Senate Paces Stamp Of Approval On Substitute For McLean School Bill

Sitting As a Committee of the Whole, Body This Afternoon Adopts Grier-Folger Plan to Raise An Equalizing Fund of $10,000,000; Measure Reported to Floor for Consideration Next Week; the School Law Will Have to Be Repealed or Repudiated if New Action Is Adopted

Raleigh, April 11.—(AP)—The Senate as a committee of the whole today completed consideration of the biennial revenue bill, adopted all proposals in the Grier-Folger plan to raise an equalizing fund of $10,000,000 and reported the bill to the floor for consideration next week.

The Grier-Folger plan is the Senate substitute for the MacLean school law, which would have to be repealed or repudiated if the Senate revenue bill is adopted by the House.

Under the Senate plan no sales tax such as the Day or Hinsdale plans is included. By increasing the franchise taxes on public service and other corporations, raising the maximum individual income tax brackets to the constitutional limit of six per cent, levying a tax on income from foreign stocks, and merchants tax, the proponents of the measure claim it will raise $3,500,000.

This sum would be added to the present $6,500,000 fund for school aid, making $10,000,000. As it is estimated the cost of the schools would be $19,500,000 under the MacLean law, requiring the state support for six months without an ad valorem tax, the measure would have to be repudiated if the House concurs in the Senate changes.

The Grier-Folger plan contemplates an ad valorem tax not to exceed 30 cents per $100.

Indications are that the House will not concur in the Senate changes, creating a deadlock which legislators say will be hard to break. By an overwhelming vote the House this week appropriated $18,500,000 for school support—after the Senate had refused to pass a sales tax to provide $9,000,000 needed for such an appropriation.

The Senate measure is estimated to provide the following increases in revenue over the present state taxes: Railroad franchise $701,000; power company franchise, $735,000; telephone company franchise $114,000; miscellaneous public service franchise $20,000; domestic and foreign corporation franchise, $440,000; individual income tax $640,000; corporation income tax $610,000; individual income tax on dividends from foreign stocks $95,000; merchants license tax $900,000. The total net increase is estimated at $7,730,000.

The merchants tax levies a graduated scale on wholesalers ranging from $12.50 per year on those who do business of not more than $50,000 annually to $50 on those whose business exceeds $50,000. The retailers tax is $5 on those doing business of not more than $5,000 and runs up to $500 on those doing business of not more than $500,000. An additional tax of $250 is levied on each $250,000 in excess of $500,000.

The Senate concurred in the House substitute for its bill creating a state personnel commission and also passed its own substitute for the House bill to reorganize the State Department of Agriculture.

Under the personnel act a director of personnel will pass on the qualifications of all applicants for state jobs. Heads of various departments and institutions may do their own hiring after approval by the director. The commission replaces the present salary and wage group.

The agriculture reorganization act reduces the membership of the Board of Agriculture from ten to five, requires they must be practical farmers, defines the duties of the board and places the State Fair under the agriculture board. The measure was written by Senator Pritchett of Bertie to substitute for the House act. It was said to have the approval of the governor and the commissioner of agriculture.

Makes 171 Miles In Hour.

Spartanburg, S. C.—(AP)—Pilot J. S. Charles, flying on the regular route for Eastern Air Transport, Inc., has set a record for time between Spartanburg and Atlanta. He flew the distance of 171 miles in one hour flat, making one stop of ten minutes at Greenville, S. C.

End Of Legislature Not In Sight At The Present

Raleigh, April 11.—(AP)—The end of the 1931 General Assembly was not in sight today, though the House had cleared its calendar of its last major piece of legislation.

Following a week-long battle on the revenue bill in the Senate, legislative prognosticators were in a quandary as to when the 1931 Assembly would complete its work. Many believed this could not be done without an adjournment and a special session.

The chasm between the Senate and the House was widened during the week—if such a thing was possible. The Senate killed both the Day and Hinsdale proposals for a sales tax and started forward on a plan for a $10,000,000 equalizing fund plus an ad valorem tax for school support instead of the full school support without an ad valorem tax as demanded in the MacLean law.

In the meantime the House voted $18,500,000 as the annual appropriation for school aid, making the biennial appropriation bill passed by the lower division last night carry a total of more than $29,400,000 annually.

Sentiment was growing that the Assembly would adjourn sine die without a compromise being reached on the school question, leaving the state without a revenue act or appropriations bill for 1931-33. If this occurs the governor must call a special session, which he has repeatedly said should not be necessary.

During the week the administration purchasing agency and personnel commission bills completed their legislative course.

One creates a new agency to do all buying for state departments and institutions and the other creates a director of personnel to have supervision over all state employees.

The short ballot movement, that made its re-appearance in the House in a measure signed by 41 members after previously meeting its death, died again when Speaker Smith ruled the bill was out of order when it sought again to make the offices of commissioner of agriculture and corporation commissioners appointive.

The House judiciary committee considering the Davis bill to allow the sale of medicinal whiskey was unable to break a tie vote and decided to report the bill to the vote seven for it and seven against

WOMEN SEEK TO IMPROVE PROHIBITION

Commission Recommends Nation-wide Educational Campaign to Aid Cause

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—A nationwide educational campaign, fortified by "Good example in the home," was named today by an unofficial law enforcement commission of 22 women as their chief recommendation for improving the present prohibition situation.

This was the conclusion of a composite prohibition report presented yesterday to President Hoover and described as a "Woman's postscript" to the Wickersham report.

It was made public today at a luncheon by the Woman's National Committee for law enforcement.

In one of the 22 individual studies from which the consensus was drawn, Mrs. Clement L. Shaver, wife of the former chairman of the Democratic National committee, urged women to forget they were Democrats or Republicans and vote only to "overthrow the liquor traffic." She said President Hoover was in a "strong position" because of his prohibition stand.

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the Pennsylvania governor, conceded enforcement was "a tough nut to crack," adding that if the dry did not want it tough to fight for it the amendment "might just as well be repealed."

Mrs. Irving Fisher, wife of the Yale University economist, quoted her husband that prohibition had "raised productivity by at least three billion dollars a year."

Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army used statistics to suggest the conclusion that a man "has a better chance of life in this country with her bands than in Britain with her brewers."

"We believe," said the composite statement "that the report of the Wickersham commission has done much to strengthen opinion favoring the Eighteenth Amendment."

"We believe that their conclusions, arrived at in spite of the personal preferences of at least half of the commission, testify more strongly than anything else could have done to the social and economic benefits already evident as a result of the Eighteenth Amendment."

"We find the public not only uninformed but largely misinformed because many channels of publicity are virtually closed to prohibition factual information."

"We find that the opponents of prohibition, while voicing their approval of an educational campaign and training for temperance, have prevented the dissemination of information from Federal sources by blocking appropriations of funds for this purpose."

CUT RANSOM FOR BLUMER

Abductors of Beer Magnate Demand $100,000 Instead of $150,000 as at First Monroe, Wis., April 11.—(AP)—R. R. Wells, secretary of the Blumer Products company, today said he had received an anonymous letter from Chicago reducing to $100,000 the $150,000 ransom asked for the return of Fred J. Blumer, 50, head of the Blumer brewery, reportedly held by kidnapers.

Blumer, former president of the Wisconsin Brewers' Association, has been missing from his home since Thursday when he left to keep a "business" appointment. Shortly after Wells received a telephone call stating Blumer was safe but held for $150,000 ransom.

The letter received today was in a white government envelope mailed at 1:30 P. M., yesterday from Chicago. It read:

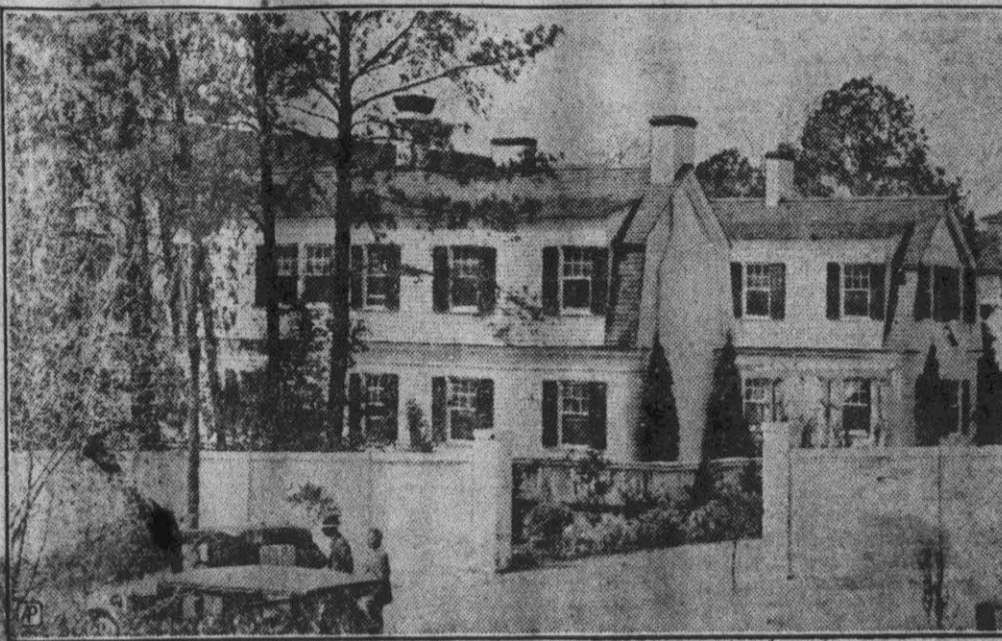

"Dear Sir: We make it 100 grand now. Wrap it in a white paper and wait at the southeast corner of Madison and Canal streets Tuesday morning between nine and ten. If you tell anybody about this, well, it will be just too bad. We are above the average in brains, so be careful."

The letter was signed "Unemployed Guys."

HOME WHERE SPEAKER LONGWORTH DIED

Associated Press photo shows the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Curtis at Aiken, S. C., where Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the House of Representatives, died of pneumonia, while taking a spring vacation. His wife, Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, was at his bedside when he died.

LONGWORTH IS LAID TO REST IN CINCINNATI

Simple Services Held for Speaker of the House of Representatives Today

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 11.—(AP)—Speaker Nicholas Longworth was buried today in Spring Grove cemetery, the resting place of his forebears.

No words of eulogy were spoken as the simple ritual of the Episcopal Church was read.

But a silent tribute was paid to him by men in whose high circles he moved and by townspeople who revered him.

President Hoover came with an official party together with a large delegation from Congress, where Mrs. Longworth served for more than 20 years.

Funeral services were held at the Christ Episcopal Church, where the Rt. Rev. Henry Wise Hobson, bishop conductor of the Diocese of Southern Ohio pronounced the brief prayers in the ritual of the dead.

Men and women high in public affairs called at the "Rockwood" estate of the Longworths this morning to extend their sympathies to the widow, Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth. The body arrived here by special train from Aiken, S. C., where Mr. Longworth died of pneumonia two days ago.

The interior of the home was banked with floral tributes and inside the church, which had seating capacity for only 750 persons, the aisles, from altar to door were laden with flowers.

Paulina, the six-year-old daughter of the Longworths learned for the first time of the death of her father when they brought him home today.

So great was the throng that strict police regulations had to be put in force.

Infantrymen from Fort Thomas, Ky., stood at attention at the head of the casket while the body lay in state.

Special seating arrangements were made at the church to accommodate the presidential and congressional parties and scores of acquaintances. Admission was by card only.

The funeral cortege left the Longworth estate at 1:30, headed by four cars containing the honorary pall bearers, two containing the active pall bearers and the hearse. A squad of motorcycle policemen led the procession.

The route of the funeral procession was lined with great crowds.

FORMER PITT WOMAN DEAD

Funeral for Mrs. V. L. Pendleton Conducted at Warrenton Friday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, 93, native of Pitt county, were conducted from her late home in Warrenton Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Burial will be made in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Pendleton one of the oldest and most beloved women of Warrenton, died Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She had been in declining health for several months, but death resulted from a slight stroke of paralysis which she suffered last Sunday.

Members of the family were at the bedside when the end came. Messages of condolence were received from many parts of the country.

Mrs. Pendleton, who was known as "the grand old lady of Warren," was prominent in the state in patriotic, civic and religious activities. She taught Sunday school in Virginia and Warren county for 70 consecutive years. Her chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy appointed her its official representative at the unveiling of the Robert E. Lee memorial at Stone Mountain, Atlanta, Ga., and she attended at the age of 87 years.

Mrs. Pendleton was twice married. Her first husband was Robert Leckie Jones, of Mecklenburg county, Va., and her second marriage was to Major Arthur S. Pendleton of Portsmouth. She was married to Mr. Jones in 1854 and within one year became a widow.

One daughter, Mrs. Helen Leckie Whitaker, was born to this union. She became the wife of Major Pendleton in 1872, and to them were born two sons Milo W. Pendleton, deceased, and Col. Arthur Pendleton who married Miss Sara Busbee, of Raleigh, and one daughter, Mrs. Katherine Pendleton Arington with whom she made her home.

Mrs. Pendleton was born in Pitt county in October, 1837, and attended school here as a girl. She made her home at Warrenton following the Civil War. She taught for a short time in both the old Wilcox school and in the Warrenton College. Later she, with Mrs. S. D. Twitty, established a private school in the home in which she has since lived.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Peter Arrington, her son, Dr. Arthur Pendleton of Richmond, Va., a grand son, Dr. Joel Whitaker, of Indianapolis, three grandchildren Miss Katherine Clark Pendleton Arrington, Miss Sylbert Pendleton, Pabius Busbee Pendleton, and two great grandchildren, Miss Helen Courtenay Whitaker and Mr. Quincy Alden Meyers Whitaker.

Mrs. Pendleton has a host of friends in Greenville who received news of her death with deepest sorrow. She was born in the home here in which the Baptist State convention was organized over one hundred years ago. She spent her girlhood in Greenville, and moved to another section after her marriage. At the death of her first husband she returned to Greenville where she taught school for sometime.

Florida Speaker

Wichita, Kansas, April 11.—(AP)—Captain Ira C. Eaker, Army test pilot, landed here at 11:43 A. M. (CST) today on his transcontinental speed flight from Burbank, California, to New York.

His flying time was six hours, 3 minutes, 20 seconds.

Before the take-off on the Pacific Coast he said he expected to reach Wichita in about five hours. An airport crew rushed to the red-winged, blue-bodied monoplane to refuel it quickly for the last stage on the dash to New York.

On the hop to Wichita, Captain Eaker virtually equalled the time of Captain Frank Hawks, holder of the west-east transcontinental flight record. Hawks' time to Wichita was 6:04:11 last August 13 when he flew from Glendale, Calif., to Curtiss Field, N. Y., in 12:25:03.

Burbank, Cal., April 11.—(AP)—Captain Ira C. Eaker, United States Army Air Corps test pilot, streaked off in a low wing, open cockpit monoplane here at 3:39 A. M. (P.S.T.) today for New York in quest of a new transcontinental speed record.

It was a beautiful takeoff. Despite the heavy load of gasoline, Eaker used only about half the 3,500 foot runway to leave the ground. Then he roared off into the darkness for Wichita, Kans., his only scheduled stop.

Taking with him an apple, an orange, some milk, chewing gum and a handful of cigars, Eaker remarked: "I could get along without gas, maybe, but not cigars."

The flier hoped to reach New York in 11 hours or less, including time for refueling at Wichita, which he expected would require about 20 minutes. He said he expected to reach Wichita in about five hours.

Eaker started with 330 gallons of gasoline, 100 gallons less than capacity, and hoped to average 215 to 220 miles per hour.

The record for the west-east flight is 12 hours, 25 minutes, set last July by Captain Frank Hawks, who averaged about 195 miles per hour.

Weather reports shortly before Captain Eaker took off forecast practically "dead air" between here and Wichita, with possibly a cross wind of 3 to 10 miles per hour, but no tailwind. Beyond Wichita, however, the flier was promised a tailwind of probably 5 to 15 miles an hour.

His plane, a Lockheed Altair, with a 425 horsepower wasp motor, supercharged to 540 horsepower, is a red-winged, bluebirdcraft No. 119V.

Noted for several cross country flights, Captain Eaker had ill luck with his last one, March 10. He cracked up near Marion, Kentucky in a Lockheed-Vega monoplane.

His plane in today's flight has a retractable landing gear, an idea of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's to reduce air resistance. The gear was drawn back under the wings, much in the manner of the feet of a flying bird.

The army plane—"urston Mark" had Captain Eaker as chief pilot on its pioneering refueling endurance flight.

The route from here to Mitchell Field, New York Eaker's destination is 2,477 miles.

LONG BEGINS HIS CAMPAIGN

Louisiana Governor Takes to Hustings and Fight and Charges Follow

New Orleans, April 11.—(AP)—Louisiana today echoed with charges, counter-charges, calling of names, fights and arrests. Dr. Huey P. Long, governor and senator elect, was in the midst of another campaign.

Dr. Long took to the hustings yesterday in the eighth district for the congressional candidacy of John M. Overton and a free-for-all fight followed in Montgomery between members of the Long entourage and Preston LeBlanc and Eddie Boudreaux.

LeBlanc is a brother of Dudley J. LeBlanc public service commissioner and candidate for governor. Following the battle, LeBlanc and Boudreaux were charged with the non-bailable offense of lying in wait with concealed weapons with intent to kill and lodged in jail in Colfax.

Whereupon Dudley LeBlanc issued a statement calling Dr. Long "the Kaiser and King" and charging that the non-bailable count was made by Log himself "so that my brother could suffer in jail. This was denied by District Judge Wiley Jones, of Colfax.

Commissioner LeBlanc said he saw the fight and that his brother and his brother's friend "were attacked by Bob Brothers, Long's bodyguard."

The warrant against LeBlanc and Boudreaux was sworn out by Robert Brothers after the mayor of Montgomery had stopped the fight. Commissioner LeBlanc said the mayor also assumed a fine of $250 for disturbing the peace.

The fight came following distribution of circulars that urged "vote for Dudley LeBlanc for governor, the white man's friend."

DR. TUCKER TALKS ON SIN

Tells of Greatness of God's Redemption to Be Found in Jesus Christ

The part which sin plays in the life of man and the greatness of God's redemption to be found in Jesus Christ was portrayed in an exceptionally forceful and convincing manner last night by Dr. J. Powell Tucker, of Raleigh, in the series of revival services which has been in progress at the Memorial Baptist church since last Monday. The services will continue for a period of ten days.

Tomorrow promises to be one of the most important days of the revival as each of the two services to be held during the day will be featured by special numbers by the choir under direction of Earl L. Wolsagel, director of song services. Dr. Tucker at the morning hour will speak on the subject, "The Church and Her Mission." At the evening hour his subject will be "The Crucifixion."

Dr. Tucker spoke on the subject, "What Jesus Wrote on the Ground" at the service last night. His text was taken from John 8:1-11, and this furnished the scriptural background for the vivid exposition of the results of sin in the individual life and the accompanying significance of God's redemption through Christ.

In his characteristic vigorous style, Dr. Tucker portrayed for the congregation the attempted entrapment of Jesus on several questions by the leaders of the day. First the Pharisees, who propounded the question of John's baptism as an issue concerning His authority. Here the Master turned back another question which placed these men in an unanswerable dilemma. Second, the Herodians endeavored to catch Him on the question of tribute to Caesar, and were also baffled in their perfidious attempt.

Third, came the Sadducees with their subtle question based on the resurrection and the state of the dead. Then came the lawyer who inquired, "Which is the greatest law?" Having been successfully answered in all these matters leaders now conspired to carry out the most diabolical scheme of all, Dr. Tucker said.

They secured a poor prostitute from the dives of Jerusalem, dragged her to the temple where Jesus was teaching and flung the wretch down before Him, demanding His judgment upon the case. Moses' law declared death by stoning as the penalty. What would He say? With clarity of thought that caused his hearers to feel they were present at these scenes, Dr. Tucker pointed out three important facts to be observed in this story in relation to these accusers of the woman.

First, as Jesus stooped and wrote on the ground the sin they had conceived, He is the mighty searcher of human hearts. He sees all.

Robbers Obtain $30,000 In Haul At Chicago, Ill.

Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—Threatening death and torture, four robbers, two of them masked, held up Frank W. Means, president of the Chicago Towel company, and his wife, in their home early today, and fled with jewelry and other valuables valued at $30,463. The victims were held captive for more than an hour.

The Means, who have been attending a neighborhood theatre, were greeted by the quartet as they entered the lobby of their apartment home. Mrs. Means evaded them by rushing through the door and slamming it. They called to her that unless they were admitted they would kill Means.

Once inside, they took Mrs. Means into a bedroom and her husband into a front room. Threatening to burn their feet unless the couple handed over all their jewelry valued at $28,315, a fur coat costing $3,950, $100 in cash, and two bags worth $100 were hidden.

In November, 1928, Means and George W. Pulford, head of a roofing concern, were held up in the vestibule of the former's home. Two men threatened them with death and stripped them of jewelry valued at $800 and $74 in cash.

Goldsboro Priest to Succeed Griffin

Raleigh, April 11.—(AP)—The Rev. A. R. Freeman, a native of Goldsboro and priest of St. Mary's Catholic church there since his ordination about 16 years ago, has been appointed rector of the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of Jesus here and chancellor of the Diocese of Raleigh.

Bishop W. J. Casey of the diocese of Raleigh, today announced the transfer of the Rev. Mr. Freeman, who will succeed Monsignor Thomas P. Griffin, who died last week after 35 years as rector of the cathedral here.

The Rev. George Watkins, now priest at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at Burlington will go to Goldsboro.

ABOUT TOWN

Registration books for the municipal election to be held in the city the 4th of May are open and the public is being given an opportunity to register and in that way enable themselves to vote for their favorites.

A mayor and five aldermen will be elected at this election, and people interested in the growth and progress of the city will want to cast their votes for the men they think best qualified to fill the responsible offices.

This is one of the most important elections in the life of the city and it is to be hoped the constituency will go to the polls and give free expression to preferences.

The listing for another year has gotten under way and people who have not settled taxes for the past year are urged to get busy and do so at once.

The city and county have to meet their expenses just like any individual and the only way they can do so is through the collection of taxes. People who fail to pay do not get that much to handicap city and county officials in living up to their obligations, therefore the responsibility resting upon every individual to do his best to meet his assessments.

Depression existing throughout the nation the last several months has made it increasingly difficult for municipalities and counties to defray their usual expenses without resorting to loans, and the only way this condition can be improved is for the people to pay up their back taxes and start out with a clean slate.

It would be impossible for wizards of magic to defray government expenses without tax collections, and as city and county officials are not superior to men of this type the only way for them to keep things going is to receive a little more public co-operation in the matter of payment of taxes.

Despite the clamor for adjournment, members of the Legislature are sticking to their work, hoping to complete the troublesome revenue bill before returning home.

part of the state and they are certain to receive proper recognition at the exposition with such support as the clubs are going to give them.

The public should determine the names of the young women and help the organizations win for them the honor of being crowned queens of the exposition.

People who have not attended the series of revival services at the Memorial Baptist church, should not fail to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Gloria Caruso To Talk Over Radio

By LORENA HICKOK. New York, April 11.—(AP)—Eleven year old Gloria Caruso, who is so like her famous father that the resemblance is startling, will be heard in public on April 10 for the first time.

Gloria is going to make a speech—a very brief speech—over the radio in behalf of the May Day program of the American Child Health Association, of which President Hoover is the head.

Not only will it be Gloria's first public appearance. It will be her last for some time to come. Gloria is living as simple and secluded a childhood as it would be possible for the daughter of Enrico Caruso to live.

This is not easy. For Gloria's resemblance to her father is more than a superficial thing of eyes and coloring and smile. Experts who were friends of Caruso say that his daughter has a throat exactly like his—the same "sounding box"—and that already she has a voice of extraordinary range and great promise.

John McCormick has suggested that Gloria's mother take her to California this summer and let him start the training of her voice. Instead, however, she and her mother are going back to Sorrento Italy, where her father died 10 years ago next August. It will be Gloria's first visit to Sorrento since that time.

"I have tried to keep that summer in Sorrento alive in Gloria's mind—not the end, but the first part, that was so beautiful and so happy," her mother said today. "She was only a year and a half old then, but she almost thinks she can remember walking in the garden with her father."

"In fairness to Gloria, her mother said, "I am giving her the groundwork to become an operatic singer, but I am inclined to think that she won't."

"In the first place, some incentive will be lacking. Gloria will have more of her own."

"And for her an operatic career would be terribly difficult. Can't you hear them all saying, 'she gets by because she is Caruso's daughter.' So she would have to surpass him, don't you see?"

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB OBSERVE COTTON DAY

The Junior Woman's Club held an unique entertainment on Friday afternoon at the Woman's club home in the form of a Cotton Day. The home was decorated in keeping with the occasion with ferns, long leaf pine, spring flowers and cotton bolls. All civic clubs of the city were invited guests.

In a short business session the club voted to sponsor Miss Bet Dixon's Revue, and four dollars was donated to the King's Daughters for a hospital patient.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. C. E. Hillon, program leader. She introduced Prof. R. C. Dyal, who in a few happy words introduced Mr. N. C. Bartlett, secretary of the East Carolina Chamber of Commerce, the speaker of the afternoon.

Mr. Bartlett spoke pleasingly and interestingly on the cotton situation. He closed with a plea that the women use and wear all cotton possible, thereby helping the cotton industry, which is the leading industry of the south. Mrs. Ada Cherry, in her own inimitable way, sang two southern songs, "Sweet Miss Mary" and "Mighty Lak a Rose." Ebeury and Floyd Jordan gave an amusing negro dialogue, and Miss Bet Dixon delighted all with a tap dance.

After the program, the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. J. Francis Bowen, Mrs. T. Y. Walker and Miss Helen Gray Jones, served iced tea and sandwiches. Each plate was decorated with a cotton boll. The members of the Junior Woman's Club wore cotton frocks.

End of Century Club Meets

The End of the Century Club met Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. W. S. Harden on Ninth street. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. L. C. Arthur, who thanked the club for their loyalty and co-operation during the two years she had been president of the club. She then turned the meeting over to Mrs. J. L. Fleming, the newly-elected president.

After the distribution of books some very interesting current events were given by each member. Mrs. F. C. Harding read a most interesting paper on Hawaii telling something of the people of the country and the present conditions existing in these beautiful islands.

At the close of the meeting the hostess, assisted by Mrs. P. G. Dennis, Mrs. W. E. Smith and Miss Lena Mae Smith, served a salad course.

The guests for the afternoon were Mrs. R. C. Deal and Mrs. Marianna Murphy.

The club adjourned to meet on April 21 with Mrs. L. C. Arthur—Reported.

An APPRECIATION

Of Mr. C. F. Harvey, Sr., by the Board of Directors of The Blount-Harvey Company in meeting assembled March 11, 1931:

Mr. C. F. Harvey, Sr. was one of the original promoters and stockholders of The Blount-Harvey Co., Inc., and became a member of its board of directors, first vice-president and a member of the finance committee at the time of the organization of the corporation early in 1920.

For more than ten years he was prompt in his attendance at all the meetings, loyal and devoted to its interests and contributed largely to its success.

The board of directors will miss his wise counsel, his sound judgment and his friendly advice, but more than that, each one of them will miss his warm greeting and his genial presence, to each one of them his loss brings real sorrow.

Be it therefore resolved: That the board of directors extend to the family its sympathy in their bereavement, that this Appreciation be spread upon a page in its Minute Book dedicated to his memory, and a copy be sent to his widow and another furnished to the Kingston Free Press and the Greenville Daily Reflector for publication.

M. O. BLOUNT, J. H. BLOUNT, F. L. BLOUNT, J. E. WINSLOW, Committee

The annual School-Normal play of East Carolina Teachers college this year will be three one-act plays instead of one long play, and is scheduled for the evenings of April 23. The three plays make an excellent evening's entertainment, as they are very different, all are short, and all are plays that are new.

"Wrong Numbers" is a detective play, with the mystery solved at the very last moment, and with three characters figuring in the situation. "The Rector" is by Rachel Crothers, who is one of the favorite playwrights whose plays are always popular on Broadway. The plot with one man who try to ruin the rector and the church makes a good story. "The Thrice Promised Bride" is a Chinese romance written by a young Chinese man who spent some time at the university working with the Carolina Playmakers. The Chinese costumes and setting make it spectacular, the quaint customs of the Chinese stage make it interesting, and the plot holds attention to the very last.

Miss Helen Dorch, who has been considered one of the very best actors and directors among the Carolina Playmakers, is directing these plays, and that alone is promise of success. She directed the senior play presented in January, Miss Dorch has herself taken part in two of the plays chosen, one of which played in and around New York one season.

This is the twenty-first annual play presented at the college by the senior-normal class. In the first decade it was called the senior play, until the four-year class was added and this title was given to these.

Mrs. Sherrod Smith Entertained Bell Arthur, N. C., April 10—Mrs. Edwin S. and Mr. Bruce Strickland delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Strickland Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Sherrod Smith of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Smith is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Ova Mae Strickland. Her many friends were glad to have her come home again.

After spending some time enjoying games, etc., Mrs. Bruce Strickland played several selections on the piano, which were greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

Tempting sandwiches and hot tea were served by Mrs. Edwin Strickland, assisted by Mrs. Bruce Strickland and Mrs. Al Staniel.

Those present for this delightful occasion were: Mrs. Sherrod Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wildman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Strickland, Misses Bessie Thompson, Patsy Crutchfield, Doris Nichols, Carrie Strickland, Eleanor Joyner, Mesdames Al Staniel, Bruce Strickland, Nann Kemp, Messrs. King's Daughters Meeting

On the evening of April 7, the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters met at the home of Mrs. Emma Bryan. In absence of the president, the meeting was presided over by Vice-president, Mrs. E. W. Harvey.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Thomas McGee. We gladly welcomed Mrs. McGeachy as a new member.

Miss Lill Wilson, chairman of the emergency committee reported having raised money for a patient's hospital bill, also much clothing, groceries and milk given to needy families. Mrs. Hortense Moye read a very interesting message from Mrs. Z. A. Rochelle, of Durham, on the progress and extension of our order since it was organized in New York City on January 13, 1886. Several matters of importance were attended to.

During this meeting the following resolutions were adopted in memory of Mrs. J. L. Wooten. In the death of Mrs. J. L. Wooten, the Patient Circle of the King's Daughters, realizing the loss of a faithful member, adopted the following resolutions:

That, in her passing, the circle has lost one who for years has proven a loyal member, always ready to respond to the calls of the work done "In His Name"; that the sweetness of her character may continue to be an inspiration to each one of us; and that we extend to the members of her beloved family, our heart-felt sympathy; praying that God may give them grace sufficient to bear the great sorrow that has come to them. "God knows all about those who loved her. How bitter the trial must be, And right through it all God is loving And knows so much better than me." That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and be sent to her husband and daughter.

MRS. JAS. L. LITTLE, MRS. E. W. HARVEY, MRS. C. A. BOWEN, Committee.

At the close of the meeting, our hostess served cake and delicious fruit salad in orange cups—Reported.

Highway Program Providing Work for Unemployed

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—The greatest highway construction program in the nations history is moving forward to provide jobs for the idle.

With warmer weather making possible the beginning of work, more than 100,000 men soon are expected to be playing picks and shovels on new networks of roads linking cities, towns and villages in every state in the Union.

Projects are being approved daily by the bureau of public roads and preliminary surveys speeded to get as many men as possible at work this month. The bureau sanctioned Federal projects totaling $63,719,612 during the first three months of this year as compared with $24,319,562 last year.

The states in this period obligated $57,885,789 of the $80,000,000 emergency money voted by Congress to permit them to take up a larger percentage of the Federal aid highway fund which was increased from $75,000,000 to $125,000,000.

Six States—Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, and South Carolina—have obligated all of their shares of the $80,000,000 emergency fund. Eight Georgia, Idaho, Louisiana, Maryland, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas, and Virginia—have obligated virtually all.

PAMLICO PACK TRIMS LOCALS BY SCORE 8-3

Greenville High School dropped a hard fought game of baseball yesterday to the fast and hard hitting Washington High School team. Greenville patted very much to lose this game for Washington is Greenville's closest and most ancient rival. However, later in the season Greenville will journey to Washington and make an attempt to avenge the 8-3 defeat of yesterday.

Washington scored three runs in the early innings of the game, one run at the time, and they were runs which resulted from errors rather than hits. Greenville did not seem to be able to hit Carroll, and they got no runs from Taylor. In the seventh, eighth, and ninth innings the Greenville team seemed to relax and Washington scored the remaining five runs, with three of them coming in the seventh. Then Greenville, showing some signs of fight, and trying to avert a shutout at the hands of Washington, scored three runs in the ninth on some walks and a couple of hits.

For Washington, Carroll, the pitcher, and Cradle, the catcher, were the best. Satterwaite and the shortstop also showed up well. Washington presented a well-balanced team. Greenville missed very much the services of her star Captain and catcher William Bullock. He is a fighter and a hitter, and lends much spirit to the team. He played four innings of the Rocky Mount game with a broken finger. It is not known how long he will be out, but it is hoped he will be back in a fortnight. It might have been a splinter rather than a break. Broadhurst, catcher in Bullock's place, fought hard throughout the game, and played well. Taylor pitched a beautiful game for Greenville, striking out twelve men. Errors lost the game for Greenville. However, the boys are all fighters, so the team will come back fighting now for the rest of the games.

Greenville does not play at home next week. She goes to Roanoke Rapids on Tuesday, and plays away Friday. The next game to be played here will be announced through this organ, and it is hoped that all the public friends of the High School will turn out for the game, and the rest of the home games during the season. The High School needs YOUR moral and financial support a lot.

Lisbon In Grip of the Military

Lisbon, April 11.—(AP)—Lisbon awoke today to find itself in the iron grip of the military. During the night heavy details of soldiers were posted in all public squares, and elsewhere and today armored cars patrolled the streets, rifles and machine guns blinking from ugly portholes.

Theatres were closed and audiences sent home toward the close of performances last night and all cafes and music halls licensed to remain open all night were shut up summarily. Private cars and taxis were halted in the streets by police with rifles and drivers and occupants forced to show their papers. Unconfirmed reports said that many persons had been arrested by the government of President General Carmona in a new effort to prevent the revolt which has been successful in Madrid and the Azores from spreading to the main land.

Despite the additional precautions a government statement said the situation had not changed during the past 24 hours and that there were many telegrams from the provinces to the minister reporting complete quiet. The statements denied that the garrison at Evora had revolted and that others were about to follow suit. The army and navy were said to be completely loyal.

Hughes Observes Birthday On Job

Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes passed the 69th birthday of his career today but went about his judicial work without indicating that he was aware of his birthday. He was reminded of the event, however, by the associate justices who each extended informal congratulations.

PLAYING THE GAME FAIRLY

On the field, in a contest, at home or in business, there is but one motive by which to be guided, and that is "fair play" to all.

Nothing is to be gained by taking the advantage of the other fellow. The man who cheats in any game is only cheating himself.

Freak advertising, false claims, mis-statements and over-statements may serve a purpose for the time being, but in the end the offender must pay the price. He is simply cheating himself when he does it.

It pays to advertise what you have and to have what you advertise. At least we have always found that it does.

There are many times when we could tell you things about our merchandise that for the time being would be profitable, but it would not pay in the end. We would be simply cheating ourselves because you would soon find out that what we said wasn't true.

It wouldn't pay. Besides, it would not be "playing the game fairly and squarely" and anything less than this no man can afford to do.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Cotton was higher today on trade buying and covering which may have been coupled with some local buying for a rally following the declines noted earlier in the week. July contracts sold up to 10.58 or 15 points net higher and 36 points above the lower level of Friday closing at 10.55. The general market closed steady at net advances of 11 to 13 points.

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today 1 to 12 points higher with the latter month relatively firm on week-end covering and trade buying.

The advance was in the face of relatively easy Liverpool cables, but buyers here, and the near months formed up in keeping with the later deliveries right after the call, with July advancing to 10.52 and October to 10.88, making net gains of about 9 to 12 points on the general list. Prices were holding about 6 to 8 points above yesterday's closing quotations at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said that continental buying and trade calling in Liverpool had been supplied by liquidation and reported a small turnover in cloths and yarns with producers losing ground. The amount of cotton on shipboard at U. S. ports awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 93,000 bales against 117,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, April 11.—(AP)—Sustained export demand for North American breadstuffs helped to put backbone into wheat prices today. Purchase of 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat for shipment overseas was announced, making the total 5,000,000 bushels this week. Upturns were checked, however, by a bearish estimate that Canadian stocks of wheat totaled 275,000,000 bushels, the largest ever known at this time of the season and comparing with 229,000,000 a year ago.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 7-8 cents higher, corn 1-4 off to 1-4 up, oats at 1-8 decline 1-8 up and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Bears stole upon a loafing stock market from the rear today, and gave it a few sharp digs in the final transactions, enlivening an otherwise colorless session.

A fairly broad advance of a point or two achieved in the earlier trading was mostly lost and several issues closed 1 to 4 points lower. The total transactions for the two hour session aggregated only 600,000 shares, the lowest for Saturday since August 2, when sales fell to 400,000 for the first time since 1926.

American Tobacco "B" rose 2 points or more to a new peak, then lost half its gain. Auburn closed 5 higher, after making an extreme gain of 12. Shares closing off a point or so included Westinghouse Electric, DuPont, Allied Chemical North American, and Missouri Pacific preferred U. S. Steel was about unchanged.

A bright spot in the day's news was a firming of copper prices. Steel ingot production, as estimated for next week in the Younger town area, shows the third successive weekly decline, although it is smaller this time.

Paris brides turn to colored gowns. Paris—(AP)—Colored wedding gowns are replacing the once-popular white for marriage costumes. One of the smartest brides of the season chose a wedding gown of pale rose beige satin made with a draped bodice and long circular skirt. Her veil was of royal beige tulle.

INGLAND'S AMOS 'N' ANDY ARE ALEXANDER AND MOSE
London.—(AP)—England has its own "Amos 'n' Andy" now. Britons didn't exactly understand the lazy pair when broadcast over here, but Alexander and Mose have been doing very well.
Alexander is James Carew, who was married to the late Mae Ellen Terry, while Mose is Billy Bennett. Both are well known on the English stage and began their radio blackface as more of a lark than anything.

Farmers Receive Less for Larger Bright Leaf Crop
Raleigh, April 11.—(AP)—North Carolina farmers received approximately $16,250,000 less last year for their record 336,176,467 pound tobacco crop than they did for a 481,456,650 pound harvest the year before. Figures released yesterday by the state-federal crop statistician placed the returns from last year's crop at $72,348,176, or $12.85 a hundred.
This compared with an $18.40 a hundred average the year before, or a total of $88,500,023 for the crop.
Farm leaders have predicted the price will take another drop this year, if the acreage is not kept down.

DETROIT—Manager Bucky Harris counts the training season just ended as one of the most profitable the Detroit Tigers have ever experienced because of discovery of four rickrats, Harvey and Gerald Walker and "Chick" Shiver, outfielders, and Harvin Owen, infielder.
New York, April 11.—(AP)—Wilbert Robinson brought his Brooklyn Robins back into town today a bit worried over the failure of his sluggers to hit their stride in the southland.
"It won't matter who I pitch," said Robby, "if we don't do some hitting."
Charlotte—With New York the next stop for his Yankees, Manager Joe McCarthy has taken a final inventory of the situation and found all well.
"All my regulars are as physically fit as I could wish them to be," said Marse Joe.

Norfolk—Bill Terry, big first base man of the New York Giants, is showing why he led the National League in batting last year.
Terry has appeared in 13 exhibition games so far and has hit safely in every one of them. His average is .481.

News From The Training Camp
Washington, April 11.—(AP)—Manager Johnson will try to put the final polish on two of his pitchers this afternoon in the Senators' game with the Baltimore Orioles. Fred Marberry and Bobby Burk, both of whom appear about ready, will divide the mound work.

St. Louis—Gabby Street's National league championship Cardinals were "at home" today to Bill Killefer's American league sixth place Browns of 1930 as baseball made its annual debut here. It was the opening game of the 2-game city series.

New York—The condition of Ted Lyons' arm, which suddenly went bad on him, is still a source of worry to Donie Bush, Chicago White Sox manager. Lyons' arm was scheduled for a trial against the New York Giants today.

Kansas City.—The more famous batsmen among the Chicago Cubs are finally warning to their business.

DETROIT—Manager Bucky Harris counts the training season just ended as one of the most profitable the Detroit Tigers have ever experienced because of discovery of four rickrats, Harvey and Gerald Walker and "Chick" Shiver, outfielders, and Harvin Owen, infielder.

New York, April 11.—(AP)—Wilbert Robinson brought his Brooklyn Robins back into town today a bit worried over the failure of his sluggers to hit their stride in the southland.
"It won't matter who I pitch," said Robby, "if we don't do some hitting."
Charlotte—With New York the next stop for his Yankees, Manager Joe McCarthy has taken a final inventory of the situation and found all well.

RADIO PROVIDED FOR THE JUNIOR ROOM
Through the courtesy of the Smith Electric Co., a radio will be installed during "Father and Son Week". The greatest profession in the world is that of being a father.

The Friendly Indian boys held their regular weekly Pow Wow and several "camped out" for the night. The names of boys receiving badges and promotion for this month will be announced later. The Master Pioneer Medal will be presented to the boy making the best progress in the Friendly Indian and Pioneers for the past three months. The medal will be presented at the "Father and Son Banquet" next Thursday night.

Who is the boy?
The local big brother for any boy is that boy's own father.

sin, secret or otherwise. Second, you cannot fool God. Sin will come out sometime.

Third, you cannot sin in this world and get busy with it. You will certainly bear its painful fruits now. Pay day comes some day. Then to observe Jesus in relation to this poor woman. Jesus is the mighty Savior from the curse of God's law. He stood between her and the penalty and bore it in Himself. In the second place here Jesus is the great believer in fallen humanity. He alone will say, "I believe in you" when all others turn away. He bestows the brightest crown to the one who trusts Him, the crown of forgiveness, free forgiveness and present forgiveness.

Several professions of faith were made in response to the appeal of the minister at the conclusion of his sermon.

Helped Mother and Daughter
Cardui Used For a Weak, Painful Condition, Writes South Carolina Lady.

"About six years ago, I took Cardui for a weak condition," writes Mrs. U. S. Ard, of 209 West Hall Street, Savannah, Ga. "I suffered a great deal with my back. I was hardly able to go."

"I did not feel able to do my work. I thought I was going to get down in bed."

"This worried me a great deal. My husband saw Cardui advertised, and told me that I had better take it."

"I am glad that I did, for it built me up. I took six bottles and felt just fine."

"Since that time I have given it to my daughter, and she was helped. I am glad to recommend Cardui."

"The confidence of thousands of women, in the value of Cardui, has been demonstrated by the fact that they have given it or recommended it to their daughters, after having learned from their own use of Cardui how helpful it is in the relief of many simple disorders, when due to a weak, run-down condition."

CARDINALS AND A'S TO LEAD PACK

By FOSTER HAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York, April 11.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Philadelphia Athletics will be leading the major league baseball parades come October unless some sixty newspaper "experts" are wrong, which, of course, is possible.

Voting in the fifth annual consensus of the Associated Press, 64 experts collaborating on the American league selections voted 41 to 23 that the club that Connie Mack built will win the American league pennant for the third successive year, while 66 experts voting on the National league cast 35 ballots to 31 that the St. Louis club again would win the flag in the other circuit.

The margins of the two 1930 pennant winners, while not as great as those given the Athletics and the Chicago Cubs last year in consensus, still were sufficiently large to leave no room for argument as to the combined opinion.

The 23 first place votes in the American league not given the Athletics were divided among Washington, New York and Cleveland entries, with the Senators receiving 16, the Yankees six and Cleveland one. It was the worst showing the Yankees in the five years of the consensus.

Brooklyn and Chicago divided the major portion of the Cardinal overflow, the Dodgers receiving 12 first place votes to 13 for Rogers Hornsby's Cubs, while New York received four, Pittsburgh one and—believe it or not—Philadelphia one.

The Boston Red Sox, with a new manager and practically a new team, were given least consideration of the 16 clubs in the two leagues. No expert picked them to finish higher than sixth place and only one voted that spot for them. The Cincinnati Reds, who were relegated to the National league cellar, got one for a fifth place berth.

The experts figuring in the consensus included all the major "war" correspondents who covered the big league camps for the metropolitan press of the country and other close observers of training camp activities.

Here is this year's consensus of how they will finish:
National—St. Louis, Chicago,

Brooklyn, New York, Pittsburgh, Boston, Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

American—Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Boston.

SHORT AIR LINE BEGINS DOOR-TO-DOOR DELIVERY
San Francisco (AP)—An innovation in parcel delivery has been started by the six-mile airline, Air Ferries, across San Francisco bay.

The company has gone into the parcel delivery business by establishing fleets of motorcycles here and at the Alameda airport to call for the deliver packages from door to door.

Approximately 30 transbay trips a day are made by amphibian. The company inaugurated the services with 175 contracts with business houses, principal stock houses, florists, caterers and newspapers.

RUSSIA 'OUT OF BOUNDS' FOR TURKISH STUDENTS
Istanbul.—(AP)—Official friendship with the Soviet Union notwithstanding, Turkey has put a ban on visits of Turkish students to the land of communism.
