FAMILIES OF U. S. MARINES QUIT MANAGUA

Evacuation of Women and Children From Area of Devastation Now On

By WILLIAM E. EWING (Associated Press Staff Writer) Managua, April 3.—(AP)—Two hundred American wives and children bade farewell today to husbands and fathers of the United States Marine Corps as airplanes began their evacuation from Managua, devastated by earthquakes last Tuesday.

Two tri-motor Ford planes and one Fairchild of the Pan-American Airways, with possible a Sikorsky later, were assigned to take the American refugees to Corinto, the Pacific coast port, where some will remain, but most will embark for the United States.

The Marines are remaining in Managua, continually reinforced by details which have been pulled in from outlying sections, and are superintending the tremendous task of relief, but in view of the lack of accommodations and possibly of an epidemic it was thought best that the women and children should leave the stricken area.

Although the Marine officers believe it impossible that gangs of insurgents or bandits would attack the city in its present extremity, their watchfulness was made apparent last night when a telegram was received from Concepcion, 15 miles away, that a bandit force was advancing on the city.

Everybody at the Marine aviation field was ordered out, and civilians sleeping in the open nearby were ordered to report for arms and ammunition so as to be able to defend themselves. A few minutes later it was ascertained that the force referred to was 50 miles away and everybody was allowed to go back to sleep.

There were constant reports yesterday from natives reaching Managua from the outlands that bandits were approaching the city. (A Mexico City dispatch said that Dr. Pedro Jose Zepeda, foreign representative of the insurgent chief, Augustino Sandino, had received a telegram from Sandino stating that all hostilities against the Marines were being called off during the crisis created by the earthquake.)

Marines last night shot two natives caught looting the ruins. Government officials insist that Managua will be rebuilt, but today it appeared that the capital would be removed, at least temporarily to Masaya, located about half way between Managua and Granada. It was believed that if moved to Leon, the Liberal stronghold, or Granada, Conservative fort, it would cause discontent. It was understood that the National Bank of Nicaragua would be removed to Granada today.

The blaze in Managua, which has never been completely under control since the earthquake Tuesday forenoon, shifted by a change in the wind during the night so that the entire northwestern section of the city was threatened.

Due undoubtedly to presence of the Marines here relief has proceeded probably more satisfactorily than in any similar disaster of its kind.

Some difficulty is being experienced in getting sufficient water for inhabitants, such as is available being polluted, but considerable beer is being dispensed by the Nicaraguan Brewery, which remained intact.

A large amount of food has been brought here by airplanes from Panama, Salvador, Guatemala and Costa Rica, and it is believed there is sufficient here to care for immediate needs.

Vaccination and inoculation against smallpox, tetanus and typhoid is proceeding. Marine Corps and naval medical corps officers are treating the injured. It was estimated that 150 emergency operations were carried out yesterday, the work frequently being interrupted by new quakes. Only chemical sterilization was possible.

As bodies are recovered from the ruins estimates of the death toll are being revised upward. Colonel F. L. Bradman, in charge of emergency work, now reckons the number of dead at about 2,000. Other estimates on the totals run as high as 4,000 dead. The bodies are being buried in some instances but in others being taken to a large funeral outside the city and burned.

Believe Small Piece Of Ice Caused The Wreck Of Death Plane In Kansas

Findings of Department of Commerce Investigators Show Plane May Have Fallen With Wing Section Rent Asunder After Ice Shattered Propeller Blade

By OSCAR LEIDING Associated Press Aviation Editor Washington, April 3.—(AP)—A small piece of ice may have sent America's most famous coach, Knute Rockne, and seven others to death in Tuesday's airplane crash.

Findings of Department of Commerce investigators, made known in a statement last night, showed the death plane may have fallen with a wing section rent asunder by vibration after ice shattered a propeller blade.

The Wright outboard engine, on the side of the broken wing, was found with its three propeller blades and hub missing though the safety nut normally holding them in place remained on the end of the crankshaft.

"Investigators were advised," the statement said, "that ice had collected on the entering edge of the wing and it is assumed that ice had also collected around the propeller hub."

"It is possible that a substantial piece of ice may have broken loose from the hub and been struck by one of the propeller blades, resulting in its breakage.

"The resultant shock to the entire structure was probably transmitted through the brace struts which extend to the fuselage, thus opening the structure and releasing the mail stored therein.

The engineering section of the aeronautical branch has calculated that there would be a load in excess of 100,000 pounds upon the engine and the engine mount should one blade of the propeller break off at normal cruising speed.

"The investigation indicates that this load snapped the wing off and when almost simultaneously the propeller hub broke, releasing the other two blades. Late today, these three blades and the hub had not been found although a searching party has been searching the country for miles around the accident."

Investigators assumed that something severed the wing with little or no warning on the theory that there was no serious difficulty at the last radio report, two minutes before the time of the crash as fixed by watches of three of the victims, and eye-witness reports of a wing section floating away from the plane in its fatal dive near Bazaar, Kansas.

The statement said the findings were informal and not to be construed as official.

BANK HEAD IS INDICTED

The Jefferson County Grand Jury Indicts Rogers Caldwell in Bank Fraud

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—(AP)—Rogers Caldwell, president of Caldwell and Company, Nashville, Tenn., was indicted by the Jefferson county grand jury here today, charged with making false representations in negotiating for the merger of his company with bankruptcy.

New indictments charging embezzlement and conspiracy against James B. Brown, former president and Charles F. Jones, former vice-president of Bank of Kentucky, also were returned in the grand jury's final report.

The embezzlement indictments, based on a $2,000,000 note, executed by Mr. Brown and sold to Bancokentucky by Wakefield and Company, local brokers, were returned as substitutes for the previous indictments against Brown and Jones.

In its indictment against Caldwell the grand jury charged his concern was hopelessly insolvent last summer when Caldwell placed a value of $9,000,000 on half its assets. The charge was making false representations to obtain credit.

Caldwell and Company, Bancokentucky and all of Brown's other concerns, including the National Bank of Kentucky's latest report showed total resources of $4,000,000, and the Louisville Trust approximately $3,000,000.

MEN ASK FOR QUICK DEATH

Columbus Prisoners Willing to Confess Firing Jail if Given Speedy Execution

Columbus, O., April 3.—(AP)—A promise of immediate death in the electric chair will bring a guilty plea Monday from two Ohio penitentiary convicts who confessed they fired the prison, resulting in the snuffing out of the lives of 320 convicts.

The prisoners, Clinton Grate and Hugh Gibson indicted for first degree murder on six counts, told Prosecutor Donald Hoskins and newspapermen today they would plead guilty when arraigned Monday, if the prosecutor could guarantee the would be sentenced and executed immediately.

"Under the circumstances what else can we do?" asked the convicts in unison.

Gibson said "We don't want to go back to the penitentiary. We have been there for nine years and know what it's like." Asked if he feared other prisoners would turn on them if they were placed in the penitentiary he replied "No." It's not the prisoners, but the officials we're afraid of. Any way, we would never get out, if we got life sentences. It would never be forgotten and we'd have to live there the rest of our lives."

Grate said there was no premeditated murder when they set the fire. He added "we started one in December, but the wind blew the wrong direction and the candle didn't light the wooden concrete block forms. The lumber was nowhere near the cell blocks. We only wanted to destroy the forms to prevent the construction of L block, in which they were building 48 solitary confinement cells.

"We didn't want to see anyone go in there. We had hoped the fire would break out while we were at supper, but we had no idea that the prisoners would be in their cells when the fire started."

Gibson and Grate met this morning in the county jail when deputies presented copies of the indictments to them. "Did you get your papers?" asked Gibson. "Yes," replied Grate. "What do you think of them?" Gibson asked, and his fellow-conspirator replied, "they're pretty tough, ain't they?"

Immediately after the interview with the prosecutor and the reporters, both prisoners asked that they be permitted to talk with the trial judge. They said they wanted to put their proposition up to the judge, for they wanted it definitely understood that if they pleaded guilty they would be electrocuted as soon as possible, and not give life terms.

If electrocuted, the will die in the chair in the little red brick death house behind the penitentiary walls, only 100 feet from the spot where the bodies of the 320 victims of the Easter Monday fire a year ago.

ALDERMEN SET UP MACHINERY FOR ELECTION

Appoint Registrars, Judges and Assistants for Municipal Primary May 4

Completion of plans for the municipal election to be held in the city May 4th, and discussion of several matters of minor importance occupied the Board of Aldermen in regular monthly session at the City Hall last night.

The election will be held for the purpose of electing a mayor and five aldermen. Preliminary plans were discussed at a previous meeting but the final setting up of machinery was left to the meeting last night.

Harvey Ward was appointed registrar of the election, and Mrs. Alex Viola and Jack Foley, judges. The following assistants were named to assist the regular election officials: Wallace Phelps, Mrs. Sugg Fleming, Mrs. Ray Tyson, Jennings Ragsdale and Charlie Manning.

City Clerk Reid Gaskins was instructed to prepare the necessary ballots to be used in the election. The election will be held under the Australian Ballot system, the first time that people of Greenville have voted under the new law in a municipal election.

It was decided that each of the candidates for mayor would be allowed markers to assist voters in the preparation of ballots. Each of the candidates will be allowed to submit ten names to the Board of Aldermen which will also act as the Board of Electors, from which the markers will be selected.

A committee consisting of Mayor J. C. Lanier, T. T. Hollingsworth, John Ivey Smith and A. E. Hobbins was appointed to investigate Cherry Hill cemetery and report their findings at the next meeting.

The appointment of the committee resulted from a statement by Alderman Hollingsworth that the cemetery was not being kept in the best of condition. He said several complaints regarding the untidy appearance of cemetery lots had reached him recently and said he thought the board should investigate the situation.

Alderman Smith explained that the walks were kept clean, but that the city had nothing to do with the condition of private lots, this being left to the discretion of the owners.

The matter of paving the sidewalk in front of the Model school at the college was deferred until a recent meeting.

Mayor Lanier reported on correspondence with Governor Gardner regarding a request that the state reimburse the city for paving in front of the college, but said that nothing definite had been accomplished. The matter, he said, had been submitted to Representative E. G. Flanagan at suggestion of the governor.

The mayor reported a distinct improvement in the collection of privilege license taxes since the inauguration of a campaign to effect more attention of business interests to this important matter. He said they were keeping behind the matter and expected to witness a continued improvement during the present month.

Fire Chief George Gardner received permission of the board to attend a school for firemen at Durham the latter part of the month. He was allowed the sum of $15 to defray his expenses, and was requested to try to induce other firemen to attend.

The board instructed the mayor to file an answer to the suit brought against the city by several negroes who were hurt when their car crashed through a barricade at the foot of Pitt street.

The city tax collector was instructed to collect the tax on the property of the late Mrs. J. C. Royall.

Senate Committee Puts Stamp Of Approval On Sections Revenue Bill

Sixty-five Different Parts of the House Measure Receive Favorable Consideration as Body Sits as a Committee of the Whole; Atmosphere Tense As Time for Battle Over Sales Tax Draws Near

Raleigh, April 3.—(AP)—Taking up the revenue bill from the first section and considering it in order, the Senate today approved more than 65 sections of the House measure, sitting as a committee of the whole.

All of the first article of the bill, increasing inheritance tax rates, one per cent, was adopted and half of the license tax section also had been approved this morning.

The atmosphere in the chamber was tense in anticipation of the expected battle over the sales tax when the last of the five articles is taken up.

During debate on the Bernard amendment to strike out the provision of the House bill levying a 10 per cent tax on admissions to all college and other athletic contests, bathing beaches and other amusements, the sales tax question was discussed by Senators Horton of Chatham and Johnson of Duplin. The Senate voted 27 to 22 to retain the admissions tax.

All other sections considered caused little discussion. The House, which is in virtual recess until noon Tuesday, held a 10-minute session but passed no bills.

Backers of the House revenue bill and the MacLean school law claim the measure will produce $28,322,000 annually but A. J. Maxwell, commissioner of revenue, estimates it will get only about $26,600,000.

The first tilt between the sales tax and anti-sales tax factions arose when Chairman Dunlap, of Anson, sent forward the committee report "without prejudice" and moved that Senator Whedbee of Perquimans be made chairman of the committee of the whole.

Immediately the sales tax proponents objected that Lt. Gov. Fountain, president of the Senate, should be allowed to name the chairman of the committee.

After Senator Dunlap withdrew his motion, Fountain called Senator Blount of Pitt to the chair as chairman. Immediately after the body resolved itself into committee, Senator Hinsdale of Wake sent forward an amendment to substitute his selected commodities "luxury tax" plan for the Day tax on retail merchants but withdrew his amendment later.

The Senate decided to consider uncontested sections first, and Senator Hinsdale said he would again send up his amendment when the sections relating to the sales tax are reached.

The sales tax is the last article in the bulky bill and should the Senate start at the beginning and not consider it until reached in regular order it will not be taken up until next week.

When the House was on the bill it considered the sales tax ahead of the other contested sections. All portions of the article dealing with inheritance taxes, including an increase of one per cent in the rate were approved without discussion.

Sections imposing license taxes on amusement parks, traveling shows and firms handling motion picture theatres 10 per cent ran into opposition.

Senator Bernard of Buncombe offered an amendment to strike out the entire section which levies taxes on football, baseball and other athletic contests, bathing beaches and other amusements except in high schools. It was estimated the tax on college football games would produce $50,000.

CAPONE SET FREE AGAIN

Chicago Officials Drop Charges of Vagrancy Against Gang Leader

Chicago, April 3.—(AP)—Charges of vagrancy were wiped from "Scarface" Al Capone's escutcheon today. The prosecutors said they could find no policeman intimate enough with the gang chief's activities to testify to his vagrancy.

Capone posed genially for the photographers. It was during his recent trial for contempt of Federal court, for which he was handed a six months jail term, that Capone had his first appearance in the Municipal court as an alleged vagrant. The warrant, last fall when Capone was given position number 1 on the crime commission's roster of "public enemies."

The prosecutors asked leave to file an amended bill of complaint and when this was brought in by Policeman Roy Van Herik, signer of the warrant, acknowledged that he could not, of his own knowledge, swear to Capone's lack of legitimate employment and failure to provide for his family.

"Have you found a policeman who can testify?" Judge Frank M. Padden inquired today.

Shoots Sweetheart and Kills Himself

North Wilkesboro, April 3.—(AP)—Spurred by jealousy because Miss Della Brewer, pretty school teacher, accepted another young man visitor, John Royall, youth of the McGrady community, fatally wounded her and then killed himself with a shotgun last night.

Officers investigating the tragedy said the affair climaxed a courtship begun last fall when the girl came to the community to teach and secured a room in the home of the youth's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Royall.

Last night a youth named Newton called on the teacher. Young Royall secured a shotgun, walked from the house and fired through a window, the charge striking the girl in the face and neck. He then turned the other barrel to his heart and pulled the trigger.

Medical aid was summoned for the girl, but she died a short time later.

"SIR, DO TAKE MY LAST VANILLA WAFER" said the noble fellow.

This touching act of self-sacrifice shows how the practice of dunking brings out the best and highest traits of mankind.

Imagine giving your last Uneeda Bakers Vanilla Wafer to a stranger—and you just about to dunk it yourself! Unless you're a Dunketeer, it's no use even trying to understand such nobility, such generosity. Only one with the great unselfish heart of a true Dunketeer would sacrifice his own pleasures to help promote the art of dunking.

And so day by day, this old world moves on to Higher and Nobler Dunking.

For all the delights of cookies and crackers, say the words "Uneeda Bakers" and remember the Red Seal.

Quiet Easter for Capital

Officials Anticipate the Most Homey Occasion Capital Has Had in Years

By MARGUERITE YOUNG Washington, April 3.—(AP)—While tourists trek to hotels by the thousands, officials are preparing for one of the most homey Easters the capital has had in years.

Advance notice that this would be a bloodless Easter failed to dissuade the visitors; they poured in by rail and private automobiles.

Charles Henlock, former White House gardener, famous for the accuracy of his predictions, sauntered along the tidal basin and reiterated it would be at least a week before the Japanese cherry trees burst into flower.

Three members of the cabinet will remain away through the holidays. So simple were the plans of the others, and of resident society, it seemed the capital's Easter parade would move chiefly churchward, and back home.

Setting an example of religious and domestic celebrations, President Hoover will attend a Masonic and a Quaker service. He and Mrs. Hoover will be surrounded by their three small grandchildren, Peggy Ann, 6, Herbert Hoover, III, 3, and Joan, not yet one. The family are looking forward to the Easter Monday egg roll that will bring thousands of children to White House lawns.

The Labor Secretary and Mrs. Doak are planning a family celebration too, the cabinet lady assisting the Easter rabbit with preparations for her grand niece, Mary Jane Cricher, aged almost two.

Secretary Mellon hopes to be able to spend the day with his son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Bruce, at their Long Island home.

Already the Secretary of State and Mrs. Stimson are at their Long Island place. Secretary Hyde is in Missouri. The Postmaster General and Mrs. Brown will remain at Virginia Hot Springs.

Distinctly homey are the plans of Vice-President Curtis, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, and her husband.

"We will go to church, of course," Mrs. Gann said. "We will have a quiet day together."

Bandits Make $10,000 Haul in Illinois Bank

Mundelein, Ill., April 3.—(AP)—Four men held the cashier of the Mundelein State Bank captive in his home throughout last night, then trussed up his wife and two children, forced him to open the bank's vaults today and escaped with $10,000.

The robbers entered the home of M. C. Mott at 8:30 p. m., he told police, covered him with guns and tied up his wife, Grace, and their three children, Paul, 22; Neal, 20, and William 17. He said they took him to the bank at 5:30 a. m. and waited for the time lock too open the vaults at 7:30 a. m.

Mott was left in the basement until released when the day force arrived at 8:30 a. m. He then went home and freed his family. Two of the men had stood guard over the family until the other two returned from the bank in Mott's automobile. They then fled.

The robbers waited in Mott's home from 8:30 o'clock last night.

Dowell Hits Sales Tax

Says It Represents Handiwork of Powerful Interests in the State

The passage of the General Sales Tax Bill by the House of Representatives Monday night is the most indefensible piece of legislation ever passed by either branch of the Legislature of this State," said Willard L. Dowell, executive secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association.

"It represents the handiwork of the powerful tobacco companies, power companies, railroads and other large and wealthy corporations who are endeavoring to shift the tax burden of this State from the pockets of the strong and wealthy to the shoulders of the poor and weak," he continued.

"This bill absolutely exempts from taxation the rich and powerful interests of this State and it utterly disregards the fundamental principle of just taxation which is ability to pay. Under the bill, the pauper pays the same tax as the millionaire and every necessity of life, including food and raiment, will be taxed, while money, stocks and bonds are tax free.

"The tobacco and power companies will each be relieved of approximately a half million dollars tax every year and the railroads and other large owners of real estate, including the non-resident property owner, will be relieved of their taxes, while the farmer, the mechanic, the laboring man, the small property owner, the merchant and all men who work for a living, will have to pay the taxes for these large and wealthy corporations.

"The bill is now in the Senate and every man and woman in this State who believes in fair play and who does not believe that big interests should be exempt from taxation nor that the tax burden should fall upon the poor and weak, the orphans and widows, and the man who is already struggling to make both ends meet, should immediately write, telegraph or telephone the senator from his district, imploring him to vote against this most iniquitous, unjust and burdensome tax measure.

"Don't think that the cigarette and power companies are not well represented at the legislature, for they have the largest and most sinister lobby ever assembled at the capital in Raleigh and they are urging, under the pretext of land tax reduction, that the General Assembly enact a general sales tax, thus relieving them of all taxes and placing the entire cost of government upon the little man. These very companies should themselves pay the bulk of taxes in North Carolina, for they are making millions of dollars annually, while practically all other classes of our citizens are finding it extremely difficult to pay the necessities of life without the addition of a tax on everything they have to buy.

"The only way to defeat this hellish scheme of the big interests is to immediately communicate with your legislative representative and tell them that you will not stand for a tax being placed upon your food and raiment and other necessities of life."

Vivian Duncan in Paris With Baby

Paris, April 3.—(AP)—Vivian Duncan, American actress, who says she was told by three American specialists that child birth would be fatal to her, has come to Paris with a baby daughter, born the night of March 29 at Murburg, Bavaria.

She has named the child Evelyn Recetta Duncan Asther, and her husband and his father, Nils Asther, who played opposite Greta Garbo, is expected here shortly from America to have his first look at it.

Miss Duncan told the Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune that she had confided her trip to the approach of travel to the Countess Roussey De Sales, the former Mrs. Cecil Stewart, and at her advice had gone to the Dr. Gauss clinic at Wurzburg.

The first twilight sleep administration did not work so well but the second caused no trouble. She went

Farmer Shoots Himself to Death

Charlotte, April 3.—(AP)—R. A. Hatley, 60, Mecklenburg county farmer, told his wife at breakfast today that he was "tired of this old world" and walked from the house.

A moment later she heard a shot and found him in the yard clutching a pistol and dead from a bullet wound in the head.

Bad Stomach Cause of Bad Skin

You can't expect to have a good clear fresh-looking complexion if your stomach is weak and disordered.

Undigested food sends poisons through your whole body, pimples appear in your face, skin grows sallow and muddy and loses its color. Your tongue becomes coated, breath most unpleasant. But these troubles will end quickly and skin clear up if you will start today taking that simple herbal compound known to druggists as Tanlac.

Tanlac contains nothing but herbs, barks and roots which have a cleansing, healing effect on a poor upset stomach. Just a tablespoonful before each meal stimulates the digestion naturally so that you can eat what you want without fear of distress.

And when your stomach is in good shape again see how much keener your appetite is—watch how quickly skin begins to grow free of disgusting eruptions. The cost of Tanlac is less than 2c a dose. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

ABOUT TOWN

The financial structure of the south is just as sound as it has ever been before. Depression still exists in certain localities but with the beginning of construction programs, resumption of operation of many manufacturing enterprises, the clouds are beginning to show their silvery lining.

The most concrete example of the improvement of conditions is the re-opening of numbers of banks which closed during the financial scare which swept the entire nation several months ago. Many of these institutions are right here in our own state and their resumption of business is the best augury for the future that could be desired.

Since the majority of the bank failures were the aftermath of false rumors and resultant flight on the part of the public, the people should bear this fact in mind and throw every bit of their support behind the institutions in their midst.

Building and loan associations paid out over four millions of dollars in dividends to the people of North Carolina during the past year, according to official reports made public by the state department yesterday. This is another evidence of the growth and development of North Carolina organizations during the year despite depression and continued rumblings of discontent in some sections of the financial field.

The building and loan plan has been instrumental in the building of thousands of homes in this state the last several years, and that they will continue to render service of a broader scope along this line cannot be doubted after the splendid increase of resources of the past year.

Through the building and loan plan the average workingman is able to buy a home of his own on the same money he would pay for rent. He pays for his home on the monthly installment plan just like paying rent, and at the expiration of a given time the house is his and he feels like he has something to look forward to. He not only insures himself a place to live in time of misfortune or old age, but commands the respect of the community through the spirit of thrift which he displays in his sacrifices to make his future more secure.

The ten-day revival service will begin in the Memorial Baptist church next Monday, April 6, and Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of Raleigh, one of the most beloved ministers of the denomination, will have charge of the series.

Members of the church have announced the completion of all the plans for the revival and when the doors are thrown open for the first service, every member of the congregation will be in a receptive mood for the spiritual uplift which the revival most assuredly will be filled with.

This is the third of a series of services which have been held by various churches of the community the last several weeks, and the city is already beginning to experience results. Other meetings will follow during the spring and summer months, and they should eventuate in quite an increase of membership for the several churches.

Greenville high school opened the baseball season here this week and from now on the people of the community will have the opportunity to witness some of the best brand of ball in the Northeastern conference.

Persons who read the advertisements in this paper should have a concrete idea of where to go to purchase the many things which they will need during the Easter season.

The advertising columns of the Reflector will contain many ads dealing with special offerings of the local merchants for this season of the year and no one should be at a loss as to where to go to obtain just the kind of things desired.

The display of Easter clothing was probably never more complete for several days, but many of the stocks have been augmented and hold forth splendid opportunities for the late shoppers.

The advertisers use the Reflector columns liberally from day to day because they realize from past experience that this is the best way to reach the buying public. The Reflector goes into thousands of homes in all parts of the county, and advertisements are scanned daily by that countless number of men and women always on the lookout for their needs.

If you have not been keeping in touch with the merchants, why not glance through today's edition of the paper and see what the merchants are offering on the eve of the celebration of Easter. You will be amazed by the extraordinary exposition of values, and should be inspired to be among the last minute shoppers.

W. F. Moss, driver of the car, and W. D. Goldston, driver of the other car involved in the collision, were placed under $500 bonds on charges of reckless driving.

Three small boys, companions of Everidge, were also struck and injured by Moss' car.

SCENE OF CRASH WHERE KNUTE ROCKNE MET DEATH

Associated Press telephoto shows all that remained of a transcontinental air liner after it crashed near Bazaar, Kansas, carrying Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, and seven other persons to death. The plane was seen to nose out of a cloudbank and spin to the ground after one wing broke loose and fell some distance away.

Melting Snows Make the Mississippi Rage

Memphis, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—Melting snows in the north and spring rains in the south have made Father Mississippi look like a river again instead of a creek that hadn't quite dried up. In consequence, boats can run again without plowing silt and sand.

The seasonal rise, usually a boon to river commerce, this year ended the worst low water period in the memory of men who make their living on the stream.

Eleven feet on the Memphis gauge meant that barge lines could take their maximum loads, keep their schedules and bid for increased business.

When the drought struck last year, stages dropped to five, four three feet and lower and valuable tows were stranded miles from nowhere. Pilots old in the river's ways tied their barges along the banks at night. Dredges labored to clear a channel which popped out hourly with sand bars and choked passages.

Two Men Sought For Taking Rum Runner for a Ride

Philadelphia, April 3.—(AP)—Two Philadelphians are today being sought on a charge of "taking for a ride" an alleged Wildwood, N. J., liquor runner to prevent him revealing their secrets in a rum running case at Norfolk, Va.

Information concerning the men has been given federal authorities and the story of the "ride" is told in an affidavit on file today with Judge Luther B. Way in the Federal District Court at Norfolk. The sworn statement was made by Soren Peter Hanson at the Taylor Hospital, Ridley Park, near here. Hanson was shot and his skull fractured with a pistol butt on the night of March 8, when he accompanied two men from this city on an automobile ride to Chester, Pa.

After three weeks in the hospital Hanson disappeared, but it developed at Norfolk his whereabouts are known to government agents and he is willing to appear in court at Norfolk or here when wanted to tell of alleged rum smuggling expeditions in Chesapeake and Delaware Bays and of the attempt on his life.

More Objections Against Increase of Income Taxes

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Additional objections to a tax increase were in the air today as the Treasury prepared to raise expense money through new securities.

The expected $700,000,000 deficit grew more probable with latest Treasury statements showing income tax collections for March $224,673,000 below those for last year.

At the same time House Republican Leader Tilson said he saw no necessity for a tax increase by the next Congress. He added that "it should be the care of the next Congress. He added that "it should be the care of the next Congress not to make necessary the levying of new taxes."

Senator Harris of Georgia, ranking Democrat on the Senate appropriations committee, likewise joined opponents of proposed further demands on taxpayers. He said he believed his party would co-operate to hold down appropriations at the next session.

After a conference with the President, Tilson agreed with others that no more money would be need.

BLUE DEVILS ROUT CORNELL

Charlotte, April 2.—(AP)—Routed by both North Carolina and Duke, the Cornell baseball team today departed from the borders of the Old North State.

The Duke Blue Devils pounced upon the New York nine for a 7 to 0 victory yesterday at Durham, after the Tar Heels had lashed the invaders, 11 to 5, at Chapel Hill Monday. Rain Tuesday and Wednesday saved the visitors from another contest each with these North Carolina teams.

The Tar Heels yesterday gave another good demonstration of their strength by licking Pennsylvania, 2 to 0, at Chapel Hill, while Davidson Wildcats hied over to Guilford College to give the Guilford Quakers a 5 to 2 drubbing.

With these four matches uncorning the 1931 season, competition breaks loose on a grand scale today and tomorrow. Five games including Big Five nines are booked for each day.

Today, the Tar Heels clash with Washington and Lee at Chapel Hill; N. C. State meets Maryland at Raleigh; Duke goes against Penn State at Durham; Davidson tackles Elon at Elon, and Wake Forest encounters Pennsylvania at Wake Forest.

News From The Training Camp

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 3.—Vivian Beatrice Mitchell—Jackie when she's on the diamond, has made a debut in organized baseball that many masculine hurlers might envy. The only woman pitcher in organized baseball struck out Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in succession when the Chattanooga Lookouts met the New York Yankees, and then walked Tony Lazzeri to complete her mound duty. But a "catch" was seen in the act when the Babe politely tipped his hat when he came to bat, swinging wildly at a couple of pitchers that fans thought he might have hit easily, and let the third go past for a called strike. And Lyn Lary, of first base, did not try to steal while Jackie took a long windup.

British Racer Sets New Speed Mark

Buenos Aires, April 3.—(AP)—A new world's speed boat record was called here today—103.49 statute miles per hour, made by Kaye Don, British racer, in Miss England II on the surface of the muddy, swollen Parana river yesterday afternoon.

The mark, which will be certified to the International Racing Association at Brussels by the Argentine Yacht Club, which supervised the timing, beats the record of 102.56 miles per hour set the recently by the American, Gar Wood, at Miami Beach.

Don, happy at success in the venture which already has been attended by failure in two attempts due to motor troubles, packed up his boat and took the Andalusia Star at midnight for England. He did not await a banquet which was planned for him here.

Don proceeded to the course, a lonely stretch of the Parana near its confluence with the La Plata, early yesterday and once yesterday morning touched 100 miles an hour, he said. In the afternoon he proceeded back up the river and turning suddenly, dated off down the course.

He steered according to two Argentine gunboats which were stationed at either end of the route, and was timed by automatic electric chronometer devices with three members of the yacht club at either end of the course as officials. The course previously had been cleaned somewhat by racing boats, but was far from being as clean as might have been wished.

The three said formal announcement of Cleveland's selection would

Philadelphia.—Chilly blasts met the Philadelphia Athletics as they arrived home from the southland today to open their annual spring series with the Phillies at Shibe Park. The Phillies arrived yesterday in time to take a brief workout.

Bradenton, Fla.—Manager Gabby Street of the St. Louis Cardinals today selected the "big five" of his pitching staff for the 1931 campaign. They are the five veterans of last year's staff, Burleigh Grimes, Jess Haines, Bill Hallahan, Flint Rhem and Syl Johnson.

Chattanooga.—Confident that Nick Culpoy will come through, Dan Howley has told the Cincinnati Reds left fielder that no matter how many times he strikes out he is to have that Garden regularly.

Louisville.—The Boston Red Sox today awaited reports from an X-Ray examination of the injury to infielder Hal Rhyne when he was hit by a batted ball in practice yesterday. His physician said his jawbone probably was fractured. Dr. Paul Zoll said Rhyne's skull was not fractured, as at first believed.

Biloxi, Miss.—Manager Johnson was well pleased with the pre-season development of his Senators here as they boarded a train last night for Birmingham. He believes his players are ready for finishing touches.

Macon, Ga.—It develops that Judge Emil Fuchs refused Randy Moore a salary increase this season and the details of the transaction are being batted about by the tribesmen. The story goes that Randy wired the following to the judge just prior to the opening of the training season: "Dear Judge: Will you kindly give old Randy a raise?" And gossip has it that

Quick Work On Getting Pictures Of Earthquake

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Relays of airplanes and wire transmission of pictures enabled members of the Associated Press news photo service today to have views of earthquake-devastated Managua.

A staff correspondent, William H. Ewing, stationed in Panama, arrived in Managua by plane Wednesday, the day after the earthquake. He took pictures of the stricken city. At 2:30 p. m., Wednesday an airmail plane of the Pan-American Airways carrying views of the wrecked buildings and debris-filled streets of Managua, started for Havana. The first hop to San Salvador was 217 miles. There the pilot rested overnight. Yesterday he flew 788 miles to Havana, arriving in the evening.

At Havana a chartered amphibian plane with engines roaring waited for the Pan-American airmail. The amphibian flew to Miami, Fla., 222 miles. From Miami a land plane took the pictures to Atlanta, Ga., 604 miles.

At about 2:30 Friday morning the pictures of the Managua earthquake were in the Atlanta office of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company. They were transmitted by telephoto in seven minutes to New York, Boston, Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle. In many instances late editions of Associated Press morning newspapers were able to print these pictures. The total distance the pictures were flown was 1,831 miles. The longest distance telephotoed was 2,800 miles.

Additional pictures were on the way this morning. The Paramount Moviehouse newswear announced sound films of the stricken city would be shown in New York theatres today.

Russia Again Has A Tilt With U. S. Government

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Amalgamating the trading corporation for Soviet Russia which was the focal point in congressional inquiry into communitarian activities in the United States, was preparing today for two more sallies with the Federal Government.

The first concerns the freighter Anversoise which sailed from Leningrad with a cargo of lumber nearly a month ago. American dealers have protested against the entry of the cargo on the ground that it is the produce of forced labor and therefore is excluded under the terms of the tariff act. Nevertheless, the Anversoise is now on the high seas bound for Providence, R. I., where it will be met by customs officers.

The second difficulty involves Feodor M. Zlavkin, general manager of Amtog, whose permission to visit in the United States, after once having been extended, was revoked by the Department of Labor several days ago. That is going to happen to Mr. Zlavkin not even his attorneys seemed to know today.

The order revoking Mr. Zlavkin's "guest card" has no yet been received in New York, and until it does arrive a policy of silence is being pursued.

Meanwhile, no matter what happens to Zlavkin or the Anversoise, Amtog is doing a thriving business. It occupies nearly six floors in a skyscraper which dwarfs the Little Church Around the Corner on one side and looks up Fifth avenue at the Empire state, the tallest building in Manhattan.

Pinetops Bank Falls

Pinetops, N. C., April 3.—(AP)—The Bank of Pinetops did not open today.

A notice on the door said it had closed for the benefit of the depositors.

The bank has a branch at Hooker ton.

Its statement of December 31, 1930 shows total assets of $421,000, with deposits aggregating $255,000. The bank was capitalized at $50,000 and had a surplus of $50,000 in December, the statement showed.

Asheville N. C.—(AP)—Wallace B. Davis, president, and J. Charles Bradford, cashier, of the defunct Central Bank and Trust Company already under federal and state indictments in connection with the bank's failure, were named in still another bill of indictment before the Buncombe grand jury adjourned.

Senator Johnson of Duplin with questions as to his position.

The Duplin senator, fighting against the admission tax, was asked if he did not think his position would not stop him from favoring the substitution of the Hinsdale luxury tax for the Day plan.

"I do not and I am opposing it because your people favor it," Johnson replied. "I am going to tell the truth on you now."

"You are trying to get your $3,000,000 to add to the equalizing fund without taxing the corporate interests of the state and not give us the relief we are asking for. I am watching you on every little thing," he continued.

TWO AUTHORS DIE IN WRECK

The accident, 65 years of age and a native of Pennsylvania, had written many books and magazine articles on adventure and outdoor life. His book "Our Southern Highlanders" attracted much attention.

"Bloody Ground," a recently published Kentucky feud novel, was Tarleton's best known work. Tarleton, about 45, was visiting Kephart on a trip through the Carolinas and Tennessee where he hoped to obtain material for other literary works.

Leonard Wheeler Kephart, of Washington, D. C., telegraphed a request to Bryson City that his father's body be prepared for shipment. The message did not indicate where the funeral would be held.

Kephart is survived by a second son in Washington and by his widow and five other children in Norfolk, Va.

No word had been received early today from relatives of Tarleton. Mrs. Tarleton was said to be visiting in Jacksonville.

No charges had been lodged against Brown this forenoon although Sheriff Patterson said his investigation indicated Brown was driving recklessly.

"He apparently was just going too fast and lost control of his car when he met the other automobile," Patterson said.

The other automobile did not stop and the identity of its driver has not been determined.

Patterson said Brown technically was held for investigation although because of his condition no guard was placed at the hospital.

There was a brilliant moon last night and Patterson said the two men apparently were just riding about enjoying the mountain scenery by moon light.

Deatur, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—The death of Fishwoode Tarleton, killed in an automobile accident last night at Bryson City, N. C., cut short a promising career in American literature.

Mr. Tarleton wrote of the mountains and the folk who inhabit them in the southland. His recent novel, "Some Trust in Chariots," was a sympathetic portrayal of mountaineer psychology. Prior to that he had written "Bloody Ground," a collection of stories of the Kentucky feud country.

He left here about ten days ago to spend a vacation of several weeks in the mountains of North Carolina and East Tennessee, enthused over the prospects of enjoying his few days of rest with Horace Kephart a friend and fellow author who was killed with him in the automobile accident.

Mr. Tarleton had written many magazine stories of mountain folk. He was born most of his life in South America where his father was employed as an engineer.

He was a magazine editor in Boston for a time but left this to devote all his time to writing.

Several years ago he married Mrs. R. A. Clark, daughter of a Darlington, Ga., physician and since has resided here and in Atlanta.

Mrs. Tarleton, who was visiting relatives in Jacksonville, Fla., when her husband was killed, was enroute to Bryson City today. It was expected here the author probably would be buried near Bryson City. In the mountains he loved and described in stories.

BELIEVE SMALL PIECE OF ICE CAUSED THE WRECK OF DEATH PLANE IN KANSAS

It was concluded that the airplane had been operated entirely in accordance with air commerce regulations; that daily inspections were satisfactorily made; that the airplane was to the best of everyone's knowledge, thoroughly airworthy; and that no blame can be attached to the pilots.

Jury Deadlocked In Lingle Case

Criminal Court Building, Chicago, April 3.—(AP)—Twelve men, guarded closely, labored today toward the close of a full day over the problem of whether Leo Brothers killed Alfred Lingle, Chicago Tribune police reporter.

The received the murder case at 2:24 yesterday afternoon and deliberated throughout the night apparently without sleep, today there was no indication that a verdict was in prospect.

Through the barricaded jury rooms, guarded by a double detail of balliffs there seeped only an occasional sound of argument, "grapevine" information, impossible to confirm, was that the court was 10 to 2 or 11 to 1 for acquittal. Meanwhile the defendants relatives, newspapermen and a few spectators loitered in and about the courtroom. It was the first alleged gangland murder in Chicago's history to go to the jury but testimony did not go into gang affairs, but sies relying merely on identification of the alleged slayer, ground.

Inferiority Complex Again

White Plains, N. Y.—Andy Gump wears no man's collar, but the very name gave James Edward Gump, 24, insurance agent an inferiority complex. A couple listened to his plea, changed his name to Gale. The former Gump cited the dictionary to show that a "gump" is a "simpton."

Raleigh, N. C.—(AP)—J. E. Parrish, Macon county negro convict, had his foot blown off while working in a stone quarry near here.

ROCKNE RITES TO BE SIMPLE

The casket was sealed because of the condition of his body, which was mangled in that tragic air plane crash in Kansas.

The pomp and ceremony, which were so closely associated with his glorious achievements on the football field will be missing tomorrow afternoon when Knute Rockne's body is delivered back to earth. Most of his friends, thousands of them, will crowd into the old Gothic church on the campus or stand in reverence, distance from the services. The services and burial probably will take far less time than even an average game of football. Services at the grave side will be said by Father Mulcaire.

Solemn High Requiem Mass will be held for the departed leader at the same church at 9 o'clock next Thursday morning in the presence of students, who by that time will have returned from their Easter vacations.

Highland Cemetery, where Rockne will rest at last, is a comparatively new one. Part of it, including the Rockne grave, has been consecrated for Catholic burial; the other part is for non-Catholic use.

Because of the wish for simplicity and brevity, only 1,400 of Rockne's closest friends will be admitted to the services at the church and grave. Today the difficult task of assorting the most intimate was undertaken so as to give them cards of admittance. The others, thousands of them from all sections of the nation, will be asked to remain a block or so from the church and grave.

Such a simplicity and brevity were the wishes of Mrs. Rockne.

The wishes of Mrs. Rockne, his grief-stricken but brave widow, and those most intimate to the Viking of play and good sportsmanship.

At 2 P. M., Saturday, the body will be removed from the Brown brick and stucco home at 1417 East Wayne street to the vine covered church on the campus of Notre Dame—a few short blocks away. There the funeral services will be held, with Father Michael Mulcaire, vice-president of the University, saying the brief service. The deacon will be Father Thomas Steiner, member of the University Athletic Board of control, and the sub-deacon, Father Raymond A. Murch, prefect of the discipline for the University. The funeral sermon will be delivered by Father Charles L. O'Donnell, president of the university, after which the cortege will proceed to the cemetery, a mile and one-half northwest of South Bend on the Portage road or slightly less than three miles northwest of the Notre Dame campus.

The names of the pall bearers were not to be announced until later. A committee worked until the early hours of morning today attempting to decide who they would be and if there would be any honorary pall bearers. It was fairly certain, however, that the one who would carry the body to the crypt would be those same "boys" who played on his great football team.

Mrs. Rockne, although fatigued by her long train ride from Florida bore up exceedingly well on her arrival in South Bend at 6:15 last night and today. She was surrounded by her mother, Mrs. Hulda H. Jones of Kenton, Ohio, and Rockne's 72 year old mother, Mrs. Lewis Rockne of Chicago, and others. Her four children, William, 14; Knute, Jr., 11; Jean, 10, and Jackie, 5, still didn't seem to realize with the other thousands of Rockne's friends that their father had departed from life.

South Bend was filled with mourners today and they included almost everyone of importance in America's college athletic world. A call was sent out today to all classmates of Rockne's the 1914 graduation class of Notre Dame to attend the funeral.
