OVER THIRTY BLACKS HELD IN DISORDERS

Labor Defense and Alabama Police Issue Statements Regarding Affair

Dadeville, Ala., July 20.—(AP)—Thirty-four negroes arrested in connection with efforts to Tallapoosa county authorities to break up "the Share Croppers Union" were in jail today on charges ranging from conspiracy to murder to carrying concealed weapons while the International Labor Defense and Police Chief J. M. Wilson of Camp Hill, engaged in a duel of statements.

Conspiracy to murder and assault with intent to murder charges were lodged against some of the negroes as result of the serious wounding Thursday night of Sheriff J. Kyle Young near Camp Hill while a meeting of the union was in progress. Ralph Gray, negro, was accused by officers of the actual wounding and he was slain, but Solicitor Sanford Mullins had evidence the meeting was called to plot the murder of Young and his deputies.

This version was denied last night in a formal statement in Chattanooga, Tenn., of Lowell Wakefield, secretary of the southern district of the International Labor Defense, who said the slaying of Gray was unjustifiable and "these croppers, organizing to obtain the bare necessities of life, were protesting the attempted legal lynching of nine negro boys at Scottsboro, Ala."

Wakefield also charged that four negroes probably were lynched during the Camp Hill warfare. "Every attempt," he said, "on the part of negro and white workers and poor farmers to organize against starvation or against the bosses' terror is met with rope, fagot and shot."

He said objectives of "The Share Croppers Union" were to prevent food allowances from being cut off, obtain cash settlements for crops this fall, win general improvement of working conditions, and to fight the conviction of the Scottsboro negroes for an alleged assault on two white girls who were hobnobbing aboard a freight train.

In reply, Chief Wilson denied that any other negroes besides Gray were killed and said Gray was shot only after he had fired twice on the officers, and his killing was in defense of the officers' lives. The chief also denied that any attempt had been made to cut off food allowances as "lando wners had to have laborers to harvest their crops or lose them."

The union was organized about two months ago. In raids on its meetings officers said they found evidence of organization of a "Society for the Advancement of Colored People" to obtain political and social equality, but this order is not now accused of having any part in the disturbances of last week.

Coal Strike Breaks Out Anew in Ohio

St. Clarksville, Ohio, July 20.—(AP)—The Eastern Ohio coal mine strike broke out anew early today when 250 alleged striking miners from Jefferson county marched on several Belmont county mines.

Sheriff Howard Duff mobilized a force of 25 special deputy sheriffs and rushed them to the mine to prevent disorders. He had released his special deputies last week in the belief the mine difficulties were at an end.

The trouble started yesterday when snipers fired a score of shots into the Powhattan mine, 35 miles from here, from a heavily wooded section. None was hurt.

In Jefferson county two arrests were reported when alleged strikers attacked a deputy sheriff who attempted to stop stone throwing at the working miners.

Hickory Wants Diving Helmet

Hickory, July 20.—(AP)—Because of the number of drownings this summer in Lake Hickory and the difficulty incurred in recovering bodies, a movement has been launched here to purchase a diving helmet for the city.

The proposal was advanced by Sterling Menzies, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, who offered to conduct a campaign for public subscriptions to pay for the helmet.

Fire Chief Donald Shuford, who will have charge of the helmet if it is purchased, has been asked to get quotations on diving helmets from manufacturers.

Lake Hickory, a large, deep body of water formed by mill dams across the Catawba river, has claimed three lives within the last three weeks. It took 40 hours to recover the last body.

NEGRO SHOT DURING FIGHT

Herbert Rogers held in jail here charged with shooting Austin Goddette

Herbert Rogers, colored, was held in the county jail here today on a charge of shooting Austin Goddette also colored, in a wild scramble for a gun in Pactolus township yesterday. Although Goddette's injuries were of a painful nature they were not considered necessarily serious.

Rogers will be given preliminary hearing before Magistrate Ray Tyson tomorrow afternoon.

Information concerning the shooting was meagre. Officers said the two negroes engaged in an argument and when a pistol was produced a wild scramble began for possession of the firearm. During the melee a single bullet was fired into Rogers' body.

Goddette was arrested a short time later and brought to jail here to await hearing.

NAVY BALLOON IS WINNER OF NATIONAL RACE

Bag Piloted By Lieut. Murray Lands At Marilla, N. Y., After Flying 215 Miles

Akron, Ohio, July 20.—(AP)—United States naval balloon piloted by Lieut. T. G. W. Settle, today won the national elimination balloon race, coming to earth at Marilla, N. Y., at six a. m., 25 miles further than the Goodyear-Zeppelin bag, which reported it landed at 8 a. m. at Stevensville, Ontario.

Official distances gave the Navy entry a distance of 215 miles and the Goodyear VIII 190 miles. The two bags thus earned the right to represent the United States in the International Gordon Bennett races.

The Goodyear bag landed at 8 a. m. at Stevensville, Ont., 195 miles from the starting point. Trotter, with his side Roland Blair, last year captured the national race and held the record among the six competing balloons for continuous hours aloft a the start of the race.

Third place in the race went to El J. Hill, pilot, and Arthur Schlosier of the W. J. P., Detroit, who landed about 1:05 a. m. at Wesleyville Pa., 8 miles east of Erie after covering a distance of 110 miles.

Captain Karl S. Axatier and Lt. H. H. Souch landed at Custards, Pa., in Army No. 1 at 10:20 a. m. Sunday for fourth place and a distance of 80 miles. Captain Axatier was forced down by the storm.

Fifth place went to L. P. Furlow and John Rieker, the Akron blimp pilots, who were unable to buck the storm and came down four miles north of Ravenna after traveling only 20 miles.

The ill-fated Army No. 2 entry, piloted by Lt. Edgar Pogelsonger and Lt. John A. Tarro, which came to earth only 35 minutes after taking off, was last. It traversed only about 12 miles.

LOCAL BANK OPENS BRANCH

Belhaven Branch of Greenville Banking and Trust Company Thrown Open Today

The branch bank of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company was formally thrown open to the public at Belhaven this morning.

The opening was in the form of a public reception and hundreds of people were reported to have visited the new institution during the day. The town has been without banking facilities since the closing of the Farmers Bank some time ago.

E. G. Flanagan and W. H. Woodard, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company, attended the opening, and welcomed the visitors.

Arrangements were completed for opening of the new branch last week following an invitation from leading citizens of the Belhaven community.

The Greenville Banking and Trust Company, according to a story carried in the News and Observer Sunday, is one of four large banking organizations in the state attempting to cater to the needs of the various communities affected by the closing of banks the last several months. In addition to providing for the handling of the enormous amounts of money circulating in the different sections, opening of the branches has had a tendency to improve general business conditions and relieve depression.

In addition to the Belhaven bank, the Greenville Banking and Trust Company operates two banks in Greenville and branches at Grimesland, Bethel and Pinetops.

J. E. Edwards, former cashier of the Grimesland branch, is in charge of the Belhaven bank and is being assisted for several days by Stuart Carr, Jr.

Seven Powers Gather At London To Evolve German Relief Plan

Eight Lives Snuffed Out By Oil Well Fire

Mt. Pleasant, Mich., July 20.—(AP)—An oil field fire which climaxed the shooting of a "gusher" 13 miles from here Saturday had taken eight lives today, while seven other victims, terribly burned, were in a critical condition in a local hospital.

The 2,000 barrel well whose "shooting" attracted the victims and 200 other spectators to the scene of the tragedy, still was burning.

The well came in as a gusher shortly before a storage tank exploded from a cause as yet undetermined, showering the spectators with flaming oil. The heroism of "Buck" Hewit, a tool dresser in completing the capping of the well at the risk of his life, was credited with preventing greater loss of life for the well did not catch fire immediately.

There were other acts of heroism. Many of the men who rolled to safety from the sea of fire, dashed back into the flames to rescue women who had not escaped—some of them to their death.

One of the first fatalities was Mrs. Walter L. McClannahan, wife of the principal owner of the gusher. McClannahan, known in the Mt. Pleasant field as "King of hard luck promoters" and a veteran of oil operations in the Kansas and Kentucky fields, was among the seven for whom hope has been all but abandoned. It was the first paying well he had brought in in this field.

An attempt was to be made today to snuff out the burning gusher. The "stubble no. 1" with jets of live steam. After firemen and state conservation officers had fought all Saturday night against spread of the flames to the well, the fire crept through a connecting pipe line and the well flared up early yesterday. A leak permitted the escape of enough oil to feed the flames, then a gasket in the control valve burned out and the well became a pillar of fire.

Execution Demanded

The execution of Dr. Francis Tucker (above), treasurer of a mission hospital at Tschow, Shanghai, was demanded by the nationalist party as penalty for the death of a native whom Dr. Tucker shot believing he was a robber.

The nationalist party, representing the United States, came over from Paris yesterday. Ambassador Matsudaira will attend for Japan.

The first meeting, scheduled for 6:30 this evening, probably will be given over entirely to formalities of organization.

An atmosphere of optimism pervaded London today—so much so that in diplomatic circles it was predicted the conference would finish its job this week.

This confidence was in large part based upon the elimination from the program of the troublesome question of political guarantees asked by France from Germany in exchange for her participation in financial aid.

It was based, too, upon the knowledge that the ministers taking part in the deliberations were aware of the necessity of prompt action to relieve all Europe.

A third factor was the Franco-German agreement, reached at preliminary negotiations in Paris, that both France and Germany would do everything they could to create conditions favorable to effective collaboration between them in both the political and economic fields.

SCOVILLE IS SPEAKER HERE

Duke Divinity Student Delivers Sermon at Local M. E. Church

Warren C. Scoville, student of Duke University delivered the initial sermon of his career at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church last night. Young Scoville, son of the late V. P. Scoville, who died several years ago while pastor of the local church, was heard by practically the same congregation to whom his father preached his last sermon.

The services were held on the lawn back of the church, and were attended by one of the largest crowds of the summer months.

Speaking on the subject of "This Problem of Love," Mr. Scoville brought out the constant development of love since the days of the Old Testament. He described it as a strong personal interest in humanity, and cited the work of prominent figures of the Bible and of the present era to clarify his point of view.

He declared that those who let love work in their lives always accomplish something of a constructive nature in behalf of humanity.

Young Scoville about 18 years of age, is a graduate of Greenville high school, and a first year divinity student at Duke. He made a particularly brilliant scholastic record throughout the entire term, scoring the highest marks on all his studies.

He is spending the summer here with his mother, Mrs. V. P. Scoville, and will return to Duke when the fall term to resume his studies.

Two Killed In Collision Of Airplanes

Newington, Conn., July 20.—(AP)—Two men were killed today in a collision of two United States army planes over this town. Two others in the planes reached the ground safely in parachutes.

The dead: Lieut. Benjamin F. Lowry, Sergeant Strosnyder. The men who escaped by jumping with their parachutes were Lieut. Kelley and Sergeant David Spicer.

An unidentified civilian was struck and critically injured by one of the falling planes. He was reported in a dying condition in Hartford hospital.

The planes, among a group of six flying toward Hartford, burst into flames as they struck the ground near the Cedarcrest Sanatorium, a state institution for the tubercular.

The planes were enroute from Mitchell Field, N. Y., to Rentschler Field, East Hartford, where the flyers planned to inspect the plant of Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Company.

The surviving flyers said the collision occurred when the two planes attempted to avoid an unidentified commercial plane which sped toward the six Army ships.

One of the dead spectators said, attempted to leave his ship in a parachute.

At Hartford hospital the civilian struck by the falling plane was identified as Michael Penticelli of Meriden. He suffered a fractured leg and other injuries.

EIGHT GUNMEN ARE ARRESTED

Men Believed Waiting to "Bump Off" Legs Diamond, Nabbed at Catskill, N. Y.

Catskill, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Eight gunmen believed by state police to have been waiting to kill Legs Diamond, gangster, on his return to the Catskills were under arrest today.

With the gang in raids near Cairo and at Cocksackie yesterday, ten state troopers and seven New York City detectives seized pistols, sawed-off shotguns, rifles, 1,500 rounds of machine gun ammunition and a blood-stained automobile evidently used to take somebody for a "ride." The officers said all were members of Dutch Schultz's gang in New York.

The raiders based their belief that the men were waiting to greet Diamond with gun fire on reports that the Schultz gang has been poaching on "Diamond beer territory" in and about Kingston. Diamond has been missing from his Catskill farm since his acquittal at Troy last week of charges growing out of the state investigation of racketeering in the Catskills.

The raiding party crept up on a farmhouse near Cairo about daybreak yesterday morning. A lookout in a front room whipped a pistol but it was knocked from his hand just as it was discharged and the bullet went into the ceiling. In a rear room there were five others with weapons in easy reach. They had been asleep and were caught off guard.

Boyd placed the Cleveland company under arrest, but later released the unit with a lecture and demotions. He instructed peace officers, however, to swear out a warrant charging Tipton with felonious assault.

Tipton was obeyed by some 20 of the 65 men in the Cleveland unit. Boyd said, and they used clubs, rocks and miniature baseball bats, given them as souvenirs while the Memphis soldiers had no means of protecting themselves except their fists.

Boyd placed the Cleveland company under arrest, but later released the unit with a lecture and demotions. He instructed peace officers, however, to swear out a warrant charging Tipton with felonious assault.

Drowned Woman Committed Suicide, Coroner Declares

Elizabeth City July 20.—(AP)—Mrs. Eunice Pritchard, who drowned in the Neuse river here last night, committed suicide a coroner's jury decided today.

The woman's husband, who stood on the dock with a baby in his arms and saw his wife plunge into the water, testified her death was an accident.

Other witnesses, however, testified Mrs. Pritchard threw herself into the river after a quarrel.

Dawes and Morrow Hold Conference With President

Washington, July 20.—(AP)—Ambassador Dawes and Senator Morrow conferred with President Hoover today concerning the German financial situation and the conferences growing out of it.

The New Jersey senator has been in frequent touch with the President during the negotiations over his moratorium proposal. Acting Secretary Castle of the State Department was summoned to the conference shortly after the President arrived. Coming from the conference later Secretary Castle said the President had talked to Secretary Stimson but there had been no overnight developments of any consequence.

First Meeting Set for 6:30 This Evening Expected to Be Confined to Formalities of Organization; Atmosphere of Optimism Pervades London; Diplomatic Circles Express Opinion Conference Will Be Able to Find Way to Relieve German Financial Crisis This Week

London, July 20.—(AP)—Delegates from France, Germany, Belgium and Italy arrived here this evening for the seven-power conference at which they hope to evolve a scheme for relieving German economic distress.

Prime Minister MacDonald, Foreign Secretary Henderson and a group of other distinguished British officials met them at the railway station. The arrivals included Premier Laval, Foreign Minister Briand, Finance Minister Flandin and France's ambassador to London, Ambassador Brunsden.

The first meeting, scheduled for 6:30 this evening, probably will be given over entirely to formalities of organization.

An atmosphere of optimism pervaded London today—so much so that in diplomatic circles it was predicted the conference would finish its job this week.

This confidence was in large part based upon the elimination from the program of the troublesome question of political guarantees asked by France from Germany in exchange for her participation in financial aid.

It was based, too, upon the knowledge that the ministers taking part in the deliberations were aware of the necessity of prompt action to relieve all Europe.

Opposition to Plan to Populate Great Smoky Mountain

Washington, July 20.—(AP)—Unexpected but strenuous opposition has been raised against the plan to populate the Great Smoky Mountain National park with Virginia deer.

Originally this forest land in North Carolina and Tennessee was full of deer and as bear, turkeys grouse and other game. Mountaineers' dogs ran all the deer out. The Park service, now in charge, proposed to replace them.

But the singular charm of the Great Smokies is the overflowing abundance of shrubs and trees of almost countless varieties. No other region, experts contend, can show as many species. For the botanist it is a paradise.

A. F. Ganier of Asheville, president of the Tennessee Ornithological Society, bolstered by expert opinion, has written part service officials that the importation of deer would result in destruction of this valuable undergrowth. He also contended deer would bring great quantities of flies, obnoxious to human visitors. Government biologists are doubtful about the latter and divided about the destruction of shrubbery. No decision has yet been reached.

Leaps to Death From Airplane

Jamestown, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Shouting "happy landings, buddy," George O. Wallace leaped to his death yesterday from a plane he had hired for a ride over this city. He climbed out on a wing before the pilot noticed what he was doing. It was his twenty-fifth birthday. He fell 1,200 feet into a cemetery.

Relatives said he had been ill during the winter but they thought he had recovered.

Those interested in the opening of a new bank to take over the affairs of the National Bank that closed here in December are making a last appeal to those depositors who have not signed the agreement to make the opening of the bank possible and certainly it is hoped that this matter will be given immediate attention in order that there might not be further delay in the opening of the bank. It is understood that there are still several depositors holding out and refusing to sign, hoping to be paid their money a hundred per cent just as soon as the bank opens, but just suppose all the depositors had taken this same attitude at the very outset, the result would have been liquidation with considerable loss and embarrassment to the people of this county and such a result might still be possible unless these people sign. Realizing that the opening of the new bank was the best way out for the people of our community, many of our business men have given considerable time and effort to the proposition and the large majority of the depositors gladly signed the agreement to make the opening of the new bank possible. Now the matter seems to be up to these remaining depositors. Of course it is their right not to sign if they do not so desire, but certainly theirs is not the sporting attitude to be willing for the other fellow to bear the burden of making the opening possible in order that the hold-outs might get all their money first. In case the new bank fails to open because of these holdouts, the entire community will suffer a great loss as a result of the action of these few people.

Of course you might say it's none of our business, but we urge you to consider it from a standpoint of fairness by placing yourself in the other fellow's shoes. Would you like for him to take the attitude you have displayed in this matter? Let's sign now and get the bank open for business in order that our community might begin to get some of the benefits that will come with the opening of this new bank.

ABOUT TOWN

Pitt County growers have raised an abundance of food crops this season and in addition to conserving a considerable portion for consumption during the winter, have given liberally to those in need. The Red Cross let some of the producers on the curb market know they wanted contributions of fruits and vegetables for several poor families last week and the growers gave an entire Ford load to the cause.

This shows the farmers are appreciative of the condition existing among certain types of people in the county and are willing to share their products with them. It was a generous donation and shows that altruism still exists in spite of depression.

A clinic for the examination of all suspected cases of adult tuberculosis will be conducted by the Pitt County Department of Health during the month of September, and all persons who have been confined in the State Sanatorium and who have also been exposed to tuberculosis will be examined free of charge.

Due to the limited personnel of the department it will be next to impossible to visit all sections of the county in the interest of this phase of public health, and the health officer has asked the persons desiring examinations either to visit the office or make an appointment by telephone.

It is the present plan of the department to make most of the examinations in Greenville, but if there are enough cases to justify it, clinics of one day each will be held in Farmville, Ayden and Bethel.

Persons over fifteen years of age may take the examinations.

Food prices, according to figures recently made public by the Labor Department, declined 13.8 per cent during the last six months, while clothing dropped 4.6 per cent and rents likewise were down 3.1 per cent compared with January figures.

This information will be received with pronounced interest by the men and women who have been affected by salary slashes the last few months yet the feeling that they have gotten an even break will not prevail until further declines have been reported.

It has been difficult to make ends meet in face of the depression and high prices for the necessities of life but if the food market continues the adjustment it will not be long before the inequality has been done away with and the workingman will be found in a better frame of mind than in many months.

The colored population of the county should take advantage of the free blood tests being given through the Rosenwald clinic here in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Health, The State Department of Health and the Pitt County Health office.

Such tests make for better health among the colored race and will enable them to find employment more easily than in past years.

These clinics were started in the county many months ago in an effort to interest the colored people in ridding themselves of diseases which have been destroying their health and value to industry for years. Pitt county was the first section of the south in which the experiment was started and it was largely through the effort of the late and lamented Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, secretary of the State Board of Health, that the clinic was brought to this county.

Clinics have been held in every district to give the people an opportunity to take the tests, and those who fail to do so lose one of the best chances of a lifetime to improve their general health.

PLAN TO AID THE JOBLESS

Officials Attempt to Relieve Hungry Miners in Oklahoma District

Henryetta, Okla., July 20.—(AP)—Officials grappled today with the problem of alleviating conditions among the families of jobless miners and smelter workers which led Saturday to a "hunger march" through Henryetta streets by approximately 500 men, women and children.

Merchants and citizens doled out food and money and the "march" ended peacefully, but civic leaders were spurred to action by the demonstration. They met and adopted a plan for city and county improvement projects to provide jobs for the needy. They considered a proposal to establish a municipal commissary.

O. W. Byford, American Federation of Labor organizer for this district, estimated that 12,500 workers were unemployed. Most of them, he said, were miners thrown out of work by closing of mines or reductions in employees. Others were out of work because of the closing down of lead smelters and reduced operations of a glass plant.

W. A. Murphy, Oklahoma commissioner of labor, agreed that Byford's figures were approximately correct. He placed the number of jobless at "between 8,000 and 12,000."

Adding to the unemployment situation, drought has damaged or destroyed gardens on which the needy had relied to help them over the summer and fall. Murphy said conditions were "pitiful."

Byford described the situation as one of the "saddest pictures" in the country's industrial life. He said he did not believe, however, that radicals would gain any great influence over the jobless.

The mining and smelting area surrounds Henryetta for a distance of about 10 miles. Because of the large area state officials and charitable organizations were looked to for aid.

Two Chinese Ctes Under Martial Law

Peiping, China, July 20.—(AP)—Martial law was declared today in Peiping and Tientsin, a rigid censorship was imposed and the Manchurian authorities are commanding military supplies with the evident intention of moving against the disaffected generals in Honan.

Minor clashes last week between the Manchurian advance guard moving down the Peiping-Hankow railway and the army of Shih Yu-San semi-independent general controlling North Honan with about 40,000 troops, pointed to renewed warfare north of the Yellow river.

Despite repeated professions of loyalty to the Nanking government, Shih Yu-San has been commanding rolling stock, interrupting railway traffic.

Workmen Rescued From Flooded Shaft

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—(AP)—Eleven workmen, who faced possible death when water flooded a 100-foot completed section of a heating tunnel and the 37 feet shaft leading to it, were rescued last night by 25 Milwaukee firemen six hours after they were trapped. The men were none the worse for their experience, all having succeeded in getting into two compression chambers when the water started pouring in. All were held in a hospital today, however, for observation.

NEWS BRIEFS

From Over The City and County

LOW WATER AT WESTBROOK'S TUESDAY

During the last week large crowds thronged to the Westbrook swimming pool.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith visited the pool and Mrs. Pace and her two sons, Carl and Charles, are in the water every morning from 9 to 10.

The following were the winners of the cross country race Saturday: Joe Smith, Billy Whitehurst, John David Bridgers, Norman Warren, Douglas Butner. The winners of the horse-shoe tournament were Billy Stator and Joe Smith. Free passes to the pool for a week were given to all the above winners.

The water will be low at Westbrook's tomorrow. Mothers may bring the little tots down to wade and splash in water as pure and fresh as that in your own bath.

Children are warned about diving. Too much diving without protection for the ears, will probably cause ear trouble. Much of the ear trouble is caused by too much diving.

Six States Will Witness Fight for Empty House Seats

Washington, July 20.—(AP)—Congressional seats emptied by death have opened anew in six states the political tug of war begun last November for mastery of the House.

Administration forces returned from the last election with a majority of two, but since have seen that margin cut and restored as members of both parties passed on. Today House rolls show 214 Republicans, 213 Democrats, one Farmer-Laborite and 7 vacancies.

Ohio, with two; Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Georgia and New York, with one vacancy each, supply the fields of contest on which control of the House may hinge. Control now is doubtful with groups in both parties forecasting victory while others declaim any desire to organize for a session which history may record as one of the most turbulent.

Internal party dissension aggravated by the depression and sectional interests loom large on the horizon and may prove a weightier factor in the outcome than opportunities provided each party to gain strength in the vacant districts.

Already progressive groups have made concrete legislative demands as the price of supporting either party candidate for the speakership and a deadlock has been predicted in some quarters unless these demands are met.

Jimmison Out for the Labor Office

Charlotte, July 20.—(AP)—Tom P. Jimmison, Charlotte attorney, will seek the office of State Commissioner of Labor now held by Frank Grist who has announced he will run for United States Senator.

In announcing his candidacy this week, Jimmison said he hoped "everybody will vote for me for I want the job and need it."

Hoyle Takes Oath As Dist. Attorney

Gastonia, N. C., July 20.—(AP)—J. M. Hoyle of Gastonia took the oath today as assistant United States district attorney for the western North Carolina district.

The oath was administered by United States Commissioner Bismarck Capps.

Hoyle will have headquarters in Charlotte.

Known as the unofficial dispenser of federal patronage in this district, Hoyle was appointed to his new post after vigorous fight on his nomination had been waged by Democrats.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, July 20.—(AP)—Selling of corn against buying of wheat led to decided weakness of corn prices today, whereas wheat developed relative strength. The action of wheat was commented on as surprising in view of 1,198,000 bushels increase of the United States visible supply, compared with 3,660,000 increase a week ago. The amount of wheat offered for Europe, however, showed a decrease of more than 4,000,000 bushels in the last week.

STOCK MARKET

New York, July 20.—(AP)—Wall Street was encouraged by the generally amiable atmosphere prevailing at the start of the international conferences in London today, but was disinclined to attempt to forecast the outcome.

Financial markets maintained a good tone but trading was extremely light.

Shares pushed up a point or two in the first hour, gradually slipped back in very sluggish trading later, only to perk up again after midday. Such issues as Lorillard, Sears Roebuck and Chrysler received considerable professional attention, rising a point or so.

Evidence multiplies that buying of consumers goods has in many lines been deferred as long as it can be. The shoe and apparel manufacturers continue to report increases in operations. Retail sales reports continue to provide encouragement.

The decline of only one per cent compared with an aggregated decline of nearly 7 per cent for the full first 28 weeks of the year.

An effort to bid up the oil shares was attended by scant success, although the voluntary shutting down on production in the mid-continent is expected to make a fairly favorable showing in this week's statistics.

Wall Street has become accustomed to unfavorable dividend news, and announcement of resumption of dividends by Conoco-Naim, with a 25-cent quarterly payment, the first since 1925, was a welcome change. Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad reported an actual gain over 1930 in June net operating revenues, amounting to $2,788,787 compared with $2,721,171. This carrier however has been maintaining its earnings well above the general average.

Credit conditions remained stationary, with call loans officially at 11-2 per cent and some offered in the outside market at 11-4.

SAYS WALKER WILL BE EASY MARK TO BEAT

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pompton Lakes, N. J., July 20.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey plans to let Mickey Walker help him get the boxing practice he needs for an August match with Tommy Loughran. Seven rounds Mickey can play around in there with him Wednesday night and then—poof!

The big sailorman from Boston has considerable powers of expression. His pale blue eyes flash as he talks, his gestures help him tell his story dramatically. Decisively. He wastes no words, saves no feelings and he talks as he hits—straight from the shoulder.

"Mickey is a nice little fellow and the more people think he has a chance to whip me in Ebbets field Thursday nEAOI ETAOIN . . . N. Wednesday night, the more will play to see us fight, but he's only a middleweight and there aren't any middleweights around today, no matter how good they are, licking Jack Sharkey.

"They've been saying I was fat and slow and boxing like an old lady in training. Maybe that will help the gate, I don't know. But I won't help Walker much.

"I'm not going to be in any hurry with Mickey. I haven't fought but four rounds—the four I pasted that Dutchman Schmeling before he yelled 'fou'—in almost two years and I need the work before I fight Tommy Loughran again in August at Ebbets field. So I figure I'll go along with Mickey for seven or eight rounds and then knock him over."

Sharkey doesn't relish such the idea of whipping a 170 pounder of Walker's stature and he probably will feel a bit ashamed of himself when the referee calls them to the center of the ring Wednesday night and he towers a full head over the former welterweight and middleweight champion and outweights him almost 30 pounds, but fighting is a business, and if Walker is the fellow they want him to lick this time then that's all right with Jack Sharkey.

"I'll have all that weight on him and all that size and he's the fellow that couldn't put Tommy Loughran down in a couple of matches and ac hap named Paul Swiderski floored him seven times. But of course Jack Sharkey can't punch. He can't break an egg with either hand."

Sharkey chuckled at this. He likes to talk of himself in the third person. He has refused to be disturbed by Jack Kern's verbal attempts to lure him into a controversy concerning his courage and the possibilities of a full. The only thing about Walker's stature that pleases him is the fact that Mickey is built so close to the ground there is little likelihood of a punch drifting low.

TWINS LOOM AS WINNERS IN PIEDMONT

Charlotte, July 20.—(AP)—Vastly improved over the club which floundered around in the second division during the first half of the Piedmont pennant chase, the Winston-Salem Twins loom as a long-shot dark horse for a share of second half honors.

Apparently nothing but an unexpected decision by Felix Hayman to trade a few of his stars or the collapse of the league can get Charlotte out of first place, but the Twins may surprise the contenders for the runner-up's position.

The Camel City club has proven itself a great defensive team and with a little more punch should win a lot of games now being lost by one-run margins.

Last week the Twins held their opponents to an average of two runs a game. They won four of six contests. The Hornets allowed only 17 runs in seven games and won them all, scoring 50 runs on 79 hits.

High Point's slipping Pointers were scored on 54 times, making the poorest defensive showing for the week. The Pointers won one of seven contests. Greensboro at the low mark for scoring, counting 14 runs during the week and losing five of six games.

One of the week's feats was the comeback of the Raleigh Caps who turned in six victories against one defeat after winning only two of six games during the second half's initial week.

The Twins will get their first try-out of their new found strength this half against the Hornets here this week, coming here for the mid-week series. The Twins were at home today to Asheville while Charlotte was at High Point, Durham at Raleigh and Greensboro at Henderson.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—The N. C. Dairymen's Association will open a two-day convention here Thursday.

GEHRIG HITS FAST STRIDE WITH STICK

Now that Babe Ruth is not hitting homers with quite the abandon of other days Lou Gehrig is showing the customers what he can do along that line.

He was close to the whole show yesterday as the Yanks thumped the St. Louis Browns twice 10 to 9 and 8 to 2. Going to bat seven times during the afternoon, he punched five hits, including his twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth homers of the year and a triple.

His three hits in the first game drove in seven runs and he propelled two more across in the nightcap. His two homers put him five ahead of his closest rivals among the four-bagger specialists, Babe Ruth and Chuck Klein.

Jack Rothrock's single over Averill's head in the twelfth inning scored Warstler with the run that gave the Boston Red Sox a 6 to 5 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The Washington Senators picked up a half game on the idle Athletics by defeating Detroit, 2 to 1, in a pitchers' battle between Lloyd Brown and Art Herrings.

John McGraw was forced to suffer from a distance as his New York Giants took a pair of 2 to 1 beatings from the St. Louis Cardinals and fell back into third place. The Giant leader was handed a three-day suspension for his run in with Umpire Clarke on Saturday.

Brooklyn went back into second place by winning its second straight over the Chicago Cubs, 10 to 6. Led by Lefty O'Doul, who again cracked four hits in five attempts, the Robins fell on four Chicago pitchers for 17 hits and piled up a lead that enabled Hollis Thurston to breeze through.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia divided a doubleheader, the Reds scoring four times in the last of the ninth to take the first, 7 to 6, and the Phillies coming back behind Phil Collins' good pitching to win the second, 7 to 1.

THREE LOAVES FOR A BUSHEL

Ray Shanahan (left), wheat farmer of Saline county, Kansas, effects a trade with Sam Myers, Salina merchant—a bushel of wheat for three loaves of bread. The transaction was made when the price of wheat touched 25 cents a bushel. Shanahan and Myers estimated the bushel of wheat would make about 55 loaves of bread, which is about the amount of bread Shanahan would get for an acre of wheat on the trading basis of three loaves for a bushel.

The kids, the caddies, trailed Burke, not the more aloof Von Elm. Bill had an easy, unconcerned naturally philosophical attitude toward his mistakes or his brilliant shots that won the admiration of the galleries, just as much as did Von Elm's rare fighting spirit.

Iron Play Deadly

Burke smokes cigars between shots. His caddy holds the stogie while Bill plays. The new champion prefers long trousers to knickers, a straw hat to a cap.

Burke's style is not overly imder Cup matches. He was wilder and more aggressive. He makes his shots from off the tees but made up for these a crouching stance that looks awkward but which gets results.

Bill wasn't quite so unflinchingly accurate at Inverness as he was at Scioto before and during the Ryder Cup matches. He was wilder and more aggressive. He makes his shots from off the tees but made up for these a crouching stance that looks awkward but which gets results.

of work around the greens. The open championship was decided by this feature of Burke's play. Von Elm was erratic with his short game. Twice he sank long putts on the home hole to tie, but he made so many mistakes on the greens in his last round that he had no chance to duplicate these come-backs when the 144th and final hole of the open was played.

The title of open champion will mean less financially to Burke than it would mean to Von Elm, a freelance "business man" or to a more colorful figure.
