GRAND JURY PROBES N. Y. MURDER CASE

New Clues Reported Discovered in Mysterious Death of Starr Faithfull

New York, June 12.—(AP)—A grand jury today attacked the wall of mystery surrounding the drowning of Starr Faithfull while New York police were questioning a new witness in the case.

At their own request Deputy Sheriffs Cecil Crosby (above) and Bill Guess of Ardmore, Okla., were held for trial on murder charges in the slaying of Emilio Cortes Rubio and Manuel Gomez, cousins of Mexico's president.

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Investigation of the drowning of Miss Starr Faithfull, whose diary tells of experiencing every thrill, reached the grand jury stage today.

Because of new clues which he thought warranted grand jury consideration Edwards caused cremation of the girl's body to be postponed suddenly yesterday.

Among witnesses to whom Edwards desired to give first attention was Stanley E. Faithfull, the girl's stepfather, whose name she took; Edwards said he believed Faithfull had not told all he knew.

Edwards wished to give special attention also to Elizabeth Tucker Faithfull, Starr's younger sister, who prefers the name Sylvia. Edwards said Sylvia had been mysterious about where she had been over the week-end.

Starr's body was washed ashore at Long Beach last Monday. Inquiry since then as to the activities of the 25-year-old girl, who lived in Greenwich Village, a member of a family in modest circumstances, has developed incidents of gay life in New York and London and on liners, with one visit to a hospital for acute alcoholism and one trip to a sanitarium for observation.

A 30-page diary written by Starr and found by a detective in the Faithfull home contains the following:

"I have experienced every sensation life holds and if (deletion) does not meet me soon, I have nothing to live for."

Most of the contents of the diary were withheld. Detectives said there were various references to the possibility of suicide.

London, June 12.—(AP)—Rudolph Haybrook, artist, was quoted by the Daily Mail today as saying he believed Starr Faithfull had been slain in New York because she was to have been the principal witness in a $25,000 settlement case which would have caused a sensation when it came to court.

(Stanley E. Faithfull, her stepfather, has denied this statement is true.)

Identifying Haybrook as Miss Faithfull's closest friend in London and as the fiancé of her sister, Elizabeth, the paper further quoted him to the effect that there were influential people in New York who were concerned in the case and to whom her death would have been a matter of importance.

The Daily Express said Scotland Yard was searching for a man who Miss Faithfull had sought repeatedly during a visit to London in 1928. She called his hotel many times a day, the paper said, at length growing despondent and returning to America.

The manager of the hotel at which she stayed was reported by the Express to have found in her baggage, which she left behind, a diary "so frank that he locked it up." Her trunks were later shipped to New York.

Mother and Daughter Graduate Monmouth, Ill.—A mother and daughter were among the graduates of Monmouth College at the seventh commencement. Mrs. Anna P. White of Xenia, Ohio, received her doctor of laws degree. Miss Ruth White received a bachelor of arts degree.

New York—A 25 passenger transport plane, costing $100,000, is being converted into a hot-dog stand. George Anderson, of Flushing purchased it for $500 and intends to set it up in a vacant lot to attract the customers at a dime a row.

CONVICTED OF SLAYING

McDowell County Man Found Guilty of Second Degree Murder

Morganton, June 12.—(AP)—Bill Lail, of McDowell county, was convicted of second degree murder today for the slaying of Elmore Wilson, deputy sheriff, during a whiskey still raid last January. The jury was out 22 hours.

Judge John H. Clements, of Winston-Salem, announced sentence would be passed later in the day.

A member of the jury said its long deliberation was due to failure to agree on the degree of guilt. He reported the jurors divided into three factions, some demanding a first degree verdict, others second degree and others manslaughter.

Lail claimed he did not fire until he and others at the still were fired upon by officers. This evidence was contradicted by Wilson's companions on the raid.

The verdict was brought in during trial of Dick Deal, charged with slaying Walter Simmons with a hammer at the home of Mrs. Ida Brittain near here. The affray in which Simmons was injured took place in March, but the victim, his head crushed, lived until April.

Carl Lenhardt, companion of Simmons, said Deal struck out with a hammer during an argument over a debt, and that Simmons was unarmed. Deal has entered a plea of self-defense, saying Simmons advanced on him with a knife. Evidence was completed this morning, and the case is expected to go to the jury late today.

Gold Mining Started Again in Mecklenburg

Charlotte, June 12.—(AP)—Gold mining has begun again in Mecklenburg county in an old shaft that 70 years ago yielded enough of the precious metal to make operations profitable.

The United States Refining, Smelting and Mining Company has taken a two-year lease on the property, five miles from Charlotte, owned by Frank King, a well-to-do farmer.

D. L. Martin, for 40 years a prospector, is in charge of the work. Five men are now employed in preliminary operations, which will include the sinking of several shallow shafts in an effort to test the size and direction of the vein.

A mile from the spot where the men are now digging is the old Capp's Hill gold mine, reputed to have yielded in its day more than $2,500,000 in gold ore. It has not been worked for a quarter of a century.

The mine where Martin is directing the work is said to have been dug by slaves before the War between the States. It has a number of shafts from 20 to 30 feet deep and one shaft as deep as 40 feet. In cleaning out the deepest shaft, Martin found what he considered encouraging specimens of ore.

GATES WANTS TO RETURN TO PITT COUNTY

Farmville Man Held in Baltimore Would Complete Road Sentence Here

Will Coy Gates, of Farmville, who has been held by Baltimore authorities the last several days in connection with the death of a seaman whose body was dragged from the Baltimore harbor last Sunday night wants to come back to Pitt county to complete serving a two-year sentence on the roads.

This information was conveyed in a message received by Pitt county authorities from Baltimore yesterday. It was stated that Gates had admitted escaping from the Pitt county road forces several months ago and expressed a desire to return and complete the sentence.

Officers here are of the opinion that Gates must have been exonerated of blame in connection with the death of James E. Funk, 54, wiper on the steamer Alleghany, whose body was recovered from the harbor after an alleged altercation with Gates. Gates was arrested, but no formal charge was directed against him.

Officers here were unable to say what action would be taken in the matter. It was said this would be left in the hands of the Highway Commission which has charge of the road forces.

Gates was sentenced to two years on the county roads several months ago following his conviction of a charge of driving an automobile in a reckless and careless manner. He served about one month and escaped.

Nothing had been heard of his whereabouts until receipt of the news story here last Monday, telling of his arrest in Baltimore. He was said to have been in the employ of a steamship company at the time of his arrest.

FLOWER SHOP OPENED HERE

Crowds Attended the Opening of New Department Greenville Floral Co., Thursday

The Flower Shop, new department of the Greenville Floral Company, was formally thrown open to the public yesterday afternoon and last night.

Large crowds of people interested in the development in this field of industry visited the building and expressed keen appreciation of the artistic display.

The department is located in the front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Spence, operators of the Greenville Floral Company. The entire front of the structure was remodeled to obtain the display room effect and the interior decoration was conducted under direction of Miss Lela Hise.

The interior of the building is a work of art in itself but this was greatly enhanced during the formal opening by the skillful arrangement of flowers. In the center of the room is a large display refrigerator, the latest creation for the preservation of plant life to be found among the modern florists of the country.

In the rear of the display room will be found the designing room where all work is done in the preparation of flowers for delivery. The building is in close proximity to the greenhouses and transfer of plants to the designing room may be conducted in short time.

Visitors were served punch during the evening and Mr. and Mrs. Spence and others connected with the firm conducted the crowds over the building and explained each feature of the development.

The shop was described by many as the most modern of its kind in Eastern Carolina and deserving of the pride of the entire community.

81 Held for Murder

Coolmees, N. C.—(AP)—John Henry Hauser, 81, arrested two weeks ago and charged with murdering his son-in-law, Fred Styres, is still in the county jail. Efforts are being made to have the aged man released under bond until his trial, set for August.

Going to College

Davidson, N. C.—(AP)—Approximately 200 of the 250 quota for the 1931-32 freshman class at Davidson college have already registered. Fred W. Hengeveld, registrar, announced. He said indications were that the college would operate with a capacity student body of 650 next season.

SLAIN GIRL AND HER FAMILY

SMALL WILL TALK DRY LAW

Former Congressman to Discuss the 18th Amendment Thursday Night, June 18

Former Congressman John H. Small of Washington, will speak at the court house in this city Thursday night, June 18th, in opposition to the Eighteenth Amendment. Mr. Small delivered a similar address in Washington several days ago and was heard by an audience that taxed the building to capacity.

In a letter to the Reflector today Mr. Small said he welcomed the opportunity to present his issue to the intelligent and open minded men and women of the community. "I voted against the Eighteenth Amendment when I was a member of Congress in 1918, after most careful and diligent study," said Mr. Small. "Since that time I have said nothing in public, hoping in the meantime that the advocates of national prohibition could demonstrate its wisdom and effectiveness. In my opinion the time has come to discuss this issue in the open."

"I shall say nothing to offend any advocate of national prohibition. I will endeavor to present the truth. No good woman or any minister should hesitate to hear this issue discussed. I particularly wish the good women to hear me. The wives and mothers have more at stake even than the men. They are the conservators of the home and upon them rests the main responsibility of rearing their children."

CHARLOTTE LOSES

Charlotte, N. C., June 12.—(AP)—Decision by the State Highway Commission to locate division D headquarters at either Statesville or Concord will mean the removal from Charlotte of the district headquarters which have been maintained here since 1921.

He Should Get the Works. Greensboro, N. C.—(AP)—James Vaviness is under arrest here for the shooting of Emma Lee Cobb, eight-year-old negro girl. No witness to the shooting was found, but Cobb was said to have accused the girl of stealing whiskey from him, and officers acted on this information in making the arrest.

Business Reported To Be "Looking Up" In America

Charleston, S. C., June 12.—(AP)—Business was described as "looking up" today at the opening session here of the Southern Textile Association's convention.

Mayor Thomas P. Stoney, of Charleston, welcoming the convention said the future was bright and that present conditions "are not so bad as painted."

The same note was struck by L. E. Wooten, of Charlotte, vice-president of the Lestershire Spool and Manufacturing Company.

Expressing belief that the business trend in the industry was upward, he said the principal need at the present time was "faith in God, our country, our business, our fellowmen and ourselves."

J. O. Corn, of Columbia, S. C., in his annual report as president said the association's membership had more than doubled during the past year.

An invitation to make greater use of the Bureau of Standards, Washington, was extended by L. R. Gilbert, of the bureau, who discussed the bureau's possibilities for aiding textile manufacturers.

John A. McFalls, superintendent of the Rania Manufacturing Company, Gastonia, in an address traced the rise of the southern textile industry.

This afternoon's program was given over to entertainment features.

PLANS ROUTE TO THE ORIENT

Lindbergh Busy Deciding Upon the Best Course to Pursue in Trail Blazing Flight

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Possible aerial routes to the Orient are being studied closely here by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in preparation for another trail blazing flight.

With Mrs. Lindbergh he expects to cross over either the turbulent Atlantic, the broad Pacific or the frozen wastes of the Arctic ocean in his steam-lined and pontoon-fitted monoplane before the summer ends.

Although four routes are being considered, a final decision will depend upon the establishment of satisfactory fuel bases. One route would take the young couple over the Atlantic to Greenland and to Spitzbergen and across Siberia to Japan.

The second would be along the waters of northern Canada to the northernmost fringe of the Alaskan coast and over a portion of the Arctic ocean to Siberia.

The third would send the fliers up the Canadian coast to the Aleutian Islands that stretch from Alaska in a long string toward the eastern coast of the Asiatic continent. Should they land near Kanchatka the route would then be southward to Japan.

The fourth possibility, in which Lindbergh said he was particularly interested, was the route across Alaska, over the Behring sea to Siberia, and then to the Nipponese Islands.

Lindbergh said his decision to make the flight in a pontoon equipped plane had been reached after a study of the rivers and lakes along the projected routes. Should the path carry them entirely across Canada or eastward by the Atlantic route, which would necessitate a flight over several thousand miles of Siberian land, he said, he doubted whether any change would be made in the plane's undercarriage.

"If it comes to a forced landing in much of that territory," the aviator said, "we would have almost as good a chance with pontoons as with wheels. Of course, the chances of taking off again after landing might not be so good."

British Liquor Ship Sinks In Collision With Coast Patrol

Bottlers Offer To Pay Increased Tax Omitted In The Revenue Measure

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—The North Carolina Bottlers' Association today asked the State of North Carolina to allow the payment by bottlers of the state something like $100,000 in increased taxes which the 1931 General Assembly intended to impose on them but which an error in enrolling of the revenue bill failed to do.

J. Elmer Long of Durham, former lieutenant-governor, today appeared before Gov. O. M. Gardner and A. J. Maxwell, commissioner of revenue, in behalf of the Bottlers' Association and said the organized bottlers do not want in any way to profit by the $100,000 error in the revenue bill.

Mr. Long said the bottlers hoped to find some way to pay the state the $100,000 which the revenue bill omitted.

If the state cannot take the tax, he said, the bottlers desire to pay the state the full amount which it was intended to levy on them for the biennium 1931-33 with the state holding it in abeyance until the 1933 General Assembly meets and enacts a law whereby the state can take the money.

Commissioner Maxwell said the matter was a question Attorney General D. G. Brummitt must decide. He asked Mr. Long to submit his proposition to him and he in turn will give it to Mr. Brummitt.

The 1931-33 revenue bill, legislators thought, doubled the license tax on bottlers. This week it was discovered that an error in the enrolling of the measure resulted in the 1929 scale being retained.

DR. PARROTT ACCEPTS JOB

Kinston Man to Assume Secretaryship of State Health Body July 1

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—Dr. J. M. Parrott, of Kinston, will become secretary of the State Board of Health and State Health Officer on July 1 at a salary of $7,200.

Dr. Parrott accepted the position late yesterday after an all-day session of the board during which the board completely reorganized the department into five divisions and, in doing so, dispensed with services of two department employees.

Ronald Wilson, assistant to the late Dr. Charles O'H. Laughlinhouse and Dr. H. A. Taylor, who has been acting health officer since Dr. Laughlinhouse's death, said Dr. D. A. Dees, in charge of venereal control, are not included in the reorganized department.

Dr. Taylor has been offered the post of assistant State Health Officer but has not accepted.

The reorganized department will carry on its work under five divisions as follows:

1.—Executive division under health officer and his assistant.

2.—Division of preventive medicine, under Dr. G. M. Cooper.

3.—Division of sanitation, under H. E. Miller, at present in charge of the bureau of sanitation and engineering.

4.—Division of oral hygiene, under Dr. E. A. Branch.

5.—Division of laboratories, under Dr. C. A. Shore.

The board will meet again July 14 to complete reorganization plans and at that time will announce whether Mr. Miller will remain permanently in charge of the sanitation division.

Dr. Parrott's salary is fixed by statute at a maximum of $8,000 annually. In voting that it should not be less than $7,200 a year, the board took into consideration the 10 per cent cut in all state salaries imposed by the last Legislature.

Jonas Ready to Probe Catawba County Election

Lincolnton, June 12.—(AP)—C. A. Jonas, United States district attorney, is prepared to investigate the first 1930 Democratic primary in Catawba county if anyone is ready to "officially" request a probe.

In a statement yesterday, Mr. Jonas said recent arrests in Watauga county had "revived talk" of irregularities in the Catawba primary, in which Major A. L. Bulwinkle, of Gastonia, defeated Hamilton C. Jones, of Charlotte, for the Democratic nomination.

Major Bulwinkle, later defeated Mr. Jones, the Republican nominee in the general election.

MEDICAL MEN MEET IN AYDEN

Society Asks County Health Budget to Be Retained or Increased for Future

The Pitt County Medical Society held its June meeting in the dining room of the Ayden Methodist Church last night at seven o'clock, with Drs. Frizzelle and Dixon as hosts, Dr. Joseph Smith presiding. The ladies of the church served a delicious supper.

Dr. Pace read an interesting paper on "New Treatment of Acute and Chronic Infections." Two case reports were given by Dr. Winstead one of which was illustrated with X-ray films.

Visitors present were Dr. Harper of Snow Hill, Dr. Dawson of Hookerton and Dr. Frank Wilson of Greenville. The visitors made interesting talks.

The society went on record that the present county health budget either be retained or increased in order to cope with the serious health problem confronting the county during the time of depression.

A committee was appointed to send Dr. James Parrott a congratulatory telegram on his acceptance of the post of state health officer.

A message of sympathy was sent Dr. C. C. Joyner, Farmville, who recently had an appendectomy.

Recover Body of Man at New Bern

New Bern, June 12.—(AP)—The body of Edwar B. Elliott, 27, volunteer fireman who lost his life fighting a blaze that swept New Bern's waterfront early Wednesday, will be buried here today.

Fellow firemen fished Elliott's body from the Trent river yesterday after a 25-hour search. They expressed the opinion he fell in the water from a narrow walkway around a warehouse or from a row boat.

Elliott was last seen attempting to assist in the rescue of persons trapped on a barge docked at a burning warehouse.

Business houses here will close while his funeral is being held.

The victim of the New Bern disaster was a brother of J. S. Elliott, of Greenville, who has been in New Bern since the fire assisting in the search.

Golfing Mother

London—Mrs. Abdy Collins is the mother of two golfers at 81 and swings quite a club herself. She has won the president's trophy of the veteran women's Golfing Association with a net score of 69. Her handicap was 35. It has been cut to 31.

CUTS SCHOOL BUDGET

Charlotte, N. C., June 12.—(AP)—The Charlotte city school board has voted to cut its budget $120,000 which will mean a 10 per cent decrease in teachers' and school officials' salaries.

Suben Acadia Goes Down in Two Hours After Ramming the Coastguard Destroyer Davis Fifty Miles South of Montauk Point; Members of Crew Rescued; Coast Guard Board Will Inquire Into Accident; Vessel Believed to Have Carried Valuable Cargo of Rum.

New London, Conn., June 12.—(AP)—The British vessel Suben Acadia believed by coast guard officials to have had a valuable cargo of liquor aboard, sank today fifty miles south of Montauk Point, after a collision with the coast guard destroyer Davis. The vessel's crew of ten was rescued.

The service craft, which was slightly damaged, was trailing the British vessel when the collision occurred. The Suben Acadia, formerly the Lucky Strike, arrived on Rum Row recently. While a complete report of the accident had not been received here by customs and immigration officers, coast guard officials expressed the opinion the British vessel rammed the service craft while attempting to maneuver to escape surveillance.

Members of the Suben Acadia's crew were taken off the vessel by the patrol boat Marion. The Davis radioed that the men were being brought here.

The vessel, extensively damaged forward, sank two hours after the collision in the Atlantic ocean.

A coast guard board of investigation will inquire into the accident. The master and members of the crew of the Suben Acadia will be given an opportunity to testify.

Cancel Advertising in S. C. Newspapers Over Tax Situation

Columbia, S. C., June 12.—(AP)—Advertising of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company in some South Carolina newspapers has been discontinued because of the "tax situation." W. G. Query, chairman of the State Tax Commission and several newspapers have been informed.

The company's advertising agency, Erwin Wasey and Company of New York, has written that "as long as this condition exists, it is doubtful if there will be any further Camel cigarette advertising in South Carolina newspapers."

Agents of the State Tax Commission have been seizing numerous packages of Camel cigarettes from South Carolina retailers because the state business license stamp is said not to adhere properly to the new cellophane covering the Reynolds Company uses on its products.

South Carolina merchants have developed a practice of removing the cellophane wrapping, he said, sticking the stamps to the inner wrapper. Since the cellophane feature of Reynolds products was so strictly emphasized in the company's advertising campaign, the company did not feel such advertising would be of value; where the cellophane-wrapped package could not be bought.

Ruth Nichols Prepares For Ocean Flight

New York, June 12.—(AP)—On a solo flight to Europe, scheduled to start within a few days if weather is good, Ruth Nichols, holder of three women's air records, will traverse the frigid regions of the upper air, but the chances are that the only part of her to suffer from cold will be her tongue.

The cabin of her plane is heated by the engine, making the enclosed space so warm that she only expects to wear a cotton mechanics jumper over her sports dress, although she will take a heavy flying suit in case of need. On her head she will simply have a bandana instead of the fur-lined helmet necessary for altitude flying in less protected ships.

But there will be no way to offset the freezing effect of cold oxygen on her tongue, which became stiff with cold from this source during the flight in which she established a new altitude record for women.

NEWS BRIEFS

From Over The City and County

MAN BOUND OVER ON CHARGE OF FORGERY

R. C. Harris, local sign painter, was bound over to Superior court under bond of $500 following preliminary hearing before Magistrate C. B. Rowlett today on a charge of forgery.

Harris was charged with signing the name of Sam B. Harris to a check for $8.00, which was cashed by a local business man. The name was said to have been fictitious as no such person exists, as far as could be ascertained.

Harris did not deny the charge. He said he had been out of work for some time and obtained the money with which to provide for his wife and four children who had suffered from lack of necessities during his enforced unemployment. Other charges of a similar nature were said to be pending against the man.

REGISTRATION FOR THE VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WILL BEGIN TOMORROW

Registration will begin tomorrow in the Daily Vacation Bible School to be conducted at Memorial Baptist Church. All children desiring to attend the school are requested to register tomorrow morning between 9 and 12 o'clock. The school will begin Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The school is non-denominational and all children of the city are invited to attend. Miss Evelyn Hart will be in charge. She will be assisted by young men and young women of the church.

THREE BOUND OVER ON LARCENY CHARGE

L. B. Nobles, Sr., Lorenza Nobles and Harvey Hyman, charged with stealing property from the local unit of the National Guard, were bound over to County court under bonds of $500 each following preliminary hearing before Magistrate Ray Tyson this morning.

Lorenza Nobles was also indicted under a separate warrant for stealing bicycles from Billy Staton, David Roberts and Robert Keel. The goods alleged to have been stolen from the guardsmen consisted of wearing apparel.

WILLIAM LANGLEY WAS COLORED MAN

In the report of County court carried in the columns of this paper Wednesday, it was stated that William Langley was fined $25 on a charge of possessing whiskey. It should have read William Langley, colored, owing to the fact that there is a white man by the same name living in Greenville.

CROPS SHOWING FINE PROGRESS OVER COUNTY

In spite of abnormally cool nights the last two weeks, crops were reported as making fine progress in the various sections of Pitt county. Plants of all varieties have shown rapid growth the last several days and present a splendid appearance. Crop conditions south of Greenville were described as even better than in other sections.

Communists Still Rioting in Berlin Against Tax Decree

Berlin, June 12.—(AP)—Widespread Communist riots against emergency tax decrees caused the police to take special precautions today.

Communists again clashed with authorities at a mass meeting in Berlin last night attended by 12,000 persons. Police searched them for weapons and arrested scores. As the crowd moved away police were forced to fire blank cartridges and to use their clubs to maintain order. Several newspaper offices were placed under guard to prevent the participants from damaging them.

Five persons were wounded in Hamburg, when police broke up a radical demonstration near the English church. Ten thousand persons were present at a gathering preceding the outbreak.

One was killed and two were injured at Lauenburg as a result of authorities' efforts to separate a mob of Communists fighting among themselves. Police were attacked when they tried to quell the row, and had to resort to firearms to battle their way out.

Conflict between Communists and National Socialists brought 20 arrests in Bremen. Officers attempted to rescue the Nazis and the Reds pelted both groups with stones, using iron drainpipes for hand-to-hand fighting.

Radical disorders broke out in Kassel for the second successive night. Threatening crowds gathered in the main streets and resisted police until the latter resorted to clubs and blank cartridges. The discovery that an aged shoemaker had been killed the preceding night, brought the death toll this week to two.

Show Thunder Lizard. New Haven Conn.—Yale's "hunder lizard" is on exhibition in Peabody Museum. It is a huge dinosaur nearly 70 feet long and 16 feet high, and is estimated to be 120,000,000 years old. The bones were found near Wyo in 1881 and three years were required to reconstruct and mount the skeleton.

Atlanta, Ga.—Too bad he won't compete at Inverness. On the first time around since his return from moviedom, Bobby Jones broke the course record at East Lake by one stroke. His score was 36-30-66, including an eagle and four birdies.

REVEAL CURE FOR POISONING

Medical Association Told Operation Offers Relief From Bichloride of Mercury

Philadelphia, June 12.—(AP)—Discovery of an operation somewhat resembling appendicitis that cures some hitherto fatal cases of bichloride of mercury poisoning was described to the American Medical Association today.

The operation is called cecostomy, and enables physicians to wash the poison out of one of the vital parts of the body. It was reported by Samuel Berger, M. D., and his associates, H. S. Applebaum and A. M. Young, of the department of medicine and pathology of Mt. Sinai Hospital, Cleveland.

They studied 163 cases of bichloride of mercury poisoning seeking to learn exactly how the internal organs are harmed or destroyed. They found that in a large majority of those who lived beyond the first 24 hours after swallowing the bichloride death was due to the gangrenous condition of the lower intestine.

They therefore devised an operation to head off the poison before it reached this position. By making an incision in the same place as that for appendicitis, they reached the cecum, a sort of pouch close to the appendix.

The cecum is the site of a valve, so that it is a gate between the small and the large intestines. The poison, after leaving the stomach, has to pass down through this gate before the fatal gangrene can be produced.

This passage they prevented by keeping water flushing the pouch continuously, washing out the poison as fast as it approached the gate. They reported that several patients who were expected to die, had been saved.

Dr. Berger emphasized that the operation was successfully only when performed a few hours after the poison had been swallowed. Those upon whom it was performed after two days or more all died.

An X-ray method of detecting lead poisoning in babies and children in time to save them from the worst effects was reported by Edward C. Vogt of the Infants' and Children's Hospital, Boston.

Proof that tiny mites living on rats are transmitters of endemic typhus fever was submitted by Bedford Shelmire, M. D., of Dallas, Texas, and Walter E. Dove, M. D., of the U. S. Bureau of Entomology, Charleston, S. C. This fever they said recently has been observed in various parts of northeast Texas. It is not the virulent type of typhus.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile — Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up."

They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute.

Make your dreams Come True

Those dreams that some day you'll have the money with which to buy the things you desire to have—or money for a higher education, or for music or art, or for travel —

No matter what your dreams are, if money is necessary, a savings account in this Bank will help to make your dreams come true.

To what you deposit, we will add interest regularly. This will make your savings grow even faster than you expect.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF MISS KING

The bridge luncheon given yesterday morning by Mrs. S. T. White, honoring Miss Virginia King, bride-elect, was one of the outstanding social affairs of the season.

Baskets of pink gladioli attractively placed on the porch, formed a lovely background for the six bridge tables. On arrival, the guests were welcomed by the hostess, the honor guest, Miss King, and Miss Helen White.

A number of games of contract bridge were enjoyed.

At one o'clock an elaborate three course luncheon was served.

The pink and green motif was carried out in the glassware and other table appointments. The tables were centered with green vases holding pink rosebuds these were cut as table prizes and went to Mrs. John Gorham, Mrs. Norman Winslow, Mrs. George F. Hadley, Miss Effie Mae Winslow, Miss Clara Mays and Miss Ada James.

The hostess presented Miss King a half-dozen teaspoons in her selected pattern. Miss Effie Mae Winslow, who will be married in the late summer, was remembered with silk hose. Miss Mary Forbes was winner of silk hose for high score. Miss Peele was given an attractive handkerchief for low score. Mrs. James Ellison, cutting high for the visitors, was given silk hose.

Miss Elizabeth Carr and her house guests, Misses Natalie Strickland and Betsy Powell, were luncheon guests. Misses Strickland and Powell were remembered with dainty handkerchiefs.

Out of town guests playing were Mrs. James Ellison and Mrs. John Gorham of Washington; Mrs. Jake Froelich of High Point; Mrs. Guilford Smith of Charleston, West Virginia; Misses Christine and Mary Ann Perkins of Stokes; Mrs. T. A. Dalbraith of Kinston; Miss Hare and Miss Peele, who are guests of Miss Frances Moseley.

MISS ELIZABETH CARR ENTERTAINS AT DANCE

Miss Elizabeth Carr was hostess to about fifty members of the younger set last evening at a dance, complimenting her house guests, Misses Natalie Strickland and Betsy Powell, of Valdosta, Ga. The Woman's Club, where the dance was held, was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Masses of garden flowers were used throughout the club rooms. As the guests arrived, they were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carr, Miss Elizabeth Carr and her house guests.

Mrs. E. B. Ficklen and Mrs. S. T. White served punch throughout the evening.

Music was furnished by a local orchestra and dancing was enjoyed from ten until one o'clock.

Besides her house guests, Miss Carr had the following guests from Wilson: Misses Julia Miller, Margaret Abbott, Martha Cheatham and Misses Elmer Oettner, John Dilda, Herbert Harris, Walter Brown and Willis. The Wilson party were chaperoned by Mrs. F. M. Miller, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Cheatham.

After the dance the out-of-town guests repaired to the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carr, where they were served lunch.

Material Wanted for Club Girls

The contest which was begun last Sunday between the Sunshine class at Red Oak left the Senior class two points behind the Sunshine class the score being 121 and 119 in favor of the Sunshine class. Never mind, the married ones will be there next Sunday.

TO CONDUCT COOKING SCHOOL

Mrs. Frances Y. Cline, of Consumer Service Department of General Foods Corporation, nationally-known home economics expert, will conduct the cooking school to be sponsored by the Water and Light Commission and conducted in the high school auditorium June 16, 17, 18 and 19. Mrs. Cline is a person of charm and ability and her lectures will be of great interest to the homemakers of Greenville and vicinity. The public is invited to hear Mrs. Cline.

LIONS PLAN FOR FUTURE

Plans for the new year were discussed at the regular meeting of the Lions club held at the club rooms on Dickinson avenue last night. President Sam Carson presided over the session and the usual supper and song program were enjoyed.

The club elected the following delegates to attend the state convention to be held at Wrightsville Beach: Bill Perkins, S. T. Carson, Reid Perkins and Foster Young.

Plans for the dance to be given by the club the latter part of the month were discussed at considerable length but the date was not decided upon. The committee, it was said, hopes to make it one of the most brilliant social functions of the summer season.

Definite plans looking to the successful operation of the club during the coming year were given consideration, and hope was expressed that activities of the organization would be more pronounced than ever in the future.

DENY RADIO INJUNCTION

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—An application by the National Broadcasting Company for an injunction to restrain the Radio Commission from holding hearings as a possible step toward revocation of licenses was denied today in the District of Columbia Supreme court.

Justice Bailey said, however, that he would retain the case and if it appeared that the commission proceedings were threatening the National Broadcasting Company and other subsidiaries of the Radio and other subsidiaries of the Radio Corporation of America, with "irreparable injury," he might grant the preliminary injunction asked for.

Justice Bailey said he felt that the court should not interfere with hearings on licenses of Radio Corporation of America subsidiaries, set for June 15, unless it became absolutely necessary.

He added that the corporation's subsidiaries could appeal if the decision were adverse, but explained he would intervene in the future if he felt the situation demanded it.

The case had its origin in a Delaware Federal court decision which held that the Radio Corporation had violated the anti-trust laws in a radio tube contract it made with dealers.

Under section 13 of the radio act, a concern which attempts a monopoly of radio communication is deemed licensee. The commission directed the hearings to ascertain whether the Delaware decision said the Radio Corporation had violated section 13 and the corporation sought the injunction to restrain the proceedings.

STATE RESTS IN BANK CASE

Wilmington, June 12.—(AP)—The state rested today in the trial of M. Douglas Clarke, former banker charged with making false entries, and arguments to the jury were begun when the defense announced it would offer no evidence.

The state rested shortly after 11 a. m. A defense motion for a non-suit was then overruled by Judge Garland E. Midyette.

Judge Midyette, however, ordered a verdict of not guilty of one of the 13 counts against Clarke. He charged a false entry in connection with a deposit of the local chapter of the American Red Cross.

No evidence with regard to the deposit was presented by the state. Clarke was assistant cashier of the Home Savings Bank here which closed last January. All of the 13 counts in the present trial charged him with false entries. He also was indicted on charges of embezzlement, but those charges were not involved in this trial.

Several minor witnesses were heard this morning before the state rested.

Kenneth E. Royall, of Goldsboro, defense attorney, opened arguments. The case was expected to go to the jury late today or tomorrow morning.

Supreme Court Refuses to Restrain the Commission From Holding Hearings

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—An application by the National Broadcasting Company for an injunction to restrain the Radio Commission from holding hearings as a possible step toward revocation of licenses was denied today in the District of Columbia Supreme court.

Culinary Expert Will Conduct School Here

Mrs. Frances Y. Cline Will Give Free Instruction in Cooking at Water and Light Commission Offices June 16, 17, 18, 19

Mrs. Frances Y. Cline, the culinary expert who will conduct the Water and Light Commission Free Cooking School here June 16, 17, 18 and 19, arrived in Greenville yesterday. Her first move after registering at the Proctor Hotel where she is making her headquarters, was to make a tour of Greenville grocery stores and markets.

Mrs. Cline, who comes to Greenville from the consumers' service department of the General Foods Corporation, said Greenville housewives have a huge advantage over women in other sections of the country, after plunging into "chapters" over the variety, flavor and appearance of Greenville fruits and vegetables. She spoke in terms of high praise of the manner in which the local merchants have their wares displayed. "Very inviting," she commented, "I do not see how Greenville housewives can keep within their budget, if a budget they use, with such attractive markets to tempt them to overbuy."

Continuing in glowing compliments. In planning a meal in most fruits and vegetables, Mrs. Cline said, "With the wealth of fruits and wonderful early spring vegetables displayed in the shops it is comparatively easy to choose the necessary ingredients for a balanced menu. In planning a meal in most places at this season, it is usually necessary to go marketing to see what you can get and to note its condition. Here, the housewife may know for a certainty that she can depend on fresh fruits and vegetables at prices which are within the means of even the most modest budget."

Mrs. Cline also remarked that the prices of Greenville grocery stores compare favorably with the best bargains offered elsewhere.

Mrs. Cline inspected the high school auditorium where she will conduct her four-day series of lectures and demonstrations. She was profuse in her praise of the facilities at hand and predicted one of the most successful schools she has ever attempted.

The culinary authority outlined her tentative program (Mrs. Cline said she was enjoying the beauty and spring freshness of Greenville so much she deplored getting down to the tense concentration which marks her scientific courses.) Tuesday, she said, the first day, I will lecture on "magic meals from the modern cupboard." Mrs. Cline explained this included talks and demonstrations on concocting ready prepared dishes which may be stored in the cupboard and later served in an instant to meet any occasion. She commented these dishes will startle your friends. Although not a second is consumed in making them ready to serve, once they are prepared for the cupboard they appear to have required all sorts of last minute trouble and preparation.

Wednesday, Mrs. Cline plans "Favorite American Dishes" in which she will explain how to fix nutritious, inexpensive, easily-prepared dishes, meals for the entire family which will build bodies and please every appetite.

On Thursday, she has chosen for her class "Recipes—Gay, New and Fancy." In this lecture, she will speak and demonstrate the latest fashions in hot-weather hospitality. All manners of fancy cookery will be explained, dishes for parties, teas and varied entertainments.

The last day, Friday, Mrs. Cline will offer what she considers the gem of her series: "Cakes and a Few Other Things." In preparing this lecture, Mrs. Cline interviewed hundreds of people, recording the preferences of each.

Tobacco Growers of North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia

WARNING!

A tremendous surplus of tobacco is now on hand. The 1930 crop was the largest ever grown.

FARMERS—The tobacco acreage has not been reduced enough this year to prevent an increase in the already large surplus.

The United States Department of Agriculture report for April 1, 1931 shows: Increase in stocks on hand 124,000,000 pounds of bright flue cured tobacco in excess of April 1, 1930.

This report also shows that there was 50,000,000 pounds less bright flue cured tobacco consumed during the first three months of 1931 than the first three months of 1930, which proves the necessity of producing less tobacco.

We urge every tobacco farmer to destroy or leave on the stalk his bottom primings, AS PRESENT CONDITIONS INDICATE THAT THIS TOBACCO WILL NOT BRING ENOUGH TO PAY THE COST OF HOUSING AND CURING.

We believe by doing this the balance of the leaves on the plant will be much improved in quality and will bring more money than if you house the entire plant. If there is not a material reduction in quantity of tobacco raised this year lower prices are certain to prevail.

FARMERS—LEAVE YOUR BOTTOM PRIMINGS IN THE FIELD. Prosperity lies in smaller production with quality—Lower prices are certain with another large crop.

FARMERS—The tobacco warehousemen of Eastern North Carolina know the condition of the tobacco trade and are sincere in advising the farmers not to house their bottom primings. Less tobacco will bring more dollars.

LET'S HELP OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

As a citizen of course you are interested in the welfare of our boys and girls, and now the people of Greenville have the opportunity with a very little outlay of money, to provide wholesome recreation for the children during the summer months. The recent tender of the Westbrook swimming pool and the miniature golf course by Messrs. J. H. and M. K. Blount to be used for the benefit of the children of our city was most generous and pending the raising of the necessary funds by public subscription a small group of interested business and professional men have guaranteed the funds for the first month's operation.

Whether there are any public subscriptions or not, the pool will be operated for one month, but to be sure every citizen will want to do his or her part in making this summer recreational program possible and we are asking that every one who can possibly do so, donate to this cause.

The first month's operation together with the necessary repairs and improvements and other incidentals will require approximately $150.00 to $200.00 and thereafter the cost of operation will be approximately $125.00 per month including the services of a responsible manager trained in boys' work and licensed life saver. Such a program of summer recreation for the children of our city at such a low cost is indeed a great opportunity and it is to be hoped that the necessary funds can be raised without difficulty. If one hundred citizens will give $5.00 each in three monthly payments, $2.00 the first month and $1.50 each for the next two months the project can be put over and it is to this hundred interested citizens that we are now making our appeal. Should you not wish to obligate yourself for the amount necessary for the entire three months and desire just to contribute a smaller amount all at one time, your donation will be greatly appreciated and will help greatly in making the program possible.

It is the desire of the committee in charge to get the swimming pool open just as soon as possible and your prompt action in making your contribution will be appreciated.

Make all donations to D. J. Whichard, Jr., Treasurer, Children's Recreation Fund. A list of donations will be published in the columns of this paper from day to day.

ABOUT TOWN

All signs point to baseball for this city and other towns of the section if plans of promoters of two separate and distinct leagues work out. One organization will be composed of the members of military units in Greenville, Washington, Kinston and one or two other towns, and the other will comprise Greenville, Snow Hill, Pinetops and Macclesfield.

This will give the district two organizations, and both ought to be able to afford sufficient entertainment to lovers of the national sport. The schedule of neither organization has been completed, but it has been stated that they hope to begin playing ball within the next two weeks at the longest.

Citizens will welcome the information as nothing tends to liven up the summer season more than baseball.

It is understood the teams will be made up entirely of local material, and this is a sufficient guarantee of a good brand of ball. All towns have men who in recent years played on either college or league teams and are well qualified to furnish a brand of ball that should appeal to even the most exacting fans.

People of Pitt county will congratulate the citizens of Ayden in the opening of the First National Bank in Ayden, which threw open its doors to the public yesterday.

This organization will take over the affairs of the old First National Bank which closed several months ago, leaving the town without any banking facilities.

This is the second Pitt county bank to complete plans for opening, the State Banking & Trust Company of Greenville, having announced several days ago that it would open within the next month. This bank takes over the National Bank of Greenville which closed the latter part of last year for the protection of depositors.

In the words of J. R. Turnage, president of the new Ayden institution, the opening of these two banks should do much toward stabilizing conditions of the county by putting back into circulation thousands of dollars which were tied up by the closings.

Mr. Turnage was hearty in his commendation of Ayden people for the splendid spirit of co-operation which they rendered in the organization movement. Similar expressions have come from those behind the Greenville bank.

The revival of the banks should have a salutary effect upon the people in every district, and dissipate some of the gloom which settled over the affected areas after the closing of the old banks. The financial circles of the community have been given quite a boost and the future today is brighter than it has been for months.

Now that the city has been assured of adequate recreation for children during the summer months, the men and women who appreciate what the movement means to the youth should use every possible influence to see that the project is properly financed.

The group of business and professional men who underwrote the operation of the swimming pool on the Westbrook property and the golf course at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets after it had been tendered by Messrs. M. K. and J. H. Blount, should not be permitted to bear the brunt of the financing of the project, and it is hoped appreciative citizens will contribute as liberally as possible.

The success of the playgrounds will be largely determined by the public response to the appeal for financial support, and those who realize the vast benefits which the children will derive from this supervised form of recreation are asked to do their part.

It is the first time in the history of Greenville that such a safeguard has been thrown around recreation for the children, and it is deserving of the sympathetic co-operation of men and women in all fields of endeavor.

The two playgrounds will be in charge of Albert Osborne, who has had charge of children's activities here on a much smaller scale in past months. He is an authorized life saver of the American Saving Society, and his experience in the handling of children in the Y. M. C. A. field will enable him to carry on the work here with a keen appreciation of the results to be obtained.

By contributing a small sum to the movement the people will enable the committee to continue the swimming pool and golf course throughout the summer months, and in that way insure ample protection to the youngsters while at play.

The movement to clear the city of rank growth of vegetation seems to be meeting with good results, and people who have been troubled by mosquitoes should witness a decided improvement in this condition in the future.

There is an ordinance requiring the cutting down of all weeds and other form of rank growth of vegetation.

A special election having been ordered to be held in the Town of Greenville, N. C., by the Board of Aldermen of said town, notice is hereby given that a new registration of voters has been ordered and that Harvey Ward has been appointed as Registrar and J. W. Foley and Mrs. Alex Viola have been appointed as Judges of the Election. That said Registration books will be opened for the registration of voters on Monday, the 15th day of June, 1931, and will close on Saturday evening at six o'clock p. m., on the second Saturday preceding the Election to-wit: the 4th day of July, 1931; and that said Registration books will be opened daily during the hours of nine o'clock a. m., and six o'clock p. m., Sundays and holidays excepted. That said Registration books will be open at the polling place, which is the County Court House, on each Saturday during the registration period.

This 5th day of June, 1931.
J. R. GASKINS,
City Clerk.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Greenville, North Carolina, as follows:

Sec. 1. That the Town of Greenville, North Carolina, pursuant to authority contained in the Municipal Finance Act, and laws amendatory thereof, issue its bonds for the purpose of purchasing the real estate, gas plant, equipment and all other properties recently owned by the Carolina Gas and Electric Company and now owned by The Tidewater Power Company buying the property used by the said Carolina Gas and Electric Co., in the operation of its gas system in the Town of Greenville, N. C., and fully described in the offer of sale made by said company to the Town of Greenville on May 19th, 1931.

Sec. 2. That the maximum aggregate principal amount of said bonds shall be $100,000.

Sec. 3. That a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said bonds shall be annually levied and collected.

Sec. 4. That a statement of the debt of the Town of Greenville has been filed with the Clerk and is open to public inspection.

Sec. 5. That this ordinance shall take effect when approved by the voters of the Town of Greenville at a special election to be held as provided in the Municipal Finance Act.

Sec. 6. That said bonds shall be thirty year bonds and shall bear date as of July 1st, 1931.

Sec. 7. That the probably period of usefulness of the properties for the purchase of which said bond shall be issued has been estimated after careful investigation to be THIRTY (30) YEARS.

The foregoing ordinance was passed on the 4th day of June, 1931 and was first published on the 5th day of June, 1931. Any action or proceeding questioning the validity of said ordinance must be commenced within thirty days after its first publication.

CHARLOTTE PUTS LICKING ON THE TWINS

Charlotte, June 12.—(AP)— If some team doesn't come along pretty soon and put a string of kickings on Charlotte's Piedmont league entry the Hornets are going to get a strange hold on the top rung of the percentage ladder.

Five outfits—Henderson, Greensboro, Asheville, Durham and Winston-Salem tried in vain to stop Guy Lucy's men. Out of the last dozen games the Hornets have played against these teams, 10 victories have been scored.

Winston Salem was the latest victim. The Twins dropped another to Charlotte last night, 5 to 1, to lose two out of the three-game series.

High Point gets a chance at the league leaders today and if the club plays like it did in blanking Asheville 4 to 0 last night Charlotte will find the going hard.

The victory was the Pointers' first shut-out of the season. Roy Appleton, twirling for High Point, held Asheville to seven scattered hits while his mates gave him good support and 10 hits. Goldie Hol's sixth home run of the season came in the eighth with one on to put the game on ice.

Greensboro continued its creep up the percentage column by downing Raleigh 8 to 7. A Cap rally had to be nipped in the ninth however. To do it, and the argument that followed the throwing out at home of what would have been the tying run resulted in the banishment of Manager Odie Strain, of the Caps.

Caldwell was the main gun in the Pat attack. This hard-hitting first baseman batted in five runs, three of them at one time with a triple in the seventh.

DeWitt Perry's stungness with hits aided Durham in defeating the Henderson Gamerocks 3 to 1. The Birds got only six hits off the Bull twirler but four walks got him in several bad holes that made him work harder.

Lefty Honn, University of Illinois hurler, made his debut into professional ball by twirling for Henderson. He gave a good account of himself even if he didn't win but six free tickets to first helped to wipe out the eight strikeouts he tossed. The Bulls touched him for eight hits.

Charlotte's win over Winston Salem was due largely to Jim Lyle's masterful twirling. The Hornet sinner gave up only five hits and clouted a triple to help his own cause. He probably would have hung up a shut-out had not Rhinehardt thrown wild to second from right field to let Ambrose score.

Charlotte's win over Winston Salem was due largely to Jim Lyle's masterful twirling. The Hornet sinner gave up only five hits and clouted a triple to help his own cause. He probably would have hung up a shut-out had not Rhinehardt thrown wild to second from right field to let Ambrose score.

SENATORS IN THE RACE FOR LEAGUE FLAG

By UGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

As long as the Washington Senators continue to play the kind of baseball they have been displaying for the past month or so, Philadelphia's Athletics are not going to have a runaway of the American league pennant race.

The A's have compiled a remarkable record so far, running up 25 victories to 12 defeats, but the Senators have remained right on their heels.

Washington's average today at .660, no mean mark in any league and the Senators were only 3 1/2 games behind after six straight victories.

The only fly in the Senator optimism seems to be the refusal of the Athletics to lose a few more games for the team from the capital has been hitting at a terrific clip, leading up with the best and setting probably the best pitching in the league. Nine Washington pitchers went the route in succession before Jones failed to last on Wednesday.

The Senators clipped a full game from Philadelphia's lead yesterday by trouncing Cleveland 12 to 5. They piled up 15 hits in effective bunches. The only drawback was a slight injury to Joe Cronin, star young shortstop, which may keep him out a day or two.

The A's took their worst beating since early in the season from the St. Louis Browns and their rookie pitcher, Wallace Herbert, the 19-year-old moundsman, making his first major league start, held the champions to seven hits to win 5 to 2.

The third straight day of bad weather stopped the games at New York and Boston.

The margin of St. Louis Cardinals hold over their National league rivals, Chicago and New York, also was clipped in 3 1/2 games yesterday as Sox's Seibold held the Cards to four hits and gave Boston a 3 to 0 victory. The two teams tied for second place turned in a victory apiece.

Bob Smith gave the Cubs some highly effective mound work and Chicago beat Philadelphia 4 to 2 despite Chuck Klein's 15th homer of the season.

The Giants had to go eleven innings to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates but came through with a three run rally at the finish to win 8 to 6. Bob O'Farrell, Giant catcher, drove in the final run with the 1,000th hit of his major league career.

SPORTS SLANTS

The three outstanding newcomers in the National league this season, on the basis of the first two months of play, are Russell (Ruz) Arlett of the Phillies; Red Worthington of the Braves and Johnny Vergez of the Giants.

Vergez is the only one of the three who was picked arbitrarily for his regular spot and stuck to it. John McGraw made the definite switch of Lindstrom to the outfield and Vergez to third base in the spring training camp. The Pacific Coast league boy has come through handsomely, afield as well as at bat.

Arlett, one of the biggest men in game, and Worthington had to go out and prove they were entitled to regular posts in the outfield. They have done so in sensational fashion.

Arlett's heavy hitting has aroused discussion as to why he remained so long in "AA" company on the Pacific coast. The answer is not altogether based on the fact that he was figured a heavy-footed fellow.

Arlett, for years had been a big drawing card on the coast and the Oakland owners put an almost prohibitive price tag on his release. The big fellow has been clouting major league pitching with as much gusto as he ever passed minor league twirling.

The surprising feature about Worthington is that the Braves were able to pluck him from one of the Cardinal chain stores—Rochester. He was supposed to have a sore arm or weak back or something but it has not been manifest so far in his great work for Bill McKechnie and the Braves.

Challenge Tar Heels

Pittsburgh's undefeated tennis team herewith files a rebuttal to North Carolina's claim to national collegiate championship honors for the season.

The Panthers, Charles A. Kenny writes me, have put some fine teams on the courts in recent years and waded through all opposition for two successive seasons.

Last year's captain, Eddie Jacobs of Baltimore, lost only one contest in three years of varsity competition and that by default, due to the recurrence of an old injury while he was coasting along in front of his California opponent, Jacobs scored a notable victory over George Mangin, Davis Cup player, while the latter was playing for Georgetown.

"This year's tennis team was so airtight," writes Kenny, "that only two teams were able to score against us. Georgetown and George Washington broke the string on successive days at Washington. Pitt beat both teams by 6-3 scores.

North Carolina beat Georgetown by a count of 7-2 so that it would seem there's a good basis for argument between the Tar Heels and the Panthers, even if it can't be settled on the courts this year.

Need Only Good Card

The truth about the boxing depression merely seems to be that the customers no longer will go for the flint gold bricks. Not even a top price of $10.40 prevented the cash patrons from storming Madison Square Garden for Jimmy McLarin's come-back against Billy Petrolle. The "gate" was nearly $83,000, the biggest indoor total in over a year.

APPLICATION FOR PAROLE OF JOHN RAY

This is to certify that John Ray, who was convicted at the January term 1931 Superior Court of Pitt County, for the crime of larceny, and sentenced to a term of eighteen months in the State Penitentiary is about to apply to the Governor and the Commissioner of Parole for a parole for the remainder of his term.

All persons who oppose granting of said parole are invited to forward their protests to the commissioner of pardons without delay.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today 3 to 6 points higher on a continuation of yesterday's buying which was promoted by relatively steady Liverpool cables.

There seemed comparatively little cotton for sale at the start, but the initial demand was soon supplied as offerings increased being bought rather than sold. After the stock market eased, after a rather irregular opening, July sold off from 8.63 to 8.52 and December from 9.24 to 9.13, with the active months showing net losses of about 4 to 6 points by the end of the first hour.

A report by the New York Cotton Exchange service estimates domestic consumption for May at 483,000 bales compared with 508,800 for April and 474,000 for May last year. These figures appeared to be without much immediate effect on the market.

Liverpool cables said there had been covering with some Bombay and continental buying in that market influenced by the firmness of Alexandria. Egyptian futures in Alexandria were 29 to 49 higher.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Higher prices for wheat today resulted from rallies associated with the fact that the market had closed lower for five successive days. There was much uncertainty relative to spring wheat crop prospects, and sellers appeared to have become wary about following declines.

Wheat closed unsettled at 3-4-2 1-2 cents advance, corn 1-4-1-5 up, oats showing 1-8-3-8 gain, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 5 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 12.—(AP)—The stock market cautiously picked up the thread of the advance today after an early reaction due chiefly to profit taking on yesterday's late upturn in the rails. Trading was largely professional in character and the turnover was small.

Bonds with the notable exception of Germans which were still disturbed by uncertainties over conditions in the Reich, showed mostly narrow changes, however, the continued improvement of second grade domestic rails was an important manifestation of returning confidence.

New York Central and Atchafalpa converted three point losses into moderate gains. Union Pacific rallied 4 net and most of the others climbed at least a point. Elsewhere, strength was most pronounced in a few specialties, notably Libby Owens, National Lead and Coca Cola. International Telephone was strengthened by declaration of the regular dividend.

With brokers' loans down $49,000,000 in a rally week on the share market, much of the recent buying was attributed to repurchases by shorts. Some surprise was expressed over the size of the decline, for it had been hoped in many quarters that the cut in margin requirements would have an opposite effect. It would seem doubtful, however, that a reversal would come so soon, since there has been some doubt in the speculative mind as to whether the market really meant business in its about face.

The local money market was stagnant. Further easiness is likely over the tax period next week.

SUGG MOTOR COMPANY

Greenville, N. C.

as authorized

Buick Dealer for Greenville and vicinity

Buick Motor Company takes pleasure in announcing the appointment of the Sugg Motor Company of Greenville, N. C., as authorized Buick Dealer for Greenville and vicinity.

With a wide experience and with numerous friends in this territory, the Sugg Motor Company starts off under the Buick banner with every assurance of success.

The appointment of the Sugg Motor Company is in line with Buick's policy of providing such facilities as will insure complete owner satisfaction, throughout the long period of usefulness traditional with these cars. This company's building, equipment and personnel bring to Buick owners even finer parts and repair service than they have known in the past.

For the further benefit of owners, these extensive facilities will be supplemented by those of the Buick factory zone headquarters in Charlotte, thus making doubly certain the type of owner satisfaction which has won for Buick more than twice as many buyers as any other car in its price class.

Remember, expert service is a part of the value you get when you invest your money in a Buick. Thousands of authorized Buick service stations—each identified by the familiar blue-and-white sign—hold out their assurance of complete aid, no matter where you go.
