Congress Closes Short Session In The Midst Of Thomas Filibuster

Senator From Oklahoma Holds Senate Floor for Three Hours in Futile Attempt to Obtain Vote On Resolution for Inquiry of Oil Industry; the House Passes Hospitalization Bill; Ovation Given Speaker of House As Exciting Session Comes to a Close

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—The seventy-first Congress adjourned today amidst a tension reminiscent of the most exciting days of its two years.

The contentious spirit that has swept the Senate from the start prevailed to the end, with a filibuster tying up all activity in the closing hours.

The House passed the $20,800,000 hospitalization bill before yielding to the farewell ceremonies which marked the end of official life for more than forty Republican members. President Hoover signed the bill shortly after passage.

With his cabinet, he went to the Capital in the final hour to sign some last minute bills and to say good bye to the leaders. He remained in the president's room just outside the Senate chamber, where his policies have encountered persistent opposition from a dominant coalition of Republican Independents and Democrats.

The galleries were packed from early morning, when both the Senate and House reassembled.

The tall, white-haired Senator Thomas Oklahoma Democrat, held the floor in the Senate in a stubborn but futile attempt to obtain a vote on a resolution for an inquiry of the oil industry. He wanted an embargo on oil importations.

Promptly at noon Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Longworth let fall their gavel in the Senate and House, respectively, in obedience to the Constitutional mandate.

After accepting the Senate hospital bill, in place of its own, the House approved an immediate appropriation of $5,000,000 to start construction. Senate passage followed quickly.

The unyielding Thomas filibuster killed all pending legislation including the maternity bill, the Jenkins bill for a 90 per cent cut in immigration for two years, a batch of nominations, including that of Representative Elliott, Republican, Indiana, to be assistant comptroller general and the Vestal copyright measure.

The fall of Vice-President Curtis gavel out the Thomas speech short. He had spoken continuously through the final three hour session.

Immediately after the stroke of 12 the president left the Capitol. Speaker Longworth was cheered when he asked Representative Byrns of Tennessee, a senior Democrat, to take the House days a few minutes before adjournment.

Representative Crisp, Democrat, Ga., offered a resolution expressing the gratitude of the Ohio Republican for his fairness in his office.

An ovation was given the speaker after the resolution was unanimously adopted. The members shouted happily as the speaker thanked his colleagues for the demonstration of regard.

The Senate was in an ugly mood at the stubbornness of Thomas and it even refused to adopt the House resolution appointing a committee to notify President Hoover Congress had adjourned.

The Oklahoman indicated the would yield the floor for adoption of that resolution but the irate senators shouted their objections. "I is now 11:58," Thomas remarked. "And I wish to apologize to the Senate and to the country but I have felt this action necessary."

He then continued reading a document.

Just before returning to the White House, the president was formally notified of the adjournment by a House committee.

LAME DUCKS PREPARE TO RETURN HOME

About Ninety Members of Congress to Retire for Good After Today's Session

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—About ninety of the country's lawmakers going home after today's adjournment of Congress, are departing for good.

Among those who retire to private life are such veterans as Senators Furnell and Frederick Gillett of Massachusetts, and the chairman of several House committees.

Some are going voluntarily, some by verdict of the voters some for all time and others to make comeback efforts by and by.

In the passing of Senator Simmons, who was defeated in the last election primary, the Senate loses its dean in point of service. He had served continuously since March 4, 1901. He is 77 years of age.

Eighty-year-old Senator Gillett rounds out a record of 38 consecutive years in Congress. Thirty-two were spent in the House where he was speaker for three terms. Still one of the most active members, he chose not to run in 1930. He will be succeeded by Marcus Coolidge of Florida, Democrat.

Thirteen senators in all are concluding their terms.

Besten at the last elections and primaries were Blease, Democrat, South Carolina; Heflin, Democrat, Alabama; McMaster, Republican, of South Dakota; Pine, Republican, Oklahoma; Ransdell, Democrat, Louisiana; and Steck, Democrat, Iowa, as well as Simmons.

Bleuse will turn directly to criminal law, returning to Columbia, S. C., to defend a man accused of murder.

Heflin, who is by no means satisfied he was fairly beaten by John H. Blankhead, plans to contest the election and also to help publish a new paper, the Heflin Herald, in Birmingham.

Voluntarily retiring, are Brock, Democrat, Tennessee, candy manufacturer and banker; Williamson, Democrat, Kentucky, hardware wholesale merchant; Goff, Republican, West Virginia; Gould, Republican, Maine; Phipps, Republican, Colorado, and Gillett.

In the House, most of those going out were first termers who came in on the Hoover landslide of 1928, among them Jonas, Republican, North Carolina.

Four left the House to run for the Senate and were defeated. Ruth Hanna McCormick, of Illinois; Franklin W. Fort of New Jersey; George M. Pritchard, North Carolina, and W. H. Sproul, Kansas. Representative White of Maine, goes to the Senate as does Dickinson of Iowa, and Hull of Tennessee.

BIRDS KEEP A "DIARY" WITH PEN AND INK

Cleveland.—(AP)—Birds write with pen and ink at the Baldwin bird farms here. Their nests are arranged so that merely by stepping about, the birds automatically actuate a recording pen on a nearby roll of paper. Thus they register every time they visit the nest and even indicate what they do there.

GANDHI AND IRWIN REACH AGREEMENT

Sign Truce Bringing to End the Nationalist Disobedience Campaign

By JAMES A. MILLS (Copyright 1931, Associated Press) New Delhi, India, March 4.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi, Indian Nationalist leader, and Viceroy Lord Irwin at high noon today signed a truce which ends the Nationalist civil disobedience campaign and secures Nationalist cooperation in working out a qualified Dominion status for India. The truce culminated negotiations of weeks which reached fulfillment in an agreement at 1:30 a. m. Shortly afterward Gandhi left the viceregal palace in a drenching rain to inform the Nationalist working committee at Old Delhi.

While the committee voted unanimous approval of the terms Gandhi curled up on a straw mat at the side of the room and went to sleep. After he awakened he had his head and face shaved, donned a spotless white homespun and loin cloth and set out for his meeting with the viceroy.

In return for abandonment of the civil disobedience campaign, which the Nationalists inaugurated a year ago in an effort to gain independence from Great Britain, Gandhi wrested from the viceroy an amnesty for all political prisoners held for non-violent offenses, the right of those residing on the seashore to make their own salt, and adjustments regarding the return of property confiscated for non-payment of taxes.

In addition to calling off the disobedience campaign, the Nationalists agreed to forego their demand for an official inquiry into police excesses in quelling Nationalist demonstrations. Picketing will be kept within the normal laws of the country, which allow any citizen to discourage by peaceful means the sale of any commodity.

The agreement recognizes that the boycott, which is not punishable under the normal laws of India, will be directed against foreign goods, not necessarily British products, with the objects of promoting native Indian industries. All extraordinary laws promulgated to deal with civil disobedience will be withdrawn.

The truce assures Nationalist participation in the forthcoming round table conference to be held in India, but Gandhi has said that if the Nationalist demands for Indian autonomy in finances and military matters are not granted by Britain there his followers will begin anew their agitation for separation from the British empire.

Financial and military supervision are the two principal reservations made by Great Britain.

SHOALS BILL IS DEFEATED

Issue, However, Stored Up for Future Political Battles in U. S.

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—The Norris government operation plan for Muscle Shoals was dead legislation today, but it took its place among issues stored up for future political battles.

The Senate last night failed to override the veto President Hoover had sent in a few hours earlier. A majority, 40, voted against the chief executive, but two-thirds was needed to override. The Senate's failure made House consideration unnecessary.

Friends of the bill engaged in hours of debate. During this Mr. Hoover was scored for killing the plan, and the "power trust" was coupled again with his name.

Southern Democrats, to whom the Shoals plant is a lively local issue, said the chief executive had violated his campaign pledges by the veto.

Mr. Hoover's veto message said the message was a square presentation of the government ownership issue, and that he stood by his basic opposition to government in business competing with private endeavor.

Senator Keen, Republican, of New Jersey, introduced a bill after the message was read, to turn over the plants to Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia. Sixteen Republicans, mostly of the western independent band, joined 32 Democrats and one Farmer-Laborite against the veto. Three Democrats and 31 Republicans supported the President.

MUCH INTEREST EXHIBITED IN NEW BANK HERE

Committee Busy Obtaining Signatures of Depositors of Old National Bank

Committees getting the signatures of depositors find them favorable to the plan for organization of a new bank to take over the assets and liabilities of the National Bank of Greenville and ready to sign the agreement, but it appears that the depositors are waiting for the committee to call on them. Depositors can contribute greatly to the work by calling at the designated stations and signing the agreements. There are approximately four thousand names on the list of depositors and the time required to make individual calls will require many days of work on the part of the committee members.

Depositors are urged to give thought to this subject and cooperate with the committees by calling at any of the several stations for any desired information and to sign the agreements. In most instances only a few minutes of the time of each individual depositor will be required and the cooperation of the individual depositors in this respect is vital to the success of the undertaking. Don't put it off until tomorrow. See any member of the committee or call at any of the stations today.

Stations in Greenville: Office of Clerk Superior Court; Blount-Harvey Co.; J. Key Brown Drug Store; H. L. Hodges, Feed and Seed Store; C. H. Edwards Hardware.

Graf Zeppelin to Make Polar Flight During Next July

New York, March 4.—(AP)—The Graf Zeppelin will make a polar expedition of exploration in July if Dr. Hugo Eckener succeeds in a plan to finance the project.

The genial commander of the big dirigible arrived from Germany aboard the Europa with his daughter Lotte today. He said he felt confident the polar trip would be backed by "first line" newspapers.

The ship would proceed from Friedrichshafen to the Arctic by way of Leningrad, he said, and fly over Franz Josef Land and St. Nicholas Land with eight or nine scientists aboard.

Dr. Eckener's present trip to the United States is to consult with the Goodyear Rubber Company at Akron on two large dirigibles that company plans to build. He will proceed to Akron tomorrow.

CRIME STORY UNFOLDED TO THE SENATE

Wickersham Report Shows Far-flung Governmental Corruption in 5 States

By JOHN F. CHESTER Washington, March 4.—(AP)—A story of open-faced gangster activities, far-flung governmental corruption and wholesale liquor law violations was unraveled today before the Senate.

Drawn from the files of the Wickersham commission by a Senate resolution, the testimony spread through surveys of prohibition conditions in Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Louisiana and Colorado. Only in the latter state was dry law enforcement termed "satisfactory."

Some highlights in the mass of data were: A gangster map of Chicago. The names of 330 alleged Chicago "racketeers," 113 of them now dead, with each listed under such headings as "dynamiter and bomb thrower," or "booze and beer."

The reported discovery of "large quantities of poison dipped bullets" in the reputed headquarters of "the Al Capone outfit."

Reports of gambling operations in New Orleans so widespread as to make bootlegging there a "piker racket."

Figures designed to show violations of the prohibition laws throughout much of New York state to amount that 63 per cent of the criminal cases came under these laws.

A description of a New York "cafeteria court."

A report that present-day liquor interests in New Jersey "partly enslaved" the political forces there, and are strong enough to defy eradication for perhaps 10 years.

While this data lay before the Senate members of the Wickersham commission met today in the second session since the completion of their new historic prohibition report. They are faced with the necessity of completing their entire survey of crime and recommending for its cure before July 1.

By far the most detailed survey submitted the Illinois report was signed with an assumed name "Guy L. Nichols." Those who knew the former prohibition investigator said he feared gang reprisals.

Covering every principal city he characterized the mayor of Peoria as of the "old saloon-day type," reported the sheriff of Rockford entertained bootleggers in his office, and said prostitutes solicited openly.

COLD SPREADS ACROSS STATE

Snow, Rain and Sleet Distributed Liberally Over Western Section Today

Charlotte, March 4.—(AP)—The breath of winter that yesterday blew across eastern North Carolina today had left its mark on the western part of the state and in piedmont South Carolina.

Snow, rain and sleet descended in generous quantities during the early morning hours in practically every part of western North Carolina.

Salsbury, where eight inches of snow fell, claimed the record for the day's fall. The flakes melted rapidly but leaden skies hung low and flurries continued at intervals during the day.

In South Carolina, Anderson reported a snow that barely covered the ground while the fall in Rock Hill measured two inches. Chester and Columbia had light flurries that melted in a short while.

Four and a half inches blanketed Charlotte but a warm sun soon reduced the white drifts to slush. Fayetteville recorded a two-inch snow with indications that more would fall during the day.

Flurries at Raleigh in the early morning turned to a heavy down-pour a few hours later. The temperature was around the freezing point. Raleigh and points east of the capital bore the brunt of the storm yesterday. High winds, snow, sleet and rain were experienced generally with conditions particularly severe on the coast.

Senate Receives Notice Of Contest Against The Election Of J. W. Bailey

State Senate Votes For Increased Personnel Of The N. C. Highway Patrol

Measure Would Increase Patrol to 89; Numerous Reports of Committees Show up Work of Both Divisions of Legislature; Committee Approves Corrupt Practice Bill

Raleigh, March 4.—(AP)—The Senate today passed highway patrol bill and voted to hold an executive session at the close of the regular business hour today, but later deferred it.

The reason for the executive session was not announced.

Numerous committee reports to both divisions of the legislature slowed up the work of the two houses.

By a vote of 29 to 16 the Senate voted to increase the personnel of the state highway patrol from 37 to 89.

The measure, a substitute for one by Bennett of Swain, ran into vigorous opposition.

Seeking to require that reports of all organizations taking part in political campaigns report their receipts and expenditures, as is required of the Democratic and Republican parties, the House elections committee approved the Ewing corrupt practices bill. The author explained the measure would require such organizations as the McNinch anti-Smith committee of 1928 to report its activities.

A measure to clarify the Australian ballot law was also approved.

The Comor-Curp House bill to prohibit employment of children between 14 and 16 in certain "dangerous" industries was favorably reported to the Senate.

Both houses reconsidered tabling actions taken last night and as a result the Harris movie bill and the Ewbank egg measure went back on the calendars.

The House received a bill by Representative Cherry of Gaston, aimed at (Continued on page six)

Senator Shortridge Files Resolution On Behalf of George M. Pritchard, Seeking An Appropriation of $25,000 to Investigate the Senatorial Contest in North Carolina; Bailey Says He Is Not Disturbed By The Action; Filibuster Holds Up Introduction of Resolution

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Notice of a contest against the election of Josiah W. Bailey, Democrat of North Carolina, was filed today in the Senate.

Chairman Shortridge of the Privileges and Elections committee sought to introduce a resolution to give his committee authority to investigate the contest. It would carry an appropriation of $25,000.

Shortridge recognizing that his measure may not pass in the final rush, said he believed his committee had authority any way to hear the contest and he would proceed on this theory.

Shortridge was unable to introduce the resolution because Senator Thomas, Democrat Oklahoma, who was conducting a filibuster, refused to yield.

The contest against Bailey's election was filed on behalf of George M. Pritchard, Republican candidate for the senatorship who was defeated by the Democrat in the November elections last year.

Pritchard claimed in his petition all election registrars of North Carolina are members of the Democratic party and placed upon the registration books names of non-residents, minors and other disqualified persons totalling many thousands.

He contended also that many other thousands were voted illegally through "the fraudulent manipulation of the absentee ballot law; that illegally qualified Republican voters were refused the right to register and vote.

"There were such illegal practices, gross frauds and irregularities committed," Pritchard said, "that a correction thereof would show this contestant to have received a majority of the votes legally cast and to have been elected."

Pritchard contended that registrars traveled through their precincts registering Democrats, but no Republicans; that many persons employed as markers "forced their assistance" on voters; that many persons employed as markers marked only the op ballot with intent to fraud, and that many persons employed as markers "deliberately mismarked the ballots contrary to the instructions of the voters."

Bailey, who was a spectator on the Senate floor during the closing hour of session, said he had not heard of the contest until informed by newspapermen.

"I am not disturbed," he said, "and I see no reason why my friends or the Democratic party should be disturbed. My majority was 113,000."

He refused to comment further.

HOOVER HAS TEN DAYS TO SIGN BILLS

Attorney General Says Nothing to Law Requiring Action Before Congress Ends

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—President Hoover has been informed by Attorney General Mitchell there is nothing in the law which compels him to sign all bills passed by Congress before the session adjourns at noon today and that the president has ten days after adjournment in which to take action on any legislation.

The action was taken at the White House as presaging the passing of a custom which has been in existence more than a hundred years.

The president, within the last three days, has received 400 bills and it was said to be physically impossible to have each bill studied and signed in the short length of time before adjournment.

In view of this, Mr. Hoover asked the Attorney General for a ruling.

A total of 154 bills were received at the White House between 2 o'clock yesterday and midnight last night. Almost an equal number was received early today.

Man Jailed After Killing Son-in-Law

Hawkinsville, Ga., March 4.—(AP)—Shot first in the face and then in the back as he entered the home of his bride's father to seek approval of his romance, Delmar Cannon is dead today and his father-in-law, Jim T. Barbee, is in jail charged with murder.

Cannon, 22-year-old bicycle repairman of Macon, Ga., yesterday came to the home of his parents-in-law here at Barbee's urgent invitation according to the police. After the shooting Barbee gave himself up and admitted, officials said, to firing five shots at the youth, two of which took effect.

The marriage of Cannon and Mrs. Maude Barbee, 20, took place here a week ago. Barbee opposed the union for reasons he has not divulged.

Moye Check Bill Passed By House

Raleigh, March 4.—(AP)—After a bitter verbal clash between Representatives Moye of Greene and Hanes of Forsyth, the House today passed the Moye bill to require tobacco warehouses to make checks payable to order instead of to bearer.

The bill had been before the House since January 29. It was favored by Representatives of eastern tobacco counties and opposed by those from the west.

Amendments to exempt Forsyth, Rockingham, Robeson and Surry were defeated.

The living room and hall were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. A pink color scheme prevailed in the dining room. The centerpiece was a silver holder filled with sweet peas. Pink candles in silver holders added a mellow glow to the beautifully appointed table.

Places were laid for eight. These were marked by place cards and boutonnieres. An elegant six course dinner was served after which the guests were invited in the living room for a game of bridge.

The following guests were recipients of Miss Wright's hospitality: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Winslow, Misses Maude Fulford, Effie Mae Winslow, Messrs. Marvin Sugg, Wesley Harvey and Howard Moye.

Miss MacLaren Appears in Play At the College

"Helena's Boys", a recent play in which Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske starred, was the play given in full last night by Gay MacLaren at East Carolina Teachers College. Instead of a number of excerpts from various plays, as announced in yesterday's paper.

And Miss Fiske herself seemed to be on the stage, as well as every other member of the cast, as Miss MacLaren carried through all the parts and presented the play in full, swiftly changing from one to the other but without attracting attention to the change, yet there was never any mistaking which she was representing. She told beforehand that two of Mrs. Fiske's mannerisms would be used that of clearing her throat frequently and that of pressing her lips with her fingers, but these were not the only things that were imitated. The rich throaty voice, the staccato movement of body and voice, the sudden little start and stops, the poses were all there.

Perhaps the most striking parts were those of the boys, especially the college kid and his boyish drawl and his eating gingerbread, and the girls with their effusions. One could almost see the squares of gingerbread in her hand.

Miss MacLaren is an artist of remarkable powers of imitation and has been studied by psychologists and other scientists to see just what peculiar powers she has that enables her to see so clearly everything at one time and to reproduce it. She gets a play direct from seeing it, never looking in a book for words or anything. She goes to see a play five times and then has it complete, every word and line, every part, and then gives it herself.

She is known as the "girl with the camera mind" because she gets a play as if it were photographed on her brain.

She did her first play when she was fourteen years old, and it was considered a remarkable feat. She has done 40 plays in reproduction.

In private life she has been a charming hostess and home-maker, living in Chicago. Her husband, who was a lecturer and writer, died recently, but in spite of sorrow and personal readjustment she is meeting all engagements in the spirit of the player folk. "The play must go on." She goes from here to Georgia and Florida with a brief vacation there, and then across to Texas and the west. She played in Chapel Hill the night before she came here and reported a delightful time with Dr. Koch and the playmakers.

The two entertainments for the spring term, which will begin the last of next week, will be some glee club and the Senior-Normal play. Announcements about these will be made later.

Democratic Boss Scores Officials at Nashville, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., March 4.—(AP)—Edward H. Crump, Democratic boss politician, spoke last night for vigorous court and legislative action on testimony produced by the legislators investigating state affairs and today the Senate of Tennessee was pondering his remarks.

He delivered an attack on the state administration in a sizzling statement, also including Rogers Caldwell, the broken millionaire, and Colonel Luke Lea, publisher and politician who have been brought into the investigation of bank failures with the loss of state money.

His statement issued, he said, in the name of the tax payers, advised the purging of its "derelict officials" at the earliest possible date. Crump is representative to Congress from the Memphis district.

KELVINATOR DEALERS IN SESSION HERE

Fifty Representatives From Two States Attend Third Annual Meeting

The third annual meeting of dealers of the Carolina Kelvinator Company was in progress at the sales rooms on Third street here today. About fifty representatives of the concern from all sections of North and South Carolina were in attendance.

The session began this morning with a discussion of business, and was followed by a luncheon at the Woman's club at the noon hour, an afternoon business discussion and will be concluded with a banquet at the Rotary club this evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The principal speakers were James T. Little, manager of the Kelvinator Company; J. K. McCarthy of Detroit, regional manager; George Wagorn, of the Kelvinator factory, and E. E. Rawl, sales manager.

Each of the speakers dealt with activities of the past, and the outlook for increased output of products in the future.

E. E. Rawl stated at the opening of the meeting that the dealers were enthusiastic over the outlook for the present year, and many predicted general increase of sales.

The Kelvinator Company was organized by local interests in this city three years ago and since that time has experienced healthy growth. Its operations extend to all sections of North and South Carolina.

Men's Council Will Push Prosecution of Bank Indictments

Asheville, March 4.—(AP)—The young men's council, meeting last night decided to hire private prosecution to "procure and prosecute indictments of all persons responsible for the financial and political collapse of Buncombe county," tabled a motion favoring horse and dog racing legislation, opposed the election of Claude L. Love and Pat M. Burdett as members of the county school board, and referred to the public affairs committee, a motion requesting the grand jury to determine whether the State Corporation Commission and Banking Department had violated the laws in local bank cases.

According to the secretary of the organization, Lincoln L. Kellogg, all motions were passed with overwhelming majorities. Members said that the motion to endorse legislation would have passed but that it threatened to cause a rift in the organization.

As a result, W. W. Dodge, who introduced the motion, introduced also the motion to table, which was passed. Many who would have voted in favor of the first motion, voted to table it, members said.

Directors of the council have already gone on record favoring the passage of the racing bill.

Concerning the hiring of private prosecution the following resolution was adopted:

"That the young men's council authorize and direct the president to appoint a special committee of three members to confer with the solicitor and inform him of the intention of the council to employ private prosecution and to direct this committee to employ such private prosecution to procure and prosecute indictments of all persons responsible for the political and financial collapse of Buncombe county, and to solicit funds for the payment of this prosecution in the name of the young men's council."

Former President Still Whittling On His Doorsteps

Northampton, Mass., March 4.—(AP)—Two years ago today Calvin Coolidge stepped from the White House and came home to Northampton to whittle a while.

The former president is still whittling on his own doorstep—though the mental chips fly a bit farther than they used to years ago.

Whittling to the New Englander, doesn't necessarily involve a jack knife and a stick of wood. It is as much a state of mind as an occupation. And the former president's acquaintances say, is finding it a not unpleasant state.

Nearly 34 years ago Mr. Coolidge entered the life of this city as a lawyer. Two years later election as city councilman launched him upon his political career. Only when he left the White House was he entirely freed of public responsibilities.

His daily schedule varies little. He arrives at his office about 9 A. M. and reads his mail and the newspapers. Then he turns to the work of preparing his 200-word newspaper article for the next day. This he writes out carefully in longhand. He goes home to lunch about noon, returns in a couple of hours and plans his next day's article. Usually he quits work between 4 and 5 P. M.

Henry Smith, colored, larceny 90 days; Herb Baker, possession of liquor, $25 and cost; John Brown, carrying concealed weapon and driving while drunk $100 and cost; Annie Daniel, colored, assault with deadly weapon, $25.

ENDS CAREER IN THE SENATE

Simmons Remains At Home in New Bern As Congress Concludes Short Session

New Bern, N. C.—(AP)—While the 71st Congress drew to a turbulent close today, a man who has been in the midst of most of its battles of the last generation remained quietly at his home here and saw this written to his 30 years service as a United States Senator.

The man was Furnifold M. Simmons, whose defeat by Josiah W. Bailey in the last Democratic primary removed him as a figure of first importance in the state and national councils of his party.

Ill health prevented Senator Simmons, now 77 years old, from attending the closing sessions of Congress.

His physicians advised him against participation in the Senate contests that marked the closing of his term and he said he decided "to follow orders this time."

Always a militant figure in the affairs of his party, the grizzled veteran's irreconcilable opposition to Alfred E. Smith, Democratic Presidential nominee, in 1928 brought him to the crisis of his political career.

His stand, he said, was based on Smith's opposition on the prohibition question. The state gave Hoover an overwhelming majority in the Presidential contest, but two years later, Simmons went down to defeat before Bailey, who actively supported Smith.

At the end of his long senatorial service, Simmons, surrounded by friends and members of his family, appeared in excellent spirits.

He said he looked forward with keen interest to returning to active supervision of his extensive farming interests. He explained he planned to remain here a year or so and then possibly return to his ancestral home in Jones county, where he was born on January 20, 1854, the son of a well to do and influential land-owner.

CHORUS FROM PITT SCHOOLS TO SING HERE

Annual Music Hour to Be Staged in College Campus Building Friday Evening

Five hundred boys and girls from the rural schools of Pitt county will present their annual chorus, known as the music hour, Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock, March 6. This will be held at the Campus Building of East Carolina Teachers college.

The sixth and seventh grades and high school pupils are participating in the chorus. They are working very hard to share with their parents and community songs which they have enjoyed. This chorus is a part of the daily school work. Music is used for development of a spirit that is more receptive to beauty and fitness in every school subject and activity. Every effort is being made to lay the foundation in music so the child's life is rich, full and happy while they are in school. To meet this need, nothing is better than beautiful music. Music has universal appeal and is adaptable to all ages.

The radio has helped to bring the opera, the folk music, classical compositions and the best of the modern music into every home, through participation we are able to become better choosers of what is most desirable and to appreciate the fitness that lends itself to development of a fine character. Someone has said appreciation is the glow of pleasure which comes from having recognized not discovered, some embodiment of beauty in an art product. Since music has developed from the life of the race, a full appreciation of it will include a correlation with the history of the race, its discoveries in literature and the other arts. This has been the policy of the teaching of music in the public schools.

Thursday, the chorus will have its rehearsal at the Campus Building.

New Bern, N. C.—W. Henry Henderson, former president of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company, which closed August 7, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

Asheville Man Commits Suicide

Asheville, March 4.—(AP)—The body of Irving Bennisch, 28, son-in-law of S. Sternberg, of Asheville, was found in his automobile in a closed garage at the Bennisch home on Weaverville road at 7:30 o'clock this morning. A note written by Bennisch to Mr. Sternberg indicated he had taken his own life.

Coroner John L. Carroll said he believed Bennisch had died from carbon monoxide poisoning. He would hold an inquest at noon to determine the exact cause of death. Bennisch was last seen by a boy he employed at his home at 10 o'clock last evening. The boy told the coroner that Bennisch had ordered him to go to bed at that hour. This morning, the boy not finding his employer at the house, started a search for him. He saw that the garage doors were closed, and on nearing the building, heard the vibrations of a buzzer indicating that the ignition of an automobile was on. He opened the doors and found the body.

All the gasoline had been used from the automobile tank. The boy said he smelled a peculiar odor when he entered the garage, but described it as faint.

The note to Mr. Sternberg had been left in the living room of the house. It began by saying: "This is my last will and testament," the latter requested Mrs. Bennisch and a small daughter. Bennisch listed his insurance policies, one of them for $25,000 and thanked Mr. Sternberg for all he had done for him.

Mrs. Bennisch was staying with her father and mother last night. Mr. Bennisch was formerly in the real estate business here, recently he was proprietor of the Kings Tavern, a Pack Square restaurant, closed a few days ago.

Shame Over Life of Mother Leads Girl to Kill Self

Audobon, N. J., March 4.—(AP)—Police today read in the entries in her diary for the last four days the story of the shame over the life and death of her mother, Vivian Gordon, that led 16-year-old Benita Bischoff to kill herself.

The girl, a freshman in high school, was found unconscious in the gas-filled kitchen of her home yesterday by her step-mother, Mrs. Eunice Bischoff. She died shortly after reaching a hospital.

In her diary, which was found on the dresser in her bedroom, she had made four entries, the first on February 28, two days after her mother's body, with a knotted cord around her neck, was found in Van Cortlandt Park, New York. The mother had given information to vice investigators.

The entries were: "February 28.—What an awful mess mother got herself into; she has been found dead in New York, and they are saying terrible things."

"March 1.—Everyone is nice to me, especially mother (her step-mother). I guess I'll change my name from Bischoff to Frederica. (Frederica was her middle name)."

"March 2.—They are saying so many things. It is awful."

"March 3.—I just can't live any longer. This has got to be too much for me. I am going to end it all. If any money is coming to me from my mother I wish it to be divided between my grandmother, Herbert Trout and Billy. I am in my right mind and I am not going to turn on the jets."

Her grandmother is Mrs. Margaret Sanders of Philadelphia. Trout was her schoolboy sweetheart and "Billy" is Billy Walton her 16-year-old step-sister. Authorities estimated the estate of Vivian Gordon was worth $50,000.

Cleford A. Baldwin, prosecutor of Camden county, said he was convinced Benita had committed suicide.

Benita's father, John E. C. Bischoff, who is deputy marshal at the District of Columbia Reformatory at Lorton, Va., arrived here today to make arrangements for her funeral.

Vivian Gordon was divorced by him in 1925.

Raleigh, N. C.—Milton C. Williams, Raleigh attorney, has been appointed secretary to Representative POU.

Greensboro, N. C.—Miss Ruth Williams, of Rocky Mount, has been elected president of the freshman class at North Carolina College for Women.

ABOUT TOWN

The premonition that caused Mr. G. Hog to scurry back to his place of hibernation when he came out for a sniff of air sometime ago certainly stood the little fellow in good stead, judging by the severe attack of winter which this section of the country is undergoing at this time.

There were some who scoffed at the fright of the ground hog when he saw his shadow and there were others who believed in his infallibility, and like the hog, prepared to take care of eventualities. Those who doubted were the ones caught with empty coal bins and inadequate clothing to carry them through the severe cold spell, and those who abided by the "signs of the times" as expressed in the haste of the ground hog's return to his nice warm quarters were the ones with enough fuel and clothing on hand to enable them to endure the chill temperatures and go through to that period filled with blamy days of springtime.

Both the ground hog and the weather man become unnecessarily frightened by elemental appearances at times, but usually they can be counted on to do the right thing, and those who abide implicitly by their calculations will win more times than they lose.

This is the time for everybody to use optimism in his job in the opinion of Maynard Fletcher, of Washington, district governor of Rotary, who briefly addressed members of the local club here Monday evening.

That many will agree with the speaker is not to be doubted. Too many of us have permitted ourselves to be led to the depths of despondency when optimism would have enabled us to tackle the problems of the present in a far more successful manner.

The psychological effect of optimism is inestimable during times like these and if the business men would make a practice of seeing the bright side of the dark cloud of depression they would encourage an improvement in the perspective of hundreds of people with whom they come in contact from day to day.

If prosperity does not eventuate at the end of the depression the pessimist, the man of gloom, has no one to blame but himself. A renaissance of "hard times" probably may come with each generation but its severity will be determined largely by the way the people face the situation. The foundation of this great and thriving government is based upon hope and as long as this flame burns in the breasts of our people, so long will they continue to prosper and rise above their environment.

Men like Maynard Fletcher constituted that lot who blazed their way from coast to coast, across mountains and jungles, several hundred years ago and they are continuing to do so today in the world of business and finance. Faith, hope and optimism are the basis of all great achievement and American people have lost none of the fibre which enabled them to overcome apparently insurmountable obstacles in the making of the history of this great nation.

It is infinitely important for the growers to produce more of the things they use at home if they come off with colors flying at the end of the next harvest season and the men who give this matter attention at this time will be among the first to see good results.

There is nothing chimerical about the plan outlined by prominent agriculturalists for improving the condition of the average grower. They have a definite objective to work to and that is to get the growers away from the habit of raising money crops alone, and induce them to provide their families with the feedstuffs which they use all the year around.

The nostrum of the live-at-home advocates is as simple in its application as it is in theory, and if followed intelligently by the majority of growers should contribute great-

SMITH RENEWS DRY LAW TALK

Democrats Fearful Matter Will Be Aired At National Committee Meeting

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—A sharp-line drawn by Alfred E. Smith between discussion and adoption of a policy gave food for thought today to the Democrats who fear prohibition will be brought up before tomorrow's session of the party's national committee.

The Democrats, said the 1928 presidential candidate yesterday, might as well give up and join the Republicans if they were afraid to "discuss all public questions."

Earlier he had expressed the opinion that policy forming was not within the sphere of the committee but a task for the national convention.

Smith's latest statement was seized upon to back up a prediction that fireworks might be set off tomorrow.

Smith, still undecided whether to attend the session, added his views on discussions: "I'm so much of a Democrat that I think the man who takes the ashes out of this hotel should have a right to speak his mind at a Democratic gathering."

While neither Smith nor Raskob would say definitely whether an anti-prohibition resolution would be brought up, Democratic leaders in and out of Congress continued warning against such a move.

House Elaborate With Farewells

Washington, March 4.—(AP)—Lucky enough to have a couple of members with real voices, the House became elaborate today in celebrating its farewells.

Ruth Bryan Owen, representative from Florida, and William P. Connery, Jr., from Massachusetts, were asked to sing "The Sidewalks of New York," "Swanee River," "Iowa, That's Where the Tall Corn Grows," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and whatnot.

To aid them Representative Clifton A. Woodrum of Virginia, brought up an old-fashioned barn dance orchestra. The marine band orchestra also was pressed into service.

The singing is an annual custom now, but it was begun by newspapermen. Once the press gallery on adjournment day started the House by singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

New the members sing first.

BILLY'S UNCLE

BUSH FACED BY SHORTAGE OF HITTERS

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer
San Antonio, Tex., March 4.—(AP)—A probably weak-hitting infield is facing Rotund Donie Bush as he starts his second campaign as manager of the Chicago White Sox. The former premier shortstop doubtless wishes he could roll back the year and step in to steady his inner works.

Of pitching the Sox have plenty, their catching shapes up well, and they have a trio of slugging outfielders. A punchless infield largely responsible for the fact the Pale Horse dropped 35 one-run decisions last year, to land in seventh place. Bush hopes he is building an infield this year that will do better.

First base is the big question mark. The lone candidate is one Ray Rattliff, a youngster who thumped the ball for 360 to lead the Southeastern league last season. If Rattliff comes through a big load will leave Bush's mind. If not, Johnny Watwood, an outfielder, will get the job.

Chalmers Cissell, a jack-of-all-trades last year, will get the call for second, and Bush hopes his 371 hitting will pick up. Lou Appling, the ex-collegian who finished well last year, will start at short. Willie Kamm, the erstwhile $110,000 beauty, looks like a fixture at third, although he hit only .289 last season.

Bush's particular pride and joy is his outfield. In Carl Reynolds and Smead Jolly, veterans and Melvin Simmons, the 371 cloutier obtained from Louisville in a recent trade, the Sox have three gardeners who walloped the ball for a combined average of .347 last season. They are fixtures.

Headed by Ted Lyons, who won 22 games in 1930, the White Sox mound corps ranks as the second of third best in the American league. Alloway Thomas, Harold McKay, Pat Caraway, Urban "Red" Faber and Garland Braxton round out the list of veterans.

Benny Tate, the veteran obtained from Washington last year, and a pair of international league stars, Walter "Bent" Henline and Frank Grube, compose a formidable catching staff.

OLD LINERS CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Atlanta, Ga., March 4.—(AP)—Maryland today owns the Southern Conference basketball championship lock, stick and barrel.

The old liners won the honors for the first time by defeating the University of Kentucky in the final of the conference tournament, 29 to 27 here last night.

The old liners thanks to gold old Eddie Ronkin, a guard who is a guard, forward and some left over, took the bit between their teeth with Eddie's field goal in the first thirty seconds if play and were never overhauled until the closing minutes then they were equal to the occasion and immediately regained top position as the closing gun sounded.

Individually, as shown by the Associated Press all-conference mythical team, elected by coaches and sports writers who watched the contests, Kentucky had the edge over Maryland but collectively Maryland was the superior team in the final battle.

McGinnis and Spicer both of Kentucky, were given the forward positions on the honor team; Berger, another Kentuckian, was the unanimous choice for center, while Berger and Ronkin, Maryland's guards held their same jobs.

On the second team, Emmelhans, Florida, and Garrison of Louisiana State took the forward posts; Cronson of Duke, repeated at center, while Bronston of Kentucky and Reeder of Georgia were named as guards. Reeder defeated Captain Mappert of North Carolina, by one point.

Basketball Teams Fight for Supremacy At the University

Chapel Hill, March 4.—(AP)—Chapel Hill today held the hop's of four high school basketball teams for state championships.

In the Class A ranks, it was Charlotte, champion of all Eastern competition, who hurled all Eastern competition to bag the title in that section. These two fives will meet at 8 P. M. to fight it out for the state crown in the top rank.

Winter Haven—Buzz Arlett, a coast clouter, joined the Phillies yesterday, arriving a few hours after telegraphing Manager Shotton he was spending southward. "Start smiling," his message read, "will be there this afternoon."

St. Petersburg—Joe McCool knows now why Babe Ruth "stays" all alone in this slugging business. "He gets distance with so little exertion," said the New York Yankees' manager.

Clearwater—One of the inhabitants walked up to Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, and wanted to know the name of the "rookie" who's driving those balls over the fence. "Some rookie," said Uncle Robbie. "That's Lefty O'Doul."

San Antonio, Texas—John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants doesn't want the impression to get around that "Memphis Bill" Terry, hold-out first baseman, has not been offered an increased salary as reward for leading the National league in batting last year.

"We have offered him $4,500 more than he got last year," said John. "His 1931 contract calls for $22,500, not bad for a young fellow."

Bradenton—Despite the spirited rivalry between them for the first basing job with the St. Louis Cardinals, "Sunny Jim" Bottomley and Jim (Rip) Collins have become personal friends. Manager Gabby Street said today Bottomley would be the regular first baseman this year "unless Collins proves a better ball player."

West Palm Beach—The list of absent players in the St. Louis Browns' training camp here continued to dwindle today. Only Lu Blue "Rip" Collins and Frank Waddey are among the missing.

Paso Robles—Worries over the Pittsburgh Pirates' catching department are over in the opinion of Manager Jewel Eas. Ralston Hensley is playing brilliantly and Eddie Phillips, obtained from the Philadelphia Athletics, is leaving nothing to be desired.

New Orleans—Two Cleveland Indians who labored under the handi cap of broken arms last year have demonstrated themselves amply recovered. They are Lew Fonseca, utility infielder, the only Athletics not ready to participate.

Tampa—"Jersey Joe" Stripp, Cincinnati Red third baseman was signed by President Sidney Weil today, leaving only two men, Horace Ford and Charley Dressen, utility infielders, the only Athletics not ready to participate.

Sacramento, Cal.—Manager Stan Harris has announced that Detroit pitchers will be expected to work over the full nine inning route in exhibition games this spring.

Avalon, Cal.—Clarence Blain, who found himself playing second base for the Cubs last season when Rogers Hornsby was injured, is wasting no time seeing to it that the return of the Rajah this year, does no do him out of a job.

"Footsy" finished up Sunday's practice game with a home run, and yesterday knicked the spring pitching for a single, double and triple.

San Antonio, Tex.—Unless Carl Reynolds comes to terms with the Chicago White Sox, only three veterans except for batterymen, will be in the starting lineup when the exhibition series opens at Houston Sunday. Bill Cissell will be at second, Willie Kamm at third and Smead Jolley out in right field.

Biloxi, Miss.—With his pitchers sufficiently limbered up to bear down on their deliveries, Manager Walter Johnson today planned to send the Nationals out for their first batting drill.

Trackmen to Open Carnival Saturday

Chapel Hill, March 4.—(AP)—A host of flying trackmen will descend upon Chapel Hill Saturday to furnish competition in the second annual southern conference indoor games and the spring athletic carnival of the University of North Carolina.

Sixteen teams, 17 men more than took part in the outdoor champion ships last year, are entered in the 12 conference events also.

Added to these, will be 40 or more other teams to compete in events for non-conference varsity and freshmen collegians, preparatory and high school athletes.

CARNERA WILL BATTLE WITH JIM MALONEY

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
Miami, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Weather and track conditions permitting, Primo Carnera, the big question mark of the prize ring will gallop ten rounds or less against Jimmy Maloney, the Boston fish pedler, tomorrow night in the second and positively the last of this winter's fistie festivals under the palms.

The battle of the cracked rib, as it has been known since a fracture developed in the ponderous frame of Carnera a fortnight ago, will be run off in spite of a flock of obstacles and even if it takes a derick and a hospital staff to get the ailing Italian into the ring.

The anguish suffered by Carnera, depending on the outcome of the bout, may be trifling by comparison with the acute pains in the region of the box-office. The show faces financial failure, despite the optimism still manifest by Promoter Frank J. Bruen.

Bruen remained confident today the "rate" at prices ranging from $2 to $15 would pass $100,000 and enable him to break even. On the basis of an extremely disappointing sale, however, the total receipts may not go beyond $50,000.

Although Carnera and his board of managers are very anxious to wipe out the decision scored by Maloney in Boston, they have their eyes fixed on bigger things than this return match under unfavorable conditions. The Italian's directorate has posted a $25,000 forfeit, to bind a match in September with the winner of the Schmeling-Stribling heavyweight title match. They also have a proposal to fight Jack Sharkey in New York this summer.

Another setback at Maloney's hands, therefore, would be quite embarrassing.

WINTERVILLE FALLS BEFORE LOCAL HIGHS

Last night Greenville high school displayed some of her best form of the season when she defeated Winterville high school team 32-18. Although Winterville is not a member of the conference they have defeated some of the conference members, and Greenville did very well to beat them. The most encouraging aspect of the contest was the return of the eyes of several members of the team. The shooting was better than it has been in weeks, and opponents weak or strong are the same on long shots like Greenville made last night.

Broadhurst played a stellar game for Greenville, and led in the scoring with nine points. Bullock made six, Nobles six, and Woolard two, to lead in the scoring. Nobles played a stellar game and showed lots of promise. For Winterville, McGlohon played a stellar ball both on the floor and in shooting. Many of the boys are finishing their high school basketball careers tonight when they meet Bethel in Robersonville. Captain Bullock, Nobles, James, Deal, and Broadhurst are all finishing, and they will leave a big hole in next year's team, but still there is a wealth of material for next year's team, and it should be good.

The boys had one day's rest on Monday, and they were in fighting shape last night. Then, too, the team is going to Raleigh to win the basketball tournament starting there on Thursday and ending Saturday night. Greenville has as strong a team as there is in the tournament and should win. The boys are working hard to prepare for these games. Any supporters who can go to Robersonville tonight will be gladly welcomed.

Consider Sally Problems Today

Greensboro, March 4.—Piedmont League directors today agreed to admit Charlotte and Asheville to the circuit, provided a situation brought about by the increased of the Sally, announced last week that a poll of the Piedmont clubs revealed no opposition to the entry of Charlotte and Asheville into the cigarette circle.

There was, however, a question of mileage, raised by the Henderson club, to be considered. The Gamecock moguls indicated they might seek to bar the two clubs unless this question was settled in such a way as to keep their expenses down.

Entry into the Piedmont would leave Charlotte and Asheville sitting pretty, but other Sally cities are as yet without "any place to go," although promising suggestions as to providing for them have been made.

W. G. Bramham, of Durham, Piedmont president, who also headed the Sally, announced last week that a poll of the Piedmont clubs revealed no opposition to the entry of Charlotte and Asheville into the cigarette circle.

is settled satisfactorily.

Greensboro, March 4.—(AP)—Solution of one of the problems that developed with the breaking up of the South Atlantic Baseball association was slated here today at a meeting of the directors of the Piedmont League to act on the applications of Charlotte and Asheville, former Sally members, for Piedmont franchises.

The two clubs, lining up strong camps for 1931 competition, were left without anchorage a week ago when the Sally gave up the ghost after 28 years of baseball history. They looked to admission into the all-North Carolina cigarette loop, the only Class B circuit left in the South as the end of their immediate worries.

W. G. Bramham, of Durham, Piedmont president, who also headed the Sally, announced last week that a poll of the Piedmont clubs revealed no opposition to the entry of Charlotte and Asheville into the cigarette circle.

SPORTS SLANTS

It's the custom with the winners and those sitting on top of the sports world to be well satisfied with things as they are but I understand Mr. Samuel Bredon, the energetic president of the St. Louis Cardinal league champions, wielded much influence in the decision to extract some of the jack-rabbit juice from the big league baseball for 1931.

Mr. Bredon always has been among the "progressives" in the council of magnates. He and his partner, Branch Rickey, were the first to develop "chain-store" baseball on a grand scale, with a system that has produced a steady flow of talent for the Cardinals and substantial profits for the parent concern.

The Cards have their sluggers, but the club in winning three pennants in five years, has not neglected the more scientific features of the game. The team captain, Frisch, is one of the best baserunners in the game. So is Taylor Douthitt, the fleet outfielder. Charley Gelbert, the young shortstop, has the makings of another fine base-runner. Cardinal pitching has had as much as anything to do with the team's successes under the leadership of such men as Hornsby, McKechnie and Street.

I encountered the affable Mr. Chick Evans unexpectedly and without any advance notice in the big society gallery following the Hicks-Van Wie final to the Florida

Women's golf championship at Palm Beach.

The way these girls socked the bigger and lighter golf ball was somewhat astounding to the former national champion, who admitted he was watching a woman's tournament match for the first time.

"It's astonishing the way women have improved in this game," when we laughed at the idea of a woman driving 200 yards or beating men's par. These girls could beat a lot of men who think they know how to play the old game."

Chick is an "old man" as competitive golfers go now. It is 15 years since he was amateur and open champion of the United States. But he doesn't look it and he expects to play in the open at Toledo his year as well as the amateur at Chicago, his home town of talent for the Cardinals and substantial profits for the parent concern.

"I've circled the globe with the Fleet"

—says Chesterfield

Yet you'll find me at the crossroads store"

When Jack's ashore he's liable to be going several places at once! But there's one thing Navy men can get together on—whether in Hong Kong, Seattle, or Newtown Center: Taste is what they want in their cigarettes—the taste that comes from milder and better tobaccos, and from nothing else! They know their cigarettes, these men of the fleet. That's why Chesterfield is the Navy's choice!

FOR NINETEEN years, our Research Department has kept intimate touch with every new development of Science that could be applied to the manufacture of cigarettes. During this period there has been no development of tested value or importance to the smoker which we have not incorporated into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes.

COTTON MARKET

N. Y. STOCK LIST

New York, March 4.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 2 to 5 points on overnight buying orders, which seemed to have been brought in by the recent improvement in reports from the textile trade and was supposed to include some buying of near months by trade interests, including a moderate demand for July from brokers who sometimes operate for Japanese interests.

The demand was quite readily supplied by realizing, however, while there was a little southern and local selling. The latter was probably promoted by the indifferent showing of Liverpool and the first few minutes with prices easing back to about yesterday's closing quotations. May sold off from 11.39 to 11.33 and October from 11.90 to 11.87 with the market quiet at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported continued buying and local selling in sympathy with the easier ruling of Egyptian cotton and on a belief that the Indian news had been discounted. Manchester advices indicated a good business piling in cotton goods for India and China.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, March 4.—(AP)—Rain or snow predicted for most of the United States wheat belt resulted in early lower prices on grains today. Big primary receipts of domestic wheat counted also as a bearish factor and Liverpool reported pressure of offerings from Australia. Opening 5-8 off to 5-8 up, wheat afterward underwent an all-around sag.

Corn started at 5-8 decline to 1-4 advance and later kept near to the initial range.

Wheat closed irregular 1-4 off to 1-2 up; corn 3-8 to 1-8 advance; oats 1-8 to 1-4 decline to 1-4 advance and provisions showing a rise of 7 to 15 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 4.—(AP)—Shrinkage of railway dividend crowded more favorable developments out of speculative vision in Wall Street today, and the stock market broke sharply.

Efforts to translate a bullish interpretation of the veto of the Muscle Shoals bill and the imminent adjournment of Congress into a rise in public utility shares, made little headway against the downward trend of the list as a whole.

The mid-week business statistics disclosed mixed trends, although the steel trade reviews reported further gains for the 10th consecutive week. Furthermore, the agreement reached by Gandhi and Lord Irwin in India, promising an end to the economic impasse in that country, was described in important banking circles as a development likely to be of profoundly favorable influence upon world trade.

After an irregular opening, the market plunged downward under heavy selling during the morning. Losses of 2 to 7 were numerous. Around midday gains of a point or two were made and retained with difficulty. The market turned dull during the afternoon. Frisco, Atchafalaya, and Union Pacific dropped about 4 to 7 points, then recovered half their losses. Such issues as Rock Island, Baltimore and Ohio, Southern Pacific and New York Central lost 2 to more than 3 points. A long list of industrials and utilities made extreme losses of 2 to 3 points, including U. S. and Bethlehem Steels, American Can, American Telephone, North American, Westinghouse, Dupont and American Smelting. Standard Gas was a firm spot, rising more than two points.

Credit conditions were stationary, with call money steady to firm at 11-12 per cent.

BEES WORK EARLY AND LATE TO HELP OIL ORCHARDISTS

Wenatchee, Wash.—(AP)—Orchardists of Central Washington make bees help raise apples.

The honey-makers don't cultivate the ground, or irrigate, or spray the trees, but they can do a neat job of pollination.

Apples must have pollen carried from one plant to another or they become sterile. When agricultural authorities of the state found the bees would do this work they advised the importation of them to Washington as laborers in the apple orchards. Increases in crops were reported by the growers.

YOU can get relief from that headache in just a few minutes if you go over to the drug store and get a bottle of Capudine... or take a dose at the soda fountain. I've never seen anything in my life that gives such quick relief. It's got powders and pills beaten a mile for speed. It's the best bet for the "morning after" too.

Being liquid, Capudine acts immediately, often in one-third the time required by other forms. It contains no narcotics, does not disturb digestion and is approved by Doctors and Druggists. Even with the most severe headache, relief comes very quickly.

Sold at Drug Stores, 10c, 30c and 60c bottles and by the dose at soda fountains.

Headache? That needn't bother you long.
