President Emphasizes Duties Of Government In Springfield Speech

Declares "Our Machinery of Government Must be Shifted Some" to Meet The Change in Economic Conditions in Delivering Address Before Illinois Assembly; To Speak at Lincoln Tomb This Afternoon.

Springfield, Ill., June 17.—(AP)—President Hoover emphasized the duties of state governments today before the Illinois assembly and warned that "our machinery of government must be shifted some" to meet the change in economic and other conditions.

Mr. Hoover reminded the Illinois legislators that state governments are very often the "laboratories" in which national ideas are first tried out.

He spoke before a legislature which recently voted repeal of the state prohibition enforcement act. He stood beside a governor who vetoed that action.

The president spoke in the huge state arsenal across from the state capitol where the Illinois assembly was in joint session with a throng of guests.

Reminding the assembly that he was to speak later today at the rededication of Abraham Lincoln's tomb he limited his remarks. Before going to the arsenal, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover visited Lincoln's old home here and called at the state mansion.

A band outside the arsenal played a march just after the president began and his words were barely audible. The music was finally stopped.

The presidential party left the arsenal at 11:30. Mr. and Mrs. Hoover accompanied governor and Mrs. Emmerson to the state mansion for lunch.

Bank Bandits Captured After Dresden Holdup

Dresden, Tenn., June 17.—(AP)—Two men, described by officers as the "Barefoot Bandits" who robbed the Peoples bank here of approximately $5,000 yesterday, were under arrest today and most of their loot recovered.

The men, whose names were not announced were captured last night by sheriff J. Will Dunn and eight of his deputies in a woods clearing near which the bandits abandoned their automobile.

The robbers entered the bank by a rear door after removing their shoes and forced an employee at the point of a pistol to open the vault. After gathering up all available money they pushed the employee into the vault, dropped $400 in silver and a coat in their haste, and fled. A safety device prevented the vault door from locking and the employee quickly freed himself and notified the sheriff.

HIGHER RATES PETITIONED BY THE RAILROADS

Ask I. C. C. for Permission to Increase Freight Charges to Meet Declines.

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—The railroads of the United States today presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission their petition for a 15 per cent increase in freight rates as a means of meeting the emergency caused by the drastic decline in operating revenues.

Last Thursday the executives of Eastern, Western and Southern roads meeting in New York City, finally decided to request the blanket increase designed to yield annually $400,000,000 in additional gross income.

As evidence of their desire for assistance without undue delay, the carriers recommended that the commission's investigation of their application be of a "limited character" nor the purpose of determining whether the new schedules should be allowed to become effective without the 90 day suspension usually ordered when rate revisions are made.

Even if this procedure is followed it is unofficially pointed out, it will probably be early autumn before the necessary hearings can be completed and a decision reached.

The brief, asserting that the roads were "confronted with an emergency threatening serious impairment of their financial resources and their capacity to assure the public a continuance of efficient and adequate service," said the increased revenues would yield a yearly railway net operating income equal to less than 4 per cent on the value of their scribbled by law is 5.75 per cent, but during the first four months of this year, the application said, the return had fallen to an annual basis of 2.24 per cent for the class one carriers. In 1930 it was 3.54 per cent. Earnings of the class one roads since 1921 were said to have dropped about $2,575,000,000 below the rate of return on capital authorized by law.

The brief emphasized the danger of an impaired credit position and its effect on railroad securities, especially bonds. If the roads were getting a fair return, it said, "railroad securities which are now appropriate for insurance, savings banks and trust investments would continue to maintain the status."

The petition recalled that the roads had clung to their policy, announced late in 1929, of continuing a normal program of expenditures "as long as it could be justified from the standpoint of the trust reposed by the railroad security holders in the management of the carriers who were administering property which, though devoted to public use, is nevertheless private property.

Concerning war's the brief stated that the railroad executives had concluded that "if that question must be met and dealt with, it must be at a later stage."

Discussing the question of a fair rate of return, the brief stated: "The roads have been able to show pronounced growth during the administration of the retiring president, who used his every effort to increase the membership, asserting at the outset that this was one of the prime requisites in the success of an organization."

FRAZER MUST DIE IN CHAIR

Convicted of Murder of Woman He Professed to Love by a Jury Last Night.

Elizabeth N. J., June 17.—(AP)—William Moore Frazer, of Rahway who was captured in Raleigh, N. C., last February after the "death ride" killing of Mrs. Phoebe Stader, will die in the electric chair the week of July 27 for the murder of the woman he professed to love.

Frazer was convicted of first degree murder last night by a jury that deliberated for five hours and 30 minutes. The verdict carried a mandatory death penalty and 30 minutes later Judge Alfred A. Stein pronounced sentence.

When the jury reported its death penalty verdict, Frazer's mother, who occupied a seat in the rear of the courtroom, fainted. She was carried from the room and did not hear Judge Stein pronounce sentence. Frazer's wife, present during the trial, was not taken, was freed.

Defendants in Liquor and Larceny Cases Feature the County Court Hearing.

Lorinna Nobles, charged with the larceny of wearing apparel from the armory of the local unit of North Carolina National Guards was sentenced to 12 months on the roads by Judge W. L. Wheeler, presiding over a two-day session of County court which completed hearing of its docket shortly before the noon hour today.

Harvey Hyman, held in connection with the same charge, was sentenced to six months on the roads.

The two men were given preliminary hearing before Magistrate Ray Tyson last week and bound over to the higher court under bonds of $500 each.

They were alleged to have entered the armory and taken clothing belonging to members of the company. They were arrested shortly after the theft was reported and held for preliminary hearing.

Bud Hardy, colored, charged with possession of liquor, was given 90 days on the roads to consider the danger involved in the bootlegging business.

Claude Pugh, colored, convicted of larceny, was sent to the road to spend six months.

John Ross, Charlie Ross and Hyman Hunt, of the Grimesland community, were sentenced to 90 days each on the roads on a charge of stealing gas from a filling station in that community.

PLAN DRIVE ON GANGLAND AT NEW YORK

Federal Officers Turn Attention to Metropolis After Chicago Successes.

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—Federal officials, spurred by a victory over Alphonse (Scarface) Al Capone, indicated definitely today they looked toward New York as the next major objective in their drive against the higher-ups of gangster crime.

From the Justice Department came word that Federal agents under orders from Washington, already are engaged in quiet investigation there.

Simultaneously indication was given at the treasury that an augmented force from the intelligence division of the internal revenue bureau—armed with power to peer into bank accounts—will lend its strength in this section.

Although officials steadfastly refused to be quoted, it was not denied that some of the scores of agents who spent months in weaving piece by piece the fabric of charges to which Capone pleaded guilty in Chicago yesterday would transfer their activities to New York.

Prohibition Director Woodcock already has directed his force in the New York area to concentrate on the brains behind the prohibition law violations. He declared also for co-operation between the various government enforcement branches.

Along with the eastern metropolis, authoritative indication has been given that gangster activities in Detroit, Philadelphia, Cleveland and St. Louis will come in for some share of Federal attention.

Whether any one of these cities will see the elaborate, co-ordinated set-up of forces that featured the drive against Capone could not be learned.

ORDER PLANES FROM CROWDS

Pres. Hoover Takes Action to Protect Crowds from Roar of Planes.

By ROBERT S. PICKENS

Enroute with President Hoover to Springfield, Ill., June 17.—(AP)—An order from President Hoover to banish airplanes from the vicinity of crowds was before Secretary Lamont of the Commerce Department today.

Mr. Lamont joined the presidential special last night at Columbus, O. to ride with the president to Springfield, Ill., today, for the rededication of the tomb of Abraham Lincoln. He found an irate chief.

The roar of airplanes over the open exercises at the dedication of the memorial to Warren Harding at Marion, Ohio yesterday afternoon was still ringing in Mr. Hoover's ears. The order went forth quickly.

So insistent was the president that crowds in the open, as well as outdoor speakers, be protected from airplanes, that he made it clear that if the law does not now control this situation he would urge the next Congress to take appropriate action.

The president's speech today will be the third he has delivered in as many days in the central states. Before a throng that overflowed into neighboring properties, the Chief Executive yesterday afternoon dedicated the Warren G. Harding Memorial at Marion, O., and the night before delivered an address to the Indiana Republican Editorial Association at Indianapolis.

LOVE AFFAIR REVEALED IN MURDER CASE

Starr Faithful Wrote Man that She Would be Dead by Time Letter Received.

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Detectives attempting to solve the Starr Faithful mystery were told today that six days before the 25-year-old girl's body was found on Long Beach she wrote a letter to a man with whom she is believed to have been in love declaring: "When you receive this I will be dead."

Pending further information, no one in authority would say whether they believed this indicated Starr contemplated suicide or had received threats against her life. District Attorney Elvin Edwards has been working on the theory someone drowned her, possibly to keep her from talking.

The letter, detectives said, was received in London after her death by Dr. G. Jamerson Carr, handsome ship's doctor of the liner Franconia.

District Attorney Elvin N. Edwards and Stanley Faithful, the girl's stepfather, refused to abandon the murder theory.

William F. Lind, a druggist of West Orange, N. J., said Starr often purchased sleeping draughts from him. No prescription is necessary in New Jersey. The Faithfuls formerly lived in West Orange. Dr. Alexander O. Gettler, New York City toxicologist, has found a trace of sleeping portion in Miss Faithful's organs.

Stanley E. Faithful, admitted that Starr had used a sleeping drug, occasionally, but claimed it was nothing abnormal.

Police continued search today for Bruce Winston and Jack Greenaway, Edwards' aides from their information as to Starr's movements on June 4, the day before he disappeared. Her body was found in the water off Long Beach, Long Island, June 8.

Mr. Faithful told Edwards that Starr, shortly before she disappeared, attended a party given by Miriam Hopkins, actress, who was about to go to Hollywood.

The New York American said today that Scotland Yard detectives had questioned a man known as Richard Blue or Richard Bruce, who is said to have been with Miss Faithful in a taxicab the day she disappeared.

ROGERS SENT TO RALEIGH

Highway Engineer is Transferred to District 1; Spruill For This District.

W. H. "Bill" Rogers, engineer of the Pitt County Highway Commission, has been transferred to District One, Division C, under the reorganization plan of the State Highway department. It became known today. Mr. Rogers will be stationed at Raleigh and will have four counties, Wake, Franklin, Vance and Warren under his supervision.

This district, which is composed of Pitt, Edgecombe, Greene and Wilson counties, will be in charge of William Spruill of Rocky Mount. The change will become effective July 1 when the state will take over the operation of the entire highway system in accordance with legislation passed by the last General Assembly.

Mr. Rogers has been connected with the Pitt County Highway Commission eight years, although he has been a resident of Greenville 11 years. He came here first as an engineer in the employ of the State and three years later was named engineer of the Pitt County Highway Commission, succeeding the late Jarvis Harding.

During his residence here he has won a host of friends in all walks of life who expressed great regret upon learning that he was to be transferred to another part of the State under the reorganization program. Mr. Rogers is a former president of the Greenville Rotary club, former commander of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion, and has been prominently identified with development of Boy Scout work in the community the last several years.

He has served on many important committees looking to the advancement of the city and community in past years and always used his every influence in behalf of improving the general condition of the people in all sections of the county.

Although he will go to Raleigh July 1 to begin his new duties, Mr. Rogers stated that his family would remain in Greenville indefinitely, or until he could make arrangements to move to Raleigh.

Flames Threaten Adjoining Buildings but are Brought Under Control Before Additional Damage is Done; Washington and Farmville Fire Departments Called for Aid, But Blaze is Under Control by Time of Arrival; Owners Announce Plans for Rebuilding of Structure in Time for Opening of Approaching Season

The Star Warehouse, one of the largest leaf tobacco warehouses in the state, was completely destroyed by fire here this morning. The loss was estimated at $100,000 and was partially covered by insurance.

The blaze was discovered about 8 o'clock and in two hours time the building, covering nearly an entire block, was a mass of ruins.

For a time the fire threatened to spread to the Picklen Tobacco Company and adjoining residential property and a call for aid was sent to the Washington and Farmville Fire departments. By the time the visiting firms arrived, however, the blaze was under control and confined to the single building.

The flames originated in the eaves beneath the warehouse and were believed to have been of incendiary origin. It was the fifth time the building had been fired, the last several months, and each blaze was attributed either to children playing about the building or to loiterers.

The fire had made so much headway when the alarm was sounded that efforts of the firemen to save the structure proved futile. In a short time after the firemen reached the scene the entire structure of brick and wood construction, was enveloped in flames.

As the blaze broke through the top, the flames shot heavenward and dense clouds of smoke drifted over the tobacco district, causing hundreds of people to hurry to the scene of the conflagration.

The building contained 75,000 square feet of floor space and was the property of G. V. Smith and B. B. Sugg. It had been enlarged several times in past years to keep pace with the rapid development of the Greenville tobacco market, and was considered one of the most modern and commodious buildings of its kind in the state.

Even as the ruins of the old building smoldered, plans looking to rebuilding began to assume shape. Members of the firm stated rebuilding would get under way immediately and that the new structure would be ready by the opening of the approaching season. They said the building would be modern in every respect and would contain all features looking to the expeditious handling of leaf and the comfort and convenience of the thousands of growers who patronize the market from season to season.

Local Pythians Elect Officers

Members of Tar River Lodge No. 93 (Knights of Pythians), held a very interesting meeting last week, at which time officers for the coming term were elected. Several other business matters came before the meeting, of particular interest being the report of D. C. Moore, Jr., representative to the recent Grand Lodge convention in Rocky Mount. While the report did not show the condition prevailing throughout the state to be all that could be desired, it did show that much had been accomplished during the year and that the order as a whole has held up remarkably well during the unusually depressing times.

The convention was signally honored in having as its guest, Supreme Vice-Chancellor James Dunn, Jr., vice-president of the Union Trust Co., of Cleveland, Ohio who made a very beautiful and interesting fraternal talk. The members were guests of Bob Melton on Tuesday afternoon for one of his wonderful barbecue dinners.

The Wednesday morning session was taken up with new legislation and a combined effort to reduce expenses in keeping with the financial conditions of the time. Following it is the election of Grand Lodge officers was taken up. Ben S. Huston of Mooresville was elected Grand Chancellor for the next year, while J. F. Green of Goldsboro, was elected Grand Vice-Chancellor.

Sessions of the Grand Lodge were presided over by Grand Chancellor Sam O. Worthington, of Tar River Lodge, who now becomes the Junior Past Grand Chancellor.

A. B. Ellington of Tar River Lodge, one of the oldest Pythians in the state, and for many years a member of the finance committee of the Grand Lodge, was high in his praise of Grand Chancellor Worthington and stated that every member of Tar River Lodge had a right to feel proud of him on account of the very able way in which he presided.

Geo. E. Lovell was re-elected Grand Keeper of Records and Seals and J. W. Knowles was re-elected Pythian Home superintendent. The number of Pythian Home trustees was increased from 9 to 12.

The sessions of the Grand Lodge were held in the Ricks Hotel, and the various representatives and visitors were entertained in the homes of Rocky Mount Pythians.

Tar River Lodge announces that the following officers have been elected for the coming term: L. T. Jones, Chancellor Commander; J. C. Blanchard, Vice-Chancellor; J. L. Howard, Prelate; W. S. Tyson, Master of Work; S. O. Worthington, K. of R. & S.; D. C. Moore, Jr., M. of F.; A. J. Moore, M. of E.; Dink James, M. A.; James Brewer, inner guard; C. D. Ward outer guard.

John H. Small to Discuss Dry Law Thursday Night

Former Congressman John H. Small, of Washington, will speak at the court house here tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in opposition to the Eighteenth Amendment. This is the first time the distinguished statesman who served this district in Congress several years, has visited the community since the expiration of his term of office, and his visit is being looked forward to with interest.

Mr. Small has expressed hope that a large crowd will go out to hear him discuss one of the most mooted questions of the day, and in that way gain a more complete understanding of the various phases of the law enforcement program. He said he hoped the women would attend in large numbers, because the preservation of the American home is largely in their hands, and upon them rest the responsibility of the moral life of the nation.

ABOUT TOWN

The new First National Bank of Ayden yesterday staged a "house warming" celebrating the opening of the institution which takes over the affairs of the defunct National Bank.

The occasion was a happy one for the people of the city and speeches were made by bank officials and prominent men whose labors played such an important part in organization.

The people of Ayden are proud of the new bank and that they will give it the support which it so surely deserves is not to be doubted. The town has been without banking facilities since the closing of the old institution several months ago, and the need of the new bank was felt most keenly by the business interests.

The bank is headed by J. R. Turnage, one of the pioneer business men of the thriving Pitt County town. Announcing the opening several days ago, Mr. Turnage praised the people of the community for the wholehearted co-operation manifested in tentative plans looking to organization. Without this spirit of devotion, he said, the best of effort on part of the promoters would have been futile.

Mr. Turnage also expressed belief that the opening of the Ayden bank and completion of plans for the one at Greenville would have a far-reaching effect in the life of the county, and should do much toward stabilizing conditions.

After such a pronounced spirit of loyalty, it is not to be doubted that the new bank will show healthy growth along with that of the thriving community in which it is located.

Al Capone at last has been cornered by the government and if he is given sufficient time behind the bars it will be many a day before he will be able to come out into the open and continue to violate the laws which the government has set up for the protection of its citizenship.

Federal agents were a long time bringing the noted gang leader to justice, but now that he has acknowledged his guilt there is nothing to do but see that he gets the full penalty of the law.

There is only one way to stop crime and that is to prosecute those convicted of it. An improvement may not be noticeable immediately but it will become evident in the decreased activities of those who make it their business to violate the law.

The action of the courts in the Capone case should have a direct effect on the remainder of the criminals of the nation because it will show conclusively that the greatest of the underworld chieftains did his best to thwart justice but found that he must pay the price all must pay for crime.

Greenville business houses observed their second half-holiday of the summer months today, and scores of men and women who constitute the brain and brawn of business circles hied off to beaches and other places of recreation to recover from the strain of their daily task.

The closing will not become general, however, until the first of July when it is expected virtually every business house of any importance will take part in the movement and give their employees opportunity to enjoy the summer months.

It is impossible to enumerate the advantages derived from these half-holidays, but it is reasonable to believe the health of the workers is improved to such extent that they will be able to return to their respective jobs in far better condition to grapple with the countless problems confronting them from day to day.

vive the gruelling test demanded of them in the grist of the year's business.

The danger of the spread of pellagra in this county has been related by men charged with the responsibility of preserving public health here, and if the public does not assist in relieving the situation it is going to become even more serious in the future.

Speaking at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club last Friday evening, Dr. R. S. McGeachy sounded the warning of the increase of the disease, and was followed by K. T. Futrelle, director of public welfare, who said there are several hundred cases in the county at this time.

Pellagra is caused by the lack of proper diet, and its spread here is due directly to the inability of poor people to provide themselves with the proper kind of diet. The health department is distributing yeast and other forms of nourishment in an attempt to decrease the inroads of the disease.

Several persons have died from pellagra during the last year, and others are going to die because they were unable to receive treatment necessary to stall the progress of their cases. Hundreds of cases are in the incipient stage, but will become worse unless the people provide themselves with proper diet.

It is a condition demanding the attention of the thinking men and women of the section, especially in view of the fact that state institutions for the treatment of the disease are overrun, making it impossible to obtain admission for patients except over a long period.

The clubs and other organizations might be able to render a distinct service to the health workers by showing a willingness to help provide proper nourishment for the sufferers who are unable to provide it themselves. Organizations that have been clamoring for some way to render service to humankind will find plenty room for activity here and it is hoped they will act quickly and aid in the saving of human life.

EAST STEPS OUT IN THE AMERICAN

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

In the round of inter-sectional games which is coming to a close in the big leagues, the clubs of the two home sections have far outshone the visitors. With a few games left for today before the scenes of activity shift, the eastern clubs of the American League have turned in 36 victories against 15 for the western invaders. In the National League, the visiting teams from the east have won 23 games since the series started June 1 while the west has recorded 32 triumphs.

Washington, which tackles the St. Louis Browns in a final clash today, has far outshone all rivals, winning 14 games out of 15, the last 11 of them in succession. The Senators had a narrow escape yesterday when they handed St. Louis a nine-run lead in the first three innings, but they slowly cut down the margin and finally won out 11 to 10 in a ninth inning rally as Davis Harris tripled with the bases full and then scored on an error.

The Athletics, who have a final crack at Detroit today, held their lead over the Senators by winning 11 out of 14 games. The Boston Red Sox also bettered a 500 mark for the series but the New York Yankees failed to uphold the prestige of the east, winning five games and losing six and finishing just below Cleveland, western leader for the series. The Yankees and Boston clash in a double header today before going west. All but one of yesterday's American League games were rained out.

The league leading St. Louis Cardinals took first place for the National League's east-west round yesterday by beating the Phillies 2-1 in a battle that combined fine pitching with home runs. Up to the ninth inning of the duel between Benge and Grimes, the Phils held a 1-0 lead on Chuck Klein's 17th homer. Then George Watkins and Frank Frisch hit for the circuit to win. The victory gave the Cards a record of ten games won and five lost in their stand against the east.

Right behind them came the Cincinnati Reds with nine games won and five lost despite a 7-1 beating at the hands of the New York Giants yesterday. The Reds could not hit Fred Fitzsimmons in their last home game yesterday while the Giants got to St. Johnson for five runs in the sixth inning. Chicago's Cubs fill the next notch with nine victories and six defeats after an uphill battle to beat the Boston Braves 8 to 7 yesterday. Boston scored six runs off Guy Bush in the first inning but could not hold off Chicago's late rallies, featured by Hack Wilson's sixth home run of the season.

New York and Boston had better than 500 averages for their tour of the west while Brooklyn and Pittsburgh, rained out for the last two days, meet in a final game today to see which gets sixth place in the standing for the series. The Phils made the worst record in either league, winning only two games out of 13.

Seeks Comeback

Weems Baskin, former Alabama football player, has asked the National A. A. U. to clear up his track status so he may try for a comeback in the national championships at Lincoln, Neb., July 3-4. He says he has been custodian of the Auburn track team, but has received no salary as a coach.

HORNETS SET SWIFT PACE IN PIEDMONT

By PAUL SIMMONS

Charlotte, June 17. (AP)—Something must be done to slow up the gallivanting stride of the league-topping Charlotte Hornets if the Piedmont race is to be kept from becoming a run-away for Skipper Lacy's forces.

The Raleigh Caps went on a victory collecting spree a couple of so weeks ago but the Bees and some of the other teams of the loop pitched in and brought them in check. Now, it's the Hornets who are making a race track of the old Piedmont pavilion.

A bold attempt to bring the Queen City nine under control was made this week by the Strainment but it ended up with Charlotte's taking last night's go 3 to 2 to sweep the series. The upshot was that the Hornets gained a lead of four and a half games, or nearly 100 per centage points, over the Caps, their closest rivals.

The Pats will get a shot at the league leaders today and tomorrow at Greensboro, while the Caps are home trying their luck with Bunn Hearn's Winston Twins.

Wykoff's Peak Ahead

Frank Wykoff, in the opinion of the man who has brought him along to world's record ability as a sprinter, has not yet reached the peak.

"That's one reason why I haven't pressed Wykoff into tackling the 220 along with the 100 in big meets," remarked Dean Cromwell, the Southern California coach. "He is still a youngster and getting better. Will he beat 9.4? That's a difficult question to answer, but I think the best one I can give you is my opinion that he has not yet reached the limit of his ability."

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

attakes the good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD

I talked with Stanford's coach, Dick Templeton, the day he decided to take the wraps off his Twenty Grand of the collegiate coaches, Ben Eastman, and turn him loose for the East to rave about.

"I've had my fingers crossed all morning," Dink readily admitted. "I don't know what Ben will do out here. I've brought too many good middle distance runners back east and had them disappoint me to be sure what will happen."

"But Big Ben can run, when he is right. Don't make any mistake about that. I'm not kidding you when I say this boy is the greatest I have ever seen."

After Eastman forced Vic Williams of the U. S. C. to a world's record quarter-mile and then returned 55 minutes later to breeze a winning half mile in 1:54.4, the critical eastern boys were ready to take Dink's words literally and add a few embellishments of their own.

For sheer beauty of style and as a half-miler I would not class Eastman with the great Englishman, Douglas G. A. Lowe, the nearest thing to poetry of motion, not excepting the well known Paavo Nurmi.

However, Eastman has the stuff to be unbeatable at the 440 and 880 for his next two years of college. He is better now than Ted Meredith was when the famous Penn filer was a sophomore.

Meredith won the I. C. A. A. 440 in his first varsity season in '24. Eastman did his trial heat under heavy wraps in 48.3 and was at least 1/8 as he forced Williams to hit the tape in the final in 47.4, equalling the mark Meredith set at Cambridge in his senior year.

Just a Kid

Big Ben is just a gangling kid now, with great natural equipment, a big shock of sandy hair and a modest disposition. Not even his college mates can make him think he has done anything out of the ordinary. He likes to run, but has considerable to learn yet about pace.

Williams is more of the greyhound type, with greater experience than Eastman and a terrific finishing "kick." These two ought to restore your Uncle Samuel's supremacy in the Olympic middle distance race in 1932, something your uncle has not enjoyed since Reid-780 at Stockholm in 1912.

The east yielded middle distance honors to these far western fliers at Franklin Field for the first time

Warren to Fight Wine at Salem

Winston-Salem, June 17.—(AP)—Add Warren, heavyweight boxing champion of the Carolinas, and Frankie Wine, the Montana blacksmith, meet here tonight in a 10-round bout to open Winston's 1931 outdoor fight season.

On paper, the match is regarded by fight fans here as a toss-up. Warren has lost from Dewey Kimrey, the Norwood lumberjack, while Kimrey defeated Wine in a 10-round go at Charlotte several months ago.

Wine, who makes his North Carolina headquarters here, will probably enter the ring a slight favorite, largely because Warren dropped his last fight on a decision to Jack Renault, Canadian puncher.

Winston-Salem.—(AP)—The Rev. John S. Foster, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, has asked his congregation to reduce his salary 10 per cent.

Fayetteville.—(AP)—E. A. Hatch, carpenter, was badly injured when he fell from a 40-foot scaffold while working here.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 1 to 2 points higher in the face of rather indifferent Liverpool cables and a generally favorable view of early weather reports.

There appeared to be some overnight buying orders in the market which sent the price of July up to 8.84 and December to 9.46, or 2 to 4 points net higher, but the bulge met a good deal of realizing by recent buyers, while there appeared to be some selling. New Orleans and local selling. This was sufficient to supply the early buyers and prices eased off a few points with July selling down to 8.76 and December to 9.38 during the first half hour making the market about 4 to 7 points net lower. The continent was credited with buying here to fix prices early, but yesterday's advance seemed to have eased the technical position to some extent and covering was less active.

Liverpool cables said that local and foreign buying in that market had been supplied by realizing. A moderate demand for cotton cloths was reported in Manchester for the British home trade, but the Indian boycott was said to continue.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 17.—(AP)—The gloomy diagnosis of the railroad bills presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission caused a fresh sinking spell in railroad shares in today's stock market.

The carriers' suggested remedy, a 15 per cent increase in freight rates, and the promise of prompt consideration of the petition, failed to bolster the stock market, as Wall Street, saw no prospects for immediate relief.

The share market was again extremely sluggish, with trading continuing at a slow pace rarely seen in the past five years, but the heaviness of the rail issues dragged the general list downward. Union Pacific lost more than 3 points, and miscellaneous issues losing 2 to 4 included Atchafalaya, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Electric Automobile, Eastman and Macy. Many of the principal industrial and utility issues drifted off a point or more.

Wall Street was particularly impressed by the indication in the freight rate petition that current earnings, despite their extremely low levels, appear better than they actually are, since what would ordinarily be regarded as necessary maintenance expenditures have been drastically reduced. It was pointed out that while the commission's chairman had promised prompt consideration, the question is so involved, that at best, its solution will probably require some time.

In the meantime cutting of railway dividends continues. Kansas City Southern directors declared a 50 cent quarterly dividend, as reduced from $1.25. Nevertheless, some rail issues appeared to have been unduly depressed. St. Louis Southwestern preferred rallied more than 10 points, attaining a price more than double the year's low.

Tokyo Visited by a Severe Earthquake Tokyo, June 17.—(AP)—A severe earthquake hit Tokyo at 9:10 o'clock tonight, causing tens of thousands of persons to run into the streets and gardens. So far as could be learned there was no serious damage.

The quake first manifested itself by a horizontal movement. This quickly increased in intensity and developed into a series of perpendicular shocks.

Windows in the Numago railway station were smashed. A portion of the wall of a small cinema house in Oskamachi, a suburb of Tokyo, collapsed. The audience ran into the street. One person was slightly injured.

The shocks of 1923 constituted Japan's most recent earthquake calamity but the island empire has been shaken frequently enough since then to keep the specter of fear close at hand. The loss of life in 1923 was nearly 100,000 and the total casualties numbered almost 250,000.

Show Fall Styles at New York City

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Fall marched into the city today with the showing of advance costumes at the fashion revue sponsored by the League of Advertising Women of New York for women delegates to the convention of the Advertising Federation of America.

Velvets—dull, corded, chiffon, transparent, and cotton—lead as a fall dress fabric. Wools are the chosen materials for all other costumes.

Black will be the smartest color, with the rust shades and browns close seconds. White is still the chosen color for evening.

Street dresses will come to about eight inches from the floor. Dinner and dance frocks will be comfortably long—barely touching, while gowns for the opera and the theatre will trail a bit.

Long sleeves will be extremely smart, but short sleeves, a little fuller than they were for summer wear, will still be in vogue. High necklines will be featured in formal evening gowns but the arms will be bare, though a variety of intriguing shoulder scarfs, capes and jackets will be shown.

Coats are usually unbelted, partially fitted, and are rather full under the arms. The shawl collar will be good again this season and fur will be extravagantly used.

Women Jailed For Shooting Attorney

Mobile, Ala., June 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Willie Mae Clausen, 33-year-old brunette who has been twice married and has a 16-year-old son was in jail here today charged with murder for the shooting to death of Foster G. Hale, Jr., a 52-year-old attorney and sportsman of state-wide prominence.

"He got what he deserved—he wrecked my life," police quoted her as saying immediately after the shooting last night.

Later, in a formal statement to State's Attorney Bart B. Chamberlain, Mrs. Clausen declined to give any details of her relations with Hale, but said she went to his office with a pistol wrapped in a newspaper after a telephone conversation from her hotel. Hale, she said, told her not to enter, threatened to eject her after she entered, and then grappled with her for the pistol. She added that he fell to the floor after the third shot.

Hale was still conscious when taken to a hospital, and police quoted him as saying that Mrs. Clausen fired with the remark that "we'll go together" after he had told her their "affair" was to end.

Robbers Effect Valuable Jewelry Haul in New York

New York, June 17.—(AP)—Three robbers today shouldered their way into the home of S. Stanwood Menken, former chairman of the National Security League, bound two maids, and then forced Mrs. Menken to open a vault containing $150,000 in jewelry.

Scoping up the jewels, the robbers ran into fashionable Fifty-second street and made their escape. The men appeared at the door of the house at 10 o'clock and rang the bell.

One of the maids answered, and under some pretext she was persuaded to open the door. The men then drew revolvers and forced the maid into the house. They asked her "Where is your madam?" She replied, "Upstairs, asleep."

The bandits picked up some scarfs and draperies and bound the maid. Then they ascended to the second floor where they were met by another maid. Before she could make an outcry the bandits bound her.

Upstairs the bandits came to the bedroom occupied by Mrs. Menken. She had been awakened by the noise made by the men and was dressing when they entered the room. They told her to keep quiet. "Just show us where you keep your jewelry," one of them said.

With revolvers threatening her, Mrs. Menken led the men to the basement and to the vault.

HUDSON Meets Every Requirement of True Luxury—Now It Provides *Selective Free Wheeling

Instinctively you group Hudson with those few cars that men acknowledge as truly fine. But do you compare its price with theirs? That contrast is the emphasis of Hudson value.

Take, for example, the way in which Hudson has progressed with every motor car improvement. Its eight-cylinder motor, built on the principle of the costliest cars, is acclaimed one of the finest power plants to be found in any automobile. Or consider the reliability of the chassis, the sturdiness of its bodies and the many devices that contribute to comfort, reliability and economy.

Look at its various body types. Their style and beauty are apparent. Close examination reveals the completeness and good taste of all appointments. The long wheelbase, the deep cushions and many important mechanical refinements assure Rare Riding Comfort.

Go farther, if you will. Include performance and reliability in your comparison. What other car combines such speed, acceleration and power with the economy that all, regardless of their means, welcome today?

Now we add *Selective Free Wheeling. With it is enjoyed a luxurious floating ride. You shift gears silently. You have quicker getaway. You free wheel in all forward speeds because of the selective feature.
