Chairman Parker Advocates Law for Jurisdiction Over Holding Companies

Washington, Feb. 20. (AP) - Prompt enactment of a law to place railroad holding companies under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission was advocated to the House today by Chairman Parker...

The recommendation was made in a speech in connection with the submission of an exhaustive report by the committee investigation begun a year ago at the instance of the commission...

Parker proposed an amendment to the interstate commerce act suggesting that when it is passed "it should be made very clear that it does not give immunity to any company which before the effective date of the amendment had acquired control of some railroad in violation of an existing statute."

The commission had urged the inquiry with a view to determining what legislation was necessary to bring about supervision of the railroads which have undergone many changes in control through holding company mergers in the past ten years.

The report, compiled under the direction of Dr. W. M. W. Spawm, former president of Texas University, constitutes the most elaborate study ever conducted into the railroads by a congressional committee.

Dr. Spawm submitted three recommendations. The first was a proposed amendment to the interstate commerce act to bring within the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission for approval or disapproval any acquisition of the control of a railroad which would result in bringing that road into affiliation with, in control of, or under the management of another railroad...

The second was that at the next session, the interstate commerce committee "shall give consideration to whether or not legislation is necessary to deal with any past acquisitions of railway properties such as are disclosed in this report, and which have not had the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission as being in the public interest."

The third would broaden the scope of the investigation authorized by the House to include all holding companies engaged in interstate commerce. Spawm found that the use of the holding company had been more varied in other fields and suggested the continued investigation because holding companies were not confined to railroads in interstate transportation.

The report shows interlocking directorates of different railroads, and also points out that many prominent financiers bankers insurance men and other men in various business fields are large stockholders in the railroads.

Parker said the report revealed that 30,000 miles of railroads were controlled by the Van Sweringen brothers of Cleveland.

Europe In Grip of Hard Winter

London, Feb. 20. (AP) - High winds with accompanying rain, sleet and snow, lashed a large part of Europe today, disrupting traffic and in many places hampering communications.

A heavy choking fog which spread over England cleared today and residents of the southern counties were comparatively comfortable, but Spain, France, Belgium, northern Italy, Germany and Scandinavia were hard hit.

High seas caused a number of shipping accidents. The Mauretania ran aground off Southampton and was refloated. The 1,486-ton German freighter, Anis, Hugo Stinnes VI, sprung a leak 20 miles west of Borkum Lightship, near Esbjerg, Denmark, and the crew was believed to have had to take to the boats.

The British steamer Cheldale and the Danish ship Fionia collided in the Elbe Estuary and off Jutland. The Cheldale was towed to Cuxhaven, badly damaged. The Fionia was only slightly damaged.

Communications from northern Spain were made almost impossible by heavy snowdrifts. Mrs. Victor Bruce, British aviator, flew through the fog across the English Channel from Havre, France, to Lympe Airdrome, England, completing a world tour by airplane and steamer.

Discussion Of Finances Holds Sw. In Senate As How to Consider School

Local Body Goes Into Matter of Setting Up Machinery for State-Supported School Term; Whedbee Bill Debated

Raleigh, Feb. 20. (AP) - County and local finances occupied the attention of the State Senate today with the committee local finance bill a special order while the lower division of the General Assembly was slow in starting its work and did not reach its public calendar until almost 1:30.

The House got the same bill to set up machinery for a six-months state-supported school term that was introduced in the Senate yesterday when Representative Johnson of Ashe set it in.

The measure provides an equalization fund of $19,500,000 and respects the present system of dual control of the schools by the state and county board of education. Little committee activity was done today with the Senate receiving a favorable report on a drivers' license bill which includes provisions for an increased highway patrol.

This afternoon one of the most important committee hearings thus far will be held when the joint finance committee listens to arguments pro and con on the many proposals to tax power companies which have been introduced in the two Houses.

LECTURES ON ETERNAL LIFE

Miss Taylor Declares Life In Christ Filled With Eternal Peace and Joy

Miss Angy Manning Taylor, speaking to the large crowd that has come daily to hear her lectures on the Bible at St. Paul's Episcopal church, yesterday said that there is as much difference between a person who now has eternal life and one who has it not as the difference between a living person and a piece of stone. One who has eternal life in Christ Jesus, she declared is living a life of peace, joy, and power.

Then she took up the question "How can I enter into eternal life?"

To this question Miss Taylor replied that because Christ once suffered on the Cross for sin, because He the just one suffered for the unjust, we might have eternal life as a Free Gift from God.

The Wages of Sin is death, Miss Taylor reminded her hearers. Jesus had to wage to pay for himself. But he took on himself on Calvary the wages of all sinners. When on the cross Jesus exclaimed "It is finished!" This meant, Miss Taylor said, that He had made atonement for the whole world and he could therefore give eternal life as a free gift from God to all who would receive it.

Miss Taylor dwelt then on the fact that each one of us must receive this gift for ourselves or this eternal life that Christ desires to give us can never be ours. In speaking why some do not receive the free gift she said there were several reasons. Some will not believe it.

Others she said, will not receive it because they are afraid of what it will involve in their lives. And as a consequence they continue to live lives of weakness when all the time God is anxious to pour peace and power and strength into their lives.

Miss Taylor will make her last lecture at St. Paul's church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

DR. TUCKER TO HOLD REVIVAL IN THIS CITY

Raleigh Minister Will Conduct Services at Memorial Baptist Church in April

Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of Raleigh, pastor of the First Baptist church, will conduct a series of revival services in the Memorial Baptist church here beginning April 6, and continuing through the 16, it was announced this morning by Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of the local congregation.

Although arrangements had not been completed for the song service, Mr. Fleischmann said an effort was under way at this time to obtain the services of a noted song leader and that some definite announcement in this connection would be made in the near future.

The coming of Dr. Tucker to Greenville is expected to attract considerable attention from all sections of the county, and opinion has been expressed that the church would be packed to capacity at each service. Present plans, Mr. Fleischmann said, call for two services daily, one in the morning and the other at night.

Dr. Tucker is known by numbers of people in this community, some of whom were associated with his father, who many years ago was pastor of the Memorial Baptist church. Dr. Tucker was born in Greenville, but the family moved to another section of the state while he was a baby.

Dr. Tucker delivered the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class of Greenville High School last year, and his message was declared by many to have been one of the most masterful and timely heard here in years.

Mr. Fleischmann said the church hoped to make the series of services a spiritual revival for the entire city, and the public generally will be extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Committed Theft To Get In Jail

Gastonia, Feb. 20. (AP) - Frank Collins said he was tired of being among the unemployed. He stole a bar of soap right under the eyes of a drugist, who called a cop but didn't want to prosecute.

"Aw, please Mister," said Collins, "have a heart. I just picked up that soap so I could get in jail, be sentenced to the gang and have a job."

The officer was obliging, but Frank will not get his road sentence without the judge deviates from general custom, the police detesting the soap-theft too trivial.

"Now I wish I had done something in his cell."

PRINCE OPPRESSED BY MOUNTAIN AIR

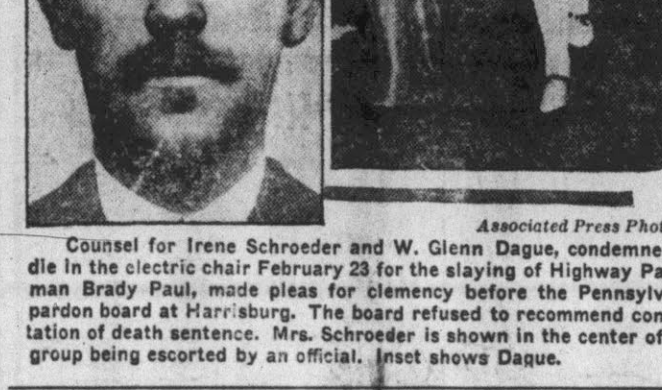

La Paz, Bolivia, Feb. 20. (AP) - The Prince of Wales, oppressed by the high altitude of this mountain capital, hurried back today across the Andes to Atafogasta, Chile, after spending just seven and one-half hours in La Paz.

Both he and Prince George, although commenting that the trip from Cuzco, with its delightful scenery and across Lake Titicaca had greatly impressed them, were obviously tired and oppressed by the rarified atmosphere here.

CONDEMNED PAIR LOSES PLEA

Counsel for Irene Schroeder and W. Glenn Dague, condemned to die in the electric chair February 23 for the slaying of Highway Patrolman Brady Paul, made pleas for clemency before the Pennsylvania pardon board at Harrisburg. The board refused to recommend commutation of death sentence. Mrs. Schroeder is shown in the center of the group being escorted by an official. Inset shows Dague.

Asheville, Feb. 20. (AP) - Eight banks in Western North Carolina, which closed during the financial disturbance last November and December, have reopened under re-organization plans approved by the State Banking Department at Raleigh, it was announced today by G. N. Henson, liquidating agent for the suspended banks in this section.

EIGHT STATE BANKS RE-OPEN IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

Charters have been issued to four new banks, two of which have already opened. The opening of the new bank at Franklin, in Macon county, is being held up to permit the possible reopening of the closed bank at Franklin. Details have not been completed for the opening of the new bank at Brevard, in Transylvania county, although a charter was granted several weeks ago. The new banks at Hendersonville and at Tryon, in Polk county, report encouraging business. The Hendersonville Bank opened in December and the Tryon Bank last January.

The following banks which closed in November and December have reopened:

- Bank of French Broad at Marshall in Madison county.
- Swannanoa Bank and Trust Co. at Swannanoa, in Buncombe county.
- Bank of Clyde, at Clyde, in Haywood county.
- Bank of Fletcher, at Fletcher in Henderson county.
- Citizens Bank of Yancey County at Burrsville in Yancey county.
- Bank of Mars Hill at Mars Hill, in Madison county.
- Citizens Bank at Bryson City, in Swain county.
- Clay County Bank at Hayesville in Clay county.

Mr. Henson received word this morning that the depositors committee of the closed Bank of Murphy, in Cherokee county, had met all the requirements of the State Banking Department. Mr. Henson will send one of his assistants to Murphy tomorrow to check the activities of this committee and in event it is found satisfactory, permission will be granted for the bank to re-open. It is possible this bank will be able to re-open sometime next week.

Depositors committees for the closed Bank of West Asheville, the Farmers and Traders Bank at Weaverville, Bank of Franklin, Bank of Leicester and Citizens Bank & Trust Company at Waynesville are engaged in the tasks which they hope will lead to the re-opening of their institutions.

At a meeting in Leicester last night, the depositors committee announced that it had been able to secure the signatures of approximately two-thirds of the depositors. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at which time the committee hopes it will be able to make a favorable report.

Congress Slows Down As It Waits To Hear From President On Loan Bill

THOMPSON IS IN MIDDLE OF BITTER FIGHT

Mayor of Chicago Waging Most Virulent Battle of Career For Re-election

Chicago, Feb. 20. (AP) - William Hale Thompson - "Big Bill Thompson" to Chicago - flailing his way through the campaign for the nomination as the Republican candidate for mayor, is fighting one of the most bitter and virulent battles of his long and colorful career.

Rounding out his 62nd year, an even dozen of them as mayor of Chicago; stricken more than once by prophets from the political lists because of illness and party defections, Thompson has set his cowboy hat at a warlike angle and emerged again with the bluejeans of his battle.

Municipal Judge John H. Lyle and Alderman Arthur F. Albert are opposing the mayor in next Tuesday's primary and the poison darts they have aimed at "Thompsonism" have brought him full tilt into the fray with all the vigor, vituperation and showmanship of his past campaigns.

Making eight and ten speeches a day, sending out thousands of workers and bales of literature, engineering all sorts of stunts, including jass bands and airplane advertising, Thompson is gunning for a fourth term which would give him a longer tenure of office than any other man. What is more important, it would give him the opportunity of welcoming visitors to the 1933 world's fair.

Welcoming and backslapping have been strong points with "Big Bill, the Builder." One of his opponents has gone so far as to say that Thompson's only appearance at the city hall during the present term were to extend the glad hand to visiting heroes. Strangely enough, the "big moments" in Thompson's life as an international news figure came when he pulled in the "welcome" mat.

His fame was only regional until he refused to invite Marshal Joffre to Chicago during the world war. This brought down charges of "traitor" and showers of press clippings on his head.

Then in 1927 he not only refused to invite King George to Chicago, but he promised to "bust him in the snoot" if he did come. Of course, the British monarch had no intention of coming. It was merely Thompson's dramatic way of emphasizing his campaign issue - that of eliminating a "pro-British influence" which he said permeated Chicago schools.

This dramatic manner has marked Thompson's political life right from the start. His very reason for first running for office was out of the ordinary. A group of companions 30 years ago offered to wager that he could not be elected alderman and young Thompson, wealthy and always a sportsman, said: "You're on!"

From the first, Thompson frankly made his appeal to "the masses." He found illustration a valuable adjunct to his bombastic style of address. It was never very hard to figure out what "Big Bill" was trying to say.

A mule and a burro now take the place occupied by two white rats to represent Thompson's opponents, and the old life and drum corps of 1915 has been replaced by mobile talking movie machines, but today's campaign is as much a product of history as of modernism. To understand the background, as well as to watch the methods, the observer need only to watch a Thompson campaign "rally."

Woman Aviator Completes Trip Around World

Croydon, Eng., Feb. 20. (AP) - Mrs. Victor Bruce, British woman aviator, came down here in her Blue Bird plane from Lympe Airdrome this afternoon, completing a trip around the world by sea and air. Frederick Montagu, under-secretary of state for air, and a group of other notables were here to meet her.

Her husband and son also were at the field and she with Mrs. Bruce while she talked to newspaper men.

DECLINE TO FIRE WOMAN

Y. M. C. A. Sticks to Ida Ball Warren, a Former Inmate of State's Prison

Raleigh, Feb. 20. (AP) - Mrs. Ida Ball Warren, Forsyth county woman recently paroled from state's prison, is now employed in the Raleigh Y. M. C. A. and will likely remain there despite criticism and opposition from certain sources.

Mrs. Warren, the only woman ever to be sentenced to electric chair in North Carolina, was given a death sentence in 1915 along with Sam Christy for the murder of her husband. The sentence was commuted to life imprisonment and after serving 15 years with a spotless prison record, she was paroled. About the first of the year she was employed at the Y. M. C. A.

As a consequence, a movement was launched to eject Mrs. Warren from her position, on the grounds that her presence in the Y. W. C. A. at night caused the girls residing there to be uneasy.

"We have no apologies to make, nothing to regret or to retract," Mrs. T. P. Harrison, acting president, said today in discussing the action of the Y. W. C. A. Board in employing Mrs. Warren and in voting unanimously recently to stand by the original decision.

Mrs. Warren, according to Mrs. Harrison, has been employed as a sort of housekeeper and many of the girls in the building have expressed the desire to see her continue in the position. There has been a modesty, dignity and serenity about her bearing, Mrs. Harrison said, which has made its impression on all who have come in touch with her and watched her work.

Two Film People Fined On Charge House Wrecking

Los Angeles, Feb. 20. (AP) - Colleen Moore has given up her Dutch hair bob, and she and her former husband, John E. McCormick, film director, must pay $100 damages to J. W. Mykrantz, building contractor.

The two incidents developed simultaneously as Miss Moore appeared in Superior court yesterday as defendant in a $10,000 "house wrecking" suit. Her hair was waved softly across her brow and peeped in other waves from beneath a black straw turban.

Mykrantz charged that when the film couple moved from a house he owned fixtures were removed, window canopies ripped down, rose bushes uprooted, a garage and dog house taken, and gold fish "abducted" from the garden pool.

Miss Moore testified the dog house and garage were portable structures which she bought and placed in the yard. She said Mykrantz agreed to trade the rose bushes for Venetian blinds she owned. She laughed as she denied they had hired persons, as Mykrantz charged, to "wreck the place."

Veterans Relief Measure Sent to the Chief Executive at Noon Hour Following Signatures by Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Longworth; Veto Expected By Leading Members Within Next Forty-eight Hours

Washington, Feb. 20. (AP) - Congress sent the veterans' loan relief bill to the White House today.

Its advocates in the Senate promptly began to slow up consideration of the appropriation bills awaiting action on it by President Hoover.

While a prompt veto from the President was expected, fears were entertained in some Senate quarters that a pocket veto might be administered by the President thus preventing an opportunity for a vote to over-ride it.

Senators Couzens, Republican of Michigan, demanded in the Senate today the formal reading of the naval appropriation bill be adhered to when that measure was brought up. The Senate practically always dispenses with formal reading of the voluminous measures.

It was Couzens who expressed the fear in the Senate during debate on the veterans' loan measure that Mr. Hoover might administer a pocket veto to the legislation to advance loans up to 50 per cent of the face value of the veterans' certificates.

Assurances reached the capitol from downtown that the President intended to veto the legislation within 48 hours after receiving it. However, its advocates apparently were taking no chances. The naval supply bill is the last of the nine regular appropriation measures which must be passed before the March 4 adjournment to avoid an extra session.

More than sufficient votes to override the prospective presidential veto are in sight in Congress on the veterans' measure.

If the pending measure is made law the 3,400,000 ex-service men holding adjusted compensation certificates will be able to borrow from the government an average of $500 each at 4-1/2 per cent interest. That is about half the face value of most of the certificates.

If the loan bill becomes law veterans would be able to start borrowing half of their compensation certificate's value the day after. Veterans Bureau officials said so today, in revealing they had laid tentative plans for carrying out the provision of the bill when it is enacted formally as a law.

Administrator Hines declared the chief problem was one of enlarging personnel as the machinery for making the loans the majority of which would be made through the 52 regional offices, already was functioning well.

The finance division of the Veterans' Bureau reported between $25,000,000 and $35,000,000 on hand to start lending and said the first loans could be on their way the first day after the bill is signed.

Orders have been dispatched to regional offices to prepare for the task as part of the general policy of the Veterans' Bureau of keeping pace of legislation while it is pending in Congress.

Mrs. Eugene Dupont Victim Gas Fumes

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 20. (AP) - Police said today they were satisfied the death of Mrs. Eugene K. Dupont, 45, wife of a director of the DuPont Company, was due to monoxide gas generated by her automobile.

Mrs. Dupont, who was deeply interested in art, was found dead last night in her studio at the DuPont estate in Greenville, near here, by her husband. She had run her car in the garage, above which the studio is situated, but had neglected to shut off the motor. She was engaged in painting a chair when she was overcome.

Mr. Dupont was almost overcome when he opened the garage door. Going to the studio, which also was filled with the fumes, he found his wife's body on the floor. Physicians said she had been dead about two hours.

Mrs. Dupont had planned to leave for Lake Placid, N. Y., tomorrow. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Moxham and was born in Bullet county, Ky. Her maiden name was Kate Dulwe Moxham. Her daughter, Miss Deo DuPont, was recently married to George Weymouth.

As the Skirts Go, So Goes the Market

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 20.—(AP)—As the skirts go, so goes the market. If you want to know the economic trend of the times take a look at the clothes the women are wearing. Professor Baker Brownell, head of the department of contemporary thought at Northwestern University presented thoughts along this line to his classes yesterday and asked the students to do some thinking on the subject.

"It has been observed," the professor said, "that fashions in women's clothes are closely related to economic trends. Specifically, when skirts grow longer an economic depression is approaching. And, conversely, when skirts grow shorter, better times are coming."

"You will all remember that in the early part of 1929 when the boom was at its height, skirts were extremely short, you may also remember that in the fall of that year the long skirt vogue was started and that the crash in the stock market came immediately afterward."

Spalding Pleases All Hearers.

Albert Spalding says that he goes to a concert to enjoy it and those who go to hear him play say they find in his playing so vital, so full of beauty and power, that they get enjoyment from his playing.

He further says the average man has thought music something to be frightened of. He ran away from it, but when forcibly brought in contact with it he found he enjoyed it. Press reports from every quarter of the globe testify to the power that Spalding has of getting into the heart of his audiences. The Kansas City Star not long ago had an excellent editorial written by William Allen White. From Rome, Italy, comes the following: "Albert Spalding has the great power of fascinating all who listen to him, because it seems that he expresses with his violin in a language sublime and rare, the most exquisite sensation of his great artist's soul."

In commenting on the great increase of men in his audiences and what music in the schools and colleges have done for people, he says that while not many of these become great musicians, they do make up the audiences of people who appreciate music, and it is one of the little escapes from drab surroundings that has opened up new avenues of enjoyment to them.

There are several people in Greenville who have heard him play and not one of these who has mentioned it would think of missing the opportunity of hearing him again. One said: "Every time I hear him, I want to hear him that much more."

On Thursday evening of next week the people of this community will have the opportunity of hearing this great artist at East Carolina Teachers College.

Miss Smith Entertains.

Miss Mary Lea Smith entertained at a charming bridge party Wednesday night at her residence, the college infirmary. The lower floor of the infirmary was artistically decorated with pot plants and cut flowers. The Valentine idea was carried out.

After a number of progressions it was found that Miss Carolyn Fullilove and Mr. Dink James tied for high score, and low score went to Dr. A. M. Schultz. Table prizes were won by Miss Ella Sockwell, Miss Dixie Taylor and Dr. A. M. Schultz.

Those playing were Misses Dixie Taylor, Carolyn and Agnes Fullilove, Ella Sockwell, Willard Whichard and Mrs. Betty Rogers; Messrs. J. J. Anderson of Wilson, Dink James, Burke Stancil, Roy Coburn, Dr. A. M. Schultz and Dr. J. M. Barrett.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Watch Used In Byrd Expedition On Display Here

One of the Hamilton watches used by the Byrd Expedition at the South Pole went on display today at the store of W. L. Best, Evans street jeweler. The watch will remain on display several days and during that time the public is given a cordial invitation to inspect it.

The timepiece is set in a nickel case and this was enclosed in an iron case to enable it to stand the supreme test of the Antarctic temperatures during the long stay of Commander Byrd and his crew at the "bottom of the world."

The watch has a 21-jewel movement with radium dial. It is open-faced and size No. 16. It was used by Jacob Busey, seaman and dog driver.

The watch was sent to Greenville by the Hamilton Watch Company to use for display purposes. Commander Byrd at the end of the expedition praised the Hamilton watches for the splendid service which they rendered when actual time was an absolute requisite to the success of the trip.

COLORED FIRE FIGHTERS GIVE OYSTER ROAST

Entertain City Officials and White Firemen at Oyster Boat Landing

The "Rough and Ready Fire Department," composed of members of the colored population, entertained city officials and members of the white fire department at an oyster roast at the old oyster boat landing on Tar river last night.

It was the first time the department had ever entertained at an occasion of the kind and they left no stone unturned in an effort to make the evening a pleasant one for their many guests.

Although most of the time was confined to consumption of oysters the firemen heard Mayor J. C. Lanier tell them that the city fully appreciated the services they had rendered in behalf of public life and property.

The mayor told his hearers that the colored firemen could always be depended on to come through whenever needed and that they had played an important part in combating fires in past years. He urged them to be ever on the alert to render even a higher type of service and to rest assured that the city was not unmindful of what they are doing to cheat the Fire Demon of the staggering loss which he has claimed from year to year.

The Rough and Ready Fire Department" is directed by Ferd Barnhill, one of the city's pioneer firemen. There are twelve members in the company, all volunteers and whenever there is a blaze of any note, the "Rough and Ready" lads can be counted on to do their part.

SMITH CASE NON-SUITED

Dr. Joseph Dixon Obtains Judgment for $75 On Account For Professional Service

A motion for non-suit was sustained in the case of J. W. Smith of Swift Creek township, against the Nash Motor Company, in the civil term of Pitt County Superior court yesterday.

Smith was suing the motor concern for $2,900 as damages for injuries which he was alleged to have sustained as result of a wreck while riding in one of the cars manufactured by the Nash company. He said the wreck was the outgrowth of faulty construction of the automobile, but failed to produce enough evidence to justify sending the case to the jury. Hearing began Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Joseph Dixon obtained judgment for $75 against Jordan Nobles, as payment of an account for professional services.

Lily Pons Has Busy Existence

you think it would be fun to be a metropolitan grand opera star, listen to this:

Lily Pons, coloratura soprano discovery of the season and the metropolitan's most recent sensation, has the happiest, most carefree minutes of her day when she tends her canary.

Once that little chere is done she's into the routine of the day's work—rehearsals, rest, another rehearsal and more rest. She studies every day.

On the first of March the 29-year-old French songstress starts on a concert tour of eastern cities including Baltimore, Boston, Pittsburgh and Toronto. Her season with the metropolitan terminates May 4. In May she is to sing at festivals at Chicago and Ann Arbor, Mich.

On May 22 she leaves for two months at Buenos Aires with the Colon opera. August and September she will spend in France, part of the time in Paris and the rest at Cannes, her home, but all of it singing, practicing and studying. Success had made demands on the strength of the slender young soprano. Since her debut on January 3 at the Metropolitan she has

Her easy performances lead people to believe that she sings without nerves or stage fright, but those close to her say Lily Pons suffers so from fright before she goes onto the stage that she is frequently subject to nausea.

In spite of fatigue Lily has made some phonograph records and intends to make two more before she leaves for South America. She also is rehearsing an extensive repertoire for her concert.

She and her husband are living in the apartment of the Zenatello singers who discovered her and brought her to the attention of the Metropolitan directors.

Next year when she returns from France, Lily expects to have her own apartment. She intends it shall be a modern American-planned home.

A Store Is Known By Its Customers
Who shops there?
Answer that question about any store and you establish the position of that store in the community.
Today, as always, the representative women of the city instinctively turn to this store to satisfy their needs and gratify their tastes.
People whose cultural background is expressed in their clothes and their homes do not shop anywhere and everywhere. It is not that they are careless of what they pay but that they are careful of what they get. They prefer an investment in satisfaction to an adventure in disappointment—which is the spirit of true economy.
The store that attracts and holds the patronage of this intelligent, discriminating element is, obviously, the logical store for every shopper.
And remember—it costs no more to shop in good company!

ABOUT TOWN

Not long ago a visitor to Greenville made the remark that his "town was one of the best in the state."
 The assertion was not made in a spirit of bragadocio, but was the expression of an honest opinion by a man who had toiled and slaved in behalf of the development of his town and actually believed it one of the best in the country.

There are hundreds of people who think the same way about Greenville, but who through sheer modesty refrain from expressing an opinion while in some other part of the state.
 And right here is where they make a mistake. If you think your town is one of the "garden spots" of the country, tell other people about it. The expression, though couched in simplest terms, will leave an impression with your hearers, and that impression may reach scores of others.

Think the matter over, and when out of the city talk about your old home town and boost its merits until you feel like your broadcasting has found a vulnerable spot in the minds of those always hunting a good town to make their home.

Pitt county people are getting behind the live-at-home movement in a commendable way. So interested are some of the communities that they have adopted the community dinner plan, featuring all products raised in this immediate part of the state.
 These dinners should have a tendency to increase interest in the movement designed to enable the farmer to live at home all the year around despite fluctuating prices for his money crops. The price situation may hit the very bottom but it will not disconcert the man who raises the things which his family and stock consume. He will be one of those stalwarts to face his banker calmly and unafraid at the end of the harvest season, confident of making settlement and then having enough to carry him through to another planting season.

And that's decidedly more than hundreds of growers have been able to do the past two years.

Britain thinks something of the men who go out into the world to make their marks.
 Showing a nation's appreciation of the new world speed record, King George yesterday made a knight of Captain Campbell, who recently roared across sand dunes at Daytona Beach, Fla., for a new automobile speed mark.
 America is not able to make knights of her heroes, but she has shown them her appreciation through public demonstrations such as no other part of the world has been able to compare.

People who have not paid their city and county taxes could not render a greater service than by doing so now.
 Governments, like business houses, have been hard hit by the depression of the last year, and they need the money to meet their obligations. Greenville and Pitt county are not any more seriously pressed than any other sections probably, but they have their current expenses to care for every month and if the collection of taxes is not what it should be they either have to borrow money to meet the indebtedness or postpone payment.

 The public should be just as anxious to preserve the credit standing of their home town as they are to protect their own, and it is the expressed hope of officials that payment of taxes will pick up the next month or so.

HOLDS SWAY IN SENATE AS HOUSE CONSIDERS SCHOOLS

 more rumblings in the fight to delay action on the administration highway bill, which is set for special order Monday night.
 Senator Whedbe, one of the members of the finance sub-committee which wrote the local finance bill, opened debate on the measure with an explanation of its contents.
 The bill abolishes the present county government advisory commission and state sinking fund body and establishes a "local government commission" in its stead. Under its terms all county, city and district bonds and notes must be sold in Raleigh and must be approved by the commission.

The House got a bill today by Representative Burgin of Davidson to allow payment of income taxes, if the total is more than $100, in four equal installments. The Senate got a bill favoring by the State Federation of Labor to establish a 55 hour week and got two bills relating to examining and licensing of embalmers.

The House refused to allow the Scarborough bill relating to service charges by banks to be taken from its unfavorable calendar and put on the favorable but the Senate reconsidered two bills killed yesterday, the Hinsdale measure relating to special tax districts and the Act of Johnson of Moore to prevent mortgages from cutting timber on mortgaged property, and placed both back on the calendar.

While going through its local calendar the Senate was thrown into turmoil temporarily when Senator Gran, Republican, opposed a measure of Representative Legrand, Democrat of Davie, to abolish the office of county treasurer in Davie. The bill was carried over.

Bills passed by the General Assembly today follow:
 Senate:
 SB 218—Johnson of Moore, relating to the charter of Southern Pines.
 HB 173—Holmes of Pitt, extending the city limits of Farmville.
 SB 171—Bennett of Swain, to protect from domestic fowls in Cherokee county.
 HB 109—Newman and Doshier of New Hanover, to permit payment of taxes by installments in Wilmington and New Hanover county.
 HB 170—Wills of Craven, relating to the borrowing of highway funds in Craven county.
 HB 171—Wills of Craven, to require the Craven sheriff to accept partial tax payments.
 HB 203 Johnson of Caswell, relating to salary funds in Caswell county.
 HB 236—Burgin of Davidson, relating to electric power and light plant in Lexington.
 HB 288—Ewing of Cumberland, to allow partial payment of taxes in Cumberland county.
 HB 296—Norman of Washington, relative to sale of land in Washington drainage district for taxes.
 HB 411—Spence of Moore, relating to registration of plats and maps in Moore county.
 HB 177—Doshier of New Hanover, to provide pension of $25 per month for Mrs. H. MacGoodwin, widow of a detective.
 House:
 HB 298—Huffman of Rowan.

relative to fees of Rowan County officers.
 HB 345—Woodall of Johnson, to fix fees for sheriff of Johnson.
 HB 445—Scarborough, to abolish the fee system in Richmond county.
 HB 369—Morphew of Graham, relating to the game laws in Graham.
 HB 458—Braddy of Bladen, to fix and regulate the salary of school superintendent and health officer in Bladen county.
 HB 480—Johnson of Currituck, fixing the compensation of the Currituck clerk of court.
 HB 490—Johnson of Currituck, relating to wild fowl in Currituck.
 HB 535—Johnson of Ashe, relating to the salary of the Ashe sheriff.
 HB 544—Goffield of Rutherford, relative to tenant and landlord in Rutherford.
 HB 551—McDevitt of Madison, relative to fees of justice of the peace in Madison.

CAGE TEAMS PLAY AWAY FROM HOME

There will be no game here tonight. The girls journey to New Bern to play. New Bern's team is rated to be strong but Greenville's invincible girls are sure to take them into tow. The boys go to Roanoke Rapids where they will undertake to defeat again the Roanoke Rapids team. The Roanoke Rapids team is strong, but the Greenville boys are now at almost the perfection of their playing ability, and they will not be denied. The squad signed a document asking the coach not to take so many on trips, and to accommodate those he did take better. Since the coach wishes to obey the will of the majority of the squad, only ten boys will make the trip, and they are the following: King, Broadhurst, Deal, and Woolard, forwards. Nobles and King can be used at center; and Captain Bullock, Madrin, Winslow, and an undetermined one, guards. The team that starts tonight is sure to be a fighting one and will bring victory and honor to Greenville high school.

The next game in Greenville will be played next Friday night, when the high meet Kinston, whom they have already once defeated. The game will be announced through this organ, and the friends of the school are asked now to turn out in large numbers for a good game, and boost up a much-needed athletic association.

Featherweights to Fight Tonight

New York, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Two leading contenders for the featherweight championship, Eddie Shea of Chicago and Kid Francis of Italy, clash in a ten round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Shea, a rugged warrior with a powerful punch, is an 8 to 5 favorite. He has not fought here since he was knocked out by Charlie (Phil) Rosenberg, then bantamweight champion.

Francis, who has abandoned his chase for the bantamweight title in favor of mingling with the bigger silhouettes, has won five straight bouts since he returned from abroad to open his third American campaign. He is aggressive and experienced, but boasts little power in his punches.

Shea was called in as a substitute for Fidel La Barba when the former flyweight champion was taken ill. La Barba has agreed to meet the winner as soon as he is fully recovered.

DEVILS AGAIN CLAIM HONORS AS CHAMPIONS

Charlotte, Feb. 20.—(AP)—The war is just about over for this season in the Big Five Basketball Conference.

North Carolina's 45 to 25 victory over Wake Forest last night at Raleigh settled the final point regarding the finishing order of the teams. It sank the Demons into undisputed cellar position for the season, gave the Tar Heels fourth place, and left third to the Davidson Wildcats.

The championship is safe with the Duke Blue Devils who have wound up their Big Five schedule with six wins and two losses to clinch the title for the second consecutive year. N. C. State, which finished the conference season a few days ahead of Duke, copped second position.

Only one conference match remains—Wake Forest vs. Davidson at Davidson Monday—but either way this comes out the standing will not be altered.

The Wildcats, who allowed Duke to run rough shod over them at Charlotte this week, came out of the doldrums last night and beat South Carolina 35 to 26 at Columbia. They went from there to Charleston to engage Citadel tonight and the College of Charleston tomorrow night.

N. C. State also will see a little extra-conference action tonight, mixing with V. M. I. at Raleigh. The Guilford Quakers who recently, have been sweeping everything before them both inside and outside the Little Seven Conference, were stopped last night at Salisbury. The conference leading Carolina Indians licked them 32 to 26, after a hard fight.

YOUNG ROCKNE PROMISES TO SHINE ON GRID

By PAUL MICKELSON

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Once Knute Rockne gets on the football field, he's all football. But away from all the tumult and shouting he's just a great, big, moody soul, who likes to gossip and chatter and who would walk a mile to play a joke or get a hearty laugh.

He will take time out from his busiest day—and he is a man of a thousand duties at Notre Dame—to swap repartee with newspapermen, college presidents, coaches or a book agent. He yearns to learn all about their trades and fancies and keeps them in good humor with a good stock of jokes.

At home he is just another husband. When he wants to get away at night, he makes excuses to Bonnie (Mrs. Rockne).

But when at home his personality dominates the household just as it does a football field. He has three sons and one daughter, ranging between the ages of six and fourteen years. He wants at least one of his sons to follow in his footsteps.

"But Knute, Jr. is the only football player in the family," he reflected. "Jackie and Bill, why they haven't got the talent. But Knute, Jr. should make good. He's got the talent and the will."

Once when the writer visited his home, Rockne lined Jackie up for practice with his daughter. The girl, older, larger and stronger, repulsed the boy's "line smashes," so "Rock" called Jackie into a huddle. "Come here, Jackie. I'll give you a trick. We'll fool her," (whispering).

"Oh, I get it," exclaimed Jackie. "I'll make believe I drop the ball, then pick it up and run fast."

"Ouch!" father Rockne shouted. "Now you've given away my best trick!"

But when "Rock" doesn't have the house full of guests—and he can play a mean bridge game—or when he doesn't caper about with his children, he sinks into a deep chair and reads.

Biographies are his first choice, closely followed by medical books and mystery stories. He can pronounce and tell you the meaning of 10-syllable medical terms; and he can tell you some facts about music and drama and art.

He is of Norwegian ancestry and admits he got one of the biggest chuckles when Eddie Neil of the Associated Press once referred to him as the "Scandinavian master of the Irish."

His favorite dish, however, isn't Norwegian. It's spareribs and sauer kraut.

National to Stage Better Pennant Race

By ALAN GOULD

Miami Fla., Feb. 19.—(AP)—The National League, having broken all attendance records last season, has no, experienced any real pinch of depression, but its clubs are leaving no bush unsearched in the effort to stage an even bigger and better pennant race in 1931, according to President John Arnold Heydler.

Mr. and Mrs. Heydler have come to Miami to spend a "vacation," but photographers and interviewers kept the league's chief executive busy for his first 48 hours here, forcing him to grab his bag of golf clubs and hasten to the bunched stretches of the La Gorce links at Miami Beach for relaxation.

"Not only will the new ball and its effect on the big hitters serve to increase interest in year generally, but so far as the National League is concerned, we look for a race which at least six clubs should play a decisive part.

"It is nothing new for our league to be well balanced, with four and five clubs figuring in the pennant fight. It has almost become a habit. I expect teams like Philadelphia and Boston to continue their sensational development, especially if the former team develops several winning pitchers. Pittsburgh had tough luck most of last season and is always dangerous. Cincinnati still is in the reconstruction age.

"Of the first division group of last year, Brooklyn has tremendous possibilities, in every respect, and is a big drawing card. The Cubs can be counted on for a great fight under Hornsby. St. Louis has shown what it can do by winning three pennants in five years and the Giants are strengthened for what should be a sensational contest.

"Baseball as a whole is coming through the period of business slump very well. Like every thing else, however, it has had to face the facts and take steps to keep the public confidence and support.

Don't Let Kidney Acidity Rob You of Sleep and Energy

Thousands of men and women make the mistake of letting poorly functioning kidneys and bladder rob them of sleep and energy. Ideally, there is no use of your putting up with agonizing back-ache, getting up nights, nervousness, leg pains, and burning acidity, when it is so simple to check such functional irritation.

What you need to overcome such functional irritation is a double action treatment. One to soothe and tone the irritated bladder and urinary system, and another to act as a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, helping them in their function of filtering and purifying the blood of impurities and poisons, such as uric acid.

Fortunately, it is now possible to get this kind of double treatment at our drug store, under the name of Cystex (pronounced Siss-tex) with the understanding that it will not cost a penny if it does not quickly soothe irritation, improve restful sleep and energy, and satisfy in every way.

Cystex is not a secret or patent medicine—the full list of ingredients is in every package, and any druggist can tell you it is a highly meritorious preparation, without doses, narcotics or harmful drugs. Take a tip. Get Cystex from us today. You won't have to wait long, because it starts circulating through the system in a few minutes, and you can soon see for yourself the great things this remarkably successful treatment can do for you. You can't afford to delay because it's only 60¢; furthermore, if it doesn't quickly do the work to your complete satisfaction, merely return the empty package and your money will be refunded.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 5 to 7 points lower in response to easier Liverpool cables and a little more southern selling.

Reactionary sentiment was again more or less in evidence and was probably reflected by some local selling as well as realizing, but favorable reports from the cotton goods markets had a sustaining influence and there was a continued trade buying at the decline. After selling off to 11.30 under the initial offerings, May rallied to 11.37, with the general markets holding steady within 2 or 3 points of yesterday's closing quotations at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables attributed the decline in that market to hedging and liquidation, but said British home trade in cotton cloths was improving and reported a fair turnover in cotton yarns. Reports from Worth street said that sales of gray cloths would reach a large total again this week and emphasized the firmer statistical position in these goods.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Bulls prodded the stock market further into new high ground for 1931 today, but progress was somewhat labored.

Trading was in huge volume for a time during the morning and some of the more responsive issues were pushed up 2 to nearly 10 points.

As the market will be closed on Monday, however, many traders were inclined to trim down their holdings in preparation for the extended week-end, and pools were reported to take a large volume of offerings, few of the so-called pivotal issues gained more than a point or so, and pressure against U. S. Steel was a little discouraging.

Allied Chemical was rushed up nearly 10 points, evidently in a drive against shorts, and national distillers was rushed up 6. Utilities assumed market leadership, and Pacific Electric, International Telephone and Standard Gas were bid up 3 or more, while substantial progress was made by American Telephone, American Power and light, and American and Foreign power.

As in all advancing markets, the past fortnight has witnessed an active resumption of activity by merger rumor mongers. The vigorous bidding up of Byrns has been accompanied by brokerage gossip that it might be taken over by U. S. Steel, but the rumor was characterized as baseless by U. S. Steel officials today.

The week-end business reviews were somewhat more cheerful than they have been of late. The Annalist regarded as significant the clearly marked upturn in the volume of contracts let, as reported for the first 11 business days of the month.

Improvement in the cotton industry, which led the recovery after the 1921 depression, was also indicated as a possible straw in the wind. Most encouraging of all perhaps, is the sudden upswing in motor production. Ford has now placed its River Rouge assembly plant on a five-day week, after working on half time since the turn of the year.

Call money was again available at 1 percent in the outside market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 20.—(AP)—An overbought condition showed itself in grains late today, and reactions from advances predominated. The temporary upturns were due largely to Winnipeg reports that snow was completely lacking throughout the spring wheat belt and dust blowing everywhere. However, the United States winter wheat crop was reported in extra favorable condition, with winter-killing negligible.

Wheat closed irregular at 1-4 cent decline to 1-8 advance, corn 1-4 to 1 down, oats 1-4 off to 1-8 up, and provisions showing 2 to 10 cents gain.
