WOMAN KILLER CARRIED BACK TO NEW JERSEY

Man Arrested at Raleigh Returned to the Scene of Crime to Face Murder Charge

Elizabeth, N. J., Feb. 27.—(AP)—William Frazer of Rahway, was brought back from Raleigh, N. C. today to tell more of the killing of Mrs. Phoebe Quick Stader, 32, hairdresser, with whom he had carried on an illicit love affair.

Frazer insisted the death was accidental in a confession to Prosecutor Abe J. David of Union County, who went to Raleigh to bring him back after his arrest.

Insisting he still loved the woman, Frazer said a rifle he had in the back seat of his automobile discharged as she sat beside him. They were returning from a jaunt into New York state and Frazer said both had been drinking.

Frazer was apprehended in Raleigh after the woman's body was found in the woods near Bowling Green Va. Her husband, Henry, a welder identified the body.

David was faced today with the problem of establishing definitely the place of the shooting. He said Frazer's talk led him to believe Mrs. Stader was shot and died near Elizabeth.

An autopsy revealed Mrs. Stader had been killed almost instantly by a .22 calibre bullet fired into the back of her head.

Frazer said he had taken a rifle from the woman's finger to lessen possibility of identification. He described how he had removed her clothes and burned them.

Mrs. Edna Frazer, mother of the man, employed counsel to defend her son, who came manacled with two detectives and accompanied by his wife.

Ira Jensen, cousin of the accused man, who met Frazer when he stopped at Rahway with the dead woman in the car, is held as a material witness.

Howard Madden, step-brother of Frazer's wife, and his father and mother, reported to have said Joe Anderson a friend, told Stader his wife was dead on the 16th, denied to authorities they made such statements. It was on the 16th Stader left Rahway. Police learned they dined with friends at the Bernardville Inn, Bernardville, that night. The couple was alleged to have engaged in a violent quarrel and the friends left them. Names of the companions of the pair were withheld.

CHARGE FRAUD PRACTICED IN N. C. ELECTIONS

Jonas Cays Serious Irregularities and Fraud Practiced for Last Ten Years

Raleigh, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Public Prosecutor Abe J. David took William M. Frazer, 31, back to New Jersey today to face a charge of murdering Mrs. Phoebe Stader, 33, former Rahway hair-dresser. Frazer, arrested here Wednesday, confessed to David he killed Mrs. Stader in an automobile in New Jersey February 17 after a round of drinking parties but said the slaying was accidental. A rifle he had in his car accidentally discharged, sending a bullet into the woman's head, he said.

After the shooting, Frazer retained, he drove around two days with the body in the car, visiting Raleigh and Washington finally stripping the corpse and placing it in a thicket near Rowell, Va. where it was found a few days later. He then drove to Raleigh. Frazer waived extradition, and Prosecutor David, who came here yesterday to question the prisoner, left last night with him for New Jersey. They were due to arrive today.

David predicted a speedy indictment of Frazer on a charge of murder.

Widow and Negro Held for Murder

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Newton Farris, widow of a 67 year old rural store-keeper, and Walter Phifer, crippled negro, were under indictment today on a charge of assaulting the woman's husband with a butcher knife. A Mecklenburg County grand jury, which since Monday has been investigating rumors that Farris was poisoned, returned the indictments against the widow and the negro yesterday.

Solicitor John G. Carpenter said the investigation would be continued and the grand jury might return other indictments against the two. Phifer, formerly employed by Farris, has been held in jail here since the investigation by the grand jury began. Farris was found dead in a bed in his store where he slept on September 28. His widow said he apparently died of heart trouble. Solicitor Carpenter said he probably would have the body exhumed for examination for traces of poison.

Outlook For Opening New Bank To Take Over Old National Bank Promising

Depositors Urged to Sign At Once to Insure Early Opening of New Institution

Final steps toward the organization of a new bank here to take over the affairs of the National Bank of Greenville, are now under way in the form of securing signatures to the depositors agreement which is necessary to meet requirements laid down by the Federal Comptroller. The plan would guarantee depositors twenty-five per cent of their total deposits payable in four equal annual installments with a further promise that should enough funds be collected the additional twenty-five per cent plus interest on the whole would be paid to the depositors.

Success in the preliminary work of the committees at work with the depositors indicates that the depositors in general are favorably impressed with the agreement presented to them in connection with the proposed plan for organization of the new bank to take over the assets and liabilities of the closed institution.

The plan is the result of efforts on the part of outstanding business men in the community, seeking the best possible solution of the problem confronting the depositors and the community at large, and the success thus far of the committees in the field warrants the conclusion that depositors believe the proposal to be sound and conceived in their interests.

The work of securing the depositor's signatures is a big undertaking and the depositors can contribute greatly to this phase of the work by calling at the following stations where they will find blank forms of the agreement and some member of the committee prepared to give them information and answer any questions which they may wish to ask concerning the agreement: Greenville—Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court Mr. J. F. Harrington. Blount-Harvey Co., Mr. J. H. Blount. Greenville Drug Co., Mr. J. Key Brown. C. H. Edwards Hardware House, Mr. C. H. Edwards. H. L. Hodges & Co., Mr. H. L. Hodges. Stokes—Mr. J. L. Perkins at his store. Dr. T. G. Baught at his office. Faulkland—Mr. K. R. Wooten, at his store.

Pioneer Railroad Builder Is Dead

Portland, Ore., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Samuel Hill, 74, internationally known railroad builder is dead. He succumbed here last night after an 18 day fight against intestinal influenza.

His son, James Nathan Hill, was called here from his home in Washington, D. C. Besides his son, Hill is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hill, the oldest daughter of the late James J. Hill, the "empire builder". The body will lie in state here this afternoon. Funeral services and cremation will be in Seattle.

TO DEPORT BODYGUARD OF AL CAPONE

Washington, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Secretary Doak today ordered the deportation to Italy of Tony (Hops) Volpe, known as a bodyguard of Al Capone, Chicago gang chief, and labeled as a "public enemy" by a Chicago civic committee. Secretary Doak's decision came at the end of an inquiry which led to the determination that Volpe was an alien unlawfully in the United States.

Senate Passes The Connor Road Bill By Big Majority

Raleigh, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Senate today passed the Connor road bill 42 to 5 on second reading.

Passage of the Gardner-supported highway measure on third reading was apparently assured by the overwhelming majority in its favor.

All amendments adopted by the Senate road committee were approved, which means that it must go back to the House for concurrence when approved.

The vote followed more than five hours of debate. The substitute bill was refused 35 to 11.

SIX NEGROES ELECTROCUTED IN S. C. TODAY

Go to the Chair for Two Murders; Prayers Uttered By All Just Before Death

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Six negroes were electrocuted early this morning to pay their debt to the State of South Carolina for two murders.

They went to their deaths calmly and with prayers on their lips. Almost two hours were required for the executions, each of which was witnessed by 16 persons in addition to newspapermen, physicians and penitentiary officials.

Tillman Poozer died as the confessed murderer of C. D. Mills, Cayce night watchman who was slain in a brutal ax murder. The motive was robbery.

The other five, Robert "Greasy" Eldredge, Lindsey Cantrell, alias John Ackwright, James "Snow" Hickman, George Bird, and Ernest "Tee" Thomason, were convicted of murder of B. W. Hendrix, Lexington county merchant, who was shot in an attempted holdup. Cantrell admitted firing the bullet that killed Hendrix.

The electrocution of six men at one time sets a record for South Carolina, the greatest number previously being five in 1916.

Four women were admitted as spectators.

One of them was the widow of Hendrix. She showed no emotion as Cantrell, her husband's slayer, died.

Two other daughters of Mills saw their father's slayer electrocuted. They were Mrs. D. J. Vargesson and Mrs. E. E. Nelson, both of Columbia.

The fourth woman was Mrs. Gray Raines, of Hartsville, who admitted she had come out of curiosity and said she, too, was glad the had come. She saw George Bird executed.

Colonel Pearman said he had refused the request of the mother of bird that she be allowed to witness her son's death.

None of the men were given breakfast before they died, penitentiary officials explaining it was not customary to feed them when the executions were held so early.

The first execution was scheduled to be held at 5 o'clock but it was 5:30 when Cantrell's body received the first shock. The last man, Thomason, was pronounced dead at 7:05 o'clock.

Only when Cantrell was led from the death house to the execution chambers was there any sound from any sound from any of the condemned men. There was a brief chanting of a plaintive negro spiritual as he was brought out. The remainder of the time there was an absolute silence in the death house.

None of the negroes flinched when brought in. Cantrell, the first, hesitated a moment before he stepped on the low platform that holds the electric chair.

He asked that he be allowed to pray and in a steady voice asked that he be given a "home in everlasting life."

"Have mercy on my father and mother," he prayed.

He was followed by Tillman Poozer. Then came George Bird, Robert Eldredge, James Hickman and Ernest Thomason in the order named.

Eldredge, who is recovering from meningitis, had to be helped as he walked so weak was he from the effects of the disease.

When asked if he had anything to say, he replied he had two suits of clothes and a watch.

"I want you to put the black suit on after my death," he said, hesitating a moment before he said the word "death," and then continued, "and give my other suit and my watch to my father."

The murder of Mills occurred on January 3. He was night watchman in a lumber plant and Poozer also worked there. They were friendly, Poozer said, after admitting he sneaked behind the watchman and crushed his skull with an axe.

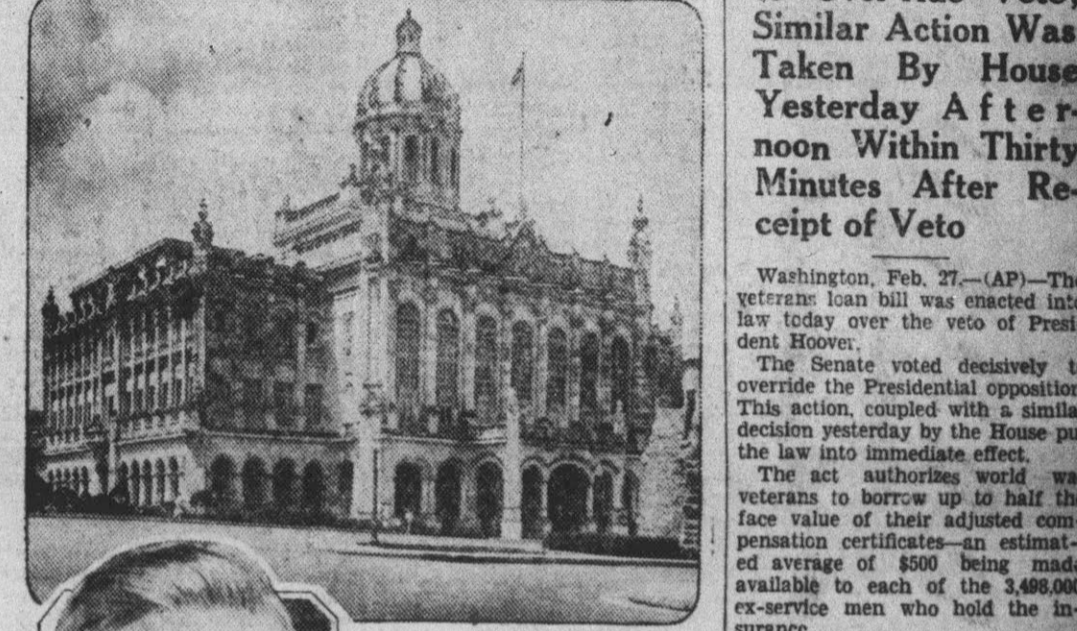

Hendrix was murdered three days later. He resisted when the negroes attempted to hold up the store and was shot by one who was standing outside.

Officers traced the band to Asheville, where Bird was captured. The others were arrested in Bluefield, W. Va.

The five were tried and convicted on January 20 and Poozer on January 21. No efforts were made to secure a new trial until this week when an appeal was made to the Supreme court. The court held a special session in Columbia yesterday and denied the motion for habeas corpus.

CUBAN PALACE BOMBED

A soldier on patrol duty at the Cuban presidential palace in Havana confessed engineering a bomb plot against President Gerardo Machado, which, because of a slight error in execution, failed by a narrow margin in carrying out its purpose. The bomb, lowered from the roof, wrecked part of the top floor, one floor above where the president lives.

Running From Law Proves Very Costly

High Point, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Glenn Thomas, ordered to police station to make bond for speeding, decided to elude a motorcycle cop. It cost him.

NEVADA SEEKS HOLD OWN FOR EASY DIVORCE

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Arkansas joined Nevada today as a state for "easy divorce" in point of residence requirements.

Under a bill signed by Governor Parnell yesterday and effective June 12 residence time for divorce action was reduced from a year to 90 days, the same as in Nevada. No change was made in grounds for divorce, which are essentially the same as in Nevada and exclude infidelity, cruelty and general indignities.

New Bill Passed in Arkansas Causes Nevada Seek "Mail Order Divorce" Law

Renov, Nevada, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Rivalry among states to break Nevada's quick divorce monopoly continued today with the signature of Arkansas' governor on a 90-day divorce bill and Idaho's House of Representatives' endorsement of a similar measure.

In the face of this external attack, a "mail order divorce" bill prepared by Senator Duane Bush of Humboldt county (which receives little of Nevada's divorce business) brought embarrassment to Reno's legislators at Carson City.

Determined to maintain Nevada's pre-eminence the latter have sponsored a bill which would make six weeks residence sufficient for the filing of a divorce petition.

"If the purpose," said State Senator Bush, "is really to bring speedy comfort to the unhappily married, let us go the limit. My bill provides the divorce seeker need only write a Nevada district judge of his or her intention, retain and attorney by mail and present evidence by deposition."

Senator Bush is not a lawyer. Neither is he interested in Reno hotels.

Dry Forces Raid Two Fashionable Philadelphia Clubs

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Director of public safety, Lammie B. Schofield's police have raided two of Philadelphia's most prominent social organizations and, although they were speculating today where they would strike next, in their search for violators of the prohibition law.

The exclusive Philadelphia club was raided last evening. The Manufacturers club early yesterday.

Schofield personally conducted the raid on the Manufacturers club, of which he was a member. Before leaving the building he wrote his resignation.

The raiders confiscated two bottles of wine and loads of intoxicants at the Philadelphia club and 236 bottles of wine and liquors at the Manufacturers club.

LIMIT HARVEST FAR WEST MAY MAJOR CROPS

Reduced Acreage Appears As the Only Solution for Farmers This Year

San Francisco. (AP)—Reduced harvests appear as one "hope" agriculture in the far west for 1931.

A fair measure of success in checking the downward rush of the peach and raisin grape prices in 1930 by limiting the size of the harvest has brought agitation for extending the practice to other major crops.

Last year California canning peach and grape growers left vast quantities of the fruit unharvested. Payments was made by cooperatives for the portion of the crop which was not picked.

In the case of canning peaches the payment was $20 a ton, less the $7.50 which picking would have cost. Thus the grower received virtually the same for the part of his crop which was permitted to go to waste that he received for the part marketed.

Although this price was only approximately a quarter of that received in 1920 and less than a third of that of 1929, F. F. Schmitt of the California Canning Peach Growers organization believes the surplus would have forced quotations to a ruinous level if such action had not been taken.

"Elimination of acreage that can't produce a sufficiently high tonnage is to be recommended," he said.

"Who is to designate what acreage is to be abandoned? The average man is willing for some one else to pull up his trees, but after putting in several years of hard labor to bring his fruit land to production the thought of pulling up his own trees does not appeal.

"There also is the problem of finding some more attractive crop. At present it is almost impossible to name a deciduous fruit or a field crop which is profitable."

Field agents of the canners' organization report numerous individual instances where growers are uprooting trees, some of them turning to alfalfa.

Among the growers there is declared to be sentiment favoring last year's plans of limiting the harvest rather than shinking the acreage.

Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the National Wool Growers Association, says the wool industry is on a reasonably sound basis and that no effort will be made in 1931 to increase output but that instead growers will strive for increased quality.

Western potato growers suffered with agriculture as a whole, in the slump of farm commodity prices, yet prospects of an increase of approximately 10 per cent in acreage of spring potatoes has been forecast.

Mr. Howard referred to the sale as "not the death of the New York World, but its re-birth."

The task of sending the World to press for the last time went forward in the gold-domed building on Park Row as the news of the sale came in.

The 2,867 workers paid their farewells in silence, tears and song. Gathered around James W. TWO COLLEGES SHARE HONORS IN LITTLE-SEVEN

Charlotte, Feb. 27. —(AP)—Catawba and Appalachian were the 1931 North State conference co-champions in basketball today, all because the Guilford Quakers handed the Indians a nifty 33 to 23 lashing last night at Guilford.

Until last night, the Indians, with six victories to one defeat, had the edge over the Appalachian mountaineers who had won seven games and lost two, but the Quaker triumph evened the count between the two leaders.

A match between the Elon Christians and the Quakers at Guilford tonight will wind up the Little Seven season. The Christians trimmed Lenoir-Rhyne, 44 to 18, last night.

PLANS FOR ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING

A meeting was held at the office of the Home Agent to make plans for the annual district meeting which convenes in Greenville this year. Those attending from other counties were Miss Violet Alexander of Beaufort county; Miss Lona Sleeper, Martin county; Miss Pat Covington, Washington county, and Mrs. Harrison, president of the Washington county council.

As the first week in May is the date set this being National Music Week, also it was decided that the program would be made in regard to music. Each county will be asked to arrange a 10-minute program. Interest in other forms will be brought in.

The picnic lunch will be served as usual, on the same plans, which have been used before. As Pitt county club members are to be the hosts this year, and we were so royally entertained by the Beaufort ladies last year, let us not forget to do our best. A recreational period will be held after the lunch hour.

FURTHER PROGRESS MADE BY JUNIOR ROOM ACTIVITIES

Twenty-nine boys which have been passed by the Advisory Board (Messrs. J. H. Rose, Albert B. Osborne, Wm. H. Brown) were voted in at the regular meeting of the Senior Hi-Y Club last night. Howard Sumrell and Ralph Deal were elected as members of the entertainment committee. It was voted by the club to present a Hi-Y pin to every member making the best record in attendance at the close of the season.

Short talks were made by Jim Slay, Marvin O. Blount, Billy Nesbitt, Charles Shuff and Wm. H. Brown. Games were played and the program was closed by sentence prayers.

The Junior Hi-Y club will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock. Any boy desiring to join, give your name to Mr. Brown, high school coach. These are the only meetings held in the junior room at night during school days. The boys of these two clubs excel in their school work and have special permission.

Junior Garden Club.
Bird houses and other handiwork were made by the members of the Junior Garden Club at the regular weekly meeting Thursday afternoon. While the girls were busy making and painting the little bird lodging house several parents visited the junior room and saw the boys and girls in action. Boys were playing on the outside and girls busy inside. Visitors are welcome at all times. The junior room is a great blessing to Greenville children and its activities provide a substitute for the backyard gangs and street crowds.

GAY MACLAREN TO BE AT THE COLLEGE

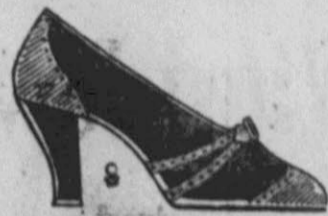

On Tuesday evening of next week Gay MacLaren, a dramatic reader known as the "girl with the camera mind," who gives scenes from plays as if she were the whole show by herself, will be at East Carolina Teachers College.

She is very different from the usual dramatic reader, has none of the tricks of the old time elocutionist but is an artist. She has her own method of working up plays that has won for her the title of the "girl with the camera mind." Instead of learning her lines from the book and putting her own interpretation upon them, she watches a play through several times, and everything she sees and hears registers on her mind. She has such powers of imitation and mimicry that she reproduces the play, taking the parts of all the characters in turn. She is an excellent actress also, so that when she gets through with her performance is a work of art. She knows exactly where to cut, gets the essentials. She also has the knack of catching the things necessary from the setting to use as suggestions of the whole play.

Miss MacLaren appeared on the college stage one summer and gave such delight to the audience of college girls that she was invited to return.

Spalding Concert A Success.
Albert Spalding in his playing at East Carolina Teachers College last evening came up to the great expectations that preceded his appearance, and those who were fortunate enough to hear him sat entranced throughout the evening, listening to the strains from the violin, watching the play of his fingers and the swift, easy turns of his wrist as he made the instrument say whatever he wished it to say. At times it seemed as if the human voice were heard in rich clear tones and then in whispering echoes, again the flute tones seemed to leap out so clearly that one almost expected to see the flute.

The musical critics say that the smooth tone, with no harshness anywhere, the sweet pure quality, the gradations of quantity that fitted the auditorium so that every grade of tone was heard, enough and yet not too much, the artist's powers of interpretation, all contributed to the artistic success of his playing.

André Benoit, the pianist, came in for his share of the honors, and there was absolute sympathy between the two artists. He was accompanist for Madame Nordica and is considered one of the greatest of all accompanists. In the last of the first group the piano figured as importantly as the violin. This was a Fantasia for piano and violin by Schubert, in four parts. In spite of the fact that it was a heavy number, it was one of the favorites of the evening, full of melodies and with beautiful tone color.

The opening numbers were two interesting old selections of the classical style, "La Folia" by Correlli; and "Allegro" by Padre Martini.

The second part was the Concerto in A Minor, No. 5, by Vieuxtemps, which has three movements, Allegro, Adagio and Allegro con fuoco.

The third group was composed of beautiful melodious songs and dances two by Spalding himself, "Castles in Spain," airy and ethereal and set one to building castles in the air or in Spain. While he was playing "Old Irish Song and Dance" one could see the Irish in picturesque costume giving the folk dance and could hear the strains of their voices; if one but shut his eyes he forgot the audience and player. "Sevillina" was Spalding's arrangement of a number of Albeniz. The French touch was given in "Chanson Villageoise" by Lalo.

The last of this group was a number by Paganini, "I Palpiti," and one of the most beautiful numbers on the program. The musician present say Paganini is the most difficult of all composers, and one that few musicians attempt, and that Spalding's mastery and interpretation of this was great and his playing of that alone puts him in the first rank of violinists.

He was generous with his encores, giving two after the second part and three at the end. Among these were "Traumerei," The Cradle Song by Brahms, Kreisler's "Liebfreund." These were enjoyed even more than the regular numbers on the program, especially as some of them were familiar.

The stage presence of the artist was magnificent, and his graciousness was marked. He had ease yet stood with the control and precision of a soldier, with perfect poise. The absence of any mannerism was noticeable.

MRS. SAM WHITE HOSTESS TO U. D. C.

The George B. Singletary chapter U. D. C. held a most delightful meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Sam White.

The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer and followed by the business items for February.

The chapter voted to contribute to the Norman Randolph Relief Fund as this is for the purpose of aiding indigent women of the sixties who would suffer many privations but for the loving thought of Daughters of the Confederacy.

We also voted to contribute toward a marker to President Jefferson Davis to be placed at Fletcher, N. C. known as the Open Air Westminster Abbey of the South. A bust of President Davis is also to be placed in old Morrison College of Transylvania University, the school in which he spent three years before going to West Point.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mrs. R. C. Deal. Using Matthew Fontaine Maury as her subject, Mrs. Deal gave a splendid review of his achievements and of his election to the Hall of Fame of New York University.

Maury's greatest achievement had already benefitted the world before the Confederacy was established, for his genius had developed in the service of the United States Government and he had ever kept it at the service of his native country, despite the many temptations which would have filled his purse and added to his fame.

At the close of this interesting program the hostess served sandwiches and tea.

FARMVILLE RESIDENCE DAMAGED BY FIRE

Farmville, Feb. 26.—The home of D. R. Morgan on Wilson street, was damaged by fire this morning at eight o'clock. Firemen responding to the alarm found the roof blazing, having caught from the kitchen flue. The family was at breakfast. The flames were quickly brought under control. The furnishings were removed but were damaged by smoke and water.

Mrs. Parker Hostess.

Farmville, Feb. 26.—Mrs. J. W. Parker graciously entertained the Col. Alexander McAllister chapter D. A. R., at its February meeting. The spacious home was thrown en suite and effectively decorated with pussywillow, Japanese quince, and Jerusalem cherries, carrying the George Washington's birthday suggestion with miniature flags and portraits arrangements.

An unusually interesting program on the "Father of His Country" was opened with timely clippings relative to his 200th anniversary; Mrs. B. W. Moseley of Greenville, read a paper on "Washington's Religious Life"; Mrs. E. C. Beaman presented him as a general, and Mrs. T. A. Person of Greenville, recounted his visit to Charlotte.

Delightful entertainment was furnished the guests at the conclusion of the program, Miss Vivian Case singing two charming numbers, and two youthful couples, Bill Pollard and Frances Worthington, Arthur Joyner, Jr., and Marjorie Lee Parker, in colonial costumes, danced the minuet. Old time tunes were then played while the guests found their places at the individual dining room tables, which were centered with cherry trees and lighted by red candles. A frozen salad course was followed by coffee, cheese wafers and minis, Misses Alice Harper Parker, Edna Foust-Vivian Parker Harris and Louise Smith assisting the hostess in serving.

In addition to the chapter members Mrs. Parker had as guests Mrs. G. A. Rouse, Mrs. G. M. Holden, Mrs. J. Loyd Horton, Mrs. J. L. Rumley, Mrs. D. S. Morrill, Mrs. H.

Farmville P. T. A. Meets.

Farmville, Feb. 26.—An address by Carl F. Adams, professor of Education and Psychology at East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, on "Books," featured the program of the February Parent-Teacher meeting held in Perkins Hall.

Supt. Robert E. Boyd introduced the speaker. This event came at the close of Library Week, during which a large number of books was added to the school library.

Preceding the address were three one-act plays; "A Friendly Token," by Grade 4A; "Washington or Lincoln," by Grade 6A; "America's Songs" by Grades 4B and 6B. The attendance prize for the month was awarded to Grade 4A, Miss Chrystelle Lucas teacher.

After adjournment the 200 members and visitors were served hot tea and doughnuts prepared by the Home Economics pupils, Miss Gladys Kilpatrick teacher, the table decorations being made by pupils of Miss Pauline Meeder, and the colonial silhouette favors by pupils of Miss Mamie Proctor.

Evidently Mr. Hoover does not "Choose to Run" again.

About two weeks ago robbers carried away the lion safe and contents of a filling station at Chocowinity. Just recently the same thing has happened in this county, all of which is good argument in favor of keeping your money in the bank. Keeping large amounts of money on your person or premises is inviting loss and probable personal injury at the hands of robbers. Don't take these unnecessary chances.

Just what is to be done about continuing the schools of our county for the full eight months term instead of closing them at the end of the six months term is not yet known, but certainly it is to be hoped that some provision will be made whereby the operation can continue. To close our schools now is a step backward for our county and such a step should be avoided if possible.

SIGN UP NOW

According to reports of the committees calling on depositors of the National Bank, their efforts to obtain signatures to agreements necessary for the organization of a new bank to take over the closed one are meeting with a great degree of success and the final perfection of the organization and opening of the bank depends entirely upon the action of the depositors. Since the job of seeing every depositor is such a gigantic task places are being designated where depositors can call and have the proposition explained to them and sign their agreements. It is to be hoped that every depositor will make it a point to sign up just as early as possible and the sooner this is done the quicker the bank will open. If you are one of these depositors don't delay another minute. Get in touch with some member of the committee now and sign your agreement. The sooner it is done the better off the entire community will be.

Republicans Will Support Present Organization

Washington, Feb. 27.—(AP)—In harmonious mood House Republicans last night decided to support Speaker Longworth and the present slate of officers for re-election next session.

But away from the party caucus stayed fifteen members who refused to commit themselves, by attending either candidates or policies. Five of these were Kansas regulars, increased at the final refusal, delivered yesterday by Chairman Hawley of the ways and means committee, to consider oil embargo legislation at this session.

The rest were members of independent tendencies with various demands for legislation and further recognition of their group. United, this group can hold the balance of power in the next House, for the membership is almost equally divided between the parties.

The Republicans of the powerful rules committee were instructed to bring in at the next caucus recommendations for changes in the House regulations. Chairman Snell agreed. The present rules by their stringency have caused numerous grievances. He indicated they would be loosened.

Two other matters brought up at the meeting, behind closed doors, were prohibition and adoption of a policy favoring restriction of oil and anthracite imports. But no action was taken on these controversial issues, which were remanded to the first conference of the next Congress.

Make Fight for Preservation of Negro City

Raleigh, Feb. 27.—(AP)—A bitter little group battle over a sociological experiment in North Carolina which has attracted wide attention is going on in legislative circles under cover of the more widely-disputed state wide issues of schools and roads.

Senator Johnson and Representative Spense, of Moore, sponsored a bill to combine West, Southern Pines, one of two incorporated all-negro communities in America with Southern Pines. Then the storm broke.

Lieut. Lawrence Oxley, of the State Department of Public Welfare, told the House committee on counties, cities and towns to protest. He called the self-government of the community "by negroes and for negroes" a great experiment, which has attracted the attention of the Rosenwald Foundation and sociologists throughout the country. Thomas Ruffin, attorney, also appealed for the preservation of the town as a separate entity, pointing to its freedom from debt, the freedom from debt of six churches built since its incorporation in 1923, and its decreasing crime figures. The committee deferred action.

LOCALS PLAY FINAL GAME HERE TONIGHT

Greenville high school closes her conference schedule tonight against the strong Kinston team. Greenville has previously defeated Kinston during this current season, but since that time some ineligible have returned to the Kinston fold, and they are reported to be greatly improved. New Bern once defeated by Greenville, beat Greenville in a return game a couple of weeks ago. Then Kinston defeated New Bern so this seems to bear out their increased strength.

The Greenville team has several members who are closing their conference hardcourt activities, tonight; they are the following: Captain Bullock, Nobles, Deal, James, Broadhurst, and Hardee. They would appreciate your spirit in supporting them in the closing game of their careers. They are sure to sing their swan songs in sure, strong, sweet voices. The boys have to pay a $20 guarantee to Kinston, and the school needs very much to take in this much at the gate. This much has not been taken in yet this season but, once possibly, but with an exciting, close game with our friendly rivalry from Kinston on the docket, $20 should be forthcoming easily. Then, too, the school is trying to make enough to send the team to the invitation tournament at Raleigh, and the boys are very anxious to win that this year, as she has never won it yet. Come out, you friends of the high school, to the high auditorium tonight at 7:30, enjoy an exciting contest, and support a worthy cause. The admission will be 10c for school children, and 35c for adults.

Sullivan Medal Is Presented To Robert Jones

Chicago, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Bobby Jones, golf's greatest, today turned all of his attention to business affairs, his amateur career pretty definitely closed after receiving the James E. Sullivan memorial medal last night.

The award, a solid gold medal five inches in diameter, was handed the peerless Atlanta by Avery Brundage, president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, amidst an ovation from 1,500 civic and sports leaders who attended the testimonial dinner in his honor.

Before handing Bobby the medal President Hoover which read: Brundage read a letter from

"I cordially congratulate you upon the honor of receiving the James E. Sullivan memorial medal for fine performance and good sportsmanship for the year 1930, and rejoice with your innumerable other admirers in this further recognition."

COLLEGES OF SOUTH MEET IN ATLANTA

By DILLO NGRAHAM

Associated Press Sports Writer Atlanta, Feb. 27.—(AP)—This Georgia metropolis today was the basketball capital of the south as 16 of Dixie's best teams started their drive toward a southern conference championship.

The eighth annual titular event opens at 1 o'clock CST with two former champions—North Carolina and Vanderbilt—offering the first act.

Not since North Carolina won three championships in a row back in 1924-25-26 has any southern team won two straight titles and few basketball followers expected Alabama to rush through to another win.

There are many who wouldn't be surprised if Alabama fell by the wayside in its first game this afternoon with Tennessee. The Vols were one of the two teams to lick the champs during the regular season.

Those who pick their winners in advance are nominating Georgia. The Bulldogs, who led during the long campaign, have their best team since 1927 when they lost to Vanderbilt by two points in the finals.

As time neared for the start Maryland, Kentucky, Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt also were singled out as teams likely to stand the stiff pace of the tournament and emerge victorious.

Most interest probably will be centered today on the Georgia-Washington and Lee contest. The Generals have come out of Virginia with a good record and heralded as even better than teams sent south in past years.

The starting times for today's games follow: North Carolina-Vanderbilt, 1 p. m.; Auburn-Virginia 2 p. m.; Duke-Clemson 3 p. m.; N. C. State-Kentucky, 4 p. m.; Alabama-Tennessee, 7 p. m.; Maryland-L. S. U. 7 p. m.; Georgia-Washington and Lee, 8 p. m.; Florida-Georgia Tech, 9 p. m. All times are Central Standard time.

TILDEN LIKES BRIDGE AND OTHER THINGS

By ORLO ROBERTSON

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—He says his name is William Tatem Tilden II but it really isn't. He is William Tatem Tilden, Jr. They called him "Junior" to distinguish him from his father and his elder brother, Herbert Marmaduke Tilden and he hated it. So as soon as he could, "Junior" Tilden became William Tatem II.

To complicate the matter further he is "Will" to his aunt, Miss Hay, and a cousin, Miss Selina Hay, who took his bringing up in charge after the death of his mother. He calls Selina "Twin" so they are even.

Big Bill has four great interests—tennis, the stage, music and bridge. He played baseball and hockey at prep school in Philadelphia and was rather good. His brother Marmaduke taught him to play tennis, beat him consistently, but died before Bill became great.

Bill long ago reached the professional stage but he isn't considered a good actor. He knows the technique, can memorize the lines of everyone in the cast but he becomes self-conscious. He has a high pitched dramatic voice. He probably never will be a good actor.

Music ranks next in his devotions. He has attended so many operas that he knows most of the lines. Bill plays no instrument but he has one of the largest collections of phonograph records—all of singers—in the country. Every record Mary Garden ever made is in the collection. He plays them for hours at a time.

"If I had to give up either tennis or music," he said at the height of his career, "I would give up tennis."

Big Bill is full of mannerisms. The same tricks, gestures, voice inflections and attitudes that caused so much comment on the courts are part of his every day actions. They annoy most of his friends. The closest ignore them.

Tilden likes celebrities and cultivates them. He enjoys his position in the limelight and likes to join with others in the same position. He smokes nothing but cigarettes and many of them.

He loves to see his name in print and has written novels and numerous short stories. He thinks and writes fast—the ending of one short story evaded him for a year and a half. The solution came to him in the middle of a hard-fought match. He finished it in three hours.

Bill has never married. All his real devotion to women he saves for Aunt and Cousin Hay. He is self-willed, argumentative but never pugnacious, and rarely admits he is wrong. He forms strong friendships and makes bitter enemies. These are interchangeable.

Dixie Has New Athletic Body

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 27.—(AP)—The sporting south had a new conference today, the Dixie athletic conference of nine member colleges, offspring of the populous Southern Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Officials of the new conference, following a meeting here last night, announced its membership and said addition of a tenth member would come through invitation "at such time as we can see fit."

The new group, which will hold its own basketball tournament next year, and this year will be required to play five conference football games, includes Birmingham-Southern, Centre, Chattanooga, Howard Mercer, Millsaps, Mississippi College, Southwestern of Memphis and Spring Hill.

The conference will not hold a track meet in 1931. Boxing will be recognized as intercollegiate sport so long as exhibitions are sponsored solely by the colleges.

Dean Gilbert Mead, of Birmingham, president of the new conference, announced that the organization of the new group had received sanction of the Southern Association of Colleges. This he said prima facie should they desire to withdraw from the S. I. A. A.

FOUNDER'S WEEK SALE

Since 1859 we started out to cut the cost of living. Today millions of families acknowledge as common, our success.

We know of no more fitting way to show our appreciation of this patronage than to invite you to visit an A & P Food Store during Founder's Week. For Founder's Week is not "just another sale"—rather it is our method of commemorating A & P's founding in a way that the founder himself would have heartily approved—by sharing an overflowing measure of value with the millions who have made it possible for A & P to stand today as one of America's foremost forces in keeping living costs lower. It is an extraordinary opportunity to save.

NEW LOOP IS PROPOSED IN PLACE SALLY

Charlotte, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Out of the break-down of the 28-year-old Sally league, today came increasing agitation for the launching of a new loop to provide berths for some of the clubs cut adrift by the Sally's debacle.

When the Sally directors voted to disband the circuit here yesterday John Martin, president of the Greenville S. C. club suggested the formation of a Palmetto league embracing possibly Greenville, Florence, Anderson, Spartanburg and Charleston.

Upon the heels of this development officials of the Augusta, Ga. club announced they would be interested in a class C or D league composed of Augusta, Greenwood, Spartanburg, Columbia, Anderson and Greenville.

These two suggestions at least gave the baseball-hungry cities of the Palmetto state and the Georgia border something to work on. Meantime, the expectation was that Charlotte and Asheville the two North Carolina Sally clubs would find a birth in the Piedmont league.

Macon, Ga., the other city that remained with the Sally to the last, was left to look to the possible hatching up of another southern league for new diamond alignments.

The ex-Sally clubs will be pretty well healed for any new venture they may undertake when the surplus cash fund the league has been accumulating over a period of years is distributed. The directors voted to divide the $22,000 sum equally among August, Charlotte, Greenville, Asheville, and Macon.

Oakland of the Pacific Coast League looks like the most certain of the Cleveland Indian's rookie moundmen to stick. Bradenton Fla., Feb. 27.—(AP)— Manager Gabby Street of the Cards expected to take over direction of the Red Birds' training here today after a day's absence because of a stomach disorder.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 1 point lower on March but generally 2 to 4 points higher in response to steady Liverpool cables and continued favorable reports from the cloth markets.

May sold at 11.41 and October at 11.92 on the initial demand, but the market was comparatively quiet and prices eased off shortly after the call under realizing which was probably combined with a little southern selling and some selling for a reaction. May eased off to 11.36 and October to 11.85 by the end of the first half hour when the market was about 2 to 4 points net lower. A private report on planting intentions in the south pointed to a decrease of 15.1 per cent in acreage but the figures appeared to be without any immediate effect of importance on the market.

Liverpool reported local and foreign buying promoted by the strength of Egyptian cotton in that market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Feb. 27.—(AP)—With indications that European markets were following rather than leading wheat price developments on this side of the Atlantic, wheat showed a rallying tendency late today. Announcement that Kansas City and Chicago banks were asking more margins on wheat loans had little market effect, the rate changes being regarded as a seasonal preparatory move to a new crop basis. Corn was under more selling pressure than was wheat, a circumstance ascribed to other terminals offering corn to Chicago at the widest discount yet this season.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Professional traders kept the bull market in stocks simmering today by stirring up several of the peculiar and minor issues, after speculative fires in the recent leaders were cooled by a wave of profit taking.

The lts sold off substantially during the early trading a handful of shares losing 2 to 4 points but other shares were brought forward to show gains of 2 to 5, and losses were largely recovered. The advance was facilitated by a firm market for copper metal.

The volume of trading slackened considerably from the pace of the past three days.

Radio, showed a slight gain by early afternoon. U. S. Steel sold up over a point. Bouyant specialties were Holland furnace, purity baking and Pierce Oil preferred up 4 and 5 points, while gains of 2 to 3 were recorded by such stocks as Superior Steel, Warren Bros. Croger, Wright, Lehn and Pink, Columbian Carbon, and Case. The coppers American Smelting Anaconda, Kennecott and American Metals gained a point or two. During the early downturn, losses of 2 to 4 were recorded by Allied Chemical, Westinghouse Electric, Case, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Frisco and Auburn.

The day's news included several adverse dividend actions, and forced calls of others. Recent heaviness of Gillette was explained by deferment of the common distribution. Reduction in the annual rate of J. C. Penney from $3 to $2.40 apparently caused little surprise, for the stock eased but moderately. A few favorable 1930 earnings statements appeared, both Borden and Grand Union showing gains over 1929, and International Salt showing a reduction of only 1 per cent. These news items moderated, the last named influenced in part by report that the past two months showed gains over 1930.

The weekend business and mercantile reviews indicated that business recovery had made little if any further progress in the past few days.

ed at 90 per cent, only 2 per cent below last year.
In the cotton country a new cooperative will function for the first time in 1931—the Texas Certified Cottonseed Breeder's association. Under state supervision members of the group have supplied high grade seed to southern farmers for several years but only recently were reorganized by the farm board.
J. E. McDonald, Texas commissioner of agriculture, is sponsor for the proposed acreage control law.
