FIFTY POLICE IN DISGUISE IN HARLEM

Detectives, Posing As Workmen, Try to Solve Killing in New York

New York, July 30.—(AP)—Fifty policemen of Italian extraction, disguised as workmen or men-about-town, strolled the streets of Harlem's "Little Italy" today, their ears open for a club to the child slaying on Tuesday.

The police department urged on by an aroused citizenry and newspaper rewards totalling $15,000, sent every available man to ferret out each minute clue that might lead to the gunman who took the life of one child and sent four others to the hospital in trying to shoot down their intended victim, a still unidentified man.

Detectives were hampered by the reticence of a grief-stricken Sicilian community, yet they doggedly kept on, bringing in suspects and checking the motor vehicle bureau files for owners of green touring cars. It was such an automobile that drew up to the curbing at East 107th street and sprayed the front of the Helmar Club a pool room, full of gun slugs.

Whether a beer feud or a policy gaming racket was responsible for the shooting could not be ascertained. Commissioner Mulrooney and Assistant Chief Inspector Sullivan, commanding the detective division said today when they took personal charge of the hunt.

Harry Bruno, described by Commissioner Mulrooney as an "honest truckman" was brought in for questioning last night when an anonymous tipster furnished police with the number of the gun car. The commissioner absolved Bruno.

Other suspects were brought in and out of the various precinct houses, but as the morning went on police admitted they had not located the "right party."

Commissioner Mulrooney took the occasion to urge the enactment of federal laws against the sale of firearms.

Graf Zeppelin Returning Home

Berlin, July 30.—(AP)—The Graf Zeppelin, home from her Arctic cruise which started last Friday, circled over Tempelhof at 6:20 p. m. today (12:20 p. m. EST).

She had circled over the field 18 minutes earlier, swung about for a turn over Berlin, then ew into the air above a sea of waving handkerchiefs.

A crowd of thousands cheered wildly as she nosed upward. The landing crew tugged at the lines and slowly the great ship was hauled down to the ground as a band burst into the national anthem.

The 46 men aboard, among them a number of scientists, including two Americans, prepared to debark immediately. They had not set foot on land since the Graf stopped at Leningrad on the way into the north.

Danzig, Free State of Danzig, July 30.—(AP)—Circling the city at low altitude, the Graf Zeppelin flew over here on the way back to Berlin from her Arctic cruise at 2:15 P. M. today.

Berlin, July 30.—(AP)—News was received here today that the Graf Zeppelin, homeward bound from her Arctic cruise, had passed Riga, Latvia, and preparations were made to welcome her to Berlin this evening.

It was expected the dirigible would be anchored tonight at Stanken airfield, in a suburb on the western edge of the city, to be refueled for the journey to Friedrichshafen tomorrow.

Before going to Stanken the Graf was expected to land at Tempelhof airfield in Berlin for the benefit of the public.

The Graf was reported nine hours earlier over Archangel. It was believed Dr. Hugo Eckener, commanding officer aboard, had cut short his Arctic trip because of heavy fogs, which made flying dangerous.

BATTLESHIP PENNSYLVANIA RETURNING TO PACIFIC FLEET

Philadelphia, July 30.—(AP)—Gaily bedecked with flags and her band playing "Annie Laurie," the battleship Pennsylvania, reconducted at a cost of over $8,000,000, left Philadelphia navy yard today for a cruise which will end on the Pacific coast where it will become the flagship of the fleet.

The Pennsylvania commanded by John M. Enochs, will reach Hampton Roads tomorrow, the first stop on its voyage to the coast.

LINDBERGH'S ARE READY TO TAKE OFF ON FLIGHT

Colonel and Mr. Lindbergh To Begin Hop to the Orient to Spend Vacation

North Haven, Maine, July 30.—(AP)—After a night's visit with their 13-month-old son, Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh were ready for a 370-mile flight to Ottawa, next scheduled stop on their vacation trip to the orient.

North Haven Me., July 30.—(AP)—After a night spent with their infant son, Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh today were ready to take off on the next hop of their vacation trip to the orient with Ottawa the first scheduled stop.

A final check of the radio equipment and fueling of the fast monoplane which rested in a stretch of water between the Island of North Haven and Vinal Haven, was all that remained to be done. The couple hoped to get away by noon today.

The Lindberghs landed in mid-afternoon yesterday after a flight of two hours, 30 minutes from North Beach, N. Y., where they had been halted by radio trouble.

They were met by U. S. Senator and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, parents of Mrs. Lindbergh, who cruised out to the plane in the Moutet, honeymoon yacht of the flying colonel. After an hour spent in working on the radio the party came ashore and motor'd to the Morrow summer home on the other side of the island. Employees of the estate kept watch over the plane throughout the night.

Lindbergh set the plane down on the Vinal Haven side of the water thoroughfare rather than in a cove bordering the Morrow estate, to permit a longer spring on the takeoff with a heavy load of gasoline.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. WHICHARD IS HELD TODAY

Beloved Woman Died Last Night Following Illness of Several Weeks

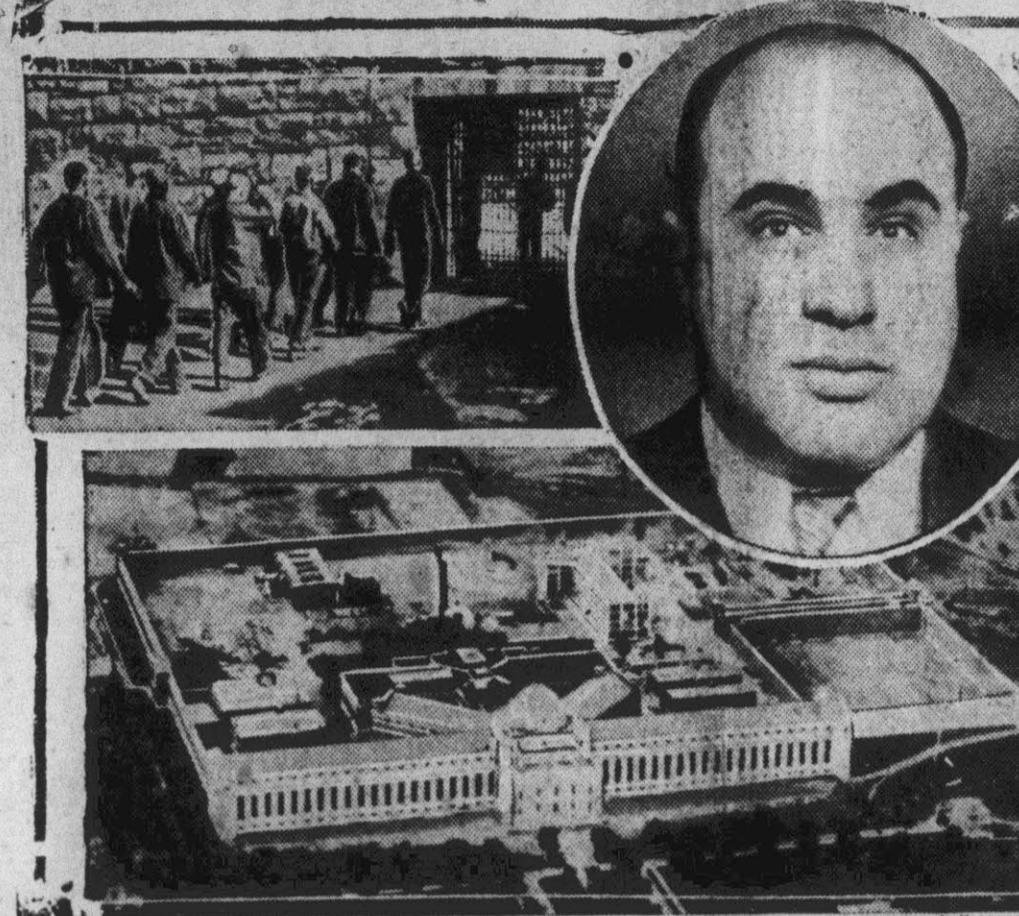

Mrs. Mary Amanda Whichard, 85 widow of the late Willis R. Whichard, died at 9:30 o'clock last night at the home of her daughter-in-law Mrs. Ernest B. Whichard, near Stokes. Funeral services were conducted at three o'clock this afternoon by Elder S. B. Denny, of Wilson, followed by interment at the family burying ground near the home place at Whichards.

Born in this county December 15, 1845 she was the daughter of the late Harry and Mrs. Lucinda Rogers Gurganus, and in 1866 she was married to Willis R. Whichard. For more than fifty years she has been a member of Briary Swamp Primitive Baptist church and at the time of her death was probably its oldest and most beloved member. She was a devout christian, a devoted mother and a true friend and enjoyed hundreds of friends throughout the county and section, being affectionately called "Cousin Mandy" by most of those closest to her.

Unusually active for one of her age, she has for the past several years divided her time between her children in this county and in Norfolk and has frequently visited relatives in this city making many friends wherever she went. Despite the loss of three of her children in the past few years she never wavered in her christian faith and never complained of her loss excepting it as the work of the Supreme Being in whom she had utmost faith. Even as the shadows of death crept close about her there was never a murmur of complaint and as she greeted those friends who called a few hours before the end, that same bright and lovable disposition shone through the thickening shadows. The end was peaceful and marked the passing of an addition to three sons, W. R. and H. W. Whichard, of Norfolk and L. R. Whichard, of whichard she is survived by eighteen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a large number of other relatives.

Funeral services for the funeral were held at 3 o'clock at the residence of J. P. Daventon, J. H. Roberson, J. W. Martin, R. O. Congleton, B. D. Moore and C. L. James.

R. T. Fountain Will Be Candidate for Governor

Lieutenant-Governor Makes Formal Statement at Charlotte; At Least Three Others Are Expected to Make Definite Announcements

Charlotte, July 30.—(AP)—The opening shot in what may be a stubborn battle for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1932 had been fired today with the announcement by Richard T. Fountain of Rocky Mount, lieutenant governor, that he would be a candidate.

Mr. Fountain here to address a luncheon club, said: "Yes, you may say definitely that I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of North Carolina. I have not made formal announcement before. I thought my friends have considered me a candidate for some time. I am now definitely in the race."

This brief announcement gave political leaders something definitely to work on, and intensified conjecture as to who Mr. Fountain's opponent or opponents would be. Prominent among those mentioned are Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt, J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Elizabeth City, and Josephus Daniels of Raleigh.

All these men are well known in party circles, and if any of them should definitely enter the race, a hard fought contest for the nomination could be counted upon.

Several others have been suggested and out of a steadily increasing field of possible candidates are almost certain to arise several formidable contenders.

Make Attempt To Assassinate the Chinese President Suffocated At Bottom of Well

Shanghai, July 30.—(AP)— Dispatches today revealed an unsuccessful attempt by assassins to kill President Chiang Kai-Shek at Nanchang, a few days ago.

Chiang, directing a campaign against Communists, was driving past a wooded park when several shots were fired at him. The bullets went wild.

A man who had been seen loitering about Chiang's headquarters previous to the attack and two companions, were arrested. Officials said the three confessed they were sent from Canton to kill Chiang. Canton is in rebellion against Chiang's regime.

Plans To Take Care Of German Situation Are Taking Definite Form

Chancellor Bruening Expected to Make Plan Public By the End of the Week

Berlin, July 30.—(AP)—By the end of this week Chancellor Bruening is expected to make public the comprehensive plan of action which the cabinet has been working out in almost uninterrupted sessions for the nation's offensive against its economic difficulties.

By that time it is expected, the financial experts of several nations will have completed their task of surveying Germany's needs and lining up creditors to leave credits undisturbed in Germany.

The Swiss, the French and the Dutch are still holding out for guarantees which German industry is not ready to agree to impeding it expected tomorrow or mediately, but a settlement on this perhaps tonight.

Then the way will be open for resumption of normal commercial bank payments on Monday. Month end payroll demands meanwhile will be met with the aid of restrictions now prevailing on bank payments under which withdrawal of any amount are permitted if they are for certified payroll or similar purposes.

Among the far-reaching plans which the government is considering, the immediate effect after the next few days have been made, is an effort to sidetrack politics and deal directly with the great mass of the people through two state commissioners representing labor and capital.

Erismann Schmit, it is expected, will be the representative of capital and industry. He is the managing director of the trust.

The interests of the working class would be represented by Karl Bachem, who has high standing both in the labor union and the business spheres because of his successful management of the Arbitrator Bank, a workers' institution.

London, July 30.—(AP)—An official statement made public today said that David Lloyd George had passed a restful night and his strength is well maintained. His condition so far continues to be satisfactory.

Since the days when the nation watched anxiously for news from the bedside of King George, no sickroom has been the focus of so much interest and sympathy as Lloyd George's.

Every newspaper today featured detailed stories setting forth the circumstances of the operation, and the former prime minister's house in Addison Road, West London, was bombarded with inquiries and messages of sympathy.

These came not only from close personal friends but also from public men and women having political and other ties with the Liberal party chief. Among those who sent messages were the king and queen, Prime Minister MacDonald and Stanley Baldwin, leader of the Conservative party.

Neither the family nor the physicians have announced the exact nature of the operation which however is known to have been severe enough to test the powers of resistance of a much younger man.

Nothing in available reports suggested that Lloyd George was in greater danger than could be expected considering his age, and it was emphasized that he is a man of vigorous constitution.

Last night the attending physicians were reported quite satisfied with the condition of the patient, considering severity of the operation.

Georgia Tobacco Prices Still Low

Lower grades since the market opened have constituted the bulk of offerings on the warehouse floors and late maturity of much of Georgia's curtailed crop has contributed to quietness of the market. Where better grades were offered yesterday, however, demand was reported active although sales as a whole were not brisk.

PREPARE FOR LEA TRIAL

Special Venire of 125 Men Being Rounded Up for Trial of Four Men At Asheville

Asheville, July 30.—(AP)—The authorities of Haywood county, lying in the mountainous district west of here, were busy today rounding up a special venire of 125 men for the trial of Col. Luke Lea and three other business men and financiers.

Colonel Lea, Luke Lea, Jr., and E. P. Chariet, all officials of the Tennessee Publishing Company of Nashville and Wallace B. Davis, president of the defunct Central Bank and Trust Company here, are charged with conspiracy to defraud the bank of $1,300,000.

After disposing of numerous preliminary motions, Judge M. V. Barnhill in Buncombe Superior court yesterday ordered the special venire from the nearby county. He specified the prospective jurors' report in court tomorrow when selection of a jury is scheduled to start.

Before taking this action, Judge Barnhill denied defense motions for a change of venue, for quashing of the indictments and for continuance.

Near the end of a hectic day of argument, punctuated by fiery verbal clashes between opposing counsel, the prosecution announced it would seek conviction on only two charges—conspiracy and misapplication. The two bills of indictment were consolidated to make possible the trying of both at the same time.

NATION LOOKS TO RELIEF OF UNEMPLOYED

Concerted Move By the Government and Labor Organizations Started

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—The prolonged unemployment situation today drew the close attention of the government, labor and relief organizations as prospects for jobs for the army of idle workmen in the coming winter appeared more remote.

President Hoover has instituted a new study of the problem. It is designed to bring together the various activities of the numerous agencies dealing with the problem.

Chairman Payne of the Red Cross conferred with the Chief Executive at the White House yesterday on the situation. Later, he said he believed his visit was the beginning of a movement among relief organizations to co-ordinate their efforts.

While this conference was going on a statement by President Green of the American Federation of Labor predicting a worse unemployment situation next winter than last was issued. A survey of 184 cities by the National Association of Community Chests showed, he said, that relief needs probably would be twice as great.

Green predicted that 7,000,000 workmen would be without work next winter if the usual seasonal unemployment comes after the fall pickup. He estimated that 5,200,000 workers were idle in July, this figure being based on Federation statistics.

Shorter work hours were advanced by Green as the "only permanent solution to the unemployment problem." Modern machines, he said, made it possible for a work man to do as much in 34 hours as was accomplished in 52 hours in 1919.

Secretary of Labor Doak also said that a shorter work week was needed to prevent unemployment.

Airmen Reach Turkey Today After Flight of More Than 5,000 Miles; Pangborn and Herndon Reach Berlin; Continuing World Flight

(By Associated Press) The second plane from New York in two days landed in Europe today, bringing the total of planes which have flown the North Atlantic from America to Europe, 14.

Russell Boardman and John Polando landed at Istanbul Turkey, non-stop from New York, bringing the world record for distance flying back to America.

Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, who left New York 18 minutes after Boardman and Polando and flew non-stop to Wales, where they landed yesterday, continued their race, around the world in an effort to establish a new speed record.

With these two planes safely Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Lucinda Lindbergh and his wife prepared to hop off from Maine on their 7,000 mile vacation flight westward to Japan.

The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin passed over the Oder river today on its return from the Arctic. Amy Johnson, British aviatrix, was also in Russia, landing at Sverdlovsk on her way from London to Tokyo.

(By PRISCILLA RING) Istanbul, Turkey, July 30.—(AP)—Claiming a new world's non-stop distance record, Russell Boardman and John Polando, brought their trans-Atlantic monoplane "Cape Cod" down at the airport here at 7:20 p. m. (6:20 a. m. EST) today.

In the 49 hours and 20 minutes since they took off from Floyd Bennett Field, New York, on Tuesday morning they had been sighted only once, and that was over Newfoundland just before they headed across the Atlantic.

Grimming broadly and shaking their own hands above their heads, they climbed out of their sturdy plane while a great crowd, among them most of the members of the American colony cheered.

Ambassador Joseph C. Grew gave them a hand out of the cockpit and introduced them to the governor of Istanbul. A squad of Turkish police presented arms during the brief ceremony.

"We are very happy at having accomplished our purpose of beating the world's non-stop record," Boardman told the Associated Press correspondent. "It was a fine trip."

"The hardest part of the trip was last night, flung over the Alps," he said.

"The Atlantic passage was fine, with no bad winds or storms, but it was very foggy. We saw the water only once, near Newfoundland. After that the fog was so heavy we never caught a glimpse of the ocean."

Both men were in fine spirits and in good physician condition. They seemed to be momentarily stunned when the drone of the motors to which they had listened for so long stopped, but they recovered quickly.

Their steady voices gave little indication of air deafness as they talked to officials from the American embassy and representatives of the Turkish government for half an hour before going by automobile to a hotel at Istanbul fifteen miles from the airport.

The Boardman-Polando plane was the 14th to cross the North Atlantic from west to east. The 13th crossing was made yesterday when Pangborn and Herndon landed in Wales on their way around the world in a race against the recent record of Wiley Post and Harold Gatty.

The Cape Cod's success brings the number of successful crossings of the north Atlantic from America to Europe to five for this year, the greatest number for a single year since the Atlantic was first flown. First to cross this year were Post and Gatty, shortly followed by Otto Hillig and Holger Holris. Then came Alexander Magyar and George Endres and now Pangborn and Herndon and Boardman and Polando.

Every attempt this year in which a plane actually started across the North Atlantic was successful, although Ruth Nichols crashed on her way to the hop-off point at Newfoundland and had to abandon her attempt temporarily.

Sports Program, and Chinese Drama At Westbrook's

Wednesday afternoon, five o'clock, found the largest crowd at Westbrook's that has visited the swimming pool this season. The life-saving demonstration, swimming tests, and Chinese drama presented by the Hi-Y girls were the drawing attractions at this hour. This occasion only proved in a more explicit way the value of the Westbrook swimming pool to the children of Greenville. All this summer, the Westbrook swimming pool, located on the Westbrook estate just northeast of the city, has been operated under the direction of Albert B. Osborne. On Wednesday afternoon the gates were thrown open to the public and demonstrations of the work done by the swimming class and life-saving class were viewed by hundreds of spectators.

Those receiving certificates and medals in National Test for Life Savers were: Seniors—Henry L. Rivers Jr., Paul Fitzgerald Jr., and Rex Hodges; Juniors—Cary Warren Jr., Tom Rivers, Misses Helen McGinnis and Mary Rachel Teel. In the demonstrations, Cary Warren dressed in the water; Tom Rivers and Rex Hodges demonstrated rescue work with Rex representing the drowning man and Tom the rescuer; Miss Mary Rachel Teel represented the drowning girl and Miss Helen McGinnis the rescuer. Fifty certificates were awarded in the beginners' swimming class for swimming the length of the pool. A number in this class swam the length of the pool during the demonstration.

At the close of the demonstrations in the pool, the Hi-Y girls under the direction of Miss Lil

Wilson, presented an interesting Chinese Missionary Drama. The girls were dressed in native costumes and the drama was well staged and acted.

Much interest has been taken the past few weeks in the early morning swimming class. Junior Rivers is the instructor, and Albert B. Osborne, examiner. All good swimmers and spectators are barred from the pool during this hour. A number of mothers with young daughters have availed themselves of this opportunity to learn to swim.

The pool will be emptied again tonight and the water will be clear and shallow for the little tots tomorrow morning.

Five Persons Drown As Boat Capsizes at Cookeville, Tenn.

Cookeville, Tenn., July 30.—(AP)—Five of eight persons in a motorboat were drowned as it sank at Burgess Falls last night. A rescue party raised the craft and recovered four of the bodies early today.

The five were Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Whitson of Cookeville; Whitson's sister, Mrs. W. P. Barnett of Nashville, Tenn., and her two young sons, James and Robert Barnett. Two other sisters of Whitson, Lucy, 18, and Pearl, 17, swam to safety towing with them Beecher Cass, 45. They notified authorities here.

Authorities said the survivors told them they did not know what caused the boat to sink. Cass they said, owed his life principally to the efforts of Lucy Whitson. Whitson, they said, started to swim to the shore turned back as if to attempt to aid others in the boat, and then sank from sight.

The bodies of Mrs. Whitson, Mrs. Barnett, and the two Barnett children, the rescue party said, were recovered with the boat. The lake was being dragged for the body of Whitson.

RIGHT vs. WRONG

The results of the assault on Chicago's public enemies is told in the following story, the second of a series on operations against crime in this country.

By Roderick M. Grant

Chicago, July 30.—(AP)—The man who made bootlegging an industry came to town today.

The government, preparing to send Alphonse Capone to prison, had achieved another great victory in its relentless war upon the criminal gangs grown rich by flouting prohibition.

But Capone, "magnate" of the alcohol trade, millionaire controller of gambling houses, vice, racketeering, narcotics, peddling slot machines—Capone was the first to plead guilty to the double charge of conspiracy to violate the prohibition act and evasion of income.

The determined government campaign against "public enemies" had its inception in the public exposure with organized crime, which crystallized in the formation of the "Secret Six" crime committee of the Association of Commerce.

Business leaders solicited the alliance of the government to eliminate the gangster. Already the tools were in the fire, for intelligence operatives under A. P. Madden, head of the Chicago unit working for the Internal Revenue Bureau, had begun in 1927 an investigation of the wealth of Ralph Capone, brother of Al. An offer of $1,000 settlement from the notorious gangster on a plea of poverty seemed preposterous, and the investigators went to work to prove Capone a millionaire.

Madden directed the undercover inquiry and George E. Q. Johnson, U. S. district attorney for northern Illinois, plotted the series of successful prosecutions through the Federal courts.

Other notorious gang leaders face prison terms for dodging tax payments on their ill-gained wealth. Ralph Capone's conviction, his 3 year penitentiary term and $10,000 fine for offering a fraudulent compromise on his income taxes has been upheld by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The government claims more than $300,000 taxes from him.

Frank Nitti, "treasurer" of the Capone syndicate, and Sam Guzik pleaded guilty to dodging payment of $277,940 and $30,000 taxes, respectively. They are in Leavenworth prison Nitti for 18 months plus a $10,000 fine; Guzik for a year and a day plus a $2,500 fine.

Jack Guzik, business manager for the Capones, was given the top sentence of five years and a $17,500 fine on conviction of evading $229,819 taxes on a three year income totalling $1,035,202.

He has appealed. His brother-in-law, Louis Lipschuk, is under indictment. Dennis J. Cooney, a South Side hotel keeper and Capone aide, has been ordered to turn his books over to the government for auditing.

Others out side the underworld gangs—politicians, allegedly grafting contractors, gamblers, have been indicted, investigated prosecuted.

The titles were formally conferred last night at the farmers and farm women's annual convention here. Those honored were:

Mrs. E. L. Peele, Pikeville; Mrs. L. M. Barnes, Henderson; Mrs. Annie O. Hay, Maysville; Mrs. J. F. McKnight, China Grove, and Mrs. J. J. Forbes, Shawboro.

Mrs. Forbes, because of the death of a son, was unable to attend the convention. Her daughter, Miss Marjorie Forbes, received the award for her.

The farmers and their wives yesterday heard addresses by Wheeler McMillan, associate editor of the Country Home; H. H. Bennett, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture; W. E. Darr, director in charge of the North Carolina Crop Improvement Association and others.

Senator Cameron Morrison was scheduled to address the convention today.

R. Wheeler in his speech yesterday took issue with a statement made earlier in the convention by Senator J. W. Bailey that the plight of the farmer is bordering on hopelessness.

HEAT WAVE HAS BROKEN

Practically the Entire Country Is Enjoying Temporary Relief From Hot Wave

The entire country, save for two sweltering sections, enjoyed at least temporary relief from soaring temperatures today.

One of those areas, comprised of Indiana, Western Ohio and North Kentucky, continued to swelter under the intense heat. The other, a larger one, was made up of Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas. Not only were inhabitants suffering in these sections but the corn crops were firing, and an alarming danger of drought was reported.

While the east and northeast enjoyed a temporary break in the high temperatures, there were predictions that the high humidity would remain and that the equally torturing heat would return for another stand.

In Washington, D. C., a number of the census bureau employees were treated for heat sickness. Deaths attributable to the heat in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Maryland, New York, and surrounding states were set at twenty.

Storms which did unusual violence in many sections sent the mercury tumbling in many sections during the past twenty-four hours. A severe rain and hurricane through central Vermont knocked power lines out and cluttered the highways with wreckage. Violent winds prevailed in New York, Maine, and many other sections of New England.

In Bridgeton, Me., the wind destroyed all the sleeping tents at three summer camps.

General storms also brought down the temperatures in Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Utah and other sections.

The southwestern district suffered the most severely. Temperatures in Kansas City were 101, Stockton, Kas., 107, Emporia, Kansas 108; Lincoln, Neb. 103; Omaha 100, St. Louis 98.

While the southern states continued to have seasonable weather, the Rocky Mountain Region and cooler temperatures, as did the Pacific Coast.

Grasshoppers which laid waste to whole sections in the Dakotas, Nebraska and Iowa, were reported in northern Michigan, and the dreaded army worm appeared in sections of Minnesota.

Henry Ford Observes His 68th Birthday At His Home Today

Detroit, July 30.—(AP)—Time, like fortune, has been kind to Henry Ford.

So said his friends today as the motor magnate observed his 68th birthday. Ford did not "celebrate" his birthday. For it was "just another day" to him. Apparently in the best of health and spirits, he spent most of the day in the garden of his estate, "Fairlane," at Dearborn, or in the engineering laboratory of his plant "just across the road."

Messages of greetings came to Mr. Ford from various parts of the world. They came from Thomas A. Edison the inventor; from Harvey S. Firestone, tire manufacturer, and from scores of others. Edison and Firestone are Ford's closest friends.

The friends who said that time had been kind to Henry Ford found plenty of substantiation in the automobile maker's appearance. True, his face is heavily lined but it always seems to have been so. The slender, wiry figure, straight carriage, alert footstep and energetic movement, and the twinkle that seemingly never leaves his eyes, told of excellent health and spirits.

Ford who was past 40 before he pulled himself out of obscurity as a mechanical engineer to become a figure of world prominence and financial success, does not worry about anything. An annual income that runs into many millions may account for that characteristic in some degree, but Ford himself probably does not know the extent of his actual wealth.

"I am not interested in money but in the things of which money is merely a symbol," he philosophized.

At the moment much of the intense interest Ford devotes to every thing he undertakes is being directed toward the development of a huge experimental farming project which he believes ultimately will result in the coordination of farming and industry.

Ford was born on a farm not far distant from "Fairlane."

CAPONE SAYS HE'S THROUGH

Gang Leader Makes Statement Before Entering Federal Court for Sentence

Chicago, July 30.—(AP)—Alphonse Capone was quoted by the Chicago Herald and Examiner today as saying he is "through" with the rackets forever.

On the eve of his appearance today in Federal court for his sentence on his plea of guilty to income tax evasion and conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, the chief of gang chiefs, said he would return to Chicago when he completed his term at Leavenworth prison, and enter some legitimate business.

Capone gave credit to the "Secret Six," the crime fighting organization of the Association of Commerce, for his downfall.

"The Secret Six," he said, "has licked the rackets. They've licked me. They've made it so there's no money in the game any more. Most of the fellows who've been working with me realize this as well as I do. That's why I think they'll do the same as I'm going to do when I come back from Leavenworth—go into honest business."

Johnny Torrio has been mentioned in the speculation as to the successor to Capone, and when asked about this he laughed.

"Torrio feels like I do," he said. "Why he wouldn't get back into the racket for a million dollars. Torrio got out and I'm getting out—with the help of the United States government."

"I have pleaded guilty and I am going to accept whatever punishment the government's charges or causing the government to spend a lot of money in expensive trials.

"I want the people to realize that in my few adult years (Capone is 32) it would have been utterly impossible for me to have done all the things that have been credited to me. Everybody in any legitimate business has been using my name. Violating the prohibition law and running some gambling places make up the only so-called crimes I have ever committed."

Order Mistrial in Wilmington Case

Wilmington, N. C., July 30.—(AP)—Judge Garland E. Midyette today disqualified a juror in the trial of four New Hanover county officers on a charge of manslaughter, ordered a mistrial and continued the case until the September court.

His action was taken after Alex Boone Jr., and M. C. Mullican, of Wilmington, had testified that Albert Elmer the juror, had told them Tuesday, the day before the trial opened, that if he were "a cop and went on a rading party and somebody shot my buddy I would shoot him down if I went to the electric chair for it."

Elmer, called to account by the judge, admitted having had the conversation but contended he had qualified his remarks by saying he would take such action "if I were within the law."

Although counsel for both the state and defendants agreed to continue the case with Elmer in the jury box, Judge Midyette ruled that Elmer should be disqualified.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

Brokers Jailed for Attempt to Sell Stolen Bonds

New York, July 30.—(AP)—A detective who for weeks played the part of a trusted broker's messenger, today landed two men in jail on charges of attempting to sell more than $1,500,000 worth of stolen bonds.

The men under arrest are Romeo Forlini, 38, of the Bronx, who police say was in a bond-selling ring in 1925; and Anthony Bagarozzy, 56, who claims to have been the late Enrico Caruso's manager.

Forlini, police records show, served time in Atlanta for possession of stolen goods. He was pardoned by President Hoover in 1929.

ATHLETICS INCREASE THEIR LEAD

By HUGH S. FULLETON, JR. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The rivalry between the New York Giants and Chicago Cubs, which is just about as old as the two teams, has raised its head once more in the 1931 National League race. But this year the teams are not battling each other for the pennant and there seems to be little chance that either will overtake the flying St. Louis Cardinals.

In the past few weeks, the Giants and Cubs have changed positions every few days first one slipping a trifle ahead and then the other catching up. The Giants are on top today, holding second place by the margin of a half game by virtue of their 5-4 triumph over Pittsburgh yesterday and Chicago's 4-0 shutout at the hands of the Phillies.

The Cardinals also ran into a spurt, with Ed Brandt doing the furling to give the Boston Braves a 3 to 0 victory. It did not, however, seriously damage the Cards' pennant hopes for they held an eight game lead over the Giants. The Brooklyn Robins slipping slowly out of the race, ran into another setback at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds. They lost a 2 to 1 decision as Silas Johnson, Cincinnati ace, outpitched Babe Phelps.

Five pitching by Roy Mahaffey and Jimmy Fox's 20th home run combined to give the Philadelphia Athletics a 4 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Browns and to increase their margin in the American League pennant chase to 12 games.

Washington, closest rival of the world's champions, opened Wes Ferrell, ace of the Cleveland mound staff, a bit too much and took a 6 to 0 beating. Ferrell gave 10 hits but kept them scattered while Joe Vosmik sent him off ahead with a homer with two on base in the first inning.

Babe Ruth lined his 28th homer of the season into the right field bleachers at the Yankee stadium as the feature of New York's 10 to 4 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

The Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers divided their closing double header. Boston won the first game 5 to 4 in ten innings as Earl Webb's only hit drove in the winning run. Detroit attacked Lloyd Klins in the sixth off the Red Sox's late rallies early innings of the second and to win 8 to 6.

Yesterday's Stars

HIGH POINT AND DURHAM IN LIMELIGHT

By PAUL SIMMONS

Charlotte, July 30.—(AP)—High Point and Durham, the hindmost two clubs in the standing, were cast today in the role of Piedmont League giant killers.

Boone's Pointers as a matter of fact, were off to a good start in a drive for permanent fame in the cigarette circle.

They began to crusade Tuesday on their home lot. Inspired by 2-0-00 fans who came out to see them play, they walloped Asheville, and then pulled out for Charlotte to try their magic against the Hornets.

Their bag of tricks worked, and they toppled the soaring Bees 4 to 3 last night.

The Hornets did not suffer very greatly in the way of comparative standing by the walloping. Another giant-killing performance at Durham took care of that.

The Bulls, rising to heights in the final innings, showed their mettle by means of a 9 to 7 triumph over the Raleigh Caps. English's homer in the eighth salted the match away, and Tom Wolfe, the next batter up, repeated his colleague's feat to make the victory a little more decisive.

Since both Charlotte and Raleigh were drubbed, the Bees held on to their 12-game lead over the second place Caps.

The Tourists trounced the Twins 3 to 1, at Asheville. Hipps tripled in the fifth to drive in his team's second run and later crossed the plate himself for the third rally.

The Greensboro Pats concentrated on one big inning to beat Henderson 6 to 4, at the Fate City. Everyone of the Pat tallies was scored in the sixth frame. They got only six hits in the game to seven for the Gamecocks.

SPORTS SLANTS

So authoritative a set of voices as the eight American League managers, in a mid-summer poll conducted by the Philadelphia Public Ledger, acclaimed Aloysius Simmons as the league's most valuable player.

The vote was surprisingly decisive in favor of the big Polish outfielder who does much of the clean-up slugging for Connie Mack's world's champions. Simmons was the first choice of five managers, including Mr. Mack. The others who nominated Al for the distinction were Joe McCarthy, Sam Collins, Donie Bush and Bucky Harris.

Mick's Cochran ran second and Joe Cronin, the great Washington shortstop, third in the Ledger's poll, but there will be quite a bit more evidence to examine before the debate is settled for the season.

Simmons unquestionably carries the big punch of the A's, but Cochran's all-around ability carries a logical argument in his favor. The champions haven't looked like the same club whenever their pppery backstop sat on the bench.

Walter Johnson, the Washington manager and only ex-pitcher among the pilots, selected Robert Moses, Grove as a more valuable asset than Simmons with Cronin as his third choice. This was the only nomination accorded the famous southpaw pitcher, however.

Southpaw 'Iron Man' Grove's "fir balls" have been treated a bit roughly at times by the opposing marksmen this season but by mid-July, the ace of the Athletics was well on his way toward collecting 30 or more victories—something no major league pitcher has accomplished since Sergeant Jim Bagby turned in 31 for Cleveland in 1920.

No southpaw has turned this trick since the American league was launched in 1900. In both circuits, the iron men always have been right-handers, such as Joe McGinnity, Christy Mathewson, Grover Alexander, Ed Walsh, Jack Chesbro and Joe Wood Walter Johnson, George Earnshaw.

KRAFT Velveeta

How its full, rich cheese flavor blends with other foods! Meat, fish, eggs, vegetables—as digestible—as pure whole milk itself!

Try it today—for cooking and sandwiches. Your grocer has it in the half pound package.

In a single campaign. Grove, like Earnshaw, is more effective when work is frequent.

Grove's mid-season record showed 18 victories against two defeats. Lefty's only setbacks up to that time were against Washington on April 18, when he lost a tough 2-1 decision after allowing only five hits, and against the Chicago White Sox in a 12 inning game, June 6. He won eight in a row before dropping the "duk" to the White Sox, then romped off on another streak that reached nine straight against the Senators July 13.

Eager For More

Far from being discouraged by its growing problems, the University of Wisconsin plans to improve its equipment at Madison and encourage other Big Ten schools, such as Northwestern, Ohio State and Minnesota, to take up the crew sport.

The Badgers have been sending crews to Poughkeepsie for about 30 years with varying results, but they are more anxious than ever to develop some mid-western competition, with a regatta or two on the home waters annually to stir up more interest.

N. Y. COTTON

New York July 30.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, off 6 to 10 points lower in response to lower Liverpool cables and under selling by spot houses and brokers with Liverpool and continental connections.

The market did not respond fully to the decline in Liverpool, however, and prices later recovered practically all of the early losses on trade buying, covering, support by brokers with Japanese connections, and New Orleans buying. December contracts sold by from 8 1/2 to 8 3/4 with the general market ruling about 2 to 6 points net lower at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said that there had been hedging and general liquidation in that market on the increased Bank of England discount rate, while Manchester reported cloth and yarn sales below production.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago July 30.—(AP)—Sudden setbacks in corn prices today after a sharp upturn indicated that a corner in July corn had been ended by private negotiations outside the trading pit. The market fluctuated widely for a time and covered a range of 7 1/2 cents, but finally hovered near yesterday's close when trading ended after a jump of 10 cents. Deliveries on July contracts today aggregated 1,206,000 bushels.

Corn closed irregular at 3-4 lower to 3-4 higher; wheat 3-8 to 7-8 down; oats 3-8 to 1 off, and provisions showing 5 to 12 decline.

STOCK MARKET

New York July 30.—(AP)—The stock market was disinclined to mourn the low state of steel earnings for the more than one day, and heaviness in the early trading was quickly thrown off today.

Rails were conspicuously heavy in the first hour, and steel shares eased a little further, but a gradual upturn then set in, and had erased most of the losses by midday. During the afternoon, moderate gains were registered here and there. Bonds, however, were somewhat heavy, particularly the rail issues.

Chrysler, which has reflected powerful pool activity whenever market conditions have favored of late, was pushed up 2 points to close to the year's high. DuPont and Eastman rose as much, and gains of a point or so were shown in Lumber, Drug, Westinghouse, Consolidated Gas, Chesapeake and Ohio, Best and Penney. Nickel plate was again a weak feature in the rails, tumbling 10 points. Erie 2nd preferred dropped 6. There were numerous losses of a point or two in the carriers, some of which were regained. Bethlehem and U. S. Steel each lost a point, then recovered.

Wall street was less interested in the dividend and earnings announcement of the Bethlehem Steel Corp. after the close of the market than it was in U. S. Steel's quarterly meeting yesterday. Nevertheless there was considerable difference of opinion as to what action Bethlehem might take on its common dividend. A sharp reduction in the $4 annual rate was regarded as a foregone conclusion, since earnings are believed to have fallen considerably under preferred dividend requirements.

The local money market was easier, with call money offered outside at 1 per cent for the first time in several days.

Turkish Aviation League offered punch and cakes to the American airmen.

Asked whether he preferred punch said: "What I really want more said: 'What I really want more than anything in the world is a bath.'"

But he and Boardman both drank the punch and despite their fatigue beamed as the governor of Istanbul and Ambassador Grew toasted them.

Poland handed over to the governor a letter from President Hoover to President Mustafa Kemal of Turkey.

The aviators were in such good spirits that they even consented to sign a dozen autographs.

Talking with a Turkish soldier brought a bucket of water to wash his hands before going into the official reception, Poland said he and Boardman got plenty of sleep but ate little during the trip.

"We took turns piloting," he said, "each taking half an hour's sleep off and on."

"The fuel just pulled us through. I don't believe there were more than ten gallons left."

"We would have made a faster record if fog had not slowed our pace over France."

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—Naval hydrographic experts figured today that Russell Boardman and John Poland covered at least 5,395 miles in their flight from New York to Istanbul, Turkey.

This is 126.71 miles further than the previous non-stop record by Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Belouze in their flight from Paris to Couliart, China, Sept. 27, 28 and 29, 1929. The distance flown by the Frenchmen is listed as 4,912.79 miles.

Naval hydrographers calculated Boardman and Poland flew 1118 statute miles from Floyd Bennett Airport, New York to Cape Race on the tip of Newfoundland; 2,523 miles from there to Paris, and 1,398.5 miles from Paris to Istanbul.

The direct air-line distance from New York to Istanbul was estimated at 5,014.5 miles.

Berlin, July 30.—(AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., flying around the world in their red monoplane, landed at Templehof airfield this evening at 7:30 P. M. (EST) from Croydon, England.

Croydon, England, July 30.—(AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon Jr. who landed their trans-Atlantic monoplane in Wales last night and came on here this morning, took off for Moscow, their original objective, at 2:13 p. m. today (6:13 a. m. EST).

Their route to Moscow is by Berlin. Herndon and Pangborn landed at Croydon airfield at 8:15 a. m. (2:15 a. m. EST).

"We had a nice trip and flew above fog most of the way, but lost out bearings a little bit toward the end, which made it necessary for us to come down," said Pangborn.

Aside from black circles under their eyes the lers showed no ill effects from their long trip.

"We had a good rest at Carrigan," Pangborn explained. "But as a matter of fact we were actually not so tired when we reached there. It was a nice trip and we enjoyed it very much."

The fliers left their plane and went into the Croydon pilot quarters for breakfast while their gas tanks were being refilled.

The two pilots set the time of their trans-Atlantic flight at exactly 32 hours.

"It wouldn't vary a minute," said Pangborn. "We estimated the distance at about 3,150 miles."

"We wouldn't have had to land if it hadn't been for the fog. We were unable to tell exactly where we were although we knew just about the location, so we came down."

"In order to get above the fog we had to fly about 14,000 feet most of the way."

The takeoff was nearly six hours after their arrival from Wales.

They expected to make Berlin within four or five hours, stop there to refuel, and continue to Moscow if the weather is good, arriving there sometime early Friday morning.

Herndon supervised the refueling here this morning while Pangborn caught up on his sleep. Then they had luncheon together with Dixon Boardman, Herndon's stepfather, as their guest.

After luncheon they posed for the movie men and were off. The red plane circled the field once and darted eastward.

Both fliers during the luncheon expressed their determination to make the Post-Gatty round the world speed record, but they agreed that their forced landing last night in Wales had robbed them of their chance to circle the globe in six days as they had hoped to do.

Except for the fog, they said the trip thus far had been pleasant.

All Set.

Point Barrow, Alaska—There is great busting about, sweeping and scrubbing and what not. The Eskimo housewives are putting their huts to rights to entertain Mrs. Anne Lindberg and her distinguished husband.

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—Naval hydrographic experts figured today that Russell Boardman and John Poland covered at least 5,395 miles in their flight from New York to Istanbul, Turkey.

Lamborn, Hutchings & Co.—"The market continues in the process of discounting a favorable outlook for a full yield, and while we expect prices to work lower, we believe sales should be confined to advances."

E. J. Schwabach Co.—"New incentive is necessary to create any permanent advance, although the technical position is stronger and a good rally is in order, but sales on hedged look advisable."

A. Norden & Co.—"Until new incentives for speculative support develop we see no prospect of more than temporary technical reactions."

Two Convicts Shot in Attempt To Make Escape

Asheville, July 30.—(AP)—Two convicts were shot down in a daring daylight attempt to escape from a state camp on the South Turkey Creek yesterday.

A third convict made good his escape. He was R. E. Riddle, believed to be from Haywood county.

While working on the road near the camp, the three men made a sudden dash for freedom. Two guards fired and two of the men dropped in their tracks. They were brought to the camp at Craggy for medical attention. Riddle was still at large today.

Turkish Aviation League offered punch and cakes to the American airmen.

Asked whether he preferred punch said: "What I really want more said: 'What I really want more than anything in the world is a bath.'"

But he and Boardman both drank the punch and despite their fatigue beamed as the governor of Istanbul and Ambassador Grew toasted them.

Poland handed over to the governor a letter from President Hoover to President Mustafa Kemal of Turkey.

The aviators were in such good spirits that they even consented to sign a dozen autographs.

Talking with a Turkish soldier brought a bucket of water to wash his hands before going into the official reception, Poland said he and Boardman got plenty of sleep but ate little during the trip.

"We took turns piloting," he said, "each taking half an hour's sleep off and on."

"We would have made a faster record if fog had not slowed our pace over France."

Washington, July 30.—(AP)—Naval hydrographic experts figured today that Russell Boardman and John Poland covered at least 5,395 miles in their flight from New York to Istanbul, Turkey.

Lamborn, Hutchings & Co.—"The market continues in the process of discounting a favorable outlook for a full yield, and while we expect prices to work lower, we believe sales should be confined to advances."

E. J. Schwabach Co.—"New incentive is necessary to create any permanent advance, although the technical position is stronger and a good rally is in order, but sales on hedged look advisable."

A. Norden & Co.—"Until new incentives for speculative support develop we see no prospect of more than temporary technical reactions."

Two Convicts Shot in Attempt To Make Escape

Asheville, July 30.—(AP)—Two convicts were shot down in a daring daylight attempt to escape from a state camp on the South Turkey Creek yesterday.

A third convict made good his escape. He was R. E. Riddle, believed to be from Haywood county.

The wounded men were Vic Retcoe of Madison county and Tom Barnes of Black Mountain.

While working on the road near the camp, the three men made a sudden dash for freedom. Two guards fired and two of the men dropped in their tracks. They were brought to the camp at Craggy for medical attention. Riddle was still at large today.

Dry Agents Stage Drive On Reno

Reno, Nevada, July 30.—(AP)—Prohibition agents descended on Reno last night for the second time this month, but word of their coming preceded them and they were successful after first raiding fashionable Cal-Neva resort at Lake Tahoe, 60 miles from here.

Three arrests were made, two at Cal-Neva and the other at the Majestic Club here.

Raid on other speakeasies were understood to have been planned, but word that the agents were on their way here went the rounds so quickly that they were unsuccessful in making "buys" elsewhere.

ON THE RADIO

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD (Associated Press Radio Editor)

Just to keep you informed of what radio artists do sometimes:

Nat Brusiloff, orchestra conductor, is an auction sale fan. Each week on his off morning—that's Tuesday—h2 looks up the most promising of the sales, hies himself there and spends some of the income radio provides in beautifying his home, often without his wife's recommendation.

Pete Biljo has been on WABC-CBS almost three years now. He is the "Around the Samovar" program of Russian tunes.

Ben Alley was given "Deber" as a second name because that was what his brother called him when they were tiny chaps.

Back in 1924 Will Osborne got $20 a week for his first job in an orchestra.

When Irene Beasley the "long tall girl from Dixie" decided to write a song, it started the change in her career that led from school teaching to the microphone.

To fit in with the surroundings of the night club in which they play, Frank Winegar bought a dozen pairs of overalls and as many white shirts as uniforms for his college boys' orchestra.

CBS finds that short wave transmitters are valuable in picking up remote shortwave broadcasts, 90 per cent of such major events in the first six months this year started out to the network via the little waves.

Julia Sanderson says her home is one without a gold fish. She does not like 'em.

When Lew Conrad, NBC crooner, isn't singing on the air, he's out in someone's pasture or near pasture, shooting the golf.

Announcer Ford Bond, who hails from Louisville, Ky. made his public appearance as a singer at the age of five.

B. A. Rolf calls the musical saw and the jewsharp the spices of music.

Point Barrow, Alaska—There is great busting about, sweeping and scrubbing and what not. The Eskimo housewives are putting their huts to rights to entertain Mrs. Anne Lindberg and her distinguished husband.
