NEW ANGLES ENTER INTO N. Y. MURDER

Authorities Seeking Two Men in Mysterious Slaying of Miss Starr Faithfull.

Mineola, N. Y., June 16.—(AP)—Fifty new angles, any one of which may lead to a solution of Starr Faithfull's mysterious death, have developed since yesterday afternoon, District Attorney Edwards of Nassau county said today.

Mr. Edwards appeared greatly excited on his arrival at his office. The only one of the angles which he would discuss, however, was the police search for two men, described as Jack Greenaway and Bruce Winston, with whom the girl had told her mother she spent the afternoon and part of the evening the day before she disappeared.

"These men are highly important," he said. "If we can find them and find out where Miss Faithfull was the day before she disappeared, we'll have the mystery solved, I believe."

Mr. Edwards said that Greenaway and Winston were not wanted for murder. He merely wanted their help, he said, in tracing Miss Faithfull's movements after she left home. He believed they could give him valuable assistance.

Starr had told her mother, he said, that she spent Thursday afternoon with them at the apartment of Harry Soner, New York artist, but Stoner said they had not been there.

Mr. Edwards told today how Elizabeth Tucker Faithfull, the dead girl's sister, broke down after long questioning and sobbed:

"I'm not sorry Starr is dead. She's happier. Everyone is happier."

The girl then told him, he said, that Starr had ruled her family.

"Starr was evidently much stronger physically than her sister or mother," Mr. Edwards said. "She was apparently stronger even than her stepfather, for I was told she used to slap him at times."

Tucker said that, if breakfast wasn't ready soon enough to suit Starr, she'd slap her mother and pinch her arm so that the marks would remain there for days. Starr was exceedingly peevish, her sister said.

"Starr's domination was so complete, she said, that she even decided where the family would live."

Police today started a search to find where and under what circumstances was obtained the narcotic which apparently had rendered Starr unconscious before she was drowned. Dr. Alexander O. Getler, city toxicologist, said the search would be long and difficult, because the narcotic—now very strong and commonly used by persons suffering from insomnia—is sold without prescription.

Two Men Sentenced To Roads For Dynamiting Minister's Residence

George Style and Robert Perkins are given 12 months for disorders in connection with Clinchfield mill strike at Marion in 1929; Minister says he saw men when they threw explosive from car.

Marion, June 16.—(AP)—George Style and Robert Perkins today entered a plea of nolo contendere to charges of dynamiting the home of Rev. J. N. Wise during disorders incident to the Clinchfield mill strike here in 1929, and were sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

Their plea followed the appearance on the stand of Rev. Mr. Wise, who said he saw the men throw the dynamite from a car and flee.

Perkins and Styles had originally pleaded not guilty, and a jury drawn from the outskirts of the county had been called for service at the trial.

Prior to the opening of the trial this morning, W. L. Hogan, who was financial secretary of the union here, issued the following statement:

"Folks around here keep felling around hushing up these strike trials so as not to stir up any more trouble. We union members have been quiet for nearly two years and though the hatchet had been buried, but from the way these men charged with dynamiting are being treated, it looks like the hatchet handle is still sticking out of the ground."

The Marion Manufacturing Company is running on a full day and night schedule now, but plans to shut down soon to make equipment improvements. This mill has been running on reduced schedule since the strikes, but the Clinchfield plant has operated largely on a full time program.

SAYS NATION TO PROFIT BY HARD TIMES

President Hoover Reveals Hope For Prosperity in Address at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, June 16.—(AP)—Hopes and plans for a new prosperity, to be wrought out of great natural resources by a courageous people, were expressed to the nation by President Hoover last night in an address devoted to the "dominant" subject of the depression.

In the vast and profusely decorated auditorium of the state fair grounds the chief executive spoke to 5,200 persons, members and guests of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association, and to countless others over nation-wide hook-ups. A chicken dinner was served by students at Butler University, and before beginning his address Mr. Hoover gave out word that the men might remove their coats.

Before this hot, costless, but nevertheless responsive audience, the chief executive, in deliberate and emphatic tones, defended his course in the economic crisis; assailed "theoretical panaceas" for recovery; and gave assurance that "the underlying forces of recovery are asserting themselves."

Seated around him on the speakers' platform were Republican leaders from Indiana, one of the states in which the Democrats made large gains in last November's election. Departing from his prepared address Mr. Hoover paid each a personal tribute.

The presidential party left this morning for Marion, Ohio, where later in the day Mr. Hoover will dedicate the memorial erected to honor his former chief, the late President Warren G. Harding.

After tracing the causes of the depression to the world war and its resultant high taxes, huge armaments, and political instability, Mr. Hoover declared that the people of the country should take to heart lessons to be learned from its many phases.

"From the experience of this depression," he said, "will come not only a greatly sobered and more efficient economic system than we have today,"

GATES BACK TO COMPLETE ROAD TERM

Escaped Convict Held In Baltimore Brought Back to Pitt County Last Night.

Will Coy Gates, formerly of Farmville, Pitt county, escaped convict, was returned to Greenville last night from Baltimore to complete a two-year sentence on the county roads.

Gates was returned to the city in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Herbert Harris and Policeman Brewer. He was immediately sent out to roads to resume serving his sentence.

Gates escaped from the road camp after serving one month of his two year sentence, and nothing was heard of him until about two weeks ago when he, for some reason, suddenly into the limelight in connection with the murder of a salesman, whose body was dragged from the Baltimore harbor Sunday two weeks ago.

Witnesses testified they heard Gates in a violent altercation with the salesman prior to the finding of the body in the harbor, and he was immediately placed under arrest for questioning, although no direct charge was launched against him.

Several days later Sheriff Whitehurst, received a letter from Baltimore authorities, informing him that Gates had confessed escaping from the Pitt County roads, and expressed a desire to return and complete his sentence. It was also said the man waived extradition and that no trouble would be incurred in bringing him back to North Carolina.

Gates was convicted here several months ago on a charge of operating an automobile in a careless and reckless manner. He was said to have also been connected with other cases in recent years.

Scarface Al Capone Confesses Guilt In Government Cases

Sight Hundred Bodies Near The Wreckage Of Ill-Fated French Ship

Tugs and Divers Put Off For Scene of St. Philibert Disaster to Recover Bodies; Seventy Reach Nantes From Bay Of Biscay; Unofficial Death List Placed at 423.

St. Nazaire, France, June 16.—(AP)—About 100 bodies from the sinking of the excursion steamer St. Philibert were sighted this morning floating among wreckage near the mouth of the Loire river.

The pilot of a hydroplane notified authorities and tugs put off at once with divers to recover them. Eight army trucks arrived at Nantes on a 36-mile ride with the bodies of 70 persons fished out of the Bay of Biscay yesterday. They were placed in plain wooden boxes and their clothes were on to facilitate identification.

It was decided to open the coffins in Nantes this afternoon so that the bereaved could begin the difficult task of claiming their beloved ones.

Officials of the operating company determined that 474, including the crew but excluding children under four years old, were aboard the vessel when she left Nantes Sunday for a picnic at Noirmoutier Island. Forty-three passengers declined to make their return trip on account of stormy weather and eight were rescued after the boat went down near the mouth of the Loire river.

As soon as the weather clears salvage vessels will try to raise the St. Philibert, which lies about 17 fathoms down.

Chicago Gang Leader Pleads Guilty to Evasion of Income Tax Laws and Conspiracy Against Prohibition Law; Federal Judge Wilkerson Announces That Sentence Will be Pronounced June 30.

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—"Scarface" Al Capone pleaded guilty today to evasion of income tax laws and conspiracy against the prohibition law.

Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson will sentence the gang leader June 30.

Capone decided to throw himself on the mercy of the courts rather than fight the three indictments returned against him by the Federal grand jury recently.

Two of the indictments charged him with evading income taxes on a ten year income of $1,038,654.34. The other accused Capone of conspiring with 68 other men to "manufacture and transport beer" in the Chicago area from 1921 up to the present time. Five thousand separate offenses were alleged. Capone personally said "guilty" to each of the three indictments and three minutes after hearing had started, he left under heavy police guard.

The maximum possible sentence under the income tax indictments is 32 years in prison, but the highest ever given by a Federal jury on a plea of guilty was two years. Two of Capone's henchmen who fought the case were sentenced to five and three years respectively while two others who pleaded guilty were given 18 months and a year and a day.

The maximum under the prohibition conspiracy case is two years sentence and $10,000 fine.

Babson Says Business Has Seen Its Worst

New York, June 16.—(AP)—Roger W. Babson, authority on economic problems, is willing to stake his reputation that "business" has seen its worst.

In a letter to newspaper advertising executives attending the convention of the Advertising Federation of America today he said:

"The recovery will be slow and tedious but the old law of action and reaction teaches now that unparalleled prosperity will again follow the depression."

He hid the newspapers for not printing gloomy statements when prosperity was at its top, although certain economists predicted a depression and tried to sound a warning.

"The most conservative economists who were bearish a few days ago are bullish now so far as the future is concerned. Irrespective of what happens in the next year, I am willing to stake my reputation that business has seen its worst."

Seventeen other departmental sessions were being held today in connection with the convention.

SEE CUT IN COTTON CROP

Predict Fifteen Percent Acreage Reduction in North Carolina This Year.

Raleigh, June 16.—(AP)—The cotton crop acreage in North Carolina this year will be about 15 per cent less than last and the use of commercial fertilizer will be reduced 26 per cent, as compared to the 1930 crop, the board of directors of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative Association, announced here today.

Each of the 12 members of the board reported an estimate on cotton acreage in his district and an average of the estimates was made as the basis for the announcement by the board.

The board adopted a resolution pledging its support to the movement launched by Casson J. Callaway, president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association, to have American cotton baled in cotton baling instead of in jute this season.

Field reports made to the board indicated that dry weather, prevalent in parts of the state, is retarding the growth of cotton this year and some sections reported heavy infestations of boll weevils.

CLOSE SUCCESSFUL YOUNG PEOPLES' CONFERENCE

The churches of the Disciples of Christ of North Carolina have just closed the most successful Young Peoples' Conference in the history of the church in this state. Eighty-two young people from all over the state went to Bonclarken, near Hendersonville, on the eighth of this month and remained through the fourteenth. The purpose of these conferences is to train the youth of the church in Christian leadership, seeking to meet the crying need of the church for a trained lay leadership. The best available teaching staff is assembled, standard courses in leadership training are presented, and those successfully meeting the requirements are given certificates indicating the work done. The entire course covers four years. In addition to the definite training for specific tasks in the church there are periods of worship designed to create a spirit of reverence and worship; social activities and gymnastic exercises serve to balance the program. Those attending these conferences receive training for the body, mind and soul. The Disciples of Christ are pioneers in this particular field of youth work and the standards set up by this denomination have become largely accepted by the other workers among young people in other denominations. The Eighth Street Christian Church of Greenville sent six representatives to the conference that has just closed. These were Nannie Rowlett, Victoria Jackson, Mildred Wilson, Edith Cannon, Robert Sugg Fleming and Mrs. Miriam B. Ryan.

FREE COOKING SCHOOL AT HIGH SCHOOL TODAY

Mrs. Frances Young Kline, noted Economics Expert, to Conduct Four-Day Course.

The first session of the four-day free cooking school of the Water & Light Commission-General Foods Corporation opened today in the high school auditorium at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Frances Young Kline, economics expert, conducting a series of lectures and demonstrations. The doors were thrown open at 2 o'clock for the benefit of those who wished to come early and secure advantageous seats, and during this hour a special musical program was featured.

A stage setting which delighted the heart of the most fastidious housewife greeted the students when they entered the school this afternoon. It has a delightful home atmosphere with all modern kitchen equipment at hand to make the task of cooking easy, and a pleasure for the housewife. There are silver, table linen, china, glassware, pots, pans, mixing bowls, beaters, and a score of other useful and essential kitchen utensils.

It is this sort of thoughtful treatment of housekeeping that makes housework an art. Someone has said that art employs the head, the hand and the heart, and certainly any woman employs all three when she manages the funds of the average family to make her simple table as cheerful as that which Mrs. Kline will use in her demonstrations this week.

Everybody who is interested in the various phases of running a home is invited to the school. There will be cookery demonstrations each afternoon. Printed recipes of all dishes prepared will be distributed to the audience. These recipes are clear and adaptable to the menu planning of your home. Miss Cox Entertains in Honor of Her Guest

Winterville, June 15.—Miss Janie Blair Cox was hostess at one of the most enjoyable events of the summer when she delightfully entertained a few of her friends at a fan-tan party on Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Jean Cannon of Ayden.

The home was beautifully decorated with vari-colored spring flowers which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Three tables were fixed to play fan-tan. After four progressions, Miss Annie Sue Hunsucker was awarded a prize for high score. During the games salted peanuts were served.

After many more progressions the hostess, dressed in pink, served the guests pop-sicles.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the hostess were Misses Christine Williams, Annie Sue Hunsucker, Frances Little, Willie Grey Cox, Iris Smith, Annie Lee Gray, Alma Dudley, Helen Beppard, Maxie Broadwell, Marion Cox, Mamie Braxton Margie Tripp of Bethel, and Jean Cannon of Ayden.

All reported a delightful time.

FLAG DAY OBSERVED BY FARMVILLE D. A. R. CHAPTER

Farmville, June 12.—In a comprehensive and timely address, Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain reviewed the history of the American flag here today at a Flag Day celebration staged by the Major Benjamin May chapter D. A. R., and the oath of allegiance to the honor and the principles of "liberty, justice, and freedom for all" was renewed by the Daughters and others in attendance.

The lieutenant governor traced the flag from its first display over Fort Schuyler, through the Revolution, when it bore thirteen stars, the war of 1812 with fifteen stars, Mexico with twenty-nine, Civil with thirty-five, Spanish-American with forty-five, and the World War with forty-eight.

He stated that the most interesting flag in the National Museum is the Star Spangled Banner which flew over Fort Mifflin in 1814, and was the inspiration of Francis Scott Key's immortal poem, now sung as the national anthem. In closing he said: "In silent grandeur the flag waves over the tombs of the dead, over the home of the living; the emblem of truth and righteousness, inspiring men's hearts on the land and on the sea with faith and hope; the symbol of power, the unity and purpose of our republic, now and forever."

Mrs. T. C. Turnage, regent of the chapter, introduced the speaker as North Carolina's next governor.

Taking equal rank with the address in enjoyment was the splendid musical program presented by Mrs. Bartram Roberson head of the violin department, and her accompanist, Mrs. Lida Law Chapman, a piano instructor of the Flora McDonald music faculty, which is composed of six members. Miss Genevieve McMillan, a Latin teacher of the college, was also a guest at this time.

The event marked the close of chapter activities until the fall. Prior to the address was a luncheon served in the garden of Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, with Misses Christine Smith, Ellen Lewis and Mrs. W. C. Holston acting jointly with her as hostesses. Miss Mary Barrett, bride-elect and member of the chapter, was presented with a gift from the chapter by the regent.

Mouzon Denies Slander Charge

Charlotte, June 16.—(AP)—Charges of slander and libel made against Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon by the Rev. Rembert G. Smith, Methodist minister of Sparta, Ga., are denied by Bishop Mouzon in a demurrer on file today in U. S. District Court here.

The demurrer was filed to a civil suit of the Georgia minister seeking alleged damages of $50,000 from Bishop Mouzon.

Mr. Smith, in his complaint, charged the bishop injured him by referring to him at a general conference of the Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, in 1930 as "an honest but eccentric Methodist preacher" and a publicity seeker. The alleged statements were made in connection with charges of "unwarranted political activity" brought by Mr. Smith against Bishop Mouzon and three other bishops of the church. The charges were dismissed.

Bishop Mouzon, through his attorneys, contended the minister has not suffered any injury through the purported statements.

Should Judge E. Yates Webb sustain the demurrer, the suit against the bishop will be dropped, otherwise, Bishop Mouzon must prepare a formal answer to the complaint of Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith brought a similar suit against Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas, one of the other three he named in the charges brought in 1930.

FELT BAD MOST OF THE TIME

Lady Says She Was Weak, Sickly and in Pain, But Cardui Helped Her.

Mrs. J. R. Carroll, who lives on North Atlantic Street, Tullahoma, Tenn., says that the Cardui Home Treatment helped her after she had been suffering five years.

"I felt bad most of the time," she writes, "not being able to be up but very little. I was weak and sickly. I suffered from headache, and my back and limbs hurt a great deal. I was very nervous and excitable. Any little noise would scare me. I suffered like this for five years."

"I happened to read about the Cardui Home Treatment, and I made up my mind to try it. After I had taken my first bottle of Cardui, I began to improve. When I had taken six bottles, I was a well woman, and have been in fine health since."

Cardui helps women to health. Get a bottle of Cardui from your druggist, and see what this well-known medicine will do for you. Contains no harmful drugs, and does not interfere with other medication.

ABOUT TOWN

Persons who have not contrived their part toward supervised recreation for children during the summer months are requested to do so immediately. This is the first time in the history of Greenville that such a safeguard has been thrown around the children while at play, and it deserves the hearty approbation of thinking men and women in all spheres of life.

By underwriting the first month's expense of the operation of the Westbrook swimming pool and the golf course at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, business and professional men have made the two playgrounds possible for the first month and it is up to the rest of the citizens to pay for the remainder of the summer.

The two playgrounds will be under the supervision of a man who has confined most of his life to children's activities and is well prepared to direct the children while at play here. In fact, he is an expert swimmer, having a certificate from the American Life Saving Society, and all of his ability will be directed to safeguarding the lives of the youngsters while in swimming.

All contributions to this fund should be sent to D. J. Whichard, secretary-treasurer of the movement, and the more liberal the gifts, the more effective will be this movement in behalf of development of the youth of the community.

Persons who have not registered for the $100,000 gas plant election to be held in this city July 14 should get busy and do so immediately. An entirely new registration is necessary to decide this important question, and persons who fail to register will not be accorded the privilege of expressing their sentiment in the matter.

Registration books will be open in the various wards of the city until July 4, ten days prior to the election, and there is no reason why the entire voting strength of the city should not be registered when the books are closed.

The election is being held to determine whether or not the City of Greenville is to issue bonds valued at $100,000 for the purchase of the gas plant here recently sold by the Carolina Gas Company to the Tidewater Power Company. The Tidewater Company at the present time is operating the plant, awaiting the exercising of the option of Greenville people in the matter.

The plant is conservatively estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $150,000, and it is believed by one school of thought that the city will be able to operate the plant to a direct advantage each year, at the same time keeping the power company from getting a foothold here. In fact, it is asserted the Water and Light Commission will be able to run the plant and retire the bonds without extra taxation just as it has done numbers of times in the building of the two million dollar water and light plant.

The election will largely determine the economic life of the municipality in the years to come, and the people are urged to go to the polls and exercise their privilege of expressing their opinion on the important question.

Tobaccoists throughout the Southland are endeavoring to impress upon the farmers the importance of keeping first primings off the market during the approaching season.

This action, it is declared, will reduce production figures and probably play an important part in the price situation. It will at least boost the general average of the various markets and keep it from slumping to such a low level.

common grades be eliminated, as much as possible to help pull down production.

With world markets congested more than they have been in years, it is not to be doubted that another normal crop of leaf would result in prices even lower than those last year. The farmers know what this will mean, and everyone of them should strive to do his part toward cutting down acreage as much as possible.

The government has started a drive against Capone and his henchmen in Chicago in an effort to clean up the city of the unlawful operations of the gangs.

That this movement should have begun years ago is not to be questioned, but even at this late date it should have far-reaching results if properly prosecuted.

The quicker the gang element is convinced that the people will not harbor its activities the sooner this country will be freed of an influence which has hampered business.

The danger of clearing up the large cities, however, lies in the change of the base of operation of the gangsters. When the cities become unsafe, the floaters will drift to the rural communities and try to exact a livelihood from the thousands unused to the ways of the gunmen. It is important for these communities to watch for the first indication of such operations and to begin immediately to squelch the activities.

TWO FIRES DO MINOR DAMAGE IN GREENVILLE

Fires yesterday afternoon and last night damaged an automobile on Charles Street and a garage on Eighth street.

The garage back of the Home Furniture Company was damaged to the extent of about $25.00 by flames yesterday afternoon. The origin was not determined.

Last night an automobile belonging to Thomas Beaman burned at his home on Charles Street. The flames were believed to have originated from a short circuit, and firemen estimated the damage at approximately $150.

CROPS NEAR FARMVILLE ARE DAMAGED BY HAIL

Crops in the vicinity of Farmville were reported to have been damaged to no little extent by hail last night although it was impossible to estimate the amount of the loss. Several planters reported that crops had been damaged almost beyond repair.

Greenville was visited by heavy rain during the early morning, but the precipitation was not accompanied by hail and was not heavy enough to damage crops.

TOBACCO DEVELOPING RAPIDLY OVER COUNTY

Tobacco is undergoing phenomenal growth in Pitt county at this time, and it was said that a few farmers would be able to cure portions of their crop by the first of July. The work has made remarkable progress in view of the chilly weather which held sway up to the last week and is probably further advanced at this time than any other period in years.

Officers will be elected at the regular monthly meeting of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion to be held at the Rotary club tonight at 7 o'clock. Delegates will also be selected to the State convention in Morehead City beginning July 26th.

Crown Kentucky Girl Miss United States

Galveston, Tex., June 16.—(AP)—Anne Le. Patterson of Ludlow, Ky., 18 years old and blonde, is the "Miss United States" of 1931. She was chosen from 28 American contestants by a committee of artist-judges in the 12th annual international beauty pageant here last night. No rank was given the other entrants.

Governor Flem Sampson of Kentucky, the winner confided, had promised to make her an honorary colonel if she achieved the greatest success among the blue grass contingent. She did that.

Tonight Miss Patterson goes against a foreign delegation of eight young women with the title "Miss Universe," a $2,500 cash prize and a Broadway stage contract as the awards.

"Am I happy!" she exclaimed. She said she would not have attended but for the insistence of the pageant director, Ma (in H. Starr, because of difficulty in paying $50 for her float in the Frankfort, Ky., contest that made her eligible to compete here.

To newspapermen she said she was graduated from high school last year and that now she "modelled a bit" in Cincinnati. She is five feet and one-half inches tall and weighs 118 pounds.

The winner wore a peach taffeta gown which her hair nearly touched as she paraded before the judges in the first event of the contest. She appeared later in a black conservatively cut bathing suit.

The judges were Jules Carnert of New York; John Held, Jr., of New York; McCliland Barclay of New York; Ben Carlton Mead of San Antonio, Tex.; Lee Townsend of Chicago; Haskell Coffin of New York, all artists, and Dr. W. E. Huddleston of Galveston, the physician member of the board.

Report Gold As Weapon Against Infantile Paralysis

Pasadena, Cal., June 16.—(AP)—Gold was reported as a new medical weapon against infantile paralysis by Dr. Frederick E. Orson and Dr. William G. Mossman of San Francisco to the American Association for the Advancement of Science today.

The University of California medical experts revealed a method of detecting and measuring the amount of immunity substances in the blood stream by which infantile paralysis carriers can be detected.

A small quantity, about ten drops of the blood stream, is taken to which is added a special solution of gold preparation and other ingredients. The results of the test are known in three to four hours.

In a positive test showing the protective properties in the serum the gold solution is changed in color and flocculated so that a bluish or violet sediment appears in a clear solution. A negative test showing no protective substances in the serum, leaves the gold solution unchanged as to its natural rose color.

The test should make possible the early detection of susceptible children and adults; the prompt measure of protective power of serums needed and treatment of the disease; the degree of immunity or resistance that is being developed during an active infection, and hence the expectancy regarding recovery of the patient," the doctors reported.

"Further, the test insures no delay in the treatment of the disease where time is such an important factor in aiding recovery."

New Bern.—(AP)—The yacht "Miss Oriental," owned by Dr. R. L. Daniels and Dr. O. C. Daniels, of New Bern, burned to the waterline at Minnecott beach when a spark from the motor ignited gasoline leaking from a flooded carburetor.

Just Like An Ostrich

A medical authority says that a person who tries to cover up skin blemishes and pimples with toilet creams and powders is just as foolish as an ostrich that buries its head in the sand to avoid danger. Skin eruptions are nature's warning that constipation is throwing poisons into your blood stream and weakening your whole constitution. Remove the constipated condition and you will strengthen your system against disease and clear up your disfigured skin. The best way to do this is with a course of Herbine, the vegetable medicine that acts naturally and easily, which you can get at B. S. Warren, Druggist

Consider your Adam's Apple!!*
Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

What is the effect of irritation upon the throat? Here are the exact words of a noted authority retained by us to study this question. He writes—

"First, the vocal chords, on account of their delicacy of structure, would be the first tissues to give indication of irritation, evidenced by the huskiness of the smoker's voice, the result of relaxed tension and slower vibration of the vocal chords. The next site of irritation would be the tissues adjacent to the vocal chords comprising the larynx, therefore the general focal point of the irritation would be in the voice box represented externally by the Adam's Apple."

So—Consider your Adam's Apple. Be careful in your choice of cigarettes. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants. Reach for a LUCKY instead.

SENATORS COP THEIR TENTH GAME

By ORLO ROBERTSON
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Though winning ball games at a 500 clip, Washington has been unable to gain any measurable ground.

Since June 1, the Senators have accounted for thirteen of their fourteen games, winning the last ten but they trail the Philadelphia Athletics by three full games.

While the Senators have been setting a burning pace against the western clubs, the champions also have been playing ball winning 11 of their last 14 games.

The Senators chalked up their tenth straight yesterday at the expense of the St. Louis Browns, winning 4 to 3 after Fred Marberry had staged one of his famous relief acts. The big right hander went into the game in the seventh with the score tied, two men on base and one out. He not only retired the Browns without allowing a run but held them hitless for the remainder of the game while his teammates put across the winning tally in the eighth.

Keeping pace with the Johnson crew, the Athletics defeated the Cleveland Indians 4 to 1 as they celebrated the raising of their 1930 world's championship pennant.

Rube Walberg was on the mound for his tenth victory as against two defeats. Willis Hudlin stratified for the Indians but was relieved by Pete Donohue, recently released by the Giants and making his debut in an American league uniform. He was hit for a home run by Todd.

The New York Yankees dropped a little deeper into third place, falling before the rejuvenated Detroit Tigers for the second straight game. The score was 8 to 5. Gehrig hit his eleventh home run and Chapman also connected with a circuit drive.

The Red Sox and White Sox battled eleven innings before Boston gained a 3 to 2 decision. Bob Kline and Vic Frasier, a pair of rookies, went the route.

Only one game was played in the National league but the Boston Braves edged a little closer to third place, taking their second consecutive game from the Chicago Cubs. The score was 9 to 2.

Man Mountain Scores Knockout

New York, June 16.—(AP)—Primo Carnera doesn't like the rain, it seems.

Twenty thousand fight fans piled into Ebbets Field, Brooklyn last night to see Primo battle Pat Redmond, Giant Irishman almost as big as Primo himself. It was raining a bit and a real shower seemed imminent.

So Primo went to work. Two minutes and 24 seconds after the first round started the big Venetian was on his way to the dressing rooms.

His first punch, a right, put the six feet four inch Irishman down for eight. Another right to the jaw finished proceedings.

Carnera weighed 275 pounds; Redmond 246.

Fights Last Night

New York, Primo Carnera, Italy knocked out P. A. Redmond, Ireland (1); Ernie Saiff, Boston, knocked out Jack Gagnon, Boston (1).

Boston—Paul Swiderak, Syracuse outpointed Babe Hunt, Penna City Okla., (10).

Hartford, Conn.—D. Lattalino, Hartford, knocked out Johnny Datto, Cleveland (5).

GAP WIDENS IN PIEDMONT

By PAUL SIMMONS

Charlotte, June 16.—(AP)—The gap between the upper and lower berth teams of the old cigarette circuit gradually is getting wider and wider.

In the top tier, headed by the banner-bearing Charlotte Hornets, are the Bees, the Raleigh Caps, the Greensboro Pats, and the Asheville Tourists.

Kennedy's Tourists crew and Johnny Kane's Greensboro boys helped draw the line between the two groups a little sharper with nice victories last night. The Pats, trimmed Dan Boone's High Pointers, 5 to 3, by unlimbering some good baseball strategy at the furniture city.

The Ashevilleans, playing at home, had as their victims Jimmy Teague's Henderson Gamecocks, whom they drubbed 7 to 6.

Inter group clashes—Charlotte vs. Raleigh and Winston-Salem vs. Durham—completed the night's program.

The Bees climbed another game to the fore by stepping on the runner-up Caps, 9 to 3, at Charlotte, while the Bulls got busy in the early innings and sailed away the match with the Twins, 5 to 4.

Batting Guy Lacy's Bees are not only collecting quite a few victories but seem to be picking up more and more power as they go along. Last night in turning back the Caps, they conquered Raleigh's strong man of the mound.

Freddie Sington, the former Alabama gridiron ace, who came to High Point 3 1/2 days ago from Atlanta, is giving a good account of himself. He got three safe hits in four times up last night. But apparently it's going to require a miracle to break Boone's tough luck strait.

LEAGUE OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

The Inter-City league will swing into action tomorrow with Snow Hill visiting Greenville for the opening game of the circuit.

The exhibition will be staged at the Third Street Athletic field at 4 o'clock, and half-holiday crowds were expected to attend in large numbers.

The circuit is composed of Snow Hill, Greenville, Pinetops and Marsdenfield. Each of the teams is composed of home town material, consisting mainly of former league and college players, and promoters are promising a splendid brand of ball.

The Greenville team is also made up of players from Ayden and Winterville, and the tentative lineup for the initial games was announced this morning.

The lineup follows: Tom Hicks, "Wep" Corbit, Milton Harrington, Joe Burgess, Charlie and Leo Dunn of Ayden; Connelly, Winterville; Bud Bullock, Perry Bostie. It was said that other members of the team would be announced at a later date.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, June 16.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, one point lower to 2 points higher.

There was some buying on the relatively steady showing of Liverpool which was supplied by selling on a favorable view of the weather reports and the indifferently tone of the stock market. Offerings were comparatively light, however, while spot houses again absorbed July liquidation against sales of later months at the prevailing difference and after easing off 2 or 3 points the market held fairly steady July sold up to 8.56 at the start and December to 8.18 and these positions were holding around 8.45 and 8.16 at the end of the first half hour.

The weather map showed some rain or showers in the belt which were considered desirable.

Liverpool cables reported continental buying and said there was a better feeling in the Manchester cloth market, with yarns steadier on an improved demand.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—Official statements which were generally interpreted as meaning that government sponsored agencies would continue to compete with private interests in the grain trade had a bearish effect on wheat prices today. Increased movement of the newly harvested domestic winter wheat was also a weight on values. New crop deliveries of wheat sold within a fraction of the season's lowest figures.

Wheat closed nervous, unchanged to 1 cent lower corn 1-8 from 5c decline to a rise of 10 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 16.—(AP)—The line of the least resistance was again downward in today's stock market, but speculators showed scant inclination to prod the market in any direction.

Rails were an outstanding soft spot, as traders continued to take profits on the recent upturn in advance of filing the petition for higher freight rates, expected tomorrow.

Trading was about as dull as any experienced this year, but losses of 2 points or so appeared in several issues, including Atchafalaya, Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western, Northern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Allied Chemical, Columbian Carbon, North American, Continental Can and Brooklyn Manhattan Transit.

U. S. Steel and several other prominent issues were well supported.

With the unsettling prospects of a special session of the German Reichstag dimming the foreign markets continued to improve, as did foreign bonds in the New York market. The possibility of the overthrow of the Brüning government at a session of the Reichstag at this time had been a disturbing factor in international finance. The growing insistence in Germany upon a revision of reparations payments, however, projects an element of uncertainty which Wall Street expects will endure for some months.

The slightly firmer tone noted in the money market yesterday, with no call money offered under the official rate of 11-2 per cent, was maintained, presumably still reflecting the quarterly income tax settlements and treasury financing. In foreign exchange, the German mark maintained a better tone.

SAYS NATION TO PROFIT BY HARD TIMES

 possessed two years ago but a greater knowledge of its weaknesses.

Some of the weaknesses he listed were: Inability of the Federal Reserve System to prevent diversion of large sums into "wasteful speculation and stock promotion;" inability of some banks to give proper protection to depositors; use of commodity and security exchanges for "illegitimate speculations;" the dumping of stocks and real estate on a falling market to avoid payment of capital gains taxes; and inequalities placed on farmers and home owners by federal and local taxation.

Without naming a day on which the depression would end, he declared that "if, as many believe, we have passed the worst of this storm, future months will not be so difficult if we shall be called upon to endure more of this period we must give ourselves to steadfast effort, to fail at no point where humanity calls or American ideals are in jeopardy."

STANDARD RATING SCALE for Electric Refrigeration

- Is the refrigerator manufactured by a reliable company with proper experience in the electric refrigeration field?
- Has it plenty of food and shelf space?
- Is the cabinet itself well designed, sturdily built and properly insulated?
- Is there provision for the freezing of an adequate supply of ice cubes? (Quantity of ice rather than number of cubes, which may be of large or small size, should be taken into consideration).
- Will the refrigerator constantly maintain a proper temperature for the preservation of foods?
- Can the freezing of ice cubes and desserts be speeded up when the need arises?
- Can this extra freezing speed for ice cubes be had without affecting the temperature on the food shelves? (Too low a temperature on the shelves will, of course, injure food).
- Is there a place to keep ice cream, meat, fish, game, "quick frosted" foods or extra ice cubes indefinitely at a below freezing temperature?
- Are these various temperatures (a. extra fast freezing; b. fast freezing; c. below freezing for storage; and d. normal food preservation temperature) automatically maintained without any attention from the owner?
- Does the refrigerating unit operate often or infrequently? (The fewer "stops" and "starts" the longer the unit will last and the less it costs to run).
- How long will the cooling unit continue to cool the refrigerator even though the current is shut off? (Refrigeration should continue for 10 or 12 hours).
- Can the back parts of all shelves, even the lowest, be reached without kneeling or sitting down?
- Has provision been made for keeping vegetables fresh and crisp?
- Can the refrigerator top be used to "set things down for a moment" while the contents of the cabinet are being re-arranged?
- Will the refrigerator add to the attractiveness of the kitchen?
- Has the experience of users over a long period of years proved the refrigerator long-lived and dependable?

WILL ADMIT NEW EVIDENCE

Trust Reports of Caldwell and Company to be Introduced in Bank Case.

Nashville, Tenn., June 16.—(AP)—Judge Chester K. Hart ruled today that last year's "trust reports" and "swap sheets" of Caldwell and Company and its subsidiary, the Bank of Tennessee, are admissible as evidence in the trial of Rogers Caldwell, president of both banks, who is charged with fraudulent breach of trust.

The banks closed last fall and were placed in the hands of receivers.

Prosecution counsel said the ruling was of far reaching importance since they hoped to show by these records that Caldwell had "guilty knowledge" of transactions in which it is charged his banks substituted collateral other than that agreed upon by their clients as security for deposits.

Caldwell's attorney, however, scouted the importance of the ruling saying the evidence was not pertinent to the case at trial and its only effect would be to prejudice the jury.

Nevertheless, W. Mack Fuqua, of Caldwell's counsel, said he wished to note an exception to the introduction of the evidence and any testimony relating to it. He said the evidence had "no logical connection" with the case.

Assistant District Attorney General Carlton Loser, has said that, unless the records were introduced, the defense could claim the alleged transactions constituted isolated cases, but that with his evidence, it could be shown a number of similar transactions took place, and that they constituted a "persistent procedure."

"We can't show," Loser said, "that the defendant had knowledge of this particular charge at trial, but we can show by these records that there was a plan or system of carrying on business and that the defendant could not have failed to know of that plan."

Man Near Death Following Fall Down Mountain

North Wilkesboro N. C., June 16.—(AP)—Sam McArthur, of High Point, was near death in a hospital here today from injuries received when he fell nearly 300 feet down a mountain side.

McArthur, in company with several friends, stopped on the Jefferson highway near here to admire the scenery from the edge of a steep cliff near the mountain top.

He lost his balance and tumbled over the edge, falling 25 feet to an outcragging ledge where he was apparently unconscious by a blow on the head. He rolled off the ledge before his friends could aid him, and dashed over rocks and small stubble before coming to a stop more than 250 feet below the ledge.

TO TAKE POLL OF RADIO FANS

Ward & Co. to Attempt to Determine Most Popular Type Of Entertainment.

A nation-wide poll of radio listeners assuming the proportions of a presidential election will be conducted over the air during the month of July. This radio program research, destined to solve a problem which has vexed commercial sponsors since the childhood of radio, will be undertaken by Montgomery Ward and Company with the co-operation of the National Broadcasting Company.

The four uniquely interesting programs from which the popular choice is to be made represent four distinct types of radio entertainment. They will give the millions of radio fans an opportunity to say which form of entertainment is most acceptable to have served them as a daily feature for the remainder of the year.

The sponsors are offering cash awards totaling $10,000 for the best listeners determining the type of radio program and the preference for listening time. The contest will be supported by an extensive newspaper advertising campaign.

Each program is to be broadcast daily except Sunday for one week beginning July 1st. The series will open with an orchestra under the direction of an internationally famous conductor. The program of the second week will be an entertaining dramatic sketch of home life played by stars of stage and radio fame. The third week will be given to a presentation of modern ern minstrelsy. And the final program offering will be one of song and sentiment.

Requirements for entering the contest will be announced during the opening program on July 1st. The contest will close on August 7th. Entry blanks will be mailed to 9,000,000 families and additional blanks can be obtained free of charge from any of the 550 Ward stores.

The radio program research will be conducted over a nation-wide network of 35 stations of the National Broadcasting Company at 8:30 A. M. central daylight time.
