YOUNG WOMEN PLEAD GUILTY IN ARSON CASE

Fourteen Girls Admit Part In Attempt to Burn Buildings At Samarand

Carthage, May 19.—(AP)—Fourteen girls from 16 to 18 years old, were called as the trial opened. They apparently were awed and a little frightened by the proceedings.

The pleas were entered after Solicitor Don Phillips reduced the charges from first degree arson, a capital offense, to attempted arson.

The statute fixes the penalty for attempted arson at from 4 to 10 years imprisonment.

The girls, all from 16 to 18 years old, were called as the trial opened. They apparently were awed and a little frightened by the proceedings.

All were clad in the blue and pink gingham dresses worn by inmates of Samarand.

Charles McNeill and W. R. Clegg, represented all the defendants except Virginia Hayes, of Leaksville, who was represented by Miss Nell Battle Lewis, Raleigh newspaperwoman and attorney.

Judge Michael Schenck ordered that the state's evidence against the girls be presented despite the pleas.

Later the defense requested permission to change the pleas of four from guilty to not guilty, but Judge Schenck refused to allow the change.

The four girls for whom the state sought to enter pleas of not guilty were Josephine French, of Haw River; Rosa Mull, of Rutherfordton; Marian Mercer, of Ayden, and Virginia Hayes, of Leaksville.

State witnesses examined gave testimony implicating the girls in the burning of the buildings and on cross-examination were questioned about the methods of punishment used at Samarand.

Miss Estelle Elliott, secretary to Miss Agnes D. McNaughton, superintendent of Samarand, the first witness, testified each of the girls under indictment had admitted taking part in the burning of the buildings.

Under cross-examination Miss Stott admitted the girls were punished by being whipped at the school.

"They were whipped with a hickory stick like mother used to use," she said.

She testified she had never administered a whipping because she did "not have the authority" but that she had often witnessed whippings.

Lillian Crinshaw, supervisor of student government, quoted six of the girls as confessing to starting the fires. They were Margaret Abernethy, Kineston; Edna Clark, Halifax; Marian Mercer, Ollie Harding, Chocowinity City; Thelma Council, Tarboro, and Rosa Mull.

She admitted on cross-examination that the girls were not told the possible punishment which could be given them for setting the buildings afire.

"They were told they were charged with a very serious offense and to tell nothing but the truth," she said.

Miss Crinshaw was asked if the girls at Samarand were ever locked up with bread and water as a diet in punishment for infractions of the rules.

She said she never knew of such punishment, but said that on occasions the hair of girls who ran away had been clipped.

Three teachers in the school, she testified, left 10 days before the fires and three others left shortly after them. She was asked if they left because of the treatment given their girls, but she did not know their reasons for leaving.

Ida Godley, 16, an inmate of the school for three years, testified Pearl Styles, one of the defendants, told her she helped set fire to Bickett hall.

Hilda Godley, 16, an inmate of the school for three years, testified Pearl Styles, one of the defendants, told her she helped set fire to Bickett hall.

She said the whippings were given with a leather strap and with switches.

TWO HURT AS MOB STORMS GEORGIA JAIL

Negro Assaults of White Women Spirited Away to Atlanta by Guardsmen

Atlanta, Ga., May 19.—(AP)—Two negroes, charged with attacking white girls, were spirited away from a mob at Elberton this morning, disguised in army uniforms and lodged on Fulton Tower here by national guardsmen.

The negroes were hidden in trees surrounding the Elberton jail for an hour and a half, militiamen said, before they were put in an automobile and hurried to Atlanta.

Shortly after the 200 guardsmen who had stood off a mob yesterday estimated at from 2,500 to 5,000 mounted their trucks and busses and departed for their homes at Elberton, Monroe and Atlanta.

Only a few loiterers watched their departure.

At Fulton Tower the two negroes were booked as Hizak McCortley, 17 and John Dower, 25.

They joined four other negroes hurried out of Elberton yesterday by sheriff S. C. Seymour to Athens and from there to Atlanta last night.

The four booked at Theodos Cade 22, Roy Huff, 25, Earnest Hill, 26 and Frank Junger 25.

Elberton, Ga., May 19.—(AP)—Two white men were in the hospital here today with gunshot wounds received while national guardsmen defended the jail against a mob seeking to remove a white woman.

Meanwhile, the negroes were started to Atlanta by guardsmen early today for safety-keeping after a night of mob activity that was surpassed only by use of rifle fire and tar gas bombs.

Four companies of guardsmen, including a machine gun company were called to duty around the jail between yesterday afternoon and midnight.

Earlier in the day mobsmen in automobiles attempted to seize four other negroes arrested in the case while officers were taking them to Athens, Ga., at Athens a crowd congregated around the jail, but was soon dispersed.

Pitt Legislator Introduces Joint Resolution Requesting Conferees Be Instructed to Make Reduction; Teachers and Employees of State Institutions Would Be Affected

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—The House today passed a joint resolution to require a cut in administrative expenses of all state agencies equal to any cut which may be required in teachers' salaries if the 1931 Assembly fails to pass a revenue bill providing sufficient money to pay the teachers according to scale.

The resolution passed was a substitute for one introduced by Representative Holmes of Pitt which would have required a 20 per cent cut in administrative expenses, to be made as department and institution heads saw fit.

Representatives Johnson and Long of Halifax presented the substitute. It was sent to the Senate.

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—Representative Holmes of Pitt introduced a joint resolution in the House today to instruct the conferees on the biennial appropriations bill to cut all salaries and administrative expenses of the state 20 per cent.

The cut would apply to school teachers, officials and employees at all state institutions and all officials and employees in Raleigh and elsewhere throughout the state.

Holmes secured a suspension of the rules by a 68 to 17 vote and the House debated the resolution.

Roswell of Buncombe offered an amendment to exclude teachers from the cut.

Representative Ervin of Burke denounced it as a measure which would reduce expenses by curtailing the care given crippled children at the Orthopedic hospital at Gastonia, by cutting the medical attention needed by inmates of the state hospitals and by reducing the food

Large Concourse of Friends Attend the Final Rites of Beloved Woman

A large concourse of friends from various sections of the eastern part of the state attended final rites here yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Sugg, of Greenville, who lost her life in a bus accident near Grifton Sunday.

The funeral was conducted from the home of her nephew, B. E. Sugg, on Fifth street at 5:30 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, and interment was made in cherry Hill cemetery.

Mr. Hillman paid a splendid tribute to Mrs. Sugg, who was a member of one of the old and distinguished families of this section. He stressed the life of service which she had rendered to her community, declaring that she had proven an ideal Christian character whose life should prove a shining example to the entire community.

A mixed quartet composed of Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley, Messrs. Charlie James and Wiley Brown sang, "Rock of Ages," "My Path Looks Up to Thee," and "Lead Kindly Light," during the service at the home and at the grave.

The floral tribute was extensive and expressed in a mute way the love and esteem of unnumbered friends in this and other counties.

Mrs. Sugg was a native of Greenville, and moved to Greenville while a young woman. She taught in the public schools of Pitt county before her marriage to J. L. Sugg, who prior to his death some years ago was prominently identified with the business life of the community.

She was one of the most faithful members of the congregation of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, and for many years had used her influence for the upbuilding of the various departments of the church.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Sam Northrop, of Wilmington; Miss Minnie Ekum Sugg, member of the faculty of Collegiate School for Girls, Monument avenue, Richmond, Va.; Miss Lillian Sugg, member of the faculty of Rocky Mount schools; a niece, Mrs. E. F. Williams, Jr., Wilmington; and a sister, Mrs. Marietta Dixon, of Greenville.

ROTES NAME LACY SPEAKS NEW OFFICERS ABOUT PRAYER

Howard McGinnis to Head Organization During New Year; Dr. Lacy Speaks

Howard McGinnis, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers college, is the new president of the Greenville Rotary club.

Announcement of his election was made at the regular meeting of the club last night. He succeeds J. H. Waldrop, who served for the usual term of one year.

Other officers elected were: Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, vice-president, and Claude Gaskins, secretary-treasurer.

The new officers will be installed during the month of July.

The board of directors for the new year was also announced. They are: Herbert Waldrop, Carl Adams, Cooper Taylor, Burney Warren, Julian White, Howard McGinnis, A. W. Fleischmann.

In addition to the report on the new officers, the Rotes heard an interesting talk by Dr. Ben Lacy, president of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, who is conducting a series of evangelistic services at the Presbyterian church here.

Dr. Lacy spoke on the subject, "The Business of Being a Man." He enumerated the important part which faith, courage, thought and love, play in the lives of the men of today, and urged his hearers to see that they become a part of everyday life.

Two new members, Dr. John Winstead, and Jerrel Mitchell, made short talks dealing with the "who and why" of their existence.

General Dunlap Believed Killed As Wall Crumbles

Tours, France, May 19.—(AP)—While his wife looked on in horror, General Robert H. Dunlap, U. S. M. C., today was buried under a collapsing wall of the Chateau de la Farniere, about ten miles from here, which had been undermined by heavy rains.

Rescuers began digging in the debris within a few minutes after the accident happened but early this evening they held little hope that the general would be brought out alive.

Denis Briant a farm hand was taking to General Dunlap while Mrs. Briant was working in a barn adjoining the chateau. Suddenly a shower of stones fell from the roof and the woman shrieked for help.

Briant and the general ran into the barn, but just then came an avalanche of earth, dragging trees and huge blocks of stone and burying everything in its path, including a horse and wagon.

When neighbors arrived they found the Briants in the nearby rocky surface and in the house the Briants occupied.

There were no cries from the woman and the two men underneath.

He declared the hopelessness of the people in the slums of the large cities of the world, Dr. Lacy declared that nothing in the world could save them but the word of God. He told of the slums of London, and the great part which leading Christian workers were taking to improve the condition. He said much had been done to lift the people of that district out of misery and despair.

Describing the hopelessness of the people in the slums of the large cities of the world, Dr. Lacy declared that nothing in the world could save them but the word of God. He told of the slums of London, and the great part which leading Christian workers were taking to improve the condition. He declared the world needs the eyes and heart of Jesus in that it might see the needs of civilization and attempt to provide the craving of the human heart.

He said to be able to accomplish anything the people must be impressed with the urgency for prayer and the consciousness of their needs. Man himself is unable to accomplish very little unless he has the power of God behind him.

House Agrees to Reconsider Vote of Refusal to Accept Revenue Conferees' Report

Senate Passes Measure To Allow Gambling On Horse Racing In Polk

Bill Passed Without Debate and Sent to House With Declaration by Senator McLean "Not to Be Scared That It Would Be Killed by the Lower Body"

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—The Senate today passed the McLean bill to create a racing commission in Polk county to allow horse racing and pari-mutuel betting at a proposed track near Tryon.

The measure passed 15 to 14. Senator McLean of Polk, its author, told the Senate "not to be scared" about passing the measure that the House "will probably kill it." The bill was passed without debate and sent to the House.

Earlier in the session a similar bill to allow horse and dog racing in Buncombe county and to legalize pari-mutuel betting was passed by the House and killed in the Senate.

The Polk County racing measure has had a somewhat similar course to that of the Buncombe bill so far.

Introduced just before the Senate adjourned late one night, the McLean measure was frowned upon by the Senate committee and given an unfavorable report.

Under the Senate rules that any one member may request a bill be placed upon the calendar, the measure was revived and its passage today followed.

The Buncombe bill was tabled in the House, recalled from the table and sent to the Senate by a good majority. In the Senate it passed second reading, was referred to committee, reported unfavorable and then tabled when brought on the floor by a minority report.

Both measures, termed revenue producing legislation by their proponents, would charge a set fee for each racing day and in addition the state would get a tax per centage on all pari-mutual wagers.

The Buncombe measure was opposed by ministerial associations and citizens from any sections of the state as an act which would legalize gambling in the state.

Tryon, N. C., May 19.—(AP)—The pari-mutuel racing bill that passed the Senate today is understood here to be sponsored by an organization headed by George W. Widener, president of the American Jockey Club. The understanding is that Mr. Widener is

Vote to Reconsider Places Conference Report Back Before the House for Consideration; Body Adjourns After Engaging in Parliamentary Wrangle Over Resolution to Consider Adoption of Report

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—The House this afternoon voted 57 to 50 to reconsider the vote by which it refused last night to accept the report of the revenue conferees.

The vote to reconsider placed the conference report, based on an additional tax levy by counties to aid the state in supporting six months' schools, back before the House for conference.

Representative MacLean, of Beaufort, author of the MacLean school law, moved that the House not take up the conference report again until it had been acted upon by the Senate.

As a substitute, Representative Cherry of Gaston moved that the House proceed immediately to consider adoption of the conference report and that its adoption, if done, be considered first reading.

A parliamentary wrangle ensued and Cherry withdrew his substitute.

Representative Connor of Wilson expressed fear it would be unwise to adopt a motion such as MacLean's, which he said might result in a delay of three or four days if the Senate did not immediately take up the report and moved to adjourn.

The House adjourned until 11:30 without voting on the motion.

Ward Announces That Two More Witnesses Will Be Heard in Corruption Charge

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—E. G. Hobbs, an attorney of Selma, testified here this afternoon that he had been told by Senator F. G. Gower of Johnston county that he (Gower) and "his colleague" had been offered $2,500 each to vote against a luxury tax.

Raleigh, May 19.—(AP)—Senator Hallett S. Ward, of Beaufort, chairman of the Senate's special investigating committee probing rumors that senators have been subjected to bribery and corruption, announced today that two additional witnesses would testify this afternoon.

E. G. Hobbs and C. P. Harper, both of Selma, have been summoned to appear.

Chairman Ward would make no statement as to what he expected to learn from the two men but it was thought they would testify in connection with the two alleged attempts to influence voting of senators which were discussed last week at two hearings.

The two hearings developed that Senator John W. Hinsdale of Wake, author of the Hinsdale luxury tax, had held a conversation with David H. Pope, chairman of the Wake county board of commissioners. Pope, Hinsdale testified, said the Wake legislator could have "anything he wanted" if he would let up in his fight for the luxury tax. Hinsdale said that Pope told him W. N. Reynolds of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company had told Pope to approach Hinsdale.

Pope, Reynolds and S. Clay Williams, president of the tobacco company, denied that any consideration or remuneration was mentioned.

In the other case J. J. Hatch, Goldsboro attorney, testified he told Faison Thomson, another Goldsboro attorney, that he thought Thomson "could get a fee" if he would use his influence to defeat the luxury tax. Thomson and Hatch testified that no senator's name was mentioned but Thomson said he inferred Senator Hugh Dorth of Wayne was the man whose vote he was to attempt to influence. Thomson refused to undertake the job, he said.

ABOUT TOWN

Members of the auxiliary of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will conduct their annual Poppy sale here next Saturday and the public is called on to buy as liberally as possible of the tiny red flowers, symbolic of the sacrifices which American soldiers made on foreign battlefields.

Money derived from the poppy sales will go to the care of disabled veterans and their families.

No special prices has been fixed for the poppies, and buyers are asked to give according to the extent of their resources.

Poppy day always brings back memories of those awful days across the sea when the heroism of American soldiers made possible the winning of a great conflict in which all the hopes of civilization were centered.

Remember your duty to the men who paid their all that humanity might be saved by wearing a poppy next Saturday.

The efficiency of the Greenville police department was attested to in no uncertain terms Sunday night in the arrest of two negro youths charged with robbing a drug store in the tobacco district.

Within an hour after the crime had been perpetrated, the negro's had been taken into custody and placed in jail to await investigation of Juvenile court authorities.

Had it not been for the speedy action of the police it is possible the robbers would have escaped and never apprehended.

The police are to be congratulated upon the capture. Greenville people are always ready to express appreciation of splendid work of this nature.

Dr. Ben R. Lacy, president of the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va., will deliver a special sermon to members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion at the Presbyterian church tonight and all former service men are not only invited, but urged to attend.

Dr. Lacy served as chaplain of the 113th Field Artillery during the World war, and is sufficiently well acquainted with the aspirations and ambitions of the Legion members to appreciate the things which they are fighting for at this time.

By reason of his action in turning captured German guns to the advantage of the allies during the World war, Dr. Lacy was given the name of "The Fighting Parson."

He is still known as a fighting but his battles today are being launched from the pulpit in an effort to bring to the attention of the people the ascendant part which Christ plays in the life of all nations. He is a speaker of note and his sermons are delivered in a way that leaves no doubt as to the truth of what he has to say.

The tobacco Blue Mold has hit Pitt county but fortunately it came too late to do any serious damage.

When the disease was first reported planting had practically been completed in all sections of the county, and farmers were not troubled by the prospect of losing their plants before they could get them into the ground.

The mold has attacked the surplus plants in about three communities, and farmers hope they have checked it by destroying the affected plants.

The director of the Department of Agriculture is of the opinion that Pitt county has one of the best looking crops in years. About ninety per cent of the crop is in the ground, and indications point to a reduction of acreage of between ten and twenty per cent.

Young swimmers of the community are being given lessons in life saving and the art of swimming by Albert Osborne, who has been connected with young people's activities here the last several months.

Mr. Osborne will conduct a life saving institute at Hillcrest camp, May 17-19-20.

near Kinston, next Saturday morning and scores of youngsters will receive instructions along this line. Activities of this kind are to be most heartily commended by the people of the community in view of the numbers of drowning tragedies which occur from year to year. It is almost impossible to keep children out of the water at this season of the year, and it is highly important that they know how to swim and also have knowledge of the science of saving life in case of accidents.

The more modern youth knows about this subject the less will be the toll of death reported from the various communities in the years to come.

UNABLE TO SAY WHAT "IT" IS

Scientist Fails to Determine What Causes Failure and Success Among Men

By RUTH BALDWIN COWAN

Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Dr. Harold Lasswell, one of five university of Chicago scientists seeking to find out what "it" is, said today he had interviewed from three to four hundred people—and was as yet unable to put his finger on that elusive something that makes a man a failure or success.

But he has found out several things about human nature, and he had this to say about the University students, baggers and rich men, salesmen and judges, that have been his laboratory subjects: "Every one of them has done something for which he could have been put behind the bars had it been found out."

Furthermore, he added, every individual told on himself. But that came as a result of playing the game according to Dr. Lasswell's rules.

The game is called "case-interviewing" with Dr. Lasswell in the role of interviewer, and the subject's part is to talk and talk, in other words to ramble along, thinking out loud—regardless of blushing. The experience ranges from an unbending of the secret soul to a subtle police third degree.

A complicated "interviewing locale" has been set up. The subject is taken into Dr. Lasswell's study, and there amid an extensive array of books one would associate with a professor of political science with a leaning toward psychoanalysis, he is told to take his ease on an ordinary looking couch.

Instruments that record his breathing and pulse are strapped around his chest and ankle. Wires from these instruments connect with others in an adjoining laboratory room. In there delicate apparatus check up on whether the subject is being truthful or is disturbed by his line of talk.

As the subjects become accustomed to the situation and talk freely they tend to classify themselves into types of personality, Dr. Lasswell explained. Each individual shows a repetition of traits and reactions, and it is through a tabulation of such characteristics that these scientists hope to be able to tell what it is that makes up various personalities.

THINKS CARDS AND A'S WILL BATTLE AGAIN

By EDWARD J. NEIL Associated Press Sports Writer New York, May 19.—(AP)—Gabby Street has an idea that it's going to be the Athletics and the Cardinals again in the world series this year, which means that the St. Louis pilot is not unduly worried about the remainder of the National league opposition.

"This is the club right here that we have to beat," he said, waving a hand at the Giants who were stepping snappily through field practice before the third game of the series. "If McGraw gets the pitching, they'll be dangerous but even then I don't think the Giants or anyone else will head us off this year."

"We've got nine pitchers, the class of the league. We were good enough to win last year and we're stronger this season in addition to the pitching. What other team in the league has a young outfielder good enough to keep a star like 'Lay' Douthett out of the lineup?" Gabby went on to describe this phenomenal young man.

"Look at him, that pepper martin. He's got the shoulders of a blacksmith and legs like hickory. He's a streak in the field and on the bases and he's hitting well over 300. Some day he'll be one of the big stars of the game."

The world series idea still stuck in Gabby's mind. "We should have beaten them last year but we'll do it certainly this time. Of course the Athletics will have plenty of opposition beating off Washington. That's a well balanced club and the double headers later on in the season aren't going to help Connie Mack's three man pitching staff any."

"I figure just as I did last fall and I've been thinking about it all winter—there wasn't a single ball or single play in that series that I could have guessed on or changed judgment on, in any way. The games we got the breaks in we won. When we didn't get the breaks we lost."

"It'll be like that again, if things go the way I think they will this season. There's nothing to this idea that the American league is stronger than the National. We have a harder season than they do. For the past few years the American league winner has come down to the finish well out in front and with a chance to rest. That's important."

Yesterday's Stars

Babe Herman, Robins—Came out of batting slump to clout Cincinnati pitching for single, double, triple and home run; drove in five runs.

Bill Walker, Giants—Held Cardinals to six hits; beat them, 6-3.

Ed Brandt, Braves—Won sixth straight game of season, holding Pirates to five hits.

Don Hurst, Phillies—Singled in ninth to drive in Bartel with run that beat Cubs.

Mel Simmons, White Sox—Doubled in pinch in ninth inning to drive in tying and winning runs against Red Sox.

Cochrane, Simmons and Fox, Athletics—Split nine hits between them, including two doubles and home run, and driving in six runs against Indians.

Chapel Hill Licks Duke Blue Devils

Charlotte, May 19.—(AP)—The Duke Blue Devils have the Big Five baseball title on a percentage basis but today a 6 to 2 defeat by the University of North Carolina marred their record.

The Devils garnered the necessary percentage points by trimming the Tar Heels Saturday at Durham. They clashed again yesterday with their arch-foes at Chapel Hill and took a licking.

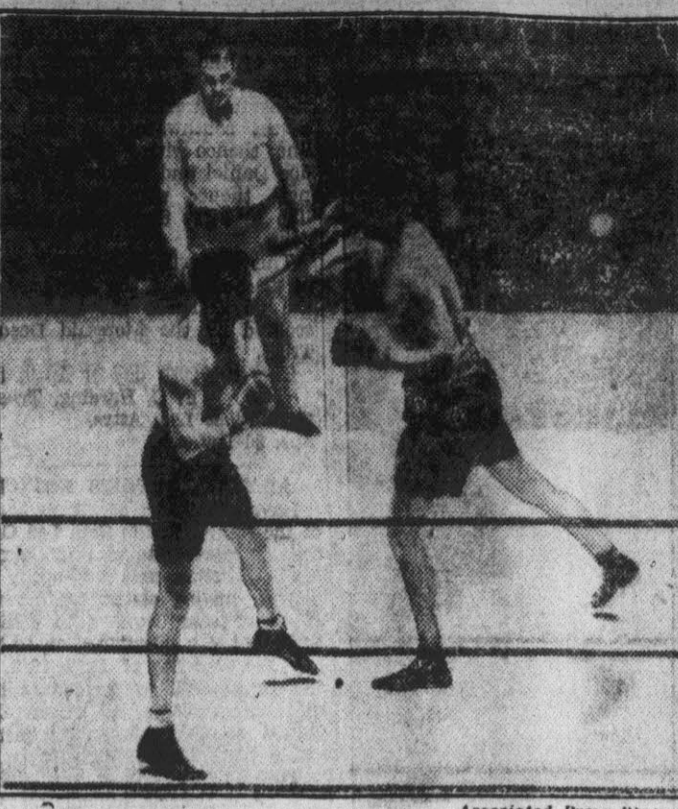

A big factor in the North Carolina triumph was the pitching of Cecil Longest, who allowed the Devils but three hits.

The final major clash of the season will be the N. C. State-North Carolina baseball tilt tomorrow at Raleigh.

League Leaders

Table with columns for National League, American League, Southern Association, Palmetto League, and Eastern League, listing batting leaders and their statistics.

LOUGHRAN OUTPOINTS CAMPOLO

Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia, overcame a disadvantage of almost 50 pounds in weight and seven inches in height to give Victor Campolo of Argentina a neat licking in a 10 round fight in New York. This picture shows Loughran reaching Campolo's chin with a left in the fifth round.

RALEIGH CAPS ARE DEFEATED BY TOURISTS

Charlotte, May 19.—(AP)—It took the defensive as well as offensive tactics to win a ball game. Was the use of a nine's being able to bat in six or a dozen runs, if it allows its opponents to better this performance?

Some of the Piedmont league crews are learning this lesson. Others are just going ahead and winning, if they can, by heavy stick work and fast base running.

Ray Kennedy's Asheville Tourists outfit has the earmarks of a comer. They smashed the Raleigh Caps a defeat last night at Raleigh and drew up within 21 points of the Caps' second place position.

And, how did they do it? Marty Baylin held the Caps to six hits, but his team garnered but one more from Bennett's offerings. The tourist nine was clicking in all departments of the game, and they simply held their foes to one run, while they brought in two.

The score was close. Both the teams played a good game, but the visitors were just a shade better.

The first place Charlotte Bees were a little bitter in the scoring department than their only Salsu compatriots, the Tourists, but they were not quite so jam-up on the defensive. The Gamecocks got two runs off them last night at Henderson, but they heaped up seven tallies to win.

A nifty match was the Durham-High Point go at Durham. Both aggregations clamped down on the defensive, and when it was all over the Bulls had the match, 3 to 2. This victory over Dan Boccia's hard-playing Pointers looked good to George Whitted, whose nine had a lot of bad luck last week.

Over at Greensboro, the Pats had a regular old slugfest with the Winston Twins. They just rapped the offerings of McClung and Carney to the four corners of the lot. Suggs getting two home runs under the Kleigs and Madsen one. They got 18 hits in all.

The Pats, however, kept the Twin scoring within reason and won, 14 to 4. This reverse, coupled with Durham's success, put the Twins down on the bottom where the Bulls were at the end of last week.

Giants Put Up Stiff Battle in The National

By GAYLE TALBOT JR. (Associated Press Sports Writer). John J. McGraw predicted in the training season that the new ball would have a marked influence on the National league and made his plans accordingly.

"All I need," the Giants pilot said at San Antonio, "is pitching, and I'll get that with this new ball. It's going to make a big difference. You'll see."

How well McGraw sized up the situation is admirably illustrated in the standing today. Largely because of hurling the Giants are running a powerful second in the National league, a bare half game behind the St. Louis Cardinals.

McGraw's moundsmen have gone the route in 14 out of 24 games, the highest average in either league. Second in that respect are the Boston Braves, whose pitchers have started and finished 13 out of 25. The Philadelphia Athletics, with 13 complete games out of 24, hold the best record in the American.

Another Giant, Bill Walker, pitched the full nine yesterday in setting the Cardinals down, 6 to 3. The crack lefthander allowed only six hits and none of the runs off him was earned. The victory gave the Giants two out of three from the 1930 champions.

Ed Brandt, the Braves' southpaw who could win only four victories out of 41 games in which he participated last year, scored his sixth straight triumph at the expense of the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 1. The lone score off him was the result of a homer by Phillips, the Pirates' rookie catcher.

Led by Babe Herman, the Brooklyn Robins enjoyed a field day against the luckless Cincinnati Reds. The score was 14 to 4, and Herman cracked a homer, triple, double and single.

Don Hurst's pinch single off Jackie May drove in the winning run as the Phillies scored twice in the ninth to nose out the Chicago Cubs, 5 to 4. Buzz Arlett hit his seventh homer of the year in the second inning.

The Chicago White Sox turned the nearest trick of the day in the American league when they rallied for six runs in the ninth round to beat Boston, 9 to 8. Simmons, a pinch hitter, drove in the winning runs with a lusty double after two were out.

SPORTS SLANTS

Any way it's figured, the joke may again be on the solemn solons of the New York State Athletic Commission, sometimes known as the Three Dukes of the Cauliflower Kingdom.

It was a nice, generous act by the commission that installed Max Schmeling, the likeable German boy, as "world's heavyweight champion" last summer, following Maxie's victory over Sharkey on a foul.

Subsequently the commissioners regretted this generosity, became annoyed at Schmeling's refusal to meet Sharkey in a return bout and cancelled the title recognition.

Meanwhile the National Boxing association recognized Schmeling, and his champion status has become generally accepted—outside the city and state in which he gained this recognition under circumstances distinctly dubious.

Laurel Or Razberries? Now the solemn solons of New York, not content with their last venture in champion-making, have decided to bestow the wreath on

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, May 19.—(AP)—Cotton opened easy 4 to 8 points lower in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and there was some selling on the easier opening of the stock market.

July declined to 9.10 and December to 9.65, making net losses of about 7 to 10 points during the first few minutes, but these prices seemed to be bringing in an increased trade demand which came partly from foreign sources and included some buying by brokers with Japanese connections.

There was also covering which became more active after the posting of the weather map showing showers or rains in parts of the western and central belts, and some buying may have been encouraged by reports of slight rallies.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 19.—(AP)—Unfavorable weather conditions in the spring crop belt both sides of the Canadian boundary checked sellers in the wheat market today, and led to price upticks. Only 7 points in the prairie provinces of Canada received as much as 1-4 inch of moisture.

Frost predictions for the Dakotas and Nebraska tonight were also bullish, especially as wheat had declined almost 6 cents a bushel since last Wednesday.

Wheat closed unsettled, 3-8-1 cent higher, corn 1-4-1-1/8 up, oats 1-8-1-3 advanced, and provisions unchanged to 30 cents down.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 19.—(AP)—The stock market was given respite from selling pressure during the early hours of today's session, but a few isolated weak spots cropped out during the afternoon, and the market again turned soggy.

The lifting of pressure against the rails was a notable development during the morning, and several issues rallied 2 or 3 points.

Several prominent industrials were also carried higher, but lost their gains as selling appeared in a few selected issues after midday.

The upturn of the morning was negotiated in active trading, transfers in the first half hour aggregating 500,000 shares, but the market turned dull as the session wore on.

In the rails, issues up 2 to 3 points or more included Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, New York Central, Atchafalaya, Rock Island, and Union Pacific. J. I. Case was a weak feature, dropping more than 6 points to below 65, compared to peak prices above 70 in 1928 and 1929. Directors meet for dividend action Thursday.

Call money renewed at 11.2 per cent, but bankers would not be surprised to see it stabilize at one per cent.

Started for Drink, Landed in Court

Greensboro, May 19.—(AP)—The wheels of justice ground swiftly for J. F. Hicks of Greensboro, and four hours after he started for a drink he was paying a fine for violation of whiskey laws.

Hicks explained it all in court. At 10 a. m. he felt the need of stimulant, he related, so walked more than two miles to where his whiskey was hidden.

At 11 a. m. Deputy Frank McAdoo arrested him. At noon he pleaded guilty of possession before a magistrate who sent his case to Superior court where he paid a $50 fine shortly before 2 p. m.

Select Jurors In Bank Trial At Asheville

Asheville, May 19.—(AP)—Selection of a jury to try two former bankers and five former Buncombe county officials, indicted as the authors of a series of bank failures in this section, began again in Superior court here today.

A representative group from Madison county was present for jury service.

The state completed a panel by mid-morning and examination of the prospective jury members was begun.

Each of the seven defendants has four peremptory challenges, while the state had two for each defendant. In view of the large number of possible peremptory challenges it appeared selection of the jury would be long drawn out.

Bride Still Lives After Taking Poison

Montgomery, Ala., May 19.—(AP)—A "deathbed" bride after she had taken poison because of what her mother said was a lover's quarrel, 16-year-old Mrs. William R. Crittenden still lived today although physicians a week ago said death was but two days off.

The girl, then Miss Margaret Hardy, swallowed the poison last Monday, telling her mother when she was taken to the hospital that she had no desire to live. On Wednesday she was married to 18-year-old Crittenden, barely able to utter per her vows, and immediately following the ceremony she prayed with the minister that she might live to be the companion of her young husband.

Since then she has rallied daily to take food and smile at her bridegroom, but physicians still say that she has little, if any, chance to recover.

SUPERVISEES SWIMMING IN PROGRESS HERE

Some day, without a moment's notice, the need may come. It is not enough then to be able to swim and to swim well; but it may be necessary to know how to break a strange hold, that would carry you down, as well as the one in danger and also to tow or carry the unfortunate one to safety.

Think how you would feel in such a case, were you not able to swim out and keep some one afloat to say nothing of effecting a complete rescue. Learn now how to swim and swim well.

COURT CONTINUES HEARING ON CIVIL ACTIONS HERE

The civil term of Pitt County Superior court, which convened in this city yesterday morning with Judge W. A. Devin, of Oxford, presiding, continued work today on the cases contained in the two-week calendar.

After catching up with the calendar court recessed early yesterday afternoon until this morning.

Non-suit was ordered in two actions yesterday, and there were two or three compromises.

Non-suit was ordered in the case of L. M. Manning and wife vs. Sinclair Refining Company, and W. H. Gardner vs. J. J. Perkins.

The calendar contains approximately eighty cases, and it was expected the majority would be disposed of during the two weeks' sitting.

TWO HURT AS MOB STORMS GEORGIA PAIL

In the afternoon when the negroes were placed in jail. At the time it was only known that one was under arrest. The guardsmen were placed on duty following appeals to Governor L. G. Hardman from local officials and two local units roped off a deadline around the jail.

The mob soon grew to 1,500 or more and they cut the ropes, surged into the jail, and beat the locks on the cells of one of the negroes before they were repulsed.

Outside the Elberton Fire Department played streams of water on the mob until members seized the hose and turned it on the firemen and guardsmen.

Then the guardsmen hurled tear gas bombs but the mobmen boomeranged them back. Rifle fire followed and Emory Edwards and Lynn Crowder, both of Elberton, fell with wounds in their lower extremities. Edwards was wounded by a guard's shot that struck Crowder was not determined, it was reported at the hospital that Crowder's injuries were serious and probably would necessitate amputation of a leg.

Gas round of fire curbed the mob considerably, but tear gas bombs were used intermittently to keep in hand. Late last night as another company of guardsmen was arriving, a small charge of dynamite exploded in the court house yard near the jail, but no damage was done.

One of the negroes under arrest here is named McCally and the other John Downer. Assistant chief of police C. W. Johnson said Downer had confessed to participation in attacking the woman, but placed most of the blame on McCally.

SENATE PASSES MEASURE TO ALLOW GAMBLING ON HORSE RACING IN FOLK

Seeking a place in the south where the horses can be exercised when the big tracks are not open.

The bill was introduced in the Senate last Monday by Senator W. K. McLean, of Tryon, who is a native of Buncombe county. He introduced it at the request of a group of Tryon persons, it was understood, who made a trip to Raleigh yesterday to urge the bill.

The names of those going to Raleigh could not be learned today.

While some opposition to the bill has been expressed here, there has been no organized opposition so far.

BANK OF SPAIN UNDER GUARD

Reports that communists planned a raid on the Bank of Spain, shown above, brought government troops to guard the building. The guards and cavalrymen sent to the scene presented the strongest display of military power seen in Madrid in years.

HOLMES ASKS LEGISLATURE TO REDUCE STATE EXPENSES AND SALARIES 20 PERCENT

"If the General Assembly passes this resolution it means closing the University of North Carolina," Representative Newman of New Hanover also asserted that the cost of living for school teachers living in towns and cities has not been reduced.

Representatives Johnson and Long of Halifax offered a substitute resolution which would not require a cut of salaries or expenses in any case unless it was made in teachers' salaries due to failure of the revenue bill to raise sufficient funds to pay them. In that case a similar cut would be required in all state departments and institutions.

In response to a question by Representative Day of Onslow, Holmes told the House he would move to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to accept the newest report of the conference committee. If his resolution was passed, Holmes voted against the report last night.

Representative Moss of Nash asked of the House to support the substitute resolution offered by Long and Johnson and opposed any cut in salaries of teachers.

Holmes then asked to be allowed to explain his resolution, which he said had been misunderstood in its reading.

Under its terms, the Pitt Legislature said, the saving of 20 per cent could be effected by a 10 per cent cut in salaries and a similar saving in purchases, transportation of school pupils and other economies in institutions and departments.

Holmes said his resolution did not specify a salary cut, as most of the members of the House who had opposed it on the floor seemed to think, but demanded a 20 per cent cut in administrative costs with department and institution heads to effect the cut in their own discretion.

Representative Garibaldi of Mecklenburg asked the House to cut the cost of the state government, asserting that a reduction to the proper level would obviate the necessity of an ad valorem tax.

Chairman Harris of the appropriations committee, told the House a 20 per cent cut in the money spending bill already drawn would reduce allotments about $2,000,000 under the 1929-31 appropriations exclusive of the equalization fund for school aid.
