REPORT NEW CHARGES IN HORTON CASE

Tennessee Governor Blamed For Depositing State Funds in Defunct Bank.

Nashville, Tenn., June 2.—(AP)—Blame for the depositing of millions of state funds in the Bank of Tennessee, a subsidiary of Caldwell and Company, investment banking house, both of which are now defunct was laid at the door of Governor Henry H. Horton in one of seven additional articles of impeachment against him which were reported to the Tennessee House of Representatives today.

It was charged that on August 14, 1930, the governor called the state funding board into session and that some member of it, in the governor's presence and with his knowledge and participation, directed preparation of a resolution and "undertook" to make the "so-called" Bank of Tennessee the depository of all state bridge funds. More than $3,000,000 of bridge funds was on deposit when the bank failed last November.

The first article of impeachment, reported to the House by its committee last week, charged Governor Horton conspired with Rogers Caldwell, financier, and Colonel Luke Lea, newspaper and publisher and politician to influence governmental affairs for their personal gain in exchange for their political support.

Caldwell was president of Caldwell and Company and the Bank of Tennessee.

Five of the new charges were made public last night by John Tipton, chairman of the special committee that prepared them, but none of them made such sweeping charges as the first article.

Both sides already have laid claim to victory. Fifty of the 99 House votes are required for impeachment and 22 of the 33 Senate votes are required to sustain impeachment should the House vote it.

The failure last fall of several banks in which Lea and Caldwell were interested, resulting in the tie-up of nearly $7,000,000 of state funds, brought first demands for an investigation of state affairs. One of the new articles alleges that Governor Horton issued a pardon to "Billy" Wilkerson, former Memphis night club operator, while Wilkerson was a fugitive from justice under conviction for operating a gambling house. The article states Wilkerson was given a pardon a few days after the August primary of 1928.

Another charge that three days after Governor Horton signed a legislative appropriation bill of 1929 with the express reservation that an appropriation of $2,800 for a piano for the executive mansion would not be used, a $2,800 piano was delivered to the mansion and paid for out of state funds.

Other articles allege that Nell Bass and Harry S. Berry, former state highway commissioners were "tyrannically" discharged because of their refusal to conform to the wishes of Colonel Lea and Caldwell.

Both commissioners the articles assert, refused to specify rock asphalt without competition on high way projects. Caldwell and Company which Rogers Caldwell was president owned controlling interest in the Kentucky Rock Asphalt Company. It was asserted. Both commissioners, the proposed indictments further charge, refused to route highways through property in which Colonel Lea was interested.

Another article charges that Governor Horton failed to make or have made an estimate of average daily balances handed by his various commissioners with a view of passing upon the amount of bond each should be required to make.

CHURCH PLANS TO CUT DEBT

Presbyterians Hear Recommendations For Reorganization Of Activities.

Moiretreat, N. C., June 2.—(AP)—Reorganization of the administrative work of the Presbyterian church in the United States was recommended to the church's General Assembly today by a committee which said the assembly was under the "imperative necessity" of reducing expenses and liquidating debts.

The recommendation was contained in the report of a special committee appointed to study the work of the committee of the assembly's work, better known as the "committee of forty-four."

The Rev. J. L. Mauze, of Kansas City, explaining the report, said the "committee of forty-four" should be abolished and a central committee of eleven members be created.

In 1927, the committee of forty-four was organized to carry on the assembly's work and supervise the agencies of the church.

"It would seem that the task committed to the committee," the report of the special committee said, "was impracticable and impossible. The expected economies and greater efficiency have not been effected."

Asserting that the assembly's agencies were in debt, $657,965.36, the report said:

"This assembly is under the imperative necessity of simplifying our form of organization, of reducing our expenses and of devising measures for the liquidation of our debts."

The report recommended that "in the interest of economy and efficiency of operation the committees on stewardship and finance, women's work, men's work and the country church be located as soon as practicable in Atlanta, Ga. and in the same building."

The Rev. Ernest Thompson, of Charleston, W. Va., and W. M. Everett, of Atlanta, members of the committee of forty-four, defended the work of the committee. "The trouble with our church," said Mr. Thompson, "is that it doesn't have a plan and stick to it long enough to find out if it will work."

He said he did not think it "fair" to blame the committee for the present economic conditions.

Mr. Everett asserted the committee had brought "team work" into the church work.

Mr. Mauze, saying the committee's work had cost $4,500, asked if "it takes $4,500 for Christian men to dwell in unity and peace."

Although Sentence Was Expected This Afternoon at Two O'clock, Court is Adjourned Until Tomorrow Without any Action Being Taken; Court Denied Motions for New Trial During Morning Session

Asheville, June 2.—(AP)—Judge M. V. Barnhill this afternoon adjourned Superior Court until nine thirty o'clock tomorrow morning without sentencing Wallace B. Davis, former bank president, who has been convicted of making a false report of the condition of the now defunct Central Bank and Trust Company of this city.

Judge Barnhill this morning recessed court until two o'clock this afternoon to allow attorneys for the defendant to prepare a petition dealing with severity of the sentence to be imposed.

When the session reconvened at two o'clock, no statement was made by either state or defense, Judge Barnhill merely announcing that court would be adjourned until tomorrow. The court this morning denied motions for arrest of judgment and a new trial.

Davis was found guilty three weeks ago of publishing a false report of the condition of the defunct Central Bank and Trust Company of Asheville. He was president of the bank which closed last fall.

The crash of the bank swept away the deposits of thousands of citizens of this section, causing losses of $20,000,000, of which $9,000,000 were funds of the City of Asheville. A score of affiliated banks also closed as a result of the Central's failure.

Sentencing of Davis had been postponed until completion of his second trial in connection with the bank's failure. It was a charge of perverting the credit of Buncombe county in order to keep the bank from closing. This trial ended yesterday in a not guilty verdict for Davis and for Newton M. Anderson former chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and L. L. Jenkins, former county treasurer, on trial with him.

Previously Judge Barnhill had non-suited similar cases against C. N. Malone, bond attorney, Russell Davis, and former county commissioner James Grimes and J. O. McElroy, on the ground that the state's evidence did not support the indictment.

The defendants in this case, were Wallace Davis, Russell Davis, C. N. Malone, J. Charles Bradford, former Mayor Gallatin Roberts who committed suicide after being indicted, J. E. Gibson, city treasurer (Continued on page three)

CANADA PUTS HIGH TARIFFS ON U. S. GOODS

New Rates, Affecting Two Hundred Commodities, Become Effective Today.

Ottawa, June 2.—(AP)—Increased tariffs were in effect today on 200 commodities, many of which Canada imports in the greatest quantity from the United States.

Coal, steel, automobiles, oranges and corn are among the items imported into Canada from the United States upon which Premier R. B. Bennett declared increased duties yesterday in his budget speech before Parliament.

In addition to the schedules which became effective with their announcement, a duty of 15 cents per pound to become effective on July 1, was announced on magazines. Canada cannot afford to be unprotected against the competition of countries protected by high tariffs, Premier Bennett said. He added that his government stands or falls by its policy of protection to Canadian industry.

Anthraxite, which was on the free list, is subjected to a tariff of 40 cents a ton under the new rates. Last year Canada imported $28,000,000 worth of this fuel, most of which came from the United States. The rate on bituminous coal was increased from 50 cents to 75 cents a ton. There is a drawback of 99 per cent on bituminous coal used for smelting. The rate on coke, which was on the free list is fixed at $1 a ton. Charcoal was increased to $7.50 a ton.

Automobiles are divided into three classes for the purpose of fixing tariff schedules. Cars costing $1,200 or less are admitted under the former rate. An increase from 27-1-2 per cent to 30 per cent is provided for cars costing more than $1,200 the rate is increased from $2,100 the rate is increased from 27-1-2 per cent to 40 per cent.

Oranges of which Canada imports $10,000,000 worth a year, largely from the United States, and which were on the free list are now subject to a tariff of 50 cents per cubic foot capacity of the container. Premier Bennett estimated that the new rates would produce $78,175,000 in additional revenue.

Dr. George Edward Deely Clubbed And Stabbed to Death by Unknown Assailant.

Dr. Deely apparently had been attacked by someone he knew and did not fear, police said. The door to his bedroom and the outside doors of his four-story brick house all were locked, and no windows were open.

Arthur Lindars and his wife, Norma, servants, slept on the floor above the doctor. They said they slept through the night undisturbed. Near the bed on which his body, clad in pajamas and dressing gown (Continued on page three)

Florida Senate Overrides Governor Carlton's Veto Of Pari-Mutuel Race Bill

Tallahassee Fla., June 2.—(AP)—The Florida Senate today overrode Governor Doyle E. Carlton's veto of the first race track and pari-mutuel bill ever passed by the state legislature. The vote was 26 to 12.

The bill would legalize horse and dog racing and the use of pari-mutuel wagering systems in Florida and local approval would be required in each county where race meets were to be held. Supervision of racing operations would be placed under a commission of five members appointed by the governor, one from each congressional district.

The state would receive three per cent of gross wagers and 15 per cent of admissions. An annual occupational tax of $10 would be levied on each employe at tracks. Minors would not be allowed at the tracks. Governor Carlton vetoed the bill last Friday.

FALL HOPES TO GET PARDON

Also Sees Chance To Escape Prison On Account of Age and Ill Health.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Failing to obtain relief through the Supreme Court, Albert E. Fall today had remaining two narrow avenues of escape from a year in prison and a $100,000 fine.

The interior secretary in Harding's cabinet was refused a review by the highest tribunal yesterday of his conviction of accepting a $100,000 bribe from Edward L. Doheny, wealthy oil man, in leasing government oil lands.

If Fall receives a presidential pardon he will be relieved of the entire penalty, but if that fails there remains the hope of his age and ill-health.

At the White House it was said no appeal in behalf of Fall had been received and if one were made, it would follow the usual course and be sent to the Justice Department for recommendations.

Fall's friends found little comfort in that, but the recommendation to the trial judge at the time of his conviction led them to believe his chances for a suspension of the sentence good.

Justice Hitt, the trial judge, said then if Fall were to come before him for commitment the jail sentence would not be imposed because of Fall's physical condition. Few legal formalities remain before the question is settled.

The Supreme Court today notified the District of Columbia Court of Appeals that it would not review the case. The Appeals Court recently affirmed his conviction. Its order that the sentence be executed was expected to be sent to the District of Columbia Supreme court immediately after the notification.

There the matter will rest until Atee Pomerene, special prosecutor for the government in the oil (Continued on page three)

DR. JOYNER GIVES ADVICE TO GRADUATES

Noted Educator Tells E. C. T. C. Students About Three M's of Education.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, one of North Carolina's leading educators and the first chairman of the board of trustees of East Carolina Teachers College, gave the graduates of that institution some valuable advice gained from the many faithful years of endeavor which he has spent in North Carolina's educational field.

"The three M's of education," he said, "are of vital importance in dealing with the topic of education." These he listed as Money, Manhood and Mastery. "Money," he stated, "can prove a curse or a blessing. Manhood must control money through Mastery. The great reward of taxpayers, said the speaker, "is in seeing the transformation of manhood. Education for manhood is more important than education for money. Mastery, he brought out, "transforms matter into money, likewise there is no manhood without mastery." He pointed out to the graduates that there is no mastery without drudgery and no strength without struggle. In summing up the values of the three M's of education, Dr. Joyner strongly asserted that all money, manhood and mastery were as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal unless consecrated to the will of God.

Pres. Robert H. Wright read the list of donations to the college for the past year. They are: R. D. W. Connor for grounds $50; A. B. Andrews for A. B. Andrews Loan Fund, $500; Grand Lodge of Masons for Masonic Loan Fund, $1000; Classes of 1931 $257.32; P. T. A. of Training School, $100; Poe Society, $80. Prof. M. L. Wright and J. J. Blair were in charge of the plans of planting.

Scholarships for the past year were won by Magie McPherson, of Haw River; Cullis Stafford, of Mooresville; Loree Cagle, of Ruthersford and Mary Clifton of Faison. The Lida Hill Meadows Music Scholarship was held by Lelia Thomas and Dorothy Sloan.

Two students of East Carolina Teachers College, Thelma Cherry and Juanita Worsley, won first and second places respectively in the American Chemical Society's Essay Contest for 1930-31. This award carries with it a first prize of $500 and a second prize of $300. The money was made possible by the donation of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Garvan of New York City. This is a signal honor to the college and teacher as well as to the pupils.

TWO CARS OF HOGS SHIPPED

Hogs and Chickens Bring Pitt County Growers $25,000 During The Year.

Two carloads of hogs left Greenville today for northern markets, according to information given out this morning by E. F. Arnold, director of the Department of Agriculture.

The shipment brought the season's total to fourteen carloads. Mr. Arnold said, which netted the farmers in the neighborhood of $15,000.

The poultry season was brought to a close with a carload shipment to distributing centers two weeks ago. Mr. Arnold said five carloads of chickens had been sold this season and the farmers received approximately $10,000.

The hog and poultry industry has brought the farmers a total sum of $25,000 this year they would not have had they not given attention to this extra source of revenue.

The industry has been receiving interest from farmers of several communities the last several years and each year witnesses the receipt of a comfortable sum to help relieve the depression existing during the summer months.

It is believed about the interest in the future in view of the depression existing on the market for principal money crops.

MEN OF GRAY IN REUNION

Five Hundred Confederate Veterans Meet at Montgomery For Four-Day Encampment.

Montgomery, Ala., June 2.—(AP)—The boom of cannon and the shrill notes of reveille today gave a military atmosphere to Camp Stephens, where more than 500 Confederate veterans are encamped for their 41st annual reunion.

The blasts of the bugle also denoted the beginning of a round of four days of activity for the survivors of the regiments that followed Lee and Jackson, their commander-in-chief, General W. P. Stephens of Couthatch, La., today receives the keys to Alabama from Governor B. M. Miller, marking the official opening of the reunion.

While this had been described as the "last" reunion, there was every indication that the veterans would select a site for the 42nd next year, with Richmond, Va., bidding for it and Washington, D. C., mentioned.

"So long as two of us can get together to raise the rebel yell, and some southern city wants us, there will be a reunion," said veterans, asked if this would be the "last."

The first session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association today will mark the beginning of formal convention routine, and tonight United Sons of Confederate Veterans, open their 36th annual convention.

The first business session of the United Confederate Veterans will be held tomorrow.

The veterans today had a day of amusement before them, with a band concert nearly every hour, vaudeville, moving picture shows and sight seeing tours to Confederate shrines in this, "the cradle of the Confederacy."

The entertainment committee had bands of roving minstrels on the streets, including old time fiddlers, buck and wing dancers, jubilee singers and quartets giving impromptu programs.

Every veteran who wished to make a visit to some place in town had only to make his wish known and transportation and a Boy Scout escort were at hand.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—The statue of the only President of the Confederate states—Jefferson Davis—was accepted by the federal government today from his native state of Mississippi.

The bronze figure of the statesman was placed in Statuary Hall along with that of J. Z. George, another soldier and senator hero of that southern state, near the statues of the noted of other states. Unveiling ceremonies were to be held late today.

Cardinal Pietro Gasparri Believed to Have Taken Hand In New Crisis Affecting Catholics and Italian Government; Situation Regarded Gravest In Recent Times.

Rome, June 2.—(AP)—Cardinal Pietro Gasparri, who as papal secretary of state signed the lateral treaty in 1929, is believed to have taken a hand in the new crisis in relations between the Vatican and the Italian government which has resulted in dissolution by Premier Mussolini of all the Catholic youth clubs in Italy.

It is understood that the cardinal is laying the ground work for official negotiations to prevent what appears to be a new parting of the ways between the church and the state. He is one of those, it is said, who regard this situation as one of the gravest in recent times and threatening both the Lateran treaty and the Concordat between Rome and the Holy See.

American interests are still involved, for permission extended unofficially yesterday for reopening of playgrounds operated by the American Knights of Columbus has not been approved by the premier. Papal Count Edward A. Hearn in charge of the playgrounds, already has filed a protest, as the American embassy and now he will urge the ambassador to file his own with the Italian government.

At noon today the Pontiff had received as word from the Italian government in reply to his note of protest regarding the dissolution of the Catholic societies. Officially he is still in the dark and actually, it is said, he is ignorant of Mussolini's real intentions.

The decree of dissolution, signed by the premier on Sunday night which was the Pope's seventy-fourth birthday, did not mention Catholic organization specifically but directed dissolution of all societies not actively connected with the Fascist party.

The Vatican insists that the dissolution violated the Concordat between the two governments but it is expected that until there is an official Italian statement the Vatican State Department will withhold action. This is the forty-ninth anniversary of the death of Garibaldi whose troops fought the Papal army and were instrumental in making the Pope a "prisoner" in the Vatican for fifty-nine years.

The unofficial conversations in which Cardinal Gasparri is said to be participating, were undertaken, it is believed, because the aged statesman is able to talk to Mussolini with some frankness partly as a result of their negotiations concerning the Lateran treaty. Also there is a sort of deadlock in the usual diplomatic channels for neither the Pope nor Mussolini has received the accredited representatives of the other's government for a month or more.

French President Defers Honeymoon Until End of Term

Paris, June 2.—(AP)—President Gaston Doumergue, married yesterday after decades of bachelorhood, will postpone his honeymoon until the end of his term on June 13.

An official announcement said that he would remain alone in the Elysee palace until he is relieved by President-elect Paul Doumer and that Mme. Doumergue would go to his villa at Tournefeuille, near Toulouse.

M. Doumergue already has sent most of his personal possessions to the new home, including a library of modern French literature and a radio set. He and his bride have been rehabilitating the villa for some time.

Mme. Doumergue is the widow of Philippe Jean Graves a government official, from whom she inherited a comfortable fortune. She is a Catholic while her husband is a Protestant.

Honor Bride-Elect

Farmville, May 31.—Honoring Miss Mary Barrett, whose engagement to Mr. Zeb M. Whitehurst of Greenville, was recently announced, Misses Elizabeth and Janie Davis entertained at a delightful luncheon Friday at their home on Church street.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with flowers, and ferns, the bridal colors of green and white being used effectively. The table was distinctive with an imported lace cloth, centered with a large silver bowl of brides' roses and sweet peas, which was flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra. A four course luncheon was served at 1:00, covers being laid for twelve. The honoree was presented with a package containing Madria napkins.

Those enjoying the Misses Davis' hospitality were, Miss Mary Barrett, Mrs. Herold Suggs Askew and Mrs. Harry L. Lane, recent brides; Miss Tabitha deViscenti, Mrs. Plato Monk, Mrs. W. D. Bryan, Mrs. A. W. Bobbit, Mrs. C. T. Dixon and Mrs. M. V. Jones.

Alienist Victim Of Burglar Trap

Doyletown, Pa., June 2.—(AP)—The death of Dr. Ralcy Husted Bell, apparently a victim of his own burglar trap, was under investigation today.

The body of the alienist, naturalist and author was found at Sycamore Lodge, his summer home. There was a shotgun wound in his chest. A shotgun set on a closet door with a wire to the door apparently had been discharged, killing Dr. Bell almost instantly. Death occurred Friday.

Dr. John J. Sweeney, county coroner, issued a certificate of accidental death but state troopers today, however, were looking into the case.

Some years ago Dr. Bell incensed at what he termed "vandal motorists" who drove over the highways and pulled up flowers and shrubs, rigged up traps in hidden places in his grounds, and house.

Seeks Dismissal Of Murder Charge

Los Angeles, June 2.—(AP)—While citizens voted on his candidacy for municipal judge, David H. Clark today sought the dismissal of charges that he murdered Charles Crawford, political boss, and Herbert Spencer, magazine editor.

Clark's appeal to voters was simply "I am innocent." In making it the former deputy district attorney broke a long silence which followed his surrender 36 hours after Crawford and Spencer were shot to death in Crawford's Hollywood office May 20.

Defense attorneys, in moving for dismissal of the charges at Clark's preliminary hearing, announced if he was held on trial they would ask his release on bail on the ground that the state had a "weak case." They said they would offer no defense witnesses.

New Husband Added To List of Woman Held For Poisoning

Chicago, June 2.—(AP)—A sixth husband had been added today to the matrimonial list of Mrs. Margaret Summers, the middle aged widow held in the county jail on charges of poisoning four persons.

He, police said, was Warren J. Merrett, former taxi driver and night watchman. He was married to Mrs. Summers six years ago following the death of her fourth husband, Stanley Korzen. He left her to marry a 16-year-old girl, Mrs. Summers' foster-daughter, Mrs. Victor Ritt, told police.

Police began to investigate reports that Merrett had died, but gathered little information from Mrs. Ritt.

Mrs. Summers is suspected of poisoning 19 persons, including several of her husbands, for their insurance. State's Attorney John A. Swanson said the investigation would not reach the grand jury until late this week.

Old Supreme Court Majority Finds Things Changed By New Chief Justice.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Members of the old Supreme Court majority, target of many a bitter Senate assault, found themselves a dissenting minority in several outstanding cases of the session just closed through the positions taken by Chief Justice Hughes and Associate Justice Roberts.

When the late Chief Justice Taft and Sanford were members of the bench, the phrase "Holmes, Brandeis and Stone dissenting" became famous in the annals of the nation's highest tribunal.

Now, however, these three often are included in the majority, while Justices Van Devanter, Sutherland, McReynolds and Butler generally render dissenting opinions.

In the determined Senate battle which preceded his confirmation, Hughes was denounced by his foes as the "personification of the spirit of big business" and as one who favored "the exaltation of property rights above all rights." The opinions of the new chief justice were scrutinized from the start.

It was not until recently, however, that the trend became clearly defined, notably in the cases of the Indiana chain store tax, the Minnesota press suppression statute, the California red flag law and the Mackintosh-Bland naturalization cases.

In the first two of these five-four decision ruled with Hughes, Roberts, Stone, Brandeis and Holmes forming the majority. In the third the dissenters were Justices McReynolds and Butler. In the naturalization cases Justice Roberts sided with the old majority and its view prevailed by another five-four decision.

The Indiana case presented the issue of a special tax on chain stores not applied to other merchants. The new alignment upheld it.

The red flag law, which prohibited the display of any emblem in California as a symbol of opposition to organized government, stimulus to anarchistic action or as an aid to propaganda of a seditious nature, was set aside. Chief Justice Hughes prepared the opinion, asserting that "the maintenance of an opportunity for free political discussion to the end that government may be responsive to the will of the people" is a fundamental principle of our constitutional system.

The Minnesota law gave the courts power to suppress publications of a malicious, scandalous or defamatory character. Again Chief Justice Hughes prepared the majority opinion, setting the law aside.

Roy St. Louis Made Assistant Attorney General

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—President Hoover today appointed Roy St. Louis, district attorney of Oklahoma, to be assistant attorney general.

The President said Herbert Hyde, assistant to St. Louis would succeed to the district attorneyship. St. Louis will hold the assistant attorney generalship in charge of admiralty, war risk insurance and other related subjects vacant for many months.

Attorney General Mitchell forecast his appointment some time ago in saying he had been recommended heartily by numerous interests throughout the country.

NEW YORK DOCTOR IS MURDERED

(Continued from page one) was found, was an overturned rocking chair. Police believed he was sitting in the rocking chair when he was attacked.

The wooden ball with which he had been hit was attached by a pin to a post at the foot of the bed. Apparently, police said, the assailant had held it by the pin and had hit Dr. Deely over the head with it again and again.

The doctor also had been stabbed in the abdomen. When Mrs. Lindars went to the doctor's room to call him to breakfast, the door was locked, and there was no answer when she and her husband pounded on it. Finally Lindars went out into the street and called a policeman. An ambulance surgeon said the doctor had been dead for some time. He was 44 and unmarried.

Merit in Native Beer

Santiago, Chile—American women have discovered great merit in native beer. It is excellent for cleansing clothes. Garments are first washed in a lather made of quival bark and then given a beer bath. The bark is no good at all without the beer rinse. The results have been amazing and word of the discovery has spread rapidly in the American colony. Delicate garments no matter how soiled, are made spotless without injury to the fabric.

JUDGE BARNHILL DEFERS PRONOUNCING SENTENCE ON ASHEVILLE BANKERS

The solicitor stated that the evidence in the case was similar to that presented by the state in the trial which ended yesterday and he did not believe guilty verdicts could be obtained in view of the jury's verdict in the county case.

The defense based its plea for an arrest of judgment on the allegation that the verdict of guilty was inconsistent.

Attorneys pointed out that Davis was tried for making a false report to the Corporation Commission and for publishing a false report of the bank's condition. He was found not guilty of the former charge but guilty of the latter. The defense contended that acquittal on the first count was tantamount to finding that there had been no false report at all.

After this motion was denied the defense moved for a new trial, which also was denied. Then the judge was petitioned to delay sentencing of Davis until after all the cases growing out of the bank's failure in which he is involved had been tried. There are about a dozen of these still docketed. This petition also was refused by Judge O'Connell.

Nature thought of everything when the human body was made. When the body is about to become ill, nature planned danger signals to warn us. Thus, if our children grind their teeth when they sleep, or lack appetite, or suffer from abdominal pains, or itch about the nose and fingers, we should know that they may have contracted worms. Then, if we are wise, we buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and safely and surely expel the worms. Thus we avoid the danger of very serious trouble. # ABOUT TOWN

The work of Dr. W. A. Harper, president of Elon college, has been blazed to all parts of the state, in the opinion of Dr. R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers College.

Introducing Dr. Harper, who delivered the sermon to the graduating class of the college here Sunday morning, Dr. Wright declared his influence had had a far-reaching effect on the life of the state, and will do much toward improving the moral life of the people.

Dr. Harper discussed the changing conditions of the world today and saw in them, nothing so markedly different from other ages.

He asserted that we have made marvelous progress as a race in life's relationships, but thought our highest hopes were yet unrealized. They are in the realm of the ideal, and will blossom forth into actuality in the years to come.

Through altered attitudes, he pointed out, we are privileged to make new conquests in the actualization of these ideals. One of these days, he believes, the human race will in its experience arrive at the final ideal situation in which these relationships as expressed in social institutions, in human fellowship and in spiritual aspiration will be amply realized in a perfect world, a world which men now call idealistically the Kingdom of Heaven.

Greenville is always glad to have men of this kind visit its people because they always leave something behind them that will prove of value in the realization of some of the high ideals which make life actually worth living.

"National Cotton Week" is being generally celebrated throughout the nation this week in an effort to bring the people to a realization of the importance of using more of the fleecy staple.

With production away ahead of consumption, the public has been impressed with the fact that it must buy more liberally of articles made from the staple if the price situation is to undergo improvement anytime in the near future.

Greenville business houses are endeavoring to co-operate with the movement in every way possible. Through special display of cotton-made materials they are attempting to impress the public with the beauty of the creations as compared to goods manufactured from other things.

As cotton is the really big crop of the Southland, the people should protect their own interest by using more of the garments made from the staple. By doing so they would probably influence more widespread use by the people of other parts of the country and thereby bring consumption nearer to production than it is today.

The development of music in the public schools of Greenville has been brought to the attention of the public quite frequently the past year, but never more impressively than Sunday night in the two numbers rendered by a chorus at the opening of commencement exercises.

A chorus composed of sixty young men and women sang two selections which from the standpoint of pure excellence, surpassed anything heard among high school students in this part of the state. The youngsters not only sang with complete abandon, but displayed technique which added much to the marvelous results which they were able to obtain.

The progress in this field of education is due largely to the efforts of Miss Ona Shindler, director of high school music, and Professor Robinson, who for years has been in charge of the orchestra. These two teachers have been untiring in their effort to improve public school music, and the result of their diligence cannot be doubted by those familiar with their accomplishments.

Many honors have come to the youthful musicians during the present year. In the district music contest held here during the Spring, the youngsters captured several first and second places in the various fields, and went to the state-wide contest at Greensboro and returned home with numerous places of honor to their credit.

Greenville people should be highly elated at the splendid achievement in this field of art, because it has a tendency to create finer sensibilities among the students and gives them a keener appreciation of the aesthetic things of life.

Greenville never tires of hearing Bishop Thomas C. Darst, of the East Carolina Episcopal Diocese, because he always has something to say that leaves an indelible impression in the minds of his hearers.

Delivering the sermon before graduates of the high school Sunday night, Bishop Darst urged the youngsters to "pick out their peak in life" and never give up until they had reached the perihelion of their ambition.

It was a particularly impressive appeal in behalf of working toward some definite objective, and proved a definite challenge to the young men and young women who will go out into life to seek their fortunes after they have completed their college work.

It brought before the youngsters the fact that nothing great or good can be accomplished except through unselfish devotion to Christ and humanity.

He urged the building up of character and integrity, inner walls, which he described as very necessary if high ideals and ambitions are to withstand the constant assault of the forces of evil.

Bishop Darst said he gloried in the dreams of the youth of the land, because they enabled it to surmount and overcome countless difficulties, and never permitted them to give up until the best in life had been accomplished.

It was a masterful sermon, delivered in the matchless style of one of the foremost advocates of the Bible in this part of the country, and that it will have lasting effect on the lives of the seventy-seven young people who heard it is not to be doubted.

TAX BODY FOR REVALUATION

Presented Petition To County Commissioners in Session Here Yesterday.

The Pitt County Tax Relief Association held a mass meeting in Greenville on Monday, June 1, to urge upon the proper county officials the necessity of revaluing property in this county for taxation. The meeting was attended by several hundred men and women, mostly farmers. S. T. Hooker, president of the association, presided, with C. W. Hearne, secretary. The president called on F. M. Wooten, attorney for the association to the rights of citizens relative to revaluing property in 1931 as a basis for taxation. The attorney stated, in substance, the following:

That our county officials generally, especially our county commissioners, are against revaluation; that prior to the meeting of 1931 General Assembly, the existing law required that preparation for revaluation be made during the month of December, 1930, and that actual revaluation be begun January 1, 1931. He insisted that officials in charge explain the reason for not complying with the law. He cited the State Constitution requiring all property to be listed for taxation at its true value in money, and cited the following law from a Supreme Court report: "That statute provides that railroad beds shall be given in the counties where they lie, and they shall not be valued at less than $8,000 per mile. Now, if the Legislature were to enact that that every man's land shall be valued at $8.00 per acre without regard to its real value, its conflict with the Constitution would be manifest. And so, if it provided that no man's land should be valued at less than $8.00 per acre, although it be worth much less. We have to declare therefore, that the aforesaid statute under which the defendants made the valuation of the road bed, as we infer from their letter to the plaintiff, is unconstitutional. There is error. This will be certified to the end that the property may be valued upon the basis of this opinion, and that such valuation may be collected, and the excess, if any, restrained. In this respect the Constitution shows no favor and allows no discretion."

Following which the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS real property in Pitt County has not been revalued, for taxation to comply with the constitutional provisions of true values, since the year 1920, and

WHEREAS one or more "horizontal cuts" have been made thereby in some degree, reducing the taxed valuation of real property in this county, and in 1927 an attempted equalization was undertaken, subsequently abandoned and again attempted to be validated by Public Local Laws of 1929, Chapter 383, and

WHEREAS during the years 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931, true values of real property in Pitt County have greatly declined and are now, and have been for a considerable period greatly less than the values thereof now appearing upon the tax books, and revaluation thereof is absolutely necessary for the protection of the property rights of the citizens, and the preservation of the government of the County, and

WHEREAS the Board of County Commissioners of this County, realizing the foregoing facts, did on Monday, May 11th, 1931, order a revaluation of real property in this County to be made according to law, but on May 29th, 1931, did revoke said order and requested certain citizens heretofore appointed, to act as Township Assessors to aid said commissioners in equalizing real property, provided however, that equalization thereof be not permitted to reduce the total values of real property in said county in excess of ten per cent of the values now appearing upon its tax books, and

WHEREAS it is the sense of this Association that the true value in money of the real property in Pitt County, is approximately fifty per cent less than the value thereof now appearing upon the tax books of this County, and thereupon asserts that Pitt County Board of Commissioners and Pitt County Tax Supervisor, have violated and are now violating the law constitutional and statutory, relative to valuing real property in Pitt County, for the purposes of taxation and in violation of our State Constitution and in violation of the property rights of the citizens of this County and this County's government.

WHEREAS this Association has been informed and believes and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: (1) That Pitt County Tax Relief Association respectfully petitions Pitt County Board of Commissioners and Pitt County's Tax Superintendent, to reasonably observe provisions of Section 3, Article 5, of North Carolina Constitution and statutes enacted for the enforcement thereof, specifically that real property in this County be immediately revalued and placed upon the tax books at its true value in money.

(2) That farm lands and a great many of town homes in Pitt County are on the tax books at values wholly fictitious and greatly in excess of their true values and if such be continued such real property in Pitt County will be wholly confiscated and Pitt County's government must collapse, therefore revaluation to comply with the above recited constitutional provisions, imperatively necessary.

(3) That if revaluation of real property in this County be not immediately made that the value thereof reasonably conform to the provisions of Section 3, Article 5 of our State Constitution, that the immediate resignation of those members of Pitt County Board of Commissioners and Pitt County's Tax Supervisor, is hereby demanded.

(4) That Pitt County Board of Commissioners is hereby most respectfully petitioned to appoint a Tax Supervisor for Pitt County for the coming fiscal year qualified to act as County Auditor to the end that the expense of the Auditor's office be reduced by placing the one man in charge thereof with such assistants as the duties of the office may reasonably require.

S. T. HOOKER, President.
 C. W. HEARNE, Secy.
 This June 1st, 1931.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Preamble and Resolutions were duly adopted by unanimous vote of Pitt County Tax Relief Association, assembled on this June 1st, 1931.

C. W. HEARNE, Secy.

CARDUI HELPED MANY WOMEN

South Carolina Lady Has Seen Numerous Cases Where Cardui Proved of Benefit.

After having taken Cardui on several occasions in the last few years, Mrs. Fannie Rogers, of Dillon, S. C., says:

"I was very much run-down. I got pale and weak, and I was so nervous I did not know what to do. I was restless at night and my legs ached for hours at a time. My back hurt, and it seemed I could not lift my finger's weight.

"I began taking Cardui, and in a short space of time I began to improve. My strength returned, and my general health was better than it had been in years.

"I have told many of my friends about Cardui, and have seen many women who have improved after taking it.

"My experience with Cardui can't be measured in dollars and cents, and I am very grateful."

Why not try Cardui, right away, for your troubles? It has helped so many women, you should try it, in your case.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

When you visit your physician for your periodic health examination, one of the very first things he asks you to do is to open your mouth wide, and to say "Ah." He is examining the delicate lining of your throat. "Ah!" There is not a man or woman who could even make this simple sound, if in the throat there were no Adam's Apple. For your Adam's Apple is your larynx—the voice box containing your vocal chords. And what a delicate piece of Nature's handiwork the Adam's Apple is. A slight cold—even a tiny particle lodged in the throat—and our voice often grows husky. In acute cases, we may even lose our voice for several days. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants—Reach for a LUCKY instead—remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

BOTH MAJOR FRONTS SEE FIGHT TODAY

By GAYLE TALBOT, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) After a day's hiatus, in which only one game escaped the rain and the general movement of clubs east and west, intersectional warfare breaks out on both major league fronts today.

Four western members of the American League, invading the Atlantic seaboard for the first time this year, have scant prospects of success against the powerful Philadelphia, Washington-New York combine. The National League's eastern contingent, on the other hand, opens in the west with more concerted strength than it has boasted in several seasons.

Interest centers on Sportsmen's Park at St. Louis, where the New York Giants engage the St. Louis Cardinals in what a little later on might be termed a "crucial series." It is a little too early for that just yet, but the series will lend a fair idea of the Cardinals' chances to win another pennant. A game and a half ahead of the Giants now, Gaby Street's Red Birds face an opportunity to take a commanding lead.

The Brooklyn Robins, flushed with a four-game winning streak, engage the third place Chicago Cubs, who likewise have captured four in a row. The Boston Braves open at Pittsburgh and the Phillies meet the luckless Cincinnati Reds.

To the Chicago White Sox falls the thankless task of bearding the fast traveling Philadelphia Athletics in their own park. The St. Louis Browns invade Yankee Stadium, the Detroit Tigers face Washington and the Cleveland Indians meet the Boston Red Sox to round out the American League menu.

England Prepares For 'Darby' Event

Epsom, Eng., June 2—(AP)—From Whitechapel to Mayfair, from countryside and village, England's count less thousands began their annual trek to the birthplace of English racing today for the 148th renewal of the "Darby" tomorrow.

While stablemen and trainers bent to their tasks of bringing the 23 remaining eligible candidates around to top form, railroads, trams, automobiles, ancient horse drawn carriages, aristocratic four-in-hands airplanes and busses dumped their passengers into this quaint little village.

Camped over the downs were the Gypsies—without which the Derby would lose much of its color. The tippers—typical of English racing—greeted the first comers with the "sure" winner written on a small slip of paper and sealed in an envelope.

While thousands wended their way toward the historic course, the turf world at large anxiously awaited the flashing of the winner to the holders of tickets on the winner and the sweepstakes, the result means a fortune. The division of the Irish sweepstakes this year provides for distribution of nearly $10,000,000.

Conservative calculators say that between 750,000 and 1,000,000 persons will fight, ride, jam and wedge their respective ways to a spot where they may see the race again this year.

The event is worth 15,000 pounds and depending upon the amount of money accruing from owner who post additional fees preceding the race.

Two Americans will seek to take the coveted honors back home and according to the betting odds, stand a good chance. Marshall Field's colors will be seen on Jacopo, which was quoted at 22 to 1 in the call over Wednesday. William Woodward will depend on his American bred colt, Sir Andrew, a 25 to 1 shot.

J. A. Dewar's Cameronian, favorite since winning the two thousand guineas, probably will go to the post the public choice.

ASHEVILLE LICKS CAPS

By WHITNEY THARIN (Associated Press Staff Writer) Charlotte, June 2—(AP)—Ecola Sharp, a right-handed youngster who couldn't make the grade with Charlotte but managed to land a pitching job with Asheville today had the satisfaction of knowing the Tourists made no mistake in signing him.

Through Mr. Sharp's energetic efforts in the box, Asheville was able to stop Raleigh's 10-game winning streak by putting a 4 to 3 licking on the Caps last night.

Odie Strain's boys managed to snag only five hits while the four errors they made, two of them in the seventh when the game was won, contributed considerably to Asheville's win.

If there can be any one-man honors in a 12 to 1 victory, the bouquets should be addressed to Neil Caldwell, Greensboro's slugger first baseman, who incidentally, is the Piedmont's leading hitter.

Caldwell hit safely three out of three chances, scored a pair of runs and batted in four more to help his club trounce Winston-Salem.

Kuns, although he walked four, gave up only four hits during the evening and only 29 men faced him.

The lowly Durham Bulls went deeper into the cellar as the result of their encounter with High Point. The efforts of three pitchers to stop Dan Boone's club were futile and the Pointers chalked up an 11 to 1 victory.

Nine walks, five off Perry, three off Gillis and one off Morton, coupled with a pair of errors and eight High Point hits were too much of an advantage for the Bulls to overcome.

Bill Carrier, Charlotte left fielder hit safely in his 11th straight game to help his club defeat Henderson 8 to 4. Carrier got two out of four, one a double, and scored twice.

A pair of home runs were another help to the Hornets. Hudgins, first baseman, cracked out his in the first inning with three men on. Wise, centerfielder, added another in the fifth with one on the sacks.

Pittsburgh—George Courtney, of Tulsa, Okla., outpointed Patsy Peroni, Canton, Ohio (10).

Los Angeles—Earl Payne, Louisville, Ky. stopped Johnny Albin, Los Angeles, (5).

SPORTS SLANTS

Dean proceeded to mow down the Texas league opposition in such convincing fashion that it is almost an even money wager that he will force the Red Birds to recall him to the big show, especially if some of the veteran Cardinal curvers continue to perform uncertainly.

That's the nice thing about the Cardinal chain store method of doing business. Mistakes can be rectified. Dean can be recalled to headquarters. He probably will be, shortly.

Perhaps Street figured, while his veterans were going well enough, that it was better to keep Dizzy busy at regular chores than to spend his time fretting on a major league bench or in the bullpen. If so, the idea is sensible enough, but there are only about 15 other big league clubs who would be delighted to have Dean working for them right now.

Golf Glads—Not only have American colleges and universities failed to feel much depression in their athletics, on the whole, but they are destined to enjoy a five year boom, starting this fall, in the optimistic view of Mr. John L. Griffith, commissioner of the Big Ten.

The major, after inspecting his own conference, premises, cites these prosperous facts: that Ohio State is building a gymnasium and netorium, that Michigan has just completed a $180,000 18-hole golf course, that Chicago is starting construction of a field house costing $750,000; that Illinois is building an ice hockey rink and an 18-hole golf course costing approximately $200,000, and that Wisconsin has just dedicated a new field house which also cost around a half million.

"While attendance at college football last fall was somewhat under the attendance of 1929," he said, "it was still ahead of the attendance in any year preceding 1929 and I venture to predict that starting with the season of 1931, football for the next five years in every respect will exceed football played by the schools and colleges in the country for the preceding five years."

Following which the major took up and disposed of the five objections, raised in some quarters, that football has been (1) over-emphasized, (2) has been commercialized, (3) is no amateur, (4) has no place in the academic institutions, and (5) interferes with the development of other activities and interests.

More Fesler
Class on the college athletic fields will tell, no matter whether it concerns grabbing the elusive football from the air or whacking the baseball around.

Which is by way of noting that Wesley Fesler, Ohio State's All-America end, continues to embellish his remarkable athletic career by some startling feats on the diamond. Against Illinois recently he hit two home runs with the bases full, which is the equivalent of a 36-yard run for a touchdown any day, even though there are fewer folks to cheer about it.

His friends—his children. Jim gave them lots of attention—devotion. But none to his second wife, Ellen. Small wonder bitterness crept into her heart.

U. S. Agriculture Department Will Save $20,000,000

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Conferees between President Hoover and Secretary Hyde has disclosed that for the next fiscal year the Agriculture Department expects to save $20,000,000.

In addition, it was said at the White House today, during the present fiscal year, which closes on July 1 there will be an additional saving of $11,000,000.

"Secretary Hyde and the chiefs of the Department of Agriculture report that out of the appropriations available for expenditure by the department during the fiscal year ending this month, together with unexpended balances carried forward from last year. They have during the year saved about $11,000,000 by economies throughout various divisions.

"Considerable unexpended balances will be carried forward into the next fiscal year beginning July 1 to cover obligations and contracts entered into of the appropriations for this next year and these balances, it is expected that about $20,000,000 will be saved during the next year."

MAN HELD FOR OLD MURDER

West Orange, N. J. June 2.—(AP)—Phillip K. Knapp, a member to a well-to-do Syracuse family, who had lived under an assumed name six years, was arrested early today on a 1925 indictment, charging him with the "thrill murder" of a cab driver near Camp Mills, Mineola, N. Y.

State troopers and Nassau County, N. Y., detectives had traced him to West Orange after a long check-up of government fingerprint records. He had been in the Coast Guard for four years.

In this town he was known as Allen Kingsley Phillips, a mechanic employed by the Public Service

Paris, June 2.—(AP)—The French government notified American consul general Leo Keena today that its decision barring Texas Guinan and her troupe from France still stands and that they must return to the United States tomorrow.

Officials explained that the ban was based on the fact that the night club hostess had no authorization to work in France, thereby violating labor regulations, and in no way reflected on her character or that of her show girls.

On the appeal of Mrs. Guinan's lawyer, Mr. Keena brought the matter to the attention of the head of the French political police and the minister of the interior. They conferred with Premier Pierre Laval and other high officials.

Company, a public utility, and had married Eleanor Hill of Boston.

Search for Knapp started after the body of Louis Fennell was found July 4, 1925, in a shallow pit near Camp Mills, buried under a pile of tin cans and rubbish. He had been shot through the head with a .45 calibre pistol, the type used in the army.

Knapp then an enlisted private mechanic in the Army Air Corps, failed to return to camp, and at the end of three days was listed as a deserter.

Psychiatrists who were called in to study Knapp's record said the motive was for a super-thrill.

New York detectives discovered Penella's taxicab in a used-car salesroom and traced it to Knapp, but he had disappeared. Army planes sought him in the Adirondacks and the Thousand Islands where he was wont to visit.

He was sought in Syracuse, where his father, William W. Knapp, a retired manufacturer lived and also at the homes of former girl friends, both in New York and Syracuse.

In checking Coast Guard records Nassau County police found fingerprints listed for Allen K. Phillips matched those of Knapp. Knapp, under the name of Phillips, enlisted in the Coast Guard in 1925 and was stationed on Staten Island until his enlistment expired.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 2.—(AP)—Grains receded from early advances today, responsive to renewed weakness of securities and to late reports of rain in Canada. Price declines though, were checked by announcement that the condition of domestic spring wheat averaged 78.6 per cent, the lowest initial condition in more than 45 years. Some improvement of European demand for North American wheat was reported.

Wheat closed irregular 1-4 off to 1-2 up; corn unchanged to 7-8 up; oats 1-8 to 3-8 advance and provisions showing 5 to 25 rise.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 2.—(AP)—The stock market wobbled on an uneven keel today, lacking the strength to follow up an early rally.

After an opening sag into new low ground as a large volume of overnight selling was disposed of, pivotal stocks met sufficient support to encourage short covering and a rally of one to four points followed. Trading grew increasingly dull and by afternoon the gains of the morning had been more than lost, with a few stocks weak and the undertone heavy. Necessitous liquidation, however, appeared to have dried up for the time being and the reaction from the earlier highs was slow.

U. S. Steel yielded a point in the first few minutes and then rebounded 11-4 net. This advance was more than surrendered in the subsequent selling. Such, in general, was the performance of American Telephone, National Biscuit, American Tobacco B, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse and Western Union. Short covering in the rails also proved of temporary benefit; Atchafalaya rose a 4 point rise and New York Central more than cancelled an upturn of 2 points. There was particular heaviness in Eastman Kodak, National Lead and Continental Can.

Wall Street was inclined to attribute part of the recent weakness to an undermining of the technical position through covering prompted by the stock exchange's questionnaire on the short position, issued a week ago. Substantial liquidation of long accounts has enabled bears to withdraw as they saw fit without seriously disturbing price levels.

Oil shares were quiet despite the reduction in mid-continent crude prices and an unofficial estimate of another gain in production for the past week. Steel issues, after the early upturn, seemed worried by prospects of a drop in the operating ration which threatens to go under 40 per cent.

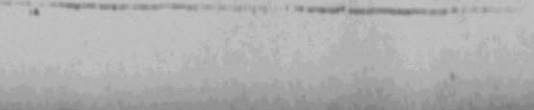

Although the automobile industry has shown some recession from the May peak, it has held up better than expected. Output of one of General Motors low priced cars showed a good gain over April and nearly reached the total for May, 1930.

Money markets were undisturbed by the June 1 settlements, that included not only the usual large
