WORK BEGINS AT COLLEGE

President Wright Addresses Freshmen at First Group Meeting of Session

Regular work at East Carolina Teachers College started today with a full registration of students, the number so far being 875. A considerable additional number of students are yet to register.

Don't be afraid to say "I don't know." The honor of saying "I don't know" is found not only among college students but a large number of people in the world. That is what you are here for—to learn. Ignorance the world over has done more damage to the human family than war, famine, and pestilence combined.

Lonsome Job

GOVERNMENT DEFICIT IS ON INCREASE

Growing Burden of Expenditures Brings Nation's Shortage to $380,495,854

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A growing burden of expenditures and a lessening tug on the income traces has mired the treasury into a deficit of $380,495,854 for the first quarter of the present fiscal year.

A year ago the treasury finished the first quarter on Sept. 30 with a surplus of $55,148,670, but at the end of the year it was $903,000,000 in the red.

In the three months starting last July 1, the treasury collected from all sources $588,175,732 and spent $968,671,586. For the same period last year $832,674,001 was collected.

Income taxes for this quarter showed a sharp decline with only $13,837,120 being collected as compared with $554,386,119 last year.

Miscellaneous taxes also dropped approximately $13,000,000 with a total of $143,099,841. Customs receipts however, increased with $108,219,949 collected this year as compared to $94,943,429 last year.

The increase in customs receipts was not accepted by officials as indicative of any general upward trend in that class of revenue because July, August and September of last year produced the smallest amount of customs receipts in more than a decade.

In July and August customs receipts were greater than a year ago but in September they amounted to only $35,500,210 as compared with $36,653,033 last year.

On the expenditure side, the government put out approximately $191,000,000 more than in the first quarter of last year, with a total of $1,000,000,000.

Sir Thomas was well known in this country for his activities in yacht races with American owners over a period of many years.

CLOSE PROBE OF COLLINGS

Inquest Concluded at Huntington With Drowning Still Unsolved Mystery

Huntington, N. Y., Oct. 2.—(AP)—After hearing brief testimony about the autopsy, the coroner's inquest into the strange murder of Benjamin P. Collings of Stamford, was closed today with the mystery of his death still unsolved.

Coroner William B. Gibson formally ended the inquest with this statement:

"I find that Benjamin P. Collings met his death on the morning of Sept. 10, 1931 in the waters of Long Island Sound as a result of injuries inflicted by person or persons unknown and that the direct cause of death was drowning."

The only witness at the inquest today was Dr. Vincent McAuliffe who assisted in performing the autopsy on Collings' body.

Just before he inquest was terminated Dr. McAuliffe testified that a man who had suffered the head injuries inflicted on Collings would be unable to speak in an ordinary tone and would almost immediately lose consciousness.

After the inquest District Attorney Blue told the reporters that today's session of the inquest showed a "very important contradiction" between the expert opinion of Dr. McAuliffe and the many-times repeated story of Mrs. Collings.

He recalled that Mrs. Collings said that after she heard a crash of glass, generally believed to have been caused by the assailant striking Collings over the head with a milk bottle, she heard him say in an ordinary conversational tone, "They are putting me overboard."

This, Blue said, was directly opposed to McAuliffe's testimony. If Mrs. Collings' story on this point were to be accepted, he said, it must be deduced that Collings was thrown into the water first and then beaten over the head. Dr. McAuliffe, however, had been positive in his statement that the blows were inflicted before Collings was thrown into the sound.

Report Breeding Different Kind of T. B. Bacillus

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Breeding of a different and almost non-virulent type of tuberculosis bacillus from deadly human tuberculosis germs is announced today from the Rockefeller Institute for medical research.

Medical authorities regard the discovery as possessing exceptional possibilities. It is made public in Science, official organ of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. The report is signed by Franklin R. Miller of the institute.

The existence of this organism in tuberculosis has been known, says the report, but until recently no "pure cultures" of the bacillus have been obtained. It is distinguished from the ordinary human tuberculosis germ by being "non-acid-fast."

The distinction is that the two kinds respond quite differently to acids used in staining.

Ordinary human tuberculosis bacilli stain red. The new ones stain yellow, and later turn to orange.

Dr. Miller states that he and his associates believe this yellow organism is a mutant. That means it is a tuberculosis germ which somehow has managed to change its hereditary characters.

Guinea pigs were inoculated in amounts that ordinarily would produce tuberculosis. Two of the pigs showed no effects. Three developed signs of tuberculosis.

The amount of tuberculosis each animal had, the report states, "was much less than would be expected following a much smaller dose of our parent strain of H-37 human tubercle bacilli."

Science has been looking for a mild tuberculosis germ, to experiment with in possible vaccination.

N. O. WARREN IS ELECTED TO CITY COUNCIL

L. B. Tucker Named By Aldermen To Succeed Preston Pierce as Policeman

N. O. Warren, well-known Greenville business man, is the new alderman from the Second Ward.

He was elected by the Board of Aldermen in regular monthly meeting at the city hall last night to succeed W. L. Patrick, who resigned about a month ago to become assistant city clerk and tax collector.

Mr. Warren and C. W. Shuff were placed in nomination but the former won out by a vote of 4 to 3, and was then given an unanimous vote by the board.

Mr. Warren was nominated by A. Hassell and Mr. Shuff by J. E. Hobgood.

The board considered several other matters during a fairly lengthy session, principal among them being the filling of a vacancy on the police force and setting of the date for the advertising of delinquent taxes.

L. B. Tucker was named to succeed Preston Pierce, who resigned from the police department to become assistant county tax collector.

It was decided to advertise delinquent taxes next Wednesday and the clerk was instructed to begin immediate preparations with this end in view.

After listening to a lengthy appeal for assistance from a representative of the Salvation Army, the board decided to appropriate

LINDBERGH'S ARE RESCUED

Flier and Wife Pulled From Water When Plane Capsizes At Hankow, China

Hankow, China, Oct. 2.—The monoplane of Col. and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh capsized here today, throwing the famous fliers into the water but they were rescued quickly by men from the British aircraft carrier Hermes.

The upset occurred while Lindbergh was turning the plane about on the surface of the river preparatory to a takeoff on another volunteer flood survey flight. The body and a wing of the plane was damaged.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh had just climbed into the plane and had been lowered from the deck of the Hermes preparatory to making a survey flight, with Dr. King of the China famine commission, as a passenger.

One wing struck the water as the plane turned about, capsizing the craft and throwing the Lindberghs and Dr. King into the river.

The Hermes lowered a lifeboat and pulled the trio out of the water in short order. The plane then was picked up and lifted to the deck of the Hermes.

The accident temporarily ended the survey flights, which have been in progress since Lindbergh arrived in China from Japan several days ago. The plane probably will be taken to Shanghai for repairs.

It was expected that the fliers would depart from Shanghai on the Hermes Sunday with the damaged craft.

The planes from the Hermes, which were circling above when the accident occurred, later made a survey up the river.

Mrs. Collings Must Identify Men in Florida

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Before another day dawns, Mrs. Benjamin Collings will have a chance to say definitely whether the two men being held at Daytona Beach, Fla., had anything to do with the murder of her husband.

With her lawyer, William A. Kelly, her sister-in-law, Miss Helen Collings; Fred Gunder, assistant district attorney of Suffolk county, Mrs. Collings left last night for Daytona Beach. She is due to arrive there late tonight.

Before deciding to make the journey, Mrs. Collings studied photographs of the two men—Dr. Leslie D. Ritchie, 51, and his son, William, 23.

She said after looking at telephoto pictures, she could not be sure, but that she doubted if the Ritchies were the men who boarded her husband's cruiser the night of Sept. 9, killed him and then abducted her.

President Hoover Reported to Be Planning New Offensive Against Hard Times

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A new effort to pierce the walls of depression is under consideration at the White House.

President Hoover is devoting most of his time to its study. Although its nature is being withheld for the present, a high authority stands responsible for the statement that the chief executive has before him details of a fresh offensive against economic conditions.

With five of his lieutenants who keep closest tabs on these conditions, Mr. Hoover spent many of his office hours yesterday peering intently into various angles of the problem.

An hour before callers customarily arrive at the White House, Under-Secretary Mills of the Treasury, one of the chief advisers of the administration, was closeted with the President. For half an hour they conferred, and as he emerged Mills initiated the policy of silence which hung over the day's conference. He smilingly declined to talk.

Mills was followed by Governor Meyer of the Federal Reserve Board; Secretaries Lamont and Stimson of the Commerce and State Departments; and J. C. Roper, director of the budget.

While these conferences went forward, the views of the administration were voiced elsewhere upon a phase of the economic situation which has recently worked itself to the forefront. In high quarters it was said the government looked with disfavor upon proposals for bi-metalism and felt there was no occasion for tampering with the gold standard.

SHUTOUT A.S. BY SCORE 2-0

Sportsmans Park, St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Wild Bill Hallahan, frail looking southpaw who shut out the world's champion Philadelphia Athletics in the 1930 world series, whitt-washed them 2 to 0 today in the second game to put the St. Louis Cardinals back in the thick of the fight for the 1931 championship.

The game developed into a brilliant pitching duel between Hallahan, and Big George Earnshaw, right hand ace of the champions.

HOPE TO AID UNEMPLOYED

U. S. Chamber of Commerce Joins Fight to Improve Situation

Washington, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The world of finance and trade stepped forward today in the battle against unemployment, writing its own ticket for prevention of big layoffs in the future.

A 20,000 word report on continuity of employment, embodying plans for a strategy board at the helm of business, big and little, was placed for approval before the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The report is the product of six months of close study by a special committee comprising a score of leading industrialists, headed by Henry I. Harriman, of Boston, chairman of the board of the New England Power Association.

This committee, principally concerned with averting recurrence of present distress, would have a planing board to advise producers how to keep both production and payrolls nearly level through times of expansion and of curtailment in consumption.

Ocean Fliers Hope to Get Off Saturday

Samushiro, Japan, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Hendon, American fliers, hope to take off here early tomorrow on their projected trans-Pacific flight to the United States.

Preparing for the flight, they smeared the wings of their plane today with a substance resembling molasses to prevent the formation of ice in case they encounter sleep.

Pangborn and Hendon are after the $25,000 prize offered by a Japanese newspaper for the first non-stop trans-Pacific airplane flight.

This being the time of the year for the election of officers, the following slate was presented and accepted: President, Mrs. Milton White; vice-president, Mrs. K. T. Putrell; secretary, Mrs. J. B. Mallison; treasurer, Mrs. Wiley Brown. After the dispatching of other business matters, the meeting was turned over to the hostesses.

Mrs. Wiley Brown gave two very humorous readings which created much fun and laughter. The Misses Fullilove then sang three beautiful selections, "Mother Machree," "Memories," and "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain." They were accompanied by Miss Ona Shindler. It is always an inspiration to have these musicians present.

Twenty-five members answered the roll call and we were glad to welcome Mrs. J. F. Dall as a new member.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The first fall meeting of the Woman's Club was held yesterday afternoon in the club building.

After reading the inspiring collect of the club women of America the president greeted the club members and in a short address urged that this year be one of activity and progress so that much will be accomplished.

The chairmen of various departments gave a brief outline of the work as planned for the year. The members of the Literature Department will devote their time to a study of poetry and biography. The Garden Department will have the first meeting with the Junior Club on October 23, at which time Miss Isabel Busbee, the noted landscape artist, will be the guest speaker. The Citizenship Department is planning to have Mr. A. D. Frank give an address on some particular phase of present day politics at the first meeting. All these hints by the chairmen of the departments will surely serve to arouse interest in the work as planned for the year.

Members were reminded that the district meeting this year will be held in Washington on Oct. 13 and each member of the club is asked to arrange to spend that day in attendance at the meeting.

The president then announced that following Mrs. Hobgood's wish that special emphasis be put upon the duties and privileges of the American home this year the program for the afternoon would be given by Miss Lella Higgs, chairman of the American Home Department of the local club.

Miss Higgs in her usual charming and gracious manner, gave an informal address on "Decoration of the Home," limiting her remarks to interesting and suitable treatment of walls and draperies. Beginning with the urge of the caveman for relief from a plain wall, she traced the development of wall decoration through the first primitive drawings to our present day arrangements, showing how each nation has contributed in design or color. Miss Higgs emphasized the fact that walls are the keynote of decoration in any room. Carrying out this idea many beautiful color combinations of wall paper and accompanying draperies were displayed.—Reported.

Read a Good Book a Week.

Since the reading club work closed, no special effort has been made to encourage the reading of library books by young people. But school work should be well organized by now and the season for summer sports has closed; so on Friday and Saturday of each week some of the best books for young folks will be placed on the display rack. The top shelf will show books for high school students, several new ones have been received this week. On the lower shelf grammar grade children will find the best books for them. The little folks are perfectly familiar with the easy book shelf. They know where it is and their books will not be moved. Read at least one good book each week. One book a week means 52 books for the year.

Local Legion Strong for New National Head

"Enthusiasm is running high among local Legionnaires over the great honor which has come to North Carolina due to the recent election of Henry L. Stevens, Jr., of Warsaw, N. C., as National Commander of the American Legion," stated J. S. Elliott, commander of the Pitt county post No. 39 of the American Legion this morning.

"Henry Stevens is well and favorably known by all the members of this post, and all the fellows feel that in choosing Henry Stevens as National Commander, the national organization has also signally honored the entire Legion in North Carolina.

"There seems to be a spontaneous desire on the part of all members of our local post to properly express their profound appreciation and that of this Post to the Legionnaires of the nation for their having elected a North Carolinian to the greatest office possible in the American Legion, that of National Commander—the greatest honor in the Legion.

"It has been suggested by local Legionnaires that the best way for us to express our appreciation to the Legionnaires of the nation and as the same time show our friend and National Commander Henry L. Stevens that our local Post is right behind him strong and right with him to a man, is for all of us to renew our membership in the Legion for 1932 before the Legion's new fiscal year actually begins—between now and October 9.

"On October 9, in Charlotte there is going to be the greatest Legion celebration ever held in North Carolina—North Carolina's official Legion Home-Coming in honor of North Carolina's own National Commander, the friend and comrade of every member of this Post, Henry L. Stevens, Jr. Our Post will be well represented at that celebration and I am hoping and believing that every 1931 member of our Legion Post will renew his membership for next year between now and October 9th, so that we can then and there present our complete membership for 1932 to National Commander Stevens at Charlotte on October 9, and thus show the world what a real Post we have here in Pitt County. We know Henry Stevens and know that no one will be more grateful to us for this effort and accomplishment than Henry Stevens. The splendid manner in which the fellows are all going down the line in this spontaneous campaign leads me to believe and feel almost sure that we are going to that great celebration in Charlotte on October 9th—it's going to be bigger than any State Convention—with at least one hundred per cent of our membership enrolled for next year, and thus show our National Commander and also show the world that this post is right on the job and appreciates the fact that Henry Stevens has been elected as National Commander of the American Legion."

since July 1 of $968,671,586.

The general expenditures of the government, which includes the cost of operating its business totaled $739,761,485 as compared with $557,877,294 in the same period of last year.

The postal deficiency which amounted to $2,004,582 in the first quarter of last year went up to $45,000,000 this year.

The Farm Board which spent only $22,894,464 in the first quarter a year ago spent $76,326,096 this year.

The chief contributing factor to the deficit, however, was a drop of $231,000,000 in income tax receipts for the quarter.

These payments due on September 15 totalled only $387,257,654 as compared with $418,520,395. The drop was slightly greater than the treasury had estimated.

JOBLESS MEN STAGE RIOT

Rebellion Against Dole System in London Led By Member of Parliament

London, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Bitter rioting by unemployed in Glasgow was led by a member of Parliament last night. There were demonstrations against dole reductions in Bristol and London.

John McGovern, Labor M. P., who engaged in a brawl in the House of Commons several weeks ago, was arrested on charges of forming a mob in Glasgow and he and a number of his followers spent the night in jail.

Some 50,000 persons assembled on the Glasgow green last night in defiance of orders by police that they could not hold a meeting. McGovern and his lieutenants refused to disperse the gathering and the mounted officers rode into their midst. The manifestants were driven back inch by inch and exchanged blows for blows.

Hatchets, hammers, iron bars, loaded sticks, chair legs and broken bottles were brought into play against batons as the mob slowly forced their way through to McGovern's side and attempted to move him and his four bodyguards. The men resisted and a sharp struggle ensued in which they got the worst of it. Three policemen required hospital treatment but the number of rioters hurt could not be determined.

Some time later a second outbreak occurred in the Garnock section while most of the police force was patrolling the central part of the city. Organized bands of looters raided many food shops and stole an unknown quantity of goods. The men resisted and a sharp struggle ensued in which they got the worst of it. Three policemen required hospital treatment but the number of rioters hurt could not be determined.

representative told of the difficulty which the workers were having in meeting the demands of the unemployed of the community and said it would be impossible for them to effectively handle the situation without aid from the city.

At invitation of the aldermen, he explained operation of the army, stating that only ten percent of local subscriptions went to state headquarters, the remainder being spent in providing for local operation.

J. C. Lanier, city attorney, appeared before the board and explained work in connection with litigation and the collection of old paving accounts. He told of a $7,000 damage suit brought against the city by several negroes injured when they ran through a barricade on Tar River at the end of Pitt street, saying that the action had been non-suited in Superior court, but might be carried to a higher court. The matter was referred to the mayor.

Mr. Lanier reported the difficulty which he was having in the collection of some of the old paving accounts and was instructed by the board to file suit against those who declined to pay.

The clerk was instructed to notify the Catholic church that only that part of the Skinner property used for church purposes would be exempt from taxation. Revenue-bearing property of the estate will be subject to taxation as other property.

Lebron Spence, local florist, appeared before the aldermen and asked protection against indiscriminate selling of flowers by people without privilege license. He said it was unfair for florists to pay the tax and others to carry on the same industry without also being taxed. He was assured that proper attention would be given the situation.

The board voted down a request from Louis Curry that he be permitted to open a pool and billiard parlor on Dickinson avenue.

Two requests came before the board to permit physically handicapped persons to operate places of business free from taxation. The requests were refused on the ground that if this practice was started the board would be eternally troubled by similar requests. The aldermen agreed they would rather donate toward the purchase of licenses for such parties than to subject the city to such loss of revenue.

Mrs. E. Edwards, who moved to this city from the western section of the State, appealed to the board for financial assistance. The request was presented through the mayor, but was referred to the Salvation Army.

H. H. Duncan informed the aldermen of the Armistice Day celebration to be staged here by the American Legion November 11, and asked that the city make a contribution to the cause. It was voted to donate $25, half the amount contributed last year.

Mayor Flanagan explained that McDaniel Lewis, bond expert, employed by the city at a previous meeting, to make arrangements for the disposition of a $20,000 issue of refunding bonds, had been instructed to proceed with sale of the bonds.

The matter of providing a parking ordinance to enable the mayor and chief of police to more completely cope with the situation was referred to committee for final action.

Missed His Chance.
Oklahoma City—There are folks who never heard of Young Stribling, the box-fighter, but Governor Murray is not among them. After waiting an hour to pay his respects to the governor, Stribling, whom the office staff could not identify, departed. When the governor heard of it, he sent a messenger after the fighter, but Stribling had left town.

ABOUT TOWN

The cotton delegation from eastern Carolina went to Raleigh yesterday to ask Governor Gardner to call a special session of the Legislature to consider the cotton and tobacco situation.
 Although the chief executive was unable to say definitely what he would do in the matter, he assured them that some action might be expected in the near future.
 Governor Gardner has been unable to determine what is the best step to take to bring about a restoration of King Cotton in view of the fact that the majority of other cotton producing states are still "on the fence." However, with the question of the most mooted of the nation it is not to be doubted that some concerted movement looking to an improvement will take place in the near future.
 This section is not only interested in the cotton phase, but also desires some thought looking to the protection of the tobacco crop in case curtailment of cotton acreage is decided upon. It would not do to attempt to restore one crop to normalcy and jeopardize another at the same time. If cotton is reduced, something must be done to protect tobacco and nobody realizes the fact more keenly than those who are familiar with the glutted condition of the world leaf market.

The fall session of the East Carolina Teachers college opened this week and hundreds of young women got down to the serious business of getting an education.
 Greenville people always look forward to the opening of the college with interest. The young women contribute their part to the social life and zest of the general community.
 Then, also, they spend a considerable amount of money here each year, and this plays its part in the general upbuilding of the community. The college is a vital force in the education of young women for the teaching profession, and thousands have gone out in past years and taken their places in the broad field of endeavor.
 The college is ranked as one of the best in the south and it is expected to increase in prestige and importance as the students go out into the educational field and tell of the excellent advantages offered by the institution.
 Greenville and Pitt county people are proud of the college and always extend a cordial welcome to the young women who come here to spend long months, and even several years, in acquiring training for the profession they have chosen for their life's work.
 Despite the fact that the unprecedented economic situation confronting the nation at this time is the subject of conversation in all communities, leaders of public thought see in recent changes some thing to cause them to look forward hopefully to the future.
 They profess to believe that the worst of the depression has already been realized and that the next few years will witness a return of some of the prosperity which X-ray experts so confidently assured was just around the corner over a year ago.

 While it has taken a long time to reach the turning point, it will be well worth the suspense when we finally are able to say we are there. The improvement which is bound to come with the bend in the road will bring joy to hearts which have been burdened with more than they felt they were able to carry, and men and women whose faces have been lined with care and worry will break into smiles of happiness and elation as the burden is relieved and they are able to again see their heads above the water.
 The world series got underway at St. Louis yesterday and from now on until the final game has been played the public will hear nothing but baseball.
 This is always one of the outstanding developments of the year in the realm of sports, and thousands of men and women in all parts of the nation will be in a frenzy until the final score has been chalked up.
 The Athletics, who carry considerable odds among the betting element, opened the series in Missouri confident of repeating the feat of last year when they returned to the Quaker City with the world's championship.
 The Cardinals, on the other hand, believe they have the kind of stuff necessary to walk away with honors this season and the public is assured of one of the most brilliant battles in history of the diamond.
 Whatever the outcome, the public will be ready to acclaim the champions and acknowledge their supremacy of the baseball world until some other team comes along and snatches the honor from their grasp.
 The Reflector will furnish complete reports on the games each day and extends a cordial invitation to its readers to gather around the Third street entrance and take part in the matinee made possible through our special leased wire news service.

NEGRESS BADLY CUT IN FIGHT ON STREET WEDNESDAY EVENING
 Victoria Brooks, colored, was in the local hospital today suffering from injuries which she sustained in a fight with another negress named Nettie Jenkins in the western section of the city Wednesday night.
 Police said injury had existed between the two women for several months. They met on Albermarle avenue during the early evening, a fight ensued. When the dust of battle had cleared away, Martha Brooks was discovered to have been dangerously cut about the head and side. Physicians at first held out little hope for her recovery, but her condition showed a pronounced improvement following removal to the hospital and she is expected to live.
 Nettie Jenkins was released under bond pending preliminary hearing which will be held as soon as the other woman is able to attend court.

SELL TOBACCO IN GREENVILLE — "THE BEST MARKET IN THE STATE" — WITH FORBES & MORTON
 Forbes & Morton are leading the Greenville market by a large margin in pounds and price. There is a reason for this and it is that every pile of tobacco is watched closely and they are not afraid to hold the price up where they think it ought to be, no matter who it belongs to. All their customers know this. They are telling their friends and Forbes & Morton are gaining new friends every day. Our Thursday's and Friday's sales were the best of the season. Of course, tobacco is low, but the customers of Forbes & Morton were pleasantly surprised, all getting more than they expected. With the common tips getting scarcer you are going to see a much better feeling among the sellers of tobacco. Forbes & Morton has four first sales next week. Every day except Wednesday. Sell with them on one of these sales and you will make the best sale of the season.

THREE MAJOR TEAMS PLAY ON SATURDAY

Charlotte, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Four Southern Conference teams, the S. I. A. A. champions and this section's outstanding unattached club help furnish the opposition for North Carolina football teams this week-end.

Lenor Rhyne starts the ball rolling by tackling Presbyterian College of South Carolina, the S. I. A. A. champs, in Hickory tonight. The Mountain Bears are taking on a power house with a remarkable record, considering the size of the Clinton school. The Blue Stockings lost only one game last year, to Clemson, and held that club to a scoreless tie last week to gain revenge and the well-known "meal" victory.

Three of the major teams will play within the state tomorrow. Duke meeting Virginia Military Institute at Durham; N. C. State taking on Florida at Raleigh, and Wake Forest clashing with Furman at Gastonia.

North Carolina will go up against Vanderbilt, one of the Southern Conference's highly-touted teams, at Nashville, and Davidson will engage Washington and Lee at Lexington.

One of the Big Five teams, Duke and N. C. State appear to have the best chances to win, although North Carolina's potential power should count heavily in the Tar Heel's favor despite the reported strength of the Commodores.

If Wake Forest had revealed any strength at all against North Carolina last week, the Demon Deacons could be able to claim equal consideration with Furman but the Purple Hurricane from Greenville, S. C., has an exceptionally strong team this season, which is nothing unusual for Furman.

Davidson, handicapped by a lack of reserves, will run into a strong General team, one that has been rejuvenated by Jimmy DeHart, the former Duke coach. The Wildcats left for Lexington by bus today.

The Tar Heels will stop over in Chattanooga today and take a final workout there before tackling Vandy. This is a hard game to "dope out" as North Carolina's easy victory over Wake Forest left followers wondering just why it happened.

The Demon Deacons should have a good club and if the Tar Heels are as good as they looked against the Wake Forest inusks, Vanderbilt will not travel as far towards a conference championship as has been predicted.

The High Point - Appalachian game at Boone will be the only contest of the week between North State Conference teams. The Appalachian club has a victory over Lenor Rhyne to its credit. It will be the first conference game for High Point.

Catawba plays Atlantic University at Salisbury to complete the list of games within the state. Elon goes up against George Washington at Washington, D. C., and Guilford travels to Petersburg, Va., to meet Randolph-Macon.

Rookie Stars for Athletics

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—(AP)—He does not aspire to heroics, but Dibrill Williams, 21-year-old recruit shortstop of the world champion Athletics, is well on his way today to becoming one of the heroes of the 1931 world series.

Except for the fates of baseball which have just about eliminated Joe Boley from the championship series with the Cardinals, Williams would not be in a spot to make or break the Athletics' defense. But, being dropped into the spot has made no difference to the youngster who regards even contest in the world championship series as just another game of baseball.

Boley, thoroughly realizing Williams is taking over his job, perhaps permanently, has worked tirelessly to teach the youngster all he knows, and must have been happy at the latter's performance yesterday.

Young Dib, whose most noticeable characteristics are a huge chew of tobacco, and an almost phlegmatic calmness, is the youngest player of the big series, but he is taking it as matter-of-factly as though he was as seasoned as his instructor.

Williams arm has not been regarded as too dependable, there having been a tendency to throw one away once in a while. But yesterday he came up with a performance that surprised many—the many, however, not including Williams.

"Yeah," he said last night. "I've thrown away quite a few, but I have worked to become an accurate thrower, and I'm not worried about throwing any away in this series. If you are going to throw wild, you just throw wild, but after yesterday I know I don't have to worry."

Gather for Hi-Y

Raleigh, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Delegates from Hi-Y organizations throughout North Carolina were gathering here today for the annual state-wide congress which opens tonight.

More than 100 were expected to attend, among the speakers on the program are Governor Gardner, Rev. C. McNeill, of Raleigh, Jacob Jacobian, of Egypt, and K. K. Thomas, of India.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 4 to 6 points lower under a continuation of southern selling which appeared to be combined with some selling for Liverpool and Continental account. This was probably influenced by reports of continued good weather in the south, but the early offerings were absorbed by trade buying. After the first hour, prices turned downward, mainly in sympathy with points, and declined slowly point by point until in the early afternoon, December had dropped to 5.73 and January to 5.83, 14 points down from the early highs and 11 to 12 points under yesterday's close.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Reported urgent need of rain over wide areas in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas did much to strengthen bullish sentiment today regarding wheat. The moisture is required to permit completion of winter wheat seeding, and to bring about good germination. There is also a dry area in the Pacific northwest where rain would be very beneficial. The movement of spring wheat both domestic and Canadian was reported as materially less than last year.

Wheat closed unsettled a shade to 1-8 to 1-4 higher; corn 3-8 to 5-8 down; oats 1-4 to 3-8 off and provisions unchanged to 12 cents up.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The stock market found it lacked the strength for a sustained return today, but it experienced no further convulsions of heavy selling.

A better tone in the bond market particularly in the U. S. Government issues, was regarded as a sign that distress liquidation had been completed, and there was considerable talk in brokerage circles of good buying in the share market on scale down. A brisk first-hour return of 1 to 5 points, however, attracted no following, and was soon lost.

Soft spots dropped out here and there. Losses of about 2 to 3 points appeared in Union Carbide, Eastman, Coca Cola and Allied Chemical. Rails sagged after midday, several issues losing a point or so. U. S. Steel sold up 13-4 in the early trading, but this advance was later replaced by a moderate loss. American Telephone pushed up 21-2, only to fall back about 4 from the top. American Tobacco B rose 5, and fell back 6. Trading was most active on the advance, however, and dwindled considerably as the list slid back.

On the whole, speculative sentiment in Wall street brightened considerably with the lifting of heavy selling pressure.

The weekly mercantile reviews provided a little encouragement. Bradstreet's report that retail buying had been stimulated by cooler weather, low prices and large advertising expenditures.

The short term money market remained plentifully supplied today, with outside offerings of call money at 11-4 per cent.

Some observers regarded the announcement of the plan of merging the Bank of America with the National City Bank, the first large consolidation of Wall street banks

McGOWAN & CANNON MARKET REPORT

We sold Tuesday, September 29, 75,000 pounds of tobacco and averaged around 12 Cents Per Pound for our entire sale. We sold several lots as high as 36 cts. Per Pound. We are looking for good tobacco to be better next week. Tobaccos of cigarette types were stronger on our floor today. We had new customers today from 13 counties, and they actually left our house drumming for us.
