Foreigners Seek Safety Aboard Ships As Strife Gains Scope In Honduras

Battleships Speed to Strategic Positions as the Revolutionary Forces Harass the Northern Coast; Several Hundred Americans on Northeast Coast Seaboard Not Believed in Imminent Danger; Martial Law Declared Throughout Nation and All Available Troops Are Called to the Colors

By MARIO RIBAS (Copyright, 1931, Associated Press) Washington, April 21.—(AP)—The insurrection in northern Honduras was described as subsiding all along the coast except in the region inland from Puerto Cortez westward to the banana ports in a report today from Minister Julius G. Lay at Tegucigalpa to the state department.

Minister Lay said Vice Consul Wason at Puerto Cortez reported an attack on San Pedro Sula, 25 miles inland from the port, was eminent. Wason said the Americans at San Pedro had asked him to go there and attempt to arrange an agreement between government commanders and the rebel chiefs to respect a neutral zone around that town.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, April 21.—(AP)—Foreign women and children, principally Americans, of Tela and Trujillo, coast cities of Honduras, today sought safety aboard ships in the two harbors from attacks of revolutionary armies harassing the north coast.

The battleship Maryland took up a station in the harbor of La Ceiba for the protection of Americans in the banana-raising regions of that district. While the cruiser Memphis sailed post-haste to Trujillo, the Marblehead was en route to the danger zone.

Several hundred Americans along the northeast seaboard were not thought today to have been in real danger from the rebel armies, who some believe to be in league with the Sandino insurgent movement of Nicaragua, but fear is felt that developments may increase their hazard.

The Honduras congress last night imposed martial law on the entire country. All available troops were called to the colors, and civil guard groups were organized to aid in putting down the revolt, which the government claims is sponsored by irresponsible discontents drawing upon disaffected laborers for the rank and file of their armies.

President Vicente Mejia Collares, in a statement to the Associated Press, said that while the government recognized the revolt had not yet been put down, he believed it to be near its termination. He had been forewarned, he said, and was ready for its outbreak Saturday night.

His account of the fighting here listed three important battles since the revolt began. The first occurred around Senaguer, which the rebels appeared to have captured, later being driven from the city by a force under Colonel Louis Alonzo Lopez after some heated fighting. A counter attack by the rebels who were headed by Mario Gonzalez failed.

A second rebel army led by Roman Diaz and Laisao Santos attacked Progresso. Eighteen defenders led by Colonel Alfredo Reina held out for an hour and a half when they retreated in good order. The rebel army, consisting of about 200 poorly equipped peasants, sacked all properties in Progresso, including those of foreigners and looted the Banco De Honduras there of 20,000 peses, before government control was re-established.

Sunday afternoon a third group of rebels attacked Tela. A defending force under General Jose Maria Reina routed the attackers and took from them some artillery, including a Lewis machine gun and six bombs. There were a number of killed and wounded on both sides.

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—Along a 600-mile coastline United States warships were posted today to protect Americans from insurgents.

From the state and navy departments went orders which dispatched the seven fighting vessels to reports in Honduras and Nicaragua.

At La Ceiba, Honduras, the cruiser Memphis dropped anchor yesterday, her commander reporting none of the four principal ports of the country—La Ceiba, Tela, Puerto Cortez and the Puerto Castilla-Trujillo Bay—was endangered seriously. (Continued on page three)

Commander of Squadron Stationed in Nicaraguan Waters Reports Additional Deaths to the Navy Department; Residents of Cabo Gracias Fear New Attack

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—The Navy Department today received from Rear Admiral Arthur St. Clair Smith, commander of the special service squadron now stationed in Nicaraguan waters, the names of eight additional persons killed in the outbreaks in the vicinity of Puerto Cabezas.

Admiral Smith's report listed the total deaths of foreigners in Nicaraguan attacks at 16, including eight civilians and one marine officer.

Deaths not previously reported were:

Lucian May, Walter Manning, E. Rodney, Henry Roper, all British subjects from Jamaica; M. Sagastume, a Guatemalan; A. Viskaino, a Columbian; the Rev. Carl Brenzinger, a Moravian missionary, a German subject who took out first American papers in 1921 but did not complete naturalization.

Previous reports had listed the deaths of the eight American civilians, all employees of the Standard Fruit Company, as follows:

W. H. Selser, W. H. Bond, Jr., Percy Davis, Rip Davis, H. O. Wilson, J. H. Bryan, J. L. Pennington and J. D. Phelps.

The marine officer was Captain Harlan Peley. Admiral Smith's dispatch said the situation at Puerto Cabezas was quiet with no insurgents in the vicinity and work being resumed. He reported, too, that conditions in Bluefields also were quiet.

"Bandits first appeared in this vicinity at Low Town about sixty miles inland on April 11," his dispatch said. "Nearly all the deaths occurred in this vicinity and between April 11 and 13. Those killed were overseers or workers on the fruit farms of the Bragman Bluff Lumber Company and they were surprised and killed without chance."

Four Speakers Give Facts About Business and Industrial Life of City

Four speakers closely affiliated with the business and industrial life of the city last night presented members of the Rotary club with considerable information pertaining to these two sources of human activity. The occasion was observance of "business and industrial night," by the club and the program was in charge of the committee on business and industry. President J. H. Waldrop presided, and the usual supper and song numbers were enjoyed.

The speakers were C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the local Merchants Association; K. W. Cobb, supervisor of sales of the Greenville tobacco market; Martin Schwartz, superintendent of the Water and Light Commission, and Prof. Carl Adams, member of the faculty of Eastern Carolina Teachers College.

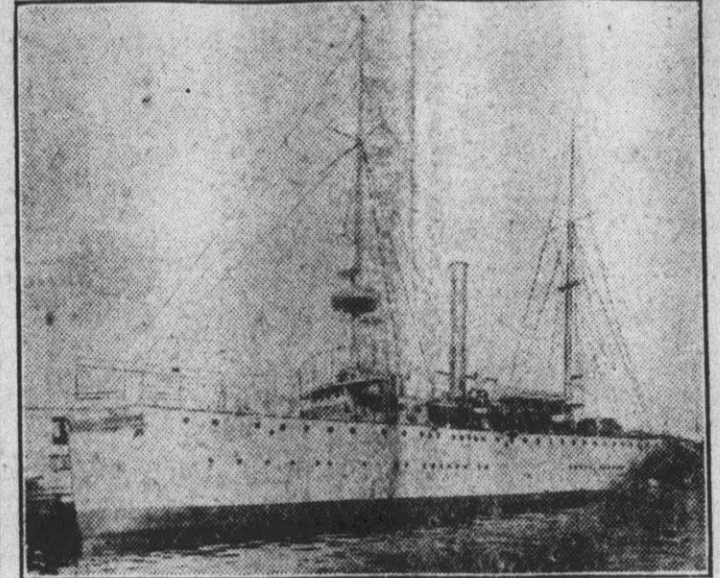

J. H. Epperson, superintendent of the Durham Health Department, was elected president of the Public Health Association, succeeding Dr. D. E. Ford, of New Bern. Dr. C. N. Sisk, Rockingham, was named vice-president, and Dr. Zach Mitchell, Weldon, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Morris Fishbein, nationally known public health expert, addressed the association on "The Prolongation of Life." He pointed out that the infant mortality rate in the larger cities had been reduced to 50 or 80 per thousand from 275 in the 19th century but said he did not believe there would be any noticeable increase in the future of the number of persons living past the age of 70.

A number of notable physicians and health experts were on the program for addresses at the convention of the medical society, and the Women's Auxiliary, which is meeting with it.

ENFIELD MAN FOUND GUILTY GIRL TO TRY OCEAN FLIGHT

J. M. Coker Convicted of Charge Growing Out of Automobile Wreck Here

J. M. Coker, of Enfield, was found guilty of a charge of reckless and careless driving and assault with a deadly weapon by a jury sitting in the criminal term of Pitt county Superior court in this city yesterday. Judgment was not pronounced at the time but was expected to be made known during the afternoon session today.

Coker was convicted in county court during January and fined $350 and cost of action. He filed notice of appeal to the higher court under bond of $500.

The case was the aftermath of a wreck on the Greenville-Bethel highway, a short distance from Greenville. An automobile driven by Coker collided with another machine driven by K. T. Futrell, Pitt County Welfare officer. Mr. Futrell and members of his family were painfully injured. Coker received injuries also, while another occupant of his car was knocked unconscious by the impact.

Two other cases were disposed of at the beginning of the second week of the two-weeks term of court yesterday. Several others are docketed for hearing during the week two or three of which have been in the spotlight for sometime.

Perry German, negro, charged with trespassing on the county home property, was sentenced to the roads for a term of one year. His arrest followed an attempt to establish intimate relations with one of the inmates of the home.

Henry Vanderburgh, of Farmville community, was sentenced to two years in prison, with provision that he be paroled at the expiration of six months in case of good behavior. He was convicted of participating in the illicit whiskey traffic.

State Medical Society Meets At Bull City

Many of the number took part yesterday in the exercises dedicating the $400,000 Duke Medical School and 456 bed hospital. The State Public Health Association, meeting in conjunction with the medical society, held a session last night to elect officers, and Dr. J. G. Murphy, of Washington, president, presided over a session of the house of delegates of the medical society, preliminary to the opening of the general sessions today.

J. H. Epperson, superintendent of the Durham Health Department, was elected president of the Public Health Association, succeeding Dr. D. E. Ford, of New Bern. Dr. C. N. Sisk, Rockingham, was named vice-president, and Dr. Zach Mitchell, Weldon, secretary-treasurer.

GIRL TO TRY OCEAN FLIGHT

Ruth Nichols Says She Will Attempt Trans-Atlantic Hop Within Two Weeks

New York, April 21.—(AP)—Ruth Nichols, within two weeks will attempt the first woman's solo flight across the Atlantic. Clarence D. Chamberlin, her aeronautical adviser, said today.

In the red Lockheed-Vega monoplane which she flew at a speed of 210 miles an hour at Detroit a week ago, she will take off from Harbor Grace, N. F., to follow the Lindbergh trail to Paris.

The airplane is being overhauled at the New Jersey aircraft factory of Chamberlin.

Miss Nichols, tall slender, and in her middle twenties, started flying less than five years ago. Before that she was known only as a society girl.

She and Miss Elinor Smith now are regarded as the two outstanding women pilots in the United States. Miss Nichols has set four records.

Last fall she flew from New York to Los Angeles and return, setting trans-continental records for women, both ways. On the return trip her actual flying time was shorter than that of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, although she made longer stops on the ground.

Last month, over New Jersey, she set an altitude record for women which apparently has been retained by Miss Smith, although official records have not been announced.

A week ago yesterday at Detroit she flew her red monoplane, with its steam-lined body and trick landing gear, 210,685 miles an hour—the highest speed ever attained by a woman.

DRIVE MADE ON SANDINO

Pres. Hoover Says Bandit Has Placed Himself Outside of the Pale of Society

Washington, April 21.—(AP)—President Hoover said today General Sandino, the leader of the Nicaraguan insurgents, had "placed himself outside the civilized pale" by the murder of American civilians and Nicaraguans.

The President said he was "perfectly confident the Nicaraguan bandit General Sandino will be brought to justice."

The President's statement follows: "Our advice is that the Nicaraguan government has now placed in the field a total of over 1300 men of the newly created national guard in a drive to clean-up Sandino and his fellow bandits. Our representatives advise that this force is several times that of Sandino and his band. His raids upon important points have been frustrated by the dispositions of the guard and protection of our citizens on the coast is made doubly sure by the presence of our naval vessels.

"Sandino has placed himself and his band outside the civilized pale by the cold blooded murder of 8 or 9 American civilians in many Nicaraguans at isolated places in the interior.

"The Nicaraguan government has shown itself fully cognizant of its responsibilities. It is moving vigorously despite the difficulties created by the earthquake. While it may require some time to accomplish their purpose due to mountainous and jungle character of the country I am confident Sandino will be brought to justice."

CONFEREES REPORTED STILL TANGLED OVER SALES TAX QUESTION

HOLD-UP CASE BEGINS HERE

Two Young Men Go On Trial for Alleged Robbery of Mrs. G. H. Ballard

Elmer Whitley and Rodney Cox, young white men of this city, went on trial in criminal court here today charged with the hold-up and robbery of Mrs. G. H. Ballard, in the eastern section of the city, last December. The grand jury returned a true bill in the case last week.

The alleged holdup, in which Mrs. Ballard, operator of a local collection agency, claims to have lost $4,200 occurred one night as she was walking home from a church service. She said two men slipped up behind her, overpowered her, dragged her behind a garage and then ran away with her pocketbook.

Police investigated the case and in a few days Whitley and Cox were arrested. Officers were said to have discovered that tracks behind the garage corresponded with those of the two defendants. It was further declared that a key which Mrs. Ballard claimed to have also had in the pocketbook was found in a pile of ashes back of the home of one of the defendants.

Mrs. Ballard was the first of a long string of witnesses to take the stand this morning. She repeated practically the same story as told above, only elaborated to a greater extent.

During her testimony, she produced a ripple of laughter throughout the courtroom when she grasped Solicitor D. M. Clark about the head and shoulders in an attempt to show the court the way she was attacked by the assailants during the holdup. The demonstration brought a warning from Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, of Snow Hill, that further disturbance of the kind would cause him to issue an order for the clearing of the court room.

He also instructed the sheriff to bring before the court any persons or persons instrumental in the beginning of a demonstration.

The court room was packed almost to overflowing when the case was begun shortly before the noon hour. The defendants are represented by Hallett Ward, of Washington, and Harding & Lee of this city. Solicitor D. M. Clark is assisted in the prosecution by former Judge Albion Dunn and Julius Brown.

A score or more witnesses were sworn in at the beginning of the trial. These include people who reside in the neighborhood, in which the Ballards live, members of the police department, and others acquainted with the principles involved.

Although every effort was being made to speed up the trial, the case was not expected to be completed before late this afternoon or tomorrow.

Z. Merton, Calvin Gorman, C. Heber Forbes, J. G. Clark, J. B. Kitterell, Eli Bloom, J. L. Haswell, Sr., W. H. Bradsher, W. S. Brown, J. D. Aman, J. T. Clifton, J. J. White, and A. E. Hobgood.

The automobiles will be divided into groups of about six or eight and the committee hopes to cover a radius of about seventy-five miles, returning home late in the afternoon.

GRAND JURY REPORTS HERE

All County Offices Reported in a Highly Satisfactory Condition at Present

After returning several presentments and visiting the various county departments, the grand jury of the criminal term of Pitt County Superior Court yesterday submitted its report to Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, of Snow Hill, and was discharged for the present term.

The report conveyed the fact that all county officers are in the best of condition and skillfully and efficiently managed.

At the county home the jury found the work of Miss Susie Brown Harris, daughter of the superintendent, J. O. Harris, contributed so much to the comfort and happiness of the inmates, it was recommended she receive some compensation for her services.

The jury also stated that the county road camp was being conducted in a very efficient manner and that the moral and physical condition of the prisoners was of a satisfactory nature.

Judge Frizzelle was highly commended for the manner in which he has conducted the court, as were all other officers which members of the jury came in contact with.

The detailed report follows: To His Honor, J. Paul Frizzelle, Judge Presiding: The grand jury of this, the April Term of Criminal Court, beg to submit the following report: The Grand Jury carefully considered and passed upon all bills submitted and presentments have been made in all cases where evidence justified.

The Grand Jury has visited the various offices of the County as follows: Clerk of Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Board of Education, Tax Supervisor and Auditor, Treasurer, Sheriff, Welfare Department, and County Farm Agent.

It has been found in each instance that the affairs of the county are being well cared for, that the offices are being efficiently managed.

The Grand Jury visited the following county institutions: the County Home under management of Mr. J. O. Harris, was found in excellent condition. The inmates were well satisfied with the care and attention they were receiving. The crops, the barns, the stock and the home itself are in excellent condition, and the management is due much commendation for the interest shown. We find that Miss Susie Brown Harris, daughter of the superintendent, is devoting the most of her time to the care and attention of the inmates, to the extent that we, this Grand Jury, feel that, for the extra service and attention she is rendering for their comfort and happiness, she should receive some compensation for this extra service.

The county jail was carefully inspected by the Grand Jury, the prisoners appear to be well provided.

After Three Hour Session Today, Chairman Dunlap of Anson, Tells Newspapermen They Are Just Where They Were Last Night; Senate Passes Biennial Machinery Act On Second Reading; House Acts Favorably On Two Minor Measures and Adjourns Until Tomorrow

Raleigh, April 21.—(AP)—Members of the joint conference committee on the biennial revenue bill today were still tangled on the sales tax issue.

After a three hour session, Chairman Dunlap of Anson told newspapermen "we are just where we were last night."

When the conferees recessed for lunch they still had not agreed, members of the committee said, but it was thought that some definite conclusion might be reached during this afternoon's session.

For four hours last night, the session extending until after midnight today, the conferees discussed the Orier-Folger equalizing fund plan of $10,000,000 for state aid for schools and the fulfillment of the MacLean law requiring $18,500,000 and full state support without reaching a decision—or so they said.

After four sessions at which newspapermen were admitted, the committee last night and today met in executive session.

Members of the committee agreed that despite long arguments in favor of an equalization fund by Senator Fulger of Surry, and in support of the luxury sales tax by Senator Hinsdale of Wake, nothing was said that had not been said on the floor of the House and Senate, and no progress was made.

An estimate that the general sales tax would yield only $5,530,000 instead of the necessary $9,000,000 was given the committee by Revenue Commissioner A. J. Maxwell. Members of the committee, on both sides, described the estimate as a bombshell, although it has been made before, by Senator Hinsdale, author and champion of the luxury tax.

Mr. Maxwell conceded that the luxury tax would raise from $500,000 to $1,000,000 more than the general tax, depending largely on the sales resistance to the new tax and the number of articles classified as "luxuries."

The House and Senate have both rejected the luxury tax, but many House members who opposed the luxury tax were willing to accept it if they cannot pass a general sales tax, and the margin against the luxury tax in the Senate was only two votes.

Legislative business was at a standstill, as interest centered in the conference committee. Duty elected members turned lobbyists, trying to influence their friends on the conference committee—which admittedly must decide the tax and school policy for North Carolina for the next two years—and rumors of trades were rife in Raleigh today.

Both houses confined their perfunctory sessions to local bills.

The Senate passed the biennial "machinery" act on second reading. Under the new act, which provides for the listing and valuation of all property for taxation, the quadrennial reassessment required under the law is done away with.

As a substitute county commissioners are empowered to make adjustment in values which they deem needed at any time.

The House, continuing its perfunctory session in order to fulfill constitutional requirements while a report from the revenue conferees is awaited, passed two local bills and adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The Senate amended the Moss-Cherry bill, to change the basis of charging for automobile license fees, and then postponed a vote on the bill itself until tomorrow.

Under the act passed by the House license plates would be issued on the basis of 55 cents per hundred weight, instead of being based on horsepower.

The Senate raised the fee to 60 cents per hundred weight, the figure in the original measure as introduced. The cut in the rate would have cost a loss of $300,000 to $400,000 annually in motor license fees, it was estimated, while the 60 cent rate will net approximately the same amount now received on the horsepower basis.

Following the district meeting canning demonstrations will be given throughout the district in all clubs and in unorganized sections.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ACT.

Reports from the committee that visited Washington, D. C., yesterday in the interest of the opening of a new bank here to succeed the National Bank, are to the effect that the situation is promising but that the full co-operation of the depositors and citizens in general is necessary if the proposition is to be put across. According to committee reports there are still a number of depositors whose signatures to the agreement is necessary and likewise there is still a small amount of stock in the new bank unsold.

So far as the depositors are concerned, it is our opinion that it is poor business on their part not to sign the agreement that guarantees seventy-five per cent with a possibility of a hundred per cent with interest, when it is almost a foregone conclusion that through the regular process of liquidation the depositors would receive far less than this amount.

With regard to the unsold stock, there is still a little more than a hundred shares that must be disposed of before the opening of the new bank will be possible.

If you are one of the depositors of the old bank and have not signed the agreement for the opening of the new bank, we urge you to do so at once. If you are interested in the re-establishment of confidence and the return of prosperity to this community and can arrange to finance some of this unsold stock, even if only one share, we likewise urge you to do so, for only in this way can we hope to gain this new bank and without it the period of depression in our community must naturally be prolonged.

ABOUT TOWN

A district canning school will be held in Greenville the latter part of this month under auspices of the Home Demonstration Department of Pitt county.

At this time members of the various demonstration clubs throughout the county will have an opportunity to witness the latest methods in canning under the direction of two members of the State Department of Agriculture.

As canning is going to play a significant part in the live-at-home movement inaugurated by Governor O. Max Gardner it is necessary that the women of all the rural sections acquaint themselves with every detail possible and in that way enable themselves to can their pantries with plenty of can goods for fall and winter.

The prime purpose of the live-at-home plan is to produce more of the things consumed at home, and consequently the more products the farm women can, the easier they will find it to abide by the live-at-home movement.

The capture of a suspect in the epidemic of false fire alarms which the city has been troubled with the last several months will be received with gratification by the public generally.

If found guilty and convicted the man should receive the full penalty of the law.

This business of calling out the fire department in response to false alarms has proven expensive to the city while at the same time jeopardizing both lives of firemen and the citizenry in general. Every time the department responds to an alarm it costs the city close to $25. The epidemic of the last few months has resulted in a cost of several hundred dollars, no small matter to consider during the period of depression which this part of the country has been up against the last year or so.

The police department should continue to maintain a keen vigil on all of the districts served by the alarm system, and attempt to bring the next culprit to justice. It is hoped, however, that punishment in this case will have such a salutary effect upon the false alarmists that they will desist from future activity of the kind.

Members of the 4-H club of the country have been confining considerable attention to the problem of health the last several months, at a picnic to be held at the Winterville school building Friday, May 15, the king and queen of health will be crowned.

The coronation exercises should attract splendid attendance and the young people who gain the crowns should be heartily applauded by the people of their respective communities.

This business of keeping the body in a healthy condition, ready to meet the many responsibilities which life places upon us, is of vital importance to the boy and girl on the farm as well as those in the cities, and it is to be hoped the public health will be stressed to a greater extent in future years.

The youngsters should make it a point to give just as much attention to the condition of their physical being as to other phases of activity, and by doing this they will be in much better shape to meet the many exigencies which life will place upon them from year to year. Health is the most important of all for without it the possibilities which life holds forth to everyone will be limited unspcakably.

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion went to Rocky Mount this afternoon to hear the national chaplain of the Legion tell of some achievements and objectives of the organization.

This is the first time the Post as a whole has visited another city in some time, and it is believed that attendance would be large.

The Rocky Mount Post considers itself quite fortunate in being able to obtain the services of such a distinguished member of the organization, and it was believed good results would eventuate from the visit.

The Legion has been able to accomplish much good in behalf of the former veterans of the World War, and its fight for the legislation providing loans on compensation certificates was largely responsible for the passage of the measure.

Pitt county veterans believe the future holds forth great possibilities for the organization and are using their influence to expend its activities. By increase of membership they are hopeful of making the Pitt county post one of the most active in the state.

MILLIONAIRE CLASS LOSES 24 MEMBERS YEARLY IN BRITAIN

London—(AP)—Great Britain's millionaires are vanishing at the rate of two a month.

There are now 487 millionaires in the United Kingdom, 24 less than last year.

In Britain a man is considered a millionaire when his income exceeds $250,000 yearly.

The "Blue Book" of the Inland Revenue department, which is a balance sheet of the nation's taxpayers, shows 130 with incomes above $500,000 and 104 with incomes upwards of $375,000.

The total income of the 487 millionaires, as assessed for the super-tax, was $238,673,908.

Fifty thousand more people paid income taxes in England last year than in the previous year, a total of 2,250,000 persons.

The man who has an income of $750,000 has to pay nearly half. In all, income tax payers contributed to the government last year, $3,377,307,836.

FELT BAD MOST OF THE TIME

Lady Says She Was Weak, Sickly and In Pain, But Cardui Helped Her.

Mrs. J. R. Carroll, who lives on North Atlantic Street, Tullahoma, Tenn., says that the Cardui Home Treatment helped her after she had been suffering five years.

"I felt bad most of the time," she writes, "not being able to be up but very little. I was weak and sickly. I suffered from headache, and my back and limbs hurt a great deal. I was very nervous and excitable. Any little noise would scare me. I suffered like this for five years.

"I happened to read about the Cardui Home Treatment, and I made up my mind to try it. After I had taken my first bottle of Cardui, I began to improve. When I had taken six bottles, I was a well woman, and have been in fine health since."

Cardui helps women to health. Get a bottle of Cardui from your druggist, and see what this well-known medicine will do for you. Contains no harmful drugs, and does not interfere with other medication.

SLOW CLUBS OF NATIONAL STEPPING OUT

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) The National League, it seems, is to have an eight club race after all. Brooklyn and Cincinnati, after taking it on the chin with alarming regularity since opening day, finally have broken into the winner's circle.

Brooklyn fandom, possibly the most rabid in either major league, feels certain the Robins have gotten a lot of bad baseball out of their system early and are ready now to romp right on to the flag.

Cincinnati enthusiasts have harbored no pennant hopes to speak of, but they are happy to see Col. Howley's charges get a start, even if from the bottom.

Both clubs chose yesterday to come out of their five-day trance. Brooklyn's batting power, pretty dormant these several days, came to life and blasted a 10 to 5 victory over four Philadelphia pitchers.

Nick Cullip, former American Association home run king, led the Reds into the light. His circuit drive off Meine with two on beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 7 to 5.

Meantime, the St. Louis Cardinals took over the undisputed leadership by doubling the Chicago Cubs 3 to 2. Jim Bottomley's homer in the sixth provided the "difference."

The New York Giants and Boston Braves battled their way into a tie for second place by dividing their Patriotic Day double header. Rookie John Berly pitched McGraw's clan to a 4 to 3 win in the morning, aided by Freddie Lindstrom's home run, but the Braves came back with a 1 to 0 verdict later in the day.

Babe Ruth enjoyed one of his most spacious days as the Yankees squared accounts with the Athletics. His two wallops into the stands, each time with Lynn Lary on base, accounted for all but one run in their 5 to 4 victory over Earnshaw.

The Boston Red Sox abruptly halted Washington's four game winning streak 13 to 3.

Although hit hard, Willie Hudlin was tight in the pinches and Cleveland stayed in the thick of things with a 9 to 3 decision over Detroit. Rain stopped the Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns in the latter city.

GAMECOCKS BUILDING UP NEW OUTFIT

Henderson, April 21.—(AP)—Skipper Jimmy Teague, who turned out a first place club for Henderson last year, is building this year's Piedmont League entry from the ground up.

Few familiar faces will greet the fans when the Gamecocks begin the pennant chase next week. Teague has a handful of veterans from other years, but his championship club of 1930 is gone.

A lot of Teague's worries are over or, the left side of the infield. Ike Kahdot, flashy little Indian who played shortstop last year, has been switched to third base and Joe Savant, a rookie from Chicago, is at short. Teague apparently is uncertain how the combination will work out.

Teague himself will be at second base. Otto Pahlman and Phil Lundene, who both performed in the Piedmont two seasons ago, are battling for the first base assignment.

A lot of doubt surrounds the outfield posts. L. A. Singleton, former Southern League player, Charlie Hawkins, Atlanta rookie, Clyde Kendall, Kernersville youth, and Frank Smithdale are seeking them. J. C. Clark, Garner school teacher, and Bill Diester, former outfielder with Joplin of the Western League, also have been signed.

There are three veterans, Moos-Swamy, Edgar Anders and Pat Townsend, from last year's mound staff. Pat has been listed as a holdout, but is expected to come around.

Tim Murchison, big left-hander from St. Louis, is a likely looking newcomer. Smoky Joe Caviness and Ike Sadler, former Piedmont chunkers, may get jobs. Teague has three rookie hurlers, Joe Burnett, A. C. Elmore and Friend, a former University of Illinois pitcher, working out.

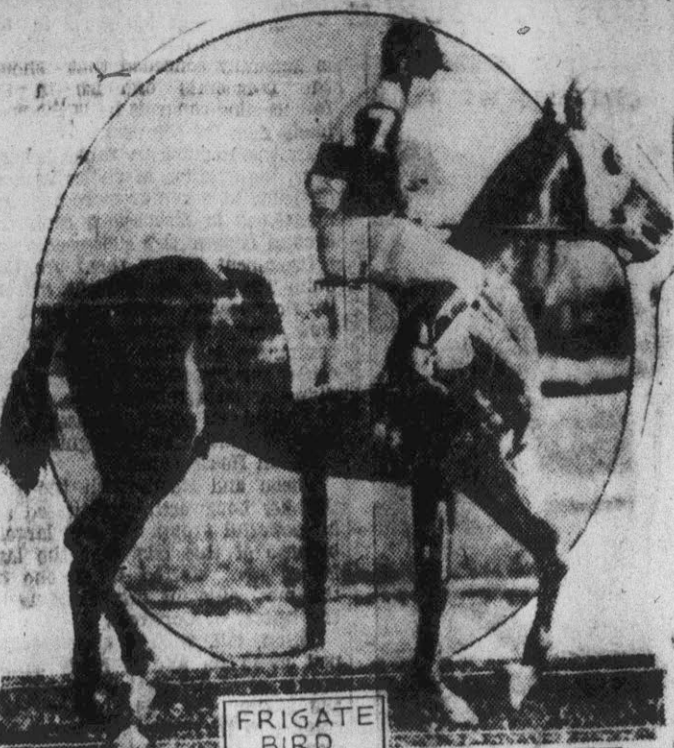

Panther Branch is slated for his old catching berth again. Millard Parrish, second string backstop last season, and Johnny Kuzzy, former University of Illinois catcher, are fighting it out to decide which will be his assistant.

Heavy Rainfall
Goldensboro, N. C.—(AP)—Streets were clogged for blocks and emergency squads were called to help when stores began to be inundated here yesterday when rain fell in torrents for several hours.

AIRCRAFT RADIO GROUP ADDED TO NAVY RESERVES
St. Louis.—(AP)—A wireless expert who went into the arctic with Byrd and MacMillan—Lieut. Harold E. Gray—is organizing at Lambert-St. Louis field the first naval communications reserve unit to specialize in aircraft radio.

Equipment for use between planes in the air as well as between planes and the ground will be supplied when the unit is quartered in the new naval reserve hangar under construction.

TAR HEELS TO TACKLE THE DEACONS

Charlotte, April 21.—(AP)—The North Carolina Tar Heels, who are right up at the top of the Tri-State Baseball League standing, will try their cunning today against Wake Forest, a Big Five opponent.

They will go over to Wake Forest to engage the Deacons, who have lost two of the three Big Five games they have played this season. The match marks the Tar Heels' first appearance of the season against a Big Five.

N. C. State set the Big Five ball rolling for the week by visiting Davidson yesterday and licking the Wildcats, 9 to 2. The defeat gave the Presbyterians a firm hold on bottom position in the Big Five ranks.

In tennis circles, North Carolina, which is generally recognized as the class in that sport this year, Bryan Grant, Wilmer Hines, Hendlin and notable performers on its team, whitewashed Duke 9 to 10 yesterday.

Capt. George Rogers, of Duke, however, gave Grant a tough fight, forcing their match to three sets before the latter won.

State's track and field men drubbed V. P. I. 66 1-2 to 59 1-2 at Raleigh.

SPORTS SLANTS

The radio microphone and the well known "invisible audience" seem to have a strange if not actually paralyzing effect on a number of our state athletes, who think nothing of doing their stuff ordinarily before thousands of roaring or galloping fanatics.

Lefty Grove's confidence on the mound is such that he feels no special qualms in pitching to the eminent George Herman Ruth, but before the "mike," in Washington, the star southpaw of the A's obviously was nervous and rattled in getting off his "piece" about the baseball season's prospects.

By contrast, Ruth was very much at ease, speaking for the most part extemporaneously on a variety of subjects in his oratorical powers. Of course, the Babe has had more experience at public speaking than Grove. In addition self-confidence always has been a conspicuous asset of the Yankee slugger.

Hack Wilson and Dazy Vance, who also figured in the National Broadcasting company's entertaining pre-season program, expressed themselves about the new ball.

"The thicker seams," ventured Dazy, probably will help curve ball pitchers to get a better grip. They say the National league is a curve-ball league, so maybe it will help us."

"I think the new ball will travel just as far as the old one, if it's hit solidly enough," added Wilson. "At least I haven't noticed any difference."

Strangely enough, when it comes to remarks about the outcome of the pennant races, Grove picked the Athletics, Vance nominated the Brooklyn Robins, Ruth picked the Yankees "if they get a little pitching," and Wilson selected the Cubs to win.

Ruth made the magnificent gesture by agreeing with Vance that the National league race figured to be a lot tougher than the American.

Bill Munday, the radio announcer, who can still remember his pitching days, tells a story about Bobby Jones' debut on the air for a series of golf talks.

The great golfer, it seems, was extremely nervous about the whole proceeding, so much so that it was necessary to put up a screen around him to block off the view of a crowd of friends and onlookers.

"Bobby," spoke up O. B. Keeler, the champion's Boswell, "what's the idea of letting a little thing like a radio talk disturb you? Why, I've seen you go out in front of 10,000, or 15,000 fans in a big tournament and play your best without paying the slightest attention to the crowd."

"That's all right," replied Jones, "but I knew what I was doing then and how to do it."

GRANITOID IS A KURFEES PRODUCT

YOU may have thought that skill is needed to produce the flawless beauty of a Duco finish. That is not true. Anyone can apply Duco with perfect results. The wonderful thing about Duco is the way it flows out into a smooth, even surface without brush marks or laps.

Quick drying avoids the fuss and danger of wet paint, yet Duco does not dry so quickly as to interfere with easy brushing.

Duco colors are clear and sparkling like jewels, with soft lustre. Try Duco on a chair or small table. When you learn how easy it is, and how a dash of Duco color improves any room, you will want to Duco everything.

SPEAKERSHIP IS BIG CONCERN U. S. CONGRESS

Successor to Nicholas Longworth Hard to Choose From a Big Field; Many Eligible

By HERBERT PLUMMER Washington.—(AP)—Speakership of the House—considered by many the second highest elective office—will be an absorbing subject in the finely-balanced 72nd Congress.

Before the death of Nicholas Longworth it was primarily a question of which party would organize the house. Now, to that has been added the question of what man will be chosen from a number of possible aspirants to wear the speaker's mantle.

Among the Democrats the peppery, hard-hitting Jack Garner of Texas, leader of his party in the House, stands out pre-eminently. It is generally conceded that should the Democrats organize in the forthcoming congress he is the most likely man for the post.

In the Republican ranks, however, the question of choice is more difficult. A dozen or more men are mentioned in discussions centering around Longworth's successor.

Prominent among them are Col. John Tilson of Connecticut, majority floor leader, Bertrand Snell of New York, chairman of the rules committee, is another. There are others, among them Purnell of Indiana of farm relief fame, Mapes of Michigan, and Ramseyer of Iowa, the latter two recognized experts on House rules.

Tilson and Snell, with the late Speaker Longworth, constituted an all-powerful group. It was largely because of this trio that the last House was referred to as one of the most efficient organizations in the history of Congress.

Tilson, tall, with a closely-cropped mustache and a ready smile, enjoys great personal popularity in the House. He was a lieutenant-colonel in the Spanish-American war, and commanded the second Connecticut infantry on the Mexican border in 1916. An expert parliamentarian, he is admired and respected as Republican leader.

Snell is almost an opposite type. Forceful, resourceful under fire, resolute when trying to press legislation through, he is perhaps generally considered more "on the inside" of things than Tilson. As chairman of the rules committee, his task is difficult, but he seems to mind it not at all.

Purnell, bold, young, heavy-set, was a key man in passage of legislation creating the Federal Farm Board. Agriculture is his forte. He constantly battles in behalf of the farmer. He is a likable, a good mixer and hard worker.

Mapes is a familiar figure in the House, where he is frequently called on to preside. He is versed in the House rules, makes a good presiding officer. Kindly, cordial and courteous, he work hard.

Ramseyer is another recognized parliamentarian in the House. He knows the rules of the House thoroughly. Few challenge his interpretation of them. A member of the progressive bloc, he does not carry his progressiveness to the point of being radical.

Then there is Beck of Pennsylvania. He is famed among his colleagues for his logic, his eloquence, and his ability to argue a question to a finish. He holds eight honorary degrees from universities and colleges, is an outstanding authority on constitutional law, an author of note.

Allen Treadway, of Massachusetts, big in stature, loud of voice and intense in his views on public questions, is prominent among the old guard Republicans and always a staunch supporter of administration programs.

Homer Hoch of Kansas, co-author of the Hoch-Smith act authorizing investigation of rail rates, deeply interested in agriculture, also enters the picture. His personality has won him many friends in the House.

George Scott Graham, 80-year-old chairman of the judiciary committee, achieved prominence last year when his committee held open hearings on the question of prohibition. In 1919 he headed the famous "smelling committee" which "sniffed" war expenditures.

Two Banks Close At Kinston Today

Kinston, April 21.—(AP)—Two banks closed here today and officers of the only remaining one turned to drastic steps to save it in the face of a run which a brass band, soap box orators and false fire alarms failed to halt.

The National Bank of Kinston, faced with poor collections, was ordered not to open today by the National Bank examiner. Forty-eight minutes after it opened the First National Bank, facing a heavy run, posted a notice it was closing "for the protection of depositors."

A similar run was in progress at the Farmers and Merchants Bank, which, however, was still withstanding the inroads of withdrawals at noon.

A large crowd gathered at Kinston's principal corner during the morning. Speakers, representing the Chamber of Commerce and business interests mounted vantage points and sought to allay the fears of depositors, but apparently without effect.

Officials of the First National Bank insisted its affairs were "in excellent condition" and blamed the closing on the hysteria of depositors.

Thomas W. Heath, president of the National Bank of Kinston, said depositors in his bank would lose little.

J. P. Tingle is cashier of The National Bank.

W. H. McCoy is president, W. B. Harvey vice-president and cashier, of the First National.

Figures published by the banks give their condition as of March 31

as follows: First National—Capital $125,000; surplus and profits $77,000, deposits $1,187,000.

National Bank of Kinston—Capital $120,000, surplus and profits $54,000, deposits $1,105,000. Today President Heath said deposits were $700,000, and that funds due the bank totaled about $700,000.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 21.—(AP)—Railroad shares again dragged the stock market downward today.

Trading continued in lean volume, but the carrier issues, as a group, plunged decisively through the six-year low of Dec. 17. Losses in these issues ranged from 1 to more than 6 points, while the rest of the list was pulled down about as much, with wider losses in these issues ranged from 1 to more than 6 points, while the rest of the list was pulled down about as much, with wider losses in a few specialties.

Illinois Central dropped 6 points the lowest in at least 30 years. Atlantic Coast Line lost as much, recording a price not seen since 1922. New York Central broke 4 to a new low since 1924.

Other issues off 2 or 3 included American Can, Johns Manville, American Tobacco B. Consolidated Gas, DuPont, Union Carbide, Corn Products. Among the more volatile specialties Ingersoll Rand dropped 15 and Auburn 10.

Wall street hears much discussion in connection with the shrinkage of rail earnings of plans to cut expenses, including possible efforts to reduce wage scales.

At least one rail executive has recently expressed belief in favor of lower wages, but falling against such action is so strong in other quarters that little official comment is available.

Wall street is awaiting the quarterly dividend meetings of Bethlehem and United States Steels next week. While mild optimism was expressed by officials of U. S. Steel yesterday, they made no promise as to dividend action, although one financial news agency has stated definitely that the regular payment of $1.75 may be expected. U. S. Steel's output this week is reported to have shrunk from 53 to 50 per cent of capacity.

If Gould's Casino Doesn't Get Rich, Dining Room Will

Nice, France.—(AP)—If Frank Jay Gould doesn't make money on his Casino de la Mediterranee it certainly will not be the fault of his managers.

At an "Oriental" gala night attended by 1,500 diners and 3,150 others the charges ran as follows: Entrance fee, $2; dinner $10, averaging $30 a person, including wine and cocktails; coffee for the non-diners, $1.25.

Added to this, every man was forced to buy a special flower for his buttonhole at the doorway at a cost of 25 cents.

Alcoholic drinks were uniformly priced at $1.25 each throughout the evening.

Though the cost of operating Gould's casino is estimated as $10,000 a day, it doesn't need an expert to figure that he made money that evening.

His famous baccarat room, which seats 400, was packed. Three chamin-de-fer tables with minimum bets of $40 were working overtime.

There was scarcely an opening stake less than $500. Bets of $2,000 were not at all rare.
