LABOR GOVERNMENT RESIGNS IN GREAT BRITAIN

GIFFORD AND HOOVER TALK RELIEF WORK

Unemployment Director to Complete Setting up His Organization During Week.

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—After spending the week-end with President Hoover in the Virginia mountains discussing ways and means of meeting the unemployment problem, Walter S. Gifford, national relief director, today began the work of setting up his organization.

Arrangements were made for headquarters to be established in the Commerce Department building. All the information gathered since last fall by the Hoover emergency committee on employment was laid before the head of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company by Fred C. Croton, his assistant and acting chairman of the emergency committee.

President Hoover discussed all phases of the problem with Mr. Gifford at his Rapidan camp, a steady rain keeping the chief executive and the relief director indoors since early Saturday.

More than 50 members of an advisory committee are to render service in the work along with volunteers and hired experts for technical phases.

While the national organization was being set up, telegrams were received by President Hoover from Governors Emmerson of Illinois, Winant of New Hampshire, and Rolph of California, assuring him of their co-operation with the new group.

In New York State, Governor Roosevelt was preparing an unemployment message to the special session of the legislature convening Tuesday.

Other developments on the subject throughout the country included:

An offer by Senator Couzens of Michigan to donate $1,000,000 to Detroit's jobless provided $9,000,000 is raised from other sources.

A conference on unemployment relief in Memphis, Tenn., called by Governor Murray of Oklahoma.

The drafting of a report on relief plans by a special committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce for submission to the chief executive Sept. 1.

The study of a committee of the National Electric Light Association of possibilities of guaranteeing employment to public utility workers.

Adoption by many governors and state superintendents of education of a movement to induce the unemployed of school age to return to school.

The furnishing of employment to local workers at Tarrytown, N. Y., by John D. Rockefeller, through construction work valued at $500,000.

Sending of fall gardening seed by the Americans Red Cross to tens of thousands of rural families to avert a possible winter food shortage in drought sections.

Judge Barnhill Charges Jury In Asheville Case

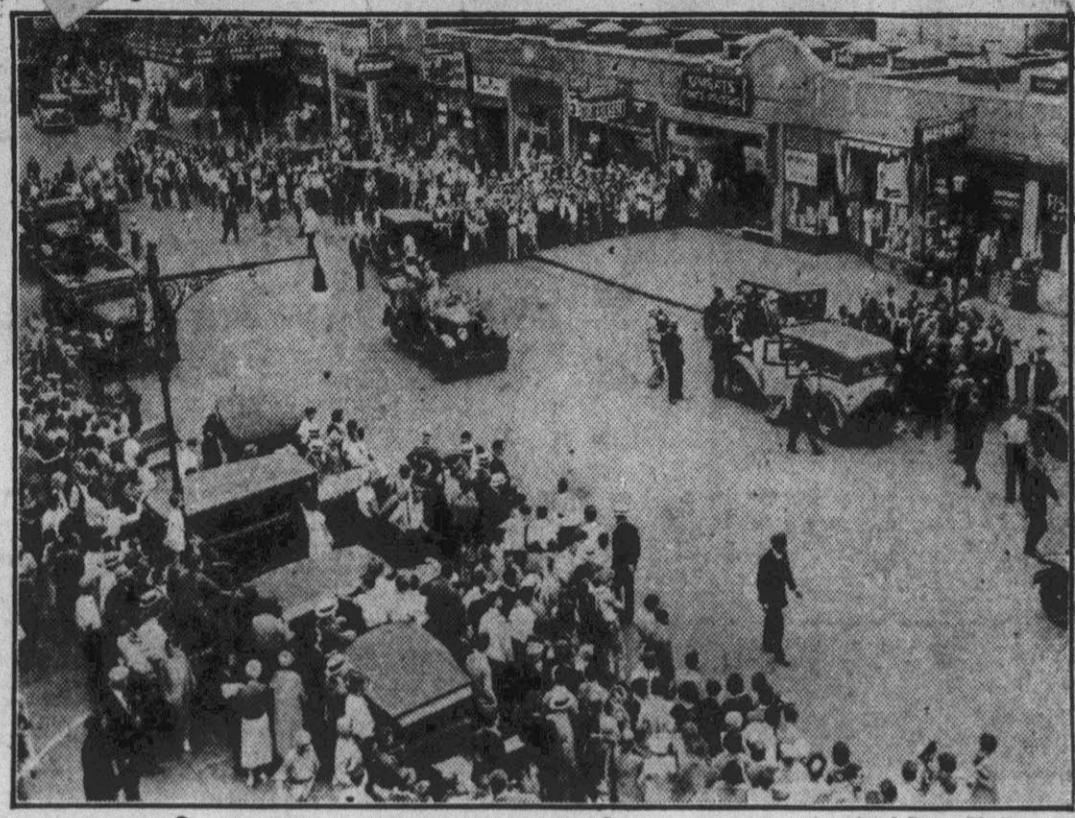

Asheville, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Judge M. V. Barnhill began charging the jury in Col. Luke Lea's trial with three others on a charge of defrauding the Central Bank and Trust Company here of $1,300,000 at 10:30 A. M. today.

Judge Barnhill spent considerable time in beginning his charge in giving legal definitions, explaining to the jury that any agreement by two or more persons to commit an unlawful act or to commit a lawful act in an unlawful manner is a conspiracy.

The judge also outlined in general the evidence bearing on each count in the bill of indictment.

The amount alleged to have been misapplied was reduced by Judge Barnhill from $1,389,000 to $1,136,000. He ruled the evidence was insufficient to show Lea got the benefit of a $200,000 loan to the Union Trust Company, Nashville; $20,000 to Clarence Saunders; $10,000 to the Kentucky Rock Asphalt Company, and $23,000 to Stewart Kritsky. Col. Lea had guaranteed payment of the loans.

BANDIT CHASE ENDED AFTER 5 WERE KILLED

Five persons were killed and 10 wounded in a payroll holdup followed by a wild battle between police and fugitive gunmen through miles of uptown New York streets. Two bandits and driver of taxi used by them and two patrolmen were killed. This picture shows the taxi just after the chase ended.

No Garden, Or No Job, Ford Tells Employees

Iron Mountain, Mich., Aug. 24.—(AP)—An edict that family men employed by the Ford Motor Company will either have to go in for gardening or give up their jobs has been issued by Henry Ford, Detroit automobile manufacturer. He announced yesterday that his "No garden, no job" plans would be put into effect next year as a means of alleviating temporary business depression, and expressed the belief that if he proved successful other companies throughout the country would take similar steps.

"When the people of our country learn to help themselves they will be benefited far greater than they would be by unemployment insurance as is being suggested in Congress," he said.

E. L. HILLMAN SPEAKER HERE

Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, delivered the sermon at Eighth Street Church of Christ last night in the fourth of the series of union services being conducted among city churches during the summer months.

The fifth service of the series will be held in Memorial Baptist church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Ryan, pastor of the Eighth Street Christian church, will deliver the sermon. The series will be concluded with services at St. Paul's Episcopal church the following Sunday with the sermon being delivered by Rev. W. A. Lillycrop, rector.

Last night Mr. Hillman spoke on the subject, "Keeping Faith's Greatest Securities." He used as his text the fourteenth verse of the first chapter of Second Timothy: "Keep the great securities of your faith, intact, by aid of the Holy Spirit that dwells within you."

The speaker said the second letter to Timothy teaches five things: the beautiful traditions of Timothy, his family life; the sublime character of the gospel; the teaching of St. Paul himself; the example of courageous devotion of Onesiphorus; and the sure hope of salvation in Christ.

Among the securities of faith stressed by the minister were those of Christian experience, the spirit of power, the spirit of discipline, and the spirit of love.

The service was attended by a fairly large number of worshippers from the various churches, and congregational singing was very inspirational. A special solo number, "Jerusalem," was rendered by Mrs. Harper-Holliday, of Leaksville, Rev. W. A. Ryan was in charge of the service.

MacDonald Asked By King To Organize Temporary Non-Party Government

TO CONSIDER BUDGET FIRST

Stanley Baldwin Agrees to Participate in New Cabinet And to Serve Under MacDonald.

London, Aug. 24.—(AP)—J. Ramsay MacDonald's labor government resigned today in the face of the national financial crisis and Mr. MacDonald was asked by the king to form a temporary national non-party government whose first duty will be to balance the budget.

It will include conservatives and Liberals. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, and Liberals who have taken over active management of their party during the illness of David Lloyd George agreed at Buckingham Palace in the presence of the king to participate in a cabinet in which Mr. Baldwin will serve under Mr. MacDonald.

This arrangement has its precedent in the Coalition government of 1916, formed to create national unity in waging the war.

The new cabinet also has a war of sorts on its hands. Its campaign will be to restore great Britain's threatened credit in the world of international finance.

Balancing the budget will be the one task of the national government and it is not expected to last more than a few months during which economy bills will be rushed through the House of Commons.

There probably will be a special session on Parliament, and after the nation's finances are straightened out there will doubtless be a general election and the political situation will be clarified.

Mr. MacDonald's government came into office on June 9, 1929. (Continued on page two)

PITT SOLDIERS RETURN HOME

Local Military Unit Wins Two Loving Cups at Fort Bragg Encampment.

Members of the local unit of the 113th Field Artillery captured two silver loving cups for their prowess in the ring while in encampment at Fort Bragg, it was revealed here today by Captain J. C. Lanier.

The unit returned from Fort Bragg yesterday morning after spending two weeks in annual encampment. The men were in splendid condition. Captain Lanier stated and passed through the entire training period without anything more serious than skinned heels, a complaint registered by numbers of the thousand men of the regiment from different sections of the state.

Although rain interfered considerably with the athletic program, the Pitt county guardsmen succeeded in walking away with two of the three championship boxing matches.

Private James Johnson captured the middleweight championship and Corporal Bud Bullock won the lightweight title. Each was presented a silver loving cup, both of which will be put on display in Greenville in the near future.

There were only three championship bouts staged, and the local artillerymen are proud of the fact that their battlers were able to return home with two scalps dangling from their belts.

High army officers visited the camp and expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the showing made by the thousand men representing units from all sections of the state. The visitors included Major-General Peyton, and Generals McCosky and Metz.

Captain Lanier said the camp was one of the best he ever attended. He said he was highly gratified at the splendid way his men departed themselves, and declare they made an excellent team. (Continued on page two)

WICKERSHAM BODY DEFENDS ALIENS IN U. S.

Commission Pushes Forward Report of Police Discrimination of Foreign Born

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Absolving the foreign born of blame for the volume of crime in this country, the Wickersham commission made clear today it could not say the same for the native born children of foreigners.

With this statement the commission severed its last official connection with the capital. It was learned that even the tiny temporary offices it had supported, after lack of funds caused the closing of the former elaborate headquarters, July 1, had closed their doors late last week.

The report upon "Crime and the foreign born" was the commission's fourteenth and last, save for a statement of its finances by Chairman Wickersham, addressed to President Hoover.

In it the members attacked what was termed a popular belief that aliens were responsible for more crime than any other class. Discussing the cause of this belief, however, the commission said it could not present either positive proof or denial as to the responsibility of the children of foreign parents.

All 11 members signed a statement that they were able "definitely to say that any such impression as to the foreign born is as variances with the facts."

Reports by half a dozen specialists under "crime and the foreign born" supervised by Dean Edith Abbott of the University of Chicago's graduate school of social service administration, maintained that despite prejudice against the alien this class actually committed less crime than the native-born proportion to their number.

"It is easy," Dean Abbott said in summary, "to shift the responsibility for what is wrong by changing it upon the nationals of other countries. It is easier, for example, to charge our crime record against immigrants than against an inefficient and corrupt system of police and an outworn system of criminal justice."

A study of the Mexicans in California by Professor Paul F. Taylor of the University of California found that in some sections where crime among this class is especially that of resident citizens, police prejudiced acted to increase crime "quite independently of criminality."

Miss Alda C. Bowler, research assistant at the University of Chicago, reported that among 488 foreign-born criminals in Illinois penitentiaries tales of "police brutality" were frequent. Although discounting many of these reports as a customary method of securing sympathy, she said:

"Justice is certainly in serious straits in a city where the intelligence of its detectives does not rise superior to the use of the rubber hose as a favorite means of solving crime."

Miss Bowler's statistical study found that among Chicago's 39 "public enemies" at least 19 were natives of the United States although born of foreign parents, while eight were born abroad.

Death And Starvation Claim Hankow District

Hankow, China, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A panorama of death, madness, disease and starvation spread before the Associated Press correspondent today in cruising about the watery streets of Hankow at a speed of one mile an hour. That pace was the fastest that could be maintained through the assorted thousands of craft drifting above the inundated city.

Hundreds of additional houses lapse soon whether the flood waters subsided or not. Apparently the water was all that was holding them up. They were either crumbling or leaning in all directions.

On the roofs of these houses thousands of Hankowites still were. (Continued on page two)

NEW CLASHES OCCUR IN CUBA

Government Pushes Troops into Oriente In Effort to Avoid Surprise Attack.

Havana, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Fresh outbreaks in the eastern provinces of Cuba last night caused the government today to hurry additional troops into Oriente in the belief that rebels concentrated at a number of strategic points might attempt a surprise maneuver.

Three insurgents were killed and a number wounded and taken prisoners when one of the rebel groups was surprised.

A considerable number of arms, a quantity of ammunition and other war material was seized. Three bombs exploded here but the damage was slight.

The government had issued a statement declaring its confidence in an immediate and successful termination of the uprising a few hours before the skirmishing was resumed. President Machado, back from Santa Clara Saturday, was to confer with army heads in Oriente by telephone today.

The president had previously declared the revolt ended and proclaimed a tendency toward leniency in treatment of prisoners including General Mario G. Menocal, former president and Col. Carlos Mendite.

Last night's encounter took place at the Canasi ranch near Caney. Lieut. Acosta in command of a small detachment of troops surprised a group of 20 rebels and opened fire upon them. Three fell dead and several were wounded.

One hundred and twenty-three hand grenades were seized along with a number of rifles, pistols and ammunition. Several other clashes in Oriente were unofficially reported but army headquarters would confirm only that at Caney.

Upon learning of the outbreak, the president decided to make a personal tour of Havana in an effort to determine conditions and accompanied by several army officials left the palace.

CITY PREPARES FOR SHOPPERS

Half-Holiday Season Over, Merchants Will Remain Open Wednesday Afternoons

The last of the half Wednesday holidays observed by Greenville stores and business houses during the summer months was enjoyed last week, and all buildings will be open Wednesday afternoon of this week to take care of the enormous volume of business enjoyed by the merchants during this season of the year.

The half holiday plan was adopted the first of the summer and since that time practically all stores and places of business have been closing each Wednesday afternoon to give their employees a chance to recover from the strain.

Over 15 Million Pounds Leaf Sold In Ga. Last Week

Atlanta, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Tobacco growers of Georgia received $2,768,511 last week for 15,622,887 pounds of tobacco sold at an average price of 6.39 cents a pound, it was shown today in a compilation by Marcus McWhorter, chief statistician for the State Department of Agriculture.

The figures for the fourth week of the current selling season compare with $1,620,417.15 in the corresponding week last year, paid for 23,712,474 pounds at an average of 6.83 cents a pound.

To date, McWhorter said, 48,982,954 pounds of Georgia tobacco have been sold for $3,442,920.31, an average of 6.94 cents.

Tifton's three markets reported last week's biggest sales, 2,515,000 pounds, but Nashville, where only 1,084,946 pounds were sold, had the highest average price, 7.10 cents.

Douglas with 3,489,000 pounds had the biggest sale of the current selling sale of 1930 and 1931, with 2,396,528 pounds had the highest average price, 7.88.

ABOUT TOWN

Governor Long doesn't paint a very rosy picture of the cotton situation in the south.

He predicts that the entire region will go bankrupt in three weeks unless cotton goes to 20 cents. Whether he knows what he is talking about remains to be seen.

Nobody will deny the fact that improved prices are needed, and needed badly, but even the most sanguine is not anticipating such a rapid transformation, although it would be very welcome.

County school systems are going to have hard sledding under the new school bill, in the opinion of R. G. Fitzgerald, director of Pitt county schools.

Speaking before Kiwanians last week the school head asserted that county schools would suffer far more than city schools by reason of the fact that when they exhausted their appropriations they would have no source to tap other than fines, license and dog taxes.

Now that the Equalization Board has made known allotments to the various schools of the state, the cities and counties that have been holding up their budgets will be able to complete them.

The city of Greenville has been one of those affected, but should be able to put finishing touches on its budget probably during the week.

The funds from the state provide for six months' support and the towns and counties desiring extended sessions will be forced to raise the remainder of the fund.

Not many of the counties received as much money as they asked for and the schools will be forced to operate more economically than ever before with the probability that they will run short of money before the term closes.

The new school law will test the ability of all school heads in solution of their problems and those who make the grade will show they are really in the wizard class.

NO GARDEN, OR NO JOB, FORD TELLS EMPLOYEES

(Continued from page one) gress," Ford said. "If our agricultural plans are adopted throughout the country such a thing as the Dole system need never be thought of."

Family men who have no available space for gardening, Ford said, would be supplied with land by the company, which would provide expert advice for those not familiar with garden work. He added that an investigation would be started soon to determine which of his employees needed instruction.

"Next year every man with a family who is employed at the plant will be required to have a garden of sufficient size to supply his family with at least a part of his winter's vegetables or he will find himself without a job," Ford said.

Ford made his announcement following a tour of inspection. He said he had given considerable study to the problem and had come to the conclusion that there was no use trying to help men who did not try to help themselves by raising foodstuffs.

DEATH AND STARVATION CLAIM HANKOW DISTRICT

(Continued from page one) clings, reconciled to the prospect that they soon would join the procession of corpses floating down toward the sea along with countless carcasses of animals caught in the flood. Those still clinging to unstable buildings had watched hundreds of their fellow townspeople plunge to certain death with the collapse of their dwellings.

A few had fashioned nets for fishing in the dirty flood water. Whole families acclaimed the capture of a single minnow, which meant food.

Efforts of the military to clear the roofs were only partially successful. A few vendors cruised about in sampans, but the majority of the roof sitters lacked even one copper with which to buy. It soon became dangerous for the vendors because hunger began to madden the sufferers.

Despite the colossal difficulties, the police worked heroically cruising the streets in boats and attempting to maintain a semblance of order. They had a big job trying to pound some traffic sense into the 3,000 boatmen, many of whom have entered the city for the first time in their lives.

Most of these boatmen had lived on the river since childhood. Stern measures also became necessary when 30,000 Jintrikisha men, their vehicles useless or gone, threatened to rush the more prosperous sections of the city and seize food.

Officers mounted machine guns on several small junks and manned each with a gunner and a squad of riflemen with fixed bayonets. If the machine guns ever are used, the death toll will be heavy because the surface of the water is thick with refugees.

Some of these cling to tubs, boards, barrels, baskets or anything else that will support them. In the shallower waters hundreds of beggars stand neck deep in the flood with small children, perched on their shoulders.

The correspondent saw scores of aged men and women wading about in water up to their necks in search of supposedly better refuges they had heard about. These aged persons had lacked strength to fight for places aboard the few, refugee ferries operated by the authorities.

There was consternation on the deck of the liner when the mishap first occurred. The secretary of the treasury had posed for two pictures and was posing for a third when the accident happened. The cameraman pressed the button of his flash gun and there was a report like a pistol shot. Mellon jumped back and then clasped his left hand over his right.

His secretary, Coast Guard officials and Henry C. Stuart, deputy collector of the port who went down the bay to meet the secretary of the treasury, sprang forward to his assistance. It was found that glass had cut the skin for about an inch and a half.

Secretary Mellon declined to talk about his trip abroad.

FIRST AID AND LIFE-SAVING FOR FRIENDLY INDIANS

Beginning Tuesday morning at 10 a. m. the Friendly Indians will take a life-saving course each morning at 10 o'clock.

All Friendly Indians that can swim the length of the pool may enroll. Special credit will be given to boys passing the final test.

All boys unable to attend Friendly Indian meetings on Friday nights will be grouped into one tribe and meet on Saturday morning. This tribe will be called the Blackfoot.

Boys in the 4th and 5th grades will be in the Cherokee tribe, and boys in the 6th grade will be in the Mohawk tribe. Both these tribes meet on Friday night, in the Junior Room of the Sheppard Memorial Library.

HI-Y GIRLS' WEEENIE ROAST TUESDAY

The Hi-Y Girls will go hiking Tuesday, leaving the Junior Room of Sheppard Memorial Library at 4:30 p. m., taking with them weenies and rolls. The place has been selected and a log fire will be in readiness on the arrival of the girls. After a program and weenie roast, the girls will ride back home. Don't bring bathing suits.

Girls who have decided to join the Friendly Indian girls may join this party, but be sure to give your name to Miss Lil Wilson or Albert B. Osborne.

LABOR GOVERNMENT RESIGNS IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Continued from page one) and for nearly two and one half years struggled with national and world problems whose gravity was increased by the general economic depression.

The present crisis developed two weeks ago with the report by the government economy committee calling attention to the urgent necessity of balancing the budget in the face of a threatened deficit of $600,000,000.

For two weeks the cabinet has been in emergency session debating measures which would wipe off that deficit, but opposition to measures which it evolved culminated in Mr. MacDonald's resignation.

The trades union congress, backbone of the labor movement, interposed objections and there developed a split in the cabinet.

In the new government, which probably will not hold office beyond next January 1, the ministers of the retiring cabinet who supported the prime minister probably will have portfolios.

Those who opposed him may fight the program of the national government in Parliament, but from present indications they are not likely to have much chance of success.

Mr. MacDonald's plan is to form a small national cabinet of 12 or 14 ministers instead of the usual 20.

The retiring cabinet had 21 members. The smaller group will be more speedy for quick action.

Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer, also seemed certain to retain, and there will probably be half a dozen others as a labor bloc in the emergency cabinet.

At least nine members of the retiring cabinet were resolutely opposed to some of the economy measures, and these probably will have no place in the national government.

Mr. MacDonald was scheduled to visit the king again this afternoon and his Majesty was also to receive leaders of the opposition.

With the first tang of the fall season in the air, however, the merchants today began turning their attention to the placement of shipments of fall and winter goods from northern style centers, and will be open for the convenience of their hundreds of customers each Wednesday afternoon during the remainder of the fall and winter.

Buyers, representing virtually all of the large business establishments, have already returned from the nation's style centers where they bought liberally of creations for men, women and children. The showing of fall goods has been in progress for sometime, but owing to the long and excessively hot summer, trade did not begin to hit its stride until the advent of cool weather the latter part of last week.

With winter just around the corner, virtually all business houses were today placing their newest shipments in readiness for the influx of shoppers, which is expected to take place from now on.

The opening of the tobacco market September 1 always brings thousands of people to the city to get the first news concerning the price situation, and every store will be ready to take care of the throngs of visitors who will visit the business district to see what the city has to offer in the way of creations from the great style centers.

Merchants have described the showing this year as one of the most brilliant in years, and the first contingent of shoppers will find display windows attractively portraying some of the leading values.

Greenville serves a trade territory covering many miles in every direction and when the shoppers come here to do their fall and winter buying they will be accorded the usual hearty welcome at every store.

The first week will be given over to the hearing of civil cases and the second to criminal.

TWO FIRES IN CITY OVER THE WEEK-END

The fire department was called out twice Saturday night and early this morning to extinguish a burning automobile and a negro house. The loss was estimated at in the neighborhood of $400. An automobile belonging to Ed Langley caught fire at the corner of Second and Evans streets early Saturday evening but was quickly extinguished. The home of Josh Dupree, colored, in the colored graded school district, was damaged to the extent of $300 early this morning. The family was away from home and the flames had gained considerable headway when the alarm was sent in. Two rooms of the single-story structure were badly damaged before the firemen brought the blaze under control. The origin was undetermined.

BOOKS FOR INTERNATIONAL MIND ALCOVE

Five new books for the International Mind Alcove were received recently. "Cross Roads in Ireland-Colum" is beautifully written, full of information, both intimate and appealing. It is the work of a poet, an artist and a lover of Ireland. "Conflict-Forbes" is a brilliant picture of an 8,000-mile journey through Southeastern Asia. "Building the World Society-McMullen" is interesting reading and may be used for study.

New Russia's Primer-M. Ilin—was prepared by a Russian for use in the school in Russian by children from 12 to 14 years of age and girls in clear, simple language the story of the Five Year Plan of which we read so much in the newspapers. Those who read Humanly Uprooted will certainly want to read New Russia's Primer.

Believe Skeletons to be Remains of Missing Persons

Forest City, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Forest City officers today were working on a theory that a skeleton unearthed here Saturday might be the remains of one of two missing persons.

The skeleton, with the cranium missing, was disinterred by ditch diggers. Officers are making efforts to connect it with Worth Early, Forest City youth, who disappeared more than two years ago, or with Willie Bridges, a man who disappeared about a year before Early. No traces of either were ever uncovered.

Truck Driver Dies in Wreck

Fayetteville, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Robert Usery, 22, meat truck driver, was dead today and William Holmes in jail as the result of an automobile accident near here yesterday. Both men were intoxicated, officers said, when their automobile left the road and overturned, breaking Usery's neck.

FARM NOTES

(By E. F. Arnold, County Agent)
The first of the fall shipments of hogs was made Tuesday of last week when eighty hogs sold for $1128.64 were shipped to Richmond. These hogs were purchased by Causey & Thompson and consigned to Kingan and Company, Richmond.

Farmers in Pitt County have on feed at the present time between three and four hundred head of hogs for September shipment. The installation of scales at the stock pens on the A. C. L. tracks will be completed this week and will aid greatly to the convenience of handling and shipping hogs. Pitt County has one of the largest and best corn crops in the history of the county and there is no better way for farmers to utilize this surplus corn than to feed same to hogs.

This spring nine farmers fed out and kept accurate cost records on 268 head of hogs. The total feed cost and value of hogs at time feeding was started amounted to $3661.28. These 268 hogs sold for $154.52, leaving a profit to growers of $493.24, or an average profit of $1.65 per car. When we take into consideration that hogs sold for less money last spring than any time in the past twenty years, you can realize that feeding of hogs taken over an average of years with better prices than at the present time will prove to be a profitable undertaking for farmers in this section. The total profit obtained from the sale of hogs is not the only gain to be made by engaging in the hog feeding business. These farmers had the cash from the sale of these hogs from which to purchase supplies for making other crops and if farmers who depend on securing credit for these supplies would plan now to have money from the sale of hogs next spring, they would not only make a profit on the hogs as these folks have done, but would also save carrying charges made on supplies for farming, which are rather heavy in this section.

RED MEN HAVING SUCCESSFUL MEETINGS

While the inclemency of the weather had a tendency to keep the attendance down at the meeting last Friday night, nevertheless, about one hundred tried and true Red Men in and around Greenville braved the elements and made the trail to the wigwam of Withlacoochee Tribe No. 35 the beauty of life is the enjoyment one received from a fraternal order whose mission is the embodiment of Freedom, Friendship and Charity, and especially is this true of this grand and noble American order when happy hearts gather under the auspices of the Improved Order of Red Men and hear the mingling of happy voices; the worry and care is banished. This is exemplified at each council meeting.

The meeting was presided over by past and present sagemen J. B. Hardee, who was supported by Clarence Vincent, great prophet of this city; R. F. Butler, great Sr. Sagamore of Washington and great chief of records W. Ben Goodwin of Elizabeth City, who had made the long trail to arouse members of the tribe to activity toward securing new members for the big class adoption to be held with this tribe on the night of Sept. 15, under the leadership of R. F. Butler, Great Sr. Sagamore, who makes a promise that this class will be as Barnum would say "Bigger and better than ever." During this campaign for members the citizens of Greenville and Pitt county are extended a hearty welcome to join this fraternity. Full information will be cheerfully given by any Red Man.

THIRTEEN-MAN JURY HEARS TRIAL OF LEA

North Carolina's first 13-man jury was picked to hear evidence in the trial of Luke Lea, Nashville, Tenn., publisher and three other defendants, who are charged with conspiracy to defraud the Central Bank and Trust Company of Asheville, of $1,300,000. The 13th juror hears the evidence but does not vote unless one of the original 12 becomes incapacitated.

LINDBERGH'S AT NEMURO

American Flier and Wife Given Rousing Welcome to Japanese City Today.

Nemuro, Japan, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh finally reached Nemuro today after having spent five days and made four forced landings in negotiating the 897 miles from Petropavlovsk, Kamchatka, via the foggy Kurile Island route.

The fliers were hurried ashore in a launch, escorted by city officials. They raised their hands in acknowledgement of the tremendous ovation. Mrs. Lindbergh bowed and smiled as hundreds of school children waved Japanese and American flags and chanted a welcome.

The colonel smiled and said: "We are a bit late."

Hurried to their hotel for a moment's rest, the Lindberghs were soon forced to come to their balcony and acknowledge the tribute of immense throngs that gathered in the adjacent streets. Again the colonel spoke.

"We are glad to be in Nemuro," he said. "Thank you; thank you." The Lindberghs then withdrew to their rooms where hot baths had been prepared in the vat-like Japanese tubs.

Just before landing, the Lindberghs radioed a message to the people of Nemuro saying: "We have been deeply impressed with the sympathy and assistance of the Japanese people," they said. "Especially the citizens of Nemuro, since our departure from Petropavlovsk. We wish to express our hearty thanks from the air."

Colonel Lindbergh said the worst experiences of the much interrupted flight from Petropavlovsk were the perplexing fog they encountered while trying to land here Sunday, forcing them back to Anoro Bay, and the transfer of the plane from Ketoi Islands, in the central Kuriles, to Muroton Bay, at the end of a tow line attached to a Japanese government steamer.

The transfer effected in choppy seas, required several hours. The monoplane showed the effects of the buffeting it received while it lay off Ketoi Island and during the tow to Muroton Bay. A metal bar connecting the pontoons was badly bent and was reinforced temporarily with a two-inch piece of wood, wired into the connection.

When the couple will take off for the Kasumigaura naval base near Tokyo, the official finish of their flight was not immediately learned. However, they probably will leave early Tuesday.

The 613-mile flight from here to Kasumigaura is expected to require not more than seven hours.

OFFER REWARD FOR BOMBERS

Publishers of Mansfield Papers Make Effort to Find Men Who Bombed Plant.

Mansfield, Ohio, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Rewards of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who bombed the Mansfield Journal last week and attempted to burn the Mansfield News last night were offered today by the Brush-Moore, Inc., publishers of the News.

The concern offered $5,000 for the arrest and conviction of the vandals who tossed a gunpowder bomb into the News building Sunday night, and another $5,000 in the case of the Journal. The Journal building was damaged by a bomb thrown into a basement from an apassing automobile.

Previously the Journal had offered a $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the bomb throwers. While the Journal editorially expressed belief that the bomb was the answer of the underworld to its policy of upholding the law and advocating war on crime, the News said "The Journal consistently and commendably has opposed the crime element but not so forcefully as to attract crime's reprisal in this manner. There is no more reason for an attack on the Mansfield Journal than on any one of hundreds of daily newspapers throughout the country. Newspapers everywhere are opposing crime."

It was recalled today that the bombings brought to four within two years, attempts to damage Mansfield publishers and newspapers. Some time ago the home of R. C. Hoiles, former publisher of the News, was bombed, and later some dynamite was found wired to his automobile while it was parked at a country club. The explosive was discovered before it was ignited.

TWO DIE IN AUTO WRECK

Five Others Seriously Hurt in Accident in Hamlet Community Sunday.

Hamlet, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Two dead and five others seriously hurt was the toll counted by this community today from two Sunday automobile wrecks.

Harvey Reynolds of Laurinburg, was killed about 6 o'clock when his roadster left the highway near here after a front wheel collapsed. Two and a half hours later, Walter McRae of Hamlet, lost his life in the overturning of another roadster, resulting from the car striking the soft shoulder of the highway.

Three of Reynolds' companions and two who were with McRae were brought to the Hamlet hospital. First reports indicated that all five would probably die, but early today it was said at the hospital that all had shown improvement, and their recovery was regarded as possible.

Those injured in the first accident were Miss Alene Hudson of Laurinburg, Miss Mary Louise Woodard of Laurel Hill, and Billy Merrett of Laurinburg.

In the second accident, Luther McRae, a brother of the man killed, and "Sonny" Grady, Hamlet negro were injured. The accident in which they figured occurred three miles north of Hamlet on Highway No. 204.

The accident that brought death to Reynolds occurred six miles east of here on Route 20.

Reynolds was about 21 years old, and McRae was about 30.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Cotton opened firm today, 18 to 29 points lower in response to higher Liverpool cables and active covering which may have been promoted by the talk of acreage reduction or other relief measures in the south.

Wall street and local interests were credited with buying in considerable volume at the opening and prices sold up to 7.35 for December and 7.64 for March on the early demand or about 25 to 29 points net higher on the active positions. The more urgent demand was supplied by realizing together with some southern and Liverpool selling but prices were holding within 3 or 4 points of the best at the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said the market there had been influenced by continental buying and covering on the political situation and reported a fair inquiry for cotton cloth.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A wave of liquidation swept over the grain markets today after a comparatively steady opening and all deliveries of all grains with the exception of March wheat sank to the season's lowest level.

Corn sold at the lowest price since 1906; wheat since 1852 and oats since August, 1897. Wheat showed rather stubborn resistance to pressure and at the extreme low was only 33-8 cents a bushel below last week's highest price.

The resignation of the British cabinet had only a transient effect on the market here. September corn sold under 40 cent.

Wheat closed weak 5-8 to 11-4 lower; corn 3-8 to 11-8 off; oats 1-8 to 3-4 down and provisions 8 to 20 lower.

STOCK MARKET

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER (Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The budget crisis in England provided a somewhat unsettled background for the start of the New York in the financial markets.

The necessity of a drastic housecleaning in British governmental finances had been apparent since the publication of the report of the government economy committee headed by Sir George May early in the month, and despite the adverse psychological effects of the fall of the labor cabinet, high banking quarters in Wall Street circles were inclined to view optimistically the prospect of formation of a coalition government to deal with the situation.

Stocks continued the decline of last week, quietly and without acceleration. The foreign division of the bond market was somewhat depressed. Foreign exchanges were quiet and orderly. Rails were again the conspicuous soft spot in the share market, both New York Central and Pennsylvania, sagging more than a point to new lows for the decade.

American Telephone broke 3 points, then recovered partially. Miscellaneous issues off a point or two included U. S. Steel, American Can, Woolworth, Safeway, North American American Tobacco B, Standard Oil of California, and Eastman.

Many observers attach highest importance to the restoration of financial equilibrium to Europe, holding it an essential of general economic recovery. The Harvard Economic Service said today, "If financial unquietness continues in Europe, real business recovery here may be prevented and the present depression may be prolonged into a double depression resembling in many respects that of 1893-96. Business conditions in the United States will in the immediate future be influenced largely by European developments."

HORNETS WILL TACKLE PATS

Charlotte, Aug. 24.—(AP)—With 100 working days already written into the records, the Piedmont League today turned into its final stretch of 18 playing dates before the 1931 season is officially ended September 12.

Then will remain the play-off between the Charlotte Hornets, leads of the big parade since early season, and the winner of the runner-up position, most likely the Raleigh Caps, after which all the signs point to an end of professional baseball activity in this section until another year.

The Hornets today were prepared for an invasion by the Asheville Tourists, who find themselves now on the bottom run of the first division ladder.

The second two days of the week will bring the league leaders into conflict with Durham in the Bulls' lot. Durham opens the week as head of the second division, but holding an uncomfortably slim margin over the Henderson Gamecocks. Charlotte closes this week with a series against the Winston-Salem Twins, now in seventh place.

Raleigh's Caps, who have monopolized second place for many weeks open this week's schedule at Henderson, go home then for two days to entertain the bottom-place High Point aggregation, and finish the week with a series against their closest rivals, the Greensboro Patriots.

Today and tomorrow Greensboro will be at Durham, and Wednesday and Thursday will see the Pats invading the mountain fastness of the Asheville Tourists.

Asheville, in addition to Charlotte and Greensboro, is booked for a series with High Point, the last two days of the week.

Winston-Salem and High Point cross bats today and tomorrow; the Twins then entertain Henderson, and wind up the week in Charlotte.

Durham's diamond foes in order will be Greensboro, Charlotte and Henderson.

High Point's schedule calls for games with Winston-Salem, Raleigh and Asheville.

Chain Store Official Held up And Robbed

Greensboro, Aug. 24.—(AP)—C. H. Baucorn, local chain store official, was held up and robbed shortly after noon today by an unmasked robber who escaped in his victim's automobile.

The robbery occurred on West Market street about a mile from town. "Several hundred dollars" was estimated loss, pending a check-up.

Baucorn, engaged in collecting week-end cash receipts from stores of the chain, had visited approximately half a dozen stores and deposited his collections in a satchel.

As he placed the bag in his automobile parked in front of the West Market street store, the robber, wearing a cap and about 35 years old, pointed a pistol at Baucorn and ordered him away from the car.

... what you believe

NOWADAYS you read and hear every kind of thing about cigarettes. But when you try to square some of it with your own common-sense and experience, a lot of it just doesn't "square"!

What smokers want to know about a cigarette is "How good is it?"

And when it comes to that, cigarettes are just as good and just as pure as the materials from which they're made. In making Chesterfield, we use only riper, milder, sweeter-tasting tobaccos—the best that money can buy—and pure cigarette paper—the purest that can be made. Our chemists rigidly test for cleanliness and purity all materials used in the manufacture of Chesterfield. In our factories even the air is washed, and changed every 4½ minutes.

Everything that goes into Chesterfield is the best that money can buy or that science knows about.

"Good... they've got to be good," we say about CHESTERFIELD—and we mean it! And that's something you can square with everything you've ever read, or heard—or know—about this good cigarette!

OH JUST A SLIGHT ACCIDENT
WERE YOU FEEDING PEANUTS TO THE BEARS?
NO! I GOT A SLIGHT STUCK IN MY HAND
THAT'S ALL, BILLY.
WELL - I GUESS IT'S PRETTY HARD TO POOL A FISH-HOOK!
