Sports Tax Is Strictly Out Of Revenue Bill By Conference Committee

While House Conference Concerned in Senate Amendment, It Was Agreed That The Vote Could Be Reconsidered if Desired; Head-on Collision Results From Consideration of Ice Cream Tax; Franchise Tax Given Consideration Also.

Raleigh, April 20.—(AP)—The sports tax of 10 per cent on admission to baseball and football games and movies, was tentatively stricken out of the revenue bill today, as the conference committee made its first approach to the sales tax.

While the House conferees concurred in the Senate amendment, it was agreed that the vote could be reconsidered if desired.

Otherwise the committee continued with the routine work that was before it, without touching on any major issues.

The first head-on collision between House and Senate conferees occurred over the ice cream tax, placed at one-half cent a gallon by the House, and one-quarter cent by the Senate.

The franchise tax on domestic insurance companies was discussed by the committee, and it was decided to ask Insurance Commissioner Dan Boney to give information as to business conditions in the insurance field and retaliatory laws in other states before acting.

Several other minor changes were made in the license tax section.

Minor differences were ironed out during the sessions Friday and Saturday leaving only the contested Senate amendments to be considered today and on record.

The House is on record as favoring a general sales tax in preference to a "luxury" tax and has three times re-affirmed its allegiance to the MacLean school law which means the necessity of a sales tax of some kind.

The Senate, however, and this is where the difference arises, has rejected the general sales tax and likewise refused to adopt the luxury tax, offering as a substitute a revenue bill providing $10,000,000 equalizing fund for public schools and contemplation of a 30 cent county ad valorem school tax.

The point has been raised in the conference committee as to whether or not the conferees can be bound by the subject matters contained in the bills passed by the two houses. This point has not been settled as yet and the likelihood of early agreement depends largely upon how this issue is decided.

The "luxury" tax proposal, having been rejected by the House in committee of whole and by the Senate, is not before the conference committee and if the conferees are confined to items in its two bills, could not be offered a nucleus for compromise.

This obstacle could be surmounted, however, by the conferees introducing the "luxury" tax in the House, should they arrive at agreement on that basis.

The prospects of early agreement are further complicated by the fact that the Senate conferees—four in number—are evenly divided on the question of a sales tax and there must be a majority before a conference report can be filed.

The House committee is composed of seven members and a vote means a decision.

An effort was made to increase the Senate committee to five but the proponents of the Grier-Polger $10,000,000 equalization fund blocked it.

FALSE FIRE ALARMIST IS JAILED HERE

Jarvis Parker Remanded to Jail Today in Default of Bond of $500

The first arrest in connection with the epidemic of false fire alarms which has caused city officials and firemen no end of trouble the last several months was made Saturday night, and today Jarvis Parker, colored, was remanded in the county jail awaiting trial in County court.

The negro was given preliminary hearing this morning before Mayor J. C. Lanier in Police court, and was bound over to the higher court under bond of $500. He was unable to furnish bond and was ordered confined in the county jail.

Parker was nabbed shortly after the false alarm from the eastern section of the city Saturday night. Several negroes who live in close proximity to the fire alarm box identified Parker and reported the case to police. Parker was nabbed shortly afterward.

In an effort to break up the epidemic of false alarms, the Board of Aldermen two months ago offered a reward of $50 for information leading to apprehension and conviction of responsible parties.

The offer brought a shout of defiance from the false alarmists, and for several days alarms were sent in almost daily from the eastern and western sections of the city.

The police were ordered to throw out a dragnet in every part of the city, and it was largely through this last effort that Parker found himself in the toils of the law.

The suspect is described as a bad character by members of the police department, and he was believed to have been engaged in the sending in of other alarms, although police were unable to make a definite statement in this direction this afternoon.

PREPARE FOR BOOSTER TRIP

Final Touches Put on Plans For Exposition Advertising Tour Thursday.

Finishing touches were being added to plans today for the booster trip to be made Thursday in the interest of the Eastern Carolina Exposition which will open here on April 27 and continue through May 1st.

The boosters will leave the court house here at 9 o'clock and visit every community within a radius of seventy-five miles or more. They will cover all principal highways, and will distribute considerable advertising matter dealing with the exposition.

Sufficient cars have not yet been obtained, and members of the committee today issued an urgent request for more automobiles. At least twenty-five cars will be needed to cover the area mapped out and citizens desiring to participate are also asked to take their cars, if convenient.

Numbers of women will take part in the tour but the total number had not been determined. All of those desiring to participate have been asked to telephone the Merchants Association.

FATHER-SON WEEK CLOSES

Special Service Held At Methodist Church In Celebration of the Week.

(By BILLY BROWN)

In a very fitting close for the great Father's and Son's week of trying to get closer together and closer to Christ, the High-Y and Junior Hi-Y conducted the service last evening at the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

The program for the week is of exceptionally interesting nature and contains the names of several celebrities, including Major General Butler, of U. S. Marines, who will deliver the principal address of the occasion.

Greenville is allowed three queens for the occasion, three senior and three juniors. Other towns embracing the exposition district are allowed one queen each.

The list of queens follows: Senior Queens: Greenville: Miss Catherine Uiley, Miss Grace Gaston, Miss Blanche Staton; Bethel, Miss Margaret Garenton; Ayden, Miss Eibel McGeehon; Stokes, Miss Helen Christine Perkins; Farmville, Miss Susan Barrett; Fountain, Miss Carrie Smith; Grimesland, Miss Alma Marks.

Junior Queens: Greenville: Miss Jane Rowlett, Miss Bettie Fleischmann, Miss Lee Blow; Bethel, Miss Miriam James; Farmville, Miss Lillian White Gardner; Grimesland, Miss Mary Jewel Porter; Fountain, Miss Lora Marie Jefferson; Ayden, Miss Lora Ormond Turnage.

Everetts, Miss Mary Elizabeth Peele; Williamson, Miss Gwendolyn Watts; Tarboro, Miss Myrtle Fuller Ward; Kinston, Miss Hennie Green Wallace; Wilson, Miss Flora Coyle; Smithfield, Miss Jane Parker.

The entries have not closed as yet and it stands to reason that several other towns will have candidates in the contest before the final closing Thursday of this week.

There are two separate contests; one for Pitt county and one for towns out side of Pitt county. In each of these classes, cash prizes

NEW ATTACK DIRECTED AT MAYOR OF N. Y.

Republican Club Charges Jimmy Walker With Demoralization Of City Government

New York, April 20.—(AP)—Mayor Walker's defense of his administration was ready for delivery to Governor Roosevelt today but scarcely had it been finished than he found himself subjected to attacks from a new quarter.

The latest criticism came from the City Affairs committee of the National Republican club, which charged "breakdown and demoralization of the city government."

The report of the committee of the Republican club attacks the Mayor in his private life as well as in his official position.

"There have been two troubles with Mayor Walker," the report reads. "In the first place he has, as the world knows, given little time or attention to his job."

"He has joked, jinked to race tracks, sat up all night at wild parties, entertained Hollywood and ignored the City's problems. We have no concern with Mayor Walker's private escapades except in so far as they interfere with his public duties. The Mayor of New York has no right to allow the vagaries of his private life to interfere with responsible attention to the responsibilities of his great office."

The second objection to the Mayor the report said, is that he "is an integral part of a political machine which is interested in building up its own power and filling the pockets of its members rather than governing the city well."

NAME QUEENS OF EXPOSITION

Number of Young Women to Take Part In Pulchritude Contest.

N. G. Bartlett, secretary of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the Eastern Carolina Exposition which will be held in this city beginning April 27 and continuing throughout the week, today announced the names of queens containing names of numbers of the exposition. The list although containing the names of numbers of young women from various towns throughout the district, is still incomplete and several other entries were expected to be made during the next several days.

The program for the week is of exceptionally interesting nature and contains the names of several celebrities, including Major General Butler, of U. S. Marines, who will deliver the principal address of the occasion.

Greenville is allowed three queens for the occasion, three senior and three juniors. Other towns embracing the exposition district are allowed one queen each.

HIGH WINS MUSIC MEET

Captures Nine First Places in Twelve Events of District Contest Saturday.

In the District Music Contest held in the high school auditorium Saturday the Greenville High School again demonstrated its superiority among the schools of this section by taking nine first places, two second places, and one third place in the twelve events entered. The local school won first place in the mixed chorus, boys glee club, band, orchestra, boys quartet, girls trio, alto solo, baritone solo unchanged boys voice solo. The second places were won by the girls glee club and soprano solo while the third place was taken in the piano solo event.

Kinston high school came second among the class "B" schools with three first places out of five events entered. The first places taken by Kinston were in the Girls glee club, soprano solo and tenor solo, while the second places were taken by the orchestra and piano solo.

In the class C schools, Morehead City lead with three first places out of four events entered. First places taken were in the mixed chorus, boys glee club and boys quartet. Snow Hill took second honors in first place in the girls glee club and second places in the girls trio and tenor solo.

The bitterest fight of the day took place in the piano contest. Kinston, Farmville and Greenville were tied for first place when they played the first time and then the judges asked that these three towns have their representatives play again. The entry from Kinston won the District Contest last year and also won the contest in Greensboro last year. After these piano contestants had played the second time the judge announced that Farmville had won first place, Kinston second place, and Greenville third place, but that it was the most difficult decision that he had ever had to make to decide between the three.

The Greenville High School was represented in this contest by Miss Edith Marisender who performed beautifully.

In the girls glee club there was keen competition between Kinston and Greenville and these two groups were requested to sing the second time in order that the judge might make his decision.

Trenton entered the contest for the first time, entering five events and took three second places. New Bern presented a very talented violinist who won first place for his school. New Bern took second place in the boys quartet and girls trio.

Vanceboro took first place in the girls trio in class "C" schools. The other schools entering did not secure any first places.

The large audience present gave Ben Herring of the Greenville High school an ovation after his solo. It likewise acclaimed Drury Settle for his singing a baritone number. Those two events were the high lights of the day, in the solo contests.

Mr. W. A. Potter, supervisor of Music in the Raleigh schools was judge of the contest.

AMERICA TAKES STEP TO PROTECT CITIZENS IN HONDURAN REVOLT

GIRL KILLED THEN HANGED

Nude Body of 17 Year Old Louise Teuber Swung From Tree In California

San Diego, Cal., April 20.—(AP)—The death of comely 17-year-old Louise Teuber and lack of clues to the slayer, who apparently strangled her and then hanged her nude body to a tree, puzzled police here today.

The boy was found by a picnic party dangling from a high limb of an oak tree in the eastern fringe of the city. Her feet scraped the ground. Police surgeons said the girl had been dead eight hours.

At the scene of the tragedy police gathered two slim clues. One was the double half hitch knot which bound the rope about the girl's neck. The other was an army blanket found with the girl's clothes, purse and a package containing a pair of hose she had purchased Saturday.

The knot, police said, apparently had been tied by someone familiar with handling rope. They suggested that it might have been tied by a sailor, or one who had had a sailor's training. The blanket was closely scrutinized for some mark which might lead to its owner.

At the outset the case seemed as baffling as that of the kidnapping and slaying of 16-year-old Virginia Brooks, who disappeared from her home here in February and whose body was found 15 miles from here body was found a few months later. However, police found no link which might connect the crimes.

Miss Teuber's body had been stripped of clothing with the exception of black pumps and gunmetal hose. Investigators said there was every evidence that the girl had been dead before the long rope was thrown over the limb and pulled to a stump 20 feet away to be tied.

The fact that the body had not been lifted from the ground, was significant, they said. There were no bruises indicating injuries that might have caused death or even unconsciousness.

NEGRO HELD FOR KILLING

Leslie Chamberlin Jailed Her For The Murder of Calvin Tyson.

Leslie Chamberlain, colored, of the Farmville section, was held in the county jail in this city today awaiting trial on a charge of the murder of Calvin Tyson, also colored. Chamberlain was ordered held without bond following an investigation by Acting Coroner A. A. Elvanger yesterday.

Tyson was shot by Chamberlain during an automobile ride in the Farmville community Thursday evening. The injured man was rushed to a Kinston hospital for medical attention, but succumbed to his injuries yesterday.

Chamberlain was arrested immediately after the shooting, but investigation was postponed pending the condition of the injured man.

Details of the shooting were meager, but it occurred while the two negroes were riding with a girl. Tyson charged Chamberlain with the crime on his death bed, but Chamberlain denies the charge, declaring Tyson shot himself.

COURT HEARS COKER CASE

Highway Robbery And Criminal Assault Case Will Also Be Aired This Week

The second week of a two-week criminal term of Pitt County Superior court got under way this morning with the trial of J. M. Coker, of Enfield, charged with reckless and careless driving in connection with a wreck on the Greenville-Bethel road during the early part of January.

The defendant was fined $350 in County court shortly after the accident occurred and appealed to Superior court under bond of $500.

The case grew out of a collision between an automobile driven by Coker and another driven by K. T. Futrell, welfare officer of Pitt County. Members of Mr. Futrell's family were injured in the impact, and Coker was arrested and held for County court action. The case was expected to consume the remainder of today's session.

Two cases of more or less interest to the community are on docket for this week. One is the Ballard case, involving highway robbery of $2,500 and the other is the case against K. H. Turner, faith healer, charged with criminal attack on Mrs. Howard Smith, wife of a local carpenter.

Two men, Elmer Whitley and Rodney Cox are charged with holding up Mrs. Ballard and robbing her pocketbook containing a sum of money which she estimated at approximately $2,400. The alleged holdup occurred in the eastern section of the city at night, and the suspects were arrested several days later.

The case against the faith healer was the result of an automobile ride on a Saturday morning when he was supposed to have taken Mrs. Smith to her work. He is alleged to have driven out the Falkland road, criminally attacked the woman, and then to have returned to town. He was arrested several days afterward and released under bond after hearing in magistrate's court.

The Ballard case is set for hearing tomorrow and the action against Turner probably Wednesday.

Punishment For Boy Train Wrecker Puzzle To Court

Morganston, N. C., April 20.—(AP)—What punishment to mete out to a six year old boy who wrecked a train, injuring four persons, today was a problem for Judge J. F. Bowers of Burke county juvenile court.

The boy, Charles Whittier, Jr., confessed to putting rocks on the Southern railway's tracks, causing the derailment of a passenger train Friday. Four railway employees were injured. All are expected to recover.

Three Cruisers Sent to Coast to Prevent Eventualities In Revolutionary Movement; No American Thus Far Reported Injured; Fruit Companies Keep Steamships Within Reach To Evacuate Americans in Case of an Emergency; Situation Described as Dangerous.

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—American officials today pushed forward precautionary measures to protect their citizens from backwash of revolution along Honduras' northern coast.

Nevertheless, the cruiser Memphis, having rushed north from Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, stopping briefly en route at the American-built city of Puerto Castilla, rode at anchor off La Ceiba, the largest seaport of the troubled coastal area, while the cruisers Trenton and Marblehead were speeding across the Caribbean from Cuba to other Honduran coast towns, where they were expected to arrive tonight.

Official dispatches showed that the revolutionary outbreak began Saturday afternoon and spread along northern Honduras in the areas behind the principal fruit-exporting seaports of Tela, La Ceiba and Puerto Castilla.

Apparently it was in support of the presidential aspirations of Gen. Gregorio Ferrera.

Minister Ley at Tegucigalpa telegraphed the state department that no revolutionary force had yet come nearer than 30 miles to any other principal seaport and predicted that the rising would soon end. The rebel forces he said, appeared to be made up of unemployed, communists, and the riff raff and criminals of northern Honduras.

Nevertheless, the American consuls at the coast towns have considered the situation sufficiently dangerous to ask that warships be sent.

Managers of the American Fruit companies are keeping steamships within reach to evacuate Americans and Europeans if necessary.

Wherever possible women and children have been brought in from outlying regions to ports.

Secretary Stimson said today "The situation in Honduras is different from that in Nicaragua and there is apparently a revolutionary movement against the Honduran government."

"The American forces will limit themselves to making provisions for the safety of American lives and property in the coast towns," he said.

A radio dispatch from Tegucigalpa, capital, said the Tela assault was repelled after severe fighting. The number of casualties was not known.

So far the trouble had not spread to Tegucigalpa. It is in the interior and separated from threat, ended ports by mountains. It was believed the revolutionists would attempt to obtain control of the ports before advancing on Tegucigalpa.

Although major interest centered on Honduras, the United States continued to watch Nicaragua. The gunboat Asheville moved 60 miles from Cape Gracias a Dios to Puerto Cabezas, taking the post left vacant by the Memphis. Before the Memphis departed, however, she debarked an officer and 13 sailors with machine guns, a force believed sufficient for immediate needs. The aircraft carrier Langley, with her more than 30 airplanes, also was on her way to Puerto Cabezas from Guantanamo.

At Bluefield the cruiser Rochester had taken post. The gunboat Sacramento already was at that port and had thrown ashore a detachment of 31 men. Since activity in the Cape Gracias a Dios area had subsided since the killing of eight American civilians and one marine officer, and all Americans there were said to have been evacuated, no warship was left in that port.

William C. Dufour, counsel for the Standard Fruit and Steamship company, said he had been advised General Ferrera does not intend to harm any foreigners or to damage their property more than is absolutely necessary. Ferrera's activity, Dufour said, was directed solely against the Honduran government.

Twenty-first Annual Play
Thursday evening of this week the twenty-first annual spring event of East Carolina Teachers college will be celebrated by the two-year or normal school, graduating class. The very first class, the senior class of 1911, presented two plays, one in the fall and one in the spring. The class of 1912 set a precedent for all the following years by presenting one play, and every class since that has put forth special effort to give the very best production possible of some attractive, interesting play that will take with the public, and yet uphold the high standard of dramas set by the preceding classes.

Three new, interesting short plays, instead of one long one, or a classic, was the choice of this year's class. They are sparing no pains in making all three of these a success. Most people will doubtless like all three, but some will prefer "Wrong Numbers," while others may like best "The Rector" and still others will like the picturesque, Chinese fantasy, "The Three Promised Brides."

Birthday Party
Miss Helen Ruth Heath, most delightfully entertained a number of her friends to celebrate her fourteenth birthday, at the home of Mrs. Herman Heath, recently. The home was decorated with cut-flowers and the lights were glowing with pink shades. Upon arrival the guests were invited into the living room. They played many games; also had piano and phonograph music. A delicious ice course and banana sandwiches were served, carrying out a pink color scheme. The dining room was decorated with pretty phylax candles and tapers to match. First to enter was Mr. Roy Williams and Miss Annie Ruth Edwards; Mr. Elma Williams and Miss Jaunita Harrington; Mr. Elbert Buck; and Miss Thelma Speight; Mr. Walter Williams and Miss Athleen Speight; Mr. Paul Williams and Miss Helen Ruth Heath. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring they had had the most enjoyable evening.—Report.

Penny Cow Sets World's Record
What is stated by dairy cattle authorities to be a new world's record in production for milk cows over 12 1-2 years of age, has just been established by Belle Buoy's Violet a 14 year old, pure bred Guernsey cow owned by J. C. Penny, internationally known merchant and agriculturist.

Belle Buoy's Violet was put on test on April 2nd, 1930 and was milked steadily for 365 days.

For the first five and a half months of the test period, she was milked twice a day and for the remaining six and a half months, she was milked three times a day. The total production during the 365 day period was 17,235 lbs. of milk and 959 lbs. of butter fat.

This exceeds the best previous production record by any cow over 12 1-2 years of age, all breeds included, by slightly over seven lbs. of butter fat.

During the test period this record breaking cow was pastured day and night and during the winter months was fed all of the silage, wet beet pulp, mangels, alfalfa, and clover mixed hay, very largely home grown, she would eat. Her average daily grain ration was eleven pounds and she consumed total of 4015 pounds of grain during the year period. At the beginning of the test, she weighed 1209 pounds and at the finish, weighed 1490 pounds

Birth Party

Miss Helen Ruth Heath, most delightfully entertained a number of her friends to celebrate her fourteenth birthday, at the home of Mrs. Herman Heath, recently. The home was decorated with cut-flowers and the lights were glowing with pink shades. Upon arrival the guests were invited into the living room. They played many games; also had piano and phonograph music. A delicious ice course and banana sandwiches were served, carrying out a pink color scheme. The dining room was decorated with pretty phylax candles and tapers to match. First to enter was Mr. Roy Williams and Miss Annie Ruth Edwards; Mr. Elma Williams and Miss Jaunita Harrington; Mr. Elbert Buck; and Miss Thelma Speight; Mr. Walter Williams and Miss Athleen Speight; Mr. Paul Williams and Miss Helen Ruth Heath. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring they had had the most enjoyable evening.—Report.

MAN'S JAW GROWS SHORTER WITH HIGHER CIVILIZATION

Washington—(AP)—The human jaw is growing shorter as civilization advances, because it gets less exercise.

Men still have the same number of teeth, however, which sometimes results in some teeth being crowded out of place in the shorter jaw, says Major Mann of the Army Medical Museum.

The museum has just placed on exhibition various appliances used for straightening teeth and guiding misplaced teeth into their proper positions.

ABOUT TOWN

Greenville High School forged to the front again last Saturday in the district music contest and captured some of the highest honors of the occasion.
 This is the second time in the last two years and the local school has been able to win out over some of the most important schools in the twenty-two counties participating in the contest and the feat should be a matter of pride to the entire citizenship.
 Development of music in the high school has attracted much attention the last several years, but only in the last three or four years has the public been given an opportunity to see exactly what is being accomplished.
 Members of the music department are to be congratulated upon their achievements, and the public will watch their future efforts with increased interest, hopeful that they will meet with just as much success in the years to come.
 The public has been given a cordial invitation to visit the live-at-home demonstration farm which the state has under cultivation on the Greenville-Bethel highway.
 This is one of the greatest experiments of its kind ever before undertaken in any locality, and its outcome is being watched with interest from all sides.
 It is the purpose of Governor Gardner to impress upon the farmers the absolute necessity of growing more of the things consumed at home. Crops looking in this direction have been planted at the live-at-home farm so that the grower may fully inform himself of the best methods to pursue in his effort to conform with the movement.
 The experiment was brought to this county because of the fact that the soil is adaptable to the cultivation of any kind of crops grown in this part of the country, and because of the acute need of more diversification in farming operations.
 Growers would do well to visit the farm at every opportunity, acquaint themselves with the kinds of crops grown each season of the year, and then attempt to guard themselves against the eventualities brought about through low prices for principal crops.
 Education, in the belief of M. G. Mann, secretary of the North Carolina Co-operative Cotton Association, is the remedy for the ills confronting the farmers of the great agricultural districts of North Carolina.
 Speaking before the Kiwanis Club here the latter part of the week, Mr. Mann emphasized the need of education to broaden the perspective of the growers and to enable them to recognize the benefits to be derived from united effort.
 He urged that the farm life be made more attractive to prevent young men and women drifting toward the large cities instead of staying at home helping to build up their community.
 Education, he asserted, should give the farmers and their families a keener appreciation of the possibilities of the industry which they are engaged in and inspire them to improve their condition to such extent that there will be no longer a desire to go in quest of chimerical riches of the great metropolises.
 The advice is sound and logical and if followed should revolutionize farm life in the next several years.
 Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will make a pilgrimage to Rocky Mount tomorrow night to hear Joe N. Barrett, of Wisconsin, national chaplain of the American Legion, tell something of the achievements of the organization throughout the nation.
 The trip will take the place of the regular meeting of the local post set for the same evening, and hope was expressed that every member of the organization would make an effort to attend.

 Persons who have no way of making the trip are asked to get in touch with Commander J. C. Elliott who will make arrangements for their transportation.
 This is the first time the local post has met outside of the city since the trip to Bethel the first of last year, and they hope to derive much benefit from getting away from home for a few hours and rubbing elbows with their old buddies of the trenches.
 Pitt County Post has realized unprecedented growth the last few years by reason of intensive membership drives, and Commander Elliott is hopeful of continuing the great work this year.
 Every man who took part in the great world war is urged to consider what the Legion has done in his behalf since the ending of the war and then show his appreciation by joining and taking an active part in activities of his local organization.

Alfonso Advised To Spend Exile In Smaller Town

Paris, April 20.—(AP)—Alfonso of Spain will establish the seat of his exile at Fontainebleau, a little more than fifteen miles from Paris. Putting up his family at Hotel Savoy there for the time being.
 He will go to London on business tomorrow. Among other things he will arrange to place the Infante Juan, his son, in an English school near London.
 The queen is leaving for Fontainebleau tomorrow and Alfonso will join her and their children when he comes back from London.
 These arrangements were disclosed today by the Duke of Miranda, chief of the Spanish royal household.
 Paris, April 20.—(AP)—Duque de Toledo, exiled king of Spain, is not the welcome guest in Republican France that his hearty popular reception Thursday may have led him to believe.
 Fearing an attempt against his life, it was understood here today, the police of Paris have suggested that he seek a refuge in some smaller place, where a better watch may be kept on him and his family.
 The continental edition of the London Daily Mail said today that he and the Duke of Miranda, chief of the royal household, would leave Paris tonight for London to spend a few days there attending to private business matters.
 There has been some talk from the beginning that Alfonso might choose to make England the place of his exile. His wife is a British Princess and he therefore probably would be accepted as a member of the British Royal family. Victoria and the children are said not to be accompanying him on this trip.
 Alfonso Saturday visited the Chatou Fontainebleau in what was interpreted as a blind for inspection of the Hotel D'Angleterre, which faces it. The manager of the hotel Maurice, where the exiles are remaining at present, has conferred representatives of the Hotel L'Angleterre.
 Newspapers of the left have seized upon Alfonso's warm welcome here last week as an occasion to attack the government, criticizing Alfonso as an enemy of liberty.
 The press generally today dropped the Royal exiles, some newspapers not mentioning his name and others printing only a few lines.

Youth Freed In Murder Case

Wrightsville, Ga., April 20.—(AP)—His age of seven years gave Fred Wilcher his freedom today despite the killing of his 13 year old brother Ernest, with a shotgun charge of officers said was intended for a 10 year old playmate.
 The killing took place in a remote section of Johnson county Saturday, but did not reach the attention of the authorities here until last night when a coroner's jury conducted an investigation.
 According to testimony before the jury, the Wilcher boys and James Gilpin had been fast friends until a quarrel arose Saturday at a neighbors house. Then they dispersed to their homes.
 "I'll get you when you pass my house," Fred shouted to James.
 Fred arrived home first, got a shotgun, and pointed it through the window as Ernest and James approached. James rushed up to disarm his brother and received the full charge in his head.
 Sheriff W. D. Rowland said Fred was too young to know the meaning of his act and therefore no action would be taken against him.

CROWNS PUT OUT IN THE BIG FIVE

Charlotte, April 20.—(AP)—This is coronation week for the "Big Five."
 Championship crowns will be passed out for tennis and golf at the state intercollegiate tournament, this week-end while winners of Wednesday track meet between Duke and the University of North Carolina will have the claim of the champ's banner for dual meets. The state intercollegiate track meet does not come until next month.
 In addition, a round of games among Big Five baseball teams will go a long way during the next five days in showing who's got the best chance for the throne.
 N. C. State and Davidson open up this week's strife among Big Five colleges here this afternoon. It continues tomorrow with Carolina meeting Wake Forest. Wednesday Duke battles Davidson and on Saturday the Blue Devils and the Tar Heels clash.
 Chapel Hill is the scene of the state tennis tournament which begins Thursday. Hendlin, singles titleholder, and Phillip Liskin with whom he holds the doubles title, are back for North Carolina, but they have competition in Bryan Grant, the national clay court champion, and Wilmer Hines, national junior champion, both teammates at Carolina, in addition to that from other schools.
 The golf battles will be fought over the Segefield links Friday and Saturday.
 Several dual golf and tennis matches are scheduled as preliminaries to the tournament.

Tony Canzoneri To Meet Berg

New York, April 20.—(AP)—Champions both, Tony Canzoneri of New York and Jack (Kid) Berg of England will clash at the Chicago stadium Friday night in a ten round bout in which both the lightweight and junior welterweight titles may be at stake.
 Berg's junior welterweight crown is certain to go to the winner and Tony's 136-pound title also will be tossed into the ring in the event that Berg makes the class limit.
 The Briton, a tireless, aggressive fighter who smother his opponents with the stream of leather he tosses, probably will be a decided favorite at ring-time.
 Campaigning alike against lightweight and "light" welterweights, Berg has been virtually unbeatable during the last two years.
 Although he fights usually at 138 pounds, the White Chapel Whirlwind can make the lightweight limit of 136 pounds without weakening himself perceptibly.
 Detroit and Boston have booked the only other bouts of national importance.
 At Detroit tonight, Johnny Peters, English bantamweight, tackles rough and ready Vidal Gregorio of Spain. A ten rounder between Johnny Risko, veteran Cleveland heavyweight, and King Levinsky of Chicago, tops Boston's card tomorrow night.
 Tod Morgan, of Los Angeles, former junior lightweight champion, was forced to cancel his bout with Cecil Payne, Louisville lightweight, scheduled for Los Angeles tomorrow night, due to a wrenched shoulder while training.

Duke Hospital Dedicated Today

Durham, April 20.—(AP)—James B. Duke's dream of a great hospital and medical school at Duke University here was a reality today.
 From 170 colleges, universities and foundations representatives came for the dedication of the medical plant created through $10,000,000 set aside for the purpose by the late tobacco magnate.
 St. Martinsville, La., April 20.—(AP)—A statue of Evangeline, sad and lonely, stood under an ancient liveoak beside her traditional grave here today as 150 of her homefolks from Acadia continued their pilgrimage in the romantic Bayouland of their "Cajun" cousins of Louisiana.
 The statue was dedicated yesterday to the strains of the "Mer-selles" and the Canadian national anthem, with a speech by Governor and Senator-elect Huey P. Long, who himself boasts of Acadian blood, and greetings from French Ambassador Claudel through the French consul-general, Maurice de Simonin, of New Orleans.
 Another speaker was Judge James Simco, of St. Martinsville, a grandson of Judge Edouard Simon who is credited with telling the story of Evangeline to Longfellow—how the maid of Grand Pre lost her lover Gabriel in the deportation of some 14,000 of the Acadians from Canada to Louisiana in 1755, and found him many years after when she was a sister of mercy and he was dying in a pestilence.
 The Canadian visitors, descendants of the 4,000 Acadians who succeeded in remaining in their homeland during the great deportation, had as today's itinerary New Iberia, Jeanerette, Houma, Napoleonville, and Thibodeaux. Tomorrow they will reach New Orleans and Wednesday will entrain for Nova Scotia, as Acadia is now called, where, in Longfellow's words:
 "Maidens still wear their Norman caps and their kirtles of homespun." And by the evening fire repeat Evangeline's story.
 "While from its rocky caverns the deep veiled neighboring ocean," "Speaks, and in accents disconsolate answers the wail of the forest."

U. S. WOMEN VISIT MRS. GANDHI

American women who recently visited the wife of Mahatma Gandhi, leader of India's nationalists, were told that they should spin cloth for their own clothes and become emancipated. Mrs. Hattie Belle Johnston of New York is shown with Mrs. Gandhi (right).

Evangeline Statue Is Unveiled in La.

The dedication marked the formal turning over of the completed plant to the university by the Duke Foundation, delegated by Duke to expend $80,000,000 in behalf of charity and education.
 The hospital, built in Gothic style of gray granite, represents an expenditure of $4,000,000. Its endowment is $6,000,000.
 In addition to the representatives from other universities, more than 800 physicians accepted invitations to attend the exercises, among these were Dr. David Linn Edsall, dean of the Harvard Medical School, and Dr. Lewis Hill Weed, director of Johns Hopkins school of medicine.
 Both were to deliver addresses.
 Dr. Thurman D. Kitchin, a physician and president of Wake Forest College, was official representative of the North Carolina profession.
 Hundreds of other North Carolina physicians, however, were present. The annual convention of the state medical society began here today, but the majority of the convention program for the day was given over to the dedication of hospital.
 George C. Allen, of New York, chairman of the Duke foundation, was to present the hospital and medical school to the university and Col. John F. Burton, of Wilson, chairman of the university board of trustees, to accept it.

CO-ED WIFE KIDNAPPED

Husband and Two Others Jailed For Abduction Young Heiress in N. Y.

Madison, Wis. April 20.—(AP)—A 20 year old youth, Harry Hamilton Drill, son of a St. Paul, Minn., attorney, and two companions were in jail today accused of kidnaping Drill's co-ed heiress wife, Helen Fisher Drill, 19, in New York.
 A ruse of the wife led to the arrest of Drill, Harold Caldwell, 20, and Elmer Peterson, 27 also of St. Paul.
 Along the way he left penciled notes telling of her plight, one of them scrawled on a paper towel in a La Porte, Ind., filling station, resulted in the arrests.
 "He had been kidnapped. Please inform—(name withheld by authorities)—of Port Richmond, N. Y. Next stop Park hotel, Madison. They sent my clothes there."
 She left the water running in the washroom so an attendant would be certain to find the note. The message was found and relayed to Sheriff F. T. Finn here. The men were arrested at the Park hotel Finn said Caldwell and Peterson confessed complicity in the affair.
 The husband was evasive and after a long distance telephone call to his father said he would fight extradition.
 The young wife missing from her New York apartment since Thursday, said she was forced into an automobile owned by a Columbia university student, transferred to an other car and compelled to come west with her husband and his companions.
 The brief and periodic matrimonial adventures of the couple have been stormy, the girl told Finn. A divorce is pending between the pair already remarried after their first marriage was annulled.
 They met, she said, in May, 1928 while she was a student at Macalester college and five months later they were married secretly at Northwood, Iowa. They returned to the homes of their parents and kept the marriage secret for nearly a year.
 Meanwhile, Mrs. Drill went to a summer session at the university of Wisconsin and enrolled for the fall session at Carlton college, Northfield, Minn.
 The marriage was discovered and because of parental objections, the girl said, an annulment resulted. The youth met her on the campus of the Minnesota school and clinched his protestations of love by shooting himself through the lung.
 She remarried him, she said mainly to keep him from shooting himself.
 Mrs. Drill said she lived with her husband but a short time after their second marriage and then went east to attend school at the city college of New York after evading Drill by visiting relatives in Chicago and Indiana.
THREE NEW OFFICERS ELECTED BY AUXILIARY
 Wilson, April 16.—(AP)—Three new officers today assumed their duties in the Women's Auxiliary of the North Carolina Diocese of Episcopal church.
 Mrs. William Little was elected treasurer, Mrs. Corinna Gant, social service secretary and Mrs. Baxter Moore, educational secretary here yesterday at the annual convention of the auxiliary.
 The Rt. Rev. A. A. Gilman, Episcopal bishop of Hankow, addressed the convention last night on the foundation of the American Episcopal school in China.

STRIKE OUTS NUMEROUS IN BIG LEAGUES

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
If major league pitchers can continue their performances of the season's first few games, some of the strikeout records may be in serious danger.

Whether it is the changed ball or a mere epidemic of poor batting eyes, fanning this year seems to occur more often than in previous seasons when slugging was the rage.

Seven hurlers in the two major leagues struck out five or more rivals in yesterday's eight games and in many cases that was not enough to win or even keep the pitcher on the mound for nine innings. Big Fred Fitzsimmons of the New York Giants led the way, fanning seven of the Boston Braves as his team won 9 to 2.

In a long-drawn-out game which saw the Chicago White Sox whip the St. Louis Browns 12 to 6, 14 men struck out. Sam Gray, one of four St. Louis pitchers, and credited with the loss, and Garland Braxton of Chicago each whiffed five.

With a near record crowd of 80,000 looking on Rub Walberg of the Athletics bested Charley Ruffing of the Yankees, 3 to 2, in a pitching and fanning duel. Walberg struck out six and allowed the same number of hits. Ruffing fanned five while giving seven hits.

Charley Root of the Chicago Cubs and Renny Kremer of Pittsburgh also were credited with six strikeouts apiece. Root was wild at the start but good Cub fielding aided him in turning back the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 1. It was the first defeat for the Cards, putting them level with the Braves and Giants.

Weak base running by the Reds rendered Kremer's six walks harmless to Pittsburgh as the Pirates won, 5 to 1. Cincinnati had 11 men left on base.

Good pitching also came to the fore in the other American league games, bringing victories to Washington and Detroit. Lloyd Brown's mound work helped the Senators take the lead by shutting out the Boston Red Sox 8-0. Earl Whitehill turned back Cleveland with seven hits, topping all of the Indians but Young Joe Vosmik to win, 7 to 2.

Philadelphia's two Elliotts combined to hold Brooklyn to seven blows in the remaining National league game and hand the Robins their fifth straight defeat, 6 to 4, in ten innings. Homers by O'Doul and Herman were the leading Brooklyn blows.

Asheville Has Well Balanced Baseball Club

Asheville, April 20.—(AP)—A well balanced team, strong defensively and with power on the attack, will represent Asheville this year in its initial season in the Piedmont League.

After a month of preliminary training during which nearly 50 players have appeared before Manager Ray Kennedy, the nucleus for a speedy aggregation has been developed.

Kennedy's rookies look especially promising. Three of them, Walter Brillheart, Lefty Melton and Hal Moon, are expected to bolster a veteran pitching staff.

If the rookies come through like Kennedy expects and his veterans hit their best pace the Tourists will boast a strong mound staff. Pitchers held over from last year's Asheville Sally League club are Marty Baylin, Monroe Mitchell and Lee Ormond, while Kennedy has added Vincent Devaney, Tampa Ace, and Johnny Clowers, former Greenville Spinner.

Vernon Dill, Birmingham sandlotter, is another good looking rookie. He ranks as the probable starting receiver. Kennedy himself will be the reserve backstop.

Unless there are last minute changes, Hal Sullivan, the Sally's leading hitter last year, will patrol centerfield with Tom Pyle, South-eastern slugger, in right, and Smut Smith in left. That outfield averaged 350 against class B pitching last year.

Duke Turner, a Southeastern veteran, and Hoyt Hambricht, Erskine College product, are other outfield candidates.

A hard-hitting infield is in prospect. "Cotton" Breakfield, ace third baseman of the Sally last year, appears to have a job clinched, while the slugging Bobby Hipps will be at first.

Roy Tarr, regular last year who pounded the ball at a great clip but flailed erratically, has opposition at shortstop from Babe Viau, Southeastern star of last year, who is a light hitter, but a sensation, infielder.

Mellans, a rookie from Texas, has hit hard and fielded well in practice and looks good at second. Cline Lee, Shelby boy, also wants the second base job and may get it. Kennedy in any case feels sure he has the makings of a pennant contender.

Ad Warren May Get Place On Big Fight Card

Durham, April 20.—(AP)—Add Warren, launched on the comeback trail after losing his Carolinas heavyweight title to Dewey Kimrey, of Charlotte, may get a place on the "Young" Stribling-Max Schmeling heavyweight championship card.

Warren's manager, Sam Brockwell, was in New York today and before leaving here said he had offers for Warren to fight the semi-final bout on both the Stribling-Schmeling and Primo Carnera-Jack Sharkey cards.

Warren is training here for his attempt to regain his Carolinas title from Kimrey at Charlotte next Monday. He plans stiff workouts daily for the first five days of this week.

Yesterday's Stars

By Associated Press
Mule Haas, Athletics—His single in eighth scored Bishop with the run that beat Yankees, 3-2.
Charley Root, Cubs—Held Cardinals to six hits, fanned six and beat them, 4-1.
Roy Spencer, Senators—Drove in four runs with triple and a single against Red Sox.
Fred Fitzsimmons, Giants—Gave Braves only six hits and beat them easily, 9-2.
Harry McCurdy, Phillies—Pinch single in tenth drove in two runs and beat Robins, 6-4.
Earl Whitehill, Tigers—Stopped Indians with seven hits and beat them, 7-2.

SPORTS SLANTS

Although the Cardinals, with or without their slugging outfielder, Chick Haley, have been made pretty firm favorites to repeat in the National league, Ed Wray in his column in the St. Louis Post Dispatch indicates the "wise money" around St. Louis has quoted the Chicago Cubs to win at odds of 21-2 to 1, bracketing the Cardinals

Brooklyn and Giants at 3 to 1. This at least indicates how closely matched the betting men consider the four main pennant contenders. However, there has been no preseason evidence strong enough to justify preference for the Cubs over the Cardinals.

The Cardinals have proved their case. They have all around class and they have the pitching. The Cubs' chances hinge on too many "ifs." If Rogers Hornsby makes a real come-back, if either

Bell or Jorges fills the bill at third base and if the club gets more consistently pitching than it did in 1930, the Bruins will have at least an even chance to win the battle royal. Then there's Brooklyn—but why renew this argument for the 99th time? The box scores are telling the story in more interesting fashion already.

Harvard's A. A. News adds this tribute to Knute Rockne: "Rockne gave to football the shift behind a balanced line. He gave to football coaching scores of young men. He gave to the game the idea of concentration on detail to which he attributed his success. He added football literature by his contributions. "He was a force for great good among thousands of boys who know him only by reputation, boys in an impressionistic stage many of whom possibly were made better boys by his stories of George Gipp and others.

"He gave to the world an amazing personality and a will to win. Through the deeds of his teams and the men he coached, he gave more than one fight talk to the country at large. "Knute Rockne has gone to join Percy D. Haughton—another gridiron immortal. They leave to other men their most valuable contributions to the greatest of American college games." There hasn't been much ballyhoo about it, but the University of Illinois believes it has turned out perhaps more coaches than any other single institution, in view of the fact that 400 graduates of its four-year course in athletic coaching and physical training now are employed as coaches or physical directors throughout the country. Eighty will be added to the list in June. Notre Dame has contributed upwards of 60 men to the ranks of college football coaches, but the graduates of the Fighting Irish have not gone much beyond this specialty. Illinois covers a wider field. At Urbana, the embryonic coach can get his training under Bob Zuppke in football, Harry Gill in track, Craig Ruby in basketball, Carl Lungren in baseball. Only a small percentage qualify as varsity athletes themselves, adding further proof to the fact that it isn't necessary to be a good teacher

soon to be announced

Entries in the Camel cigarette $50,000 prize contest were received so fast that it was more than a week after the close of the contest before all the mail could be opened. In this pile were more than 500,000 letters awaiting reading by the judges and their staff.

It is expected the judges in the $50,000 Camel Cigarette Prize Contest will be able to render their decision within a short time and that public announcement of the prize winners can be made soon.

At this time the officers and directors of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company wish to thank the nearly a million men and women for their interest in entering this contest. We wish to assure you also, most emphatically, that every single letter received, despite the enormity of the task, is being carefully read and studied.

It is because of the extreme care being taken to insure the absolute fairness of this contest that we ask you to be patient just a little longer.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, April 20.—(AP)—Cotton opened unchanged to 3 points higher today on further covering and some trade buying. Liverpool made rather a disappointing response to the local firmness of Saturday but the trade seemed to pay very little attention to the cables, and buying was considered a continuation of the demand which developed in the market here late last week.

Offerings were light and readily absorbed with May selling up to 10.34 and October to 10.94 by the end of the first half hour or about 3 to 5 points net higher. Liverpool cables reported covering and continental buying in that market and said Manchester was getting a fair cloth business from South America. There may have been a little buying here on apprehensions that present favorable weather in the south would be followed by cold rains.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 20.—(AP)—The stock market fell back into its habit of declining today after the upturn on Saturday.

Trading remained sluggish, and liquidation of notable volume appeared only in spots, but traders evidently saw little in the upturn at last week save bear profit-taking. A few specialties broke sharply, but there were fitful rallies, and General Motors and the tobacco managed to make upward progress.

Auburn was again a weak feature, dropping more than 20 points before rallying. Industrial rayon again rose rapidly, as its quarterly statement showed earnings of only 6 cents a share. Ingersoll Rand also set several points. U. S. Steel made an extreme decline of 3 points, getting below 130 for the first time since 1927.

Other declines ranging from 2 to 10 points were recorded by Air Reduction, Public Service of N. J., North American, Westinghouse Electric, New York Central, Case, Electric Automobile, Eastern and Royal Dutch, the last named recording a new minimum for the American shares. American Tobacco B. however, edged more than 5, and General Motors pushed up a point.

Despite confidence in eventual economic improvement, however, the stock market continued to pay for excess of enthusiasm of a few weeks ago. Wall Street generally was felt for some weeks that the tide has turned, or is turning, but as stock market is traditionally impatient, and given to fits and starts. The weekly surveys of the economic advisory services were inclined to look for further market irregularity and weakness during the near term, but continued to express confidence in the longer term prospects.

The news of the weekend added little light to the general situation other revolutionary activities in Central America were not disturbing to Wall Street, as American investments there are not extensive. Cited Fruit stock, however, was depressed.

Cancellation of the Morgan loan to the Spanish government is reflected in a drop of about 1-2 points in the metals, but it went only down to around its low level of the year.

Explorers Find Water 'Desert' in Pacific Ocean

LaJolla, Calif.—(AP)—There are "deserts" in the waters of the Pacific ocean as truly as there are deserts on land.

Existence of the watery wastes is brought to light in recent investigations by Dr. E. G. Moberg of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography and members of the Carnegie Institute of Washington. Already the geographical outlines are vaguely traced, but the effects upon the vast variety of life in the ocean are mostly still unknown.

The biggest one is a phosphate desert that fills most of the Pacific northward from the equator, almost from shore to shore, to a line drawn between southern California and Japan.

This area, near its surface, is poor in phosphates, which are indispensable fertilizers alike for plants of the land and of the sea. In the ocean the phosphates are used particularly by the microscopic plants, which are the basic food of all fish.

These plants, constituents of the so called plankton, develop mostly within 100 or 200 feet of the surface, growth at lower depths being prevented by an insufficient amount of sunlight.

In all the North Pacific, says Dr. Moberg, between latitudes 10 and 40, except a few stations near the California coast, the phosphate content is from five to 15 times smaller than in other Pacific waters. He attributes this condition to the nature of the surface currents, which form a sort of sea within a sea and to the failure of the deeper, phosphate-rich waters, to mix with the surface water.

In the midst of this phosphate desert and especially south of it is the "oxygenless" water, or rather, water of a very low oxygen content, the latest discovery among ocean peculiarities.

Oxygenless means lack of dissolved oxygen, that is, of oxygen from the air, and does not refer to the composition of water, each particle of hydrogen and one particle of oxygen.

Dr. Moberg, one of the scientists to discover the oxygen-deficient waste while aboard the yacht Carnegie, says it is not certain that fish could live in this water.

This layer of nearly oxygenless water, which has a thickness of about 1,500 feet and occurs at 300 or more feet below the surface, is considered another indication of the lake-like character of the upper water strata of the mid-Pacific.

Oxygen enters the sea at its surface, and the amount dissolved depends chiefly upon temperature, but also upon pressure and the action of waves and wind.

The ability of the water to dissolve or retain oxygen becomes as the water becomes warmer, and consequently more oxygen dissolves in the polar regions than in the tropics.

Since oxygen travels through water at an extremely slow rate only a narrow layer at the surface receives this gas directly from the atmosphere. To other depths oxygen is carried by water currents.

PITT LEGIONNAIRES WILL GO TO ROCKY MOUNT TO HEAR NATIONAL CHAPLAIN

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will go to Rocky Mount tomorrow night to hear an address by Joe N. Barrett, chaplain of the national Legion organization, who will be the guest of the Rocky Mount Legion Post.

All members of the post and former service men are urged to attend and those who do not have a way of transportation are asked to notify J. C. Elliott, commander of the local post.

The Rocky Mount Legionnaires invited the Pitt County post to attend the speaking sometime last week and the invitation was immediately accepted. The trip will take the place of the regular monthly meeting of the local organization scheduled for Tuesday night.

SMALL BLAZE AT HOME OF JOHN IVEY SMITH

The fire department was called to the home of John Ivey Smith on Green street yesterday to extinguish a small blaze in a pantry. The fire originated in a towel which was hanging in the closet. The origin was undetermined and the loss negligible.

JUNIOR PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

Several of the baseball teams played Tarboro last week. We are hoping to get other out-of-town teams lined up.

Tuesday, The Daniel Boone Pioneers meet at 8 p. m. Wednesday, The Junior Hi - Y meets at 8 p. m. The theme for the devotion, "God's Compassion for Men." Leader, J. J. Sumrell.

Thursday, Senior Hi-Y meets at 8 p. m. Stand by for further announcements. So many members of the senior are in the band, and have to go to Greensboro, on this date. Further announcements will be made.

Friday, The Friendly Indians will meet at 7:30. This will be a re-organization meeting, since so many changes have been made through promotion. We are going to have an endurance test this week. Boys will be required to carry two blankets or a pump tent, neatly rolled and carried on their shoulders. Food and other supplies must be carried in a knapsack, and not in the pockets. Every boy must appear neat and clean. Further information will be had at the junior room.

The increase in membership this month has forced us to organize another Pioneer club, which is known as 'Roger Williams Pioneer club' for boys on the waiting list for the Junior Hi-Y.

We lost six members this last week. They were formerly members of the Christian Boy Scout troop, and they joined last week when the re-organized.
