SEES DANGER IN INCREASED PRODUCTION

Stone Says Emergency Stabilization Can't Cope With Over-production

Atlantic City, N. J., May 1.—(AP)—James C. Stone, chairman of the Federal Farm Board, told the United States Chamber of Commerce today that emergency stabilization activities of the board cannot cope successfully with continuous overproduction and can be resorted to only as temporary remedies.

The board, Stone asserted, believes its stabilization operations in cotton and wheat "have been fully justified by the serious emergency that faced agriculture" as a result of the stock market crash in 1929. Losses that may be sustained by the revolving fund, he said, "will be inconsequential compared to the benefits."

He told more than 2,500 delegates to the 19th annual meeting of the chamber that he "gradually growing" antagonism between farmers and industry was largely due "to lack of understanding." The Farm Board, he said, was attempting to lessen this breach.

Farmers he declared were the most potential buyers of industrial products and "we believe the time has come when the rest of the country cannot hope for prosperity unless they share it."

"In accordance with law," Stone said, "stabilization operations both direct and indirect were undertaken in two commodities, cotton and wheat, as a result of the stock market crash, in the fall of 1929. They were intended to help protect the farmers' market for their products from extremely serious consequences that threatened as a result of the world wide business depression."

"In the past two crop years our farmers have received direct benefits from these stabilization operations and in addition the country as a whole, particularly banks and business men of the agriculture sections, received very great indirect benefits. The board believes that what was done has been fully justified by the serious emergency that faced agriculture. Any losses that may be sustained by the revolving fund from these operations will be inconsequential compared to the benefits to our people."

Swedish Flier Begins Search for Scientist

Bergen, Norway, May 1.—(AP)—Captain Albin Ahrenberg, Swedish civilian pilot, took off from here in a heavily loaded amphibian plane at 6 a. m. for Thorshavn, Faroe Islands, on the first leg of a flight to Greenland where he will look for the missing British scientist, Augustine Courtland.

Captain Ahrenberg's plane is equipped with pontoons and replaceable skis by which it may alight on the snow in the desolate Greenland regions where Courtland is lost.

Courtland, a member of the British Arctic air route expedition, volunteered to remain on the ice cap all winter to obtain meteorological data. Since then relief expeditions which were sent to pick him up could not locate his camp.

May Day Passes Quietly In All Parts Of World

Many parts of the world took police precautions today to see that May Day—often called "International Labor Day"—passed without violence or disorder. Young Communists were blamed for the shooting in Berlin of a policeman who sought to restrain their May Day activities. The officer was wounded so severely he may die.

Police and Communists came together in Adelaide and Brisbane, Australia, six arrests were made in Brisbane. At Sydney, several persons participated in a May Day parade which was conducted in an orderly manner without disturbance.

Union Square, New York, and the Boston Commons—public places where group gatherings are frequent—divided their time during the day between various factions. In Union Square time was allotted to former service men, Socialists and Communists. In Boston the Commons was the gathering place of patriots, Communists and school children.

EHRINGHAUS SPEAKS HERE

Elizabeth City Man Speaker At Annual Banquet of Eastern Chamber Commerce

Graphically portraying the economic revolution which has been taking place in this section of the state the last ten years, J. C. B. Ehringhaus, of Elizabeth City, delivered the principal address at the annual banquet of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce at the Woman's club here last night.

Declaring that the trend of population had been toward the west the last several years, the speaker urged the people of Eastern Carolina to arouse themselves from the lethargic condition of the past and to take advantage of the natural resources and possibilities which the locality offered.

The banquet was attended by approximately three hundred men and women from different parts of the state, and senior queens of the Eastern Carolina Exposition, an attraction sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, were presented by Secretary Newell G. Bartlett. The young women, nearly a score of them, were vigorously applauded.

Mrs. J. H. Waldrop sang two solo numbers, "Kiss Me Again," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," and at the conclusion of the program she was given a rousing ovation. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ray Tyson.

Mayor J. C. Lanier extended a cordial welcome to the visitors and the response was made by C. S. Alexander, of Scotland Neck, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce. President G. V. Smith presided.

Bill Lucas of Wilson introduced the speaker of the evening, declaring him to be a lawyer of distinction, a statesman and an orator of exceptional merit. He predicted that the people of North Carolina would send the Elizabeth City man to the governor's mansion in the next election, and the statement was received with a round of applause.

Paying tribute to the work which the chamber of commerce is playing in the life of the state, Mr. Ehringhaus then told of the economic changes which had occurred in this section since the great World war. The west, he pointed out, has been developing without interruption while this part of the state has not even been able to hold its own in the march of progress.

He declared the east is behind from the standpoint of the average of the state per capita wealth and in population. There has been a distinct slowing down of industry, shrinkage of farm values and the section has been forced to carry more than its tax burden.

Other changes have also been noted, he asserted, and referred to the breakdown of social restraints and conventions, law law enforcement, as a general recast of moral reserve.

He declared the picture was of a most depressing character and one that should challenge the attention of the thinking men and women of this one of the oldest, and most (Continued on page four)

CHILD CLAWED BY TAME LION

Animal Declared Docile As Kitten Following Examination At Cincinnati

Cincinnati, May 1.—(AP)—The lion which clawed and attacked Vivian Leischer, 6, at a public school session yesterday, was as docile as a pet kitten today when examined for rabies at city hall here by members of the board of health.

Dr. Carl C. Mitchell, of the health board, said the animal was in excellent physical condition and no traces of rabies had been found.

Physicians said results of the examination strengthened belief the girl would recover from the scalp and back wounds inflicted when the lion lashed at the child with its claws.

Dr. Mitchell ordered the animal be held at Dayton, Ohio, where it has been housed by its owner, for eleven days at the end of the eleven days the beast was ordered returned here for another examination by the board of health.

Cincinnati, O., May 1.—(AP)—William Harwood, animal trainer and lecturer, was asked to appear before superintendent of schools, E. D. Roberts today to explain his version of a lion's attack upon Vivian Leischer, six-year-old school girl yesterday.

Harwood also was told to bring the animal which he owned, with him for examination as to rabies. The little girl, with more than a score of stitches in her scalp and scratches on her back, was reported recovering. Her condition was not regarded critical.

The attack occurred in a hall at the Whittier school, where the lioness and other animals were exhibited to illustrate a lecture.

The little lioness was last in line as a teacher led her class past the animals when the lioness, leashed to plumbing fixtures, leaped at her.

A woman trainer soothed the animal and invited the little girl to come close. As she did, the lioness leaped again, this time seizing the child's head in her forepaws.

William Hunter, janitor, rescued the child while the trainer pulled the lioness away. The girl was rushed to a hospital and a tetanus injection was made.

Harwood, at a Dayton hotel last night, said the lioness did not attack the girl and only wanted to play with her. He also had issued orders that no children were to pass through the hallway where the lioness was tied while the other animals were in the auditorium, he asserted, but the child ran through the hallway to get to the auditorium.

REVENUE BILL SENT TO THE SENATE FOR ITS FINAL SKIRMISH

SHOUSE FLAYS SIMEON FESS

Accuses Republican Chairman of Administering Below-the-Belt Blow

Frankfort, Ky., May 1.—(AP)—Saying he did not expect "below-the-belt blows" as are involved in deliberate falsification, J. J. Shouse, Democratic National Executive Committee chairman, told the Kentucky Democratic Woman's Club he "looked for a correction if it not an apology," from Simeon D. Fess, Republican National chairman, but "none was forthcoming."

Shouse said Fess had used "a palpable falsehood" in a statement charging Shouse with saying in a San Francisco speech the Republican National Committee had purchased and distributed 10,000,000 copies of a magazine article by Robert Cruise McManus attacking John J. Raskob, Democratic National chairman.

"The political bureau which functions under him," Shouse said "followed his initial misstatement with a broadside page headed 'Shouse Trapped in Lie On Radio.' In this clip-sheet sent to minor papers through the country, but not to the metropolitan journals, which had published the statement of the facts, every untruth, distortion and misrepresentation published by Dr. Fess was reiterated and emphasized with absolutely no mention of the correction of the misstatements."

Shouse said Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican National Committee, had directed a "scurrilous and dishonest" campaign against Senator Norris in Nebraska. "The Republican party," he said, "certainly has fallen into the hands of those who are very far from the code of gentlemen."

Shifting his attack to President Hoover, Shouse said the chief executive "is as utterly misplaced in the White House as any man could be," and said the public had "ceased to give credence to statements issued from the White House."

He said the President could not deal with men on a basis of equality "although he does well where he has the authority of a czar."

GIRLS AGAIN START RIOT

Former Inmates of Samarand Engage in New Disorders in Moore County Jail

Carthage, May 1.—(AP)—A new outbreak by six girls held on charges of burning two dormitories at Samarand, state institution for delinquent women, today had jail officials wondering what the prisoners would attempt next.

The girls yesterday kicked out the window panes, set fire to the bunks and precipitated a miniature riot in Moore county's fire-proof jail where they had been brought recently after a similar outbreak in the Rebecon county jail.

The attacked with knives officers who came to quiet them, and Clint McCaskill, 25, a barber, who aided the authorities, was stabbed in the arm in the melee. A fire hose was brought into play to quell the screaming and fighting girls and extinguish the fire.

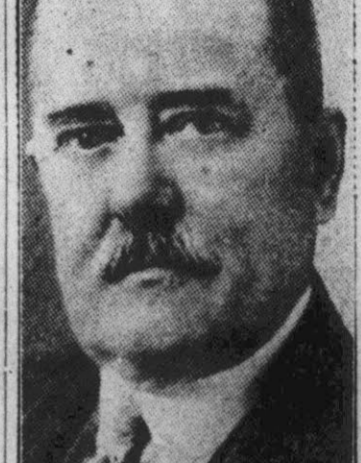

The six held here and ten other former Samarand inmates will go on trial in Moore county court May 18 on charges of arson in connection with the destruction of the Samarand buildings.

Senior queens had their fling at the Eastern Carolina exposition last night, and the appearance was described as the most complete exhibition of feminine beauty ever before seen in this section of the state. The young women, twenty in number, were presented by Ralph Deal, platform manager, who proud as a peacock, strutted across the platform twenty consecutive times with a queen on his arm, and then concluded the exhibition by marching along the runway at the head of the procession.

The young women were given a rousing reception by the several hundred people who had gathered to cast their votes on behalf of their favorites. The count was in progress this morning and the result of the contest was to be made public during the afternoon.

The outcome of the junior queen contest was announced from the platform of the exposition building yesterday afternoon. Little Miss Jane Rowlett was accorded first place, Miss Alice Blow, second, and Miss Betty Fleischmann, third.

The out-of-town winners were Miss Hennie Wallace, of Winston, Miss Gwendolyn Watts, Williamson, and Miss Myrtle Ward, Tarboro.

Following presentation of queens last night a cotton style show, exhibiting the various types of dresses to be produced from the fleece staple, was presented under the direction of Miss Virginia King, of this city.

The models were composed almost exclusively of Greenville girls. In making the introduction, Secretary Bartlett, described the young women as the most beautiful on earth. The models paraded across the stage and then down the long runway, affording everybody and opportunity to see how beautiful and striking are the creations produced from one of the premier productions of the southland.

Those taking part in the models were: Misses Mary Lou White, Margaret Clay, Eleanor Barr, Frances McGowan, Catherine Tyson, Elizabeth Ferguson, Frances Morton, Florence Taft, Mattie Moyer Gaylord, Nina Fleming, Annie Lee Hooker, Ruth Horne, Gretchen Willard, Margaret Bostic, Agnes Gaskins.

The vaudeville program, which was a repetition of the previous night, was furnished by Miss Margaret Freeman, assisted by Bobby Heath, Miss Pen Raymond, dancer, Miss Frances McColl, dancer, Charles McColl dancer and Orwell and Glasser in a combination act. It was stated that there would be a complete change of program tonight.

The highlight of the program tonight will be the coronation of the queens, both senior and junior, and this will be followed by the usual dance.

The senior queens presented last night were: Pitt county, Miss Ellen McLawhorn, Ayden; Miss Margaret Garretton, Bethel; Miss Susan Barrett, Farmville; Miss Carrie Smith, Fountain; Miss Grace Gaston, Miss Blanche Station.

House Passes Measure on Third Reading by Vote of 65 to 37; Believe Senate Will Act Favorably by Next Tuesday or Wednesday; House Passes Peel Bill to Defer Sales of Land for Taxes; Senate Acts to Regulate Lobbyists

Raleigh, May 1.—(AP)—The House today passed the conference report on the biennial revenue bill 65 to 37 and sent it to the Senate, where its passage by Tuesday or Wednesday is conceded by opponents.

Both Houses of the Assembly waded into regular work and agreed to postpone sales of land for tax until the first Monday in November.

Under the Peel bill, which the House amended to make the date the first Monday in October, county commissioners are given the power to postpone the sales or hold them the first Monday in June.

The Senate passed bills to regulate lobbyists and to make the minimum license fee for automobiles $12.50.

Under the lobby act all lobbyists will be required to register with the Secretary of State and pay a fee of $5. It was sent to the House.

Upon ratification the measure setting the minimum fee for automobile licenses will become law, it having passed the House yesterday.

Conferees on the biennial appropriations bill met this morning and talked "informally," several said after the meeting, with another session scheduled for this afternoon.

The revenue bill was passed on third reading in the same form it was reported by the conferees including a selected commodities or "luxury" tax.

Again today the House refused to allow the report to be amended, refusing to suspend its rules just as it did yesterday.

Representative Moss of Nash, asking the House to "pass a decent bill even if we have to stay here two days longer," proposed that the rules be suspended and he be allowed to send up an amendment to eliminate the documentary tax in the selected commodities sales tax in the report.

He was joined in his plea by his colleague, Representative Woodard of Nash, but the House voted 60 to 39 against suspension of the rules.

Representative Young of Durham read a prepared speech to the House in which he assailed the "luxury" tax and summed up all arguments which have been advanced against it.

He charged that the sales tax would "enact its toll from the textile workers" and would result in "taking taxes off the land of the wealthy individuals and corporations able to pay them."

Passage of the conference report in the Senate has been conceded by its foes, Senators Grier, who led the fight in the upper house for an increased equalization fund instead of state support of the six months school without an ad valorem tax.

The Senate has already adopted the conference report, doing so by a 26 to 22 vote. The measure, however, could not be placed on its three reading until passed in the House.

Under the revised Hindsdale selected commodities tax a levy of 20 per cent is placed on cigarettes, smoking tobacco, soft drinks, package nuts and chewing gum; a levy of 10 per cent is placed on admissions to all forms of amusements and upon each pack of playing cards, and other articles taxed include new automobiles, malt extract, package candy, chewing tobacco and snuff, gun shells, bonds, notes, deeds, mortgages and transfers of capital stock.

The complete revenue bill is estimated by sponsors of the "luxury" tax to raise $29,000,000 annually but A. J. Maxwell, commissioner of revenue, estimates it will get only about $25,000,000 each year.

ROBBER KILLS CHICAGO COP

Law Moves Swiftly to Bring Frank Jordan, Confessed Slayer, to Trial

Chicago, May 1.—(AP)—The law moved swiftly today to bring Frank Jordan, a confessed bank robber, to trial for the slaying last night of policeman Anthony Ruffy.

Mayor Anton Cermak took a hand in the case last night, soon after Ruffy had been shot down at Michigan Boulevard and Randolph street, asserting that he was interested "in seeing that Chicago moves out justice as swiftly as any city in the world."

State Attorney John A. Swanson, telephoning from Washington, ordered his staff today to proceed immediately with the case and indicated that he would return at once to take personal charge.

As a result, the case was rushed through the usually slow process of law.

Under questioning by Mayor Cermak himself Jordan confessed to killing Ruffy, and shooting two other officers, one seriously. He also was quoted as telling of several bank robberies. His confession was obtained only a few hours after the shooting and spectacular chase in the downtown section.

WORLD'S FASTEST ENGINE QUILTS RAILS FOR MUSEUM

York, England.—(AP)—The Great Western railway's famous locomotive "City of Truro," described as the fastest engine in the world, has been retired to the railway museum here.

The City of Truro once made 102.3 miles an hour while speeding to Plymouth in competition for the American mails in 1904. But the directors thought the public would be frightened at mere mention of such a speed and the record was not made known until 1922.

In 27 years the engine traveled more than 1,000,000 miles.

NEGRO HOUSE WRECKED BY FIRE LAST NIGHT

A Single-story house occupied by Gladys Smith, colored, was destroyed by fire last night about 10 o'clock. Firemen established the loss at approximately $500 which was partly covered by insurance. The origin of the blaze could not be determined. The building, located on Roosevelt avenue, was doomed by the time the firemen arrived.

Quakes Continue to Take Toll of Life in Russia

Moscow, May 1.—(AP)—Continuing earthquakes in the Sanzetur district of the Soviet republic of Azerbaijan, Transcaucasia, were believed today to have added to the loss of life and property damage already sustained by the area in tremors of the past two days.

Unofficial estimates of the dead there and in parts of Armenia reached 500 with many more injured. Residents have deserted the stricken villages and are living in the open, and suffering greatly from the severe weather.

So many victims are still buried under the ruins of their homes that it is impossible to make an accurate estimate of the cost in lives.

There is no word either from many of the outlying villages. Forty-four little settlements in the neighborhood of Ordubet were reported destroyed.

The government is sending in carloads of food, provisions and medicine and temporary barracks are being thrown up for the homeless.

MOTHER'S WORLD

Hair of blue and hair of gold. Checks all brown with summer tan. Lips that much of laughter hold. That is mother's little man.

Shining curls like chestnut brown. Long-lashed eyes demure and staid. Sweetest face in all the town. That is mother's little maid.

Dainty rooms with snow white beds. Where like flowers with petals curled. Rest in peace two dreaming heads. That is mother's little world!

HOUR OF CHAMBER MUSIC AT COLLEGE TUESDAY

The East Carolina Teachers College Ensemble will give an hour of Chamber Music in the Austin Auditorium of the college on next Tuesday evening, May 5, at the twilight hour, beginning at 6:30. There will be no admission fee. All music lovers especially are invited to be present.

Interpretative suggestions will be given before each group of compositions as a guide to those who may be interested in listening and following the music for the sake of getting a better understanding of it, thus those who are not musicians can appreciate and enjoy the program. Chamber Music is an intimate form of music specially fitted for performance in a room or hall of medium size. This is a fine opportunity for those interested in musical appreciation.

This is the first public recital ever presented by the college ensemble. In the ensemble there are five violins, one flute, one clarinet and a piano.

BOY HERO MEETS THE PRESIDENT

Bryan Untiedt, 13-year-old school boy from Colorado, and President Hoover shown together on the White House lawn. The youngster's heroism in the recent Colorado blizzard caused the President to invite him to be a guest at the White House.

who is nine years old. Helen looked at King Carol, who was standing near her in the sick room and answered:

"What is life to me? I have only one child. I shall never have another. My place is at his side!"

Carol, breaking a near silence of months in which he is said to have spoken to her only from over his shoulder, reiterated the physician's warning, and assured her that Michael had trustworthy nurses and attendants. But Helen only shook her head.

It is the second time this year that Michael has been ill, he having suffered from a chill and influenza in January. Some danger was felt by the royal family last year at his tendency to obesity. Recently King Carol instructed attendants to teach him everything about automobile mechanics.

Invited by the President to spend a day and night at the White House, the youth's visit already has been extended to two days and nights with no indications as to when he will be allowed to leave.

With their knowledge of what a 13-year-old boy would like to see in the nation's capital, added to the facilities the White House offers in the way of automobiles and drivers, the President and Mrs. Hoover have made the boy's stay a rapid succession of one delight after another.

All the entertaining has not been done by the chief executive and the first lady. Bryan, a skilled player of the harmonica, was tickled to receive a harmonica and a package containing 40 of the instruments.

Every time he came back to the White House from a sight-seeing trip he is besieged by Peggy Ann and Herbert III. A White House request is a White House command, so several times a day there is a harmonica concert of old-fashioned tunes. President and Mrs. Hoover attend all of these they can.

Iowa City—Lloyd Carroll and William Hauber have left for South America canoeing. They expect to paddle the Iowa river, the Mississippi, the Gulf of Mexico and then some in six months or so.

When Yoshiwara obtained a pilot's certificate in 1927, his instructor predicted he would become the greatest aviator in Japan, saying he possessed aviator brain, courage and enthusiasm.

Yoshiwara's widowed mother sold her land and presented him $5,000 so he might study aviation in Germany. Last summer he flew a light plane from Berlin to Tokyo through Siberia in a little more than eleven days.

In the immense crowds which greeted him on arrival in Tokyo was his aged mother, ceremonially attired in a black kimono.

Two injections of serum administered by the royal physicians were believed to have averted serious danger of death, although it was said that anxiety must continue. The crown prince was running a high temperature.

The physicians warned Queen Helen, mother of Michael, that she must not endanger her own life or run risks of contagion by too constant attendance upon the patient.

They departed at a late hour, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Tyson a delightful host and hostess.

Gov. Roosevelt Scores Powers At Capital City

New York, May 1.—(AP)—A speech by Governor Roosevelt criticizing "the conservative and reactionary party now in power in Washington," was published today.

The governor spoke last night at a dinner of the Young Men's Democratic Club of New York but omitted from his remarks references to Washington contained in the speech given to newspapers.

Asked if the omission was intentional, the governor said he did not realize there had been omissions. And that he stood behind the speech as it was distributed for publication.

"We have reorganized and modernized the whole machinery of our state government," read the prepared speech. "In many other places, even in Washington, the clogged and creaking, cumbersome wheels of government machinery are geared to the pace of fifty years ago. Timorous councils have permitted no more roundabout patching; a new rivet here, an extra bolt there, interminable struts and props and additional parts without co-relation to each other, which have been added until the whole structure hesitates at every attempt to speed up in keeping with modern life."

"And as in this state, so it is in the nation—from the conservative and reactionary party now in power in Washington, from the timid councils of the aged, from the selfish grasping power of the powerful few who control action from behind the scenes, the people all over these United States are looking to our party to lead them into the broad road that leads to the real democracy of which our forefathers dreamed."

Young Man Killed After Being Robbed

Jackson, Mich., May 1.—(AP)—David Foy, Jr., 26 son of a prominent Jackson family, was the victim of a cold blooded murder shortly before midnight last night.

After he and two companions were robbed of $18 an unidentified man compelled Foy to drive him away in his machine. As they neared Michigan Center, a distance of six miles, the car is thought to have run out of gas and in an effort to escape pursuit the bandit sent a bullet through Foy's heart. He was instantly killed.

Foy, William Gomm, and Miss Felice Walaki were seated in their machine which was parked in front of the girl's home when they were accosted. The latter two were ordered out before the fatal ride. City, county and state police have joined in an organized search of the countryside for the slayer who was seen to jump from the machine and dash into adjoining fields.

Refused $10,000 for Chair
Edenton, N. C.—Unanimity Lodge of Masons has refused an offer to $10,000 for a chair used by George Washington in his capacity as Master of the lodge at Alexandria, Va. The elaborate carved mahogany chair is in a glass case in Masonic hall in the county court house. Alexandria lodge gave the chair to Edenton lodge in 1778 for safekeeping.

Invited by the President to spend a day and night at the White House, the youth's visit already has been extended to two days and nights with no indications as to when he will be allowed to leave.

With their knowledge of what a 13-year-old boy would like to see in the nation's capital, added to the facilities the White House offers in the way of automobiles and drivers, the President and Mrs. Hoover have made the boy's stay a rapid succession of one delight after another.

All the entertaining has not been done by the chief executive and the first lady. Bryan, a skilled player of the harmonica, was tickled to receive a harmonica and a package containing 40 of the instruments.

Every time he came back to the White House from a sight-seeing trip he is besieged by Peggy Ann and Herbert III. A White House request is a White House command, so several times a day there is a harmonica concert of old-fashioned tunes. President and Mrs. Hoover attend all of these they can.

When Yoshiwara obtained a pilot's certificate in 1927, his instructor predicted he would become the greatest aviator in Japan, saying he possessed aviator brain, courage and enthusiasm.

Yoshiwara's widowed mother sold her land and presented him $5,000 so he might study aviation in Germany. Last summer he flew a light plane from Berlin to Tokyo through Siberia in a little more than eleven days.

In the immense crowds which greeted him on arrival in Tokyo was his aged mother, ceremonially attired in a black kimono.

Two injections of serum administered by the royal physicians were believed to have averted serious danger of death, although it was said that anxiety must continue. The crown prince was running a high temperature.

The physicians warned Queen Helen, mother of Michael, that she must not endanger her own life or run risks of contagion by too constant attendance upon the patient.

They departed at a late hour, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Tyson a delightful host and hostess.

ABOUT TOWN

Members of the demonstration clubs or Pitt county received some mighty fine suggestions regarding the canning of farm products at a meeting here this week, and they are expected to serve a mighty good purpose when canning season actually begins.

Prominent leaders of the home demonstration clubs of the state spoke on the value of this industry, and told of what can be accomplished if the women go about the work in the proper manner.

The meeting was held in advance of the canning season by reason of the fact that club members should have the suggestions at their command when they begin work.

Doing much for the improvement of doing much for the improvement of the home and farm, and such meetings as that held here is going to play a big part in this section's return to normalcy.

Feminine beauty never fails to attract attention of people in all walks of life.

This fact was amply borne out here this week when junior and senior queens of the Eastern Carolina exposition were presented in the contest for queens of the exposition.

Hundreds of people were present each evening the beauties were paraded across the exposition ways, and they proved conclusively that the crop of feminine pulchritude is just as great as it has ever been before in spite of the shortage of other crops.

The various towns represented in the counties are to be congratulated upon the splendid selections. They have proven to the county that they are able to produce pretty girls even under the most depressing circumstances.

It required a long time to stop it, but it is believed that the false fire alarm epidemic which has troubled Greenville people over a period of several months has been definitely broken.

Convicted on a charge of sending in a false alarm about a week ago, a young negro was sentenced to six months on the county roads in County court this week.

During his stay at the convict camp he will have ample time in which to consider how inadvisable it is to send in an alarm when there is no occasion for it.

His arrest and conviction unquestionably should have a salutary effect in this connection and bring other false alarmists face to face with the fact that the city was not talking idly when it offered $50 for arrest and conviction of anybody sending an alarm of this kind.

The officers will continue to maintain a keen vigil on the alarm boxes throughout the city, and those who take the risk this negro did will find themselves serving similar terms on the roads.

False alarms not only prove costly to the city, but they jeopardize human life. It has not been many years since one of our firemen was killed while racing to the scene of a fire. The truck overturned and the man was killed. Accidents of this kind may happen at any time, and the firemen should not be caused to respond to alarms only in case of necessity.

Billy Brown, coach of the Greenville high school baseball team, is one of the happiest young men in town since his team has been able to break the losing streak and capture a game.

Out of five or six games played this season, the team noted out a victory over one of the strongest organizations of the conference here the first of the week.

The victory produced considerable optimism throughout the camp and the boys, according to the coach, feel more like tackling the remainder of the schedule.

In fact, they are so definitely heartened they believe they will be able to capture the majority of the remainder of the games this season.

Brown attributes the bad start to new material, many of the youths having rendered their first service this season.

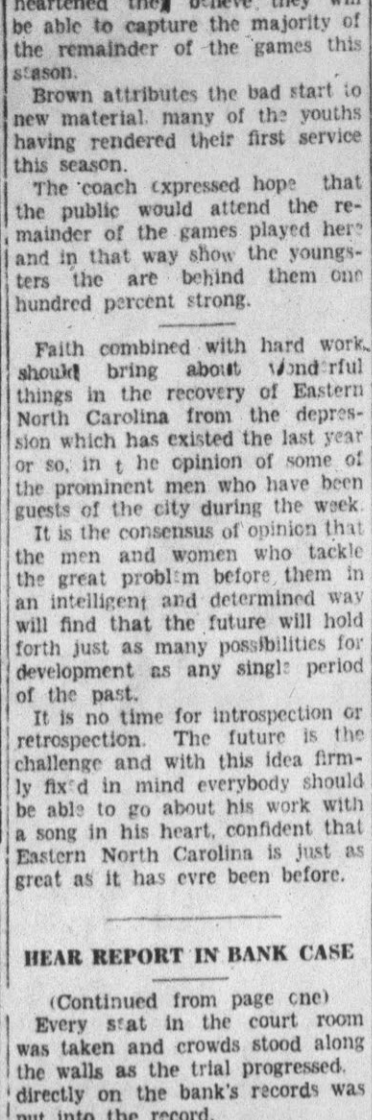

The coach expressed hope that the public would attend the remainder of the games played here and in that way show the youngsters the art behind them one hundred percent strong.

Faith combined with hard work should bring about wonderful things in the recovery of Eastern North Carolina from the depression which has existed the last year or so, in the opinion of some of the prominent men who have been guests of the city during the week.

It is the consensus of opinion that the men and women who tackle the great problem before them in an intelligent and determined way will find that the future will hold forth just as many possibilities for development as any single period of the past.

It is no time for introspection or retrospection. The future is the challenge and with this idea firmly fixed in mind everybody should be able to go about his work with a song in his heart, confident that Eastern North Carolina is just as great as it has ever been before.

As the first note for $225,000, alleged to have been valueless but reported as an asset, was reached by the state in presenting the documentary evidence, the defense launched a series of objections to questioning regarding collateral.

The objections continued as the state attempted to show worthless collateral was behind approximately $2,000,000 in loans representing to the Corporation Commission as good.

After entry of the blanket exceptions, the session settled down to a recitation by Darden of notes and lines of credit which the examiner had classed as slow or partially worthless over a period of years.

It is on these notes, classed by the bank as assets in September, 1930, that the state is basing its case.

richly endowed sections of the country.

Offering suggestions for improvement, he advised more activities of Chambers of Commerce in awakening the people to the potentialities of their communities. He stated that cities grew from the inside out and not from the outside in, and discouraging the attempt to give so much time to attracting outside capital. He said this form of improvement meant little to a town and investments were made in the communities where the people have set the pace themselves in the creation of their own industries.

The most pressing need of the times is the education of the people to what they have in their own sections. He suggested closer contact with government agencies and the accumulation of accurate data regarding community development.

Preaching the doctrine of "live-at-home" he pointed out the necessity for a change of philosophy among the farmers. Instead of farming to make money at the outset, they should farm to live, and then to make money. He urged a constructive optimism that will enable the people to sweep on to greater and more glorious achievement.

Body of Missing Man Found in the Cape Fear River

Fayetteville, May 1.—(AP)—The body of Gus Hall, 40, Greensboro, civilian lineman with the signal corps at Fort Bragg, was found today in the Cape Fear river.

Hall had been missing since last Saturday and police at the request of relatives had instituted a search for him.

Two friends who were in Fayetteville with Hall Saturday night said they left him on the street for a moment to get some fish for a fry and as they returned from the store saw him getting into an automobile which drove off immediately. No one has been found who saw him after that time.

Henry Hall, a brother, is U. S. weather observer here. Another brother, Bob Hall, is a well-known sports promoter.

Hall's body was found in the water beneath the Cape Fear river bridge at the edge of the Fayetteville corporate limits. From the condition of the body, physicians believed it had been in the water several days.

The only mark on the body was a large cut over one eye. Arrangements were made for Dr. R. A. Allgood to perform an autopsy later today to determine whether there is water in the lungs.

The physician said the absence of water would indicate Hall was slain and the body thrown into the river. Its presence, however, he said, would be evidence Hall drowned, possibly after falling from the bridge.

His companions Saturday night said Hall had been drinking, but was not drunk.

public there. Russia particularly made much of the day, the Soviet regarding May Day as one of its principal holidays.

There were numerous spasmodic demonstrations in Paris, and many arrests were made. The Communist paper Humanite was raided and today's edition confiscated.

Seventy persons were arrested in Sofia, Bulgaria following clashes between Communists and police. Demonstrations were forbidden in Portugal, and repressive measures were in effect in Belgium, Poland and the Balkans.

Many American cities took pains to have sufficient police available to thwart any demonstration that might get out of hand. In Oklahoma 5,000 National Guardsmen were called to meet any emergency, although Gov. Murray said he anticipated none.

Extra guards were ordered out at the Missouri State capitol and executive mansion as a precaution against Communist agitators.

Urbana, Ill., May 1.—(AP)—A panoply of academic pomp marked the installation today of Harry Woodburn Chase as sixth president of the University of Illinois, third largest in America.

Dr. Chase took office last year after the resignation of Dr. David Kinley who became president emeritus. He came from the University of North Carolina where he had served as president since 1919. He is 48 years old, and a student of philosophy an psychology.

Six thousand guests lined the route along which representatives of 150 universities and the entire faculty of Illinois state university marched to the gymnasium, scene of Dr. Chase's induction.

Although classes were dismissed for the day, few of the 10,000 students attended the ceremonies of their own new president as the gymnasium seats only 6,000 persons, most of them were reserved for guests.

Gowned in academic black but with capes and tasseled caps of many colors, professors and officials of many colleges paraded to the music of the university's regimental band of 300 pieces. The university's concert band of 125 pieces played for the ceremonies inside the gymnasium.

Harvard, one of the oldest of American universities, was represented as well as the universities of Mexico, founded in 1551.

GAMECOCKS BLAZE WAY IN PIEDMONT

By PAUL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer
Charlotte, May 1.—(AP)—"Stop that, Jimmy Teague and his Henderson Gamecocks," was the cry that went up today in the all-North Carolina Piedmont class B baseball league.

And the task fell to the Durham Bulls, the outfit that took a post season series from the Gamecocks last year, after Teague's crew had finished at the top of the column in the regular campaign.

The Gamecocks moved over to Durham today for a two-day round, fresh from a double triumph over Greensboro at Henderson the first two days of the new season. They bounced the Patriots for an eight to seven victory yesterday for their second conquest.

Aside from the Gamecocks and Patriots, things were 50-50 all around at the end of the second day. All the other lines that lost the opening day came back yesterday with victories.

Asheville, for instance, one of the new-comers from the Sally, took a 4 to 3 decision from the Winston-Salem Twins yesterday although 12 innings were required to turn the trick.

Charlotte, the other gift from the Sally, found the big bates of Dan'l Boone and his outfit too much and lost, 7 to 6, to the High Pointers. Durham evened the count with Raleigh, and how, burying the Caps under an 8 to 1 count.

The roar of big guns on both sides accompanied the second victory of the Doughty Gamecocks over Greensboro. A great eighth inning rally that was good for seven tallies saved up things for Teague and Company. Maus, Patriot first sacker, and Dioster, Gamecock bambino, pounded out homers in the match.

Barrett, of Charlotte, and Parrish, High Point, also hit over the fence. These, with the two in the Greensboro-Henderson game, and one Dan Boone got in the curtain-raiser, brought the total for the season to five.

Devils and Pack Drop Game Each

Charlotte, May 1.—(AP)—The hard-playing Duke Blue Devil nine and the N. C. State Wolfpack were in the same boat today—both nursing defeats on northern baseball invasions.

The Devils have turned back Princeton and other worthy foes this season, but they met their match yesterday in Fordham at New York. Hornida Aube, Fordham twirler, held them to four weak bingles while his team walked away with a 3 to 2 victory.

State has not been doing so well on its out-of-the-state jaunt, and they took it on the nose again yesterday, losing to Washington and Lee, 5 to 2, at Lexington.

New York University furnishes opposition today for the Dukemen, while the Wolfpack turned home-

The Davidson Wildcats also had a tough customer yesterday in Clemson. The Tigers playing on their home field pasted a 14 to 1 licking on the North Carolina Presbyterians.

The Wake Forest Deacons hit a dizzy pace trouncing Lehigh-Rhine, 12 to 1, at Wake forest.

GIANTS MOUNT SOME HIGHER IN NATIONAL

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Of the two principal "noble experiments" conducted by the big league foremen this year, one gives ever promise of being a howling success. The other fast is proving a keen disappointment to its sponsor.

John McGraw appears to have made a wise move in shifting Freddie Lindstrom from third base to the outfield and posting the rookie Johnny Vrges at the warm corner. At least, the Giants were in third place in the National league today, the result of their third straight victory. Both Lindstrom and Vrges are clicking in their new positions.

Bill Killefer, on the other hand, has had no such luck with the "pony" infield he installed this spring on his St. Louis Browns. For a week the Browns went great, winning three of their first four, but since then they haven't done anything except lose seven straight ball games.

Today's sun found them resting at the bottom of the American league standing, having ousted even the Boston Red Sox. It may be pointed out, however, that the Sox have not played for five days, and thus had no fair opportunity to defend themselves.

The Chicago White Sox handed the Browns their latest jolt yesterday, 10 to 9, in 11 innings. The victory, Chicago's third straight, pushed the Sox into a tie with Detroit for fourth and fifth places. Harold McKain was credited with his third win of the year. Nine errors marred the conflict.

So relieved were the Yankees to get out of Washington after dropping three to the Senators, that they drove Rube Walberg from the mound and beat the Athletics, 7 to 2, in their opener at Philadelphia. Detroit hepped on Willis Hudlin for four runs in the first inning and got four more off Miller in the sixth to halt Cleveland's winning streak, 9 to 4.

Fred Fitzsimmons was almost the whole show as the Giants downed the Boston Braves, 2 to 1, at the Polo Grounds. The veteran right-hander held Boston to two singles, scored one Giant run and drove in the other. It was the first defeat of the year for Tom Zachary.

They finally did one too many southpaws to the Brooklyn Robins. After having lost nine games to the 14ties, the men of Robinson jumped Junbo Elliott for four runs in the early innings, drove him from the hill and defeated the Phillies, 6 to 1. Frederick hit a homer with two on in the third.

Pittsburgh extended Cincinnati's latest losing streak to four straight. The score was 9 to 3. The Pirates got all of their nine hits off Epps Rixey in the six innings he worked. Lloyd Waner heading the assault with a home run inside the park. Mickey Koth, Cincinnati's rookie first baseman, received a broken right arm when Thevenor ran into him in the fourth inning. Rain prevented the start of the crucial series between the National league leaders, Chicago and St. Louis, in the latter city.

Yesterday's Stars

Fred Fitzsimmons, Giants—Hit 10 Braves to two hits and scored one run for 2 to 1 victory.
Pie Traynor, Pirates—Made four singles in four times at bat, driving in three runs, to beat Cincinnati 8-3.
Bill Cissell, White Sox—Drove in winning run in eleventh inning for 10 to 9 victory over Browns.
Henry Johnson, Yankees—Stopped Athletics with six hits and seven strikeouts to win 7 to 2.
Johnny Frederick, Robins—Hit home run with two on base to help beat Phillies 6-1.
Lew Fonseca, Indians—Had perfect day at bat against Tigers with two doubles and a single in three times up.

SPORTS SLANTS

Cornell has picked no soft spots for its athletes on the annual Spring Day program of festivities that mark the high spot of sports excitement on and above Cayuga's famous waters.

The baseball team will play Yale on this date, May 23, while Jack Mackley's track and field squad takes on Keene Fitzpatrick's Princeton boys. As a climax, the champion Big Red crews will row Harvard, Massachusetts Tech and Syracuse.

This quadrangular regatta is the biggest naval affair on Lake Cayuga since the intercollegiate were rowed there in 1920. It takes on special interest because it brings together the crews that finished 1-2-3 in the varsity class at Poughkeepsie last June—Cornell, Syracuse and M. I. T.

Cornell rows Yale and Princeton on the Housatonic river May 16, so the veteran Big Red crews will be given all the early testing that the most critical expert could desire.

Out at Des Moines they gave Ossie Solem, Drake university's athletic director and football coach, a testimonial dinner on the eve of the annual Drake Relay. Ossie no doubt was somewhat embarrassed by the proceedings and all the nice things said about him by newspapermen, college and public officials.

The fact is that in Solem's 10 years at Drake this relatively small Iowa college has advanced to a prominent spot in athletics. It has less than 2,000 enrolled students. Its endowment is less than $2,000,000. With limited means, however, it has developed unusual prestige, especially on the gridiron and in track and field sports.

See Taylor of the Des Moines Register, in summing up Solem's football record, notes his teams in 10 years won 40, lost 29 and tied two games for a percentage of .613 playing a schedule that included many of the bigger universities such as Notre Dame, Kansas, Nebraska, Pittsburgh, Utah, Minnesota, Missouri.

Whether or not woman's place is on the bowling alleys the evidence is that feminine interest has developed to a substantial degree in this popular sport.

So much so that Mrs. R. J. McCutcheon of Pueblo, Colo., was persecuted by the bowling interests to make a country-wide tour after she had attracted attention by beating the one time world's champion, Jimmy Smith, from scratch.

Three years ago Mrs. McCutcheon bowled a string of 246, 234 and 224 to a defeat Smith by 794 to 668 at Denver. She had been bowling only two years when she accomplished this extraordinary victory for her sex.

"Women," says Mrs. McCutcheon "are handicapped in bowling by not having the strength of men. Rolling a 16 pound mineral ball is no like playing ping pong. But what women lack in strength they can make up in accuracy. The ball I use has medium speed. A 225 score for a woman is equal to a 250 score for a man."

Mrs. McCutcheon is 35 years old. Her best three games total 317, made in practice, but she once averaged 245 for 12 straight games in competition, which is good enough to beat 999 out of every 1,000 male bowlers, if not all of them.

Negro Assailant of White Girl Is Moved for Safety

Mobile, Ala., May 1.—(AP)—Charles Williams, Negro rascal, released from an institution for the insane who is charged with attacking a six year old white girl, was taken from the county jail here early today and placed aboard a train for Kilby prison, Montgomery for safe keeping.

Three companies of state troops were called out last night to surround the jail, although officers said no excitement was apparent as a result of the negro's arrest.

The attack took place yesterday afternoon and the girl was said by authorities to be in a serious condition. Williams was arrested a short while afterwards near the scene of the assault.

N. Y. COTTON

New York, May 1.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today 11 to 13 points higher on covering and buying for a week-end rally following recent declines.

May contracts sold up to 9.91 and October 10.50, or 14 to 15 points net higher and the market was within 4 or 5 points of these figures around 10:30 o'clock.

Liverpool cables said the market there had been influenced by covering together with some local and foreign buying. Rather a better British home trade was reported in the Manchester goods market, but the Indian boycott is said to be intense. Egyptian cotton futures in Alexandria were 11 to 40 points higher and there was an advance of 5d in the quotations for Indian spot cotton in Liverpool market.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 1.—(AP)—Notwithstanding record breaking for deliveries on May contracts, wheat prices today finished practically the same as yesterday.

Approximately 36,000,000 bushels of May wheat purchased in recent months was formally delivered to the government sponsored agencies, but this had been known far in advance. Temporary fluctuations today covered only an ordinary range, came about from less spectacular causes, especially conflicting reports concerning German wheat import duties.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 1.—(AP)—The securities markets manifested a generally improved tone today, in consequence of the better feeling in Wall Street generated by yesterday's climatic rebound.

The advance in the stock market naturally lost its vitality after the violent flurry of short covering late yesterday, and the market turned spotty after a morning and mid-day advance.

The bond market gave further evidence of the lifting of selling pressure. While the change of trend represented no fundamental change in economic conditions, it at least represented a growing conviction that troublesome situations had been smoothed out.

The stock market turned hesitant again in the afternoon when Pullman dropped 3 points in response to its quarterly statement showing net of only 15 cents a share. Bethlehem was firm in the morning, rising 3 points.

U. S. Steel fluctuated uncertainly. In the morning upturn Auburn surged up 14, but later lost much of that advance. Allied Chemical yielded most of a 4-point upturn. Miscellaneous issues selling up 2 points or so were Atchafalaya, Union Pacific, Nash, Gulf States steel, Johns Manville and Eastman and gains of a point or so embraced a wide assortment of shares.

The $1 quarterly dividend ordered by Bethlehem Steel was better than had been looked for by the more pessimistic observers. Wall Street generally would not have been surprised had the previous quarterly rate of $1.50 been cut in half.

Call money was firm at 11-2 per cent, as there was considerable loan calling incident to the month-end settlements.

CHOOSE FERTILIZER SUITED TO PLANT. 8 DAYS SOIL EXPERT

Manhattan, Kas.—(AP)—For best results with fertilizer, select it with regard to the part of the plant where rapid development is desired, urges E. B. Wells, soils specialist at Kansas State Agricultural college.

Lettuce, asparagus, onions or celery may be aided with a little nitrate of soda or ammonium sulphate, taking care to keep these away from the foliage unless an abundance of water is supplied at once.

Slower-growing vegetables such as beets, carrots, peas and beans may have fertilizer containing 3 to 5 per cent nitrogen, 6 to 8 per cent phosphoric acid and 4 to 6 per cent potash.

Flowers thrive best on well-rotted manure as a rule, except that sweet peas or blooms coming from bulbs do better on steamed bone meal.

Leaders Frown On Gandhi Plan for Philippines

Manila, P. I.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi's campaign of civil disobedience is watched with keen interest in this country, where some leaders for years have advocated "immediate complete and absolute independence" from the United States.

There have been scattered suggestions that the Filipinos would do well to follow in the footsteps of the Indian nationalists, but the only effort in this direction by any popular leader met with a cold reception.

Senator Juan Sumulong, head of the Democratic, or minority party, came out for Philippine civil disobedience, and was promptly jeered by the press and by the leaders of the Nacionalista or majority party.

There are a number of reasons for the failure of the Filipinos to be more than passively interested in the Indian situation. American-Philippine relations as a whole are not bad. Co-operation between the governor general and the legislative heads prevails.

From here it looks as though the advocates of independence are becoming increasingly strong in congress, and Filipino leaders may feel that any untoward action now would hurt rather than help their cause.

Senator Sumulong, in suggesting civil disobedience to the Philippines, proposed that all Filipinos in the government, from highest to lowest, quit their jobs. It is small wonder that he was ridiculed, for practically all of the sacrifice would be made by members of the majority party.

However, there are at least some among the Filipino masses who are for emulating Gandhi. This is shown by letters printed from time to time by the newspapers.

One such letter, printed recently by the Philippines Herald, one of the leading nationalistic journals, said: "Civil disobedience is the only way by which a subject nation like ours can cope with a stronger one like the United States....

"Are we afraid to endure privations and hardships? Did not our fathers suffer and die for our liberty? We are not going to fight with arms, but with iron will, we will save our country from the claw of colonial greed, and to give our children a country of which they can be proud...."

Responsible leaders, however, remain content to view the trend in India as an interesting phase of the nationalist movement, meanwhile declining to follow suit.

Sound Pictures Trouble Motion Picture Men

Bogota, Columbia—(AP)—Sound pictures have brought trouble to the motion picture theater owners of Colombia.

Although large portions of the Spanish speaking audiences understand English, they know only the book variety and don't like the dialect regarded as funny by American audiences.

Columbian audiences do not suffer in silence. If a picture is out of focus or there is too much English dialogue or the hero tenor hits a sour note they boo lustily.

More active dislike is expressed by lighting matches, thereby dimming the images on the screen. If the film is too bad, there is a riot. One theatre manager, seeing that a fire had sent his audience into the match lighting stage, ordered his operator to stop the show and play a record of the Columbia national anthem.

The audience stood, silent and respectful, while the anthem was played five times without intermission. By that time a messenger from another theatre had arrived with a more popular film.
