night took a 29 to 3 victory from N. C. State at Chapel Hill. They scored four falls and followed the Waldpuck allowing only one decision in eight contests.

Turning again to basketball—The High Point Purple Panthers trounced Lenoir-Rhyne, 44 to 36, in a 11.5 seven match last night at Hickory. They will meet Appalachian conference runner-up, tonight at Berea in the only collegiate sports event billed for the night in the state.

JACK DEMPSEY LIKES HIS JOB AS REFEREE

By Edward J. Neil
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Can you imagine Jack Dempsey running away in a panic because a 135-pounder dared him to put up his fists and fight like a man? It has happened.

The Old Man Mauler would tackle anything that ever lived inside the ropes of a prize ring but was pugnacious out in public and you'll just part of your audience abruptly. Juries in damage suits have ways of sympathizing with the amateur warrior.

"Dunks," he says, "are the worst. They think they can lick the world. I've run away from more fights outside the ring than I ever had in them."

Dempsey probably won't fight again because no one has asked him to. His comeback "feelers" haven't excited anyone to make him an offer. He'd rather keep on referring but he is subject to financial temptation. One thing he has sworn never to do is manage a fighter. They gave him Leo Lomski once and he gave Leo right back.

He is one of the greatest hosts in sport. One party at his $250,000 home in Hollywood cost $20,000. He lives to talk about the swimming pool that cost $25,000 and the 400 persons who can dance in the ball room at one time. He hates to be alone.

Stelle Taylor always wears his orchids or gardenias when they're together. He's crazy about youngsters. His greatest disappointment is that he has none of his own. When he took the bandages off his remodeled nose his wife gasped "gingerbread" and she has called him that every since.

the grandest thing that ever happened. He's an expert on antique furniture but is so restless that he can't sit still long enough to read a book through. He shaves three times a day in the summer but his voice squeaks. He smokes a cigar as though he was afraid it would explode.

One of his greatest delights is to raid a haberdashery. He wears only blue, double-breasted suits but he buys shirts, ties, and socks and underwear by the dozens. If he has a friend with him he buys the guest a hat, nothing else.

When wandering around the country Dempsey carries a pocketful of cash and hard luck story is worth ten or twenty.

Health Officer, Oakland, California

...one of 56 health officials from 56 different points approving Cremo's crusade against spit or spit-tipping.

Every smoker, every wife whose husband smokes cigars, should read Dr. Emerson's letter.

"Who are the friends of 'Spit'?"

YOU MAY WELL ASK THIS QUESTION WHEN 56 IMPORTANT HEALTH OFFICIALS HAVE WRITTEN SO STRONGLY AGAINST THE EVILS OF SPIT OR SPIT-TIPPING.

Dr. Emerson writes: "Any... campaign... against the use of human sputum... protects public health."

The war against spit is a crusade of decency. Join it... Smoke Certified Cremo—a really wonderful smoke—mild—mellow—nut-sweet! Every leaf entering the clean, sunny Cremo factories is scientifically treated by methods recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Gentlemen:
What is wrong with the word "spit"? We have been spitting for years and will probably continue to spit for many years to come. It is the uncontrollable or indiscriminate spitting that does the harm, as it contains so many communicable germs.
Any type of campaign or advertising against the use of human sputum is endorsed by this Department, because it protects public health.

Very truly yours,

COTTON MARKET

N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 5 to 8 points with the active months selling 8 to 10 points net higher on the initial buying which was stimulated by relatively firm cables and an advance in the market for Indian cotton at Bombay.

The buying was supposed to include a further demand from the far-east, partly for Japanese account and there was Liverpool buying here, presumably to fix prices. May sold up to 11.34 and October to 11.86 and the market was within a point or two of these figures at the end of the first half hour. More encouraging reports as to prospects for a settlement of disputes in India were considered partly responsible for the firm ruling of the market both here and in Liverpool.

Liverpool cables said that hedging there had been absorbed by covering and Bombay buying and reported fair sales of cotton cloths for shipment to India with an improve turnover in Egyptian yarn.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Selling of wheat into store here for delivery on futures contracts did a good deal to force grains lower today. The Washington weekly crop summary, too, was construed as bearish. Export demand for wheat from North America was meager.

Wheat closed regular, 1-4 cent lower to a shade up, corn 1-4-5-8c down, oats at a shade decline to 3-8 gain, and provisions 2 cents to 20 cents off.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The stock market was refreshed by the mildly cheerful tenor of the mid-week business statistics today, and quietly recovered the ground lost in yesterday's sharp setback.

Trading was rather active in the first hour but was on a diminishing scale as the session wore on. Prices worked steadily higher. Bulls appeared a little subdued by yesterday's setback, but they were not discouraged, utilities, particularly the electric bond and share issues, motor and accessory issues, foods and copper, displayed group strength.

American Can was a leader, advancing 4 points to a new high for 1931. Other issues rising about 4 or 5 points included J. I. Case, Allied Chemical, Eastman, American Water Works, Columbian Carbon, Stone and Webster and General Asphalt.

Shares up 2 points or more include U. S. Steel, American Rolling Mill, General Electric, National Power and Light, Electric Power and Light, American and Foreign Power, Consolidated Gas, Westinghouse Electric, Studebaker, Briggs, Continental Can, National Biscuit and General Foods. Kennebec and Anaconda sold up more than a point each.

The improvement in the motor and related issues reflected reports of further quickening of activity by automobile producers, resulting in rush orders for steel products. Although Chrysler's annual report showed a deficit of more than $10,000,000 after payment of dividends, the stock was firm.

The steel trade reviews agreed that aggregate output production was a little higher for the eighth consecutive week.

Money was a little easier. Call loans were officially at 11-2 per cent, but outside funds were offered at concessions.

WHITE QUITS N. Y. CHURCH

Resignation Follows Activities in Behalf of Companionate Marriage Advocacy

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The resignation of the Rev. Elliott White from the staff of Grace Episcopal church because of his militant advocacy of companionate marriage stirred the ecclesiastical world today.

The Rev. Dr. W. Russell Bowie, rector of the church, one of the most fashionable in the city, issued a statement saying that Mr. White's resignation had been accepted and that his name had been removed from the church calendar.

"Grace Church, in view of its exceptionally high standard for marriages which take place in the parish," he said, "is definitely unwilling that the name of the parish should be linked with the idea of so-called companionate marriage in any way that confuses these positive standards."

Mr. White's controversy with his superiors is a sequel to the recent activity of Ben Lindsey, advocate of companionate marriage. As chairman of the speakers' committee, Mr. White invited Lindsey to address the New York Churchmen's association. When Bishop William T. Manning protested White led the members in a movement to override the Bishop and Lindsey spoke.

Several days ago White publicly called on the Bishop to appoint an ecclesiastical commission to weigh his companionate marriage views and accord him a church trial if deemed necessary. The Bishop ignored his demand.

White has been connected intermittently with Grace church for 36 years. He was on the full staff from 1919 to 1929 and then on the auxiliary staff.

Mrs. Longworth Observes Silver Wedding Date

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Daring as always, Alice Roosevelt Longworth turned back the clock a quarter century last night, to appear at her silver wedding party in the bulging pompadour of 1906 and a costume from the trousseau.

The slender, youthful looking "Princess Alice" required of the guests invited to dinner at the Longworth home that they too wear gowns of the same era. If they had no ball gowns left they were commanded to appear in shirtwaists, skirts and sailor hats, so that inside the home everything recalled the February 17 when at the White House President Roosevelt gave away his daughter to young "Nick" who now shines as the sartorially perfect speaker of the House of Representatives.

Alice did not attempt appearing in her wedding gown and veil, substituting a gown of gold satin. The pompadour was topped with a glittering diadem tiara of the same period, she wore too the necklace of matched diamonds which was the groom's gift, and the bracelet sent by the Emperor of Germany as a wedding gift.

The quarter of a century had brought its changes to her guests and while many among them could recall her as she appeared at the wedding, only a few were there who took part in that event.

Potlikker Dispute Continues Unabated

Atlanta, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The Constitution today still stood as "firm as Horatius" in its demand that cornpone be crumbled and not dunked in potlikker, but Huey P. Long, Louisiana's governor, senator-elect, and doctor of laws, declared to retreat an ell from his vigorous crusading for the dunking technique.

Meanwhile governors of the southern states and other eminent authorities on potlikker consumption rallied around their respective banners or maintained a diplomatic middle ground. Governor Henry P. Horton of Tennessee, said he crumbled his cornpone, but had no prejudice against those who dunked it.

Over in Lorg's neighboring state of Texas, Governor Ross S. Sterling said either dunking or crumbling was good etiquette in great open spaces, but he took violent issue with the spelling of potlikker. Constitutionally, he said, it should be written "Potlikker." He also congratulated both parties on arguing over "potlikker" rather than "some other kind of liquor."

The battle between Long and the Constitution started when the newspaper questioned the governor's manners in dunking his cornpone while introducing potlikker to some visiting northerners.

Y. M. C. A. Discusses the Proposed Merger

Charlotte, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The proposed merger of North Carolina and South Carolina Young Men's Christian Associations came before the North Carolina association today at its convention here.

Approval by the North Carolina organization was all that was needed to bring about the consolidation, the proposal already having been sanctioned by the South Carolina association.

General Berenguer also is not well and it was considered doubtful that he would be able to participate actively in the new government.

Admiral Anzar occupies the high post in the Spanish navy. He was born September 12, 1870, and entered the naval school at San Fernando when he was only fourteen years old. He saw war service in Cuba and the Philippines and also commanded parts of the fleet in the Melilla campaigns.

He was minister of the navy when General Primo de Rivera brought about the fall of the Alcala government in September 1923. He showed a desire then to oppose the dictatorship but the government refused his offer of military support in an effort to avert civil war.

He is personally popular and has been decorated with the Order of Military Merit and, recently, the Order of the Golden Fleece, the highest honor the King can bestow.

DIVORCE BILL RECEIVES APPROVAL OF THE LOWER HOUSE OF LEGISLATURE

(Continued from Page One) second reading but an objection of Senator Umstead of Orange, was carried over until tomorrow and the Senate adjourned until noon.

In committee this morning the House roads group continued consideration of the administration bill without reaching a final agreement; the McRae 13th juror bill got a favorable report in Senate Judiciary circles and the upper house welfare body heard arguments for and against the "newsboys" bill.

The House ran into debate when it took up the Burgin bill relating to investment by clerks of Superior court of funds left in trust with them.

A long parliamentary wrangle over an amendment to exclude Ashe county from the Burgin bill was ended when Speaker Smith cast his vote "No" to break a 49-49 tie and kill the amendment.

The bill finally passed with amendments by Representative Jeffress of Guilford, to make it lawful for clerks to put sums up to $300 left in trust with them in trust companies and to provide that county auditors shall inspect clerks' records to see that the law is complied with. The measure provides that all other trust funds must be secured by indemnity or governmental bonds.

The House adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock tonight.

The House passed the following bills:
 HB 451—MacLean of Beaufort, relating to witness fees in Beaufort county.
 HB 481—McBee of Mitchell, relating to inoculation of dogs in Mitchell.
 SB 172—Bennett of Swain, to repeal the act creating the Andrews Power & Light Commission.
