BOTH PARTIES QUIET ABOUT TAX INCREASE

Question Fails to Draw Definite Recommendations From Political Factions

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Noticeable in discussions over the possible $900,000,000 deficit this year is the lack of a definite recommendation for a tax increase from official headquarters of either party.

The new congress meeting in December is almost equally divided politically. That session runs directly into the presidential campaign and increasing taxes at such a time causes political leaders to ponder considerably.

Republican independents who will hold the balance of power next session have called for a tax increase. Without the support of regulars of either major party who control the House ways and means committee a tax revision is doubtful.

President Hoover is asking department chiefs to reduce government expenditures but the recent statements of Secretary Mellon and Undersecretary Mills of the treasury failed to give any hope for permanent lowering of the budget.

Senator Hull, Democrat, Tennessee, sees the present time level of governmental expenditures is all ready on the increase and it will be greater for 1931 and subsequent years.

While a tax increase next session is not in sight, already there is argument as to how the burden of such an increase shall be distributed when it is ordered. This debate becomes more pertinent in the thought of congressional leaders that a future boost in taxes will be more or less permanent.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho interprets the recent warning of Secretary Mellon against the narrow base of taxation as an opening wedge to extend the levy to smaller incomes. Such a move, says Senator Borah, "is on the same principle as the lowering of wages—both would have the effect of reducing still further the purchasing power of the great body of the people."

Senator Couzens, of Michigan, a Republican member of the finance committee, demands tax revision at once to balance the budget. He proposes recreation of the gift tax and in increase in the estate tax. Mr. Mellon has repeatedly urged repeal of the estate tax.

The Michigan senator also sees no reason to end the surtax graduation at incomes of $100,000, applying equally to all incomes above that amount. He regards favorably increase in the surtax rates on such incomes.

While Democratic leaders are gauging the situation silently, Senator Hull in a statement issued through the Democratic National Committee last night said: "Our federal administration during the past ten years could to a wonderful advantage have pursued the fiscal axioms that 'economy is better than taxation, and taxation is better than borrowing.'"

Democrats hitherto have fought in Congress for greater tax reductions even than were authorized.

Scott Testifies In Bank Hearing At Mountain City

Asheville, May 26.—(AP)—Geo. H. Scott, of Charlotte, special auditor to Buncombe county testified today in the trial of seven men, charged with using the county's credit to aid the Central Bank and Trust Company before it failed last fall.

He told of the county's financial condition throughout the administration of Newton M. Anderson, James Grimes and J. O. McElroy, former county commissioners who are on trial.

The state alleges that seven men conspired to issue over $3,000,000 in county tax anticipation notes and turned the money over to the Central Bank and Trust Company at a time when it was insolvent for lack of operating cash.

Over $8,000,000 in public funds were on deposit when the bank failed.

MAN KILLS HIMSELF OVER LOVE AFFAIR

Reidsville May 26.—(AP)—T. H. Smith, 22, furniture worker of this city, died instantly when he fired a bullet through his heart last night. Investigators, who blamed a "love affair" for the man's action, said no inquest would be held.

BEARS WARNED TO WATCH STEP

N. Y. Stock Exchange Demands Information Regarding the Bearish Operations

New York, May 26.—(AP)—The New York Stock Exchange has, in effect, warned bears to watch their step.

Members today received a questionnaire from the exchange demanding full information regarding bearish operations of themselves or their clients.

This is the first time, so far as has become publicly known, that the exchange's committee on business conduct has begun an extensive investigation of the bears since the troublesome days of last autumn.

The exchange's rules impose severe penalties for operations designed to depress share values artificially, although the exchange is not opposed to legitimate short sales.

The 1929 questionnaire, dated November 13, was recalled ten days later. The current demand for information was the first general circular of its kind sent to members since that time.

It directed members to furnish: "1. A list of all stocks borrowed and for whose account."

"2. A list of all stock loaned and to whom."

"3. Intra-office borrowings and for whose account."

"4. A list of all stocks which you (the member) have failed to deliver and for whose account."

Replies must be filed later this week, and subsequent reports of the changes in members' accounts caused by each day's business must be submitted daily thereafter, presumably until further notice.

Although there was no official comment on the questionnaire, Wall Street took it for granted that the powerful business conduct committee was seeking to check up on possible unethical short selling in a stock market which has been declining almost steadily since Feb. 22, sending prices back to 1926 levels.

It has long been reported that a small but strongly entrenched group of professional operators was still bearish, although more recently it was said at least one of them had withdrawn, satisfied that little more was to be gained on the short side.

Negro Executed for Killing Guard

GUARDSMEN ON DUTY AS BLACK GOES ON TRIAL

Negro Charged With Criminal Attack On White Woman At Elberton, Ga.

Elberton, Ga., May 26.—(AP)—National guardsmen were on duty within and without the courthouse here today during the trial of John Downer, negro, charged with attacking a white woman.

Two white men were wounded during a mob attack on the jail here May 18 at the time the negro was arrested on the attack charge.

Three other negroes, Isaac McCauley, C. Otis Gade and Frank Cade, who were arrested with Downer were also brought from Atlanta. They are not to be tried, officials said, but presumably will be used as witnesses.

Machine guns guarded each of the four entrances to the county jail and infantrymen with loaded rifles paced the deadline which had been drawn around the prison to keep back the crowds when court opened this morning.

In addition, armed patrols were on duty at the streets near the jail and courthouse.

County officials announced they had not requested any troops at the hearing, but Downer was taken from Fulton Tower in Atlanta early this morning for return to Elberton by a detachment of national guardsmen under orders of Gov. L. B. Hardman and State Adjutant General Homer C. Parker.

Downer and five other negroes arrested in the case were taken to Atlanta after the mob activity for safe keeping. Only Downer has been indicted, the officials said, no action was planned against the others. However, three of them were removed along with Downer to return here.

Sollicitor General A. S. Skelton said that the people of Elberton county are thoroughly reconciled to the situation and want the negro to have a fair and impartial trial, and there is no indication of any trouble whatever.

A similar opinion was voiced by the Rev. Henry Brookshire, Baptist preacher, whose oratory quieted the mob a week ago yesterday until troops arrived.

Four of the negroes were first taken to Athens, Ga., after their arrest with mobmen in pursuit, and later were taken to Atlanta. After Downer and another of the negroes were placed in jail here a mob made several attempts to seize them, but was repulsed with tear gas and one round of firing by four companies of guardsmen. The two white men shot were not wounded seriously. When the mob was beaten off the negroes were taken to Atlanta, disarmed as soldiers.

The purported attack took place on a country road near here while the girl and a male companion were motoring. The man is alleged to have been intimidated by a pistol.

NEW CLUE IN GORDON CASE

FLEET READY FOR ATTACK

Warships at Norfolk to Launch Offensive Against Land and Air Forces

Norfolk, Va., May 26.—(AP)—An "enemy" fleet of warships, sweeping up from the south, stood ready today to launch an attack against land and air forces defend the approach to Chesapeake Bay.

The "black" fleet of three cruisers and five destroyers will "open fire" on Port Story as its first objective in an attempt to fight past coast defenses to Washington.

The land units of the "blue" army, opposing forces in the defense of the Norfolk-Washington-Baltimore area in the annual joint maneuvers of the army and navy, will be assisted by naval planes and small craft of the naval district.

Huge guns will roar, largely in theory, as the warships under the command of Rear Admiral Orin G. Murfin, on his flagship, the cruiser Omaha, moves in to attempt the disabling of Port Story and then Fortress Monroe.

The defending forces will launch a counter attack under the direction of Brigadier General Stanley D. Embrick, commanding the third Coast Artillery, and whose headquarters is at Fortress Monroe.

Hostilities will subside temporarily after the initial attack this afternoon and the "black" fleet early tomorrow morning will reconnoiter the territory between Cape Henry and Cape Charles. The attack against Port Story Monroe will be continued on page six.

HOUSE PASSES GAMBLING BILL

Measure Would Allow Horse Racing and Betting On the Races in McDowell

Raleigh, May 26.—(AP)—The House today passed a new bill which would allow horse racing and pari-mutuel betting in McDowell county.

The measure is the third of its kind to pass one house of the General Assembly, each of the two previous measures having met defeat after safely starting their legislative courses.

A commission consisting of J. W. Gilkey of Marion, chairman; J. W. Widdow of McDowell county and A. M. Kistler of Morganton, former state highway commissioner, was named to superintend the track and racing.

Representative Neal of McDowell, introduced the measure.

A tax of $5,000 per racing day is imposed on lessees of the proposed track, which would be placed out, side of Marion, and in addition a tax of 10 per cent on the gross receipts of the pari-mutuel betting would be levied.

The races, if the bill passes the Senate, would be superintended by the Jockey Club of America. The Senate, however, killed the two previous measures.

The bill is identical with the two previous racing bills, one for Buncombe county and one for Polk, except that it does not include dog racing, which the Buncombe bill did.

The standing vote was announced as 35 for and 22 against.

Ask Public to Support Cotton Week in N. C.

Charlotte, May 26.—(AP)—Gov. O. Max Gardner, in a proclamation published today, urges every citizen of North Carolina to put forth every reasonable effort to make national cotton week, June 1 to 6, a success.

Governor Gardner's proclamation was made public here at the office of W. M. McLaurine, secretary of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association.

Formally proclaiming the week beginning June 1 "National Cotton Week in North Carolina," Governor Gardner said in emphasizing the importance of the program for the week:

"There is not a citizen of the state whose life is not influenced in some manner by the condition of the cotton market and the cotton industry, since the staple is a major farm crop and its fabrication is the largest of our industries from the standpoint of number of workers supported; investment in plants, and wages paid employees."

Two Die During Test on Speedway

Joe Caccia, Race Driver, and Clarence Grover, Mechanic, Burned to Death As Their Car Wrecks While Practicing for 500-Mile Automobile Race at Indianapolis

Indianapolis, May 26.—(AP)—Joe Caccia, 31, Bryn Mawr, Pa., race driver and Clarence Grover, 23, Haverford, Pa., his mechanic, were killed here today while practicing for the 500-mile automobile race to be run Saturday.

Their car, running at high speed out of the second turn into the back stretch, lost a tire, careened up the track and over the retaining wall, striking a tree before hitting the ground many feet below.

The men were partially caught under the machine, which burst into flames. Physicians said Grover apparently died immediately, while Caccia expired a few minutes after fire fighters and other persons reached the wreckage.

Both men were hurled out of the car as it left the track but the machine landed on their bodies. Both were badly burned.

Louis Meyer, South Gate, Calif., American driving champion in 1923 and 1929, hit the wall coming out of the first turn while attempting to qualify last Saturday but escaped without injury.

The car piloted by F. W. Sparks, Indianapolis, caught fire Sunday. Driver and mechanic jumped to safety.

Caccia was a starter in the 500-mile race last year but did not finish.

ASK PROBE OF INQUIRY BODY

Tenn. Legislature Is Asked to Consider if Gov. Horton Should Be Impeached

Nashville, Tenn., May 26.—(AP)—The Tennessee House of Representatives today authorized appointment of a committee to decide whether impeachment charges should be recommended against Governor Henry H. Horton.

Appointment of the committee was recommended yesterday in a House resolution which was introduced after a majority report of a legislative investigating committee charged the governor had been dominated by Colonel Luke Lea, Nashville publisher and politician, and Rogers Caldwell, former investment banker.

The investigating committee made an extensive inquiry into state affairs after Caldwell's bank, Caldwell and Company, had failed precipitated the closing of many other banks. Nearly $7,000,000 in state funds was on deposit in the closed banks.

The legislature was called upon today to investigate its investigators of state affairs and also to consider a resolution for appointment of a committee to determine if Governor Henry H. Horton should be impeached.

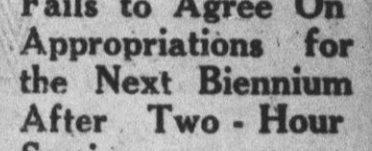

The moves both for and against the administration followed a report of the legislative investigating committee yesterday which charged that Horton had been largely dominated by Colonel Luke Lea, newspaper publisher and politician, and Rogers Caldwell, fallen financier.

A minority of the committee, however, said the majority had listened only to "such facts, hearsays, suspicions and conclusions" that would promote "their plan to compel certain public officials to stand public trial."

The committee's investigation of state affairs was instigated by the failure in fall of four large banks in which Lea and Caldwell were interested and in which nearly $7,000,000 was on deposit.

Senator Hinsdale Condemns Money Raising Measure As a Disappointment to People and An Act Which Will "Cripple the Schools"; Measure to Come Up for Third Reading Tomorrow; Committee Fails to Agree On Appropriations for the Next Biennium After Two-Hour Session

Circus Man Ill

Associated Press Photo Al G. Barnes, circus man, was dangerously ill at Indio, Cal., with an attack of pleural pneumonia.

Raleigh, May 26.—(AP)—The Senate today passed the conference committee report on the biennial revenue bill on second reading 27 to 21 including yeas.

Before the report was approved on second reading, Senator Hinsdale of Wake, author of the Hinsdale luxury tax, read a prepared statement in which he condemned the money raising measure as a disappointment to the people of the state and an act which will "cripple the schools" of North Carolina.

There was no debate on the report, which is based on a 15 cent ad valorem tax levy by the counties to aid the state support of the six months school term.

It is estimated the revenue bill will leave a deficit of something like $1,000,000 annually in the operating expenses of the state and the schools.

Passage of the revenue report by the Senate tomorrow on third reading will open the way for adjournment of the longest continuous session of a North Carolina Legislature in the history of the state as soon as the school machinery, ad valorem machinery, and biennial appropriations bills are enacted. This is expected to be accomplished before Saturday.

Senatorial redistricting, which has proven to be a major subject for discussion in the General Assembly for the past two weeks became more complicated when the House passed on second reading a substitute measure by Representative Edwards of Cleveland to replace the Senate substitute for the original House bill.

Under the Edwards substitute the western half of the state, with its larger increase in population since 1920 than the eastern half, will gain representation in the Senate. Under the Senate substitute the present division of 25 Senators in each half would have continued.

The House last night passed a substitute for the Senate resolution of Senator Clark, which not only limits the cut to ten per cent but also would prevent any increase in eachers' salaries.

The Day-Parker-Young bill to increase the state license tax on chain stores was indefinitely postponed by the House last night on motion of Representative Day, of Onslow, one of its authors. Day said he thought it wise after talking with Attorney General D. G. Brummitt. The state's present chain store tax is before the U. S. Supreme court for a decision on its constitutionality.

The joint conference committee on appropriation met for more than two hours this morning without an agreement being reached on the money spending bill for the next biennium.

The greater part of the argument, committee members said, revolved around the question of further cutting appropriations for educational institutions of the state.

All appropriations had previously been cut materially under the 1929 allotments but as the revenue bill threatens a deficit of more than $1,000,000 annually in school funds alone it is thought that the conference report will show even further trimming.

It had been hoped to present the report ready to present to the Assembly at its noon sessions but it was not completed.

Representative Spence of Moore introduced a joint resolution to the House to authorize the state to pay expenses incurred in the incarceration and trial of 14 girls who were charged with arson in connection with the burning of two buildings at Samaras, state institution for delinquent girls.

Moore and Robeson counties must pay the costs unless the state does.

LEGION WILL HONOR DEAD

Flowers to Be Placed On Graves of Former Service Men May 30

Members of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion will decorate the graves of their dead on May 30.

Following the annual custom, members of the Legion will visit the graves of the veterans in various parts of the county and place upon them a wreath of flowers.

The committees have the names of thirty dead veterans on their list, and persons having knowledge of the graves of veterans not contained on the list are asked to notify J. S. Elliott, commander of the post, or Layton McGugan, adjutant.

Nine of the graves are in Greenville cemeteries and the remainder in widely separated areas of the county.

The Legion has made it a point to honor the dead warriors on this date every year, hoping in that way to keep fresh the memory of their deeds of valor during the greatest war in the history of the world.

The list of graves and committees on decorations follow:

W. Zeno Edwards, Hudson Cross Roads; Charlie R. Buck, Ham Cross Roads. Committee, L. Walter Cherry and A. B. Corey.

Lewis B. McLawhorn, Jasper B. Smith, Charlie Barber, Charlie Harris, Reedy Barber Church. Committee, J. Hicks Corey and W. R. Minshew.

Political Tension Increases in Cuba; President Silent

Havana, May 26.—(AP)—After two days of comparative calm, a tense atmosphere again surrounded Cuba's political problems today.

President Machado is noncommittal and will not take any position in the controversy other than that he has already defined—he has turned questions of reform over to Congress and says he will stand by whatever decision that body makes.

He believes, however, that unless the opposition consolidates all talk of conciliation is useless. At the present time what seems to be acceptable to one faction of the opposition meets with rejection by other factions.

Meanwhile, opposition leaders are again talking of the possibility of revolution. General Mario G. Menocal, former president and regarded as the outstanding anti-administration man at present, is becoming increasingly pessimistic.

"The spirit of revolution prevails among 95 per cent of the leaders of the opposition and in the minds of an equal or perhaps greater percentage of the people," he said today.

"I am doing my very best to stop talk of revolt. I am working hard to persuade the country that revolution would prove harmful rather than beneficial to the nation. But I find that the revolutionary sentiment has practically passed the stage where a single man can persuade the people to change their minds."

Surrenders After Murder of Cousin

New York, May 26.—(AP)—Howard W. Bridgits, 26, a clerk, sought by police for the killing of his cousin, Dr. Joseph T. Loughlin, in a pistol duel walked into headquarters early today with his attorney and surrendered.

The attorney turned a revolver over to a lieutenant and said: "This is the gun, which was used in self defense."

Bridgits, who for two days had been hiding with a bullet wound in his left arm, was given medical treatment and taken to King's county hospital prison ward, Brooklyn, for questioning.

Bridgits was sought as the man who shot the physician in a duel at Marine park, Brooklyn, early Sunday, after a quarrel in which Bridgits, etc., was accused of carrying gossip about the physician to his wife.

Bridgits told police three shots were fired, but he refused to say who fired them. He denied there was a duel and explained his own wound was self-inflicted.

Since Saturday night 11 o'clock, when the shooting took place, he said he had spent the time riding in subways and attending motion picture shows.

Blood stained clothing and a box of cartridges were found in a black bag he carried with him when he surrendered.

Search for Suitable Rival for Sharkey

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, May 26.—(AP)—Flooded by the Federal court's temporary injunction that barred Primo Carnera as an opponent, Jimmy Johnson, boxing promoter, began an intensive search today for a suitable rival for Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight.

Federal Judge John C. Knox yesterday granted the request of Madison Square Garden Corporation of Illinois for an injunction restraining Carnera from meeting Sharkey for Johnson at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, June 10.

The court order barred the ponderous Italian from meeting Sharkey or any other major opponent without the consent of the Illinois corporation which holds a contract on Carnera's services until December 31.

Johnson declared he would appeal the ruling.

"That's just the first round," he said. "You can't win 'em all. But you never saw me quite just because I got knocked down once. I'm going to appeal the decision at once and hope to promote a Carnera-Sharkey fight later in the year. Meanwhile I'm busy digging up some one else to meet Sharkey on June 10."

The name of Tommy Loughran was suggested but the clever Philadelphia manager, Joe Smith, said Tommy was not interested in another bout with Sharkey.

"Tommy has fought his way back to the top," said Smith, "and no longer has to beat Sharkey. The match we wish is with the winner of the Schmeling-Stribling bout in Cleveland."

With Loughran out, Johnson's next best bet looked to be Mickey Walker, who has been belting heavyweights around in fine style for some months. Johnson said he was doing his best to get in touch with Jack Kearns, Walker's manager.

Select Jurors in Girl Market Case

San Diego, Calif., May 26.—(AP)—The trial of Alexander Pantages, theater magnate, and three co-defendants in the "girl market" case continued with the selection of jurors today and with the prospect that the number of defense attorneys would be increased by one to 13.

Defense attorneys were in a hurry for a time yesterday when William Jobelmann, who with Olive Clark Day is alleged to have kept lists of young girls for the entertainment of wealthy Los Angeles and Hollywood men, announced he had dismissed his two lawyers and would plead his own case. He indicated he would disclose in detail the operations of the "market."

Fire Laddies Set Ladies Free From Reducing Parlors

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—Six stout ladies stood in a reducing gymnasium last night.

They wanted to go home to their dinners but couldn't because they were there and the outside was a glass door, which the janitor had locked for the night. For some reason, unknown to the ladies, he had misread seeing them.

It was growing late and one of them suggested that if they smiled and waved their hands they might attract attention of a passerby, who could liberate them.

Several men walked by but merely laughed, and their plan for freedom seemed doomed until Patrick O'Connor came along.

But Pat's hearing isn't so good and he couldn't make out what they were until they wrote on a large card:

"We are locked in. Call the police."

He did. Policemen David Kennedy and Daniel McSharry responded, but concluded they had no right to break the door, so they called the fire department.

One heck and ladder company came, followed by an engine company, a chemical unit and battalion chief arrived. Six husky firemen put their shoulders to the door and six stout ladies went home—to dinner.

Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments, without realizing that worms are the cause of their trouble. Yet, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults.—White's Cream Vermifuge, which you can get at

Council to Ask College Men to Aid in Solving Vexing Prohibition Question

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—A group of distinguished educators gathered quietly and in private today to determine how college graduate students may help to solve in the words of Prohibition Director Woodcock—the "vexed question of what is really happening in the United States as a result of prohibition."

The nine University professors who participated comprised, with one other member, the "Prohibition Advisory Research Council." Its formation was announced by Woodcock two weeks ago.

As the members met in executive session at the prohibition bureau, the general task before them was to "formulate plans for research into the operation of the Eighteenth Amendment in the fields of sociology and political economy."

Specifically, however, they planned to compile a list of subjects relating to prohibition, into which graduate students could conduct research in seeking Masters and Doctors degrees.

Prohibition officials close to the meeting emphasized that council members would conduct no research themselves that their work had no political significance, nor any connection with that of the Wickersham commission.

What was hoped for, it was said, was that with a standardized list of subjects before them students in different parts of the country would select such themes as "Has prohibition affected juvenile drinking?" and thus give a composite view of such a condition.

"Careful investigation in a hundred localities," one official said, "will give a picture more nearly accurate than that of any observer in any one locality."

Plans for the session were indefinite. No specific time was set for its convening, nor for the meeting with Attorney General Mitchell.

Those comprising the council are: Professors Richard C. Cabot of Harvard, Samuel M. Lindsay of Columbia, William S. Carpenter of Princeton, Roderick D. McKinnis of University of Michigan, C. E. Gehlke of Western Reserve University, Walter R. Miles of Stanford, Samuel C. May of the University of California, Dr. Susan Myra Kingsbury, dean of the graduate school, Bryn Mawr, Dr. C. W. Pipkin, dean of the graduate school, University of Louisiana, and Dr. Emory R. Johnson, dean of Warton School of Commerce and Finance, University of Pennsylvania. Professor Cabot did not expect to be present.

Woman Held On Four Charges of Murder, Chicago

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Summers, 47 year old widow, was held to the grand jury on four charges of murder today at the recommendation of a coroner's jury which heard evidence that four men who died in her home were victims of slow poisoning.

Mrs. Summers was found to have been made beneficiary in life insurance policies of ten persons, five of whom died while living at her home. Dr. Clarence Muehlberger, coroner's chemist, testified that he found the woman's husband, 37, her orphaned nephew, Thomas Meyers, 17, and two boarders, W. Redman and Thomas Lanagan, succumbed to poison, the first three apparently from small doses over a long period and Lanagan of acute poisoning.

The chemist's testimony revealing the analysis of poison in the bodies of Lanagan and Rieman was a surprise as it had not been announced that their bodies had been exhumed. Dr. Muehlberger said Rieman's organs had previously been removed but he found traces of the poison in the muscles skin and hair.

The death of the Meyers boy on May 14 brought on the investigation and the subsequent demand of her husband's relatives for an inquiry into his death last August 8.

Fascist Youths Attack Drivers of Vatican Truck

Vatican City, May 26.—(AP)—A purported attack by Fascist youths on the drivers of a Vatican City mail van carrying personal mail of Pope Pius XI puzzled Vatican authorities today.

The drivers reported that while they were crossing the square in front of Palazzo Venezia, Benito Mussolini's headquarters, Sunday morning a young blackshirt leaped on their truck and struck one of them with a stick. Simultaneously, a Fascist militia officer pummeled the other.

The Vatican van had been caught in a traffic jam and was waiting for a profession of automobiles holding Fascist celebrants to proceed. The latter parade through Rome every Sunday waving flags and singing the party hymn in honor of the Fascist "action squad" which was active in the first days of the regime.

One of the drivers sustained injuries to an arm which have incapacitated him for several days. The other received only minor injuries. Vatican authorities said they were unable to ascribe a motive for the incident.

OFTEN SUFFERED AFTER MEALS

Food Seemed to Disagree—How Black-Draught Helped Bring Relief.

"Ten years ago, I began to suffer with spells of constipation," says Mrs. E. J. Wright, of Leicester, N. C. "I would get up in the morning feeling dull and depressed. I had a bad taste in my mouth, and my tongue was coated.

"Everything I ate seemed to disagree with me, and I frequently had gas on the stomach. I suffered constantly with indigestion. I got so I could hardly eat a meal without suffering afterwards.

"I was bilious, and my skin got yellow and sallow.

"I tried several things that were recommended to me, but nothing did me any good until one day I read about Black-Draught. I got a box at once and began taking a pinch after each meal. I soon began to feel better.

"When constipation was relieved, I got all right. I continued to take Black-Draught for several months, and it did me a great deal of good. Since then, I have kept Black-Draught in my home most of the time, as I find it is the best sort of medicine to use for constipation and biliousness."

Let's have a SHOWDOWN on this matter of TIRE COMPARISONS

WITH all the conflicting claims published about tires, it is obvious that misleading statements are being made. The only conclusion that you as a tire buyer can draw is this: either we, as Firestone Dealers, are misrepresenting Firestone products, or that a certain mail order house is not telling the truth about theirs. Both can't be right—one or the other is misleading the public by their comparisons.

Firestone, in their advertising, only make comparisons that can be easily verified by the customer before buying tires. To attempt to substitute the comparisons made by this mail order house, it would be necessary to go into a laboratory and employ experts.

The very reason that the comparisons made in Firestone advertising enable you to get the facts yourself, makes it unnecessary for Mr. Firestone to make affidavit on the truth of his statements or to file any complaint with the Federal Trade Commission, and then advertise it, in an attempt to lead the public to believe his statements were true.

Mr. Firestone doesn't ask you to accept comparisons about Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires until you see the facts yourself. Neither do we. All we ask is that you make your own comparison.

We have cross sections cut from special brand mail order tires purchased from stocks of mail order houses and from Firestone Tires—no "tricky" or misleading comparisons—come in today and make your own comparisons for Quality, Construction, and Prices. YOU and YOU ALONE be the judge!

*A "Special Brand" Tire is made by a manufacturer for distributors such as mail order houses, oil companies and others, under a name that does not identify the tire manufacturer to the public, usually because he holds his "first line" tires under his own name. Firestone puts his name on every tire he makes.

In Choosing Your Sterling Silver Let a Comparison Indicate Your Choice

The Kirk CALVERT

Is a beautiful plain design, Southern Colonial in conception, adapting itself nicely to the engraving of initials or family crest. It is America's greatest value in plain silver.

The Kirk REPOUSE

This richly decorative flower and foliage design was originated by Kirk over fifty years ago. It has never been equalled in quality or workmanship or beauty of design.

In selecting Sterling Silver—whether for yourself or for gifts—it is helpful to know that Kirk has made solid silverware only for over a century, that Kirk is the largest manufacturing silver-smith in the South, and that Kirk Silver has been chosen by prominent families throughout America. The deciding test, however, is an actual comparison of quality of workmanship, beauty of design, weight and price. Such a comparison will reveal Kirk Silver as America's Greatest Value in Sterling Silver.

ABOUT TOWN

The farm people of this part of the country have been urged to conserve food supplies for the fall and winter months.

The movement will mean that the farmers will have their supply houses stocked with provisions and be able to live regardless of the trend of prices for the money crops.

Such preparation should certainly place the people in better position to combat the changing economic situation than in previous years, and much of the suffering which has existed among the farming communities should be relieved.

The manager of city streets is beginning a campaign against mosquitoes in the city of Greenville with the hope of decreasing the prevalence of the insect as much as possible during the hot summer months.

He has asked the people to inspect the gutters around their houses and see that they are relieved of all obstructions that cause them to clog up and afford stoppage of water. Water in such places stagnates and affords the best place imaginable for the breeding of mosquitoes.

This inspection applies not only to gutters but everything around the premises capable of holding water. If the people would co-operate there is no reason why the antimalarial campaign should not meet with success this season, and enable the city to pass through the summer without being worried to the point of distraction by swarms of mosquitoes.

The Southern Tobacco Journal, publication devoted to the development of the tobacco markets in this section of the country, believes that Greenville is headed for the goal of a hundred million pounds of tobacco a season. Commenting on the progress of the local market the last several years, the Journal said the development of the center had resulted from wise publicity methods.

The writer pointed out the value of letting the world know what the markets have to offer, and urged others to adopt the plan which has made Greenville rank with the greatest markets of the world.

Greenville people are proud of such recognition. It makes the tobaccoists more determined than ever to reach the new goal, and the coming season will see them reaching out into the new territory attempting to surpass the records of previous years.

The high school baseball season is over and the public is looking forward expectantly to the organization of an amateur league to furnish sport during the summer months.

There is plenty of material for such an organization in the various towns and cities of this part of the state, and if somebody would start the movement there are plenty who would be glad to help push it to completion.

As to material that should not be difficult to get. There is an abundance of college and old league players in and around this city who would be glad to help push it to formation of a league, and would furnish a splendid brand of ball if given proper encouragement.

Persons interested in such a project should begin taking it at once and in that way let their sentiment be known.

Advertising pays and especially at this time of the year when thousands of people are in need of more things than any other season.

A man came into this office a day or so ago and related the success of an advertisement pertaining to the sale of a house.

He said he found a buyer in less than a week after the advertisement was inserted, showing conclusively that people read the advertising columns of the daily paper and buy when they find their wants mentioned. The Reflector goes into thousands of homes in this part of the state every day of the year except Sunday, and each day it carries messages from the progressive business houses—organizations forever on the alert to let the trading public know what they have to offer.

BEGIN FIGHT ON CANCERS

Practical Method to Reduce Deaths Outlined By Society for Cancer Control

New York, May 26.—(AP)—A "practical" method of "beginning to reduce" cancer deaths in this country is made public today in a report by the directors of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

This may be done, they state, by establishment of special cancer institutes, hospitals, services and clinics. The institutes should be affiliated with universities and include in their programs education, research and treatment in the field of cancer programs.

"It does not seem too much to hope," says the report, "that the further development of cancer clinics throughout the country and their coordination through the American College of Surgeons may raise the standards of treatment of cancer, and as a practical result begin to reduce the frightful mortality from this disease."

The report recounts an improvement in earlier reporting of the beginnings of cancer. "The general lack of knowledge regarding the significance of early signs," it states, "the failure to appreciate the disastrous results of delayed diagnosis and treatment, the inability to distinguish between good and bad treatment, and the feeling that the affliction is a stigma, are each and all responsible for a vast amount of unnecessary suffering and death."

"It is encouraging to note, however, that the situation in this respect has definitely improved in this country during the past decade. Physicians report that an increasing proportion of cases are coming to them earlier in the stage of the disease, with a resulting higher percentage of cures. The public is becoming more familiar with the beginning signs of cancer; they appreciate more keenly the importance of early action; the subject is discussed with greater frankness."

Private agencies largely have caused this improvement, with a few governmental bodies assisting in recent years, says the report. It adds that there is room for wise investment of additional funds in this part of the work.

The present knowledge of the general medical profession regarding cancer is very inadequate, the report states. "To the average physician early cancer is a comparatively unrecognized disease, and advanced cancer a hopeless problem. The situation is readily explained by the fact that the general practitioner encounters relatively few cases of cancer and lacks the necessary facilities for its diagnosis and treatment. There is also at present inadequate instruction on the subject of cancer in most of the medical schools throughout the country; which is due in some measure to a lack of appreciation of the possibilities and in part to a lack of facilities to make cases available for study."

In the past 25 years scientific research has uncovered much important cancer information "all of it useful in clearing the way and laying the foundation for further advance."

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Place your finger on your Adam's Apple. You are actually touching your larynx—this is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple you are considering your throat—your vocal chords.

What is the effect of modern Ultra Violet Rays upon tobacco? Dr. E. E. Free, one of America's well-known scientists, who was retained by us to study Lucky Strike's manufacturing process, addressing the Illuminating Engineering Society, said:

"The essential effect of the Ultra Violet is the production of better tobacco and of cigarettes regarded by virtually all smokers who have tested them as milder and with a lesser tendency to cause throat irritation."

Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette that employs Ultra Violet Rays in connection with its exclusive "TOASTING" Process—the only cigarette that brings you the benefits of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos.

ATHLETICS BEAT YANKS TWO TIMES

By Gayle Talbot, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
There was another parcel of bad news today for the large but select group awaiting the official "cracking" of the Philadelphia Athletics. About all Connie Mack's young men appear likely to crack this season is the existing American League record for consecutive victories.

By defeating the New York Yankees in both ends of yesterday's double header at Shibe Park, 4 to 2 and 16 to 4, the champions ran their string to 17 straight and staked themselves to a five-game lead over the field. Idle because of rain at Boston, the Washington Senators eased into second place. If they win from the Yankees the next two afternoons, the A's will tie the American League mark for consecutive triumphs, set by the Chicago White Sox in 1906. In a way, they will have bettered the previous record, as the Sox were held to one time in settling up their long string.

The most significant feature of yesterday's double win was the pitching of Leroy MacHaffey in the nightcap. The young righthander, one of Mack's "second string" moundsmen, held the Yankees to one hit for the first seven innings and fanned five. He had nothing to worry about after his mates flitted him out with a nine-run lead in the first inning.

Lefty Grove scored his fifth consecutive victory in the first game when he outduelled young Henry Johnson. Twice, with two Yanks on and only one out, he struck out the last two batters.

Curve, Earnshaw and Walberg each has contributed four wins to the Athletics' present streak, while Rommel and MacHaffey each has scored a pair. The odd one was credited to Hank McDonald.

Wes Ferrell had to rush to Willis Huddlin's aid in the ninth inning before the Cleveland Indians could record a 7 to 6 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Goig into the final round three runs to the good, Huddlin weakened and put the first two men on base before Ferrell appeared. Both scored while Ferrell was retiring the side. Eddis Morgan hit his first homer of the year with one on in the sixth.

The Chicago Cubs pounded three pitchers for 11 hits to defeat Pittsburgh, 9 to 6, in the National League's lone encounter. Les Sweetland went the route for the winners and had only two bad innings.

Prepare for Races At Indianapolis

Indianapolis, May 26.—(AP)—With but two days left in which to qualify for the 500-mile automobile races here Saturday, drivers today speeded up activity in the garages to tune their cars for the ten-mile speed test. Sixteen positions remained to be filled in the starting field of forty cars. Five drivers qualified yesterday. They were: Jimmy Gleason, Philadelphia, 111,400 miles per hour; Francis Quinn, Los Angeles, 111,321; Francis Farmer, Philadelphia, 108,903; Phil (Red) Shafer, De Moines, Ia., 105,103; and John Boling, Indianapolis, 102,800.

William (Shorty) Canton, of Detroit, was working to overcome trouble that developed yesterday in the front axle of his car after he had turned several fast laps. Others who expected to try for starting positions today or tomorrow included Louis Meyer, former American driving champion; Ralph DePalma, veteran of races who has returned after several years' absence; L. L. Corum, and Fred Winnal of Philadelphia who has been given one of Louis Schneider's entries. Winnal's Philadelphia was badly burned in an accident last year after finishing third in the race. Fred Duesenberg, race car builder, whose speedsters have three times won the 500-mile grind here, announced today that with the running of Saturday's event, he is retiring from actual competition.

CAPS AGAIN BEAT BEES

By PAUL SIMMONS
Charlotte, May 26.—(AP)—It takes Al Yergin the madden marvel, to handle the Charlotte Bees. The marvel, twirling ace of the Raleigh Caps, started working on the Bees last week in Charlotte. He fanned six of them, enabling the Caps to take a 3 to 1 victory and scotch themselves in their climb towards the league pinnacle.

Last night at Raleigh, Al finished the job. Working with his old time brilliancy, he caused 8 of the slug-ging Bees to whiff and hit nothing but thin air, and yielded two lone, some hits for the match. The Caps won 5 to 3, and climbed into the loop leadership with a .680 average, a half game above the Hornets.

The greatest slaughter of the night was wrought in the Bull City. George White's Durham nine went on a rampage, slashed out 23 hits and beat the Winston Twins 19 to 5.

After the inspired Bulls had rapped Russell Haines for 5 bingles in one inning, old Bunn Hearn, the Twin skipper, himself took the bill. The Bulls touched him for 18 safeties before the game ended.

Something of the same slugging spirit prevailed among the Pats in their fracas with Dan Boone's High Pointers at Greensboro. With Prim holding the visitors to 5 bingles, the Pats wouldn't be satisfied until they had walloped the offerings of Blue, Townsend and Morton for 18 smacking hits. They won the ball game, 13 to 3.

Big Tim Murchison and his Gamecock mates had the situation well in hand at Henderson. He allowed the Asheville Tourists 7 hits but his mates took care of all these, and the Gamecocks blanked the Tourists 5 to 0.

It may be of interest to note that the boys open up for business today at the same stands. This should offer an opportunity to avenge some of the bloody work of yesterday and last night.

CROSSING THE DELAWARE—1931 STYLE

The Delaware has been crossed again—but not in the same manner George Washington crossed it in Revolutionary war days. Troops from Camp Dix, N. Judge to Decide On Stribling Bout With German Soon

Cleveland, May 26.—(AP)—Whether W. L. Young, Stribling, who "intends to win undah the rules" will be allowed to meet Max Schmeling for the heavy weight championship here July 3 will be decided next week by common pleas Judge Thomas M. Kennedy.

The judge announced after a hearing yesterday that he would take a few days to consider the injunction-suit of Attorney J. H. Mellon, who claims the bout is a vice fight and thus prohibited by Ohio law.

The drawing Georgia contender, himself the less defense witness, said he had knocked out 127 opponents in 266 bouts and admitted he "proposed to contend" with Schmeling, a "nothep publicist."

"The fight will exhaust one of you until he will no longer be able to withstand the attack of the other?" asked Mellon.

"Oh, my no," interjected Judge Kennedy. "Why, that would be a prize fight."

"Isn't it a fact, Mr. Stribling, that you may knock out Schmeling in this contest?" pursued Mellon.

"Let's hope so," said the judge. "Oh, I beg your pardon."

Stribling announced his intention of winning, and there the matter rests after Judge Kennedy heard final arguments of Mellon and Assistant City Director H. S. Brainerd, who asserted the fight will be a legal "boxing exhibition."

Terrible Terry Wins State Crown

Charlotte, May 26.—(AP)—Terrible Terry Roberts, the McAdams man killer, today had come into his glory. The Gaston County mauler has been hammering the tough boys in the squared circle for several years but now he is the light heavy-weight champion of the Carolinas. Roberts said he won the crown by a technical knockout over Al Massey, of Goldsboro, here last night. He drove into the Goldsboro boy in the sixth round and smashed two of his ribs. Massey was unable to answer the bell for the seventh of the scheduled 10-round go. Roberts weighed 160 pounds, and Massey 175-1-2. Rambling Rufus Miles, Charlotte won a ten-round decision from Billy Durkett, Roanoke, Va.; Jim Swinac, Charlotte, knocked out the Rev. Saffel, Kannapolis, in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout. Pewee Russell, Kannapolis, took a six round decision from Quinn Howe, Gastonia.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, May 26.—(AP)—Cotton opened easy 9 to 14 points lower and again established new low levels for the season under general selling promoted by weakness abroad where the foreign markets showed a full response to our declines over the Whitstide holidays since last Friday.

The decline attracted a fair amount of trade buying and covering, however, and the market rallied partially from the lowest. Continued favorable weather over practically the entire cotton belt contributed to the weakness and the off-take was comparatively small. July sold down to 8.60 and December to 9.15 representing net losses of 13 to 15 points at the end of the first hour the market showed rallies of 8 to 10 points from the low.

A private estimate indicated a decrease of 11.1 per cent in the new acreage while the New York Cotton Exchange service estimated April consumption of American cotton at 985,000 bales compared with 973,000 in March and 1,068,000 in April last year.

Liverpool cabled that the market there was influenced by general liquidation and uncovering of stop orders and said that Manchester was disorganized.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—Increasing reports of severe drought conditions in Canada and of diminishing crop prospects in Kansas lifted wheat prices sharply late today.

It was asserted that 9,000,000 acres of the 22,000,000 acres of wheat land in the Canadian prairie provinces were in need of immediate rain.

A Chicago crop authority just returned from Kansas, expressed belief that Kansas this season would raise only about 150,000,000 bushels of wheat, approximately the same as last year, whereas recently the traders have been figuring on 230,000,000.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 26.—(AP)—An irritable oscillation of share prices in the early trading finally made a pronounced upturn in today's stock prices.

It was announced before the opening that the exchange's committee on business conduct had circulated a general questionnaire demanding full information as to the scope and identity of the bear interest. Bears were not frightened into any immediate or hasty withdrawal, but moderate waves of short covering began to sweep over the market.

The list had a sinking spell at the opening, and another just before noon, but gained strength thereafter, and early losses of 1 to 5 points were cancelled or modified and gains of similar extent were recorded.

U. S. Steel, after sinking a point to a new low at 92 1/4, rebounded 3 points. American Can was a strong spot, rising 4. Miscellaneous issues getting up 2 to 3 included Bethlehem Steel, DuPont, American Telephone and Woolworth. A sprinkling of rails, motors and utilities were weak in the morning.

Despite the better tone in the New York market, however, brokerage circles remained rather gloomy over prospects for the near future. Rebounds have a way of bursting forth explosively when sentiment is gloomiest, and board room comments would lead to the conclusion that the market is in a perpetual decline.

But more conservative traders are disinclined to follow explosive upturns, particularly at this time, when second quarter statements of earnings are in the nearby offing, and are confidently expected to make some discouraging reading. Nevertheless, there is a growing feeling that the list is getting near the bottom.

The attacking fleet includes the light cruiser Clemson and destroyer divisions three and seven.

ASK PROBE OF INJURY BODY

(Continued From Page One) 000,000 of state funds were on deposit. The move to investigate the investigators was announced by Representative Grover Charris who said he planned to introduce a resolution to that effect. In a statement he said that "if rumors are true I feel like the conduct of at least some members of the committee should be investigated." Meanwhile the delegation from Shelby county are sponsoring the resolution to appoint a committee to determine whether the House should impeach Horton.

It was introduced yesterday with 44 signatures. Fifty votes are necessary for its adoption. Congressman Edward H. Crump, of Memphis, county seat of Shelby, who is one of the most powerful Democratic leaders of the state, has been demanding Horton's impeachment for several months.

RENEWS PLEA FOR AID IN MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN

George Clark, manager of the city streets, who yesterday called on the people of Greenville to clean gutters around their houses and in that way aid in the campaign to rid the city of mosquitoes during the summer, renewed his plea for co-operation today, declaring that this was a public health improvement that deserved the consideration of all people.

Many sisters stopped up with leaves during the fall season, are lined with saphant water, affording the best place in the world for the breeding of mosquitoes, Mr. Clark stated.

By clearing the premises of all receptacles which hold water, the mosquito should be eliminated entirely this summer.

CASE AGAINST DIRECTORS OF BANK DRAWS NEAR END The suit of J. L. Harrington against directors of the defunct Bank of Ayden was expected to be completed Wednesday or Thursday. Court continued the taking of evidence in the case today, and it was believed this would be completed probably tomorrow.

Harrington is suing the bank officials for $1,100 which he claims to have deposited shortly before the closing of the institution and as a time when its officers knew it to be in an insolvent condition. The directors contend that they knew nothing of the shaky condition of the bank at the time the deposit was received and are not responsible.

Study Protest of Pope Pius Against Recent Disorders Madrid, May 26.—(AP)—The protest of Pope Pius XI against the recent anti-Catholic riots in Spain was being studied today by the provisional government in an effort to frame a suitable reply.

Minister of Interior Miguel Maura announced that the note had been received, but declined to reveal its contents.

"We are not able to do that yet," he said in answer to requests. "I would be a breach of etiquette. I assure you the note was very cordial. It seems to be more of a prayer to God for everybody's par-
