U.S. COTTON SUPPLY SHOWS BIG INCREASE

Census Bureau Says 6,369,405 Bales On Hand Against 4,530,583 A Year Ago.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Cotton supplies on hand in the United States were reported today by the census bureau to have aggregated 6,369,405 bales on July 31, as compared with 4,530,583 bales a year ago and 2,311,988 bales two years ago.

The bureau's annual report placed the total supply of cotton for the 1930-31 season, which ended on July 31, at 18,136,717 bales, compared with 17,217,372 bales the previous year, and the distribution to have totaled 18,425,930 bales, compared with 17,347,896 bales the previous year.

The excess of distribution over supply, 109,213 bales, was due principally to the inclusion, in all distribution items, of the "city crop," which consists of rebaled samples and pickings from cotton damaged by fire and weather.

The year's supply was made up as follows:
Stocks on hand August 1, 1930, totaled 4,530,429 bales, of which 1,183,007 were in consuming establishments, 2,877,422 were in public storage and at compresses, and 470,000 bales were elsewhere.

Net imports (total imports less re-exports) were 101,651 bales.

Ginnings during the year were 13,664,637 bales, of which 13,677,330 bales were of the 1930 crop ginned after July 31, 1930, and 7,307 bales of the crop of 1931 ginned prior to August 1, 1931.

The year's distribution was as follows:
Net exports less re-exports, 6,757,577 bales.
Consumed, 5,270,948 bales.
Ginned cotton destroyed, 28,000 bales.

Stocks on hand July 31, 1931, total 6,369,405 bales of which 994,979 bales were in consuming establishments, 4,124,436 bales in public storage and at compresses, and 850,000 bales elsewhere, including cotton for export on shipboard, not cleared, cotton consigned, cotton in transit to ports, interior towns, and mills, and cotton on farms.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 15.—(AP)—F. Scott McBride today predicted the next general election "will nail down prohibition or establish it as an issue for the next generation."

McBride, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league, spoke here before the National Bible Conference, which he warned "If legalized liquor comes back, the saloon will come back."

President Hoover, he said, would be the Republican nominee "after a defeated fight in the convention for a wet platform and a wet candidate," and "the issues as to the presidency will be clearly defined."

"If the dry Democrats succeed in their heroic fight to oust John J. Raskob," McBride said, "a dry Democrat will be nominated and will have a chance of election . . . If the dry Democratic leaders fail to oust Raskob, Roosevelt and Smith, Raskob, in council with Smith and Roosevelt, will determine the next nomination of the Democratic party."

"The pretended campaign on behalf of Roosevelt today is clearly a move on the part of the triumvirate to corral as many votes as possible for the convention, for the candidate that Raskob, Smith and Roosevelt will agree upon . . ."

Pointing out the loss of three dry representatives from 25 states would give "the wets, even with our present majority of two to one . . . a majority in Congress," McBride urged the congressional elections be kept in mind because reappointment "will reduce to some extent the dry vote in the next Congress."

He explained that a larger number of representatives would come from the cities, where "the wet vote is larger than in the rural sections . . ."

Fairmont Tobacco Market Averages $9.73 This Week

Fairmont, Aug. 15.—(AP)—An official average of $9.73 a hundred was paid on the local tobacco market this week for 1,641,148 pounds of leaf.

To date, 2,306,900 pounds have been sold at an average of $9.25.

During the same selling period last year, 2,310,094 pounds were sold at an average of $9.44.

TAYLOR QUILTS HEALTH BOARD

Head of County Health Activities To Be Succeeded By Wilmington Doctor.

Raleigh, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Dr. H. A. Taylor, head of the bureau of epidemiology and county health activities of the State Board of Health, has resigned effective September 1 and will be succeeded by Dr. John H. Hamilton, director of the Consolidated Board of Health of Wilmington.

Dr. Taylor has been with the State Board of Health for a number of years, having been connected with several divisions.

Following the death of Dr. C. O. H. Laughlinhouse last year, Dr. Taylor acted as health officer until the selection of Dr. James M. Parrott of Kinston as health officer a short time ago.

In announcing his resignation of Dr. Taylor, Dr. Parrott said Dr. Hamilton comes to the state department "with an unusually fine educational and cultural background."

Dr. Hamilton is a B. S. graduate and has specialized in chemistry and bacteriology. He was science teacher and afterwards assistant chemist in the institution of animal nutrition, State College of Pennsylvania.

He graduated from the Harvard medical school in 1916 and became assistant bacteriologist in the New York department of health and instructor of public health at Albany medical college. He later served at Iowa State University and was sent to North Carolina by the International Board of Health.

In 1920 he became health officer at Wilmington. He is 43 years old and is a Fellow of the North Carolina Medical Society, the American Medical Association and the American Public Health Association.

Continue Effort To Boost Prices Of Oil In Texas

Tyler, ex., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Mid-continent oil producers today continued to seek means of boosting the price of crude, faced with the discouraging prospect the prolific East Texas field might not be cured for at least a week while Texas' new conservation laws were put into force.

Governor Ross S. Sterling of Texas, yesterday denied a petition of East Texas operators assembled here, that he declare martial law in the field and completely stop production. He said the new measure, enacted late Wednesday night, would be given a trial first, and that a week or two would be required before the regulatory body, the State Railroad commission, could carry out its terms.

The law was passed at a session called to devise relief for the oil industry, in distress because of overproduction and consequent low prices.

MUST PAY FINE OR GO TO JAIL

Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon Stunned By Size of Fine Imposed By Court For Their Flight Over Fortified Areas Of Japan: Film and Camera Confiscated By Government: Fliers Say They Will Pay as Soon as They Can Get In Touch With New York.

Tokyo, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Climaxing a series of mishaps which have beset them since they started a projected globe-girdling flight in New York, Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., American aviators were fined by the District court here today for violation of the strict aviation laws of Japan.

Each fine was 2,050 yen ($1,025). One thousand dollars of each fine was for violating civil aviation laws and $25 for flying over Japanese fortified areas recently when they came here from Khabarovsk, Siberia, to attempt a trans-Pacific flight after they ended their world hop attempt in the Siberian village far behind the time of Harold Gatty and Wiley Post, whom they hoped to succeed as the fastest navigators around the world.

Although Herndon and Pangborn flew to Japan without a permit, government officials were inclined to disregard this until they discovered a motion picture camera in the plane. The fliers admitted taking some pictures but denied they had photographed fortifications. Japanese patriotic societies urged they be punished and a lengthy investigation proceeded the assessment of the fine.

The judge decreed that the fliers would be subject to imprisonment if they failed to pay their fines. (Continued on page three)

LINDBERGH'S LAND IN ASIA

Complete 1,067 Mile Flight From Nome to Karagin Island, On Coast Siberia.

Seattle, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh were at Karagin Island today, having flown to Asia from Alaska across the sea.

Their landing on the island on the east coast of Siberia after a 1,067-mile flight across the Bering Sea from Safety Bay, near Nome, Alaska, was announced by the naval radio station on St. Paul Island. Several radio stations on the Pacific coast received the message, saying the flying volcanoes had reached the little volcanic island at 1:49 a. m. EST, 3:49 p. m. on Karagin Island.

The Lindberghs left Safety Bay at 9 a. m. (Friday) (3 p. m. EST) and crossed the Northern sea in 10 hours and 49 minutes.

With a 500 gallon supply of fuel the Lindbergh plane left American waters shortly after the fliers had received word of clearing weather to the westward.

The St. Paul Island radio station made its first contact with the plane 20 minutes after the take-off and worked with it at intervals until Mrs. Lindbergh advised she was reeling in her antenna preparatory to landing.

Colonel Lindbergh kept the speed of his ship close to 100 miles an hour—the fuel saving gait—throughout. After about two hours of flying Mrs. Lindbergh reported low fog, and a wind of five miles an hour and a smooth sea. She was attempting to make contact with Russian wireless stations in Siberia.

The Lindberghs, because of crossing the international date line in the Bering sea, landed in the afternoon of the day after they took off whereas their actual fly-

TAR RIVER OVERFLOWS

Farmers Attempt To Save Cattle and Crops as Water Continues To Rise.

Converted into a roaring torrent by recent heavy rainfalls, Tar river continued to rise slowly today and sent its waters swirling over the low grounds of Pitt county.

The river was due to reach a 16-foot stage by Monday, according to advices received yesterday by B. T. Clark, director of the local weather department, from the State Weather Bureau at Raleigh.

Mr. Clark stated that the river had risen slightly over a foot since yesterday and stood at a 12-foot stage today. He said the water was rising at a rate of about an inch an hour but was expected to gain momentum during today and tomorrow.

With the inch and a half rainfall recorded here last night, Mr. Clark said it was probable the rise would go beyond the 16-foot stage, especially if sections along the river above Greenville had received similar precipitation.

In case the river should reach the 16-foot stage the water will be four or five feet below the fill on the Greenville-Bethel highway on the north side of the river. It was said, and is not expected to handicap traffic on the lower section of the road near the fill.

People in the lowlands began moving their cattle and crops yesterday following the warning sent out by the weather department, and the loss in this connection is expected to be light in comparison with other years when the raging torrents caught the growers unprepared.

This is the first time the river has been on a rampage in several months, and hundreds of people are expected to cross the bridge tomorrow to get a view of the swollen stream. The record rise occurred in 1919 when the water reached a 24-foot stage and threatened destruction to both railway and highway bridges.

Thompson Held In Jail Close To Close Bern

New Bern, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Ben Thompson today was in an "easily accessible" jail awaiting trial on a charge of murdering John Peel, Pamlico coast guardsman, near here a week ago.

Sheriff R. B. Lane returned Thompson yesterday from Richmond where he surrendered to police, and placed him in a jail outside of New Bern.

Sheriff Lane declined to name the jail, saying he wished to keep Thompson separate from Richard Eubanks, held here in connection with the shooting. Mary Cannon, who was riding with Peel in a truck when he was slain, also is in the local jail, being held as a material witness.

Lawrence Catling, arrested with Eubanks, is at liberty under bond.

SALE OF BONDS BROUGHT INTO TRIAL OF LEA

E. C. Prior, Nashville Appraiser, Tells Court About $45,000 Deal.

Ashville, Aug. 15.—(AP)—United Properties, Inc., a Luke Lea company, at Nashville, Tenn., issued $450,000 worth of bonds on real estate valued at $188,347.13, E. C. Prior, Nashville appraiser, told a jury trying Lea and three others on charges of conspiracy to defraud, here today.

Some of the bonds of this issue were held by the Central Bank and Trust Company here as collateral for notes discounted for Colonel Lea.

Lea, his son, Luke, Jr., E. P. Charlet, of Nashville and Wallace B. Davis, former president of the now defunct bank, are charged with conspiring to defraud the institution of approximately $1,300,000.

When Prior had finished testifying respecting the lands behind the United Properties bonds, Judge T. L. Johnson, of state counsel, read what the state contends were prior liens on the property.

Johnson read a list of mortgages totaling approximately $65,000 against the various Tennessee tracts listed in the records of that state as claims against the land which furnished the foundation for the bond issue.

The state contends part of the alleged defrauding of the Central bank was done by improper loans, including the posting of worthless collateral.

Turning to Central Properties, Inc., another Lea concern which had its bonds up with the Central bank, counsel for the state admitted prior liens on the property behind them were discharged by the bonds themselves.

Prior said Central Properties issued $500,000 worth of bonds based on real estate worth only $217,020.83.

The Belle Meade Land Company, another Lea company, issued $400,000 in bonds on property valued at $129,550, Prior said. A prior lien of $152,000 on this property was shown by deeds of trust on record in Tennessee. However, other records showed this lien was reduced to $38,000. Prior said $125,000 worth of these bonds later were withdrawn from the market.

ASK PROBE OF MAGISTRATES

Report of Widespread "Petting Party Racket" Brings Action From Atty. Gen.

Raleigh, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Reports that a wide-spread "petting party racket" is being operated in North Carolina today have brought an appeal from assistant attorney general A. F. Seawell for simultaneous grand jury investigation of magistrate courts throughout the state.

Mr. Seawell said many magistrates had set up what he called "rackets" by raiding petting couples and bringing them into court to pay costs through coercion and without trial. He said the "petting party racket" has taken the place of the once famous "speed traps."

"Every grand jury in North Carolina's 100 counties should start an investigation into these officers," Seawell asserted, suggesting the inquiries be conducted simultaneously as much as possible in order to reflect the proper state-wide attention.

In connection with the revoking of the commission of G. W. Foster, Guilford county justice of peace after a hearing before Seawell and Tyre C. Taylor, executive counsel.

Foster, in complaints presented by Herbert S. Falk, Greensboro attorney, was charged with raiding "petting couples on petting parties" in automobiles and promising public immunity upon payment of costs. Foster admitted settling such cases without trial and collecting costs.

R. J. Vaughn, Charles Blaylock and Ed Thompson, deputies, were charged in the affidavit with "petting" and bringing "petting party cases" to the magistrate.

After the hearing, Edwin M. Gill, private secretary to Gov. O. Max Gardner, issued a statement saying the Governor announced through his secretary "the interest of the public demanded the revocation of Foster's commission."

Thousands Perish As Floods Sweep China

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A rapid spread of death and destitution by floods on the Yangtze river in China was reported to the State Department today by the American legation at Peiping.

Minister Johnson at Peiping said it was estimated that 31,000,000 people were seriously affected by the flood which had driven possibly 10,000,000 from their homes. The American consulate at Hankow estimated the drowned at "a few thousands" and damage to the cotton crop at more than $38,000,000.

The three provinces principally affected were Hunan, Hupien, and Kiangsi. Refugees in the larger cities total 220,000.

While there was no acute shortage of food, millions of persons were said to have lost all their possessions and were approaching the point where they could not buy food or shelter.

Health conditions in Hankow were threatened by the flooding of sanitary works, the reports said.

THREE HELD IN TWO OTHERS IN ROBBERY CASE TORCH SLAYING

Officers Arrest Men For Robbing Store in Chicod Township Four Weeks Ago.

Richard Mills and Horace McLawhorn were jailed by county officers here yesterday afternoon on a charge of robbing a store in Chicod township about four weeks ago. Loice McLawhorn, charged, with receiving a part of the stolen property, was also placed in jail at the same time.

The three men were arrested by county officers following a lengthy investigation of the robbery. A considerable amount of the stolen property, valued at approximately $100, was also recovered, officers said.

Mills and Horace McLawhorn were alleged to have entered the store of W. L. Smith in Chicod and stolen a considerable amount of merchandise.

Officers said a part of the goods was found secreted at the home of Loice McLawhorn. Articles were also said to have been found in a tobacco barn near the home. The men will face trial in the regular session of County court next Tuesday, and were being held in jail today in default of bond.

Man Charged With Criminal Attack On Aged Woman

Burlington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Doyle Core, 29, of Graham, was held for Superior court today on charges of criminal assault, preferred against him by a 60-year-old widow.

Probable cause was found at a magistrate's hearing at which the woman testified she threatened her with a knife and forced her to submit to his demands.

REJECTION OF COTTON PLAN LOOMS TODAY

California Asks Not To Be Considered In Reduction of Cotton Movement.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Final rejection today appeared to be in store for the Farm Board's drastic plan of destroying a third of the cotton crop in an effort to boost the price of the staple.

Four of the fourteen states asked to cooperate have filed objections to the suggestion that every third row of standing cotton be plowed under. A fifth, Texas, the largest producing state whose cooperation was deemed essential for success, appeared in doubt.

Governor Sterling was said yesterday by the board to have agreed to lend his assistance. The Texas chief executive later, however, issued a statement at Houston, denying he favored the board's proposal.

"I notice," he said, "the impression has gotten out that I favor plowing up one third of this year's cotton crop. This is not the case. However, I did write Chairman Stone of the Farm Board that I would gladly cooperate with him in his efforts to aid the cotton farmers."

Mr. Stone evidently construed my message to mean that I favored his specific plan. I think it would be just as reasonable to ask the Farm Board to burn up a part of the cotton they hold as it is to ask the farmers to destroy part of their crop.

Georgia, Alabama and Florida, while opposing the board's plan, endorsed the idea of reducing the current harvest and offered substitute proposals which were not made public. South Carolina also rejected the plan.

A sixth state, California, asked that it not be considered in the movement because of its small cotton production.

In addressing the plan to fourteen governors, the board indicated ten must agree to make it operative beginning September 1. In return, it agreed to hold its stabilization cotton for one year and urge upon cotton cooperatives the advisability of similar action in regard to their 2,100,000 bales. At least eight governors have informally expressed the opinion the board's suggestion was impractical.

Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, and Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, are among those who have presented substitute plans ranging from holding stabilization cotton for five years to resumption of stabilization operations. Briefly, their plans provide for the purchase by the board of a substantial part of this year's prospective harvest of 13,584,000 bales on the condition that farmers agree by contract not to plant cotton next year.

Senator Smith presented his plan last winter. At that time it was rejected in a letter signed by Carl Williams, cotton member, which said that purchase of 4,000,000 bales at Smith suggested would not solve the problem. Under its present proposal, however, it is hoped to reduce production by that amount.

Judge Threatens Action Against Patrol Captain

Edenton, N. C., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Charging that Captain Charles D. Farmer, of the state highway patrol, permitted publication of "garbled statements" concerning a case brought before him by a highway patrolman, Judge J. H. McMullan, of Chowan recorder's court, plans to complain to the state highway commission.

Judge McMullan said he was "astounded" when he learned that Captain Farmer had "given to the press" a statement from "a comparatively inexperienced officer" that convictions could not be obtained against drunken drivers in Chowan county.

McMullan referred to a letter written by Lieutenant Jones to Captain Farmer requesting the transfer of patrolman Deal from Edenton to Aulander.

Judge McMullan also took exception to the statement that he "reprimanded" the patrolman for handcuffing his prisoners.

He said he had cautioned the officer against "promiscuous handcuffing" of his prisoners and pointed out the dangers of "speeding through Edenton's main business section" with prisoners "helpless in the speeding car."

"It was not only dangerous to the prisoners handcuffed," he said, "but was dangerous for motorists and pedestrians as well."

ABOUT TOWN

City officials are urging people who have not provided themselves with automobile license tags to do so at once.

The city has been mighty lenient in this matter up to the present time, and hope has been expressed that persons without tags will obtain them at once and prevent the officers from having to enforce the law.

This is one of the ways the city has to raise revenue for the operation of government and if the tags are not sold they will be sort just that much money at the end of the year.

The police are asking the cooperation in this important matter and hope the licensees will be disposed of without their having to take action in the matter.

The river is on a rampage again and people who have stock and crops in the lowground should get them to higher land immediately.
This is the first time the river has risen to such a height in some time, but it will hardly reach the high water mark of about 24 feet established in 1919, although it is impossible to estimate the total rise in the face of continued rainfall.

The weather department has sent out its warning and it is hoped persons in the affected area will act immediately and save themselves from loss of crops and livestock.

This is the season of the year when the liquor interests begin giving their trade along the highways of Eastern Carolina more extensively than any other season of the year and apprehensions should be more numerous from now until Christmas.

While a considerable amount of traffic is carried on by natives of the county, it is possible that the bulk comes from outside our borders. Martin, Beaufort, Edgemcomb and Craven counties produce brands of booze that seem to be in great demand down in this section, and the manufacturers will use every influence at their command to reach every source of consumption.

It is risky business at the best, and doubly so at this season when officers, from township constables to highest officials, are bending every effort to bring the violators to justice.

If other sections of the country are getting as much rain as this immediate territory, the Farm Board need not worry about plans for destroying a third of the present cotton crop as the elements will take care of that.

It is impossible to say how much damage has been done by the rain the last two weeks, but it is beginning to be serious and will grow more so if the rain continues.

Pitt county has had a precipitation of more than an inch a day since the first of August. This will enable the boll weevil to get a hold on the crop and by the time the wet weather is over he will have done irreparable damage.

The third of the series of union services being conducted among the churches of the city during the month of August and first part of September will be held at Jarvis
Memorial Methodist Church Sunday evening.

The sermon will be delivered by Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, who has just returned from his vacation.

The first two services were of a very inspirational nature, and that the one tomorrow night will be also is not to be doubted.

The public should attend the services in large numbers and show members of the Ministerial Association they are truly appreciative of this effort to bring the various congregations together for worship.

Services of this kind always have a salutary effect on the life of the city and if given proper support should be instrumental in scores of people finding their way back to the church.

ing time was ten hours and 40 minutes.

Karagin Island, a small body of volcanic origin, lies about 35 miles off the coast of Kamchatka Peninsula and is about 1,300 miles from Tokyo. The Lindberghs originally planned to end their flight at the Japanese capital but while in Nome announced they intended to continue on around the world.

To the peasants of Karagin the plane will be a strange sight, but the Lindberghs themselves doubtless will see strange things there. It is little more than a trading post with a main village of a few crude habitations. So little was known of the island that Lindbergh, in plotting his course, was not sure whether he should stop there or continue on to the mainland.

TWO AMERICAN FLIERS FINED $2,025 EACH BY JAPANESE COURT

He stipulated that they would be allowed a "reasonable time" to make payments.

If jail became the alternative, the fliers would be required to serve at the rate of 10 yen a day.

Vernacular newspapers quoted aviation bureau officials as asserting that Pangborn and Herndon would be prohibited from flying in Japan again. If enforced, this would mean abandonment of their planned flight to Seattle. Rengo news agency, however, said officials of the communication, foreign and home offices would confer later to decide this point.

The news agency further said the American fliers' plane would not be confiscated in view of testimony of Herndon's mother and sister held an interest in the machine.

Both fliers were in court as the decision was handed down.

The fliers were stunned by the size of the fine and received an additional surprise when informed their Cinema camera and six reels of film had been confiscated.

As their plane was not seized they decided to go ahead with plans for a non-stop flight to Seattle despite newspaper reports that officials would not permit them to make any more flights over Japanese territory.

American embassy officials told the aviators they would make representations to Japanese authorities in the hope a permit might be forthcoming for an ocean flight.

"The whole thing is a nutshell," said Pangborn, "is that we came to Japan under a misapprehension, thinking an emergency permit was in order. We were victims of circumstances, and now we find ourselves in a dicken's of a fix."

"The question agitating us now is, when do we fly or don't we fly?—that is, do we get a permit to use the plane again in starting across the Pacific?"

The chief of the supervision section of the aviation law intimated a permit for a Pacific flight would not be granted.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Acting Secretary Bundy of the State Department indicated today that the American government considered closed the case of Hugh Herndon, Jr., and Clyde Pangborn, American fliers fined in Japan for violation of Japanese espionage and aviation laws.

The American embassy at Tokyo informed the State Department the fliers had been fined. The acting secretary said the department did not consider the facts justified an official protest against the action of the Japanese courts.

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Local backers of the Herndon-Pangborn around the world flight announced today that $2,060 had been added to the fliers to pay the fine imposed by the Japanese court for photographing fortified areas.

The message also requested $2,000 to meet the cost of installing an addition to fuel tank in the plane for their forthcoming flight across the Pacific ocean to Seattle. This sum was added also.

Lea concerns issued $1,600,000 in bonds against lands valued at $646,917.96 at the time of issue.

Each of the four companies were makers of notes discounted at the Central bank by Colonel Lea and bonds of each of them were posted as collateral for the other three as well as for other of the notes, totaling $825,000, which the bank cashed for Lea and which previous witnesses testified, it never has received payment.

Would Convert Surplus Cotton Into Bagging

Raleigh, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Gilliam Grissom, federal revenue collector here and prominently mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for governor in 1932, today telegraphed President Hoover suggesting that the cotton held by the Federal Farm Board be converted into cotton bagging.

Mr. Grissom said in his telegram, sent to Walter Newton, secretary to the President, that the cotton held by the Federal Farm Board should be sold to cotton mills at a price so that it could be made into bagging and that restrictions to see that this was done should be attached.

MISS ELLISON TO BE SEEN HERE IN SHOW

Miss Margaret Ellison who is well known in this city will be seen here in the production of "The Second Man," the stage play which the New York Theatre Guild did on Broadway, and which will be produced here by Mr. Sidney Mansfield next Monday at the Austin building of East Carolina Teachers College. The rest of the cast are Broadway actors, so this will be Miss Ellison's debut in a professional company.

Miss Ellison will begin a professional theatrical career after her college training, so Greenville is fortunate to have the chance to see her before Broadway does, for they shall surely see her on Broadway before many seasons. Miss Ellison gives one of the most finished pieces of acting that has been seen in this part of the country in a good many seasons and has the high point of the play with her second act scene, which is guaranteed to thrill even the most sophisticated of audiences.

"The Second Man" is a gay piece of foolery and has a great modern appeal. The critics in New York pronounced it a smash hit, and as a result it ran a full season, and that's something for these times! You can't afford to miss it. Remember Monday evening at 8:30 at E. C. T. C. Austin building. If you wish to get the best choice of seats get your at the advance seat sale at Hill Hore Drug Co. Saturday.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND

Learn what a difference six cylinders make

Step-out of any other low-priced car into a Chevrolet, and learn the difference six cylinders make.

"Idle" the engine—and the whole car remains steady. Open the throttle—the power flows evenly. Accelerate—throttle down—go fifteen or fifty—and this smoothness stays with you whatever you do. It's actually built into the motor—and objectionable vibration never even starts!

Yet smoothness is only one of many six-cylinder advantages. There's greater quietness, because noisy vibration is gone. There's greater comfort, because built-in smoothness doesn't tire you out. There's greater flexibility, because the power-impulses of a six overlap. And a six is much easier to handle!

If you raise the hood of a Chevrolet and watch the engine running so smoothly, you'll realize that six cylinders also mean greater dependability.

And remember when you do—that no other car is so economical to operate as the Chevrolet Six.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today. 3 points lower to 1 point higher.

Relatively steady Liverpool cables failed to make any impression at the opening owing to some over-night selling orders and week-end liquidation. Contracts became scarce after the first few minutes, however, and the market firmed up on covering which appeared sold off to 7.00 during the early trading, advanced to 7.19, while March sold up from 7.54 to 7.72 making net advances of about 17 to 18 points on the more active positions.

Liverpool cables said the market there had advanced on covering, trade calling and an absence of pressure and also reported a better inquiry for cotton cloth from British home trade and South America. Cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 47,000 bales against 43,000 last year.

GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Active buying lifted wheat and corn late today as a result of Moscow advices that the Russian government would abandon its food rationing scheme. This was construed as likely to increase consumer use of wheat in Russia to such an extent that there would be little wheat left for export. The story was credited to a press association in Berlin, but was not confirmed, and price gains failed to hold well.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-2 higher; corn 7-8 off to 5-8 up; oats a shade to 5-8 lower and provisions at a rise of 20 to 30 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The close of the week in the stock market today found price levels in the aggregate, had regained virtually all of the loss since the U. S. Steel Corp. drastically reduced its dividend rate July 28.

Bulls were somewhat less aggressive than they were during Friday's session, and the advance was impeded at times by week-end profit taking, but prices continued generally upward, closing with numerous net gains of about 1 to 3 points.

Business news was meagre and inconclusive, but a better feeling in speculative quarters was apparent. Several commission houses were not overly confident in their advice, however, regarding the bullish activity as somewhat experimental, and suggesting the protecting of accounts with stop loss orders.

Moderate priced shares were again turned over in considerable volume, particularly oil, motors and accessories and miscellaneous industrial. Gains in the oil however, were mostly fractional. The turnover for the two-hour session was close to a million shares, the most active Saturday since June.

Such issues as General Motors, Radio, United Corp., American Can and General Electric went narrowly changed. International Harvester sagged 1-1/2, then recovered partially. The week-end estimate of next week's steel production in the Youngstown area indicated another slight gain.

The Bureau of Census monthly report on cotton consumption placing the amount used by domestic mills in July at 451,000 bales was about 25,000 bales better than expected, and brought a temporary upturn of about a dollar a bale in the cotton market.

F. W. Dodge Corp.'s monthly report on building contracts was moderately favorable, showing actual gains for July, over June in the New England, Middle Atlantic, Chicago and Pittsburgh territories. This is against the usual seasonal trend.

LEADERS OF THE MAJORS SIT TIGHT

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

The two weeks of baseball campaign which began a few days ago with the start of the most recent interleague series in the major leagues appears to be about enough to settle the pennant races for this season. The eastern clubs of the American league and most of their rivals in both circuits, are making their final visits to the rival sectors.

I fthe visiting leaders can get through these tours successfully, they have good chances for the rest of the season when they play nearly all their games in the more comfortable surroundings of the home fields. And so far the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics have done practically nothing but increase their leads.

The A's, although idle yesterday, had the edge in their first western series with Detroit while their nearest rivals, the Washington Senators, dropped their third straight game to the Chicago White Sox and the third place New York Yankees lost two to Cleveland, leaving them 111-2 and 151-2 games behind respectively. The Cards failed to register an increase yesterday when they took their fourth game in succession from Brooklyn, but while they were registering that sweep, Chicago dropped to third by breaking even with the Phillies and New York barely edged out Pittsburgh in a five-game series, finishing 91-2 games back of St. Louis.

Vic Frasier's fine relief pitching in the ninth held off a Washington rally and gave the White Sox a 5 to 4 victory.

Home number 32 by Lou Gehrig, and number 31 by Babe Ruth failed to win for the Yankees in the first game as Earl Averill outdid both by clutching his 23rd of the year with the bases full. The final count in the opening slugfest was 13 to 7, while Cleveland went right on hitting to win the second, 9-1.

The second division leaders of the league, the St. Louis Browns, won the other American game yesterday, pounding the Boston Red Sox for a 12 to 2 victory.

Dolf Luque's pitching kept the Cardinals trailing up to the eighth inning, but they broke loose then and scored eight runs in two frames to beat Brooklyn 9 to 3. New York's Giants kept pace when they started their newest pitcher, Jim Mooney, and beat out Glen Spencer and the Pittsburgh Pirates 2 to 1. Mooney, just up from Bridgeport, gave nine hits but fanned seven.

The Phillies made it two in a row over Chicago, dropping the Cubs from their virtual tie for second

PATS DEFEAT THE HORNETS

By PAUL SIMMONS

Charlotte, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Fritz Ostermueller, Greensboro's great young port-sider, has taken it upon himself to see that the Pats didn't pass up an opportunity to cop their share of league honors.

Lefty in addition to being one of the Pat pitching aces has established himself as a pinch-hitter of ability and results. As a rule a twirler is not so hot with the stick work, but not so with Ostermueller.

He was injected into the game at Greensboro last night as a pinch hitter in the ninth frame and as the last man to bat drove in a run that beat the mighty Charlotte B's, 6 to 5.

The Pats are racing with Raleigh for the runner-up position in the percentage and the right to meet the Hornets in the post-season series for the championship.

Last night's triumph did not help them any in their struggle with the Caps, because the Strainmen also were victorious.

The capital city club dropped Winston, 8 to 2, at Raleigh behind the jam-up pitching of young Lefty Briggs, former Elon college star.

The High Point nine although it still has its renowned punch at the bat is drifting deeper and deeper into the basement compartment. The Pointers took a 9 to 6 licking from the Gamecocks at Henderson, although they out-hit the Birds, 14 to 10. The Pointers seem to lack the power necessary to bring the runs over the plate.
