

Aldermen Call Special Election For Proposed Purchase Of Gas Plant

Public to be Permitted to Register Approval or Disapproval of $100,000 Bond Issue to Finance Buying of Gas Plant; New Registration to Begin on June 15th; Several Other Matters Discussed.

Voters of Greenville will be given an opportunity of going to the polls to express their approval or disapproval of the proposed $100,000 bond issue by the city for the purpose of purchasing the gas plant recently sold by the Carolina Gas & Electric Company to the Tidewater Power Company.

This decision was the outgrowth of the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night at which time the election and several other matters of interest to the city were discussed at considerable length.

The election was set for Tuesday, July 14th, and a special registration was ordered to begin June 15th and continue through July 4th. Harvey Ward was named as registrar, and Mrs. Alex Viola and Jack Foley were selected as judges of the election. Charlie Manning was named alternate judge.

The board also adopted a bond ordinance and this and notice of the new registration were placed before the public today.

The decision to hold the election came after Louis Gaylord, special counsel employed by the aldermen at last Tuesday night's session, to investigate what action the city would be required to take in the proposed purchase of the plant, had presented a detailed report of his investigation.

He told the aldermen the city could not issue valid bonds before putting the matter to public vote, and expressed opinion that no trouble would be experienced in having the bonds approved by the local county government commission at Raleigh in view of the splendid financial condition of Greenville.

He said this was purely a matter of form and no municipality in excellent financial condition should have any trouble getting bonds approved.

The city sold the gas franchise and about five miles of pipe to the Carolina Gas & Electric Company for approximately $30,000 several years ago, stipulating that should the company ever desire to sell the city should be given a chance to buy.

It is in accordance with this stipulation that the aldermen are now attempting to determine the sentiment of the people through the special election. The plant at this time is conservatively valued at approximately $150,000 and, according to power officials, is a good buy for the proposed sum.

The plant has been sold to the Tidewater Company, pending action of the voters of Greenville, and at present is being operated under direction of that concern. Power officials at the meeting Tuesday night pledged to render the highest type of service possible and to keep the plant in best condition until the city had decided definitely what it wished to do about the matter.

Considerable oratory marked consideration of the proposed election last night.

After Alderman Boyd had proposed that the election be called, Alderman Waldrop expressed opposition to the city taking over the plant although his vote later enabled the aldermen to give the proposition unanimous approval.

Mr. Waldrop said he did not see any danger of one power company buying out another power company. He stressed the danger of buying a "pig in the bag" although the plant was touted to be worth considerably more than the amount offered. He thought the gas plant might interfere with operation of the water and light plant and did not wish to take any chance of impairing the splendid service of that organization.

Alderman Boyd, a staunch advocate of the purchase of the gas plant, declared he would have to disagree with Alderman Waldrop. He said he had no doubt but that the commission could handle both enterprises to the best interest of the city, and had rather have the profits go into the town coffers than to some outside interest. He said the gas plant failed to pay the city could very well afford to close it and the water and light department would be worth at least half million dollars more in the final analysis. He bitterly opposed acquisition of local interest by power companies, and asserted he would fight such a movement to the last ditch.

As he finished speaking, he was vigorously applauded by the numerous.

DO-X LANDS AT NATAL

Giant Seaplane Continues Flight After Refueling at Fernando Noronha.

Natal, Brazil, June 5.—(AP)—The seaplane DO-X arrived here at 2:10 p. m. today (12:10 p. m. EST) completing her trans-Atlantic voyage from Altenrhein, Switzerland.

The last lap of the flight took her across the South Atlantic from Porto Praia, Cape Verde Islands, a stretch of 1429 miles in 12 hours and 26 minutes.

She came down last night at Fernando Noronha, 200 miles off the Brazilian coast, refueled and set out at 12:45 p. m. (9:45 a. m. EST) for this town.

Fernando Noronha, Brazil, June 5.—(AP)—The seaplane, DO-X took off at 12:45 p. m. (9:45 a. m. E. S. T.) for Natal, Brazil.

She had refueled here after the flight yesterday from the Cape Verde Islands.

At Natal she will undergo a thorough overhauling which probably will take a week and then fly to Rio De Janeiro instead of going to Pernambuco as was originally intended. The commander thinks the harbor at Pernambuco may not be suitable for handling so large a plane.

Fernando, Noronha Island, Brazil, June 5.—(AP)—The giant flying boat, DO-X rolled idly in the harbor today after a stirring flight over the South Atlantic from the Cape Verde Islands.

She left Porto Praia at 10:52 A. M. (7:52 A. M. Eastern Standard Time) yesterday and arrived here at 11:16 P. M. (8:18 P. M. E. S. T.) last night, negotiating the 1,429 miles in twelve hours and 26 minutes.

Her passengers and crew were enthusiastic over the flight, saying the twelve 500-horsepower motors functioned perfectly as the great flying boat hummed along under the Southern Cross on the resumption of her long-delayed trip from Europe to the New World.

Captain Friedrich Christiansen planned to refuel the craft and leave as soon as possible for Natal on the mainland of Brazil, whence she will fly to Pernambuco and Rio De Janeiro. This island is about 200 miles from the nearest mainland and 300 from Pernambuco.

Gathering speed in a 30-second takeoff, the seaplane lifted herself off the water at Porto Praia with a heavy load of fuel and set her course in a southwesterly direction. The extremely low altitude at which she was flying led to reports that she had fallen into the ocean, but these were disproved.

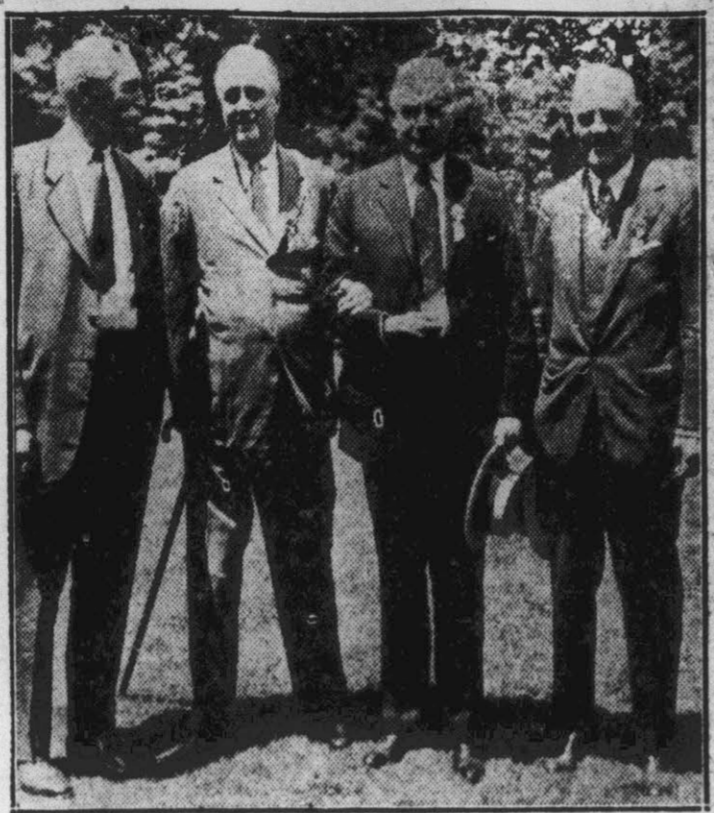

As she settled down for the long pull, her speed was increased and her altitude raised. Several hours after the start she radioed the Dornier works in Friedrichshafen and the wireless station at Porto Praia that all was well aboard and that she was following the ship lanes.

Admiral Gago Coutinho of the Portuguese navy, said the journey was made without untoward incident of any kind. He said the fuel consumption was about 1,700 liters an hour. He was one of 13 people aboard, four other Portuguese officers having been left at Porto Praia.

Berlin, June 5.—(AP)—Commander Friedrich Christiansen of the seaplane DO-X informed the Dornier works today by radio from Fernando Noronha that he expected to fly today to Natal, Brazil.

The brief message announced the plane's safe arrival at Fernando and said the ship would be refueled there.

NOTED BANKER PASSES AWAY AT W-SALEM

Col. F. H. Fries, President of Wachovia Trust Co., Died Today at 9:45 O'clock.

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 5.—(AP)—Col. F. H. Fries, president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, and for many years one of this section's outstanding financiers died at his home here at 9:45 a. m. today.

Col. Fries, 76 years old. Death came after a two weeks' illness with influenza and complications.

As head of the Wachovia Bank & Trust company, with branches throughout the state, Colonel Fries was one of the outstanding financiers of the South. His advice on financial matters was constantly sought by leading business men and state officers, and he played an important part in the commonwealth's development.

As president of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, Colonel Fries headed North Carolina's largest fiduciary institution, with headquarters at Winston-Salem and branch banks at Asheville, High Point, Salisbury and Raleigh.

He also was president of the Washington Mills, vice-president of the Oakdale cotton mills, the Indera mills, director of the Arista mills, and president of the Brown & Williamson Tobacco company.

He was born at Salem, N. C., February 1, 1855 and obtained his early education near his birthplace. Later he entered Davidson college.

After a European trip in 1878, in which he studied business for the F. and H. Fries Mills, and for the next nine years, until 1887, he devoted his entire time to the cotton mill industry. In 1887 he undertook the building of the Roanoke & Southern Railway to provide a railroad outlet for the industries of Winston-Salem.

Beginning with a local investment of $40,000 in four years he had completed the railroad with a total cost of $2,081,000. So important did this railroad link become to Western North Carolina that Mr. Fries was hailed as a pioneer in the development of his state and in 1893 his road was consolidated with the Norfolk & Western.

In 1893 he organized the Wachovia Loan & Trust company, which was merged in 1911 with the Wachovia National Bank.

From Manila, Philippine Islands, came word that an effort was launched there today to induce Colonel Lindbergh to visit the Philippines on the tour of the Orient.

The Lindberghs flew from Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., yesterday to Hicksville, where they lunched at the Long Island Aviation club. The Colonel said that details for his Pacific flight would be completed in about a month.

Mrs. Lindbergh went up for a solo flight soon after luncheon—she obtained her pilot's license last week—and later the couple flew in two planes to North Beach, where Col. Lindbergh left the Lockheed for the postcocks to be attached.

Mrs. Lindbergh flew back to Hicksville alone and Colonel Lindbergh called for her in his automobile. She was still flying when he got there. They then motored to Senator Murray's home.

While details are unsettled, the Pacific flight probably will be made.

El Paso, Tex., June 5.—(AP)—Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, had "determined to attempt" a trip to Washington for possible commitment to jail on a bribery conviction despite concurrence of four physicians in a statement that he was physically unable to make the journey.

Sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a fine of $100,000 on a charge of accepting a bribe from Edward L. Doheny in the leasing of naval oil lands, Fall was ill in bed when he announced last night his willingness to make the trip.

"I don't look forward to it with any great pleasure, of course," he said. "It will be one of the great ordeals of my life. But if the government says to come ahead, that's all there is to it, as far as I'm concerned."

Tom Armour Plays Brilliant Golf And Wins British Open

The American Open Champion of 1927 Captures Championship at Carnoustie, Scotland, After Jose Jurado, Star of Argentine Tosses Away Chance of Victory on Last Nine. Succeeds Bobby Jones as British Open Champion, Making it Ten Out of Last Eleven Years Title Has Come to United States.

Carnoustie, Scotland, June 5.—(AP)—Tommy Armour, American open champion in 1927, today won the British open golf championship after Jose Jurado, the Argentine star, tossed away a great chance for victory on the last nine. Armour's score was 296 for 72 holes.

Armour, known as the "Black Scot", and a veteran of some of the hardest fighting of the world war, finished with a par-cracking 71 after previous rounds of 73-75-77.

He was five strokes back of Jurado at the start of the final round and four strokes back at the end of the first nine, but where he came in on par, Jurado went to pieces.

Armour succeeds Bobby Jones as the British open king, making it ten out of the last eleven years the title has come to the United States. Jurado had a 37 to finish in second place with 297.

Gene Sarason and Percy Allis, the British-bred Perth pro, were tied for third with 298, and Johnny Farrell, also a former American open king, and MacDonald Smith, the Carnoustie-born American, tied for fifth with 299.

Other finishers in order were: Marco Churio, Argentina, 300; Henry Cotton and Arthur Havers, British professionals, 302; Abe Mitchell, Horton Smith, the Missourian, and Tomasco Genta, the Argentine open champion, 303.

The hopes of the Argentine were frustrated by Barry Burn, a little creek across the seventeenth and eighteenth fairways.

With a stroke to spare when he reached the seventeenth tee, Jurado played an iron, the regulation stroke. The ball ran into the bunker, coming to rest on a tiny island. His next shot found a bunker and although he got out and down in two putts the black six was on the record.

Needing a birdie four at the home hole to tie, Jurado elected to play it safe but failed to reach the green with his second. Nothing daunted, the little Argentine put a masher pitch three yards short of the pin.

With 20,000 persons attempting to see the putt can the champion-hip hinged, Jurado tapped the ball. It started straight for the hole, then went off a little and stopped, not quite up and to one side of the pin.

Armour's four rounds for his 296, four strokes lower than it was predicted would win, was a fine effort under the atrocious weather conditions which prevailed all week.

Armour played his irons faultlessly and his long putts were dropping. This was the sixty-sixth year of the British open, the oldest major golf competition, the first open being played at Prestwick in 1860. On all but five of the succeeding 71 years the tournament has been held.

First prize money is $300, second is $275, third $250, and fourth $225. Two thousand dollars is distributed in all.

PUSH PLANS FOR FLIGHT

China is Enthusiastic Over Prospect of a Visit from Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh.

New York, June 5.—(AP)—Sometime after June 22, the first birthday of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., his parents will leave him at Englewood, N. J., with his grandparents, Senator and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, and fly over the Pacific Ocean for a vacation.

Preparations for the flight are being rushed. At the North Beach airport, Queens, mechanics are fitting the Colonel's Lockheed plane with pontoons for use in the journey. Mrs. Lindbergh is getting more experience in the air.

Meanwhile, dispatches from Shanghai, China, said word of the proposed flight had evoked enthusiasm there from Chinese and foreigners alike.

From Manila, Philippine Islands, came word that an effort was launched there today to induce Colonel Lindbergh to visit the Philippines on the tour of the Orient.

The Lindberghs flew from Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., yesterday to Hicksville, where they lunched at the Long Island Aviation club. The Colonel said that details for his Pacific flight would be completed in about a month.

FALL READY TO GO TO PRISON

Despite Illness, Former Interior Secretary Plans to Serve Sentence.

El Paso, Tex., June 5.—(AP)—Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, had "determined to attempt" a trip to Washington for possible commitment to jail on a bribery conviction despite concurrence of four physicians in a statement that he was physically unable to make the journey.

Sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a fine of $100,000 on a charge of accepting a bribe from Edward L. Doheny in the leasing of naval oil lands, Fall was ill in bed when he announced last night his willingness to make the trip.

"I don't look forward to it with any great pleasure, of course," he said. "It will be one of the great ordeals of my life. But if the government says to come ahead, that's all there is to it, as far as I'm concerned."

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—The physical condition of Albert B. Fall may go far in determining when the former interior secretary will come to Washington to begin his sentence of a year in prison.

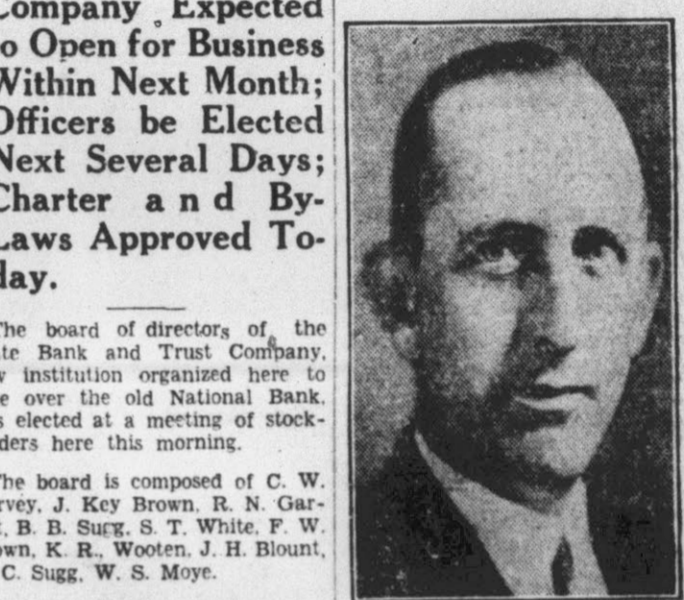

The district attorney's office has asked Fall when he could report for commitment. From the former Harding cabinet member's home at Three Rivers, New Mexico, reports came that Fall was physically unable to report to Washington at this time.

District Attorney R. Ver said today he had been informed Frank Hogan, Fall's attorney, had written Alice Pomerehne, special government prosecutor in the oil cases, asking that a physician be selected by the government to examine his client to determine whether he is able to come to Washington.

STATE SUES YOUNG LADY

Attempts to Recover $4,900 Alleged Misappropriation From Miss Harwood.

Raleigh, June 5.—(AP)—The State of North Carolina made two moves today to recover $4,903 alleged to have been misappropriated by Miss Lola G. Harwood, former junior license clerk in the State Revenue department, and no trade news offered little or no of the arrest of the young woman would be sworn out later today.

Suits were started in Wake Superior court for a judgment of $4,903 against Miss Harwood and attorneys were issued to seize approximately $3,000 deposited in two Raleigh banks to the credit of the young woman.

At the same time Judge Wiley G. Barnes fixed $2,000 as a bond for Miss Harwood on a warrant to be sworn out later in the day for service on Miss Harwood.

The complaint in the suit filed for the recovery of the money by the State alleges that Miss Harwood converted cash received by the revenue department to her own use during a period extending from March 29, 1929, to March 21, 1931.

It is charged that an audit of the books of the department, completed last week, revealed the shortage.

Miss Harwood is a daughter of Judge John H. Harwood. She left the employ of the department of revenue the latter part of March and is said to be in poor health.

The report of auditors of the state auditor's office showed that Miss Harwood's accounts were short $4,903. Baxter Durham, state auditor, said it was not shown that she took the money but it was definitely established her accounts were short and she had made no reports of lost or stolen funds.

One of the loveliest of the early summer parties was given at the Woman's club Thursday afternoon when Miss Rose Hadley graciously entertained in honor of Miss Virginia King, who will be married this month.

A pink and green color note was used throughout the club. Sixteen attractively appointed tables were placed in a charming setting of Dorothy Perkins roses.

Galbraith, Kinston, Mrs. Harvey Turnage, Hickory, Mrs. Exum Mayo, New York, Mrs. Jake Paellch, High Point were remembered with dainty hand-embroidered handkerchiefs. The hostess presented Miss King a silver platter.

IN MEMORY OF THAT DEAR
OLE MOTHER O' MINE
(Mrs. Laura Hart Branch)

She quietly left us just one year ago today to live with Jesus. We miss her and our hearts are yet sad, we miss her loving call which only mother can give.

We miss her yes we miss her more than all the rest because she was dear Ole Mother O' Mine.

She strived through many years of widow-hood and to bring her children closer to Him who helped her all along life's rugged pathway. That they might be better men and women.

The ole home is no more because there's no mother there to greet us and no father left to see.

Departmental Meeting
Farmville, June 3. — Mesdames Haywood Smith, A. W. Bobbitt, and Plato Monk were hostesses Monday afternoon to the Literary and Art departments of the Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Monk.

The meeting was devoted to the study of famous women, featuring Jane Adams and Helen Keller, papers regarding their lives and careers being read by Mrs. J. M. Christian and Mrs. T. E. Joyner. Mrs. J. M. Hogwood made an interesting talk on Miss Anita Brown, chairman of poetry of the General Federation of Women's clubs, reading several of her poems. Response to the roll call was given by the reading of poems written by women.

Quantities of spring flowers were used in the living room and lovely nosegays were given as favors to the club members and additional guests including Mrs. Lillie R. Horton, Mrs. B. O. Turnage, and Miss Fanny Fry. Delightful refreshments were served after adjournment.

PATIENT CIRCLE OF THE KINGS DAUGHTERS MEET

On Tuesday evening the Patient Circle met with Miss Margaret Blow. Much interest was manifested and a larger attendance than usual. The emergency committee reported much work done for the needy and suffering. The matter of organizing a Sunday school in the country was discussed and plans made toward that purpose. Much business was disposed of. After that session our hostess served sandwiches and lemonade. The social hour was greatly enjoyed.—Reported.

Srs. Joyner Hostess
Farmville, June 3.—A charming affair of the week was a bridge party given by Mrs. W. E. Joyner on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Lang street. Flowers in pastel shades decorated the rooms in which nine tables were placed for the game. Mrs. W. M. Willis won the high score prize, an exquisite bouillabaisse. An ice cream carrying a color scheme of pink and green was served at the end of the progressions. Out of town guests included Mrs. Hugh Malone of Kinston, Mrs. Will Kilpatrick and Mrs. Dan Vause of Hookerton.

Gambling Casino
For Boulder Dam

Las Vegas, Nevada, June 5.—(AP)—Almost on the edge of Boulder City, which the government has planned as a "model" town for workers on Hoover dam, steam shovels were heaving up the desert soil today for construction of a gambling casino and dance hall.

The venture brought to light the fact that the government, which presumably held all lands adjoining Boulder City and would be able to keep vice and gambling operations mile away, does not own a 20-acre strip of patent land within a mile of the city. On this property steam shovels have begun their work.

Simultaneously it was disclosed the commissioners of Clark county, in which Las Vegas is located, have granted a gambling permit to a group of men, giving them the right to build the casino. The commissioners refused to divulge the names in the permit.

The operations, begun in the face of a statement from Louis C. Crampton, executive head of Boulder City, and former representative in Congress from Michigan, that he would permit no vice or gambling projects on the reservation, apparently were safeguarded by legal technicalities, attorneys said the government could gain control of the land only through an act of Congress.

While Federal officers of late have engaged in a widespread campaign to close Las Vegas liquor houses, they have no jurisdiction over gambling, Nevada has legalized gambling.

Hoover to Discuss Curtailing Expenses
in Navy Department

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—President Hoover will discuss the possibility of curtailing expenses of the naval establishment with Secretary Adams and other naval officials tomorrow at his Rapidan camp.

Secretary Adams is prepared to inform the chief executive a saving of about $7,000,000 was brought about this fiscal year due to conferences last summer at the Virginia camp. He is expected to assure the chief executive a similar amount probably will be returned to the treasury next year.

Woman Questioned in Double Slaying

Los Angeles, June 5.—(AP)—June Taylor sought since May 20 for questioning about the slaying of Charles Crawford, political boss, and Herbert Spencer, magazine editor, today awaited further examination by prosecuting officials after having appeared voluntarily yesterday.

After the initial questioning prosecutors said the woman told them she knew little about the slayings, for which David H. Clark, former deputy district attorney, is held in murder charges. District Attorney Buron Pitts has described the killings as an outgrowth of racketeering.

A woman giving the name of Mrs. A. M. Donovan, believed to have been June Taylor, conferred with Albert Marco, former Los Angeles underworld leader, now serving a term at San Quentin, at the penitentiary the day after the killings. She was immediately sought for questioning in the case but was not found.

Two Honor Convicts Escape at Cary Farm

Raleigh, June 5.—(AP)—Two "honor" convicts at Cary prison farm, near here, escaped last night, bringing to a total of eight the attempted or successful escapes there this week.

"Honor" prisoners, given more privileges than others, are not as closely supervised as prisoners wearing stripes and the two who got away last night "just-walked off," prison officials said today.

They were: Broadhurst Garbo, who had served slightly more than a year of a 4 to 6 year sentence imposed in Beaufort county for manslaughter; and Charles LeWary, who had served about half of a one-year term for assault and robbery, a train imposed in McDowell county.

Earlier this week J. N. Kelly, of Philadelphia, Pa., was shot and killed as he attempted to escape.

Voters to Demand
Dry Candidates

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—A demand for dry candidates and enforcement planks is to be presented to the Democratic and Republican national conventions next year by the allied forces for prohibition.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, of New York, chairman, announced that the new organization's ultimate goal was to retain the Eighteenth amendment, and its immediate objective to secure dry commitments in the political conventions.

The chairman said his organization expected to have more than a million pledged votes to submit with their demands for dry candidates.

Clara Bow Will Rest in Nevada

Hollywood, Calif., June 5.—(AP)—Clara Bow's rest from the trials and tribulations of film life and the exciting experiences of other adventures into which it has led her is going to be completed on her ranch in Nevada.

Friends said she had left a sanitarium which she entered some weeks ago on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and soon would go to the desert to complete the new vigor and vitality for return to film work.

"I feel a little better," she told friends, "and will leave for my Nevada ranch at the end of next week with my nurse for an indefinite rest."

And that journey is going to take place, picture contract or not. She did not discuss the question of her contract with Paramount studio or the recent statements by D. P. Schulberg, general manager, that she had asked to be released and probably would be.

She added quickly, however, that if she were released it would not mean the end of her film career. When health returns, she said, she will come back to Hollywood and more pictures.

Probe Affairs of Defunct Bank

Laurens, N. C., June 5.—(AP)—Investigation of the affairs of the closed Scotland County Savings Bank, with an eye to criminal prosecution was under way here today.

Forestry Delegates Visit Rayon Plants

Asheville, N. C., June 5.—(AP)—A field trip through the rayon plant of the American Enka Corporation here and a round-table discussion of matters of interest to delegates today were the final features on the program of the joint convention of the American Forestry association and the North Carolina Forestry association.

C. Vanderhooven, vice-president of the American Enka company, will conduct the visitors through the rayon plant.

SON OF SENATOR

New York, June 5.—(AP)—Lowell Fess, 38 year old sales manager, who told arresting officers early today that he was the son of United States Senator Simon D. Fess, of Ohio, was fined $10 today for disorderly conduct.

Fess was arrested in front of an East 82nd street speakeasy by a patrolman who said Fess was creating a disturbance. The officer, Richard Broderick, quoted Fess as saying his father was Senator Fess, and that he would get him to "clean up this town."

The police blotter entry charged that Fess "while intoxicated did use abusive and profane language, and attempted to take the officer's baton."

ABOUT TOWN

Final commencement exercises of Greenville public schools will be held in the campus building of East Carolina Teachers college tonight at 8 o'clock and officials are anticipated in the largest attendance in history of the schools.

Dr. William Louis Foster, president emeritus of Wake Forest College, will deliver the principal address, and J. L. Little, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the public school system will present diplomas to a graduating class of seventy-seven.

Although the class is not as large as last year, it is considered one of the record classes of the schools and is a source of pride to members of the faculty and officials.

Greater significance is attached to the closing of the schools this year by reason of the recognition which they have received in various fields of endeavor. In addition to receiving the highest scholastic rating of any school in the state, the girls' basketball team has the honor of being champions of the North Eastern Athletic Association, and musicians and essay writers have been ranked among the best in the state.

The general public will look upon these achievements with satisfaction. Progress in education means progress in other lines, and the things accomplished by the system this year should inspire the patrons to co-operate in an effort to hold the splendid record.

The Eastern Carolina Tobacco Warehouse Association have called on the growers to destroy common ground leaves, or first primings, this season in an effort to further reduce the 1931 crop.

The resolution, adopted at the annual meeting of the association at Wilson, will be circulated throughout the belt in the hope that the planters will take advantage of it and in that way help boost the price situation.

The only hope for the growers this season must come through reduced production and a finer type of tobacco, and warehousemen are hopeful everybody will help them to convince the farmers of this fact.

Farmers would not receive enough for the common grades to justify their carrying it to market, yet there will be hundreds, nay thousands, to do so unless they are impressed with the danger involved in the action.

Leaders in all communities should join the warehousemen in this effort to educate the growers as to what they should do to improve the price situation and if the movement is widespread there is no question that results will be obtained.

Information concerning the air trip of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh to the Far East will be received with considerable interest by the people throughout the world.

There is no flatterer to capture the public fancy like the man who flew alone across the Atlantic several years ago and achieved the honor as the first man to cross the body of water in a plane.

Coming Next Week, Capitol

Charlie Chaplin in a scene from 'City Lights'

No significance is attached to the flight of the "Lone Eagle" and his wife. They plan merely to make a tour of the orient, but the fact that the flier of all fliers has taken to the air again will be sufficient to cause the people to scan the papers each day to see what progress he makes.

The world has plenty of notable fliers, but Lindbergh holds first place in public opinion because of the daring that enabled him to undertake one of the most thrilling experiments in the history of aviation, the crossing of the Atlantic alone.

The nation continues to be entertained by alleged election fraud. The disturbance this time emanates from Alabama where the Elections Campaign committee is attempting to determine if Senator Bankhead won out over Heflin by unfair practices.

Bankhead, in a lengthy statement to the press yesterday, vigorously denied irregularities, and said the investigation under way proves that he was elected "by the will of the people."

Heflin, on the other hand, believes that if the disclosures of fraud and corruption made up to this time continue, it is certain Bankhead cannot be seated.

The electorate of the various states will watch the outcome of the investigation, because charges of this kind never fail to draw the attention of those interested in politics. The stormy career of Heflin makes the contest even more spectacular than it would be otherwise, and either his victory or defeat will not fail to draw interest.

A WORD TO THE WISE?
As the smoke of battle clears from our Legislative halls, we see plainly where the people really stand.

Feeling that our Pitt county representatives consistently stood for those things which the voters "back home" desire, and appreciating the great sacrifice in time and money which they have made for us, we yet realize that no relief from present oppression can possibly come while our great and beloved state is so torn by factions.

We also know what and by whom the faction which votes to keep privilege on power is controlled. We further know that the time has come when the plain working people must be represented by plain working people.

For that right we must begin now, today, to strive. Let nothing stop us. No ridicule, no criticism, no vituperation until step by step, we have won this recognition.

The hand-writing is on the wall—it has been interpreted.

The men and women of North Carolina have ever loved their country above self. No sacrifice is too great that will bring this change in our government, so vital to our existence as an independent people.

Mrs. Chas. McArthur.

KEEP OUT THE POWER COMPANIES

On July 14 the voters of our city will be given the opportunity to vote for or against the issuance of $100,000 in bonds for the purchase of the gas plant and our advice is by all means VOTE FOR THE BOND ISSUE!

The company operating the gas plant here and similar plants in adjoining cities has just closed with the Tidewater Power Company for the sale of their holdings unless Greenville exercises its option to purchase the plant for $100,000 which means that if we fail to purchase this plant we are inviting the power company to our city, giving them a weapon with which to tear down our municipal electric plant to the extent that we will have to sell it and then we will find ourselves in the hands of the power companies and suffer the consequences.

It is needless to say that our local water and light plant considered from a material standpoint is our city's greatest asset, for the thinking citizens of our city already realize this fact and are aware that in recent years the power companies have tried time and again to get control of this plant, making flattering offers and promises of lower priced electric current, all of which we would pay for dearly once we give the power companies the controlling hand.

Of course at this particular time there are numbers of our citizens who are opposed to a bond issue for any purpose but our opinion is that we would be far better off to owe $100,000 bonds and keep the power company out of Greenville than not to owe it and let them come in and in the end we would find the bond issue cheaper.

It is our intention from now and the time for the election to go fully into this subject of the Power Companies vs. the People and in the meantime we urge you to put no faith in the argument of those (no doubt many of them paid propagandists) who would endeavor to lead you to believe that Greenville should let the power company come into our city.

That Looks Like a Frock, and Appears on Practically Every Smart Occasion!

We're all excited over these new Hostess Pajamas! They are smarter than evening gowns, and much more exciting than dinner dresses. You'll see smart women wearing them to informal dances, dinner, or afternoon teas. Of course the one sketched is in the new one-piece style, slightly fitted at the waistline. Its gay splash print is most effective against the ivory white background of celanese taffeta. Many have smart little taton jackets, and rhinestone buckles on the narrow belt. White and pastel shades, for women and misses.

INDIANS IN MIDST NEW WIN SPURT

By GALE TABLOTT, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians, at least, have enjoyed the satisfaction of keeping the remainder of the American league guessing. It is difficult to tell whether they are the best club in the junior circuit, or the worst. They insist on resembling one or the other by turns.

Roger Peckinpaugh's mysterious men started like world beaters, winning nine of their first twelve engagements. Then, with little or no warning, they turned in and lost 14 of their next 15. Just now they are in the midst of another winning spurt that has reached 10 straight and carried them back into the first division, only a game behind the third place Yankees.

Whatever the final fortune of the 1931 Indians, it can at least be said they did things in a big way.

Wes Ferrell, apparently fully recovered from the jinx that trailed him after his no-hit performance a month ago, held Boston to eight scattered hits yesterday as the Tribe made it three straight over the Red Sox, 10 to 2. He helped his own cause with a homer in the ninth.

The leading Athletics and second place Washington Senators kept pace by continuing their slaughter of the visiting western clubs. Philadelphia, with George Earnshaw pitching three-hit ball, took his third from the White Sox, 4 to 1, and General Alvin Crowder pitched the Senators to a 5 to 1 victory over Detroit. It was Earnshaw's eighth win in a row. Jimmy Fox gave him a nice working margin by hitting homer No. 10 in the second inning with one on.

The St. Louis Browns jumped on Charlie Ruffing for seven runs in the first four innings to make it two straight from the Yankees, 8 to 6. Oscar Melillo's great hitting streak was broken at eight straight when he flew out in the first inning.

Pittsburgh and Boston supplied the day's thriller in the National, battling for 13 innings before the Pirates squeezed out a 2 to 1 triumph. Ray Moss, recently purchased from Brooklyn, held the Pirates scoreless until the last of the ninth when Paul Waner was hit by a pitched ball, reached second on a sacrifice and was singled in by Bill Rogan.

Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, Chicago outfielder, cracked one into the bleachers in the last of the ninth with one on to give the Cubs their second straight over Brooklyn, 6 to 4. Hack Wilson looked like his old self as he hit his third homer of the year, singled, drew a walk and scored the first three Cubs runs.

The Cardinals stretched their lead to two and a half games again by nosing out the Giants, 6 to 5. Bill Hallahan, pitching his first full game of the year, got the decision over Carl Hubbell when Adams doubled to start the ninth and was singled in by Pepper Martin, a pinch hitter.

After allowing only four hits for seven innings, Ray Benge of the Phillies blew up in the eighth and Cincinnati scored four runs to make it two straight, 5 to 2. Pinky Whiney, Phil third baseman hit safely in his eighteenth consecutive game.

CAPS DROP TO SECOND PLACE AGAIN

Charlotte, N. C., June 5.—(AP)—Because they have lost four games this week and Charlotte has won many, the Raleigh Caps today dropped to second place in Piedmont League standings and the Hornets buzzed into the lead.

Raleigh's loss yesterday, the second in succession at the hands of Winston-Salem, enabled the Twins to retire from the cellar in favor of Durham. The percentage changes also put High Point in a tie with Winston-Salem for sixth, or cellar-door, position.

Winston-Salem's victory over Raleigh, which was as necessary as Charlotte's win over Greensboro to put the Hornets in the lead, was in the nature of a slugfest that makes one wonder where this "dead ball" stuff originated.

The Twins garnered five of their 15 hits in the first two innings, drove Alters Chambers to the showers and then hit Pate freely until the last out was called. Not content with a 6-run lead, Bunn Hearn's boys went out for blood in the sixth and came in with seven runs, four of them on a homer by Walker with the bases loaded.

Charlotte used a re-vamped lineup to lick Greensboro 10 to 4. Geo. Hinderhardt, with Greenville in the old Sally league last year, and let out of the Palmetto league this week because he was a "class" man, played right field for the Hornets. He made his debut by driving out a pair of singles in five times up.

Lamar Bell, billed as an outfielder, did the receiving for Charlotte in place of Art Pond, who is out with injuries.

Other deals the Charlotte mogul worked included the shipping of George Petty, pitcher, and Cy Bell, first baseman, to Henderson, where they will probably break into the lineup tonight. In order to take on Rhinehardt, they suspended Hack Culbreth, injured third baseman, and Chief Wical, veteran pitcher, who was shoved out in favor of Emil Meola, a new hurler the Hornets have acquired.

Henderson's 7 to 1 win over High Point was largely due to the generosity of the Pointers who handed over the game with seven walks and as many errors.

The Gamecocks registered only six hits.

High Point's lone run was contributed by Dan Boone, the club's manager, who slammed out his 11th home run of the season.

Hits and runs were more than

Kiki Cuyler, Cubs—hit a homer in the ninth with one aboard to beat Brooklyn, 6 to 4.

Pepper Martin, Cardinals—his pinch single in the last of the 9th scored Adams and beat the Giants.

Bill Regan, Pirates—singled in the 13th, scoring Paul Waner with the run that subdued the Braves.

Alvin Crowder, Senators—kept seven hits scattered to defeat Detroit, 5 to 1.

Goose Goslin, Browns—his single, double and triple helped make it two straight over the Yankees.

George Earnshaw, Athletics—held the White Sox to three hits, all singles, to score his eighth straight victory.

Myrtle Beach, S. C., June 5.—(AP)—Four golfers, two from each of the Carolinas, were to battle it out here today for the right to play for the amateur championship of the sister states in the finals tomorrow.

W. J. O'Connor, of Durham, whose 69 yesterday set a record for the Ocean-Forrest course where par of 70 never before had been broken, was paired with Paul Cushman, of Greenville, S. C. in the upper bracket.

Eugene Mills, of Raleigh, the defending champion, and Frank Ford, of Charleston, South Carolina state champion were in the lower bracket.

The winners of today's 36-hole matches will play 36 holes tomorrow to determine the champion.

O'Connor advanced to the semi-finals by defeating J. J. Lane, of Raleigh, and W. J. Palmer, of Greensboro yesterday. It was against Lane that he set his new course record, three strokes better than the former mark held jointly by Mills and Arthur Ham, of Charlotte and Clarence Owens, of Greenville.

Cushman, one of the sensations of the tournament, eliminated the medalist, Nelson MacRae, of Wilmington and the Association's president, Richard Tufts, of Umehurst, to win his place in the semi-finals.

Young Ford, hope of the Charleston Country club, eliminated C. M. Whittita fellow townsman, and Ed Reid, Jr., of Charlotte.

Mills defeated Tully Blair, the Seaside star, and A. C. McManus, of Greensboro, to advance.

SPORTS SLANTS

Prize fighters are fragile fellows and W. L. (Young) Stribling has been beset by his share of ailments calculated to affect his performance in the ring.

It is good news, therefore, to learn from the ballyhoo mailed from Geauga Lake, Ohio, that the southern contender for world's heavyweight championship honors has recovered fully from an injured hand, strained ligaments in his left shoulder and neuritis in his right shoulder.

Moreover, Stribling has promised "Pa" he will stay away from airplanes, speedboats, and motorcycles until after he fights Max Schmeling at Cleveland July 3.

Young Stribling probably will need his full health and strength to whip Schmeling over the 15-round route. The distance favors the German, if there is enough of it left after the early rounds for him to catch up with the fast-stepping Georgian.

Polo's Growth
One of the best examples of the extent to which polo has developed among the youth of the land is furnished by the University of Arizona team, now in the east on a tour financed largely by the funds of a benefit performance given in Tucson by Will Rogers, who can smack a polo ball himself as well as spin a yarn.

The Arizona boys call themselves the "Wildcats." Taking their mounds where they can find them, they have compiled an impressive record. They play all year in Arizona, taking on Army teams for the most part and roaming afar for intercollegiate competition. In less than three years the "Wildcats" have developed from a scrub outfit to a first-rate team, handicapped around 10 goals. This is a contrast with the situation at Yale, where the Elis have been mustering powerful teams of 25 goals or better, including international talent, owning their own strings of thoroughbred ponies. The Wildcats, however, have done well enough without the benefits of wealth and aristocratic polo background.

The Arizona boys, up to the time they reached New York to start peering at the tall buildings and shake the hands of polo's eastern stalwarts, won 28 games and lost only three in less than year.

The Wildcats lost two extra-chucker games at home to the Seventh Cavalry, First Army Division champions, but turned the tables on the soldiers, 10 to 2, before starting eastward.

Potential Internationals
It may not be long before Arizona and possibly New Mexico join Texas and California in contributing to the fold of international polo stars.

Eric Pedley broke through the ancient barriers last year to become a member of the American "Big Four" and strike a firm blow for California as well as the U. S. A. His companion, Elmer Boesche, has assumed top-ranking stature in recent seasons.

Texas sent H. W. (Rube) Wil-

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, June 5.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 5 to 7 points lower in response to lower Liverpool cables than anticipated, and influenced by a continuation of favorable weather in the South.

Houses with foreign connections were on the selling side and for a time the market displayed an easier tone with more or less selling by houses with New Orleans connections and by Wall Street. A firmer tone to the stock market, following an irregular opening, however, served to check the downward move and the market recovered part of the losses at the end of the first half hour, showing losses of 3 to 6 points. Reports from the spot market indicated a fair trade with offerings comparatively small and continued liberal exports were looked upon as a favorable indication.

Liverpool cabled that the market there had been influenced early by covering and continental buying but had declined under realizing and unfavorable weather.

Chicago, June 5.—(AP)—Aggressive buying lifted wheat late today to the highest price in a fortnight. The buying was based chiefly on a report from the Canadian growers' pool that the condition of wheat in the Prairie provinces averaged only 75 per cent normal, compared with 80 a year ago, and 96 in 1929. Drought areas of the Prairie provinces embrace 18,000,000 acres, 80 per cent of the total, and the report said that unless adequate rains came within ten days the crop situation would be disastrous.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 5.—(AP)—The stock market extended its gains today, but encountered considerable profit-taking on the rise.

Trading tended to follow yesterday's pattern. Prices reacted moderately in the early transactions as realizing appeared, but the list started upward when another spur developed in the railroad group. Although resistance to the rally became fairly pronounced by early afternoon, the market seemed to be in no hurry about reversing its trend and displayed a firm undertone under drives by shorts, and offerings by traders who had been following the line of least resistance for a time. However, activity slackened when the market eased. Shares of leading railroads moved up vigorously, Atchafalaya rose 10, Union Pacific 8 and New York Central, Pennsylvania, New Haven, Southern Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Lehigh Valley and Northern Pacific 3 or more before the buying wave subsided. Industrials showed a willingness to follow such strong leadership.

Trade news offered little or no support to the rally but the market was interested in the meeting of eastern railroad executives, calling for the afternoon to consider further the plan for an upward revision of freight rates.

Brokerage houses took varied views of the stock market's sudden outburst of strength, but it was conceded that the longer the rally lasted the more important would be its effects on confidence.

The background of the commodity markets, seems to be little changed. In the case of copper, a rather large increase in the stocks during May is expected when the monthly report comes out soon. Money was dull and call loans were available at the familiar rates.

Irene Castle Goes to Court Dressed as a Farmerette

Merton Grove, Ill., June 5.—(AP)—Irene Castle, the famous former dancer, went to court yesterday as a farmerette. Attired in blue overalls and a blue shirt, open at the throat, she appeared as a complaining witness against William Schroeder, accusing him of cruelty to animals, maintaining a nuisance and disorderly conduct.

Mrs. Castle, a member of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals said that when she sought to investigate reports that Schroeder did not adequately feed his stock, he shoved her off the premises.

Counsel for the accused man asked for and was granted a change of venue.

JAMES MANNING TO SPEND TWO YEARS IN HAWAII

Private James F. Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Manning, Greenville, N. C., who was at Fort McDowell, California, awaiting his departure to the U. S. Army Transport Somme, has sailed from Fort Mason, San Francisco, Calif., on May 26 for the Hawaiian Islands.

Fort McDowell is the location of the Overseas Discharge and Replacement Depot of the Army where soldiers on their way to the regular possessions are clothed and equipped, and given basic military training, while awaiting sailing of the transports. It is situated on Angel Island in San Francisco Bay and the trip to the city is made by the government harbor boat in half an hour. As many as twenty-five hundred replacements or men for discharge are frequently cared for at Fort McDowell at one time.

Private Manning expects to be stationed in Hawaii for the next two years.

He enlisted at Fort Bragg, N. C., on April 9, 1931 for infantry. Private Manning states that he enlisted in the Army through a desire for travel and experience and to improve his education in the Army Vocational Training Schools. He will have the opportunity to visit many points of interest while in the Islands, including the famous Waikiki Beach and the world-renowned active volcano on the Island of Hawaii, the largest of the Hawaiian group.

PUSH PLANS FOR LINDY'S FLIGHT TO THE FAR EAST

from the Alaskan coast over the Aleutian Islands, across the 600-mile stretch of ocean and over the tip of Kamchatka, along the Kurile Islands to Japan.

This is the same route the army round-the-world fliers took. Another possibility is a more northern route, which would only necessitate flying over a 56-mile stretch of water at Bering Strait.

Mrs. Lindbergh the former Ann Morrow, would be at the controls with her husband, relieving him of the full strain of such a flight. The plane they will use is the same one she helped pilot in the 14-hour flight from California to New York last year.

The Colonel will have different problems than on his Paris flight four years ago. For that he had a tall wind and other excellent conditions. On the Pacific he may expect wind, fog and storms. Flying to Paris he needed no exact determination of his position. If such determination is necessary over the Pacific, he is equipped for it, having learned navigation, how to tell by sun or stars where he is, since he became famous. Mrs. Lindbergh's ability to pilot the plane will give the Colonel ample opportunity to make observations. She, too, has studied navigation.

ber of citizens who had gathered to hear discussion of the proposition.

Haywood Dall said he felt like the city should own the gas plant, and that it would make a mistake by not buying. Power companies, he stated, can afford to operate at a loss until they get a foothold in a town, and that this had been their policy in other cities. He expressed belief that both the water and light plant and the gas plant could be operated successfully by the Water & Light Commission and that the city would benefit in the long run.

C. T. Munford asked that the plant be purchased some other way than through the issuance of bonds, and that he believed in keeping profits at home.

Prior to considering the gas plant the aldermen heard a petition from K. W. Cobb that Third street be paved from Pitt street to the railroad. Mr. Cobb stressed the bad condition of the street, and especially on the hill at the intersection of Pitt and Third streets. He said school children were forced to walk in the middle of the street and expose themselves to the danger of being run down by automobiles.

The aldermen accepted his emergency proposition that the street be paved for a distance of 155 feet under terms that property owners should pay two-thirds cash of the expense involved in the improvement.

H. W. Renfrew, resident from the eastern section of Third street said he felt like it was not fair to grant a petition for the improvement of the western end of Third street without first giving attention to petitions for improvements of his district. He said they had no sewer, paving or sidewalks and would appreciate the aldermen giving consideration to the petitions presented over a period of several years.

Alderman Waldrop explained the condition of the area referred to, the cost of upkeep, and said he thought it should be fixed. No action was taken in the matter.

The board granted a petition for the running of a sidetrack to the R. J. Reynolds Company property by the N. & S. railroad.

The board authorized the drafting of a new deed for Mrs. Pattie Lamb for a lot in Cherry Hill cemetery.

The property which Mrs. Harry Skinner recently deeded to the Catholic church for a convent was ordered released of taxes from date of the deed.

Wade Says South Has Greatest of Football Teams

Hattiesburg, Miss., June 5.—(AP)—With the exception of the great Notre Dame squad, southern college football is superior to any in the nation, says Wallace Wade, former Alabama coach who is now at Duke University.

And prospects are even improving in Dixie because of the expansion of programs of physical education in the high schools which ultimately furnish the material, in the opinion of Wade.

On the coaching system Wade thinks there is overdue publicity. "If a man knows how to coach football and has plenty of seasoned material he can put out a strong contender," he said. "It isn't near so much the system as the material."

Coach Wade is now conducting a short course in football coaching at Mississippi State Teachers College here.

To back up his statement on Dixie football supremacy, at least as far as 1930 was concerned, he pointed to Georgia's victories over Yale and New York University and the fact that two southern conference teams held Georgia scoreless.

He modestly omitted reference to the Alabama victory over Washington State Cougars in the Rose Bowl conquest.

Wade thinks that professional football is probably better played than intercollegiate games and will continue to be played, but that it will never be as popular as college football because of the enthusiastic spirit of the latter.

He declined to forecast 1931 prospects in the Southern Intercollegiate conference of which Duke is a member.

"Prognosticating football on the part of a coach is bad business," Wade said.

Gambling on Races is Legalized in Florida

Tallahassee, Fla., June 5.—(AP)—When the thoroughbreds come back to Florida for the winter racing season it will be to the clicking accompaniment of pari-mutuel wagering machines.

The State Legislature, by overriding Governor Doyle E. Carlton's veto, has legalized county optional horse and dog racing and mutuel betting.

For 20 years racing legislation has been agitated. Never before had it passed both houses of the State Assembly. During the current session the bill passed both houses and was sent to the governor who disapproved it because, he said, the state should not be made a party to organized gambling.

Horse and dog races have been held at a number of Florida tracks during the past several years, first with oral gambling which was helmed by law and later with stock certificate wagering.

Under the new law counties desiring racing and pari-mutuel wagering must approve it by referendum. The state will take a tax of three per cent of the gross passing through the machines and 15 per cent of the admission charges.

Proponents of the law, which became effective immediately after the House turned down the governor's veto, expect the state to derive between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000 annually from this source.

The State Senate first passed the law 20 to 15 and the House concurred 55 to 38. The Senate overrode the gubernatorial veto by a margin of one vote, 26 to 12. The House yesterday mustered another bare two-thirds majority, 55 to 26.
