Republican Control Of House And Senate Will Be Object of Warfare

Disgruntled Republican Independents Plan to Take Scalp Of Senator Moses Next Session; Moses Discloses Strife of Party.

Washington, July 26.—(AP)—Intercine war is threatening Republican control of the next Senate and the House.

Republicans have a slender plurality of one in the Senate and the Democrats are not eager to assume the responsibility of organizing this independent branch entails.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, the president pro tempore, in a frank manner disclosed the Republican conflict that is impending in an article this week in the Saturday Evening Post.

It so happens that Senator Moses is the target of some of the disgruntled Republican Independents, who hold the balance of power in the next Senate and House. They have intimated that the scalp of Senator Moses as president pro tempore is to be removed next session.

Senator Moses is aware of the threat and through the unique medium of a magazine article informed his prospective scalpers this week in this form: "In the Seventy-Second Congress (the next Congress), where the margin in both chambers is inappreciable as between the two parties, it is wholly conceivable that a single vote cast through the pique, resentment or even pure cussedness, may overturn the whole of the existing state of affairs.

"And it so happens that the order in which the successive votes are taken for the organization of the Senate lends itself enticingly to produce such a result."

In other words the Senate votes first upon its president pro tempore and should Senator Moses be eliminated by his Republican colleagues in favor of the Democratic candidate, he simply proposes, through the narrow division between the parties to throw his vote and eject from the chairmanship of certain committees those Republicans who voted to overthrow him.

The Democrats on organization, will vote as a unit for their nominees but they expect the Republicans do likewise. The Republicans, while of varying hues and beliefs, usually vote together on organization for self preservation.

But there have been rumors that Senator Nye of North Dakota, and others would do away with Senator Moses and vote, instead, for the Democratic nominee for president pro tempore—Senator Pittman of Nevada.

So, Mr. Moses, has sent word that there are two sides to such a proposition and that he and some of his friends will retaliate by voting to make Democrats chairman of committees headed by the Insurgents who vote against him.

It was Senator Moses who put into the Senate record the expense account of the campaign funds investigating committee headed by Senator Nye. He also referred to the Republican Independents as the "Sons of the Wild Jackasses."

Neither Senator Moses nor any other Senator made any complaint about the account but the incident rankled Senator Nye, who complained of the propriety of the action.

Solicitor To Probe Death of Philips

Shelby, July 27.—(AP)—The death of Thomas J. Phillips, Lenoir automobile dealer, who was fatally shot while riding with Mrs. Clara Yount 32-year-old widow of Newton, near King's Mountain last Monday, will be investigated by Solicitor L. S. Spurling, who came to Shelby today for the opening of the regular term of court.

Solicitor Spurling announced his intention before leaving his home at Lenoir. He said he would examine all the evidence taken by the coroner's jury, which returned a verdict that Phillips was killed by an unknown person, notwithstanding Mrs. Yount's testimony that he shot himself in her presence.

The Solicitor was expected to question witnesses in the case personally late today and tomorrow. He indicated a plan to go to King's Mountain for that purpose.

To Quit Tariff Post

Henry P. Fletcher will retire September 16 from his post as chairman of the tariff commission.

LAUNCH NEW GERMAN BANK

Hope to Lift Restriction on Commercial Bank Payments by Wednesday.

Berlin, July 27.—(AP)—Hope of early resumption of normal bank payments today lent a bright hue to the new workaday week for Germans who have been laboring under the depression influence of the financial crisis for the last fortnight.

The new acceptance and guarantee bank, through which such resumption is to be attempted, will be officially launched today. It all goes well with the bank the creation of which was announced late Saturday, restrictions on commercial bank payments will be lifted by Wednesday.

Whether savings banks will be included in the relaxation still was uncertain but observers believed it likely they would.

The function of the Acceptance and Guarantee Bank, which is vouched for not only by the eleven biggest German banks but also by the government itself, will be to guarantee commercial paper which the Reichsbank otherwise would not be permitted to accept as the basis for credits to banks.

At the same time the Reichsbank will keep its discount rate high enough to discourage any tendency of banks to draw more currency than is absolutely essential to keep the wheels of industry turning and the nation's banking machinery from coming to a standstill.

Inasmuch as the fortnight of bank payments restrictions has resulted in such chocking of normal currency circulation that even are likely to be embarrassed by the stoppage of normal inflowing payments, the Reichsbank probably will be unable to care for all the legitimate demands through the new bank without dropping the gold coverage for currency still further. It was 36.1 per cent on Saturday.

This was expected to readjust itself when those who have been holding currency see that the normal flow of payments through banks were hoarding unnecessary.

The Reichsbank then, it is expected, will be able to retire part of the inflowing currency from circulation, thereby lifting the gold coverage back to normal.

Flier Writes Note As He Plunges to Death in Illinois

Mendota, Ill., July 27.—(AP)—So the world would know why he plunged to his death, H. J. Hewin 45, an unlicensed airplane pilot of Dubuque, Iowa, scribbled a note of explanation yesterday as his plane fell to earth.

The unfinished note found amid the debris of his tiny parasol plane said:

"Something wrong in rear cylinder. Think broken ring. No compression. Blows by—"

Hewin was still seated in the cockpit of the wrecked plane when he was found.

Dictator of Chile Flees on Gunboat

Carlos Ibanez Resigns and Leaves Country To Escape Wrath of People.

Santiago, Chile, July 27.—(AP)—Carlos Ibanez, president of Chile since 1927, who resigned yesterday after a public uprising had been raging three days, fled the presidential palace today to get away from bitter opponents who were calling for his head.

Gathering together a few belongings and some personal documents, he said good-by to Pedro Opazo, who was chosen acting president to succeed him and left Moneda palace at 1:20 A. M. in the automobile of General Suptulveda, chief of the garrison of Santiago. With him were a few army officers and other friends.

It was reported the car sped to the port of San Antonio, where the destroyer Lynch awaited, and that the retiring president boarded the vessel and left for an undisclosed foreign destination.

However, because many persons have been attempting to kill Ibanez before he had a chance to leave the country, the greatest secrecy surrounded his departure, and it was impossible to determine beyond question that he was safe aboard the launch.

The streets were deserted when the president left Santiago, so the getaway was simple. About the only persons aboard were troops on guard at the palace.

To insure the safety of the retiring president was one of the first problems of the new regime. The feeling of the public was plainly shown at last night's Chamber of Deputies meeting. After the deputies had accepted his resignation and had granted him safe conduct, so great a clamor was raised by the galleries that the vote was reconsidered, his request to leave Chile was rejected and his prosecution was demanded.

Ibanez, self-styled "man of destiny" who once said he enjoyed divine guidance in ruling, was under guard at the presidential palace while this was going on.

After the exciting Chamber of Deputies meeting, Santiago quieted down considerably. The Senate already had approved the resignation and the safe conduct, and no further action was taken legislatively last night.

Today Chile has for the first time in four years a civilian government. The "military dictatorship" of Ibanez was one of the first causes of the wave of unpopularity which swept him out of power.

Will Stage Open House

Merchants Association to Entertain Members and Friends August 4th

The Merchants Association, which recently moved into its new home across the street from the old location, will hold "open house" Tuesday night, August 4th, it was announced this morning by Secretary C. B. Rowlett.

Members and friends of the organization will be invited to attend and an interesting program will be arranged. Punch will be served during the evening.

The visitors will be entertained in the large assembly room in the rear of the association offices. This room has a seating capacity of between two and three hundred, and seats will be provided for the comfort of the visitors.

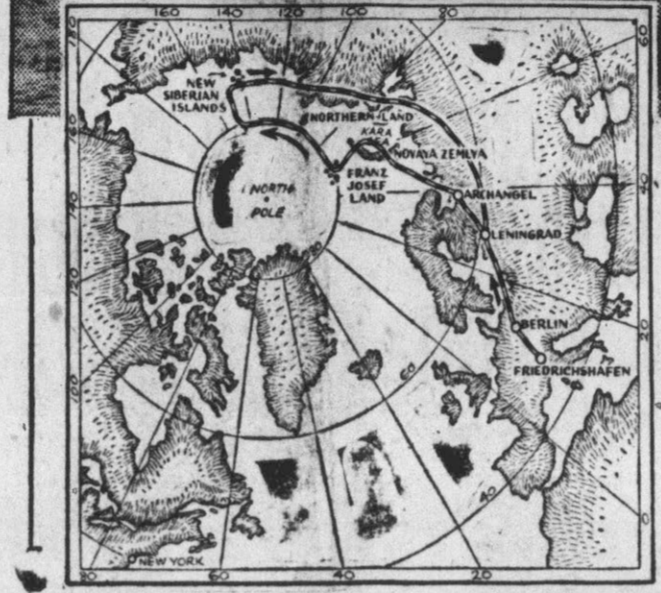

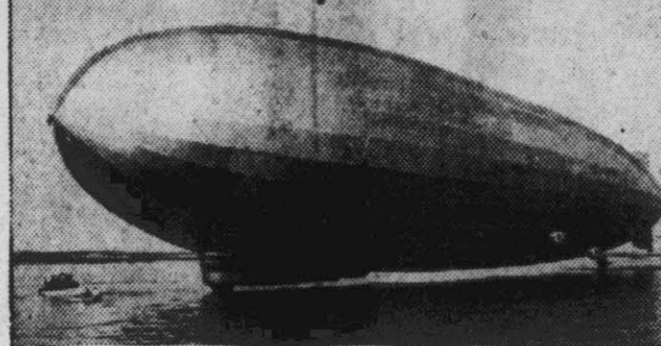

Although the program had not been completely worked out today, Mr. Rowlett stated there would be two or three speeches by community leaders.

This is the first time that "open house" has been staged by the association in years, due largely to cramped accommodations in the past, and officers hope to make it one of the biggest affairs in history.

Defer Investigation Hitch-Hiker Death

Smithfield, July 27.—(AP)—Resumption of a coroner's hearing into the death of an unidentified hitch-hiker, killed by an automobile near here July 19, was postponed today until August 27, because of the inability of Solicitor Clawson Williams of Sanford, to be present.

Graf Over Arctic

Friedrichshafen, Germany, July 27.—(AP)—Last word from the dirigible Graf Zeppelin put her well above the Arctic circle at 68 degrees north latitude, longitude 43 east. A wireless report was received from the ship at the Zeppelin Works here just before midnight.

On the basis of the position reported at the time by the dirigible, she was well on her way to Franz Joseph Land, where Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander, expected to make contact today with the Russian ice-breaker Malgin.

The ship left Leningrad at 11:10 a. m. Sunday, and her schedule called for about six days in the Arctic during which the party of scientists aboard planned to gather data about winds and weathers.

Raps Prison System of This Country Will Abide by Injunction in Bridge Fight

Wickersham Committee Report Points to Inefficiency of Penal Institutions.

Washington, July 27.—(AP)—The Wickersham Law Enforcement Commission today condemned the nation's prison system as antiquated, inefficient, failing to reform the criminal or protect society, and as using brutal disciplinary measures without justification.

Submitting its seventh report to President Hoover, dealing with "Penal Institutions, Probation and Parole," the commission advocated the creation of a new system in which iron bars would play but a small part and education would be uppermost.

Much of the report was a denunciation of prison conditions, characterized as "almost incredible" under which men were imprisoned in overcrowded cells without sufficient light or fresh air or benefit of modern plumbing.

It lashed out also at the system of prison discipline described as "traditional, antiquated, unintelligent and not infrequently cruel and inhuman." Asserting these methods "contribute to the increase of crime by hardening the prisoner," the commission urged they be banned by law.

Among the punishments revealed, many of them visited upon prisoners for slight offenses, were the shackling of men to doors for 12 hours a day, whipping, placing them in straight jackets, lashing them down under streams of cold water confining them in cages so small that movement was impossible, and keeping them in complete darkness for days at a time on a ration of four ounces of bread every 24 hours.

After asserting flatly that the American prison had failed as a "business enterprise," and as an educational institution, since men were released no better than when committed, the commission added:

"The prison has failed as a disciplinary institution, the riots, the fire, the use of cruel and brutal measures of punishment. The persistent recurrence of murder within the prison, the presence of narcotics, the frequent atmosphere of hatred and bitterness, are sufficient evidence.

"It is clear at present that the more punishment in prison the more discontent, the more irritation, the more plotting, the more violation of rules and the greater need for more severe punishment. The whole procedure is in the nature of a vicious circle for which there seems to be no remedy."

Outlining what it considered the ideal, the commission asserted that segregation of the diseased, insane, drug addicted and hardened criminal was one of the first requisites.

Better Prices Hoped For On Eve Of Opening Of Georgia Leaf Mart

Fifty-Six Warehouses To Swing Open in Various Parts of the State Tomorrow Morning; Drought Causes Pronounced Reduction of Crop.

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—(AP)—The first of the several million dollars that the season will bring will begin to flow into the pockets of the Georgia tobacco growers as 1931 auctions open throughout the belt tomorrow.

Growers were optimistic for better prices on improved quality despite a crop curtailed sharply by drought and other factors. Today buyers prepared for the opening of the market and growers were moving quantities of bright leaf to the warehouses.

Fifty-six warehouses in 21 different markets will open tomorrow. As a result of delay of maturity of some of the crop, tobacco men have agreed some warehouses may be kept open longer than the customary four weeks if it be necessary.

Last year Georgia growers sold 106,000,000 pounds of tobacco. The crop estimating service of the United States Department of Agriculture on the basis of the condition July 1, however, forecast a production of approximately 51,000,000 for this year.

Tobacco is already on the floor of the three warehouses at Hahira, where the highest average price was paid last year. An approximate 15 per cent curtailment of acreage in the region led warehousemen at Douglas the oldest and on of the largest markets in the state, to predict a crop 25 to 30 per cent less than 1930. Light sales were expected for the first ten days because of late maturity of the leaf around Douglas.

Douglas has been designated the "key" market for the operations of the Federal-State grading service and its crop reporting service. Daily statistics will be issued.

Mine Strike More Tense

Situation Increases in Seriousness as Union Official Slays Miner.

Pittsburgh, July 27.—(AP)—The miners' strike, paralyzing the bituminous coal industry in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, grew tense today, with the striking by a union official of a man who had threatened his life and the wounding of a woman at strike rally.

Accosted by a man who said he was sent to kill him, Patrick T. Fagan, president of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, grappled with his assailant, wrested a pistol from him and shot him to death.

The shooting occurred on the front lawn of the Fagan residence here. A man who was with Fagan's assailant was captured by police a short time later, when he threatened a taxi driver.

The unidentified body of the slain man was removed to the morgue. His companion, lodged in the county jail on a technical charge, refused to talk, except to say that his name is Edward Snyder, that he is a miner and that his home is in Fleming, Ky.

Fagan was arrested. Mrs. Martha Stanley, attending a West Virginia miners' meeting near the Imperial Colliery Company's plant at Burnwell, W. Va., was wounded by a bullet fired from the fringe of the crowd.

Negro Youth Drowns In Tar River Today

John Glenn, 12, colored, son of Edna Glenn, First street, was drowned while swimming in Tar river at the end of Evans street, this morning. The body was recovered shortly afterward. Coroner E. S. Williams declared the drowning was purely accidental and did not deem an inquest necessary.

The boy, who had been walking out into the river and swimming back to shore, was believed to have waded out too far and was hot able to regain shallow water before drowning.

Found Slain

The body of Henrietta Schmerlen, 25, Columbia university research worker, was found on the White River, Ariz., Apache Indian reservation and authorities believed she had been slain. An Apache youth was held in connection with the case.

Start of Lea Case Delayed

Trial Will Begin This Afternoon Following Presentation of New Bills.

Asheville, July 27.—(AP)—Start of the trial of Col. Luke Lea, Tennessee publisher and politician, indicted with four others on charges of conspiracy to defraud was delayed until 2:30 p. m. today while new bills of indictment were presented to the grand jury.

Solicitor Zeb V. Nettles said the new bills are necessary in order to avoid questions of the legality of the former grand jury which indicted the Tennessee financial, his son, Luke Lea Jr., E. P. Charlet, an official of the Tennessee Publishing Company of Nashville and Wallace E. Davis and J. Charles Bradford, officials of the defunct Central Bank and Trust Company here.

Defense counsel contended the former grand jury had outlived its life of six months.

Solicitor Nettles said the new bills which were presented to the jury today eliminated the name of Bradford, former cashier of the Central bank, who is now under treatment in a Philadelphia hospital. Bradford attempted suicide soon after his indictment.

The opening day of the special term was expected to be consumed by arguments upon a plea in abatement filed by counsel for the Tennessee defendants. In their plea, filed with the clerk of the court, it is contended that the indictment is defective because the grand jury was illegally drawn, and that certain persons were in the grand jury room improperly while the indictment was under consideration.

A similar plea was overruled by Judge Garland E. Midyette, designated to preside in the trial several weeks ago of a number of officers of the bank, which resulted in the conviction of Davis upon a charge of making a false report of the bank's condition. Davis is under sentence of five years imprisonment on that count. His co-defendants were acquitted.

Judge Midyette indicated he would order a jury summoned from another county, a procedure he followed in the previous trials.

The indictment alleges that the bank was defrauded by means of certificates of deposit in large sums issued at Col Lea's request without commensurate value by the issue of cashier's checks, signed but with the amounts left blank, and by various other means.

Push Search For Escaped Convicts

Salisbury, July 27.—(AP)—Officers continued a search today for three white prisoners who escaped late Saturday from the granite quarry prison camp.

Sidney Morrow, who attempted to make his getaway with the trio, was shot in the leg by W. H. Wood, a guard, and recaptured. Morrow's wound was not considered serious. He was taken to Raleigh for treatment.

State Legion in Convention at Morehead

Governor and Two United States Senators Speak at Opening Session Today.

Morehead City, July 27.—(AP)—North Carolina's governor and her two United States Senators headed the list of distinguished speakers at the opening business session of the State American Legion convention here today.

Con C. Johnson, of Mooresville, commander of the North Carolina Department, called the 13th annual gathering to order.

Governor O. Max Gardner, in extending greetings to the 1,500 delegates urged them to forget sectional differences in the state and put up a united front in the war against "general depression."

Senator Josiah W. Bailey, introduced by Senator Cameron Morrison, painted a picture of the United States' internationalism and declared that this nation should take the lead in the limitation of arms as a means of preserving peace.

Prior of these addresses, brief welcomes and responses were extended by high legion and legion auxiliary officials.

J. Stanley Woodland, commander of the Morehead City post, and Mrs. Luther Hamilton, president of the local auxiliary, welcomed the guests.

Responses were made by Mrs. Hugh Perry, first vice-president of the State Auxiliary, and Francis A. Whiteside, vice-commander of the state department.

Other speakers were Mrs. Ross Gilmore, national vice-president of the auxiliary; Mrs. R. S. McGeechy, national committeewoman, Legion Auxiliary; and Mrs. Reverdy J. Miller, president of the state auxiliary.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Frank S. Blue, department chaplain.

An entertainment feature of the morning was a song by Miss Zelma Ross, described as the "official sweetheart of the North Carolina Legion."

At the conclusion of the addresses, the delegates were entertained with a band concert at Camp Ginn. Contests between exhibition units, including drum and bugle corps, flat escorts and drill teams, followed.

North Carolina was urged to forget sectional differences and fight together the "war" against "general depression" just as the allies with "unity of command" won the World War in 1918, by Governor O. Max Gardner.

"This economic depression is a reality," the governor declared. "It is not a state of mind. It is a stubborn fact. The question is, what can we do about it?"

The industrial sections of the state, the agricultural sections and the business sections must pull together to fight the depression, he said.

"We cannot win it by dividing the main army of North Carolina into lesser armies of Western North Carolina, of Piedmont North Carolina, of Eastern North Carolina," the governor added.

"They tell us that the trouble is with the Piedmont, that Piedmont North Carolina became industrialized too fast. They tell us in the East, that Eastern North Carolina products find no market. Gentlemen, the Piedmont cannot win this war and just as certainly Eastern North Carolina cannot bring us out of our economic depression.

"America must recognize her mission to all the earth—to heal the wounds of a broken world," Senator Josiah W. Bailey declared.

"Our country's mission is no longer domestic only," he asserted. "It is no less national than international."

He said America came out of the World War strong while other nations were exhausted, and this country is alone in position to stabilize the nations to "show the way to a new and better order and to establish universal peace."

"American democracy must be preserved, he said, "in order that we may make the world safe for democracy." He added that primaries and elections must be guarded to "truly represent the will of the people."

"Maintaining democracy at home we will also take our proper place as the mightiest of the nations and assume our international responsibility," Senator Bailey continued.

"We are too strong to be afraid of assuming responsibility among the nations; too deeply indebted to the god of history to reject his call to high mission."

Rockingham.—(AP)—Mrs. M. W. Nash of Rockingham, is suing the Seaboard Air Line Railroad in Superior Court here for $119,000 as a result of the death of her daughter, Louis, when struck by a train.

Violation of the 18th Amendment is not so easy since the increase of federal prohibition forces.

Arrests are being made in every part of the country, and the way of the bootleggers and speakeasy operators is more thorny than it has been since the prohibition law became effective.

It is impossible to say what time federal agents will swoop down on a community and this has made it extremely perilous for the illicit dispensers.

The enlarged force of agents has resulted in a general increase of arrests and confiscation of whiskey and this no doubt will show a more distinct increase the next few months as the agents push their operations into new territory.

That wives of Pitt county farmers are interested in the movement looking to the conservation of home products is manifested by the number who have viewed the display of canned products at the Merchants Association the last several days.

Scores of people even from the most remote communities have inspected the exhibits of fruits and vegetables and canning plant and have signified their intention to take part in the movement.

The conservation of surplus food crops is going to prove a big asset in the recovery of this area from the depression which has existed the last two years, and if the movement is extended next year it should not be long before the people should be enjoying better times.

It means they will be able to live comfortably in spite of prices for cash crops, and this fact in itself should inspire the thrifty growers to do what they can to lay aside sufficient food to take care of them until another harvest season rolls around.

The State Bank & Trust Company, which threw open its doors for business last Saturday, was given an auspicious send-off which deposits in excess of $106,000.

The bank will take over the affairs of the old National Bank of Greenville which closed last December.

The new institution is headed by some of the best known bankers and business men of the state, and there is no reason why it should not prove a vital factor in the life of the community.

It is impossible to express appreciation of the efforts of the group of business men whose untiring labor made the opening of the new institution possible. Had it not been for their tenacity, their undimmed faith in the possibilities of the people and the community the effort to organize would have been a failure.

Greenville and Pitt county people are proud of the institution, and that they will rally to its support is not to be doubted in the slightest sense of the word.

The resignation of J. J. Sumner-ell as president of the Greenville Kiwanis Club will be received with profound regret by members of the club and the public generally.

But the fact that he is going to move to Raleigh as a part of the reorganization movement of the concern with which he has been associated the last several years has been learned with still greater regret.

"Jay" as he is familiarly called by his hundreds of friends in this and other sections, has endeared himself to the community and will be greatly missed.

The best wishes of the entire citizenship will go with him to his new field of endeavor.

Pitt county is going to lose ten schools under the reorganization plan of the MacLean school bill, providing for state-wide support of the public school system. The elimination of the schools, however, will not handicap the educational system of the county to any extent and preparations are under way at the present time to merge the schools with consolidated districts.

The county system will also have May 22-24 day-3 mo.

seven teachers less under the new system.

FARM NOTES

(E. F. Arnold, County Agent)

There are a number of projects under way at the live-at-home farm near Bethel of interest to the farmers of Pitt County, and Mr. J. A.
 Boone, superintendent, extends a cordial invitation to any and all farmers of this section to visit the farm and inspect same at their convenience.

On highway No. 11 near Mr.
 Boone's house there is a cotton variety test which should prove of interest to cotton growers. Six varieties are included in this test, namely: Hamco, Cleveland No. 20-3, Coker's Cleveland No. 884-4, Coker's
 Cleveland No. 55, Mexican No. 87,
 Mexican No. 58 and North Carolina Foster. On the road from the highway to the dairy barn there is a variety test of tobacco which includes the following varieties: Cok-er's Gold Dollar Jamaica Wrapper, Bonanza, White Stem Orinoco and Cash. Inasmuch as Coker's Gold Dollar is being put out by Mr.
 Coker, the noted cotton breeder of South Carolina, who is heavily advertising same in this section, it will be well for farmers to observe its growth and development under local conditions before substituting this variety for our better known varieties here. These varieties are pedigreed, and since a large number of our farmers are planting mixed varieties under definite variety names, it might be well to observe the growth and development of pure strains of Jamaica Wrapper, White Stem, Bonanza and Cash.

Under present low prices farmers must use every means at hand to increase the quality and per acre yield of cash crops.

In addition to the two variety tests of cotton and tobacco, the farm has 33 acres of sweet potatoes which will be put on the market during the last half of August.
 They also have some outstanding fields of corn and peanuts.

Mr. Boone, the manager, is always glad to have visitors who are interested in practices used in production of these crops.

 mity, Revolution and White Oak nounced its convention will be held

RAPS PRISON SYSTEM IN THIS COUNTRY

It held fortress-like prisons of the Auburn type were unnecessary save for the worst types.

"The millions of dollars now employed to construct elaborate maximum-security prisons," it said, "could with much better advantage be used in the development and proper financing of adequate systems of probation and parole."

Under the proposed system all prisoners would be paid wages, their treatment would be more humanized, the choosing of prison officials would be removed from politics, and guards would be trained specifically for their task.

It was advocated that "no man should be sent to a penal institution until it is definitely determined that he is not a fit subject for probation."

Extension of the parole system also was urged as the "best means yet devised for releasing prisoners from confinement."

Nevertheless, the commission asserted the present system of parole, in most sections, was little more than "a huge joke." It scored the loose supervision of paroles which in 18 states was carried on by correspondence, making it "easy to beat the game."

Discussing conditions within existing prisons, the report said the overcrowding in federal institutions during 1930 was 65.9 per cent and that in the system as a whole was "probably worse than it ever has been."

It said well over one-third of all the major prisons in the country were between 70 and 100 years old and that 21 per cent of them were without plumbing. Many of the cells now housing two men are so small, the report asserted, that the air would have to be changed every four minutes to prevent objectionable odors.

Shaw Finds Things Changed in Russia

Moscow, July 27—(AP)—When George Bernard Shaw came here to see how Russia was getting along under the Soviet, he thought things were so bad he'd have to live in a tent.

To be prepared he brought a tent along with him. Moreover, he had food, bedding and pillows in his duffle.

Shaw told about it—as a joke on himself—in a speech last night in the concert hall of Colimus, attended by workers, writers, and educators who were helping him to celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday.

"We were told there was no food or other necessities in Russia," said G. B. S. "After we crossed the border we found our equipment unnecessary, and we began throwing it away."

Shaw addressed his hearers as "comrades" and told them that when they had succeeded in their Communist revolution, the other nations would follow fast in their footsteps.

"As an old Socialist," he said he saw on the faces of his audience "a new look which one does not find in the west but which I hope to see there."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, July 27.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady 3 to 6 points higher in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables.

Trading was quiet on the opening call with selling restricted, but increased pressure soon developed from Wall Street and southern sources owing partly to the easier tone of the stock market and prices sold off about 11 to 14 points from the opening levels.

December contracts declined from 9.20 to 9.14, with the general market showing net losses of 7 to 11 points. On the decline some trade price fixing as well as Liverpool buying made its appearance and the undertone at the end of the first half hour was about steady, up 2 to 4 points from the lows.

Liverpool cables reported continental buying and covering with contracts scarce in that market. Cloth and yarn sales at Manchester were described as unimportant.

STOCK MARKET

By CLAUD A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, July 27.—(AP)—The new week in Wall Street began with action still in the dominant note.

The stock market continued to drift listlessly, rails and some of the specialties were rather heavy, but in the main leading industrials held up well. Apparent checking of the flow of gold from London to Paris and expectation of early resumption of more normal banking activity in Germany were reassuring. International bankers were not prepared to place any immediate interpretation upon the change of government in Chile.

The stock market has held in check by the approach of U. S. Steel's quarterly meeting tomorrow afternoon. After an early sag, U. S. Steel common rallied to show a gain of a point. Similar advances were recorded around midday by American Telephone, Public Service of N. J., American and Foreign Power, Allied Chemical, Commercial Solvents, DuPont, Byers and Case, but these gains were not well maintained. American Can was a firm spot, getting up about 2 points. Auburn was a weak feature, breaking in more than 13 points to below 145. In the rails Norfolk and Western lost 6, and Union Pacific half as much.

So far as known here, American properties in Chile have not been particularly affected by the change in government. These properties include some of the world's most valuable copper deposits. American capital is also well represented in the new government sponsored nitrate monopoly. Chile is the only country in the world having workable deposits of natural nitrate of soda. The development of synthetic nitrate production, however, is offering increasing competition for the Chilean product, and the market has been depressed by the breaking up of the European sales cartel.

Wall Street had been somewhat perturbed by the flow of gold from London to Paris, and witnessed the strengthening of sterling exchange today with considerable satisfaction. Sterling exchange on both New York and Paris attained levels at which old shipments would be unprofitable, but the margin of safety was not wide.

Interest in the controversy over maintenance of wage scales was revived by news that Secretary of Commerce Lamont had written a Rhode Island member of Congress that the lengthening of the depression had imposed difficulties for corporations not well protected by reserves.

France Retains Tennis Supremacy

Auteuil, France, July 27.—(AP)—For at least another year, France will hold the Davis Cup emblematic of international team tennis supremacy.

Led by little Henri Cochet, the French beat back a determined charge of Great Britain's youthful team in the challenge round yesterday by the narrow margin of three matches to two.

Only Cochet's magnificent play saved the day for France. His singles partner, Jean Borotra, the aging Basque, went down to double defeat leaving Cochet to carry virtually the whole French burden.

And the one-time ball boy of Lyons responded by whipping Tin in his first singles match Friday, dominating play as he and his partner Jacques Brugnon, won the doubles from George Patrick Hughes and Charles H. Kingsley on Saturday, and clinching the series in the final singles match against Frederick J. Perry, big British youngsters, yesterday.

Although retaining the cup for the fifth successive year, France conclusively revealed that new blood must be found if the tri-color is to continue its hold for much longer. Great Britain and the United States both boast young teams that should improve steadily while France must find someone to replace Borotra in singles. Rene Lacoste may come back to hold the fort with Cochet but that seems doubtful.

CUBS CLIMB HIGHER IN MAJOR RACE

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The phrase "he threw the game away" is heard often enough in baseball but it took Big Jim Elliott of the Phillies to show a few thousand Chicago fans the fullest meaning of the words.

Elliott, ace of the Phillie mound staff, came into yesterday's game with the Cubs in the ninth inning. The score was tied at 1-1 after a brilliant duel between Pat Malone and Clise Dudley but Charlie Grimm had just threatened to break up the battle by hitting a triple. "Jumbo Jim" faced only one batter and promptly cut loose with a wild pitch that allowed Teachout, running for Grimm, to scamper home with the run that brought Chicago a 2 to 1 victory.

The triumph put the Cubs into second place in the National League standing, a half game ahead of the idle New York Giants and left the Phils only three games ahead of the last place Cincinnati club. The Reds divided a double header with the Brooklyn Robins, playing a smart brand of baseball to capture the opening duel between Larry Benton and Hollis Thurston 4 to 0 although outly 10-7 but succumbing to Dazzy Vance by a 5 to 0 count in the second. Vance allowed only three hits, fanned seven and drove in two runs himself.

More expert pitching helped the Boston Braves reduce the St. Louis Cardinals lead to eight games. Fred Frankhouse and Sylvester Johnson battled ten scoreless innings of the first class before they both weakened and Boston went out in the eleventh, 3 to 2. Paul Derringer had the better of the argument with Bruce Cunningham in the second class, winning his 12th game of the year 5 to 4.

The Philadelphia Athletics, who had won 13 straight games at home, jumped to Cleveland for a Sunday game and saw their streak shattered by a 13 to 2 beating. The Indians hopped all over Waite Hoyte, who lost his first game for Philadelphia while Mel Harder held the Winston-Salem team out in the fourth, 3 to 2. Paul Derringer had the better of the argument with Bruce Cunningham in the second class, winning his 12th game of the year 5 to 4.

CLOSE RIVALS WILL CLASH IN PIEDMONT

Charlotte, July 27.—(AP)—Close rivals battled each other in the Piedmont league this week, presenting the possibility that the outcome of the week's play may juggle the league standings somewhat.

Durham's Bulls, three and one-half games behind Henderson, face the Gamecocks today and will attempt the cut down of the margin holding them in seventh place.

Asheville's Tourists, just a few percentage points behind Winston-Salem, met the Twins Wednesday and Thursday and by trimming them a couple of times could take fourth place.

When they finish the series with the Twins, the Tourists will move to Henderson, just now in sixth place and two games back of Asheville.

A week of good campaigning, if Asheville and Winston-Salem get no better than an even break, would put the Gamecocks two notches higher in the standings.

The week-end also brings a clash of the league-leading Hornets and Raleigh's second-place Caps.

Too far back to do much damage, the Caps still can hope to whitelash a game or two off the Hornets' lead.

Other games of the series opening today show Asheville at High Point, Charlotte at Winston-Salem and Greensboro at Raleigh.

For the mid-week High Point comes to Charlotte. Henderson will be at Greensboro, Winston-Salem at Asheville and Raleigh at Durham.

In the other week-end contests, High Point goes to Greensboro and Winston-Salem at Durham.

Chief honors in last week's play went to Charlotte and Greensboro. The Pats and Hornets each won four games and lost two.

Winston-Salem turned in the poorest record, winning only two of six games.

SMITH WINS $10,000 OPEN

By PAUL MICHELSON
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—(AP)—Horton Smith's long, weary golfing depression is over.

After almost a year and a half of futile campaigning, the erstwhile "Joplin Ghost" finally overtook his notorious jinx yesterday by winning the $10,000 St. Paul open championship on the tide of a record, par-shattering score of 278 strokes for the 72 hole jaunt for gold and fame over the Keller Club layout.

The brilliant score which he carded with rounds of 69-69-67-72, carried him ahead of a brilliant field of par smashes and gave him the first prize of $2,500 by three shots over the defending champion and runner-up "Lighthouse Harry" Cooper of Chicago.

There wasn't a happier fellow in the world of golf today than Smith. As soon as he pocketed his big money prize, he grinned broadly and remarked:

"Well, I guess I finally routed my jinx, I doubt if any one ever felt like I did during this depression."

It was Smith's first golfing conquest since the Orlando, Fla., open in the winter of 1930. When he captured that one, he was the "wonder boy" of professional golf, having galloped away with 13 championships during his winter campaign to jump from the ranks of the "also ran" golfers to the biggest money winner of American golf. But the jinx caught him there and held him in its clutches until he capped his stirring comeback yesterday.

His 67, five shots under par, on his third round yesterday pulled him out of his famine. Before he turned that sizzler in, he was tied for second place and two shots from the lead. When he posted it in the face of a dangerous wind that swept the course, he hurried into a six stroke lead and was never threatened.

Smith's total clipped par for the 72 hole journey by 10 shots, the best performance yet turned in with that balloon ball, which some golfers once said couldn't be ridden under par figures.

Sisters Join Probe Into Pittsburgh Fire

Pittsburgh, July 27.—(AP)—Little sisters of the poor, still stunned by the fire which destroyed their home, and took the lives of two scores of their aged charges; weary from long hours spent in searching for the missing and re-assembling those who survived, joined today in the inquiry into the disastrous blaze.

The death toll had reached 40 today, there still were more than 100 injured in hospitals. Ten unidentified dead lay in the morgue, and their identification, officials believed, probably would erase the list of 10 reported missing.

Many of those in hospitals will die, physicians said as they battled to prevent pneumonia and to stave off death from shock.

Meanwhile, many of the aged and
