Revenue Bill Abandoned Temporarily As Senate Turns To Other Issues

Body Passes Administration Measure to Re-organize State Department of Labor By Placing Statistical Work of Other Departments Under a Commission of Labor; House Passes Score of Bills, Mostly Local; Substitute Highway Bill Introduced

Raleigh, April 9.—(AP)—After a heated exchange between senators when Senator Grier of Fredell sought to amend the revenue bill by rewriting the franchise tax article as a whole, the Senate today temporarily stopped consideration of the biennial revenue bill and took up its calendar of state-wide bills.

The body passed the administration measure to re-organize the state department of labor by placing the statistical work of the present department of labor and printing, the industrial commission and the child welfare commission under a commissioner of labor.

The House passed a score of bills most of them local. A substitute for the Bennett highway patrol bill was introduced by Grouse of Alleghany in the House but was carried over for further consideration until tomorrow. The Senate passed the Bennett bill to increase the highway patrol personnel to 87 but the House opposes it. The Grouse measure would combine the highway patrol and the theft bureau with a total personnel of 60.

Sitting as a committee of the whole, the Senate refused to take up the Grier proposal immediately. The Fredell senator explained he wished to rewrite the entire franchise article but a point of order that each section must be amended separately was sustained.

The Senate voted to have the Grier amendments printed and given to the senators this afternoon. Under the Grier amendments some $3,500,000 in additional revenue would be raised to increase the equalizing fund to $10,000,000. This is the plan offered by opponents of the sales tax to provide increased state aid for schools instead of taking off all ad valorem taxes as required by the MacLean school law. The Senate has already rejected both the Hinsdale and Day sales tax plans.

The House received a bill proposing a constitutional amendment to prohibit members of the Assembly from accepting any job they create. The act would not affect members of the 1931 legislature.

The Grant resolution asking the governor to impound ballot boxes used in the Bailey-Fricker election was recalled from committee in the Senate and the House committee substitute reported yesterday. It was introduced as a substitute for it.

Both Houses passed a resolution expressing regret at the death of Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the National House of Representatives.

The Senate agreed to consider public bills this afternoon instead of proceeding with the revenue act and recessed for lunch.

The Hinsdale tax, estimated by its author Senator Hinsdale of Wake to raise $9,000,000 annually—the same estimate placed on the general sales tax by its author, Representative Day, of Onslow—was defeated by the Senate late yesterday, 26 to 24.

Courts to pursue open to the Senate included reconsideration of the vote by which it rejected the Hinsdale plan, adoption of the general sales tax over its previous unfavorable 36 to 8 vote, or an increase in the equalization fund from $6,500,000 to $10,000,000 necessitating the addition of $3,500,000 in new revenue to the revenue bill.

However, there were rumors of adjourning the 93-day legislature without adopting a revenue bill, making it imperative for Governor Gardner to call a special session. This movement was understood to have strong backing in the House, where there exists a large majority for the MacLean six months school law.

Proponents of the school law could see some form of a sales tax must be adopted by the assembly if the State is to raise $19,500,000 annually to support the six months school term, lifting the burden from the counties.

Johnson Asks Governor To Let "Little Man" Live

Raleigh, April 9.—(AP)—Senator Rivers Johnson of Duplin, backer of the MacLean school law and the Hinsdale "luxury" tax which was defeated in the Senate yesterday, introduced a resolution today "for the protection of the little man" and to request the governor to commute his sentence imposed by the Senate.

The resolution set forth that yesterday the Senate sentenced the "little man" to die and reiterated a declaration of the governor "the little man has a right to live" in asking commutation.

Effort to have the resolution passed immediately failed on objection of Senator Horton of Chatham, who moved to table it. The resolution finally was referred to a committee after Johnson said "let it go there and sleep, and I would prefer it to go to the committee of which the Chatham senator is chairman."

JAIL BLACKS FOR SHOOTING

Two Men Held for Assault Upon William Allen Last Night

Allen Speight and Charlie Harvey, colored, were being held in the county jail today awaiting trial on a charge of shooting William Allen, also colored, in an altercation at Speight's home on First street last night. They will be given preliminary hearing as soon as Allen has recovered sufficiently to enable him to attend court, it was said this morning by county officers.

The shooting occurred at the home of Speight where both Allen and Harvey had dropped in for a chat. Allen, it was said, called Speight out in the front yard to talk to him, and Harvey followed and said he would also like to have something to say.

At this juncture a pistol began to spit fire, and Allen dropped to the ground with a bullet through his leg. When officers arrived upon the scene, Speight charged Harvey with doing the shooting and Harvey said Speight did it. One thing Allen is sure of is that somebody fired twice using him as a target both times.

He was rushed to his home and given medical attention and while his wounds were painful officers said he would probably be able to attend court within the next several days.

MISS CARROLL BURIED TODAY

Well-known School Teacher Laid to Rest in Cox Mill Section This Afternoon

Miss Cora Lee Carroll, 40, member of the faculty of the Pitt County schools, died in a hospital at Rocky Mount yesterday afternoon following an operation.

Funeral services were conducted from her late home in the Cox Mill community this afternoon. Burial was made in the family burying ground. Final rites were conducted by Rev. W. S. Harding, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Canady, and Rev. Mr. Roberts.

Miss Carroll was the daughter of Mrs. Fannie Carroll and the late W. T. Carroll. She was born in Pitt County and spent practically her entire life in the county. She entered the public school service after completing college and since that time had been associated with the system in this county.

She was one of the most beloved women of her community, and while she had been sick for some time, her death came as a profound shock to friends in this and other sections.

She was a staunch member of the Winterville Baptist church, and for years used her influence in expanding the work of the congregation. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and friends from all parts of the county, and a mass of flowers spoke in eloquent terms of the high esteem in which she was held.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Fannie Carroll; two sisters, Mrs. T. S. Tyson, and Miss Annie Carroll, and a brother, J. J. Carroll, all of whom reside in this county.

The following acting as pallbearers: Active, J. R. Cox, Romie Cox, H. M. Stokes, Jimmie Edwards, L. J. Edwards, Herbert Cox, David Cox, John B. Stokes.

EIGHT BLACKS ARE DOOMED

Five More Convicted of Attacking Two Girl Hoboes in Alabama Last Month

Scottsboro, Ala., April 9.—(AP)—Jackson county grand jury today convicted five negroes ranging in age 16 to 19 years of attacking two white girls hobbing on a freight train and fixed their punishment at death in the electric chair.

This verdict and sentence brought to eight the total number found guilty and sentenced to die for attacking the girls last March 24.

The crowded courtroom, warned to make no demonstration, received the verdict with restrained silence, and the negroes were stoical.

A second jury, considering the case of Roy Wright, 14-year-old negro, still was out, but indications were that it would report before noon. The state agreed not to ask the death penalty in his case.

Missing Portrait of Hayes Valued At Over $75,000

New York, April 9.—(AP)—For five years Dalesia Carmine, art dealer, has been hunting a missing portrait of Rutherford B. Hayes in his shirt-sleeves. That is, the nineteenth president of the United States is pictured in shirt-sleeves. The canvas was painted by Thomas Ekins and it's worth, Mr. Carmine said, about $75,000. The portrait was painted for the Union League Club of New York, and because the artist couldn't arrange regular sittings he set up his easel beside the president's desk and did him without a coat

Murder Of Vivian Gordon Solved By N. Y. Police

New York, April 9.—(AP)—Vivian Gordon's murder was believed solved today. The man charged with her murder was Harry Stein, otherwise unidentified in the cautious first announcement. Three others are held as material witnesses and a fifth, whose connection with the case was not made clear, was held for possessing a pistol and burglar tools. By a coincidence, all five men gave their place of birth as Russia. Vivian Gordon was strangled and her body thrown into a thicket in Van Cortlandt park early on the morning of February 26. The arrests were made simultaneously last night in various parts of the city. Besides Stein, those arrested were: Samuel Greenhauer, alias Greenberg, Greenhear and "Greenie," 44 years old. Occupation, tailor. Morris (Doc) Levine, 36, occupation, electrician. David Butterman, 34, occupation, jobber. (Continued on Page Two)

GIVES PRAISE TO LONGWORTH

President Hoover Lauds Fallen Speaker; Capital Mourns Loss

Washington, April 9.—(AP)—The death of Speaker Longworth came as a sudden blow today to official Washington.

Word spread quickly over the capital where he had been known and liked for more than a quarter of a century. Expressions of regret were spontaneous.

President Hoover upon learning of the death of Speaker Longworth said that "he contributed greatly to the welfare of the American people" during a service of over 33 years.

The President's statement said: "Mr. Longworth served his fellow countrymen in state and nation for over 33 years—nearly the whole of his adult life. In his service he contributed greatly to the welfare of the American people. His happy character, his sterling honesty, his courage in public questions, endeared him and held the respect not alone of his myriad of friends but of the country at large. His passing is a loss to the nation."

Representative Ayres, Democrat, Kansas, said: "The nation has sustained a grave loss at his death."

Senator McNary of Oregon, said: "He was an able parliamentarian, a student of public questions, and he left a lasting impression upon the history of his time."

Flags on the capitol were half-masted fifteen minutes after his death. (Continued on page two)

LEAF MARKET IS BOOSTED

N. Y. Trade Publication Carries Four-Page Story of Development Here

The importance of Greenville as a tobacco market is set forth in an "entertaining way in the last edition of the Tobacco Trade Review, a New York publication which circulates liberally among the trade in all parts of the world.

The article, which is interspersed with pictures of Greenville tobaccoists, warehouses and factories, covers four pages. It was written by K. W. Cobb, who for several past years has been supervisor of sales on this market.

The story gives many pertinent facts why Greenville has been able to develop from a tiny sales center to one of the greatest markets in the country. It also painstakingly delineates other factors in the rapid development and progress of the city and the surrounding territory.

Mr. Cobb has been doing publicity work for the Greenville market ever since he became associated with it, and his articles and advertising matter have played a big part in the march of progress experienced the last several years.

From a tiny market with sales amounting to only a few thousand pounds Greenville during the last twenty years has developed into a sales center with a record of over seventy-one million pounds of tobacco for a single season, the article states. It has the facilities to care for even a greater amount of bright leaf, and is expected to reach out and cover a greater scope of activity in the years to come.

Greenville tobaccoists are highly elated over the splendid record of achievement, and are planning to carry on just as vigorously in the future as any single period of the past. The space devoted to the market in one of the world's largest trade publications is evidence of the recognition accorded the city by the tobacco industry.

BELCHER IS MAYOR AGAIN

Farmville Official Is Elected for Second Term in Municipal Election

Farmville, N. C., April 9.—The required majority of votes given Robert E. Belcher, elected him as mayor of Farmville for a second term Tuesday, and eliminated automatically holding another primary.

Two opposing candidates, George W. Davis, Jr., and Robert Lee Smith, made the contest most interesting, especially as the latter is one of the younger men of the town, and counted many loyal supporters among the young people. Of the 584 votes cast, 333 were reported for Belcher; Smith 179; Davis 72. Davis announced his candidacy at the last moment and did his campaigning through the mail.

Mayor Belcher is a familiar figure in local politics, having served the town efficiently in various capacities of municipal government since becoming of age. He held the offices of police chief and town alderman respectively, for several years, and upon organizing the fire department in 1914, was elected its chief, and served for ten years. He was elected mayor in 1929 he was again elected to this office, and his re-election at this time bespeaks his efficient service and popularity.

The town commissioner candidates numbered ten. Dr. W. M. Willis receiving the largest number of votes cast, 503 out of a possible 583. J. R. Davis, who has served five terms, and L. W. Godwin, with three terms to his credit, were re-elected, with Dr. Willis, T. W. Lang, and J. T. Bundy as new members.

Plan to Upbuild N. C. Agriculture

Goldboro, April 9.—(AP)—A five year plan to re-build the agriculture of North Carolina had been undertaken today by the State Conference for Public Welfare.

The agricultural program was adopted by the conference at its closing sessions here yesterday, after Hugh McRae, of Wilmington, retiring president, had told it the state faced ruin unless farm conditions were improved.

Before adjourning, the conference elected Mrs. W. B. Waddill of Henderson, president to succeed Mr. McRae. Prof. S. H. Hobbs, Jr., of Chapel Hill, was named first vice-president; Dr. N. C. Newbold, Raleigh, second vice-president; Mrs. J. S. Holmes, Raleigh, treasurer, and Miss Gertrude Well, Goldboro, secretary.

Mrs. Thomas O'Berry of Goldboro, was added to the board of directors. As the beginning of its farm plan the conference asked the close cooperation of time merchants and bankers in working for agricultural betterment.

REPUBLICANS BEGIN FIGHT

Plan to Gain Something From Discord Prevailing in Democratic Ranks

Washington, April 9.—(AP)—The Republican party has begun a campaign interpreted as an effort to gain something from Democratic National committee chairman, Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican National committee, said last night the only concrete propositions offered by the opposing party had come from Raskob.

"Mr. Raskob," Lucas said in an appeal to the South over the Dixie network of the Columbia broadcasting system, "... makes the unique proposal that the solution of the economic problems now confronting the United States, and in which the South is vitally interested may be solved by (1) repealing the Federal anti-trust laws; and (2) offering every individual a drink."

"This is an entirely new school of political thought," Lucas asserted, continuing Republican tariff ad other policies had aided development and prosperity of the south, adding: "Its place, therefore, politically is in the Republican party."

He mentioned differences of opinion in the Democratic party. "The House Democratic caucus called for last February was abandoned, he said, because "they ascertained that in the event they held such a caucus they could not agree upon anything and would in all probability wind up in an open quarrel."

The recent Democratic National committee meeting, when Raskob first advanced his suggestions for the 1932 platform, Lucas asserted, "ended in a near riot, with nothing accomplished."

"Why should the people of the South," Lucas asked, "in justice to themselves, ... continue an alliance with a political organization that is so bankrupt and so disorganized that it cannot present to the American people a concrete statement as to what it believes and as to what it will do in event it is given control of the Federal Government."

"Why should the people of the South continue to place themselves in a perpetual minority, and sit themselves aside from the rest of the country politically by following such bankrupt leadership?"

Lucas did not discuss recent statements that Horace Mann, a southern Republican, plans to establish an organization to oppose the re-nomination of President Hoover. Nor did he mention the just-ended trip of Postmaster General Brown through the south or Brown's prediction that Mr. Hoover will be renominated by acclamation.

On to Charlotte Albemarle, N. C.—The Merry-makers division of the Junior Order has selected Charlotte for its next state meeting which will be held in August.

BIG CROWDS AT REVIVAL

Services at Memorial Baptist Church Continue to Draw Large Congregations

Man has to suffer himself before he is able to appreciate the pain and sorrow of Christ during his visit to earth, over nineteen hundred days ago, Dr. J. Powell Tucker of Raleigh, told a congregation at the Memorial Baptist church last night.

The sermon marked the third day of the revival which opened last Monday night and will continue for a period of ten days. The church building, as on the previous night, was packed to capacity, and the crowd overflowed into aisles and back of the building.

Dr. Tucker spoke again this morning, delivering the third of a series of sermons on the "Home." Yesterday he spoke on the "Enemies of the Home" and this morning he spoke on the "Friends of the Home."

He said the law of the land was friendly and were using their influence about it a protection that safeguarded the life and property of the owner.

He also declared that the public schools and the teachers were friendly and were using their influence for the development of a high standard of home life. The greatest friend to the home, he declared, is the Church of God. He stressed the important part which the church is playing in bringing a higher moral life of the various communities of the world, and declared that this would increase to new bounds if its value were more firmly implanted in the minds of the children. He pointed

Plan Extensive Improvements At Atlantic Beach

Extensive plans for the enlargement and improvement at Atlantic Beach, Morehead City, are announced by Robert W. Cordon, manager of the Atlantic Beach and Bridge company, who was a visitor here today. Mr. Cordon stated that he expected the forthcoming season at Atlantic Beach to be the most successful in the history of that popular resort.

"We are planning to put on sale a large block of the beach property," he stated, "and we are hoping to see several cottages erected on the beach this season. Despite all the talk of business depression and hard times, I believe that there will be an active demand for this property, owing to the fact that there are only a limited number of lots available on the ocean front. In addition, there also will be many improvements at the casino. We are planning to have many feature attractions at the resort during the summer months. A nationally-known orchestra will play for the regular dances and we also expect to have several special events of entertainment and amusement."

"The state convention of the American Legion is to be held at Morehead City this summer and several other large gatherings also are scheduled to take place. Altogether, it looks as though Morehead and Atlantic Beach would be places of great activity and liveliness this summer. I hope to see a large number of Greenville folks there during the season, and I can assure them that if there is any way I can be of service to them while at Atlantic Beach, I will be only too pleased to have them call on me."

death. Funeral arrangements were held in abeyance pending word from Mrs. Longworth at Aiken.

The funeral committee will be named by Rodgers and William Tyler Pauley, the House clerk, after consultation later.

President Hoover ordered Colonel Campbell B. Hodges, his military aide, to leave for Aiken at once by airplane to assist Mrs. Longworth. Chairman Wood of the House appropriations committee, who was in the Speaker's office when word of his death was received, said:

"The loss of Mr. Longworth is a loss to the nation. His long years as a member of the House has qualified him as but few men have been qualified for exceptional service to his country."

News of the end was received in the Speaker's office by a force that had kept a vigil since Monday.

Mrs. Mildred Reeves, secretary to the Speaker and his employe for 15 years, heard the word from the White House by telephone. A moment later a representative walked in, asked, "Is there anything I can do, Mildred?"

"Not a thing," the secretary said. Mrs. Lucille McArthur, a member of the staff for about six years, said Mrs. Longworth took the blow bravely.

"She was just wonderful," Mrs. McArthur said of her repeated telephone conversations with Mrs. Longworth in Aiken.

Tributes to the Speaker sprang immediately to the lips of his many friends.

Vice-President Curtis said: "The sudden illness and death of Speaker Longworth was a great shock to all who knew him. In his passing the House has lost a distinguished and able speaker, one whose rulings were always fair and impartial."

MURDERER OF VIVIAN GORDON SOLVED BY THE N. Y. POLICE

Jack Holdcroft, 29, former Canadian trooper. Skeleton keys and a pistol were found in Holdcroft's room.

Stein, Levine and Greenhauer are three of the men mentioned in Vivian Gordon's diary—the diary in which she set down her affairs of love and blackmail and fear.

Two men and a woman identified Stein, police said, as having been in possession of a mink coat, a wrist-watch and a chain the day after the murder. Similar articles were stolen from Miss Gordon.

Another bit of evidence against Stein, police said, was the appearance in the Gordon diary of the names "Harry Sanders" and "Sol Lubin," both of which Stein admitted to police are names he has used as aliases.

The three—Stein, Levine and Greenhauer—denied knowing the Gordon woman. They could not explain their names in her diary.

The Vivian Gordon murder case is the most recent of the series involving women who had figured in the misty Broadway night life. If, as police say, the murder has been solved by the five arrests announced today, it will be the first solution of the series. The Dorothy King case is probably the best known of the unsolved "Broadway butterfly" cases.

The immediate thought in the Gordon case was that her murder had been done to silence her threatened testimony in the police vice squad investigation. She was known to feel very bitter toward the police because of her insistence that she had been "framed" and sentenced to a reformatory.

J. A. Radeloff was arrested and held for several weeks as a material witness. He was released finally under bond. One notation in her diary said Radeloff could "get Cohen or his henchmen to do away with me."

John C. Bischoff, former husband of Vivian Gordon, was questioned, but could give authorities little help. Their 16-year-old daughter, Benita Bischoff, killed herself, presumably from the notoriety that surrounded her mother.

PROFIT—by the bagful

PROFIT is what you pay for, and Profit is what you get in every bag of V-C fertilizer. You can be sure of that. The Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corporation puts it there—has been putting it there for more than two generations—in the form of good V-C plant food that will make your crops grow if you do your part. Use V-C fertilizer right and you'll collect this profit. It's there, in V-C—by the bagful!

"Oh, I must have lost my pocket-book. I've looked in every pocket except my left hip pocket."
"Why don't you look in that pocket?"
"Scared it might not be there!"—Exchange.

One hundred bales of cotton were gathered from 120 acres by Chancy Bros. Hardware and Furniture Co., Hartford, Ala. "We used 400 pounds of V-C Eastern Shore 10-4-7 per acre," says A. L. Chancy. "We found that it pays handsome dividends to use high-grade fertilizer for cotton." The firm not only uses but also sells V-C. "Our customers call for V-C—it's our biggest seller," says Mr. Chancy.

If more money from crops means more money to spend for things that ought to be produced at home, like meat and lard and corn and hay, then we don't get anywhere at all. More money from crops ought to mean more money to spend on the family and the home.

"Sure, I believe a rabbit's foot brings good luck. My wife felt one in my pocket and thought it was a mouse."—Exchange.

"The farmer must reduce his cost per bale or pound of production," say all the authorities. How? "By fertilizing well with V-C," say lots of farmers.

The selection of desirable soils and the use of the right fertilizers are matters of economic importance.—U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Almost the entire membership of the board was present and the meeting was unusually interesting and enthusiastic. The reports of the officers were most encouraging, particularly in regard to the Junior work in the state, on which the future of the order depends. Plans were perfected for the annual convention to be held in Salisbury in October.

At the conclusion of the morning session, Miss Penelope Davis, the hostess of the Home, served an elegant luncheon.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS
The Auxiliary of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion held an interesting meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. M. Clark with Mrs. Layton McGugan assisting hostess. Just before the business session, Mr. Earl L. Wolsiagel, who is conducting the song service in the revival at the Memorial Baptist Church, entertained the Auxiliary with war songs and verses and made a most pleasing and helpful talk.

Several matters of business were discussed. Plans were made and a committee appointed for "Poppy Day," to be observed May 23. Delegates were appointed for the area meeting to be held on April 29 in Tarboro.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, the hostesses invited the guests into the dining room. The table was covered with lace and centered with spring flowers. Mrs. C. A. Bowen and Miss Estelle Greene poured tea, and sandwiches and salted nuts were passed. Mrs. S. L. Bridgers extended an invitation for the Auxiliary meeting in May and to the Junior Auxiliary to meet with little Miss Elizabeth Bridgers.

ROUND TABLE CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

On Tuesday, April 7, the Round Table Club met in the social room at the Sheppard Memorial Library with Mrs. Luther Herring hostess.

The room was tastefully decorated with ferns, spirea and a beautiful Easter lily.

Chairs were placed for many more than the twenty members, as each member was allowed to bring a guest, besides those specially invited by the hostess, and Mrs. W. C. Vincent, who was in charge of the program.

Business was dispensed with, after the president had greeted the guests and the secretary had called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Mrs. Vincent, in a few fitting words about the "home talent" of Greenville, introduced Dr. E. L. Henderson of East Carolina Teachers College, who spoke on the subject "Economic Conditions in Our Country."

Dr. Henderson said that this subject was too serious to treat lightly, after the fashion of Will Rogers—a too important to be touched on in a time-killing way—so he proceeded to give many enlightening facts about the astounding condition in which our country now finds itself.

Never before in the history of the world has one nation had so much gold—so much greater wealth of money and resources than any other nation, and yet had so much poverty.

He estimated that 20 per cent of the population is exceedingly rich; 60 per cent are near the poverty line; and 20 per cent are on the poverty line; while 50 per cent have no purchasing power.

Extreme wealth walks side by side with extreme poverty. Where is this wealth of gold? Mostly in the vaults of banks and trust companies, because 85 per cent of the business of America is done on credit has contracted, largely as a result of the slump in the stock market of 1928-29. The system of buying and selling stocks and bonds was described as legalized gambling—all done on a margin—coming close home as referring to the system of farming in operation, Dr. Henderson said that too many people were trying to make a living off the farm.

Two-thirds of the people in North Carolina own neither home nor land. The most successful and profitable farming is done by the owner living on and operating his own farm. A great variety of crops grow with little effort in Pitt county.

Personal ownership of property is not God-given, but a privilege given by society, and should be used for the good of the community. It is impossible to separate the economic, industrial, political, social and religious life of the community. Lawmakers and officials should be chosen who have the people's interests at heart.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS MEETING
The regular meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held at the club building Friday afternoon with Miss Clara Moye presiding.

Following the regular routine business the matter of the Cotton Day program to be held tomorrow afternoon was discussed and it was decided that each member should wear cotton clothing at tomorrow's meeting. The program tomorrow will be in the interest of the use of more cotton for wearing apparel and all the civic clubs of the city have been invited to be present at the meeting.

After this part of the club business had received attention, Miss Mary Wright, program leader, presented Miss Sallie Joyner Davis, of the East Carolina Teachers College faculty, who delivered a talk on the ways and means whereby the members of the Junior Woman's Club could be of help to the public library. This talk by Miss Davis was most interesting and beneficial.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses, Misses Mary Wright, Jane Easley and Mrs. J. T. Clifton.

EASTER PARTY FOR WINTERVILLE SENIORS
Winterville, April 8.—An Easter party was given to the seniors of Winterville High School April 4 by Mrs. J. O. Edwards. As the guests entered they registered and punch was served by Miss Nannie Loy Tucker.

The house was attractively decorated with spring flowers. A color scheme of red and white was carried out.

The seniors present were Misses Maggie Lee McGlohon, Irene Worthington, Lucile Worthington, Mary Wade, Naomi Baker, Irene Nobles, Inez Oglesby, Elise Forlines, Maggie Lee Hines; Messrs. Wayland Sermons, Johnnie Ray Craft, Alfred Forbes, Woodrow Woodard. High school teachers were Messrs. D. H. Conley and J. W. Webster; Misses Mary Ida McLawhorn, Wyletta Culbreth, Yetta Brock, and Ethel Thomas, a former teacher.

Several Easter games were played, and piano music and singing was enjoyed by all.

As the party came to an end, a delightful course of cream and cake was served.

Confesses To Meat Stealing.
Farmville, N. C. April 8.—James Edwards, 20-year-old Farmville negro, was jailed by local police Tuesday, after being trailed by bloodhounds obtained from Edwards confessed to forcing entrance to John Tugwell's smokehouse and snatching around 40 hams and shoulders on Monday night.

Tugwell, who lives across the Green County line, reported the theft Tuesday morning, and police got busy rounding up what is believed to be a meat stealing ring. Nearly every day brings some report of a smokehouse being robbed in this vicinity.

Two sacks containing 12 pieces of meat were found, hidden in the woods, at a spot designated by Edwards. The negro implicated a brother, Willie, who has not been apprehended as yet.

TARHEELS WIN FROM THE SLUGGERS

The Tarheels of the Training School beat the Sluggers of West Greenville 6-5. The Tarheel players were Woodrow Thomas, Chas. Muschelwhite, Herbert Wilkerson, Herbert Scoville, Earle Shuff, Lewis Stuart Picklen, John Wells, Mack Ray Trip. Archie Jones umpired the game.

The Tarheels will play again today on the Third Street School diamond, also the Pioneers meet the Junior HLY this afternoon on the same grounds.

WASHINGTON HIGH TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

Tomorrow the baseball diamond back of the Third Street School will be the scene of a great conflict between two ancient rivals, Washington and Greenville. Both teams have in the past been so closely matched that the two games played annually have been split. Greenville has a fine team this year, and the boys are determined to make it two straight this year. Washington's strength has not been ascertained, but it is known that they always have good teams, so Greenville will advance to battle with this understanding in view.

ABOUT TOWN

Certain plenipotentiaries of the industrial field are of the opinion that conditions are much better at this time than they were a month ago, and they give as a reason the increase in construction work in evidence throughout the nation at this time.

A considerable part of this work was made possible through federal appropriations to relieve the unemployment situation, and it is expected to improve with the coming of better weather conditions.

Although this immediate locality is not affected by the construction program it is bound to realize indirectly from the additional money which the various projects will put into circulation. Let the people in many parts of the country return to prosperity, and it may be readily assumed that other communities will be similarly affected.

The prosperity of this nation is linked inextricably with the activities of the workingman and when he is provided with labor it is an assumed fact that depression will not exist for any length of time.

There will be no renaissance of legalized liquor sale in this country if the women have their way about it.

Members of the national committee meeting in Baltimore the first of the week enumerated some of the achievements of the prohibition during the last ten years and showed conclusively that the nation has progressed under the Eighteenth Amendment despite the claims of opponents to the contrary.

It was stated that prohibition resulted in increased production, increased efficiency of labor, the elimination of blue Mondays, decrease in industrial accidents, increase in savings, and last but not least, a pronounced drop in the applications of destitutes to the various relief organizations throughout the nation.

Women have been staunch advocates of the Eighteenth Amendment, because it was they who suffered the most acutely during the reign of Demon Rum. They realize the thriving condition of American life today is due mainly to the reduction of the whiskey evil and the accompanying improvement in the moral life of the nation.

A more profound and elementary spirit of the Christian element toward the masses is necessary if the church is to accomplish what it should in the life of the world, in the opinion of Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of Raleigh, who is conducting a series of revival services at Memorial Baptist church.

The responsibility to take a challenging message to the masses rests upon those engaged in activities of the Christian world today. Dr. Tucker said, and he urged his hearers to be constantly on the alert to render this service.

Dr. Tucker, one of the best recognized students of the Bible in the Baptist church of the south, has delivered three messages on the home, in addition to the regular evening sermons, and has shown conclusively that the atmosphere of the average home should be more wholesome and interesting if the children of today are to measure up to expectation.

With the hundreds of outside influences, many of them of a salacious, decadent nature, beckoning the children on every hand it is incumbent upon the parents to make home life more congenial, more worthwhile in order that their offspring may find sufficient entertainment without seeking it from other sources.

Home is the foundation of the life of all nations, and the destiny of a people is largely determined by the character of home life. This being the case it is transcendently more important for the parents to develop a constructive home environment that is for them to spend all of their time seeking the chimerical satisfaction which they hope to obtain from other realms of human existence.

The public that great mass of people who comprise the constituency of the members of the North Carolina Legislature will be willing to condone the delay of the present session when the legislators have completed the revenue bill.

The people in all sections of the state have been impatient with the assembly for the apparent delay which has occurred during the lengthy session, but as soon as they are given some concrete idea as to what the revenue bill will look like when finally completed they will feel more like forgiving their representatives.

It has been a hard and difficult battle for the solons with the opposition presented from so many different sources, and when they have completed their work they will have the distinction of having participated in the most unusual session in the history of the assembly.

The legislators started out to obey a direct mandate from the people by reducing taxes on land, and when they have provided for this they found themselves in a muddle to provide a sufficient sum to make up for the shortage. Some proposed the sales tax, others the luxury tax, and after long controversy the fight narrowed down to the luxury tax idea, and even that has been defeated now.

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH DIES FROM PNEUMONIA ATTACK

(Continued from page one) zine "Etude" asked the speaker, in a symposium, what composition he would choose to hear, if he could, when he was dying. Longworth chose Beethoven's Seventh Symphony. He was an accomplished violinist and a pianist.

He was by native political philosophy a regular Republican. But his spectacular defection on the veterans' loan bill only last session was a demonstration that his party loyalty was not abject.

One of the narrowest escapes "Nick" ever had was in the last election. He was reported to have said that a house-to-house canvass was made against him, to warn veterans of his hostility—though he voted for the bonus.

Then came the new loans pro-

Wisconsin Woman LOST 11 LBS.

"Have been taking Kruschen Salts for fat reduction—am on my second bottle—I lost 11 pounds in six weeks and feel fine—Kruschen sure gives you a lot of vim and pep."

Kruschen Salts are used daily by millions all over the world not only to take off fat from overweight people but to rejuvenate the entire system.

One bottle of Kruschen Salts (lasts 4 weeks) costs but 85c and one bottle will prove of vast benefit to people who have constipation, headaches, indigestion, nervousness, rheumatism, depression, acidity and auto-intoxication.

Not only that but one bottle will bring about body activity—increased energy, vigor and ambition, sparkling eyes and freedom from pimples and blemishes—millions know all this—you ought to know it. Take one-half teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—walk a little each day—cut down on sweets and fat forming foods.

Sold by druggists America over with the distinct understanding that one bottle will help you lose fat or money back.

posal. After he had announced his support, and another administration bias was threatened, newspapermen asked him if he might be swayed.

"I don't think anything," replied Longworth, "could make me change my position."

The loan bill passed over the president's veto. In many touchy incidents did Longworth as speaker preserve the proprieties. A gift for phrases served him well. His Harvard training made his rulings from the rostrum, however technical, a delight to hear.

In this phase of his job, he held a universal reputation for fairness and consideration. It was in his regular business of presiding, in fact, that he won widest recognition as a bulwark for the rights of the minority.

Before he became speaker, he had established a reputation for hard hitting debate. He employed irony, however, rather than sarcasm. Likewise in his personal associations with political opponents, he let a sharp wit play—always with the softening shadow of humor.

The story is told that his friend, Garner of Texas, once in a jovial mood suggested that, though he was Longworth's friend, he would, of course, break the speaker's nose, politically when opportunity offered.

"Why?" Longworth's retort went, in the story, "where is your patriotism?"

It is an old story, now, that Longworth and the Texan became friends when they were the newest members on their side's of the foreign affairs committee. When Garner tells it, he says that at the time he "had never heard of any foreign country besides Europe," and that Longworth was little more interested. This, of course, was in the day Longworth was a "boy representative."

For all his frankly elegant tastes, "Nick" kept his office comparatively simple. On its walls hung half a dozen honorary degrees which universities had conferred upon him. He was proud of them. So was he of the resolution of his State's Legislature adopted congratulating him upon his election as speaker. It was framed on the wall. Beside the great fireplace stood a silk flag, the gift of an auxiliary of the G. A. R. Literally scores of gavels, plain and fancy, he kept out of sight.

By his office force he was beloved. They were frightened, on occasion, by the responsibility he trusted to them, but they redoubled efforts to justify it.

The story his associates of old told today around the capitol was that of a man born "with a silver spoon in his mouth" who went to work and for six years occupied what he was always proud to call "the greatest office in any legislative branch of any government in the world"—the speakership in the House of Representatives.

"He was uniformly courteous to every member of the House," said one Democratic leader. "Any member, whether the humblest or the proudest, could approach Speaker Longworth assured of fair consideration."

From his own ranks came the tribute: "On a secret ballot there would never have been opposition to Longworth's selection as speaker."

During his last illness, his capitol office was besieged with anxious questions from his closest political friends to his bitterest political enemies—all personal admirers and well-wishers of the "gentleman from Ohio."

Referring to the friendship between Longworth and Garner, a Representative said:

"They always fought to the last ditch, politically but no two men ever had a greater respect for the personal integrity of each other."

"When Garner's life hung by a thread during an attack of pneumonia several years ago, Longworth, then majority leader, came on the floor of the House and announced his condition."

"He proposed that the House stand and give three cheers for Mr. Garner. The House did so; it was a very extraordinary and unusual tribute."

All National Clubs Make Poor Show

New York, April 9.—(AP)—Some one with an analytical bent will please step forward and explain the comparatively weak showing National league clubs have made up to the current writing in the spring exhibition circuit.

For, with the complete returns almost in, the senior organization has failed to compile anything like the winning record credited to teams of the American league. This despite the fact that the nation as a whole, was supposed to be more strongly balanced from top to bottom.

Not only did the American take a commanding lead over its rival circuit in the inter-league argument during the past week, but it has posted a far more impressive record against all competition since the exhibition grind began.

Without any help from the champion Philadelphia Athletics, the American league has bested the National in 27 out of 49 direct engagements. Only one National league team, St. Louis has done better than break even.

Even more impressive, perhaps, is the fact that the American league, in all games, has turned in 103 victories to 59 defeats while the National barely has shown a profit, winning 84 and dropping 79. Four National leaguers haven't been able to reach a .500 average, even while laying in the outlying districts.

Donie Bush's Chicago White Sox supplied the fanfare for the past week, winning six out of their seven engagements, including three over the Giants to square their extended feud at six victories apiece. The Yankees, with five wins out of six starts; the St. Louis Browns, with four out of five; and Washington, with four wins one loss and a tie were others to enjoy prosperity. The Giants ran into the toughest going, losing all four of their bouts.

Cleveland Ready for Champ Bout

Cleveland, April 9.—(AP)—A flip of the pen was all that was needed today to give Cleveland iron-clad assurance of its selection as the site of the Max Schmeling-Young Stribling heavyweight championship bout.

It was understood a contract for the rental of the municipal stadium at a fee of $25,000 would be signed today by William Saxe, representing the Illinois Madison Square Garden Corporation, and George Bender, stadium manager. They worked out the details last night at a conference with City Manager Daniel E. Morgan and William F. Cary of the New York Madison Square Garden Corporation.

The 15-round go will be held either the night of June 3 or the afternoon of July 4. The date will be determined later and is expected to be formally announced next Wednesday at South Bend, Ind., where Schmeling is scheduled for an exhibition.

The contract as drawn provides that the promoters will pay all expenses above $12,500 in increasing the stadium's seating capacity from 80,000 to 120,000 and will split concession profits with the city.

Fights Last Night

Moline, Ill.—Barney Ross, Chicago, outpointed Mike Obud, Columbus (8); Jack Kane, Chicago, stopped Jack Delmont, Toledo (3). Cedar Rapids, Ia.—Eddie Anderson, Chicago, outpointed Joe Rivera, Cedar Rapids, Ia. (10); Young Geno, La Salle, Ill., knocked out Billy Knowles, Chicago. (2).

Re-elected Vice-Pres. Greensboro, N. C.—Coleman W. Roberts has been re-elected vice-president and general manager of the Carolina Motor Club.

Klein Signs

Chuck Klein, slugging outfielder of the Philadelphia National league team, signed a three year contract after stubbornly holding out during the training season.

trade after warning the Brooklyn bench most of the last season. He has been a consistent hitter thus far, getting his second home run in yesterday's tilt, with Lefty Grove on the peak. Elliott, turned in his second series victory, holding the world champions to seven hits. Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—(AP)—Outfielder Ernie Orsatti, in the past never regarded as a slugger, seems to have discovered the knack of putting 'em out of the park. Orsatti, who was given the left field job with the St. Louis Cardinals when Chick Hafey, the team's chief slugger, decided he did not want to play for what Sam Breadon wanted to pay, has put one out of the park in each of the last two exhibition games. The rest of the Cards also appear to have recovered from a severe batting slump, which worried Manager Gabby Street for several days.

Wichita, Kan., April 9.—(AP)—Despite reports he likely would be benched because of his weak hitting, Jim Levey continues to hold forth at shortstop for Manager Bill Killefer's St. Louis Browns, and it appears now he will be in the starting lineup against the Detroit Tigers next Tuesday. Levey recently has shown some signs of hitting ability, a home run yesterday being especially cheering to Killefer. If Levey is unable to solve American League pitching, "Red" Kress will move back to short and Lin Storti will take his place at third.

CONOVER WOMAN HEADS MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Lenoir, N. C., April 9.—(AP)—The Women's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church in North Carolina was launched today upon a new year's work under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Wagoner, of Conover.

The society, at the closing sessions of its 35th annual meeting here yesterday, elected Mrs. Wagoner president to succeed Mrs. Edgar Whitener, of High Point, Winston-Salem was selected for the 1932 convention.

Other officers named were: First vice-president, Mrs. J. P. Linn, Landis; second vice-president, Mrs. C. C. Best, Hickory; recording secretary, Mrs. Herbert Coble, Burlington, corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. E. Shook, Newton and treasurer, Mrs. G. T. Crowell, Concord.

News From The Training Camp

Decatur, Ill., April 9.—(AP)—Manager Bucky Harris of the Detroit Tigers now has set third place in the American League standings as his goal for this season. The Tigers believe they can beat out Cleveland and New York.

Greenville, S. C., April 9.—(AP)—The ex-third baseman, Freddy Lindstrom, has become a quite successful right fielder for the New York Giants but in one respect he does not measure up to his predecessor, Mel Ott. Lindy has not learned to tell from the crack of the bat when a hit will be a long one and to turn his back and run to get under it. He keeps his eye on the ball and trails it until he gets where it is going to land but it occasionally costs him a catch he might make by the other method and makes more catches look hard.

Philadelphia, April 9.—(AP)—Hal Lee, outfielder, and Ace Elliott, pitcher, plus a couple of other fellows are largely responsible for the Phillies' defeat of the Athletics in the annual city series. The Phils won yesterday 6 to 2, making the series games 3 to 1 in their favor. The final game is to be played tomorrow.

CAMELS are wrapped Only in MOISTURE-PROOF Cellophane

Cigarettes in prime condition have a moisture content of about 16%. It will be seen by the chart that cigarettes in the ordinary wrapped package lose more than half of their total moisture in thirty days and that only the Camel Humidor Pack delivers cigarettes to you in prime condition.

The whole country is talking about the throat-easy mildness and the factory freshness of Camel Cigarettes in the new Humidor Pack.

The above chart prepared by the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory tells you why.

Please examine it carefully. It is an un-failing guide to cigarette selection and enjoyment.

As you can quickly see by the three upper curves on this interesting chart, cigarettes that lack the protection of the Humidor Pack lose their moisture rapidly from the day they are manufactured.

And day by day as this moisture disappears, the smoke from these cigarettes becomes harsher, hotter, more unkind to the smoker's throat.

Not so with Camels! Factory-fresh Camels are air-sealed in the new Sanitary Package which keeps the dust and germs out and keeps the flavor in.

Make these tests yourself
It is so easy to tell the difference between parched dry cigarettes and fresh prime Camels that it is no wonder everybody is reaching for a fresh cigarette today.

Your fingers identify stale, dried-out tobaccos at once. While a Camel is flexible and pliant.

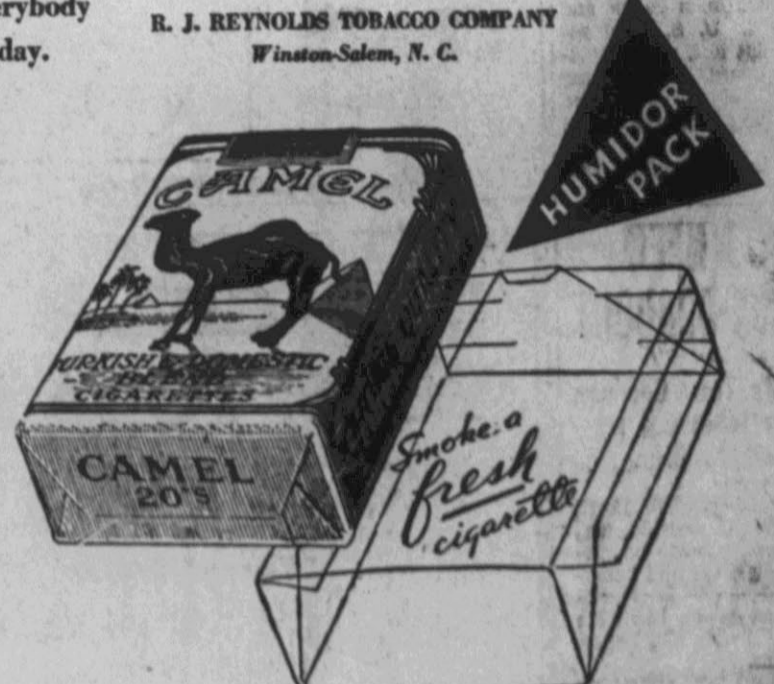

Your ears can tell the difference too. For a dust-dry cigarette crackles under pressure.

But the real test is taste and there is simply no comparison between the rich mildness of a Camel and the hot, brackish smoke from a stale, dry cigarette.

Switch to Camels just for today then leave them tomorrow if you can.

Artificial heat in houses and apartments soon dries the moisture out of cigarettes wrapped the old fashioned way. It is the mark of a considerate hostess, by means of the Humidor Pack, to "Serve a fresh cigarette." Buy Camels by the carton—this cigarette will remain fresh in your home and office.

N. Y. COTTON

New York, April 9.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today 7 to 8 points higher in response to firmer Liverpool cables and sold about 10 to 12 points net higher during the early trading on covering and trade buying.

May liquidation remained in evidence but it was taken by spot interests against sales of later deliveries. May contracts sold up to 10.25 and October to 10.82 by the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said that continental liquidation had been absorbed by covering and Bombay buying.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, April 9.—(AP)—Pronounced strength shown by wheat today resulted chiefly from broadening of North American export business and from reports of moisture scarcity northwest. Overseas purchases of Canadian and United States wheat were estimated late in the day at as much as 2,000,000 bushels. Price bulges, however, failed to hold in the face of active profit taking and of preparations for the government crop report due after the close.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 9.—(AP)—Professional operators had the stock market virtually to themselves today but neither speculative faction found the field particularly lucrative.

Selling of the rails impelled a general sag for a time during the morning, but many leading industrial and utilities resisted the downward movement, and after midday, the list shows signs of rallying.

In the mid-day rally, early declines of 1 to 4 points were modified and a few shares sold up a point or two, including General Motors. In the rally, declines of 2 to 4 points appeared in Atchafalaya, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Frisco preferred. U. S. Steel recovered a 1 point loss, and Bethlehem turned upward after losing more than 2. Auburn fluctuated erratically, getting down 12 points at one time.

Credit remained plentiful. Call

SIGNS YOU NEED BLACK-DRAUGHT

Good Way To Treat Common Complaints Mentioned By Two Southern Men.

Mr. Hubert Bailey, of 97 North Bradford Street, Gainesville, Ga., says that a few years ago he suffered from indigestion and heartburn. "My tongue would get coated, and I would have a bad taste in my mouth," writes Mr. Bailey. "I had gas pains."

"I knew I must take something to overcome this condition. My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did. After I had taken a few doses, I felt much better. The gas pains would stop, my mouth would feel clean and my food would taste much better. I know Black-Draught helped me."

"When I feel bloated, and have headache after meals," says Mr. George Chevalier, of Guilford, Miss., "my method of taking Black-Draught is to take from a pinch to a level teaspoonful in my mouth, dry, and wash it down with about half a glassful of water, regulating the dose according to the situation by taking more or less, according to how I feel."

"I usually take a dose on going to bed, when needed, and am relieved next morning."

force being sent here from Lisbon to subdue the newly installed revolutionary government.

General Sousa Dias, who heads the junta which now controls the city, has ordered a partial mobilization of reserve forces on the island, threatening severe penalties to those who evade service.

Three Portuguese steamers in the Lisbon-Madeira-Azores service have been commandeered by the junta for their purposes.

In view of island topography and other conditions advantageous to defense, it is believed the junta will be able to hold out against the Lisbon expeditionary force.

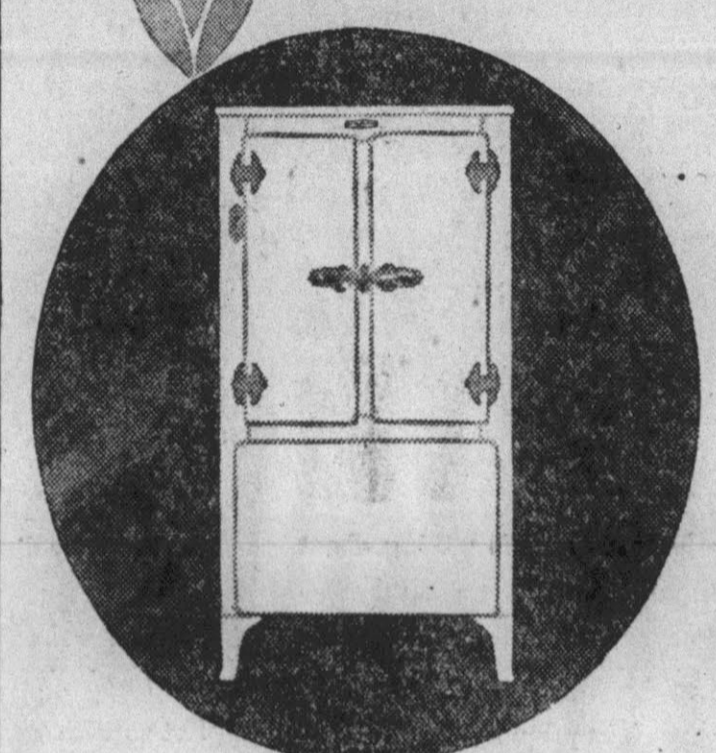

Lisbon dispatches state that five days, of which two have passed, are being given the Funchal revolt to surrender. At the expiration of the period members of the junta will be classed as rebels and dealt with accordingly.
